

Out of Prison 271

Chapter 271 Kill

What?

People could be taken away, but lives must be left behind?

Wasn't that just asking to take a body back?

Leones was probably the first one who dared to talk to the ancient warrior like this.

As soon as these words came out, everyone at the scene was shocked again.

"Isn't this kid crazy? How dare he talk to the ancient warriors from Chamber Mountain like this?" "He doesn't know what it means to be an ancient warrior, right? Ancient warriors cannot be insulted! Not to mention that he is a commoner. Even if the president of Fatuma Police Station is here, he will not dare to be arrogant to the ancient families!"

"Haha. He doesn't think that because he can defeat Vulture, he is qualified to challenge the ancient families, right? This is too overestimating his own abilities!"

Everyone felt sorry for Leones' arrogance and ignorance.

Defeating Vulture had already brought Leones both fame and fortune, so why bother to continue chattering with the ancient warriors?

Wasn't Leones asking for trouble?

"Dragon King, forget it!" Chad also quickly intervened, fearing that Leones would say something more extreme and anger the ancient families of Chamber Mountain, which would be more of a loss than a gain.

“Yes, Mr. Bloom.” Darius also gulped and said, “Just let them take Vulture away! Anyway, we are here to settle accounts with the Johnson family. We have no grudges with Vulture.”

At this time, even Lily intervened to smooth things over, saying, “The bandit suppression operation ends here! Mr. Bloom, let’s stop. Don’t make this ancient warrior look bad!”

Lily knew that if they continued to argue, they would only suffer the loss.

How could ordinary people be qualified to reason with the ancient families?

“You are a wise man who knows the current affairs. Forget it!” Ares also said.

When Vulture saw this situation, he couldn’t help but sneer, “Kid, don’t you dare not give respect to the ancient warriors of Chamber Mountain. You are really looking for death!”

“I’m just standing here. You try to move me again if you dare!”

Vulture was standing behind Lucius while placing his hands on his waist. It had the power of a fox pretending to be a tiger, and it was certain that Leones was quick to talk and did not dare to act.

No matter what, he wouldn’t dare to cross the path of an ancient warrior and kill someone!

At this moment, Lucius couldn’t help but smile coldly and said, “I dare you to kill someone in front of me. I’m afraid you don’t have the ability yet!”

But at this time, no matter what others said, persuaded, or even threatened, Leones stood his ground.

“I will decide the fate of Vulture today!”

Before he finished speaking, Leones suddenly took out the sword in his hand and approached Vulture right away.

“Hiss!”

Seeing this situation, everyone was shocked again.

No one dared to believe that Leones actually dared to take action!

They also could not believe that he dared to do it in front of the ancient warrior.

They wondered if Leones was courting death.

“Mr. Bloom!” Darius exclaimed, his eyes widening.

“D—Don’t do it... Dragon King!” Chad’s heart sank, and he felt something was wrong.

In the blink of an eye.

Leones’ sword was fast and urgent,

When others saw his move clearly, the sword was already piercing Vulture’s throat, very close at hand!

“Ah!”

When Vulture saw this, he was too frightened to see it. He looked at Leones with eyes as if he were looking at a madman.

Vulture thought to himself, “This kid is really crazy. He still dares to do something?”

Vulture could not help but think if Leones was courting death.

“Mr. Foster, save me!”

Vulture was seriously injured and was defenseless, so it was naturally difficult for him to block the sharp edge of the sword.

Seeing this, Lucius shouted coldly, “Kid, do you really dare to take action?”

“Do you really think that our ancient warriors from Chamber Mountain are just nothing?”

Lucius was ignored by Leones, and hence, he suddenly became furious and shouted loudly, feeling a chill spread all over his body.

Immediately afterward, Lucius made a move. With a wave of his hands, thousands of wind and snow seemed to condense out of thin air, forming an invisible ice barrier in front of Vulture.

A clang sounded.

There was a muffled sound.

Leones’ sword stagnated in mid-air, and a light layer of frost appeared on the sword’s surface.

“What a sword!”

Lucius couldn’t help but admire.

The frost he created would break like glass if touched by any weapon.

But the sword in Leones' hand was only covered with a layer of frost, making it indestructible!

Even in the ancient warrior world, such a good sword would be an enviable peerless weapon. At the same time, Lucius felt that the giant sword in Leones' hand looked familiar, as if he had seen it somewhere.

"Haha!" Upon seeing this, Vulture immediately became proud again. "Come on, kill me! Why did the sword stop in mid-air and not continue?"

"How about I take another step forward?"

"Haha, I want to see who is more powerful, you or this ancient warrior!"

Leones' sword was stopped, and the ice was blown away again.

"Endless Sword Intensity! Attack!"

Leones roared and took action with the sword in his hand again.

At this moment, a huge sword seemed to have become a battleship, flying through the air with mighty force.

Wherever it passed, it crushed everything!

With another impact of the sword's energy, the giant sword seemed to have penetrated the glacier.

The ice barrier created by Lucius suddenly collapsed.

The sword energy went straight toward Vulture!

“What?”

Lucius only felt that the sword energy was awe-inspiring, and even his own breathing could not help but stop at this moment.

He was in danger!

This thought passed by in a flash.

The

power

of a sword would not be easy to deal with if he were to deal with it by himself.

Not to mention Vulture behind him.

“Get out of here!”

Lucius did not deal with the sword but turned around and knocked back Vulture with one palm.

Lucius ordered Vulture to get out of there and run away.

In Lucius’ opinion, having such a useless alliance behind him was a bit of a hindrance.

After Vulture was sent away, Lucius wanted to confront the young man who was unafraid of death in person.

“Ah!” Vulture exclaimed and was knocked back several feet away. “Yes. Yes.”

He didn't dare to disobey Lucius, so he turned around and ran away.

In the blink of an eye, he was already a hundred feet away.

"Want to run?"

Seeing this, Leones did not pursue him this time. After all, Lucius was still in front of him to block him.

But with a flick of the finger.

Suddenly, an Ocean Bead flew out.

It pointed directly at Vulture and went away.

When Lucius saw this, he was shocked again. He quickly waved his hand and froze one Ocean Bead.

But then, the second one and the third one came out in succession.

Lucius did not expect that Leones would have so many stocks of such a powerful magic weapon?

Lucius was nervous.

When he had a premonition that something bad was going to happen, it was already too late for him to take action.

Lucius turned his head and looked at Vulture again.

As he was running, he didn't know that death had already arrived quietly.

A boom sounded!

And it was accompanied by a huge roar.

Several Ocean Beads exploded in unison, immediately blowing Vulture into pieces and killing him. on the spot!

Chapter 272 Coveting

A whoosh sounded.

All of a sudden.

The scene of Vulture being inexplicably blown to pieces once again caused an uproar at the scene.

"What's going on? How come Vulture suddenly seemed to have stepped on a landmine and was blown up like that?"

"Is this also what Leones did? But I didn't see him throwing the bomb."

