

Overbearing 1201

Chapter 1201: Big Black and White Phoenix II

The Mu family's gate was blocked by the impenetrable crowd, so thick was the crowd that not even a single fly could fly out.

At the forefront of the crowd was a good-looking young girl with soft features and a stunning figure.

She seemed even more heroic in the armor she was wearing. Compared to her usual look, she seemed like a completely different person.

Standing next to the young girl was a middle-aged man with a handsome and masculine face. His cold eyes were staring straight at the closed gate.

Like the Luo family, this old master of the Mu family... Was also Gu Shi's dog! He had even led a group of people to fight him.

He had caught Luo Fei from the Luo family, and now all that was left was this Mu family!

Once the Mu family fell, Gu Shi would be left all alone without anyone to help him!

Suddenly...

The tightly closed gate of the Mu family opened.

The old master Mu who now was in good health took a step forward.

He was like a big tree, blocking the gate and blocking out the crowd for the Mu family behind him.

Suyi and the old butler came and stood behind the old master Mu on each of his sides.

Just three people, facing countless enemies in front of them.

"Qin Li, Qin Fei'er!" The old master Mu glanced at the people present fiercely. "Oh, there is also the Xiao family from one of the four major clans of Tian Shen Manor, and the ten small clans."

Besides the four major clans, there were also ten smaller clans in Tian Shen Manor.

The funny thing was that nowadays, besides him and Luo Fei, no one seemed to be on Gu Shi's side.

"Mu Ling, Gu Shi is too preoccupied with his life while Luo Fei has been caught again. You are the only one left now! I'll give you a chance if you hand over Nan Xian and Feng Ruqing as well as that rebel son, Qin Chen, to me. I'll also offer you a chance to join the Qin family."

Qin Li straightened his posture and lifted his head haughtily.

The old master Mu laughed coldly. "I've never bowed down to anyone in my life, and it will still be the same now! Nan Xian is my grandson, Ruqing is my granddaughter-in-law, and Qin Chen has nothing to do with your Qin family since long ago, so why are you asking me to hand them over to you?"

"Oh, I forgot..." Qin Li continued, "Feng Ruqing and Nan Xian are looking for that dead girl from the Gu family, and nobody knows whether they are alive or dead. It's impossible for you to hand them over. Well, What about handing over Nan Xian's mother to me, and the rift between us will be over!"

The old master Mu did not utter a single word but remained cold.

There was no wind, but a fierce storm surging up around him, making the entire sky seem colder.

“Qin Li, I’ve chosen to come out today, which means that I’m ready to fight you all the way!”

Boom!

The old master’s energy surged out of him, pulling the trees in the surroundings from their roots, and toward Qin Li and the others.

Dark dragon’s roar sounded on an island outside Tian Shen Manor. He could not hold back his tears, crying so hard that tears fell like rain.

“We’ve finally found a place!”

One year!

They had wandered the seas for a whole year!

Those spirit beasts in the sea were useless as they could not even find a place for him. In the end, he and the white phoenix had to walk through countless islands to find this place.

Dark dragon’s tears flowed down again as he thought about Feng Ruqing, whom he had not seen for over a year. He moved around fast in the sky and soon transformed into a young and handsome man, walking slowly with tears of joy.

Chapter 1202: Big Black and White Phoenix III

The white phoenix was in tears too. Initially, it wanted to use the dark dragon to help it find the route and dump him later, but it never expected to spend a year searching for it!

“Oh, Suyi, I can finally meet you. Oh, I have missed you so much...”

One year.

One day of not seeing here felt like three years. Now, could one count how many years did it feel like they had not seen each other?

They were rarely separated from the moment they had met, let alone one year apart!

“It’s all your fault. You don’t even know the way out, causing me and Suyi to be apart for one year. And I don’t know if my Suyi is being bullied by that bastard Mu Ling or not!” The white phoenix wiped the tears from its eyes and glared at the dark dragon.

