Chapter 51 I Can Also Give Those Things to You

Madelyn went out after getting changed.

Before leaving, she glanced into the study.

Benjamin was still working in the study. She said in a soft voice, "I'll be back before ten o'clock."

It was an ordinary talk, but Benjamin felt touched when hearing these words.

It felt different to have the other person at home.

Indeed, he also thought it was a bit inconvenient with the other person at his house. However, so far, he felt it good. Madelyn was not a clingy person, but she was very submissive. The dishes she cooked were delicious and clean. She was...

Benjamin didn't dare to think further about it.

He only mumbled an "Okay".

Madelyn then left the house. She prepared to go downstairs to her apartment building to hail a taxi. It should be easy for her to get a car as the apartment was in the downtown area.

However, she hadn't expected that she would be blocked by a black sports car as soon as she walked out of the apartment building.

He recalled that some condoms were left in the car when Madelyn left home and came downstairs. And he hadn't expected that he would see such an interesting scene.

Benjamin slightly curled up his lips, took out his phone, and dialed his secretary, Paisley. He ordered, "I want you to get the audit information of the Campbell Group in recent years and put the documents on my desk the next morning."

Paisley, who was at the other of the line, was dumbfounded.

The Campbell Group was run by the Campbells and their son, Daniel, was going to marry Benjamin's sister. Was it appropriate for Benjamin to investigate their audit information?

Paisley had experienced many things. And she soon realized that Benjamin did this because of Madelyn.

When a man targets the other man, it's apparent that it's because he's jealous.

When Madelyn went back, it was half past ten.

It seemed like Benjamin had finished his work. Leaning against the floor-to-ceiling window with a goblet of red wine in his hand, he seemed to be pondering about something.

He didn't turn around when Madelyn pushed open the door.

Standing at the door, Madelyn bit her lip and lost in her thoughts.

She didn't know how others appeased men, but she knew that he liked her body and that what he wanted was just a sex-based relationship. Therefore, she buckled up, walked over, hugged her from the back, and asked, "Have you finished your work?"

Chapter 52 My Body Is Not Dirty

Benjamin didn't reply.

He slowly finished off the wine in the goblet, pressed her hand under his palm, and caressed it flirtatiously.

Madelyn was a mature woman. Although she had no experience in sex, she could understand such a sexual suggestion. She tiptoed, leaned toward his ear, and asked, "Shall I shower first?"

Benjamin put the goblet aside.

The next moment, he picked up Madelyn in bride style and put her on the bar counter.

Behind her was the floor-to-ceiling window.

In front of her was his burning body.

Madelyn sensed his poor mood, but she didn't know what she had done to irritate him.

As expected, Benjamin only kissed her nonchalantly. He pecked her occasionally, yet Madelyn could hardly feel his desire.

But she still endured it and just let him kiss her.

However, she was inexperienced after all and couldn't control her desire at will like Benjamin did. After a short while, she couldn't bear it anymore. She wrapped her arms around his waist and begged in a low voice, "What's wrong with you?"

Benjamin's mood improved. He teased her, "Why are you still hugging me? Do you want to go on?"

Madelyn felt her face burning hot.

...

The next morning...

Benjamin left early in the morning.

As Madelyn had just moved here, she felt a bit unaccustomed and failed to sleep in.

She sat up and saw the hickeys on her body... Although Benjamin didn't fuck her yesterday, he had tasted every inch of her body.

Madelyn blushed at the thought of it, not to mention when she caught the two small boxes on the bedside table with the corner of her eye.

She was dumbfounded.

Then she recalled that when they carried her luggage upstairs, Benjamin didn't take the two boxes of condoms upstairs. Could it be that he had come downstairs to take them later? Linking all these things, she effortlessly concluded that he must have seen her entangling with Daniel.

No wonder he was very abnormal last night...

Chapter 53 Men All Love Novelty

After calming down, Madelyn called Camila and told her that she would come to the hospital to visit her father later.

Out of her expectation, Camila refused her in a firm tone, "I'll take care of your father. You and Benjamin just fell in love, so it's more urgent for you to nurture your relationship."

Madelyn was a bit dumbfounded.

Just fell in love... To nurture their relationship...

