

Out of Prison 171

Chapter 171 Dilemma

What?

Danny was startled and thought he had heard wrongly.

Couldn't arrest this man?

Why?

Leones beat Danny so hard. Even if Danny didn't know Darius and called the police according to the normal procedure, the police wouldn't let this go easily.

What was more. Danny and Darius were quite close. They had similar backgrounds and their fathers were about the same level. It was easy for Darius to catch Leones for Danny.

"Darius! Look at the injury on my head. That damn bastard hit it with a bottle!"

Danny thought that Darius hadn't figured out the situation yet, so he patiently explained everything in detail.

"Quick! I will let my people destroy him first. Then let your people arrest him and put him in prison."

However, Danny's wishful thinking failed again.

Darius repeated that Danny couldn't be caught twice. And he sounded more determined the second time.

Danny was completely shocked. And then, he felt angry. "Why?"

“He beat me like this. Why can’t you catch him?”

“Which fucking side are you on?”

Darius took a deep breath and said shockingly, “Because... He is my master!” What?

As soon as these words came out, there was an uproar in the bar.

Everyone looked at Darius with shocked eyes. They were shocked like when Leones dared to hit Danny’s head with a beer bottle.

Everyone thought, “Yes, Darius is crazy. Is Mr. Timon

The two were similar in age.

crazy too?”

However, their backgrounds were totally different Leones was low, but Darius was noble.

Leones was just released from prison. How could he be Darius’ master?

This was simply a fantasy!

It was so ridiculous that no one here was willing to believe Darius’s words. “Ma... Master?”

“Are you fucking kidding me?”

Danny was anxious and angry.

How could Darius still joke with him at this critical moment? Did Darius want to embarrass him in public?

“Are you drunk?”

Darius shook his head, indicating that he was not drunk.

Then he turned around and came to Leones’ side.

He said respectfully and ashamedly, “I’m sorry, Master, I’m late.”

Darius invited Leones over to relax in his new bar and get close to his new master.

Unexpectedly, such kinds of things happened.

This made Darius feel very headache. The situation was really hard to deal with.

“Um.” Leones remained calm as usual. He wasn’t angry with Darius. It was nothing big. “You stay aside for now.

“This is between me and him. It has nothing to do with

“This...” Darius was a little embarrassed.

One side was his new master.

you.”

The other side was his friend who grew up together with him.

Darius didn’t want to offend either side. But he couldn’t stay away from this.

“Master, can you let this matter go for now...” Darius pleaded with difficulty.

He was well aware of Leones’s terrifying strength. If Leones really launched an attack, the bodyguards by Danny’s side were no match for him at all.

In the end, it was Danny who suffered the loss.

But at the same time, Darius knew more about the power and terror of the Clare family.

No matter whether Danny was injured or hurt today, his family wouldn’t let everything go easily. In that case, the Clare family and Leones would fight. And both sides would suffer a loss. Darius felt that it would be better if the two sides could make friends with each other. No fighting! The two were talking like this.

Leones sat down by the table while Darius stood aside upright.

And Darius continuously called Leones “Master”.

Sure, Darius acted like Leones’ master. He was educating his disciple.

Everyone around was shocked.

They thought, “Is there really something wrong with Mr. Timon’s brain? Does he really regard that damn guy as his master?”

“Darius!

“Do you have anything wrong with your brain?

“Do you really regard that guy as your master?”

Danny was dumbfounded and couldn't believe it.

The scene in front of him was simply the greatest joke in the world!

“Danny!”

Darius turned around, looked at Danny again, and said seriously, “Mr. Bloom is really my new master.”

“Let this for go my sake, okay? I will also beg my master and let him spare you.”

When Danny heard this, he immediately laughed angrily.

“Let this go? Damn it. He hit me! He hit me in the head with bottles! How can I let this go?”

“And... What did you just say? Let him spare me? Haha. Did I hear you correctly?”

“I won't let him go! He has no right whether to spare me or not.

“Don't you think that you can fight with me just because Darius is your disciple?

“I will also beat you if I get angry.”

The more Danny spoke, the angrier he became. He gritted his teeth.

Anyway, Danny had known Darius for years. In this case, Danny wouldn't fall out with Darius. If it were someone else, Danny had long ordered his people to hit Darius and Leones together.

"Darius, get out of my way!

"It's okay if you refuse to call your people over.

"I'll let my people kill that guy first!"

Anyway, even without the help of the Sherland Government, Danny still had many ways to deal

Leones.

Now that Darius was here, how could Danny retreat easily?

"Danny, let me say it again. This person is my master!

"As long as I'm here, you can't do anything to him!"

The atmosphere in the bar became a little tense for a while.

Darius and Danny were originally on the same side. But now, they fell out because of Leones.

"Darius, I'm warning you one last time! Get out of my way!"

Danny gritted his teeth and roared.

“I’ll say it one last time. You can’t do anything to this person!”

Darius remained firm and calm.

“You...” Danny was almost going crazy, “We have been friends with each other for years. And today, you go against me because of him?”

“Sorry, Danny.” Darius shook his head, “I did this for your own good.”

Danny suddenly jumped up out of rage.

He was beaten. Darius forbade him from fighting back. Also, Darius said that it was for his own good?

That was ridiculous.

“Oh shit!

“Darius, you forced me to do this!”

“Okay. Since you want to stop me, I’ll beat you too!”

With that said, Danny no longer cared about the friendship between him and Darius.

Immediately, he ordered his bodyguards to continue attacking.

“Let me see who dares to move!”

However, Darius just stood there still.

The bodyguards and thugs were also very afraid.

Darius was also from a powerful family. They didn't dare to hit Darius at all.

If they dared to hit Darius, they might end up like Leones.

"You!" Seeing that Darius insisted on going against him, Danny wanted to attack on his own.

But he was no match for Darius and Leones at all.

"Danny, calm down!"

"Why don't we just let it go like this first?"

"Anyway, Ms. Wellington will come later!"

"It won't be too late to come and settle accounts with them at that time!"

What? Ms. Wellington?

When Darius heard this, his expression changed drastically.

Chapter 172 The Alpha Woman

When Darius heard the words "alpha woman", his expression suddenly changed.

This title was the most terrifying existence in their circle.

Rich playboys like them had been fearless since they were young. No one except their elders could manage them.

But there was always one thing to conquer another. A little devil in their circle dominated them. and made them willing to recognize her as the boss in this circle.

And this boss was a girl who had been their alpha woman since she was a child.

“The alpha woman is back?” Darius asked nervously

“That’s right! I just arrived in Sherland!” Danny sneered, “The reason why I came here today was to welcome her!”

“Who do you think the alpha woman will believe when she sees me like this?”

