181 Chapter 181: Enchanting Encounter (One More)

Shen Qinglan raised her eyebrows and looked at the person in front of her. She didn't expect to see Han Yi here. "Why are you here?"

Han Yi did not expect to meet Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi here. Hearing Shen Qinglan's question, he smiled and said, "Naturally come to hang out."

Shen Qinglan looked sideways, "Han is really interested in running so far away to hang out."

Even after being ridiculed, the smile on Han Yi's face remained unchanged. "Aren't you here to hang out?"

"We are not here to hang out." Fu Hengyi spoke lightly, but he could not hear the mood.

"Xiao Xuan is filming here. I'll take a look at her. Wouldn't you also come to see her?" Shen Qinglan looked at Han Yi calmly, but only in the depths of his eyes, he implicitly looked.

Han Yiqie said, "How is it possible, I am not familiar with the girl Huangmao, I came to see her. I just came to inspect the work, how to say this TV series is also my investment."

"That's best." Qing Yue's voice implied a warning. Han Yi's eyes narrowed, but he said nothing, and followed the two into the studio.

When they came in, they just saw Yu Xiaoxuan filming. They didn't bother to go up, but stood in the corner.

"I can't see the progress of this yellow-haired girl in just a few months." Han Yi touched his chin and said with interest, he looked at Yu Xiaoxuan, and Taohua's eyes were all smiles, "Little Sister-in-law, you have a good vision, this girl is indeed a malleable talent."

Shen Qinglan is also watching Yu Xiaoxuan. Compared with the previous one, she seems to be thinner, but she is very serious about filming.

"My wife's vision is certainly not wrong." Fu Hengyi said lightly.

Han Yi glanced at him sideways, cut, knowing that you have a wife, and knowing that your wife is capable, but can you not want such a pair of my wife is the first in the world, the other people are the arrogant look of the dog P, which simply does not meet Is your person set up? Anyway, you are also the captain of the special forces. Isn't it shameful that such a wife is in strict control?

Lord Fu said he was not embarrassing. He had a wife and he was proud. He threw Han Yi a "I know you are jealous of me" look. Finally, he didn't take a deep look at Yu Xiaoxuan's direction.

Han Yi was anxious. He felt that he must have seen a fake Fu Hengyi. Fu Hengyi would not do such a naive and boring thing.

After Yu Xiaoxuan finished filming, he saw Shen Qinglan standing in the corner. With a surprise on his face, he hurried over and wanted to embrace Shen Qinglan.

Fu Hengyi embraced Shen Qinglan's waist and turned slightly, so that Yu Xiaoxuan gave a hug.

Yu Xiaoxuan pouted, this overbearing person is really, looking at Shen Qinglan, "Qinglan, why are you here?"

Shen Qinglan said, "Come and see you and bring you some food by the way." Don't forget to hand her the bag in her hand.

Yu Xiaoxuan took it with a smile, opened it, looked at it, and took a deep sip, "Is the shrimp dumpling I like to eat, or the one on Xinyuan Road, Qinglan, or is you the best for me, you are right I'm so good, what if I want to treat you as I want?"

As soon as the voice fell, the two men's voices sounded simultaneously.

"No."

"you dare."

The former is Fu Hengyi, and the latter is naturally Han Yi.

Yu Xiaoxuan noticed Han Yi's existence, and his eyes widened. "Why are you here?" The tone was disgusting.

Han Yiqing's face, this dead girl, has no conscience, and is over the New Year. She is worried that she will not be able to go home with her loved ones when filming in the crew, so she came over to see her. She turned out to be good and ignored herself as soon as possible. Completely, what does this disgusting tone mean now.

Han Yi sneered, "I'm the boss, let's see if the subordinates are lazy?"

Yu Xiaoxuan rolled his eyes, "Yes, why not, I haven't seen a boss like you. I just wandered around in front of people all day. Isn't it because your company is going bankrupt?"

Han Yi gritted his teeth, this stinky girl, really owed a lesson, he really came here only when he was full.

"I have something to wait for a while. Let's go first." Throwing a sentence, Han Yi flew away.

Yu Xiaoxuan glanced at Han Yi's angry back, his face inexplicable, "What's wrong with him?"

Fu Hengyi spoke lightly, "The menopause is here."

Yu Xiaoxuan choked, this joke was not funny at all, and then put Han Yi behind, "Qinglan Qinglan, what do you think I just shot?"

Shen Qinglan smiled lightly and nodded, "Very good, great progress." Compared to what I saw last time in Jinning City, Yu Xiaoxuan's progress this time is indeed great, even if the current acting skills can still be said to be green, But in the newcomer, it is already rare.

Affirmed by Shen Qinglan, Yu Xiaoxuan was very happy, "Really? Qinglan? Do you really think I have improved?"

Shen Qinglan nodded with certainty, "Yes, you made great progress."

The smile on Yu Xiaoxuan's face was almost to the ear, and she smiled happily holding shrimp dumplings. When she chose to go this way, she knew that it was not easy to go, and in the past few months, she has indeed paid Many, even those who are in the Chinese New Year, have to work out. Now that she is affirmed by her most important friend, Yu Xiaoxuan's mood at the moment is like eating an ice cream in the hot summer.

"Xiao Xuan, it's your turn," someone shouted over there.

Yu Xiaoxuan responded and handed the shrimp dumplings to Shen Qinglan again, "Qinglan, you help me hold it first, wait for me for an hour, no, just half an hour, I will be ready soon."

"Okay, slow down, don't worry, I'll wait for you."

Yu Xiaoxuan ran halfway and folded back, "You must wait for me."

"Got it, I must wait for you."

Yu Xiaoxuan was assured by Shen Qinglan, and finally he was relieved and went back to filming.

Shen Qinglan's mouth lightly tickled, looking at Yu Xiaoxuan's appearance, and his mood was also clear.

Fu Hengyi saw a smile on the corner of Shen Qinglan's mouth, and there was a smile across his eyes. In fact, he never asked much, as long as Shen Qinglan was happy.

Shen Qinglan was already beautiful, and Fu Hengyi looked good. The two stood together. The standard combination of handsome men and beautiful women attracted the attention of many people as soon as they came in. But at the beginning, Han Yi, the big boss, followed them. Together, no one dared to come over. Now that Han Yi had left, a middle-aged man walked towards them.

And since Shen Qinglan's identity as a well-known painter Leng Qingqiu has been exposed, many people in the capital have known each other, so she has been recognized since she appeared here.

"You are Xiao Xuan's friends?" With a kind smile on the man's face, he knew Shen Qinglan, so asking is just a way to talk.

As the saying goes, the person who doesn't laugh at the face, the other party throws out goodwill, and Shen Qinglan will naturally catch it, not to mention that according to her observation, this person is very important in the crew.

"Yes."

The smile on the corner of the man's mouth grew larger, and he took out a business card from his pocket and handed it to Fu Hengyi. "I am the director of this TV series, and my surname is Wang."

Fu Hengyi took it and glanced at it, Wang Bin.

"Director Wang, when we meet for the first time, our family Xiaoxuan still asks you to take care of you." Shen Qinglan said politely, it was still very rare to say such words from her mouth.

Fu Hengyi glanced at her sideways. She always cares so much about the people she cares about.

Wang Dao smiled and said, "Xiao Xuan works very hard and is very aura. The people in our group like her very much and can't talk about caring or caring."

The others in the crew watched Wang Dao and Ren speak so politely, and was surprised. Wang Dao was famous in the circle for his stern smiles, and he could even be said to have a strange temper, but when he saw Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi's face, Another expression of understanding.

Wang Dao has another very famous place in the circle, that is, he cherishes his talents, especially when he sees good seedlings, he is very itchy and impatient. Now some of the first-line actor is excavated by him, and he is also by his strength Holding red.

"Xiao Xuan often mentions you to me, saying that you have taken care of her, and she didn't think she was stupid because she is a newcomer." Shen Qinglan continued, of course not Yu Xiaoxuan said, but she said.

Wang Dao's smile is true, no matter what kind of person, good words always love to listen, "Where, Xiao Xuan is willing to work hard, I also have a good script in hand, the female second is very suitable for Xiao Xuan, plan to cooperate with Xiao Xuan once again after this TV series ends."

Shen Qinglan smiled slightly, but did not expect to get such an unexpected joy, "Then I would like to thank Wang Dao for Xiao Xuan."

"You're polite, just don't know what Miss Shen is doing now?" Wang Dao asked tentatively.

Shen Qinglan was not surprised that the other party knew himself, "I haven't graduated yet, but I'm an unemployed nomad."

"Miss Shen is humble, you are a big painter."

"The big painter can't talk about it, but it's just a hobby. Compared with Wang Dao, my achievement is not at all worthwhile."

Wang Dao's face was blossoming with a smile, hesitated for a while, but still couldn't help itching, "I don't know if Miss Shen is interested in filming, I have a movie on hand, the heroine's temperament is very similar to Miss Shen Yes."

Shen Qinglan didn't expect Wang Dao to come here specifically to talk to her for this reason. His eyes were slightly surprised and shook his head. "Sorry, Wang Dao, I'm not going to enter the entertainment industry."

Not to mention that she is not interested in this, her current identity is also inconvenient to get involved in the entertainment industry. The identity of the Shen family and the Fu family will not allow children in the family to go to such a mixed place in the entertainment industry.

Wang Dao was very sorry, but he didn't want to give up. He got the script a year ago. It's great. He is sure to be able to fire, but he has higher requirements for the face value of the male and female owners. The male host barely found one, the female host. But he has not landed, and today saw Shen Qinglan, suddenly let his eyes shine, as if found a big treasure.

"Ms. Shen, don't rush to refuse, I will show you the script first. If you are interested, we can cooperate. If you are not interested, then it doesn't matter. What do you think?"

Everyone talked about this, and Shen Qinglan couldn't refuse it anymore, so he agreed.

Wang Dao glanced at Fu Hengyi and seemed to be very interested in him. Shen Qinglan turned sideways, blocking Wang Dao's sight, "Wang Dao, Xiao Xuan seems to be over there."

Wang Dao is a personal expert. He naturally knows what Shen Qinglan means, and smiled, "Miss Shen, if you think about it, you can contact me at any time, and my mobile phone number is on the business card."

Shen Qinglan nodded politely.

Wang Dao left, the others were photographed in Fu Hengyi's momentum, but no one came to disturb them, and here they were left.

Fu Hengyi looked at Shen Qinglan and said, "It's okay if you want to try it. I can talk to the two grandpas."

Shen Qinglan knew what he was talking about, and shook his head gently, "I'm really not interested in these."

Fu Hengyi said no more. He always adopted the stocking model for Shen Qinglan. She could do whatever she wanted. Even if the sky was broken, he could make up for her.

"Qing Lan, my part of today's drama is over. Wait for me for a while, and I will change my clothes and go." Yu Xiaoxuan ran over, still wearing the costume, Shen Qinglan nodded and told her not to worry.

Yu Xiaoxuan came back quickly, "Qing Lan, let's go." After taking a look at Fu Hengyi, there was some hesitation in her expression. Well, she wanted to talk with Qing Lan. This person is inconvenient here, and although this man she looks good, but the momentum of her body makes her even whisper.

Fu Hengyi saw Yu Xiaoxuan's uncomfortable, smiled slightly, "Your little sisters get together together, I still have a little to do in advance, finished sending me the address, I will pick you up."

Shen Qinglan nodded, "Okay."

Fu Hengyi left the car to Shen Qinglan, called Han Yi when he went out, and Han Yi, who had driven halfway, returned to pick him up.

"I really owe you." Han Yi grunted.

"The charms gather at night." Fu Hengyi ignored Han Yi's mutter and said to herself.

"Yo, don't care about your wife?" Han Yi smiled in amusement.

"She went to the party with friends."

"It turned out to be abandoned, pitiful." Han Yi whispered.

"It's better than some people who don't even dare to say it to others, at least I have a wife." Fu Hengyi was light and calm.

Han Yi vomited blood and stared at Fu Hengyi fiercely. "Anyway, I am your brother, so you just inserted two swords for a woman?"

Fu Hengyi calmed, "Brothers are like hands and feet, women are like clothes, can you go out without clothes?"

Han Yi's face was black and black, and the perverted bastard called Gu Yang and Gu Kai angrily, "At seven o'clock in the evening, charm."

Then I called Shen Junyu and Jiang Chenxi again, and I noticed them one by one before looking at Fu Hengyi. "Where is Master Fu planning to go now?"

"Go directly to Charm." There are a few of their special rooms upstairs. Sometimes it is too late or too lazy to go home, they will sleep there directly.

Han Yi had no opinion and drove to Charm.

"If you are serious about Xiao Xuan, then I, as a brother, have nothing to say, but if you just treat her as your girlfriends in the past, it is best not to provoke her. She is a friend of Qinglan, if you are Hurt her, Qinglan wants to teach you, I can't stop it."

Han Yi pouted, I count on you? Don't stop, it's good if you don't help handing the knife.

"I don't like that girl with yellow hair. I want a chest without a chest, a face without a face, a bad temper. I'm not blind. Will I look at her?"

"Are you clear in your heart, and you can say it all?"

Han Yi stopped talking, the look in his eyes was uncertain, what kind of feelings did he have for Xiao Xuan, in fact he didn't know himself.

Gu Yang saw Fu Hengyi as soon as he came in, his eyes flinched, and a big smile appeared on his face, saying, "Brother, don't you have to accompany your sister-in-law today?" Han Yi did not say that Fu Hengyi would Come.

Fu Hengyi glanced at him and said nothing, but made Gu Yang feel cold and uneasy, "That, brother, I have something to do later, let's go first?"

"Come back." Fu Hengyi said lightly.

Gu Yang's footsteps to retreat suddenly stopped, looking at Fu Hengyi, "Brother, I really have something, especially urgent."

Fu Hengyi didn't speak, but just looked at him fixedly. Gu Yang's scalp was numb and he could only walk into the box and sit down, but he was far away from Fu Hengyi.

Han Yi looked at it with relish, leaning his head on Jiang Chenxi's shoulder, "Yo, Gu Yang, what are you doing, I'm sorry Hengyi?"

Gu Kai knew that Gu Yang lost a lot in the Bliss Casino, and finally it was Shen Qinglan who came forward to solve the problem. It seems that Fu Hengyi also knew.

In fact, Gu Kai also had some hair in his heart, but he was always cold-faced, and others did not see him wrong for a while.

Fu Hengyi glanced at Gu Yang and Gu Kai, and the two of them suddenly had only one idea: when it was over, the elder brother (Fu brother) knew.

"I have greeted company Li commander. After two years, you two will go to the army to experience together." Fu Hengyi spoke lightly, but just finished, Gu Kai looked over.

"That, Brother Fu, I don't have to go?"

Fu Hengyi glanced lightly. "I called Uncle Gu. He said that since you don't want to take over the enterprise, then go to the army with Gu Yang."

Gu Kai: ...

Knowing that this was the result, he went directly to the company at that time, but his biggest hobby was racing. If his parents were struggling against it, maybe he is now a racing driver.

Gu Yang didn't dare to say a word. He knew what Fu Hengyi looked like. He must know about the casino. He might be better off in the army if he didn't speak.

Seeing Gu Yang obediently obey, Fu Hengyi's eyes flashed with a trace of satisfaction.

Dare to take his wife to race, fight or even gamble. Anything can make Fu Hengyi give Gu Yang's loose muscles, not to mention three crimes and punishment.

Gu Yang's cool eyes on Fu Hengyi can't wait to disappear in front of him. Brother, you might as well beat me up, really.

Shen Junyu was the last to arrive. She pushed the door in and saw a group of people, "Yo, it's all there. What day is it today?"

"Someone was abandoned by his wife, so I think of our group of bachelors." Han Yixian opened his mouth coolly, with a sense of gloating.

Shen Junyu glanced at the box, and really did not see Shen Qinglan, "Where did Qinglan go?"

Han Yi smiled beautifully, and Taohua's eyes glowed with glory, "I went on a date with my little lover, leaving us Fu Shaodu to guard the empty girl."

Fu Hengyi gave him a cold look, Han Yi immediately forbidden his voice, and would threaten people with greatness, even threatening me with his eyes. This young master is too big to measure, and does not care about you, hum.

Shen Junyu knew that there was no truth in Han Yi's mouth, and he was too lazy to tell him that he sat down next to Fu Hengyi, but his eyes fell on Gu Yang. "What's wrong with Gu Yang and Gu Kai, so downcast?"

Gu Yang didn't speak. He still had a mood to laugh and lie on the sofa and pretended to be dead. Gu Kai was not in a good mood at the moment and did not want to speak.

Han Yi laughed more joyfully, "Someone has made up for his death, but now he has been cleaned up."

In fact, Han Yi didn't know what Gu Yang Gu Kai did, but watching someone more unlucky than him, he felt very comfortable for no reason.

Jiang Chenxi pushed his head away. A big man was not sitting properly, leaning on another man. Can you watch it?

"Chenxi," Shen Junyu saw Jiang Chenxi and remembered something. "Did you ever get a blind date with Shen Xitong?"

"What? Blind date?! Who's blind date?" Just finished, Gu Yang, who was pretending to be dead, jumped up. The energetic look was just like two people just now.

Jiang Chenxi's face was slightly dark, and he mentioned that the woman couldn't help but feel the fire. He had never met such a ugly woman. It wasn't ugly, but ugly.

When Shen Junyu saw Jiang Chenxi's expression, there was nothing she didn't understand. I'm afraid that Shen Xitong, who was above the top, couldn't see Jiang Chenxi and said something unpleasant at the same time.

"I don't know my mother took the red line for you both."

"It has nothing to do with you." Jiang Chenxi smiled slightly, "You are you, she is her." He never connected the two together, even if they were nominal brothers and sisters.

"You don't have to worry about it." Shen Junyu was relieved. He didn't worry about Shen Xitong, but he was afraid of Jiang Chenxi's thoughts.

"Who are you going to explain what the blind date is all about?" Gu Yang looked at Jiang Chenxi and then Shen Junyu, looking confused.

Han Yi is also curious, but seeing Chen Xi's appearance also knows that things are probably not pleasant, so he still shouldn't touch the tiger's beard. Jiang Chenxi, this man, on weekdays is absolutely gentle like a jade, a modest gentleman, but if anyone really annoys him, it is a wolf that is black in his bones. If you are absolutely yin, there is no place to cry if you cry.

Gu Yang rushed to Jiang Chenxi's side, freeing a curious baby, "Chen Xixi, what the hell is going on, how can you get involved with Shen Xitong?"

Jiang Chenxi gave him a smile and asked gently and kindly, "Want to know?"

Gu Yang wanted to nod and say yes, but for the smiling eyes of Shang Jiang Chenxi, he couldn't keep his head down and waved his hand. "Actually, I don't really want to know that."

After he finished speaking, looking back at Kai, Han Yi gave him a counseling look, Gu Yang glared, you don't counsel, why don't you ask.

Han Yi looked away, he wouldn't be so stupid.

A group of big men have nothing to do, Han Yi took out a pair of mahjong, "Come, play a game."

Shen Junyu took the lead to sit down, Gu Yang sat down immediately, Gu Kai did not play, sat and watched them play.

