

Overwhelmed 120

Chapter 120 Shadow Me

He was handsome and had a charismatic presence.

Everyone's attention was drawn to him the moment he entered.

The crowd was in an uproar, and it was fortunate that it was not a weekend.

Otherwise, the shopping mall would be more crowded than the present.

All the employees and managers in uniforms stood along both sides of the walkway and bowed deeply as Milton walked past and entered the elevator.

Candice hid behind Bettina subconsciously.

Bettina whispered, "I think he didn't see you. Why is he here anyway?"

Candice hid behind Bettina subconsciously.

Bettina whispered, "I think he didn't see you. Why is he here anyway?"