"Vulture is really unlucky! Could it be that he was destined to suffer this calamity? But he deserves it! He deserves to die!"

The people watching did not see clearly how Leones made his move, and were both shocked and frightened. At the same time, they all believed that Vulture deserved his punishment.

“Did Mr. Bloom actually kill Vulture?”

“And he even ignored that ancient warrior from Chamber Mountain before directly killing Vulture!”

“It’s incredible!”

Darius and others were also stunned.

At the same time, they were a little worried. Leones had severely offended the ancient warriors of Chamber Mountain. How would it end?

At the same time, David had successfully rescued everyone in the Roberts family and the Soler family.

They also came after hearing the news and came to the scene to watch the battle.

When they were first rescued, the two families couldn’t believe that Leones could hunt down Vulture.

But

, after seeing it wi

their own eyes, everyone in the two families looked shocked.

“Is the one who was killed really Vulture?”

“Leones can easily kill Vulture. We worked together to deal with Leones last time. We are so lucky to be able to come back alive!”

“It seems that this time, the Johnson family has really offended the wrong person!”

However, after seeing Lucius, David couldn't help but change his expression and recognized that he was wearing a special attire. He represented the ancient warriors of the Chamber Mountain lineage.

As early as before David's body had developed spiritual wisdom, he had been walking in the Chamber Mountains, and naturally, he knew the elusive ancient warriors in the Chamber Mountain.

“An ancient warrior from Chamber Mountain?”

David suddenly realized that Vulture was actually related to the ancient warriors from the Chamber Mountains.

And Leones killed Vulture in front of the ancient warrior.

“Now, Mr. Bloom must be in big trouble!”

As expected!

After witnessing Vulture being killed under his own eyes and failing to stop it, Lucius couldn't, help but become furious.

What he was angry about was not the death of Vulture, but that he was unable to control the life and death of Vulture.

He had clearly said that he wanted to protect Vulture from death.

Eventually, Leones killed Vulture with his own hands in front of Lucius and everyone.

It was a slap in the face for Lucius.,

To hit Lucius in the face was to provoke the ancient families forces of the Chamber Mountain lineage.

Leones was unforgivable!

“You brat, you’re looking for death!”

Lucius was furious.

An indescribable terrifying pressure, accompanied by a cold wind, swept over.

It made everyone around him shiver and tremble.

“M–Mr. Foster...”

“Help me...”

At this time, Vulture, who had lost all his limbs after being blasted by three Ocean Beads, leaving only half of his body, woke up from the cold wave and breathed a sigh of relief.

He struggled, squirmed on the ground, and asked Lucius for help.

But Lucius didn’t even look at him.

Everyone knew that it was the sign before Vulture’s death, and he was already hopeless.

When Leones saw this, he couldn’t help but be startled. He didn’t expect that Vulture was so tough. Three magic weapons exploded around him, but he could still breathe.

However, Leones shook his head slightly and sensed something.

Lucius was about to take action.

Just then, a boom sounded!

Suddenly, there was a huge tremor on the ground.

It was like an earthquake!

The earth shook!

Everyone looked horrified, not knowing what was going on. Immediately afterwards, there was a harsh neighing sound. They then saw a huge thing jumping out from under the ground.

And all the body and limbs of Vulture were lifted into the air.

Opening his mouth, he swallowed the entire Vulture into his belly.

Vulture that was good at sucking people's essence and blood and killing people would never have imagined that he would end his life in this way.

No bones were left, and the Giant Python swallowed Vulture.

15:34

Seeing the Giant Python, everyone present looked horrified.

Everyone in the Roberts family was good at raising snakes, but they had never seen such a giant monster.

“Is it Fairy?”

At this time, among the Roberts family, a girl in purple with a ponytail exclaimed.

Since she had been with the Snake Fairy all year round, she recognized the terrifying Giant Python at a glance. It was the Snake Fairy that the Roberts family worshiped in the past!

And that girl was Marie. She had reminded Leones to be careful of the siege of the four major families and said goodbye to the Snake Fairy.

“Is it really Snake Fairy?”

“How come? It doesn’t look like it and is more than twice as big!”

However, everyone in the Roberts family did not dare to identify if the Giant Python in front of them was the same snake as the Snake Fairy that the family once worshiped.

The changes were simply too great!

At this moment, the Giant Python looked arrogantly at the crowd, staring at the people on the ground like ants.

Only when it looked at Marie, there was a hint of softness in his fierce eyes.

Compared with the previous time in the Roberts family, the Giant Python at this time had completely transformed, and its body size had more than doubled.

After all, Leones fed the Giant Python elixirs and special treasures every day. So, the effect of the Giant Python's transformation was very obvious.

"You have finally arrived." Leones said calmly, "It seems that your escape speed is still not fast enough. It is not faster than the plane."

When he came, Leones was ready to bring the Giant Python.

But its size could not be carried by any means of transportation.

Therefore, Leones had no choice but to let the Giant Python move forward alone. Using the method of escaping from the earth, he went directly from Sherland to Fatuma.

The Giant Python just came a little slower than expected.

"Is this a spiritual beast?"

At this time, Lucius also looked at the Giant Python in shock and even forgot to take action against Leones.

Such a giant spiritual beast was very rare.

If he could capture the Giant Python, bring it back to Chamber Mountain, and refine it into the snake spirit that guards the mountain, it would be a great achievement!

This was more valuable than saving ten Vultures!

"Kid, did you raise this spiritual beast?" Lucius asked curiously.

“That’s right!” Leones said, “I am its owner!”

“Well raised!” Lucius nodded with satisfaction, and the greed to kill and seize the beast immediately arose in his heart. “But from now on, this evil beast belongs to us in Chamber Mountain!”

“Kid, you should just go to hell!”

Lucius prepared to kill Leones, leaving the spiritual beast without a master, and he then could surrender it.

Otherwise, if one person and one beast joined forces, it might be difficult to deal with them themselves.

Therefore, Lucius acted first to gain the upper hand.

But just then, a buzz came!

There was another roaring sound overhead.

A helicopter was seen hovering over the scene like a goshawk.

Then, a loudspeaker shouted from the helicopter.

“Wait a minute!”

Before he finished speaking, a black shadow was seen falling from the sky!

Someone actually jumped directly from a helicopter about several hundred feet high.

“Holy shit! Someone jumped off the plane!”

“What are you doing? Flying here to commit suicide?”

“Everyone, get out of the way. Don’t fall to the ground and be covered in blood!”

With a shout, everyone moved out of the way, mistakenly thinking that someone had jumped out of the plane and committed suicide.

Even Lucius looked up and was shocked. He had never seen anyone jump out of a helicopter to commit suicide.

“What?” However, Leones glanced at the falling figure and couldn’t help but be startled. He immediately realized that this person had injected all his power into his feet. He was not committing suicide, but he was a powerful martial arts grandmaster!

A boom sounded!

And it was accompanied by a loud bang.

