

Out of Prison 81

Chapter 81 Medicinal Mushroom

Just when Veronica led the guardians to settle in the Lewis Club, Leones and Brad had also been directed to the basement floor to participate in the grand auction held in Lewis Club tonight. "The auction of Lewis Club will be held from time to time. Every time, it will attract rich people from all over the Nine Continents.

"There are rare treasures auctioned here. Your imagination is limited, but their ability isn't. After participating in an auction, you will only hate your wallet for being too thin."

Brad was familiar with the road, took Leones into a private room, and emphasized the various auction rules to Leones.

"All the guests participating in the auction are anonymous.

"At the same time, everything here is not allowed to be leaked to the outside world.

"Once any customer is discovered to disclose the auction details, he or she will be disqualified and banned from here for life."

Therefore, there were two ways to enter an auction in the Lewis Club. One was to get the organization's initiation, and the other was to be guaranteed and introduced by its regular customers.

"So, Mr. Bloom, I am your guarantor now." Brad said with worries, "So you must abide by the rules here, or you will implicate me, and I will never come here again."

Leones stood in the private room about ten square meters in size. In front of one floor-to-ceiling window, he could overlook the auction site on the second basement floor, with a panoramic view. On the side, there was also a huge screen, which allowed them to watch everything on the scene up close.

Moreover, the venue organization guaranteed the things auctioned here, so there was no need to worry about buying fake products.

“Don’t worry, as long as there is what I want here,” Leones said calmly, “I won’t make trouble here.”

Hearing this, Brad relieved a sigh of relief and hurriedly let Leones sit down and continued to participate in the auction.

Before the two came, the auction here had been going on for some time.

Next, the host on the second basement floor showed a new round of auction items in public.

“The next auction item is rare in the world!

“In my years of hosting an auction, it is also the first time I have seen such a thing!”

This handsome young host had been working here for over three years. He had hosted and helped auction over eight hundred precious and rare items, all costly.

Even the host said that the next auction item was the rare treasure he first encountered in his career.

These remarks also ignited the entire auction venue and aroused everyone’s curiosity.

As he spoke, the host waved, and two staff members walked up, carrying a huge wooden table. On the wooden table was an object covered by a red cloth, so no one could see what it was. “Guess, everyone, what’s inside?” The host stretched his hand to the red cloth but was not hurrying to open it. Instead, he left everyone in suspense.

The bosses of some private rooms seemed to be aroused by the greediness, and they couldn't bear it anymore and couldn't help shouting, "Damn it, hurry up!"

The host waited patiently for a few seconds. Seeing that the atmosphere had been lively and the attention of all the guests had been aroused, he lifted the red cloth and announced the answer.

"This is a medicinal mushroom, which lived for a thousand years!"

There was a huge red medicinal mushroom on the wooden table like a moon.

In an instant, the scene was in an uproar!

Medicinal mushroom that lived for a thousand years?

Everyone's eyes widened, showing expressions of disbelief.

The history of Vericano was only five thousand years.

And this medicinal mushroom had lived one-fifth of Vericano's long history?

It was out of all the guests' imagination.

At this moment, Leones also stood up abruptly, staring closely at the auction platform on the second basement floor.

"Millennium medicinal mushroom!?"

Leones trembled excitedly. He didn't expect to be so lucky to encounter such a rare treasure as soon as he came!

When he came here, he initially thought that it would be a worthwhile trip to come across hundreds of years old natural materials and earthly treasures.

As a result, he never expected that the treasures of heaven and earth here are even rarer than he imagined! They had a millennium medicinal mushroom?

If ginseng was the king of all herbs, then medicinal mushroom was the immortal herb that could revive life.

With this medicinal mushroom, there was no need for the life-saving prescription that Leones left earlier. At least it could extend Orlando's lifespan for three to five years.

Moreover, this medicinal mushroom was more than three feet long and two feet thick. It was so huge that after using parts of it to save Orlando, Leones could use the rest to refine half a year's elixir.

Leones was so excited that he was bound to get this medicinal mushroom.

"Oh my god! The millennium medicinal mushroom? Is it real or not?"

At this time, Brad, who was on the side, was also dumbfounded.

Just now, the hundred year old medicinal materials could attract the Baker family in the Antique World and almost be sold for hundreds of millions of dollars.

The thousand-year-old medicinal mushroom in front of him was definitely real, without any doubts. Therefore, its price was probably incalculable.

Brad excitedly said, "I am afraid that this auction item tonight will refresh the venue's highest price!"

“Hmm...” Leones also knew very well that besides himself, there were countless rich people on the scene staring at this millennium medicinal mushroom. And when the bidding started, the price would probably be very terrifying.

He was afraid it was not enough because he only had one billion.

Then, Leones took out his mobile phone and was going to contact Mia, asking her to find the Five Major Families to raise money for him, and he also contacted Gloria to let her help him.

In this way, relying on the financial resources of the six wealthy families, it should be no problem to bid for this millennium medicinal mushroom.

Leones dialed a number, but it failed.

“No signal?” Leones looked at the phone.

“Oh, yes, I forgot to tell you.” Brad said, “The area around Lewis Club is blocked from signals.”

“This...” Leones shook his head helplessly since this was going to be troublesome.

At this time, after showing the Millennium medicinal mushroom, which ultimately attracted the attention of everyone present, the host finally continued to speak and quoted a starting price.

“One hundred million dollars!”

“The starting price is 100 million dollars!”

Brad was shocked again when he heard the price. The transaction price of general auction items was about 100 million dollars. And this thousand-year-old medicinal mushroom had a starting price of 100 million dollars!

Brad estimated in his heart that the final transaction price of this thousand-year-old medicinal mushroom would be at least five billion dollars, and it may even exceed 10 billion dollars!

“Five hundred million dollars!” A voice sounded in a private room immediately, and the first offer was made.

As soon as the first quotation came out, people successively spoke out their prices quickly.

Five hundred million dollars.

Eight hundred million dollars.

One billion dollars.

The price of Millennium medicinal mushroom kept increasing.

“Two billion dollars!”

Finally, Leones also called out a price.

Chapter 82 Auction

Two billion!

The last bidding was one billion dollars, but someone doubled the number!

People in the auction hall began to talk as soon as the bidding was made.

“I wonder who that big shot is to make such a generous offer. He actually doubled the bidding!”

