

Overbearing 1821

Chapter 1821: Wanted? II

Zhang Tianlei raised his hand and threw Nalan Jing to the ground.

This time, Nalan Jing finally lost all his strength. He looked down and coughed lightly, coughing out the blood inside his throat.

The sword in Zhang Tianlei's hand was pointed at Nalan Jing, his face expressionless. "Since you are begging for death, I shall fulfill your wish!"

His long sword permitted a cold aura, and it pierced through Nalan Jing's chest fiercely. Blood seeped out and stained his robe red.

His breathing gradually weakened, and his vision became more and more blurry.

He felt so exhausted... He wanted to close his eyes and rest for a while.

***

"Master!"

Just at the moment when Zhang Tianlei was about to make another move, a hurried voice suddenly came.

He turned and saw an old housekeeper from the chief manor approaching him anxiously.

"Master, I found this 'wanted' notice in the city."

'A 'wanted' notice?'

Zhang Tianlei stretched out his hand doubtfully and took the scroll handed over by the old housekeeper.

The picture painted on the scroll was a young man with starry eyes and looked so familiar.

He paused for a moment, subconsciously turned his head, and looked at the man in the pool of blood, shocked.

"This man..."

'Who is this guy, and why is someone wanted?'

Subsequently, Zhang Tianlei once again looked at the notice.

Besides a portrait, there was no more description, only a short message.

'If you find the whereabouts of this person, immediately notify General Tianya Manor. There will be a big reward.'

'General Tianya Manor?'

A cold light flashed in Zhang Tianlei's eyes. "Nalan Dai'er has so many spirit herbs. Could it be that... They stole these spirit herbs from Tianya? That's why they are wanted?"

“Master, I guess so. It looks like this person is General Tianya’s enemy. If we bring him to General Manor, General Tianya will definitely reward us.”

“Housekeeper...” Zhang Tianlei smirked. “Use the spirit herb to wake him up. Don’t let him die for the time being. After all, if he really stole something from General Manor, Tianya must want to deal with him personally. But don’t let him recover either. We must show our sincerity.”

“Yes, Master.”

Zhang Tianlei glanced at Nalan Jing on the ground and sneered. “Nalan Jing, you might have been safe if your sister had married my son earlier. Since you are so against me, then I can only send both of you to Tianya. You and your sister’s life is none of my business now.”

***

General Manor.

Tang Yin bit the brush in her hand and looked at the portrait spread out in front of her.

“Xiao Yin, have you drawn my cousin in the missing poster?” Feng Ruqing smiled as she walked forward and took the paper from Tang Yin.

She stiffened for a moment.

“You drew this?”

“Yes?” Tang Yin nodded. “Xiao Qing, did I draw Brother Nalan too handsomely? Do you want me to draw something ugly?”

Feng Ruqing stiffened. “Why did you draw him like this?”

She should not have trusted this girl to give her such an important task!

“Is there something wrong?” Tang Yin seemed lost. She took out the other portrait in her hand and said confusedly, “This is the sample I found in the city gate before. I drew it according to this painting, and I wrote ‘WANTED’ on it. Is it... Wrong?”

Chapter 1822: Nalan Dai’er Fell from the Sky I

Feng Ruqing was speechless.

She lowered her eyes and looked at the drawing in Tang Yin’s hand.

“Xiao Qing...” Tang Yin did not notice Feng Ruqing’s expression and asked smilingly, “What do you think of the painting I did. Is it very similar to Brother Nalan?”

“Yes, it is similar, but... It looks more like a wanted poster.”

“I don’t care... People can still recognize Brother Nalan with my drawing.” Tang Yin smiled brightly and put away the portrait in her hand. “Someone will send the news to us sooner or later, and we will meet him again.”

The smile on Tang Yin’s face gradually disappeared, and she sighed lightly, his gaze somewhat sorrowful.

“But we don’t know when that is...”

In the past, she felt nothing when she had Nalan Jing by her side, but now... She suddenly missed him after not seeing him for a long time.

Oh, and she missed Gu Yiyi too...

Tang Yin’s face reddened as she thought about this. “Xiao Qing, when can we go back? I want to go back to Cang Yue Mainland. I miss Gu Yiyi... I miss Dai’er and Old Master Nalan. I also miss Uncle Nalan a little...”

