

Overbearing 1211

Chapter 1211: Everyone Has Arrived II

Mu Huan glanced fiercely at Mu Ling and slowly turned to Suyi again with her overbearing gaze.

“But... I’ll give you a chance. If you kowtow to my mother and admit your mistake, I’ll help you to save the boy.”

Suyi glanced at Mu Huan. Her white robe was as white as snow, and she looked simple but elegant against the evening sky.

“Oh...”

Her tone remained calm, and there was no sign of anger on her face. She then turned around to look at Qin Li.

“Qin Chen was just your adopted son, and I’ve decided to adopt him as my son. Now, he is not from the Qin family anymore, and later he will change his family name to ‘Nan’.”

Fortunately, Feng Tianyu was not here when Suyi said this. If he had known this, he would surely fight with her about it.

There was no doubt about it.

She had taken his daughter, and now his son. Did she plan to let him live all alone for the rest of his life?

Mu Huan let out a cold laugh as she had already known about Suyi’s plan. “It seems that your concern for Qin Chen is also hypocritical. My mother is different from you. With her kindness, she will definitely lay down her pride to save others. It is no wonder, only a selfish man like Mu Ling would love a hypocritical woman like you.”

Suddenly, the skilled masters, who were initially standing behind Mu Huan, made a move. They moved as fast as lightning, and in a flash, they were already rushing toward Suyi and the others.

Before this, Suyi and a few others had some difficulty facing Advanced Holy Warriors. If it were not for Qin Chen’s initial move, they would not have been able to easily subdue the Qin family.

Now...

Above them stood several Holy Warriors.

And two of them had even made a breakthrough to Advanced Holy Warrior tier!

The old master Mu’s face was filled with alarm and disbelief.

Suyi’s face remained calm, but her eyes were also full of caution.

“Suyi!”

Mu Ling was stunned and quickly rushed to Suyi’s side.

Just then, a familiar voice came from behind him...

“Mu Ling, you have to think carefully. Huan’er has brought those people, but if you go to defend Suyi, they will surely kill you too.”

Chen Qingyan laughed coldly and walked next to Mu Ling with a mocking smile.

Mu Ling froze as a flicker of hesitation flashed in his eyes.

Because of his hesitation, those people were already swooping toward Suyi, the old master Mu, and others.

The spiritual qi was like a monstrous wolf, and the sky was dimmed by the multiples strikes from the many Holy Warriors, setting off a vicious aura.

Suddenly, an angry roar of a phoenix thundered in the sky.

Suyi froze for a moment and hurriedly looked up in the sky.

She was distracted by this and did not dodge the attack from a man in front of her. She could only helplessly watch the fierce punch coming at her.

She had not felt such pain in such a long time...

Suyi then saw a flash of white light and a huge figure appearing in front of her, blocking out all the raging storms for her...

She spat a mouthful of blood, but the huge phoenix remained standing in front of Suyi. It had always loved to cry, but at this moment, its firm eyes were only filled with a monstrous fury.

“Don’t touch Suyi! No one can touch her!”

Because the person behind it was the only person whom it would try its best to protect and keep safe.

Chapter 1212: Everyone Has Arrived III

Twenty years ago, the day they first met.

Her body was battered and bruised, and she was with a child.

And it... Was abandoned, hiding alone in the mountain to heal its wounds.

Two beings with the same pain had met and since then, had spent countless difficult years together.

It would not let anyone hurt her!

Suyi deserved to enjoy all the beautiful things in this world.

The white phoenix’s body was trembling, not knowing if the wound was too painful or... Because it was panicking.

It could not imagine if it had arrived later and that punch had already hit Suyi, how could her delicate body withstand it?

Luckily... He was able to come on time, and Suyi did not get hurt...

“White Phoenix...”

Suyi could not remember the last time she had shed tears. It seemed as if she had not cried since she had left with Nan Xian.

Now, she could not stop her tears from flowing down as she saw the white phoenix standing in front of her.

