

Overwhelmed 216

Chapter 216 A World-class Player

Both sides continued taking turns to hit the ball.

Although Candice could better understand how to play, she was still trying her best not to make mistakes. Bettina was also a little inferior to Alta in her play, but she wasn't a drag on them.

As for Braylen, his performance was always good.

Meanwhile, Cathy's games were shaky. Sometimes she did a good job, sometimes she didn't. But no matter what, she played much better than Candice. After all, she began learning at the age of ten.

Whenever Candice finished her round, she couldn't help wiping her sweat.
