

Chapter 420 The Celebration Banque

Austin's POV:

As I thrust my dick inside Caroline, I asked breathlessly, "Honey, did you miss my big dick while I was away?"

"Yes, I missed it every night. Every time I touched myself, I missed it so fucking much." Panting, Caroline arched her back to let me in deeper. Suddenly, she picked up the wedding ring that was hanging on a necklace around her neck. "Whenever I missed you, I'd put this inside my pussy..."

"Oh, my God! You slut! It seems that I have to work hard tonight!" I raised my hand and slapped Caroline's buttocks hard.

"Oh, God! Fuck me, Austin!" Caroline screamed. "Come inside me... Don't stop!"

I fucked her hard and passionately. I suddenly grabbed the ring and put it in my mouth. "Oh, it tastes sweet! Just like your wet pussy!"

"Yes! Austin! Oh, my God! I love you so much that I'm going crazy!" Caroline shrieked crazily, gasping for breath.

Caroline's POV:

"Honey, you're wounded!"

While I was making love with Austin, I stroked his shoulders and back. I found that there were many deep scars on his skin. He was a lycan, which meant that he should've healed fast. Yet there were still so many scars on his body.

Oh, my God! I had no idea what Austin had to face in the battlefield before he could come home safely.

Thinking about this, I kissed one of the scars on his chest and cried. "I'm sorry, honey. You were alone out there on the battlefield and I couldn't do anything to help you."

"No, honey. It was you and Alice who kept me going." Austin kissed me affectionately. "I love you, babe. It's because of you that I was able to unleash power that I didn't have before."

"It's okay, Austin. You don't have to go to the battlefield anymore. Oh, God. I missed you so much!" I cried and laughed. I stretched out my legs and wrapped them around his waist. "Cum inside me, babe!"

Austin's eyes rolled to the back of his head and I felt his sperm spurt inside me. After catching our breaths for a moment, I struggled to sit up and began to run my fingers across his old wounds. The more scars I touched, the more distressed I felt. I bent over and kissed his wounds.

"Don't leave me again, okay?"

"Never, babe." Austin wiped my tears gently. "My beautiful girl, don't cry. We should be happy!"

I nodded and smiled at him mischievously. "Time for another round, honey. Or are you tired?"

In response, Austin lowered his head and put my nipple in his mouth. "What do you take me for? Some weakling?"

Then Austin pressed me against the bed and continued to make passionate love to me.

Jennifer's POV:

Last night, I talked with my brother for a little bit after Skylar's call and then went back to my room. Not long after, Anthony arrived. We both got in bed together to get a good night's sleep. The following morning, when I awoke, I found that I was alone in bed.

I rubbed the sleep from my eyes and asked a maid, "Where's Anthony?"

The maid replied respectfully, "Mrs. Jones, Mr. Jones left to prepare for the banquet. Today, he plans to hold a big banquet in the royal palace, and all the elders and aristocrats will be there."

I nodded and asked the maid to leave. I understood what was going on.

Anthony wanted to celebrate the signing of the peace treaty. He probably also wanted to reward Austin for his bravery.

It was indeed an important event, so I quickly got out of bed and freshened up. As the queen of this kingdom, I needed to dress up accordingly and attend the banquet.

I sat down at my vanity and asked some maids to help me with my make-up. Just then, my phone buzzed. It was a text from Skylar.

"Hi, Jennifer! I'm doing okay here in the vampires' castle, so you don't need to worry about me."

Reading this, I felt as though a weight had been lifted off of my shoulders. If Skylar could still text me like this, it meant that at least the vampire king didn't restrict her freedom.

"Okay, thanks for the update. Be careful over there. Tell me if anything happens. Hugs!" I replied with a smiling emoji.

It took me a while to get dressed for the banquet. I not only wore a new customized dress, but also wore the red diamond ring that Anthony had gifted me before. When I was finally ready, the banquet was about to begin.

The maids escorted me to the banquet hall. Just as I was about to ask where Anthony was, he suddenly showed up, carrying a bunch of roses in his arms.

"My beautiful queen, I have a gift for you." Anthony smiled and took out a delicately decorated brocade box from under the flowers.

"Wow!" I couldn't help but gasp in surprise. "What's this?"

"Open it, honey." Anthony smiled and winked at me mysteriously.

I obeyed and opened the box. Inside lay a whole set of pink diamond jewelry. It matched my red diamond ring perfectly.

"Do you like it? I specifically asked someone to look for this set at a jewelry exhibition. I figured it'd look good with your red diamond ring." Anthony picked up the jewelry box carefully.

"They're beautiful, Anthony. Thank you!" Then, I turned to a maid beside me and smiled. "Please keep it for me. I'll wear it another time."

"Shall we go to the banquet hall now?" Anthony held up his arm and asked gently.

I nodded and slipped my arm into his. Together, we walked to the banquet hall. The venue was already brimming with werewolves. When Anthony and I showed up at the entrance, there was a burst of cheers in the hall.

"Long live the king! Long live the queen!"

"It's time to make a speech," Anthony said to me with a wink. Then he walked onstage, while I sat in the front seat, looking at him with a bright smile.

"First of all, thank you all for coming." Anthony's tone was rather serious. "I wanted to take this opportunity to announce to everyone that we werewolves have successfully signed a peace treaty with the vampires that will last for fifty years!"

As soon as Anthony finished speaking, the audience burst into cheers again.

"Oh, my God! That's wonderful news! Long live the king! Cheers to this era of peace!"

"Our king is awesome! Long live the king!"

"But I also want to say that I am not the protagonist of today's banquet." Anthony raised his hand to silence the crowd. "Since vampires began to invade our territory, many packs have been attacked and many families were left broken. It's thanks to our soldiers who fought at the front line that we held out until the end. Without them, we wouldn't have been able to reach an agreement with the vampires. And the one who led these soldiers is today's main character. Everyone, please welcome—Austin!"

The audience burst into thunderous applause. I also clapped my hands happily. Anthony was right!
