

Overbearing 371

Chapter 371: Why? II

Tang Luo stretched out his hand and pulled Rong Yan into his arms again.

With a mighty force this time, he would never let her escape again.

Rong Yan's body trembled heavily. Her heart was filled with deep anger and loath. It was like a volcano that would erupt anytime.

"Yan'er..." Tang Luo looked at the girl standing in front. He seemed to be beguiled, obsessed, and crazy.

Rong Yan clenched her fists tightly as she closed her eyes.

Another figure emerged in her mind then...

Wearing a king's robe, the guy was handsome, gentle, and sophisticated.

That was the memory embedded deep in her head.

It was a guy whom she had forgotten for ten years. However, he was the guy whom she would always meet in her dream at night.

Although he looked blurry in the dream or was covered with a thin layer of mist, she could not control her heartbeats whenever he appeared.

That intense feeling for him was the reason why she did not believe in Tang Luo's words.

A man whom she would still love even though she had lost her memory. How could he hurt her?

He must be the best husband in the world!

Rong Yan opened her eyes.

She looked overbearing, just like before, as she was the king that everyone would respect in the world!

No more silliness, dumbness, or gentleness could be seen in her eyes.

"Go away!"

Bang!

Suddenly, a mighty force exploded from her body.

That force was startling enough to force Tang Luo to retreat immediately. His eyes were wild with shock.

Splat!

Rong Yan spat a mouthful of blood. She looked pale.

She could stand on her feet, but needed the wall's support to steady herself as both of her legs could not stand straight anymore.

“Yan’er...” Tang Luo finally came to his senses. “I’ve told you, you’re poisoned, you are weaker than before. But then you didn’t care for your body and pushed me away using your power. You will hurt your body by doing so.”

The poison that he used would weaken her ability, but it was not harmful to her body.

However, it was hard to say that the effects would remain the same if Yan’er was trying to do anything violent again...

Rong Yan wiped away the blood from the corners of her lips and smirked. “If you dare to touch me again, I’d rather us perish together. I will never let you taint me!”

Back then, she would rather die than to let the people from the Divine Herbs Sect to touch her too. There was no difference now!

“Yan’er, are you starting to recall your past?” Tang Luo frowned and asked.

“Yes.”

She did not recall anything when she woke up from the evil dream that day. Not until when... Tang Luo was coercing her.

Then the vague countenance started to reveal itself slowly and become clearer.

It was at that very moment when she retrieved all of the memories that she had forgotten before.

‘Divine Herbs Sect.

‘The Tang family!’

Rong Yan clenched her fists tightly. She wanted to make all of the people, who stopped her family from reuniting, die!

“But don’t you remember how good I have treated you for these past ten years?”

“Good?” Rong Yan sneered. “You’re good to me, so you intentionally poisoned me when I was badly wounded to make me lose my memory? You’re good to me, so you imprisoned me for ten years when I was silly and idiotic? You’re good to me, so you stopped me from meeting my daughter and even coerced me?”

She remembered everything.

And she remembered how the Tang family had treated her for the past ten years...

Why was she reluctant to receive help from the little servant? Because she was not sober and ignorant enough that even a little servant would dare to bully and insult her.

She was a person that would revolt, even though she was not as strong as before. She would still beat the little servant black and blue. For that reason, Tang Luo always thought that she would never let anyone step into the back hill when she would beat the ‘innocent’ little servant who allowed someone to go there.

Chapter 372: Why? III

She did not allow the doctor to check her condition, because it was the doctor who had pricked her with needles even when she was healthy, never wanting to let go of her.

She was afraid, loathful, and sick of dealing with them. So she hit the doctors.

That was the reason why Tang Luo thought that she would rather stay ill than seek help from the doctors.

And Tang Yu—

The girl who was the same age as Rong Yan's daughter, but a villainous and evil person.

When Rong Tan was still dumb and missed her daughter so much, she pretended to be gentle as a strategy to trick her of her many spirit herbs. And she would turn against her after she got the spirit herbs from her.

However, there was always some time when she was sober, no matter how dumb she was.

Tang Yu had no chance to cheat her of her spirit herbs when she was sober, but then, she would provoke and remind her using her daughter's tale as a revenge for not giving her spirit herbs.

However...

Although a lot of spirit herbs were cheated from her by Tang Yu, all the spirit herbs that were above Grade-5 were firmly secured in her hand all the time.

Because she had always understood well that, things that she kept for Qing'er must never fall into anyone else's hand!

No one!!!

