

Out of Prison 321

Chapter 321 All of You Went to Hell

Shawn looked sickly and suffered from many kinds of strange poisons and incurable diseases. His body was like a poison cave, containing many deadly unknown poisons and diseases. Shawn's diseases could be fatal and disabling if they were transmitted to anyone else.

Therefore, Shawn was confident that he had many ways to make Leones die painfully.

Like torturing prey at the moment, Shawn destroyed Leones' spirit, then his body, health, and life slowly.

Shawn said, "You can't escape!"

Shawn looked at Leones sternly with a teasing face.

These desperadoes couldn't help but scream in surprise when they saw that Shawn had scared away Giant Python without even taking action. And the surrounding people had also fallen to the ground.

"Sick Master deserves to be one of the Four Masters of the Swan Family! He was amazing! Even if he didn't even take action, he was terrifying enough! If he takes action, it would be incredible!" "Of course. Mr. Swan is the son of the master of one of the seven peaks of Chamber Mountain! He is also the top martial arts master in the entire Chamber Mountain lineage! His strength is naturally remarkable!"

"We are lucky enough to surrender to Mr. Swan, who had such a powerful force. I'm so proud. We are lucky. This is our glory!"

"That guy from Undrago is doomed this time! Although he could defeat Jett by luck, he probably had no chance to fight back against Mr. Swan!"

Everyone complimented and talked about Shawn's great for a time, and they all agreed that Leones would inevitably die this time.

Facing internal and external troubles, Leones did not panic at that time.

Instead, Leones chose to treat Chad and remove the strange poison in Chad's body first, even though it was the first time Leones had seen it.

But Leones injected his vital energy into Chad's body and pressed his chest gently.

Suddenly, Chad spat out blood. And the strange poison in his body dissipated at this moment, like the unbound air in a balloon.

Chad sat up suddenly, breathing heavily. He didn't expect that he was dying and about to faint just now but was cured so soon!

"Your Majesty, thank you for saving me!" Chad looked at Leones and immediately thanked Leones for saving him.

"What?" On the other side, Shawn was waiting for Leones' reply. However, Shawn did not get what he wanted, but saw Leones instantly dispelled the poison Shawn had just cast and successfully saved Chad,

This shocked Shawn.

Shawn didn't expect that the strange poison he cast could be eliminated so easily and quickly. Originally, Shawn wanted to kill Chad to scare Leones and kill all the people around Leones slowly, making Leones despair.

But Leones cured his henchman quickly, which made Shawn could not accept.

10:56

"You... How did you heal him? Ahem..." Shawn coughed lightly and asked in surprise.

“If you plan to use this poisoning trick to deal with me, I advise you to give up!” Leones said lightly, “I can cure all those strange poisons and diseases in your body!”

What?

Hearing these words, Shawn was shocked again.

Immediately he became angry. “Stop talking nonsense! “You can’t do that!”

Shawn naturally didn’t believe what Leones said.

“It seems that I have to show you my true strength!”

Since his plan failed, Shawn didn’t want to waste more time and decided to use the strongest poison in his body to make Leones suffer.

In an instant, the surrounding atmosphere suddenly changed.

It was as if they were in a graveyard. The atmosphere was strange and frightening.

Although everyone present hid far away, at this moment, they could not help but tremble with fear.

“Mr... Mr. Swan...”

“Do we need to get out of the way?”

“Will... Will it implicate us later...”

Everyone trembled, felt deeply uneasy, and stepped back.

However, no one dared to leave or escape without Shawn's permission.

The next second, Shawn grinned.

His grin was horrifying and proud.

It seemed that what Shawn was about to perform was his most proud move, which he greatly enjoyed.

And then he made a shocking statement.

"None of you can escape!

"None of the people here today will survive. All of you go to hell with Jett!

"And this is the price for killing the ancient warrior of Chamber Mountain! Every one of you deserves to die!"

What?

After hearing these words, everyone present changed their expressions.

Immediately, everyone knelt and begged Shawn for mercy.

"Mr. Swan! Please don't!"

"Jett's death has nothing to do with us!"

“Yes! It was those people from Undrago who harmed Jett. We are also victims!”

“We are willing to work for Chamber Mountain and join the Swan family. As long as you don’t kill us, we’ll do anything!”

Faced with everyone’s pleading, Shawn remained unmoved.

In his eyes, Leones and the other desperadoes who were willing to surrender were nothing more than ants.

Killing them was like trampling ants to death. Shawn didn’t care if the ants surrendered.

“You all witnessed Jett’s death with your own eyes, but you were indifferent. Now, how dare you say that you are loyal to the Swan family? Are you, trash, worthy of it?”

“Our ancient warrior world doesn’t need your loyalty!”

“Being able to die for an ancient warrior is lucky for you!”

As he spoke, Shawn got off his horse and was about to take action.

“Stop!” At this critical moment, at the foot of the mountain, another shout sounded.

Soon, two vigorous figures, an old man and a girl, jumped up the mountain.

“Mr. Swan! Wait a minute!”

An old man with a gray beard appeared at the scene, carrying a spear.