The dark dragon laughed coldly. “You still have the nerve to blame me? This whole year, have you done something else besides eating? When did I not look for a way out? If I had known that you didn’t even know the way, I wouldn’t have taken a burden like you.”

The white phoenix sighed and retorted defiantly. "You talk as if you hadn't eaten the chicken drumsticks that I've stolen before. You claim to have a spirit body, and that you don't need to eat anything. If so, don't ever touch my chicken drumsticks again!"

The dark dragon was speechless.

Had it not been for Little Nine, he would definitely have killed this white phoenix.

The young man did not pay more attention to the crying white phoenix. He wiped the tears from his face, grunted coldly, and headed forward in haughty steps.

"Big Black, wait! You haven't told me yet, how did you transform?" The white phoenix hurriedly chased after him. "I've to be human as soon as possible so that I can pursue Suyi. I won't let that bastard make the first move. Suyi is mine, and no one can touch her!"

Although Suyi had not approved it yet, it had always thought Suyi was its woman.

The white phoenix was different from that bastard.

It would love only Suyi for the rest of its life!

Tian Shen Manor was quite big.

In a small city not far away from Heavenly City, Feng Tianyu stopped in his tracks as he heard the crowd's discussion.

"I heard that the Qin family has imprisoned the Luo family and is now trying to get rid of the Mu family."

"Isn't the Luo family the right-hand man of the Gu family? Why is Gu Shi doing nothing when Luo Fei is imprisoned?"

"I'm not sure about this either. I just heard others talking about it. Gu Shi seems to have run into something too, and I'm not sure what those things are... By the way, do you think the old master of the Mu family will be taken away like Luo Fei?"

"Initially, Luo Fei and the Qin family were going to be in-laws, but unexpectedly they have ended up becoming enemies to each other. By the way... The Qin family hates the Mu family because they have taken away the Qin family's adopted son. I wonder what the Mu family has said to that ungrateful boy, giving him the nerve to rebel against the Qin family."

"If the Qin family had not saved that ungrateful boy in the first place, will he still be alive today? He's willing to bite the hand that feeds him, so no wonder the Qin family is so furious."

"I've also heard that Qin Fei'er cares so much about that ungrateful boy since he was a child, giving him all kinds of good things, and treating him as her own brother. But who knew that boy would hurt her just because of another woman. Tsk-tsk, it's all karma!"

"That ungrateful boy... His name is Qin Chen, right? In my opinion, the old master of the Mu family isn't any better either. They're all a bunch of people who deserve to die!"

Nalan Yan's footsteps were a bit unsteady. She stumbled a few times and almost fell to the ground. Luckily, Feng Tianyu had noticed it and quickly wrapped his arms around her.

Chapter 1203: Qin Chen I

"When Qing'er came to fetch me, I have met Qin Chen at the Tang family's house..." Nalan Yan's face was pale. "I was quite fond of that kid back then. Although he had a cold personality, I could tell, just by looking at him, that he was a good kid."

Feng Tianyu remained silent, tightening his arms around Nalan Yan's trembling body.

"Jiu Ming has told us that within Tian Shen Manor, only the adopted son from the Qin family came from an unknown background... It is more likely that he is our child. I believe what Paramount says."

"Yan'er..."

"But how can it be Qin Chen? How can it be him?"

If Qin Chen was her child...

It meant that... All this time, her child was standing in front of her, and she did not even recognize him.

These people claimed that Qin Chen was an ungrateful son, but since the first meeting, she could see that Qin Chen was not like what they had said!

That was impossible!

Nalan Yan tightened her grip on Feng Tianyu's hand. "How far is this place from Tian Shen Manor? I want to go to Tian Shen Manor right now. I want to see him! Now, now!"

Whether Qin Chen was her child or not, she would never... Let him encounter any danger!

She felt that Qin Chen could easily get her attention, and she had grown somewhat fond of him. At that time, considering that Qin Chen was Qing'er's friend, she had thought that it was natural for her to have such feelings.

She had never thought otherwise.