Although Uncle Nalan was stingy and fierce, he still treated her well in the Nalan family.

Feng Ruqing lowered her eyes, and after half a second, she looked up at the girl in front of her smilingly.

“Trust me. We will leave here soon.”

“Alright...”

Tang Yin smiled, revealing her two canine teeth. That smile was bright and lovely, but there were still tears in her eyes that had not been wiped.

“The spiritual qi here is denser than Cang Yue Mainland, but I still like Cang Yue Mainland more. I don’t want to stay in this place. I always feel that... There are too many bad people here.”

Moreover, this place was not her hometown...

She turned around and looked at the door of the room not far away, and her eyes once again dimmed for a moment.

‘When will Mother wake up...’

***

Outside of Wu Shang City, an eagle flew high in the sky, holding onto Nalan Dai’er tightly.

A group of people was still chasing after them. Therefore, the flying eagle did not dare to stop and continued flying faster.

Nalan Dai’er cried to the point where she almost fainted; her reddened eyes were so heartbreaking to see.

“Put me down... I want to find my brother. They will not kill my brother if I stay with him. That man will not let him go. I want to go find him!”

Nalan Dai’er knew Zhang Tianlei well.

His stupid son wanted to marry her, and Zhang Tianlei loved his only son. He would fulfill all his son’s wishes, and he would not kill them for his stupid son.

However, things might be different if she escaped from them.

Zhang Tianlei would really kill her brother...

“Let go of me!”

Nalan Dai'er struggled desperately, trying to break free from the flying eagle's claws so that she could go to Nalan Jing.

He was her brother. She wanted to stay with him and face all the hardship together.

The eagle cawed lowly. Perhaps it had not yet recovered from its past injuries and was struggling to fly high.

However, it saw the people who were chasing after him almost catching up. It gritted its teeth and flapped its wings hard, trying to throw off the people behind it.

The little girl kept struggling, making the eagle exhausted. It started to lose its balance and gradually fell to the ground.

Chapter 1823: Nalan Dai'er Fell from the Sky II

Deep in the forest...

Tianya held a pot of wine in his hand, raised his head, and emptied it. He then wiped his mouth with his sleeve smilingly.

“My granddaughter's wine is so good. No wonder the old master of the Helian family also misses it. If I didn't come here, I am afraid that he would keep bugging me, begging me for this wine...”

‘Good wine, delicious wine!’

Just when Tianya was raising his head again to drink, a little girl fell from the sky, with an eagle, and landed before him...

Tianya froze. He looked down at the little girl in front of him and then raised his head to look at the sky, confused.

“How can a child fall from the sky?”

‘This little girl is only about ten years old... What has happened to her? Why does she look so messy?’

Tianya pondered for a short while and decided to take this girl back to be friends with Xia Xia.

But...

He did not know where this girl came from. Was it alright if he simply took her away?

Just when Tianya was hesitating, countless figures descended from the sky and landed in front of Tianya.

These people's aura was overwhelming, like sharp swords, and they instantly rushed toward the unconscious little girl.

Tianya's face darkened. How dared this group of people to bully a child in front of him?

Just when the group was about to reach the little girl, Tianya moved, and in the blink of an eye, he was already standing in front of the group.

His face was stern and cold, his red robes fluttering with the wind.

“Get lost!”

Two words, but they contained a powerful force, causing everyone’s chest to tighten. They suddenly vomited blood, flying a few meters back.

Their eyes were filled with cautiousness as they steadied themselves and stared at Tianya. “She is the Zhang family’s young master’s future wife. She ran away with someone, so we have the right to bring her back. Please do not interfere in this matter.”

Perhaps it was because of Tianya’s powerful aura that made these people fearful and was quite polite to him, not daring to have any conflict.

“Future wife?” Tianya smiled coldly as he looked down at the little girl lying on the ground. “Do you mean this girl or that eagle?”

The group was speechless.

They gritted their teeth and said, “It’s that little girl.”

“Oh, but this little girl looks young, so young to be a wife. You said she ran with someone. It wouldn’t be with this eagle, right?” Tianya asked and looked at the group of people in front of him fiercely...