Wasn't her relationship with Benjamin something forbidden? Madelyn wouldn't overvalue herself to think that Benjamin helped her because he had fallen in love with her. There were few Cinderella stories in reality.

However, she didn't want to sadden Camila, so she replied ambiguously.

Camila was very happy and ended the call after reminding Madelyn of something.

After putting down her phone, Madelyn was lost in her thoughts for a long while. She didn't even notice it when Claire, the hourly housekeeper, showed up at the door.

Claire came here to ask Melody about what cousins she would like for lunch. But as soon as she came here, she noticed that Madelyn was wearing a men's shirt with light bruises all over her exposed neck.

Oh, Mr. Clark is really a lustful man!

Madelyn successfully fetched the wine and walked back with two bottles of wine.

When she walked to the entrance of her apartment building, someone stopped her. "Madelyn."

Madelyn was taken aback when she heard the familiar voice. She looked over following the voice, only to see Gabriella and Sophia.

Madelyn had suffered a lot because of them before. She swallowed when seeing them and then asked in an extremely faint voice, "What's the matter?"

Gabriella was a very patient woman. She proposed with a smile, "There's a café opposite here. Let's talk there."

Madelyn had no idea about what had happened today. She thought Gabriella was here to slam a cheque before her and ask her to leave her son.

She smiled and didn't refuse it.

The three of them took seats in the café. Madelyn didn't take the initiative to order food.

Gabriella and Sophia had been accustomed to Madelyn's sacrifice. But this time, Madelyn still refused to pay the bill after such a long while of silence. Therefore, they awkwardly ordered three cups of coffee.

When drinking coffee, Gabriella took a glance at the two bottles of red wine beside Madelyn and said amiably, "This wine is expensive. It should cost 200,000 for each bottle."

Madelyn suddenly looked up, only to meet Gabriella's scrutinizing gaze.

At that moment, she understood everything. All the Campbells had learned about her relationship with Benjamin.

Chapter 54 The Campbells Beg Madelyn for Mercy

Madelyn didn't intend to keep it a secret.

She had fallen out with Campbells and didn't have any relationship with them anymore.

She replied calmly, "I'm not clear about it. I fetched it for others."

Sophia, Daniel's younger sister, couldn't hold back anymore. She lashed out, "Madelyn, don't be so shameless! I remember you loved my brother very much before. You two have just broken up, and yet shortly after that, you moved into the other man's house. And that man is my brother's future brother-in-law!!! Are you deliberately retaliating against us?"

Retaliate?

Madelyn replied with a sneer, "I should feel happy as I survived Daniel. What capability do I have to retaliate against the Campbells?"

Sophia wanted to scold her again, but Gabriella stopped her.

She said blandly just as he did before, "Madelyn, probably you have no idea about this matter. Daniel's company was trapped in some problems this morning. From the news I got, it was because Benjamin was deliberately targeting him."

Madelyn was taken aback.

The next moment, she associated it with Benjamin's abnormal behavior last now and his words "I'll think about how to taste you after solving all the affairs".

She thought he was flirting with her, but it turned out he meant it.

It was the first time that Daniel was so ferocious to Sophia. Sophia felt aggrieved and began to shed tears, scolding, "Daniel, I did it for your sake. Look at her. She allies with the other man to target you. Why are you still helping her?"

Madelyn didn't want to stay here any longer. She turned around, intending to leave.

Daniel stopped her and said calmly, "Madelyn, I don't need you to put in good words for me."

Madelyn didn't reply.

She walked out of the café, straightening her back, as if she was leaving her past behind and that she wouldn't reminisce about it anymore.

Gabriella caught up with her. She was a very shrewd woman, so would she let Madelyn go?

"Madelyn, why are you so heartless? At least you were once in love."

Madelyn shivered all over in anger.

Right at this moment, a warm, big hand held up her hand and took the two bottles of red wine from her.

Madelyn looked up in confusion and saw Benjamin.

It was only 5 p.m. Why was he back so early?

Chapter 55 The Tension Between Love Rivals

Madelyn looked a bit dull.

Benjamin gently wrapped his arm around her shoulder and said naturally, "I asked you to go to the wine store, why did you come to this café?"

Madelyn's mood was weirdly improved.

