

Overbearing 401

Chapter 401: To Protect their Last and Only Dignity I

To dispose of Liu Yunxiao on their own, that was easier to stir the crowd up than those rewards.

They could let go of Nalan Hu's promises and the rewards that were almost in their hands, but they would never let go of the chance to finish Liu Yunxiao off on their own!

The crowds had punched him before, but it was not fatal enough. They could do whatever they wanted with Nalan Hu's words at that moment.

"No!!!"

Liu Yunxiao's eyes were wild with terror as he screamed hysterically. In no time, his body drowned in the crowd as his voice was cut off by the siege...

Inside General Manor.

Qin Yi held Dai'er tightly in her arms. She looked cold as she was staring at the middle-aged man in front of her. Her face was expressionless. "Liu Fei, why are you here?"

Liu Fei grinned coldly as he condescendingly looked at Qin Yi.

"Haha, do you think with such a few generals from the Nalan family, you could trap our Liu family's people? It was because my father had run away at that time. We were only pretending to get trapped just because we wanted to wait for him to return. Now, he's here, and the Nalan family's death is here too!"

Liu Fei was furious to mention this again.

His dad was as timid as a mouse. He did not obey the emperor back then during dinner. They thought Feng Tianyu would die in Long Ao Kingdom's prince's hands but who would know that Feng Ruqing would return in the end?

He was so shocked and fled away overnight without even giving a message to the Liu family, leaving them to live in humiliation and a life that was worse than death.

As soon as Liu Fei thought of the days when they were surviving through shit and pee, Liu Fei looked terribly disgusted. He looked evil and was brimming with resentment.

He would pay back exactly what the Nalan family had done to him!

To make them also go through the sufferings he had gone through before!

Qin Yi hugged Dai'er tightly, she lowered her head and gently asked, "Dai'er, are you afraid?"

Dai'er shook her little head and replied, "Mother, Dai'er is not afraid."

“Good.” The corners of Qin Yi’s lips lifted gently as she said, “We of the Nalan family have to be that way. Dai’er, don’t worry, Mother will always be by your side.”

The battle was extremely ferocious. She really wished... that she could go along with her father to protect and save the country.

But she could not.

She had to take care of Dai’er, and also some of the young and old fellows in the family too.

“Sister...” A clear voice came behind Qin Yi.

Qin Yi gently tilted her head back. She saw Wei Pinyao approaching from behind her.

Qin Yi slightly frowned, her finely arched beautiful eyebrows knitted together. “Why are you here?”

Wei Pinyao smiled lightly and shook her head. “Sister, I’m weak since young and could not cultivate with you all, and so, I can’t even help you protect Dai’er and have also dragged you down to protect us and render you unable to fight in the battlefield. I can’t just stay behind you now.

“My husband, father-in-law, and father, all of them have already gone to the gate of the castle to fight and protest. As a daughter of the Wei family, daughter-in-law of Qin family, how can I... timidly stay behind you?”

Wei Pinyao knew well how much Qin Yi wanted to join in the battle.

However, she could only stay inside General Manor and gather all of the women from the three families to protect them. By doing so, she could let their family fight against the enemies without having any worries behind.

Indeed, several hours ago, some enemies had snuck into their houses and attempted to assassinate them as killing them could destroy her father-in-law’s troop’s morale. However, Qin Yi had dealt with all of them.

But Wei Pinyao never thought that Liu Fei would escape. And throughout the years, he had been hiding his ability.

Advanced True Warrior tier!

Qin Yi was only an Intermediate True Warrior. Facing someone who had reached a higher tier than her, how could she fight back when she had to protect so many old people at the same time?

Chapter 402: To Protect their Last and Only Dignity II

“Everyone! Relax! No one from General Manor will be left behind today!” Liu Fei sneered and said, “By the way, Qin Yi, let me tell you that, the old thing Nalan Hu has died, hahaha!”

Although he did not go to the city gate, it was impossible for them to survive with Liu Yun Kingdom facing powerhouses from four kingdoms, alone. Therefore, Nalan Hu must be dead.

The Nalan family without Nalan Hu was so vulnerable that they could not even withstand a single blow!

Qin Yi's hands trembled. She looked calm. "People of the Nalan family take pride in protecting their nation. I'm proud of my family, and so, I will never bow to all you doggie traitor. I will keep my dignity and prestige to meet them!"

People of the Nalan family never feared death! What they feared was that the family perished with the kingdom.

"Don't overestimate yourself!" Liu Fei smirked as he summoned a gust of wind with his palm.