Hearing this, Darius changed his expression again.

Apart from her capacity, the most important reason why the alpha woman could become the boss in their circle was that she valued loyalty.

If any of her friends were bullied, she would fight back for her friend without thinking twice.

Over time, everyone was attracted by the alpha woman and became loyal to her.

“Hmph! Darius, although I don’t know what you’re crazy about today, I believe the alpha woman will stand by my side!” Danny said confidently, “I’m dying to see if you can be so confident when the alpha woman comes later!”

Hearing this, Darius remained silent.

He even started to back down in his heart.

He was well aware of this alpha woman's temperament and capability. He couldn't explain clearly in a few words the matter of apprenticeship.

When the time came, he was afraid that a severe beating was necessary.

At this time, everyone around them heard this conversation and started to discuss who the alpha woman mentioned by Danny was.

"What alpha woman? Why have I never heard of it?"

"Maybe it's the boss in their circle?"

"How could people like them be willing to recognize a woman as their boss? Then this alpha woman's identity and background are probably very excellent!"

The origins of Darius and Danny were already terrifying for others.

Then, the "alpha woman" in their mouths was beyond imagination.

Just when the two were at a stalemate, Danny decided to retreat and give up temporarily.

Outside the bar, there was another loud noise.

"Where's the boss here? Help me clear the place! I'll take the place tonight!"

"I want to drink with my brothers without being disturbed!"

The owner of the bar greeted her and responded respectfully, "Yes! Ms. Jones!"

Danny was overjoyed when he heard it, laughing. The alpha woman is here!”

Danny hurriedly went to greet her as if his patron had come.

And Darius’s expression changed drastically, Danny didn’t lie unexpectedly, and the alpha woman really came to Sherland!

Now he was in trouble!

It was conceivable that the alpha woman would suddenly lose her temper under Danny’s instigation!

Even if his master who was very skilled, he may not be able to get any advantage from the alpha woman!

“The alpha woman! You’re here!”

Danny went to greet her with the support of many others.

“You have to help me! I was bullied!”

Hearing this, the woman chuckled. “Danny, the older you get, the more useless you become! How could you be beaten like this when you are so old? Don’t you know how to fight back yourself? Where are your bodyguards?”

“I wanted to fight back,” Danny complained, “But Darius, I don’t know what is wrong with him. today, and he insists on stopping me and not letting me do it!”

What!?

The woman frowned, not expecting that the minion in her circle would be so disloyal, daring to support the others when his fellows got beaten.

“Where’s Darius?” the woman asked again.

“They’re all inside!” Seeing that the alpha woman was angry, Danny was secretly delighted.

“Okay, take me to meet them! I want to see if Darius dares to stop me!”

While speaking, Danny led the crowd and walked back in a mighty manner.

Seeing this, other people avoided bumping into then one after another, especially when they saw the young woman in the lead. They backed away in shock.

“This is the alpha woman?”

“Lord! Isn’t this Ms. Jones!?”

“The daughter of Felix Wellington, war god in Alryne!? No wonder she became the alpha woman in their circle!”

“This is the daughter of the war god! I heard that now she has become her father’s assistant! In the future, she may become the war god in Vericano!”

“Now, Leones is dead! Even Mr. Timon is here. He will be doomed!”

Chapter 173 Debt of Gratitude

Danny, together with the alpha woman and a group of people, went back again as if he was showing off his power.

Seeing this, Darius immediately panicked.

He didn't expect the alpha woman to come so quickly.

Since this happened, Darius had no choice but to go up and greet her.

"Ms. Jones..." Darius said.

The woman nodded slightly and asked, "I heard from Danny that you helped the person who bullied him?"

"..." Darius hesitated, not knowing how to explain

Seeing this, Danny sneered.

He thought it would be better for the alpha woman to question him, and Darius was so scared to speak anything now.

After all, in their circle, no one could compare with the alpha woman. They all knew how powerful the alpha woman was.

Standing in front of the woman, Darius was under extreme pressure.

He never felt this kind of pressure, apart from his own father, not to mention from a peer. "Okay, go away!" The woman waved her hand, signaling Darius to get out of the Darius froze there, not knowing where to go.

"Danny, who hit you?" the woman said, scanning everyone else.

way.

Everyone who met her gaze lowered their heads. That sharp gaze, as sharp as a needle, terrified them.

Danny immediately stepped forward and pointed in Leones' direction. "Ms. Wellington, that's him!"

The woman took a closer look and was suddenly shocked. "Mr. Bloom?"

"How could it be you!?"

Leones was also a little surprised when he saw the woman.

The world was so small that the two of them met again.

That was right. The woman was Lily Wellington, the daughter of Felix Wellington, the war god in Alryne.

She returned to Sherland to get together with her childhood playmates.

But she didn't expect to meet Leones again.

"Yes." Leones smiled. "What a coincidence."

About a few hours ago, when he left Dragon Building, he was dragged by people from Veronica. Fortunately, Lily Wellington came and helped Leones out.

However, Leones was still confused until now.

Because he didn't know Lily Wellington at all and why she helped him.

Seeing that Leones and Lily knew each other and even greeted him as Mr. Bloom, everyone in the bar remained silent.

Dignified people like Darius and Danny had to show respect to Lily Wellington and be ordered by her here and there.

But Leones, an abandoned master in prison and even expelled from the Bloom family after being released, how could he make the daughter of the war god, Lily Wellington, call him respectfully

Mr. Bloom!?

Those who wanted to have a good laugh at Leones and even thought Leones was doomed this time were all dumbfounded.

“What is happening?”

“First, it’s Mr. Timon, and then it’s Ms. Wellington How come he knows so many people?” “Who is that kid? Is he really an abandoned master from the Bloom family?”

Everyone around was confused, discussing about him.

Among them, the most shocked one was, of course, Timothy, who was his half–brother with the same father.

Just now, he was shocked enough to see that Leones knew Darius and had Darius support him. And now, even the daughter of the war god in Alryne knew him?

This shocked Timothy even more.

“How can this be!”

Timothy couldn't believe it and was very jealous.

“This abandoned nobody! How can he know so many important people!”

Timothy already felt very proud of himself for knowing people like Danny.

And the people Leones knew were even more incredible than Danny.

How could Timothy accept all this?

It could be possible that Darius mistook him, but it couldn't be that both Darius and Lily Wellington mistook him.

“Master!?”

Darius, who was on the side, was also dumbfounded.

His master's vast relationship network was utterly beyond his expectations.

Even the alpha woman in their circle had to treat his master with the utmost respect and address him as mister.

It turned out that there was nothing to worry about.

“Master is really awesome!”

