

Overwhelmed 131

Chapter 131 Don't Go With Him

There was a brief pause before Milton spoke, his voice cold and calculating. "I don't think you want to work with me. My advice to you is to sell your shares. With my acquisition, the stock price has already increased significantly. You won't lose."

Greyson responded with a hint of sarcasm, "oh, really? So should I thank you for making me a fortune?"

Milton didn't deny it.

Madilyn appeared as if she saw her savior when she saw Greyson walk over.

Overwhelming relief overtook her as her eyes welled up in tears. She rushed over to him and attempted to hold his arm.