“Oh, my! Someone offered two billion to buy it! This thousand-year-old medicinal mushroom is likely to be the most expensive thing auctioned here!”

“I heard the most pricey goods auctioned in the Lewis Club in Sherland is the ossa draconis, which was sold for five billion dollars.”

The guests were still discussing the offer enthusiastically and wondering who the rich and powerful man was.

Mr. Harrison was stunned by Leones’s offering.

“Mr. Bloom...” Mr. Harrison asked in surprise, “Two billion? Are you serious?”

“Also, do you have that kind of money?”

Mr. Harrison remembered that Ms. Baker only gave Leones a credit card with a limit of one billion dollars.

But now, Leones bided two billion?

“No,” Leones shook his head and replied honestly, “I only have one billion dollars Gloria. gave me.”
“What?” Mr. Harrison jumped as if his butt was on fire and said in horror, “Why would you bid if you don’t have that kind of money?”

“This is an auction house. It’s not a joke!”

Mr. Harrison was losing his patience.

There would be consequences if people bid in an auction like this but couldn’t pay

And he, the guarantor, would definitely be implicated.

“Two and a half billion!”

At this time, someone in another box raised the price.

the price.

“Phew...” Mr. Harrison heaved a sigh of relief when he heard it. “Fortunately, this isn’t over...”

Mr. Harrison secretly rejoiced. However, before he could sit down again,

Leones made another bidding unexpectedly.

“Three billion dollars!”

Three billion!

Mr. Harrison almost passed out when he heard Leones’s new offer. He couldn’t help trembling uncontrollably all over.

“What the hell is he doing?”

How could you make such a high offer if you don’t have the money?

What would you do if you did get the goods?” Mr. Harrison thought.

He was almost shocked to death by Leones’s actions.

“Three and a half billion!”

The man in the other box followed up and made a better offer.

The two men continued to bid, and no one intended to back down. Things got intensified.

There was another commotion at the scene.

“Oh, my god! There are barely ten offerings, and the price already soared from 100 million to 3.5 billion! How crazy is that!”

“Since someone bid two billion dollars, only two bidders were left bidding against each other. They raised the price by 500 million each time. That’s insane!”

“It’s already 3.5 billion. It seems the ranking on the price list of Lewis Club will be changed. tonight. It’s a historic moment!”

The other party raised the price again, but Mr. Harrison was still nervous. He stared at Leones uneasily.

If he hadn’t been afraid of Leones’s terrifying strength, he would have stepped forward and covered Leones’s mouth so that he would stop bidding.

“Mr. Bloom... Please stop bidding...” Mr. Harrison pleaded bitterly, “If you do succeed but can’t pay the money, you and I will die the hard way!”

However, Leones continued to bid as if he didn’t hear what Mr. Harrison said.

“Five billion!”

His new bidding frightened Mr. Harrison so much that he failed to catch his breath and fainted. with his eyes closed and his legs stretched out.

Seeing this, Leones shook his head slightly. He didn't expect this guy to be so timid.

It was true that Leones didn't have five billion, but he was thinking of paying on credit first.

Then, he would collect the money from the Five Major Families. That should do it.

If the host refused his solution, Leones would stop being polite to them and take the Ganoderma lucidum and leave.

Leones, who had been imprisoned for five years and influenced by more than a hundred vicious people, was no longer upright. Paying on credit was the best he could do now.

Leones was bound to have that millennium medicinal mushroom.

Moreover, this medicinal mushroom would only be worth a few billion as in the auction if someone else had it.

However, if Leones had it and made pills out of it, its value would be more than tens of billions!!

Therefore, it would be a huge waste if this millennium medicinal mushroom fell into the hands of others.

In the auction house, people were once again astonished by the bidding of five billion dollars. "Holy shit! Five billion! The price list is really going to be changed tonight!"

“I’m curious about who is the big boss that can pay five billion in one go. He must be the richest man in a state!”

“I heard that people from the richest family in Fatuma are here tonight. They probably made those high offerings!”

Simultaneously, in another VIP box where the offering of 3.5 billion was made, there was a dead silence. People in the box were surprised that their 3.5 billion–dollars offer didn’t stop the other party. Instead, it only made their opponent bid higher, raising the price to 5 billion! “Damn it!” A middle–aged man in his thirties stood up, cursing and pacing around impatiently. Then he looked at the person behind him. “James Sean, go and check who the fucking dared to raise the price against me! Don’t forget to teach him a lesson! If he dares to raise the price again, you will break his fucking legs!”

Chapter 83 Determined to Win

Just when the bidding at the auction became white hot, the Sherland Guardians, headed by Veronica, arrived at the Lewis Club gradually.

The owner of the Lewis Club, Isaac Mason, was a middle–aged man in his forties with a strapping body, a firm face, sharps, and cold eyes that were like wolves.

According to hearsay, this man came from an influential family and had much power himself. He had even won several championships in underground boxing matches.

Nowadays, he was in charge of the Lewis Club with support from the East Sea, and the daily turnover on his account was tens of billions. He was even as powerful as Blackdrake, the underground tycoon in Sherland.

“Your Excellency! I’m sorry I didn’t come and greet you sooner!”

Isaac greeted Veronica with a smile.

He kept humble and polite before her.

It wasn't that Isaac was afraid of Veronica, but rather the official uniform on her.

He owned the Lewis Club, but she was the Commander of Sherland Guardians. He couldn't afford to offend her.

"I'm here to investigate the jade case! Please be cooperative!"

with

up

Veronica gave him a brief explanation that the jade tainted with poison was first found here.

Hearing this, Isaac immediately understood what she was referring to, but he still covered smile, "We have a lot of things to be auctioned here. I can't remember all of them."

"But don't worry, Your Excellency. We have detailed records of all the auction items here."

"The Lewis Club will fully cooperate with your investigation."

With that said, Isaac personally led Veronica and her party into the spacious reception room. "Please wait here, Your Excellency, I will be cooperative and bring all relevant records to you." After settling down Veronica and her men, Isaac took a brisk walk and gave orders to his men. "Simplify the auction process, end it as soon as possible, and get ready to leave."

His assistant was surprised. "You want the auction to continue? Sherland Guardians are here. Perhaps we should end it now."

"Don't worry." Isaac turned to look in the direction of the reception room with a cold face. "They can't get out of there, at least for a while!"

Boom!

On the other side, Leones had just bid 5 billion. However, instead of getting a higher bid, he heard the door of his box being suddenly kicked open.

