

Overwhelmed 205

Chapter 205 Were You Fooling Me

At this moment, Candice couldn't believe her eyes. She didn't expect that Milton would come out and answer the door clad in nothing but a bath towel around the waist.

He must've known that it was somebody else ringing the doorbell. She didn't have to knock because she knew the password for the lock.

At this moment, Candice couldn't believe her eyes. She didn't expect that Milton would come out and answer the door clad in nothing but a bath towel around the waist.

He must've known that it was somebody else ringing the doorbell. She didn't have to knock because she knew the password for the lock.

What was he thinking?

Candice found the scene in front of her too shocking.

She didn't have time to think. She quickly flung the bathrobe in Milton's direction so that he could cover up.