

Overwhelmed 198

Chapter 198 Mind Your Own Business

After hanging up the phone, Candice took a deep breath and headed for the shower.

After hanging up the phone, Candice took a deep breath and headed for the shower.

The warm water helped her relax and washed away the day's fatigue. Once done, she slipped into comfy pajamas, a towel draped over her shoulders as her wet hair dripped down.

While in the shower, she had ordered some delicious omelet rice with curry.

And as soon as she stepped into the living room, the doorbell rang.

The speed of delivery surprised her. Even though she lived in the heart of the city, it was impressive that the take-out could be delivered so quickly.