

Overbearing 451

Chapter 451: Heartbroken and Infuriated III

That man—the love of her life—one, where she would rather go outside and bear all the pressure for alone just to keep him pure.

He was so close to her right now!

She must return to his side no matter what.

No one could ever stop her, not even God.

Rong Yan bit her lip hard till her mouth was filled with blood.

She knew that she had little strength left, but still she did not stop.

This was because she could not bear for the man who was waiting at the foot to continue waiting for her after so many years...

At the foot of the hill.

The guards at Fengyun Manor had nearly all collapsed.

The only one left, Wen Feng, blocked Feng Tianyu from entering the back hill.

Feng Tian Yu was still weaker than Wen Feng in terms of strength. After all, Feng Tianyu had just achieved Dark Warrior tier whereas Wen Feng had achieved it for several years.

Nevertheless, Feng Tianyu was not at a disadvantage.

Tang Yu hid behind Wen Feng, looking pale as she saw the guards being killed by Feng Ruqing.

She knew that Rong Yan's matters could not be concealed anymore no matter who won this time.

"Feng Ruqing!" Tang Yu gritted her teeth and said, "Isn't your father and your cruelty doing enough?"

The people at Fengyun Manor were clueless about why these people had come to the Tang Family. After hearing Tang Yu's words, they were all stunned. No one spoke and was waiting to listen to what she had to say.

"I used to think that my master was dead, so I told the world she was dead. I did not expect your father to covet the beauty of my master and poisoned her just because he wanted to take her for himself."

Tang Yu's eyes were sullen, and she said, "If I did not accidentally bump into Master, I would not know that she is still alive! However, I did not expect you to come to my house to seize her. Do you think I, Tang Yu, can easily be bullied?"

Wen Feng trembled—he could not hold back his anger.

'Isn't the house lady's master their house owner?'

'Both the father and daughter are so abominable. How dare they offend the house owner? They even poisoned her due to her unwillingness. Such vicious people should be sentenced to death.'

Wen Feng was even angrier. He knew that the elders had depleted their ideas regarding the house owner's matters although he had not seen the owner.

In the end, the owner was treated like this.

Feng Ruqing penetrated the guard's chest with her sword and turned coldly toward Tang Yu. "The person you are describing... isn't that yourself?"

"Feng Ruqing, both your father and your viciousness is widely known," Tang Yu sneered. "It's useless to deny that you like to snatch others' belongings."

'Rong Yan is hers. Fengyun Manor is hers, and even Nan Xian is also hers.

'Feng Ruqing always wants everything for herself. This type of person should be cast aside by all!'

Feng Tianyu's face darkened. He stared fiercely at Tang Yu.

At that moment, he saw a familiar figure in the hills not far behind Tang Yu.

Even if that woman had become extremely thin and weak—not as pretty as before—he would never forget her eyes and her stubborn figure that was deeply engraved in his mind.

No matter what she became, he could never forget her!

Feng Tianyu's heart broke into pieces as if it was bleeding. Suddenly, he could feel deep anger sweeping over him. All his spiritual qi converged with endless power and was directed at Wen Feng.

Chapter 452: Heartbroken and Infuriated IV

This time Wen Feng's face finally changed. His chest had suffered a huge blow causing him to vomit blood that spurted to the ground.

Feng Tianyu did not pay attention to Wen Feng.

He could not control his feet and had quickly rushed toward Rong Yan.

He was not able to hold back his tears in spite of always being strong.

He picked her up gently and carefully from the ground with his shaky palms.

However, the woman in his arms was as light as a piece of paper. He was afraid that the woman would drift away with the wind and disappear if he moved.

Feng Tianyu had never been afraid of anything before. Even when he was faced with a strong enemy, he still was not weak.

But at this moment, the anxiety in his heart was unprecedented.

In the past, Feng Tianyu always thought that Nalan Yan was dead. He was able to survive due to the support of his daughter, despite it being so painful and that he was desperate. Now and yet again someone gave him hope and let him know that Nalan Yan was still alive.