"Chenxi, Hengyi, lack of three." Han Yi greeted.

"I'm going out, you guys play." Jiang Chenxi didn't have much interest, Fu Hengyi stood up, and the crisp sound of mahjong collision was quickly remembered in the room.

"Why are you here, are you following me?" Shen Xitong looked at the man in front of him, his face contemptuous.

Jiang Chenxi looked down at the woman with thick makeup in front of her eyes. The black silk suspender skirt could see the white skin faintly. The skirt was only as short as the thighs, revealing two slender and fair legs, with heavy eyeshadows painted on his face. The big red lipstick, the standard nightclub dress, met two people on the date of the blind date.

If it wasn't for her to appear in front of herself and block her way, it would be strange for him to recognize her.

"I said that day, I can't be with you, we are not suitable, even if you follow me and pretend to happen to me, I won't think you have a fate with me." Shen Xitong said to himself, not at all. Noting Jiang Chenxi's increasingly cold face, she might have noticed, but she wouldn't care.

"And, this is not something you can afford, you should leave early, lest one month's salary will be lost if you are not careful." Shen Xitong said disdainfully.

As a poor teacher, even if the conditions at home are okay, but where is this place, can he come? Fatty, virtuous.

"Have you always been so self-righteous?" Jiang Chenxi's voice was deep and his tone was cold. His height was higher than Shen Xitong's head, and he was looking down upon her at the moment.

Shen Xitong had to start to see his face clearly, but against the light, she couldn't see the expression on his face. She only felt that the people in front of her seemed angry, she smiled disdainfully, but only by relying on his mother and her. That mother's idea of relationship, think she can compare with her?

She took out a stack of paper money from her bag and shook it in front of Jiang Chenxi, "Well, you took this money, even if I asked you tonight, you won't be here again in the future, this is not you. Don't follow me wherever you can, even if your mother and my mother are good friends, I won't be with you either."

Jiang Chenxi looked at the paper money in front of him, and there were about two or three thousand visually. It was really bold enough to make a shot. Is this the famous lady in the capital?

He smiled. His facial features were not very dazzling, but they were very eye-catching. They belonged to men who looked more and more tasteful, and they were full of book gas, which was quite out of place with the environment at this time. I felt a trace of charm for no reason.

Shen Xitong's eyes flickered slightly, but he was awake in an instant. He was annoyed. He was just bewitched by a poor teacher, and he smashed the money in his hand on Jiang Chenxi's body. "Take this money, let's go."

It was really smashed. The banknotes were spreading and scattered at Jiang Chenxi's feet. Jiang Chenxi squatted down and picked them up one by one.

Shen Xitong looked down at his movements and smiled disdainfully. They all said that they were arrogant scholars, and now it seems to be the case too. If you lip your lips, you will leave.

"Wait."

Jiang Chenxi opened his mouth, Shen Xitong paused slightly, turned to look at him, his expression impatient, "What do you want to do?"

Jiang Chenxi smiled, his smile glowing coldly, holding a passing man, putting the money in his hand, "This money is given to you by this lady, and invites you to spend a good night tonight."

His luck is very good. A man who pulls casually is a cowboy. He glances at Shen Xitong, especially in some parts of her. Her eyes are slightly bright, and the corners of her mouth are raised with a charming arc of self-confidence. "Very happy At your service."

Shen Xitong turned his face, staring at Jiang Chenxi fiercely, "Jiang Chenxi, what do you mean?"

But Jiang Chenxi didn't look at her, and walked away.

Where Shen Xitong was willing to eat such a loss, he had to catch up, but there was an extra hand on his waist, and the strange man's breath was like a face, with a strong taste of fat powder.

"This lady, so beautiful tonight, I will follow you wherever you want and in whatever way you want, and you are satisfied." The man said ambiguously, even sticking his tongue and licking on Shen Xitong's earlobe.

Shen Xitong's body stiffened and pushed the man away with a slap. "Back off me." Feeling the wetness on her ears and her stomach rolling, she felt sick.

Her strength is so great, the man didn't expect the woman to say yes, he started, his face was beaten upright, and he immediately became angry. Their business is to eat by the face. If the face is ruined, it will ruin his rice bowl. .

"You stinky woman, dare to hit me."

Shen Xitong softened as soon as the others were hard. When she saw that the other party was stunned, she felt guilty and was afraid that the other party would punch her. After all, she was just a woman. If the other party really wanted to fight, where would she be his opponent?

"What do you want to do, I tell you, if you dare to do it, you don't have any fruit to eat." Seeing the other party raised her hand, Shen Xitong screamed.

"It's all light to hit you." The man's slap is about to fall.

"Wait a minute." Shen Xitong shouted, the man's hand paused.

"Isn't it money? I have money." Shen Xitong opened the wallet and took out a stack of banknotes from it. Without looking at it, he threw it on the man's body. "Take it and take the money and roll it for me."

The money was more than what Jiang Chenxi gave him just now. The man was satisfied and took the money away. Before he left, he did not forget to turn around and smile at Shen Xitong charmingly, "Beauty, my name is Kerry. I come here often, you If you have any need, you can come to me at any time, and I... It's great." His face was powdered and his lips seemed to have lip makeup. With such a smile, it was a bit of a pseudo-girlish temperament.

Shen Xitong couldn't help it anymore. He ran into the bathroom and burst into a violent spit. He picked up water on his hand and rushed to his face. He repeatedly washed his earlobe until the earlobe became red before stopping.

The makeup on her face was all flowered, her eyeliner came out, and black marks were drawn on her face, which looked terrible.

She took out the wipes from her bag, scrubbed her face clean, put on makeup again, and looked at the self-recovering self in the mirror, but she couldn't express her depression in her heart.

Jiang Chenxi, you wait for me.

Because of the movement just now, the clothes on her chest have been wet for a long time. Although her clothes are black, they are very thin. At the moment, they are wet and tightly attached to her body, drawing a charming curve on her chest.

Shen Xitong didn't care, looking at himself in the mirror, nodding with satisfaction, twisting his waist and going to the dance floor.

On the dance floor, he twisted his body frantically, and danced ambiguously with strange men, ignoring the pair of hands moving on his waist or hips, and Shen Xitong's face was a little fascinated.

She likes to be surrounded by men in this way, like the feeling of the stars staring at the moon.

In fact, she hates herself bound by the rules and regulations of the Shen family. For her own image, she has to be dignified and elegant even when she smiles, and maintains the manners and demeanor that a celebrity deserves, not to mention painting this kind of makeup. , Wearing such exposed clothes appeared in front of people.

But she could not lose the identity of Miss Shen family, because she knew in her heart that once she lost the Shen family, she would be nothing and nothing.

So she can only come to the nightclub occasionally to relax.

But even if she comes to the nightclub to play, she has to put a thick powder on her face and paint thick makeup to ensure that she is not recognized by others.

Someone touched it on her chest, she smiled, reached out and patted on the muscles in front of the man's chest, and flicked the other person an electric eye.

She likes powerful men, rather than the oily noodles just like Fu Hengyi, for example, the man in front of her.

"Chenxi, why did you look so ugly?" Han Yi asked Jiang Chenxi who came in.

Jiang Chenxi sat down on the sofa, took a sip of the wine on the table, and said coldly, "I met a self-righteous maniac."

Han Yi smiled ambiguously, "Is it a female lunatic, Chen Xi, your charm is so great."

Jiang Chenxi glanced at him with cold eyes, "won tonight?"

Han Yi smiled triumphantly, "That's for sure." Fu Hengyi was obviously absent-minded in playing cards. No matter whether he lost or won, he naturally became the biggest winner.

Jiang Chenxi walked over and patted Fu Hengyi's shoulder, "Let me play a game or two."

Fu Hengyi originally came to make up the numbers, and naturally gave way to Jiang Chenxi.

"Yo, Chen Xi, will you send money to your brother today?" Han Yi whistled.

Jiang Chenxi didn't speak, but Wenrun smiled.

Shen Junyu glanced at Han Yi, who was not quite shrewd at ordinary times. Now she started to be stupid. Didn't she see that Jiang Chenxi was in a bad mood?

"Chenxi, brother, where did I offend you, let you play such a ruthless hand?" Han Yi finally lost his face after losing five consecutive games, and cried strangely.

Jiang Chenxi took the chips in front of Han Yi in front of him, and looked at the chips piled up in front of him, his depressed mood was relieved to a certain extent, and then looked at Han Yi with a smile.

"I haven't offended me. Recently, I have no money on hand and earn some pocket money."

Han Yi's face is green, you have no money, lie, you don't know if I can, I seem to be a university teacher, in fact, the ability to turn the wheel, you Jiang Chenxi recognizes the second, I Han Yidu I dare not recognize the first, I am afraid that my net worth is not as good as you.

Jiang Chenxi calmly put away the chips in front of him, "It's not too late, I'll go back first."

"I want to run if I win, Jiang Chenxi, you jerk." Han Yi scolded.

Fu Hengyi also followed up, "I'm gone too." With his mobile phone in his hand, he seemed to be sending messages, and it was self-evident to whom.

"I should go back too, my dad can't explain it late." Shen Junyu stood up and picked up his coat.

Han Yi glared at the few people who were going to go, glared for three seconds, and threw the mahjong in his hand on the table, "You are all gone. What am I still playing alone. ."

Gu Yang and Gu Kai thought and walked along, and a group of people walked away in a flash.

"Hey, Jun Yu, is that your sister?" Han Yi glanced downstairs at random, held Shen Junyu, and pointed to a figure on the dance floor downstairs.

Digression

Two o'clock at noon

Chapter 182 Biological Parents? (Two more)

"You are wrong, there is only one of my sisters, Lan Lan never goes there." Shen Junyu spoke lightly, without looking downstairs.

Han Yi pulled him and said, "I was wrong, it was your nominal sister. Hurry up and see if it's her. I'm sure that she is 90% sure."

Shen Junyu stopped and looked in the direction that Han Yi pointed. Although Shen Xitong painted heavy makeup and was in the crowd, it was not difficult for Shen Junyu to recognize her.

Han Yi said, "I really can't see, your sister still has this... unknown side." He wanted to say "Sao", but he changed his mouth.

There was no surprise on Shen Junyu's face. Shen Xitong would pretend to be a child. Now he is not surprised to appear here in this image.

"Let's go." Shen Junyu lifted his foot and left, Han Yi glanced at the dance floor again, withdrawn his eyes and smiled disdainfully.

He has known Shen Xitong for many years. It can be said that he has known since he was a child. Shen Xitong has been beautiful, but Han Yi, who has always liked beautiful women, has never thought about her, not because of Shen Junyu's relationship, but because this woman is too pretended. It's cute to pretend to be a woman, but it's awful to keep on pretending.

When Han Yi and Shen Junyu reached the parking lot, Fu Hengyi had already left.

"What about Fu Hengyi? He didn't come by car, didn't take my car, did he plan to go back?" Han Yi didn't see Fu Hengyi's person and asked Gu Yang.

Gu Yang shrugged, "Little sister-in-law came to pick him up, he left first."

"Huh, this man with a wife is just different. It makes me want to get married." Han Yi sighed.

Shen Junyu squinted him, "You have so many confidantes, it's not easy to get married, just want to be a dad, and there are people waiting in line to pamper you."

"What do you know, can those women get married? If you want to get married, you should find a good wife and a good mother. Like a sister-in-law, it's not bad." The words said, but a young face flashed in my mind, The crescent moon's eyes, smiled to reveal two little tiger teeth.

If it were that girl, I am afraid that she could not be a good wife and mother.

Shaking his head, annoyed, how could he think of that girl again, that is a tigress, a little wolf cub, who would bite.

Fu Hengyi got in the car and found that Yu Xiaoxuan and Fang Tong were sitting behind. Their faces were reddish, and they seemed to be drinking.

"Drinking?" Fu Hengyi asked.

Shen Qinglan shook his head, "I didn't drink, they both drank."

"Good Lord Fu." Fang Tong greeted him actively, and Yu Xiaoxuan shouted after Fang Tong.

Fu Hengyi glanced at them from the rearview mirror, smiled slightly, and said calmly, "Just call me Fu Hengyi, or Brother Fu."

Fang Tong was flattered, but she did not dare, "Yes, Master Fu."

Fu Hengyi smiled and stopped talking.

He was a co-pilot. After drinking a few sips tonight, it was unsuitable to drive. Shen Qinglan first sent Yu Xiaoxuan and Fang Tong back home before returning to the compound with Fu Hengyi.

Fu Hengyi will leave on the tenth day, and today is the eighth day, and they have lived in the compound these days.

When I went back, the family had already fallen asleep, and Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi did not wake them up. They slept after taking a shower.

The next morning, Fu Hengyi and Shen Qinglan finished their breakfast and took a walk in the courtyard. Unconsciously, they walked to the gate of the courtyard and witnessed a good show.

Shen Xitong didn't go home last night, went to the hotel, called home and said he was staying at a friend's house. Chu Yunrong knew that Shen Xitong had a few female friends in Beijing after returning home.

After playing all night and drinking again, Shen Xitong was close to noon when I got up. I knew that there was no one at home today, and I was not in a hurry to go home. Grandpa and my old friend had an appointment to go out and play. My father and mother were going to visit my friend, and Shen Junyu automatically It was ignored by Shen Xitong.

The caller asked for a set of clothes to change and wash, which was her usual style. She also painted a light makeup to cover the slightly haggard face, and then took a taxi home.

Her car stopped in charm color yesterday, and did not drive back. Now she just wants to go home and lie down, instead of driving, just throw it there.

Far away, she saw two people standing in the corner of the courtyard door, wearing heavy cotton coats, shrinking shoulders and necks, probably because of the cold, still walking back and forth. As we got closer, we found out that it was a man and a woman, with gray hair and looking a bit older.

Shen Xitong didn't care, got out of the car and just walked in, but saw that the man and woman who had just stood in the corner immediately approached her. The woman even threw herself up to hug her. Shen Xitong was shocked and took two steps back subconsciously, frowning, screaming coldly, "What are you doing?"

The woman didn't seem to expect Shen Xitong's reaction. She didn't dare to act for a while, but just stared at Shen Xitong in a daze.

"Who are you?" Shen Xitong frowned.

The woman seemed to react just now, grabbing Shen Xitong's hand, her eyes gleaming with tears, "Sanya, we finally found you, you made us look so hard."

Shen Xitong was caught without any precautions and wanted to withdraw his hand, but did not expect the woman's amazing strength, "Who the hell are you, what do you want to do?"

The woman's face was excited, "Sanya, we are your parents, your parents."

After listening to the first half of the sentence, Shen Xitong wanted to say that they admitted wrong, but after listening to the second half of the sentence, her movements paused for a moment, her expression seemed to be in a trance, but she regained calmness in an instant, and broke open the woman's hand hard. I admit that I am not the three girls in your mouth. My name is Shen Xitong. I have parents."

The woman was anxious as soon as she heard it, holding Shen Xitong's hand, "Sanya, we are really your biological parents, we have photos."

He said, shouting at the man who was behind her, "Hurry up and show the photo to Sanya."

The man heard the words and immediately took a photo from the chest bag and held it in front of Shen Xitong. "Sanya, look, this is a photo of your childhood. We are really your parents."

The photo is very old, probably not well preserved, and there are yellow mold spots on it. The photo shows two adults and three little girls. The youngest Shen Xitong recognized himself as a child at a glance. Year-old look.

Shen Xitong's eyes flashed with confusion, "Just take a picture and just want to say that it is my parents. You are a scam, I can call the police."

I thought I was able to frighten the couple, but I didn't expect the man to raise his head and look at Shen Xitong. "You call the police, we are not afraid even when you see the police. We came to find our own daughter, and no bad things."

This straightforward statement made Shen Xitong's eyes red, not to mention whether the two shameful people in front of him were their own parents. Even if they were their own parents, since they abandoned themselves at that time, what is the reason to come to her now?

"Speak well, talk to Sanya." Women do peacemakers, they come to recognize their daughters, not to make enmity with them.

The man kept silent.

The women's faces are all cautiously pleased, "Sanya, if you don't believe it, we can do that identification, we are really your biological parents."

Shen Xitong couldn't earn a woman's hand and was annoyed. She looked back at the guards at the entrance of the compound. "You are all dead, don't hurry to come and pull them away."

The guards have noticed the movements here for a long time, but they were coming from the beginning, but Fu Hengyi and Shen Qinglan came over and begged them not to care. They were still a little embarrassed, but after hearing Shen Xitong's words, several guards' His face was dark.

They are all soldiers in the army, and even if they are guards here, they belong to the army. The leaders who live here have not spoken to them in this way, and Shen Xitong just blamed them just now. It's strange that they look good.

One of the young guards had obvious anger on his face, but it was just a fake phoenix. What's so proud of? The real phoenix was kind and courteous to them. Just looking at Shen Qinglan standing on the side, he didn't say anything, just looked at Shen Qinglan.

Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi came out of the corner, "What happened?"

It was Fu Hengyi who spoke.

When Shen Xitong saw Fu Hengyi, he was first happy. When he saw Shen Qinglan beside him, the joy on his face disappeared suddenly, but he looked at Fu Hengyi pitifully, "Heng Yi, help me pull these two people away."

Fu Hengyi ignored Shen Xitong's words. Although he already knew what happened, he pretended to look at the couple pretendingly, "Who are you? Why are you pulling here?"

The middle-aged couple probably hadn't seen a person like Fu Hengyi, whose face was full of uneasiness, the strength of the woman's hand was loose, Shen Xitong took the opportunity to break free from her, and ran to Fu Hengyi's side, but the woman wanted to hold her but fell It's empty.

The man didn't speak, and gave the woman a wink. The woman rubbed her hands carefully and said, "This..." She didn't know what to call Fu Hengyi, and thought of a more appropriate title, "This gentleman, we are three... ..Is her biological parents."

Fu Hengyi looked sideways and pointed at Shen Xitong, "You said you are her biological parents?"

The woman nodded, "Yes, we are really her parents. I have been looking for her for many years. I finally found out that she was here. We did not find it in years, but we couldn't get in here. Waiting at the door."

"How do you know that she is your daughter, in case you admit it wrong?" Shen Qinglan said, her voice cold.

The middle-aged couple only thought that the girl in front of them was very beautiful, and looked pretty like a fairy. They looked down and looked down. They dared not look at it again. The woman whispered, "We, we have evidence, we asked The orphanage in Sanya was abandoned that year. The people in the orphanage told me that Sanya was adopted by a large family. I inquired for a long time and walked many places before I knew that the big family was from Beijing, so we found coming."

The woman said a lot, but still did not say how they knew that Shen Xitong was their daughter.

Shen Qinglan looked at the two people in front of her, and a glare of light glanced across her eyes.

"This is the gate after all, people come and go, it's not good-looking, let's go first. My parents are the adoptive parents of your daughters in your mouth. You are not at home now, you go to my house for a while, I give them a call They came back," Shen Qinglan said, not anxiously.

Shen Xitong's eyes widened incredulously, "What are you doing for them to come to our house, they are liars, and tell mom and dad, is it necessary?"

When the woman heard this, she was anxious, "We are not liars, we are really her parents."

