Chapter 1841: The News of the Beastman Leaked I

Nine Gate.

The elder in grey robes sat in the study room, frowning.

In the past few days, Nine Gate's disciples had endured countless attempts to kill them, but after those people had attacked the disciples, they disappeared without a trace, as if they had never appeared.

No matter how much the people of Nine Gate searched, there was no trace of those people.

"Your Holiness..." A red-robed old man pondered for a moment and asked, "Don't you think these people are Tianya's men? Didn't they already know that we were the ones who sent people to take Nan Chiyou in the first place?"

Tianya already knew that it was Nine Gate who tried to kidnap Xia Xia.

And...

On top of that, there was another piece of news that shocked them even more.

"It shouldn't be Tianya. That old man has always been arrogant. If he wanted to settle accounts with us, he would come to Nine Gate, and he won't kill those innocent disciples out there."

Hui Yue smiled faintly and continued, "What's more, we still have Tianya's secret in our hands."

"You mean... The news that the young girl called Tang Yin from Tianya's manor is a beastman? And it seems that her mother is Silver Snake Queen." The red-robed old man frowned. "If this news spreads, General Manor will be attacked by countless people. Besides the Nan family and Nine Gate, other forces are quite strong in this mainland."

That girl would naturally attract countless people to come to her.

They would use her to cultivate and make a breakthrough to the next rank.

"Indeed..." Hui Yue's face was expressionless. "I am extremely disgraceful about this matter! This kind of behavior will be condemned by heaven! But many people won't care about that. They just want to double-cultivate with her to get stronger power."

As the leader of Nine Gate, he had his great pride.

He would only make a breakthrough with his ability and never do such a heartless thing.

However...

Others would not care so much and would only do as they pleased.

"Who's that?"

Just at this moment, Hui Yue frowned as he quickly pushed open the door.

In an instant, a young disciple fell to the ground with panic in his eyes.

“Your... Holiness...”

The two men looked at each other; both saw alarm in the other’s eyes.

Hui Yue turned to look at the young disciple and asked coldly, “What are you doing here?”

The disciple shivered. “Nine... Nine Gate has been attacked again, and I’m here to report that.”

“So, what did you just hear?” Hui Yue asked expressionlessly.

They were so cautious about this matter of beastman. They did not want someone to do such a heartless thing.

Of course, at this moment, Hui Yue forgot that he had tried to separate a mother from her daughter before, and compared to this matter, it was equally heartless.

And he was selfish...

He was afraid that someone would take advantage of Tang Yin to make a breakthrough and overtake Nine Gate...

Only Nan Chiyou could save Nine Gate. She would undoubtedly be more powerful than any man in this mainland.

However, they failed to bring Nan Chiyou back. So he had to do something for Nine Gate’s future...

Chapter 1842: The News of the Beastman Leaked II

The disciple trembled and said, “I just arrived. I am not sure I understand what Your Holiness just said. Please spare my life.”

Hui Yue glanced at the disciple coldly. Seeing that the young man did not look like he was lying, Hui Yue nodded and said, “Alright, you can leave.”

After all, no one had dared to eavesdrop on his conversation.

The young disciple subconsciously sighed with relief as he hurriedly ran up and disappeared in a flash.

When the disciple left, Hui Yue turned and was about to leave when he saw another disciple approaching hurriedly and reported, “Your Holiness, our disciple squad that was outside today has been attacked again.”

Ever since someone attacked the disciple squad, Hui Yue had ordered all disciples around this mainland to return to Nine Gate as soon as they could.

However, it would take time to come back.

Therefore...

The disciple squads could not return to Nine Gate again as most of them had been killed on their way back.

Hui Yue was stunned. “I remember only one disciple squad was left outside, right? Someone already came to report just now. Why are you still here to report again?”

The green-robed disciple knelt and looked at Hui Yue, surprised. "Your Holiness, only one disciple came back today, and that disciple was already wounded, so I came to report him on his behalf. There was no other person."

That group of people seemed to provoke Nine Gate. They would only let one disciple live and send him back to report the news. But this time, the person was seriously injured, and he had fallen unconscious before he could say anything.

