

Out of Prison 251

Chapter 251 Two Choices

Facing Leones who was coming towards him, Max, the head of the Johnson family, was so frightened.

Since powerful men like Patrick were present, Max's bodyguards were not present.

Now, Max had to face Leones with fear and panic.

"What... What do you want?"

Max asked in horror.

"You have repeatedly sent people to come and cause me troubles," Leones said coldly, "I want to ask you,

what do you want!"

"I..." Max was suddenly speechless.

The loser had no right to make conditions.

Now that Leones got him, Max had nothing to say.

"It was all my fault before. I solemnly apologize to you," Max lowered his proud head and apologized to Leones.

However, Leones didn't accept it.

Leones said, "If your apology is useful, I don't have to come in person!"

Hearing this, Max changed his face with fright and said, "What... What else do you want?"

From Max's point of view, his son had already died, and he had apologized and let bygones pass, but were these not enough? What more did Leones want?

"I'll give you two choices!"

Leones said, "I heard that the Johnson family is wealthy. Give me half of your family's property as compensation!"

What?

Leones was so greedy!

Max was shocked after hearing this.

It was impossible for Leones to seize half of the Johnson family's property!

"This... This is out of the question!" Max flatly refused, shaking his head and saying, "No way. choose the second one!"

"The second choice!" Leones said coldly, "That's a dead end!"

What?

Max was stunned when he heard this.

Therefore, did Max only have one choice?

No one would choose a dead end.

Leones didn't speak or move anymore. And the surroundings were filled with a solemn atmosphere.

I

Dealing with a strong man like Patrick was easy for Leones, let alone the defenseless Max. Leone's breath might be able to kill Max.

Now David, beside Leones, also helped and asked, "Max, do you want money or your life?"

"Mr. Bloom... Please don't..." Max trembled and begged, "I don't want to die..." ax trembled and begged, "I don't want to die..."

Leones asked with interest, "Then you chose the first choice?"

"The first choice?" David said, "Quickly give the

In Max's heart, he scolded David so man rst choice?"

Having said this, Max paused and then said, “Vulture has a share of my family! Without Vulture’s agreement, no one can get half of the Johnson family.

“To put it bluntly, I am only the head of the Johnson family on the surface, but the actual leader of the Johnson family is Vulture!”

Speaking, Max simply pushed everything onto Vulture.

In this way, with Vulture, no one dared to hurt the Johnson family.

Although Max’s words were exaggerated, the Johnson family was indeed controlled by Vulture. The Johnson family had to make offerings occasionally in exchange for Vulture’s protection.

Sure enough, when hearing these words, even David was frightened and took a few steps back.

It seemed that just hearing Vulture’s name was enough to frighten David out of his mind.

After Chad heard these, he was also full of

I worry.

Chad hurriedly approached Leones and whispered, "Dragon King, why don't you teach him a lesson and get some money, then let it go? Since the Johnson family is linked to Vulture, don't push Max anymore."

Having defeated one of Vulture's former subordinates, in Chad's view, it was actually dangerous. If Vulture was attracted, they might be in big trouble.

After hearing this, Max smiled and said, "Yes, I have apologized. You have beaten me, and your anger should be gone. I will order someone to prepare one hundred million dollars as a small gift from our family.

Max saw that things had taken a turn, so he thought Vulture's name was good to use.

Therefore, Max talked freely and arranged all aspects properly.

But in his mind, he was thinking that as soon as he escaped, he would immediately seek help from Vulture and kill these people before they left Fatuma to avoid future troubles!

He saw this one hundred million dollars as money to pay for their funerals!

“Mr. Bloom, how about...” David went out of his way and advised, “We take the money, slap him a few times to vent our anger, and then leave.”

When Max heard these words, he was speechless and thought, “Do you dare to hit me? When I get away, I will chop you up alive!”

Faced with the threat from Vulture, everyone around Leones wanted to give up.

But Leones smiled noncommittally. “I’ve heard the name Vulture too many times along the way!

“Is he the most powerful person in Fatuma? Is he the leader of the Johnson family?”

“Then let Vulture come to see me now! I want to meet this legendary person!”

Chapter 252 We Will Help Whoever Wins

After Leones said these, everyone was in an uproar!

Everyone looked at Leones with expressions of disbelief as if they were looking at a madman.

They even thought that they had heard Leones wrong just now.

“Dragon King... You... You want to see Vulture?”

Chad asked in horror.

“Yes!” Leones said to Max, “Why are you still standing there? Don’t think that if you mention Vulture, I will be afraid and let you go.

“You said that Vulture is the leader of the Johnson family, then call him to see me!”

David, beside Leones, sat down on the ground in fright.

David never expected that Leones would be so crazy and dare to summon Vulture.

Did Leones want to die?

Once Vulture arrived, there would be no way for them to survive!

They might all be captured alive and used to practice martial arts!

It was because David also knew very well that the evil skills practiced by Vulture required living people. There were often missing people near Johnson Manor, so the Johnson Manor became a restricted area for many miles, and no one dared to get close.

David was so frightened that he backed away repeatedly as if he wanted to stay away from the crazy Leones.

At the same time, David looked at Max again, wondering if he still had a chance to return to the Johnson family.

Patrick, who was seriously injured, never expected Leones to be so arrogant that he dared to challenge Vulture.

Why was Leones so bold??

Did Leones really think that since he defeated Patrick, he could compete with Vulture?

Leones might not know the strength of Vulture was so terrifying that even ten of Patrick couldn't beat Vulture.

Others might not know it, but Patrick knew that Vulture was an outer disciple of the ancient families in Chamber Mountain.

Although Vulture was an outer disciple stationed in the secular world, he had learned from the master. His strength was not weaker than any other disciples. He had the strength of a Second-rank Grandmaster and was powerful in Fatuma.

How could such a strong man be challenged by a young man who was just starting?

Patrick admitted that Leones was also powerful, especially his hot fists, which were even strange.

But based on these alone, Leones wanted to challenge Vulture, who had been famous for a long time and had such great strength.

"That's crazy!" Patrick shook his head and sneered,

"Okay, okay!"

At this time, Max suddenly reacted and was ecstatic in his heart!

Leones wanted to die Himself. Max even saved one hundred million dollars! Haha!

Initially, Max planned to contact Vulture immediately after sending this group of people away, asking for help and chasing them down.

But Max never expected that Leones would take the initiative to name Vulture to come here! Max thought God was helping him!

Sure enough, if God wanted to destroy someone, it must first make him crazy!

“I’ll contact Vulture right away! Please wait!”