"Yan'er, I admit that I have failed you since the very beginning, but I have used ten years to make up to you. Our whole Tang family is making up to you, isn't that enough?"

Tang Luo looked at Rong Yan as his heart ached.

Rong Yan smiled coldly and stood up. "Tang Jia is making up to me?"

"The little servant girl who bullied her, the injuries from the doctors, Tang Yu's cheating, these were all..."

"Making up to me?"

Tang Luo's heart suddenly skipped a beat. Was there anything else that had happened in the past ten years that he did not know?

Rong Yan sneered.

"I can tell you why on earth you are inferior to him!"

"When we got married, we were not strong enough, but we promised to support each other for the rest of our lives."

Her voice turned from cold to gentle now.

“But there were so many women who wanted to marry him, also countless people who coerced him to take a concubine. He turned all of them down despite being under all the pressures. It was I who had persuaded him to take one of the concubines, only if he never pampers the girl, that’s all I wanted.”

She had met all the women before they entered the palace.

Also, she told them about Feng Tianyu’s decision.

They could live in the palace but were condemned to live a life of widowhood till the end. She could let them go if they did not want to. However, if they insisted on staying, they had no choice but to follow!

If anyone dared to seduce Feng Tianyu, she would not sit back and let go of any of their mistakes. It would not matter if it was that woman herself or her family because the rest of their lives were doomed to be restless!

She was ruthless because she did not allow her husband to sleep with other concubines. Also, she had given the women a chance to leave or stay from the very beginning.

However, there were still women who wanted to enter the palace, so they could not blame her for being cruel.

“For this reason...” Rong Yan’s face turned even gentler as she was reminiscing the past. “I have stirred up troubles with so many people, and they forced my husband to abandon me. But then, again, he survived through all the pressures and would never let anyone hurt me.”

“And you?”

“So many people did so many harmful things to me, they just did them right before your eyes, but do you even know that?”

“Maybe it’s because you’re too arrogant, or you don’t really love me that much, so you provided them with a chance to hurt me.”

But Feng Tianyu would never do that!

She had never even suffered a single injury when he was beside her.

He had always been keeping her safe and sound all the time. So in return, she was willing to defend the country for him.

“That’s not what you think!”

Tang Luo finally panicked. He grabbed Rong Yan’s shoulder and said, “I love you so much, I really do. I just don’t know what had happened. Yan’er, please, believe me, I would never let go of anyone who had hurt you before, never!”

Chapter 373: Rong Yan’s Wounds I

The corners of Rong Yan’s lips lifted, and her smile became more and more scornful.

She did not like the people who cry out and say they wanted to avenge her only after all the sufferings had ended.

She only liked men like Feng Tianyu...

That kind of man who would never let her get hurt in the first place!

Tang Luo could not help but get mad when he saw Rong Yan's eyes.

"Yan'er, Feng Ruqing has a half-sister!

"That man had betrayed you long ago. I, I'm the only one who will not betray you!"

"Oh," Rong Yan's seemed calm. "So what?"

Tang Luo was stunned and in disbelief. "You still want to forgive him despite it?"

Rong Yan smiled and looked at Tang Luo. "I trust him. He will never do that."

She wanted them to stop talking about her trust toward Feng Tianyu.

Back then, she already found out that someone had poisoned him before she left. It was a kind of poison that would make it impossible for Feng Tianyu to have an affair with any other woman in the bed!

Or else he would die immediately.

But Feng Tianyu had been well alive since then, which implied that he had never pampered or got close with that concubine.

Back then...

She was the one who had secretly helped to stop the poison from invading Feng Tianyu. In doing so, her body weakened. She could not fully recover even though she was going to deliver a baby, and that was why it provided an opportunity for the people to attack her.

Even if the poison was halted, it was still impossible for him to sleep with anyone. Therefore, every time Feng Tianyu wanted to go wild with her in bed, she would use the pregnancy as an excuse to turn him down.

Therefore...

It remained unknown where did the girl come from.

Tang Luo's eyes were red and asked angrily. "You trust him that much?"

"He had betrayed you. How could you still trust him?"

"Why?"

"Yan'er, do you really love that man?"

"He's a man from the secular world. Is he worthy of your love?"

"I come from the so-called secular world, and our power match too. Why can't I be your man?"

“Yan’er, I will never let go of you. I’ll never do that in my life!”

Tang Luo grabbed Rong Yann’s wrist tightly and shook her violently.

This woman gave her ten years of happiness, but to abandon him now...

How could she be so cruel!

Just because of that little servant and the doctor who had done bad things to her?

