Chapter 341: Nan Xian Is a Home Wrecker I

“Yan’er, it doesn’t matter. Don’t force yourself to do this. Let’s forget about this.” Tang Luo tapped Rong Yan softly on her shoulder, his voice was full of gentleness.

Rong Yan could not get over it. This man must be very important to her. Otherwise, she would not feel such an enormous sense of heartbreak and pain when she knew that she had lost her memory.

However, she had done her best and still could not remember him.

The icy cold moonlight spilled over Rong Yan’s body, casting a shadow on the ground. She looked extremely desolate and weak, as if even a straw could pin her down to the ground.

Sitting next to Rong Yan, Tang Luo’s eyes were full of sorrow. However, he knew that he could not live without her. He had even resorted to such a despicable means to make Rong Yan stay by his side. Even though he felt a sense of regret, he would never let her go.

“Yan’er, I have lost all my senses as I am so in love with you. Please don’t blame me...”

Tang Luo could let go of the whole world, but not Rong Yan . 1 He was still waiting for her. As long as Rong Yan was willing to marry him, he would do so without giving any regard to the Tang family.

***

“Xiao Qing, do you really want to go to the Tang family with me?”

On the street outside of the city, Tang Yin was smiling joyfully. Her bright eyes flickered with excitement. She looked extremely adorable.

‘Qing Qing is going to the Tang family. Does this consider as meeting my parents?’

Tang Yin’s heart thumped nervously. Covering her face bashfully, Tang Yin gazed in awe at Feng Ruqing’s face.

“Of course! The Five Spirit Grass is extremely important to me. I couldn’t settle down before holding it in my hand.” Naturally, Feng Ruqing had no idea what Tang Yin was thinking.

“Well, could you stay longer in the Tang family?” Tang Yin asked bashfully and pursed her lips together.

“After I get the Five Spirit Grass, I need to look for the state preceptor—Nan Xian. When my father is fully recovered, I will stay there as long as you wish.” Stunned, Feng Ruqing answered.

When Tang Yin heard the name ‘Nan Xian’, she pouted indignantly. However, as soon as Feng Ruqing finished her sentence, Tang Yin broke into a bright smile. Her eyes curved into crescent shape and her tiny face shone as brightly as the sun. She looked so enchantingly stunning that it could take one’s breath away.

“Alright. It’s a promise.” Tang Yin would do her best to make Feng Ruqing fall in love with the Tang family. Perhaps, she would never leave the Tang family after that.

“Qing Qing, let me tell you. Everyone in the Tang family is kind except Tang Yu. Even though I am good for nothing, they are very good to me. I am sure you will like them.”

“Tang Yu?” Feng Ruqing knitted her brows together and secretly kept this name in her mind.

“Tang Yu has always been good to me when there are people around me. Her face would quickly change when no one is around. Hence, I don’t like her.” Tang Yin gritted her canine teeth as she said.

Feng Ruqing suddenly recalled the things that had happened in the Forest of Spirit Beasts. A flash of mysterious light flickered in her eyes.

“Would the person who wants to take your life have something to do with Tang Yu?”

“That’s impossible. That person is associated with the young lady of Fengyun Manor. If Tang Yu were the young lady of Fengyun Manor, the whole Tang family would know this. She has such an enormous ego. Naturally, she will not hide this from anyone,” Tang Yin said, slightly startled.

Chapter 342: Nan Xian Is a Home Wrecker II

In fact, Tang Yu did not tell anyone that she was the young lady of Fengyun Manor as she had actually resorted to some despicable means.

If the people of the Tang family knew about this, Tang Luo must be taking this advantage to keep in with Fengyun Manor. In the end, the things happened to Rong Yan would be brought to light.

Hearing Tang Yin’s explanation, Feng Ruring did not say anything.

“Xiao Yin, why do the people from Fengyun Manor want to kill you?” Feng Ruqing asked after a while.

“Maybe because of my betrothed.” Tang Yin was slightly startled as she answered.

“Your betrothed?”

“That’s nothing. I don’t have a betrothed. I don’t agree with it.” As soon as Feng Ruqing finished her words, Tang Yin’s body shook a little and quickly answered.

Seeing Tang Yin’s anxious face, Feng Ruqing could not help peeping at her curiously.