Qin Yi quickly tilted to one side and tightly held Dai'er in her arms.

The strong force hit right on her shoulders. She spat a mouthful of blood, but still, she looked fearless and calm.

Liu Fei said coldly, "Qin Yi, I'll give you a chance. If you kneel and kowtow to me, I'll let you off."

Qin Yi wiped away the blood from the corner of her lips. She stood up straight under the sunset.

"The Nalan family's daughter-in-law kneels to heaven, the ground, the gentleman, and the parents, but never to the enemies!"

Just like the bell, the sea, and the bamboo, she sounded resolute.

She would never put the Nalan family in shame as long as she was still a member of the Nalan family.

Her father-in-law and husband were such noble and unsullied people with lofty spirits. Thus, she must follow the loyal spirit of the Nalan family.

At the backyard of General Manor, Wei Mengjie looked at everything that had happened, dumbfoundedly.

Qin Yi had always disliked her because of Wei Pinyao.

But she wanted to be Qin Xun's concubine and after all, Qin Xun was Qin Yi's younger brother too. Wei Pinyao could not have a baby. Therefore, it was absolutely normal for Qin Xun to get a concubine.

She really could not understand why was Qin Yi was so hostile toward her.

For that reason, Qin Yi did not bring her along when she went for the Wei family's womenfolk.

It was the Wei family's old lady, her grandmother, who had insisted on bringing her along, or else she would not want to leave too.

Qin Yi could do nothing. To let the Wei family battle in ease, she was forced to bring Wei Mengjie along.

Wei Mengjie's eyes were rolling non-stop. As she saw Liu Fei order his people to search the yard. She could not hold herself back anymore. So, she ran out of the backyard.

"Master Liu, I was dragged to this place by Qin Yi, I'm innocent." Wei Mengjie burst into tears as she rushed in front of Liu Fei. She kneeled to the ground and said, "I'm the Wei family's people, not from the Nalan family. Please let me go. I'm really innocent..."

Wei Pinyao chided in anger, “Wei Mengjie, how dare you? Where are you going to place your father’s reputation?”

Wei Mengjie turned her head back and pointed to Wei Pinyao.

“Master Liu, this woman is Qin Yi’s younger brother’s wife. You should eliminate the Nalan and Qin family at once. Our Wei family is innocent.”

Besides the Qin and Wei family in the big courtyard, there were still womenfolk from the Jiang family, one of the families from the three great families.

As Liu Fei came with a troop of people, all the others came out from the backyard in response to the commotion.

But no one would have expected the sight of Wei Mengjie clinging onto Liu Fei’s thighs. She was crying pathetically.

“Shameless!” The mistress of the Jiang family furiously pointed at Wei Mengjie. “Your father, your clan, they are all fighting hard outside. How could you kneel to the enemy, and where are you going to place the Wei family’s reputation?”

Chapter 403: To Protect their Last and Only Dignity III

Wei Mengjie harrumphed and said, “Jiang Yue, what makes you think you can scold me by standing on the moral high ground? My dad was fighting hard, so what? I’m just a woman, can’t I fear death? If you’re not afraid of dying, you should go to the battlefield too.”

Jiang Yue stomped her feet, angrily. If it was not because of her pregnancy, she really wanted to do so.

Although she did not partake in the war, all of her sisters had gone for the battle. Even her husband was a visiting-son-in-law ¹, but he never fell back. She was proud of the Jiang family.

At least she would never drag them along with her when her family was fighting on the battlefield.

It was just death. That was far better than bringing disgrace to her family.

“What, you have nothing to say now? Since you have nothing else to say, you have no right to scold me.”

“Enough!” Wei Pinyao’s eyes grew colder. She did not even take a second look at Wei Mengjie when she said, coldly, “I’ll help my father disown this unloyal girl from our family. She’s not a member of the Wei family, her action does not represent the Wei family!”

Her father valued reputation more than anything.

She would not let this unloyal girl destroy the reputation of their family when her father was fighting so hard outside.

“Impudent!”

Old Lady Wei came forward with a stick and slapped Wei Pinyao's face. "You are a married woman, what rights do you have to represent our Wei family? Wei Pinyao, you are such a filthy little badass. First, you made Qin Xun your own, then you forbade your sister to be his concubine, now you want to expel her from our family. I will beat you to death, you this filthy little badass!"

The old lady raised her stick and attempted to violently hit Wei Pinyao.

But, Qin Yi caught the stick before it could touch Wei Pinyao.