She didn't conceal this matter from him, so she explained in a soft tone, "I met some acquaintances and chitchatted with them."

Benjamin fixed his black eyes on her and then looked at the "acquittances" behind her. Then he said blandly, "Oh, it's you, Daniel."

Compared with his composure, Daniel looked tenser.

He was not a fool and he could perceive that Benjamin didn't like him. It was not only because of Eloise but also partly because of Madelyn.

When their eyes met, the air seemed to be sparkling.

Madelyn gently wrapped her arm around Benjamin's and said in a low voice, "Let's go back."

Daniel had been in love with her for four years, so he was very clear about what her gaze meant.

Madelyn likes Benjamin!

Daniel stood upright and said to Gabriella in an extremely faint voice, "Let's go."

Gabriella pulled Sophia out of the café with a complicated expression. Sophia was still reluctant and began to throw tantrums after getting into the car, "Mom, why didn't you expose Madelyn's true color? Isn't Benjamin our relative? Of course, he will side with us!"

Gabriella required her to shut up.

She said with a sneer, "Do you think that we're equal since we're relatives? Have you seen his attitude? If he doesn't agree to it, your brother won't be able to marry Eloise."

Sophia was taken aback.

Gabriella ignored her and looked at her son, "Daniel, you should be clear about how important this marriage is. You can flirt with any woman behind Eloise's back, but you can't touch Madelyn again."

Sitting in the driver's seat, Daniel remained silent.

Gabriella knew he was a man with strong self-esteem, so she didn't continue with this topic. She believed that Daniel knew what to do.

Moreover, he had been in love with Madelyn for four years, yet he didn't like her too much. It was just that he was a bit uncomfortable about it now. However, he would gradually forget her after getting married. As for Madelyn and Benjamin... They wouldn't get married.

Chapter 56 Is He Impotent

Madelyn followed Benjamin back to their apartment.

After pondering for a long while, she finally asked, "Did... Did you target the Campbell Group?"

Benjamin paused in his movements. Then he asked casually, "Do you want to put in good words for Daniel?"

"Nah."

Madelyn fiddled with the two bottles of red wine awkwardly.

After staring at her for a while, Benjamin sat down on the couch and turned on the TV to watch the financial news. After a long while, he found Madelyn was still standing on the spot, so he asked blandly, "Are you going to prepare the dinner?"

Madelyn nodded.

When she changed into pajamas, she couldn't help but think to herself, "Maybe Benjamin doesn't have any sexual needs. My current function is to cook, do cleanings, and run some errands for him. I and Claire are taking turns to serve him."

She hadn't expected that Benjamin was such an abstinent man.

When Madelyn was preparing dinner, Benjamin was also busy with his work. He had answered several calls. When he put down his phone and prepared to take a shower, he noticed that the screen of Madelyn's phone, which was put on the tea table, lit up.

Benjamin glanced in the direction of the kitchen and causally picked up Madelyn's phone.

Madelyn finally understood that Benjamin was getting jealous because of Daniel.

These dishes were his favorites!

Madelyn's eyes got red.

However, she was aware that she couldn't afford to offend him based on her identity. Therefore, she could also say patiently, "I can't change the fact that I was once his girlfriend, but for me, those were all the past. I won't have him in my mind anymore. We have to live together for a period. But if you get picky about me every day because of this..."

She couldn't continue as she felt very aggrieved.

Benjamin didn't say anything. He sat down on the sofa and lit a cigarette.

Madelyn began to clear the table. She poured the left food into a garbage bag, changed into slippers, and prepared to go downstairs.

"Where are you going?" Benjamin thought she was going to throw the left food into the garbage can.

Madelyn replied in a nasal sound, "Go downstairs to feed the dogs. Some homeless dogs may like the dishes I cooked."

Benjamin was a bit dumbfounded, and then he chuckled.

She was satirizing him secretly!

However, right at this moment, he wasn't angry at all. Instead, he thought Madelyn who was showing this aspect to him was a bit cute.

Chapter 57 Men's Obscure Thoughts

Madelyn also had her tempers.

As she had argued with Benjamin, she didn't talk to her after going back today.