“I was just curious. Why do you look so nervous?”

“I... I don’t have a betrothed. That’s the marriage that the Tang family arranged for me. I have never agreed. Moreover, I have never met him. There is nothing between us.”

What if the home wrecker—Nan Xian—had bewitched Feng Ruqing, so she thought that Tang Yin approached her because of Nan Xian? What if Feng Ruqing shoved her out of the princess’s manor because of him? Tang Yin must not let Feng Ruqing know that Nan Xian was her betrothed.

Previously, Tang Yin was so proud being Nan Xian’s betrothed. However, it had now become her burden as it could ruin her relationship with Feng Ruqing.

“Xiao Qing, all the words that I have said just now were from the bottom of my heart. I am not in love with anyone else. I would only marry someone like you, someone who is courageous and willing to do anything for her friends.”

Seeing Feng Ruqing sink into silence again, Tang Yin had nearly burst into tears out of grief.

‘Willing to do anything for my friends?’ Stunned, Feng Ruqing stared into space.

Feng Ruqing could still remember that Tang Yin previously had such an enormous ego. It seemed that she had changed after Feng Ruqing avenged the snow wolf in the Forest of Spirit Beasts. Hence, Feng Ruqing could not refute her remark.

“Xiao Yin, I am a lady after all. You need to marry a man. What do you think of Qin Chen?”

Qin Chen was good, however, he was too cold and aloof. Tang Yin did not like him. She liked someone who was as gentle as Feng Ruqing.

“What about my cousin? You are always with him recently. What do you think of him?”

Tilting her head, Tang Yin sank into deep thought.

Nalan Jing was good too. He was gentler than Qin Chen. However, Nalan Jing had now become her cousin. How could she marry her own cousin? No way!

“Oh yeah, what about Jiu Ming? Although he is hot tempered, he is a great person. He wears a ten-dollar hat on a five-cent head. The only drawback is that no one knows how he looks like.”

Tang Yin sank into silence.

‘No one knows how he looks like? That’s simply impossible.’ Tang Yin would only fall for someone with pleasing appearance, just like Feng Ruqing.

“Well, I will keep an eye on the young masters that I meet moving forward.” After hesitating for a while, Feng Ruqing stared at Tang Yin.

Feng Ruqing could feel that something was wrong with Tang Yin. Although Feng Ruqing liked good looking people, the state preceptor was her one and only.

“Pfft! Even though you are in love with the home wrecker, you can’t force me to get married. I don’t agree with that.” Tang Yin merely snorted.

‘Feng Ruqing had totally lost her mind because of the home wrecker—Nan Xian! What had he done to Feng Ruqing?’

However, Tang Yin would not ever give up. Even though she could not be her wife, she could still be her concubine.

Chapter 343: Nan Xian Is a Home Wrecker III

Home wrecker?

Hearing this, Nan Xian was the one who came into Feng Ruqing's mind. He had a pure heart that was free from desires. He simply had nothing to do with a home wrecker.

"Let's go to the Tang family. We will talk about this later." Feng Ruqing's eyes narrowed, the corners of her lips curved into an evil smile.

***

High up on the mountain, the peak rose steeply into the clouds. A lady in white robes sat alone in the lush green forest surrounded by mountains.

Engulfed in the fluffy clouds, she looked so ethereal and otherworldly, like a deity descended from the sky.

Standing not far away, Nan Xian furrowed his brows as he stared at the lady in white robes.

"You are not fully recovered yet. Why are you here?"

Calm and composed, a faint smile hung on her lips. The lady in white robes had long noticed the person behind her. Perhaps, he was the only person who was capable of breaking her formations.

"Why do you have time to visit me?" She could not help but turn her head around.

The lady in white robes was devastatingly gorgeous. The moment she turned her head around, everything in the world was shadowed.

Nan Xian raised his arm and tossed a bottle of spirit water toward the lady.

"This is such pure and divine spirit water. Where did you get it from?" As the lady caught the bottle, a look of disbelief and shock crept into her eyes.

Spirit water was so powerful and extremely useful to her. She could make a breakthrough after gulping down spirit water.

"That's the present from your future daughter-in-law. I have taken half of it." Nan Xian's eyes were filled with gentleness.

