

Pampered By My Mr. Lawyer (Benjamin and Madelyn)

Chapter 13 Are You That Wanton

Chapter 13 Are you that wanton?

Madelyn was pestered by David and went to the hospital.

David knew how to pester others well. Although he was only slightly injured, he stayed in the hospital for two hours.

It was already 9 o'clock in the evening when he saw Madelyn home.

Madelyn was in a very bad mood, but she still apologized to David, "I'm sorry for causing you trouble today, David."

David was in more complicated moods than hers.

He thought that he would have a chance if Madelyn broke up with Daniel, but he didn't expect Benjamin would suddenly appear.

Benjamin was a decent man, but he looked Madelyn up and down as soon as he came here. David was not blind, and he could absolutely understand what it meant.

He didn't dare to compete with Benjamin.

The Clark family had a prominent status in Gredax, and Benjamin was a person difficult to deal with. Although David treated Madelyn seriously, he didn't want to put the whole family at risk to pursue his love.

David looked at Madelyn sideways.

He said jokingly, "Madelyn, if we are still single in a few years, how about being with me?"

After a hint from Benjamin, Madelyn somewhat knew what he was thinking.

She didn't want to harm David.

Madelyn shook her head and said, "David, I may leave Gredax after my father comes out, and I... I don't have any idea about that for now."

David stared at her quietly.

He suddenly smiled, looking cute, and said, "I'm kidding you! Do you take it seriously? It's a little cold... Go home! Don't worry about your father. I'll talk to my father about it again."

Madelyn was grateful that he did not say it straight.

When Madelyn got out of the car and left, David suddenly stopped her, "Madelyn!"

Madelyn turned to look at him.

David sat in the car and waved at her... For some reason, Madelyn's eyes were a little moist.

She watched the car drive away before walking into the hallway.

Probably the light bulb was broken, so the light on the first floor was quite dark. Madelyn took out her phone and wanted to turn on the lighting.

She was suddenly held by someone around her waist, and her lips were covered by a warm hand.

After a mess, she was dragged to the stairwell of the emergency exit.

"Mmm... Let go of me!"

As she wished, the man moved his hand away, and a warm thing covered her lips immediately afterward.

The familiar scent made Madelyn stunned.

It was Daniel...

Madelyn gritted her teeth and slapped him. With a "pop" sound, all the lights around the room were suddenly lit up.

Madelyn exhausted all her strength. She leaned against the wall and panted desperately, like a dying fish.

Daniel looked gloomy.

"Are you that wanton and anyone can do that?"

Madelyn raised her head and her eyes were brimmed with tears.

Instead of being angry, she smiled, "Yes! I'm a wanton woman! Anyone can do that except you... Daniel, are you satisfied with this answer?"

Daniel's face became even more gloomy.

He strangled Madelyn's neck with one hand, and the veins on his forehead kept pulsing.

"How dare you!"

"Why don't I dare? Daniel, I've suffered so much because of you. What else would I not dare to do?"

...

Daniel suddenly let go of her.

He took out a pack of cigarettes, but he didn't expect the box to be empty. He rubbed it and threw it on the ground, then looked at Madelyn, "Leave Gredax! I'll buy you a villa, and your father will be fine!"

Madelyn trembled with anger.

With her lips trembling, she questioned, "You set all this up so that I could become your mistress? Daniel, you are so cruel!"

Daniel looked calm and said, "Madelyn, there is no good in going against me! I have many ways to deal with you."

Camila appeared in the corridor with a mop in her hand.

She laid about Daniel.

Daniel held himself back and did not fight with the woman.

Camila was out of breath and cursed him angrily.

"You bastard! If you dare to harass Madelyn again, I'll kill you!"

Madelyn had tears in her eyes.

Camila turned around and said softly, "The Green family never trade their daughters."

On the opposite side, Daniel sneered.

Well! Never trade your daughter...