He did not know where these people came from but did they think he was a fool?

“Brother...”

A soft murmur came from the little girl’s mouth.

Tianya stopped, frowned, and stared at the little girl on the ground.

The little girl was still unconscious. Her small face was pale, and she seemed to be in pain.

“Don’t kill my brother...”

Her voice carried panic, helplessness, and... Grief...

Tianya turned to look at these people. “It seems that you not only chased this little girl but also killed her brother. What I hate most in this life is bullying! Now, this little girl is still unconscious. I will let you go first... I want one of you to go back and tell your master that Tianya will visit him soon.”

‘Tian... Tianya!’

This name, like a thunderbolt, made this group of people all dumbfounded.

Everyone in Land of No Return knew Tianya, not only because of his strength and achievements but also...

He loved to meddle with others’ business!

Chapter 1824: Bringing Back a Little Girl

The group stared at Tianya with eyes filled with fear. They panic, subconsciously retreating backward.

Tianya did not give them any more chances.

He moved as fast as the wind, and in a flash, he was already in front of them. He waved his wand, and bright rays of light shone from his palm. Suddenly, those people all fell to the ground in front of him, leaving only one person standing frozen and unblinking.

“Get lost!” Tianya snapped expressionlessly. “After a few days, I will go to you. I can’t believe that such a thing is still happening in Tianling Kingdom.”

The man came back to his senses and looked at his companions who had fallen in a pool of blood. He left swiftly without looking back, afraid that if he stayed for a moment longer, he would lose his life here.

Tianya turned back; his eyes fell upon the little girl lying on the ground. He frowned. He picked her up and sighed as he turned to look at the eagle.

‘This eagle is quite big and heavy...’

Fortunately, the eagle did not stay unconscious for long and woke up soon. After it saw Nalan Dai’er being carried on Tianya’s shoulders, it panicked and cawed anxiously.

Tianya glanced at the eagle. “Don’t worry. I won’t hurt her. This little girl is seriously injured, so I’ll take her back. If you’re worried, then you can follow me back.”

The eagle cawed lowly, but it did not stop Tianya from leaving as it did not have the strength to stop him. It then followed Tianya silently while its eyes were still fixed upon Nalan Dai’er...

***

Inside General Manor...

Feng Ruqing discussed something with someone, and suddenly, an old voice came from outside the door. “Qing’er, I picked up a little girl for you. She can stay here and become Xia Xia’s friend.”

Feng Ruqing raised her eyebrows. She stood up from her chair and walked toward Tianya.

Immediately, she saw the little girl being carried on Tianya’s shoulders.

This little girl’s head was down, so Feng Ruqing did not see her face clearly.

However, when Tianya put the little girl down...

Feng Ruqing’s face changed dramatically. Endless anger surged from her heart like a fierce storm.

Tianya froze and looked at Feng Ruqing, confused.

“Qing’er?”

Feng Ruqing ignored Tianya. She raised her hand and pulled the little girl on the ground into her arms.

More than two years... The little girl had become more beautiful, but her features were still the same. Feng Ruqing’s heart suddenly ached.

“Where did you find her?”

The white phoenix only said Nalan Jing was here but did not tell her that Nalan Dai'er had also come with him.

She clenched her fists tightly, looking at the little girl's unconscious appearance. The anger in her heart almost burned her.

"Oh, I found her in the forest. Someone was chasing after this little girl. I heard that that group of people killed her brother. Those people wanted to force her to marry their young master. I pitied this little girl, so I brought her back."

Tang Yin ran out of the room after hearing Tianya's words. She looked down, staring at the familiar little girl...

Chapter 1825: Brother Nalan is Dead?

'Brother Nalan is dead?'

Feng Ruqing held Nalan Dai'er tightly as she pursed her lips and walked toward the backyard without saying a word.

There seemed to be a terrifying storm brewing in her eyes.

Tianya turned to look at Tang Yin, somewhat puzzled. "What's wrong with Qing'er?"

Tang Yin lowered her eyes. Her heart was cold, with endless grief and anger.

"Does Grandfather Tianya know who that little girl is?"

"Who is she?"

Tianya became even more confused. "Is she Qing'er's friend?"

Tang Yin closed her eyes, and when she opened them again, her eyes were full of despair.

