Chapter 351 Test

Others might think Harold deliberately spoke those words.

Some people even want to persuade Harold to watch his language. After all, today was a big day for the Johnson family to have a new ruler. He should not trouble the new ruler.

But Leones liked such stubborn people because he knew pure gold could withstand fire!

If Leones wanted everyone to believe what he said, he must prove it to everyone.

Leones wanted to prove that traditional medicine could cure the diseases that foreign medicine couldn't cure!

Immediately, Leones unexpectedly nodded and said, "It can be cured!"

As soon as he said these words, the people surprisingly exclaimed.

Even Harold was suddenly surprised and seemed not to expect Leones to answer so shortly. Harold quickly explained, "My leg has been disabled for a year due to a car accident. Can it be cured?"

Harold explained it because he was surprised and wanted to give Leones a face-saving way. Unexpectedly, Leones still nodded and indicated he could cure Harold.

"As long as your legs have not been amputated, I can cure your leg within fifteen minutes if you take the elixir!"

Hearing this, everyone was surprised again.

They wondered if Leones was joking. Or he was too confident in his elixir.

“With an elixir, I can stand up after fifteen minutes?” Harold said suspiciously, “I’ll really take this elixir right now. I’ll test it on the spot.”

Leones said calmly, “Whatever.”

Seeing Leones’ calmness and the curious eyes of everyone around him, Harold looked at his legs, which had been disabled for a long time.

Harold gritted his teeth and decided to try the medicine himself.

What if there really was a miracle?

Immediately, amid a burst of exclamations from everyone, Harold raised his head and actually swallowed the elixir in one gulp.

In an instant, there was nothing but dead silence.

No one expected Harold to be so hasty to test the medicine on the

But Leones still looked calm and composed.

spot.

Leones made a hundred elixirs, which were effective, by his own hands during his spare time after he came to Fatuma.

It could cure cancers and severed broken limbs.

“Mr. Wright, how do you feel?” Others asked curiously.

Harold shook his head and answered, “I don’t feel anything. Please wait patiently for a while!

“Since Mr. Bloom said it would be effective in 15 minutes, let us wait and see. Haha.”

Everyone nodded and waited patiently while looking at their watches.

However, most people present did not think there would be a good result.

“Is there no problem with His Majesty’s elixir?” Chad had just surrendered to Leones not long ago. He had not yet known Leones’ medical skills and had only heard how powerful Leones was from Blackdrake and the others.

“Haha. Not a big deal.” Darius said proudly, “Mr. Bloom can even save the dead, let alone the disabled ones? A piece of cake!”

Soon, fifteen minutes were up.

Everyone looked at Harold again and asked with concern, “Mr. Wright, how do Harold knocked his legs hard and said with a wry smile, “I still feel nothing.”

Hearing this, everyone sighed with disappointment,

you feel?”

They shouldn't have expectations, but they still hoped for a miracle inside. "Haha..." Harold laughed and wanted to change the topic because he didn't want to embarrass Leones.

At this moment, Leones picked up a kettle and walked to Harold after separating everyone.

"Your legs haven't moved for too long, and they can't adapt to move after being healed. So, you need to stimulate them."

As he spoke, Leones poured the boiling water directly on Harold's disabled legs.

With a scream, Harold suddenly jumped high from his wheelchair and shouted, "It's so hot!"

Chapter 352 Miracle

"It's so hot!"

Harold jumped up and down and even vented his anger at Leones.

"Leones! Even if I test the medicine and embarrass you, you don't need to retaliate against me like this, right?"

"Such hot water! Do you want to kill me? I'm over seventy, you..."

As he spoke, Harold suddenly froze on the spot.

Under the shocked gazes of everyone around him, Harold suddenly sobered!

He lowered his head again to glance at his legs and turned to look at the wheelchair behind him.

At this moment, Harold suddenly trembled and became so excited that he burst into tears instantly.

“I... I actually stand up...

“My leg is really healed!”

Harold couldn't believe that he could stand up again in this life.

The constant pain in his legs caused by the hot water became the happiest feeling in Harold's life.

At this moment, all the guests around Harold also recovered from their shock.

There was another uproar in an instant.

“Oh my god! Harold can actually stand up! It is a miracle!”

“Is there really a magic medicine that can cure all diseases? Is traditional medicine really so magical?”

“I never expected Mr. Bloom's medical skills to be so powerful.”

“He is a talented man who is proficient in martial arts and has great medical skills! Oh my god. Who the hell is Mr. Bloom?”

If people in Fatuma hadn't known that Harold's leg had been disabled for a long time, they might have thought the two were liars.