Leones heard the voice and turned around to see. It was Hubery!

“Mr. Barlow?” Darius finally breathed a sigh of relief when he saw Hubery from Fatuma Police Station arriving in time.

Darius had just sent a blind text message to Myron, informing him of the crisis here and asking him for help.

“Leones, we come to rescue you!” Following closely, Hubery’s granddaughter, Zoey, came. “Hehe, you owe the Barlow family a favor this time. How are you going to repay it in the future? What about marrying me?”

Seeing Hubery’s arrival, even Shawn couldn’t help but be slightly startled and hesitated to take action.

After all, Hubery represented Fatuma Police Station. Even ancient warriors from Chamber Mountain had to respect him.

“Mr. Barlow, nice to see you!” Shawn coughed lightly and said politely.

Chapter 322 Yingville Army Would Return

Seeing the people from the Barlow family in Fatuma Police Station, the desperadoes at the scene were so frightened that they fell silent, not daring to make a sound.

After all, the government was their enemy. Most of the people present were probably still on the bounty list. Of course, they were afraid.

“I didn’t expect the people of Fatuma Police Station would come!”

“No wonder that guy from Undrago dares to be so rampant and even dares to kill an ancient warrior. It turns out that Fatuma Police Station supports him!”

“He is lucky this time. He has Fatuma Police Station to support him. Otherwise, he would have been killed now!”

Seeing this, Shawn, the Sick Master, showed respect for the government staff and greeted Hubery politely.

Shawn’s strength was far superior to Hubery’s, but Hubery represented the Fatuma Police Station, so Shawn had to be polite and respectful to Hubery.

“Mr. Swan!” Hubery said straight to the point, “Leones is a guest of the Barlow family. Can you the Barlow family a favor? Why don’t you compromise and make peace?”

do

“No!” Shawn refused, “He killed my father’s henchman. The matter cannot be settled so easily.” Following the direction of Shawn’s finger, Hubery also saw the torn-up Jett, and both Hubery and Zoey were surprised.

“Leones, you actually killed an ancient warrior...” Zoey covered her mouth with a horrified look. Even Hubery thought it was a little unbelievable that Leones was so powerful.

Because the situation was urgent just how, the text message for help, edited by Darius, did not clearly explain the actual problem here. Darius only said that one of the Four Masters of the Swan Family stopped them and that they needed the help of the Fatuma Police Station.

Hubery did not expect that the death of an ancient warrior was involved.

This was tricky!

“Ancient families cannot be insulted!” Shawn said, “A life for a life. What’s more, Leones killed an ancient warrior from Chamber Mountain. It is reasonable for me to kill him!

“Even if it’s according to Vericano’s laws, my actions were reasonable!”

Hubery fell silent immediately.

Hubery thought there was nothing wrong with Shawn’s words.

“Losers are always in the wrong! I have nothing to explain,” At this time, Leones said.

“Jett was weaker than me and killed by me. If I were the weaker one, I would be the one who is dead now.

“I have never heard of any winners being punished!”

Hearing this, Shawn became furious. “Losers are always in the wrong?”

“I wondered who will be the winner and who should be humble as a loser between you and me!” While speaking, Shawn raised his hand and was about to attack Leones again.

“Mr. Swan! Wait!”

Hubery stopped Shawn again and tried to persuade Shawn with reason. “Don’t forget the agreement between your ancient families and the government!

“You, ancient warriors, are not allowed to be involved in any area of the secular world!

“But now, you are the one who frequently broke the agreement and even cultivated Vulture, a scourge that harms one city. And we have tried our best to tolerate you.

“Although Jett’s death is regrettable, it is also the result of his own fault!

“Mr. Swan, don’t you think you have gone too far?”

Hearing this, Shawn was unmoved. “I don’t care about the agreement. I only know that the life of the Swan family must be paid with blood!”

Seeing that words could not stop Shawn, Hubery had to use his ace in the hole.

Hubery said, “Mr. Swan, if you insist on killing Leones, then Fatuma Police Station and the entire Yingville Army will fight for him to the end!”

With that said, Hubery winked at his granddaughter, Zoey.

Zoey flipped her palm. And there was a signal bomb in her hand.

Hubery said, “This is Yingville Army’s unique signal for help!

“As long as I launch this signal bomb, one hundred thousand Yingville soldiers will return!”

Chapter 323 Compromise

One hundred thousand soldiers of the Yingville Army would return!

Hearing these words, everyone at the scene was shocked!

Previously, they had at least heard about it, even if they had not personally experienced the Yingville Army’s alliance with the Alryne Army to suppress the bandits.

The coalition forces almost wiped out Vulture’s territory instantly without a single blow!

The two cities joined forces to suppress the bandits and attacked quickly to frighten Vulture's supporters.

As expected, the ancient warriors from the Chamber Mountain let it go and did not intervene too much.

When an ancient warrior wanted to save Vulture, Leones forcibly killed him, so the rescue failed.

No one doubted Yingville's determination to suppress the bandits and the possibility of their comeback.

