

Out of Prison 91

Chapter 91 Nowhere to Escape

“Fellow, how much does Sherland Guardians pay you to make you work so hard?”

“Why don’t you make way and let us go? Don’t make the situation beyond retrieval! We will repay you in the future!”

Although the security guards in Lewis Club came aggressively, they still had some scruples when facing Sherland Guardians and didn’t dare to kill them.

After all, they were just gangsters, and their enemies were officers. If they really killed Sherland Guardians, they might be in big trouble.

The owner of the club had a backer, but it didn’t mean they could also escape the law.

Everyone was well aware of this, so they were a little worried while fighting.

In comparison, Sherland Guardians on the opposite side looked unstoppable and showed no mercy to the security guards.

As they had all been poisoned by Mescaline, the more force they exerted, the more effective the medicine would be. Otherwise, they would have broken into Lewis Club long ago and wouldn’t have fallen into a stalemate with these security guards.

Feeling a little dizzy, that guardian was a little unsteady.

But he didn’t take a step back. Even if he was about to fall, he would fall forward.

“Hey! You can hardly stand up. Why don’t you just lie down and let us pass by?”

Several security guards discussed it with him, and the surrounding security guards quickly thought about it as if they had found a breakthrough.

However, the guardian shook his head, pulled out his blade in the waist, and slashed hard at his palm.

He actually chopped off his little finger!

“Fuck!”

The surrounding security guards were shocked when seeing this.

“Sir, you slashed yourself! It has nothing to do with us!”

The security guards hurriedly said, for fear that they would be blamed for it.

After cutting off his finger, the guardian regained consciousness due to the pain, and his strength recovered a lot.

Once again, he stood upright like a wall, resisting all enemies in front of him.

“You ask me why I work so hard?”

The guardian smiled proudly.

“Because I am a Sherland Guardian! A soldier of Vericano! The backbone of the country!”

“We have the duty to stick to our homeland and fight all enemies!”

“You want me to flinch? To give you a way and lie down on the ground?”

“Unless you can step over my dead body!”

While speaking, that guardian swung the blade in his hand again and slashed at the group of security guards.

As part of his strength was recovered, two or three people were knocked down in the blink of an eye, forcing the group of people to retreat again, fearful of moving forward.

They thought they had found a breakthrough, but they didn't expect the seemingly weakest place was still impenetrable!

The two sides gradually fell into a stalemate.

“Shit!”

Isaac tried to break out several times but failed every time and lost a lot of manpower.

This made him impatient. If the situation continued, Sherland Guardians' reinforcements would arrive soon.

And there were a large number of goods that had not been delivered.

“Hang in here!”

Isaac commanded the security guards to continue to confront Sherland Guardians.

He led a few people he trusted, commanded the staff to move the goods, and retreated to the interior of Lewis Club.

Since they couldn't get out from the main entrance, they had to take the underground passage. As the passage was too narrow, it might be difficult to transport some large-scale goods at that time, and they might be left there.

Isaac was in desperation and had no choice.

"Isaac! Stop!"

At this time, Veronica also noticed Isaac's movements. Instead of continuing to break out, they went into the Lewis Club furtively.

Isaac was so tricky.

Veronica immediately thought there might be other passages inside Lewis Club.

After knocking down a few people, they rushed into Lewis Club to chase after Isaac. Catching Isaac was more valuable than killing a hundred security guards.

"Veronica! Are you really going to drive us to a dead end?!"

Seeing Veronica chasing him, Isaac immediately stopped and confronted her.

His eyes were filled with fury and hatred.

This woman had screwed up everything.

Now, she was not even willing to give him a way out, forcing him to die!

"Veronica! Do you really think I'm afraid of you?"

“Damn it! Don’t push your luck! If you irritate me, I will also kill you!”

While Isaac spoke, the people around also surrounded him aggressively.

Veronica stood alone in the hall of Lewis Club, not fearing them at all, as if she alone surrounded a hundred people on the opposite side.

“Put your weapon and surrender!” Veronica said coldly.

Isaac looked at Veronica with mocking eyes.

That crazy woman was really tired of living!

“Fine! Since you are looking for death, don’t blame me for being rude!”

Isaac said viciously, “Aiden! Cover us! I will leave this woman to you! Dispose of her!”

“Yes, sir!” On the side, a burly man stood up suddenly with a gun in his hand.

Chapter 92 Dog Eat Dog

“Bang!”

A gunshot!

Leones was in the underground passage, worrying about being unable to find his way, and the gunshot guided him.

Following the sound, he found two groups of people.

One group was Isaac, the owner of Lewis Club, and his party, who had just retreated from the main entrance and turned to take the underground secret passage.

The other group was the Johnson family from Fatuma, who also wanted to take benefits.

Although Isaac had numerous people here, most of them were porters, and most of the combat power was left outside to fight against Sherland Guardians.

The only personal bodyguard was sent to hold up Veronica.

Seeing this, Victor Johnson from Fatuma suddenly came out and wanted to get a share.

Isaac would definitely not agree.

The two sides immediately started fighting on the disagreement.

“Victor, what you are doing is getting out of line!”

During the scuffle, Isaac had a feeling of being bullied with indignity.

‘It was a pain being chased by Sherland Guardians, and then Leones snatched a thousand-year-old medicinal mushroom.

‘Now, even the Johnson family from Fatuma came out halfway, wanting to share some benefits. ‘It seemed that anyone can take advantage of me today?!!

While the grand illegal market spread across two capitals and thirteen places, and as the owner of one of them, Isaac never experienced such humiliation.

“Victor, you should know that I own Lewis Club! Today, you, the Johnson family, dared to loot the treasures of Lewis Club. From now on, the entire illegal market and the shareholders will not let you go!”

These words might scare other people, but Victor Johnson didn’t care at all.

If he was afraid, he wouldn’t make a move.

“Now that Lewis Club has got robbed, with so many treasures, how many can you deliver out?” “You don’t really think that you can escape from Sherland Guardians, do you? They’re Sherland Guardians! I heard that they were led by the famous Veronica Quinn!”

“Hey, it’s a pity that you will lose so many treasures. Why not let me pick a few pieces before others!”

Victor didn’t have the guts to pocket all the treasures and just wanted to choose a few rare and precious ones, such as the thousand-year-old medicinal mushroom.

But how could Isaac give in and go along with the Johnsons?

“You won’t take anything from me. Unless I die!”

Isaac vowed to use his life to protect the treasures.

“Then we’ll see!” Victor sneered, “Sherland Guardians will come later. Even if we accidentally kill you now, we can put the blame on them.”

Dead men don’t talk!

“Guys, show them what we got!”