The person’s feet fell straight to the ground, and a huge deep hole was created. Countless ravines were opened vertically and horizontally, several feet deep.

“Fuck!”

There was another uproar at the scene!

“Am I right? That man jumped out of the helicopter and was still standing safe and sound, with both legs not broken? Isn’t it incredible?”

Others had never seen such an unbelievable situation before, and they couldn’t help but be stunned. Their jaws almost fell to the ground in shock.

Everyone looked at the man again. He was dressed in military uniform and had the momentum of a tiger. After landing, he nodded lightly toward Leones and then turned to Lucius.

The two looked at each other, and Lucius immediately recognized the other person's identity.

"A-Are you Mr. Wellington?" Lucius exclaimed.

Lucius recognized at a glance that this person was Felix Wellington, the War God of Alryne, one of the nine war gods of Vericano,

15:34

"Dad!" On the side, Lily also shouted excitedly.

In fact, from the moment her father jumped off the plane, she had vaguely recognized his figure, but she couldn't believe that her father would appear in such a reckless way.

"Haha, bingo!" Vericano smiled, "I am Felix Wellington!"

Eager to stop the battle, Felix had no choice but to jump off the plane.

After all, if he came a second too late, Lucius might have already taken action.

Everyone gasped.

There was another uproar at the scene.

Unexpectedly, the visitor turned out to be the famous Felix!

“No wonder he dared to jump off the plane directly. He turned out to be Mr. Wellington, one of the nine war gods!”

“Not only are there ancient families from Chamber Mountain, but there is also the War God from Alryne. It’s really a grand event today, and it’s an eye-opener for us!”

“I don’t know who is more powerful between our Yingville War God and Alryne War God?” Everyone couldn’t help but start talking again.

When Ares, the son of Yingville War God, heard people comparing him to his father, he couldn’t help but snort and thought to himself, “Of course, my father is more powerful!”

However, the scene where Felix jumped out of a plane from a height of 300 feet just now really shocked everyone present.

Even Ares wondered if his father could also do this.

Upon seeing this, Lucius had no choice but to step back. After all, what stood before him was Vericano’s elite combat force, whose strength was on par with ancient warriors like them. “Mr. Wellington, do you have any advice?” Lucius bowed and asked calmly.

“I came here to stop the fight between the two of you.” Felix did not mince words and directly stated his purpose.

“Why?” Although Lucius guessed it, he still asked in confusion, “Do you know each other?”

Felix nodded. “I owed Leones a favor, so I ask you to show your kindness and stop giving him a difficult time.”

“Giving him a difficult time?” Lucius sneered, “This kid killed our people from Chamber Mountain right in front of me. Now, I’m merely giving him a lesson. How can that be considered putting him in a tough spot?”

Hearing this, Felix also said in a deep voice, “Is the person who was killed, Vulture? He is the target of our encirclement and suppression today!”

“Even if Leones hadn’t taken action, the two of us from the Great War God Camp would have killed this thief today!”

“He is just taking action for us. If I finally kill Vulture, will you ancient warriors from the Chamber Mountain lineage not let me go and teach me a lesson?”

The Chamber Mountain had ignored the issue of Vulture. Now that Lucius was being questioned like this by Felix, Lucius was momentarily speechless.

But in the end, Lucius still brought out the eternal truth. “Mr. Wellington, have you forgotten the rules of ancient families that cannot be insulted?”

Chapter 273 The War God Arrives

“The ancient families cannot be insulted. Can we, the people of Vericano, be slaughtered by you casually?”

Felix couldn’t help but take a heavy breath and asked sternly, neither humble nor arrogant.

“That Vulture is the embodiment of evil, his hands drenched in blood. The innocent lives taken by him number nearly a thousand, if not eight hundred. It’s already reached a point where both mortals and gods are outraged!”

“Today, we only killed one of you, and you, Chamber Mountain, can’t stand it? Vulture has several blood debts on his hands. How are you, Chamber Mountain, going to explain to us?”

“Remember, respect is mutual!”

Chapter 274 I Shall Give It to You

Felix’s tone was neither humble nor arrogant, and it was sonorous and powerful.

He immediately won bursts of applause from everyone present.

“Mr. Wellington, you’re absolutely right!”

“The world has been suffering from ancient warriors for a long time!”

“We never dare to provoke the ancient warriors. It is the ancient warriors who have been bullying us!”

“That Vulture was the embodiment of evil and deserved to die. Today, we ask Mr. Wellington to make things right for us!”

Suddenly, Lucius became the common target of public criticism and was despised by everyone. With the support of Felix, everyone’s fear of this ancient warrior was greatly reduced. Finally, they dared to speak out their innermost thoughts.

“Mr. Wellington, according to your opinion, how should we settle this matter?” Lucius asked.

“Leones has made great achievements in suppressing bandits and has no fault whatsoever.” Felix said, “Every injustice has its perpetrator, and every debt has its debtor. Others should not be involved. Now that the culprit has been found, I hope that both of us can turn our hostility into friendship. How about we call this matter settled for now?”

Felix also did not want to have too big a conflict with the ancient warriors. His plan was to protect Leones first, and if the two sides could make peace after that, it would be best.

Lucius pondered for a moment and then said, "Okay! For your sake, Mr. Wellington, we shall call this matter settled and not hold that kid accountable. However..."

Then, Lucius added, "I can let this kid go, but he has to pay the price. Otherwise, how can I explain to the superiors when I go back?"

"What do you want?" Seeing that Lucius was starting to negotiate terms, Felix asked cautiously.

Of course, if Lucius' terms were too outrageous, Felix was not going to agree.

"I want this Giant Python raised by this kid as compensation!" Lucius said, "A human life for a beast, it's not unfair, is it?"

What?

When Felix heard this, he could not help being surprised. He did not expect that the other party would offer such conditions today?

When he just landed, Felix was also secretly shocked when he saw the Giant Python. He never thought such a gigantic being existed in this world.

It was no wonder that the grandmasters of Chamber Mountain took a fancy to such a rare being. Felix turned his head and was about to ask Leones' opinion.

"Absolutely no way!"

Leones flatly rejected Lucius' request without waiting for Felix to ask.

“Vulture deserved to be killed! Why should I give up my pet as a price? Don’t even think about taking my python away!”

Hearing this, Lucius sneered and said, “Mr. Wellington, as you can see, I have already made concessions. It’s this kid who doesn’t understand the situation!”

15:34

“Since you are not willing to give up that beast, you shall pay with your life!”

Lucius’ entire body was surrounded by a cold aura, and he was about to strike again. Seeing this, Felix hurriedly said, “Stop!”

“Your request is a bit difficult to satisfy. That python clearly means a lot to him.

“Make another request!”

“As long as it’s within our powers, we’ll definitely do it!”

However, Lucius’ obsession with that beast had never changed from beginning to end.

“I only want that Giant Python!”

“If you don’t agree, I will get it myself!”

The Giant Python seemed like it was aware that people below it were debating who it should belong to.