Max excitedly took out his mobile phone and dialed the number which he hadn’t dialed long. He said respectfully, “Mr. Vulture!”

At the same time, inside Fatuma Police Station, someone said, “Father, according to the information, the Johnson family is already fighting!”

A young man came to the lobby ex to report the latest situation to his father.

“Oh? How is the battle going?” A middle-aged man flipping through official documents at the desk raised his head and asked with interest.

The father and son were Noah, the current president of Fatuma Police Station, and his son, Myron.

“The young man named Leones Bloom from Sherland had defeated Patrick, the strongest fighter around Max. Leones even threatened to divide half of the Johnson family’s property!”

The young master, Myron, smiled.

“This man from Sherland is indeed a standout!” Noah stroked his beard lightly and smiled appreciatively. “What about the Johnson family? Will they be forced to give him the family property?”

“The Johnson family could be crushed so easily!” Myron said, “It is said that the Johnson family has mentioned Vulture. This powerful man would personally come to the rescue!”

What?

Hearing the name of Vulture, even the president of Fatuma Police Station couldn't help being shocked and stood up suddenly.

“Vulture is going to enter Fatuma?” Noah immediately flashed countless thoughts about how to deal with it, etc.

After all, once such a dangerous person had entered the main urban area, he must be guarded in time. If Noah had not been careful, many innocent lives would have been lost.

Then Noah asked, “Was Leones scared away?”

“On the contrary!” Myron shook his head and smiled mysteriously. “According to reliable information, it was Leones who took the initiative to let Vulture show up. Maybe the two will start fighting in the Johnson family soon!”

“Ah?” Noah was surprised again. “The young man is so bold!”

Noah also didn't expect Leones to dare challenge the strongest person in Fatuma, Vulture.

Then Noah walked around in the lobby, frowning and thinking.

“Dad...” Myron just said.

Suddenly, Noah laughed. “Fight! Let them fight!”

“If we can use Leones to eliminate Vulture, it will be a great achievement!”

Thieves like Vulture had already become a hidden danger to the entire Fatuma.

If Noah could take this opportunity to kill Vulture, it would greatly help Fatuma Police Station.

“You immediately bring some people, put on plain clothes, and ambush near Johnson Manor. Act according to the situation!” Noah immediately arranged.

Myron understood what his father meant but was still a little worried. “It is said that Darius from Treston Police Station was also present! He came with Leones!”

“Treston Police Station was also involved?” Noah frowned upon hearing this. “Don’t worry about that dude. He can’t influence anything.”

“One more!” Myron added, “According to reports from the other side, it is said that Yingville’s army seems to be preparing to take action. It seems that they are going to launch a bandit suppression operation. And it is said that this time, Yingville is uniting with Alryne to act together!”

“The War God of Yingville?” Noah was startled. “They are finally going to attack Vulture? But are they going to attack Vulture? But are they not afraid of the ancient families behind Vulture?”

In fact, if it weren’t for the power of ancient families behind Vulture, Fatuma Police Station, or Yingville’s army would have killed Vulture long ago.

Now, all forces were pointing directly at Fatuma. As the president of Fatuma Police Station, Noah Now, all forces were pointing directly was under tremendous pressure. How to mediate it depended on Noah’s skills and methods.

“Remember!” Noah warned at the end, “We, Fatuma Police Station, will not set a position in this battle. We will help whoever wins!”

Chapter 253 Three Great Warriors

After waiting patiently for an hour and 45 minutes, Three Great Warriors under Vulture's command also appeared in Johnson Manor.

First, the person who walked into the hall was a burly man, six and a half feet tall, with dark skin, standing proudly like an iron tower with a cold face.

When he stood in the hall, others felt so oppressive that they dared not look at him directly. "Great Warrior of Iron!" Max said and quickly stepped forward to greet the man personally.

This man is the first Great Warrior' under Vulture's command. According to legend, this man was physically strong and extremely powerful. He was a terrifying and powerful man second only to Vulture.

Great Warrior of Iron raised his head and hummed softly as a greeting.

Then, with a burst of charming laughter, an enchanting and charming person floated into the hall like a ghost,

His face had heavy makeup, and for a moment, it was impossible to tell whether he was a man or a woman, His clothes were fluttering, charming everyone.

"Great Warrior of Flame!" Max stepped forward and saluted repeatedly.

This person was the second Great Warrior under Vulture's command, known as the Great Warrior of Flame.

Max had only seen him three times. Each time, he wore heavy up that made it difficult to tell his gender, giving people an eerie and mysterious feeling.

Although Max had never seen the Great Warrior of Flame fight, since h Great Warrior under Vulture's command, his strength must be great!

“Haha!”

Immediately afterward, there was another burst of hearty laughter.

Before the one arrived, he laughed first. And sarcastic words sounded.

could become the second

“Patrick, you loser, you can’t even settle this trivial matter and have to let Mr. Vulture come in person. You are useless.

“I said you were old and no longer useful then and replaced your position, but you were dissatisfied? Are you convinced now?”

“You embarrass us, Great Warriors!”

While talking, another burly man strode in, imposing.

As soon as he came, he looked around, and finally, his playful eyes fell heavily on the former Great Warrior of Ice, Patrick.

Seeing Patrick was seriously injured, this man was even happier and couldn’t help laughing.

“Great Warrior of Thunder, don’t be arrogant,” Patrick said, unconvinced, “If it were you, you might not win that kid!”

“Hmph! Sure enough, in the eyes of trash, everyone is trash!” Great Warrior of Thunder sneered, “Don’t you think that even Mr. Vulture can’t win that kid, do you?”

Patrick was cautious when it came to Vulture and said, “Mr. Vulture is naturally able to deal with him, needless to say.”

While speaking, Patrick reluctantly stood up with the help of everyone and asked, "Where is Mr. Vulture?"

He stood up and prepared to welcome the arrival of Vulture.

"Haha!" Great Warrior of Thunder laughed again. "Why does Mr. Vulture need to come to deal with that brat? We, Three Great Warriors, could handle this. Do you think everyone is as useless as you? You can't beat him. And we have to come to help you end this!"

"You!" Patrick was so angry that he almost vomited blood. If it weren't for the severe injuries all over his body, he would have risked his life and stepped forward to fight the Great Warrior of Thunder.

When Patrick resigned as Three Great Warriors, he refused to accept that Great Warrior of Thunder could replace him.

But he dared not say anything because he had been in front of Vulture.

After all, no one could disobey Vulture's will.

If Patrick dared to object, let alone fight against the Great Warrior of Thunder to prove himself, he might be destroyed by Vulture in person.

"Stop talking nonsense!"