"Mr. Swan!" Hubery said again, "We have reason to suspect that you are gathering here to cultivate another Vulture! You have broken the agreement of not interfering with the secular world.

"Though I cannot defeat you, Yingville Army has many talents and masters. Mr. Doelger is personally in charge. And one hundred thousand soldiers were united!

"Even if your father, Edwin, were here, he wouldn't want to be an enemy of Yingville Army, right?"

Hubery's words were so serious this time that Shawn had to think them cautiously.

Logically speaking, an ancient warrior of Shawn's level shouldn't take action personally to take revenge.

Initially, he wanted to send Jett to act openly, and he cooperated with Jett secretly, but Leones ruined the plan, so Shawn had no choice but to show up and take action.

But it would be out of control if this attracted the Yingville Army here.

"By the way," Zoey said with a smile at this time, "Leones is a close friend of Alryne's War God, Mr. Felix Wellington.

“If Mr. Felix Wellington learns that his friend is trapped here by you, and you even want to kill him, it is unknown whether Alryne’s army will also make a comeback.”

Hearing this, Shawn’s expression changed again. “Are you threatening me?”

“No!” Zoey said sternly, “I’m only telling a fact.

“If we are forced to fight, neither the Yingville Army nor the Alryne Army, who had been cooperated, will stand by!”

Shawn was speechless.

He could not explain to ancient families if the Alryne Army was also attracted here.

Moreover, the Alryne Army had a great reputation and was ranked among the top four mighty armies among the Nine Continents in Vericano.

Even all ancient families of Chamber Mountain did not dare to provoke the Alryne Army easily. Silence!

The atmosphere at the scene seemed to be about to ice at this moment.

It seemed to be the last quiet before the war.

After weighing the pros and cons and some ideological struggle, Shawn finally decided to give up.

“Okay! I’ll do Mr. Barlow a favor. I can let Leones go, but I won’t do it next time!”

Shawn had no choice but to relent.

Hubery breathed a sigh of relief and was just about to thank Shawn.

However, Shawn changed his tone and said sternly, "However, he can avoid death, but he must be punished!"

"Leones has repeatedly killed the ancient warriors from Chamber Mountain. He had gone too far. I can't just let him go!"

"Mr. Barlow, I can do you a favor and not kill him, but I have to take one action to revenge for Jett!"

Shawn clasped his palms together without any more explanation, activated his vital energy, and attacked Leones.

The terrifying pressure, accompanied by a dark shadow like lightning, approached Leones.

When Leones saw this, he was suddenly startled. Although he used all his vital energy to resist, he was still beaten by a strange force.

As if he had suffered a heavy blow, Leones felt his mouth become salty and spat out black blood.

Chapter 324 Satanic Poison

Although Shawn and Leones were far apart, Shawn suddenly made a killing move, and Leones couldn't guard against it!

It only took a second from when Shawn took action to when Leones was hit.

Hubery, standing by, couldn't even react, let alone come to the rescue.

"What?" Hubery was furious when he saw this. Unexpectedly, Shawn took action anyway.

Hubery had also heard of Shawn's reputation as Sick Master. Not to mention being attacked by him, even being approached by him, would be life-threatening.

Leones vomited black blood. It was apparent that he was poisoned. Hubery was shocked and angrily scolded Shawn for not keeping his word.

If something was wrong with Leones, Hubery must call the Yingville Army for revenge.

"Leones, how are you?" Zoey also hurriedly came to Leones, asked with concern, and encouraged, "Don't die... I want to become the War God, waiting for you to marry me!"

"Mr. Bloom!" "Your Majesty!" Darius and Chad also came to Leones, worried and scared.

After staying with Leones for so long, this was the first time they saw Leones injured and vomiting blood. This situation was unusual.

Suddenly, everyone who had seen this was in an uproar.

"Sick Master of the Four Masters of the Swan Family was amazing!"

"It's a shock when he strikes. With just one blow, that guy is vomiting blood and dying!"

"That guy is lucky to have the Barlow family supporting him. Otherwise, he must die with pain today!"

Everyone was amazed at Shawn's prowess. Shawn was worthy of being an ancient warrior, indeed extraordinary.

Shawn said, "Haha, don't worry. I only used ten percent of my strength. That guy won't die." Shawn laughed, got on his horse, and prepared to leave.

But there was a hint of coldness in the eyes looking at Leones.

Shawn sneered in his heart, "Brat, you will die slowly!"

Although Shawn seemed to have only used one move against Leones on the surface, he used the most vicious and incurable poison among the many strange poisons in his body. It was Satanic Poison!

Once this poison entered one's body, it would never stop! The poisoned person would feel like falling into hell, enduring pain and suffering for ten days and nights,

Ultimately, he would become out of shape, like a ghost, and die miserable.

And the point was that there was no antidote for this poison!

Therefore, Shawn thought Leones in front of him was already a corpse.

"Mr. Swan!" Hubery controlled his anger and warned sternly, "If Leones were in danger, we would take revenge!"

"Haha..." Shawn laughed nonchalantly.