However, Harold had a high status and wouldn't lie with Leones.

At this moment, everyone completely changed their attitudes toward Leones when they looked at Leones.

They respected and admired Leones. Besides, they also had a longing feeling.

People only admired Leones and said he was young and promising when Leones killed Vulture and defeated Kristen of the Jernigan family in a competition of four arts.

But no matter how strong and excellent Leones was, what did it have to do with others?

But things were different now. Leones claimed that his elixir could be a cure—all for all diseases. The huge business opportunities hidden in it made everyone coveted and jealous.

People recalled what Leones said just now again.

“Start with me! Now traditional medicine is about to rise and is available to thousands of households!”

No one could remain calm in the face of such a huge market of 20 trillion Vericano dollars. They all wanted to take part in the medical industry.

Looking at the elixir, everyone suddenly felt it was as heavy and priceless as gold.

Most of the businessmen present had predicted the huge business opportunities hidden in this elixir.

As Leones said just now, this elixir alone was comparable to the ethnic handicrafts in the past, which had swept the overseas market and made a lot of money.

It might even disrupt the current pharmaceutical market.

At this time, Harold, excited, separated from everyone and came to Leones.

He suddenly bowed.

“Mr. Bloom, thank you for curing me!

“Mr. Bloom, I’m sorry that I offended you. I hope you will forgive me.

“From now on, you can lead the Wright family in Fatuma!

“Mr. Bloom, the Wright family will fully support your great ambitions!”

Harold bowed for two reasons!

Firstly, Harold really wanted to thank Leones for his treatment. Secondly, Harold also wanted to cooperate with Leones in the future.

Seeing Harold take the initiative to express his position, everyone at the scene reacted and hurriedly stepped forward.

“Mr. Bloom, we are also willing to follow you to work for you and achieve great goals!”

Chapter 353 One Sword

The scene was exactly what Leones wanted to see.

“Modern medicine only lasts four hundred years, while traditional medicine has more than two thousand years of history and experience! How can the rotten grass compete with the bright moon?

“If we dig out the things left by our ancestors, we’ll shock the world. However, our country has experienced too many disasters, and many things have been lost as a result.

“Time never waits for us! Since I have this inheritance, I have the responsibility to carry it forward! The days when modern medicine makes money here will be gone forever!

“From now on, the offensive and defensive forces will change! One day, our flags will be visible in the world! The world will also witness the rise of our glorious country!”

Everyone present immediately resonated with Leones’ impassioned speech.

Everyone thought, “Yes. Vericano had been sleeping for too long! The nation finally got the opportunity. No one could stop Vericano from awakening!”

At this moment, Charizard was so excited that he burst into tears and repeatedly shouted, “God bless Vericano! God bless Vericano!”

People of the older generation had passed through poverty and weakness. They knew the hardships along the way better than anyone else.

Nowadays, although Vericano was prosperous, it still lacked products with core competitiveness.

Foreign countries, which became prosperous by developing science and technology, restricted the development of science and technology of Vericano. In addition, they locked down related research to make it difficult for Vericano to move forward.

However, Vericano also had something that the foreign countries did not have, which was the wisdom left by its ancestors.

Charizard believed the elixir was enough to subvert the existing medical system and even became a threat to foreign countries.

Did they want a miracle cure?

It was not enough to buy it with money. Foreign countries must exchange it with technology!

The more Charizard thought about it, the more excited he became. He even felt the elixir in his hands was a vital key related to the fate of the country!

“Mr. Bloom!” At this time, someone suddenly felt worried and said uneasily, “Foreign countries use the cloak of civilization to hide the fact that they are bandits in nature.

“People who hide the treasure are guilty!

“Now that we have such miracle medicine. If we dump it overseas, we must suffer relevant restrictions. What if foreign countries have an idea to take it for themselves? How to deal with it?” Harold agreed, “Sounds quite reasonable!

“What if foreign countries steal or copy the elixir formula?”

Hearing this, Leones smiled. He had naturally thought about these issues.

“Don’t worry!”

Leones continued, “Foreign technology has been developed for hundreds of years. If we want to copy it, it will be difficult to catch up in just a few decades. Do you really think those outsiders can easily copy the formula of traditional medicine, which has been developed for thousands of years?

“Honestly, only two people in the world can make the Primordial Elixir in your hands! Without me, they can’t make it even if they steal the elixir formula and get the entire production line!” Hearing this, everyone was startled and doubtful again. Even some who wanted to imitate it also gave up.

“If they want to take it by force or impose restrictions, I have only one thing to say!”