Darius then thought. With the master's ability, it was normal for Ms. Wellington to show respect. After all, people in high positions also had to face many problems, such as life and death, health and illness, and his master possessed the ability to bring people back to life!

This alone was enough to attract the attention of the entire Vericano upper class, and they dared not neglect him.

"Ms... Ms. Wellington..."

At this moment, Danny gradually recovered from his shock.

15.50

He initially thought that the arrival of the alpha woman would be able to support him. The result was unexpected. That boy actually knew the alpha woman?

And Danny had never seen such a polite side of the alpha woman?

What the hell was the situation?

Was this a nightmare?

"Danny, you said it was Mr. Bloom who beat you?"

Lily turned her head and looked at Danny.

Just one glance frightened Danny, and his mind instantly went blank.

Although he hadn't figured out yet what the relationship between Leones and Lily was.

But the current situation was already obvious.

The alpha woman, Lily Wellington, would no longer help him.

“Yes...” Danny nodded dully.

“Well.” Lily also nodded. “Since it was Mr. Bloom who beat you, let it be.”

“Danny, do me a favor and let this matter end here

There was another uproar at the scene as soon as these words came out.

Everyone couldn't believe it. Danny's supporter was now favoring the opponent party?

Although he had a hunch, Danny still couldn't accept Lily's words.

“Why... why?” Danny asked with gritted teeth, “He beat me like this. Why should I let him go?”

Although Danny respected Lily Wellington as the alpha woman, he still couldn't let this go.

If this could be tolerated, what could not?

What was more, he was the son of the lofty Deputy Inspector.

He was beaten by the abandoned son of the Bloom family like this. If he just let it go, how could he live in Sherland in the future? “No reason!”

However, Lily replied coldly, “If you insist on a reason, then consider that I have to protect Mr.

Bloom!”

“The Wellington family owes him a favor. As long as I, Lily Wellington, are here, none of you are allowed to do anything to Mr. Bloom!”

A Favor?

People hearing this were puzzled.

They wondered what kind of gratitude debt could make Lily Wellington behave like this.

In fact, not only others were confused. Leones was also unaware of this and felt confused.

So he couldn't help but ask, “Ms. Wellington, do we really know each other? What kind of favor do you owe me? Why don't I remember?”

Wow!

There was another

uproar.

And this time, even Danny got irritated.

He wondered why the alpha woman acted so weirdly to protect this man, who didn't even know her!

Chapter 174 | Challenge the Result

Leones asked everyone else's questions in their hearts.

And after Leones asked like this, everyone felt even more dumbfounded.

Could it really be a case of mistaken identity?

Such a mess!

“I knew it!”

At this time, Timothy was overjoyed when he saw that things began to develop differently.

“He has been in jail for five years. How can he be the debtor to the Wellington family?”

As far as Timothy knew, Leones had never been to Alryne, and he couldn't know anyone from the Wellington family or the war god.

“Turns out it was a mistaken identity!”

“It's ridiculous that my crap brother actually said it stupidly by himself!”

If it were Timothy, he would definitely take this opportunity to show off his prestige.

Timothy sneered in his heart because he knew that Danny would not let Leones go after finding out the truth of the matter!

At this moment, everyone looked at Lily in unison,

They seemed to be waiting for her to make the final identification.

Laughing sound.

Lily laughed dumbly and suddenly realized this problem.

Originally, it was the first time the two met in the Dragon Building.

However, Leones had to leave on urgent matters at that time, and Lily left in a hurry before she could get to know him and thank him.

As a result, Leones was still unaware of this.

He didn't know that the elixir taken for random testing saved Lily's mother's life.

Since then, the Wellington family owed Leones a big favor.

"Even if I made a mistake, Yule won't do it, right?" Lily said to Leones.

Hearing the name of Yule, Leones suddenly realized something and made some guesses.

And in front of so many outsiders, Lily did not say anything outright about her mother's illness or her father's secretly coming to Sherland for medical treatment.

"Okay." Lily waved her hand and signaled to the bar owner. "The issue has been resolved. Clear the place!"

Lily wanted a quiet environment for chatting and didn't want to be disturbed.

"Yes!" The bar owner acted immediately, arranged the staff, and began to persuade the customers to leave. All of the orders were for free.

“That was it!?”

Everyone was still confused when they saw this. However, since Lily ordered them to leave, no one dared to stay any longer.

Before leaving, they still couldn't determine whether Lily and Leones knew each other. What was the relationship between the two? Was Danny beaten without revenge?

“Danny... I...” Timothy stayed aside, still unwilling to give up, wishing that the people here could teach Leones a lesson.

But just now, Danny heard Lily mention Yule again, and he suddenly realized that this inextricably linked relationship was beyond his control.

If it was Yule, the absolute master of the Ministry of Finance, an actual first-class official, his position was even higher than his father's.

Whether it was Yule or Mr. Wellington who had connections with Leones, he could not offend Leones like this.

“Get lost!” Danny shouted angrily and drove Timothy away.

If it weren't for this brat, how could he have caused himself so much trouble for no reason?

When everyone had gone.

Leones, Lily, Darius, Danny and a few other young masters from the circle sat together.

After Lily briefly got to know the conflict between Leones and Danny.

She said impartially, "So, Danny, you listened to the slander, used your power to bully others, and drove Mr. Bloom with no reason? This is your fault"

"Come on, apologize to Mr. Bloom!"

What?

Danny almost exploded with anger when he heard this.

He was the one who started this and took the initiative to provoke the other party.

But he got a severe beating, and his head was severely bruised, so why should he apologize to him?

Danny stared at Leones. Since he couldn't figure out the other party's background, he didn't know whether to give in or be harsh.

"Why, Danny, you are independent enough to show no respect for me?" Lily frowned and scolded. when she saw this.

"Ms. Wellington, it's not that I don't want to respect you. I just..." As Danny said that, he glared at Leones again, "I don't accept it!"

Of course, Danny's pride and self-esteem prevented him from saying that out loud.

"Forget it." Leones stopped him. "I don't need your apology as long as you are willing to do one thing for me."

“Doing something for you?” Danny was still indignant, thinking Leones was asking for too much and starting to boss him around.

“What’s the matter?” Lily asked curiously, thinking she would be happy to help if it wasn’t difficult.

Leones said, “I want you to help me go to the Department of Inspection and find the files on my case back then.”

What!?

Everyone present was shocked by this.

Danny, in particular, was even more shocked and angry, and then he said loudly, “You want me to steal the file? Once this is revealed, I will be killed! Even my father can’t protect me!”

Unlike this requirement, Danny would kneel down and apologize to Leones instead of doing such an illegal thing.

What was more, that was a case five years ago. Where could he find the relevant files?