Before the words were finished, several bodyguards of Victor immediately showed their aimed at Isaac and his people.

After a burst of gunshots, most of Isaac's people were killed or injured.

Even Isaac himself got shot in the leg and couldn't fight or move at all.

guns and

Victor walked towards the goods and opened a box with a lot of treasures inside.

From natural treasures to antique calligraphy and paintings, there were all kinds of treasures.

All around, there were ten full boxes!

"Are these collections all from Lewis Club?" Victor said with a greedy face, "Then at least one box. should have my name, Victor Johnson. Isn't it too much?"

In fact, considering the current one-sided situation, no matter how many boxes the Johnson family took away, the other side couldn't do anything about it.

"Bastard!" Isaac said viciously, "If I can get out of here alive, I will never let it go! The gangsters of Tonkai will avenge me!"

At the mention of Tonkai, Victor seemed to have thought of something, with his face changed, and there was a strong intention of killing in his eyes as he looked at Isaac.

Compared to those gangsters of Tonkai, the Johnsons were no match.

Just when Victor was hesitating whether to kill them or not,

“Clap clap!”

From far to near, there came a burst of footsteps.

“Aiden, is that you?” Isaac regained his energy all of a sudden, thinking that his personal bodyguard had come.

Before Isaac turned his head looking for Aiden, a strange man came up from the other way.

“It’s you!?” Victor was shocked when he saw the man as if he had seen a ghost. “How could you still be alive?”

As to what Victor expected, Leones Bloom should have been killed by Amber.

It was Amber who should have shown up, not Leones Bloom!?

“Your Excellency, it’s him!” Just then, the host of the auction pointed at Leones, who was coming over, and shouted, “He’s the one who took away the medicinal mushroom just now! He’s registered with the name Kenton Bloom!”

Kenton Bloom!?

When they saw Leones coming, everyone was shocked at the same time.

“You bastard, give me back the medicinal mushroom!” Isaac said angrily. “How did you escape?” Victor also asked in shock, “Where is Amber!?”

Leones glanced at the crowd and calmly said, “You mean that snake lady? She the snake she fed herself!”

What!?

was swallowed by

Hearing this, the Johnsons were shocked.

If they hadn't seen Leones standing alive in front of them, they would have thought he was joking. Amber was one of the Roberts in Fatuma who had raised snakes all their lives. How could she be swallowed by snakes? By the snake that she raised herself?

"If you don't believe me, I can call out the snake, and you'll see." Leones said calmly.

"What nonsense are you talking about!?"

Victor laughed out of rage, "Whatever you said! Since you came here, do as I say. Hand me that medicinal mushroom! Don't make me come to you!"

It seemed to Victor that he had already controlled everything and everyone, whether Isaac from Lewis Club or Kenton. Whatever he wanted, they had to give to him.

"Where's the medicinal mushroom!?"

Victor drew his gun and pointed it at Leones, "I'll count to three, and you hand over the medicinal mushroom to me now!"

As he spoke, Victor revealed a sinister smile on the corner of his mouth because he had already made up his mind that he would shoot regardless of whether Leones handed over the medicinal mushroom.

Seeing this, Isaac shook his head regretfully. What a shame that the Johnsons would take away the medicinal mushroom.

At that moment,

Rumble!

There was a great tremor on the ground.

Like an earthquake, the ground cracked, and everyone couldn't stand.

"Ugh!" Victor exclaimed. Before he could see what was going on, his feet kicked in the air.

Immediately afterward, a huge snake head rose from the ground, knocking Victor and others into the air.

Then the snake opened its huge mouth and swallowed Victor and others in one gulp.

"Now do you believe me?" Leones asked calmly.

Unfortunately, no one answered.

Chapter 93 Ten Treasure Chests

The giant python jumped out suddenly. Although only a huge snake head was exposed, sticking out of the ground.

the surrounding people were frightened to death.

Especially the last surviving bodyguards of the Johnson family, they were all dumbfounded.

“Isn’t...this the snake raised by Amber Roberts... how could...”

They never ever thought that their young master was actually swallowed by the giant python raised by the snake lady, leaving no bones left.

“My gosh... where did this python come from!?”

People from Lewis Club were also frightened and trembling.

Isaac looked at Leones in horror, having no idea who the hell this young man was.

Kenton? How come I’ve never heard of this name?!

Taking care of the Johnson family was so easy, like a warning to others, made the rest fear to act.

Ignoring the frightened crowd, Leones turned his attention to the ten large wooden boxes.

Leones was a little amazed, looking at all kinds of rare treasures.

He thought, “Sure enough, the illegal market really has everything!”

With his own money, Leones might not be able to buy even one percent of these treasures at auctions.

It was faster to take a shortcut.

Now Leones could choose whatever treasures he wanted.

There were hundreds of age-old treasures. Leones wanted them all, but he couldn’t take so many.

“Huh!? This is...”

Leones opened another wooden box and found a horn with exquisite and quirky patterns on it.

“Dragon Horn!?”

According to legend, it was made of special materials, and the dragon patterns on it could be used to summon and control dragons.

Leones once heard the legend of Dragon Horn from his eighteenth master Talisman.

And he could recognize the dragon pattern at a glance.

Leones picked up the horn, mobilized the vital energy in his body, and tried to blow it a few times.

But no sound was produced.

‘Did I use it improperly, or there are no dragons in this world, so I can’t play it?’

“Never mind, I’ll keep it.”

Leones carried the horn with him.

Seeing that Leones only chose that horn among so many treasures,

Isaac couldn’t help being curious.

No one could blow that horn. It was for the peculiar pattern on it, it had attracted many experts who study talismans, and it was an antique excavated from an ancient tomb, which was still of some value.

However, it was auctioned several times, but no bid was made.

Isaac had never figured out what that horn could do.

“Could it be that... he knows the secret of the horn? But he blew it just now, and it didn’t make any sound...”

Immediately, Leones continued to search in that box.

He found another nice treasure.

It was a palm-sized bronze mirror. But it was just a mirror surface, and it wouldn’t reflect. Leones felt the mirror with his heart and found that it was a treasure of space, and there was a space inside, a space of about ten square meters.

When Leones cast a spell, the object that was illuminated by the bronze mirror disappeared immediately, and at the same time, it appeared on the mirror, which meant that it was absorbed into the mirror.

“So this is a mirror of collection!” Leones was just worried about so many treasures and couldn’t take them.

With this treasure, not to mention a few selected treasures, even all the ten boxes of treasures, it was no problem.

Leones mirrored the treasures one by one, and all the treasures disappeared.

Isaac was stunned as he watched, "That bronze mirror is such a miraculous treasure!?"