In her mind, since her son and her daughter were born at the same time, they should look a little bit alike. And for this reason, she simply ignored all the doubts that she had back then.

"Yan'er, don't worry. He'll be fine, and so will the in-laws. We need to rush to the Mu family now."

Feng Tianyu's expression was cold and sullen. It was as if a violent storm was going to explode inside his eyes.

Hopefully... They could arrive in time.

Mu Manor, Heavenly City.

A whirl of strong wind blew into Qin Li's sleeve and collided with the old master Mu's energy in the air. A loud bang echoed in the sky and sent those of lower-tier flying out.

Qin Li's sleeves were torn to pieces, and a thin line of blood dripped from the corner of his mouth. He wiped it off with the back of his hand and looked up at the calm old man in the void.

Compared to that Luo Fei of the Luo family, this old master of the Mu family was too powerful, and it was not easy to go against his strength!

Therefore, when the old master Mu was about to rush forward again, Qin Li had already taken a few steps backward and sneered.

Boom!

A figure dressed in green flashed through the air, blocking Qin Li's face.

The young woman lifted her sleeves and blocked all the forces that came from the old master Mu's sudden attack, deflecting it to him.

A powerful force blasted into the old master's chest. He snorted and spat out a mouthful of blood, falling backward before landing on the steps.

"Old Master!"

"Master!"

Suyi and the old butler's expressions changed drastically. They rushed toward the old master and lifted his trembling body.

The old master's face was pale as he stared at Qin Fei'er with a serious look.

"Fei'er, kill this old thief of the Mu family!" Qin Li sneered and laughed coldly.

So what if this old bastard of the Mu family was better than him? That old man had lost to his daughter.

A few moments later, Qin Fei'er still did not make any move. Her hands were clenched into fists, and her face seemed to be somewhat in discomfort. Her forehead was already covered in cold sweats and her lips were slightly pale.

Chapter 1204: Qin Chen II

"Fei'er?" Qin Li frowned and asked again.

Qin Fei'er took a deep breath, gradually regaining some calmness as she said, "I'm fine. It's just that when I arrived here, I think about the humiliation that I have once suffered in the Mu family, I just can't hold it back anymore."

"Seriously? Are you alright?"

Qin Li was vaguely uneasy. Recently, Qin Fei'er seemed to have aged a lot, so he must be sure that there was nothing wrong with her body. After all, the Qin family would have to rely on her strength now. He could not bear it if anything happened to her.

“Yes,” Qin Fei’er responded softly. She clutched her chest as her eyes fell again upon the Mu family’s gate.

For some reason, when she had used her spirit power just now, she felt like her heart was on fire, and the pain was unbearable. But for the Qin family’s sake... And to not lose her dignity in front of her family again, regardless of how painful her heart felt, she had to bear it!

“Suyi... Cough! Cough!” The old master had already stood up, but his health was not as fairly good as before, and his steps were even a bit shaky. “This war is unavoidable. I only ask you for one thing, when I’m not around anymore, I hope that... You can manage the Mu family for me.”

Suyi lifted the old master’s arm. “Old Master, you...”

“I knew that the Mu family’s collaterals aren’t all good, but... Not all of them are bad, such as Elder Zhang, who guarded the spirit herb chamber, and Mu Zhong, the head of the imperial guard back then... And those old people who have been driven out since I became ill...”

“The Mu family’s empire has survived for over a thousand years, and I don’t want the Mu family to be destroyed. But I believe that as long as someone is still alive, there is always hope for the Mu family to rebuild! You and Nan Xian... Are the hope of the Mu family!”

The old master’s heart was like a clear mirror. Mu Qingyin’s was too naive and unsuitable to manage the Mu family. Suyi was not vicious enough, but she had a son, Nan Xian...

Therefore, these few were the only people he could trust in the Mu family.

“Old Master, don’t be ridiculous. Who said you would die today? I’ll protect you and get you out of here.”

“Hahaha!” The old master was laughing so hard that his tears were rolling down his face. “I’ve never done anything evil in my life, and the only mistake that I’ve done was giving birth to that little bastard Mu Ling who has caused so many problems!”