"The enemy is here, but you are still in the mood to bully Pinyao? Do you really treat us as nothing? Pinyao would not be bothered if my brother wanted to get a concubine, but I had not allowed him to do so. I only acknowledge Pinyao, so does my brother, he will never betray Pinyao!"

"Bah!" The old woman was trembling as she pointed at Qin Yi. "You're only a daughter-in-law, what kind of rights do you think you have to represent the Qin family? Do you really think you are qualified enough to stop Qin Xun from taking a new concubine?"

A married daughter was like water that was poured out ¹. No married girl has the right to put their finger back in her parents' pie.

The corners of Qin Yi's lips lifted coldly. She glanced at Wei Mengjie and turned to the old lady. Then, she turned to look at the only boy present.

All men from the three great families had gone to war. Only the womenfolk stayed.

But it was such a pity that... the Wei family's little concubine's son, who was also Wei Mengjie's own brother, hid in General Manor to seek for her protection!

A big man allowing a girl to protect him. Was that not ridiculous?

"The Wei family's master has always been brilliant and faithful. But it's such a pity for him to have you as his mother. You have destroyed him, and there's no way to mend it.

She turned away from Old Lady Wei, refusing to look at her again.

Old Lady Wei was so frustrated, her face went pale. If it were not because she was no match for Qin Yi, she would have already hit that shameless woman to death with her stick.

"Wei Pinyao, as long as I'm here, no one can disown Mengjie from the family!" Old Lady Wei stopped aiming her words at Qin Yi and had shifted her anger toward Wei Pinyao.

Wei Pinyao's face seemed cold and void of any emotions.

She felt utterly disappointed and cold, as if nothing could warm her heart again. If her father had not been treating her well all this while, she would never wish to return to the Wei family for the rest of her life."

Therefore, even if she had to die there, she would never kneel to the enemy for her father's sake.

She would let Liu Fei understand that, at least the Wei family and her... would protect their last and only shred of dignity.

Chapter 404: Rather Die than Kneel I

Liu Fei laughed out loud twice sharply and said, "It seemed that the Wei family is merely loose sand that is in a state of disunity. One of the great three families, that's what they are called! However, I, Liu Fei, am a person who holds to his promises. Since the Wei family's little lady has already kowtowed to beg for my forgiveness, I will let go of you for a while, for now."

"As for the others..." He turned to look at the crowds. "Either you kowtow to me, or your blood will spill everywhere!"

As soon as the Wei family's master, Wei Xiang, heard this, he immediately crawled and rushed out from the crowds with a teary face and cried, "Master Liu, I am willing to surrender, please spare me my doggie life."

With the lead off of Wei Mengjie and Wei Xiang, the old lady and Second Lady Wei kneeled down in front of Liu Fei, shivering.

Second Lady Wei was Wei Mengjie and Weixiang's mother, Wei Fang was forced by the old lady to take her as a concubine.

Everyone is afraid of dying when they are alive.

Therefore, they did not think they had done anything wrong. If they could live, why should they die?

Just because of the ridiculousness of dignity?

What was the use of dignity when one had lost one's life?

"HAHAHA!" Liu Fei's ironic and scornful laughter got even louder.

When Wei Fang was young, he had followed the old general, riding on the military horse and fighting on the battlefield. He had achieved countless of merit with the old general.

Back then, when he was captured by the enemy's troop and the enemy coerced him to surrender, it was said that he gritted his teeth and held it down as he would rather put himself in months of sufferings.

Then, the old general came and saved him from the enemy.

When the old general met Wei Fang, it was said that all of his skin was rotting, and he was already at the brink of death. He stayed alive as saltwater was poured on his open wounds. His oral cavity was full of the blood from biting himself when he was bearing the pain.

All of the generals and soldiers of the Nalan family cried.

They cried for his loyalty.

However, such a strong-willed person had two bad children who were so selfish to want to stay alive because they were so afraid of death.

Liu Fei actually admired Wei Fang. However, admiring was one thing. Still, the great hatred between the Nalan family and him was another thing that he would never stop dealing with.

“Wei Xiang...” Liu Fei looked down condescendingly at Wei Xiang. “If you say Wei Fang is a coward, a traitor, in front of the crowd, then, I will let go of you.”

Wei Xiang’s eyes turned bright. Without any hesitation, he blurted out the words, “Wei Fang is already a coward at first, he is a traitor. How could he compare to you, the master of the Liu family? Master Liu, if you could let go of me, I’ll certainly look up to you in the future. The Wei family has me as their only son, my Wei family will belong to you too.”