"Oh no, I didn't know it before. I missed a treasure!"

Leones continued to open the boxes.

After a while of rummage, from the bottom of a box, Leones moved out another wooden box, which was half a man's height. He gave a pat on the box, and it unfolded immediately like a peacock spreading its tail.

However, the wooden box was empty, and there was nothing inside.

"This is the Endless Sword!" Isaac couldn't help saying, "It is said that it was made by a sword geek once to collect famous swords in the world."

"If you want, you can take this."

There was no sword inside anyway.

"No one at all?"

Leones patted lightly.

There was something mysterious hidden in the center of the sword box.

As Leones's vital energy poured in, there were three beams of flash that were forced out.

The three small swords hovered in the air like flying fire and meteors.

One with bursting red light, one with faint blue light, and one with bright white light.

Leones waved his hand, and three small swords fell into his palm, and returned to the sword box.

“This...” Isaac couldn’t help being shocked when he saw this.

‘There is such a secret in the sword box? Why didn’t I find it before?’

‘Where did he get the three swords from!?’

“Haha... not bad!” Leones was satisfied with the three swords. “I will take them too!”

Leones put the Endless Sword into the Treasure Mirror.

After seeing it, Isaac was very regretful to himself.

When Leones walked to the last big box, he immediately felt the extraordinary aura emanating from it.

“Don’t open this one!” Isaac immediately said nervously, “You can pick whatever you want from the other nine boxes. This box...”

Before Isaac finished speaking, Leones forcibly opened the box.

In a flash, the vital energy surged inside, and the brilliance shone brightly.

“Magic weapons!” Leones was extremely surprised when he saw a box of magical weapons.

‘No wonder the owner of Lewis Club didn’t let me touch this box. It’s a box full of all priceless treasures!’

Of course, the magic weapons were of different values.

Ordinary magic weapons could help soothe the nerves and help sleep or to defend oneself against evil spirits.

And the powerful magic weapons could even kill the target thousands of miles away.

A powerful cultivator with an immortal body was invulnerable to swords and guns, water and fire.

Only magic weapons could help defeat them.

Therefore, powerful magic weapons were a must for the strong.

Leones sensed the magic weapons in the box, and most of them were not good enough for him. Finally, at the corner of the box, Leones found a bracelet with eighteen crystal clear beads on it.

“No, you can’t take this away!”

When Isaac saw the bracelet Leones took out, he panicked completely.

Chapter 94 Ocean Bead

“What magic weapon is this?” Leones asked curiously, “Why can’t I take it?”

“This is specially prepared for a master of magic skills!” Isaac quickly explained, “I just keep it temporarily. If you take it away, I can’t afford the later punishment!”

Leones looked at the 18 beads. He found that the lines on them were complicated, and the contained in them was also very extraordinary.

power

“It is a treasure!”

As he said that, Leones flicked his fingers. Immediately, one of the beads ejected.

Boom!

Suddenly, there was a loud noise!

The underground passage was destroyed.

It was as if this place had been bombed. Everywhere was devastated.

“What!”

Seeing this, Isaac was dumbfounded.

He didn’t expect that this bracelet-like magic weapon would be so powerful!

A small bead was like a cannonball fired, which was frightening.

Soon, the bead that was shot by Leones flew back to the bracelet automatically.

But, the bead looked dimmer, and even the lines on it had become blurred.

“So it can’t be used for endless times!” Leones said.

Every time these 18 beads were used, part of the power inside would be consumed.

Leones estimated that it could be used three to five times before it was useless.

Finally, under the coercion of Leones, Isaac confessed that the 18 beads were named Ocean Bead by the one who made them.

If these 18 Ocean Beads were put together in a string and were used at the same time, a First-rank Grandmaster would be killed in one shot.

“Ocean Bead?” Leones nodded in satisfaction and kept it.

Among these ten boxes of things, Leones was only interested in Dragon Horn, Treasure Mirror, Endless Sword, and Ocean Bead.

Besides, he took many herbs that were good for cultivation.

Leones got what he wanted and was ready to leave,

“You can take as much as you want except Ocean Bead! Give it to me!

“Kenton! Come back! Come back!”

Isaac shouted in the direction where Leones was going away.

It was at the other side of the underground passage.

Veronica was fighting with Aiden.

Aiden used a long spear as his weapon. He looked very powerful.

A long spear was a kind of weapon that was very suitable for fighting!

The longer it was, the more powerful it would be.

Veronica used a saber as her weapon. Soon, Aiden gained the upper hand.

Under normal circumstances, Aiden couldn't beat Veronica.

But now, Veronica felt dizzy. She couldn't use all of her strength to fight.

"Ms. Quinn! You can't win!" Aiden waved the spear in his hand, and immediately forced Veronica to step back, "Just admit that you are defeated!"

Aiden wanted to capture Veronica alive. Then, he would use her to ask Sherland Guardians outside to retreat.

Veronica supported her to stand with the saber. She felt that she couldn't see everything in front of her clearly.

She felt that the effect of Mescaline made her lose five senses.

Veronica couldn't even feel the pain in her left palm.

"Get out of the way!" Veronica held the saber and continued walking.

"You are already defeated!" Aiden waved the spear again.

Immediately, Veronica staggered and nearly fell to the ground.

"How could I lose to someone like you!" Veronica struggled to support herself.

She knew that once she passed out, she would become a hostage.

Veronica knew that she must not fall at this time.

However, she couldn't feel pain. She just felt sleepy. She just wanted to lie down and fainted.

Veronica used her saber to stab her left arm. She was bleeding, but she still felt no pain.

She stabbed her arm again. Still the same!

"How could this happen?" Veronica was a little desperate.

"The effect of Mescaline will become stronger and stronger." Aiden said, "You have been fighting for so long, and you absorbed the medicine!"

"You can't feel any pain from ordinary injuries! Give up!"

Veronica was weak. It seemed that she felt it was difficult to breathe.

She could tell that Aiden approached her step by step.

“I never thought that one day, the War Goddess would be defeated by me!

“It’s a pity. If this is on the battlefield, and I can capture you alive, I will be promoted!”

Veronica would rather die than be captured alive.

She was struggling.

Just at this moment, Veronica got an idea.

She thought, “The ordinary injury can’t make me feel pain.

How about being seriously injured?”

Veronica chose to take a gamble and held her saber high.

“Do you still want to resist needlessly?” Seeing that Veronica moved, Aiden didn’t take it seriously at all.

But in the next second, he didn’t expect that Veronica would hurt herself again.

Click!

Veronica moved.

She chopped off her left hand!

Seeing this, Aiden was also stunned!

It happened so fast!