Even if he could find it, he would never dare to take it out secretly.

“Please spare me.” Danny snorted. “I can’t help you with this kind of thing!”

“What case was it?” Lily asked curiously.

Since she had been with her father in Alryne all year round, she didn’t know what was happening in Sherland.

Darius briefly talked about what happened back then.

“Oh!” Lily vaguely remembered the relevant news and even knew one of the people involved. However, Lily immediately asked in shock, “Mr. Bloom, do you want to overturn the case if you are trying to look for it!?”

“That’s correct!” Leones nodded. “I was wronged! I have to find out what happened back then and rectify my reputation since I am out now!”

Lily nodded with understanding and asked Danny, “Can you ask your father for help?”

“No!” Danny immediately shook his head, indicating that he was helpless. “If you want to overturn the case, just go through the legal formalities. I can’t help you steal the files for you!”

Although Danny was a wealthy young man and usually did not do his job correctly, he knew what he could and could not do.

“Well...” Lily pondered for a while, knowing that this matter involved the Ministry of Justice, the Supreme Ministry of Justice, and the Department of Inspection. It involved so many departments that it was challenging to be overturned easily.

Because once the verdict was reversed, many people would lose their positions or even their lives. Therefore, no one was willing to risk offending others to help overturn the case.

Even Lily’s father would usually not interfere in trivial matters to avoid getting caught up.

“Speaking of that incident back then.” Lily changed the topic with a smile. “I did invite one of the people involved. She should be here soon.”

Before she finished speaking, people heard the bar owner exclaim, “Ms. Quinn, what brought you here? It is unlucky today since our bar is booked out today...”

“I’m here for an appointment!” With that said, Veronica stepped in.

Chapter 175 Do You Dare?

“Veronica?!”

With Veronica’s sudden appearance, Darius, Danny, and others were shocked one after another. “Well, it turns out that Ms. Wellington invited you here. Then please enjoy yourself, Ms. Quinn.” After speaking, the barman left.

Veronica wore casual clothes tonight, but her mysterious Beauty was even more highlighted under the dim lights of the bars.

She was also an excellent woman like Lily, and she had a peerless appearance and a graceful figure at the same time. Her every move could stir up male hormones.

Unfortunately, both were exceptionally tough and independent, and no one dared to take the initiative to provoke them.

Meanwhile, Lois, Veronica’s adjutant, came here with her.

Veronica and Lois were both from civilian backgrounds. It was their first time to come to such a luxurious place with feasting and entertainment, and they were obviously incompatible with everything here.

At the same time, the wealthy guys before were uneducated and idle in their eyes, and they also didn’t bother to associate with them.

“Don’t panic, everyone,” Lily said with a smile, “Veronica was invited by me. Please take a seat.”

Darius and Danny were curious. Why would Ms. Wellington invite an outsider?

Was she trying to reveal the truth of the case related to Leones?

Leones was also surprised. He didn't expect to meet Veronica again here.

He wanted to avoid it, but there was nowhere to hide in the empty scene, and he would be spotted at a glance.

At this time, Veronica and Lois didn't sit down but stood in the distance, keeping a distance from Lily and the others.

The two sides were clearly divided.

Veronica glanced at everyone present and naturally noticed Leones.

"Why is he here? Hasn't Lily realized she has been mistaken for someone else?" Veronica thought and wondered.

However, Leones continued using the fake identity to get into Lily's social circle, which made Veronica despise him more.

What a hopeless case the guy was!

Veronica wanted to expose it on the spot, but she reconsidered that the lie would be exposed one day.

Anyway, Lily would find out the truth soon with her wisdom.

She couldn't get involved in the affairs of their social circle.

“Lily, it’s so late. What did you call me here for?” Veronica took the initiative to show up to see what Lily was really up to.

“It’s nothing serious.” Lily smiled and said idly, “I haven’t seen you in years, and I want to battle with you ”

Battle?!

Hearing the words, Veronica frowned slightly. She didn’t expect Lily to invite her this time for the challenge.

But Darius, Danny and others were surprised and looked forward to it with the words.

One of them was the daughter of the war god in Alyne, who had practiced in the army all year round, and her strength had long been unimaginable.

The other was the adopted daughter of the war god in Zombric, who was cultivated from childhood and commanded the entire Sherland Guardians.

The battle between them must be extremely splendid.

Everyone here did look forward to such a precious battle.

“Do you want to fight with me?” Veronica asked back.

“That’s right!” Lily raised her eyebrows and said provocatively, “Do you dare to accept it?”

“What a boring!” Veronica rejected indifferently, “I am the Commander of the Sherland Guardians now. My duty is to protect Sherland, not to fight with others like a rogue!”

“Don’t make such excuses.” Lily snorted coldly, “Just tell me whether you dare?”.

Lily then added, “Are you afraid to compete with me after being the Commander of Sherland Guardians by a fluke?”

Lily was still bitter about her defeat to Veronica and wanted to win it back every chance she got. With such verbal provocation, Veronica remained calm, while the adjutant Lois next to her couldn’t bear it.

“How dare you? Ms. Quinn earned this position on her own merits, but you only rely on your father’s relationships.

“Ms. Quinn now serves the country and the people with a heavy responsibility on her shoulders. It is impossible for her to fight casually like you!

“If you really want to fight, I can accompany you to the end!”

Chapter 176 The Fight

To defend Veronica, Lois took the initiative to stand out and prepared to fight.

“You?!”

Lily smiled contemptuously, “You are not worth it.

“If it weren’t for Veronica’s sake, you wouldn’t even be qualified to come in!”

Lily didn’t give a shit about this adjutant.

Lois snorted coldly and said harshly, “If it wasn’t for the sake of Ms. Quinn, I wouldn’t waste my time talking to you toffs, and I could turn this place into a wreck in no time!”

Lily was furious with the words. Darius and Danny also couldn't stand it.

"Damn it! How dare you talk to me like that? As an adjutant of Sherland Guardians, you dare to be so bold before us. Get off of my back!"

"Ms. Quinn, are you just letting her talk nonsense?"

Veronica said to Lois, "Lois, stop talking about it."

"Yes!" Lois looked at Lily again and then stepped aside.

Veronica continued, "Lily, I have no time to entangle you here. If you really want to challenge me, we'll wait for the next military conference."

The quinquennial military conference was held by the Ministry of War, and it would bring together all the mighty war gods from the world.

It would be a grand event for the entire military community in Vericano.

During it, the competitions between the major regions were naturally the focus.

"Okay!" Lily nodded, "I will defeat you in front of the whole army at that time!"

The two made an appointment to fight again at the military conference.