"This is just half of the present that she gives?" The lady's lips slightly trembled.

"Does she know how precious this spirit water is?"

Spirit water was truly priceless as one might not be able to get it with money. However, her future daughter-in-law had actually given her a whole bottle of spirit water.

"She knows." He did not talk further.

'She has given it to me even though she knows that the spirit water is precious.' Nan Xian thought to himself and did not tell the lady as he had always been cold and nonchalant.

"Since this lady has so much spirit water, naturally, she is not inferior to the betrothed that person arranged for you. However, that person is extremely stubborn and vicious. Take good care of her. Don't let him hurt her." The lady in white robes smiled faintly.

Nan Xian's eyes darkened. Previously, whenever she talked about that person, her voice was full of resentment and pain. Now that she was so calm and tranquil, she must have let go of the past.

"I have given my jade to her."

Stunned, the lady smiled faintly.

"It seems that you really like her. You have been so cold and aloof ever since you were little. I was afraid that you would not get married for the rest of your life. Perhaps that person and I have hurt you so much. Now you have finally found the lady that you want to marry. As a mother, I feel greatly relieved." The lady in white robes sighed lightly.

Nan Xian did not say anything.

"As long as you love her, I won't interrupt your marriage. Moreover, she is really something as she is capable of getting so much spirit water. However, you must be extra careful of the people there. I am afraid that they might do something to you," the lady in white continued saying.

"They can't stop me. They can't handle me." Nan Xian's face was indifferent, his eyes flashed with a hint of viciousness.

Chapter 344: The Phoenix Is a Crybaby I

Naturally, the lady in white robes knew him very well. He was capable of doing everything that he said.

"Since people couldn't find me, did he do anything to you?" The lady sighed softly.

If she had not insisted on leaving back then, Nan Xian would have lived a better life.

She was the kind of person who could leave the whole world behind when she found her true love. On the contrary, when she stopped loving someone, she would leave him decisively. She would never lose herself for the one whom she loved.

She would not give up her own desire for anyone. She could not stand any unjust treatment. What she truly wanted was just to live an unrestrained life.

"No. Since he had his own children, he did not care about me. However, he did not stop looking for you," Nan Xian said blandly.

The lady in white robes merely smiled. Her face then turned indifferent.

"I don't want to see him. He will never see me for the rest of his life." Back then, she had exhausted all her cultivation in order to save him. In the end, it had actually turned out to be a nightmare. Now that she had finally woken up, she would not turn back.

"I won't let him hurt you and Qing'er."

"Don't worry, I have let go of the past. He can never hurt me again." Her gaze was calm and tranquil. Her heart was dead.

When she was still in love with him, everything that he said or even the slight movement of his body could rip her heart apart. However, now that she was no longer in love with him. Everything that he did was no longer capable of hurting her even in the slightest.

“Do you want to give Qing’er a gift in return?” Nan Xian asked after some silence.

“I have almost forgotten about it, but I don’t know what she likes. Why don’t you ask her? So I can get myself ready.” The lady was slightly startled, an awkward smile hung on her lips.

“There is no need. I know there are plenty of treasures in the White Phoenix’s vault. I will pick some from there.”

‘The White Phoenix’s vault?’

“I have plenty of treasures with me. Why do you want to take from the white phoenix? He treats each treasure in his vault as if they are his own life. If you take it away from him, he will cry.” The lady in white robe hesitated slightly before saying.

“You can give her your own treasures when you meet her in person.” A faint smile hung on Nan Xian’s lips.

“Well, since he cries a few times a month, that’s nothing. I almost shoved him out of the mountain.” The lady sighed softly.

Although the lady wanted to give Feng Ruqing her own treasures, Nan Xian was right. The lady in white robes should give them to Feng Ruqing when she meets Feng Ruqing in person.

After getting the nod from his mother, Nan Xian turned to walk deeper into the mountain.

“My strength was greatly depleted to save him back then. Even now, it is a great challenge for me to make a breakthrough. However, with this spirit water, I will be making a breakthrough soon.” The lady lowered her head to look at the spirit water in her hands.

The lady raised her head, her delicate eyes casually looked at the fleeting cloud not far away.

“Once I have made a breakthrough, it’s time for me to leave this place.”