The green-robed disciple was the one who was guarding the mountain gate, so he had hurriedly come to report.

Hui Yue and the red-robed old man looked at each other again, and their expressions changed dramatically.

"That person should be a spy from another force!"

He gritted his teeth and rushed in the direction where the young disciple had just left.

***

The young disciple looked back from the top of the back mountain; he carefully tied a letter to the pigeon's leg and let the pigeon fly into the sky.

A moment later, he heard footsteps coming from behind him and smiled bitterly.

He already knew that Hui Yue would find out that he was lying.

Fortunately, he had sent the news.

His master would not disturb his family again...

***

A few days later, in the sky above Nan Manor, a white pigeon crossed the sky, flew over, and landed on Nan Fang's finger.

He unwrapped the letter on the pigeon's leg and glanced at the letter, a cold smile formed on his mouth.

"There is a girl in Tianya's manor who is a beastman. Her mother is a silver snake queen. She's gifted and can be used to make a breakthrough. If we capture this girl, perhaps... I can improve my cultivation and reach a higher rank."

Standing behind Nan Fang was an old man, who respectfully said, "Master, then is it time to start making moves against Tianya?"

"Yes..." Nan Fang lowered his eyes and sneered. "And what I want more than this girl is Suyi! But I'm worried that I can't leave Nan City to bring Suyi back. Now is the right opportunity! You spread this news, and when Tianya is dead, no one will protect Suyi again!"

Nan Fang never thought that Suyi's daughter-in-law was the young lady of General Manor.

He would not find Tianya's manor if he did not order his man to follow Nan Luo.

Nan Luo was useless! She never contacted him after she went there and did not even tell him her whereabouts!

Fortunately...

There was a beastman living with Tianya, allowing him a chance to destroy Tianya and get Suyi back.

Chapter 1843: The News of the Beastman Leaked III

“Master, that girl also seems to be of great use. If someone else gets her first, won’t it...”

Nan Fang sneered. “I’ll use those people to destroy Tianya. After all, I can’t leave Nan City! Once I get that girl, she will have no way to help other men! But I won’t keep her with me because Suyi might be unhappy about this!”

The old man lowered his head.

“One more thing...” Nan Fang raised the letter in his hand. “Kill this guy’s wife and children. Kill all of them, and leave no one behind!”

The old man was shocked and raised his head to look at Nan Fang. “Master...”

“That guy sent a message out. Nine Gate will notice him and kill him. The Nan family doesn’t need trash like him!”

“But...” The old man’s face was pale. “Master, you will scare the people in Nan City, and they will never work for you again!”

“Well, just find a random excuse. Just say that the Nan family has been attacked, and that man is a spy and has betrayed the Nan family. He and his family should be executed for that reason!”

Nan Fang’s tone was not heavy, as if he was talking about a simple matter.

The old man trembled a little. He did not know whether his decision to submit to Nan Fang was right or wrong.

Nan Fang always left no room for discussion. Once his men or his officer were no longer useful to him, he could be ruthless and kill them as he wished.

However, there was no turning back... It was too late to regret.

“Master, his youngest daughter... She’s just two years old, and his sister-in-law just gave birth. How about... Forgive these two children?”

These children were innocent. Even the most ruthless people should have some tolerance for them.

Nan Fang looked at the old man coldly.

His gaze was as sharp as a knife, so harsh that the old man trembled and closed his mouth.

“I don’t want another Tianya in the future, so...” Nan Fang laughed coldly. “Everyone in his family, even the ants, and mice... I won’t let them go!”

The old man lowered his head, his voice trembling. “Yes, Master.”

He had tried to speak for them. There was nothing he could do if his master disagreed.

He did not dare to speak more, afraid that the next unlucky one would be him...

Of course, it was also because of Nan Fang's words and actions that he started to find a way back for himself as well.

He did not want to be called useless. Otherwise, his family might be in danger too.

The reason he opened his mouth was that he felt pity for the innocent children, and...

He hoped that there would be that day, his master could spare his poor children.

Yet, now it seemed that... There was no such possibility...

The old man lowered his gaze, hiding the emotions under his eyes, and only after half a second did he ease up quite a bit and cupped his fist. "Master, I'll take my leave."

