

Overwhelmed 141

Chapter 141 Have Everything Taken Away From You

In response to Milton's question, Boden scowled. "Mr. Lopez, it seems you have no shame at all in bringing dishonor upon the company. If that's the case, we need to nominate a vice president so that we can protect our own interests. We reached a consensus and a vote was taken already."

As Boden said, he gave Milton the voting agreement.

If all the other directors and shareholders voted in favor of it, then he was powerless to stop it.