She had been staying alone in the mountains all these years to hide away from that person. She had even activated formations around the mountains so no one could enter the mountains to look for her.

Now, she knew that she was not alone. Her son had grown up and would get married. Perhaps, she would be getting grandchildren soon.

Chapter 345: The Phoenix Is a Crybaby II

She could no longer hide in this mountain, under the shelter of her own son—Nan Xian. She must go out and help her him.

'I'm such a terrible mother. However, Nan Xian has never blamed me. He has even braced himself to confront all those annoying people out there. Now, I must let them know that no one could mess with Nan Xian's marriage.' The lady in white smiled wryly.

Even if her life was a mess, she wished that her son could live a blissful life. Regardless of the lady's background, as long as her son loved the lady, she would accept it with an open heart. No one could stop Nan Xian from chasing his happiness.

***

In the elder's chamber of the Tang family, the loud voice of a messenger broke the silence.

"Elder Tang Yi, the Little Lady Tang Yin is back!"

Tang Yin held a special place in the Tang family. Although she had no talent for martial arts, she was highly favored and deeply loved by everyone in the Tang family. Even the actual young lady of the Tang family—Tang Yu was no match for her.

Hence, all the elders in the manor rushed out as soon as the messenger was done talking.

Tang Yi was the first one who rushed out the manor.

From afar, Tang Yi could see Tang Yin and a lady in a red robe stood next to her. Tang Yin's face was glowing red. The lady in a red robe was enchantingly stunning whose beauty was capable of overthrowing the whole city.

Stunned, Tang Yi suddenly stopped in his tracks and stared blankly at the lady in red robes. She looked very familiar but he could not recall where he had met her before.

It was natural that Tang Yi could not remember. Tang Yi had only met Rong Yan once on the night Tang Luo brought her back to the manor. Since then, Tang Yi had never stepped into the mountain behind the manor. Moreover, it had happened ten years ago.

"Yin'er, this lady is..." Suppressing the doubts in his heart, Tang Yi asked as his eyes darkened.

"This is Feng Ruqing. She is my best friend," Tang Yin said with a bright smile on her face.

Tang Yi was slightly startled hearing Tang Yin's words. He knew Tang Yin very well. She had always stayed in the chamber and had rarely left the manor because of her special constitution. Hence, she had no one by her side except Qian Ning. That was the reason Tang Yi did not hurt Qian Ning. He was worried that Tang Yin could not find a true friend for the rest of her life.

Seeing Tang Yin's joyful face, Tang Yi felt immensely relieved.

"Since you are Yin'er's friend, you are the guest of the Tang family. It must be very hard for both of you to travel for such a long distance. Let me get you a chamber to rest."

"There is no need. Xiao Qing and I are rushing to save a life. Grandpa Tang Yi, where is Qian Ning? Why is she not here to welcome me? What about the Five Spirit Grass? Give it to me and I will leave together with Qian Ning."

As soon as Tang Yin finished her words, the lively atmosphere sank into an eerie silence.

“Grandpa Tang Yi, Qing Ning said that there is Five Spirit Grass in the Tang family. Since I still have a chance to get the Grade-5 spirit herb, what’s the issue if I take it?” Tang Yin was slightly startled.

As Tang Yi loved Tang Yin so much, he did not utter a word. He did not want to upset her.

“Yin’er, let me tell you. This Five Spirit Grass is extremely important to the Tang family. Young Lady Tang Yu is on good terms with Fengyun Manor. As long as we give them the Five Spirit Grass, we will have the first priority to buy the spirit herbs sowed in the Spirit Herbs Mountain of Fengyun Manor.” Tang Er sighed.

Chapter 346: The Phoenix Is a Crybaby III

The spirit herbs mountain literally meant a mountain where spirit herbs could be sown. However, the number of spirit herbs there was extremely low. As the spirit herbs were scarce on Cang Yue Mainland, they were priceless.

Fengyun Clan had one spirit herbs mountain in their hands. Hence, whoever kept in with the Fengyun Clan had the priority to buy spirit herbs from them. Hence, maintaining a good relationship with Fengyun Manor was of utmost importance. The Tang family could not simply give the Five Spirit Herb away.

Dumbfounded, Tang Yin’s cheeks blushed with rage.