"Go..."

Nan Fang waved his sleeve and said indifferently.

The old man retreated, hurried away, and soon disappeared.

He did not see that Nan Fang had been staring at his departing figure with eyes filled with murderous intent.

'What I need is someone who will follow all my orders! If this old man already has the guts to speak against me, there will be no need to keep him with me anymore...'

Chapter 1844: The News of the Beastman Leaked IV

'But...

'I can still use that old man for something. I'll let him go for now, and when he is completely useless, he and his family will disappear from my Nan City forever!'

The old man did not know that his short moment of compassion would cost him his life, and... Even his family was dragged into it.

***

General Manor was filled with lights and decorations, and even red lanterns were hung high on the door.

Everyone knew that someone was going to get married, but no one knew who it was.

Therefore, every time someone passed by General Manor, they could not help but poke around, but the people in General Manor had never told them anything.

In fact, except for Feng Lianqing, other people in the manor also did not know who was getting married, so naturally, there was no way to answer them.

***

A gentle breeze blew at the window curtains, flipping them up and down.

The young girl put her hand on her cheek, looking down at the silver snake lying still on the bed.

“Mother, do you know that someone in General Manor is going to get married...”

“They won’t tell me who it is, but I already knew it must be Feng Lianqing and Helian Yue. Helian Yue must be embarrassed to say it after what Feng Lianqing had done to her before.

“But... Feng Lianqing... He’s quite unsuitable for Helian Yue.”

She and Helian Yue were enemies first, but after knowing what Feng Lianqing did to Helian Yue, Tang Yin felt that he was not worthy of her.

However, if Helian Yue loved him, she had no right to stop them and only wished for their happiness.

“Xiao Qing seems to be very busy preparing for Feng Lianqing’s wedding. Nan Xian that vixen is not here, not even accompanying Xiao Qing. Oh, and Brother Nalan... He always comes to me and gives me soup...”

“He must have been bribed by that vixen, trying to fatten me up! It’s a pity... Xiao Qing said she liked fat people, even if I am fat, Xiao Qing will not abandon me...”

Every day, Tang Yin would talk to Xiao Ya, hoping that Xiao Ya would wake up from her sleep after hearing her voice.

However, every day, she would leave the room with disappointment...

Creak!

The door was pushed open.

Tang Yin turned and saw Feng Ruqing carrying a red wedding dress and walking toward her.

The color was beautiful, bright as blood.

Tang Yin was a bit confused as Feng Ruqing dragged her outside. “Come and try on the dress.”

“Try on the dress?” Tang Yin looked at the gorgeous red dress in Feng Ruqing’s hand and was somewhat dazed. “You want me to help you try on the wedding dress? Sure, we’re about the same size anyway.”

She and Helian Yue were both about the same height.

‘I guess Helian Yue is too embarrassed to come, so she was asking me to try it on instead?’

Tang Yin smiled brightly.

No one saw that the moment Tang Yin and Feng Ruqing stepped out of the room...

The silver snake’s skin gradually began to shed.

Of course, it did not fall off entirely, only half off, and then still, no movement again, continued to lie unconscious quietly on the bed...

At this moment, Feng Ruqing was busy preparing Tang Yin’s wedding, and Nan Xian had left to find the mysterious man stalking his family.

As for Tianya... After he knew someone had attacked Nine Gate and the Nan City secretly, he was also busy investigating this matter.

So, no one realized that... There was a big storm heading to the mainland.

Chapter 1845: Two Idiots

“Mother...”

Qing Han and Fu Chen stood in front of Feng Ruqing quietly.

Feng Ruqing frowned. These days, the uneasy feeling in her heart was getting stronger, making her a bit restless.

She was uneasy because of Xia Xia before, but this time...

Could it be that Nine Gate was coming to them again?

“Qing Han, Fu Chen, recently, you guys have been patrolling around with spirit beasts. I always feel that something is about to happen. No matter what, Cousin Nalan and Tang Yin’s wedding should go on smoothly.”

“Alright...”

Fu Chen smiled gently. “You have a wedding to prepare for. Just leave these things to us.”

“Good...”