Ten days later, Leones would have died, and Shawn would have been returned to Chamber Mountain. Even if the Yingville Army came to attack him, he could prepare for that without fear.

Anyway, Leones would be dead by then. Shawn didn't believe that the Yingville Army could force a war with ancient warriors of Chamber Mountain over a dead man.

“Haha... Cough...” Just when Shawn was feeling proud, he coughed. Then he turned the horse’s head and left.

Everyone watched Shawn leave, but no one dared to stop him. Even getting a little closer to Shawn could lead to the risk of being infected and poisoned.

“Stop!” At this moment, Leones barely suppressed the strange poison in his body, then turned around and said, “After you made one move to attack me, you just want to leave?”

“What?” Shawn was startled, then lightly pressed the horse’s head to stop, turned his head slightly, and asked coldly, “What? You still want to attack me?”

“That’s right!” Then, Leones flashed and rushed to Shawn. “Now it’s my turn!

“Take

my attack, too, before leaving!”

Chapter 325 Transfiguration Into a Dragon

What?

Everyone at the scene was shocked.

No one expected Shawn to let Leones go with just one move, but Leones dared to fight back!?

It would be a blessing if an ancient warrior were willing to spare your life.

How could he feel discontent and even fight back?!

“Is he crazy? He dares to fight back?”

“That guy surely doesn’t know what he’s doing. He’s courting death!”

“Even the Barlow family can’t protect him this time!”

Hubery and others quickly stopped Leones when they saw this.

“Leones, calm down!”

“Exactly! Mr. Bloom, don’t risk your life! Where there is a life, there is a hope.”

“Your Majesty, be careful!”

Everyone thought that with Leones’ talent, given time, he might surpass ancient families. Sooner or later, he could avenge himself. There was no need to act recklessly and fight back right now.

However, no one could stop him now that Leones had taken action.

In an instant, Leones was in front of Shawn.

“Boy! Are you not afraid of death!?”

Shawn didn’t expect that Leones would dare to take action.

What answered him was a flash of cold light in Leones’ hand.

Seeing this, Shawn did not dare to neglect and used the poisonous miasma around him to force Leones away.

After all, ordinary people would fall ill or be poisoned once they were close to it.

But Leones' body was invulnerable to all poisons, and the poisonous miasma surrounding Shawn's body did not affect him.

Then, with a flash of cold light, Leones held the dagger in his hand, preparing to leave an impressive wound on Shawn.

Leones called on the strange power of the demon blade and attached it to the sharp edge of his dagger.

He struck as fast as lightning! And Shawn was still on his horse, unable to dodge.

However, Shawn was not a beginner. The moment the sharp blade touched the skin of his arm, he had already turned over and got off the horse, avoiding the fatal blow.

Even so, Shawn's sleeve had been cut open by the sharp blade, leaving a visible blood mark on his arm!

"Bastard!" Shawn was furious to see the cut.

Being scratched by an ordinary man was a shame to Shawn.

It was utterly an embarrassment!

Seeing that Shawn only got scratched a little, Leones wondered if the strange power could penetrate Shawn's body successfully.

But when Leones wanted to make up for it, he was blocked by the skinny horse in front of him!

"Neigh!"

Like a curtain wall, the skinny horse neighed and blocked Leones' attack from Shawn with its slim body.

Immediately afterward, the skinny horse turned its head and charged toward Leones.

Such a powerful and heavy blow was so terrifying no one could imagine it was from a skinny horse.

Even Leones would not dare to neglect that power.

"As expected of a blood-drinking Dragon-Horse!" Leones couldn't help but admire. No wonder the Giant Python hid down the mountain to avoid it!

Any ordinary warrior who got that hit would probably have their bones and tendons broken or even die on the spot.

Without hesitation, Leones stepped on his feet and dodged one after another.

And the skinny horse rotated its body like a spinning top, attacking from both sides.

It attacked either by its head or its hooves. Its speed was so fast and attacked so fiercely that there seemed to be an unstoppable whirlwind blowing on the spot.

"Your mount is a little cranky!"

Leones caught the horse's flaw and didn't hold back, returning the favor.

"Calm down!"

Leones struck out with a dagger and accurately hit the horse's head under its violent attack. Then, with all his strength, he pressed down the dagger and heavily hit the horse's head on the ground.

Blood stained the ground red, and a pit was seen.

"No!" Shawn roared, unbelievable to see what just happened.

He initially stood on the side, watched, and was confident that his mount was winning and could kill Leones, which would be convenient for him.

It was not just a horse but also a Dragon-Horse, and an ordinary grandmaster could never beat it. And if the opponent couldn't even fight a beast and died under a horse's hooves, why would he even pay attention to that opponent?

But he never expected Leones to seize a flaw and kill his mount instantly.

Leones even killed it with one move without mercy and pinned it to the ground.

Shawn was furious to see that.

It was said that when one beats a dog, one must answer to its master. Not to mention that the horse was his mount, and it was not ordinary. It was very precious.

It was too late for Shawn to save it.

The only thing he could do was to watch hopelessly as his horse got hit on the head and was forced to the ground, creating a huge pit.

He was heartbroken.