Leones turned his head to look.

A sturdy man with a fierce face stood at the door. He was nearly two meters tall with a burly figure, almost completely blocking the entire door.

This person was none other than James Sean, the muscle man from the other box.

"You must be the man who bid five billion just now, aren't you?" James snarled.

"Yes!" Leones nodded calmly.

Seeing that he found the right person, James's complexion changed again. He warned in a cold voice, "Boy, my master wants me to give you a message. We are the Johnsons from Fatuma, and we are here for that thousand year old medicinal mushroom. We hope you can favor us and withdraw from the bidding."

They were the Johnsons from Fatuma!

Mr. Harrison, who had just woken up slowly, was shocked when he heard it.

“Are you talking about the Johnsons, the richest family in Fatuma?” Mr. Harrison asked in surprise.

“Well...” James smiled proudly. “Who else in Fatuma dares to claim themselves from the Johnsons?”

Mr. Harrison was shocked and terrified to hear it.

He was shocked because Leones dared to raise the price to five billion!

He was terrified because the other party turned out to be the richest man in Fatuma!

“Okay, okay!” Mr. Harrison hurriedly gave way. “Of course, we will do this favor to the Johnsons in Fatuma. We won’t bid anymore...”

In Mr. Harrison’s view, that would be the perfect solution. He would get himself out of the white-hot bidding and do a favor to the Johnsons. Why wouldn’t he do such a thing that could kill two birds with one stone?

“Shut up!” Leones snapped to interrupt Mr. Harrison, who was about to please the other “Who are you to speak here?”

party,

Mr. Harrison was surprised and thought to himself with a terrified look on his face, “No way... You are not considering continuing the bidding with the Johnsons for this thousand-year-old. Ganoderma lucidum, are you?”

“Your message is well-received.” Leones responded calmly, “Go back and tell your young master this is an auction. You have to bid for it no matter what you fancy, and only the highest bidder get it.”

“I don’t know any Johnsons or Hansons. So I won’t do you this favor!”

What?

As soon as he finished speaking, the air in the box suddenly froze.

Mr. Harrison’s eyes widened in horror, showing incredible fear, and his whole body trembled uncontrollably.

Leones dared to go against the Johnsons!

His action would cause more severe consequences than offending the entire auction house by winning the auction item without paying any money.

If he did offend the Johnsons in Fatuma, he would die very miserable!

“Ah...” Mr. Harrison was so frightened that he gasped hard. Before he could catch his breath, he rolled his eyes and passed out again from fright.

“Who the hell are you? What makes you think you can bid against our master?”

James became furious at the moment.

“Damn it! I didn’t want to do this to a nobody like you.”

“But since you are so full of yourself, I’ll follow my young master’s order and break your legs!

As he was speaking, James stepped forward and was about to beat Leones.

“Who said you could come in?”

Leones was enraged to see James kick his door open and enter uninvited, trying to hit him.

He slapped the table heavily, instantly knocking a porcelain cup on the table into the air.

In an instant, the cup cracked into countless fine pieces of porcelain.

With a wave, Leones shot pieces toward James, who had rushed into the box unprepared.

“Ah!!”

James let out a scream while covering his cheek.

The porcelain fragments were sharp as little blades covering all his face.

“My face!”

James covered his face and retreated subconsciously.

It wasn't until then that he realized what a terrifying opponent he was facing.

It was just an ordinary porcelain cup. But this man could turn it into a lethal weapon!

What if those fragments were shot at his throat instead of his face?

If that were the case, he would be dead by now!

Thinking of this, James shuddered in fear.

No wonder this man wouldn't back down when it came to the Johnsons from the Fatuma; this guy was powerful enough to defy them.

"Go back and tell the Johnsons," Leones said coldly, "I am also determined to get this millennium medicinal mushroom!"

Chapter 84 Mescaline

Soon,

in the reception room, Veronica waited but no one came back.

Veronica looked at the water on the table and felt something was wrong. "Your Excellency, I'll go out and have a look!"

Lois got up, walked to the door, reached out, and twisted the doorknob.

"Yes?"

She found that the door was locked!

It was insane!

The guards got up one after another. They didn't expect the owner of Lewis Club to be so courageous, even dared to imprison the Sherland Guardians.

Clang.

Lois pulled out her blade and was about to break through the door.

But just after pulling out the blade, she pushed a little harder. Soon, she was in a dizzy and couldn't stand stably.

Lois shook her head, still feeling dizzy.

Not to mention breaking through the door, she could hardly even stand up now.

"Lois?"

Seeing that Lois was staggering like she was drunk, Veronica realized that something was wrong, and stood up quickly.

Immediately afterward, a sense of powerlessness swept over her body.

Her eyes went dark, and she almost passed out.

"Are we drugged?"

Veronica stretched out her hand to support the table and barely stabilized her figure.

At this time, not only Veronica but also the rest of the guards fainted one after another, feeling drowsy.

Everyone present, without exception, was drugged.

"Damn!"

Veronica slammed on the table angrily.

Since they entered here just now, they hadn't drunk any water and hadn't eaten anything. Presumably, it should be the ecstasy gas that spread through the air.

However, with Veronica's current condition, even she couldn't handle the drug, which showed that it was an extraordinary poison.

"Isaac, get out!" Veronica roared angrily, "How dare you drug Sherland Guardians? Do you know the consequences of doing so?"

After roaring several times in a row, she finally heard Isaac's voice.

Isaac's figure suddenly appeared on the big screen on the other side of the reception room.

"Ms. Quinn, I'm so sorry! You came too suddenly. There's nothing I have to entertain you. I have to use Mescaline to let you have a good sleep."

After saying that, Isaac grinned with pride.

"It seems that Mescaline has a good effect. Even you, Ms. Quinn, can't handle it. It is indeed the top drug that claims to be able to stun everyone under the war god!"

After hearing this, Veronica was shocked and angry. "Isaac, how dare you drug us? What is intention? Do you know the consequences of doing so?"

your

"Don't worry! I have no malice towards you." Isaac smiled, "I just want you to sleep here and don't disturb my business.

"After you

you wake up,

Lewis Club will be empty. You can search it as you please!

“Ms. Quinn, good night!”

Having said that, the screen suddenly went black.

Isaac ended the call.

Trapping Sherland Guardians was just a stopgap measure.

Because this was an illegal market, it was a shady existence. Once it was thoroughly investigated by Sherland Guardians, it would be awful.