He did not take any action in the first place because he was ignorant. When he knew, he would definitely not let go of those people, was that not enough to prove his love toward her?

What the hell does she want him to do to prove his love?

Bang!

Suddenly, a spirit force came inside the cabin and crashed on Rong Yan’s chest violently.

Rong Yan’s body had been initially weak. Under that spiritual force, she fell backward suddenly and hit her head on the wall. It was so painful that her scalp went numb and her face turned pale.

Rong Yan’s hand was quivering.

Was she weakened to such an extent?

She was so weak that simply anyone could hurt her?

“Yu’er, what are you doing?” Tang Luo frowned and asked as he turned around and saw Tang Yu standing there expressionlessly.

Tang Yu sneered and said, “Father, this woman already wishes to leave the Tang family now. Do you still want to let her do whatever she wants, just like before?”

“Letting her roam at the back of the hill freely?”

“If you really like her, you’d better tie this woman up before she runs away!”

Rong Yan forced herself to stand up.

She tried to gather a puff of spiritual force in her palms, but the force vanished just as it appeared.

She tried again, but still, failed.

“Ahem!”

She coughed and spat out a mouthful of blood. She looked at the Tang family’s father and daughter, coldly.

Tang Luo was shocked. He turned his head back and looked at Rong Yan. “Tie her up...”

Tie her up, how could he bear to do that...

“Father, you have spent ten years on her, but she was never grateful. Instead, she is trying to drive a wedge between us. Father, don’t you know well what kind of person I am?”

Because of you, I am willing to accept a crappy woman to be my mother, isn't that enough to prove my sincerity?"

Chapter 374: Rong Yan's Wounds II

Tang Luo remained silent.

"She only wants her husband and children back. Once you set her free, she will take an opportunity to leave unless you keep an eye on her day and night. Don't tell me that you have poisoned her and made her lose her memories. Don't you see that she has got her memory back now?"

"What if she gets her power back too?"

"Who else can stop her?"

Tang Yu looked malevolent.

What a cheap woman Rong Yan, how could she have regained her memory?!

She could not let her go, or else she would lose her position as the lady of Fengyun Manor!

She would not have had any attachment to the position if she had never owned it before. Since she had gotten the taste of the power of being a lady of the house, she never wanted to lose it again!

After all, everyone from Fengyun Manor had already assumed that Rong Yan was already dead.

She could... make it real too!

Tang Yu's eyes flashed with the intention of murdering her before Tang Luo could notice.

Everything was fine when Rong Yan had no past memories at first. If someone was to blame, all they could blame was Rong Yan who found her memory back, but not Tang Yu.

She would not let anyone take away what was already in her hand!

Tang Luo started to panic because Rong Yan was too strong. She was strong enough to make him afraid. So, he could not bear any chances of letting her restore her ability!

"Yan'er, I'm sorry..."

"I would not have wanted to..."

"Do so..."

Tang Luo closed his eyes in agony and opened them after a while. "It's all right if you don't want to be my woman. We will just be by each other sides, and that's already enough."

He did not ask for much. All he wanted was for Rong Yan to be with him for the rest of his life...

Tang Yu sneered. She gradually took out a little purple flower.

"Feed her this. This will not only take away all of her spiritual power but also it will make her lose her spiritual power completely. Also, it will make her unable to move and speak."

Tang Luo's eyes turned wild with shock. "It...

"It could..."

"Also make her unable to speak?"

"Purple Wood Flower, you should have heard of it before."

'Purple Wood Flower, isn't that a Grade-5 spirit herb?

'How could Tang Yu have Grade-5 spirit herbs in her hands?'

Rong Yan looked at the spirit herbs in Tang Yu's hand, her body went stiff as she clenched her fists tightly. "No, that's not Purple Wood Flower. It's Purple Kite flower."

Purple Wood Flower and Purple Kite Flower. It was hard to distinguish them as they looked very similar.

However, one of the flowers was a Grade-5 spirit herb, while the other one was a Grade-6 spirit herb!

Their pharmaceutical effects were different too! However, both of the flowers were toxic.

The former one had the effects just like what had Tang Yu mentioned. However, the latter one not only consists of the same effect as the former one but also, it would dehydrate a person day by day until the body became a dry corpse.

As for how she knew it so well...

It was because the Purple Kite Flower originally belonged to her!

She had put it in Fengyun Manor's treasury vault, how could it end up in Tang Yu's hands?

Rong Yan's suddenly panicked, she seemed to remember that there was a time when she had accidentally taken out Fengyun Manor's token. However, she had forgotten to keep it back. Did she hide it under the quilt?