Shen Qinglan glanced at Shen Xitong, "Now the weather outside is so cold, no matter whether it is right or not, you cannot throw people here. If something goes wrong, you are responsible?"

Shen Xitong choked and stopped talking, glanced at Shen Qinglan angrily, and turned away.

Fu Hengyi looked at the two of them, "Come in."

The two carefully followed Fu Hengyi and walked in. This time, the guards at the door didn't stop them. The couple secretly breathed a sigh of relief, but they didn't wait for them to pant before they saw the Shen family's house.

The couple became more cautious, looking at the exquisite sofa, and dared to sit half ass even when they sat down.

Sister Song did not know who these two people were, but it looked like they were not relatives of the Shen family and gave them tea.

The woman was somewhat helpless and thanked her again and again. Her hands were cold. She wanted to hold the hot tea in her palm immediately, but she wiped and wiped her hands on her trousers before daring to carefully hold the tea cup.

The man looked calmer than the woman, but the stiff back revealed his tension.

Shen Xitong went upstairs and had not come down. Shen Qinglan had already called Shen Qian and Chu Yunrong. They were on their way back. They were sitting on the sofa with Fu Hengyi at the moment.

At first, the two of them lowered their heads and dared not look around. After a while, they saw that Fu Hengyi and Shen Qinglan were not close, but they did not embarrass them.

The two carefully raised their heads and looked at the house. When they saw the fine furniture, a greed appeared in the eyes of the woman and the man. The woman secretly reached out and touched the sofa.

Although Shen Qinglan didn't look at them, Yu Guang's eyes kept paying attention. Seeing this scene, she finally felt a little satisfied.

Jin Enxi's information did not go wrong, and neither of them disappointed her.

Fu Hengyi glanced at her, squeezed in her palm, Shen Qinglan looked at him, saw the playful smile in his eyes, and calmly looked away.

Although Fu Hengyi didn't know what happened, she knew that Shen Qinglan had something to do with her. Perhaps she contributed to it by herself. The couple also knew that life at home should not be easy. Where is there so much? The time and energy to find the daughter who deliberately discarded many years ago, but also found it.

There is no coincidence in this world, but there are too many coincidences, which makes people doubt, but he does not like Shen Xitong. No matter what Shen Qinglan wants to do, he will be on her side.

Shen Qian and Chu Yunrong came back quickly, and together with Mr. Shen.

Seeing that Old Man Shen also came back together, Shen Qinglan stood up and helped the old man sit down, "Grandpa, didn't you go to your old friend's house?"

Grandpa Shen glanced at her, "If something goes wrong at home, where can I stay?" After looking at it, I saw the strange face on the sofa and knew that it should be the couple.

"What about Xitong?" Father Shen frowned without seeing Shen Xitong.

"Upstairs." Fu Hengyi said.

Father Shen looked at Chu Yunrong, "Go and call her down."

Chu Yunrong got up and went upstairs to call someone.

Old Master Shen looked at the couple, "How do you call it?"

The two of them were restless since the three came in, especially Mr. Shen, who was very serious when he didn't laugh. Hearing the old man's question, the woman dared not speak, and the man rubbed his hands, "My name is Li Datou, this is my wife, Tian Cuifang."

Mr. Shen nodded, no expression, "I heard that you are here for your daughter?"

"Yes, yes, your eldest daughter is my biological daughter." Li Datou replied, fearing that Mr. Shen did not believe it, and took out the photo and handed it to the man, "This is the family portrait of our family, the youngest The one is Sanya."

Master Shen took the photo and took a closer look. Shen Xitong was nine years old when she came to the Shen family. It was a little different from the little girl in the photo, but she could still see the similarities.

He put down the photo and put it on the table. Chu Yunrong and Shen Xitong had also come down. Shen Xitong's face was reluctant.

"You say that Xitong is your daughter, what evidence is there besides this picture?" Shen Qian said in a deep voice.

The man didn't seem to expect Shen Qian to ask this question, and he was a little stunned for a while, "I am her dad, what evidence is needed? And is this picture not enough?"

"You said you were my biological father? You can still fake the photos. I think you are liars." Shen Xitong's tone was bad.

Li Datou didn't dare to be angry in front of the Shen family, but in his heart, Shen Xitong was his daughter, and the daughter was against his father, it was not filial, and the expression on his face immediately changed, wanting to be angry, or Tian Cuifang pulled him in time, Desperately winks.

Li Datou calmed down in an instant, yes, the most important thing now is to recognize her daughter first, and the person who came to them said that their daughter is now playing the piano, making more money, if she can take this daughter Recognize it, their family's life will be improved immediately, and his son's money for marrying his daughter-in-law will also be available.

Grandpa Shen glanced at Shen Xitong. Shen Xitong immediately shut up and said nothing. The old man's eyes were obviously dissatisfied with her attitude.

Fu Hengyi and Shen Qinglan were sitting on the sidelines watching the drama. If you don't watch it, you would be too sorry for yourself. It was just that the two of them fell calm in Shen Xitong's eyes but made her heart suffocate and wanted to vomit blood.

Digression

Wonderful parents are here

183 Episode 183

Mr. Shen looked at Li Datou, "Xitong was indeed adopted by our family, but when he was adopted, the dean of the welfare home also said that she was an orphan, and she was sent to the welfare home because her parents died and no one was taking care of her. Yes, now you suddenly jump out and say that you are her biological parents. Should I explain this again? Are you lying? Or was the dean of the welfare institution lying that year?"

Big head Li rubbed his hands, his face was very embarrassed, or Tian Cuifang said, "Actually, this thing blames me. If my stomach is not upset, without skill, we will not throw Sanya."

She reddened her eyes and continued, "Our hometown is Xiangnan, where there is a backward mountain village. The people in the village rely on farming to feed themselves, and their lives are not easy. And there are no sons in us who want to be said to be dead. I've been married to her dad for five years, and I gave birth to three girls. My family has little land and food is a little bit. It's hard to feed two adults. Where can I raise three children? I was pregnant again, and they all said that the one in my stomach was the son, so I discussed with her dad and wanted to give Sanya to someone else to raise."

Having said that, she stopped and glanced at the ugly Shen Xitong, "But Sanya is a girl who is a loser, where someone wants her, and at that time she was five years old, sensible, people just want to Not like her, so..."

"So you sent her to the orphanage?" Chu Yunrong said, her voice slightly cold. In the end, she was the daughter she raised, and should she feel distressed or distressed when she heard these experiences.

Tian Cuifang is embarrassed, but more is not easy, "This lady, you have never lived such a day, where do you know that eating and not eating, even if you and your children can not feed the taste, if I follow My wife is like you, even if I were killed, I would not lose my child."

I don't know if Tian Cuifang's words were wrong. I saw that Chu Yunrong's face suddenly turned pale, which scared everyone. Shen Qian knew what his wife thought of, and she glanced at Shen Qinglan, who didn't respond. With his wife's hand, a little effort was used.

Chu Yunrong recovered, and there seemed to be some pain in her heart, making her face still pale.

Tian Cuifang was startled and stayed there for a while, at a loss.

Where did she know that Chu Yunrong thought of losing her biological daughter just by the word "lost".

"Since she has lost her, why do you want to come over now?" Chu Yunrong asked in a dumb voice.

Tian Cuifang became more embarrassed, and the expression on her face was even more miserable. "Where is we don't want to find Sanya earlier, but when we regret that we want to bring Sanya back, she has already been taken away. , The dean said that he was adopted by a big family, but we asked her for the address, but she said she didn't know. We haven't given up looking for these years. My dad and I even left our hometown for many years, worked outside, and went to many cities just to Inquire about Sanya, but after so many years, we have not found her."

When talking about Tian Cuifang crying, watching her tearful performance, Shen Qinglan had to give her a compliment.

Where did this family find their daughters and leave their hometowns for many years? They wandered in many cities simply because their hometowns were too poor to support their children. In order not to starve, they had to go out to work. According to the survey data, if the two daughters above At that time, Shen Xitong was going to be big, and would already be able to work. No one wanted to give it away. It was a pity to lose it. I am afraid that Shen Xitong would not be the one who was thrown away.

But later, the fate of those two daughters was not much better. One married fifteen years old and married an old bachelor in the village. The younger one married at the age of eighteen. Not a good person, but a co-worker they met in part-time job, the gift was 20,000.

Then they left the city with their only son and left their second daughter alone, which was equivalent to selling their daughter for 20,000 yuan.

This time, it wasn't Shen Qinglan who was looking for them to find them and tell them that the little daughter they had lost was adopted by a big family. Now they are rich, and they will not run over without a year.

Their current speech was also told by Shen Qinglan's people in advance.

They didn't believe it, but the person took out Shen Xitong's current photos and photos of her frequent visits to major high-level venues.

Don't ask them why they believe this is the daughter they lost, even if not, as long as they bite, then Shen Xitong is their daughter.

Chu Yunrong's heart was filled with enthusiasm. She experienced the despair that she couldn't find a child. Looking at Tian Cuifang, who was crying with tears, Chu Yunrong's heart softened.

"Since I didn't find it before, how did I find it now?" Shen Qian asked this time.

Obviously, this question also has a "standard answer". The people who came to them have already told them the questions they might be asked and the things they encountered. All they have to do is follow what the person said.

"Or my second daughter accidentally saw Sanya's performance, and then told us that the girl looked a little bit like the elder sister, that is, my eldest daughter was somewhat similar. We thought it would be our Sanya. Come here."

"In this case, you are not really sure whether Xitong is your daughter. Why did you bite her as soon as you came up?" Shen Qian frowned, apparently not expecting the couple to recognize such a sloppy thing.

"It was originally uncertain, and we just wanted to take a look at it, but as soon as I saw her, I was sure that she was born in October, and I might not recognize my daughter." Tian Cuifang's face was sincere, and she looked deep into Shen Xitong's eyes.

Shen Xitong didn't think the eyes were warm, but her body was cold. Her hand was pulling Chu Yunrong's arm, and there was panic in her eyes. She was afraid that the Shen family would let the couple take her away.

Looking at Shen Xitong's pitiful appearance, Chu Yunrong felt distressed and said to the couple, "Xitong is now an adult. Whether you are her biological parents or not, she has the right to choose her own life."

In her words, the couple didn't understand very well. They were all people with no culture. Not to mention high school, they didn't even go to junior high school.

"This wife, what do you mean?" Tian Cuifang glanced at Li Da head and asked Chu Yunrong.

"Since you believe that Xitong is your daughter, you should not mind going to the hospital for a paternity test? If the result comes out, Xitong is really your daughter, you can ask if she would like to go back with you, if He is not willing, and you can't force her, how about this?" said Mr. Shen.

Li Datou and his wife had long known that they would be allowed to do a paternity test, but they were not afraid at all. The person who asked them said that Shen Xitong was their daughter. Even after a hundred tests, the results were the same. , What are they afraid of.

"Okay, what do we need to do?" Li Dato agreed with his mouth full, fearing that they would suddenly repent and stop them from recognizing their daughter.

"No, I don't want to do a paternity test, and I don't want to go back with them either. They are not my father and mother, they are not." Shen Xitong screamed, holding Chu Yunrong's arm and wept, "Mom, I am not them Daughter, I'm your child, don't want me."

Talking, she really cried out. She never expected this kind of situation. Since she came to the Shen family, she never thought of going to find her biological parents, whether they were alive or dead, she When they are already dead.

Chu Yunrong looked at her, but also very distressed, hugged her, "Mom will not want you, you are the mother's daughter, all this life."

"Mother." Shen Xitong cried more and more loudly.

"Shen Xitong." Master Shen shouted sharply, and Shen Xitong's cry stopped abruptly.

Just looking at Grandpa Shen's eyes full of grievances, his voice choked, "Grandpa, they are not my parents. I don't want to do a paternity test, nor do I leave you, I don't."

Grandpa Shen sullen his face, not tolerate his beak, "This is all settled. You will go to the hospital with them for a paternity test tomorrow, and wait until the result comes out."

The thing Mr. Shen decided was that Shen Qian had to listen, not to mention Shen Xitong.

"Shen Qian, you help them book a hotel and take them to the hospital in person tomorrow."

"What's going on at home, why is it so lively?" Shen Junyu came in from the outside and saw everyone gathered in the living room. Two strangers appeared in the house, especially Shen Xitong, who was crying with red eyes. Could not help asking.

"You just happened to book a hotel for these two and arrange for them to stay in." No one answered him, and Shen Qian said directly.

Shen Junyu agreed to take a look at Li Datou and his wife. The family tutor of Shen family was very good, and they never looked down on people for no reason. Even though the dress of Li Datou and his wife was shabby, Shen Junyu's eyes didn't have any discoloration, not even frowns. a bit.

Shen Qinglan looked at this scene in front of her eyes, her eyes were full of interest, but she was very good at covering up, but no one could see it except Fu Hengyi.

Fu Hengyi said with Shen Qinglan, "Grandpa, I will go back to the army tomorrow. I will go back today and come to see you again someday."

Mr. Shen nodded and did not say anything to save. The two lived in a compound and there was nothing to stay.

"Did you find the couple?" Fu Hengyi asked Shen Qinglan in a low voice, with a gentle voice and no meaning to ask.

Shen Qinglan glanced at him and said lightly, "You think too much."

Fu Hengyi smiled and didn't ask. If you think it's not, then it isn't.

Shen Qinglan glanced under the glare, Shen Xitong, this is my first gift to you, I hope you like it.

Shen Junyu booked a five-star bed room for the Lis and his wife, but the interior decoration still blinded the couple.

After Shen Junyu left, Tian Cuifang looked at the room and even went to the bathroom to look at it. "The boy and his dad, come here quickly. This bathroom is bigger than the house we used to live in, and there is a big mirror. There is also a large bathtub that can lie in and take a shower."

Tian Cuifang was very excited. While looking at it, she reached out and touched the toiletries on the sink, even picked up the bathrobe hanging on the side and made a gesture on his body.

She has never lived in such a good place.

"That person didn't lie to us, this family is very rich." Li Datou is smoking. He has a heavy cigarette addiction. He didn't dare to smoke when he was at the Shen family. Now that he has left the Shen family, he can't help but just. The cigarette he smoked was not good, and the taste was choking.

Tian Cuifang has long been used to it and doesn't feel anything at all. He came out of the bathroom and still couldn't hide the smile on his face. "That's right, look at the house they live in. It's so big, it's bigger than that of our village chief. The house is big, and the things inside are beautiful, and our daughter is so beautiful now."

The excitement in her face suddenly frowned, "It's just that the child doesn't seem to want to recognize us, can we succeed?"

Big head Li spit out a smoke ring, heard the words, and raised her brows, "She dare not admit, we will do that paternity test with her tomorrow, when she thinks that Lai will not fail, even if we threw her back then Well, we are her parents. If she dare not recognize us, I will sue her and put her in jail."

Tian Cuifang didn't feel relieved when he heard the words, "I don't think that family is annoying. Look at the place where they live. There are soldiers guarding the door. I think those people still have guns in their hands. If they don't Let us recognize that we have no way."

"It shouldn't be. The man didn't say that. Sanya is our daughter. This family is not an unreasonable person. It won't embarrass us. And you see that they didn't book such a good hotel for us today."

When Tian Cuifang heard her husband say this, it made sense to think about it and nodded in agreement. "The child is his father, or you are smart. This time, if we recognize the daughter, the son will have the money to marry the wife, and we will also give the son. Find a beautiful daughter-in-law, maybe we can live in a big house like them, and there are servants to serve."

Li Datou also smiled, but his face was all wrinkled, probably because he worked all the year round, and his back was a little bent, "We won't go back at that time, let Sanya buy us a house here, and take his son. Also take over, we will also be a Beijing people."

Tian Cuifang couldn't help laughing, "Then we will take Da Ya and Er Ya together and live together."

"Why did you take over those two money-losing goods and put money on it?" Li Datou suddenly lost his temper.

Tian Cuifang didn't dare to say, "Well, kid, dad, I'm going to take a bath first."

The couple here thought very well, and Shen Xitong almost burst into tears.

She was lying on the bed, crying very sad, Chu Yunrong sat to comfort her, "Tongtong, don't cry, cry again, do you still want your eyes?"

Shen Xitong heard the words and cried more sadly, "Mom, did you say that Grandpa didn't want me anymore, so I asked them to do personal identification with them?"

"No, your grandfather won't want you, just do an appraisal. If the results come out, they are not, we are justified?" Chu Yunrong comforted her.

"So what if they do it? Mom, did you let me go with them?"

"Stupid boy, although you are not my own, but I raised it myself, how can I be willing to let you follow them."

Shen Xitong hugged Chu Yunrong's waist and buried her head in her arms, "Mom, I haven't had a mom since I was sensible. I grew up in an orphanage. They used to want me, but now they want to recognize me. Me, why should I recognize them?"

Shen Xitong's words were full of resentment against Li Datou's couple, and he heard Chu Yunrong's heart tremble.

Chu Yunrong couldn't take the word, she was not a good mother, she lost her daughter for ten years, and even if she found it back, Shen Qinglan was not close to her. Was she in Shen Qinglan's heart? Resentful of their own.

She had heard her husband say that Shen Qinglan had been adopted by a couple, but then the couple had Shen Qinglan left in front of the welfare home with their own children. Shen Qinglan grew up in the welfare home.

And Shen Xitong, although discarded by her biological parents, has been at least carefree since she was adopted by the Shen family, and she has never mistreated her.

Thinking this way, Chu Yunrong's guilt in Shen Qinglan's heart grew deeper, and even the thought of comforting Shen Xitong was a bit light.

"Okay, let's stop talking about this matter, and wait until the appraisal results come out." Patting Shen Xitong's shoulder, Chu Yunrong spoke.

Shen Xitong was shocked in his heart, thinking that if he did not want to recognize his biological parents, Chu Yunrong was disgusted, and raised his head, his eyes panicked. Come to me, I can't accept it for a while."

Chu Yunrong smiled, "Mom knows that you were raised by me, can you still understand you? You are a kind-hearted child, and mom knows. Don't think about it, take a good night's sleep, and wait for sleep. Wake up and it's fine."

After Chu Yunrong left, Shen Xitong pulled out a tissue to wipe the tears on his face. There was still a little sadness on his face. Some were just cold. Thinking of Li Datou's couple, Shen Xitong's eyes flashed with disgust.

In fact, even without an appraisal, Shen Xitong knew that Li Datou and his wife were her biological parents. If they were not recognized at first, then when they took out the photo, she remembered it all.

Although the memory at that time was only five years old, Shen Xitong still remembers the environment she used to live in. A broken hut, a lazy dad with a bad temper, like smoking, drinking, gambling, if drunk or if you lose your gamble, you will beat them; your mother, who will only suffocate her voice, will never dare to resist. When she sees a man beating her child, she will not dare to dissuade her. He knew that he could not support him, and he desperately gave birth to a son.

Because I couldn't feed my three children, and because I was pregnant with a ball that might be a son, I threw her at the door of the orphanage. I didn't even leave her with a thicker coat. If someone found her in time, I'm afraid she was already dead when she was five years old.

She finally had a life now, with her father and mother who loved her, and had a good future, and if the couple had anything, if they were entangled in them, her life would be all over.