“Keeping in with Fengyun Clan is more important than saving a life? This Five Spirit Herb could save a life but you are actually using it for the well-being of the Tang family?”

“Yin’er, who are you saving with this Five Spirit Herb?” Tang Er frowned.

“I...” Tang Yin hesitated for a while, she did not know if she could tell them.

Just as Tang Yin was hesitating, Feng Ruqing walked forward and patted Tang Yin’s shoulder softly to give her some comfort.

“This Five Spirit Herb could save my father’s life. Can you please sell this to me? I can exchange it with five hundred pieces of Grade-4 spirit herbs.”

The Grade-5 spirit herb was extremely priceless. However, since the Tang family was giving it to the Fengyun Clan to buy spirit herbs, Feng Ruqing was willing to exchange it with a great amount of Grade-4 spirit herbs.

After all, even if the Tang family wanted to buy spirit herbs from the Fengyun clan, they would naturally buy a large amount of Grade-4 spirit herbs. They could barely afford much of Grade-5 spirit herbs after all.

Currently, Feng Ruqing was not capable of sowing Grade-5 spirit herbs. However, when she made a breakthrough, she too could sell Grade-5 spirit herbs to the Tang family. It was just a matter of time.

Everyone in the Tang family stood rooted to the ground in shock.

'This maiden wants to exchange the Five Spirit Herb with five hundred pieces of Grade-4 spirit herbs? She could actually make a promise so easily?'

"Hey little girl, you have befriended Yin'er for the Tang family's spirit herbs, didn't you? Do you really have five hundred pieces of Grade-4 spirit herbs? How could you make such a reckless promise to gain trust? Moreover, the Fengyun Clan has a strong foothold in this realm. No matter what happens, we are still giving it to Fengyun Clan. Don't waste time on this!" Tang Wu sneered.

"Elder Tang Wu, Xiao Qing is my friend. Don't be rude to her!" Tang Yin's face darkened a few shades. Her eyes were filled with rage and sorrow.

Tang Wu had always been polite and gentle to Tang Yin. Since when had he become so mean?

"Yin'er, you are still young and gullible. You have no idea how vicious a person could be. I can feel that this lady is not someone good at first glance. You already have Qian Ning to keep you company in the Tang family. If you want to make more friends, the Young Lady Tang Yu is far better. You should befriend her instead."

"Yin'er, Granpa Tang Wu was right. What we said is actually for your own good. You will never know if the people out there want to take advantage of you. Do you think they would befriend you if you are not the little lady of the Tang family?"

***

Dumbfounded, Tang Yin stared at the people before her as if it was the very first time she saw their faces. The elders' words were still buzzing in Tang Yin's ears.

Ever since she stepped into the Tang family, she had been telling Feng Ruqing how great the people in the Tang family had treated her. She wanted Feng Ruqing to stay in the Tang family forever. However, it turned out to be total nonsense!

Tang Yin had never thought that another person's life was not worthy enough for Five Spirit Grass. Since when had life become so insignificant to them?

"I am sorry Xiao Qing!"

Chapter 347: The Fierce Tang Yin I

Feng Ruqing did not utter a word. Since the Five Spirit Grass belonged to the Tang family, naturally, they could sell it to anyone they wanted.

However, seeing Tang Yin's apologetic face that was full of sorrow, Feng Ruqing raised her hand and gently patted Tang Yin's shoulder.

"What about one thousand pieces of Grade-4 spirit herbs? Is that enough?" Feng Ruqing looked up at the people before her.

Before stepping into the Tang family, Feng Ruqing had decided that she must get the Five Spirit Grass at all costs. It was worthwhile.

Tang Yi had never uttered a word. However, when he heard Feng Ruqing's words, he raised his head and stared at Feng Ruqing, his eyes widened in shock.

"Grandpa Tang Yi, you are the person who loves me the most in the Tang family. Don't you have a single thought about this?" Tang Yin turned around to look at Tang Yi.

"Yin'er, there is no need to make the great elder speak for you. As part of the Tang family, you should act in the best interest of the Tang family. If you insist, I will shove your friend out of the manor." Tang Wu smirked.

"Grandpa Tang Yi, is that what is on your mind too?" Tang Yin's body stiffened. She stared anxiously at Tang Yi as she asked with a hoarse voice.