He was scared...

He feared that hope would turn into despair once again.

He could not afford to feel the same pain twice!

“Yan’er, I’m sorry I’m late, really late...”

Wen Feng was stunned.

He believed Tang Yu unconditionally.

But, Feng Tianyu’s sorrow was too genuine to be fake.

However, he could only continue to trust Tang Yu since he was on Tang Yu’s side.

Nalan Yan’s eyes teared and her lips trembled but she could not say a word.

This man in front of her was her beloved man.

She had initially wished to appear before him with the best appearance. She wanted to tell him that she had been well and had not suffered in the past ten years.

But in the end, she had still turned up looking miserable and ugly.

Only because she craved to see him.

She needed to see him again although she was so miserable, or else there might not be any more chance in the future.

After Nalan Yan looked at Feng Tianyu and Feng Ruqing who was next to him, she gently closed her eyes.

It felt good to be able to see her loved ones before she died.

Feng Ruqing clenched her fists tightly as her heart was filled with pain. “It is the wall iris poison!”

‘Those who are poisoned by wall iris would be dehydrated and eventually die. And before that, they would become extremely thin.

‘They can’t even talk or walk.

‘No wonder Nalan Yan had climbed all the way just now.

‘How much perseverance and pain did she suffer in order to climb down the hill?’

Feng Ruqing’s heart ached just thinking about it. Her heart was filled with bottomless anger as hatred was reflected in her eyes.

“Qing’er, please take care of Yan’er for me.”

Feng Tianyu would have already rushed up if he was not concerned for Nalan Yan, who was in his arms.

“Okay.” Feng Ruqing slightly nodded.

She understood that her father needed to vent his anger.

Damn the Tang family and the people of Fengyun Manor!

Feng Ruqing took Nalan Yan from Feng Tianyu.

Feng Tianyu was already in front of Tang Yu just as Nalan Yan left his arms. His eyes were filled with murderous intent as his sword fell onto the top of Tang Yu’s head.

Wen Feng’s face ultimately changed as he rushed to protect Tang Yu against the attack from Feng Tianyu.

A thud.

Two swords collided in the air.

Wen Feng vomited blood again. His body was sent flying backward from the collision of the swords.

Chapter 453: Heartbroken and Infuriated V

Tang Yu’s face that was originally calm, changed.

“Useless! Aren’t you also at Dark Warrior tier? Why can’t you beat him?”

Wen Feng was having a hard time. He also did not know what happened to Feng Tianyu. He thought that they were both the same level, but now, he felt that he was not Tianyu’s match...

“I don’t expect anything from a useless person. With the way Feng Ruqing and her father treated my master, Fengyun Manor will never let her go!” Tang Yu stepped back. She sneered, “I am afraid that it is quite difficult to kill me in the Tang family.”

Feng Tianyu’s expression suddenly changed and suddenly he was standing in front of Tang Yu.

But...

At this same time, a loud sound came from the back hill. It seemed to form a barrier blocking Tang Yu from Feng Tianyu’s attack.

Since Feng Ruqing’s appearance, Tang Yu had not moved a step. Feng Ruqing was only paying attention to Rong Yan, so it was natural that she did not realize it.

She only understood now...

‘The reason why Tang Yu is not moving is because of the tactical formation on the mountain.

‘The spot where Tang Yu is standing at right now is where the formation is established.

‘If she loses, she can escape through the formation.’

“Damn!” Feng Tianyu smashed down his sword angrily, but there was no way to break the barrier.

The whole mountain was shrouded within the protection, so he could not get in.

His eyes were red and bloody. He was like a furious lion smashing madly at the barrier.

On the contrary, Feng Ruqing remained silent.

“Father, revenge can be sooner or later. Right now, the most important thing is Imperial-Mother.”

It was not impossible for Feng Ruqing to break the formation, but it would require a lot of time.

She could not afford to waste time anymore!

Feng Ruqing looked down, staring at Rong Yan who had fallen asleep in her arms and hugged her gently.

She would not let anything happen to her!