Wei Pinyao closed her eyes. She did not want to see any of their sickening faces anymore.

However, her heart felt so painful as if someone had punched it.

‘Father, did you see? That’s the Wei family’s descendant. Selfish, afraid of dying, and a coward.

‘You were determined not to surrender to the enemy even if you had to die. However, he had already surrendered when the battle has not even started yet...’

Liu Fei suddenly swung his hand and punched Wei Xiang on his chest. His body flew backward and fell to the ground.

“You...” Wei Xiang’s eyes widened in disbelief.

Master Liu had clearly said that if he said what he was told to say, he would let go of him.

Liu Fei humped coldly. “I, the Liu family, will never need anyone who is afraid of dying. I said those words because I wanted to know how many people are afraid of dying! The Liu family will never let any such a person stay!”

Cowards. Since the Liu family already had Liu Yunxiao, they did not want any more cowards.

Also, it was just a matter of time for a man who could betray his own family to betray the Liu family in the future.

He, Liu Fei, was not that stupid to accept people like that.

Chapter 405: Rather Die than Kneel II

In comparison, he actually liked Qin Yi more. The only drawback was that Qin Yi was not only the daughter-in-law of Nalan Hu, but the three great families were also Nalan Hu’s people too...

In the blink of an eye, all of the people who came forward and kneeled to surrender had turned pale. The truth was that they had already kneeled, but they did not expect to not get the peace that they had initially prayed for.

They only wished to survive.

To survive, was that a wrong thing to do? Why should he treat them that way? Just because they were the Wei family’s people?

The old lady pursed her lips. Her pale face was filled with despair.

Back then, Wei Fang did really bring a lot of honor to their family when he followed the old general without any hesitation. But if she knew he would be facing such danger, she would rather give up on that honor and never allow Wei Fang to follow the old general to fight on the battlefield.

“Qin Yi.” Liu Fei grinned. “For your daughter’s sake, I suggest you surrender. I really admire your nobility. If you surrender, I will let go of the Qin family.”

As for the Nalan family, he could not let them go... the Nalan family must die!

Qin Yi lowered her eyes and looked at Dai’er resolutely.

“Dai’er, remember my words. No matter what happens in the future, never show the white feather to the enemy, never betray your kingdom to survive, and also, never go down on your knees before your enemy.”

Dai’er was the kid that she pampered the most. But the pampering was not to the point of spoiling.

She had her bottom line and principles.

Even if the kids in the Nalan family had to die, they would have to die on their feet. They should never go down on their knees to beg to live!

“Mother, Dai’er remembers it now. I’d rather die than kneel.” Nalan Dai’er little face was a bit pale, but her eyes were unusually resolute. “Mother, you don’t have to be afraid too, Cousin will avenge us.”

Qin Yi smiled. Indeed, the person Feng Ruqing was before would only hurt them, but the person Feng Ruqing was now...

Qin Yi believed, one day, she would avenge them.

By thinking so, death was nothing much to be feared of.

“Since you guys have made such a decision, I’ll respect you guys then.” Liu Fei swung his hand as he looked on maliciously.

“Someone come and kill all the people inside General Manor, all of them!”

As soon as Liu Fei finished speaking, he had already rushed in front of Qin Yi.

Only Qin Yi who was capable of fighting him as of present.

All the young and old ones, they probably could not even stand a single strike.

Qin Yi lifted her hands as she clasped Dai’er to her tightly. The sword in her hand was welcoming the enemies who were rushing toward her.

The Liu family’s guards rushed forward. Jiang Yue could not care less even though she was six months pregnant. She pulled out her sword to join the battle.

Her stomach was throbbing in pain as a cold sweat broke on her forehead. She knew she must not collapse. She must endure the pain and confront the enemy head-on.

Nalan and the other families had left some guards with them, but the enemy were too strong that the guard could not hold them. Soon, half the guards were wounded and dead.

However, because of the protection from the guards, the womenfolk from all the great families did not get hurt.

Maybe the guards from the great families did not see eye to eye with Wei Mengjie and some of the people. Therefore, none of them were there to protect them. Even if it were the Wei family's guards, they only stayed beside Wei Pinyao and the old lady, as nobody cared for Wei Mengjie and the people who followed her.

Although the old lady had surrendered to the enemy, she was still an old lady. No matter how angry they were, they did not dare to leave the old lady's life unprotected.

"Ahh!"

Wei Mengjie's hands were cut by a knife. As the blood oozed, it was so painful that she almost fainted.

The old lady was furious. "What are you guys doing here? Quickly protect Mengjie and Xiang'er. Leave that traitor Wei Pinyao alone!"