Thus, it could not help but roar and glare at Lucius.

Its giant body surrounded Leones, and it was ready to join hands with its master to defend against the enemy.

“Then let’s fight!” Leones was not afraid at all.

The ancient warriors of Chamber Mountain were also humans, and Leones had already killed two of these ancient warriors.

He did not mind killing another today.

The negotiation had failed, and a war between the two sides seemed to be on the verge of breaking out.

“In that case!”

At this time, Felix stepped forward and stood between the two of them. An invisible pressure immediately shrouded Lucius’ side.

Seeing this, Lucius could not help but

Seeing this, Lucius could not help but take a step back, slightly startled, and thought to himself, “As expected of the War God of Vericano, his strength is indeed comparable to ancient families!”

“Mr. Wellington, are you going to join forces with that kid to fight me?” Lucius asked in surprise. Even Lucius would not have much chance of winning if he had to face the two of them, as well as the Giant Python, at the same time.

“No!” Felix shook his head and said, “Since we can’t reach an agreement, then I shall personally see what you got!”

What?

As soon as these words came out, the scene was filled with uproar and exclamations.

Felix wanted to fight the ancient warrior of Chamber Mountain alone!

“Oh

my God! Mr. Wellington is going to fight the ancient warrior of Chamber Mountain. This is going to be a battle of the century!”

“I wonder if Mr. Wellington can win. I support him!”

“You don’t say. We are not ancient warriors. Of course, we must support the War God of Vericano!”
“Mr. Wellington, all the best!”

Lily could not help but become a little nervous when she saw that her father wanted to take on the fight.

15:34

Although she knew that her father was very strong, the opponent this time was a mysterious and unpredictable ancient warrior!

“Hmm... If my father were here and joined forces with Mr. Wellington, they might have a better chance of winning.” Ares analyzed on the side.

However, Lily shook her head helplessly. “Given my father’s character, he’ll never choose to fight two against one.”

“Mr. Wellington, are you really going to fight me?” Lucius did not want to be on bad terms with Felix.

“I’m not the one who’s looking for a fight. You are!” Felix corrected. “If you refuse to give in, then I have no choice but to fight you!”

“I am the War God of Vericano. It is my duty to protect my family, my country, and my people!”

“If you want war, then I shall give it to you!”

Chapter 275 One Move

All of a sudden, the atmosphere at the scene suddenly condensed and became extremely tense.

It was as if time had almost stopped at this moment.

One was an ancient warrior from Chamber Mountain.

The other was the War God of Vericano.

These two top masters were about to start a fight, which made everyone around them feel both excited and a little nervous.

One of them would definitely be injured in the process!

At this time, Leones was very grateful to see that Felix wanted to stand up for him and even went to the extent of fighting against the ancient warrior.

After all, who would dare to turn against the ancient families? Let alone do it.

But while Leones was grateful, he also thought it was unnecessary.

After all, he could totally handle the ancient warrior in front of him.

“Hehe!”

Just when Leones was about to speak out and prepare to take the battle, Lucius suddenly laughed and broke the tense atmosphere.

“Okay! Mr. Wellington, since you’ve said so, I’ll take a step back for your sake today!

“How about we just turn our hostility into friendship and let this matter go?”

As soon as these words came out, everyone was surprised again.

Unexpectedly, the ancient warrior from Chamber Mountain was willing to give in.

Immediately, everyone praised one after another.

“That’s for the best.”

“This is the demeanor of a strong warrior!”

“As expected of the ancient warrior of Chamber Mountain. Magnanimous and admirable!” When Felix heard this, he could not help being surprised and glad. He did not expect Lucius to suddenly have a change of attitude.

“Greatly appreciated!” Felix said.

“Don’t be so quick to thank me!” Lucius waved his hand and said, “I can stop pursuing this matter, and I can let this kid go, and I won’t even take the beast he raised. But I still have one condition!”

What?

There was one more condition?

The atmosphere at the scene suddenly became tense again after everyone heard this.

They wondered what harsh conditions Lucius would put forward.

Apparently, he still did not want to let this matter go so easily!

“Either fight or fuck off, make up your mind! What’s with all this nonsense?” Leones also could no longer stand how much Lucius had dragged on this matter.

Felix hurriedly signaled to Leones to calm down and then asked, “What condition?”

Lucius snorted coldly, feeling very unhappy with Leones’ attitude.

“Mr. Wellington, as you can see, this boy has repeatedly despised and provoked me, not taking Chamber Mountain seriously at all. If I just let this matter go so easily, wouldn’t people think the ancient warriors or Chamber Mountain are afraid of him? Once I take a step back here and give in, the entire world will laugh at us!”

As soon as he said this, others hurriedly said, “No, no, we wouldn’t dare.”

“Who dares to laugh at the ancient warriors?”

“Yeah, we wouldn’t dare!”

Lucius snorted coldly and said, "You say that, but you will definitely laugh in your hearts! You think I don't know you people?"

"Anyway, I have to regain some dignity. Otherwise, how will I explain to the superiors when I return to Chamber Mountain?"

Felix asked again, "What do you want to do to regain dignity?"

"One move!" Lucius stretched out a finger and said aggressively, "I'll only use one move to vent my frustration, and this matter will be considered settled!"

"Okay!" Felix responded, "I'll take your move!"

Lucius shook his head. "Not you. Him!"

Then, Lucius stretched out his hand and pointed at Leones. "I want this kid to take my move!"

What?

Hearing this, Felix was shocked, and everyone around him also suddenly understood.

Clearly, Lucius was still not planning to let Leones go.

Although he was only going to use one move, it was more than enough to kill someone if he wanted to.

Taking one attack from an ancient warrior of Chamber Mountain head-on would be more than enough to cripple someone if not directly kill them!

“This...” Felix hesitated.

“What?” Lucius said coldly, “I have compromised from a normal fight to just one move, and you are still not satisfied? Who’s being too much here?”

“I might as well kneel and apologize, huh?”

Felix smiled awkwardly and said hurriedly, “No, of course not.”

“One move, right?” At this time, Leones said, “One move or ten moves, it doesn’t matter! Come at me!”

As soon as Leones said these words, everyone was shocked.

How dare this man still challenge the ancient warrior of Chamber Mountain, even at this time?

Did he not know that if he really enraged Lucius, even Felix would not be able to protect him?

“Haha!” Lucius sneered again. “Mr. Wellington, since this kid has agreed, please get out of the way.”

“This is a fight between me and him. One move, and all accounts shall be settled!”

Felix retreated to Leones and asked, “Are you sure? Will you be okay?”

In fact, out of kindness, Felix wanted to postpone this move for a few years.

After all, in his opinion, if he took Leones to the army and trained him for three to five years, with his strength and potential, he might be able to match up to those ancient warriors. No matter what, Leones would have a much better chance by then compared to now. "Don't worry." Leones said, "Thank you, Mr. Wellington. I appreciate your kindness.