At this time, the Great Warrior of Iron asked, "Max! Where is the guy you mentioned? Didn't he run away?"

Max said hurriedly, "No, he's right here. It's that guy!"

With that said, Max stretched out his hand and pointed directly at Leones.

At this time, Leones calmly observed these three people but didn't take them too seriously.

It was because Leones felt several groups of strangers had secretly surrounded Johnson Manor. Moreover, those people came from different directions. They were obviously not the same party but involved many parties.

For a moment, Leones couldn't figure out the purpose of those people outside coming here. Who were they coming for?

At this time, when Darius and Chad saw the arrival of Three Great Warriors under Vulture's command, they felt a lot of pressure.

"They were indeed the strongest persons under Vulture's command. Each one seems to be powerful..."
Chad was frightened.

As a subordinate, if Leones sent Chad to fight, he might not be able to defeat any of those three people.

Although Darius couldn't figure out the strength of the three, just looking at their momentum, he had a premonition of their unpredictability of strength.

For a moment, Darius wondered whether his master, Leones, could defeat these three people. What if something went wrong with Leones?

Therefore, Darius secretly took out his mobile phone and planned to call his father for help and then see if troops from Fatuma Police Station could be mobilized to come to the rescue.

Otherwise, facing these Three Great Warriors today, Darius would be difficult to escape.

"Yes, he is Leones..."

After seeing Three Great Warriors, David shamelessly supported the Johnson family again to survive and hurriedly moved closer to Max.

“Max, look at how I just cooperated with you by provoking Leones to make him underestimate us and bring in reinforcements in time... Oops...”

Before he could finish his explanation, David was kicked to the ground by Max.

“Three Great Warriors, after you kill Leones later, help me clean up my family and kill David, too!” Max said fiercely.

Chapter 254 Another Seckill

“Killing the ant will dirty our hands!”

Great Warrior of Thunder smiled disdainfully.

“Let’s leave this one to Patrick!”

Faced with Great Warrior of Thunder’s repeated provocations, Patrick couldn’t bear it anymore and said in a deep voice, “When I recover from my injury, I will fight you no matter what!”

“Haha. I’ll wait for you anytime!” Great Warrior of Thunder naturally wouldn’t take Patrick’s challenge seriously.

Moreover, even if Patrick recovered from his injury, whether he could regain some of his former strength was still unknown. Great Warrior of Thunder didn’t worry.

“Patrick, pay attention now.” After saying that, the Great Warrior of Thunder faced Leones again. “How can I fight someone you can’t beat!”

Although the Three Great Warriors had arrived together, seeing that Leones was alone and unremarkable, they naturally didn’t bother to attack Leones simultaneously.

“Great Warrior of Thunder, be careful. Do underestimate the enemy,” The Great Warrior of Iron stood aside and warned, “The one who can defeat Patrick is somewhat capable.”

“Hey, Great Warrior of Iron, don’t worry,” Great Warrior of Thunder said, “Three moves! I only need three moves! If I can’t kill that kid, you can kill me!”

Hearing this, Great Warrior of Flame smiled and said nothing. Great Warrior of Iron said no more.

Although the Three Great Warriors were both generals under Vulture, their relationship was limited to colleagues, and there were even many disputes between them. Great Warrior of Iron could remind Great Warrior of Thunder was out of their friendship. As for whether Great Warrior of Thunder listened or not, whether he lived or died, it was none of their business.

Great Warrior of Thunder’s eyes were locked on Leones for a moment.

Upon seeing this, Darius secretly made a phone call, hoping to seek his father’s help.

But Darius was surprised to find that the signal here was blocked!

Chad also had a solemn look and whispered, "Dragon King, what about we cooperate and fight him together?"

If Leones were ready to retreat, Chad would risk his life and fight to the death to help Leones leave safely.

"No need!" Leones shook his head slightly. "About what I taught you just now, the secret of Dragon Fist, did you understand and get it?"

"What?" Chad was startled and then became anxious, wondering why Leones mentioned the battle just now at this point.

Moreover, the current opponent was not as weak as just now!

Seeing Chad's absent-minded look, Leones shook his head slightly, knowing that Chad didn't understand it, let alone experience it.

"The secret of Dragon Fist is to move according to the heart. The specific effect coincides with elements," Leones said calmly, "I'm good with fire, so the Dragon Fist I used is the Fire Dragon

"Originally, I wanted to give you advice and let you compete with that person. But now it seems that I should do it myself."

Chad was startled, thinking that with his little strength, it was too late to improvise. How could he fight the opponent?

But Chad didn't know he missed an opportunity for promotion.

"What are you talking about over there? Don't worry. None of you can escape!"

Saying, the Great Warrior of Thunder looked at Leones again.

“Boy, do you want to suicide, or do you want me to kill you myself?”

The Great Warrior of Thunder’s eyes were full of contempt and cruelty.

The Great Warrior of Thunder was like a b about to take action when facing his p

Leones said calmly.

Great Warrior of Thunder did not understand what Leones meant.

prey.

Great Warrior of Thunder thought, “Could it be that this kid still has some self–awareness and knows he can’t take any of my moves?”

Leones said, “I mean, three moves are too many for me to deal with you. One move is enough!” Saying, Leones stood up and slapped the table.

Accompanied by the sound of tigers and dragons roaring, Leones punched Great Warrior of Thunder directly.

“Well done!”

Great Warrior of Thunder saw this and smiled nonchalantly.

“I’ll show you my Thirty–six Thunderclap!”

The reason Great Warrior of Thunder had this title was because of his unique Thunderclap. Once Thunderclap was used, it was like lightning and thunder.

At this time, the Great Warrior of Thunder was like a god controlling thunder and lightning, his hands making crackling sounds.

When everyone around saw this, he suddenly felt numb and backed away in shock.

“As expected of one of the Three Great Warriors under Vulture’s command, he is mighty once he takes action!”

“Yeah, I feel numb all over my body, as if I’ve been electrocuted. No wonder he is called Great Warrior of Thunder!”

“Leones will be dead! No matter how powerful his Fire Dragon Fist is, can it still be compared to thunder and lightning?”

Even Patrick couldn’t help being shocked when he saw the Thunderclap and thought, “I’m not that good!”

No wonder Vulture asked Great Warrior of Thunder to replace Patrick’s position as Great Warrior of Ice. Even when Patrick was young and in his prime, he was still inferior to the Great Warrior of Thunder.

“Mr. Bloom... be careful!” Darius followed Chad and took a few steps back to avoid the attack, but he was still worried about Leones, who was rushing towards Great Warrior of Thunder.