"She's Nalan Dai'er."

'Nalan Dai'er!'

Tianya suddenly stiffened and asked in disbelief. "Who did you say this little girl is?"

"Nalan Dai'er. Her brother is Nalan Jing! Brother Nalan is dead. He's dead..."

Brother Nalan would always bring delicious food to her and offend his father to protect her... He was dead now...

He would always tolerate her and indulge her no matter what mistakes she made... Tang Yin's heart ached... She had never been this sad before...

Tianya froze.

Qing'er had told him about Nalan Dai'er before...

And they were searching for Nalan Jing...

But now... One was unconscious, and one was dead!

Anger burned within him and seemed to seep into the surroundings, filling up the entire courtyard. Everyone could feel the murderous aura in Tianya's heart; no one dared to say a word...

Xia Xia stood confused, biting her fingers. She did not know what was happening here.

However, she could feel the sadness in her mother and Aunt Tang and sense the anger in Grandfather Tianya...

"General..."

Just then, a figure hurriedly ran over and said, "Someone outside has come to meet you, saying they're from the Zhang family."

"The Zhang family? Which Zhang family?"

"The Zhang family of Tian Feng City!"

'The Zhang family of Tian Feng City?'

Tianya smirked.

"Let him in."

"Yes, General!"

Tang Yin raised her face, tears pouring down her delicate face as she said, "Grandfather Tianya, is the Zhang family of Tian Feng City related to the death of Brother Nalan?"

"Yes..."

Tianya did not know which Zhang family those people in the forest were talking about.

However...

He had nothing to do with the people of Tian Feng City, and now that they had suddenly come to his door. He could not help but think of the Zhang family that was responsible for this tragedy!

Tang Yin clenched her fists tightly. She turned and saw the guards walking over with a middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man was cold and looked somewhat arrogant, but he smiled brightly when he saw Tianya.

He looked humble now because he knew Tianya well, and he did not want to make any mistakes in front of Tianya.

However, he did not know that he had already committed an unforgivable fault from the moment he abducted Nalan Jing and Nalan Dai'er...

"General Tianya..."

Zhang Tianlei stepped forward with a smile. "I saw the 'wanted' notice put up by your people. I just happened to meet the person you are looking for, and I've brought him to Wu Shang City."

Chapter 1826: Reward?

Tianya clenched his fists tightly, but before seeing Nalan Jing, he must hold his anger back. "Where is that man?!"

Zhang Tianlei's heart thumped harder as he looked at Tianya's cold expression...

Could it be that... Tianya was not happy because he did not bring that guy to General Manor today?

"He's still in the inn. General Tianya, I'll ask someone to bring him here."

Zhang Tianlei hurriedly winked at the man beside him and ordered him to bring Nalan Jing.

The man saw Zhang Tianlei's wink and hurriedly retreated.

The breeze was somewhat warm today, but when it brushed against Tang Yin, she felt cold.

Her small fist clenched tighter and tighter, looking at Zhang Tianlei with hatred.

Zhang Tianlei was somewhat puzzled. 'Have I offended this little girl before? Why does she stare at me as if I've killed her whole family...'

"General Tianya, I don't understand... When did I offend this little girl?"

He frowned.

Tianya was still expressionless, with an endless storm hidden behind his eyes.

"When will that man arrive?"

"It's not far. It should be soon."

Tianya did not answer him, and he did not dare to continue asking questions for fear that he might offend this old guy.

As time passed by, Zhang Tianlei was somewhat awkward and uncomfortable.

Fortunately, his men soon dragged the half-dead Nalan Jing over.

He quietly sighed in relief.

He thought that with Nalan Jing here, Tianya should no longer treat him coldly...

Suddenly, a gust of wind passed by, and Tianya's figure instantly landed next to Nalan Jing, snatched him from Zhang Tianlei's arms, and threw him to Tang Yin.

"Take a look. Is it him?"

Tang Yin's eyes fell upon the man's handsome face.

He was still the same as two years ago...

He would always smile at her brightly.

However, now... He could not smile anymore!

Tang Yin brushed the man's face with her fingers as tears flowed, instantly soaking her face.