Therefore, Isaac had no choice but to trap Sherland Guardians first, and then quickly evacuate this place after the auction was over, fleeing to another country to avoid the limelight.

In this way, Sherland Guardians did not catch anyone and did not find illegal goods. After a long time, and the backer behind the Lewis Club would help, it would be nothing.

Even if Veronica was about to take it seriously, and if they were to be investigated to the end, it would be enough to throw out a few scapegoats.

“Oh, it’s a pity that my Lewis Club will be closed for a while.....”

Thinking of this, Isaac was filled with resentment, wishing he could torture Veronica tonight for revenge.

However, Isaac only dared to think about it. He didn't dare to touch her.

Veronica's godfather was Carlos, Zombric's Cry, once he got angry, even the big boss in Camola would be implicated. He couldn't protect himself at all.

Furthermore, Veronica was the Commander of Sherland Guardians, and the identity alone was not something that Isaac was qualified to covet.

Isaac had to escape for a year or so after he drugged Veronica. If he dared to touch Veronica, he couldn't be able to survive.

Isaac was not stupid. But he didn't dare to do it.

At this time, in the reception room.

Veronica and the others couldn't hold on and passed out one after another.

Even Veronica tried her best to get rid of the drug ingredients in her body, but it didn't help.

Even, the more the power in the body was activated, the more terrifying the drug's effect would be.

"Mescaline..." Although Veronica hadn't drunk any water, it felt like a hangover, and she felt uncomfortable all over. She just wanted to sleep soundly.

"Your Excellency..." Lois also retreated to her side. "The effect of the Mescaline is very powerful. I am afraid that only sleep can slowly relieve it. The more conscious we are, the more powerless we will feel."

For a moment, Veronica also wanted to give up, sleep soundly, and then go back home as if nothing happened.

“No!” Veronica’s expression froze. “Before Mr. Waltson left, he entrusted Sherland to me. If I can’t even deal with this Lewis Club, how can I face Mr. Waltson again?”

“What qualifications do I have to be the Commander of Sherland Guardians?”

Sherland Guardians were deeply trapped in Lewis Club, unable to escape, and Veronica should take the main responsibility.

Bang!

Veronica also pulled out her blade.

The surrounding guards all stared blankly, wondering if Veronica still had a little strength, could she break through the door with the blade?

However, with their current situation, even if they managed to break through the door, they might not be able to match the security outside.

Swoosh!

But at this moment, an incredible scene appeared.

Veronica held the knife and did not attack the gate. Instead, she held the blade in her hand and pierced her palm.

In an instant, the blade passed through the palm and came out from the back of the palm, with blood flowing.

The huge pain suddenly made Veronica's drowsy mind sober up a lot, and even her strength recovered a bit.

Boom!

While her mind was clear, Veronica took another step forward, and kicked open the locked door.

Squeezing the injured hand, the pain came again. But it was able to miraculously restrain the drug effect of Mescaline.

"I see!"

Veronica found such a method and immediately turned around and ordered loudly.

"All Sherland Guardians!

"Draw the blade!"

Chapter 85 Return

For a while, dozens of Sherland Guardians all learned from Veronica and used the method of self-mutilation to fight against the coma with pain.

"It's better!"

Lois stood up, feeling that her strength had recovered a lot.

Boom!

Veronica kicked again and rescued all the trapped Sherland Guardians next door.

At this time, all of more than a hundred people were drugged by Mescaline. Like being defeated, they didn't have much power anymore.

Although temporarily using self-harm, they regained a little strength and kept them awake for a short time.

However, Veronica didn't know how long this situation could last.

Therefore, it was obviously a bad idea to continue to investigate.

"We need reinforcements!"

Veronica immediately thought of a countermeasure and had to send someone out to ask for help.

"Lois!

"We cover you. Break out!

"You try to escape, run to a place with a signal, and call all the guards of the Commandery Manor to me!

"I'll destroy the Lewis Club today!"

Immediately, Veronica held the blade in his hand and shouted, "Everyone, follow me!"

“Kill!” Sherland Guardians roared, sweeping away the depression.

All the guards also dragged their bodies and charged away with Veronica outward.

At this time, the security guards in Lewis Club heard the commotion and rushed over quickly.

Seeing that Sherland Guardians rushed out of the room, their faces couldn't help but turn pale with shock.

While reporting to the top, they called more security guards to surround them.

However, Sherland Guardians were all experienced soldiers. Even if they only had a little strength now, once they formed momentum, they would be unstoppable.

No matter how strong the security guards in Lewis Club were, they were nothing but a mob.

And in the face of the regular army, they did not dare to resist.

Soon, hundreds of security guards in Lewis Club gathered quickly, but they were retreated by:

Veronica and scattered.

In a short while, Veronica and her party had successfully broken through.

“Lois, hurry up!” Veronica urged.

“What about you?” Lois was startled, seeing the security guards behind, they all stopped wisely and did not catch up, which meant that they were all safe and could leave here together.

However, Veronica shook her head. "Go and call for rescuers. We have to hold them back, can't let them go!"

If Veronica and the others all leave now, then Lewis Club would also use this time to evacuate quickly without a trace.

When the rescuers arrive, they would still be in vain.

So in the end, what was the difference between them being trapped in Lewis Club and sleeping soundly?

Therefore, Veronica had to lead the team again, surround Lewis Club, and not let anyone go.

"Your Excellency, you're all drugged. It's too dangerous to go back..." Lois felt a little uneasy. Even if the other party was a mob, once they were cornered, they would fight back, which should not be underestimated.

"As a soldier, how can we be afraid of danger?" Veronica said loudly in an orderly tone, "Lois, obey the order. Go!"

"Yes!" Lois didn't dare to say more. She immediately turned her head down and ran to the outside with all her strength.

Then, Veronica led the crowd and returned to Lewis Club.

"Sherland Guardians, formation! Spread out!"

With one order, more than a hundred Sherland Guardians dispersed to guard the entrances and exits and instead surrounded the huge Lewis Club.

"Your Excellency, it's not good!"

“Sherland Guardians went and came back, and surrounded our Lewis Club again!”

What?

Isaac was shocked when he heard this.

“Their reinforcements arrived so soon! How is it possible?”

The assistant shook his head. “No, it’s not the reinforcements. It’s the Sherland Guardians who were stunned by us.”