If Mu Ling had not wanted Qin Fei’er to marry Nan Xian as his concubine, she would not have been so obsessed and would not have hated the Mu family to this extent.

In short, everything that happened was Mu Ling’s fault!

Old Master Mu pushed away Suyi’s hand and gradually walked toward Qin Fei’er firmly and steadily.

He was determined to fight until his last breath.

“Qin Fei’er, not only does my grandson not want to take you as his concubine, but I’m also disgusted by a woman like you. Feng Ruqing is my only granddaughter-in-law. If you keep pestering my grandson again, I won’t let you go even when I’ve become a ghost!”

Qin Fei’er had never been humiliated like this since she was a child. His face turned paler. She held the long sword on her hand and thrust it into the old master Mu’s body, sending him back a few steps.

Blood oozed from the old master Mu's chest, but he did not even frown. His gaze remained cold and stern.

Chapter 1205: Qin Chen III

Qin Fei'er once again felt the pain in her heart as if it was burning with fire. She could not help but grabbed her chest.

How could this be...

Why could she not use her spiritual powers anymore?

Was it because of the repercussion of that spirit herb?

No... Something was wrong. The repercussion of that spirit herb would only make her grow older, nothing more than that. She did not feel this pain before when she defeated Luo Fei and fought with Gu Shi.

Suddenly... Something flashed in Qin Fei'er's mind, which seemed to fill her face even more discomfort.

She had been fine until today.

The only thing that she had done today was consumed the last drug primer that Qin Chen had left behind.

No, it was impossible! Even if Qin Chen wanted to leave the Qin family, he would not do this to her since she was so good to him. She must have had the wrong assumption!

Qin Fei'er calmed herself and walked toward the old master Mu. She then looked at Suyi, who was sympathetically standing in front of the old master Mu.

"Aunt Su, initially, you would have been my mother-in-law. It's a pity that... You've chosen that wicked woman Feng Ruqing rather than me..."

"You've pushed away my kindness and my gentleness, and driven me away! I, Qin Fei'er, have been treating people with kindness all my life, but Feng Ruqing and Gu Yiyi have been targeting me relentlessly. They didn't allow me to be a concubine in the Mu family, and they have even taken my brother from me.

"We are irreconcilable enemies!"

Qin Fei'er's eyes were bloodshot.

Her good manners, kindness, and gentleness were all gone because of these people.

They had turned her into a demon!

Her energy suddenly became stronger, and even if her heart was burning, she no longer cared about it. She stared coldly at the crowd in front of her with her pair of crimson eyes.

The ambiance became eerier. The wind was so gusty that even the sunshine in the sky had suddenly disappeared.

The sound of killing and shouting sounded from behind her. Suyi looked up and saw a group of young men and women holding sharp weapons, killing people from the back of the crowd.

Those... Were the orphans whom she had adopted back then.

After twenty years, these children had grown up...

Suyi's face was filled with tears and her lips trembled as she was rendered speechless.

"I've only been gone for a few days now, and I've heard about the change in Heavenly City."

An old, fragile voice thundered in the sky.

"Little Suyi, something big has happened, why didn't you tell me?"

Hai Rong walked out of the void, standing with one hand behind his back and smiling. "Perhaps this time, it is because I have been alone for too many years that it is rare to meet such an unforgettable friend in this condition. How can I sit back and do nothing?"

"Besides..." Hai Rong smiled. "I still want to get some recipe for the herbal dish from Little Qing, so I can't leave you here alone."

Suyi suddenly burst out laughing.

Hai Rong had purposely said those things as he was afraid she would feel guilty.

After all, life was more important than the herbal dish's recipe...

Sending charcoal in the snow was better than adding flowers to a brocade.

Qin Li's face did not even twitch when she was faced with these unexpected people. "No matter how many people will come today, all of you still won't have a good ending. Fei'er, ignore these people. Let's settle the Mu family and head to Tian Shen Manor."

"Alright."