Feng Ruqing smiled and stood up. She then saw Nalan Jing walking toward her.

“Qing’er...” Nalan Jing pursed his lips and stood in front of Feng Ruqing, looking at her blankly. “Who is actually getting married in General Manor?”

Feng Ruqing pondered for a moment. “I can’t tell you now. Oh, and if you are free, come to try on the wedding robe.”

Nalan Jing’s face stiffened, and he lowered his head. “Why do you want me to try? I’m afraid it’s not good if I try on the robe.”

After all, it was a wedding item that others would use; how could he just try it on?

“Cousin, tell me honestly, is it possible that Xiao Yin has a man she likes in these two years?”

Yesterday, when he went to look for Tang Yin, he happened to see Tang Yin wearing a red wedding dress, smiling brightly.

That kind of happiness...

Once he saw that scene, he felt like a piece of ice had just stabbed his heart.

‘No wonder Tang Yin has always been missing recently, perhaps... She already has someone she loves and will marry him soon.

‘Is that why Cousin is hiding it from me?’

Feng Ruqing was speechless.

How should she tell Nalan Jing that the people who would get married were him and Tang Yin?

However, once Nalan Jing knew, he would certainly tell Tang Yin the truth...

She hesitated for a moment and said, "Cousin Nalan, you don't need to think much. You'll know in two days."

Nalan Jing's body stiffened. 'As expected, it must be because Tang Yin is going to marry someone that Cousin chooses to hide it from me...'

Otherwise...

'If other people are getting married, why am I the only one who has no idea who is getting married?'

"Cousin, I understand..."

Nalan Jing smiled bitterly. "I will respect her choice."

He had always wanted Tang Yin to let go of Feng Ruqing and begin a new life with a man who cared for her, but he did not expect that in the end, she still wanted to marry someone else.

After saying that, Nalan Jing gave Feng Ruqing no chance to say anything else as he turned around and left.

Qing Han was a bit confused. "Mother, what does Uncle mean? Aunt Tang's choice? But Aunt Tang does not have a choice; Mother arranged it."

Fu Chen was speechless. "It's so tiring to watch these two idiots in love."

Two idiots...

Feng Ruqing glanced at Fu Chen and Qing Han smilingly.

"You guys go and do your thing. You don't have to think about Cousin Nalan and Tang Yin. Let them be..."

One was her own family member, and the other was her best friend... Of course, she wanted the best for them.

The only pity she felt was that her uncles and Grandfather Nalan were not in Land of No Return...

Chapter 1846: Found Him I

A roar filled with pain echoed throughout the entire mountain.

The young girl stood outside the room, heartbroken as she listened to the sounds coming from inside.

Boom!

Powerful flames erupted, destroying the whole room.

The force swirled toward the young girl and knocked her to the ground. She spurted a mouthful of blood, shocked and horrified.

But... She loved Feng Chen.

She did not want to leave him.

She knew that she could not approach Feng Chen at this moment, but watching him from afar was already enough for her.

“Qing...” The young man opened his eyes.

His eyes had gone bright red as if they were burning with the flames.

However, at that moment...

An image of a beautiful smile suddenly flashed through his mind.

“Qing... Qing...”

He clenched his fists, breathing hard through his nose as if this was the only way he could maintain his sanity.

If he forgot about her one day, then his purpose of becoming stronger would be useless... Just like when he was in Hua Xia back then.

Without her, life would lose its meaning.

Strength, money could not compare to her smile...

As the young girl stood up, she heard Feng Chen’s murmur the name that stuck in her heart like a thorn, and she could not help but smile bitterly...

No matter how long she had been close to Feng Chen, and even after that woman had gotten married, he could never forget her...

However...

She still wanted to watch him even from afar.

She knew that he already had someone in his heart, but she would still follow him...

Forever.

Suddenly, a gentle breeze blew by.

A man in snow-white robes appeared in the sky not far away and landed in the courtyard.

He was very handsome and stunning, with eyes as cold as the moon.

“Feng Chen...”

The young girl was stunned for a moment, and when she regained her senses, she rushed forward and blocked the man. “Who are you? Are you here to find Master Feng?”