Originally because of Shen Qinglan, Grandpa Shen didn't like her very much. If I recognized the couple now, wouldn't there be a justifiable reason for her to leave Shen's house?

This is the result she absolutely does not want to see. She will never let them ruin her life.

Her eyes are very dark and she can't see her emotions clearly.

When Shen Junyu came back, he met Shen Qian at the door. It seemed that he was waiting for him here specifically, "Dad?"

"Set them up?"

Shen Junyu nodded, "Already arranged, Dad, who are they?"

Shen Qian told him this time, "Speaking of Xi Tong's biological parents, suddenly came to the door today, to recognize Xi Tong, and take Xi Tong away."

Shen Junyu sighed, "That's someone's daughter, and others want to recognize it, but dad, what are you worried about?"

Shen Qian frowned, "I was just thinking, this couple hasn't looked for more than ten years, how can they suddenly find their daughter back now, and found our house so accurately."

"It wasn't just that Heaven was going to do the appraisal, are you still unsure, what are you doubting now?" Shen Junyu's eyes were cool.

"I just think everything is too coincidental."

"What happened by coincidence, you didn't say it just now, they found their daughter for many years, and they found it now. How can it be considered abrupt, they can only say that their luck is good, and they can find it, just like that time, our family spent so much It took manpower to find Lan Lan." Shen Junyu's tone was full of light sarcasm, and even his eyes would sneer.

This father is good at everything, but he is too suspicious and regards the Shen family as too important. It was like this to Lan Lan back then, and it is like this now.

It's just that this time it was Shen Xitong, which didn't feel much to Shen Junyu.

"Jun Yu is right, Shen Qian, you think too much." Old Master Shen's voice sounded from behind, and Shen Qian and Shen Junyu looked at it.

"dad."

"grandfather."

"Dad, I really think there is too much coincidence in this matter." Could someone deliberately target the Shen family?

Grandpa Shen sullen his face, "Whether this matter is coincidence or artificial, now all we have to do is wait. If you don't worry, take them for a paternity test tomorrow. If the test results come out, They are really Tong's biological parents, so if someone wants to recognize their daughter, we have no right to stop it. Do you understand this?"

Shen Qian nodded. In fact, he never thought of stopping it. He just thought it was too coincidental. Maybe he really thought about it.

Shen Qian looked at his son's disapproving expression and sighed slightly in his heart.

The next day, Shen Xitong was called up early in the morning. She reluctantly followed Shen Junyu and Shen Qian out. Chu Yunrong did not follow, but stayed at home.

Shen Junyu was separated from Shen Qian as soon as he went out. He went to pick up the Li and his wife. When he got to the hospital, some people were already waiting at the door and said hello to the coming person. Shen Qian didn't get off.

"Get off the train, I have arranged it in the hospital." Shen Qian said to Shen Xitong in the back seat.

Shen Xitong's reluctant face, "Dad."

Shen Qian smiled gently, "Just be an appraisal, it's okay, don't worry."

Seeing that he didn't have any intention to change his mind, Shen Xitong got out of the car helplessly. When he got out of the car, he saw the Li family and his wife. They were still the same as they saw yesterday. Both of them saw smiles on their faces, but it was only in Shen Xitong His eyes are ugly.

Without greeting them, Shen Xitong turned away.

"Let's go." A doctor-like person said, Li and his wife followed, and Shen Junyu followed his hands with his hands in the back.

After the blood was drawn, Shen Xitong left without even telling Shen Junyu, and Shen Junyu didn't care.

The husband and wife of the Li family followed Shen Junyu. When they were outside, Shen Qian's car was gone. Shen Junyu opened the back seat door. "Get in the car, I'll take you back. It will take a few days for the results of the appraisal."

The Lis and their husbands got on the train obediently, and when they arrived at the door of the hotel, they did not see them getting off the train. Shen Junyu looked from the rearview mirror and saw Tian Cuifang's expression. She thought they were worried about the hotel room rate.

"I have paid the money for the hotel room for a week, so you can live in peace."

Tian Cuifang nodded again and again, with a grateful expression, "Thank you, thank you. Just..." She was embarrassed.

"What else?" Shen Junyu asked.

Tian Cuifang hesitated, "That's that, we spent all our money to find Sanya..."

Shen Junyu knew in seconds that he didn't say anything. He took out a few notes from his wallet and handed them, "The money should be enough for two of you to live for a few days."

Tian Cuifang took it very gratefully and thanked him, and then got off with Li Datou.

After Shen Junyu's car left, Li Datou asked Tian Cuifang, "How much did he give?" The tone was slightly urgent.

Tian Cuifang counted, "One thousand."

Big head Li pouted, and cut out, "The more wealthy people are, the more they get involved, and only one thousand dollars is given. This is to send out a flower." He said, but he grabbed the money in Tian Cuifang's hand and stuffed it. Into the inner pocket of the jacket.

"Go around, hurry in, and die."

"But we haven't eaten yet, don't buy some food?" Tian Cuifang shouted from behind, Li Datou ignored her and went straight up.

Tian Cuifang had no money in his hand. Even if he was hungry at the moment, he could only go up. Fortunately, there was still a little dry food in the bag.

Fu Hengyi woke up early in the morning, but did not get up early as usual, but held his head in his hands and looked at Shen Qinglan.

In his sleep, Shen Qinglan felt that someone was looking at himself and opened his eyes, but it was Fu Hengyi's soft eyes.

"Early." Shen Qinglan opened his mouth, and a small smile was raised in the corner of his mouth.

Fu Hengyi lowered her head and kissed her lips with a gentle smile, "Early."

"Are you going to get up?"

Fu Hengyi shook his head, seemingly unintentionally, "How do you say I applied to transfer to the Beijing Military Region?"

The smile on Shen Qinglan's mouth disappeared, and he looked at him. He didn't seem to be joking. He also took a serious expression and sat up, but he was surrounded by Fu Hengyi. Shen Qinglan also went to him, "Why suddenly? Want to transfer to the Beijing Military Region?"

"Now I'm getting older, and my physical strength is not as good as before. I'm still staying there. It's not typical of the pit that doesn't shit."

He said it was vulgar, but Shen Qinglan did not believe the reason he said. Thinking of his return from the year before and this New Year, Grandpa Fu talked to him alone and asked, "Is someone talking to you?" what?"

Fu Hengyi had to sigh in her heart a keen sense, "No, you think too much, it is purely my personal thought."

Shen Qinglan sat up from his arms, faced him, and spoke earnestly, "Fu Hengyi, you are a soldier, I know you also love the troops, and the brothers fighting alongside you, you are born to the troops, you Just do what you want, and I will support you silently behind my back."

Fu Hengyi chuckled, watching Shen Qinglan's eyes softer, "Where did you think of going, I didn't plan to retire, I just wanted to be transferred back to the Beijing Military Region, so that I was closer to home, and there was something wrong in the family, I can also take care of on."

"Fu Hengyi, there is me at home. You don't need to worry. As for me, I don't need to worry anymore. I'm not as vulnerable as you think. You don't need to make such sacrifices for me. I know you have what you need on your shoulders. Responsibility, I have seen your brothers, I can see that they have a deep feeling for you, they will not be willing to leave you, and you will not be willing to leave them."

"But I can't bear you."

Shen Qinglan smiled slightly, his eyes warm, "Fu Hengyi, you remember, I am your wife, no matter what you do, I will support you, even for you, I will take care of myself, not let you worry, I have only one request for you."

Fu Hengyi looked at her, and Shen Qinglan said one by one, "Don't let yourself get hurt, I will feel distressed and sad."

Fu Hengyi only felt a heat flow through his heart, which burned his heart.

He held Shen Qinglan in his arms, such as holding rare treasures, Shen Qinglan, how many good deeds did I have to do in my life before we can marry you?

Shen Qinglan hugged him back, buried his head in his arms, took a deep breath, smelled the familiar and nostalgic taste of the tip of the nose, and the tip of the nose seemed to be a little sour. He has been with himself for nearly half a month Even Shen Qinglan was used to it, and now he suddenly had to leave, and his heart was full of reluctance.

But the man she fancy is an eagle, an eagle soaring in the sky, should not be trapped in this small world.

I don't know who started it, and finally the two of them slept again until noon.

Grandpa Fu saw the two of them coming down from the upstairs. Instead of being upset, they laughed and became a chrysanthemum and glanced at the grandson with appreciation. Okay, he had a good grandson. Haha, good.

"That, Xiao Zhao, Qinglan girl has already gotten up. She hasn't eaten breakfast. You must be hungry. You give her a bowl of soup and pad her stomach." Mr. Fu said to Aunt Zhao.

"Okay." Aunt Zhao responded with a smile.

Fu Jingting glanced at the young couple ambiguously, but did not tease them.

It was not the first time that the elders made fun of him. Fu Hengyi had a calm face, but Shen Qinglan was still a little embarrassed.

Especially the eyes that teased Fu Jingting, the ears were red.

Old Master Fu glared fiercely at his daughter. If you scared away my grand-daughter-in-law, I would never end with you.

Fu Jingting received the old man's eyes and shrugged helplessly. They all married their wives and forgot their mothers. You're fine. With the granddaughter-in-law, you don't even need your daughter.

"Grandpa, aunt, I'm sorry, I overslept." Shen Qinglan apologized. The elders got up so early, but they only got up at noon. It doesn't seem like a good wife would do it.

"It's not too late, young people sleep a little more to make up for their bodies." Mr. Fu waved his hands, smiling with his teeth out of sight. It would be better to get up later. Even if he slept for three days and three nights, Mr. Fu would not say a word.

"At noon, I let Xiao Zhao stew your soup. Both of you will drink a little. Well, young people, the body is capital." Master Fu said happily.

Aunt Zhao, who had just heard this, heard the words and immediately said, "Hole, I will stew it now, and I can drink it in two hours. It's just Hengyi returning to the army in the afternoon and drinking and leaving." Then, he put his hand on the table and hurried into the kitchen.

There was a thin flush on Shen Qinglan's face, which was really pretty.

Fu Jingting could see smiles in his eyes, but he no longer teased.

There was a little time before lunch. Father Fu saw that Fu Hengyi had finished his breakfast in two or three. He greeted Fu Hengyi and went to the study room. Shen Qinglan glanced at the back of the two of them. His eyes flicked lightly, he took back his gaze and continued to drink porridge.

In the study, Mr. Fu looked at the grandson in front of him, and there was no smile on his face, just looked at Fu Hengyi.

"How did you think about the thing I said years ago?"

Fu Hengyi knew what he was talking about, and did not pretend to be stupid. He said slowly, "Grandpa, I still want to stay in the army." Afraid of misunderstanding by the old man, he added, "The current army."

Master Fu heard this, and there was no slight disappointment on his face. It seemed to have long known that Sun Tzu would say this, "Have you discussed this matter with Qinglan?"

Fu Hengyi's eyes shone warmly and her cold expression softened. "Well, I told her that she said she supported my decision."

"Does she know the danger of your job? In case..." Mr. Fu couldn't say anything. This was his only grandson and his son's only blood in the world. Even if it was just a hypothesis, he wouldn't Dare to think.

"Grandpa, Qinglan is stronger than we thought and knows more than we think." Fu Hengyi spoke softly.

Grandpa Fu sighed slightly and sighed softly, "Heng Yi, you married a good wife, you must treat Qinglan well, if you dare to live up to her, don't say it is Grandpa Shen, even me, and I won't let you go. "

Fu Hengyi looked at Master Fu with a serious and determined look, "Grandpa, there won't be that time. Moreover, I promised her that I would never hurt myself. I know my responsibilities, so grandpa, don't worry about me ."

Master Fu said nothing, took a deep glance at his grandson, and patted him on the shoulder.

Digression

Ah Li's wrist pain has been so bad these days. I can't code too many words. There is no way to add more at the moment. When my hand is ready, I will come to add more.

Chapter 184 Leaving here

Outside the door, Shen Qinglan, who came to tell the two to go down to dinner, stood outside the study room, listening to the conversation between the grandfather and grandson, and went downstairs quietly.

"How about your grandpa and Hengyi?" Fu Jingting asked strangely without seeing anyone coming.

"I think they seem to be talking about things, so I didn't go in." Shen Qinglan explained.

Fu Jingting no longer asked, but changed the topic, "Qinglan, are you about to start school?"

Shen Qinglan nodded, "Well, the school starts on the 17th of January." The notice she received was like this.

"I heard that your seniors don't have any classes now. Are you planning to open a gallery or a studio after graduation?" Fu Jingting asked. According to her idea, Shen Qinglan's paintings are now when they are popular. It's also a matter of minutes. She also knows a few people in this regard. If Shen Qinglan wants to open a gallery, she can help a little.

"Daniel has a gallery of his own, and he is my agent again. I feel relieved to hand over the matter to him," Shen Qinglan paused, and continued, "And there was a tea house before the market. The energy should be put on the tea house."

Upon hearing this, Fu Jingting was interested, "Oh? You also opened a tea house? Where?"

Shen Qinglan reported the address. Although Fu Jingting was not in the country all the year round, he still knew about this place. "I didn't expect you to be able to sell the store there. It was very good. Take your aunt to see it someday?"

"What's so difficult, my aunt wants to go and say it at any time, my teahouse will officially start business on the 16th of January, will the aunt come with me?"

"Okay." Fu Jingting agreed readily.

Old Master Fu and Fu Hengyi did not stay in the study room for long, and soon came down.

Not long after lunch, Fu Hengyi went upstairs and changed his military uniform. Shen Qinglan looked at him firmly, knowing that he was leaving, stood up, and went out to give him away.

Outside the door, there was already a military jeep parked there. Fu Hengyi did not hurry to get in the car, but arranged a scarf for Shen Qinglan, "Go ahead, it's cold outside."

"You get in the car first, and I'll go in when you leave."

Fu Hengyi laughed, "Reluctant to me?"

Shen Qinglan nodded simply and gave him a "yes."

Fu Hengyi froze and gave her a hug, "Relax, I will be back by the end of next month."

Shen Qinglan thought slightly, that is, more than a month and a half, nodded, urging Fu Hengyi to get on the bus.

Fu Hengyi was no longer hypocritical, and she got in the car until the car could no longer be seen. Shen Qinglan went in. Both thought that it would take at least a month to see each other again, but they didn't expect that they would meet so soon, or in that situation.

Later, Shen Qinglan kept thinking that if things didn't go that day, it wouldn't be like that, but no matter how many times he thought, the answer would be the same. Even if she was given another chance, she would still make the same choice.

"Heng Yi is gone?" Master Fu asked.

Shen Qinglan nodded, "Grandpa, do you want to play chess with you this afternoon?"

Old Master Fu waved his hand, "This New Year's Eve, you can go find a friend to play with, if you want to have dinner with friends at night. I am an old man, it is enough to have Jing Ting with me."

Fu Jingting also echoed, "Yes, Qinglan, go find friends and get together, don't be bored at home all day."

They all knew that the young couple had good feelings, and Fu Hengyi had just returned to the army. Shen Qinglan would inevitably be upset and in a bad mood. If he went out to find friends to play with, he might be better off.

Shen Qinglan was a little speechless. In fact, she really didn't feel so sentimental. Fu Hengyi left home, she was reluctant, but her adaptability has always been strong, and now she has adjusted it, but she is also unwilling to brush the goodwill of the two elders. Still carrying the bag out.

Instead of calling Yu Xiaoxuan and Fang Tong, she went to Jiangxin Yayuan, rolled up her sleeves and started cleaning. The house is not big, but the cleaning inside and out still took her a lot of time, and it was already evening when she finished cleaning.

When she went back to the compound, she got off the train halfway and bought some food. When passing by the door of the compound, she handed it to the guard at the door. The one on duty was still the one scolded by Shen Xitong that day.

"It was really embarrassing that day. The people in our family are unavoidably a bit unpleasant. I hope you don't worry about it. When I passed by, I saw that the things in this shop were good. I brought you a little." Shen Qinglan said, his voice is still cold, but the words he exports are full of warmth."

The guard was so touched that he waved his hand repeatedly, "This is my job, I should do it. The things that day had nothing to do with Miss Shen, I have forgotten it. We will not need this thing, outside It's so cold, you go back early."

"It was originally bought for you, take it, rest assured, your leaders will not say you." Shen Qinglan said.

The guards are all soldiers, and their thoughts are simple. Shen Qinglan insists on giving them, and they will not be so hypocritical. They took things and looked at the back of Shen Qinglan leaving, and once again sighed, this young lady of the Shen family is talented. The appearance is low-key, this is the real Shen family.

In the evening, the door of a five-star hotel was knocked, and Li looked at Tian Cuifang. Tian Cuifang yelled outside, "Who?"

The person outside the door did not answer, but knocked hard on the door again.

Li Datou and Tian Cuifang looked at each other. Li Datou stood up and walked to the door. Instead of opening the door immediately, he asked, "Who is outside?"

"Shen Xitong." The person outside the door blew a name violently, and Li Dao opened the door. When he saw the figure outside the door, his face smiled and blossomed.

"Sanya, you're here, hurry in, hurry in." Tian Cuifang greeted enthusiastically.

Shen Xitong frowned and walked in, looking very impatient, "I am not Sanya, I am Shen Xitong."

"Xing Xing Xing, then we call you Xitong." Tian Cuifang is good at being good, but it is just a name. Whatever you call it, we don't mind.

There was only one big bed and two chairs in the room. There were a lot of things on the chair. There was no place for people to sit. Tian Cuifang moved the quilt to the side and let Shen Xitong sit down.

Let Shen Xitong look at the messy bed, with a touch of disgust under her eyes, where would she sit down, "No, I will go away in a few words." She opened the door to see the truth.

Tian Cuifang and Li Datou also stood, under Shen Xitong's domineering eyes, a little cramped.

"I don't know where you heard that I was your daughter, and I came to the door. Although I went with you for an identification, it does not mean that I will admit that you are my biological parents. My parents only have One, that is Shen Qian and Chu Yunrong, all of this life."

"Sanya, we..." Tian Cuifang wanted to explain that Shen Xitong was their daughter and could not be wrong, but Shen Xitong directly interrupted her.

"I know your purpose is not just wanting money, I can give you money, only one condition, leave the capital, do not appear in front of me in this life."

"How much is it?" Li Da head asked subconsciously, and the old face was embarrassed after asking.

Shen Xitong's eyes showed a disdain, she knew it would be like this, took a pile of cash from the bag and threw it on the bed, at least one hundred thousand by eye.

Big head Li's eyes brightened. He had never seen so much money. Now the money is still for him. To tell the truth, his heart moved.

"Three...Xi Tong, we didn't come to you for your money." Tian Cuifang said suddenly, pulling back Li Datou's reason.

He glanced at his wife with admiration. It seemed that this lady was not so useless. If he had just promised, the loss would be great. Shen Xitong was a god of wealth, and there was a leak in her finger. Enough for their family to live well.

With such a thought, Li's head looked much lighter at 100,000 yuan. If he recognized this daughter, he wouldn't say 100,000, even one million wouldn't be his word.