Qin Fei'er lifted her sleeves, and a wave of boundless energy fiercely swept out like a violent storm, emitting a heavy aura.

Chapter 1206: Qin Chen IV

"Lady Suyi, Master, be careful!" The old butler was so shocked. He disregarded his own safety and rushed toward his masters, shielding them from the attack of the raging storm.

Suyi did not dodge the attack. She placed herself in front of this powerful force. The old master had suffered a severe injury just now, and she could not bear to just let the old master die...

Hai Rong did not expect Qin Fei'er would suddenly strike out of anger.

The orphans cried out in pain, and their eyes were all red.

Boom...

The boundless power was like a gigantic dragon, devouring the three little shrimps that were floating in the air above the sea.

Everyone believed that Suyi and the old master would not be able to avoid the impact even after the old butler had placed himself shielding them.

Qin Li guffawed boisterously.

‘That’s what happens when you pick the wrong team!’

The clans that followed Qin Li were glad that they had made the right choice. Even the old master of the Mu family was no match for Qin Fei’er, let alone them.

Among the people present, some were angry, some were grieved, and some were glad.

But all the emotions disappeared when the storm was over.

The sun appeared in the sky again.

Suyi was still standing on the steps and was supporting the old master with a cold, expressionless gaze.

Qin Li’s laughter stopped abruptly, and without waiting for him to ask about her, Qin Fei’er spat a mouthful of blood. Her body seemed somewhat weak. She staggered and almost fell to the ground.

“Fei’er!” Qin Li was so shocked that he quickly ran to Qin Fei’er and held her arm, asking anxiously, “What is wrong with you?”

“I....”

Qin Fei’er covered her chest with her hands. Her voice wavered, and she gritted her teeth to keep herself from crying out.

At this moment, a cold voice suddenly sounded, freezing the surrounding atmosphere.

“I know what has happened to her.”

To the Qin family, this voice was very familiar.

Qin Li’s eyes reddened. He slowly raised his head and stared hard at the young man who had emerged from behind the crowd.

The young man’s face was handsome, and his black robe made him look even more stunning. His gaze was still as clear as water but it was not as bright as before. His aura was chilling to the bones, causing the people present to shiver in fear.

“Qin Chen!” Qin Li’s face darkened. “You finally have the guts to show yourself?”

The young man walked slowly toward the Mu family without sparing a glance at Qin Li.

Suyi felt much better after she saw the young man. “Didn’t you go to the chief manor to help Gu Shi? Why did you come back? We’ll be fine here. It’s hard for Nan Xian to come back if they don’t have someone out there to help them.”

“He has almost recovered from his injury, and he has enough strength to stand guard outside the realm. I came back... To settle my own affairs.”

There were some things... Some debts... He had to deal with...

It was she who had taught him... No more patience, vengeance must be exacted!

Perhaps it was the girl's stunning smile that came to Qin Chen's mind again, softening him a little. A smile that was as bright as sunshine appeared on his handsome face.

But to Qin Fei'er, it felt like a thorn poking at her heart.

Qin Fei'er stood up straight but was trembling. Her grief-stricken gaze was fixed upon Qin Chen when she asked, “Qin Chen, tell me. Are you the one who has done this to me?”

Chapter 1207: Qin Chen V

The stern-faced young man looked at Qin Fei'er coldly.

His expression was cold and distant as if he had never smiled at her in the past.

She had always cared for him, but it still could not touch his cold heart.

“Isn't he the ungrateful kid from the Qin family? He's really choosing to stand by the Mu family.”

“All these years, the Qin family had fed and brought up a dog, raising such an ungrateful kid. Now, he is even giving up his adoptive father and mother just because of another woman.”

“He has not given it much thought. Without the Qin family, he's nothing and would have starved to death back then on the streets.”

“But I heard Maiden Qin said just now, something has happened to her body, and it was Qin Chen who did it? If this matter has something to do with him, that ungrateful kid is not as simple as that. That wicked kid deserves to die!”