‘Master Feng has too many enemies, and recently he has attacked Nan City and Nine Gate for a woman...’

She was afraid that the man in front of her was here to find trouble with Feng Chen.

The man looked at the young girl coldly and did not say a word. He moved, like a gust of wind, and in the blink of an eye, he was already in front of Feng Chen.

Feng Chen opened his eyes weakly, staring at the familiar face.

It was so familiar that it made him panic.

“You...”

‘Why would he appear in this place? Does that also mean that Qingqing...’

“Do you really think we don’t know anything?” Nan Xian walked up to him expressionlessly. “You sent your people to spy on us outside General Manor. Qing’er and I have long been looking for you. She guessed it was you, but she could not confirm it. Now seeing you here finally convinced me that you’re the person behind this.”

Feng Chen lowered his eyes; a bitter smile hung on the corners of his mouth. “She knows me so well.”

Chapter 1847: Found Him II

Unfortunately, he was discovered by her after all...

“Can you not tell Qing’er? I don’t want her to know.”

“Why?” Nan Xian stared at Feng Chen coldly. “She wants to see you very much.”

Feng Chen shook his head. “I can’t see her for now. Nan Xian, don’t tell her that I’m here. Just pretend that you didn’t find me. Otherwise, I’m afraid I’ll hurt her...”

He wanted to protect her.

He would rather hurt everyone than ever hurt her.

“I will not lie to Qing’er.”

Nan Xian raised his hand and struck Feng Chen. “Nalan Jing’s wedding is coming up. I need to rush back. You can’t follow me with your current condition, but I will bring Qing’er to you. I’ve marked your body, so no matter where you escape to, I will bring Qing’er to you. ”

Feng Chen was stunned.

He tried to hold back a mouthful of blood that was threatening to pour from his throat and suppressed the black flame behind his eyes.

He would not let Nan Xian see what was happening inside him. Otherwise... He would tell Qingqing everything.

***

Nan Xian had left for a few days to look for Feng Chen.

Nalan Jing’s wedding was approaching, and he needed to rush back to Wu Shang City.

Therefore, he looked at Feng Chen for the last time before turning around to leave.

The young girl panicked as she looked at Nan Xian, who was about to leave. She gritted her teeth and rushed forward, stopping him.

“Liu Yinyin!”

Feng Chen’s face changed dramatically as he scolded in a stern voice.

Liu Yinyin did not look at Feng Chen; she knelt in front of Nan Xian, begging him. “Please, save Master Feng...”

Nan Xian stopped in his tracks. He turned to look at Feng Chen and frowned.

“I know you are Tianya’s grandson-in-law. You must know how to save Master Feng.” Liu Yinyin’s eyes were red. “A demon is growing inside his body. He has been relying on his strength to control it. He was only sick once a month before, but now he is sick almost every day. If this continues, I am afraid he will completely turn into the demon.”

Nan Xian’s face turned cold.

He could see that Feng Chen was sick, but... He did not notice a demon growing inside Feng Chen’s body, and his condition was getting serious.

It was too late to bring Qing’er here or Feng Chen back to Wu Shang City...

“Liu Yinyin!” Feng Chen’s face darkened. “Don’t meddle in this matter! Nan Xian, I know my body well. I...”

Puff!

Blood spurted out from Feng Chen’s mouth before he could finish his words.

The flames in his eyes could not be hidden anymore. It spread outward instantly, turning the sky gloomy, and the entire courtyard was like being in a sea of flames...

Nan Xian was somewhat shocked. He swiftly rushed to Feng Chen’s side.

“Everyone, get out now!” His voice was cold.

Seeing that Nan Xian had decided to stay, Liu Yinyin breathed a sigh of relief. She had long heard of the great man, Tianya. If... This man was Tianya’s grandson-in-law, perhaps... He had a way to save Master Feng.

‘As long as Master Feng is safe, even if he blames and scolds me... I’m willing to bear it.’

She took one final look at him, turned around, and left the courtyard.

Feng Chen was afraid that he might hurt others. Therefore, he had driven everyone in the mansion away; only Liu Yinyin stubbornly refused to leave.