"Since he's here for me, let me do the rest!"

Felix nodded. "Okay."

Since Leones said so, Felix respected his choice.

Anyway, he was right here. If Lucius really attempted to kill Leones, Felix could intervene in time to save Leones.

"Don't worry, I will protect you!" Felix whispered from behind Leones.

Hearing this, Leones shook his head helplessly and continued to step forward.

"Come on!" Leones stood with his hands behind his back as if he was accepting the challenge of his juniors as an elder. "Make your move!"

Upon seeing this, a fierce look appeared in Lucius' eyes.

"You brat, you're looking for death!"

He had no intention of taking Leones' life. He just wanted to destroy Leones' vital energy.

After all, he could eliminate an ordinary person like Leones whenever he wanted to. There was no need for him to do it in front of the War God of Vericano and cause a conflict.

However, from the looks of it, he now had to kill Leones. Otherwise, the hatred in his heart could not be resolved!

“Take this!”

Lucius shouted loudly and struck with all his strength without reservation.

At this moment, a powerful w At this moment, a powerful wind blew around him, and the temperature plummeted.

Following Lucius’ palm, it was as if an infinite cold wave appeared, freezing everything around him.

“Nice move!”

When Leones saw this, he was also pleased to fight with such a powerful opponent.

Like an erupting flame, he used Dragon Fist and attacked Lucius.

Leones’ mastery of fire was the highest, and this attack swept everything in its way like a tsunami of fire.

Fire could melt ice. However, ice was water, so it could put out fire too!

In an instant, on one side, the Dragon Fist burned everything in its path and shrouded the sky. On the other, the palm of ice froze everything around it and changed the weather.

There was another loud explosion.

When the fist and palm collided, it was like an asteroid hitting Earth, bursting out endless waves of shock in the air, sweeping away everything around them. The fields were destroyed, and the ground cracked!

The next second, Leones' body seemed to be frozen, with a thick layer of frost covering his entire body.

Lucius also stuttered and stepped back dozens of steps before barely regaining his balance.

However, the energy in his body surged up, overwhelming his insides and making his entire body unbearably hot.

Chapter 276 Overwhelming an Ancient Warrior

One remained still, and the other moved several steps back!

The moment of exchange between the two shocked everyone.

And after the exchange, there was dead silence again.

For a moment, everyone at the scene gradually recovered from the panic just now.

"Oh my god... It felt like the end of the world just now! It was so scary!"

"Is this the power of the legendary ancient warrior? That attack was so terrifying!"

"Is that Leones still alive?"

Everyone looked at Leones with concern.

At this time, Leones looked like an ice sculpture. His whole body was frozen by ice and motionless.

“Mr. Bloom.” Seeing this situation, Darius was worried. He was not sure if his master could survive after being frozen.

“Oh no! The Dragon King is frozen!” Chad was also anxious. “How to get him out?”

When Lily saw it, she also hurriedly asked her father for help. “Dad! Save Leones! Do something!”

“This...” This was also the first time Felix had encountered this situation, and he did not know what to do.

He looked at Lucius and was about to ask him for help.

However, at this moment, a cracking sound appeared.

The ice on Leones’ body fell in large chunks like an avalanche.

Then, Leones’ body shook, shaking off the frost all over his body.

He had successfully escaped from the frozen state.

Everyone saw this and breathed a sigh of relief.

“Mr. Bloom, are you okay?” Darius could not help but ask with surprise, joy, and worry.

“Are you injured?” Chad asked with concern.

“No problem at all!” Leones shook his head lightly. “It’s just a small trick.”

This level of coldness could not hurt him.

All in all, a person's strength could only be verified after experiencing it.

After this exchange, Leones realized that Lucius was not a big deal.

Although Lucius was stronger than the two ancient warriors from the Newman family and the Kingsley family, but only slightly.

Of course, Lucius was just a mere Ambassadorial Master of Chamber Mountain. He was basically an errand boy amongst the ancient families of Chamber Mountain.

Nonetheless, the ancient warriors from Chamber Mountain were incredible at mastering the ice energy, which left a deep impression on Leones.

Presumably, the stronger ancient warriors of Chamber Mountain would be even more terrifying in this aspect.

Lucius could not help but look horrified when he saw that Leones had broken through his ice seal without any damage.

"Da... Damn!"

Lucius stammered, feeling extremely appalled.

"One move has passed!" Felix reminded. "Please keep your promise!"

He was afraid that Lucius would continue to attack and take Leones' life.

Little did he know that at this time, even if Lucius had the intention, he was unable to.

“Okay!” Lucius nodded heavily. “That’s it for today! Farewell!”

Then, he turned around and left the scene quickly.

It was not until he reached a deserted suburb that Lucius gradually slowed down. Cold sweat broke out on his forehead, and his face turned pale.

His entire right arm, which he had used to fight with Leones earlier, started to crack. The next moment, the bones in it shattered completely, and it fell onto the ground.

“Fuck!”

Lucius looked at his broken arm and gritted his teeth with hatred while his eyes were full of disbelief.

“What kind of monster is that kid?”

“His punch actually broke one of my arms!”

If he had not experienced it personally, he would never have believed for the life of him that he would suffer such a miserable defeat in today’s battle!

The truth was Felix’s sudden interference had actually helped him instead of Leones. Otherwise, if he really had to fight Leones formally, his defeat would definitely be exposed.

After all, he was an ancient warrior. If people knew he could not even defeat an ordinary boy, he would definitely have no place in Chamber Mountain anymore.

“That was close!”

Lucius shouted. He almost failed completely and lost the reputation of Chamber Mountain.

“There is something wrong with that Leones. He is not an ordinary person!

“I have to go back quickly and to the superiors!”

Immediately, Lucius did not dare to delay and fled back to Chamber Mountain in embarrassment, dragging a broken arm.

On his way there.

“Lucius, are you being chased by a dog? Why are you running so fast?”

Suddenly, two people walked out of the stab.

One of them was eight feet tall man with broad arms and a round waist, a beard, broom eyebrows, and thick lips. He was dressed in mink fur, with a fur hat hanging on his head, and carried a spiked mace over his shoulder.

He was majestic and had a murderous aura.

Another was a woman, charming, graceful, and enchanting. She was still wearing a tight dress in the snow weather, and her whole body exuded a charming fragrance. Every time she moved, literal butterflies danced around her.

15:34

“Adam!”

Lucius bowed instantly.

The man saw that Lucius was in a miserable state and had a broken arm, so he asked again, “What’s wrong with your arm? Is it dislocated?”

“Adam! You have to avenge me!”

Lucius was ashamed, angry, and aggrieved. He told Adam everything that had happened just now. “What?” After hearing this, the man became furious and waved the stick in his hand, stirring the entire mountain range and almost causing an avalanche.

“What a fucking bastard! Who is that little brat who dares to challenge our Chamber Mountain? “I’m going to smash him to death!”

With that said, Adam pulled Lucius up and asked him to lead the way. He planned to take revenge instantly.