“Giant Python!”

Leones did not hesitate. After killing the Dragon–Horse, he immediately summoned the Giant Python.

Boom!

The ground began to shake.

Immediately afterward, a huge body was seen rising from the ground like a pillar.

It was the Giant Python springing out from under the mountain.

Since the Dragon–Horse was dead, the Giant Python had nothing to fear.

As it rushed out of the ground, it swallowed the skinny body of the Dragon–Horse in one gulp.

Shawn was even more shocked and angry!

His mount was killed and eaten by the beast raised by the opponent!?

“That’s it!!”

Shawn gritted his teeth and was about to take action. He would kill the Giant Python in the same way and return the favor.

But at this moment, Shawn was startled by the incredible scene before him, and his eyes widened!

After devouring the Dragon–Horse, the Giant Python raised its head to the sky and roared as if it were in great pain and torture, and its vast head began to change.

Lines of blue scales like steel knives emerged from the Giant Python’s head one after another.

It was as if thousands of giant blades were forcefully piercing out of its body and emerging on its surface. Its scales were arranged neatly front and back. And there were thousands of rows of them!

The scales covered its entire huge snake head!

“Fairy!?”

Seeing the Giant Python’s sudden change, Marie couldn’t help but exclaim in worry.

“Could it be!?”

“It transfigured into a dragon!?”

Chapter 326 Only One Move

The significant change in the Giant Python immediately shocked everyone.

“Oh my god, look at it. That Giant Python has grown scales... Will it transform into a dragon?”

“Impossible! Isn’t that an auspicious beast in myths and legends? But the size of this Giant Python is terrifying! Maybe it is possible!”

“I didn’t expect this beast to have such an opportunity after swallowing Mr. Swan’s mount!?! How lucky it is!”

Everyone looked up and saw the Giant Python's transfiguration and couldn't help but marvel.

"Wow! Could it be that we can witness the spectacle of a python transforming into a dragon!?" Darius was also shocked.

"Ms. Roberts, is this a spiritual beast once guarded by the Roberts family? Could it turn into a dragon?"

Chad said that as he had been in Fatuma all year round, he had heard of the Roberts family's snake-controlling skill. However, he never knew this ancient and mysterious family could cultivate dragons.

"I... I don't know..." Marie murmured, "Snake transforming into a dragon was a legend in my family. However, Fairy's remarkable change does have the appearance of transforming into a dragon!

"Those things growing out of its head are dragon scales!"

Everyone's eyes were all focused on the Giant Python's head.

They thought the scales would grow from top to bottom, all over the body.

But the transfiguration only lasted for a moment, and the scales it produced stopped seven inches from its head, failing to cover the whole body.

Roar!

Even so, after the Giant Python completed this significant change, its whole body temperament changed. It was no longer terrifying with its size but with its aura, which gave people an endless sense of oppression.

The Giant Python's roar shook the world as the scales stopped growing.

"It's a pity that it hasn't completely transformed!"

Seeing this, Leones shook his head slightly.

“You beast... How dare you swallow my mount... That’s unbearable! Cough, cough, cough...”

Shawn gritted his teeth when he saw what happened and couldn’t help coughing because of his anger.

“I’m going to skin it alive!!

“I don’t care if it’s a dragon or a snake. It’s dead today!!”

Roar!!

Facing Shawn’s intention of killing, the Giant Python released another shocking roar and confronted Shawn without fear.

Like a real dragon, it looked down at the people. Its fist-sized eyes were full of majesty and contempt.

After devouring the Dragon–Horse, the Giant Python completed its initial transfiguration and possessed a sense of dragon power.

It was no longer the Giant Python that had just run away in panic when it saw Shaw the Sick Master and his skinny horse.

At this time, Leones stepped forward and stood between the two.

“If you want to hurt it, you must get past me first!” Leones said coldly.

“Cough, cough, cough...” Seeing Leones again, Shawn felt a dull pain in the injury on his arm, which triggered a violent cough.

He shouted, "Both of you will die today! Especially you, Leones!!"

"Mr. Swan!" At this time, Hubery also rushed forward with a spear and said, "You just said you would only use one move against Leones!

"Now that you finished your 'one move,'. Please don't break your promise!"

Shawn growled, "But the guy also attacked me and killed my mount!"

"No matter what, you must keep your promise!" Hubery insisted, "One move! You said you'll only use one move!"

With that said, Hubery held the spear in his hand and said sternly, "If you insist on fighting again, then I will have no choice but to fight against you!"

"Mr. Swan, if you act again, I will have no choice but to signal for help and call the reinforcements from Yingville!" Zoey also took out the signal bomb again, as if she were about to launch it into the sky at any time.

Chapter 327 Severed a Hand

At this moment, Shawn had lost his only mount, essentially becoming a lone commander, isolated and without support.

Faced with the continuous pressure from the Barlow family, Shawn glared resentfully at Leones. However, a thought occurred to him, "This young man has already been poisoned by my Satanic Poison. His days are numbered. Killing him isn't a matter of urgency for now."