At this moment, Veronica felt severe pain, and her strength was completely recovered.

Veronica's expression changed.

In the next second, she rushed to Aiden.

It was too late for Aiden to react.

Veronica killed him!

She moved so quickly!

"So fast..."

Aiden fell to the ground, and he could even see the blood coming from his body.

"As expected of the War Goddess of Sherland Guardians, I lost..."

Veronica killed Aiden with one move. But, at the same time, she felt hurt and tired. She had lost a lot of blood and was very weak.

After walking a few steps, Veronica also staggered and fell.

Before she fell into a coma, Veronica vaguely heard someone nearby yelling a name.

“Kenton! Come back! Come back!”

“Kenton...”

Veronica muttered to herself. She felt that a person appeared in front of her.

Chapter 95 Destroy Illegal Market

“Huh? Why is she here too?”

Leones was walking outside. He suddenly noticed a woman lying in front of him with a severed hand.

When Leones got closer, he saw that it was Veronica.

Leones leaned over and checked her condition.

In addition to a severed hand, Leones found that Veronica was also poisoned with a kind of medicine that was similar to anesthetics. It seemed that she had absorbed the medicine already. If this continued, Leones knew that Veronica would die in a deep sleep because of losing too much blood.

“Well...”

Leones sighed.

He didn't expect Veronica would be so tough. She cut off her hand to kill Aiden.

Leones wondered whether Veronica would be so tough when she wanted to take revenge on him. Now that Leones met this kind of thing, he couldn't just leave Veronica alone like this.

“You are lucky to meet me, otherwise you will lose your hand forever...”

Leones picked up the severed hand and put it on Veronica’s wrist.

Leones used his vital energy to gently wipe the incision. Soon, Veronica’s wrist recovered without any scars.

Other than Veronica herself, no one would notice that the palm had been broken just now.

Then, Leones lightly tapped Veronica’s forehead, helping her to deplete the medicine in her body.

After doing all this, Leones looked at Veronica. Veronica’s face was still pale because she lost too much blood. But Leones knew that she would be fine.

Leones wanted to leave, but he hesitated for a while.

Then, Leones decided to help Veronica more.

Leones broke off a small piece from the medicinal mushroom.

Then, he fed Veronica with it.

Immediately, Veronica’s pale face became red. Even her rough skin that was exposed to the wind and sun had become extremely smooth and tender.

After finishing these, Leones stood up and left.

When he came outside, Lewis Club had been surrounded and controlled by Sherland Guardians.

All the people in Lewis Club were required to be questioned and investigated.

Leones didn't want to waste time here, and he didn't want to conflict with these people.

So, he wiped his face and strode out.

"Stop! According to the instructions of the superior, no one in Lewis Club is allowed to leave.

Please..."

The guard hadn't finished speaking. He suddenly stopped and he said in surprise, "Mr. Timon? Why are you here?"

"I hear that there is a big case. I came to have a look. Then, I will go back and report to my father."

Leones smiled and chatted with the guard.

"Mr. Timon, please!" The guard hurriedly stepped aside.

Leones disguised himself as Darius for the time being and left very easily.

Not long after Leones left, Darius, the real one, rushed over after hearing the news.

"I didn't expect that a big case would happen here. I shouldn't have left just now." Seeing that Sherland Guardians took the first step and took control of this place, Darius was filled with regret.

"Huh? Mr. Timon, why are you back again?" The guard, who had just let Leones go, saw Darius walking in a hurry, and hurriedly stepped forward to ask, "Did you report to Your Excellency?"

After hearing this, Darius was at a loss. He thought, "I just came here. What do you mean I'm back again?"

"Who are you? Have you admitted the wrong person?" Darius saw the guard talking in a confused manner and didn't bother to answer.

The guard was also a little confused, scratched his head, and murmured, "Mr. Timon is moody."

The guard was very confused.

Inside the secret passage.

"Your Excellency! Are you all right!?"

Lois, Veronica's assistant, brought back the reinforcements in time and traced them to here.

Veronica slowly woke up, feeling a little headache. Other than that, she felt that she was fine.

"By the way, I brought the antidote." Lois took out a bottle, hoping that Veronica could dissolve the Mescaline inhaled in her body by sniffing it.

"No, I'm fine." Veronica stood up and noticed Aiden who had been killed by herself. She suddenly recalled the dangerous and bloody fight between them.

Veronica closed her eyes. She thought, "I lost a hand because of it. I don't know if it was worth it."

She dared not look at her left arm, fearing that she would not be able to accept it.

“Lois, pick up my hand and give it to me...” Veronica tremblingly said.

“Hand?” Lois glanced at Veronica. She said with confusion, “What hand?”

“Aren’t your hands fine, Your Excellency?”

Saying that Lois took Veronica’s hands and pressed them together.

“Ah?” After Veronica’s palms touched together, she was shocked.

Lois was also taken aback. “Your Excellency, what’s wrong with you?”

“My hand...” Veronica’s eyes widened, feeling incredible. “I’m not dreaming, am I?”

“Huh? That’s right! Your hand has healed!” Lois was also surprised when she saw Veronica’s palm had recovered.

Just now, they were all drugged by Mescaline, and all of them pierced their palms with knives.

Lois’s left hand was still wrapped in gauze, bleeding from time to time.

However, Veronica’s palm didn’t have any scars.

“It’s not just the injury on the palm but also the wrist...” Veronica lightly touched the wrist that had just been cut off by her.

She told Lois everything that happened just now.

“What! You said your palm was chopped off just now?” Lois was taken aback again, “Your Excellency, you must have remembered it wrong, right?”

In front of Veronica was the corpse of Aiden.

Seeing that, Veronica knew that she didn’t remember it wrongly.

She thought about it.

“Someone saved me,” Veronica remembered that a person appeared before she went into a coma. “It’s him!”

“Who?” Lois asked curiously.

“Kenton!”

Before Veronica could explain, she heard Isaac roar. “Come back! Give it to me!”

Veronica and Lois looked at each other and rushed over immediately.

When they arrived, they found that there was a lot of blood. They were surprised.

The members of the Johnson family have already fled.

Isaac and others were shot. Some died, and some were injured. They were still trapped here.

Lois immediately called the guards and arrested all the people there.

At the same time, ten boxes of stolen goods were carried back together.

Besides, Veronica found a list.

The people on the list were related to the treasures in these ten boxes.

Those people included high-ranking officials, wealthy merchants, and many well-known big shots.

“No wonder they attack us, and they want to transfer everything here.” Veronica held the list and understood the importance of the list.

Veronica knew that if it was investigated further, many people would be involved.

If it were someone else, they might be afraid and want to give up.