She took a shower to wash off the faint smell of cigarettes on her body and then leaned against the wash basin while doing skin care.

Benjamin was very generous to her. She had only moved into his apartment for two days, yet he had asked his men to send several sets of high-end skincare here. Madelyn directly unpacked them and used them without asking for his permission. She thought perhaps these were men's obscure thoughts.

After all, every man liked women's tender, fragrant, and fair skin.

After applying the lotion to her upper body, she bent down to apply it to her calves. She had a good shape and such a simple movement was also extremely deductive.

At least Benjamin was a bit turned on.

He walked over and hugged her from the back. Madelyn was a bit startled, but she didn't push him away and let him do anything he wanted.

After a long while, he pressed his lips against her ear and asked eagerly, "Are you on your period?"

Madelyn guessed that he wasn't angry anymore and was offering her an out, so she accepted it and replied, "It came this evening."

"What? It's fine."

Vivian joked with her, "If it isn't that I know you're single, I would think that you're making out with a man."

Madelyn's face turned so red and she scolded her in a low voice.

Benjamin leaned toward her ear and whispered with a chuckle, "She's telling the truth."

Fearing that Vivian would hear their flirting talk, Madelyn ran into the main bedroom while covering her bathrobe and said, "Vivian, it happens that I would to talk to you about a matter. Shall we make an appointment and meet tomorrow?"

Because of Benjamin's intervention, the court canceled the seal-up of the Green family's fortunes. Madelyn wanted to return the money to Vivian.

Vivian had also heard that Samuel was bailed out and she was happy for Madelyn.

After a few chitchats, Vivian came straight to the point, "I want to tell you two pieces of news. Do you know that someone is targeting Daniel? I heard from my husband that Daniel was deeply troubled. If he can't solve this matter properly, he may be put in jail. He deserves it! I feel so excited at the thought of it!"

Madelyn was afraid that Benjamin would feel unhappy as Vivian had mentioned Daniel.

She tilted her head to look at him.

Chapter 58 Benjamin, I Want to Make You Happy

Benjamin wasn't angry at all.

He chuckled lightly and then walked into the cloakroom to fetch his clothes for a shower.

Madelyn heaved a sigh of relief and continued to chat with Vivian.

She didn't want to talk about Benjamin, so she asked, "What's the other news?"

Vivian replied after a while of silence, "Our school wants to arrange a reunion party for alumni. I heard that it was Elizabeth who proposed this. This bitch had some selfish intentions and proposed to invite alumni of Geliville University."

Geliville University?

Daniel graduated from Geliville University, so undoubtedly, Elizabeth would invite him.

Madelyn wanted to refuse it when she learned this.

Vivian was also angry. She lashed out, "This bitch won't get enough of it. She likes to be a homewrecker and plots openly or secretly, but I'm fine with it. But why does she insist on forcing others to bless her? As far as I'm concerned, she's targeting you. She's telling many people that you don't dare to attend the party because you've been dumped and you're unemployed now."

For this kind of people, Madelyn just wanted to ignore them.

She told Vivian that she would consider it and then ended the call. When she looked up, she saw Benjamin standing at the door of the bathroom wrapped in a bathrobe. His good figure was pleasant to the eyes.

Just as she walked to the entrance of the hospital, a white BMW stopped before her.

When the window was wound down, she saw Vivian.

Vivian said with a serious expression, "Get in the car first. I have something to tell you."

Madelyn got into the car. She asked while fastening the safety belt, "What's wrong? Did you argue with your husband?"

Vivian felt so fretful that she wanted to smoke cigarettes. However, as she wanted to keep her lady image before Madelyn, she held back the urge.

She took Madelyn to a café.

Madelyn pushed a bank card to her. In the card was the money that she owed Vivian. Except for that, Madelyn prepared a gift for her.

Vivian was not in the mood to talk about this. She took out her phone and showed it to Madelyn.

"Elizabeth is determined to seek trouble for you. See how many rumors she has spread in the forum of our university."

Madelyn hurriedly checked on the phone.

Vivian was telling the truth as she saw many pieces of negative news about her.

Being an old man's mistress, flirting with a rich man, having an ambiguous relationship with an unknown man... Anyway, she described Madelyn as an immortal woman.