Chapter 406: Rather Die than Kneel III

The Wei family's guard ignored the old lady.

They protected the old lady simply because she was an elderly, as for the others... Even if they would be blamed or punished by their master, they still wanted to follow their hearts, for once.

For their master's whole life, he had been loyal, brave, and faithful through all the battles.

Back then, before Empress Nalan was here, their master and the other great families' masters had toiled and moiled in protecting this land by following in the old general's steps.

They shed blood and tears and did all they could to protect the land. Nobody could trample on their land!

The old lady turned pale as she realized that nobody had listened to her. Her face crumpled in agony as her anger almost exploded from her chest.

"Old lady..." Wei Pinyao smiled ironically. "You better talk lesser. Wei Mengjie and Wei Xiang almost became traitors while all of the Wei family's guards are still faithful. Do you really think they would protect such a traitor? If you talk more, I'm afraid they might stop protecting you, too.

"After all, you betrayed our kingdom too..."

The old lady's heart jolted in pain. This time, she remained silent, but she glared at Wei Pinyao grudgingly.

If they could survive this time, she would ask Fang'er to severely punish this little b*tch when they return to the Wei family.

Liu Fei's sword slashed at Qin Yi's arm. Her blood splashed everywhere and stained the ground red.

As usual, her dark eyes remained calm. It was as if she had a limited range of emotions.

But her arms were still clutching Dai'er. She seemed resolute.

"Mother, do you think cousin will return?" Dai'er asked as her bright eyes widened.

Qin Yi's heart skipped a beat because she could not bear to tell Dai'er the truth, and she did not want Feng Ruqing to be back at that time too. However, looking at Dai'er bright eyes, she nodded eventually.

"She will be back."

She would be back sooner or later, but not at that moment.

"Hooray!" A smile lighted up Dai'er face. She still looked adorable, even though her face was stained with blood. "Then very soon, Cousin will send them down ¹ to make them apologize to us. I will wait for them there."

Qin Yi felt desolated. The four kingdoms had allied with one another this time. She would never believe it if there was no one behind this. Therefore, Feng Ruqing was no match for them at the moment.

Unless she had fully grown up.

But looking at Dai'er's hopeful eyes, Qin Yi could only fake a smile.

"Yup, they will apologize soon..."

Countless swords came from all directions, besieging Qin Yi and Dai'er in the middle.

As Dai'er had Qin Yi's assurance, she smiled in relief and slowly closed her eyes.

Qin Yi defended those long swords with her back and held Dai'er tightly, protected in her arms. She gently closed her eyes—

'I'm sorry, Zhangqian. I could not wait any longer for you to return.

'But I'm proud of the Nalan family. If there's an afterlife, I will still be the Nalan family's daughter-in-law, I will still be your wife.'

Clang!

Suddenly, a clear voice came from the sky.

It was a loud, clanging voice as if a stone struck a sword.

Qin Yi was shocked as she gradually opened her eyes.

Suddenly, all the people who lay siege to them fell backward and collapsed into the pool of blood.

She was stunned. She slowly turned her head around. In the glow of the sunset, two petite figures came into her vision.

“Sister Xiao Yin.” Dai’er had opened her eyes too.

She immediately noticed Tang Yin and Qian Ning. Her little heart was filled with joy.

“Dai’er, you know them?” Qin Yi was dumbfounded.

Chapter 407: Rather Die than Kneel IV

She thought they were doomed to die. Who knew that two little girls would suddenly appear? On top of that, how did Dai’er know the two of them?

“Mother, they are the ones who broke our house’s door. Father had sent soldiers to chase them, but they got away. They are that two little ladies.” Dai’er broke into a smile and said, “Brother and I went to Cousin’s house soon after, and we found out that she’s the Little Lady living inside Cousin’s manor.”

Dai’er paused and continued seriously, “Then, Sister Xiao Yin and Brother went out to play hand in hand, leaving me alone in the princess’s manor.”

Hand in... hand?

Qin Yi’s eyes brightened a little and started to look at Tang Yin differently.

Indeed, this little girl was really adorable, and her eyes were clear too. The more she looked at her... the more she liked her.

She was born with the liking for little girls. Therefore, before Dai’er came to the world, she had loved Feng Ruqing a lot.

However, Feng Ruqing had done too many unreasonable things to them. Thus, her interest in her had turned into disappointment.

But the fact that she liked little girls never changed before. She wished she never had a son, and it would be better if all of her children were daughters.