At this point, Leones changed his expression. “If they dare to fight, I will fight!

“A hundred years ago, foreign countries used guns and cannons to defeat our country. But now, I can use a sword to defeat them!”

Chapter 354 Demon Blade

Hearing this, everyone was shocked again.

However, facing the young grandmaster who killed Vulture with one hand, everyone believed he could protect this magical medicine.

“We’ll talk about these things when they happen in the future. Don’t worry now.”

At this time, Charizard also smiled and said, “But we can feel relieved after hearing what Mr. Bloom said!

“In short, Mr. Bloom, just go ahead and do it. All the major families and forces in Fatuma will be willing to help and serve you!”

If Fatuma took the lead to capture this future pharmaceutical market worth 20 trillion Vericano. dollars per year, there would be many jobs and potential opportunities.

Fatuma would be revived and became the richest place in Vericano.

Therefore, a local family like the Jernigan family took the lead in taking a stand.

No matter what Leones’ requirements were, everyone was willing to cooperate to meet his requirements to keep this pharmaceutical industry here.

Leones nodded. "Everything is now ready, and pharmaceutical production has been put into the process. Because of Fatuma's good geographical location, I plan to develop the pharmaceutical industry in Fatuma."

Everyone was overjoyed when they heard this and expressed their willingness to contribute money and efforts to give their full support.

After reaching a verbal agreement, everyone enjoyed themselves and left satisfied when the banquet ended.

Now, all forces in Fatuma were under Leones' control.

At the same time, an angry roar echoed in the Eagle Peak of Chamber Mountain.

"My arm! Why is it like this?"

"I'm going to kill him!"

Shawn was angry because he failed to kill Leones when he returned to the mountain.

While bathing and changing clothes, Shawn suddenly discovered that the wound on his arm made by Leones was getting bigger, as if there was a faint force tearing it, which was utterly unable to heal.

The wound, as big as a finger, became as big as a palm.

Seeing this, Shawn was shocked and angry. He was afraid that his entire arm would become useless if the wound grew.

“It must be because of him!

“I’m going to kill Leones!”

Shawn changed his clothes and immediately prepared to return to Fatuma to settle the score with Leones.

“Shawn, you are so hasty. What do you do since you just came back?”

At this time, a charming middle-aged woman in fine clothes was surrounded by butterflies and stood in front of Shawn.

“Butterfly! Someone hurts me!”

Shawn showed his wound. “Look!”

The woman was shocked after seeing the wound.

She said shockingly, “It is the curse of the demon blade!”

“Demon blade? Curse?” Shawn was startled and wondered whether the man he fought with just now was from Vericano.

“Shawn, how did you get this injury?” The woman asked quickly, “Did you fight with an Eastern warrior?”

“No! It’s a man named Leones Bloom!” Shawn recounted everything that had just happened.

“If the Fatuma Police Station hadn’t tried to protect the man and even called in the Yingville Army to confront me, I would have cut the man into pieces!”

After hearing this, the woman was even more surprised. “Why does that boy know how to use an Eastern demon blade?”

“Mom, what exactly is a demon blade?” Shawn asked curiously and said frankly, “But the sharp weapon he used to hurt me was not a blade, but a dagger!”

you mentioned?”

At this time, a tall and middle-aged man walked in.

It was Shawn’s father, Edwin the Stick, the owner of the Eagle Peak, which was one of the seven peaks in the Chamber Mountain.

“Edwin, you came just in time!” The woman responded, “Look at the injury on Shawn’s arm!”

This woman was Edwin’s wife, who was nicknamed the Butterfly.

Edwin took a closer look and said in surprise, “Your injury is a bit weird! How did you get it?”

Shawn recounted the fight he had just had with Leones.

“What? Jett was also killed?” Edwin was suddenly shocked and raged after he heard this. “What the hell! Is it Leones again?”

“I really want to smash his head with a stick!”

As he said that, Edwin waved hard his right hand as if he wanted to smash something. But he held nothing in his hand.

“What? Where is my stick?”

After giving an order, seven subordinates immediately stepped forward and carried a huge and heavy stick on their shoulders.

Edwin picked up his weapon and asked, “Shawn, go down the mountain with me! Find Leones and kill him!”

“Yes, Dad!” Shawn was overjoyed and wanted to take revenge immediately.

“Edwin, Shawn, wait a minute!” Butterfly quickly stopped them. “Why do you kill Leones with the stick?”

“If we want to kill Leones, why should we do it ourselves?”

“I have gotten news that Leones had many enemies. He offended us and other ancient families!”

“The Seven Ancient Families have joined forces to declare war against Leones!”