As soon as Rong Yan thought of this, she quickly staggered to the wooden bed and unfolded the quilt right away. However, the bed was empty, nothing could be found...

Fengyun Manor's token was gone!

Rong Yan stared at Tang Yu angrily. Her body was shaking, her beautiful eyes burned with a flame.

Tang Yu was not afraid of her as the corners of her lips lifted coldly. "Father, what I hold in my hand is Purple Wood Flower. It's already not easy for me to get Grade-5 spirit herbs, do you think I'm capable of finding and getting Grade-6 spirit herbs?"

"It's only because she's afraid, so she reacted like that on purpose so that she can stop you from feeding her the medicine."

Chapter 375: Rong Yan's Wounds III

Tang Luo could not become the master of the Tang family if he were foolish. However, he could not think rationally as his heart had gone mad.

He was too afraid that Rong Yan would leave him.

He would do anything to make her stay!

“Good.”

Even if Rong Yan could detox herself from the poison that he had given to her years ago, it must be impossible for her to detox herself from the Violet-Wood Bloom’s poison!

“Father, I know you cannot stand to do it. Why don’t you let me help you?” Tang Yu smiled and said, “You may leave first.”

Tang Luo’s eyes sank in pain.

The Violet-Wood Bloom was too poisonous. He really could not stand seeing her taking that poison.

So, he did not say anything as he looked at Rong Yan guiltily. Then, he turned and walked out.

Leaving only Rong Yan and Tang Yu in the room.

“Aunt Rong...” Tang Yu gently smiled and walked toward Rong Yan. “I can see that you cannot even stand on your feet. Stop fighting, do you think that useless people like you can be my opponent?”

“You just pushed my father away, and I guess you’ve used up all your power so you can do nothing to me now—”

It was apparent that Tang Yu had returned for quite a while and heard many of their conversations.

“Oh, speaking of which, I am the Lady of Fengyun Manor right now. Don’t worry, I will inform the people of Fengyun Manor that it was your own daughter who had poisoned you!

Tang Yu smirked. “My words, the people in Fengyun Manor will...”

Rong Yan’s eyes were cold. “They will not believe you.”

“I will make them believe.” Tang Yu pursed her little lips haughtily. “The bunch of fools in Fengyun Manor, they are very easy to trick. It’s such a waste if I don’t make use of them. Oh, by the way, I have to tell you that your taste in names is really terrible, Feng Qing court...”

“What a disgusting name to hear, so I have changed it into Feng Yu court. Well, that is the court that you had prepared for me, so for sure, it has to be named after me.”

Rong Yan clenched her fists tightly. Her breath was starting to turn erratic too.

“Aunt Rong, thank you. Thank you for putting in such an effort into building Fengyun Manor and all the power and status that come together for me, also a Feng Yu court for me too. I can’t thank you enough for that!

“From now on, I will never tell anyone from the Tang family that you were sponging our Tang family too.”

“Oh by the way, throughout these ten years, I have lied to Father that because you’re not in good condition, you need something throughout these ten years. I told him that you need the spirit herbs as a medication. So, he was very assured to entrust me with the spirit herbs and serve you. Well, the truth is, I have eaten all the spirit herbs. Then, I told everyone in the Tang family that Father was pampering you by serving you with spirit herbs every day.”

“Therefore, everyone from the Tang family hates you very much as none of them wants you to be alive!

“To keep a freeloader in our family...”

“What’s the point?”

Although the spirit herbs were not as precious as the one that she had cheated from Rong Yan, still, even a little ant has its own meat too. It was natural for her to benefit from eating more spirit herbs.

And Rong Yan was doomed to hold the bag for her. Well, Rong Yan deserved this because she did not want to hand over the storage bag to her!

Rong Yan gritted her teeth, and resolutely refused to swallow the Violet-Milvus Bloom.

Tang Yu’s seemed wicked and tried to force the Violet-Milvus Bloom into her mouth.

Her gums were bleeding. Tang Yu had poked them with her nails.

The sap of the Violet-Milvus Bloom had filled her mouth and gotten to her wounds, immediately invading her body through her wounds.

Tang Luo was still worried, so he came back immediately after he had left.

He pushed open the door, and he saw Tang Yu holding Rong Yan’s body. Tang Yu cried out sadly, “Aunt Rong, I really like you, I’m afraid that you would leave, so I have no choice but to feed you the Violet-Wood Bloom. Please don’t blame me. I really don’t want to part with you—”

Chapter 376: A Hero can Shed no Tears, Only Blood I

Tang Luo saw Tang Yu’s painful expression and relented.