So as she saw Tang Yin, and when she heard about Tang Yin and Nalan Jing being hand in hand, her heart was brimming with happiness.

However, that was not the time for her to be happy, because there were still countless of enemies waiting for them.

“Aunt Qin!” Tang Yin rushed to Qin Yi’s side and said, “Are you okay? Did they hurt you? Qian Ning, quickly kill all the people who hurt my Aunt Qin, kill all of them!”

‘All these bastards, how dare they hurt Xiao Qin’s family! No one is allowed to stay!’

As Qin Yi felt Tang Yin’s enthusiasm toward her, she started to guess in her heart.

‘Could it be that she and Jing’er... is really...

‘What a little boy, to hook up a girl without saying a word. Why doesn’t he bring her back for me to see? Does he think that I would take her away?’

Qin Yi would never relate Tang Yin's enthusiasm with Feng Ruqing.

The princess was a girl. Two girls... how could it be possible? Also, the princess was not homosexual either, which made it seem even more impossible.

Qian Ning had already known her little lady's temper well long ago.

Tang Yin fawned over all of Feng Ruqing's family members just because of Feng Ruqing.

So her flattering was not something special to see at the moment.

All she need to do was to help her little lady eliminate all the enemies.

It did not matter if the enemies were coveting for the princess, or... the one who was hurting the princess's family.

"Little girl, get out of my way now!" Liu Fei growled coldly.

Qian Ning did not want to waste time on saying nonsense. She pulled out a sword from her waist. Just like the wind, she swiftly reached behind Liu Fei.

An overwhelming force stunned Liu Fei before he could react to it.

And before he could turn his head, the long sword was already aimed at his neck.

The icy temperature of the edge of that sword chilled his heart.

"Spirit... Spirit Warrior..."

That little girl was a Spirit Warrior?

The crowd was in the state of tumult.

The crowd was in despair at first. But when they saw Qian Ning's sword on Liu Fei's neck and that he could barely even move, everyone exploded with happiness.

It felt just like a hand that dragged them out from the depths of despair.

"We're saved, we're saved!" Old Lady Wei burst into tears of joy and excitement.

However, no one bothered if she was crying or screaming. All of them were focused on Liu Fei.

Chapter 408: Feng Rushuang is not His Daughter I

Liu Fei was afraid to move.

He knew if he tried to move, that little girl would take his life away immediately.

"Little girl, it's really shocking to know you're a Spirit Warrior. However, all the powerhouses from the four great kingdoms are here, Nalan Hu and his people have already died too. What's the point for you to be strong?"

Qian Ning was stunned.

It was as if she was frightened.

The corner of Liu Fei's lips lifted into a smile. Qian Ning's adorable voice rang out before Liu Fei could speak his second sentence.

"Little lady, this person is even stupid than me. All the powerhouses from the four great kingdoms had been strangled to death by the princess's little spirit beasts. How dare he tries to threaten me with those powerhouses."

Nobody from the world really knew about Qing Han's spirit herbs identity. All of them thought she was a spirit beast.

After all, a spirit herb that could transform into a human was too unbelievable to them. They had never heard of such a thing before.

Liu Fei was stunned and dumbfounded.

'The powerhouses from the four great kingdoms... have been strangled to death? All the strong Spirit Warriors... could be strangled to death?'

"What about my father?" Liu Fei panicked and asked anxiously.

"I don't really know." Qian Ning shrugged and grinned. "When I was leaving, all the people in Liu Yun Kingdom was frustrated. I guess they have torn him into pieces, and now he's dead, and his corpse has disappeared too."

"That's impossible, impossible..." Horror finally dawned in Liu Fei's eyes.

'Father's dead? The Liu family... is finished?'

The snobbish and pompous Liu Fei suddenly felt worn out and had lost his spirit to fight, just like a deflated rubber ball.

After a while, he spoke hoarsely, "I don't believe it. It's impossible. Father will never die..."

"Little lady, he said he doesn't believe it. Should I take away his power and throw him to the city gate to be with his father?"

Qian Ning cocked her adorable eyebrows. The crowd in the city was so furious that if they were to throw the Liu family's people to them... the Liu family's people might suffer a consequence worse than death itself.

"That's a brilliant way. Qian Ning, you're really smart."

'We should just throw the Liu family's people outside and let the world vent their anger.'

'Especially for those people who had lost their family. They need a person... to bear their rage!'

"Qin Yi." Old lady Wei came to her senses and turned to look at Qin Yi. She spoke in a condescending way. "Since General Manor is safe now, let these two little girls escort me back and also let them stay in the Wei family to protect us."

