

Overwhelmed 193

Chapter 193 Move Or Not

Milton noticed Candice's hesitation and suggested, "Why don't you take the key first? Take a few days to think about it. If you decide not to accept it, you can return the key to me then."

The driver had already opened the door, and Candice stepped out of the car.

Milton gave the driver a nod, and the door quickly closed.

The Bentley sped away.

Candice stood on the side of the road, trying to make sense of what just happened. Milton had left, leaving her alone with the key.

Milton gave the driver a nod, and the door quickly closed.

As she held the key, its unfamiliar texture sent complex shivers down her nerves.