Chapter 1848: The Unexpected I

Feng Chen clenched his fist tightly and stood up from the ground; his eyes were cold.

“Liu Yinyin!”

Liu Yinyin looked at Feng Chen apologetically. She pursed her lips and finally turned away, leaving Nan Xian alone.

Nan Xian maintained his expressionless face, looking at Feng Chen calmly.

“You don’t have to hide from me. I don’t want Qing’er to see a crazy man when I bring her here.”

Feng Chen clenched his fists, trembling.

“You could pretend that you never found me.”

Nan Xian said faintly, “Qing’er is not a fool; even if I don’t tell her, she will find you herself. You’d better sit down. I’ll check your body.”

Feng Chen was stunned. He was somewhat stubborn and did not want to let Nan Xian come closer.

Nan Xian said expressionlessly, “If you don’t want Qing’er to worry about you, you’d better let me help you.”

After hearing these words, Feng Chen’s body stiffened. He closed his eyes, and what came to mind was Feng Ruqing’s familiar face...

So, he finally sat down obediently.

“Nan Xian, promise me one thing... Don’t tell Qing’er until I’ve recovered.”

“If...” The young man smiled faintly. “If I can’t recover, you can tell Qing’er that I’m going home, back to a place that... Only she and I know.”

‘A place only they know?’

Nan Xian’s face grew colder. He pressed the young man’s shoulder hard with a little force.

The young man drew a long, painful breath. His face was pale.

“Don’t move. I will check your condition later. No matter what, I will cure you and get you to go to see Qing’er safely...”

‘The only pity is Nalan Jing’s wedding... It seems like I can’t make it back in time.

‘Feng Chen won’t wait for me to return if I leave him now...

‘This guy was not only Qing’er’s brother. He is so important to her. I must save him from the demon. Otherwise... Qing’er will be very worried about him.’

***

Tang Yin had just stepped into General Manor when he looked at Nalan Jing standing not far away.

She froze for a moment, confused. “Brother Nalan, are you waiting for me?”

“Mhmm...”

He released his hand that was wrapped around his chest and walked toward Tang Yin.

Tang Yin had always felt that there was something different about Nalan Jing. She was slightly stunned and took a few steps back.

“What’s wrong with you...?”

‘Did he know that I took the herbal dish that Xiao Qing gave to him last night and drank it?’

“Xiao Yin...”

Nalan Jing stopped in front of Tang Yin. He lowered his eyes, staring at the little girl in front of him.

“May I ask you a question?”

“Hmm?”

“Do you think... It would be good if we are together for the rest of our lives?”

‘Together? Forever?’

Tang Yin smiled brightly. “You are Xiao Qing’s cousin. If I follow Xiao Qing for the rest of my life, I will also be with you for the rest of my life. Why are you asking such a thing?”

Chapter 1849: The Unexpected II

“I don’t mean that. I mean, can the two of us... Be together for the rest of our lives?” Nalan Jing’s fair face instantly flushed red.

Tang Yin got angry. “Nalan Jing, I didn’t expect you to be this kind of person! Has Xiao Qing done anything wrong to you? Why do you want to cut her out? I had really misjudged you.”

Nalan Jing froze.

He looked at Tang Yin’s angry face and panicked, hurriedly pulling her hand. “That’s not what I meant! I meant...”

Tang Yin huffed. “No need to explain! If you don’t want Xiao Qing anymore, then I don’t want you either.”

She shook off Nalan Jing’s hand angrily and turned to leave.

Nalan Jing became more flustered, and once again raised his hand to tug on Tang Yin’s hand, pulling her into his embrace.

Tang Yin froze and was unable to move.

The man was so close that she could feel his breath.

In this life, she had never been this close with any man...

But somehow...

Her face flushed, and her breathing grew ragged. She hurriedly raised her hand and pushed him away.

She glared at Nalan Jing angrily, as if that would cover up the panic in her eyes.

After that, Tang Yin left without looking back at him and disappeared.

Nalan Jing was dumbfounded as he looked at Tang Yin's departing figure. He lowered his head and smiled bitterly.

'It seems that I've made Xiao Yin angry. I'm afraid that... I will never have the opportunity to do so again in the future.'

