Chapter 1451: Xiao Ya was Taken Away

She was actually Eldest Uncle's daughter...

"I got it. Eldest Aunt, I will not let Eldest Uncle know."

Suddenly, Helian Yue raised her small head as her gaze was determined, not containing the least bit of hesitation.

Yue Qin clenched her fists tightly, and after a long while, she finally released them. She did not even glance at Helian Yue before she turned around and left.

She did not know if doing this was right or wrong. However, if she did not do so, she could not vent the malicious anger within her.

Thinking about it, Yue Qin slowly let out an evil sigh, her gaze full of menace. "Yue'er, don't blame Eldest Aunt, if you want to blame it on someone or something, just blame it on the fact that you are Tian Tian's daughter... You are the daughter of the person your Eldest Uncle once liked!"

To repay Tian Tian's grace, she had already tolerated her existence for over ten years. It was already sufficient.

She did not wish to continue tolerating that fact and cause her own daughter to suffer endless harm!

Helian Yue quietly looked at Yue Qin's departing figure, and after a while, she turned back around. Her entire body was a little stiff, perhaps somewhat unable to fully regain her senses from all the information she had just received.

"Young lady..." Xiao Xiao cried. "You are still required to inform Eldest Master that you know about this matter. After all..."

"Enough!" Helian Yue shouted sharply. "He is forever my Eldest Uncle. It will not change anything, nor is it possible to ever change anything!"

Furthermore, she was not willing to change anything...

All these years, she had been arrogant in Wu Shang City. If this matter was made known to others, who knew how they would laugh at her?

This was something she did not wish ever to experience.

Helian Yue took a deep breath. Until now, she still felt her heart trembling. She bit down hard on her lip and forced herself to regain composure.

"Xiao Xiao, I wish to go and see Elder Brother Lianqing."

Perhaps she would only feel better by seeing Feng Lianqing...

It was a pity that this time, Helian Yue had ended up empty-handed. By the time she arrived at the Feng Manor, she had noticed that Feng Lianqing had received a task and left.

She could only leave in disappointment...

Wu Shang City.

Nearby was a spirit beast mountain range.

It was known as Beast Mountain.

Previously, Suyi had warned Nan Xian not to bring Feng Ruqing into the spirit beasts' territory. Furthermore, he could not make any promises to the spirit beasts.

However, in the end, they still unintentionally dwelled into the deeper parts of the place.

"Fu Chen," Feng Ruqing lowered her gaze and asked. "Are you sure Xiao Ya is here?"

In the medium, Fu Chen's voice rang out.

"I am not very sure either..."

The moment he finished speaking, Fu Chen could feel Feng Ruqing's face darkening. He immediately said, "However, her scent has indeed disappeared from this point onward. From what I can tell, she should have been taken away by someone. That person should have some kind of token on him that blocked her breath from spreading..."

Taken away?

Feng Ruqing squinted.

Who was it that had taken Xiao Ya away?

Xiao Ya seemed to have originated from Land of No Return. Could it be... that she was in the hands of someone she once knew in Land of No Return?

"I need to find Xiao Ya, not merely for Xiao Yin's sake, also... I have this nagging feeling that I seem to know Xiao Ya."

This kind of familiar feeling that was in her bones could not be wrong. No matter what, she could not let anyone bully her!

Nan Xian, who was dressed in white, stood calmly by Feng Ruqing's side. He calmly and comfortingly said, "Qing'er, you don't have to be too worried. She is not as simple as you think she is. There would also be not much danger..."

Chapter 1452: Feng Lianqing I

Feng Ruqing nodded slightly. However, without seeing Xiao Ya with her own eyes, her heart seemed to be unable to be at peace.

Spiritual qi was dense at one of the peaks that disappeared into the clouds on the mountain range.

In a deep pool, a black dragon was circling in the spiritual pool where thick mist gathered. It was obviously very comfortable, and by its side, two little servants were massaging it.

“It is still more comfortable in the old home. The spiritual qi is so much thicker than in Cang Yue Mainland. The only pity is that Little Nine is missing.”

Yes, if Little Nine was here, then it would be even better...

Suddenly, the black dragon raised its head and looked at the sky. It suddenly squinted, and a different light flashed in its eyes.

“Was that Little Nine’s breath just now... ?”

His Little Nine had long been carved into his memories. Even if she was a thousand miles apart, it could notice her presence.

Swish!

Suddenly, the black dragon leaped out of the deep pool. Water splashed everywhere. He leaped into the void, and black mist appeared all around it. Its entire body was elongated in the black mist.