His daughter liked Yan’er, just like him.

It was Yu’er who had accompanied Yan’er when he had no time to be by her side throughout all these years.

So, how could Yu’er want to bully Yan’er?

In fact, she loved her so much.

Or else... Yu’er could just refuse to accept Yan’er, but why did she try everything she could to make her stay?

It seemed that Yan’er had misunderstood because Yu’er was not treating her in the way wanted, just like how Yan’er misunderstood him as well—

“Yu’er, it’s all right.” Tang Luo went up to Tang Yu and patted her on her shoulder. “Father knows that you are too fond of her, but you have no choice to come up with this idea. I feel you. Just like what you worry about, I was afraid that she would leave too.”

Rong Yan seemed to be lost in her own mind as she looked on blankly. Just like a soulless person, her eyes were blank.

Tang Yu looked down as she grinned.

She did not want to take away Rong Yan’s life immediately because she was afraid that Father would find out that she was up to something. So, she decided to use Violet-Milvus Bloom and let the time slowly...

Slowly take her away!

“Yu’er.” Tang Luo walked up to Rong Yan painfully as his eyes were filled with guilt. “One day, you will know who’s the one who loves you the most in the world.”

He did not get any reply from her even though he waited for a long time. It was because the woman before him was unable to open her mouth and speak any more.

He finally sighed and gradually stood up. “Yu’er, take good care of her for now.”

“Okay.”

Tang Yu, with tears in her eyes, nodded.

As she saw Tang Luo walk out of the cabin, something cold flashed in Tang Yu’s eyes as she hurried out.

“Father!”

Tang Yu’s voice made him stop as he was just about to walk out of the cabin.

Tang Luo looked back at her and asked, “Yu’er, is there anything else?”

“Father,” Tang Yu’s eyes seemed malicious. “She has remembered everything now. We can only let her stay with us forever by killing her relatives.”

“No!”

Tang Luo’s face had suddenly changed. “Never lay a finger upon them.”

Tang Yu seemed surprised and asked, “Why? Why not? Tell me a reason, Father.”

Tang Luo’s lips seemed to reflect a sense of bitterness.

Tang Yu thought he was willing to tolerate?

He could let go of her past, but still, Feng Ruqing was her daughter.

The presence of this woman was like a thorn in his heart.

A thorn that would always remind him of a man who had all the happy times with her before!

Also, to make her give birth to a child for him willingly!

He was not some kind of generous or tolerant person. He was only generous to Rong Yan but not other people...

He could not make himself ignore and pretend to see nothing of it!

However...

Feng Ruqing was Nan Xian's woman!

He wished he could never see Feng Ruqing in his life again, but what could he do with her?

"Yu'er, stop involving yourself in this matter again. We, the Tang family, is a reclusive family. Back then, we have set the rules that people from the reclusive world will never interfere with the secular world. This is a rule that even the Divine Herbs Sect would never dare to violate."

Tang Luo sighed.

Many years ago, there were not so many rules in Cang Yue Mainland. Those who were not strong enough were doomed to die.

But just a few decades ago, a strong man came out of nowhere and forced the reclusive world to sign the agreements with the secular world that had been oppressed for countless years.

As a condition, he must remain in that place for the rest of his life, as he was never allowed to return to the secular world anymore.

Tang Yu tried to conceal her wickedness. "Father, I understand..."

Chapter 377: A Hero can Shed no Tears, Only Blood II

In Liu Yun Kingdom.

Not far above the hills.

Feng Rushuang stood in the valley, as the corner of her lips lifted into some kind of sneer. It seemed like she could see the imperial city was in the storm of war from such a height.

A few days before, several countries had invaded the borders of Liu Yun Kingdom. She had escaped while the Nalan family and their warriors defended the border.

How could anyone know that she would be in danger during her journey? If it was not for the Tang family's Tang Shan who had rescued her, she would have died!

Luckily, she followed Tang Shan back to the Tang family. Then, she found out that Nan Xian was the fiance of the Lady of the Tang family.

However, such an excellent man would only fall for her!

That day when she was sent to the border, a cold-hearted man was there to send her...

"Feng Ruqing, eventually, you will still lose to me."

Feng Rushuang's eyes were filled with pride.

She thought of what her mother had said to her the day before she left.

Nan Xian liked her!