She would never let anything happen to her even if it meant losing everything!

Feng Tianyu’s heart shivered slightly. He turned back, walked toward Feng Ruqing, and carried the bloody woman in his arms.

“Look, Yan’er. Our enemy fled. How can you not avenge those who had hurt you so badly before you leave?”

“You have never allowed yourself to be taken advantage of. I will not destroy the Tang family for the time being. I will wait till you are completely recovered, only then we will get a reprisal against Tang Luo. If you hate him, you must hold on!”

Rong Yan’s fingers trembled slightly, and her eyelids shuddered. She tried hard to open her eyes, but there was no way she could.

“Yan’er, I know you hate this place. This is where you have been imprisoned for so many years, therefore I will take you away from here! Be rest assured, I will keep Tang Luo alive for now. We will go find him after you are awake.”

Feng Tianyu’s voice shook so much that his tears flowed down his face. His fingers held onto her clothes firmly, but he dared not touch her skin that was torn with wounds.

If Yan’er fell in love with others or married someone else as a wife, it was acceptable. The only thing he could not stand was that someone had arbitrarily hurt her!

Yan’er—the woman he considered as his life! Anyone who had hurt her would have to pay the price!

Feng Tianyu was a cold man with murderous intent, burning in his eyes.

Chapter 454: Heartbroken and Infuriated VI

Tang Luo was flung out of the Tang family’s courtyard. A bear fell from the sky and sat on him. He almost died vomiting blood all over the ground.

Tang Yi and Tang Er did not help Tang Zi and the others fight. Similarly, both of them watched him being crushed by the bear. They did not offer any help and just stared at him from the side.

The three elders could not be merely relied on since they were not those people's matches.

Qin Chen could cope with them all by himself.

Tang Zi's sword was in front of Tang Luo.

Tang Luo was overwhelmed by the bear, but he was still eager to roll out from the bear's body due to his survival instinct.

His blood oozed out, covering his entire handsome face with blood when the long sword ran across the cheek.

Just then...

He felt an obvious tremor in the back hill, and the whole earth trembled.

"The formation guarding the hill is deciphered."

His eyes sank slightly.

Only Tang Yu could decipher the formation in the back hill.

It seemed that Lady Feng and her father had finally succeeded.

Not knowing whether it was because of Tang Zi or Tang Yin, Tang Yi sighed in relief after learning about that.

It was shameful to snatch someone else's wife! Furthermore, Tang Luo had also caused the mother to be separated from the daughter.

He only hoped that Lady Feng would let the Tang family survive. As for Tang Luo... After all, he had made a mistake; he should make up for it with his death.

The rest of the Tang family was innocent.

Just as Tang Yi heaved a sigh of relief, he saw that Feng Ruqing and Feng Tianyu were coming from afar.

Feng Tianyu was holding a woman who was as thin as a piece of paper in his arms.

The woman's face was pale and full of blood. She seemed withered and was very thin.

Tang Yi was shocked and felt a puff of desperation in his heart.

That bastard—Tang Luo had actually tormented her. He did not have the prestige to ask for Lady Feng's forgiveness.

If someone treated his mother like this, he would have inevitably killed all the people who had done that.

The bustle on the battlefield instantly turned quiet as Feng Ruqing and her father approached.

Their eyes were on the woman who was in Feng Tianyu's arms.

The original four who stood on Tang Luo's side were dumbfounded, not to mention Tang Yi too.

Although they had never been to the back hill, they knew that the girl was in good condition when she first came. Someone even saw her coming down from the back hill recently.

How could she turn so miserable in just a few days?

Tang Si's lips trembled but he could not open his mouth. He pointed at Tang Luo.

Feng Ruqing... She was on Nan Xian's side.

How dare Tang Luo torment her mother so miserably!

If Rong Yan had not been hurt and was treated well in the past decade, the Tang family might still have a chance to live. But now... everyone was stunned.

This time the Tang family was thoroughly finished.

Tang Si had resisted in the beginning. But now, he was dispirited and he dared not move. His trembling body revealed his inner fear.