The white phoenix panicked and quickly used its wings to wipe away her tears. "Suyi, you used to say that I love to cry, so why are you crying now? Don't cry. I'm really not in pain at all. I'm strong enough to protect Suyi, just like Nan Xian is protecting Qingqing."

"Who sent you here?" Suyi turned and asked.

The white phoenix pouted. "I have missed you, and I will go wherever Suyi goes. Nan Xian can pursue Little Qingqing, so I also can pursue you."

It felt that it was completely transparent with her, but Suyi did not understand it. She touched the white phoenix's head and said, "The world says that pets are clingy, so are you."

The white phoenix was speechless.

It was not a pet... No! This phoenix was going to be Nan Xian's father!

"Where's my Little Nine?"

A dragon's roar sounded in the sky. The dark dragon looked down from the sky anxiously, but there was no sign of the person he wanted to see.

"Where did that wild man hide my Little Nine? I also want to be a hero and rescue my Little Nine, but why didn't god give me that chance?"

White phoenix ignored the dark dragon's roar. It wiped Suyi's tears once again and said, "Suyi, Little Nine's parents are also here. We have met them during the journey, so we have come here together."

The white phoenix and the dark dragon were spirit beasts that could fly extremely fast after transforming. They just happened to run into Feng Tianyu and his wife, who were headed this way, so they had brought them along.

Suyi was stunned, and when she looked up, she saw the two of them standing on the dark dragon's back.

Nalan Yan could not take her eyes off of Qin Chen since she the first time she laid eyes on him, ignoring all the people around her...

Qin Chen also raised his head. His black eyes were fixed upon the two people on the dark dragon's back.

Thinking that they were Feng Ruqing's parents, his stern expression had gradually eased up.

Unfortunately, there was no time for them to chat. The skilled masters behind Mu Huan once again made a move, rushing toward Qin Chen and the others with an unstoppable force...

"Chen'er!" Nalan Yan's face changed drastically.

Feng Tianyu was even more furious. He jumped off the dark dragon's back and rushed toward Qin Chen.

The dark dragon looked at Qin Chen before he turned to Feng Tianyu and followed after him. He asked, "Aunt, who is that man?"

As the white phoenix had said, they were Little Nine's parents. Well, her parents were his parents too, and he wanted to show honor to them.

Chapter 1213: Feng Wuhui, Tian Ya I

Nalan Yan rushed down from the sky anxiously, but she still answered his question patiently as she seemed to like that dark dragon.

"He might be my missing son."

The black dragon was dumbfounded for a moment before roaring furiously.

'Nalan Yan's missing son... Isn't he Little Nine's brother?'

These bastards... How dare they bullied Little Nine's brother. It was the same as disrespecting Big Black!

'Damn!'

Big Black's overbearing momentum had somehow caused the boundless spiritual qi in the surrounding to surge violently before gathering at one spot.

Big Black was at the center of the spot.

Not only the crowd led by Qin Li were shocked, but the old master Mu and the others were also startled as they looked up at the dark dragon that was roaring in the sky...

A violent storm of spiritual qi surrounded it, and the sky was darkened as if it were the end of the world.

Indeed.

The scene shocked the crowd into silence.

No one knew what was happening.

They could only feel that the spiritual qi in the entire Heavenly City was converging toward Big Black, making him look even more terrifying.

Mu Huan was frightened. A look of shock flashed across her pale face as she gritted her teeth tightly. "Mother, if I told Lord Jia Xin about this... Would he capture this dark dragon for me?"

She did not know how strong this dark dragon was, but the violent storm formed from the powerful spiritual qi had almost scared her to death.

It was even more powerful than Gu Shi...

Therefore, Mu Huan had liked him from the first moment she saw the dark dragon and wanted him at all cost!

Mu Xi suddenly appeared out of nowhere.