With this in mind, Shawn looked up at the Giant Python showing signs of transforming into a dragon, thinking, "Once Leones dies, I'll deal with this creature. If this beast manages to transform into a dragon in the future, it will be even more valuable than my mount."

After pausing for a moment, Shawn toned down his imposing aura and said, "Fine, let's end this for now!"

"Leones, we'll see!"

Shawn took one last look at Leones, firm in his belief that the next time they met, Leones would be a mere corpse.

With that, Shawn quickly turned around and left down the mountain.

Watching Shawn's departing figure, Leones didn't stop him, letting him.

go.

Because he had managed to injure Shawn's arm, even though it was just a minor flesh wound, the eerie power of the demon blade lingered in the cut.

If left untreated, Shawn's entire arm would become useless.

Shawn retreated.

The mood among the spectators was mixed. Some rejoiced, others were worried.

The members of the Barlow family, as well as Darius, sighed in relief now that their formidable enemy had left.

However, those desperadoes present were shocked. They had never imagined that Mr. Swan of the Four Masters of the Swan Family would retreat so readily.

It caught them off-guard, and they worried about facing the lord of Undrago, as they might even lose their lives.

“Congratulations, Your Majesty!”

A sycophant was the first to speak, praising Leones.

“Even the ancient warrior from Chamber Mountain, one of the Four Masters of the Swan Family, was repelled by Your Majesty!”

“Your Majesty is powerful. We’re proud to join Undrago!”

As one person started, others quickly joined in, showering Leones with congratulations and cheers.

“Long live the Dragon King!”

“Long live the Dragon King!”

“Long live the Dragon King!”

Despite the crowd’s reverence, Leones remained cold and emotionless.

He hadn’t forgotten how these very men had eagerly sided with the Swan family just moments ago.

Leones said, “I bet you didn’t expect me to still be alive.

“However, you all, like homeless dogs, were abandoned by the Swan family!”

The crowd lowered their heads in fear and shame, struggling for words to defend themselves.

“Your Majesty, please give us another chance. We swear never to betray you again...”

“Even if the Four Masters of the Swan Family, or even Edwin the Stick, come again, we’ll stand by Your Majesty’s side!”

The crowd was quick to pledge their loyalty, but it was clear how they would choose if faced with the ancient warriors of the Swan family again.

“Your Majesty, how should we deal with these men?” Chad asked.

“Your Majesty... please spare us... We won’t dare to do it again...” The crowd pleaded, kneeling in submission.

After some thought, Leones finally spoke, “Those who betrayed me for the Swan family just now, sever one of your hands!”

What?

Severed a hand!?

The crowd’s faces drained of color upon hearing Leones’ command. However, under Leones’ cold gaze and Chad’s intimidation, they didn’t dare disobey.

“Do you want to save your hand or your life?” Chad paced among them. “You have three seconds to decide.”

With screams echoing in the air, the crowd agreed to sever a hand as punishment.

Witnessing this bloody scene, Hubery and Zoey remained unfazed.

No one would pity traitors, especially a group of desperados. Killing them would be doing the public a favor.

However, Leones suddenly spat out a mouthful of black blood.

He felt an unusual power wreaking havoc inside him, severely damaging his internal organs. "Mr. Bloom? How are you feeling?" Darius, seeing this, was alarmed and quickly moved to support Leones.

Chapter 328 Self-Healing

How could this be!?

It's the second time Leones spit blood. Even Leones himself was secretly shocked by this abnormal situation.

He thought, "Could it be the lingering effects of Shawn's Satanic Poison? But I should be immune to all poisons. Why can't he suppress this eerie force?"

Leones closed his eyes. He distinctly felt a dark energy inside, like a runaway horse, rampaging uncontrollably throughout his body. Everywhere it went, his organs were in chaos.

Leones possessed a constitution that surpassed that of ordinary people.

If he were an average person, he would probably have died long ago, let alone show a reaction like coughing up blood.

"Your Majesty, are your injuries so serious?" Chad hadn't expected Leones to spit blood again and quickly retreated to Leones' side.

"Leones, were you injured during the fight with Shawn?" Hubery asked with concern. "Is it severe? Should we immediately take you to the hospital?"

“Grandpa Hubery, did you forget?” Zoey reminded Hubery. “Leones is Divine Doctor. Why would he need a hospital?”

“Oh, right!” Hubery chuckled bitterly. “I forgot about that. Leones, can you heal yourself?”

Leones nodded and inhaled deeply. “I need a quiet place to heal.”

The strange poison in his body was indeed peculiar. Leones needed a quiet place to study it. “There are plenty of vacant rooms at the foot of the mountain!” At this moment, a man who hadn’t yet severed his hand raised it and offered to lead the way, hoping to make amends.

With someone leading the way and accompanied by Darius and others, Leones soon entered a vacant room.

“Mr. Bloom, I’ll stand guard outside. Call me if you need anything,” Darius took up the role of the chief disciple and instructed Chad, “You should go back in case the outlaws on the mountaintop take advantage of Mr. Bloom’s injury to revolt.”