Chapter 277 Back to the Johnson Family

Seeing that Adam was furious and immediately wanted to kill for revenge, Lucius hurriedly replied truthfully, “Adam, there is one more thing I forgot to mention just now,

“On the Johnson family’s side, not only the boy named Leones, but also Felix Wellington was present, and he tried his best to protect the boy.”

What?

Felix Wellington was also there!?

The man and woman looked at each other.

Although the man was dissatisfied, he hesitated because of the vigorous and resolute action.

The woman on the side saw this and immediately resolved the embarrassment skillfully.

The woman said softly, "Since Mr. Wellington is here, let's give him a face. For no other reason than they are the War God who protects Vericano. We ancient warriors also have feelings for our family and country and try not to be enemies with them."

Hearing the words, the man took the opportunity to give in and said, "What Madam said is correct! We must give him a face! We are not afraid of them, but we respect what they have done." Lucius also nodded in agreement, fearing that because of him, the War Zone of Vericano would start a war with Chamber Mountain, and no one could bear it.

"Ahem!" The man coughed again and said, "Although I'm giving Mr. Wellington some face, I can't go of that kid named Leones!

let

"Lucius, send someone to keep a close eye on him. When he leaves Fatuma one day, it won't be too late to take action!"

"Yes!" Lucius immediately took the order and left.

Meanwhile, on the other side.

Move,

Leones took Lucius' and successfully retreated from the enemy.

Leones instantly became a star, and everyone was surprised and unbelievable.

After all, Leones had successively killed the strong men of the Johnson family and Vulture himself, and everyone had recognized Leones' strength.

"Leones, you are such a young hero!" Someone said.

"At such an age, you can deal with Vulture. Your future is limitless!" Someone said.

"After defeating Vulture and being able to counterattack a move from an ancient warrior from Chamber Mountain, our strongest man in Fatuma will be Mr. Bloom!" Someone said.

Facing the admiration and compliments from everyone, Leones remained noncommittal and smiled.

"Let's go back first and talk about it!" Leones said.

"After all, the matter between the Johnson family and I has not been settled yet." Leones thought. "Yes. Yes. Let's go back to the Johnson Manor first!" Someone said.

"Today, the Johnson family is in charge, and we must entertain Mr. Bloom well!" Someone said. "Today, we have Mr. Wellington and Mr. Bloom. The Johnson Manor is flourishing!" Someone said.

Most of the people at the scene were from the Johnson family, and they had already been convinced by Leones and treated him as an honored guest.

Soon, the group returned to the Johnson Manor.

At this time, Max, the head of the family, was rummaging through boxes and cabinets, packing up his belongings, and preparing to run away.

It turned out that before Max could run away, he met Leones and others from the Johnson family, who were returning triumphantly.

“You... You...” Max was stunned.

Besides Leones, the head, there was also a middle-aged man dressed in a military uniform with extraordinary bearing,

“You... Are you!?” Max felt that this person looked familiar.

“Mr. Johnson, this is Mr. Wellington!” Others introduced him hurriedly.

“Ah!?” Max exclaimed, “It turns out to be Mr. Wellington in Alryne. How disrespectful! What a shame!”

Max was shocked and surprised to see Felix walking alongside Leones.

What was going on?

“Haha, Mr. Johnson, sorry to bother you,” Felix said hello with a smile.

“I don’t dare. I don’t dare...” Max bowed immediately.

There was no time to overthink. With such a big shot coming, Max had to personally welcome him as the head of the family.

Soon, a sumptuous banquet was served.

Like a celebration banquet, the Johnson family became lively and decorated with lights and colorful decorations.

Max also learned from others what had just happened outside – Leones single-handedly killed Vulture and took a move from the ancient warrior of Chamber Mountain. Even Felix stood on Leones' side.

“Is there such a strange thing!?” Max couldn't help but secretly exclaim, unable to look directly at Leones. “What kind of monster is this boy named Leones? Even the ancient warriors from Chamber Mountain can't do anything to him!?”

When things developed to this stage, Max regretted it endlessly.

“If I had known this, I shouldn't have packed my things just now. I should have just run away.

But now, I'm afraid I can't run away even if I want to.” Max thought.

Max could only bite the bullet and accompany them, not daring to show any further neglect. -During the banquet.

Everyone toasted Leones to show their respect, admiring him for killing Vulture and eliminating harm to the people.

It seemed that Leones had been shaped into a great hero in Fatuma.

After hearing this, Ares felt sour and a little jealous.

“Originally, it was Yingville's job to come and suppress the bandits.

Consequently, an outsider killed this Vulture, and all the credit was taken away while I became a foil.” Ares thought.

What made Ares even more unhappy was that the father and daughter of the Wellington family were also very close to Leones.

Even Felix extended an invitation to Leones. "How about it? Are you interested in coming to Alryne for development?"

"You can only display your skills if you join the army. And if you join our Alryne Army, even the ancient warriors from Chamber Mountain will not dare to touch you again."

Chapter 278 Felix Wellington's Invitation

Hearing that Felix had invited Leones, who intended to focus on training him, everyone showed envy again.

"He's so lucky to be spotted by Mr. Wellington!" Someone said.

"Mr. Bloom is mighty and qualified to enter the War God Camp. He might be able to be trained into the next generation of War God!" Someone said.

"I think Mr. Bloom, although young, has already shown himself to be the War God. Alryne Camp ranks high among the nine war zones and is also a good place! Mr. Bloom must fetch this opportunity!" Someone said.

"Come on. Let's pay respect to Mr. Bloom with a glass of wine. May he become the War God soon!" Someone said.

When Darius saw this, he didn't expect that his master would be favored by Felix and be taken to the army.

Although Darius was a little reluctant, he also felt that with his master's ability, his master should join the army so that he could have a chance to use it.

“Haha! I didn’t expect our Dragon King to become the War God in the future!” Chad was also happy for Leones like a bandit being ordered to stay safe.

Max was even more shocked by the sight.

“If Felix selects Leones, enters the Alryne Camp, and gets promoted to a noble position over time, it is not someone the Johnson family can afford to offend.” Max thought.

Now Max felt very regretful, wondering why he had to provoke him.

“Isn’t it just that my son died?”

Even for that, I can still have one in the future.

But if I offend the future War God, I’m in danger of having my family confiscated and destroyed!” Max thought.

When Ares saw this, he became even more panicked.

Ares seemed to have regarded Leones as a love rival.

“If Leones enters Alryne Camp, spends time with Lily, and falls in love over time, won’t it be that I will never have a chance?” Ares thought.

“Yingville is also short of talents,” At this time, Ares simply stepped back and extended an invitation. “If Leones is interested, you can stay here. My father will focus on training you.”

Faced with the invitations from the two War God camps, everyone was curious and wondered what choice Leones would make.

“Thank you both for your kindness,” Leones smiled and declined.

“This is not my intention. I’m sorry to have to obey,” Leones said.