He narrowed his eyes and looked at the dark dragon in the sky gloomily. His lips curved into a mocking smile when he heard Mu Huan's words.

"Lord Jia Xin loves you so much. If you ask for it, he will definitely agree."

Yes. In Tian Shen Manor, the only one who could subdue this dark dragon was Jia Xin!

And not even Gu Shi!

Mu Huan's stricken gaze was fixed upon the dark dragon, and nobody knew what she was thinking. She did not utter another word as her eyes were filled with determination.

At the back hill behind the chief manor.

Gu Shi was sitting on the grass. His face was a bit pale, and his body had not fully recovered from his injuries.

His gaze was still cast toward the barren land not far away as he waited in silence.

At the same time...

The spiritual qi around him was suddenly drained away by a powerful force.

He was surprised as he saw a tremendous force gathered in the sky and gradually forming a violent storm.

It was so powerful that... It could make people shake in fear.

"Manor Master."

Elder Zhang silently stood behind Gu Shi and asked, "The powerful force just now..."

"It's the surrounding spiritual qi!" Gu Shi's face darkened. "This world has been established for thousands of years, and during these years, there have always been creatures that have been transformed by the surrounding spiritual qi. These creatures can mobilize the spiritual qi at their will, and once these creatures have grown up, no one in this world can be their match."

Elder Zhang's heart shuddered. "Then... Will this cause harm to Tian Shen Manor?"

Gu Shi did not utter another word.

He remained in silence for quite a while before he started to speak again.

"Those who have been transformed by the surrounding spiritual qi are as pure as a child. If they follow those who do good, they will be good. But if they are subjugated by evil, they will be evil."

Chapter 1214: Feng Wuhui, Tian Ya II

Children are born pure, like a blank sheet of paper, whom they become is dependent on the parents who educate them.

For example... Chen Qingyan...

She was a woman who was as evil as her mother.

“Manor Master, now you tell me, is it good or evil?” Elder Zhang remained in silence for quite a while before he asked again.

Gu Shi shook his head. “I’m not sure, and I can’t think about other things right now. But... The surrounding spiritual qi is located at Mu Manor. I don’t know if someone from the Mu family has subjugated it, or... The Qin family has brought it with them.”

He was clear about the Qin family bringing someone to harm the Mu family, which was why he had asked Qin Chen to return there as he could guard this boundary on his own now.

“Elder Zhang, you can bring along our skilled masters to help. I’ll be fine here.”

“But, Manor Master, your body...” Elder Zhang looked worried.

The manor master and Qin Fei’er had fought back then. Qin Fei’er was unable to defeat the manor master, but he had still suffered some light injuries.

Perhaps the Qin family wanted to get rid of people who were protecting the chief manor first, which was why they had attacked the Luo family and the Mu family first.

“I’m fine... I’ll wait for Yiyi, Little Qing and the others here... You can help Master Mu, after all... The chief manor and the old master Mu are still in-laws, and that’s all I can do right now.”

The Qin family was right. He was too busy looking after himself.

In the battle two days ago, not only was he injured, but even the chief manor’s skilled masters had been killed and wounded.

The Qin family felt that he would not get anywhere, so they wanted to kill the others first...

“Cough!” Gu Shi coughed and sneered. “You should go. If you help the Mu family, it’s the same as giving a warning to Qin Li! I’m not seriously injured, so I can afford to send you to help them there. By this way, maybe we’ll have a chance... A chance to help Yiyi return now...”

He could not die!

If he died, Yiyi would never come back!

Half a year ago, he had discovered an ancient book by chance in the secret room in the chief manor.

It was from that ancient book that he had learned the origin of the boundary and the way to break the seal...

The people inside could not get out without help from the outside.

Therefore, he could only stay in the chief manor, and once they returned, he could go back to the battle!

Maybe...

Gu Shi was still hoping.

Besides Yiyi, Nan Xian was also trapped within the formation!

He was a man who had always made him sigh.

So... If they returned, the Qin family would never dare to be arrogant again.