A handsome young man slowly walked out of the black mist.

The young man looked delicate and handsome. He was tall as he stood naked with his snow-white skin glinting under the reflection of the sunlight.

The two servants had already lowered their heads, not daring to look at this young man who was as domineering as a king, directly. They did not even dare to take a peek as they kneeled on the ground.

The corner of the young man’s lips curled upward into a moving smile. He raised his hand, and a black robe nearby fell into his hands. In less than a moment, it was already draped around his body.

“I’m still not used to human’s clothes. However... If I don’t wear clothes when I seek Little Nine, she will definitely beat me up.”

It was just an animal that was condensed from spiritual qi. How could it be like humans, wearing clothes and eating food?

A thousand years ago, every time he appeared naked before Little Nine, she would knock him down to the ground and bash him up violently.

However, the more violent Little Nine was, the more he liked her...

“Compared to being a person, I feel that days of being a dragon or a dog are much more comfortable. There is someone to take care of me, and there is no need to wear clothes. So annoying. Furthermore, there would always be people feeding me. However, I have no choice. Little Nine is human. If I don’t turn myself into a human, what qualifications do I have to pursue Little Nine?”

The black dragon turned to look at the servant girls kneeling on the ground. His brows were proud and showy with an insufferable arrogance.

“Go and clean up my cave. Little Nine is about to return soon.”

“Yes.”

The servant girls lowered their heads as they replied respectfully.

The black dragon glanced at the servant girls, turned around, and went forward without looking back, disappearing into the clouds in a blink of an eye...

At the same time.

In the spirit beast mountain range.

A fierce howl suddenly rang out. Just as Feng Ruqing raised her eyes to take a look, she saw a mighty, fierce lion pouncing over, opening its big mouth, just about to bite down on her.

Nan Xian’s gaze turned cold slightly. Just as he was about to take action, a long arrow flew through the air, and with a hiss, pierced into the lion’s head. Blood splattered everywhere as the lion crumbled to the ground with a rumble.

Feng Ruqing was slightly stunned. “Are the spirit beasts here all so brutal?”

They did not seem to be as cute as the spirit beasts from Cang Yue Mainland.

No matter what, seeing these spirit beasts, she missed the snow wolf a little...

Feng Ruqing slowly raised her head and looked in the direction in which the arrow came from. Suddenly, a handsome face that seemed to have been carved to perfection appeared before her.

The man was dressed in green, looking mighty, outstanding, and wise. A bow was in his hand. His skin was the tone of wheat, and his lips were thin like a knife.

Chapter 1453: Feng Lianqing II

“Big Brother Feng.”

Behind the man, a group of people slowly appeared. Besides those guards, the most eye-catching person was an elegant young maiden dressed in green.

She walked to Feng Lianqing’s side and lowered her head to look at the lion lying in the middle of a pool of blood as her beautiful brows furrowed slightly. “We still need to find the young prince, His Highness. Don’t waste time here with unrelated people.”

Yesterday, the young prince, His Highness, had disappeared. Feng Lianqing was also coincidentally free from any tasks in Wu Shang City, and thus, Tian Ya had sent him to search for the young prince.

This spirit beast mountain range was so big. Who knew where the little prince had run off to? Perhaps, he had been swallowed by some spirit beasts.

The young maiden pouted. She did not have any positive feelings toward that domineering and unruly little fatty. In her eyes, this walking calamity should be swallowed by spirit beasts.

It was just that...

When the young maiden raised her eyes to look at the two people in front of her, she paused, stopping at Nan Xian's handsome and cold face. She was unable to avert her gaze a little.

"Lianyi, let's go."

Feng Lianqing, on the other hand, did not seem to notice too much. He had just coincidentally seen a spirit beast acting fiercely and had lifted a hand in assistance. He also did not wish to obtain any kind of repayment.

"Wait—"

Lianyi suddenly stopped Feng Lianqing. Her gaze was concentrated on Nan Xian from the beginning to the end and had never left.

"This master, just now Big Brother Feng saved you. We plan to see a good deed through till the end. This spirit beast mountain range is too dangerous. Why don't you... and your wife journey with us. It'll also make it easier for us to see the good deed through till the end."

Feng Lianqing was speechless.

He glanced at Lianyi, baffled. 'This girl is usually not so nosy, and now she is talking about seeing a good deed through to the end? When has she ever done a good deed?'

"No need..."

Nan Xian frowned. Just as he finished speaking, Feng Ruqing suddenly pinched his wrist and smiled slightly. "Sure."