Zhang Tianlei only paid attention to Tianya. Moreover, the hatred in Tang Yin's eyes just now made him a little creeped out, so he never looked at her again. He did not notice the grief in her eyes the moment she saw Nalan Jing...

Tianya turned to Tang Yin and said coldly, "Qing'er is in the room. You send him to Qing'er, and both of you stay in there. I will take care of it."

Tang Yin naturally understood that saving Nalan Jing and Dai'er was the most important thing now. She did not argue much with Tianya and simply nodded as she looked at Zhang Tianlei with eyes filled with murderous intent before leaving.

Zhang Tianlei could feel the murderous aura even without looking at Tang Yin. He trembled a little and smiled awkwardly.

"General Tianya, I've already sent the man and about the reward you've promised..."

"Of course, I will give it to you!" Tianya sneered as he walked toward Zhang Tianlei.

Zhang Tianlei smiled. "Great. General Tianya is known for keeping his words and..."

Before Zhang Tianlei could finish his words, Tianya's red robes flapped, and in an instant, his foot had landed on Zhang Tianlei's head.

Tianya kicked him hard, sending his body crashing into the wall.

Chapter 1827: The Price of Hurting Him

Zhang Tianlei was dumbfounded. He looked at Tianya blankly, and his eyes were full of doubts. "General Tianya, you..."

Tianya slammed his fist down hard, smashing Zhang Tianlei's face hard, and he almost passed out from the dizziness.

Zhang Tianlei spurted a mouthful of blood and fell to the ground helplessly.

Then, an old voice spoke from above his head, carrying a wave of unconcealable anger.

"Is there a little girl who has already run away?"

Zhang Tianlei raised his head in surprise. Could Tianya be angry and hitting him because he also wanted Nalan Dai'er, and he had only brought back one?

"General Tianya, that little girl has run away."

"Then, do you know where she is now?" Tianya asked coldly.

Zhang Tianlei's face was pale, and his body was a little cold. "I don't know..."

Bang!

Tianya stomped his foot on Zhang Tianlei's chest.

"She is in my manor!"

This sentence made Zhang Tianlei even more confused as if he did not know what Tianya meant now.

'Nalan Dai'er is here?

'Why?'

Tianya put his foot back and asked expressionlessly, "Then, do you know why I sent someone to draw a portrait to find Nalan Jing?"

"I..." Zhang Tianlei gritted his teeth. "I don't know..."

"Because Nalan Jing's grandfather is my in-law!"

'Nalan Jing's grandfather is my in-law!'

This voice filled Zhang Tianlei's mind, and he was a bit confused.

'Nalan Jing's grandfather is Tianya's in-law... It means that Nalan Jing is his granddaughter's cousin?'

His mind instantly went blank.

"He... He..."

At this moment, panic had begun to invade his heart, causing his face to turn paler.

'How did it turn out like this?!'

He had rushed over to flatter Tianya, but who knew that Nalan Jing turned out to be the cousin of General Manor's young lady?

"Guess one last time, what will be your downfall for treating the Nalan siblings like this?" Tianya's face was gloomy, filled with murderous intent, and Zhang Tianlei's red robes looked like they were dyed red with blood.

Thoroughly panicked, he rose from the ground and kowtowed to Tianya.

"General Tianya, spare my life. Nalan Jing is not dead. He is still alive... I didn't kill him..."

If he had not seen the notice, perhaps, Nalan Jing would have been dead.

Fortunately... Fortunately, he did not kill Nalan Jing.

Otherwise, no matter how hard he pleaded for mercy, Tianya would never let him go.

"You mean, Nalan Jing was only injured?" Tianya smiled coldly.

Zhang Tianlei coughed up blood. "General, you can beat me, but please... I don't want to die. Please spare my life."

Tianya sneered. "Do you know the price of hurting him?"

Hearing these words, Zhang Tianlei understood that Tianya was not going to let him off lightly.

He raised his head stiffly, swallowed hard, and his voice trembled as he spoke, "I..."

Chapter 1828: He Did Not Want To Get Her Hands Dirty

“You hurt him, and you will die!”

Even if he did not do it, his precious granddaughter would do it.

Therefore, he would punish Zhang Tianlei for his precious granddaughter, as he did not want to get her hands dirty...