"Empress!!!"

Tang Zi and the others had been eager to see her since they learned that Nalan Yan was still alive. But when they finally saw Nalan Yan, all their joy turned into fury.

Their Empress who once led them to fight on the battlefield was now lifelessly lying in Feng Tianyu's arms—like a broken doll.

Chapter 455: Heartbroken and Infuriated VII

So weak... It made those watching feel distressed.

The Empress should not be like this, she should be majestic and magnificent.

Not like this!

Tang Zi's tears flowed uncontrollably. Her face was reflected resentment, and her voice was full of anger. "Tang Luo. When the Tang family had beaten me until I was half-dead, I had lost my strength and I had not recovered. It was the Empress who had brought me back!"

"She gave me a home! She gave me hope to be reborn! I have never betrayed the Tang family, even though I was driven out of the house and had almost died. I never resented. But now... I, Tang Zi, will retaliate against the Tang family to the end of my life. I want the Tang family to pay for the price with blood!

Tang Zi always believed that the reason she was driven out of the Tang family was that the Tang family was blinded and that she was being misunderstood.

Therefore, she did not have any resentment regarding how the Tang family had treated her. At most, she just needed to act like a stranger in the future. She had nothing to do with the Tang family anymore.

Until now...

Her heart was filled with anger and resentment. She was destined to fight the Tang family until her death.

Tang Yi stared blankly. He clenched his fists firmly and glared at Tang Luo angrily. He said, "You promised me that you would let Tang Zi leave, unhurt! But you did not. You still hurt her!"

His aged body was shaking, and his face was covered in tears.

Tang Zi was not only his apprentice. He had also treated her like his granddaughter then.

He promised not to intervene in any of Tang Luo's decisions nor would he see Tang Zi again, merely because Tang Luo promised to let Tang Zi leave the Tang family safely.

Tang Zi's straightforward nature was not suitable in this place full of fraud and lies.

For her, leaving the Tang family might have been a good choice.

He seemed to trust Tang Luo too much. It was not until now that he realized that Tang Luo was secretly doing so many bad things to Tang Zi.

If it was not for Rong Yan, Tang Zi would have already been buried outside.

Tang Luo sneered aloud, "Those who betray the Tang family should be sentenced to death!"

He did not do anything wrong.

Since Tang Zi betrayed the Tang family, she should have died.

He only regretted that he did not kill her that day but instead, try to make her self-destruct. Otherwise, she would have not appeared in front of his Tang family and the others!

Tang Yi was so angry his body was trembling; he slowly closed his eyes. He only opened his eyes after quite a while.

His face was full of pain.

"Zi'er, I'm sorry. I'm useless and I cannot protect you."

He should have followed her.

Even if it meant to abandon the Tang family, he should have followed her.

It was already too late to regret now.

Feng Ruqing was there.

She gradually turned to Tang Luo with cold eyes and slowly scanned through the other people in the Tang family.

"Snow Wolf."

"Owooooo."

The snow wolf howled. It was also rare that it did not act coquettishly toward Feng Ruqing, but just standing in the distance looking at her.

“Snow Wolf.” There was no anger in Feng Ruqing’s eyes, yet it was a little scary.

Just like the calm before the storm.

“You lead the beasts and bring everyone in Tang family into custody. No one is allowed to leave.”

Tang Yu did not care about the Tang family and activated the formation in order to escape. She had just checked that this method could only be used once. In other words, the people in the Tang family had lost an opportunity to escape as Tang Yu had left.

Chapter 456: Heartbroken and Infuriated VIII

Feng Ruqing squinted and then turned to Rong Yan who was in Feng Tianyu’s arms.

“I am going to take her away now. Only she has the right to solve the issue with the Tang family! No one else has this right!”

When she recovers completely, she would deal with the Tang family herself.

If she doesn’t wake up again...

Then this Tang family would be hell on earth.

Since Rong Yan’s appearance, Qin Chen could not move his eyes away from her body.