But since Veronica knew it, she would investigate it to the end!

So far, the illegal market in Lewis Club was destroyed by Sherland Guardians led by Veronica.

Chapter 96 Master

Leones left Lewis Club and felt satisfied.

He contacted Gloria and told her that he had collected all the medicinal materials to treat her grandfather.

They made an appointment to treat Orlando tomorrow.

Leones just hung up the phone and was about to go back.

Suddenly, he received a call from Susan.

He thought, "It's so late. Why did she call? Did something wrong happen?"

After Leones answered the phone, he heard Susan crying and asking for help.

"What's wrong?" Leones asked.

Susan cried and said, "My grandma may be dying..."

"Leones, didn't you say that you helped Orlando recover? Can you treat my grandma?"

"Okay, calm down." After Leones asked where the hospital was, he said, "I'll go and have a look right away."

Soon, Leones came to Sherland Hospital.

In an ordinary ward, he met Susan and her family.

"Huh? Why are you here?" Aria was furious when she saw Leones, "Are you here to gloat?"

Aria didn't want Susan to be with Leones and had always shown hostility towards Leones.

Now, Elisa was critically ill. When Aria saw Leones running over, she just thought that Leones was here to gloat at her misfortune.

“Mom, what are you talking about?” Susan quickly explained, “I called Leones. He has some medical skills. I want him to treat grandma.”

What?

Susan’s parents were shocked.

“He didn’t study medicine. What kind of medical skills does he have?” Thurman was puzzled. “Yes!” Aria was shocked and angry, “He has been in prison for five years. It’s impossible that he has medical skills!

“I think he has learned how to deceive my daughter!”

Facing the accusation from Susan’s parents, Leones would have left if it wasn’t for Susan’s sake.

“Stop arguing.” At this time, a middle-aged man said impatiently, “Susan, don’t cause trouble here. I have invited a Divine Doctor to come here. He will arrive soon.”

This person was Susan’s uncle, Albert Guzman.

“Brother, did you invite a Divine Doctor to treat Mother?” When Aria heard this, she suddenly became excited and asked, “Who did you invite?”

Albert smiled complacently, and said, “Since he is called Divine Doctor, then of course he is Master of Acupuncture. He is well-known in Sherland and known to everyone!”

“Do you mean Mr. William?”

When everyone heard this, they immediately became excited.

“Could it be Philip William?” Thurman confirmed with some disbelief.

“Besides Philip, no one can be called the Divine Doctor!” Albert said proudly.

“Brother, you are amazing!” Aria said, “You can even invite Mr. William to come here!”

Seeing the happy faces of the family members, Susan was still in a daze. She asked curiously, “Dad, is this Philip very powerful?”

“Susan, Mr. William is amazing!” Thurman said with a look of admiration, “Whatever the disease patients have, he can cure him or her with one injection! That’s why he is named Master of Acupuncture. Everyone in Sherland knows it!

“Your uncle is amazing. He can even hire such a genius doctor. If your grandfather had been treated by Mr. William, he might be able to live for a few more years.”

Speaking of this, Thurman thought of his dead father. He was filled with regret.

Aria continued to ask, “Brother, how did you know Mr. William? How could you hire such a doctor?”

After all, they were just ordinary people. Aria knew that they couldn’t know such a big shot as Philip.

“How can I know this kind of Divine Doctor?” Albert said, “I asked one of my old bosses for help. “It just so happens tonight that Mr. William is coming here to treat a rich man. He said that he could drop by here to have a look. We just have to wait patiently.”

When Aria heard it, she couldn’t help being overjoyed. She hurriedly said, “We are so lucky! Mother will be saved!”

Hearing these, Leones felt helpless. He thought, “It is such a coincidence. Will I meet Philip again?”

At this time, Aria said, “Susan, did you hear that? Your uncle invited Mr. William to treat your grandma! Now you can rest assured!

“Ask him to leave quickly. I’m unhappy when I see him!”

Hearing this, Susan felt embarrassed. She didn’t know what to do.

After all, she didn’t know how good Leones’s medical skills were.

Now, the situation had changed. Her uncle seemed to have invited a very powerful doctor. Susan didn’t know whether to let Leones continue to see the situation of her grandma or send him away.

At this time, Leones smiled and said, “Even if the Divine Doctor you are talking about is here, I’m afraid he can’t do anything about Elisa’s illness. When the time comes, I will be invited to come here.”

Leones only took one look at Elisa on the hospital bed, and he knew her situation.

Coupled with his understanding of Philip, Leones was sure that Philip couldn’t save Elisa.

But when Leones said this, everyone at the scene changed their expressions.

“Boy, you are so arrogant!” Albert stared at Leones, and questioned, “Can you cure a disease that even Mr. William can’t cure?”

“Who do you think you are? Master of Philip?”

While talking, the door of the ward was suddenly pushed open.

A white-haired old man walked in from the outside, dressed in a suit. He had an extraordinary temperament.

“Is this Elisa’s ward?” Philip asked calmly after entering.

“Mr. William?” Seeing this, Albert immediately greeted him, “Yes! Mr. William, sorry to bother you! Thank you very much”

Philip nodded and behaved arrogantly. He didn’t show any respect to the family at all. Because of a favor, he came here to take a look.

“Mr. William, please come in quickly,” Albert said.

The ward was small, and everyone stepped aside.

But Leones still stood where he was, without moving.

When Aria saw this, she couldn’t help but reprimand, “What are you doing? Get out of here!”

Philip walked in and happened to see Leones. He trembled, and his eyes widened. He said in surprise, “Master?”

“Why are you here too?”

Chapter 97 Medicinal Mushroom

Since Philip saw how Leones saved a person who was almost dead, he had already regarded Leones as his teacher.

Philip admired people who had better medical skills than him.

Even if Leones did not agree to accept him as a student, Philip had always hoped to be taught by him.

At all times, Philip called Leones Master.

Philip met Leones today. He was surprised and happy.

Philip just agreed to check a patient's condition casually. He didn't expect that he would meet

Leones.

"Master, nice to meet you!"

Philip hurriedly walked over and bowed.

His arrogance that he showed before had turned into humility.

Leones just nodded. At the same time, he began to think about how he would get rid of Philip.

Philip called Leones Master.

Hearing this, everyone in the ward was dumbfounded and shocked.

They thought, "Philip, a well-known Divine Doctor, called a young man in his twenties Master?"

Why?

Is he Philip?"

If Albert hadn't met Philip before, he would have doubted whether he was an actor invited by Leones.

The members of the Guzman family who were mocking Leones just now all felt embarrassed. They couldn't believe what was happening before them.