A burst of coldness filled Zhang Tianlei’s heart, and he was stunned. “People said that General Tianya is an upright man. I admit that I’ve hurt Nalan Jing, and I’m willing to accept the same punishment, but I didn’t kill him. Why would you treat me so cruelly?”

Tianya wanted to kill him...

Was this price a little too high?

“You hurt Nalan Jing first beforehand. Is it wrong if I punish you for that? Secondly, if you have not seen the ‘wanted’ notice, I’m afraid that Nalan Jing would have already lost his life, and... Two years ago, I, General Tianya, had no one to protect...”

Two years ago, he was alone and had no relatives.

He was strict to Feng Lianqing and others, with no mercy.

However...

After Qing’er came, he had a reason to be unreasonable. He would protect her no matter what kind of situation.

Nalan Jing was not only a member of the Nalan family but also... Someone who Qing’er cared a lot about.

Tianya raised his long sword and walked toward Zhang Tianlei.

He then swung his sword and cut Zhang Tianlei’s finger.

The pain made him cry out in agony.

This was the equivalent of giving him a thousand cuts. This kind of pain was not something that ordinary people could endure.

“Grandfather Tianya...”

A voice came from behind him.

Tianya turned his head around and saw Tang Yin walking over, holding a little girl’s hand.

This little girl’s face was a bit pale, and her big eyes seemed angry as she looked at Zhang Tianlei.

As for Tang Yin, she was still teary, and her eyes were filled with hatred.

“Xiao Qing is saving Brother Nalan. She can’t come out now. Dai’er has woken up, so I brought her here. I want her to watch him die!”

Tianya's gaze fell upon Dai'er.

The first time he saw this little girl, he felt some fondness for her, not expecting that she was the Nalan family member.

How heartbroken the Nalan family would be if they saw Dai'er and Nalan Jing wounded to such an extent.

Nalan Dai'er raised her stubborn face as she turned to Zhang Tianlei.

"I secretly followed my brother and came to Land of No Return, but not long after I arrived, I met Zhang Tianlei's son.

"His son saw me and thought I was cute, so he wanted to take me away. Later, the Zhang family's people abducted my brother and I, and forbade us to go out...

"But I could still walk freely in Zhang Manor, so I went to the backyard and saw an eagle fell. It said it was hiding from the Nan family and was injured. I picked it up and fed it the spirit herb given to me by my cousin before to save it...

"Zhang Tianlei said I stole his spirit herbs. He locked me up and forced my brother to give him all the spirit herbs. My brother risked his life to save me... It was all my fault."

If she had known, there would be today... She would never remove the scars on her face...

In this way, she would not have attracted the villains and suffered serious injuries.

Tianya's heart ached. "Xiao Dai'er, Nalan Jing will be fine. Being beautiful is not a sin. Those who see beautiful girls and use all means to get the girls they like are the ones that should be blamed."

Chapter 1829: Let Them Get Married? I

Nalan Dai'er looked up and stared hard at Zhang Tianlei.

'Yes, it's not my fault. It's these people who are at fault...'

"Housekeeper..." Tianya's face was cold. "Torture him to death and inform me when he dies. I will take Dai'er to Tian Feng City, and those who have hurt her in the Zhang family will pay the same price as him!"

"Yes, General," the housekeeper replied respectfully.

Zhang Tianlei's gaze was filled with despair; his heart was so oppressed that he could not utter another word...

***

Nalan Jing felt like he had a long dream.

In this dream, he saw a young girl smile at him.

It then became a memory that he could never erase... Perhaps, he and she had a connection that could never be severed.

She was also the person he could never let go of in this world.

“Brother Nalan...”

A clear voice called out to him that sounded close to his ears.

“Xiao Qing, why hasn’t Brother Nalan woken up yet...”

He could hear her sobbing quietly, and his heart ached for her.

Cold tears fell upon his hands and seemingly into his heart...

He wanted to open his eyes and raise his hand to wipe away her tears, but he had no strength to do so...

Then came another familiar voice.

“He will wake up soon. Xiao Yin, you stay here with him. I’ll come back later.”

After saying these words, the voice traveled further away and gradually disappeared.

Nalan Jing felt that only the young girl was left alone in the room.