“What? They still dare to come back!” Isaac seemed to understand something. His face gradually became gloomy. “Is Veronica really going to drive us all to death?”

Originally, when he heard that Veronica led the crowd to rush out, Isaac didn’t pursue it, thinking that they ran away, and he and others could use this time to evacuate calmly.

But he never expected that Veronica would come back again.

“Okay! Since you don’t want to give us a way out, don’t blame us for being rude!”

Isaac immediately ordered to gather all the security forces, and after the things were packed, they rushed out with him.

This time, there would be no mercy.

On the other side, the upstairs room.

Ever since Leones called out the price of 5 billion and drove away the Johnson family from Fatuma, there was no response from the auction site.

There were no bids, and the host did not announce the result.

They waited. But what they got was the host's apology, saying that Lewis Club encountered some troubles tonight, and the auction would be temporarily terminated.

And the result of the auction was also invalidated.

Leones stood upstairs, watching helplessly as the host instructed the staff to carefully carry medicinal mushroom back.

the

"Do you want to go?"

Leones smashed the floor-to-ceiling window in front of him and jumped down, blocking the of everyone.

"I was the one who bid it just now!"

"Leave me this medicinal mushroom!"

Chapter 86 The Roberts Family

As the auction was stopped, it was tense inside and outside the venue.

The many people who were watching the excitement were also very surprised, not knowing what happened.

“Why did the auction suddenly stop just after refreshing the price list? What happened?”

“I heard that a lot of people from the government have come outside. They want to investigate something.”

“Damn it. They are here. It must be a big case. No wonder they have to evacuate. Let’s run too!” All of a sudden, the guests also moved and prepared to leave.

“Look!”

Suddenly, a figure jumped from upstairs, stopped the evacuating staff on the auction stage, and attracted a lot of attention.

It was Leones.

“Leave the medicinal mushroom.”

When the host saw it, he couldn’t help being surprised. He didn’t even notice where Leones came from.

Immediately, he sneered and said, “Do you want to rob us? How courageous! How dare you to take things from Lewis Club?”

Leones didn’t bother to talk nonsense with them. He dismissed the group of people and easily got the medicinal mushroom.

He got the medicinal mushroom and felt it was heavy.

That was the essence that had been absorbed for thousands of years, which was extraordinary.

“Sure enough, it’s the medicinal mushroom!” Leones nodded in satisfaction.

The host and other staff who were pushed aside were shocked and angry.

“Who the hell are you? How dare you steal the auction items from Lewis Club?”

“Do you dare to leave your name?”

Leones replied calmly, “Kenton Bloom!”

This was the name he gave when he registered after he entered the Lewis Club.

“Kenton Bloom?” The host repeated and said viciously, “Okay! I remember you! You dare to take advantage of us to rob the treasures of Lewis Club! In the future, we will make you pay hundred times, a thousand times!”

Then, the host led the other staff and left in embarrassment.

back a

Now, Lewis Club was suffering from troubles, and the host had no extra guards around him. The medicinal mushroom was robbed, and the host was helpless. He could only curse and wait for revenge in the future.

“Pay back?”

Leones smiled faintly upon hearing this.

Originally, he only wanted to take away this medicinal mushroom.

However, since the Lewis Club asked him to pay back, then he might as well fake advantage of it and get a few more treasures.

Anyway, this illegal market should not lack good things, right?

Leones just wanted to follow this group of staff to see what they were going to do.

“Stop!”

At this time, there was an angry shout from the second floor.

“Mr. Johnson, it’s him!”

In the private room, a man whose face was covered with glass shards pointed at Leones downstairs and roared.

It was James who was just sent by the Johnson family to say hello but was sent back by Leones. with one move.

When Victor saw this, he never expected it.

Leones not only dared to beat his people but even blatantly robbed Lewis Club..

He offended two major forces at the same time.

Was he crazy?

Not only the Johnson family but also the guests in other rooms around have noticed Leones.

How dare he snatch the medicinal mushroom from the host in public?

“Who is he? How courageous?”

“Is he crazy? How dare he steal the things from Lewis Club?”

Originally, everyone was about to leave, but they were attracted by Leones again.

“He is a little capable.”

At this time, an old woman beside Victor said in a hoarse voice.

Because she saw Leones knock back several staff members, it was not difficult to see the strength Leones showed.

“Amber, can you deal with it?” Victor asked respectfully.

The old woman smiled lightly, “Mr. Johnson, don’t worry, leave him to me! I’ll take back the medicinal mushroom!”

Hearing this, Victor nodded in satisfaction, feeling very fortunate that there was Amber with him this time.

“Amber, I’ll leave him to you.” As he spoke, Victor said to the thugs beside him, “The others follow me. It seems that Lewis Club really encountered some trouble tonight. Let’s go out and have a look if we can take some treasures!”

In Victor's opinion, even Lewis Club could give up the medicinal mushroom worth billions. Maybe there would be more treasures left out tonight.

At this time, Leones and the old woman, one downstairs and one upstairs, looked at each other. The old woman who was called Amber shook the cane in her hand.

In an instant, groups of snakes and scorpions flooded the entire auction hall from all directions.

It was frightening.

The current scene once again scared the audience.

"Damn it, what's the situation? Why are there so many snakes popping out all of a sudden? It's too insane!"

"The voice came from over there... Ah! I remembered it was the young master of the Johnson family, the richest family in Fatuma!"

"The Johnson family! Snake! So that's how it is! This must be done by the masters of the Five Major Families behind the Johnson family. The ability to control so many snakes must be the work of the Roberts family, one of the Five Major Families of Fatuma!"

At this time, Leones, who was at the scene, couldn't help being stunned. Facing the densely packed snakes, this was the first time he encountered such a strange situation in his life.

"I don't care who you are, obediently hand over the medicinal mushroom, maybe I can let you go. "If not, you will be killed by the snake!"

Chapter 87 No Concession

During the conversation, hundreds of snakes had already come ten steps away from Leones, stagnating.

One by one stood upright, spitting out, with cold eyes, full of oppression.

If ordinary people had seen this scene, they would have been scared to death.

Even the guests on the second floor still feel scared after seeing them from such a distance. Surrounded by the group of snakes and scorpions, Leones remained motionless.

“Snort!”

Leones snorted coldly, glanced at the old woman upstairs, and said lightly, “If you want to fight, come down and fight with me. What’s the use of attracting these beasts?”