Especially Albert had said, "Who do you think you are? Master of Mr. William?"

He never expected that Leones would be Master of Philip.

He couldn't believe it.

For a moment, every member of the Guzman family looked at each other and thought that Philip might make a mistake.

They thought, "After all, Philip is about 80 years old. It is normal for him to be old and foolish enough to admit the wrong person."

"Master, why are you here?"

Philip asked curiously.

"The patient here is the grandmother of one of my classmates," Leones said.

"Oh!" Philip was taken aback, and then he said, "Huh?"

Philip was a little puzzled. He thought, "Why does this family ask me for help? Master is here, and he can cure anyone who is severely ill.

Do they want to humiliate me?"

Leones said, "Since you are here, you can check her conditions first. See if she can be cured."

"Yes!" Philip didn't ask any more questions after hearing this. He regarded this as a test.

He thought. "Maybe after curing this patient, Master will accept me as his student."

Immediately, Philip became serious. He walked towards the hospital bed and tried his best to check Elisa's condition.

At this time, Susan walked to Leones and asked in a low voice, "Leones, what's going on? Mr. William is so old. Why does he call you Master?"

Leones said, "I don't agree to let him be my student."

Hearing this, everyone present was dumbfounded.

They thought, "What? How dare he say this? How could he be so arrogant?"

Aria was very angry. She thought, "Mr. William made a mistake. He admitted the wrong person and called Leones Master. How could Leones take it seriously? Shameless!"

"Oh, no!"

Suddenly, Philip exclaimed. Everyone's attention was brought back to Elisa.

"Mr. William, how is my mother?" Albert asked nervously.

Philip looked serious, and finally shook his head helplessly, "She is old and frail. Her life has come to an end. I am afraid there is nothing I can do."

“What?” When every member of the Guzman family heard this, their expressions changed. Some of them cried.

“Mr. William, think of a way!” Albert said anxiously, “Don’t you have superb medical skills? Help my mother! Please!”

If others said such inappropriate words, Philip would leave.

He wouldn’t treat anyone without confidence. He knew that he should be responsible for his patients and the patients’ families.

However, for Leones’s sake, Philip explained patiently, “Your mother is not sick, but old. It’s natural to die when someone is too old.

“No matter how powerful my medical skill is, I can’t save a person who is dying. Unless...”

Speaking of this, Philip suddenly thought of something.

“Unless what?” Everyone in the Guzman family hurriedly asked, as if they had grasped the last hope.

Philip said with a serious face, “Unless it is my master who treats her, she may be saved.” Philip thought of the amazing scene where Leones saved a person who was almost dead that day. He thought that only Leones could save Elisa.

“Your master?” Albert and others hurriedly asked again, “Where is your master?”

“This...” Everyone in the Guzman family was completely speechless, not knowing how to react. They thought, “Does Mr. William have dementia?”

What to do?

We asked Mr. William to come to treat Elisa, but he fell ill instead?"

Aria even thought, "If Leones wants to treat my mother, I would rather send her to the crematorium immediately to avoid further suffering and humiliation."

"Master, I am incompetent." Philip came to Leones and said, "She died of natural causes, and there is nothing I can do."

Leones already knew about this, so he was able to assert just now that it would be useless if Philip came.

"Leones..." Susan couldn't believe it, and asked in a low voice, "Can you save my grandma?"

Leones could tell that the relationship Susan loved Elisa very much.

"Don't worry. As long as you ask me to treat her, I won't let your grandma die."

As he said that, Leones turned around, quietly broke off a little piece of medicinal mushroom from Treasure Mirror, and handed it to Susan.

"Go and feed your grandma with this. She will recover soon." Leones said.

Susan held the small piece of medicinal mushroom, not knowing what to do.

She thought, “Can this mushroom–like thing save grandma?”

“What are you going to feed my mother?” Albert and the others were very careful and stopped Susan immediately.

Philip sniffed it with his nose and then said in surprise, “Master, what you just took out... Could it be a medicinal mushroom?”

Chapter 98 Fate

“A thousand–year–old medicinal? mushroom!”

Seeing the medicinal material that Leones took out, Philip sniffed it gently with his nose and roughly judged the specific year based on its strong fragrance.

After all, Philip was a highly skilled doctor. He had come into contact with many medicinal materials. Without looking at them, he could tell their quality just by sniffing them with his nose.

“You are smart.” Leones smiled approvingly. “You are right. This is a thousand–year–old medicinal mushroom.”

“Oh my, really? I thought I made a mistake.”

Philip was shocked. “Impressive. How could you get such a rare herb?”

“I remember it is recorded in ancient books that it is effective in bringing the dead back to life.”

“Yeah.” Leones nodded, and then said to Susan, “Your grandma is dying. No matter how powerful Philip’s medical skills are, he can’t save your grandma. But this thousand–year–old medicinal mushroom can prolong her life by ten years.”

The thousand–year–old medicinal mushroom could prolong Elisa’s life by ten years?!

After hearing the conversation between Leones and Philip, everyone from the Guzman family firmly believed that Philip was mad.

He took a young man as his master and regarded the herb that Leones got from nowhere as a thousand-year-old medicinal mushroom.

He must be crazy!

Albert didn't want to embarrass his leader. Moreover, it was difficult to invite Philip. Otherwise, Albert would have driven Philip out a long time ago.

What kind of highly skilled doctor was Philip? He seemed to be a liar that Leones invited to act with him.

As for the thousand-year-old medicinal mushroom, the Guzman family wouldn't let Elisa eat it. "A thousand-year-old medicinal mushroom? Do you think we are fools?" Aria said disdainfully. "If something happens to my mother after she eats it, who of you will be responsible?"

Seeing that the Guzman family didn't want the free thousand-year-old medicinal mushroom, Philip stomped his feet angrily. "It's outrageous!

"How dare you question Mr. Bloom? If your mother doesn't eat it, she won't survive tonight." Philip, who claimed to be a highly skilled doctor, couldn't cure Elisa. Moreover, he cursed Aria. Aria was so angry that she yelled, "You liar. Are you mad? How can you pretend to be a highly skilled doctor? Bah!

"You must be invited by Leones to put on a show. Were you inmates? After you got out of prison, you cheated others together again!"

When Philip heard the wicked woman scold him, he was more furious.

Even Albert began to have some doubts. He wondered if this man was Philip. Did he pretend to be Philip?

At this thought, he was about to call his leader.

At that moment, all the instruments around the bed issued warnings. The panel showed that Elisa had stopped breathing, and her brain waves had become zero.

“Mom!” Aria cried out.

Immediately afterward, everyone in the room wept.

