Chapter 19 Heaven Master

Like lightning, the flying sword approached in the blink of an eye.

And Leones stepped forward to meet the sword.

When the flying sword was less than an inch away from Leones' chest, it suddenly stopped in midair.

Buzz!

The blade of the sword buzzed softly as if it was wrestling with the invisible air.

At the same time, Leones also stopped, and his whole body was shrouded in golden light.

It was as if he had an invisible barrier around him that was as hard as a diamond!

The flying sword galloping forward was isolated from the golden light.

"Hiss..."

Everyone's jaw dropped at the sight of this incredible scene.

On the other side, stunned, Ludo gasped and exclaimed, "Golden Shield?"

"How... How is this possible!?"

He originally thought that Leones was just an ordinary martial artist with no cultivation base, but he never dreamed that Leones was able to use Golden Shield to stop his flying sword.

Immediately afterward, Leones stretched out his finger, facing the tip of the flying sword outside the golden light.

Flick!

With a crisp cracking “pop” sound, the sword body shattered into countless pieces, and all of them fell to the ground together with the hilt.

“Uh...” Ludo, who was controlling the flying sword, also suffered backlash because of the shattered sword. He backed up three steps in a row. As if a tsunami was wreaking havoc inside his body, he almost suffered internal injuries.

Ludo’s expression was horrified, filled with indescribable fear.

“A mere Oracle dares to act presumptuously in front of me?”

Leones formed a seal with one hand, and there was the faint sound of thunder around him.

“Let me show you what I’m capable of today too!”

As Leones spoke, he raised his fingertips lightly above his head and pointed directly at the sky.

The fingertips were slightly illuminant and accompanied by the sound of thunder as if they were entangled by lightning.

While the connoisseur recognizes the artistry, the layman simply enjoys the show.

Although the others did not realize what was happening, Ludo could not help shivering and exclaiming.

“Guided by vital energy, thou shall know heavenly magic?”

“You—You are a Heaven Master?”

Ludo looked at Leones in horror with an unbelievably horrified expression.

He never thought anyone could reach the stage of Heaven Master this young!

Those who reached the Heaven Master stage were all capable of manipulating the laws of heaven and earth, and they were so much stronger than Oracles like him.

In the cultivator world, the terms “Oracle” and “Heaven Master” were once interchangeable, and neither was superior.

However, when King Agnes said, “The heaven has no master!” Then, the cultivators began only calling themselves Oracles.

Nonetheless, in private, ordinary people still addressed those who had attained extraordinary powers as “Heaven Masters”.

The strength of Heaven Masters and Oracles were worlds apart!

Therefore, how could Ludo not be horrified and appalled now that he came across a young man who could very well be a Heaven Master?

“Who is your master?”

“And who are you?”

Frightened, Ludo could help but retreat step by step, breaking out in a cold sweat.

Leones did not answer. He made a single step forward, and his whole body was radiant with golden light that shot straight up into the sky.

There was a loud “click“, like a rumble of thunder on the ground.

Leones opened his hand and shouted loudly.

“Lightning!”

It was as if a gigantic hand appeared in the sky and pressed down toward the top of Ludo’s head. It was as if his whole body was held in the palm of the lightning hand in a flash.

Ludo raised his head and opened his mouth wide. His whole body became scorched black as if he had been electrocuted, and he fell down with a plop under the lightning. No one knew if he was dead or alive.

Leones waved, and the golden light all over his body dissipated.

The huge hall of the villa was once again shrouded in darkness.

Silence.

There was only dead silence all around!

The scene seemed to have become a bottomless abyss, desolate and deadly silent.

In the darkness, everyone stared at Leones in horror. The astonishing scene of Leones' majestic figure controlling lightning and instantly killing Ludo with one blow echoed in their minds over and over again.

At this time, Mia was completely dumbfounded by Leones' display of phenomenal power.

Mia had doubts about Leones at first, but she gradually trusted him more when she saw him defeat hundreds of people.

Now, however, Mia already completely trusted Leones.

Leones' strength was more than enough to become the Soler family's backer. In fact, he could even be their guardian angel.

Hope was rekindled in Mia's eyes.

The comeback of the Soler family was just around the corner!

On the other side, the members of the Peterson family were more afraid than Mia was shocked. They were horrified from the bottom of their hearts.

“Your brat, what kind of monster did you provoke!”

Charles was so frightened that he swallowed wildly, his whole body trembling uncontrollably.

Ludo, whom he had hired with a lot of money, was killed instantly by one attack. What should he do?

“I... I don't know...”

Archie had a bitter face. He was completely stupefied.

He just came to the Soler family's villa to search for some treasures as usual.

Who would have thought that such a grim reaper would come and occupy this place today? Tap, tap, tap!

After finishing Ludo, Leones walked toward Archie and Charles.

Seeing Leones walking towards him again, Archie shuddered and suddenly remembered something.

“Dad... Dad... The money that... I asked you to prepare on the phone just now. Have you prepared it?”

Hearing this, Charles was startled. He shook his head and said, “No... No...”

Earlier, he thought everything was certain since he brought Ludo along. Why would he waste time and effort to prepare money?

Who would have expected Ludo to be absolutely incinerated by one attack?

“It’s over.” Archie thought. His heart sank, and he felt that even paying a billion dollars would not resolve the upcoming big problem.

“Where’s the money?”

Leones’ indifferent voice came from the darkness.

The father and son of the Peterson family raised their heads suddenly. Only then did they realize that Leones had already stood in front of them.

Facing Leones’ terrifying aura, the two of them were so overwhelmed that they could barely breathe.

“We... We came in a hurry and I... I forgot to prepare...” Charles could only reply half-truthfully.

“Then make a call again,” Leones said, “But this time, you have to prepare two billion dollars!”
