

Out of Prison 362

Chapter 362 Useless

Ted was very satisfied with his return and even felt that it was a blessing in disguise.

Some time ago, he was sent overseas due to injury, and then he knew people of the Green Sect.

Next, the Olsen family and the Green Sect had reached an in-depth cooperative relationship.

The Olsen family would provide money, while the Green Sect provided people to protect the Olsen family.

The Green Sect specially sent Yves to follow Ted back to help him resolve some personal grudges here.

Tonight, the Olsen family originally wanted to host a grand dinner for Yves.

By chance, they met their enemy, Leones.

"I didn't want to hit you tonight so as not to disturb Mr. Whitman's happiness." Ted said coldly, "But if you still dare to be arrogant, I will show no mercy to you!"

Then Ted bowed to Yves. "Mr. Whitman, it was him who hurt me last time!

"As long as you get rid of him, the Olsen family will be fine here!"

Hearing this, Yves nodded. "OK! I'm here to solve the problems of the Olsen family!

"Since we are enemies, there is no need to say more. Let's start!"

While speaking, Yves took a step forward.

Immediately, a clear shoe print was left on the marble floor.

His strength was evident!

Seeing that the opponent was about to take action, Gloria was worried that Leones would suffer when facing overseas experts, so she hurriedly stepped forward.

“Mr. Whitman, wait a minute! I am Gloria Baker from the Baker family in Sherland! My family also cooperates with Green Sect overseas! Can we stop today for the sake of the Baker family?” Hearing the name of the Baker family in Sherland, Yves hesitated and slowed down his actions. “It turns out that you are the granddaughter of Mr. Orlando Baker!”

Yves said in a deep voice, “You are a member of the Baker family. Logically speaking, the Green Sect should give Mr. Orlando Baker a favor.”

Hearing this, Gloria was overjoyed and was about to thank him.

However, Yves continued, “Now, the Olsen family has become the financial backer of the Green Sect, so we have to solve the troubles that the Olsen family encounters!

“But please don’t worry, Ms. Baker. The Green Sect is fair. We will never implicate innocent people, let alone the Baker family.”

After saying that, Yves looked at Leones and said coldly, “Today, I will only kill you!”

Seeing that her family was useless, Gloria continued, “How much money the Olsen family gave you? The Baker family can double the compensation to you only if you return overseas!”

Yves smiled coldly, “This is not a matter of money.

“Take their money to solve problems for them! This is related to the Green Sect’s credit!”

Seeing that the Baker family was obstructing them, Ted sneered disdainfully, “Do you think only the Baker family is rich? Let me tell you that money is not everything!”

Yves took another step forward and pointed directly at Leones. “No one can make peace today!”
“Really?”

At this moment, Darius rushed in with several guards from the Sherland Government.

“What about the Sherland Government?”

When Darius came to the banquet, he happened to see the Olsen family going against Leones by inviting a master from overseas.

Darius was afraid that his master would be hurt, so he quickly dispatched troops from the Sherland Government to come to help.

“Mr. Whitman, the Green Sect is overseas. Whether it’s murder, arson, or punishment of rape and evil, the Sherland Government has no right to arrest you.

“But in Sherland and Vericano, you can’t be so presumptuous!

“I advise you to go back quickly!”