Perhaps it was for Feng Ruqing’s sake. When he saw Rong Yan’s bloody appearance, his heart urged him to kill. The surrounding atmosphere turned cold.

He tightly clenched his fists which were trembling uncontrollably. If it was not for Feng Ruqing’s words, he could not have held back his inner’s murderous intention.

“Chen’er, don’t come with me.” Feng Ruqing eyes turned cold. “You need to stay here, help me keep an eye on the Tang family. Anyone who dares to take a step, kill them!”

Although the beast’s strength was strong, it was inadequate. She was afraid that she alone could not guard those people, not to mention that there was still Fengyun Manor behind the Tang family.

Qin Chen was the most powerful among all the people here.

Only he could guard the Tang family.

“Chen’er, no matter what happens, you don’t have to leave the Tang family. As for other things, I can solve it myself.” Feng Ruqing continued after a moment of silence.

Qin Chen did not speak.

He really wanted to follow Feng Ruqing.

He really wanted to accompany both the mother and daughter.

However, he also understood that he needed to guard the Tang family.

Nalan Yan would personally solve the issue with the Tang family when she woke up. Before that, no one could leave the Tang Residence.

“Well, leave them to me. I will give you the entire Tang family!”

This was his promise to her!

Feng Ruqing stopped talking and walked outside.

Tang Luo panicked and quickly rushed to Feng Tianyu. His face was almost twisted, and his eyes were hysterical. “Give Yan’er back to me, return her to me. No one can take her away from me!”

Feng Tianyu lifted his legs that seemed to carry a heavy weight and kicked Tang Luo—sending him flying out.

Tang Luo got up furiously. He was about to block Feng Tianyu when Qin Chen was in front of him.

The young man’s cold aura and expressionless face made him seem overbearing. Tang Luo’s body was forced to move backward under his formidable presence.

As Qin Chen blocked Tang Luo, Tang Luo could only watch Feng Tianyu hold Rong Yan in his arms. Step by step he walked out of the Tang family’s house.

Tang Yi hesitated and finally said with an apologetic gaze, “I’m sorry...”

Feng Tianyu stopped for a bit. Then he continued to move forward.

He would not easily accept any apologies.

No apology could make up for Yan’er’s injuries.

“How did she become like this?” Tang Er looked at Tang Yi and sighed. Then she went on to ask Feng Ruqing.

Feng Ruqing’s face was expressionless. “The poison of the Violet-Milvus Bloom.”

‘Violet-Milvus Bloom?’

Like a rumble of thunder in the blue sky, Tang Luo’s body stiffened.

He looked mad. “Impossible, it was the poison of the Violet-Wood Bloom. I couldn’t bear to let her leave me, so I poisoned her with it. She just can’t talk and walk. It can’t be the Violet-Milvus Bloom.”

Feng Ruqing’s mind was initially about Rong Yan. She planned to wait for her to wake up and then settle scores with the Tang family.

Chapter 457: Heartbroken and Infuriated IX

She finally erupted due to Tang Luo’s words.

She transformed into lightning and punched straight at Tang Luo’s chest.

Tang Luo was exhausted because of the previous battles, so he could not defend it. That punch caused his ribs to sink in. His face was distorted in pain before turning blue.

“My mother was dehydrated and thin. Does the Violet-Wood Bloom have such an effect? Moreover, it doesn’t matter whether it is the Violet-Milvus Bloom or the Violet-Wood Bloom, both are equally poisonous. You poisoned her and took her freedom away forever in order to force her to stay. Tang Luo, is this what you call love?”

She stomped her feet heavily.

Tang Luo’s arm was trapped and crushed under her feet until the sound of cracking bones was heard.

Nonetheless, he seemed to feel no pain. He stared blankly at Rong Yan.

Tang Yu... had deceived him?

She clearly said that it was the Violet-Wood Bloom, not the Violet-Milvus Bloom. However, Yan’er was obviously going to die.

Tang Luo’s heart was hammered just looking at Rong Yan’s skinny face. The pain was so severe that his lips trembled and grief filled his eyes.