Qin Yi smirked and said, "These two girls are not guards. You want them to escort you back? In your dreams!"

Old Lady Wei frowned and said, "My son has followed Nalan Hu to fight on the battlefields for so many years, even Nalan Hu has to address me as Aunt as well. How is it wrong for me to ask your people to escort me? These girls are only servants in the princess's manor. You, as the princess's aunt, what's the big deal borrowing these two servants from her to protect me?"

Although it was safe at that moment, who knew if someone would come and attack them again? They would only die if they bumped into an enemy by relying on their abilities.

Therefore, she must get these two little girls!

"Servants?" Qin Yi laughed. "Have you ever seen a Spirit Warrior servant?"

"You..." Old Lady Wei's face showed that she was slightly annoyed. "I've heard everything that Dai'er has said just now. This little girl is the girl from the princess's manor as another one calls her 'Little Lady.' If she's not a servant, then what could she be?"

Qian Ning was stunned.

Although she was Little Lady's servant, nobody from the Tang family has really treated her as a servant.

That old lady demanded her to escort her?

"Aunt Qin..." Tang Yin pursed her lips and said, "Who is this old thing? Are you guys close?"

Qin Yi calmly shook her head. "I'm not that close to her."

"Oh." Tang Yin understood what Qin Yi meant and swung her little hand. "Qian Ning, throw her out. How dare an unfamiliar person step into General Manor's property, and also scold my Aunt Qin? What a shameless person."

Chapter 409: Feng Rushuang is not His Daughter II

Before Old Lady Wei could berate her, Qian Ning had already raised her hand and grabbed the sleeve of this old woman, and threw her out.

Since the crisis was over, other people from the Wei family did not want to stay anymore. They went away in grief because they were afraid that they would be thrown out too.

General Manor became quiet and peaceful without the presence of those people.

"Xiao Yue, are you okay?" Qin Yi's face changed as she saw Jiang Yue clutching her stomach as she sat on the floor. She rushed forward and asked, "Are you hurt?"

Jiang Yue bit her lip and shook her head. "It's okay, I guess I've agitated the fetus's qi. I'm feeling a little uncomfortable now, it will get better later."

Qin Yi's heart was relieved when she heard that Jiang Yue was fine.

Perhaps that state of relief made her realized that she was exhausted. Her body turned so weak and vulnerable all of a sudden.

“Sister.” Wei Pinyao held onto Qin Yi’s body to steady herself. “I’ll take care of Dai’er, you should take a good rest for a while.”

Qin Yi had fought really hard that day.

“Okay.” Qin Yi smiled.

Her father-in-law and Liu Yun Kingdom were safe and sound. She could finally be at ease...

Inside Yang Xin Hall.

A young guy’s sword’s edge was covered in fresh blood. There was a coldness around him that even the sunlight could not penetrate.

There were a bunch of corpses in front of him. Blood was flowing out from the hall.

Liu Rong’s heart jolted. She looked at the young guy’s cold side profile, dumbfoundedly. She felt like she had fallen into an ice cellar, making her feel piercingly cold.

Suddenly, Qin Chen’s eyes turned chilly as he looked outside the hall. He swung his sword, and the wind that was created from his sword struck the ancient tree outside the hall.

The ancient tree collapsed. Suddenly, Feng Rushuang, who was hiding behind the ancient tree, had nowhere to hide anymore. She came into everyone’s vision.

Feng Rushuang was utterly stunned.

She dared to return to the palace only because she heard that her father’s illness was in a severe condition, and also that the palace was in danger at that moment.

However, she could never have imagined that Qin Chen had killed all the powerhouses who came forward to assassinate Feng Tianyu.

Especially with the point that Qin Chen was Feng Ruqing’s toyboy.

If it were the past, Feng Rushuang would be envious and deeply mad. However, she had already possessed the state preceptor’s love, so, naturally, she paid no attention to Qin Chen.

No matter how great Qin Chen was, he was still no match for the state preceptor.

She was loved by such a perfect man, why should she be envious of Feng Ruqing?

“Shuang’er?” Liu Rong seemed flustered.

She had the intention to make use of Feng Rushuang. However, Feng Rushuang was still her daughter, so of course, she did not wish that Feng Rushuang would turn up under such circumstances.

But then, when she thought of the fact that Feng Rushuang was that person’s daughter, she felt relieved.

No matter what...

Young Master Zhen Yang would never ignore Shuang'er.

