

Pampered 26

Chapter 26 All The Family Members Are Shameless

The next afternoon, Madelyn was discharged from the hospital.

Holding the phone in her hand, she was hesitating whether to call Benjamin, or send a message to show her gratitude.

After struggling for a while, she decided not to do so!

Madelyn went through the discharge procedures, and prepared to go home with her luggage, and then went to the Music Center for work in the afternoon.

When she walked out of the inpatient department, she ran across an acquaintance at the door.

They were Daniel's mother and his sister Sophia.

They were walking and talking with several large bags of imported fruits. They must have come to see Eloise. When they bumped into Madelyn, everyone was sort of uneasy.

Madelyn nodded slightly and was about to leave.

Gabriella stopped her, and spoke to her friendly, "Madelyn, I've got something to tell you."

"Mom, Daniel has broken up with her! Why bother done. What she had to do now was to tell daughter to her feet and left with a soft

, "Madelyn, I ought to treat you a cup of coffee and sit down to have cold in her heart.

a time when the Campbell family was in trouble, Madelyn took out all her savings to help them out.

Daniel's mother kept saying that Madelyn was the only daughter-in-law of the Campbell family, and that if Daniel should betray attitude had changed in such a short time!

it was embarrassed, but she still couldn't help saying something more, "Actually, you are a good girl! It's a pity that you broke up with Daniel. Now that Daniel has found Madelyn felt disgusted.

Gabriella had said at first, but when she saw the person who appeared at the corner just now, Madelyn said softly but firmly, "Don't worry, Auntie, I will never waste any more time on him!"

"If you can think that way, I will feel

Eloise, but only to see her son's gloomy face.

pocket, and said coldly while reluctantly and left, but Daniel did not

Madelyn's whole body was cold.

She not only lost her love, but also felt embarrassed that her sincere payment was trampled on...

Daniel sneered, "Feeling suffering? Actually, no one asked you to do that! Madelyn... the love for you is just the self-sacrifice that has only touched yourself! But you're not stupid, since you know how to attach yourself to a powerful person!"

Madelyn sneered back, "Thank you for your help, Mr. Campbell."

Daniel's beautiful eyes were stained with a layer of darkness. He smiled instead of being angry, "Now that you are so close to Benjamin, why didn't he help you? Madelyn, you can't take control of a man like Benjamin, and you will regret one day!"

Madelyn looked down and smiled lightly, "Why will I regret? Daniel, what else do you think I will lose?"

Madelyn didn't explain, and left without looking back!

Daniel stood there and sneered after a long while, "Madelyn, don't push me!"

At this moment, Eloise called, and spoke in an artificial voice, "Daniel, where are you? My parents are here, and they are all waiting for you..."

Daniel gently comforted her, "I'll come over right away."