Whether it was the snakes and scorpions in front of him, or the stronger lions and tigers, in Leones’s eyes, they were all insignificant.

“We, the Roberts family from Fatuma, base on snakes. This group of snakes can kill you easily!”

Amber stood proudly and said, “I will give you ten seconds, obediently hand over the medicinal mushroom, or you will be trapped among the snakes, and you will die!”

“Ten seconds?”

“It won’t take so long!”

Leones bowed slightly, held the ground in his hand, and shouted, “Thunder!” Suddenly, with Leones as the center, an indescribable storm quickly rolled up. He was surrounded by lightning and thunder, and the wind was blowing! Immediately afterward, a bolt of lightning flashed across the entire auction venue. The ground was booming, and there was a faint flash of thunder.

Countless bolts of lightning started from Leones and spread outward rapidly.

Everywhere they went was scorched earth!

The floor crumbled like there was an earthquake.

And the surrounding snakes and scorpions fell down one after another, becoming lifeless.

It was fast!

From Leones's attack to the lightning strike sweeping the audience, all snakes and scorpions were killed.

Before and after, it was only two or three seconds.

This unbelievable scene immediately caused a dead silence upstairs and downstairs.

Especially Amber, who was on the second floor, was stunned.

She gave Leones ten seconds to think about it.

Leones gave her the answer in only two or three seconds.

This answer terrified her.

"How can this be?"

Amber couldn't believe her eyes.

So far, no one had ever been able to eliminate her snakes and scorpions with such a terrifying method.

Her efforts over the years were ruined in only two or three seconds.

“Wow!”

Immediately afterward, there was another uproar at the scene.

The guests in the various rooms recovered from the shock just now, with expressions of horror on their faces.

“Fuck! What happened just now? Why is there lightning in the ground?”

“Look, the marble floor below is like plowed land, it’s all charred and broken! The surrounding snakes are all dead.”

“Could it be that all of this was done by that young man? Controlling the thunder and lightning, killing the audience with one move! Fuck, what the hell is he!”

For a moment, Leones stood on the spot and became the focus of everyone’s attention.

The bright lights in the room stretched his back obliquely. For a moment, his figure stood upright, suppressing the audience.

At the same time,

Isaac, the owner of Lewis Club, had already asked the staff to carry all the treasures of Lewis Club, prepared the car, and walked out one after another.

“Your Excellency.” The assistant said anxiously, “There are Sherland Guardians outside! Every entrance and exit is guarded by them. They don’t leave!”

Isaac’s face turned cold. He said, “It’s okay, wait for me to go out and have a good talk with them. If they are stubborn, we will rush forward!”

“I don’t believe it. They were drugged by Mescaline. How could they stop me?”

After a while, the people in Lewis Club, headed by Isaac, appeared at the gate in a mighty manner.

Not counting the guests who came here to participate in the auction, just the security guards and staff, there were thousands of people.

“Ms. Quinn!”

Isaac saw the outside at a glance and saw Veronica standing proudly, exuding a terrifying aura. “I, Isaac, really don’t want to do it and don’t even want to get rough with Sherland Guardians.” “The Lewis Club was sealed off by you today, I admit it! Please, Ms. Quinn, let us go.

“After all, the backer behind me is not simple. Once a conflict breaks out between the two of us, it will be bad for anyone.

“Please, Ms. Quinn, put the overall situation first! Do me a favor!”

Isaac explained it, hoping to persuade Veronica to make way.

However, the answer to Isaac was Veronica’s blade.

Swoosh!

Veronica swung the blade. In an instant, a huge gap was forcibly split at the gate of Lewis Club. The gap extended for hundreds of meters, isolating the entire Lewis Club on the other side.

Then, Veronica raised her blade and warned sharply.

“Those who dare to take half a step out of Lewis Club will be beheaded!

“Those who dare to refuse to cooperate with the investigators will be beheaded!

“Those who get cold feet will be beheaded!”

All of a sudden, there was a rumbling noise all around. All the Sherland Guardians drew their blades to face the guards.

Seeing this, Isaac’s face was pale. He didn’t expect that Veronica really wanted to fight with him to the end.

“Ms. Quinn!” Isaac said loudly, “You have to think about it! Once you attack me, and these things behind me, do you know how many people’s interests will be involved?”

The reason why this place was called an illegal market was because most of the items auctioned here had unknown origins. But in fact, most of them came from the officials and wealthy businessmen.

“If it gets serious, not only you, a Commander, even if Carlos may not be able to protect you!” Isaac warned.

Veronica replied coldly, “I have the power! I don’t believe that the Sherland Guardians can’t control your Lewis Club!”

“Damn it!” Isaac cursed secretly. He couldn’t procrastinate and bicker with her anymore. Because when her reinforcements arrived later, they would not be able to leave at all.

Isaac ordered, “Rush out!”

“Anyone who can help me break through tonight will be rewarded with 10 million dollars!”

Under a heavy reward, there must be a brave man!

The security guards, who were too timid to step forward, also planned to give it a go.

They rushed towards the Sherland Guardians outside.

“Kill!”

Veronica also took the lead and rushed forward.

“Kill them all!”

Chapter 88 Snake Language

Just outside, it was a chaos.

Underground, the auction venue.

Leones was about to turn around and leave.

Suddenly, Amber shouted again from upstairs.

“Bastard!”

“You ruined my snake formation, and you still want to leave like this!

“How can it be so easy!”

“Yes?” Leones stopped. He didn’t expect her to dare to make noise. “Do you dare to come down?”
Leones didn’t know the underground forces here.

But from the fight just now, it could be seen that she was good at driving snakes, but she was definitely not good at melee combat.

At this time, she still dared to bluff, perhaps because she was still in a safe position, and she still had a hole card.

“Hmph! To deal with you, why do I need to personally...”

Amber snorted softly. But she didn’t finish her sentence.

Immediately, all the floor-to-ceiling glass in front of her shattered, and a terrifying suction suddenly appeared in front of her.

Like a strong hand, it grabbed Amber's throat and dragged her out.

"Ah!"

With an exclamation, Amber fell from the second floor and fell heavily to the ground.

Amber was so dizzy from the fall. How could she have suffered such a hit at her age?

And the incident happened so suddenly. She was not prepared at all.

After a while, Amber struggled to get up from the ground and suddenly found that one of her legs seemed to be limping. She could barely support her body with a crutch.

"Bastard."

