

Overwhelmed 27

Chapter 27 I Will See Him In Court

In the evening, Bettina was at home, lying on the sofa and making a post on Facebook.

"Good news! Hope Law Firm is handling a huge case. The firm has now completed a year's worth of target eleven months ahead of schedule."

She attached a photo with the faces blurred.

In the photo, Milton and Candice were both sitting in a booth with a contract in front of them.

Soon, Raul commented on her post, expressing his displeasure with the photo.

Candice was also in the living room when she saw Bettina's post and grinned when she saw Raul's comment.