A group of doctors rushed in. After some rescue efforts, they shook their heads helplessly and up.

“Sorry. She is dead.”

With that said, the doctor covered Elisa with a piece of white cloth.

The whole family was left in the ward, weeping bitterly around Elisa’s bed.

“Hmph, you deserve it!” Philip cursed secretly, feeling that they deserved it.

If Elisa had eaten the thousand-year-old medicinal mushroom just now, she would have been discharged from the hospital by now.

It was unknown if the mushroom worked on dead people.

“Let’s go,” Leones said to Philip beside him and walked out of the ward.

For the sake of Susan, Leones came and tried his best.

gave

As for the others, those who believed Leones would survive, and those who disobeyed him would die.

Since the Guzman family didn't want Elisa to eat the thousand-year-old medicinal mushroom, Leones wouldn't force them.

"Leones..." Susan burst into tears. Watching Leones leave, she held the small medicinal material gave her in her hand, not knowing who to trust.

he

It was hard for her to believe that there was a thousand-year-old medicinal mushroom in the world.

But at the same time, she had some regrets. What if what Leones said was true?

Since they rejected Leones's kindness, they got Elisa killed.

"Let me wipe Grandma's body..." Susan said.

After crying for a while, the Guzman family began to discuss the funeral of Elisa.

At the same time, they wiped her body and put the shroud on her.

"Okay..." Aria responded and asked Susan to do it.

Then she continued to discuss with her brothers.

“Grandma... Boohoo... Thank you very much for bringing me up... Rest in peace... Boohoo...

Susan had never met her father’s mom. She was brought up by her grandma, so she loved her grandma deeply.

While crying, Susan gently wiped Elisa’s body with a towel.

After wiping the corner of her mouth, Susan secretly stuffed the small medicinal material that Leones gave her into Elisa’s mouth while no one was looking.

Although doing this now was of no help, it was a psychological comfort for Susan.

Then, Susan continued to wipe Elisa’s body while crying.

“Susan...” Suddenly, Susan heard a familiar voice. “I’m not dead yet. Why are you crying so sadly?”

As Elisa spoke, she gently touched Susan’s hair with her hand and helped her wipe away the tears from the corners of her eyes.

“Grandma... Grandma?!” Susan froze. When she turned her head, she saw her grandma looking at her with kind but confused eyes.

Suddenly, there was a dead silence in the ward.

“Mom?!” Aria and the others stopped discussing suddenly and turned their heads tremblingly. They were shocked to find that Elisa sat up straight from the bed, slowly turned her head, and looked at them with a grin.

“Oh my god! Ghost!!” Albert screamed and fainted from fright.

Immediately afterward, there was chaos in the ward.

Chapter 99 Encounter of Fate

“Mr. Bloom, the old lady died just now. If she took the thousand-year-old medicinal mushroom, could she still be revived?”

Philip was very curious about this question.

If it wasn't for that family, who were too stubborn, he really wanted to persuade them a few more times, let them give the old lady medicinal mushroom to see if it worked.

“It's all fate.” Leones no longer cared about this.

Leones thought he should go home quickly and carefully inspect the treasures he got from the Lewis Club today.

So, Leones couldn't help but quicken the pace of leaving.

“Mr. Bloom! Master! Please stay!”

Philip hurriedly followed and said again, “I am treating a seriously injured patient here today.

“I would like to ask Mr. Bloom to stop by and have a look.”

Leones slowed down and said, “You want me to save people? But you should know the rules.”

“Save one person, kill another person. I understand,” Philip said hastily, “Of course, I don’t dare to bother Mr. Bloom. I just want you to see my treatment and give me some instructions.

“It won’t keep you long.”

As he spoke, Philip pointed to a ward in front, “The patient is right there.”

“Okay...” Since it was not far away, Leones agreed.

Soon, the two opened the door and entered the ward.

A patient with tubes inserted all over his body, bandages wrapped around his limbs, and a ventilator on his mouth, fixed on the hospital bed motionless.

“Oh, this patient really suffered.

“His limbs were all broken and had been soaked in the river overnight. I heard he almost couldn’t be saved when he was brought here.

“I don’t know who he offended, to be beaten up so severely.”

Philip stood aside, shaking his head and sighing as if he couldn’t bear it.

But when Leones saw the patient on the bed, he couldn’t help but smile. His expression changed slightly.

As for the patient lying on the hospital bed, his complexion changed drastically after seeing Leones, his breathing became short, and his heart couldn’t help beating faster.

If the patient hadn’t been fixed on the hospital bed, he might have broken free and rolled under the bed.

“Mr. Olsen,” Philip stepped forward and introduced, “This is Mr. Bloom. He is my Master. “I managed to invite my Master here and let him check your injury.”

As he said that, Philip told Leones again, “I used the technique of bone–setting to help him connect his limbs, but I don’t know if he could restore his former appearance.

“Mr. Bloom, my bone–setting technique looks okay for you, right?”

Philip had tried his best to restore the patient’s disabled limbs. At least he won’t be disabled anymore.

But Philip didn’t notice the changes in the expressions of Leones and the patient and was still immersed in the fantasy of wanting Mr. Bloom to praise him..

“Mr. William, you did a good job,” Leones said calmly, “But it’s still a bit lack of skills!

“You go out first, and I will give him the last bit of treatment!”

When Philip heard this, he was overjoyed and quickly said to the patient, “Mr. Olsen, did you hear that? Mr. Bloom agreed to treat you! That’s great! If Mr. Bloom took action, maybe you could be discharged tonight!”

When the patient heard this, his expression became more flustered, and he even struggled hard.

Philip took all of this as the patient’s trembling due to excitement and didn’t think too much about it.

The only regret was that Mr. Bloom asked him to leave, so Philip didn't have a chance to study.

"Mr. Bloom, I'll wait outside," Philip said, "Call me if you need something."

After Philip left, only Leones and Ted, who was lying on the hospital bed, were left in the ward. This person was Ted Olsen, brother of Leones's stepmother, Ashley. That was, Leones' uncle. "Mr. Olsen, how was it going?" Leones looked at the man lying on the hospital bed with a half-smile.

That day, Ted was looking for someone on the street, trying to break Leones's limbs to avenge his sister.

Unexpectedly, the person Ted sent there was actually Blackdrake's subordinate.

Therefore, Leones turned Ted's way against Ted, disabling Ted's legs and feet.

Originally, the matter had come to an end.

But Leones never expected that fate was such a coincidence.

The Olsen family invited Philip to fix Ted's bones and prevent him from becoming disabled. Philip didn't know that Leones had such a relationship with the Olsen family, and out of kindness, he called Leones to help check Ted's condition.