Therefore, even though he was severely injured in that battle, he still managed to hold himself up in front of the Qin family as he was afraid that the Qin family would kill the manor master first. Otherwise, those people within the boundary would never be able to return...

“Manor Master!!!” Elder Zhang’s face was filled with worry.

Gu Shi laughed. “Hurry and go. I’m fine here. Master Mu is Yiyi’s future father-in-law, so I can’t just stand here and watch the Mu family fall. Even if we can’t do anything anymore, we must at least do our best to help him, do you understand?”

This was the only sincerity he could give.

If it were not for the need to guard the boundary of this place... He would have dragged his wounded body to fight the Qin family, but he could not do that now! He could not act so recklessly.

“Alright.”

Elder Zhang’s voice was rough and hoarse. He looked at Gu Shi, who was sitting on the ground as he wiped the tears from the corners of his eyes. He then turned around firmly and disappeared into the back of the mountain.

Chapter 1215: Feng Wuhui, Tian Ya III

Gu Shi was left alone again in the silent hills.

Bare and lonely.

“It’s been a year...” Gu Shi was in a trance. “Time has passed so quickly. I’ve never been apart from you for so long since your mother has passed away. After all, only you and I are left in this world, relying on each other.”

“I know you don’t want to get married. You couldn’t cultivate because of your own obese body back then, and now it’s too late to catch up. I have too many enemies in Tian Shen Manor. You only know countless people fear me, but you don’t know that they are waiting for the chance to kill me.”

“Yiyi... I only want to find someone to protect you, that’s all. Whoever that person is, I wish... He can replace me in protecting you and love you for the rest of your life.”

He did not mean to force her to get married, but he only wanted to... Find someone who could protect her and love her for the rest of her life.

But not Feng Ruqing!

That girl... She was kind to Yiyi, but she would not stay in this place forever. She would leave this place one day, and Yiyi was not strong enough to follow her forever.

It would be different if that person were her husband... The husband and wife would always stay together. Wherever he would go, she would naturally follow him forever.

“Feng Ruqing... Feng Tianyu... Feng... Wuhui!”

No one knew that the person who had pulled Gu Shi out of the abyss many years ago was Feng Wuhui!

However, his other name, which had shaken the hidden world and made everyone tremble in fear was Tian Ya!

Back then, his wife was killed just after Yiyi was born. He was so furious that he came to the killers alone, intending to kill all of them.

At that time, he had no other thoughts in his heart as he only wanted revenge, even if it would cost him his life!

It was until...

Tian Ya, who also hated those who killed the innocents in the reclusive world, came and rescued him.

He told him that dying with the enemy was the most stupid thing to do. He had to wait until his power was strong enough so that he could avenge his beloved wife.

Then, Tian Ya left.

After that, he had taken Yiyi back from the ones he had given her to and raised her on his own. He had cultivated himself and finally avenged his beloved wife's death.

Perhaps it was because of Tian Ya's influence that he had always hated those who bullied others. He had even killed the former chief manor because he was annoyed by his arrogance and had taken his position as the chief manor's master...

But when he wanted to look for Tian Ya, he realized that after Tian Ya had saved him, he had been forced by those people to... Enter a place where he could never step out again.

“No one in Tian Shen Manor will understand why I've always favored the Luo family. If it weren't for Tian Ya, I wouldn't have known about the Luo family and I wouldn't have saved them when they were miserably oppressed back then.”

Gu Shi smiled faintly.

Tian Ya had only saved him once, but he had helped him suppress all of his despair back then.

Because of his daughter, he must fill himself with hope!

“Unfortunately, Luo Fei doesn't know anything and Luo's wife... She will never say anything. But that's good. Otherwise, I'm afraid that all Tian Ya's enemies will come to Liu Yun Kingdom. If that had happened, can Liu Yun Kingdom still be as peaceful as it is today?”

And it took him so many years to find Tian Ya's residence.