Just as Veronica was about to leave, she suddenly thought of something and reminded her, "There is a mysterious overmatch in Sherland now. If you win a fight with him, I'll admit your victory." Hearing the words, Lily couldn't help but be intrigued.

“Who the hell is it? I can’t believe he got you so convinced.”

Lily knew well that Veronica would not be easily convinced. Since she said this, it meant that this person’s strength was mighty, especially above the two of them.

“His name is Kenton Bloom!” After speaking, Veronica glanced at Leones slyly.

From her point of view, she hadn’t exposed Leones’s fake identity on the spot, but he was about to.

She had already hinted so clearly. Wouldn’t Lily have found out that Leones was a fraud?

The person the Wellington family really respected should be Kenton, not Leones!

However, Lily didn’t think so much but murmured the name several times.

“Kenton? Kenton!”

Lily asked everyone around her, “Do you know this person?”

“Well...” Darius and Danny also looked confused, wondering when such a person had appeared in Sherland.

They never heard of it!

After all, Leones only appeared as Kenton a few times, and there were few people who truly knew this identity.

Even Darius and Danny heard this name for the first time and felt very strange.

“I don’t know. I’ve never heard of it.” Both of them shook their heads.

At this time, Lily seemed to have thought of something and looked at Leones again.

“Kenton?!”

Lily blurted out.

Leones was startled when he heard the words and wondered if she had guessed it.

Could it be that Lily could read his mind?

“Do you know him with the same surname as you? Lily added.

“Uh...” Leones laughed dumbly and thought his identity had been discovered.

It turned out that she just discovered he and Kenton had the same surname, not the same person. Then, Leones touched his nose, shook his head, and denied, “I don’t know.”

Leones didn’t know why Veronica herself didn’t accept the challenge but pushed him out to attract attention.

Under such circumstances, Leones would certainly not admit his other identity. Otherwise, if he was entangled with Lily, there would be more troubles.

Meanwhile, after Veronica and Lois left the bar, Lois was still a little aggrieved.

“Ms. Quinn, they have gone too far! Why don’t you teach them a lesson in public?”

“Lily already lost to you once, and she was still so aggressive.

“She is obviously inferior to you, but she still wants to challenge you or even replace you!

“You should defeat her more often and destroy her hope!”

Hearing the words, Veronica smiled lightly. Then she said to Lois in a serious tone.

“Lois, we are different from them. Keep it in mind!

“They can make all kinds of mistakes and start all over again.

“But if we make a mistake once, we will lose everything irreparably.”

While speaking, Veronica sighed languidly, “If I fight her today, no matter whether I win, there will be no benefit to me.

“If I lose, they will definitely try their best to humiliate me and even make a big publicity so that I have no place in the army.

“Even if I win in the end, there will be villains reporting me, saying that I fight with others at will, and I will inevitably be investigated again!”

Hearing the words, Lois nodded thoughtfully.

“Fortunately, you thought it through, Ms. Quinn. Every step we take isn’t going to go our way!” Veronica finally patted Lois on the shoulder and encouraged, “Don’t forget the responsibility we carry!

“We are Sherland Guardians, the guardians of the city! No matter when and where we must try our best to restrain our emotions, and we must not

“This is the indisputable rule of Sherland Guardians!

“As the Commander of Sherland Guardians, I must stick to it and never give in!”

Veronica was proud to join the Sherland Guardians, so it was impossible for her to be complacent about such a trivial matter today.

If she had been suspended for investigation once she made a move just now, she would feel ashamed to meet her adoptive father.

“I’ll always keep your words in mind, Ms. Quinn!” Lois said seriously.

While talking, the two returned to the car and drove away.

Not long after Veronica left, Leones also got up to leave.

“Mr. Bloom, I’m going back soon.” Lily generously issued the invitation, “If you’re free, you can come to Alryne to find me.”

“Okay, I will definitely visit you if I have the chance, Leones said. He suddenly thought of something again and asked curiously, “I wonder who is in charge of Yonker State now?”

“Are you talking about the war god in Yonker State?” Lily said, “Since the previous generation of war god in Yonker State lost contact, Yonker State has been temporarily leaderless, and the former adjutant is managing it on his behalf.”

“But I heard that they have recently selected a group of young elites, and they will select the successor to the war god through a competition. We have also received an invitation and will there to be a witness and referee.”

Leones nodded, then expressed his gratitude and left.

go

Looking at Leones’s back, Lily suddenly thought that the title of the war god in Yonker State was

Kenton!

Chapter 177 The Yang Fire

The war god in Yonker State was titled Kenton!

Kenton Bloom?!

Lily connected this fragmented information together, wondering whether this mysterious overmatch named Kenton was related to the former war god in Yonker State.

She then looked at Leones’s back.

Lily felt even more suspicious.

Why did Leones care about the situation in Yonker State?

Could it be that he had some connection with Kenton or the war god in Yonker State?

Although Lily was full of doubts, she soon felt relieved.

A competition would be held in the camp of Yonker State next month, which would shock the whole state.

It was also related to the candidate for the next war god in Yonker State.

The war gods from other war zones would also be invited to go there to serve as referees and witnesses.

By then, whether it was Leones or Kenton if they were related to the previous war god in Yonker State, they would definitely appear at the scene.

Lily was vaguely looking forward to meeting Leones or Kenton again in Yonker State.

“Veronica said if I can defeat Kenton, she will admit my victory.” Lily smiled with inexplicable confidence, “Well, I’ll wait for him at the camp of Yonker State!”

“Don’t let me down!”

At this time, Leones got into Darius’s car and prepared to go home.

“Mr. Bloom, I’m really sorry. I wanted to ask you out for a drink to deepen our relationship, but something unexpected happened.”

While driving, Darius kept apologizing to Leones for what had happened just now.

Although Lily showed up to mediate and settle the matter in the end, Darius was still afraid that Leones would mind Danny’s behavior.

“It doesn’t matter.” Leones didn’t haggle over such trifles and didn’t dwell on the past.

Besides, he had already taught Danny a lesson himself.

The only pity was that he couldn’t persuade Danny to help him find the dossier that year.

Darius guessed what Leones was thinking with Leones’s thoughtful look.

So he said again, “I will ask my father to help investigate that incident back then. If there is any clue, I will let you know.”

“Okay, thank you.” Leones was willing to take Darius as his apprentice and also wanted to get his help.

His father was the president of the Sherland Government with high status and a certain influence, which would be of great benefit to Leones.

“Mr. Bloom, why are you being polite to me? This is what I should do.” Darius took the opportunity to say, “By the way, when are you going to teach me something? Whether it’s medicine or martial arts. I want to learn them all.”