“Okay! Got it!” Chad felt that Darius had a point. Having been forced to sever their hands, those people might bear grudges, particularly when Leones was severely injured and spitting blood. Without delay, Chad went back to oversee things.

Now, Leones sat down, observing and feeling the dark energy inside his body.

The abnormality in his body was caused by this dark energy. For a while, Leones couldn’t deal with it at all.

Even using his most powerful vital energy, he couldn’t dissolve or even capture it.

In the end, Leones even tried vital energy acupuncture, but still couldn't solve it.

"How strange!" Leones felt something was wrong. What poison did he get that was so peculiar? All treatments seemed ineffective.

He sighed internally, "Shawn is worthy of the name of the Sick Master! These top ancient warriors are truly not to be underestimated."

Though Leones had inherited medical arts and elixir, he couldn't come up with an effective treatment.

Just then, the dark energy wreaked havoc in his body for the third time.

Suddenly, Leones spat out another mouthful of black blood, and his organs were hit hard again.

After all the turmoil, Leones looked drained and was clueless about the dark energy.

"Am I going to sit and wait for my end?" Leones frowned deeply, thinking in reverse. "If I can't get rid of the dark energy, it would be great if I could force it out!"

Suddenly, an idea struck him.

"If I can't destroy it, then I'll find a way to expel it from my body!"

But there was a problem. The dark energy was elusive, like water.

"If there's something that can draw it out..." Thinking this, Leones slowly took out his dagger.

If this dagger could absorb the eerie power of the demon blade, maybe the strange dark energy inside him could also be drawn into the dagger.

No time to waste!

Leones decided to give it a try.

Holding the dagger with its blade facing him, he stabbed it into his abdomen, right where the dark energy was.

In an instant, the dark energy seemed to sense something and started to move rapidly.

But this time, it didn't go far. The force within the dagger activated suddenly, absorbing all the dark energy at once.

"Success!" Seeing this, Leones was overjoyed.

He hadn't expected the dagger to have such a terrifying absorption ability as if it could accommodate endless powers.

For a while, the dagger absorbed the eerie power of the demon blade that could endlessly wound the enemy, "Tri-cannon" Jett Zimmer's ice energy, and the peculiar poison of the Satanic Poison.

Damage, ice, and poison, the three energies circulated rapidly inside the dagger, switching among each other.

Leones played with the dagger for a while, and in no time, he mastered these three energies.

Chapter 329 Mix of Kindness and Severity

At this time, inside the hall at the peak of the mountain.

Ever since Leones went down the mountain to heal, and his condition remained unknown, the group of desperados on the mountain seemed restless.

“Damn! Why did I act so quickly just now?! If I had delayed a few seconds longer, maybe I wouldn’t have had to sever my hand... Oh my gosh... my left hand!” A man lamented, clutching his severed hand, holding back tears.

“Yeah! The so-called Dragon King has been struck by Mr. Swan’s fatal move. Maybe he’s been forcing himself this whole time and might be on the verge of death!”

Some whispered, speculating that perhaps Leones had passed down.

If it weren’t for the presence of powerful individuals like Chad, the support of Hubery and Zoey, and the fact that most of them had severed one of their own hands, they would’ve already risked it all and fled.

If they all rushed to escape, with just Chad alone, it would probably be difficult to restrain them. “Hmph! Dream on!” Chad coldly warned them.

“His Majesty, with unparalleled medical and martial skills, such injuries are nothing!

“Even if Sick Master’s poison attack was formidable, it can’t threaten His Majesty’s life!”

Before he finished speaking, he felt a strong wind passing through the hall.

Before Chad finished speaking, a gust of wind swept through the hall. With his hands behind his back, Leones walked in leisurely.

“Your Majesty!” Chad sighed in relief seeing this.

Finding Leones appear, the desperados were wretched, yet they put on a smile and greeted him. The desperados said in unison, "Congratulations to Your Majesty on your successful recovery!" "Leones, are your injuries healed?" Zoey asked with a smile.

Leones nodded. "All is well."

"Haha, I knew it, you'd be fine." Zoey laughed heartily, patting Leones on the shoulder.

After all, if Leones could heal Hubery's decades-old injuries, any other wound would be trivial. "Leones' medical skills are truly unparalleled!" Hubery sincerely praised.

Then, Chad reported, "Your Majesty, while you were healing, these people became restless, even hoping in their hearts that you'd die.

"How should they be dealt with?"

Upon hearing this, the desperados' faces drained of color and began to defend themselves.

"Goldendrake... don't falsely accuse us! We never...!"

"We were just worried for His Majesty! That's why we were anxious. We never had any second thoughts!"

"How would you know what's in our hearts? We were praying for His Majesty! Look! It worked! His Majesty, he came out safely!"

For such a group with hidden agendas, how easy would it be to unite them?

Leones had temporarily repelled the ancient warriors of the Swan family from Chamber Mountain, but he didn't have as great a reputation as those ancient warriors. Hence, he found it challenging to command respect in Fatuma.

But, of course, Leones had his methods.

In an instant, like scattering flowers, Leones cast the Blood Curse on everyone present, making them easier to control.

