

Overwhelmed 151

Chapter 151 Breaking Our Contract

After getting off Greyson's car, Candice headed straight to the archive center.

She had a friend who worked there, but it wasn't convenient to look for confidential materials during working hours when there were many people around.

After getting off Greyson's car, Candice headed straight to the archive center.

She had a friend who worked there, but it wasn't convenient to look for confidential materials during working hours when there were many people around.

So she was asked to come after work hours.

Candice arrived at the appointed time.

She searched for the