“Leones must be dead! Let the Seven Families gang up on him!”

“Oh? The Seven Ancient Families have already declared a war on Leones?”

Hearing this, Edwin immediately stopped and looked thoughtful.

The Three Mountains, Five Sects, and Seven Families were the most famous among the ancient families. Although the Seven Families were the weakest, it should be no problem for them to gang up on a secular boy.

“Since the Seven Families have joined forces and issued a declaration of war, I have no need to be involved!”

As he spoke, Edwin threw the weapon in his hand to the side again, which made the subordinates feel frightened and run away with their heads in their hands.

It wasn't until the huge stick hit the ground and created a deep pit that everyone stepped forward to pick up the stick and retreated.

“Hey, by the way, Sweetie, what was the demon blade?” Edwin thought of the demon blade and asked curiously, “Is it related to the injury on Shawn's arm?”

“That's right!” Butterfly nodded. “Such an incurable wound can only be caused by the demon blade!”

“What is the demon blade?” Edwin asked curiously.

“The demon blade is a unique weapon from the East.”

Butterfly explained simply.

“Among every one hundred thousand weapons, there will be one demon blade, which is a cursed weapon. Not only will it harm the owner, but the injuries it causes cannot be healed until the man with the injury dies.”

Edwin immediately became interested. “How can there be such a powerful weapon in the world? Is it better than my weapon?”

“Haha. According to what you said, I also want to have one!”

Butterfly continued, “Edwin, I advise you to give up this idea. Ordinary people simply cannot control the demon blade and will be killed sooner or later!”

Edwin didn’t believe it. “Even I can’t control it? Is Satan in that demon blade?”

Butterfly smiled, “Satan is not in it. But it is said that there is a demon sealed in every blade.

demon

“The owner must keep killing and feeding the demon blade with his life and blood. But once the owner stops killing, he will slowly be eroded by the demon blade and become its puppet. The owner must continue to kill people until he dies and the next unlucky owner appears.” Edwin was a little scared after hearing the legend. He didn’t want to become a puppet of the weapon.

“Sweetie, you know so much!” Edwin praised.

“Haha. Who am I?” Butterfly smiled coquettishly, “My seventy-second husband was an Eastern warrior. I had only been with him for half a year, and he was killed by a demon blade!” Hearing this, Edwin turned his face livid. “Sweetie, didn’t you say that you only have sixty-four ex-husbands? Why did you say the Eastern warrior was your seventy-second husband?”

“How many men that you didn’t tell me?”

Butterfly said casually, “Yes. The sixty–four ex–husbands I mentioned are from Vericano, not including foreigners.”

What?

When Edwin heard it, he immediately became so furious that he wanted to kill all men. “How many men in total?” Edwin asked with a dark face.

“Probably... maybe... I can’t remember!” Butterfly smiled coquettishly and leaned on Edwin’s muscular chest again, “But I can promise one thing!

“Edwin, you are my last man!”

While talking, a group of colorful butterflies flew and swirled around them.

Seeing the charming lady in his arms, Edwin felt his anger completely disappear when he smelled the fragrance of her body.

“Sweetie, I love hearing such words!” Edwin hugged Butterfly tightly and sighed, “How lucky I am to marry such a good woman!”

Looking at the two, Shawn suddenly turned his face dark and felt sorry for his father in his heart.

His father was hopelessly obsessed with this woman.

“Butterfly, what should I do to cure my injury? Can it be cured?” Shawn asked anxiously.

“No!” Butterfly broke away from Edwin’s hug and gently smoothed her hair. “The injury caused by the demon blade is like being cursed by the devil. The wound will continue to expand until you die!”

“What? What should I do?” When Shawn heard this, he was so frightened that he broke into a cold sweat. “Butterfly, you have to save me!”

“The only way to cure your wound is to find the blade!” Butterfly said, “If we can find the demon blade that hurts you and remove the cursed power from your wound, maybe you can recover!”

Shawn said, “I still have to find Leones!”

Shawn wanted to leave again.

“Yeah! Don’t worry. It will take a while to kill you!”

Butterfly advised, “After the Seven Ancient Families kill Leones, we can find the blade. No matter if it’s a demon blade or the dagger you mentioned, we will always find a way when we study it.”

Even so, Shawn still couldn’t bear it when he thought of enduring the pain of the wound. expansion.

“Shawn, you are the Sick Master! Not a big deal!” Butterfly encouraged, “Your body is a huge poisonous container. Try to see if you can completely fuse the power in your arm. Maybe there will be unexpected gains!”