Vivian breathed out and said, "Madelyn, you're a teacher for children. Elizabeth is slandering you. Who would dare to hire you to teach their children after this? What those noble women fear the most is that... someone would seduce their husbands. You won't be able to solve this unless you have a husband who's more outstanding than theirs."

Chapter 59 Madelyn Really Has an Affair with Benjamin

Looking at the negative news, Madelyn's face turned ghostly pale.

Vivian felt distressed for her.

She patted the back of her hand softly and comforted her in a low voice, "I'm trying to let those people delete the posts."

"Thank you, Vivian."

Even so, they all knew how horrifying it would be to be slandered. The rumors had spread out, and it would be very difficult for Madelyn to change others' impressions of her.

Stirring her coffee, Madelyn said in a choking voice, "Vivian, I've put much effort into those kids over the years."

Her four-year relationship with Daniel had ruined her career.

And now her reputation was also ruined.

Madelyn wanted to buy drinks so that she could indulge herself in alcohol. She wouldn't be troubled by these matters if she got drunk.

"You've asked the right person." Vivian was good at nothing but entertainment.

She took Madelyn to a 7/24 underground bar.

It was called Memory of 7 Seconds. One would tell it was a bar when seeing this name.

In a trance, Madelyn seemed to hear someone calling her name and it sounded like the voice of the man in her dream. With her eyes closed, she bit her red lip and said in a sweet voice, "Benjamin, I'm on my period. I can't serve you now."

Vivian stiffened as if she was stuck by lightning.

Gosh! What had she heard?

Benjamin... Period... Server... Those two sentences contained so much information!

Vivian felt very shocked. She shook Madelyn rudely. "Hey... Wake up... What's your relationship with Benjamin?"

Madelyn opened her eyes to a clut. Her eyes looked watery and seductive.

"You want to know that?"

"Of course."

Madelyn rested her ivory, flawless face on her hand and said softly, "He's good-looking and hot. And he's good at... Vivian, I don't think I've lost anything."

Vivian wanted to curse.

Right at this moment, Madelyn's phone rang. Vivian cursed at Benjamin while rummaging for Madelyn's phone.

When she glanced at the caller ID, she found it was Benjamin calling.

Vivian was dumbfounded and got nervous... It turned out that Madelyn really had an affair with Benjamin!

Chapter 60 Tell Them That I'll Attend the Party

Vivian had many thoughts in her mind.

She buckled up to answer the call.

Benjamin's voice sounded charming and husky. "Why aren't you home? Where are you?"

Vivian glanced at Madelyn.

Fuck, seemed like they'd had sex.

No wonder the case of Madelyn's father was suddenly solved and Daniel was suddenly trapped in various problems. It turned out that Benjamin was the person behind all this.

The demon in the legal circle getting angry because of a woman... This was so exciting!

Vivian decided to make use of him. She deliberately said in a soft tone, "Mr. Clark, I'm Vivian White... Hmm... I was Madelyn's classmate at university and we have met before... Yep... She's with me now. She's so sad that she kicked a fuss while crying and drunk a lot."

Benjamin had only gotten home. Right at this moment, he was standing before the floor-to-ceiling window and gently pulled down his necktie with his slender fingers.

His movements were simple yet elegant.

Hearing Vivian's words, he asked with a frown, "Drunk? What's wrong with her?"

A light-gray shirt and a pair of black suit pants.

The muscles on his chest were bulging and his waist was slender.

And his legs were very long. Vivian marveled at Madelyn's good luck.

Probably because of Benjamin's strong aura, it seemed like the sound of music was lower and everyone was staring at him.

Benjamin had been used to being stared at by others since childing, so he didn't care about their gazes at all.

He found Vivian and Madelyn.

Vivian was still sober while Madelyn had fallen asleep with her head resting on the table.

The bar was filled with thunderous music and the mixed smell of sweat and hormones, but Madelyn's ivory face seemed to be glistening against the dark. The mint green dress she was wearing made her look purer and more innocent.

Benjamin nodded at Vivian and then scooped to carry up Madelyn.

Madelyn was awakened.

She opened her eyes in a trance and looked as panicked as a startled rabbit.

"Now you're afraid?" Benjamin asked angrily.