Initially, those families were silent, only obeying the Qin family's orders. But since Qin Chen appeared, these people sneered, and their eyes turned cold.

Qin Chen walked slowly toward the Qin family.

“Qin Fei'er, I will only ask you once. Do I, Qin Chen, owe anything to the Qin family?”

Qin Fei'er's body trembled. She clenched her fists and had trouble breathing.

Facing Qin Chen had always softened her a little, even after Qin Chen had turned his back on the Qin family... But his question had suddenly made her silent.

Qin Li laughed coldly. “Of course you owe the Qin family. All these years, we've raised you well, yet you repay us with betrayal. It's better to raise a dog than you!”

Qin Chen's face was cold, sullen, and expressionless. Her gaze gave them a chill.

“I don't care who I am, and I don't care about the Qin family. The moment you used my blood as a drug primer for Qin Fei'er, I don't owe the Qin family anymore. It's you who owe me!”

These words... He would never have been able to say it back then.

He had never exposed the secret about him adopted by the Qin family to the world, and even Feng Ruqing...

Because the world would not believe him, and Feng Ruqing... Would have grieved.

Fortunately, Qing'er was not here. And now, he did not care if these people believed him or not as he only wanted to get a clear conscience!

"Qin Chen!" Qin Fei'er's face turned pale, and she bellowed imperiously, "Do you know what you're talking about?"

She was his sister!

How could he... Expose the most important secret of the Qin family in front of so many people!

Qin Chen stopped and stared at Qin Fei'er coldly.

"When I was ten years old, I couldn't bear it anymore and had run from the Qin family. Your body has recovered quite a bit back then, and the Qin family didn't even look for me, a useless kid!

"It was not until your condition relapsed again that the Qin family had immediately started looking for my whereabouts.

"I have long experienced great hardship and faced a lot of insults. In the past few years, even though I had suffered a lot, it was better than becoming a drug primer in the Qin family. And everything has changed after I met Feng Ruqing...

"She made me feel at home and made me understand what family and friends are. I once lived for the Qin family, but now, I, Qin Chen... Only live for Feng Ruqing!"

Qin Chen was a cold and quiet person. He did not care if others called him an ungrateful kid.

Chapter 1208: Qin Chen VI

However...

He did not want to hear any more insults about Feng Ruqing.

He wanted to expose the Qin family's fake niceness in front of everyone. Even if all the people present were from the Qin family, he wanted to make it clear that Feng Ruqing had never done anything wrong!

"Then why did you come back?" Qin Fei'er's face reflected discomfort. She was staring hard at the handsome young man.

Qin Chen's gaze somewhat drifted off before he smiled and said, "Because of Qingqing."

Qin Fei'er froze as she could not understand what he meant.

"Didn't you want to be Nan Xian's concubine? I hate Nan Xian. I hate anyone who's close to Feng Ruqing. But for me, as long as Feng Ruqing is happy, I will never let anyone hinder her happiness.

"So... I'm back!"

Qin Fei'er's eyes narrowed with anger, and her face was as pale as paper as she thought about the changes in her body.

"My body... Is it really your fault?"

"Yes. I've consumed all the herbs that I need after returning here. I've also learned much about all sorts of herbs from Feng Ruqing. So... I didn't offer my blood."

There was nothing wrong with being honest. But a person should not be too honest, especially with some people who did not deserve it.

He finally understood these words after he met Feng Ruqing.

"Initially, when using my blood, I only needed to add a spirit herb to make it work. However, I've promised Qingqing that I would not harm myself again. So I took one of the Qin family's spirit beasts and used its blood with few colorless and tasteless spirit herbs."

The Qin family had grounded the spirit beasts, but some of them were still untamed. And the Qin family had trusted Qin Chen too much that they did not restrict his freedom to walk around freely.

There were plenty of opportunities for Qin Chen to do that.

"I was right in my calculation. A total of twenty drug primers will make you unable to use your spiritual power. Initially, I wanted to see you drink those twenty times before leaving the Qin family. So, it seems that you have consumed the last drug primer today."

