

Overwhelmed 206

Chapter 206 A Better Match

Bettine held Candice's arm and said softly, "How about we celebrate your birthday this year? You haven't celebrated your birthday in three years. You really should stop living in the past. It's not doing you any good. You should look forward to the future."

Bettina held Candice's arm and said softly, "How about we celebrate your birthday this year? You haven't celebrated your birthday in three years. You really should stop living in the past. It's not doing you any good. You should look forward to the future."

Hearing Bettina's words, Milton frowned. He finally understood why Candice didn't want to celebrate her birthday.

It started when her parents died in a car crash three years ago. That was why she refused his cake.

Candice was about to say no.