It was only because Feng Ruqing was clinging onto Nan Xian that he had had a bad impression of her too. However, eventually, when Nan Xian knew that she and Feng Ruqing were not the same kind of people, he had gradually fallen in love with her.

She had returned for some reason. One was to take revenge, another one was...

To be Nan Xian's wife!

She planned not to forgive Nan Xian for quite a while at first, as a punishment to treating her that badly when they were in Southern Bamboo Forest back then. However, she could not help missing him as her feelings had surpassed all of her grief. So, she made the final decision to forgive him fully.

As a matter of fact, Feng Rushuang had sneaked away as soon as she said those words when she was in the Tang family. She did not notice Nan Xian's shadow, also she was aware that Feng Ruqing, who was initially doomed to die...

Had come back alive!

"Lady Feng."

Tang Shan was behind Feng Rushuang. He leered at the delicate body of the little girl in front of him and slightly smiled. "Let's go."

"Okay."

Feng Rushuang looked disgusted even though she did not look back at the man who stood behind her.

In this world, only a divine man like the state preceptor was qualified to be with her.

She would have dumped him long ago if she had not been worrying about facing any new danger.

***

Within Liu Yun Kingdom.

Beyond the gate, dead bodies were strewn all over the places.

The gate was stained with blood. All the people who had been waiting to enter the city were killed with all kinds of weapons. Only a few lucky survivors were crying while holding the corpses of their loved ones.

They were trembling under the sword of the soldiers.

Liu Yunxiao put a hand on his back and stood high in the air. His old cowardly pale face had changed into a condescending smiling face.

Just like a dominant superior in his high position, he looked down at the group of struggling ants 1 below.

“Nalan Hu, stop your useless fightback. Today, I have brought along ten Spirit Warriors. You are no longer my opponent anymore!”

Back then, he was the one where Nalan Hu had stomped on!

Whenever he saw General Nalan and his people, all he could do was hide in the shell like a tortoise. He could not be any more inferior.

But now, the inferior one had already been replaced by Nalan Hu!

What an unprecedented pleasure. He could not help but burst out laughing as if he wanted to vent out all of his frustrations and humiliations that he had been bearing for decades!

Nalan Hu was angry and pale. He quickly escaped from the long sword held by the people in front of him. His old face was pale as his eyes scintillated anger.

“Liu Yunxiao, as a courtier of Liu Yun Kingdom, how dare you to team up with other strong countries and enemies to invade our Liu Yun Kingdom!”

Except for Long Ao Kingdom, which had been destroyed, all the other strong ones had gathered up here.

Footnotes:

Ch 377 Footnote 1

In Chinese, a person is tiny and weak if it is referred to as an ant during a battle or war.

Chapter 378: A Hero can Shed No Tears, Only Blood III

No matter how strong Liu Yun Kingdom was, it was impossible to fight against the siege of four nations.

Also, there were already five people who had reached the Advanced Spirit Warrior tier among the Spirit Warriors.

“Liu Yun Kingdom without Nalan Yan is a kingdom that cannot withstand even a single blow!”

An old man dressed in purple sneered at the sky and punched Nalan Hu’s chest.

Nalan Hu could only defend the attack from behind. He was unable to avoid any other attack, so the punch had immediately made him spit blood. His old body was forced to take several steps backward.

Master Qin’s eyes were red as he growled anxiously, “Old General!”

Master Nalan crawled up from the ground. He stood with his back straight, and his eyes looked fierce. No one could defy him.

“Liu Yunxiao, even if I, Nalan Hu, were to be buried in this imperial city today, the Nalan family’s blood and allegiance would never be defeated!”

The border was in danger in the past two days. Zhangqian and Jing’er were sent to the frontier. It was lucky for them not to be in the imperial city at that time.

He hoped that the two boys would not return as the news spread outside the palace.

If the Nalan family's blood still existed, their soul of loyalty would never be defeated!

For those who stepped into the land of Liu Yun Kingdom, one day they would pay the price!

Liu Yunxiao laughed. "Nalan Hu, who do you think it was who had made up the frontier crisis?"

"What awaits them at the border is hell. You, the Nalan family, are doomed to be history!"

At first, after Liu Yunxiao spoke, he thought that Nalan Hu would be in deep grief and rather die than to live.

But the old man's face was very calm since the beginning. It was so calm that his face barely moved.

"You are wrong. The disciples and followers of the Nalan family are all over the world!"

"Even if Jing'er, Chang Qian and I are dead, there will still be someone to stand up against you. For the people of the Nalan family, you can never finish killing us no matter how hard you try, HAHHAH!!!"