In a minute, just when everyone was shocked by the thunder and lightning effect of the Thunderclap, they did not realize that the surrounding air was also rising suddenly.

The entire hall was as if on the volcano’s crater that was about to erupt, making people feel uneasy.

“What?” Great Warrior of Iron and Great Warrior of Flame looked at each other in surprise as if they noticed something.

But it was too late!

In an instant, Leones’ fist force was like a giant fire dragon rising, approaching the Great Warrior of Thunder with overwhelming force.

The Great Warrior of Thunder gathered his energy and used his Thunderclap to resist as if traps had been set around his body, hiding murderous intentions.

Boom!

The fists and palms met. And was a muffled sound.

Suddenly, the Great Warrior of Thunder felt like his palms were torn apart, and his arms lost all feeling.

“What?” Upon seeing this, Great Warrior of Thunder couldn’t help but take a breath of air, thinking something terrible happened.

He wanted to leave, but it was already too late.

Boom!

After another roar, although Leones’ fist was still three feet away from the Great Warrior of Thunder, the power of Leones’ punch, wrapped in a heat wave, had submerged the Great Warrior of Thunder.

“Ah!” The Great Warrior of Thunder suddenly let out a shrill scream and felt torture and pain as if he had been put in a volcano.

Immediately afterward, everyone saw his hair standing and smoke coming from the top of his head. Black smoke coming out of his mouth. Instead, his whole body seemed to be scorched by lightning. His eyes rolled, and he fell backward.

Everyone didn't know whether the Great Warrior of Thunder was live or die!

When everyone saw this, they couldn't help but gasped.

The silence in the hall was terrifying, and for a moment, everyone seemed to have lost their voice.

Seckill!

Another seckill!

No

one would have thought that when facing one of the Three Great Warriors, Leones could kill his opponent instantly without any effort!

Patrick was even stunned.

Just now, he thought that he underestimated Great Warrior of Thunder, but now it seemed that who he really underestimated was the young man in front of him named Leones!*

"These men of yours are all too weak. Together, they are not strong enough for me to fight!"

At this time, Leones stood with his hands behind his back and said loudly, "Vulture, since you are

What?

Vulture was there too?

As soon as Leones said these words, everyone around him was surprised.

They looked around but couldn't see Vulture.

"Is Mr. Vulture coming or not?"

At this time, Max was completely panicked.

Seeing that the Great Warrior of Thunder, another one of the Three Great Warriors, was defeated, he learned that Leones was invincible. What should he do?

In Max's opinion, perhaps only Vulture himself could suppress that man.

"What? Dragon King is that too powerful?" Chad was also shocked and speechless for a long time. It seemed that he still underestimated the new Dragon King. The Dragon Fist used in the hands of the Dragon King had an unrivaled momentum.

"Mr. Bloom! You're so strong! I knew you ouldn't lose!" While Darius breathed a sigh of relief, he thought excitedly to himself, "Maybe Vulture, the most powerful person in Fatuma, is also no match for his master."

"Mr. Bloom is so awesome! Hahaha.., Mr. Bloom, I knew you would definitely win!"

"Well... You so-called Great Warriors, listen up! If you don't want to die, surrender quickly and beg for mercy."

David once again pretended to be powerful and spoke provocatively towards Great Warrior of Iron and Great Warrior of Flame.

At this moment, the faces of Great Warrior of Iron and Great Warrior of Flame had gradually turned pale from their previous calmness.

They had also paid attention to the opponent Leones. After all, if he could defeat their former colleague, Patrick, it wouldn't be easy to deal with him. He even kindly reminded Great Warrior of Thunder.

He just didn't expect that the other party would be so powerful!

Now it seemed that reminding Great Warrior of Thunder just now was redundant.

No matter whether Great Warrior of Thunder underestimated the enemy or took it seriously, he would be completely defeated.

“You piece of shit. If you dare to speak nonsense against me again, I will kill you now!”

Leones was strong, but even the people around Leones dared to be presumptuous towards him. David’s arrogance immediately angered Great Warrior of Iron.

Just one glare scared David terribly.

“Mr. Bloom, help...”

With that said, David hurriedly hid behind Leones.

“Kiddo, you are indeed very strong.” Great Warrior of Iron admitted, “But if you want to challenge

Mr. Vulture like this, you are still far away!”

With that said, Great Warrior of Iron shouted, “Flame, do it!”

The two Great Warriors must join forces to fight Leones.

“Okay!”

Great Warrior of Flame answered in a dramatic tone. His figure was like a ghost, erratic, and finally appeared beside Leones.

He raised his hand and blew gently into his palm.

Suddenly, a refreshing fragrance hit Leones' face.

People around Leones who were affected by this suddenly became dizzy, as if they had escaped into an illusion and were unable to extricate themselves.

David, who was good at using evil magic, was also immediately caught in the trap. He was caught in the illusion and forgot about himself.

"Go to sleep. Go to sleep..."

ke

The voice of Great Warrior of Flame was a devil whispering in their ears.

But unfortunately, he could bewitch others, but he could never bewitch Leones.

Leones' body and will were invulnerable to all poisons and evils.

"Is that all you got? Do you think you can get me?"

Leones snorted disdainfully and raised his hand to fight back.

"What?"

When Great Warrior of Flame saw this, he couldn't help but be secretly shocked. He didn't expect that his Enchanting Powder would have no effect on this person.

With enough Enchanting Powder, even Vulture would be affected by it.

And the young man in front of him seemed to be as solid as a rock. Was he invulnerable?

Boom!

Leones' punch was so fierce and domineering that it immediately shocked Great Warrior of Flame, causing his nose to bleed and his face to be disfigured.

"You!"

Great Warrior of Flame touched the nosebleed, which made him furious.

However, Leones' punch just now was just a feint, like chasing away a fly that was in the way.

And the real killer move was yet to come.

"Dragon Hiding!"

Leones once again used the Dragon Hiding move among the nine moves of Dragon Fist.

In an instant, there were sounds of dragons roaring all around, like thunder exploding!

Along with this huge and astonishing momentum, people who were deeply enchanted seemed to have been awakened. They all came to their senses and were amazed, wondering what had just happened.

Leones punched out again, and the sound was overwhelming.

Great Warrior of Flame only felt a wave of heat coming towards his face.

He was so shocked that his face turned pale.

He was good at playing tricks and attacking behind his back, just like an assassin in the dark. When he faced such a massive offensive, he would be unable to deal with it.

“Iron, save me!”

Great Warrior of Flame called for help from Great Warrior of Iron on the side and then used all his strength.

But while dodging, it was still like being buried in a sea of fire. He covered up the melting makeup and let out a harsh and shrill scream.