***

Tang Yin walked faster, her hand caressing her hot cheek.

"Young Lady!"

Suddenly, a cheerful voice came from ahead.

Tang Yin raised her eyes and saw Qian Ning, standing at the door of the room waiting for her.

Qian Ning held the red wedding dress in her hand, looking at Tang Yin smilingly.

"Qian Ning, what are you doing here?" Tang Yin asked, looking puzzled. Her eyes fell upon the wedding dress in Qian Ning's hand. "I've already tried on this dress for Helian Yue. Why are you still bringing it over?"

Qian Ning's eyes filled with guilt. She wiped the tears from the corners of her eyes.

'Young Lady, I'm sorry...

'There is nothing I can do.

'If I don't do what Princess said, she will drive Young Lady out of General Manor, and by then, Young Lady will be more upset.'

Qian Ning stepped forward and held Tang Yin's hand. "Young Lady, I'll help you change your clothes."

"Is there something wrong with this wedding dress?" Tang Yin did not think much about it. She smiled and said, "Alright, I'll try it again. After all, Helian Yue is also a member of General Manor. Helping her is the same as helping Xiao Qing."

Qian Ning sighed.

'Young Lady is so naive. But at least, I don't have to force her to put on this wedding dress...'

"Young Lady, let's go."

Qian Ning looked back at the decorated General Manor. She turned around, held Tang Yin's hand, and walked toward the room...

Chapter 1850: The Unexpected III

There was a custom in Land of No Return that wedding banquets were held at night. They held the wedding ceremony in Land of No Return, so they would naturally follow the customs and wait until after dusk for the guests to come.

Tang Yin, who was still in the room changing her clothes, was unaware of it.

***

“Young Lady...”

Inside the room, Qian Ning helped Tang Yin with the wedding dress, her hidden tears almost falling, “You look so good in this dress.”

“Really?” Tang Yin smiled brightly. “Will Xiao Qing like me a little more when she sees me? I, too, think this dress is so pretty, but it doesn’t belong to me.”

However, it did fit her well.

Tang Yin just wanted to take off the wedding dress, but Qian Ning held her hand and smiled. “Young Lady, let’s go out first. Princess asked me to bring you to her. She is still waiting for us.”

Tang Yin’s eyes were blank.

“Alright, then we’ll go to Xiao Qing now.”

She smiled, took Qian Ning’s hand, and walked out.

***

General Manor was filled with many beautiful flowers.

Nan Luo stepped through the garden and could not help but hear the sound of chatter, which made her stop in her tracks.

This time, Feng Ruqing was busy preparing for the wedding, so she had probably forgotten about Nan Luo.

“I heard that Lady Ruqing is holding a wedding for Young Lady Tang and Master Nalan. I’ve seen their names written on the invitation card, but it seems that both Young Lady Tang and Master Nalan don’t know about it...”

“Sshh! We can’t talk about this now. But... Today is the wedding day, and they both still have no idea that they’re getting married. What will Lady Ruqing do when the time comes?”

Nan Luo smirked.

She took one last look at the place where the murmurs came from, turned around, and walked toward the backyard.

Not far away...

Nalan Jing smashed the tree hard, but he seemed to be unaware of the pain. His face darkened, expressionless.

Nan Luo looked at Nalan Jing and smiled coldly.

'Nalan Jing is Feng Ruqing's cousin, but...

'Feng Ruqing is closer to Tang Yin.

'She hid it from Nalan Jing, so that means Nalan Jing doesn't want to marry Tang Yin, right?'

Seeing Nalan Jing's angry face, Nan Luo thought he must have heard the news that he would be getting married today! He looked unhappy. The wedding ceremony would start soon, but he had not changed into the wedding dress.

Nan Luo exhaled deeply and walked toward Nalan Jing.

***

The afterglow of the sunset spread throughout the backyard.

Nalan Jing clenched his bloody fist tightly.

'The wedding ceremony is about to begin...'

He wanted to stop it but did not have the guts!

"Master Nalan..."

An unfamiliar voice came from behind, causing Nalan Jing to frown impatiently. He turned to look and saw the young girl.

He pondered for a moment, not even remembering who this girl was...
