

Chapter 563 The Final Battle

Emma's POV:

I doubted I'd ever forget what I witnessed this day. This was the most important moment in my life—the battle between Jennifer and Night Demon.

Darwin's curse trapped me and tied me around a tree. I couldn't move a muscle or speak a word. I could only listen to the conversation between Jennifer and Darwin. Jennifer bared her teeth angrily as Darwin told her about his past with Miya.

"What the fuck do you know? Miya is dead!" Darwin screamed hysterically. The pain in his voice was so tangible that even I felt stunned when I heard it. How desperate he was! It was as if his poor soul was consumed with sadness and hurt.

"Miya was such a kind girl. She didn't deserve to die like that. I have to bring her back to life, even if it means I will become a demon." Darwin burst into crazed tears. I had never seen a man cry so sadly.

"Miya is dead. I don't give a damn about kindness and justice anymore. I'm just a demon, hungry for revenge! After all, you have no idea what it feels like to lose your beloved, Jennifer." Darwin looked at Jennifer with the smile of a madman. "What would you do if you lost Anthony? If you had the chance to bring your deceased lover back to life, what would you do?"

Hearing this question from Darwin, I couldn't help but hold my breath and look at Jennifer expectantly.

She was standing in front of Darwin under the moonlight. Even though she was a mess, she was still devastatingly beautiful. Her eyes shone even brighter than the moon. Without a trace of fear on her face, she locked eyes with Darwin firmly.

"I'd choose to live a good life for his sake." Jennifer enunciated each word carefully. "I wouldn't hurt anyone in the name of love. My love for Anthony is between us and us alone, and I wouldn't get anyone else involved. If Miya was still alive, she would've hated you to the core, Darwin. Although you've made many mistakes, it's not too late to stop now!"

"Humph! Easy for you to say—your lover still lives. But not for long. I'll kill Anthony and see if you will stay true to your word!" Smiling cruelly, Darwin raised his hand. He was going to use the curse again.

I was so scared that my body started to tremble. I struggled madly, trying to warn Jennifer, but I couldn't.

"No!" Without hesitation, Jennifer rushed towards Darwin like a bolt of lightning.

I was totally stunned by what I was witnessing. When did Jennifer become so powerful? I knew that the queen was very strong, but she wasn't a lycan. However, just now, she displayed an astonishing amount of power before my very eyes. Even Darwin was taken aback and had to retreat.

Jennifer's claws glinted under the moonlight. As they arced in the air, whistling sounds could be heard, which told me that her claws were as sharp as blades.

"How are you so powerful?" Darwin also looked shocked, but he immediately came to his senses and took out his wand. "But it doesn't matter. You're still mere flesh and bones!"

As he spoke, he pointed his wand at Jennifer. In the blink of an eye, a bolt of lightning burst out from the tip of the wand, shooting straight at Jennifer.

Oh, my God! I was so scared that I instinctively squeezed my eyes shut. Jennifer was doomed this time.

"Fuck off, you bastard!"

Unexpectedly, I didn't hear any screams of pain. Instead, I heard Jennifer's voice.

When I opened my eyes, I couldn't believe what I saw. Jennifer was completely unscathed.

"Impossible!" Darwin stepped back, his eyes wide in shock. I could hear the slight tremble in his voice. "How are you still alive? I just used black magic on you. This is unbelievable."

Jennifer continued to approach Darwin, one step at a time. Smiling faintly, she goaded him, "Is it really so unbelievable, Darwin? Are you sure it's not because your black magic is simply no match for me? The thing is, I think you were mistaken ever since the beginning. Black magic is nothing compared to the kind of magic I use—I don't even have to cast any spells. Even though I'm not a witch, I can still use this magic and it's more powerful than black magic!"

"That's impossible! No magic is more powerful than black magic!" Darwin shouted angrily and continued to wield his wand, casting curses on Jennifer. "Gouge out her eyes and her heart!"

But Jennifer just stood there, unmoving. Every time the light from the wand reached her, it'd explode like a firework and fizzle to the ground, leaving Jennifer unharmed.

What the hell was going on?

"Darwin, you and Miya used to have this kind of magic." Jennifer's expression softened somewhat as she spoke. "It's love. True love can overcome everything, including death! Moon Goddess will bless true love, and her radiance can overcome all the evil barriers in the world. Darwin, I have the magic of true love. Moon Goddess gave me this power!"

After saying that, Jennifer pounced on Darwin and let out a blood-curdling roar.

"Go to hell, Night Demon!"

Darwin also roared angrily. Seeing that his black magic couldn't work on Jennifer, he put his wand away and bared claws of his own.

"I can't lose. I have to bring Miya back!"

The two of them collided mid-air, biting and fighting each other like crazy. The fierce fight soon raised dust all over the sky, blocking my view of the situation.

Still, I could hear the sounds of claws penetrating flesh, and the smell of blood was thick in the air.

"Mrs. Jones, you have to win! Moon Goddess, please bless Mrs. Jones. Both she and Mr. Jones are the leaders of the werewolves. They're powerful, kind, and intelligent. They deserve your protection. If love is really magic, please give me the power to get out of my bonds!"

I closed my eyes and prayed to Moon Goddess with all my heart.

"Bitch, you're dead meat! I'll kill you!"

All of a sudden, the clouds of dust dissipated slightly. I heard Darwin's voice not far away. I opened my eyes and found that he had lost his left arm and was kneeling on one knee.

Seeing this, I got excited. Did this mean that Jennifer won?

But before I could celebrate, I saw Jennifer's figure behind Darwin. She, too, was seriously injured and bleeding profusely, a puddle of blood forming from where she stood.

Tears welled up in my eyes.

"Moon Goddess, please let me help Mrs. Jones. Also, I hope you can also help Darwin. Let him not be blinded by his hatred anymore. Please, Moon Goddess..."

When I heard my own voice, I was stunned. I could speak now!

I tried stretching out my limbs, and to my surprise, I found that the force that had imprisoned me disappeared without a trace. Moon Goddess must have heard my prayer.

I was ecstatic and wanted to rush into the battlefield to help, but when I saw the two bloodied figures, I couldn't help but take a step back. I wasn't a fighter. If I approached rashly, I would only drag Jennifer down. But I couldn't just watch and do nothing.

Suddenly, I thought of Anthony.

I had to find him. There had to be a reason why Jennifer and Anthony were separated.

Thinking of this, I crouched behind the big tree and rolled on the ground to transform into a wolf. "Let's go and find Anthony!"