Amber was shocked and angry. She did not expect Leones to dare to attack her.

"Didn't you let me go?" Leones walked over step by step. "If you have anything else to say, say it in front of me!"

Thump!

Under Leones' pressure, Amber retreated again and again, and finally staggered and fell to the ground with a dumb expression.

"You... Bastard! How dare you be rude to me!"

“I’ll let you know that I’m powerful!”

As she said that, Amber’s expression suddenly changed, from the previous panic to the current fierceness and conviction.

“Snake Fairy, come out! Swallow this bastard!”

Amber raised the cane in her hand, mumbling words in her mouth as if chanting a spell, speaking some languages that others could not understand.

“Snake language?” Seeing this, Leones was slightly startled and couldn’t help frowning. Although the pronunciation of Amber was not quite standard, Leones still vaguely heard the unique and hoarse snake language from her mouth.

“Huh?” Hearing this, Amber was also shocked. “How do you know that it’s snake language?”

The snake language was not a human language, nor was it a real animal language, but an ancient special language that could communicate with all creatures.

This was also a secret that the Roberts family in Fatuma had passed down from generation to generation, and it was definitely beyond the comprehension of ordinary people.

“It’s just animal language. What’s all the fuss about?”

Leones’s ninety-ninth master, who claimed to be able to hear the voices of all things. Communicating with all beasts with words was easy.

Leones learned many strange ancient languages from that master and thought that he might not be able to use them in this life.

Unexpectedly, today, he heard a few words of snake language from her.

If it weren't for the standpoints of the two, Leones even wanted to point out her substandard pronunciation, which was really awkward.

"Where did you steal it from?" Amber asked sharply.

In her opinion, if someone understood the snake language, it must be from the Roberts family, or they had secretly learned the Roberts family's mysterious language.

Before Leones could answer, Amber sneered again, "Forget it, anyway, you must die tonight! Even if you learned the snake language of the Roberts family, so what? Go to hell!"

Speaking of this, Amber let out another stern roar. She was calling for something.

"It's coming!"

Leones also noticed something strange around him.

She was using snake language to summon a giant python that was sleeping nearby.

Boom!

Suddenly, the ground trembled slightly.

It seemed that another small earthquake had occurred, and it had affected the second floor.

"What's going on?"

The guests also became a little flustered.

“Is there an earthquake?”

“Why does it feel like the ground is shaking!”

“Do we have to leave quickly?”

Although the excitement at the moment had aroused everyone’s curiosity, in comparison, being safe was more important.

Just when everyone upstairs was in a panic and was about to run away...

“Look!

“Down there!

“My God. What kind of monster is that!”

Following a terrified call, everyone’s eyes fell on the auction venue below.

On the ground, like a meteorite falling to the ground, sinking into a big pit.

From the pit, a giant python suddenly sprang out and rose from the ground! The huge and terrifying body could almost surround the entire audience!

Chapter 89 Dragon

The giant python rising from the ground stirred up dust, covering the floor-to-ceiling windows on the second floor.

Seeing the giant python with their own eyes, everyone at the scene was stunned.

The first reaction of more people is that it was a special effect, which could never be true.

“How could there be such a big snake?”

“It must be at least a few hundred meters long!”

“The Roberts family in Fatuma is said to have served the Snake Fairy for generations!”

“Impossible! That must be a special effect or an illusion!”

Everyone was in disbelief. Their eyes were firmly attracted by the giant python, and they even forgot the danger at the scene.

“It’s so big..”

At this time, Leones looked up at the giant python with an unbelievable expression on his face. He never thought that there would be such a giant python in the world.

Just looking at this figure, it must be at least a hundred years old. If there was a chance, there might even be a possibility of transforming into a dragon in the future. Of course, transforming into a dragon was just a legend.

Amber let out a sinister laugh.

“How is it? The Snake Fairy that the Roberts family has enshrined for generations, how do feel?”

“The Snake Fairy is hundreds of years old. It is older than me.

“Do you feel afraid now? It’s a pity, it’s too late to be afraid now!”

you

Seeing Leones raised her head and looked up at the giant python, Amber thought he must be shocked like everyone else.

Leones looked at this giant python. He had a plan to surrender it in his heart.

This hundreds-year-old giant beast was very rare, even more valuable than the medicinal mushroom.

Although it couldn’t fly into the sky, its ability to escape from the ground was very good.

If he wanted to surrender it normally, it would take a lot of effort.

But it just so happened that Leones also understood the snake language, so he could try to communicate with it.

“It is an honor for you to be killed by Snake Fairy!”

Amber sat on the ground, raised the cane in her hand, spoke the snake language again, and gave orders to the giant python.

“Snake Fairy, swallow him!”

Before the words fell, the giant python immediately opened its bloody mouth and let out a sharp roar.

Just the turbid air exhaled from its mouth immediately turned the scene upside down.

The giant python's eyes hung high in the air.

Staring at Leones, its eyes were full of contempt.

Leones was too small.

“Roar!”

There was another roar at Leones.

Then it moved its huge body, and the raised upper body flew out like a missile.

The huge mouth that opened came directly towards Leones.

The scene of the giant python attacking actively caused an uproar and screams at the scene.

“It's moving!”

“He is dead!”

“He dares to compete with the richest man in Fatuma for medicinal mushroom, he will die for it!”
Everyone thought that Leones would die in the bloody mouth of the giant python in the next second.

Some timid women even turned their heads away, unable to bear to look directly at the next cruel scene.

After all, this was a giant beast that devours people alive.

Most of the pampered people present had never seen such a bloody and primitive scene in reality.

Soon!

From the giant python's attack, in the blink of an eye, it was already approaching.

It was only a second or two before and after.

Facing the terrifying momentum of the giant python, Leones slightly raised his hand, pointed at the giant python, and uttered a soft chant like a spell.

In an instant, as if the giant python had been pulled by the reins, it suddenly tensed stopped.

up

and

Leones and the giant python were face to face.

"Surrender to me!"

Leones's fingertips lightly touched the giant python's forehead.

A wisp of vital energy, like lightning, instantly swam away from the giant python's body.

"Otherwise, you will die today!"

The giant python trembled all over as if it sensed the surging power in Leones' body.

Immediately, the disdain in the giant python's eyes turned into fear.

It seemed that it didn't expect this mortal in front of it to have a terrifying power no less than its own.

"What happened?"

"Why is the giant python not moving?"