The Elder Tang Yi had always been gentle and delicate in Tang Yin's heart. However, little did she know, the Tang family had turned out to be completely different from her memory.

"Yin'er... If this Five Spirit Grass is truly meant for saving a life, I can talk to the master of the Tang family. Perhaps he would give it to you..." Tang Yi had finally made up his mind. He raised his aging eyes to stare at Tang Yin as he waved his hand and heaved a soft sigh.

At this moment, Tang Yi seemed to have aged a couple of decades. He had let go of the chance to keep in with Fengyun Clan. He was the sinner of the Tang family that could never be forgiven for his whole life.

"Great elder."

Tang Si and Tang Wu's faces changed in a flash. They did not know why Tang Yi would make such a decision. Tang Yi had truly left the whole Tang family behind because of Tang Yin?

It was true that Tang Yin was a lovable lady. However, she was no match for the well-being of the whole Tang family. Could Tang Yi truly not tell which one was more important?

"Great elder, have you forgotten the promise that you have made in order to save your apprentice back then? You promised that you will never interrupt any decision that the master of the Tang family makes." Tang Wu's eyes darkened.

Tang Luo was at the wheel after the passing of the master of the Tang family. Back then, his strength was not as prominent as it was now and Tang Yi was the most prominent person in the Tang family.

As Tang Zi had betrayed the Tang family, Tang Yi had made a solemn promise that as long as the Tang family could spare her life, he would never helm the Tang family and the master of the Tang family would take the helm.

It was just twenty years and Tang Yi was already breaking his promise.

"Tang Si, Tang Wu, stop talking about the past. It seems to be a great deal if this lady is capable of exchanging the Five Spirit Grass with one thousand pieces of Grade-4 spirit herbs." Tang Er furrowed his brows.

The things that had happened back then were everlasting aches in Tang Yi's heart and no one dared to mention them again. Simply no one would think that Tang Si and Tang Wu would dig into the past.

Seeing Tang Yi's face that was ghastly pale, Tang Er sighed softly.

Up until now, Tang Yi still did not believe that Tang Zi would betray the Tang family. However, he simply could not deny the evidence no matter how much he defended her. After all, he was not the one who took the helm of the Tang family.

Chapter 348: The Fierce Tang Yin II

If he were too harsh, Tang Luo might use the tactic formation left by the previous master. Then, Tang Zi might never be able to leave the Tang family.

So, he had no choice but to let Tang Zi be dismissed from the family and let her live on.

"Tang Er." Tang Wu felt regretful when he was done talking. He did not want to admit his mistakes and he was forced to smile coldly too. "I just don't want Master Tang to make the wrong decision."

***

Tang Yin looked at the elders who were arguing among themselves helplessly. Her face was pale and she could not say anything for a long time.

At that moment, she saw Tang Luo from the corner of her eyes. Tang Luo was walking toward them from not far away. Tang Yin's small body soon became frozen and she held onto Feng Ruqing's arm subconsciously. There were tears in her eyes.

"Xiao Qing, I'll definitely get Five Spirit Grass for you."

'Even if I need to sacrifice everything!'

Tang Luo could see the elders who were arguing with each other from afar. He frowned at this.

He knew of Tang Yin's return just now. Both Tang Yi and Tang Er favored Tang Yin. Tang San was rather fair in his ways and he always had that attitude of indifference.

Both Tang Si and Tang Wu opined that Tang family was unbeatable.

They were arguing now and the content of their argument could easily be guessed.

Luckily, Tang Yu had taken the Five Spirit Grass and left first. It was none of his business, no matter how the elders fought now.

Suddenly, Tang Luo saw the young girl who was standing beside Tang Yin.

The young girl seemed calm. There was a tinge of sarcasm in her eyes. Her beauty was dazzling and it made Tang Luo stop walking. His eyes narrowed and his heart nearly stopped beating.

'Why... Why is there someone who looks so much like Yan'er?'

There was an unfamiliar anxiety in his heart when he saw the face of the young girl. It was a nervousness which he had never felt before. It seemed like the appearance of that girl would steal the love in his heart.

That was the most precious thing in his heart which he cherished more than his own life.

Tang Luo clenched his fists tightly.

'This is just a coincidence. This must be a coincidence!