Hearing this, Nan Xian looked at Feng Ruqing. Seeing the smile on the young maiden's face, he also did not say anything else, equating to consenting to her actions.

He trusted Qing'er.

Qing'er definitely had her reasons for doing so. He just needed to believe in her. That was enough...

Lianyi slowly let out a sigh of relief as she wore a smile on her pretty face. She looked at Feng Lianqing. "Big Brother Feng doesn't mind, right?"

Feng Lianqing was speechless.

He really minded!

However...

Seeing Feng Ruqing's abdomen, he sighed gently.

'Just forget it. Just be a good person to the end. Since this lady is pregnant, then just protect her along her journey. In case she meets with the same kind of danger.'

"I am Feng Lianqing. How shall I address the two of you?"

Feng Ruqing raised her brow. "How coincidental. My surname is also Feng. I am Feng Ruqing. He is my husband, Nan Xian."

"Indeed, how coincidental. Our meeting today can also be considered fated. The two of you should just follow us. Although our journey is a little dangerous, the two of you being in this spirit beast mountain range alone would be even more dangerous."

A smile hung on the man's face as he said gently.

Feng Ruqing hesitated and asked, "The spirit beasts in the spirit beast mountain range... Are they very cruel?"

"Spirit beasts are always cruel." Feng Lianqing smiled. "Because weak spirit beasts are unable to survive. Those that look good might still be able to become pets for humans, but those with weak cultivation... they would only become food for humans and would be rejected by other spirit beasts, making it tough for them to be unable to survive."

His statement was met with silence.

Those little wolves like the snow wolf would immediately be captured to become food after arriving at Land of No Return?

It seemed like it was a good decision not to have allowed the snow wolf to follow them on this expedition. How great was it to have allowed it to stay safely in Cang Yue Mainland and be the wolf butler?

Even if the humans did not bully it, it was likely that these spirit beasts of the same species would not have allowed it to live...

It was just too pitiful...

"Lianyi, what on earth are you doing?"

When Feng Ruqing and the rest were not paying attention, Feng Lianqing dragged Lianyi to the side coldly. "I never knew you are such a busybody."

For example, when he had saved the two people just now, Lianyi had even disdained him for wasting time. Not to mention... letting others join them in their journey.

Lianyi glanced at Nan Xian from the corner of her eyes. Her heart immediately skipped a few beats, but her expression remained unchanging.

"Nothing. We should see a good deed through to the end. They are not safe in this place, so why not journey together."

Feng Lianqing was speechless.

He really did not believe that Lianyi would be so kind.

He did not have any positive feelings about Lianyi, but neither did he have any bad feelings. After hearing her say so, he did not say anything more and refocused his eyes ahead. "Let's continue walking."

Not far behind, Feng Ruqing was casually following after the people in front. Her gaze remained on Lianyi from the beginning to the end. It was not known what she was thinking.

"Nan Xian, aren't you going to ask me why?"

Nan Xian paused and smiled slightly. "If you wish to talk about it, naturally, you would tell me. If you don't wish to talk about it, I will not ask too much."

"Oh." Feng Ruqing squinted. "Don't you feel that this woman... is a little familiar?"

Familiar?

Nan Xian looked at Lianyi's back for a long time, trying to recall exactly where he had seen her before.

'Could it be that...

'She had seduced Qing'er before?'

Suddenly, Nan Xian's heart grew cold, and even the way he looked at Lianyi's back was cold.

Coincidentally, Lianyi turned her head back and met the man's gaze at this moment. Her heart leaped out of control. Her face had turned red as well. She immediately retracted her gaze as she nervously twisted her sleeve.

Just now... was he peeking at her?

If it were any other man, when his wife was pregnant, and he was still sneaking a look at her, she would definitely disdain and hate it.

However, now, she only had delight in her heart.

This man was just too beautiful. He was the most beautiful amongst all the men she had ever seen. He was so beautiful that one could not forget him after a single glance and could not help but wish to press him beneath her body.

Originally, she saw that this man already had a wife and just wished to take a few more looks at him, and that was why she had asked him to journey together. However, she never thought that he actually had some interest in her. Otherwise, why was he sneakily looking at her?

"I don't feel so."

Behind, Nan Xian spoke seriously. "Qing'er, you have definitely seen it wrongly. I don't think she looks familiar."

"Don't you feel that..." Feng Ruqing's eyes had an odd light. "She looks a little like Tang Yin?"

However, Tang Yin was a beastman. The one before them... was human!

She and Tang Yin also had very different styles. Tang Yin was cute and pretty, easily likeable. This girl was a little too valiant. Her brows were fierce and majestic like a female general's.