"It seems the two of them seem to be communicating?"

The giant python offensive came to an abrupt end, beyond everyone's expectations.

Even Amber was dumbfounded.

"He can use snake language to communicate with Snake Fairy"

"I can't even understand what they are talking about!?"

The Roberts family where Amber lived had served Snake Fairy for generations, using honorifics. As for words such as surrender and death, they had been slowly lost for a long time, and no one knew how to use them.

Therefore, Amber couldn't quite understand the communication between Leones and the giant python.

But Amber could tell that the two were negotiating. She could also feel that Snake Fairy seemed to be afraid.

"How is it possible? How could Snake Fairy be afraid of him?"

"Snake Fairy, which was served by the Roberts family for generations, how could it listen to him?" Amber made another request, "Your Excellency, don't listen to his nonsense, the Roberts family has enshrined you for generations and respected you like an ancestor' We are one family'

"Please swallow him!"

Amber's words caused the python to react a little as if it wanted to continue attacking.

But in the next second, Leones said,

"I have the method of transforming a dragon here, which can help you transform from a snake into a dragon, fly into the sky!"

Chapter 90 Tame the Python

Actually, each snake dreamed of transforming into a dragon.

Leones' words were like a lightning bolt, making the python tremble, and its eyes burst out with gleam.

There was joy and suspicion in his eyes, and it even looked expectant.

"Don't you believe me?"

Leones noticed the suspicion in the python's eyes, so he broke off a piece of the medicinal mushroom and threw it to the python.

The python opened its mouth and swallowed it without hesitation.

Immediately, it felt a burning fire in its body, making its blood boil.

"I got through your meridians with my vital energy and used the medicinal mushroom to nourish your physical body.

"You should feel a slight change now, right?" Leones said.

In fact, whether it was human cultivation or beast transformation, there were many similarities.

In addition to opportunities, the accumulation of natural materials and treasures was also required.

At this time, the doubt in the python's eyes had completely disappeared, and it showed deep trust toward Leones.

Rather than accepting offerings in a human's home and dying one day, it thought it had better to go out for a try. Maybe it would be lucky and transform into a dragon.

With a boom, the python lowered its head and landed heavily on the ground.

Leones leaped and stepped onto the python's head.

Then, the python stood up straight and lifted Leones into the sky to overlook the world.

From the sky, he could see the entire underground auction.

“How... how come?!”

Amber raised her head and looked at Leones standing on the head of the python. Her face was full of fear and astonishment, as if she had seen a ghost.

The python under Leones’ feet was once worshiped by her family for generations!

It was usually majestic, and ordinary people had to be very respectful when they got close to the python.

But right now, Leones was able to stand on the head of the python, making it under his control. The python seemed to become Leones’ mount, which astonished Amber and made her can’t accept it.

Could it be the Roberts family didn’t serve the python well and was not respectful enough? Why did the python suddenly turn its side to Leones and be willing to be his mount?

What was going on?!

Except for Amber, who was shocked, even the guests in the surrounding boxes were all dumbfounded.

At first, everyone thought Leones was going to die and would be swallowed by the python.

Unexpectedly, Leones took the python under his command not long after.

“What the hell just happened?”

“I was even frightened to look at it. What did I miss?”

“That kid seems to have subdued that python?!”

The auction venue was in an uproar again!

“Your Excellency!”

Amber used all the snake language she had learned, trying to make the python come back and protect the Roberts family again.

But at this time, the python, which had been under Leones’ command, looked at Amber. Its eyes were full of indifference and determination.

No wonder it was a cold-blooded animal.

The offerings of the Roberts family for generations were no match for Leones’ few words.

Although Amber didn’t know what trick Leones used on the python, she knew there was nothing she could do to retrieve the situation.

In the end, facing the majesty of the python, Amber trembled all over in fright and knelt down on the ground.

“Master...

“Please forgive me!

“As long as you are willing to let me go, our family will never forget your kindness.”

Amber thought Leones might let her go for the sake of her family as it was well-known in Fatuma, but Leones chuckled as a response.

“Didn’t you just want to let the snakes swallow me?”

“What? Are you running out of snakes so soon? Isn’t the Roberts family good at training snakes?”

Leones stood high in the sky, like a god judging the criminals.

“I don’t mean to offend you...” Amber was too frightened to raise her head, even afraid to breathe. “I know I was wrong... Please don’t kill me.”

Leones said, “I always take revenge when I have a grudge, and I don’t like to keep it longer.

“I’ll let you suffer what you plan to do to me!”

Hearing this, Amber shook in fear. She suddenly raised her head and looked at Leones in terror.

“Master... please don’t...”

Amber continued to beg for mercy, not knowing whether it was a bluff or if Leones was really going to kill her.

She didn’t believe Leones wouldn’t even show the Roberts family respect.

“Behind our family is the Johnson family, the richest in Fatuma...”

Amber used the Johnson family as a shield again.

画

However, Leones ignored her and said to the python, “Python! Swallow her!”

Before Amber could finish her words, the python rushed towards Amber like an arrow from the string.

“Ah!”

With a shrill scream, Amber and her snake-headed cane were swallowed by the python in one gulp.

This scene stunned everyone present as it was too sudden and unbelievable.

Everyone saw the python was summoned by Amber.

And everyone knew Amber was a member of the Roberts family in Fatuma, which had worshiped the python for generations.

No one expected the python would swallow the member of the Roberts family.

Even Amber might never expect she would end her life in such a way.

“Who is that young man?!”

Everyone looked at Leones, who was standing on the python’s head. Their eyes were full of horror and fear.

“He’s Kenton Bloom!”

At this time, someone sneaked out to find information about Leones’ box.

Due to the chaos in Lewis Club, the staff had already left, so it was easy to find the roster.

The information registered by Leones showed he was Kenton Bloom!

“Kenton Bloom?! Who is he? Why haven't I heard of him?”

Although everyone was unfamiliar with this name, he had now impressed them deeply.

In Lewis Club, Kenton first refreshed the price list with a sky-high price of 5 billion dollars and won the medicinal mushroom. Then, he fell out with the Johnson family, gave the Roberts family a piece of his mind, and took the python under his command.

His performance was astonishing.

The legend of Kenton began to spread.

Just as everyone was curious about Leones, he floated down, walked towards the staff to evacuate, and commanded the python to slide on the ground.

At the same time, the batter had been intensified outside Lewis Club.