Every time Feng Ruqing was mentioned, Qin Chen's smile became as bright as sunshine, which was something that Qin Fei'er had never seen before.

Qin Fei'er's voice trembled. "Why? If that's the case, why did you leave the Qin family again?"

"Because..." Qin Chen paused. "My Qingqing has come to me and asked me to follow her. If I insisted on staying in the Qin family, she should be most embarrassed. I could not let her lose her face in front of other people. I will follow her whenever she asks me to."

Qin Fei'er's legs weakened, but she forced herself to hold on.

Her face turned paler, and her eyes were filled with grief. She never thought that her brother whom she had loved the most would maltreat her.

Suyi handed the old master to the old butler and walked slowly toward Qin Chen.

By rights, as Nan Xian's mother, she should be worried when Qin Chen expressed his feelings toward Feng Ruqing.

However...

What had happened to Qin Chen was so heartbreaking.

“Qin Chen, the Qin family has made you suffer and called you as an ungrateful kid. You have made the right choice leaving the Qin family. If you don’t mind, you can consider me as your mother. Besides, Nan Xian also needs a little brother to be with him.”

There was an expression of sympathy on Suyi’s cold face. She gently patted Qin Chen’s back and let out a sigh.

‘All these things... It seems like Qing’er doesn’t know yet.’

Otherwise, Qing’er would have already annihilated the Qin family because she cared so much for Qin Chen.

Chapter 1209: Qin Chen VII

“Qin Chen...” Qin Li’s face was cold and fierce as he bellowed, “Don’t ever forget, without the Qin family, you would have lost your life a long time ago. Your father and your mother didn’t want you at all. It was the Qin family that has picked you up, given you such an honorable status, and raised you well for so many years. Becoming the drug primer for Fei’er is a chance for you to return the favor. Who are you to question us?”

If Qin Fei’er was not in pain, Qin Li would have made her attack those people again. But in this situation, he had to allow her to recover first.

After all, that old master of the Mu family had always been strong.

The flunkies behind the Qin family looked at each other with a mocking gaze before they turned to Qin Chen.

“What Master Qin said is true. The Qin family has saved your life. Forget about becoming a drug primer, you should not even think twice about sacrificing your life at their behest.”

“Why are people nowadays so ungrateful? If all men are like you, no one in this world will dare to be kind again.”

“Qin Chen, if I were you, I would never bite the hand that feeds me! God is watching your every move, and you’ll always get what’s coming to you!”

Suyi had never seen such a shameless person before. She was unable to remain calm, and so she coldly shouted, “Enough! Did Xiao Chen ever beg the Qin family to adopt him? With the kindness the Qin family thought they had, maybe he didn’t need it! If he could have made a choice back then, he would have rather died in the middle of nowhere than enter a place like Qin Manor.”

Suyi did not know how it to be a drug primer, but when a young child would rather run away from home than stay with the Qin family who had raised him, she could assume that... The process must be so painful for him!

If Qin Chen was given another chance, he would surely have chosen to die back then, and would never have set his foot in a place that had grounded him for nearly twenty years!

“I’m fine...” The old master Mu pushed the old butler’s hand. His robe was stained with blood, but his pace was steady, and his gaze was stern and cold. “This is the first time in my life that I’ve met such a shameless person. Qin Li... I’ve always disliked you and your Qin family, so we’ll settle this today.

“God is watching your every move. These words are true indeed. But today, I’ll throw this phrase back to you!”

Old Master Mu laughed wildly, and the laughter echoed in the sky for a long time.

Boom!

A boundless power surged out violently. Qin Li panicked as he could feel the old master’s energy. He turned his head to Qin Fei’er.

“Fei’er, how’s it going? Do you want to try again?”

He did not believe that Qin Chen had the strength to do so; maybe he was just trying to scare them.

Qin Fei’er turned and faced the old master Mu. Her expression was calm again, and a violent storm slowly emerged, emitting a strong aura.