“No! My face!”

Under the threat of the Fire Dragon Fist, Great Warrior of Flame revealed his true face, which turned out to be a face that had been disfigured for a long time.

Coupled with this time’s bombardment, it was even worse and completely destroyed.

“Leones! Go to hell.”

At this moment, Great Warrior of Iron on the other side, from nowhere, raised a huge ax with great force and struck Leones’ head directly.

Chapter 256 Continuous Killings

“Be careful!”

Chad saw this and quickly reminded him.

“You are talking too much!” The Great Warrior of Iron’s palm came through the air and knocked back Chad several steps away.

Chad vomited blood with a horrified look on his face.

Such a disparity in strength between the two showed that Leones’ strength was far beyond that of ordinary people.

Suddenly...

Leones directly destroyed Great Warrior of Flame’s appearance with one punch, and the power of Dragon Fist was unstoppable.

The Great Warrior of Iron on the side also seized this fleeting moment and struck Leones with an ax like lightning.

With this ax, the Great Warrior of Iron could even split a mountain.

“Go to hell!”

Great Warrior of Iron gritted his teeth and showed a ferocious expression.

Facing the ax that was so close at hand, Leones did not panic or dodge, and he just said softly, “Sword!”

In an instant, the sword box suddenly unfolded, and there were several rays of light coming out of it.

Suddenly, a simple and ancient giant sword lay in Leones' hand.

It was the Giant Sharp Sword.

"What?"

Great Warrior of Iron was shocked when he saw the scene of a sword coming from nowhere. Immediately, the giant sword was raised by Leones, holding the Great Warrior of Iron's giant ax. Only a loud bang was heard.

The moment the swords and axes collided.

Great Warrior of Iron's giant ax was as if it had been decapitated, with only the handle left, and the entire ax head had been shattered by the sword!

Boom!

The ax handle in Great Warrior of Iron's came after Leones but missed him.

"Wait... How is this possible!?"

Seeing the weapon in his hand turn from an ax to a stick in an instant, Great Warrior of Iron was stunned and shocked.

He never dreamed that the other party could easily resolve his offensive move in this way.

It was as if the ax became as fragile as glass in front of the sword.

“You... What kind of sword is that?”

There was a look of disbelief on Great Warrior of Iron’s face, and he immediately had the idea of coveting it.

If such a huge sword fell into his hands, wouldn’t it be even more powerful?

Although his ax was shattered, it would be a blessing in disguise if he could obtain this sword as a result!

“Give me the sword!”

Without any explanation, the Great Warrior of Iron regained his energy, spread his arms, and crushed Leones like a giant elephant.

His big hand was like a net, coming towards Leones.

“You ask for it!”

Leones swung his sword again.

But Great Warrior of Iron didn’t care and even showed a proud look.

“I have practiced armor training and am invulnerable. I have entered the realm of transformation. My strength is comparable to that of a Third–rank Grandmaster. How can you hurt me?”

While speaking, Great Warrior of Iron actually used his own body and both arms to directly take the Giant Sharp Sword by force.

There was a flash of cold light, and the sword was raised and dropped.

Great Warrior of Iron's hands firmly grasped the blade, as if he was trying to fight for it.

But the next second!

The Great Warrior of Iron's arms were suddenly cut off by the sword!

"Ouch!"

Great Warrior of Iron looked at his arms that had fallen to the ground and his hands that had been chopped into two pieces, and he immediately let out a painful cry.

The armor training he was so proud of was destroyed by the opponent's sword!

"No! This is impossible!"

Great Warrior of Iron took a step back, gritted his teeth, and wanted to charge towards Leones again.

Using his Iron Head

he did not give him any room to fight back.

Immediately afterward, Leones

He raised his sword again.

Although they were several feet apart, the energy of the sword was too powerful, like a long chain.

It directly tore open Great Warrior of Iron's chest, exposing the bones and internal organs inside.

“No!” Great Warrior of Iron screamed again.

Then, he leaned back and fell into a pool of blood.

-Suddenly...

From the fight between Leones and the Great Warrior of Flame to killing the Great Warrior of Iron, it only took a few minutes.

Seeing Leones killing the Three Great Warriors one after another, just like chopping vegetables, everyone around them was stunned.

“What just happened?”

Everyone in the Johnson family was dumbfounded.

If they hadn't seen it with their own eyes, who would have dared to believe that Three Great Warriors under Vulture, who had been running rampant in Fatuma for decades, were actually killed by the same person at the same time?

And almost all of them were crushed, leaving no room to fight back.

At the scene, everyone fell into shock, and there was a deathly silence.

Leones did not stop.

The three Firefly Swords in the sword box had also risen into the sky one after another, aiming directly at the ceiling of the hall.

There was a rumble and a loud noise.

The roof beam above the hall got a hole.

The three swords, flanked by the front and back, seemed to form an airtight sword net surrounding a figure hidden outside,

“Vulture!”

Leones shouted again, “Since here, why don’t you show up?”

“Get down here!”

The words had not

you a

yet finished.

Boom! There was another noise.

Under the control of the three swords, another huge and burly figure fell from the sky like a falling black stone and landed heavily in the center of the hall.

Chapter 257 The Power of Vulture

A dark shadow fell from the sky suddenly.

After landing, a deep pit suddenly appeared on the ground.

It was like a meteorite falling to the ground.

That person was tall and strong, covered in mink fur. At first glance, he looked like a ferocious. beast, with a hawk–like gaze and a gloomy expression.

“Not bad. You actually found me!”

He spoke slowly in a hoarse voice.

As he waved his hands, he used his Aix Galericulata Axe to easily break free from the Firefly Sword.

At just this moment, this person exuded vital energy, sweeping across the entire place like a typhoon passing through, and everyone fled.

“Vulture?”

After seeing this person’s appearance’ clearly, those who had been lucky enough to see Vulture all exclaimed with horrified expressions on their faces.

“Is that Vulture?”

“He looks so scary!”

“Is that the Vulture, who is known as the most ruthless person in Fatuma?”

Everyone watched intently, their faces full of fear and curiosity.

“Mr. Vulture!”

Max saw Vulture really coming and was excited and afraid at the same time. He bowed his head and cried, “Mr. Vulture, you have to avenge us...”

and

When Patrick saw this, he quickly stepped forward, bowed respectfully, greeted Vulture. When Vulture was a bandit, he had a group of friends who worshiped him. Everyone respected him a lot back then.

Later on, Vulture became famous in Fatuma, and all his former friends became his subordinates.

So, they still called him Mr. Vulture.

“A magic weapon?”