He was certainly more aware of Rong Yan’s strangeness lately.

But he was too convinced by his daughter and was too afraid that Yan’er would leave...

Even if he noticed something different, he would have convinced himself otherwise.

To the extent that Yan’er had become so miserable.

This was indeed his fault; he did not find out earlier. He just wanted to limit her freedom but he never thought of taking her life!

“Yan’er, my Yan’er...” Tang Luo’s face was covered in tears.

He got up and wanted to go to Rong Yan.

Before Tang Luo could take one step, he was sent flying by Feng Ruqing’s kick.

This time, he failed to climb up from the ground after trying a few times. All his strength was gone followed by Rong Yan’s departure. He was defeated.

Tang Yin stepped forward. She gently held Feng Ruqing’s hand and wanted to tell her silently that she would always stand on her side.

It had nothing to do with others... merely because she was Feng Ruqing!

“Let’s go.”

Feng Ruqing was no longer looking at the people behind her. She followed Feng Tianyu and left.

“Yin’er.”

Tang Wu was startled and subconsciously called out to Tang Yin.

Tang Yin stopped with her back facing the people behind her.

“I always thought the people of the Tang family are just selfish and afraid of death. After all, these are human nature. I can’t judge too much. The Tang family’s bad deeds have exceeded my expectations.”

She could not believe that the Tang family—her origin— was so terrible that they had poisoned Rong Yan and made her lose her memories in order to keep her.

“So...” Tang Yin was not as clear as before but with resoluteness and indifference. “I will not come back again in the future. I don’t care how Xiao Qing will deal with the Tang family. You are on your own now. Be prepared for what comes next.”

Since she had been living in the Tang family for so many years, it would be a lie if she said she had no affection toward them.

Therefore, she was fine not to return to the Tang family. But still, she would not disregard the Tang family’s life or death.

Until this time...

The mistakes made by the Tang family were too serious. Even she was furiously trembling after she saw Rong Yan’s miserable appearance, let alone Xiao Qing.

Hence, she would support Xiao Qing in whatever her decisions were and not let her down!

Tang Yin slightly sucked air through her teeth and stepped out.

“Little Lady. Wait for me.” Qian Yin was desperate and she chased after her quickly.

Chapter 458: Heartbroken and Infuriated X

She still could not help but turn and stare at Tang Luo when she was leaving.

‘It’s disgusting! Bastard!’

‘Those who separate lovers deserve to die!’

Tang Luo despaired. Helplessness came over him. He covered his face with his hand and the tears ran down his cheeks quietly.

In the end, those silent tears turned into painful cries.

His painful cries echoed through the whole Tang family.

Nobody pitied him, not even Tang Si and the others.

Everything that had happened was his own fault. He had even burdened the whole of the Tang family.

At Yue Cheng Manor.

Tang Yin stopped walking. She bit her lip and said, "Your Highness, Xiao Qing, I seldom left the Tang family because of my weak body condition. The only place I went to after leaving the Tang family was this manor. Don't worry. This is my place. You can leave the empress here to recuperate at ease."

"Thank you." Feng Tianyu's voice was hoarse.

Tang Yin quickly replied, "Don't thank me. This is all my fault. If I had gone to the back hill secretly, even one time, I would have been able to meet the empress sooner. Maybe then I'd have known of her relationship with Xiao Qing."

'Tang Luo was so shocked when he saw Xiao Qing for the first time maybe because she resembled the empress so much.'

If Tang Yin knew of that sooner, she would definitely go to the back hill even if she would be scolded by the elders.

Then, the empress would not have suffered for so long.

"Father, just wait for me here. I'll bring Mother to go and rest in the room." Feng Ruqing suppressed the anxiety she had and said solemnly.

Feng Tianyu surely knew of Feng Ruqing's strength now. There was a flash of hope in his eyes when he heard what Feng Ruqing had said.

"Qing'er, Yan'er still can be saved, can't she?"

Feng Ruqing's lip curled bitterly.