Wuhui...

Hahaha! Just like back then, he had advised him that whatever he did, he must consider the cause and effect. He had to be like Wuhui, living his life without any regret.

Chapter 1216: Feng Wuhui, Tian Ya IV

It turned out that Tian Ya was actually Feng Wuhui!

Everyone knew that Tian Ya had always worn a mask and had never revealed his real face. But it was because of his mask that Gu Shi could finally discover his real identity!

Perhaps the only people who had seen his real face were the old couple from the Luo family.

“Feng Wuhui... Tian Ya... Your granddaughter is a great woman. She will be like you in the future! I believe that there is no seal that cannot be broken, just like the seal of the boundary in front of me. The ancient book said that nobody could leave the boundary, but the seal can be broken if there is help from outside.

“Therefore, I believe that your granddaughter... Will bring you out.”

If only... He had known earlier that Little Qing was his granddaughter.

The grace of a drop of water should be repaid with a gushing spring.

Besides... What Tianya had done for him was more than just saving his life.

Suddenly...

A light breeze blew upward from downhill. The whole chief manor was silent and gloomy.

Gu Shi slowly turned his head solemnly. He could see countless skilled masters coming from nearby, ambushing him in the middle.

“It seems that the Qin family hasn’t come alone, but they have sent so many people to me.”

His face was calm, expressionless.

“Gu Shi...” The lead’s face darkened. “You’re not worthy of your position as the manor master. Your fate has been destined, and today you will meet your end.”

Gu Shi stood coldly as his sleeves swayed in the light breeze.

“I, Gu Shi, from the moment I killed the former manor master, have tried to change the custom in Tian Shen Manor on slaying the innocents.

“But it seems like I was wrong. No matter how much I struggled to restrain you, as long as you are given a chance, you will be like a fierce beast and try to kill me back.

“Do you know what you look like right now? A stubborn, rebellious child! Unfortunately, I’m not your parent either, and I’ve given up on you...”

He thought he could change the reclusive world. But the custom had been deeply ingrained in them for years.

He could not do it alone.

He admitted that not all people in the reclusive world were evil, as there were also some good people everywhere.

But...

Some people were imbued with superiority and did not care about the lives of those below them.

Revenge was normal. But these people would still kill some innocent people who had nothing against them just for their own pleasure!

“Gu Shi, you’re still talking nonsense at a time like this? Qin Li is right, you’re badly wounded. Otherwise, you would have directly attacked us as back and not waste your time talking nonsense like this.”

Gu Shi walked forward slowly.

He gave a loud, cheerful laugh that echoed in the back hill for a long time.

It seemed like he had made up his mind to face death unflinchingly.

“Even if I, Gu Shi, need to sacrifice everything that I have, I will never let you and your people act rashly in my Gu Manor!”

The man’s expression was cold and stern, and his aura was like a dark cloud that made the whole sky overcast with a dusky gloom.

No matter how injured he was now... His aura as a manor master was still terrifying.

The people were frightened, but they quickly came back to their senses and laughed coldly.

Qin Li had already said that Gu Shi was just a paper tiger now. Therefore, the Qin family did not bother to hunt him down anymore, but instead, they went after Master Mu and let him deal with this paper tiger personally.

So, what was there to be afraid of?

Chapter 1217: Qiuqiu’s Past I

“Gu Shi, you don’t deserve to be the manor master. Today, we are taking back all that belongs to our Tian Shen Manor!”

“Hahaha!”

Gu Shi laughed wildly, and his laughter echoed in the sky for a long time.

“And today I’ll show you whether I, Gu Shi, deserve to be the manor master or not!”

The green-robed man stood proudly and stared at the group of people in front of him coldly. The murderous intent that surged from the skilled masters’ face had reminded him of the times in the past...

He was surrounded by this kind of people when he had met Tian Ya back then.

Those people looked at each other before they instantly drew their weapons, and rushed toward Gu Shi...