Nalan Hu burst into a wild, arrogant laugh. The smile was just as powerful as his unyielding spirit, a spirit which could astound anyone.

"One day, they will take over my place to defend and protect our country and frontiers."

His eyes were burning with wild flame and murderous spirit, and he grinned as he was looking at Liu Yunxiao condescendingly.

"If you're afraid, get on your knees and kowtow to seek forgiveness from the innocent people you've killed!"

"You kneel until the world forgives you."

What a damned bastard to ally with the foreign enemy and kill the defending soldiers, even those normal people who were waiting to enter the city did not stand a chance to escape from the killing talon as well.

How innocent were those people?

Crying hysterically and desparingly, a woman held a girl's corpse in her arms.

Liu Yunxiao suddenly lifted his hand and clasped the woman to him. He tightly grasped the woman's neck with his fingers and looked at Nalan Hu with a cold smile.

"If you love all of this rubbish so much, kneel before me right now!"

"Otherwise, I will slaughter the whole city and use the blood from all of the people to worship my wrath."

Nalan Hu's old eyes were red. He turned purple with rage and said, "Liu Yunxiao, I'm the one whom you've always hated. They are just ordinary people without any strength or weapons!"

"What's the difference between you and a beast by doing so?"

Swoosh!

With a strong grip, Liu Yunxiao broke the woman's neck. He flung the woman's corpse to the ground and sneered. "In this mainland, the fittest survive, and the ordinary ones..."

"How could they have the right to live and waste the food?"

All the people from Liu Yun Kingdom had gone completely mad by looking at Liu Yunxiao's cruel behavior!

The people of the Iron-Blooded army clutched on their weapons tightly as their eyes burned with anger.

Chapter 379: A Hero can Shed No Tears, Only Blood IV

Liu Yunxiao grabbed another crying little boy and looked at Nalan Hu coldly. "Nalan Hu, to your knees, now!"

Nalan Hu had no chance of winning him as he had united with several strong nations.

What he wanted was not only the Nalan family's life! He also wanted to humiliate Nalan Hu in every possible way before he died!

"You..." Nalan Hu's eyes were burning with rage.

However, Liu Yunxiao gave him no chance to think. He stabbed through the little boy's chest with a sword.

The little boy was only around three years old. His parents had just been slaughtered, and he was left alone in the world. However, he had already lost his life at the age where he had only started to understand and discover the world.

His eyes were round and wide. He looked terrified and reluctant to die as there were tears in his eyes, but then, he could not stand up and live anymore.

Nalan Hu felt as if his heart was pierced through by needles. It was really, really painful.

He loved the people and treated them like his own children. Even though he had been on the battlefields for so many years, or helped to expand the kingdom's power, he had never hurt a single ordinary man in any country.

As the general of a nation, his duty was to protect these ordinary people. But, all he could do was to watch these people collapsed before his eyes!

He could do nothing!

Liu Yun Kingdom's people were enraged. As the battle turned more violent, their eyes became even redder as if there was a wave of deep anger that had nowhere to go.

At the same time, Liu Yunxiao dragged another middle-aged man. Nalan Hu stopped all the fighting.

His eyes landed on the person Liu Yunxiao was holding, he was expressionless. "What you wish for is to humiliate me, isn't it? I will do as you wish, but please, let go of all these ordinary folk."

Liu Yunxiao smiled coldly and said, "I will let them leave the imperial city if you kneel down to me. I won't kill them if they never return, how's the deal?"

"Okay!" Nalan Hu's voice quivered, but his eyes were as resolute as steel.

"Old General!"

Everyone was frightened. They looked at Nalan Hu anxiously. "You can't do that!"

Nalan Hu was someone who was someone who cared about his dignity very much. If he really did that, he would... suffer for the rest of his life!

Even if he survived, he would be living in hell!

Nalan Hu slowly closed his eyes.

After a while, he slowly opened his eyes and gradually went down on his knees.

"Old General!" Qin Feiyang's old face was filled with sadness. "You can't do as he wishes, you can't do that!"

Nalan Hu's ears could not hear any sound anymore.

He knew it well, for no doubt, he would die on that day!

If that was the case, what was the harm to save a person by tarnishing his dignity?

Just as Nalan Hu's knees were about to land on the ground, the middle-aged man grabbed the sword from Liu Yunxiao's hand by his surprise, and the middle-aged man plunged it through his own chest.

Nalan Hu's body went stiff.

Blood splattered and splashed onto Nalan Hu's face. His body froze as he could only stare at the man falling to the ground.