'It's only the appearance. It happens sometimes in this world. It's only an appearance and it doesn't signify anything.'

"Yin'er, you're back?" Tang Luo recovered his senses and he walked toward Tang Yin slowly. "This young girl is..."

Tang Yin was shocked. She bit her lip.

She liked everybody in the Tang family before except Tang Yu.

Now, she hated everybody in the Tang family except Tang Yi and Tang Er.

"She's my friend, my best friend."

She emphasized on the final words.

Tang Luo blinked a few times. "This young girl is beautiful. If she has an elder brother or a younger brother, he must be very outstanding."

"Xiao Qing doesn't have any brother. There's only a younger sister who is born of the same father but a different mother." Tang Yin did not understand Tang Luo's motive. But, she could not help but answer his question.

'No elder brother or younger brother?'

Tang Luo's eyes were unreadable.

'Yan'er gave birth to a pair of boy-girl twins. If this girl is related to Yan'er, it's impossible that she's alone.'

Moreover, Tang Luo had brought Yan'er back here ten years ago.

After Yan'er had gone crazy, she had left her children behind as babies.

'It means that Yan'er's daughter should be ten years old.

'The age doesn't match.'<sup>1</sup>

Tang Luo's heart was heavy when he looked at the face that resembled Rong Yan so much even though he knew the truth. He was anxious.

Chapter 349: The Fierce Tang Yin III

"If you're Yin'er's friend, then you're the guest of our family." Tang Luo smiled. Then, he turned and looked at the elders. "Elders, how can you argue like that in front of our guest? The others would surely laugh at us if they knew of this incident. They would think that the Tang family's rules are lenient."

Feng Ruqing looked at Tang Luo coldly.

Without knowing the reason, she did not have any good impression of Tang Luo even though she had only met him for the first time.

That kind of hatred seemed to come to her naturally.

“Uncle...” Tang Yin was serious now. “I have come because I want to take the Five Spirit Grass and bring Qian Ning back with me.”

Tang Luo smiled. “Yin’er, I have treated you better because you do not have parents. But, Yu’er planned to give the Five Spirit Grass to Fengyun Manor for the Tang family’s sake. You cannot implicate the Tang family just because you do not admire her.”

Tang Yin was shocked.

‘Why did he imply that I’m trying to implicate the Tang family?’

‘Am I that kind of person?’

The other elders looked at Tang Luo in turn. They might not understand the reason why Tang Luo had said such things.

Tang Yi frowned. “Master, what’s the meaning of that?”

Tang Luo smiled slightly and said, “Yu’er told me that Yin’er knew of her intention to give the Five Spirit Grass to Fengyun Manor the other day. But, you know clearly that Yin’er would never fight with Yu’er. So, Yin’er asked Qian Ning to come back for the Five Spirit Grass. Yin’er even said that it will be used to save people.”

Tang Yu was still Tang Luo’s daughter no matter what.

He seemed to be treating Tang Yin nicely but the one he favored the most would always be his own daughter.

Tang Yin was even more shocked.

‘Did Tang Yu tell me about the Five Spirit Grass?’

‘I have only heard of that spirit herb for the first time from Xiao Qing.’

‘How come I do not know that Tang Yu has mentioned that before?’

“Tang Yi...” Tang Wu smiled coldly. “Have you realized? Yin’er said that she wants the Five Spirit Grass to save people. But, it’s a lie. It’s obvious that she has grown rather wicked after she living apart from the Tang family. I think that we shouldn’t let her stay outside anymore so that she won’t be a traitor like that girl.”

‘A traitor... of the Tang family?’

Feng Ruqing was shocked.

It seemed like Tang Zi also came from the Tang family.

But, Tang Zi had never talked about it so Feng Ruqing chose not to ask any questions.

Moreover, there were a lot of people who had the same surnames. So, Feng Ruqing did not link Tang Zi with the Tang family before.

Until... the word 'traitor' came around now. Feng Ruqing suddenly realized the truth and she remembered the man who wanted to murder Tang Zi before.

Feng Ruqing's eyes darkened.

If this Tang family was of the same family from where Tang Zi came from, Feng Ruqing would surely take revenge for her for what the Tang family had done to her.