Fang Zhu Mainland.

In a deep mountain forest, Feng Ruqing used her sword to cut off all the vines that were blocking her way. Her face reflected discomfort as she slowed her pace and stepped onto the ground carefully.

“Mother, looks like there’s no path forward.”

Worry flickered in Fu Chen’s young face as he said in his small, soft voice.

The wind from the surrounding whistled loud, so loud that it could make one’s heart clench in fear.

Feng Ruqing took Fu Chen into one arm and Qing Han into the other arm. She looked around solemnly before her eyes fell upon a tree.

It was a big ancient tree that seemed like even ten people might not be able to wrap their arms around it.

Feng Ruqing somehow felt that this tree was sizing her up, and that feeling had made her feel so uneasy.

“Little pot...”

Buzz!

The huge pot flew up hurriedly from the back and made pleasant noises around Feng Ruqing.

Did its master want it to cook the tree?

Well, the tree’s bark was a bit old, and it did not look tasty. But if it made its master happy, then it would cook it for her.

The huge pot flew into the sky and rushed toward the ancient tree happily. Its huge body was like a dark cloud covering the sky.

However...

The ancient tree was bigger than the huge pot, and it looked a bit weaker under the shadow of the ancient tree.

But that did not mean that the huge pot would give up in front of the ancient tree.

It took two machetes out of nowhere and slashed at the ancient tree.

Dang!

The machete landed on the ancient tree’s body with a crisp sound.

Feng Ruqing’s eyes narrowed.

Because... The ancient tree was unharmed. It was like a hard shield that could block all sharp weapons.

“Fu Chen, this tree... Might have something related to us breaking the seal of the boundary.”

In this forbidden mountain, Feng Ruqing would not underestimate anything, even if it was just a tree.

The huge pot panicked.

It had never been defeated since it met its master again. But now it did not expect that it would fall in front of the big tree.

It was so unbearable!

Therefore, the huge pot took out all the machetes and threw them like arrows onto the ancient tree's body.

The ancient tree was still unharmed.

Feng Ruqing was trying to call the huge pot back when suddenly she felt the mountain was shaking like there was an earthquake.

"Qing Han!"

Seeing that Qing Han almost fell to the ground, Feng Ruqing quickly reached out and pulled Qing Han into her arms. She stared intently at the ancient tree.

The ancient tree slowly stood up.

Its body was so large with a hideous and vicious human face on its trunk. Suddenly, it roared angrily.

Chapter 1218: Qiuqiu's Past II

Apparently, the ancient tree was angered by the huge pot's provocations.

"Mother!" Fu Chen panicked. The roar of the tree had made him more difficult to breathe. "This tree must have something to do with the boundary!"

Feng Ruqing did not say a single word.

Fu Chen continued, "I can feel that something is manipulating its behavior. Initially, it would have been in a deep sleep when there is no intruder. But now, Little Pot has woken it up, and the only way we can leave this place is by killing the ancient tree."

Qing Han blinked. "Brother Fu Chen, you do know a lot about it," she said, gazing up at him with sheer adoration.

Even in such a solemn atmosphere, Fu Chen could still blush at her words.

He raised his little head proudly. "Of course. I was with the Ninth Emperor back then."

"I was also with the Ninth Emperor, but why didn't I know about any of this..." Little Qing Han bit her finger, pitifully.

Fu Chen touched her small head. "You just enjoy eating, drinking, and being merry because I'll settle the rest."

The demon tree was sleeping just now, but a pot had woken it up. And by the time it woke up, it had to watch these two little kids showing affection to one another.

As one who had been single for years, it really could not stand it. The demon tree became furious and charged toward Fu Chen. Its red eyes were fierce and glowing.

‘Damn! These people are so rude, showing affection in front of a lonely and single tree.’

Feng Ruqing quickly dragged Fu Chen behind her. The tree’s punch landed on her chest, and blood spurted out of her mouth. Her face turned pale, and her body was trembling, but she still managed to hold herself up and stand firmly.