Chapter 356 Three Processes

Everyone on the earth kept living their own lives.

On Eagle Peak, everyone in the Swan family was not eager to trouble Leones. Instead, they were ready to reap the benefits rather than fighting with Leones.

On the other side, Leones rested in Johnson Manor for another night.

Early the next morning, Leones led Darius and others to visit the Johnson family's pharmaceutical production base.

Levi and the head of the Soler family, who were in charge of the base, met with Leones and led him to visit the pharmaceutical factory. They also promised to transform five production bases and 65 production lines within a month in accordance with Leones' requirements.

By then, they would strive to produce more than 100 million Primordial Elixirs per year.

"Great!"

Along the way, Leones was quite satisfied.

As expected, the professionals could efficiently finish the tasks.

Then, Leones pointed to the production base and said to Darius on the side.

"From now on, you manage everything here!"

Darius said excitedly, "I must do my best!"

Soon, Chad also came with the good news.

Chad integrated all the underground forces in Fatuma, which were all under the management of Undrago.

Underground forces in Yingville and its surroundings also expressed their willingness to join Undrago and serve Leones.

After all, Leones became famous in the past few days. His title as the hero of Fatuma played a decisive role.

When Vulture died, the underground forces were leaderless. Leones got countless followers who responded to his call.

“Good.” Leones nodded with satisfaction. “Goldendrake, from now on, you assist Darius in managing this area! Don’t make a mistake!”

Chad immediately promised, “Yes! Dragon King, please believe me. I will defend everything here with my life!”

At this time, Darius was confused about something and asked Leones for advice.

“Mr. Bloom, how should we deal with the leakage of the elixir formula and other issues?”

After all, opening a factory to produce elixirs was different from making elixirs privately.

Once assembly line production began, it might be inevitable to lose formula because there were too many people, even if the factory would keep strict confidentiality.

“Don’t worry about this.” Leones said with a smile, “Even if outsiders steal the elixir formula to copy the elixir, they still can’t imitate the elixir with the same effect!”

If Leones could ensure this, he would not dare to mass-produce this elixir.

“Can an ordinary person make the same dish as a chef even if he uses the same ingredients and recipes?”

Leones pointed at the factory and said, “After the transformation, I will set up a Gathering Spirit Formation here. All the available elixirs will only have medicinal effects after being nourished in the Gathering Spirit Formation!

“Otherwise, it’s just an ordinary pill and has no effect.”

Hearing this, Darius suddenly realized. "So, the core of this elixir is the Gathering Spirit. Formation?"

"Partly true," Leones continued, "Gathering Spirit Formation is only an important process, but it is not decisive yet.

"After the elixir is produced here, it will be transported back to Sherland. I will personally do the final step. Injecting the catalyst!"

The catalyst injected by Leones was the most critical step.

It was like the finishing touch.

"Production, spirit gathering, and catalyst!" Darius suddenly realized. "Mr. Bloom, no wonder you are not afraid of the leakage of the elixir formula. These three steps are indispensable! With the elixir formula, others won't make the elixir!"

If the elixir was compared to a person, then the elixir produced in the pharmaceutical factory was a model. After being nourished by the Gathering Spirit Formation, it might have its skin.

The last step, injecting catalyst, was like the finishing touch to give people wisdom and soul.

This series of steps was indispensable.

Therefore, Leones had the core and was confident. He didn't worry about the elixir formula being leaked or being copied.

"Won't others set up the Gathering Spirit Formation?" Chad asked curiously.

"In the whole world, who can set up the Gathering Spirit Formation are only from the Medicine King Valley!" Leones said firmly.

After visiting the production base, Leones and others returned to Johnson Manor.

Finally, Leones met Giant Python again.

Leones wanted Giant Python to cultivate in Chamber Mountain, so he entrusted it to Marie.

After swallowing a Dragon–Horse, Giant Python tended to become a dragon.

Therefore, Giant Python was more convinced of Leones and agreed to guard Fatuma.

Leones asked Goldendrake to stay here to expand Undrago’s influence from Fatuma to the entire Yingville.

Then, Leones didn’t want to stay for a long time and decided to return to Sherland immediately. He would come back when production lines were transformed one month later.

“Mr. Bloom, goodbye!”

Under the escort of the Johnson family, Leones took a plane back to Sherland with Darius. Darius drove to send Leones back to the company and left.

“I’m back!” Leones came to Mia’s office.

“You’re finally back!” Mia stood up anxiously and looked like she was hesitant to speak when she saw Leones.

“What’s wrong?” Leones frowned slightly. “Did something happen again when I left in the past few

Chapter 357 Restart

“Yeah!”