“After I’m done with the dispute with the Bloom family. I’ll go to Fatuma.” Leones said, “I’ll take you with me then, and Fill teach you something along the way.”

Darius was overjoyed with the words. When he learned that they would go to Fatuma next week, he even said he would get prepared when he got back.

Soon. Loones returned home.

Mia had also returned from get off work.

“Tomorrow, the Bloom family will hold a grand banquet and invite all our major shareholders. In addition to the Soler family, the others from Five Major Families are also invited.”

Mia reported the news to Leones.

“Are we going to attend tomorrow?”

“Other major families are also waiting for you to make a decision.

“If you disagree, everyone else will be absent.”

Leones smiled slightly with the words. “Go for it. Why won’t we attend?”

“We now have the initiative, controlling more than 30 percent of the Bloom family’s shares. “They hold the banquet because they want something from us. Why are we absent?”

“Are we afraid of them?”

Mia nodded after hearing the words and said. “Okay, I will inform the Peterson family and ask them to attend the banquet together tomorrow.”

After calling Five Major Families one by one, Mia asked curiously again about Leones’s attitude toward this matter.

She wondered how this banquet would end.

“Leones, do you want to reconcile with the Bloom family?”

Mia knew all Leones did was vent his anger at being expelled from the family.

Now that he had achieved the value of his life, he was still a member of the Bloom family, after all

“Reconcile?” Leones smiled lightly, “That depends on how sincere the Bloom family is.”

If Benjamin was willing to abdicate and let Leones take charge of the overall situation, then Leones wouldn’t naturally spare none.

But if the Bloom family just apologized causally and asked Leones to return to the family, then Leones could only use his own way to take back everything that belonged to him.

While talking, Mia’s expression suddenly changed, and she clutched her chest tightly with a look of pain.

“What’s wrong?” Leones quickly stepped forward to check on it.

“It... it hurts...” Mia’s face was covered with cold sweat. She clenched her teeth, and her complexion gradually turned livid, “I can’t breathe... My heart... my heart hurts too... I...” Mia felt she was about to die.

It was the pain and suffering from imminent death.

“What’s going on?”

Leones briefly checked and found Mia’s physical condition was stable.

However, Mia’s current situation was precarious, as if she was about to die at any time.

If Mia pretended all of this, then she was indeed good at it.

Even others couldn't tell the truth from the fake.

But Leones knew Mia would not make such boring jokes.

And one couldn't fake such extreme pain and suffering without experiencing it oneself.

After eliminating all impossible factors, there was only one answer.

"It seems... someone is secretly spellcasting to harm Mia!"

Immediately, Leones pinched his fingers to form an incantation and flicked it lightly in his eyes.

Suddenly, everything in front of him changed completely.

All the origins of the world appeared before Leones's eyes.

A ball of Yang fire on Mia's body was precarious and about to disappear.

The so-called Yang fire was an invisible flame on the human body.

If the Yang fire was vigorous, one wouldn't be invaded by all harm.

And once the Yang fire fluctuated, it would be vulnerable to attract evils.

"That's it!" Leones looked at it and strengthened his guess.

Someone made spellcasting secretly, which affected Mia.

Due to the particularity of the female body, most people with vicious intentions would pick on women as their targets and never fail.

“Well, in that case, I’ll treat them the same way they are treated!”

Leones immediately made up his mind to fight the person behind.

“I’ll also give you a taste of what it’s like to be counterattacked by evil magic!”

Chapter 178 Fight Secretly

In the Pope family at this time, there were weird candles and long hair on a table.

The candles were made from corpse oil.

The long hair belonged to Mia.

Dalton held the Nebula Sword, stepped on the pattern of trigram, and muttered something.

A gust of wind accompanied every thrust of the sword, and the candlelight drifted in the wind. Under the sword blade, a woman’s scream was faintly heard.

Eugen, on the side, looked frightened.

Moreover, the room was cold, like an ice cellar on a hot day, and Eugen couldn’t help but wrap himself in a down jacket to keep warm.

“Mr. Weber, that’s incredible!”

This was the first time Eugen saw Dalton perform such a terrifying magic skill.

He was glad Dalton was on his side. Otherwise, he was no match for him.

It could be seen that Dalton was really pulling his punches this time.

“Go down!”

Int

the end, Dalton slashed down with his sword, cutting the hair that was as thin as a thread on the table into two pieces!

At the same time, the candlesticks on both sides were instantly extinguished.

There was a faint shriek behind as if it were all over

“Hahaha...”

After finishing all, Dalton laughed out loud with satisfaction.

“In this way, I completely broke the Yang fire in the girl named Soler!”

“If she still dares to come to the company tomorrow, I’ll activate the Gathering Energy Formation,” and she will be miserable for the rest of her life.”

It turned out that in order to better demonstrate the power and effect of the Gathering Energy Formation, Dalton prepared the table and made spellcasting in the air to break the Yang fire on Mia’s body.

In this way, the effect of the Gathering Energy Formation could be seen in a short period of time. "If nothing else, Mia would be seriously ill and unconscious by now!"

Dalton nodded with satisfaction as he spoke, as if he was secretly appreciating his masterpiece. "How awesome you are! Mr. Weber!" Eugen flattered him on the sidelines.

But he was really frightened by Dalton's magic skill

-At the same time, Eugen still had something to puzzle about.

"Mr. Weber, since you made spellcasting from a distance, why don't you kill that little girl in secret?"

The existence of the Soler family had always been the shadow of the Pope family...

If the Soler family was not completely eliminated this time, how would the Pope family cope if they made a comeback one day without Dalton's help?

So, the only way to deal with the situation for the Pope family right now was to kill Mia.

"In secret?"

Dalton glanced at Eugen lightly, and his cold eyes made Eugen feel palpitated.

"Don't you know God is watching you, Mr. Pope?"

"Now that I've worn down enough for the Pope family. If you're trying to use me to kill someone, it's a different story."

Dalton also knew killing people with spellcasting was taboo! With his current ability, he couldn't take any chances.

If he did kill someone, even Dalton himself didn't know what he was going to get in the future.

Dalton wanted to earn enough money for his retirement, but he didn't dare to take any risk to earn money that would cost his life.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Weber. I was thoughtless." Eugen apologized quickly.

Dalton was about to order someone to remove the table and take a rest.

After all, the spellcasting just now consumed a lot of his energy.

There would be another tough battle tomorrow, which was to activate the Gathering Energy Formation.

Once the formation was successfully activated, everything would fall into place naturally, and nothing would go wrong unless something unexpected happened to the three remaining buildings. owned by the Pope family.

But at this moment, the candles that had just been extinguished suddenly ignited spontaneously. It illuminated the whole hall and dissipated all the chill around it.

