

Overwhelmed 219

Chapter 219 You Think You Can Stop Me

As Candice stood outside the apartment, unable to enter, she pulled out her phone in frustration. With a helpless sigh, she made a call for the unlocking service.

The one on the line requested a lease contract, leaving Candice feeling even more helpless.

She immediately called Bettina for help.

"Hey, Betty. Could you please ask your brother to send me the lease contract for the apartment? I need it right now."