The big tree screamed angrily as countless vines appeared from the ground and rushed toward Feng Ruqing.

Feng Ruqing tightly gripped the longsword. She looked calm, but seeing the strength of her grip on the sword, one could tell how she was feeling now...

“Mother!”

Fu Chen’s eyes reddened. Just as he wanted to rush toward Feng Ruqing, the tree vines suddenly appeared from the side and wrapped itself around Fu Chen.

Fu Chen, being a Tier-7, was... defenseless under the tree’s attack.

“Roar!”

‘Damn, these people deserve to die!’

They all were becoming so lovey-dovey in front of it! In its life, it hated people who risked their lives for others! These people were trying to annoy the friendless demon tree!

Those tree vines were filled with thorns and became very sharp as they fell into Feng Ruqing.

Suddenly...

A white-robed figure passed by and pounced at Feng Ruqing. She pushed her down to the ground and rolled a few times, dodging the spiny vines from the big tree...

Feng Ruqing raised her head in a daze. “Qiuqiu, what are you doing here?”

“I’ve been following you.”

The young girl smiled brightly, and her eyes were as clear as water in which one could see their reflections.

“Do you remember when you were about to leave, and you said that... You’ll definitely come back for me once everything is settled...”

“Yes...”

“It was the You family who had taken me away back then. Actually, I understand that the You family was trying to save me and had let me stay in the basement. I held onto the thought that the You family would be back, and I was waiting for them to come back for me.

“However, I’ve been waiting for the You family to come back for ten years, but they didn’t. When I was waiting for you... I thought that if I followed you, I would never be alone again...”

Chapter 1219: Qiuqiu’s Past III

“I’m scared of going back to those dark days when I couldn’t feel the sunlight for ten years. I’m afraid that you’ll be like the You family, leaving me alone... But later, I understand that you will never leave me.

“I believe when you said you’d come back for me. I’ll believe in anything that you say... Master, I’ll wait for you to come back... And take me away with you...”

The spirit beasts acknowledged their masters, so did the spirit herbs.

She did not acknowledge the You family as her master. You Manor was just a temporary place for her. She had stayed with the You family as they had promised to take good care of her.

But somehow... She was much more willing to leave with Feng Ruqing since she had asked Qiuqiu to follow her.

No regrets, forever...

Feng Ruqing’s heart trembled. A very uneasy feeling came over her. She grabbed Qiuqiu’s hand tightly and asked, “Qiuqiu, what are you doing?”

Qiuqiu gave a bright, charming smile. “Master, I’m willing to trust you, so can you trust me too? I’ll send you off.”

That night, the young girl had told her in a firm tone that she would come back to pick her up and leave with her, and maybe... Her heart had softened...

Indeed. Whether it was before she had met the You family or the ten years in the basement, it was all darkness for her.

Sometimes a single word could easily... Warm her heart.

Enough!

Enough, already!

She had no regrets.

Boom!

A strong wind surged out of Qiuqiu’s body.

Her white robe swayed with the wind, and her beautiful eyes looked straight at the ancient tree.

A powerful spiritual qi drifted out from her body, filling the whole sky.

She raised her beautiful eyes. Her hair waved in the wind, and her stunning face remained calm. She looked unrealistically beautiful at this moment.

“Qiuqiu!!!”

Feng Ruqing was shocked. She tried to rush to Qiuqiu's side, but the spiritual qi had formed a violent storm around her, blocking all those who wanted to approach her...

Even if she used all her strength, Feng Ruqing was still unable to break through the violent storm.

"Master, I always feel like I've forgotten a lot of things. I only remember that I was bullied all the time back then, and that's all I know. Later... I went to the You family, and then I met you."

She seemed to have forgotten too many things.

She only remembered that she was just a little flower that was suffering from being bullied back then. As for how she had transformed into a human, and how she went to Tian Yue Kingdom... She did not remember any of it...