Tang Yin was infuriated. There was a fierce expression on her face. "Just shut up! Nobody has the right to scold me and no one else has the right to humiliate Xiao Qing!"

"Back in those days, the eldest daughter of Fengyun Manor liked the fiancé you picked for me even though I have not met him before. Qian Ning and I were nearly murdered by the people of Fengyun Manor just because of this. Where were you at that time?"

"Did you ever come and save my life when I was being bullied?"

"It was Xiao Qing! She is the woman you said who has influenced me. She is the one who has saved me from the people of Fengyun Manor!"

"She never knew about my origin before this. She's daring enough to offend Fengyun Manor. Why do you think that she has approached me because of my origin? Xiao Qing is not any lesser than the Tang family. She alone is better than the whole of the Tang family!"

Chapter 350: Tang Luo's Compromise I

Tang Yin's eyes were swollen. The Tang family did not help her when she needed them the most. But, she admitted that it was her own fault because she had left the Tang family first.

But, the Tang family was so eager to fawn over Fengyun Manor which had nearly killed her. They even treated her savior in that way.

If Tang Yin could endure this kind of treatment then she no longer had the right to like Xiao Qing.

All the others did not say a word after being scolded by Tang Yin. Tang Yi was the only elder who got serious and his eyes turned cold.

"Yin'er, did the people of Fengyun Manor plan to murder you?"

"They never had any bad relationship with Fengyun Manor but those people are so daring as to want to murder Yin'er! If he was hesitant before, he could make his decision after he heard what Tang Yin had said.

Tang Yi did not have any children. There was a girl named Tang Zi who was his disciple once. But, he could not protect her well.

'Now, I'll not let anything happen to Yin'er anymore!'

"Master, I'll not give Fengyun Manor the Five Spirit Grass because they are so daring as to plan to murder the people of the Tang family."

Tang Luo was stunned.

He seemed to not realize that Fengyun Manor would do such a deed.

But...

"Elder Tang Yi, Fengyun Manor gives us the priority of buying spirit herbs. There is always a lack of spirit herbs in our Tang family. Moreover, let's forget about it now that nothing has happened to Yin'er."

Tang Yin looked at Tang Luo coldly. He was her uncle who had always asked her about her health and took good care of her. Now, he had become like this.

Tang Yin could not help but smile sarcastically.

"Master!" There was a slight change in Tang Yi's facial expression. "If Tang Yu was the one who was being pursued by Fengyun Manor, would you be able to make that kind of decision? How could you say that Yin'er is just fine? What if she was not fine? It's only the priority of buying the spirit herbs. This young girl said that she's willing to buy that Grade-5 spirit herb with a thousand Grade-4 spirit herbs."

Tang Luo frowned at this. 'A thousand Grade-4 spirit herbs. It's not a small bargain.'

Frankly, the Five Spirit Grass could only be used for detox purposes. It was not very significant to him.

Fengyun Manor gave the Tang family the priority of buying the spirit herbs. But, Grade-5 spirit herbs could help to cultivate an exceptional disciple. Fengyun Manor would surely hide them instead of selling them to the Tang family.

So, Feng Ruqing's offer was indeed a great bargain. For him, a thousand Grade-4 spirit herbs was a great temptation.

Tang Luo could upgrade the status of the Tang family with the assistance of the Grade-4 spirit herbs.

"No." Tang Luo's eyebrows loosened. "Yu'er had promised Fengyun Manor first. We cannot take it back. If not, we'll surely offend Fengyun Manor. We cannot endure its consequences."

If Tang Yu had not promised Fengyun Manor, Tang Luo might have agreed to sell the Five Spirit Grass just for the sake of the Grade-4 spirit herbs.

But, it was too late now...

Tang Yin's throat was rather dry. There was despair in her eyes. She laughed sarcastically and said, "Xiao Qing, we'll just bring Qian Ning with us and leave. These people still want to fawn over Fengyun Manor knowing that Fengyun Manor has nearly killed me. I don't want to stay in this kind of place anymore."

"Yin'er!"

All the elders' facial expressions changed.

Tang Wu looked at Feng Ruqing angrily. "Don't you forget that you're raised by us. Now, you're going to leave us just because of an outsider?"

Tang Yin was calm now. There was no anxiety anymore.

"I told you just now. She alone is better than the whole of the Tang family."