At this time, Leones noticed that the pair of Aix Galericulata Axe in Vulture’s hands was not an ordinary weapon but a magic weapon.

No wonder his three Firefly Swords were blown away in a moment.

Vulture looked around and saw that his Three Great Warriors were either dead or seriously injured, and he couldn’t help but become furious.

“Useless! You can’t even handle this little thing. What’s the point of keeping you?”

As he spoke, Vulture raised his hands as if there was a strong suction force in his palms.

He actually sucked the Great Warrior of Iron and Great Warrior of Flame who were lying on the ground and pinched their throats with both hands.

Immediately afterward, something incredible happened.

The two whimpered in pain, but because their throats were pinched, they couldn’t even make a sound. Their expressions of pain and despair were unbearable to watch.

In a matter of seconds, the two of them were sucked their lives out of them by Vulture, turning into two mummies!

Hiss...

In an instant, when everyone around him saw this, they trembled a little, and they couldn't help but take a breath.

"So... What happened to those two people?"

"Well... It seems like there is nothing left in them."

"Vulture is really terrifying... He changed two living people into mummies!"

Max's face changed drastically when he saw this.

He knew very well that Vulture knew some evil skills, which required him to suck the spirit and blood of living people for its use, so the Johnson family always found live people for Vulture.

But this was the first time Max had seen it with his own eyes.

Such a horrifying scene also made him shiver all over and turn pale with fear.

Immediately, Vulture sneered, smacked his lips, and praised, "The spirit and blood of a strong man can stand up to a hundred ordinary people. What a pity... Such a strong man is too few. It's not enough for me!"

If it weren't for the fact that these two people were seriously injured and difficult to recover from, and even if they were revived, it would be difficult to regain their former strength. Vulture would really be reluctant to sacrifice these two Great Warriors.

"You two..."

Immediately afterward, Vulture looked at Great Warrior of Thunder and Great Warrior of Ice with some unfinished thoughts.

"No. Mr. Vulture. Please let me live..." Upon seeing this, the Great Warrior of Ice was so frightened that he backed away, trembling all over.

Vulture raised his hand again and held these two people hostage.

One person in each hand, pinching the necks of the two of them, like lifting two chickens.

"Don't you two always want to compete all the time?"

"Let's see which of you can last longer. Let's see who is more qualified to be in charge in the future!"

As he said that, Vulture used both palms to draw the spirit and blood of the two of them into his body.

"No..." The two struggled, whimpering in pain, and rolled their eyes.

After a moment, the Great Warrior of Thunder died first. After all, he had been seriously injured in the fight with Leones just now, and how could he withstand it when his blood and essence were drained from his body?

On the contrary, Patrick, the Great Warrior of Ice, who had been cultivating for a long time, survived to the end.

After hearing Vulture say he won, Patrick tilted his head and died.

After sucking the spirit and blood of four strong men, Vulture gently took a deep breath.

Immediately, another unfathomable force erupted from his body, causing the entire hall to tremble slightly as if there was an earthquake.

It also caused everyone around to panic.

“Nice! Fuck yeah!”

Vulture was very satisfied with this integration, which made him stronger.

It felt like there was endless power all over his body, and his strength was even greater.

“Mr. Johnson!”

At this time, Vulture suddenly asked again, “Have you prepared enough people for me?”

Hearing this, Max was so frightened that he hurriedly bowed and said, “Mr. Vulture...”

“The ten virgins you want are indeed a bit difficult to get, but I have prepared ten living people for you...”

As soon as these words came out, Leones frowned slightly.

Unexpectedly, the Johnson family would sacrifice numerous living people to Vulture.

Such bad behavior should be punished!

“No wonder no one dared to approach this place when we came here.” Darius immediately realized this with anger on his face. “It turns out that the disappearances here were all caused by them!

“If someone does such a thing in broad daylight, will Fatuma Police Station just ignore it!?”

Although Darius tried his best to suppress his voice, these words still reached the ears of Vulture.

“Hahaha... You do have a sense of justice, don’t you?”

While speaking, Vulture pointed directly at Darius.

“Then, how about you die for them?”

As he said that, Vulture raised his hand towards Darius.

A huge suction force, like a hurricane, pulled Darius to fly forward involuntarily.

Chapter 258 Are You Ready?

“No!”

Darius screamed, and his whole body was sucked over like falling leaves.

“Mr. Bloom... Mr. Bloom, save me!”

Leones saw this.

He stretched out his hand and grabbed Darius’ ankle.

Then, he pulled Darius back again.

But that terrifying suction seemed to be locked on Darius.

Leones stood in front of him to block him, but there was still a force tearing at Darius' body.

In the blink of an eye, Darius' skin and hair were about to be forcibly torn off, and even the facial features were deformed by the suction.

"Interesting..."

Leones didn't expect that Vulture could actually know this skill, Soul Dementing!

This terrifying suction power, if used by a stronger person at a higher level, could even pull out a person's soul in a moment.

But Vulture was still in the stage of sucking human spirit and blood.

Immediately, Leones made another move with his hand. Like cutting through a chain, he cut off this huge suction force and rescued Darius.

"Oh my god..."

Darius was lying on the ground, gasping for air. He felt like he was completely dazed just now, and his mind went blank.

"What?"

Vulture frowned again and aimed at Leones again.

Unexpectedly, this man could cut off his power with one blow.

really amazing

Such a crisp and neat approach was really amazing.

No wonder the Three Great Warriors under his command were all defeated by him.

Now, it seemed that they had no choice.

“What’s the point of sucking the blood of an ordinary person?”

Leones said calmly, “Would you like to try mine?”

What?

When Vulture heard this, he was startled. He had never heard of such a request.

What was the difference between this and asking for death?

“You want to use this method to get me to let others go, right?”

Vulture immediately misunderstood and mistakenly thought that Leones wanted to sacrifice himself in exchange for the lives of others.

“Okay! As long as you let me drain your spirit and blood, I can let them go and let them return to Sherland safely!”

In the eyes of Vulture, the spirit and blood of a powerful person like Leones were comparable to that of a thousand ordinary people.

This was a great deal.

“Mr. Bloom, no!” Darius was shocked when he heard this. He didn’t expect Leones to sacrifice himself.

“Dragon King! It doesn’t have to be like this!” Chad also said, “I’ll cover you guys and take you out of the city!”

Chad also misunderstood that with the sudden appearance of Vulture, who was so intimidating that it would be extremely difficult for them to escape unscathed.

But he must not sacrifice the Dragon King. Otherwise, he would be so ashamed when going back.

“Hahaha!”

Leones smiled nonchalantly.