However...

Her features were a little like Tang Yin. If it were not because she was very familiar with Tang Yin, she would not have noticed it at a glance either.

"State Preceptor, I believe in my intuition." Feng Ruqing raised her brows. "Furthermore, Xiao Ya is missing. I must find her."

She would not give up even if there were just a thread of hope.

She was worried that if she gave up, Xiao Ya would be in danger.

Back then, when the two of them had just met, Xiao Ya was riddled in wounds. The wounds were so terrible that it was hard to bear. She could not let her endure this kind of pain again!

Nan Xian was stunned.

He took another look at Lianyi, trying to see which part of her looked like Tang Yin.

However, no matter how he tried to dig through his mind, he could not recall exactly what Tang Yin looked like, and so he eventually gave up...

Chapter 1455: The Little Snake's Violent Temper II

Even to the point where...

After being silent for a long while, he turned his head to look at Feng Ruqing. "Who is Tang Yin? Is she a woman who seduced you too?"

Feng Ruqing was speechless as she silently mourned for Tang Yin for about three seconds.

No matter what, Tang Yin was also someone who had almost become Nan Xian's fiancé. However, after meeting a few times, he was still asking her who Tang Yin was?

It was also a good thing that Tang Yin had not liked Nan Xian since a long time ago. Otherwise, this sentence would definitely have thrown her into hell.

Feng Ruqing pondered for three seconds and finally asked, "Then, do you remember who Gu Yiyi is?"

"I do," Nan Xian pursed his lips. "Second Uncle's fiancé. She is not very likable."

"... Why?"

"She is not a woman of virtue. After having a fiancé, she is still sticking to you."

"..."

"So, you shouldn't be too close to her in the future. She is about to marry Second Uncle. If you are too close to her, it is not good for her reputation."

Fu Chen, who was sitting in the medium resting, heard Nan Xian's words and was in shock. He frowned hard as the corner of his lips twitched non-stop.

'You are just jealous. But you have actually gone and painted Gu Yiyi as a woman without virtue.

'Mother is not a man, so how is Gu Yiyi a 'woman without virtue'?

However, his mother would definitely not be the same kind of person as this cheap father. She would definitely not believe these words he had said.

Feng Ruqing was stunned at first. Then, she pondered about it for a bit as she stroked her chin with her fingers. "Yes, the state preceptor's words make a lot of sense. Next time, I will stay further away from her. It is really not good for her reputation. After all, she is to marry Second Uncle."

Fu Chen was speechless.

He felt as if a slap had been thrown at his face, and his expression was extremely unsightly.

'When has Mother become such a conservative person? Indeed, after being with Nan Xian, she has changed a lot. She was no longer the mother I used to know...'

Just at this moment, a slow, lazy voice rang out.

"Where is this place?"

A small green snake tunneled out of Nan Xian's sleeve. It shook its head in a blur as its gaze was sluggish. "Are we in Forest of Spirit Beasts? That's not right. This place is not quite like Forest of Spirit Beasts. It does not have the scent that I am familiar with."

Feng Ruqing tilted her head to look at the little green snake in wonder. "Xiao Qing, why are you here as well?"

Qing Zhu was speechless.

What was it to do? It suddenly wanted to run away from home. This time it would never return!

"We have already left Liu Yun kingdom for almost half a month. When did you start following us? Why have I not noticed you?"

Half a month?

Qing Zhu was stunned. "I have already been asleep for half a month?"

Feng Ruqing was speechless as she quietly looked at the sun in the sky before looking at Qing Zhu. "Snakes hibernate during winter. But winter has yet to arrive, and you are already hibernating in advance? If I wait for you to hibernate next winter, I can make you into snake soup, and you wouldn't even know it."

Qing Zhu suddenly did not wish to speak to Feng Ruqing anymore.

Feng Ruqing was smiling from the beginning to the end. "State Preceptor, do you think my idea would work? After all, Xiao Qing would not suffer then. The moment it wakes from its sleep... its spirit would have left its body."

Demon!

Qing Zhu immediately shrank back and glared at Feng Ruqing fiercely. However, after he noticed Nan Xian's cold gaze, he immediately put on a fawning smile.

"What Princess said is right. Next time I will no longer hibernate during winter... Pfft, no longer hibernate in summer. I will remain awake at all times."

'Want to make me into snake soup, dream on! I won't let you have the chance.'

"Eh, is this snake Master's pet? How cute!"

Chapter 1456: The Little Snake's Violent Temper III

A voice suddenly could be heard from up ahead and Qing Zhu could not help but cock its head ahead.