Tian Cuifang also said there, "Xi Tong, we have been looking for you for so many years, and we just want to make up for the mistakes of our parents. It is really not for your money."

Li Datou nodded in agreement, "Your mother has always regretted that she left you at the door of the orphanage. As soon as she thought of you, she cried a lot and didn't sleep all night and all night."

Tian Cuifang cooperated with tears and a regretful look on his face. He thought that this should make Shen Xitong soft, but Shen Xitong's heart did not fluctuate at all, and even his eyes had not changed. The eyes of the couple were very cold.

Perhaps they all thought they were young at that time, and they didn't remember it long ago, but it is a pity that they not only remembered, but also remembered very clearly, and they were even disgusted with their hypocritical performances at a glance.

"If you leave with the money now, then the money is still yours. If you wait until the result of the appraisal, no matter whether I am your daughter or not, you won't get a penny." Shen Xitong said coldly, his eyes watching The wall in front of him did not fall on Li Datou and his wife at all.

Tian Cuifang was crying even more sadly. She looked at Shen Xitong's eyes as if she were looking at a wayward daughter who didn't understand her parents' pains, but she didn't say a word, so she looked at her with tearful eyes.

Although Li Datou didn't speak, his eyes were filled with anger that he didn't understand. "We won't leave. We will wait until the result of the appraisal comes out. You take it back. We don't want your money."

Shen Xitong's mouth twitched lightly, mockingly, "You said that, and you don't want to get a penny in the future." He said that he really put the money thrown on the bed into his bag.

Big head Li looked at the fat on his mouth and flew away in this way, trying to block it, but desperately comforted himself in his heart. These will come back, and he will be back in the future. Now he can't hurry.

Shen Xitong walked on high heels, Tian Cuifang wiped her tears and looked at her husband, "What now?"

Seeing that there was so much money, Li Dao's heart was still hurting. He heard the words and said in a nasty voice, "You ask me, I know, it's you useless girl, nothing, even No one can make a movie."

Tian Cuifang was trained by her husband and did not dare to talk back, but wiped a tear in silence.

Upon seeing it, Li said hardly, "I have been crying all day long, and I've lost your luck because of your luck."

Tian Cuifang didn't dare to cry, and wiped her tears quickly, fearing that Li Datou would hit her with a discomfort. During this time, because he had to go to Beijing to find his daughter, he no longer beat her.

When Shen Xitong walked out of the hotel, the look in his eyes became more and more cold. He originally thought that the couple had never seen the world. One hundred thousand dollars was enough to get it. I didn't expect them to even want it. Want more?

She never thought that they really wanted to make up for her, if that was the case, then they would not be them.

Looking back at the hotel behind him, Shen Xitong's eyes grew colder, took out his mobile phone, and dialed a number to go out.

Three days passed by, and in the early morning, Shen Qian received a call from a friend in the hospital, saying that the result of the identification came out, and listening to the final result, Shen Qian kept silent for a long time, and then whispered "Thank you "Hang up the phone.

"Jun Yu, go to work today?" Shen Qianyu asked gently when she saw Shen Junyu downstairs.

Shen Junyu shook his head, he rested this weekend.

"Exactly, the identification result came out today. Will you help me get it?"

"Yes." Shen Junyu stood up, took the car key and went out. On the way back, he picked up the Li and his wife.

Shen Xitong knew that the results would come out today. She hadn't been out for the past three days, and she didn't go to the couple of the Li family. She just stayed at home, playing the piano occasionally, or learning floral art with Chu Yunrong. The appearance of her daughter doesn't seem to care about the results of the appraisal.

Watching Shen Junyu go out, she knew that the result should have already come, and her eyes narrowed, and she went to the living room, "Dad."

Holding a newspaper in his hand, Shen Qian saw Shen Xitong, smiled gently, and pointed to the position beside him, "Xidong, don't stand."

Shen Xitong sat down next to Shen Qian. Although he didn't say anything, he looked at Shen Qian from time to time. When he saw his calm expression, he couldn't see the slightest emotion, and his heart was a little uneasy.

"Tong Tong, help my mother get a pair of scissors." Chu Yunrong shouted outside the door, and Shen Xitong responded, "Okay, come immediately." He glanced at Shen Qian again, "Then, I'll go find my mother first. "

Shen Qian nodded with a smile, "Go, your mother is probably tossing those flowers again."

Shen Xitong glanced at Shen Qian's calm face again before leaving, pursed her lips, and went out.

When the Li family and his wife entered the Shen family for the second time, they were still stunned by the luxury of the scenery in front of them. Compared to the first time they were scared, they were much more courageous this time. Looking at this house, the more you look at it, the more greed is in your eyes.

This house was renovated by Shen Junyu in the past two years. Many furniture were specially made from abroad, and the price is naturally high.

Although the Li family and husband did not recognize these furniture brands, they could see the wealth of the family.

"That, Mr. Shen, has the appraisal result already come out?" Li Dadu rubbed his head and asked cautiously.

Shen Qian smiled softly, "No hurry, wait for someone to come."

Shen Xitong looked sideways, and the people were all here, who? Grandpa, Mom, and Big Brother are all here, not all.

At this moment, Shen Qinglan walked in. Shen Xitong's eyes narrowed, and he gave Shen Qinglan a hard look. Is this a joke? It's just a pity that I want to watch her jokes today, I'm afraid it's a bit more difficult.

Shen Qinglan did come to see the show. This is what she directed. If you don't watch it, wouldn't she waste so much time and energy?

Sit down next to Grandpa Shen and ask about the physical condition of Grandpa Shen as usual. Grandpa Shen smiled and patted her hand. "Grandpa is in good health, don't worry."

Shen Qinglan smiled slightly and stopped talking.

"Since everyone is here, I will announce the appraisal result here." Shen Qian picked up the appraisal report that Shen Junyu brought back from the hospital. Shen Xitong looked at the report, an unexplained light flashed in his eyes, and the corner of his mouth was lightly tickled. , A calm face.

"After identification, Xi Tong does indeed have a parent-child relationship with you. In other words, she is indeed your daughter." Shen Qian said calmly.

Shen Xitong's originally calm expression suddenly cracked, and she looked at Shen Qian in disbelief, to be precise, looking at the report in his hand, as if to stare it out of a hole.

On the faces of the Li family and his wife, there was ecstasy and excitement, especially Tian Cuifang, looking at Shen Xitong, weeping with excitement, and still talking in his mouth, "I know, I know you are, I know I will not admit it wrong."

"No, it's impossible. This report is fake, it must be fake." Shen Xitong screamed gaffely, and the identification sample was replaced by her long ago. How could the result of the identification be true. His face changed, pointing to Shen Qinglan, "It's you, it's you, right, you want to drive me out of the Shen family, so I faked this report."

As soon as this remark came out, everyone except Li and his wife changed their faces. Even Chu Yunrong's gaze at Shen Xitong was full of reproach.

Shen Qinglan's expression was still cold, seeing no anger or anger, he didn't even say a word, just glanced at her lightly. She really did the sample change, but she just replaced the real sample.

Shen Xitong saw Shen Qinglan's contempt for himself from this point of view, and reacted instantly. What stupid thing did he do just now in a hurry.

"Grandpa, Dad, Mom, I don't mean that, I just..." Shen Xitong wanted to explain, but looking at the expressionless faces of Shen's family, he felt helpless.

"Well, there is no doubt about the authenticity of this report. It is true. Since your biological parents have found you, and they also want you to go back, you can think about it carefully." Mr. Shen said with a straight face.

Shen Xitong's eyes widened, "Grandpa, are you going to drive me out of the Shen family?" As he said, the tears fell down.

Chu Yunrong looked at Shen Xitong's sadness and tears. She knew Microsoft, she knew that this child was very attached to this family, but she had always lacked a sense of security and was more sensitive.

Want to speak, but on Shen Qinglan's cold face, remembering the accusation that Shen Xitong had just blamed on her, and could not say anything, she had to keep silent, lower her head, and not look at Shen Xitong.

Shen Xitong originally thought that Chu Yunrong would persuade her at least, but he didn't see her movements for a long time, and his heart became colder.

"Grandpa, I don't want to leave this house. You and my parents raised me and gave me a good living environment and education. I haven't had time to repay you. I don't want to leave you." The reason returned, Shen Xitong was crying sadly.

"Xidong, your grandfather didn't let you leave Shen's house." Shen Qian said, "They are your biological parents after all. Now they have found you. Are you willing to go back with them or stay in Shen's house? It depends on yourself Means, we will respect your choice."

Shen Xitong heard the words and let out a sigh of relief, but he cried more and more, and looked at Shen Qian with tears, "Dad, I want to stay here, I want to accompany you and my mother, you don't want to drive me away ,good or not?"

"Sanya, we are your relatives and mothers. It took so long to find you. How can you not go back with us?" Tian Cuifang was anxious. If Shen Xitong would not follow them, where would their good days come from.

"You didn't want me back then, and now you come to see me again to do something? Is it because I'm living a better life, do you want money?" Shen Xitong looked at the Li's husband and wife with resentment and resentment.

Tian Cuifang also cried, "In those days, there was really no way. If you were not sent to an orphanage, you would starve to death. You were born to me, and I'm willing. Later, when the family conditions are better, We have been to you, but you are no longer there. For so many years, I haven't slept well all day, and I think of you every day. Your father always complains that my motherhood is too cruel."

Li Datou cooperated to make a sad expression.

Shen Qinglan looked coldly, without saying a word, heh, it's a pity that the couple didn't go on to be an actor. Shen Junyu also looked at it with relish, telling the truth, he didn't have any feelings about Shen Xitong, she couldn't walk away, she was also with herself It doesn't matter, but it's good to be able to watch the drama.

After looking at Shen Qinglan, there was a touch of softness in his eyes, and this was the sister he wanted to love and protect.

"Okay, don't cry anymore." Mr. Shen said, and the living room became quiet in an instant. "This matter is already clear. Xitong. Since you chose to stay at the Shen's house, we won't say much, but they It's your biological parents. Even if you abandoned you, you were born. Now that you've found it, you have time to move with them."

Shen Xitong's face was not reluctant, but he still answered well. The Li and his wife were very happy when they heard the words. They looked at Mr. Shen's eyes full of gratitude.

"Lan Lan, Grandpa is tired, help Grandpa go to rest." Grandpa Shen said.

Shen Qinglan stood up and helped the old man upstairs.

Shen Junyu was instructed to take the Li family and his wife back to the hotel. Chu Yunrong also found an excuse to go upstairs to rest. The husband had already said that this matter was not allowed to be managed by her, and she avoided it.

"Dad." Only Shen Xitong and Shen Qian were left in the living room. Shen Xitong was a little uneasy and whispered.

Shen Qian smiled gently, "What's wrong?" The smile on his face was no different from his usual one, and Shen Xitong couldn't see what he was thinking, but she always felt that Shen Qian should know what .

Shen Xitong wanted to laugh, but she couldn't laugh, and twitched her lips, "It's nothing, Dad. If it's okay, I'll go up first. Mom just said it was uncomfortable. I went up to see her."

Shen Qian nodded with a smile, "Go, if your mother is really uncomfortable, remember to ask the doctor to come and see."

"Okay." Shen Xitong nodded and got upstairs.

Shen Qian looked at her back and looked at her, she couldn't help but think, was it wrong to adopt the child in order to appease his wife's emotions?

The wife's illness looks good, but in fact it is not good at all, still taking medicine all year round, and after the birth daughter came back, they were not very close to their husband and wife.

At first I thought that the child had been raised by the Shen family for so many years. After so many years of education, it was at least a good one, but now, Shen Qian began to doubt.

I received a call from a friend this morning and told him the result of the identification and also told him something. Shen Xitong once asked someone to change the blood sample for identification. What she thought, Shen Qian could understand it with just one thought.

Shen Qian is not unaware that since Shen Qinglan returned, Shen Xitong has targeted her intentionally or unintentionally, originally thought it was only because she was afraid of being driven out by the Shen family and was uneasy. The essence is still kind.

But since Qinglan got married last year, many things that seem to happen are not like this.

Although he was in the army all year round, he was not unclear about many things, including Shen Xitong fell off the stairs last year and said that it was Qing Lan's push. Chu Yunrong didn't tell him, but as long as he wanted to know, he could still know.

He doesn't know everything about Qing Lan's temperament, but he still has seven or eight points. Except for Chu Yunrong, no one would believe she would push Shen Xitong downstairs.

At the beginning of the year, Fu Hengyi was drunk, and Shen Xitong wanted to take the opportunity to do what was broken by Qinglan. He was also clear, because he happened to go upstairs at that time that day, he saw it by accident, but left before the three of them didn't find out. .

Why did the Li family and husband suddenly come to the door, and they were so sure that Shen Xitong was their daughter, and he could not believe it without Qinglan's handwriting.

He agreed that Shen Xitong would go with them to make an appraisal, but it did not necessarily mean to help Qing Lan. Jun Yu always felt that he was guarded and doubtful about Qing Lan, but it was not.

When Qinglan returned home, he really doubted whether anyone would use her to do anything with the Shen family, but that was just before she returned to the Shen family. Since she returned, his love for her has not been a bit false, regardless of his son. Believe it or not, but it does.

While his son still blames him for investigating Qinglan, he even gave up the opportunity to enter the army for this. Shen Qian is very sad to say this.

Shen Xitong... Perhaps this was the most wrong decision he had made.

Shen Qinglan helped the old man to go upstairs, watched the old man lie down and rested and then returned to the room. Fu Hengyi's phone came in at this time.

Shen Qinglan looked at the name of the caller ID, smiled slightly, and picked it up.

"Fu Hengyi."

Fu Hengyi chuckled, "Well, where is it?"

"At home," fearing he didn't understand, he added, "At the Shen's house. Shen Xitong's test results came out, and my dad called me home."

"Oh." Fu Hengyi was not very interested in this matter. He probably guessed that Shen Qinglan's role in this matter was naturally clear to the result. He didn't even ask at all.

"When you go home at night, see if there is ginger brown sugar water at home." Fu Hengyi said.

Shen Qinglan wondered, "What's wrong? Why do you want ginger brown sugar water?"

Fu Hengyi's eyes were a little helpless. Why was this person so unconcerned about his affairs, "After two days, it's your vacation day, the first day is not uncomfortable? Remember to make yourself a cup of brown sugar water, and then I'm in the drawer of the bedside table in the bedroom There is a hand warmer in it, you put it on your stomach, do you know?"

Shen Qinglan's cold face fainted with a touch of red. Unexpectedly, Fu Hengyi even knew her biological period and prepared so many things for her.

She remembered that Fu Hengyi had only met her once on the first day of her menstrual period, but she discovered that she would have dysmenorrhea?

"That pain doesn't matter, it's already used to it." Shen Qinglan said softly.

"Qinglan, girls should treat themselves better. I am not at home and cannot take care of you. You are obedient and do not worry me." Fu Hengyi coaxed softly.

He said that Shen Qinglan had no temper, and nodded obediently, "Okay, I know, I'll go to the supermarket and buy ginger brown sugar water later."

"Also, don't touch cold water and don't get cold in those days." Fu Hengyi told her that these were all checked on the Internet later. He was afraid that Shen Qinglan wouldn't pay attention, so he called and called back.

No matter what Fu Hengyi said, Shen Qinglan nodded obediently.

Hanging up the phone, Shen Qinglan's mouth was always smiling, she was cold, this was a problem that fell at the Devil Training Base, and because of the cold, she had dysmenorrhea, so for many years, she also endured it, she actually Not so precious. But the feeling of being concerned is really not bad.

After this year, Fu Hengyi planned to take her to visit an old Chinese medicine doctor and wanted to recuperate her body, but unfortunately, the old Chinese medicine doctor went to his son's house outside the Chinese New Year. During this time, he was not in Beijing.

In the afternoon, Shen Qinglan returned to Fu's house and went directly to the supermarket. He bought a packet of ginger brown sugar and returned. He took a photo of Fu Hengyi and didn't wait for his reply. He went back.

Fu Hengyi saw this photo in the middle of the night, and it disturbed her to rest, did not call, but just sent a WeChat message to Shen Qinglan with a smile.

Shen Qian returned to the army the next day after the results of the appraisal. He should have returned to the army two days ago. It was just that Shen Xitong's case was not resolved. He specifically invited his home for two days.

Before returning to the army, Shen Qian and Grandpa Shen spent a long time in the study. No one knew what this father and son said. Shen Qian came out of the study and saw that his wife was packing his luggage.

"Yun Rong, I just returned to the army, not moved. I didn't need to prepare so many things." Looking at the suitcase full of his wife, Shen Qian was helpless.

Chu Yunrong tucked in the last piece of clothing and zipped it up, "I know, but haven't you not come back for a long time, bring a little more in case you are too busy to wash, or have a change of clothes."

Shen Qian stepped forward to hug his wife, "I'm gone, and the family will depend on you to take care of you."

Chu Yunrong was a bit uncomfortable. She was an old husband and wife. She was so nauseous and patted her husband's back.

Shen Qian smiled, letting go of his wife, "I hope you don't intervene in Xitong's affairs. This is, after all, the biological parents of others. Even though we raised her, she is already an adult, and she has to decide something for herself. Okay, do you know?"

Although this has already been said, Shen Qian still couldn't help but tell his wife. The wife has always been soft-hearted to Shen Xitong. Since Qing Lan has brought the Li family and his wife together, it's definitely not as simple as acknowledging their relatives. Husband and wife should be able to do it, Shen Qian does not want his wife to wade into the muddy water.

The smile on Chu Yunrong's face froze, and his husband's serious eyebrows finally nodded, "I know."

She knew that her husband had concealed her many things, but this husband was not cheating on her. Since the husband said so, it must be for her good, and she just listened.

Farewell to Shen Qian, Chu Yunrong turned around and saw Shen Xitong at the door, "Mom, dad has left?"

Chu Yunrong nodded, "Yeah, you have something to do with him?"

Shen Xitong shook his head, "No."

"Are you going out to see your biological parents?" Chu Yunrong asked her when she saw her standing at the door, thinking she was going out.

Shen Xitong shook his head again, "Mom, can I talk to you."

Chu Yunrong nodded, and the two went to Shen Xitong's room. Compared with Shen Qinglan's, her room was obviously ladylike in style. There was a faint smell similar to incense in the room. The smell was very good, and the floor was thickly spread. Thick wool carpet.

Chu Yunrong sat down on the sofa and looked at the benevolence of Shen Xitong, "What do you want to talk to your mother?"

Shen Xitong sat on his knees on the stall and rested his head on Chu Yunrong's lap. "Mom, I don't recognize my biological parents. Will you feel cold?"

Chu Yunrong touched her hair softly and asked, "Why do you think so?"

"Although they abandoned me when I was very young, but as Dad said, they gave me birth and gave me life. Should I not resent it?"

"Tongtong, your mother can understand your feelings, and it's normal for you to have resentment against your biological parents, but since they have found you and really want to make up for you, you might as well give them a chance and give yourself a Chances, aren't you hurt by two more people?"

Shen Xitong heard the words and felt cold in his heart. He immediately looked up and looked at Chu Yunrong pitifully, "Mom, are you going to stop me?"

"Silly boy, you think too much. You are the mother's daughter. The mother will not want you. Not in this life."