“You want my spirit and blood, but I’m afraid your appetite isn’t big enough to hold it!”

Hearing this, Vulture suddenly became energetic and grinned.

“Kiddo, don’t be cocky.

“Then let me see how much spirit and blood you have. Let me suck it!”

Then, Vulture once again raised his palms and came towards Leones.

Suddenly, there was a strong wind.

Leones only felt a strong suction coming towards his face.

He was pulled by the force, which was trying to drag his whole body towards Vulture.

Seeing this, Leones did not resist but took advantage of the situation. He raised both palms and headed towards Vulture.

Boom!

In the blink of an eye, Leones' palms hit the palms of Vulture.

The two of them had their fingers intertwined, as if they didn't want the other to break free.

"Hahaha!" Vulture grinned, showing a cruel smile as if Leones had become his meal.

Leones didn't care and let his palms interlock with each other, not separating from each other.

"Dragon King!"

When Chad saw this, he mistakenly thought that Leones was being sucked in by the other party and was unable to escape.

So, Chad raised his Dragon Fist and attacked Vulture desperately.

"Let

go of the Dragon King!"

Dragon Hiding!

Chad's Dragon Fist was of extraordinary strength.

But in the eyes of Vulture, it was nothing.

He didn't even move.

The powerful aura that erupted all over his body was enough to knock Chad away.

Boom!

Chad fell a few feet away and wanted to get up to fight again.

"Goldendrake!" At this time, Leones said, "Don't worry about me! You just protect others. Let me deal with him myself!" }

After hearing the Dragon King's order, Chad knew that he was no match for Vulture, so he could only give up for the time being.

"Kiddo, are you ready?"

Before he finished speaking, Vulture once again activated his power, using his palms as a medium to forcefully absorb the spirit and blood from Leones' body.

"You killed the four Great Warriors under my command, and you will pay with your life!"

Leones was speechless when he heard this. Didn't those four people all die at Vulture's hands and be sucked into mummies?

But before he could say anything more, the power in his body was already being drained away by Vulture.

“Damn!”

Vulture took a deep breath and praised in surprise, “What a mellow spirit and blood! You really have an extraordinary physique!”

“I’m getting a good deal! What a treat!”

Vulture perked up and, like a glutton, continuously sucked out the spirit and blood from Leones’ body.

Chapter 259 Suck All His Blood

At this moment, the scene was completely silent.

Everyone stared at the two of them.

Vulture was like a glutton eating, constantly sucking Leones’ essence and blood.

Everyone was shocked.

“Leones... is going to die now! He will become a mummy like those four people before!”

“He was smart. When Vulture appeared, he immediately sacrificed himself to save his people. Otherwise, the three of them would all die here!”

“Hey, I thought he would have a few tricks with Vulture. But he didn’t prepare to fight and was willing to die? It’s really sad and deplorable!”

Everyone was lamenting this.

“Dragon King...” Chad’s eyes were red. He wanted to rush forward to save Leones, but he remembered the Dragon King’s last order and did not dare to live up to his sacrifice.

At this time, due to the terrifying aura of Vulture, the blocked signal was briefly restored, and Darius finally dialed his father’s phone with difficulty.

Although the signal was still very poor and intermittent, Darius notified his father on the other side of the emergency.

“Dad! Contact Fatuma Police Station quickly! Let them send people to support us!

“Mr. Bloom is about to be killed by Vulture!

“It’s urgent! Hurry up!”

Darius didn’t know whether his words were passed through, so he could only yell repeatedly.

Seeing the situation, Max couldn’t help but admire Leones’ spirit of sacrifice, so he was exceptionally kind.

“Bury Leones with honors later.

“And escort the two people who followed him back to Sherland!”

After saying that, Max glared at David again and said deliberately, “Not including you!

“You will know how I deal with you later!”

David's repeated changing of his mind and side had already thoroughly irritated Max.

He thought that for the sake of Leones' sacrifice, he could let go of Chad and Darius, who came with Leones.

But he would never let go of David and his entire family.

"It's over. It's over... It's all over now!"

David was so frightened that he squatted on the ground. He had never expected he would finally step into the abyss after his flattering and showing homage to different owners.

He couldn't see the hope of a comeback now and knew he was on the verge of death.

And at the same time, it had been thirty minutes since Vulture absorbed Leones' blood.

Vulture thought it was almost over.

But he didn't expect that Leones looked directly at him with a half-smile, with a lazy look on his face, as if he hadn't suffered much and showed no signs of decline.

He couldn't see any signs of Leones being mummified. Leones' body and bones had not changed at all.

"What!?"

When Vulture saw this, he couldn't help but be secretly shocked.

How could the essence and blood in this kid's body be mellow and like an endless river?

Vulture now knew why Leones dared say he couldn't take in all his blood.

“That is so great!”

Vulture regained his energy again and increased his power. This wouldn't be trouble. He would take it as a gift to suck double the amount.

“Since you have so much blood essence, I want it all the more. I want it all!”

Another fifteen minutes elapsed.

Vulture's lower abdomen was slightly bulging, showing signs of being “full.”

The evil skills he cultivated couldn't swallow up things endlessly. It would reach a critical point according to his strength.

But seeing that the power of essence and blood was about to reach the critical point, his body was really about to couldn't hold on any longer.

But Leones in front of him still seemed intact, and the essence and blood in his body continued to flow.

It seemed as if it was inexhaustible!

“This...”

Vulture finally showed a surprised look.

He didn't know what kind of physique Leones had and how Leones could have had so much essence and blood. He wondered, “Would he bear it? What a hell!”

Whether Leones would bear it shouldn't be Vulture's worry since Vulture himself was unable to stand it anymore.

"Bastard, you are a tough guy!"

Vulture had to admit defeat. He really couldn't swallow all the Leones' blood in one breath.

"I will do this again next time!"

As he said that, Vulture couldn't help but smile proudly and prepared to put Leones under house arrest and then take him out for use during the subsequent cultivation.

In this way, he had an endless supply of blood essence.

This was much better than taking it from ordinary people.

Vulture wanted to stop.

But Leones' ten fingers were like iron pliers, firmly blocking Vulture's hands.

The power of essence and blood was still flowing into the body of Vulture.

"You... What are you going to do?"

go

of me!"

Vulture was a little panicked.

He wanted to stop absorbing, but Leones seemed unwilling to follow his wish.

Even after he stopped the suction of his palms, a steady stream of power was still pouring into Vulture's body.

"No, stop it!"

Vulture was so scary.

Leones took the initiative to push the power of essence and blood into the body of Vulture.

"You... Are you crazy!?"

Vulture struggled desperately but could not break free from Leones' restraints.