Leones ordered, "I've planted the Blood Curse within you, and it'll activate once a year. If you want to die horribly, behave and keep your thoughts in check.

don't

"From now on, you'll all follow Chad's orders, joining the Undrago branch in Fatuma. Understand?"

Everyone shivered in fear, not daring to hesitate.

"Of course, if you serve me well, Undrago will reward you.

"In short, rewards for merits and punishment for mistakes! Undrago is impartial!"

Under this mix of kindness and severity, the desperados obediently followed orders, suppressing any other thoughts or plans. They replied in unison, "We obey Your Majesty's command!"

Leones waved, "You can all go now."

Hearing this, they felt as if they had received a royal pardon and hurriedly left the mountain.

Thus, most of the underground forces in Fatuma were now under Leones' control.

As the saying goes, one strong punch is better than a hundred weak ones.

With Leones intimidating the miscreants in Fatuma, his future activities in Fatuma would be much smoother.

With matters settled here, Leones and his group, along with Hubery and Zoey, also descended the mountain.

On the way down, Hubery hesitated a bit but finally said, "Leones, there's something I want to say, but I'm unsure if it's appropriate."

Chapter 330 Everyone Had a Responsibility

"Mr. Barlow, please speak!" Leones slowed his pace, wondering what Hubery wanted to say.

Hubery stroked his beard and chuckled, saying, "Technically, I shouldn't interfere with Leones' personal matters. But..."

As his tone shifted, Hubery spoke directly. "In the future, you're supposed to become the War God, leading soldiers of a region. How can you mix with those desperados and underground bosses? Isn't this lowering your own value? You might even be criticized for it!

"In the future, if your political enemies use these matters against you on the court, you'll be tying your own hands!"

In Hubery's view, whether it's leading Undrago or ruling the underground forces of Fatuma, these are things that shouldn't be done openly. Someone like Leones, who excels in both medicine and martial arts, should walk the righteous path. These matters might tarnish his reputation. Hearing this, Leones smiled lightly. He had thought Hubery was about to say something significant. He didn't expect such a trivial concern.

Indeed, with an illustrious military career, Hubery naturally looked down on those desperados. If it weren't for Leones being there, he wouldn't even deign to associate with them.

Even Chad, following behind, felt looked down upon by Hubery's words and couldn't help but feel a little inferior.

However, Leones had a different perspective. “Mr. Barlow, I disagree with you!

“Haven’t you heard that when the world is in turmoil, everyone has a responsibility? And there’s a saying that those who uphold righteousness often come from humble occupations.

“No one is born a rogue. They simply took some wrong turns in life. The courage of a common person

is also a force to be reckoned with!

“Let me ask you, Mr. Barlow, is it easier to manage these desperados scattered all over the city or when they are gathered together?”

Hearing this, Hubery immediately understood Leones’ point and nodded. “Of course, it’s easier to manage them when they’re together.”

“Exactly!” Leones continued, “No matter how we view them, they’ve always existed. Instead of letting them roam and cause trouble, why not have an organization that brings them together, strictly controls them, and uses them for our purposes?”

“I believe that everyone has their value. If we can tap into their potential, they too can make a difference in the future.

“Now, in the golden age of Vericano, can’t we accommodate a small group like Undrago?” Leones’ words were neither humble nor arrogant, striking straight to the heart.

Even Chad, who had felt inferior, was inspired after hearing Leones’ words and stood up tall. Chad thought, “Even in a lowly position, one shouldn’t forget the concerns of the country! I was also a part of Vericano. If His Majesty becomes the War God, I will willingly follow him, even to the death!”

“Leones, you’re right!” Hubery said, somewhat ashamed, “It seems I was too old–fashioned.”

“Leones, you truly stand out!” Zoey also laughed. “I agree with you. Grandpa Hubery was wrong this time. Everyone is equal.

“After all, not everyone in the military camp is learned and cultured, right?”

After descending the mountain, Zoey paused to say goodbye to everyone, “I’ve received notice that the Yingville Army will leave tonight. I have to meet them. Farewell for now!”

“Alright, go!” Hubery nodded. He was reluctant to part, but a child has to venture out into the world. If she can continue the family legacy, that would be reassuring. “Be careful on your journey! Once you’re in the army, you can’t act impulsively.”

“Leones, we’ll meet again!” Zoey said to Leones as a parting note, “The next time we meet, I’ll be the War God!”

“Great! I wish you success!” Leones replied, “Take care!”

After parting with Zoey, the group returned to Fatuma City.

Hubery said his goodbyes to Leones and went home. Leones and his party returned to the Johnson Manor.

The Johnson Manor was now lively with lights and decorations.

They had prepared a feast and sent out invitations far and wide, formally announcing the change of leadership in the Johnson family.

It made Leones a famous figure in Fatuma to spread his heroic deeds like seizing control of the Johnson family, defeating the Vulture, and becoming sworn brothers with Felix.

He had effectively become the top figure in Fatuma.

For a time, admirers came in droves. Important figures from all over Fatuma gathered at the Johnson Manor to meet him.