Mia didn’t dare to disturb Leones when he was out, so she shouldered everything that happened in Sherland.

Since Leones returned, Mia briefly described everything that happened after he left.

“Led by the Olsen family, the chamber of commerce in Sherland expelled us!

“In addition to the companies of the Soler family, the ones of the Bloom family are also expelled.”

“Chamber of Commerce?” Leones frowned again when he heard this. “They kicked out our companies? Not a big deal.”

Leones didn’t care about this.

“Being expelled from the Chamber of Commerce means we have been blacklisted and become a public enemy of the entire business. No companies will cooperate with us!”

The Chamber of Commerce was like an industry leader and formulated various rules and regulations that all companies should abide by. Although it was a non-governmental organization, it held the greatest power in the business district.

Once excluded from the Chamber of Commerce, one might be unable to gain a foothold in the industry. Most seriously, one might go bankrupt and be in debt.

Mia added. “The Five Major Families now control the Chamber of Commerce of Sherland. Although you have taken back some power of the Bloom family, the Bloom family has supported some people in the Chamber of Commerce after many years.

“Nowadays, the Five Major Families have unanimously expelled us. Therefore, we have lost almost all our cooperation projects! People who signed contracts with us before would rather pay a penalty to stop cooperating with us.”

Leones asked, “What about the Peterson family? They also rebelled?”

“No.” Mia shook her head. “Thanks to the support of the new Five Major Families. Otherwise, our company would be an empty shell.”

Leones pondered for a moment and asked, “What will you do if I don’t come back?”

Leones asked for Mia’s opinion and wanted to test her ability to deal with crises.

“I’m going to start a new business!”

Mia said, “When my brother was still alive, he was the president of the Chamber of Commerce!

“Now, the Chamber of Commerce is controlled by others, which is like that someone controls our fate. Even if they let us go this time, they will kill us sooner or later!

“If so, it’s better to start a new company, completely say goodbye to the past, and create a new circle and order!

“I have been making plans these days. Although the old Five Major Families have developed for a long time, the newly promoted Five Major Families, supported by my brother, cannot be underestimated.

“Since they want to destroy us, we should completely overthrow them!”

Hearing this, Leones laughed, “As Gellert’s sister, you’re indeed ambitious!

“You and I have the same ideas!”

“Really?” Knowing that Leones thought the same way, Mia was relieved. “I wait for you to come back to discuss this matter with you. I was originally worried that this decision would be too radical.”

“It’s not radical at all.” Leones said, “Even if they don’t exclude us, I still have a plan to set up another chamber of commerce.

“After all, what others say doesn’t count. Only we can be in charge of our fate!”

It was a fight for the right to speak. How could others control them?

Leones immediately said, “Make an announcement that we are going to create a new chamber of commerce. We welcome all companies in Sherland to join us!”

“Well!” Mia took out a written document and asked Leones to read it. She had already prepared it.

After reading it, Leones praised, “Good! Publish it!

“Now that the old Five Major Families are at odds with us, let’s start the war!”

Mia asked the secretary to publish it and continued to analyze the current situation. “Our influence is still limited now. It is estimated that few people will join us, except for the Peterson family and others who are willing to support us.”

After all, the old Five Major Families were dominant. Ordinary companies couldn’t control and wouldn’t dare to join a new chamber of commerce.

their

Only those who had just started a business or were in emerging industries would be less affected and were willing to take the risk.

“In the beginning, if 20% of companies join us, we will succeed!”

Mia prepared a list and was ready to visit them personally to win their trust.

“20%? Are you too unconfident?” Leones said with a smile, “I achieved a lot from my trip to Fatuma!”

Then, Leones informed Mia that more than a hundred listed companies in Fatuma were willing to cooperate with them.

“I control the Johnson family in Fatuma.” Leones continued, “Its power is not weaker than the old Five Major Families in Sherland.”

Mia was overjoyed when she heard this. “If we have Fatuma’s support, at least 30% or 40% of companies will join us!”

Leones nodded.

Once Leones officially started his pharmaceutical industry next month, many business tycoons would beg to join.

At that time, he would switch the situation and defeat the old Five Major Families.

“Hey!” Leones suddenly thought of something. “You said the Five Major Families have joined forces? Does the Baker family also oppose us?”

Generally, among the old Five Major Families, the Baker family should not oppose Leones at this time since Leones had saved it before.

“The situation of the Baker family is more complicated.” Mia said, “Mr. Orlando Baker is old and retired. The actual ruler of the family is Ethan Baker, the eldest son.