Before Qin Fei’er could use her spiritual power, another mouthful of blood spurted out from her mouth and her spiritual energy that had overpowered Master Mu just now disappeared completely.

The skies were calm again.

And even the atmosphere was different than before.

“No... I can’t do this...” Qin Fei’er bit down on her lower lip so hard that she could taste her own blood. Her eyes were red as she stared hard at Qin Chen. “How did you do that? What the hell have you done with the drug primer? Why are you doing this to me? Why?”

“You can tell me if you don’t want to be a drug primer. But you have never said anything, and I thought you were doing it of your own accord. I have never wanted to force you, but why did you do this to me?”

Qin Fei’er snarled at her last words, and her face was soaked in tears.

Chapter 1210: Everyone Has Arrived I

With Qin Fei’er condition now, even strangers would feel sympathy for her.

However...

Qin Chen was as calm as water and his face remained expressionless.

“Fei’er!” Qin Li hurriedly supported Qin Fei’er’s trembling body. His eyes were filled with anger as they stared fiercely at Qin Chen. “Qin Chen, you are such an ungrateful kid! It’s my fault in trusting you. You’re so ungrateful! I should not save your life in the first place!”

Boom!

A wave of strong forces suddenly surged out of his palm, transforming into countless sharp swords in the air before swiftly rushing toward Qin Chen...

Before the swords could reach the target, the old master Mu was already standing next to Qin Chen. He waved his sleeve, and all the swords in the air suddenly disappeared without a trace.

The old man's sleeves were swaying along with the breeze. The sky was getting dark, and his pale face turned more serious under the sunset. He stared at the Qin family and the group behind them coldly.

"Suyi is right. If you give this boy another chance, he would not have chosen to become a member of the Qin family, and the Qin family has no right to control his life!"

Boundless spiritual forces surged around the old master like a raging storm, constantly striking against them.

There was a big difference between Qin Li's power and the old master's after all. Qin Li quickly lifted his arm to resist the forces but failed. His body fell backward from this powerful storm, landing in the crowd behind him loudly and helplessly.

It seemed that Qin Li could not even block the old master's attack, and he felt so embarrassed about it. His face was somewhat pale with a trail of blood hanging from the corner of his mouth.

He raised his hand, wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth, and slowly rose from the ground.

"That's all that you've got?" Qin Li laughed out loud. He glanced at the person who had just emerged from behind the Mu family with a faint mocking smile. "So what if I can't beat you? After all, the chief position in Tian Shen Manor will be passed to another person soon. Hahaha!"

The sky was getting dark, and all the streets in Tian Shen Manor were dusky.

The old master Mu's eyes narrowed, and before he could understand what Qin Li had said just now, a peal of cold laughter suddenly resounded in his ears.

"So... Qin Chen is really such an ungrateful kid. Grandfather, I don't care what Master Qin is doing here. Qin Chen is from the Qin family, and if he wants to settle scores with him, as an outsider, it seems that you have no right to interfere."

Qin Li's eyes lit up as he glanced at Qin Chen gloomily.

"That's right, I'm going to clean up the sect. Qin Chen is from the Qin family, even if I kill him, you guys have no right to be nosy!"

He knew that because of Qin Chen, the rebellious son, Fei'er could not use her spiritual power anymore. And now there was no way they could continue fighting with the Mu family.

But Qin Chen was a member of the Qin family.

He had betrayed the Qin family and done such a thing. The Qin family wanted to kill him, so the outsiders had no right to interfere with their family matters.

“Mu Huan!” The old master Mu’s face changed drastically as he turned to Mu Huan furiously.

Mu Ling, who had come along with Mu Huan, froze as he did not expect Mu Huan to say that. He did not like Qin Chen, but now the real enemy of the Mu family was the Qin family!

‘Mu Huan... Why is she helping the Qin family?’

Indeed. Even a fool like Mu Ling could sense that there was something fishy with Mu Huan’s words. His face reflected discomfort as he came to his senses. “Mu Huan, you...”

“Shut up. You have no right to say anything here!”