"Mother!" As Feng Rushuang noticed she was exposed, she did not think of leaving anymore. She gritted her teeth and walked inside the door. "How are you doing?"

There was no sign of panic on her face. She looked calm.

Even a vicious tiger would not eat its cubs. She was Feng Tianyu's daughter, Feng Tianyu would never really want to kill her no matter what.

However...

When Feng Rushuang saw Liu Rong's half-cut palm, her heart trembled and she turned pale immediately.

"Mother, your hand..." She raised her head in disbelief. "Father, no matter what, Mother is still your concubine. How could you treat her that way?"

Feng Tianyu coughed twice with a mouthful of fresh blood.

"Your Majesty!" Eunuch Liu hurried in front of Feng Tianyu and held his body.

Feng Tianyu gave Feng Ruqing a stern and cold look.

That look jolted Feng Rushuang. She bit her lip and said, "Father, I've been through so many sufferings in the borders. I came back because I heard that the imperial city is in danger. No matter what my grandfather had done, it has nothing to do with Mother and me. How could you vent your anger on us?"

Chapter 410: Feng Rushuang is not His Daughter III

Feng Rushuang knew well how she should respond under such circumstances.

She felt extreme regret. If she had known that Qin Chen was that strong earlier, she would have made Tang Shan follow her to the palace.

It was better without anyone protecting her.

Feng Tianyu smiled and curled his lips. "Perhaps you could ask your good mother what she had done? To join forces with the secular world and usurp the throne! She has poisoned me and intentionally led my daughter astray!"

Feng Rushuang's head buzzed.

'Join forces with the secular world? Mother knows someone from the secular world?'

Liu Rong held Feng Rushuang's hand in her trembling hands, tightly. "Shuang'er, you don't have to explain anymore. I've told them everything that I did before."

Feng Rushuang was stunned. She looked at Liu Rong's pale face and then turned to look at Feng Tianyu's cold expression. Suddenly, she stretched out her hand and pushed Liu Rong away.

“Mother, how could you do that to Father?” She was in righteous anger as she turned her head to Feng Tianyu. She spoke sternly, “Father, I’m different from Mother. I’m your own daughter. How could I hurt you?”

She had to buy time because she would be saved if Tang Shan came to her. Luckily she did not waste her time seducing Tang Shan and make him swoon over her.

Liu Rong was already weak because she had lost too much blood. With Feng Rushuang’s push, she fell backward and looked at her in disbelief.

That was her daughter. Her daughter! How could she push her away?

“Shuang’er... You’re not...”

“Enough!” Feng Rushuang’s face darkened and yelled angrily, “You have done such a wicked thing, you don’t deserve to be my mother!”

Her words were just like claps of thunder. Liu Rong’s body went stiff.

She looked astonished, shocked, and in despair—

She had been leading Feng Ruqing astray all these years. However, how could her daughter turn out that way?

She did everything for Shuang’er.

If Shuang’er could be acknowledged by Young Master Zhen Yang, with the Divine Herbs Sect’s influence, it was not something too difficult to make Nan Xian marry her. However, State Preceptor Nan Xian would never agree on this marriage.

Unfortunately, she had lied to Feng Rushuang before just because she wanted her to leave the palace willingly.

Therefore, she was trying hard to turn the lie into the truth.

“Lady Rushuang...” Eunuch Lin did not address her as a princess anymore. “What the Liu family has committed was a crime that will cause the whole family to be exterminated! You’re in the palace just to take pleasure in others’ misfortune. If it weren’t because Young Master Qin is strong enough, you wouldn’t act in such a manner.”

‘Lady?’

‘Wait?’

‘What lady?’

Feng Rushuang’s face turned red in anger. She was the princess, how could that doggie slave call her ‘Lady’!

“What a bloody eunuch. How could you disrespect me? I will take away your doggie head later.” Feng Rushuang coldly humped. As usual, she said proudly, “Father, I’m your daughter after all. How could you let a eunuch climb on my head?”

Feng Tianyu coughed twice. The corner of his lips lifted into a sneer.

“Didn’t Liu Rong tell you before that... I’ve never touched her before? If we have never had any intimate contact before, how could you be here?”

All the other people were dumbfounded as they had just found out the truth, except for Eunuch Lin who had already known before.

Never had any intimate contact before, that meant...

Feng Rushuang...

Suddenly, everyone’s eyes were on Feng Rushuang.

Feng Rushuang was stunned for a while. She shook as her face turned pale. “That’s impossible. I’m a princess of Liu Yun Kingdom! I am! Father, I’m your daughter. I’m absolutely your daughter!”