Shen Xitong heard the words and finally smiled, holding Chu Yunrong, "Mom, I love you, your daughter I will do in my life, if you have the next life, I will be your daughter, and your daughter is the most The happy thing is also the luckiest thing for me. I will never leave you."

Chu Yunrong smiled and patted Shen Xitong's shoulder, "Well, Mom knows that Mom loves you too."

"Mom, I will consider your words carefully, and I will try to forgive them."

185 Chapter 185

In the famous Juxianzhuang of Beijing, Fu Fanghua and Fang Chengzhi sat quietly in the box drinking tea, but their faces were really unsightly, especially Fu Fanghua, whose face was ugly and tight.

She glanced at the time on her phone again, "Tongtong, when exactly does he arrive?"

Fang Tong lowered his head and was sending a message to Ding Minghui. Today is the appointment time for Ding Minghui to meet his parents. The original appointment was ten and a half, but now it is more than twelve and Ding Minghui has not arrived yet.

Ding Minghui's information came back very quickly, saying that there was a traffic jam on the way, he is now running on the road.

"Mom, he was stuck on the road halfway, and you don't know the traffic in Beijing. You often get stuck in the traffic. He was stuck on the halfway. He wasn't willing, and he ran over by himself now." Fang Tong is Ding Minghui. Speak.

Fu Fanghua sneered, "He didn't come to Beijing on the first day, and he doesn't know the traffic situation in Beijing? Since he knows that he wants to meet his girlfriend's parents today, why don't he leave early? He doesn't have any budgetary ability. He usually works. Is it the same?"

Listening to her mother saying that Ding Minghui was not good, Fang Tong was very unhappy, "Mom, can you say a little less, or it's a little late, anyway, it's okay, and so on." Although she was still thinking about Ding Minghui Being late in such days is also very dissatisfied, but he still needs to protect his face in front of his parents.

Fang Chengzhi smiled, "Okay, wait, wait, it's not a big deal."

Fu Fanghua stopped talking, co-authored me as a bad person, right? You are all good people, great people, roll your eyes, father and daughter who have no conscience, who am I for?

The box door was knocked, Fang Tong got up and opened the door, Ding Minghui appeared breathlessly at the door, it was clearly winter, but he was sweating. There are still several bags in his hand.

Fang Tong glared at him fiercely, turning sideways to let him in.

"Sorry... I'm sorry uncle and aunt, I'm late." Ding Minghui bent down and apologized to Fang Chengzhi and Fu Fanghua.

"It's okay, it's okay, and it's not too late. Sit down." Fang Chengzhi smiled, his attitude was very kind.

Ding Minghui handed the bag to Fang Tong, "This is a little local specialty brought to my uncle and aunt. It's not something particularly expensive. Give your uncle and aunt a try. I hope you don't dislike it."

Fu Fanghua smiled, and there was no smile in his eyes, "You have heart, sit down."

Ding Minghui took off his coat, hung it up, and then sat down opposite.

Fang Chengzhi handed him the menu, "What do you like to eat, order it yourself."

Ding Minghui didn't answer, "Uncle, I'm not picky eaters, just order."

Fang Chengzhi did not refuse to say anything. He ordered a few dishes and handed the menu to the waiter.

"I have always heard Fang Tong mention you, but I have no chance to meet. I heard that you are working in Junlan Group now?" Fang Chengzhi asked, his voice soft.

Ding Minghui was very nervous when he first saw Fang Chengzhi and Fu Fanghua. Looking at the clothes on them, and the faces that were obviously younger than their parents, they knew that their lives should be very good. This made his heart inevitably inferior.

But Fang Chengzhi's gentle attitude actually dissipated his tension a lot. As she told Fang Tong when she wanted to, her parents were all good people.

"Yes, it will be formally corrected after graduating in June." Ding Minghui politely replied, in fact, if he hadn't graduated now, he would have been converted.

"Are you planning to stay and develop in Beijing?" Fu Fanghua asked.

Ding Minghui glanced at Fang Tong and smiled, "Well, there are people I care about here."

Fang Tong heard the words, his ears were reddish, and the corners of his mouth were gently raised.

Fu Fanghua glanced at her daughter. The unlucky one looked at Ding Minghui again. "Since you plan to stay in Beijing, you should have a plan for the future. Is it convenient for you to talk about it?"

"Of course, I am working in Junlan Group now, and I can change my position after graduation. At that time, my salary will double and I can take on the life of Fang Tong and me." Ding Minghui said slowly, saying that he was concerned about the future The planning, especially the details of his and Fang Tong's future.

Fang Chengzhi and Fu Fanghua listened very seriously, and waited until Ding Minghui finished, Fu Fanghua said, "You just said that you will borrow money to buy a house after three or five years of work?"

Ding Minghui nodded and seemed a little embarrassed, "Yes, my family's uncle and aunt may not know very well, my family is a mountain village, the economic conditions are not very good, it is not easy for my parents to support me to go to university, I want to get married. The money to buy a house can no longer be called out, and I just started working. I have no savings in the first two years and can't afford a house, so I will work hard and save money in these two years, and save the down payment first."

"Do you have any other siblings in your family?" Fu Fanghua declined to comment on his plan, but changed the question.

"There is also a younger sister at home who is already working."

"Your sister went out to work so early?" Fu Fanghua asked in surprise.

The smile on Ding Minghui's face was stagnant, "Yes... Yes, she didn't go to college, and the family's financial conditions can only provide a child to go to college, so..."

Fu Fanghua nodded and did not continue to pursue the issue, but said, "My dad and I are the only children like Tong Tong. From an early age, we will try our best to satisfy her no matter what she wants, not to mention hardships, even bowls I didn't let her wash it once. At the time, I was worried that she would be spoiled by us, but fortunately Tong Tong was a sensible child. Apart from spending money on everything, everything else was good, but girls, it should be rich, what do you think?"

Ding Minghui and Fang Tong's faces are a little unsightly, Fang Tong is angry, he glanced at his mother, how do you say these things politely?

Fu Fanghua glanced back, you said I said what to do, if not for you, can I say that?

Ding Minghui thought that Fang Tong's parents might look down on him and be prepared for it. After all, his family's conditions are obviously not worthy of the above, but it is really embarrassing to face it, just like a piece of quilt. Hidden scars were suddenly dug up and spread out in the sun.

Although Fu Fanghua didn't say an unpleasant word just now, every sentence is about how good Fang Tong's life is, and you Ding Minghui can't give her such a life.

"Auntie, I know that I am not capable enough to give Fang Tong a good life. Maybe she is following me now, and even hesitating to buy a bag of several thousand dollars, but I promise, I will work hard, in the future, Fang Tong will not have to hesitate because of the money, he can buy anything he wants."

Ding Minghui's attitude is very sincere. He is sincere and he wants to be with her.

Fang Tong was deeply moved by his heart. He held Ding Minghui's hand under the table and gave him a smile. Ding Minghui's heart suddenly settled.

Fu Fanghua didn't know the little movements of the two?not necessarily. She was almost mad at her daughter, and this elbow turned outward.

"Do you mean to ask my family Tongtong to wait for you? How long to wait? Three years or five years? The girl's youth is so few years, it is precious. Do you want her to wait until someone is old, no one wants?" Fu Fanghua finally spoke. At first, Fang Chengzhi pulled her down. She didn't see it. Some people didn't make it clear to you, and he always pretended not to understand.

"Mom." Fang Tong shouted dissatisfiedly. Now what are they doing, she is sincere to Ding Minghui, and she is willing to wait for him. Can you speak so unpleasantly, how will she face Ding Minghui in the future?

"Auntie, no, I will not let Fang Tongbai wait for me, I will marry her, if you agree, I can marry her after graduation, although we may not be able to buy a house by ourselves in the first few years. I rent a house, but I believe that we will get better and better behind us." Ding Minghui promised.

"Child," Fang Chengzhi said in a warm voice, "It's not that your aunt and I don't believe you, but just as your aunt said, what guarantee do you take? Nor is it that my mother and Tongtong are snobbish, and you think differently. For a moment, if you have a daughter, would you be safe to marry her to someone who has nothing?"

Even his father said so, Fang Tong wanted to cry sadly, she thought at least her father supported her.

Ding Minghui could not laugh at all, "Uncle, I know you will not believe me no matter what I say now, but I still want to say, I will try to create better living conditions for Fang Tong, five years, no. Within three years, I will definitely buy a house in Beijing. The name written by Fang Tong in the house. You may not believe this, but I will still show you."

Ding Minghui stood up, bowed to Fu Fanghua and Fang Chengzhi, "I'll disturb you today, I'll leave first. Goodbye, uncle and aunt."

With that said, Ding Minghui really got up and said goodbye, he didn't even eat any food and walked hurriedly.

Fang Tong glanced at the back of Ding Minghui's departure and wanted to chase it, but when he looked at his parents, the anger in his heart came up, "How can you say this to me, father and mother? He has worked hard, it is a thousand times and ten thousand times harder than Li Boming in your mouth. He is only one person worse than Li Boming. If he is from Li Boming, his current achievement must be above Li Boming. You. In saying this, have you considered his feelings?"

"I must not object if he comes from Li Boming's background, but the question is whether he has, besides a bunch of empty talk, what else does he have? You have to wait for him for three years and five years. Fang Tong, I still say that, you talk to I don't agree with his affairs." Fang Tong was angry, and Fu Fanghua was even more angry.

Fang Tong stomped his feet. "You don't agree with me, I want to be with him. Even if he is a poor egg with nothing, I love him and I'm married."

Fang Tong ran out, she was going to explain to Ding Minghui.

Fu Fanghua was shivered by her daughter's anger, but her daughter had run away, and she had nowhere to spread her anger. Her husband became the best pond fish to be affected. "Fang Chengzhi, you saw your good daughter. What is she saying, I am snobbish, for whom is my snobbery, and for myself?"

Fang Chengzhi patted his wife on the back, "Well, you don't know Tongtong's temperament, you still stimulate her so much, she can't grow up with that boy, rest assured."

Fu Fanghua's anger suddenly extinguished by half, and he looked at her husband suspiciously, "What do you mean by this, what can't you grow?"

Fang Chengzhi smiled and said nothing, "Anyway, as long as you know they can't grow. The dishes are all ordered, and we don't eat waste. Let's eat first."

Fu Fanghua stared at her husband angrily, "You still have a mood to eat?"

"There is still a mood for eating. I don't want to think too much if you want to say that Tongtong is a clever child. She can't understand it now, she will think about it sooner or later. Let's eat, it's not that I'm hungry."

"I can't eat any more, I'm full of anger."

Fang Chengzhi didn't care about her, she took care of herself.

When Fang Tong was catching up with Ding Minghui, he had just walked to the door, went to the counter to settle the bill, and ate him more than 1,800 for a meal, which was already one-third of his internship salary. of.

"Minghui."

Ding Minghui heard someone calling him behind him and stopped, seeing Fang Tong, "How did you come out?"

"I will go with you."

Ding Minghui smiled, "I'm fine, you go in to eat with uncle and aunt, I just go back to the company to work overtime."

Fang Tong held Ding Minghui's sleeves and wouldn't let him go, "Minghui, don't mind what my parents say, they are just...just...they are not malicious."

Ding Minghui looked tender, "I know that my uncle and aunt just care about you, worrying that you will suffer when I follow you. I understand that if you change me, I will also worry, I am not worried. It's too cold outside, you don't wear anything Go in, coat, don't catch a cold."

"Really not angry?"

Ding Minghui shook his head, "Don't be angry, go in quickly. I'll go first." He said, kissed on Fang Tong's forehead and turned away.

Just after turning around, the smile on his face disappeared. He was a proud person, perhaps because of his childhood environment, his self-esteem was stronger than others.

Today, what Fang Tong's parents said, he listened to them, and they looked down on him, but he would one day prove himself that Fang Tong would not be wrong in choosing him.

Fang Tong returned to the box, still unhappy, and left with his coat and bag on, and did not say hello to his parents. Fu Fanghua's anger hadn't disappeared, and she ignored her, as if she hadn't seen it, this daughter was really White raised.

Shen Qinglan felt uncomfortable when she got up early in the morning. When she went to the bathroom to see it, it turned out to be the official holiday.

When he came out of the bathroom, the phone rang, and Shen Qinglan picked it up. Fu Hengyi called him, "Hey."

"Did you get up?" Fu Hengyi asked. He had estimated the time to call and should not disturb her to sleep.

"Well, it's been a while since I got up." She didn't say she was just awake. She painted and drew to four o'clock in the morning last night. She woke up with a stomachache shortly after she fell asleep.

Fu Hengyi knew that she would occasionally paint at night, but she was not allowed to stay up late.

"Is the official holiday coming?" Fu Hengyi asked suddenly.

Shen Qinglan picked up the phone and glanced. Is this man a magic stick?

She didn't speak, and Fu Hengyi guessed it, and smiled, "In the courtyard or at home?"

"At home."

"I also put a hand warmer in the second drawer on the left side of the bedside table at home, remember to plug it in later, and then I put ginger brown sugar water in the refrigerator, remember to make a drink."

Shen Qinglan held the phone and listened to Fu Hengyi's details, with a slight smile on the corner of his mouth.

"I have already contacted the old Chinese medicine doctor. She will be back from the field in a week. I have made an appointment. You will let Aunt Zhao accompany you." Fu Hengyi finally said.

"No, I can go by myself, just send me the address."

"If you don't want Aunt Zhao to be with you, let your friends go with you." Fu Hengyi only felt sorry for her.

Seeing his determination, Shen Qinglan nodded.

But that day, Shen Qinglan failed to see a doctor. At this time, she was already in a border town in the west, only a hundred meters away from Fu Hengyi.

After ending the conversation with Fu Hengyi, Shen Qinglan had breakfast first, and then soaked a cup of ginger brown sugar water. Thinking of Fu Hengyi's nagging energy, he went to the bedroom to get his hand warmer, charged it up, and put it on his stomach. Not to mention, it's really a lot more comfortable, even the pale face is a bit rosy.

In the afternoon, Shen Qinglan went to school and went to the counselor's office first, before going to the tutor and handing him the foreign language translation and graduation thesis.

This is the first time that Shen Qinglan's identity has appeared on the campus after exposure. As soon as it appeared, it caused a great sensation. I don't know who sent her picture to the forum. Everyone knows that she is back.

The tutor flipped through her foreign language translation. From the carelessness at the beginning to the later surprise, she glanced at Shen Qinglan and pointed to the manuscript in her hand. "How much time did you spend translating this article?"

Shen Qinglan thought about it, "Half an hour." It took a little time to type out the text one by one.

The tutor was more and more surprised. Is this a direct translation after reading it?

"Your English is very good?" If the English is not good, I am afraid it may not be so fast.

"It's okay." For her, English is like a mother tongue-like existence, not good or bad.

The mentor only thought that she was humble, he already knew the identity of the person in front of him, the gold of the Shen family in Beijing, and the famous painter Leng Qingqiu.

"My daughter likes your painting very much. When I came back from your exhibition last time and knew that you were my student, I kept trying to meet you. I wonder if Student Shen could see her?" The instructor put down the manuscript and said Another matter, the smile on his face was very gentle.

After more than three years in college, this tutor is also the head of her department. She takes good care of her. He occasionally skips classes in his class. He never remembers it. The last time the disturbance was raised, the tutor helped himself in the principal's office. Pleadingly, although Shen Qinglan doesn't care about the rumors, this intention is the lead.

"I will invite Teacher Zhang and your daughter to have a meal this weekend. Thank you for taking care of me for so many years." Shen Qinglan said in a cold tone.

The tutor smiled, "I still invite you, fortunately I am an elder."

Shen Qinglan went from good to good, and made an appointment with the instructor to get out of the office.

When she came out of the instructor's office, she saw the black crowd, all the young faces were hot eyes, all staring at her at this time.

Although Shen Qinglan's face was calm, he felt a little hairy in his heart. What is it for?

"What are you doing?" she asked.

"Sister Qinglan, can you sign with you for a photo?" A girl said shyly, still holding a mobile phone and a book in her hand.

"I'm sorry, I don't take a photo with people." Shen Qinglan refused, the girl had obvious disappointment on her face, "but I can sign you."

Before the disappointment on the face dissipated, the girl's face was covered with ecstasy, "Really?"

Not waiting for Shen Qinglan to nod, and kept handing over the pen and book, Shen Qinglan took it, opened it, signed it, and the payment was Leng Qingqiu.

"Sister Qinglan, thank you. I am from the art department, and my favorite painter is you." The girl looked excited, watching Shen Qinglan's eyes become more hot and admired.

Others saw it and swarmed up, "Sister Qinglan, I also want to sign."

"I also want."

"You walk away, it's me who comes first. Sister Qinglan, I like you."

"Whatever you come first, obviously I come first. Sister Qinglan, I like you too. I am a big fan of you."

The scene was messed up, all ears were chattering, and Shen Qinglan had a headache and frowned slightly.

I don't know who suddenly shouted, "Don't quarrel, Sister Qinglan will be unhappy." The scene immediately became quiet, and looked at Shen Qinglan with both eyes.

It was finally quiet. Shen Qinglan let out a sigh of relief. She was accustomed to the attention of others attracted by her appearance, but for the first time, fan behavior like today is the first time she really can't hold back.

I looked around and spoke softly, "You all want to take a picture with me for an autograph?"

A group of people nodded together, and one of them said, "Most of us are from the Academy of Fine Arts. We all like your paintings. Knowing that you have come to school today, so I just wanted to meet up. We are all your fans."

The others nodded, yes, that's it.

"It's not OK to take a group photo, and you can't take pictures, but I can sign you, but you can't mess up, don't be too noisy, can you?" Shen Qinglan consulted, and she would definitely not do such a thing before. .

"Okay, we absolutely remain quiet." A group of people spontaneously queued up, waiting for Shen Qinglan to sign them one by one.

After Shen Qinglan signed the name for everyone, it was an hour later, rubbing some sore wrists, Shen Qinglan quickly left the school before others found it.

Back home, he contacted Daniel and asked him to send in some of the paintings she requested.

"Qing Lan, the painting exhibition is not over yet, isn't it good to withdraw now?" Daniel didn't agree, knowing that these paintings should be given away, but not bad these days?

But Shen Qinglan insisted that Daniel had no choice but to agree.

Just hung up the phone, and the phone rang again. This time it was an unfamiliar number, or a foreign one. Shen Qinglan glanced at it, and thought of something, and picked it up.

It was Jin Enxi who called, "An, something went wrong." Although she tried her best to calm down, Shen Qinglan still heard the panic in her voice.

My heart sank, "What happened?"

With Jin Enxi's narration, Shen Qinglan's heart kept sinking, "I'll book a ticket immediately. You don't want to act rashly, wait for me in country Y."

"Good." Jin Enxi responded.

Hanging up the phone, Shen Qinglan called Master Fu and said that he wanted to play abroad for two days. Master Fu said nothing and agreed with a big hand.

Shen Qinglan took nothing, took her passport and left, booked the fastest flight on the road and flew directly to country Y.

After the plane landed, Jin Enxi came to pick her up, "Ann, I'm sorry, I have kept you for so long."