“It was Ethan who decided to oppose us, while Mr. Orlando Baker was furious with him. Mr. Orlando Baker even called several times to apologize and ensure that the Baker family would

“Mr. Bloom, I heard you have returned to Sherland, so I came here to apologize. By the to explain it,” Gloria explained as soon as she entered the door as if she feared Leones would misunderstand.

“I already understand everything clearly.” Leones said calmly, “You and your uncle are different. I don’t want to blame you.”

Hearing this, Gloria felt relieved.

“We are still discussing the matter of rebuilding a new chamber of commerce,” Leones told Gloria about the negotiation with Mia just now to see if Gloria was interested in joining.

“Okay!” After hearing this, Gloria agreed, “It is a wonderful way of getting out of the crisis!

“Although my father and I don’t have much share in the companies of the Baker family, we will fully support you!”

According to Gloria, the internal disputes in the Baker family heated up due to this matter. Orlando delegated power to his eldest son so early that it was difficult to control Gloria's uncle.

If they could successfully fight against Ethan, Gloria's uncle, they might indirectly help Gloria's father.

Gloria and her father also needed the support of allies outside the Baker family.

"Mr. Bloom, to express our apologies, my grandfather and my father would like to treat you to a dinner tonight and celebrate your coming back." Gloria invited Leones.

"Okay!" Leones stood up and said, "Let's call everyone to have a meal together. We can discuss it together."

Mia immediately notified the Five Major Families to meet tonight.

Secretary Susan came to report again when they were preparing to leave, "A lady who said her surname was Newman came to see you because of something important."

"Her surname is Newman?" Leones was startled. "Alice Newman? Let her in."

Soon, a woman in white came in and looked like a fairy.

As expected, it was Alice from the Newman family.

Mia and Gloria looked less beautiful than Alice when she arrived.

"Mr. Bloom, long time no see!" Alice greeted everyone as if they were familiar and sat down politely.

"Is something wrong?" Leones directly asked.

“Why? Don’t you welcome me?” Alice smiled, “Can’t I come and see you if I have nothing to do?”

“There is a clear distinction between the ancient families and the secular world. You and I are not from the same world.” Leones said, “Why did you come here unexpectedly? I’m afraid you didn’t come to drink coffee and chat with me, right?”

“Boring!” Alice scolded, “Well, I came today to bring you good and bad news.

“Which one do you want to hear first?”

Hearing this, Leones frowned. As expected, Alice came here for something.

“Bad news,” Leones said.

Hearing this, Alice took out a letter and said seriously, “On behalf of the Seven Ancient Families, I am here to declare war on you!”

“Letter of Challenge!” Leones felt shocked again when he heard this.

“Right.” Alice said, “Ancient warriors can’t be insulted. But you have killed ancient warriors one after another, irritating the ancient warrior world.

“The Kingsley family will take the lead and work with the Seven Ancient Families to formally challenge you and fight until death!”

Leones glanced at the letter and said, “Does that mean your seven families will fight together to defeat me?”

“Yes!” Alice nodded. “You’re right. But the Seven Ancient Families will fight you one by one. Since it is a challenge, it is naturally a fair competition.”

How could it be fair since seven families cooperated?

“What’s the good news?” Leones continued to ask.

“The good news is, you still have time to run away now.”

Chapter 359 Letter of Challenge

The Newman family managed to get this job of conveying the letter of challenge to inform Leones, so he had time to escape.

“You should leave immediately and flee overseas.”

Alice kindly reminded Leones,

“There are many organizations of Vericano overseas, such as Green Sect. With your strength, you can temporarily ask for their help. By then, the ancient warrior world in Vericano can’t hurt you.” In Alice’s view, Leones was surrounded and suppressed by the ancient families, and now he had no choice but to flee from the Heraminko Sect.

“Are they Seven Ancient Families?” Gloria was also frightened. “Do they belong to Three Mountains, Five Sects, and Seven Families in the ancient warrior world? The Seven Families have joined forces to chase Leones...”

Gloria’s face turned pale as she no longer dared to think further.

In comparison, the current boycott by the Chamber of Commerce in Sherland was not important. After all, Leones was targeted by ancient warriors of the Seven Families at once, which made it hard to survive.

“Mr. Bloom, I will book a flight ticket for you right away!” Gloria said, “You should escape overseas quickly!”

“Besides, we, the Baker family, have some business overseas. If necessary, we can ask local people of Vericano to contact some overseas organizations to help you.”

Mia also said, “I will deal with the matters here. Don’t worry. If there is danger, leave quickly.”

For a time, everyone wanted Leones to flee.