When he saw the glint in Lianyi's eyes, he sneered.

'Another woman mesmerized by my owner's beauty.'

'Fool!

'None of those who fought with the princess had a good ending!'

Qing Zhu indifferently pursed his lips as if he could already predict the foolish person's ending...

Lianyi's eyes were full of smiles. "I really like snakes, these kinds of animals. This snake looks so cute. What is it called?"

Qing Zhu's eyes were full of anger and hatred.

'You are the animal! Your whole family is animals!

'I am obviously a pet! A pet!'

It was a pity that Lianyi did not notice the anger in Qing Zhu's eyes and reached out to touch it.

Qing Zhu opened its mouth, and with a 'crack', it bit Lianyi's finger ruthlessly.

"Ah!"

A heart-wrenching sound echoed through the sky and shocked the whole mountain until the birds flew away.

"I'm so sorry." Feng Ruqing smiled and swept Qing Zhu into her arm. "Our family's little snake doesn't have a very good temper. It doesn't like being touched by strangers. Furthermore, people should not simply touch other people's pets."

Qing Zhu stayed in Feng Ruqing's hands without any show of temper. Its body was soft as its gaze was full of sadness. However, when it looked at Lianyi, it was fierce.

Lianyi's face turned green. She held her finger tightly as her gaze was full of anger.

Feng Lianqing, on the hand, desperately wished that he could find a hole and hide in it. He glared at Lianyi and then looked at Feng Ruqing. "I apologize. Madam, Lianyi is immature. She should not have touched your little pet."

"Big Brother Feng!"

"That's enough, are you disdaining the fact that you have not embarrassed yourself enough? All spirit beasts don't have good tempers. You have reached out your hand to pet it without asking for others' permission. Who can you blame for being bitten?" Feng Lianqing did not seem very happy about it.

However, compared to Lianyi, he felt that Lianyi had embarrassed him.

'Even a three-year-old child knows not to touch other people's spirit beast. Was this woman so muddled by beauty today? She has actually gone and touched other people's snakes!

'Being bitten is also what she deserved!

'If I covered up Lianyi's wrongdoings, and Master found out about it when we returned, I will surely be taught a lesson!'

Lianyi bit on her lip hard. Her face was pale, and her expression unsightly.

"Oh, that's right," Feng Ruqing's finger patted Qing Zhu's little head as she smiled. "My family's little snake's teeth are venomous."

'What?'

Lianyi's face turned pale. Her eyes were filled with panic. "Where is the antidote?"

Feng Ruqing looked at Nan Xian. "Nan Xian, do you have the antidote?"

Nan Xian calmly shook his head. "There has never been a person stupid enough to touch Xiao Qing. Naturally, there is no antidote. Isn't she the first person Xiao Qing has bitten?"

After hearing Nan Xian's words, Lianyi, who had initially wanted to cry, was almost unable to hold back on her tears anymore.

The good thing was that she ultimately held it in because she did not wish to embarrass herself further.

It was just that both of her beautiful eyes were full of suffering and suppressed tolerance. She looked really pitiful.

Feng Ruqing's gaze was a little doubtful. "Didn't Xiao Qing bite Feng Rushuang before?"

"Feng Rushuang?" Nan Xian frowned, and after taking a long while to ponder, he finally recalled who the person was. "It is that daughter who was initially... forced onto Lord Father-in-law? When did Xiao Qing bite her?"

Feng Ruqing did not know whether to pity Feng Rushuang or to feel delighted on her behalf.

Because Nan Xian was finally able to remember her name.

It was just a pity that... he had forgotten the matter of how Feng Rushuang was bitten by Xiao Qing when she tried to climb into his bed.

“She had initially tried to hook up with you, and Xiao Qing couldn’t bear to watch and had bitten her. Don’t you remember any more?”

Chapter 1457: Tian Ya is Not a Person Who Would Let Wrongdoings Go Unpunished I

“Back then, you and I were not familiar with each other yet,” Nan Xian hesitated. “That’s why I don’t remember her. Later on, we got to know each other better... everything she did was related to you, so naturally, I have some impression. My memory is not used to remember unimportant people. I just need to remember things related to you. That will do.”

‘My memory is not used to remember unimportant people. I just need to remember things related to you. That will do.’

Feng Ruqing was stunned. After that, she raised her gaze and looked into the man’s calm eyes.

He had said these words without his face turning red or his heart racing.

Even Qing Zhu felt a little embarrassed.