“Oh!?” Felix was startled and asked curiously, “Leones, do you have a better place to go?”

Hearing Leones’ words, Felix thought someone had already taken him.

“Ah, I know!” At this time, Lily interrupted. “Mr. Bloom wants to go to Yonker State!”

Lily thought that when they first met, Leones asked her about Yonker State,

“It seems Mr. Bloom wants to participate in the War God selection in Yonker State next month!”

15:34

Lily said.

As soon as these words came out, everyone at the scene was shocked again.

War God in Yonker State!?

Everyone suddenly understood. No wonder Leones rejected Felix’s War God’s promotion and said that was not his ambition.

It turned out that Leones wanted to reach the sky in one step and directly become the War God!

As we all know, among the nine major war zones in Vericano, only Yonker State was now leaderless, and the position of War God was vacant.

“So you want to compete for the position of Yonker State’s War God?” When Felix heard this, he suddenly understood and looked surprised.

“Unexpectedly, Leones has such lofty ambitions.

On the contrary, I am superficial.

If Leones can become the War God in Yonker State, he will be on an equal footing with me, does he need my support?” Felix thought.

so why

“What an arrogant tone!” Ares was surprised and disdainful when he heard this. “Yonker State is a stronghold of the military. There are many talents. If you have no qualifications and no military exploits, what can you do to fight for it?

“Besides, you are not a soldier registered with the Ministry of War, and you are not qualified to participate in the battle for the War God in Yonker State next month!”

What Ares said was right.

If one wanted to participate in any competition in a war zone, one must at least register with the Ministry of War and become an official soldier.

Moreover, the battle for the War God was unusual. It did not involve auditions in the military. There were still various considerations, such as military exploits and qualifications.

After all, the chosen War God was the military leader of a state. How could this be a child’s play? Although Leones’ strength was evident to all, power alone was insufficient when running for the War God.

“Well... It is indeed a problem!” Felix also nodded. “Although you have the strength to compete with those talented and powerful people in Yonker State, you are only a normal person and are not qualified to participate in the position of War God. competition.”

“Yes!” Lily suddenly understood and apologized, “I’m sorry, Mr. Bloom, I forgot to tell you this last time.”

“It doesn’t matter!” Leones shook his head slightly.

“Master Clayton was the previous Yonker State’s War God, and I had his inheritance. If these cannot make me qualified, then others will not be qualified to compete.” Leones thought.

“Let’s do this!” Felix paused and then said, “If you plan to participate, then I can help you write a letter of recommendation to vouch for you.

“Take my letter and go to Yonker State Camp. Maybe they can make an exception and let you compete.”

Ares was shocked after hearing this. “Mr. Wellington, you... Do you want to guarantee him? Isn’t this too risky? If something happens to him, you will be implicated!”

15:34

After all, the battle for the War God was not a child’s play.

If the recommended person was of bad character or a spy sent by an enemy country, wouldn’t he be in trouble once he was allowed to gain power?

Even the person who recommended it would get implicated.

“Haha!” Felix laughed nonchalantly. “It doesn’t matter. I believe that Leones will do nothing wrong.”

Felix had always been grateful to Leones for saving his wife, but he had nothing to repay. Today, seeing that Leones was ambitious and wanted to compete for the position of Yonker State's War God, Felix planned to help him.

Leones originally wanted to decline, but Felix insisted on writing the recommendation letter. "Bring me a pen!" Felix said.

Without any explanation, the Johnson family prepared pen and Felix quickly wrote a recommendation letter.

paper

for Felix.

"Good calligraphy! Good calligraphy!" Ares finally caught the opportunity and praised it repeatedly.

"Oh? Ares, what's so good about my calligraphy?" Felix asked with a smile.

"Uh..." This time, the question stopped Ares. He just wanted to flatter Felix. He knew nothing about calligraphy so he couldn't explain why.

"Mr. Wellington, you have been in the military all year round and can still write such neat calligraphy. Although we don't understand it, your handwriting is excellent! It's rare!" Others also praised him.

Lily smiled and said, "My father often practices calligraphy in the camp, saying it can temper one's mind. For this reason, many masters from the calligraphy association were specially invited to teach and learn."

Felix smiled calmly and was very satisfied with his handwriting, but he said modestly, “Forgive me.”

That said, Felix picked up the paper and handed it to Leones.

Leones took a closer look and smiled. “Mr. Wellington’s calligraphy is a fusion of Quentin’s Uncial style and Bon’s Italics style. It can be said that it incorporates ancient methods into new ideas and creates new methods outside of ancient ideas!”

When Felix heard this, he was immediately surprised and couldn’t help but say happily, “Leones, do you also know calligraphy?”

Chapter 279 Alryne Ballad

Leones commented on Felix’s work casually.

And everyone present was immediately shocked.

Even Felix looked at Leones in surprise as if Leones was his long-lost confidant.

Everyone was surprised and confused. They didn’t expect Leones to know calligraphy.

“Just a little,” Leones said calmly.

Leones didn’t dare to say how much he knew about calligraphy, but no one else could surpass him except for his thirty-fifth Master in Zerino Prison, Tom Brown.

Leones learned a miraculous copying technique from him.

Therefore, Leones could master all kinds of fonts, from Blackletter to Copperplate and Gothic.

At a glance, Leones knew Felix's calligraphy was a fusion of Italics and Uncial, forming his kind.

"Mr. Bloom, you are amazing," Lily also surprisedly said, "I remember that one of the two master calligraphers invited by my father claimed to be a descendant of the Roberts family, and the other claimed to have inherited Bon's technique.

"These two masters influenced my father's calligraphy and formed its current pattern."

Felix also praised, "Leones, you are an expert, for you can see it in my handwriting."

Ares was stunned when he heard this. He thought, "Seriously!? Does this guy know calligraphy, or was he just good at guessing?"

Immediately, Ares said dubiously, "Bon and Quentin are two great calligraphers that even elementary school students know their names."

The implication was that he questioned what Leones said. Maybe it was just a coincidence. However, Felix excitedly prepared ink and said to Leones, "Come on, show us your handwriting!" It was rare to meet a calligraphy enthusiast nowadays. Felix regarded Leones as a close friend and invited him to practice calligraphy.

Leones couldn't resist, so he had to write some.

Without hesitation, he copied the letter of recommendation written by Felix in no time, and the two letters were identical.

Amid the exclamations of everyone, Leones slowly put down the pen and paper and smiled calmly. "Excuse my poor writing."

"What!?"

Everyone was stunned.

They tried their best to compare and find differences between the two letters.

The result was precisely the same!

“Same, they are identical! Amazing!”

“It’s like it just came out of a photocopier!”

“I didn’t expect Mr. Bloom to be such a versatile man! He is as adept with a pen as with a sword!”
Everyone exclaimed in amazement.

Ares was even more stunned than before. He didn’t expect that after being questioned, Leones did the same calligraphy style as Felix effortlessly.

Ares was upset because he felt outmatched in all aspects by Leones.