"What? Can't you suck anymore?"

Leones smiled faintly.

"If you can't suck it in, spit it out twice as much!"

While speaking, the power of blood and essence that Leones pushed into Vulture's body instantly set off tremendous waves in Vulture's body.

Immediately afterward, an even more terrifying adsorption force condensed from between Leones' palms.

Instead, the essence and blood in the body of Vulture were sucked back crazily.

In an instant, Leones felt a force of energy swallowing mountains and rivers around his body as if he were about to swallow Vulture with one mouthful.

Chapter 260 Container Physique

In the blink of an eye, offense and defense change!

The essence and blood that Vulture had just sucked out of Leones' body was sucked back in a steady stream!

Moreover, even Vulture's own blood and essence were sucked out uncontrollably.

"How could it be?"

Vulture was horrified when he saw this, and he tried his best but could not reverse it.

The flow of energy and blood in his body was like a river bursting its banks, unable to stop.

In a moment, Vulture returned all the energy and blood he had just absorbed and lost a lot of his energy and blood. It could be said that it was a heavy loss.

"Damn you, brat! What kind of tricks are you playing?"

Vulture gnashed his teeth and was furious. Due to the excessive loss of essence and blood, his face gradually turned pale and dim.

"It has never crossed your mind that your blood will be sucked by others, hasn't it? You are always the attacker and always win." Leones sneered, "Anyone who does unrighteousness will be killed!"

Vulture was frightened and angry.

At the same time, it was his turn to try to break free, but instead, he was tightly clasped by Leones' fingers, unable to stop it.

"Let go of me!"

Vulture roared angrily.

"In such a hurry to get away? Haha..." Leones said coldly, "I told you I would make you spit it out twice as much!"

As he spoke, the essence and blood in Vulture's body continued to overflow.

"You brat! You're looking for death!"

Vulture roared and exerted force with both arms, wanting to throw Leones away.

However, Leones' center of gravity shifted downwards as if roots were growing under his feet.

No matter how hard Vulture tried, he couldn't move Leones at all.

Vulture was shocked again. He didn't expect that his arm strength could not shake the opponent. He used all his strength and stretched out his arms, trying to tear Leones into two halves. However, Leones' arms were as if they were weighed down by a thousand pounds and could not be shaken.

"Haha..." Leones sneered, as calm as a mountain.

Vulture was completely panicked.

It was the first time in his life that he had lost so wholly in a competition.

He had tried his best but could not move Leones for an inch. Leones even looked calm and relaxed, as if he still had reservations.

Vulture thought, "Could he have divine power?"

Moreover, what made Vulture feel extremely horrified was that the amount of blood essence and blood he had sucked exceeded what ordinary people could load, and even he was almost bursting.

But Leones sucked it back twice as much and showed no signs of being unable to hold on after sucking his blood in one gulp.

He thought, "What kind of physique does this kid have? How could he still be so calm after absorbing so much essence and blood?"

This was like a person eating a meal for ten people. How could such a large amount of stomach. not surprise people?

Vulture thought he was already a big eater for devouring human essence and blood.

And he had never expected that there was someone better than him. He actually met someone who could devour more than him!

Leones was like an evil ghost who died of hunger in his last life, so he had an enormous appetite this life.

"Haha!"

Leones was not afraid and smiled calmly.

He swallowed double the amount of blood essence in one breath effortlessly.

Little did he know that he had a unique “container” physique.

It was precisely because of his unique physique that could accommodate almost everything that Leones learned everything he could from one hundred prisoners in prison.

With this kind of “container” physique, he could take it all in without effort, no matter what he learned, endured, or devoured.

For ordinary people, being able to master one or two stunts already required countless efforts, but for Leones, it was as simple as drinking water.

At this moment, everyone around them also vaguely felt something was wrong and noticed the subtle changes between them.

Vulture domineeringly swallowed Leones’ essence and blood in the beginning, but he suddenly became shocked, and finally, he kept desperately yelling and completely lost control.

His absolute advantage gradually turned into a disadvantage. Everyone could see it clearly, and they were also shocked and unbelievable.

“What’s going on over there? Why does it seem like Vulture wants to break free from Leones’ shackles?”

“I don’t know! This is the first time I’ve seen Mr. Vulture look so panicked, and there’s even a hint of fear in his eyes!”

They were right.

Vulture,

known as the strongest person in Fatuma, showed a hint of timidity!

Everyone looked at it and couldn't believe it at all.

They wondered, "Vulture was scared? What was he afraid of? That Leones?"

"Mr. Vulture... He's not going to lose, right?"

Finally, someone murmured, and after saying it, even he himself was shocked and thought it was impossible.

He thought, "How could the strongest man in Fatuma be defeated by an unknown young man?"

That was impossible!"

In one breath, Leones finally devoured enough blood essence for his own use.

It was worthy of a top expert's essence, blood, and strength. After these were integrated into the body, he seemed to have endless power.

However, this kind of cultivation method of sucking other people's essence and blood was ultimately an evil practice.

Leones didn't bother to suck more..

"It's almost enough!"

Leones let go of his hand.

In an instant, as if receiving a general amnesty, Vulture immediately retreated his hand and stepped back.

As if a snake had bitten him, he tried to avoid Leones.

When everyone around saw it, they were surprised again.

Not only was Leones not sucked into a mummy, but Vulture seemed to have been bitten back with a look of fear.

“Damn it!

“Asshole!

“I’m going to kill you!”

Under the gaze of everyone, this was the first time that Vulture was in such a miserable state.

In the hearts of everyone, that invincible image seemed to be shattered to pieces.

After Vulture took a breath and calmed down, the shock and fear in his eyes gradually dissipated.

And once again, he cheered up and took out the Aix Galericulata Axe.

Devouring the essence and blood of others was just a cultivation method for him to seek shortcuts.

And his truly famous stunt lay in the Aix Galericulata Axe in his hand.

Vulture had three unique skills when living in the martial arts world. His sharp eyes, strong legs. that could walk easily on different grounds, and the axe.

He had the ability to recognize people and choose talents, his legs could walk on snow-capped mountains as well as on flat ground, and he had the Aix Galericulata Axe. Countless strong men died under that axe, became dead souls, and were buried in Chamber Mountain.

Vulture showed the Aix Galericulata Axe, intending to cut Leones into pieces to vent his hatred!

Facing the magic weapon-level Aix Galericulata Axe, Leones did not dare to neglect and took his Giant Sharp Sword.

Just as the two of them were about to confront each other again.

“Stop!”

A soft call came from outside.

Two teams of people swarmed in and entered the Johnson Manor.
