

Overwhelmed 195

Chapter 195 Illusion

At noon, Candice ordered lunch and threw away all the remaining stuff in the fridge before cleaning it thoroughly.

She discarded everything that might spoil before she left.

When the clock struck five, the staff from a moving company arrived precisely on time.

It was a top-notch service. There was a team of five workers with their own packing supplies.

Efficiently, they packed up all her items into boxes and loaded them onto the truck. Once they arrived at Candice's new apartment, they unloaded everything and even helped her organize her belongings in their proper places.