Shen Qinglan's face was sullen, and his face was covered with frost. "I will talk about this later. Now let's go to the hospital first."

Jin Enxi nodded and drove the car fast. Not long after, the two came to a private hospital and saw Andre, the last man with Jin Enxi in the senior ward.

Andre's face was exhausted, his eyes were still dark green, his face was pale, his beard was scumming, and he looked very embarrassed. When he saw Shen Qinglan, he was apologetic, "An, I'm sorry, I didn't want to drag you into this place In the end, in the end..."

Shen Qinglan waved her hand and looked at the woman lying on the bed, with a tube all over her body, "How is Sisley?"

Andrea wiped his face. "The doctor said that he was out of danger. It is not necessarily when he wakes up." He paused, his expression pained. "But the baby in her stomach is gone."

That was his child. He and Sisley were a pair of lovers and partners. From the time they left the organization, one of them entered the performing arts circle and the other became a model. Their careers are in full swing. They have been in love for many years, but no one outside It is known that confidentiality work is not bad. A month ago, he just learned that Sisley was pregnant. They had originally planned to openly affair and then got married. Who knows that something happened later, Sisli suffered Seriously injured, although the life was saved, but the child was gone.

Shen Qinglan was silent, glancing at the unconscious Sisley, and Shen Sheng said, "Why didn't you tell me earlier?"

Andrey lowered his head, probably for many days without a break, his voice was hoarse, "Ann, you are different from us, your current identity is simply not suitable for participating in such things."

Shen Qinglan grabbed Andre's collar, and fell his fist on his abdomen, Andrea bent over in pain, and Shen Qinglan let him go, Andre lying on the ground, Shen Qinglan He looked at him so condescendingly, with a cold expression, "Andre, who am I in your eyes, so untrustworthy?"

Shen Qinglan didn't show mercy at all. Andre couldn't get up for a long time. He coughed there. Jin Enxi was worried, but she didn't dare to go to persuade her. She knew that when they chose to hide An It will anger Ang, and Ang, who is angry, is terrible, even if they dare not easily anger her.

There was a trace of blood on Andre's mouth. He reached out and wiped it, without a trace of blame and anger, trying to stand up, "Ann, you have always been our most trusted partner, but since you have withdrawn, we don't want you If you stain your blood again, Enxi said that your family and your husband are very kind to you. What if you let them know about your past?"

He also glanced at Jin Enxi, "If it weren't for Jin Enxi who called you behind my back, I wouldn't tell you at all."

Shen Qinglan smiled, her smile was beautiful, but Jin Enxi couldn't help but shudder, and when it was over, Ann was furious. Try to give Andrea a look, don't say anything.

"Andrea, you forgot, we were also partners who fought side by side, people who can deliver their lives to each other, you don't tell me, I will know later, or you have something wrong, what should you do? I said, since you have already quit, don't contact me again, but I didn't say that you are in danger, I will just stand by and watch."

Andrea's pupil shrank sharply, watching Shen Qinglan smile, but his cold eyes finally realized that he seemed to be wrong. How could he forget that Ann has always been the most affectionate.

Andrea lowered his head, "Ann, I'm sorry."

Shen Qinglan looked at him coldly, and it took a long time to reach out and pull him off the ground.

"What's the situation with Eden now?" Shen Qinglan asked, looking like Jin Enxi.

"It is now certain that Eden has indeed fallen into the hands of BK, but there should be no life safety at the moment. We went to rescue him a few days ago. Without success, Sisley was injured at that time."

BK? Shen Qinglan pondered that although she had retired from this business for many years, she still knew about BK. BK is a famous mercenary organization in the world. The number is small, but its powerful combat capabilities can be compared with the previous devil organization. An organization.

They are active all over the world, as long as the price is high enough to be able to do anyone for you, the boss is called KING, is a blond white man, very cruel, there may be such a leader, the members of his organization are the same Cruel, Shen Qinglan once saw them killing even the elderly and children who had no resistance when performing the mission.

BK is notorious among various mercenary groups in the world, but because of their powerful fighting ability, no one has been able to treat them.

Shen Qinglan had a few conflicts with them before, but in the end, they could not get away with the coordination of the bosses of both parties. As for their combat effectiveness, Shen Qinglan, who has dealt with them, is naturally clear.

"Why did Eden fall into their hands?" Shen Qinglan was puzzled. Eden was an avid medical lover. After he broke away from the devil's organization, he has been devoting himself to the study of medicine, and it has nothing to do with them. .

Jin Enxi shook his head. "We didn't know. A month ago, we suddenly received Eden's distress signal, but when we rushed over, we found nothing but a scalpel on the scene. We have been tracking his whereabouts. I just got news that I knew he was going to save him in BK's hands, and it turned out..."

What the result is is now clear.

With a blink of an eye, Shen Qinglan looked at Andre, "How can you be injured? Even if BK is powerful, according to the skills of several of you, there is no problem in trying to rescue a person. How could it be like this now? "

Although Andrey did not say, but since Sisley had suffered such a serious injury, Andrea must have suffered a lot.

Andrea's eyes narrowed, "We met KING, and when we evacuated, we met KING, as well as several of his left and right arms, and in the end, if Eden did not take the initiative to stay, he would use his life to threaten him. , I'm afraid we all have to explain there." To put it bluntly, a few of them underestimated the enemy and overturned the boat in the gutter.

Shen Qinglan pondered, since KING can let them go because of Eden's threats, it means that Eden is very important to them, so what is it for? Is it because of Eden's medicine?

No, not right. Eden's medical skills are indeed excellent, and he likes to study some incurable diseases. He is very good at this aspect, but his medical skills have not reached the point of reaching the peak. So what is the purpose?

There was a flash of light in his brain, maybe Eden had something they wanted.

To understand the point, Shen Qinglan was not in a hurry, but BK hurt her friend's account.

"Where did you find their nest when you last went?"

Jin Enxi said an address, and Shen Qinglan frowned. This place seemed to be a war-torn country in South Africa. But for them, it is indeed a very good hiding place, and their weapons and equipment are very sophisticated, so they are not afraid of the local armed forces.

"Is it still there?"

Jin Enxi shook his head, "We went to check after we came back, it seems that it was evacuated, but recently they found traces of their activities on the border of country Z, even KING is here, but I am not sure if Eden is there. ."

Shen Qinglan's face changed suddenly, "What did you just say? Are they on the border of country Z?"

"Yes, and there seems to be something important, otherwise KING will not appear there."

BK, a mercenary organization, has a wide range of business. As long as it is a profitable business, they will be involved. It will naturally not be a good thing to appear at the border.

But this is not what Shen Qinglan can manage now, and she does not believe that the leaders of Country Z do not know, maybe there is already a plan.

The most important thing for her now is to bring Eden back.

"When Sisley woke up, I went to the border and brought Eden back." Shen Qinglan said, since she was sure Yin Deng's safety, she was not in a hurry. This matter was a bit troublesome. She needed to plan well. .

Andrei nodded, "I know, I'm going to prepare your equipment now."

"Wait." Shen Qinglan stopped him. "I'll figure out how to equip. You will be responsible for taking care of Sisley in the past few days, and take care of the injuries on your body. You are now an international superstar. They are all concerned by the outside world, don't cause unnecessary trouble."

Andre knew that she was right, and she didn't refuse. She agreed.

"Enxi, you must give me an exact location of Eden within three days."

"It is good."

After the explanation was over here, Shen Qinglan took Andre's mobile phone and dialed out a series of numbers. The call was connected quickly, and a pleasant male voice answered on the end of the phone.

"Hi, hello, Andre."

"Austin, it's me, Ann."

President Mo, how are you going?!

Chapter 186 Old acquaintance, help

The man on the other side of the phone was silent for a second, and suddenly cried out excitedly, "Oh my God, Ann, it was you. You finally called me. You have no conscience. You haven't contacted me for years."

Austin was lying on a chair and basking in the sun, and suddenly jumped up, frightening the butler waiting on the side.

Listening to Austin's lively voice, Shen Qinglan's mouth hung with a faint smile, "Sorry, I never called you."

That's what Austin said, where did she really blame her, "Ann, where are you now, are you with Andrea?"

Shen Qinglan yelled, Austin immediately picked up the blazer and went out, "Then I will come to you now, Ann, you are waiting for me."

"Wait." Shen Qinglan stopped him. "Austin, let me come to you. I just want something to ask you for help."

Austin stopped and handed his clothes to the housekeeper, "No problem, you want me to help and do whatever you want. Although my father is at home, he has been chatting with me countless times. You can stay with you this time. He has a meal."

"No problem, I'll come over now, about an hour later." Shen Qinglan finished and hung up the phone.

Andre stood up, "Go in my car."

Shen Qinglan did not object, and Jin Enxi did not follow. She knew Shen Qinglan's relationship with Austin and was not worried at all.

In front of an old but majestic castle, Shen Qinglan's car just came in and saw a figure of a young man. Instead of getting out of the car, she opened the door and the man got on.

"Ann, I haven't seen you in six years, you are more and more beautiful." She has grown up and was a little girl when she left.

Shen Qinglan didn't look at him, just spoke lightly, "I haven't seen you in six years, how are you?"

Austin smiled, "Very good, just miss you." If Shen Qinglan had not allowed them to go to her, perhaps he had already visited her in that distant country.

The car drove into the old castle, along the road was full of flowers and a large lawn, "It's still beautiful here."

"How long do you plan to live in country Y this time?"

Shen Qinglan heard the words and was slightly silent. "Austin, I will leave in three days. My friend has an accident."

Austin's face changed slightly, "Can I help you?"

Seeing the approaching building, Shen Qinglan did not continue to speak, but said, "I will talk about this later."

Shen Qinglan got out of the car and gave the car key to the maid waiting aside. Austin opened the door for her personally and greeted her in. "Uncle Ian, I haven't seen you for a long time." Shen Qinglan greeted the housekeeper Ian, who was standing at the door and bending towards her slightly.

Butler Ian smiled slightly, "Miss Ann, long time no see."

The maid took a curious look at Shen Qinglan, an oriental face, very beautiful, the most beautiful woman she had ever seen.

"Who is this?" The maid asked her companion in a whisper. The companion shook his head gently, not knowing that they had just come in the last two years. They had never seen Shen Qinglan at all and naturally didn't know.

"The housekeeper seems to know her." Not only that, but the attitude is also very respectful. The young woman seems to have a bright future.

"It's not something we can manage, let's work quickly." Another maid whispered, and the others thought deeply and went to work quickly.

Austin took Shen Qinglan directly upstairs and entered a study room. A 50- to 60-year-old man was waiting there. When he saw Shen Qinglan, a smile appeared on his face, his arms spread out, and Shen Qinglan walked over and followed him Hug a bit, "Welcome back, my boy."

"Uncle Kent." Shen Qinglan spoke softly, with a gentle voice and a shallow smile.

The Duke of Kent was very happy, let Shen Qinglan look up and down, and nodded, "beautiful, it seems that you have been doing well all these years."

Shen Qinglan nodded, "Yes, but I have not come back to see you for so many years, I am very sorry."

The Duke of Kent doesn't think so, "As long as you live well, my child, is your family good to you?"

There was a smile in Shen Qinglan's eyes, "Very good, very good to me."

The Duke of Kent was happy and nodded again and again, "It's good for you, if you are not happy at home, remember to come back, this will always be your home."

Shen Qinglan felt a little warm in his heart and nodded with a smile, "How are your health these years?"

"I'm fine, now I have to go out for a run every morning."

"Father's health is better than me now. The company's business is left to me. I ride horses and drink afternoon tea every day. It can't be too wonderful." Austin answered.

The three of them have been chatting in the study room for a long time, most of which are the recent situation of the past few years. The Duke of Kent did not ask Shen Qinglan's purpose of coming to country Y. Shen Qinglan did not say that the dinner was ready until the butler said, three Talents go on.

On the huge long table, there were only three of them, but the dining process was very pleasant. After eating, Shen Qinglan was left to stay overnight.

"Miss Ann, this is your room. It is still reserved for you. Every day a maid comes to clean it on time. The Duke said that one day you will come back to see him." Ian said with a smile.

Shen Qinglan looked at the familiar room with a trance, she had lived here for two months, especially this room, when she was seriously injured and cultivated here for two months, and there were her left on the balcony Recliner.

"Thank you Uncle Ian."

Ian retreated, and the maid put down the clothes prepared for Shen Qinglan, and then retreated.

Shen Qinglan gently touched the familiar and strange furniture, and those distant memories suddenly revived and madly poured into her mind.

The meeting with the Duke of Kent was actually an accident.

Seven years ago, she was on a mission. When she retreated, she happened to encounter the Duke of Kent who was kidnapped by BK. Because she was not used to BK's style of action, she rescued him by doing a lot of business.

It was later learned that the person rescued was the only Duke of Kent, the only Duke of the royal family. Originally this matter ended here, after all, she was not trying to save him, but to fight against the people of BK, but did not expect to meet Austin by chance, and rescued him twice, even afterwards. On one occasion, she was seriously injured herself, and Austin took her home.

In the two months of healing here, she established a deep relationship with the two owners of this family. The Duke of Kent was the first person to give her elders the care for warmth, but her identity is sensitive after all, and the injury is good. She left after some time and rarely visited here except for occasional visits to the Duke of Kent.

Hearing the knock on the door, Shen Qinglan went to open the door. Sure enough, she saw Austin outside the door. He held a glass of milk in his hand and handed it to her. Shen Qinglan took it, but didn't drink it. She didn't like to drink milk.

"What help do I need to come over this time?" Austin said voluntarily.

Shen Qinglan closed the door. The soundproofing effect of this old castle is very good, but I don't need to worry about being overheard. "Austin, I need a batch of weapons. I don't need a lot of numbers. I just need to equip myself."

Austin's expression narrowed, "Ann, what are you going to do?"

"My companion was captured, and I must rescue him."

"Ann, as far as I know, you have quit. I can help you with this kind of thing. You tell me where your companion is. I ask someone to help you. As many people as you want."

Austin knows Andre and also knows the relationship between Andre and Shen Qinglan. If he did not know Shen Qinglan's identity, then he would know if Shen Qinglan did not deliberately hide his share.

"Austin, I can do this myself. Don't get involved. You can help me get what I need. If you don't want to help me, I can do it myself."

Austin looked annoyed, "Ann, why do you say such a thing, you know that no matter what kind of request you make, I will agree." As long as you speak, no matter what, I can do it for you.

His eyes are full of affection, and the friendship in him can be seen by everyone.

Austin didn't know when he fell in love with Shen Qinglan. How old was she when he knew Shen Qinglan, fourteen or fifteen? Obviously at such a young age, it can be said that he is still a child, but his eyes are so cold, such a person should be cold-hearted, but she just saved him again and again, and even almost died.

He fell in love with this girl who was five years younger than him. He wanted to wait for her to grow up and then marry her. But before he could start acting, she left. Before leaving, he went to her and asked her about him. Can you find her?

What did she say? Let him think about it, oh, remember, she said that if he dare to find her, then don't want to see her in this life.

He knew she had this ability, so he was afraid. For so many years, in countless late nights, his beautiful and immature face will appear in his mind. He was crazy, but he failed to summon up the courage. See her once.

Does Shen Qinglan know Austin's feelings for her? Not necessarily, just knowing that it is impossible, and why give hope, rather than let him suffer, let him forget. And time is the best medicine.

She thought that after all these years, Austin should always forget her, but now it seems that she thinks too much.

"Austin, invite you to be a guest at my house when this matter is over." Shen Qinglan said.

Austin's face was full of ecstasy, "Really, Ann, can I go to your house as a guest?"

Shen Qinglan nodded, "Of course, please take a look at my living environment, as well as my family and husband."

The ecstasy on Austin's face froze like that, he looked at Shen Qinglan in disbelief, "Husband? Are you married?"

"Yes, I have been married for more than half a year, and my husband is a soldier and is very kind to me."

Austin's face was deeply hit, and Shen Qinglan was cruel, and continued, "When this matter is over, you can go to see him. He will be happy if he knows that I have a good brother like you."

Austin didn't speak, he was sad now, the girl he was waiting for, but now told him she was married. He couldn't tell how he felt at the moment. Looking at the face in front of him that had been missing him for many years, there was a wry smile at the corner of his mouth. "Ann, you are cruel to me." Not even wishing to leave it to him.

Shen Qinglan's lips did not speak, and the atmosphere froze for a while.

It took a long time for Austin to wipe his face. "Ann, I know. I will give you what you want tomorrow, but you have to promise me a condition."

Shen Qinglan looked at him.

"You have to protect yourself and not hurt yourself."

Shen Qinglan gave him a deep look and nodded, "Okay."

Austin smiled, "Ann, I'm going first. You have a good rest, good night."

"good night."

Shen Qinglan closed the door and leaned against the wall. A trace of apology appeared on his cold face, but disappeared when he saw Fu Hengyi's call.

"Fu Hengyi." She whispered softly, with thoughts she didn't even notice, and it was clear that he had not been away for a few days.

Fu Hengyi looked at it and realized that her emotions were not right, letting her voice relax, "Qinglan, what happened?" He didn't know about Shen Qinglan's going to country Y yet.

"No, it's just that when I travel alone, I suddenly think of you."

"Have you gone abroad?"

"Well, in country Y, staying at home is a bit boring. I want to go out and walk around. I heard friends say that Europe is good, so I plan to play here for a while.

"A person should take care of himself when he is abroad. If he doesn't understand the local language, he can go to an interpreter. There should be an international student there. He can ask them to accompany and translate locally." Fu Hengyi was worried when she heard that she was abroad Too.

"Fu Hengyi, I can speak English." And it's quite good.

Fu Hengyi smiled, too, Shen Jiaqianjin, how could he not even speak English, but he was overly worried.

"The weather in Country Y is comparable to that in China. Remember to bring more clothes when you go out, and bring an umbrella with you."

"Got it, Fu Hengyi," Shen Qinglan called, interrupting his various instructions. Fu Hengyi stopped and listened, "Did you find that you are more and more like Aunt Zhao." Always told her this, Telling her that, she is completely regarded as a child who can't take care of herself.

Fu Hengyi had no choice but to smile, and Mu Liancheng who came to send the document just saw this scene. He knew who was on the phone and sighed in his heart. The power of love is so great that he could make Their captains who were never close to women's sex plunged to this point.

When Mu Liancheng went back during the New Year, he heard a lot about Shen Qinglan. He was impressed by the captain's wife.

Seeing Mu Liancheng, Fu Hengyi said a few words before hanging up the phone, "Captain, we should start."

Fu Hengyi's face has recovered his previous seriousness. He nodded, turned off his phone, and threw it into the drawer. In fact, he was going to perform a very dangerous task today. Before he left, he wanted to hear Shen Qinglan's voice. Call her.

"Captain, BK's activities on the border are frequent this time. It is estimated that there will be big moves." Mu Liancheng said to Fu Hengyi while walking.

"In recent years, BK has become more arrogant, and we are not the first time to deal with them. Say to the brothers, we must ensure our own safety."

Mu Liancheng nodded. Although they had been prepared to sacrifice since entering the army, they could not sacrifice, and no one would sacrifice. After all, they also had family members, friends, and lovers.

