Chapter 11 His Ex-girlfriend and New Girlfriend

As soon as she asked, things were getting a little awkward.

Madelyn was so embarrassed.

David chuckled before Daniel was about to say something unpleasant.

He said to Eloise in a serious manner, "Madelyn is my friend. Of course, Daniel knows her! Eloise, you can rest assured that Daniel is wholeheartedly committed to you!"

When he finished, he looked at Daniel sideways with mockery in his eyes.

Daniel looked embarrassed and took Eloise to take their seats.

After they left, David greeted Madelyn, "Gredax is such a big city, and we actually run into him. Madelyn, I'll pick a place where we won't see Daniel next time, so you won't get upset."

Madelyn ordered her food and then said softly, "There's no need to avoid him. Am I supposed to avoid him for the rest of my life after I break up with him? By the way, I'm not the one who did the wrong thing."

David frowned slightly.

He said suddenly, "I'm going to use the restroom. You can eat a bit of it yourself when the food comes."

Madelyn did not suspect anything at all.

After David left his seat, she took her phone to call a couple of parents to confirm the course.

David didn't come back after ten minutes. Madelyn thought it was weird. At that very minute, a woman's scream came from the restroom... Chaos broke out in the high-end restaurant.

David and Daniel got into a fight for unknown reasons.

Madelyn saw blood on the walls and floor. Daniel was staring at David with a grim look on his face.

An hour later, two men and two women sit in the detention house. David and Daniel were found guilty of fighting over a woman.

Eloise made a call, crying in a squeaky baby voice, "Brother... Daniel got into a fight with someone, and we are now in the detention house. Brother, come now! Boohoo... Daniel was hurt pretty bad."

Madelyn's head was buzzing, and her brain got scrambled then.

What? Benjamin was coming here?

Eloise hung up.

All she could see was Daniel, and she tended to his wound in sorrow. "There's breaks on the corners of your mouth! David hit you too hard!"

David had a bruise on his face.

He groaned with pain and complained with an innocent face, "He hit harder, didn't he? I just laughed at him being a hen-pecked husband, and he did it to me!"

Eloise felt sweet and blamed her fiancé in a cutesy voice, "David is our friend. You made David look bad by fighting with him in front of Ms. Green. How is David supposed to woo her?"

Daniel took out a cigarette, lit it, and looked at David grimly while smoking.

He was faking!

How did he provoke Daniel in the smoking section of the restaurant?

David said before all this, "Daniel, since you broke up with Madelyn, you don't object to my pursuing her, do you?"

He added, "Even if I don't go after her, someone else will!"

"You can't get the best of both worlds."

...

Daniel sneered.

Heh! He underestimated David!

Madelyn did not know about this. She was only afraid that Benjamin would be pissed off when he came later.

Her word didn't carry much weight, and she didn't dare to offend him!

Madelyn looked for a chance to slip away, but David badgered her. "Madelyn, you have to take me to the hospital later. My face is so bruised. I will not be fit to be seen like this tomorrow."

It made Madelyn's head ache terribly!

At this moment, Madelyn heard footsteps and raised her eyes subconsciously.

It was Benjamin.

He was well-dressed in a classic British-style handmade suit. He was perfect as the dreamboat in the illustrated magazine.

When he came in, he talked to the policeman without looking this way.

"I'm here to bail out David and Daniel."

The police knew his identity and handed him a cigarette politely. "Mr. Clark, I'm sorry to ask you to come here for such a small matter! The point is that they are being a bad influence by fighting over a woman."

Did they fight over a woman?

Benjamin looked nonchalantly over.

His eyes fell on Madelyn.

Madelyn dressed conservatively today. She was all wrapped up in a champagne silk blouse with a mermaid skirt.

She was kind of alluring and innocent in that look.

Eloise interceded for Daniel. "Brother, David laughed at me. That's why Daniel got into a fight with him... They did not fight for a woman's favor at all."

Benjamin withdrew his gaze and swept his eyes over Daniel before asking indifferently, "That's what happened?"

"Of course! Daniel loves me so much. How could he fight for another woman... Besides, David and Ms. Green are not strangers!" Eloise said to herself.

Benjamin ignored her and went ahead with the formalities.

Daniel went out first and got into the car.

Eloise hurried to follow him.

David coughed lightly and said, "Thanks, Benjamin. I'm gonna need to buy you dinner someday."

With that, he wanted to drag Madelyn away.

Benjamin watched them, blew smoke rings slowly, and then said in a flat voice, "David, leave us. I have something to say to Mr. Green."