“Master Nan Xian, Madam...” Feng Lianqing coughed, interrupting the two people who acted as if no one was around them. “Lianyi did not do it on purpose just now. I was wondering if the two of you could kindly bring out the antidote? I will definitely be extremely grateful.”

He saw that Lianyi was about to say something else; he immediately tugged her arm, warning her with a gaze.

In the end, Lianyi swallowed back the words that were at the tip of her tongue. Her gaze was full of reluctance and suffering.

Feng Ruqing looked at Lianyi, and she took out a spirit herb from the medium and threw it to her.

“Eat it. Then you’ll be able to get rid of the venom.”

Lianyi looked at Feng Ruqing a little skeptically and did not dare to consume the spirit herb, fearing that this woman would intentionally harm her.

However, Feng Ruqing was not bothered about her. She shrugged and smiled at Lianqing. “I have already given her the antidote. She does not eat it because she suspects that I have other intentions. If she dies when the venom acts up, don’t blame me.”

Feng Lianqing’s expression changed slightly as he looked at Lianyi. “I am here. You don’t have to worry about anything. You brought everything that happened to yourself. Could it be that you think Master would definitely stand on your side? Master has never been a person to let wrongdoings go unpunished.”

Master had always differentiated grace and grudges. He only asked to know the rights and the wrongs, and had never covered up or protected the people who had done wrong. No matter who it was, it was the same. There were no exceptions.

So, he, too, had never dared to use his master's name to cause trouble outside. Otherwise, his master would definitely beat him to death.

Even though Master was more forgiving toward girls, he still did not like arrogant and willful people.

Even if Master pampered Helian Yue, he still disciplined her. However, Helian Yue's temper could not change, and she still caused trouble even after being scolded many times by Master.

Lianyi seemed to have thought of Tian Ya's bad temper and held in this anger of hers, swallowing the spirit herb in her hand.

The moment the spirit herb entered her abdomen, she only felt as if her stomach was on fire and was incredibly hard to bear. The feeling of needing to relieve herself washed over her as she let out a loud fart. Instantly the bad smell floated over with the wind and entered everyone's nostrils.

The crowd immediately took two steps backward and maintained a distance from her. Their eyes were full of disdain.

Luckily, Feng Lianqing still remembered their friendship in the past and did not leave her behind as he forcefully held his breath and stood by her side regardless of how that bad smell made him frown and how difficult it was for him to breathe.

"You..."

Lianyi's eyes widened as she looked at Feng Ruqing angrily. "What exactly did you give to me?"

"The antidote." Feng Ruqing shrugged. "You have already excreted the venom. What now? Is there still any problem?"

"I..."

Lianyi's face was full of shame and anger, and she wished desperately that she could find a hole to tunnel into.

Especially for the fact that she had made a fool of herself in front of this immortal-like man. She did not even have the bravery to continue living.

"Lianyi, that's enough." Feng Lianqing's voice when he spoke sounded a little odd. It was like his throat was being pressed against, and he did not dare to inhale too strongly. "Go and tidy up a bit immediately. We still need to continue on our journey. If we delay and the little prince meets with danger, Master will definitely kick you out of General Manor!"

Chapter 1458: Tian Ya is Not a Person Who Would Let Wrongdoings Go Unpunished II

Lianyi gritted her teeth. She did not dare to stay here, so she quickly left.

After she disappeared, Feng Lianqing exhaled deeply. This breath he held in was a little difficult to bear. However, in order not to hurt Lianyi's pride, he did not dare to be like others to keep a distance from her.

However, he was also worried that once he breathed, he would breathe in air with a terrible smell.

There were quite a few water sources in the spirit beast mountain range and Lianyi returned very quickly. She had even changed into a new set of bright clothes as she glared at Feng Ruqing fiercely.

This time, she wized up, not saying a word and not doing anything, obediently standing by Feng Lianqing's side. Her strong brows and heroic eyes had a calmness to it.

"Big Brother Feng, I'm ready. Let's continue on our journey."

"Alright."

Feng Lianqing agreed and continued leading everyone along.

Feng Ruqing walked behind the group and touched her nose as she smiled. "State Preceptor, her face is really thick. Just now, she had just soiled her pants, and she still can act like nothing happened. No wonder she keeps eyeing other people's husbands."

"Yes." Nan Xian smiled indifferently. "Indeed, it is thick. If it were Xiao Qing... perhaps it would not even have the courage to continue standing here."

Qing Zhu was speechless.

'How was this related to it?'

Lianyi, who was in front, had originally heard Feng Ruqing's words but remained unmoved. However, Nan Xian's sentence almost made her crumble to the ground.