In this way, under the arrangement of fate, Leones and Ted met again.

This was the first time Leones saw Ted after Leones was released from prison.

After Ted saw Leones, he was also very surprised. Ted's eyes were full of negative reactions such as surprise, confusion, anger, and fear.

Ted's even thought he was having a nightmare at first.

How come Philip, who was just treating him, called Leones "Master" in a blink of an eye?

"Why don't you talk? Oh, I forgot you're still wearing this..." Leones took off the breathing mask on Ted's face.

Immediately afterward, Leones pulled out the tubes on Ted's body one by one and stripped off all the bandages on his limbs.

The pain made Ted scream.

"Bastard! Stop it! Ah!" Ted was lying alone on the hospital bed like a dead fish in the end.

Being tortured by Leones like this, Ted seemed to fall from heaven to hell.

"Mr. William has good medical skills..." Leones marveled. "If I come late, I'm afraid you will be discharged from the hospital in a few days."

As he said that, Leones got his hands on Ted. "Let me heal you completely!"

"Ah!" Ted felt as if he had fallen into hell, feeling the most unbearable pain in his life.

With this blow by Leones, Ted's limbs were completely disabled. Even the most outstanding doctor couldn't do anything anymore now.

"You bastard! Kill me if you have the guts! Ah!" At this time, Ted would rather die.

“Kill you?” Leones smiled coldly, “That would be too easy for you and your sister!”

“I will let you live, but I promise it will be more painful and uncomfortable than death!”

Ted watched Leones leave the ward, gnashing his teeth with hatred.

“Bastard, I want to see how long you can be arrogant!”

“We, the Olsen family, have invited more powerful thugs! This time, you will die without a place to bury you! Just wait for me!” Ted thought..

At this moment, Philip, was waiting outside, heard screams occasionally in the ward.

He couldn't help but be suspicious, “Why is the patient suffering so much during this treatment? It seems that the treatment is thorough enough!”

Then, the door of the ward opened, and Leones walked out.

“Mr. Bloom, how is it?” Philip asked, “Did you cure him?”

“Everything is going well,” Leones said calmly, “He has been completely disabled.”

“Ah?” Philip was startled and then burst out laughing. “Mr. Bloom, you are really humorous! Mr. Olsen was treated by you personally. How could things go wrong?”

While joking, the two left the hospital.

Chapter 100 Blanchnau and Viomwich

Meanwhile, at the airport of Sherland.

A slim and charming figure, dressed in a purple dress, looked noble and elegant.

She stood quietly in the waiting room. Her beautiful face and sexy figure attracted a lot of attention.

The people who met her eyes would sit on the benches in the lobby and fall asleep soon, no matter whether their flights were late or not.

Not long after, a dozen or so unconscious men caused a lot of chaos at the airport.

“Viomwich! As soon as I got off the plane, I could smell your seductive aura. You put these goats in a coma, didn’t you?!”

Soon, a tall and handsome man dressed in white walked up to the beautiful woman in purple, with a lazy smile on his face.

“Blancnau, I knew you would come, so I waited for you here for a while.” The beautiful woman in purple stood up and smiled. “While I was waiting for you, some flies annoyed me. I am in a good mood today, so I didn’t kill them. Otherwise, they would have died!”

The man in a white suit was Blancnau from Alryne, and the beautiful woman in purple was Viomwich from Onryx. Both of them were from the Undrago.

“What is it that makes you so happy?” Blancnau followed Viomwich. As the two left the airport, they attracted a lot of attention, like a fabulous couple.

“I’m going to see the new Dragon King soon!” A hint of cunning and greed flashed in Viomwich’s beautiful eyes. “I heard from Blackdrake that the new Dragon King is a young and handsome guy, and he is more handsome than you.”

Blancnau smiled contemptuously. "Don't listen to Blackdrake's nonsense. There is no new Dragon King at all! Maybe Blackdrake has some problems, and he can't solve them, so he asks us for help."

"That person has the Dragon's Order," Viomwich smiled. "We have been looking for the Dragon's Order for so long, but it is in the hands of an outsider. Let's go to the Dragon Building and check it out."

"There is no hurry." Blancnau took out a photo from his pocket. "Before I go to meet the new Dragon King, I have to solve some problems for someone."

Viomwich glanced at the photo and said happily, "Another young handsome guy. He is my type. Can you give him to me?"

"No." Blancnau looked at the man in the photo and said coldly, "He must die tonight! I promise!"

"I will go with you then," Viomwich said with a smile. "I wonder if your strength has improved recently. But..."

Viomwich glanced at the photo again. "Are you sure you didn't make a mistake? He is still How strong can he be? Do you have to deal with him personally?"

young.

"There are many unnoticed talents in Sherland." Blancnau didn't underestimate his enemy. "Didn't Blackdrake say that the new Dragon King was very young?"

"What's this person's name?" Viomwich asked curiously.

"Leones Bloom." Blancnau sniffed the photo gently and took a deep breath. There seemed to be a flash of white light in his eyes. Then he looked in another direction blankly. "I have found him!"

Meanwhile, with great difficulty, Leones got rid of Philip, who pestered him and wanted to learn from him.

Not long after walking out, he suddenly realized that he was being followed again.

At first, Leones thought Philip was sneaking behind him.

But soon, he discovered that two people were following him not far behind this time.

Leones slowed down. When he went to a place where no one was around, he stopped and waited patiently for the two people.

“You are quite clever. You found us so quickly. Impressive.”

Blancnau walked out slowly from the shadows.

Behind him, Viomwich was smiling. “You look younger than the one in the photo... I want to take a bite!”

“Who are you guys?!” Leones asked coldly. “Why are you following me?”

These two people were strangers. Leones could be sure that he had never seen them before. “Someone paid me to take your life,” Blancnau said. “I’m here to kill you today!”

“Oh?” Leones was startled and then had an idea. “Is it the Olsen family?”

He just met Ted. Unexpectedly, the Olsen family sent stronger thugs to kill him so soon.

Sure enough, as Ted said, these two people couldn’t be underestimated.

At least, they were much stronger than Blackdrake's subordinates.

"You are smart," Blancnau said. "Do you have any last words? I will fulfill your wish."

"You are quite kind." Leones laughed. "But I'm curious. How much did the Olsen family pay for my life?"

"100 million dollars," Blancnau said bluntly.

"Is my life only worth 100 million dollars?" Leones shook his head helplessly.

Viomwich suddenly said, "Blancnau, I'll give you 150 million dollars. Give him to me."

Then, Viomwich smiled coquettishly at Leones. "Handsome guy, as long as you are willing to be my gigolo, I guarantee you will not die tonight."