If Feng Ruqing was given more time, she would be able to save a person who had already stepped into hell.

But, it was clearly too late now.

Feng Ruqing saw how hopeful Feng Tianyu appeared. She was unwilling to kill his hope. So, she replied with uncertainty in her voice. "I'll try my best. I'm not sure if it'll work or not."

There was a hope rising in Feng Tianyu as long as Feng Ruqing did not give him a definite yes or no.

He could endure the pain as long as there was still a little hope.

Feng Ruqing did not want to waste any more time. She took Rong Yan from Feng Tianyu's embrace, opened the door of a room, and walked in.

She left an order when she went into the room.

"Don't allow anyone to bother me."

She closed the door when she was done giving her order. She walked to the bed carefully and put Rong Yan on the bed slowly.

"Fu Chen, Qing Han."

Feng Ruqing's soft voice was heard in the room.

Soon, two lights appeared in the room. Two exquisite and angelic children appeared in front of her.

Qing Han was stunned. She stared at Feng Ruqing who was alive, in disbelief.

She pouted and diamond-like tears ran down her cheeks ceaselessly.

“Mother, Mother...” Her voice was shaky. “You’re still alive. Mother, you’re still alive!”

Fu Chen’s eyes were swollen too.

Nobody knew that Feng Ruqing had placed herself in the middle of danger when she had pushed them back into the medium.

Fu Chen’s heart was filled with deep despair and grief.

But, Qing Han could not stop crying. Therefore, Fu Chen could not show his emotions. He just had to force himself to calm down and console Qing Han.

Chapter 459: Whatever It Takes, I’ll Do It I

‘Luckily...

‘She’s still alive.

‘She did not abandon us like the Ninth Emperor that year!’

Feng Ruqing’s mouth moved. She was guilty when she saw their swollen eyes.

“I’m sorry that I made you worry.”

Those two little fellows were her children whom she had randomly taken in. But, there were still some attachments between them no matter who she was with for a long time. She did not want them to risk their lives for her.

She just hoped that they would live even though she was not there anymore. They must live and wait for the next guardian.

But, she did not understand their thoughts. She pushed them back into the medium. She did not even ask them whether they were willing to leave or not.

All was done by her for their own sake without heeding their thoughts.

“Fu Chen.’ Feng Ruqing’s head turned to the woman on the bed slowly. “We’ll just talk about other things later. Can you help to take a look at her? Is there any chance that she could be saved?”

Fu Chen’s gaze fell on Rong Yan. He was stunned. “Grade-6 spirit herb, Violet-gale Bloom. How could she be poisoned by Violet-gale Bloom? This poison could be healed. But, spirit herbs could only heal all the illnesses, however...”

Feng Ruqing understood his meaning even though he did not finish talking.

She had already memorized the whole book of spirit herbs. She had also memorized the spirit herbs dish.

She knew perfectly well what kind of spirit herbs dish could save Rong Yan.

The problem was she did not have the spirit herb dish which she needed!

“Mother, she is seriously ill. There’s no other way except that you make a breakthrough to Dark Warrior tier in three days. Even if you do so, it’s impossible that you would be able to cultivate Grade-5 spirit herbs so soon.”

So, it seemed that there was no way to save Rong Yan now.

Feng Ruqing clenched her fists tightly.

Feng Ruqing had never met Nalan Yan before. But, the blood tie between them made her sad. Her heart was heavy and in pain.

“Fu Chen, do you have any other way? I’m willing to do anything as long as I can save her. As long as I can save her!”

They had just met each other after many difficulties. Now, they were forced to part again.

She was willing to endure anything and do anything just to save Nalan Yan!

Fu Chen intensely stared at the young girl’s face. He could see the deep pain and determination in her eyes.

If Nalan Yan did not survive this time, Feng Ruqing’s future training and cultivation would surely be greatly influenced.

“Mother, Qing Han and I can make her live three more days but it’s only three more days. If you cannot find the spirit herbs in three days, then we’ll have no more ways.”