"Um?!"

Seeing it, Dalton was immediately shocked and had a bad premonition.

He looked at the table again and reached out to grab those two strands of hair, but it was still late! The hair that was cut into two by Dalton just now with a sword instantly floated into the air. Immediately afterward, it turned around and violently shot at Dalton like a bullet.

“Ah!”

Only a scream was heard.

Dalton thumped back a few steps. His shoulders were in severe pain, and the blood flowed profusely.

It turned out that those two strands of hair pierced deeply into Dalton’s shoulders.

The wind was suddenly roaring around!

Dalton felt fearful and nervous at once!

He felt the two balls of Yang fire on his shoulders were extinguished by this attack!

“Ah! Who harm me with spellcasting in secret?”

Dalton failed to harm others. Instead, his own Yang fire went out two in a row, which was like his life.

A normal person had only three balls of Yang fire, but Dalton had already extinguished two. Capable as he was, he couldn’t take such a klou

Suddenly, a mouthful of blood spurted out.

He fell on his back and passed out.

Chapter 179 Stamped out the Root of the Trouble

And on the other side.

Leones also used his own vital energy to suppress the impact of the Yang fire that had affected

Mia.

And then he laid her flat on the sofa.

And he plucked out a strand of her hair.

Above the Yang fire, he gently flicked it:

The strand of hair instantly snapped in two.

Leones held a strand of hair in one hand and chanted an incantation.

He suddenly shot it toward the Yang fire on Mia's body.

The two strands of hair passed through the flames and disappeared into thin air.

Immediately after, through the end of the hair strand, there came a faint but piercing scream. Leones was not unfamiliar with that voice.

"So it's them!"

Leones's expression turned cold, understanding it all too well.

That was it for today. That last strike was enough for him to endure.

Leones could deal with them when they met tomorrow. There was no rush.

“What’s wrong with me...”

Mia slowly woke up, feeling much better.

Leones told her about what had just happened to her.

Upon hearing this, Mia turned pale with shock. “He can harm me even when I’m at home? Is he that powerful?”

This was completely beyond Mia’s knowledge and understanding. She found it hard to believe. At the same time, it filled her with great fear, as she felt defenseless against it.

“Don’t worry, I got you,” Leones reassured with a smile. “I’ve already fought back for you. I believe his situation isn’t looking too good right now!

“At least for tonight, he’ll calm down. When we meet tomorrow, I’ll deal with them properly!”

After dealing with everything, Leones and Mia went to rest separately.

Meanwhile, at the Pope family’s residence, “Mr. Weber, are you alright?”

After being unconscious for nearly half an hour, Dalton finally regained consciousness, but his whole body still ached tremendously.

Especially his arms felt completely incapacitated, as if they had been rendered useless, numb, and unable to be lifted or exert any force.

The sensation was akin to a thousand ants gnawing at his arms, causing immense torment.

It was because Dalton was a practitioner with exceptional mental strength, allowing him to endure the pain

If it were someone else, they would have already been unable to bear the pain

Eugen was still concerned that if something had happened to Dalton, it would have caused even more trouble.

“What was going on just now? How did you suddenly pass out? Was it due to excessive spellcasting?”

Dalton rubbed his head to wake himself up and realize the current situation.

“Ugh... Damn it!

“I actually got ambushed by that kid and fell for his trick!”

Dalton was absolutely unprepared, so when Leones counterattacked, it caught him off guard, causing him to fall victim and hit the ground.

Of course, Dalton was unaware. Even if he had been prepared, with his strength, he would have found it difficult to withstand Leones.

It was just that he himself didn't realize it.

“Something is wrong!”

Dalton shook his head again.

“How could that kid possibly have the strength to fight me from a distance?”

“It must be his master, helping from the sidelines!

“Yeah... the one who just fought me from a distance must be a senior master in the field of Feng Shui!”

Upon hearing this, Eugen suddenly panicked and exclaimed, “That kid even brought out his master?”

“What should we do now?”

Dalton snorted coldly, “Why are you panicking? Don’t you still get me?”

As a renowned Feng Shui master in Sherland, Dalton had no doubt, wouldn’t concede defeat, and certainly wouldn’t admit to being outmatched.

“Mr. Eugen Pope, what you said just now was right

“It is necessary to eradicate the Soler family!”

With Dalton falling for this move, he realized that the opponent also had a deep understanding of Feng Shui.

As the saying goes, ‘When two tigers fight, one will get hurt.’”

Clearly, trying to overpower the opponent unilaterally was impossible now.

So, the final outcome would be a relentless struggle to the end!

Upon hearing Dalton's words, Eugen was overjoyed. It was just what he had in mind.

"It's all up to Mr. Weber's arrangements!" Eugen assured, "The Pope family will give you full support! If we can completely eliminate the Soler family, the benefits we promised Mr. Weber earlier will be doubled!"

With determination, Eugen was willing to make significant sacrifices to end this matter once and for all.

"Good!"

With the commitment from the Pope family, Dalton's spirits were also lifted.

"Tomorrow, when I activate the Gathering Energy Formation, we will strike with all our might and eliminate the Soler family completely, leaving no room for future trouble!"

That night, at the residence of the Bloom family, "Mom! Everything I said is true!" Timothy recounted everything at the bar to his mother, Ashley.

"I wonder if, later on, the lady from the Wellington family realized her mistake?"

Unfortunately, later on, Lily cleared out the bar, and Timothy didn't know what happened afterward.

He couldn't help but have a faint hope in his heart, wishing that the lady from the Wellington family would realize her mistake and give Leones a good lesson.

"Are you saying that scoundrel Leones knows the son of the president of Sherland Government and the daughter of the war god of Alryne?"

“What kind of freaking joke is that?”

Ashley had no doubt didn't believe it at all.

Even she was not qualified to know the sons and daughters of a big boss of this level, let alone Leones, who his own family had cast out.

“They must have been drunk and mistaken someone else.”

Ashley believed that it was normal for people to have mistaken people when they were drunk in a place like a bar.

She recalled a time when she had a wild night at a bar and mistook her husband for someone else, nearly making a big mistake.

“But...” Timothy wanted to say something more.

At least, he thought that perhaps Lily had mistaken someone else, but Mr. Timon didn't seem like someone he would mistake for another person.

“Enough!” Ashley interrupted her son.

She didn't have time now to care about that scoundrel.

“Tomorrow, we're hosting the Bloom family's banquet and invited prominent figures from various circles. I need to verify the guest list, so I don't have time to listen to you talk about these things. Tomorrow is crucial for the future of our family! You need to make a good impression, too! Your grandpa plans to send you out to greet the guests. This is a chance to get to know the bigwigs from various distinguished families. You must seize this opportunity and avoid any mishaps!”

