

Overwhelmed 12

Chapter 12 Name A Price

The rain was so heavy that the streets appeared foggy. A strong wind swept over, and the world seemed to be engulfed in mist.

A limited edition black Bentley was parked on the side of the road not far from the Harman family's house.

"Why are we here?" one of the men in the back seat asked.

The man's silhouette looked lonely yet proud under the dim lighting.

"I found the girl from the other night. Her name is Candice Blake," Raul Hinks said warily as he observed the man's reaction.