Liu Yunxiao was shocked. He had never thought that the man would be doing this. He could not come to his senses for quite a while.

"Old general..." The man lay his face flat on the ground as the blood covered the whole ground in red.

"You are a... hero. My wife and daughter got killed by him just now, I don't want to... survive in disgrace and let a hero lose his dignity."

Liu Yun Kingdom had been peaceful for decades because of the Nalan family.

Everyone from the Nalan family was a hero.

A hero can shed no tears but only blood!

Nalan Hu's old face was covered in tears. He struck out a violent gust of wind with the long sword in his hand, and suddenly, the gust had reached Liu Yunxiao.

“You Liu family bastard, I want you to die!!!”

Chapter 380: When the Kingdom Is Under Attack, Stand up and Fight Back I

Liu Yunxiao’s face suddenly darkened. “Nalan Hu, how dare you to disobey my command, don’t forget that I have still plenty of hostages in my hand, do you want all of this rubbish to die?”

Perhaps that man had somehow encouraged all the people to fight back when he started to fight back. The people, whom Liu Yunxiao regarded as rubbish, seemed to have forgotten to cry and wail at the moment. They crawled up from the ground as their eyes were filled with anger and determination.

They knew what was going on even if they were just ordinary people. How could the eggs stay unbroken when the nest is overturned 1?

If Liu Yun Kingdom was destroyed, how would there still be a place for them to stay?

Besides, the old general was a hero!

They could not bear to let the hero be humiliated, or to make him lose his hope!

Liu Yunxiao turned back and took a glance. He was shocked again to see all the ordinary people rushing toward the army of four countries.

They were all ordinary people with no weapons in their hands!

They could not even endure an attack under the power of the army of four countries!

Why... How could they be so brave? Did they not want to live?

Liu Yunxiao could never fathom this!

Human nature should be selfish in his eyes. The humans are creatures that liked to bully the weak but are afraid of the stronger ones. Humans are scared of death and would do anything to survive! There should not be a human who would still rush forward without any hesitation when they knew well that the way ahead was a dead-end!

Nalan Hu’s eyes were teary and filled with anger. A mighty gust blew around him. Just like a hurricane, his sword roared and rushed forward violently.

When Liu Yunxiao came to his senses, he met that anger eyes and quickly used his sword to defend the gust.

Clang! That brutal force shook and made his arms go numb.

He took a few steps back and looked at a Spirit Warrior beside him and said, “General Ling, help me to deal with this old thing.”

Ling Yue nodded, and then he was in front of Nalan Hu.

“Old General Nalan, you looked just fine.”

Ling Yue, the general of Zi Yun Kingdom, had met and fought with Nalan Hu a couple of times before. After all, they were “old friends.” So he thought that Nalan Hu would respond to him no matter what had happened.

But Nalan Hu had broken into his vision without saying another word.

Ling Yue slightly frowned and smiled. “You have the same old temper, my hot-tempered pal. I would really admire you if we let go of all the political connections and hatred. However, I’m the general of Zi Yun Kingdom, and you’re the general of Liu Yun Kingdom, we are destined to be enemies forever!”

The long sword of a Spirit Warrior slashed Tang Zi’s silky hair and cut it. Her face was cold without any expression on it.

But the anger inside her heart was obvious and noticeable.

The empress of Liu Yun Kingdom, Nalan Yan, she was just like the mother of the world as everyone was her son and daughter.

When the prince of Long Ao Kingdom was arbitrarily killing the people of Liu Yun Kingdom, she would bring her people and attack Long Ao Kingdom. She had forced that prince into death. But now, scores of people were being killed in the imperial city of Liu Yun kingdom.

How painful it would be for the empress to know what had happened in the kingdom!

Tang Zi’s body was trembling. Because she knew that the empress could not bear anyone killing the people in Liu Yun Kingdom.

“You forgot the empress’s words.” Tang Zi held a long sword in her hands. She was brave and mighty in her spirits. “She said that she would kill a hundred people if anyone dares to touch a people of Liu Yun Kingdom. She will destroy the country if anyone dares to touch a hundred people of Liu Yun Kingdom!”

She sneered. Her cold eyes were filled with pride.

“Don’t you think you can do anything you want even if the empress is not here. Is the doom of Long Ao Kingdom not enough of a warning to you?”

She was with the three-striped tiger when she invaded Long Ao Kingdom that day. However, the news had not spread yet. They thought only the masters of Liu Yun Kingdom went forward to destroy Long Ao Kingdom as they did not know the existence of the Tier-5 spirit beasts.