Upon hearing this, Timothy immediately smiled and said, “Don’t worry, Mom! Leave everything to me! I’ll ensure the guests feel at home, and there won’t be any issues!”

Chapter 180 Taking Advantage of the Situation

At this time in Tonkai, the mastermind of the underground illegal market, a man dressed in fine attire, was looking at the report of today’s operation.

While Isaac had been successfully assassinated and his mouth sealed shut, there was no longer any need to worry about him revealing any information about people or events.

However, the members of Heavenly Punishment sent to assassinate Veronica had gone entirely silent, with all communication lost.

It was preliminarily concluded that the entire group had been wiped out.

Some more, it was the kind with their remains nowhere to be found.

“How is that possible!”

The man in fine attire was filled with shock and anger.

That was the Heavenly Punishment. Even on a global scale, they were no less than the top-notch professional assassin teams.

Even if they were sent to assassinate a warrior with war god strength, even if unsuccessful, they should have been able to at least scratch the opponent’s surface and retreat unharmed.

However, now, when tasked with dealing with a mere Commander of the Sherland Guardians, who also happened to be a woman, somehow, they had all perished!

Based on their organization's investigation of Veronica, it seemed she shouldn't have had the capability to wipe out the entire Heavenly Punishment team.

"Sir, should we send even more formidable assassins from Heavenly Punishment to continue the mission?" An elderly man nearby suggested, bowing. "Or perhaps let me handle it personally?" This elderly man, on the surface, served as the chief steward for this influential figure. However, behind the scenes, he held an even more prestigious role. He was one of the co-founders of Heavenly Punishment.

Once, he was a world-class assassin, striking fear into countless hearts.

Now that he was getting older, he had retired from the underworld and became an inconspicuous steward and bodyguard by the illegal market's mastermind.

"No!" The man in fine attire immediately shook his head, refusing to take further risks.

Because the members of the Heavenly Punishment were also a substantial source of wealth, and their loss couldn't be squandered so recklessly.

Losing just one person, no matter who, was a significant loss for their illegal market.

"I suspect... it was Carlos Waltson, the Zombric's Cry. He has stationed even more formidable experts by his adopted daughter's side, secretly protecting her!"

"Yes! That must be the case!"

Apart from that, the man in fine attire couldn't think of any other possibilities.

"Go! Continue the investigation of Veronica, and thoroughly investigate everyone around her!"

"Know thyself, know thy enemy, and you will never be defeated! The next time we strike, we must not make such a low-level mistake again!"

“Yes!” The elderly man replied and immediately instructed the intelligence department to continue sending agents for the investigation.

N

On the other side in Fatuma, at the resident of the Johnson family, watching Lucas returning alone, Fatuma’s wealthiest man, Max, was furious.

“This is outrageous!

“You have some nerve!”

Of the four families he had sent out, some were dead, while some were defected.

Now, only the Peggy family had returned.

How could Max accept this outcome?

What was even more outrageous was that they wanted to use the Soler and the Back family to turn them against him!

“The Polly family acted on their own initiative and paid the price. But the Soler family and the Back family, daring to betray openly, their crimes are unforgivable!”

Max immediately decided. “Go, first, have these two families under control! To prevent them from uniting and truly coming after me!”

The Johnson family decided to strike first.

“Understood!”

Lucas immediately obeyed, eager to make amends

Although he couldn't defeat Leones, things were not the same with the Wilson and Back families. Taking advantage of the fact that the chiefs of these two families haven't returned yet, he could act first and capture them all in one fell swoop.

Lucas stood up and was about to take action.

But just then, Lucas stumbled and fell flat on the ground.

“Poison?”

“Somebody poisoned the air?”

Lucas had a premonition of something, and his face turned pale.

To be able to poison so discreetly, who else could it be besides that wretched elderly lady from the Wilson family?

“Who is it?” Max was horrified when he saw this, and as he tried to stand up, his legs gave way, and he fell back into his seat.

“Hahahaha...”

Outside the door, there came a burst of manic laughter.

“Janice, your methods of poisoning under the guise of a gentle breeze have become even more exquisite!

“From more than 300 feet away, you still manage to get the job done! Just look at Lucas. He’s already fallen victim, haha...”

Filled with shock and anger, Lucas exclaimed, “It’s really you! You bunch of bastards and freeloaders!”

Amidst the scolding, two elderly figures, one male and one female, arrived like phantoms,

Lucas had thought that returning overnight was already quite timely, but he hadn’t expected these two bastards to get back here so quickly as well.

“Janice!” Max asked incredulously, “Are you really going against the Johnson family?”

Janice let out a long sigh. “I had no choice.

“I never expected that the opponent would be the disciple of the Great Sorcerer. My entire clan’s lives are in their hands. Targeting the Johnson family was a last resort!”

Max angrily retorted, “Aren’t you afraid of the retaliation from our family?”

Yes!

Of course, Janice was afraid!

But compared to the retaliation that might come later, the current threat to her life was what she should be more concerned about.

“Hehe, Max! You are already under our control.”

At this moment, David smirked quietly and coldly.

“When Mr. Bloom arrives in Fatuma next week, we will hand you over to him for judgment and punishment.

“Before the Johnson family can take revenge, we will have already been far gone once everything is accomplished!”

“Hmph!” Max snorted and quickly regained his composure.

He was indeed the wealthiest man in the region and had once been a formidable figure in his prime.

Facing such a setback, he naturally had contingency plans in place.

“Do you really think that you can be an enemy to the Johnson family with

“If that kid Leones dares to come, I’ll make sure he never leaves!”

your abilities?

With that, Max shouted, “Mr. Williams! Please show yourself and take action!”

Before his words had even finished, a shadow appeared out of thin air, as if a god had descended to earth.

Effortlessly, Janice and David were knocked down to the ground with two consecutive strikes.

“How can this be?” Janice’s face turned pale in shock. “Who are you, sir?”

Her poison had no effect on him?

“You... are you an ancient warrior?” David coughed up blood repeatedly, and despite The yellow-skinned creature possessed him, he still had been severely beaten.

Such terrifying strength could only belong to an ancient warrior!

“Hmph!”

The elderly man that the Johnson family referred to as Mr. Williams snorted but didn’t respond. Clearly, these ants weren’t worthy of knowing his identity yet.

-Shortly after, Max regained control of the situation once again.

And under his interrogation, it was revealed that Leones would personally come to Fatuma next week.

“Wow! I didn’t go looking for him, yet he dares to come and settle the score with me?”

Max’s eyes glinted as he prepared to use a stratagem.

to come quickly!”