She felt uncomfortably panicked. Sure enough, she had diarrhea just now, which caused this fairy-like man to loathe her.

Originally... he would still glance at her.

'It's all this woman's fault!

'It is just her jealousy that has caused trouble, and that's why she had purposely poisoned her and made her eat a laxative so that she made a fool of herself in front of everyone.

'Causing Nan Xian to disdain her...'

Lianyi's heart felt empty as she lowered her head in dismay.

Feng Lianqing, who was by her side, finally noticed something. He looked at Lianyi and then looked at Nan Xian. His voice was serious. "Lianyi!"

Lianyi was suddenly agitated and immediately hid her emotions, smiling at Feng Lianqing. "Big Brother Feng, is something wrong?"

"You can never snatch things that belong to other people. Do you understand?" Feng Lianqing was serious. "If it's not yours, in the end, it would still never be yours! I am only reminding you since I have known you for so many years. Otherwise, the one who would get injured in the end will be you!"

Lianyi's gaze dropped.

In Wu Shang City, it was not that there was not a single outstanding man, but there was not one who could move her.

Feng Lianqing was also very outstanding. Everyone in General Manor hoped that she could be married to him, but...

She was too familiar with Feng Lianqing.

They grew up together. How could feelings suddenly appear?

Only him...

Only the man who was behind her was one that she felt moved by with a single glance.

Regardless of looks, bearing, or that cool, calm look, she liked them all.

Just like an immortal in the drawings.

Too bad that she had appeared too late. That man already had a wife. If she were to be his concubine... but with her identity, she simply could not possibly be someone's concubine.

This kind of infatuation she had was beyond her control. She wanted to be close to him, kiss him, and even wished to bear his children...

"I understand, Big Brother Feng."

Lianyi's tightly clenched fists loosened as she smiled and replied to Feng Lianqing.

About her own infatuation, Lianyi did not feel that there was any wrong.

It was not that she had hurt his wife. It was his wife who had attacked her first.

Furthermore, even if this man already had a wife, she could still compete with her fairly.

Chapter 1459: Tian Ya is Not a Person Who Would Let Wrongdoings Go Unpunished III

In the world of feelings, only the person who was not loved was the third party. If this man chose her, then his wife could only retreat. She could not be someone's concubine!

Of course, Lianyi very clearly knew that Feng Lianqing could not possibly understand how she felt. So, she would not say these words aloud.

She remembered that she had once looked down on those women who desired to be involved in other people's relationships.

Now that it was happening to her, she felt that the principal wife sent to the cold palace was the true third party.

"Big Brother Feng, I also remember the general's teachings. Don't be arrogant because you are pampered, don't obtain love with your looks, don't be arrogant and overbearing and don't bully the weak. I have always remembered them. I will not go against the general's words."

She would not bully that woman, but she would compete justly. If that woman was not her match, then she could not be blamed...

Lianyi squinted as the corner of her lips, curled up into a smile. She had even forgotten the incident where she had made a fool of herself just now. And she had forgotten Nan Xian's sarcasm.

Feng Lianqing did not notice the change in Lianyi's heart and thought that she had already given up as he slowly let out a sigh of relief. "It's good that you can understand. You are very clear of Master's character. He is not one who would let wrongdoings go unpunished. He frequently scolds even Helian Yue. What more you?"

His words could not be more direct.

Tian Yi liked Helian Yue a lot and liked her direct and non-conniving personality. However, Helian Yue really liked to cause trouble unnecessarily, so... from time to time she would end up being yelled at by Tian Ya.

"I understand."

Lianyi smiled. However, her eyes had a glint of unclear emotions.

Tian Ya was not one who would let wrongdoings go unpunished. If she was not wrong and it was others who bullied her, then Tian Ya would definitely be extremely angry.

He did not let wrongdoings go unpunished, just targeted... it was her who had provoked others first, and she was in the wrong first.

So, she definitely could not go and offend this woman first. She could only wait for this woman to find fault with her.

Only then Tian Ya could let wrongdoings go unpunished!

If it were the kind of leniency without asking right or wrong, perhaps only the few little kittens of Tian Ya could make him so unreasonable.

Besides that, there was no other person who could make him treat them differently.

At Feng Manor.

An old man was lazily leaning on the soft chair. His red robe was showy. A soft, cute, white little kitten was in his arms as his attitude was lazy, and the corner of his lips were curled up into a slight smile.

"General."

Not long after, an old man entered from outside in a rush as he said respectfully, "We have asked where Jia Xin has run off to all these years."

Jia Xin had disappeared these few years, and no matter how they searched for him, they could not find him. As such, Tian Ya had given an order just now that they had to force information from him.

