

Overwhelmed 82

Chapter 82 Asking Her Out

The night looked beautiful with the street lights that lined up the street. The neon lights of the skyscrapers were flashing. The stars lit up the sky in their number.

The night looked beautiful with the street lights that lined up the street. The neon lights of the skyscrapers were flashing. The stars lit up the sky in their number.

The night looked beautiful with the street lights that lined up the street. The neon lights of the skyscrapers were flashing. The stars lit up the sky in their number.

The night looked beautiful with the street lights that lined up the street. The neon lights of the skyscrapers were flashing. The stars lit up the sky in their number.

The colourful lights reflected on the car window as they flew by.

The Wilmint High School was not far from the downtown. About 40 minutes later, they were almost there.

The colourful lights reflected on the car window as they flew by.

The Wilmint High School was not far from the downtown. About 40 minutes later, they were almost there.

The colourful lights reflected on the car window as they flew by.