She always felt like... Some memories were somewhat important...

Countless petals that surrounded Qiuqiu floated up and danced along with her.

And everyone could see it...

In Fang Zhu Mainland, whether it was flowers and grasses, or those trees that were initially lush, all of them had suddenly withered and died.

The ancient tree wailed out in grief. It became panicked, wanting to retreat and flee from this place. But before it could go any further, its leaves began to turn yellow, and countless marks appeared on the tree trunk like an old man's wrinkles.

Its roots were rooted in the ground and slowly, it lost its life...

Qiuqiu fell backward as soon as the spiritual qi dissipated.

Petals fell from the sky, covering her body as she fell...

The sky was blue.

All the dark clouds were gone.

Qiuqiu shielded her pale face from the harsh sunlight with the back of her hand. A bright smile appeared on her pale face.

Chapter 1220: Qiuqiu's Past IV

She... Suddenly remembered...

She was trampled by humans and pecked by birds, but a strong hand drove the birds away and moved her to a safe place.

Then, there was a drought, there was no rain for a long time, and she was so thirsty that she had almost lost her life.

It was that person who happened to pass by and had given her a pot of water.

The grace of dripping water should be repaid by a gushing spring.

Therefore...

When they met again later, she would have a chance... To repay the kindness she had received back then.

As Qiuqiu's vision gradually blurred, she desperately opened her eyes, hoping to see... Her savior again.

Unfortunately...

She could not see that person anymore. She felt so weak and slowly closed her eyes...

The petals had stopped falling and had wrapped themselves around Qiuqiu's body. Her long body shrunk smaller and smaller until the petals finally completely covered it.

When Feng Ruqing rushed over, she could only flip out a small pink flower beneath the petals.

The flower was pink and beautiful, but it was no longer able to... Speak to her with that gentle voice.

Feng Ruqing's hand trembled. She was so careful, afraid that she would accidentally break the flower into pieces... And they would never see each other again in this life.

"I told you before that I would come back and take you away, but now... I'll be able to take you with me, Qiuqiu."

"Mother..." Fu Chen gently held Feng Ruqing's hand. "She doesn't have any spiritual qi anymore, and will never be able to transform into a human again. To become human again, it may take a hundred years or a thousand years, or... She might never be able to do it again."

He and Qing Han were special.

If other spirit herbs wanted to be human... What they needed was... An opportunity.

Otherwise, the spirit herb would not have a soul and would never turn into a human again.

"It doesn't matter if it will take a hundred years or a thousand years. She has the potential to return into a human form as long as she's still alive. It doesn't matter if she doesn't have the opportunity because I'll create an opportunity for her. I'm sure Qiuqiu will come back to me eventually."

This was the promise she had made to her.

Feng Ruqing carefully took out a box, laying the pink flower in her hand safely in the box before she kept it in the medium.

"Fu Chen, Qing Han, let's go..."

"Alright."

Fu Chen knew that Feng Ruqing was heartbroken, so he did not dare to say anything more. He held Feng Ruqing's hand and followed her to the front.

Feng Ruqing was quiet along the way. Her face expressionless, but her steps were firmer than ever.

She was able to leave this place because Nan Xian had shielded her from the enemy that was approaching behind her.

And Qiuqiu had sacrificed herself to destroy the ancient tree for her.

She had to leave Fang Zhu Mainland no matter what! She would not waste their efforts...

And most importantly, Nan Xian was still waiting for her!

Fu Chen and Qing Han were as quiet as Feng Ruqing as they did not want to disturb her.

Only the huge pot was hovering and buzzing happily from the beginning to the end...

The sky was silent, just like how Feng Ruqing was feeling now.

Qing Han saw that Feng Ruqing was still quiet. She then turned to the huge cheerful pot, and suddenly became furious. Vines appeared from the ground, entangling the huge pot's body before viciously flinging it away.