"He said he went to a place... called Cang Yue Mainland."

Cang Yue Mainland?

Tian Ya immediately sat up from the soft couch. As he had suddenly used too much strength, the little kitten was accidentally sent flying, and it let out a wronged and pitiful cry.

“Meow!”

If it were in the past, after Tian Ya heard this sound, he would definitely pick up the little kitten feeling guilty and comfort it in his arms. However, now, his entire old face was extraordinarily excited.

“What did you say just now? Where is the place that he went to?”

Cang Yue Mainland. This was a name that had not been heard for over twenty years!

Tian Ya’s old tears streamed down his face. Perhaps it was because he was too agitated, he gave off a very scary feeling, scaring the old man who was reporting the information until he took a few steps back.

“General, it is Cang Yue Mainland... Jia Xin has personally said so.”

Tian Ya’s body trembled as he gritted his teeth and said, “Let’s go to the underground prison immediately. Bring Jia Xin to meet me!”

Chapter 1460: It Was Tian Ya Who Did Not Let Wrongdoings Go Unpunished? I

In the underground prison.

It was dark, gloomy, and damp.

Jia Xin’s body was curled up into a ball as he trembled. His gaze was full of fear and nervousness, and his face was as white as paper.

Just at this moment...

The underground prison door was opened, and a flash of light shone in from outside the door, shining on Jia Xin’s body.

Jia Xin raised his head to look over. When he caught sight of the old man standing by the door of the underground prison, his whole body shuddered as a light of panic and fear flashed in his eyes. Even his body had wriggled backward a few times.

However, behind him was an ice-cold wall, making him unable to retreat.

“What do you all wish to do?”

Even his voice was trembling. Obviously, what he had been experiencing in these few days was going to stay with him for the rest of his life.

Tian Ya was like a ghost as his figure floated before Jia Xin. With a single hand, he picked Jia Xin up by the collar. His old face was expressionless, even to the point that there was no single ripple of emotion, making people unable to guess what he was thinking.

“During this period of your disappearance, you went to a place called Cang Yue Mainland?”

Jia Xin swallowed a mouthful of saliva in fear as he trembled and shook. “Yes.”

“What did you do there?” Tian Ya’s old face was cold. “Tell me everything. Otherwise, I will make today unforgettable for you!”

Jia Xin was stunned. Perhaps he did not understand why Tian Ya had to be so interested in his actions during his days in Cang Yue Mainland.

However, facing this old thing, Jia Xin did not dare to hide anything, as he said tremblingly. “I just went to a place called Tian Shen Manor.”

‘Tian Shen Manor?’

Tian Ya squinted, and a cold light flashed in his eyes.

‘This Tian Shen Manor... looks like it survived. I wonder if that old thing in Tian Shen Manor is still alive.’

“Then?”

“I stayed there for many years. If it were not for Mu Huan from the Mu family, I would not have left.”

The moment he mentioned the name Mu Huan, Jia Xin gritted his teeth.

If it were not for this death-deserving despicable person, how could he possibly appear? And furthermore, he would not have been dragged into this place by this black dragon.

“Mu Huan?”

Tian Ya frowned. He did not have much of an impression toward this name.

“Then, how did you go to that place?”

All these years, he had tried countless methods but was unable to return. This world seemed to be sealed, sealing everyone to this mainland, only allowing entry without exit.

Jia Xin looked at Tian Ya cautiously. “It was... I gave up all my cultivation. Only then was I able to go to Cang Yue Mainland.”

‘Give up all cultivation...

Tian Ya was immediately discouraged. If he gave up all his strength and returned, would that group of people not skin him alive?

‘No! No!’

He needed to find a different method. He needed to return to Cang Yue Mainland without being harmed!

“Last question. How did you return?” Tian Ya continued to ask.

Jia Xin’s eyes were full of hatred. “It is all Mu Huan’s fault. I treated this person like a pearl in my palm. She was bullied, and naturally, I could not ignore it. To be honest, that Mu Huan’s enemy was too weak, except for that old man in the Mu family... Oh, and another husband and wife pair. I believe they are called Feng Tianyu and Nalan Yan. These two people were slightly stronger.

“However... Their strength is confined to just that world. Before me, they aren’t even worth a glance.”

Saying this, Jia Xin was a little proud and had actually forgotten his current situation. He also did not notice how Tian Ya's face had darkened.

“If it were not for that black dragon ripping open a void, I would not possibly have been dragged in by it. That husband and wife would long have died, and I would not have ended in such a situation!”