The young girl’s hand was warm, holding his big hand. “Mother was injured to save me. She has not woken up until now... Brother Nalan, you once said that you wanted to protect me. There are so many evil people in Land of No Return. They want to kill me...”

“Oh, they also said they want to catch me to turn me into their slave. I don’t know what they will do to me, but it sounds a little scary. Brother Nalan, those bad people will take me away if you don’t wake up and protect me.”

***

His breath grew heavier. The young girl’s words were like a hand; fiercely pinching his heart.

Perhaps it was the anxiety and anger in his heart that made him suddenly open his eyes.

His voice was dry and hoarse but filled with determination.

“I won’t let you go.”

A small face with a bright smile reflected before his eyes.

Tang Yin jumped into Nalan Jing’s arms, holding him so hard that he almost spurted blood.

Tang Yin did not notice that she had caused secondary injury to Nalan Jing. She stared at him, unblinking. “Brother Nalan, how are you doing? Does your body still hurt?”

Nalan Jing was a little breathless. However, looking at the young girl’s smile, he could not say that and smiled back at her after all.

“I’m fine.”

The man raised his hand and brushed away the tears at the corner of her eyes with his fingers. “Don’t cry...”

Chapter 1830: Let Them Get Married? II

Tang Yin nodded obediently. "Brother Nalan, I'm strong now. Not as strong as Xiao Qing and that vixen, but... I'm already stronger than you. I'm not the little girl that you had to protect back then."

Nalan Jing was speechless.

Her words had left him with mixed emotions.

"So..." Tang Yin smiled, revealing her cute tiger teeth. "In the future, you will follow me, and I will protect you."

Nalan Jing was slightly stunned; he looked at the little girl's smug face and smiled gently.

"Alright..."

Bang!

The door of the room was pushed open. Nalan Dai'er just walked in through the door, and what she saw at a glance was Tang Yin, who was pressing against Nalan Jing's chest.

Her eyes widened abruptly, and she was shocked.

"Dai'er?" Tang Yin cocked her head and looked at Nalan Dai'er, confused. "Your brother is awake, but why do you look unhappy?"

Only then did Nalan Dai'er slowly come back to her senses. "Oh, with the help of our cousin sister, my brother can't die... So I'm not too surprised."

Nalan Jing grabbed his chest; he felt a little pain in his heart.

After saying that, Nalan Dai'er turned around and left and thoughtfully closed the door for them.

The moment she stepped out of the room, she ran excitedly to the front yard. A big smile filled her small face.

"Cousin Sister! Cousin Sister!"

***

The front yard.

Feng Ruqing was sitting on a chair with two leopards peeling the grapes for her.

She leaned against the man in a white robe and smiled coldly as she looked at the miserable Zhang Tianlei in the courtyard.

Suddenly, a cheerful voice spoke. Feng Ruqing turned and saw Xiao Dai'er pouncing over excitedly.

However, before she could jump into Feng Ruqing's arms, she was stopped by a hand and was thrown aside.

Nan Xian glanced coldly, frightening Xiao Dai'er.

For some reason, she had always felt that her cousin sister's husband was a bit scary...

And he seemed to dislike any girl who was around her cousin.

“Cousin Sister, I’m here to tell you good news.”

She smiled brightly with her eyes narrowed into crescent moons.

“Good news?” Feng Ruqing paused, “Cousin Nalan... He’s awake?”

“Not only that, but I also saw Sister Xiao Yin and my brother kissing and hugging in bed.”

‘Kissing and hugging... In bed?’

Feng Ruqing’s face stiffened, she hesitated for a moment. “His body has not yet recovered. For now... It’s better if he controls himself... But they have been separated for so many years, so... It’s normal to have that feeling. I’ll prepare some tonic medicine for him. You send it to him later.”

“Alright...”

Dai’er smiled.

‘If Mother knew this news, she would jump happily...

‘And Father...He would cry nonstop.

‘After all, Father has always thought that Sister Xiao Yin was too naughty. But Sister Xiao Yin is also our family... Soon, she will become Father’s daughter-in-law!’

“Oh, one more thing...” Feng Ruqing frowned. “State Preceptor, we have to prepare a wedding for them. I can’t let this matter ruin Tang Yin’s reputation.”