“Escape?” Leones smiled faintly, “Why should I escape?”

“They want to fight with me. I am not afraid!”

“Anyway, I will accept the challenge!”

These words shocked everyone.

Although Alice thought that maybe Leones would accept it, she didn’t expect that he would be so decisive.

“Mr. Bloom, please think carefully!” Alice reminded, “The situation is different from usual! “The people you killed before were not very strong in the ancient warrior world. And my incompetent cousin is the weakest in my family.

“However, this time, you have to face challenges from seven families, and each family will send a relatively strong person. Maybe one battle will determine the winner and kill you!”

Then Alice made her position clear.

“We, the Newman family, didn’t want to be your enemy, but we had no choice but to follow the crowd.

“That’s why we wanted to notify you in advance and ask you to hide abroad for a while.”

Leones said, “Thank you. But I have determined!”

Hearing this, Alice was startled again. She never expected that Leones would be so determined.

“At that time, your family can fight in the last round.” Leones said, “After I defeat those seven families, there’s probably no need to fight in the eighth round.”

Alice didn’t know why Leones was so confident.

“Then the opponent you have to face will be at least a First–rank Grandmaster!” Alice pointed out.

defeat a First–rank Grandmaster? And there will be more than one!”

“Can you

After thinking, Leones found that so far, he had indeed never fought with a First–rank Grandmaster.

Even a few days ago, Sick Master, whom he fought against, was between the First–rank and Second–rank Grandmaster.

“That’s good. I also want to see the power of the First–rank Grandmaster of ancient families!”

Chapter 360 Enemies Meet

Alice wanted to say something more.

Leones interrupted, “We are going to have dinner. How about coming with us?”

“If you have any questions, let’s talk about it later.”

Alice thought for a while and had no choice but to agree, planning to introduce to Leones in detail the power of the Seven Ancient Families, which might discourage him.

“Seven Ancient Families each have their strengths, Mr. Bloom, don’t underestimate them...”

Immediately, Leones came to a large hotel of the Bloom family with Susan, Mia, Gloria, and Alice for dinner.

They Just entered the lobby.

“Look!”

Suddenly, an ironic and familiar voice came from the side.

“Leones, your life is so happy. There are so many beauties!”

The person who spoke was Leones’ step–brother, Timothy.

At this time, he was staring at these women next to Leones with his wretched and jealous little eyes.

“Let’s see how many more days he can live happily! He was boycotted by the Chamber of Commerce and will soon be bankrupt in Sherland!”

At this time, Ted and Ashley also came over.

Leones met his enemies in the hotel.

They would also have a meal here to celebrate today.

It was okay to see Ashley and Timothy.

But what surprised Leones was that Ted could still show up safely.

Ted found thugs from Undrago to beat Leones and was defeated by Leones. Later, Leones heard that Ted was escorted overseas by the Olsen family.

Unexpectedly, Ted came back safe and sound so quickly.

It seemed that there were Divine Doctors overseas. Otherwise, Ted, whose limbs were broken, couldn’t be restored to health so quickly.

Ted and Leones were enemies, so they were all furious when they met each other.

Ted glared at Leones, his eyes almost bursting with fire.

“Hey, I heard that you just announced that you will establish a new chamber of commerce?” Ted was angry and sneered at the same time.

“You are daydreaming!

“Do you think you are influential to start a new one? Do you think that the Five Major Families are useless? No one will dare to respond to you and join your new chamber of commerce!”

Joining a new chamber of commerce meant losing all cooperation with the Five Major Families.

In Sherland, 80% of the industries were invested by the Five Major Families. This was a reality that no one could change.

Therefore, Ted was not afraid of the new chamber of commerce but willing to see his jokes.

“No one will support you!” Ashley also said coldly, “And when you lose everything, even the Bloom family will not help you! You are doomed to failure!”

“Who said no one will join?” At this time, Gloria stood up and said, “We, the Baker family will join the new chamber of commerce!”

Ted looked at Gloria coldly again and said, “I didn’t notice that Ms. Baker was here. Hanging out with him, you are self destructive!

“Unluckily, supporting him with your mouth is useless. Ethan, your uncle, is now in charge of the Baker family, and he and I are good friends! Do you think Ethan will listen to you?”

Leones was unwilling to talk to them.

They were and would be defeated by Leones.

“Let’s go in!” Leones said to everyone.

“Stop” Someone didn’t want to give up. At this time, Timothy spoke loudly, “Leones, I’m afraid you don’t know that Grandpa has asked me to manage this hotel.

“I am the boss of this hotel now! So please get out, and you are not welcome here!”