“Hey!

“Leones, you’re too modest!”

Felix looked at the calligraphy written by Leones, which was the same as his own and was surprised.

Felix said, "I appreciate you more and more!"

"If you hadn't planned to compete for the War God in Yonker State, I would have taken you back to Alryne today no matter what and asked you to take over my job and be my future son-in-law!" "Father! Don't just say it out loud like that!" Lily pretended to be upset and complained.

But her beautiful eyes stared closely at Leones with hidden appreciation.

It was a rare encounter with a young man who was so versatile, and all young girls would admire him.

After hearing that, Ares was even more heartbroken. He lost his love, and his heart ached.

"Haha!" Felix laughed again, spread out a new piece of paper, and invited, "Come on, write another one. This time, don't imitate my calligraphy. Do it your style!"

"I

gave you a letter of recommendation, and you should also give me a calligraphy in return! If you become a master of calligraphy in the future, then this calligraphy will be the heirloom of the Wellington family, haha!"

"No problem," Leones agreed immediately. With the pen in his hand, he thought for a while and said, "Mr. Wellington, since you are from Alryne, this Alryne Ballad is for you!"

An ancient poet wrote Alryne Ballad.

Leones: [Among the Nine Continents lay Alryne, a majestic place whose city gates were like heaven.]

Leones wrote in a way as if God were there helping him.

Everyone followed Leones, chanting word by word, and praised him repeatedly.

Leones wrote down the last line. Leones: [Blossom drifted in the icy air while snow speckles were blown onto soldiers' hair.]

Felix was touched. He caressed the gray hair on his temples, and his firm eyes could not help but turn slightly red.

“What a poem!”

“Good handwriting!”

“What a genius in both physical and intellectual ways!”

Leones put down the pen, held up the paper with both hands, and said, “Here is a copy of Alryne Ballad for you, the War God in Alryne!”

Felix solemnly accepted the calligraphy and took a closer look at it. Seeing that the calligraphy skills of this calligraphy were ten times better than his own, he couldn't help but admire Leones even more.

“Leones, I didn't expect that I could meet a confidant like you at my fifty. We should celebrate this with good wines!

“If you don't mind, how about we become sworn brothers today!?”

Chapter 280 Separately

Felix was excited and insisted on becoming sworn brothers with Leones. Everyone was shocked and didn't know what to do,

“Dad! That's so unreasonable!”

Lily was furious now.

She thought, “Didn’t you just say you wanted him to be your son-in-law?”

Why do you want to become a sworn brother with him?

Son-in-law or brother? Settle one!

What a complicated seniority!”

At this time, others came to look for excuses for Felix one after another and said with a smile, “Mr. Wellington is drunk.”

“I’m not drunk!” Felix was very serious, and more importantly, he didn’t want to miss out on young talents like Leones. He said, “Although I’m older than you, I’m the War God in charge of a party. I assume that calling you brother won’t insult you, right?”

“Agree! Unless you are looking down on me!”

Seeing that Felix was sincere and serious, Leones couldn’t bear to refuse and disgrace the War God in front of people.

“Okay, since Mr. Wellington thinks highly of me, I can’t be more respectful than obey your orders. We will become sworn brothers from now on, and you will be my elder brother!”

Saying that, Leones hugged Felix and said, “My brother, Felix!”

“Haha! My brother, Leones!” Felix patted Leones on the shoulder, smiled boldly, and shouted happily.

“Congratulations! How touching that you two will become sworn brothers!”

At this time, Ares was the first to express his support.

After all, if Leones became Felix’s brother, then Ares would get the opportunity to become Felix’s son-in-law.

“Congratulations to Mr. Wellington, and congratulations to Mr. Bloom!”

Seeing this, everyone sent their blessings.

They also thought that Leones was lucky enough to have gotten support from Felix and that Leones’ future would be limitless.

Lily, on the side, was depressed.

She thought, “How will I face Leones in the future? I’m suddenly of his next generation!”

Felix noticed and said, “It doesn’t matter!” He was not pedantic and said with a smile, “Let’s discuss our things separately. Leones and I are brothers. You and Leones can be brothers and sisters, or you can be husband and wife. It doesn’t matter.”

When Ares heard this, his smile suddenly froze, and he gradually showed an uglier expression than crying. His wishful thinking failed again.

Immediately, everyone in the Johnson family hurriedly set up a table and altar with incense and candles.

Leones and Felix became sworn brothers on the spot with everyone’s witness.

Chuff, chuff, chuff!

Just after the sworn vows, the roar of a helicopter was heard outside.

Immediately afterward, Felix received a call urging him to go back. The War God from Yingville was waiting for him.

“Leones, I have official duties, so I must leave,” Felix said, held Leones’ hand, and walked out. “Are you not going back to Alryne with me?”

“No, Felix, I also have my things to do. I will visit Alryne another day,” Leones said.

“Okay!” Felix did not force him and said goodbye to Leones solemnly, “Then let’s say goodbye and see you again another day. Take care, brother!”

“You too, Felix. Take care!” Leones also waved goodbye.

Before getting on the helicopter, Felix turned around and said, “Next month, I will personally go to cheer for you in the battle for the War God in Yonker State!”

Lily waved goodbye to Leones and boarded the helicopter after Felix.

Finally, Ares nodded to Leones and walked onto the helicopter without saying anything.

At the same time, Ares vowed in his heart that he would strive to become the War God as soon as possible and marry Lily.

As a son of a War God, he couldn’t bear to lose to this ordinary person named Leones!

After the Wellington family left, Leones returned to the Johnson family hall again, and everyone complimented him, treating him like a distinguished guest.

After all, today's Leones was not what he used to be. He wasn't only a strong hero who could kill Vulture but a young hero who had become friends with Felix.

Even the Johnson family would not dare to neglect such a person.

"Where did Mr. Johnson go?"

Leones returned to his seat and found that Max was missing.

So he said coldly, "The guests haven't dispersed yet. Why did he, the master, leave first?" "Here he is!" David said while forcefully pulling Max back, "Mr. Bloom, Mr. Johnson wanted to escape just now, but I caught him!"

Max left and came back again, and his heart was filled with despair. At the same time, he cursed all the ancestors of the Back family in his heart and swore that when he had power, he would cut the corpse of David into pieces.

But now, he was the meat on Leones' chopping block.

Max had to surrender to Leones and beg for mercy.

"I have offended you before. I failed to recognize your talent. Mr. Bloom, please be merciful and spare my life.

"I am willing to donate half of the Johnson family's property to Mr. Bloom."

As Leones said, Max was prepared to give half his family property and beg for forgiveness. "Half of the family fortune?" Leones smiled lightly, "That was the price before I took action!" "Wha... What!?" Max's face changed when he heard this. He didn't expect Leones to raise the price.

But he had no room for bargaining.

He could only ask tremblingly, "Then... How much do you want?"

"All!" Leones said calmly, "I want your entire Johnson family now!"