Feng Ruqing closed her eyes slowly.

‘Three days!

‘How are three days enough?’

There was no spirit herbs shop in Yue City. Every family had their own ways of obtaining the spirit herbs they wanted. The spirit herbs shop could only be built in the reclusive world and it could not even survive in the seclusive world.

If she went to other places to search for the spirit herbs, three days were not enough.

In all of her life, Feng Ruqing had never been that helpless before.

She was not that worried about the poison in Feng Tianyu’s body.

It was because she understood that she still had enough time to grow spirit herbs for him.

Even if he used his spiritual power in the end and the poison was to spread to the other places in his body, Feng Ruqing still had a lot of time to search for the spirit herbs.

But, all she had this time was only three days!

Chapter 460: Whatever It Takes, I'll Do It II

Feng Ruqing opened her eyes. She clenched her fists even tighter. Her nails cut deep into her palms. She did not notice the pain. Her eyes never left Rong Yan. There was deep pain in her eyes.

"If I'm unable to save my own family in this lifetime, then what's the use of me learning how to brew spirit herb dishes?"

Pain, grief, despair...

There were endless emotions filling up in her eyes.

The pain she felt was so great and deep that Qing Han's heart was in pain too.

"Mother, my fruit could help you to make a breakthrough to Dark Warrior tier in a short time. Do you want to try it out?"

Fu Chen's facial expression change. "Qing Han!"

'This stupid girl! Why did she blurt it out?'

'She'll only harm Mother like that!'

Qing Han did not bother about Fu Chen. She bit her finger. "But, the side effect is severe. If the effectiveness of the herb has subsided, the fruit's power would be unbearable for you. If the case is serious, your muscles and veins would be injured. You can think about it. Do you want to..."

Fu Chen covered Qing Han's mouth. He stared at Qing Han angrily. "Stop talking!"

If Feng Ruqing could cultivate the spirit herbs as soon as she made a breakthrough to Dark Warrior tier, then Fu Chen would not stop her from doing so.

But...

'It's useless even if she made a breakthrough to Dark Warrior tier!

'The process of cultivating spirit herbs needs time. It could not be done in a short time!

'The ending could never be changed no matter what she does.'

Fu Chen's eyes were met with a pair of deep eyes when he turned his head.

The girl's deep eyes were like caves and could soon absorb people.

He was anxious. "Mother!"

"I want to try it."

Feng Ruqing wanted to try regardless of if she would succeed or not. Hence, she would not regret it.

“Mother! Qing Han’s fruit is used to harm people. It shouldn’t be given to you.” Fu Chen’s little face was pale. “It is because your strength would not only be decreased to your original tier, your muscle and veins would be injured too. If your muscles and veins are hurt, you might become a useless person!”

It meant that all her efforts during those months would all go to waste!

Fu Chen almost burst into tears because of his anxiety. “What’s more is you might not be able to save her even if you sacrifice a lot for that. You only have three days. What kind of spirit herbs could you cultivate in three days?”

Feng Ruqing looked at Rong Yan gently. “I’ll never know if I don’t try. There are ways to heal me if my muscles and veins are injured. But, I’ll have no mother if she is gone!”

Fu Chen was stunned. He lowered his head. “Mother, I understand.”

For Feng Ruqing, she would definitely go forward bravely even if what was waiting in front of her was hell just to save Rong Yan.

“But, Mother, why do you like Nalan Yan so much?”

He did not understand the reason why Feng Ruqing liked Nalan Yan so much. Was it because of the blood tie that existed between them that influenced her?

“I don’t know. It might be because I had no mother when I was at Hua Xia. I relied on Che’er there. In this life, I have a mother now and I don’t want her to leave me.”

Fu Chen was quiet.

The Ninth Emperor acted like that too. He risked his life for his family and lover.

After that, the Ninth Emperor lost his family and his lover was hurt badly. He went missing and he never came back.

He remembered what the Ninth Emperor said before he left.

If he were to lose his loved ones, it would be meaningless even if he had strong power and was standing on the top of the world.