The helicopter is ready, and others have already boarded the plane one after another. Fu Hengyi was the last one to go up. After all the personnel were in place, the helicopter left the mysterious special forces base.

They are the existence that only a few people know. They are the edge of the country. They are people who walk between justice and evil. They are sharp knives.

The helicopter landed at a criminal investigation brigade on the border. Someone was already waiting there. "Captain Fu, I will trouble you again this time." A leader-like person reached out and shook hands with Fu Hengyi, saying politely that he was doing this. The commander-in-chief is the captain of a certain JD brigade called Li Liansheng.

"Yes."

"Originally we thought this was just an ordinary DP smuggling case, but with the deepening of the investigation, we found BK in it. We have limited knowledge of this organization and had to ask your superiors for your support." Li Liansheng said.

"How many of them know this time?" Fu Hengyi asked.

"It is not clear for the time being, but we learned from the informant that this time BK's leader KING may appear, it seems that this time they have a large amount of transactions."

KING. Fu Hengyi's eyes deepened, and his body suddenly filled with coldness. Eight years ago, it was his first time to deal with the BK organization, but he almost planted it in this person's hands. Several of his brothers also died in KING's hands. Over the years, he has always wanted to seize KING, but this man is very cunning, and he has escaped many times.

Mu Liancheng's face was also very unsightly. He also participated in the battle. He witnessed his brother who fought alongside him die in front of him. His hatred for KING was no less than that of Fu Hengyi.

"We followed them for a long time and only recently got a little clue. They acted too cautiously and cruelly. Several of our undercover agents have died in their hands." Li Liansheng continued, this was not the first time he followed Fu Hengyi cooperated. The last time he rescued the hostages from the BK organization was his report to his superiors. Fu Hengyi was also injured in that operation.

Fu Hengyi is looking at a map, which is a topographic map of the neighborhood. There are mountains and rainforests around here. It is not difficult to catch this group of people here, not to mention, this group of people is not ordinary. Desperados, they are BKs, and many of their members are comparable to some special forces members.

Such an organization, if it is not a large number of people, I am afraid that it has already become the nail of some countries, and it will soon be removed.

Here, Fu Hengyi is intensively preparing for the upcoming battle, country Y.

Shen Qinglan was checking what was in his hand, "An, this is the best equipment I can get you at the moment, what do you think?" Austin asked.

Shen Qinglan put down the weapon that had just been inspected, picked up a saber, and looked at Zheng Liang's blade. She had no doubt about the sharpness of the saber, saying that it would not be too much to cut iron.

She recognized at a glance that this saber was one of the world's top ten famous knives. Austin could get it, or within such a short time, I am afraid it took a lot of energy.

"Austin, thank you." Shen Qinglan said sincerely.

"Ann, you never have to say thank you to me. Have you forgotten, you saved me twice." Austin stretched out two fingers. "Ann, actually you don't have to go in person, I can hire someone to save your friend, No matter how much money."

Austin can imagine how dangerous this operation is, and who can make Andre contact Ann to take the horse, certainly not a simple rescue operation.

"Austin, I can only go by myself this time, you know." If she couldn't rescue Eden, she didn't know who to ask for help.

Shen Qinglan is not an arrogant person, nor a blind arrogant person, but she is still very confident in her skill, she is a real person who crawled out of hell.

Shen Qinglan left the old castle, Andrea is still in the hospital. He is a movie star on the surface, but as a former top ten killer in the world, he naturally has his own news channel.

"Ann, it's already confirmed that Eden was taken to the border of country Z. Eden discovered a new type of plant extract in a primitive tribe a year ago, which is very addictive. If it is added to DP, it can be another. DP's addiction is greatly improved. KING didn't know where to know that he had such a thing in his hand, so he took Eden away."

"When did KING research DP on its own?" Shen Qinglan wondered. Although the BK organization also sells D, it is really more about selling than R&D.

"Not them, they just use people's money to help people do things. It's QS, they want this kind of thing, they ask BK to catch Eden when they are in high order, but after catching Eden, KING suddenly regrets and wants to sit on the ground. The two parties couldn't agree on the starting price. So Eden has been in KING's hands."

"What does KING want to do at the border of country Z this time?"

"For a large-scale D product transaction, in fact the last time they crossed the road, but none of them went back. It is said that they encountered the army of country Z and were killed." Jin Enxi added.

Shen Qinglan's eyes crossed a pensive thought, "Last time? I mean the time they explored the road, what time was it, and where was the transaction?"

Jin Enxi said time and place.

Shen Qinglan was surprised, wasn't this the time when Fu Hengyi was injured? Is his injury related to this?

So this time, KING's action is so big, will Fu Hengyi appear? What if there is an encounter?

Suddenly an uneasiness appeared in Shen Qinglan's heart.

Taking out what he got from Austin, Andre couldn't help but whistled, "This Austin is so terrible, I got so many good things. Last time, I asked him to help me get a gadget, He disagrees.

Shen Qinglan glanced at him and said lightly, "Andrea, don't forget what I said."

"Ann, I haven't forgotten that I have been very peaceful for the past two years. If it weren't for Eden this time, we wouldn't go." Andre explained.

Shen Qinglan doesn't say anything anymore. They are all adults. She has already said what she should say. If she doesn't listen, it's not something she can manage.

Sisley finally woke up the next day, but after waking up, she faced the fact that she lost her child, but she was very calm and did not cry or cry. Andre was worried about this situation. He would rather her cry. It was quieter than this, and he was relieved.

In the ward, Shen Qinglan looked at the still pale paper Sisley and spoke softly, "Andre is not here. If you want to cry, cry."

Sisley's mouth gently raised her head and shook her head. "Ann, I don't want to cry. I'm very happy to see you. If it's not that I can't move now, I really want to hug you."

Shen Qinglan stared at her eyes, and there was a touch of sadness in her eyes, indicating that the loss of children did not feel anything to her, perhaps just because of previous experiences, making their feelings more restrained than ordinary people.

She leaned gently and hugged Sisley. "I will avenge you."

Who knows, Sisley shook her head, "Ann, as long as I can rescue Eden safely, as for me, don't worry, maybe this just shows that I have no fate with it, and, I have not been a good mother. Preparation, before that, when I learned that I was pregnant, I was actually confused, but now I have made a choice for me, so, okay, just suffering Andre."

Shen Qinglan and their group actually don't like children. If it's not Xiao Dingding, perhaps Shen Qinglan will not like children until now, so she can understand Sisley's mood.

"Sisley, we have left there. In the outside world, the child is an angel."

Sisley smiled lightly, "Ann, I know. Don't worry, just sorry, I can't go with you this time. After saving Eden, don't tell him my things, I don't want him to feel guilty. He My partner, I have never regretted doing this."

Shen Qinglan nodded seriously, "OK, rest assured."

The next day, Shen Qinglan and the three of them left. Originally, Shen Qinglan did not agree with Andrei to go with him. After all, he was injured and Sisley also needed care, but Andrei insisted, and Sisley tried to persuade Shen Qing. Lan can only agree.

"An, we are about to reach the border of country Z." Jin Enxi said, holding a map in his hand, pointing at one of the points, "Covering the mountain, and then crossing the jungle, we entered the neighboring country. Within the territory, at the latest tomorrow, we will be close to where BK is stationed."

Shen Qinglan looked at the map in the hands of Jin Enxi. They were entering LG on the border with country Z. Walking from country Z is not impossible, but after all, with so many things on his body, if it is very troublesome to be investigated, walking from here is the most convenient.

Shen Qinglan was wearing a green dress, her hair was tied into a bundle, and she was carrying a backpack with dry food and some necessary equipment. Jin Enxi and Andre are dressed in the same way.

They have been walking in the jungle for a day and night, but no weariness can be seen in their faces. The time is approaching noon. Shen Qinglan found a level ground. The three of them sat down to rest. Knowing the purpose of KING's arrest of Eden, you can be sure that Eden's safety is definitely not a problem, and they are not in a hurry.

"This fruit tastes good." Andre nibbled with a blue fruit in his hand, two in his pocket, threw it to the two, Shen Qinglan took it, did not wash it, took a bite, sour It's sweet and sour, and it's really delicious. It's a bit like an apple, but it's more hydrated and crispier than an apple.

"Ann, we haven't been together for a long time." Andrei ate one fruit and gnawed another, "I miss that time, you, me, Sisley, Enxi, Eden, and..."

Andrea said here, his face darkened a little, and the eyes of Shen Qinglan and Jin Enxi also changed slightly. Anyone else, all three knew in their hearts, but that person never came back.

"Let's go after eating. This time BK's action is so big, it will definitely attract the JD troops of country Z. When there is a conflict between the two sides, it is the best time for us to save people. Don't stay long after saving people, and leave here immediately." Shen Qinglan said lightly.

The faces of Jin Enxi and Andre were all clear, and they responded well. Shen Qinglan was the youngest of them, but as usual, every time the action planner was her, the few of them got together because of her. Become a group.

It's just that their luck wasn't very good this time. It rained heavily in the afternoon. It was winter. The rain hit the body, and the clothes were wet and cold. Shen Qinglan wanted to go on, hesitated, and finally I found a cave to avoid rain.

"Ann, look at the rain, it should stop tomorrow." Andre twisted a coat and unscrewed a pool of water. There was only one vest left on him. A bonfire was already burning in the cave, Shen Qinglan He Jin Enxi was also soaked, and was sitting in front of the campfire to warm up.

Their luck is not bad. Someone should have lived in this cave before, and there is a lot of dry wood left here, otherwise the three people will really have to wear wet clothes for the night, even if the weather is iron, There is no guarantee that he will not get sick the next day.

There are three people's luggage far away from the bonfire, but there are some things that will explode near the fire source. Naturally, they must be put far away. If it explodes, it is estimated that the three of them will become a joke. The top ten in the world are three killers who were killed by their own play. This is not a joke.

During the night, it is natural to take turns to guard the vigil. Although it is unlikely to encounter any danger, it is not afraid of 10,000.

"Ann, Enxi, you go to sleep first, and I will come to guard in the middle of the night." Andre took the initiative to ask.

"Let me come, your injuries are not so thorough, and it is raining again today." Jin Enxi said, she was playing with a watch-like instrument in her hands, fiddling.

"This injury is also called injury, Enxi, you too underestimate me." Andre frowned, most of his injuries were skin trauma. In the last rescue operation, the three of them moved separately and retreated. When Sisli met KING, when they came over, it took only one step before Sisli was seriously injured.

Jin Enxi actually had injuries on his body, but as Andre said, this injury was nothing to them at all. The injuries he suffered before were more than this.

"Don't fight anymore, I'll come guard in the middle of the night, you all go to rest, when the time is up, I call you." Shen Qinglan spoke quietly, the cold voice was particularly clear in the silent night, the two who were in dispute stopped and looked at a glance at Shen Qinglan's serious eyebrows, silence, believing her words. They each found a comfortable corner against the wall, closed their eyes and fell asleep.

Rather than arguing here, it is better to rest early and then replace Shen Qinglan.

Seeing that both of them went to sleep, Shen Qinglan added a firewood to the bonfire, held a stick in his hand, and set the fire to make the fire burn more vigorously.

The fire light reflected her cold brows, and there was no expression on her face, but there was deep uneasiness in her eyes. The night before her departure, she once called Fu Hengyi once, but it showed that she was turned off, and until now, there was no reply. There is only one possibility for this kind of situation, that is, Fu Hengyi is out of the task and cutting off all contact with the outside world.

Combined with what Jin Enxi told her, and the last time Fu Hengyi was injured, Shen Qinglan can be sure that the last time Fu Hengyi was injured was definitely BK's person, and now BK has appeared again, and it is still KING who came personally, the average person simply can't deal with them.

What about Fu Hengyi? Did you come here too? Although she did not participate in their activities this time, what if she met Fu Hengyi and he recognized her again?

What if Fu Hengyi knows her identity?

Shen Qinglan, who has always been decisive and decisive, hesitated for the first time and was afraid. She touched the position of the heart, the heart was still beating, slow and powerful, but it was so uneasy.

Fu Hengyi, I seem to really fall in love with you. That's why we suffer like this.

Shen Qinglan's eyes were heavy, and he remembered for a moment that Fu Hengyi was wearing a military uniform and looked at her tenderly and pamperingly. For a while, his hands were covered with blood, and he looked at the dead on the ground with cold eyes. Look.

"An, I have a good rest, you go to sleep." Andrei said softly, pulling Shen Qinglan's thought away.

Shen Qinglan shook his head, "I'm not sleepy yet, keep going to sleep."

"Are you worried?" Andrea asked carefully after looking into her eyes.

Shen Qinglan was stunned and wanted to shake his head, but slowly lowered his eyes in front of Andrea's eyes that seemed to have insight.

"Ann, are you worried that your family and husband will know?" Andre asked again, "I heard Enxi said that you are married and the husband is a soldier."

Shen Qinglan smiled, "Andrea, did you say that you have been away for too long, so I have forgotten even the basic emotion hiding, and if that person is still alive, I am afraid I will be disappointed. I thought it was my most successful work, Now it's like this." Her tone sneered a little.

"Ann, it's our fault. I was involved in this storm again. In fact, you have no time to leave now."

Shen Qinglan looked at Andre and smiled, "Andre, I won't go. The family and my husband are really important to me, but you are equally important to me."

Andre shook his head and smiled, this is Ann, convinced them, willing to listen to her commanded Ann.

"Ann, can you tell me about your husband? I am curious, what kind of man can make you willingly agree to marry him." Andre asked slowly.

Shen Qinglan's eyes crossed a gentle touch and smiled, "I actually asked for marriage."

Digression

The recent comment area is so quiet, is everyone still there?

"The cat is driving to bed," Gu Nanxi wrote: Is this rebirth scumbag? To be precise, this is the pet cat's daily routine of the black-bellied female country teacher, and it is the warm-up history of the king of the North Beast.

It is rumored that the young female teacher of the National Liang Dynasty, Xiao Jingsi, was a young assistant. He never died or was injured. He was good at pouring Gu's art, but he loved a miserable cat called Xinghua.

The master of the National Teacher's College said to Xinghua: "You are really warm, and will you warm me in the future?"

Later, Xinghua became a beautiful man: "Alu, it's spring, I... I feel uncomfortable."

Chapter 187 Rescue

Andre was really surprised, both at the tenderness of her eyes and at her words.

What kind of person Ann is, how well Andre knows for so many years, in terms of Ann's ability, she is the absolute king, obviously the youngest in the organization, but has become a myth in the organization, undefeated. The myth even led them away from a place like hell that would never want to escape unless they died.

Andre has never seen a gentle look on Ann's face, and now finds how thrilling beauty such a look appears on Shen Qinglan's face.

At the same time, I sighed slightly in my heart, it seems that Ann really fell in love with her military husband, if Eden knew...

"He is a soldier, a very outstanding soldier..." Shen Qinglan spoke softly and spoke slowly, telling the story between her and Fu Hengyi. She is not a person who likes to tell her private affairs to others, but An De Lie is her partner, and she is a very important partner, and Fu Hengyi is to accompany her through this life. Even if their positions are opposite, she hopes her friends know how good she is. People.

I don't know when Jin Enxi woke up and listened quietly to Shen Qinglan's remarks. She knew more than Andre and had seen the man from a distance. She was indeed a very good person, even she I have also checked Fu Hengyi's information, but his data confidentiality level is too high, and she was discovered before she could break through. If she didn't escape fast, she might have been caught.

Shen Qinglan knew that she would not be allowed to do so again, so she had never checked him since that time.

"An, it's dawn." Andrei got up and walked outside to take a look. "The rain has stopped, we should start."

In the middle of the night, Shen Qinglan slept for a few hours, but now it is good to wake up. The three of them extinguished the bonfire and covered up the traces before setting off.

Because of the heavy rain, they arrived several hours later than the scheduled time. They arrived at their destination in the middle of the night. After a long journey, Rao was in good physical strength. Now they need to rest to ensure adequate rescue operations. Physical strength.

"An, we are a little far from their location here, and it should be very safe." Andre opened the corner of the curtain and looked outside. There was no other tall building besides this building, so I was not afraid of meeting There are snipers in ambush.

Jin Enxi is still playing with her watch-like instrument, but this time, there is still a computer on her lap, and her fingers are jumping fast on it. After a while, a picture appears on the computer screen, carefully You will see that it seems to be a monitoring screen.

"Ann, there are a lot of people in their station. I took a closer look. This time, most of BK's high-level leaders are here, and KING is also among them, but I haven't found Eden's place yet." Jin Enxi said while operating.

It was clearly early in the morning, but the group of people did not sleep, and they got together, obviously discussing what was important, looking at their expressions, and knowing that it was definitely not a trivial matter.

Shen Qinglan and Andre stood behind her, looking at the arming on the screen and the people who came, eyes narrowed. This time BK's senior came 70%. Obviously this time the movement is quite large, if Z country knows The news will definitely send troops to assist, then Fu Hengyi...

Shen Qinglan even saw the cruel and crazy smile at the corner of KING's mouth, which lined the scars on his face, making his face look particularly grim, and her heart kept sinking.

"If I can't find it, I'll find a way to check it out tomorrow and confirm Eden's position." Shen Qinglan said in a deep voice. If it was only to be a detective, according to her skill, she could retreat with 80% confidence.

"No," Jin Enxi and Andre said in unison.

"Ann, this is too dangerous. If you give me a little more time, I will definitely know where Eden is." Jin Enxi said.

Time passed by one minute and one second. When the sky was about to shine, a glimmer of joy finally flashed in Jin Enxi's eyes. "Found it." In fact, the last time I went to rescue Eden, because the plan failed unexpectedly, Jin Enxi put a The latest type of tracker she developed was given to Eden just to find him.

But the signal never appeared, no, not completely. It actually appeared once a few days ago, so she could be sure that Eden was also brought here.

I just don't know what the reason is. The signal disappeared in a very short time, and on the way she came, she kept searching for the signal, but didn't find it.

After coming here, she took out the latest tracking device, and finally linked to the tracker in Eden's hand and tracked his whereabouts.

Shen Qinglan looked at the screen and said nothing. Eden seemed to be held alone in a place similar to a warehouse, but the warehouse was completely enclosed. There was no other exit except for a gate.

"An, what shall we do?" Andre asked in a deep voice, this warehouse is located in the center of the station, not far away is KING's residence, trying to escape the heavy defense to rescue Eden safely, the difficulty is not ordinary Big.

More importantly, according to the experience of their last rescue, Eden seemed to have been injected with some drugs, had no mobility at all, and naturally had no combat effectiveness.

Shen Qinglan still did not speak, just looked at the screen quietly, and spoke for a long time, "Can you know the time and location of their actions?"

"Ann, do you want to?" Andre looked at her.

Shen Qinglan nodded, "This is the best way. Since they are carrying out such a large amount of DP transactions, it is impossible for country Z to get no news. Even so, we might as well push the boat."

Jin Enxi's eyes lit up, "Do you want them to fight, we will save people in a mess, but what if KING takes Eden?"

"No, Eden does not have the ability to act, it is a drag for them, it is a terrible action, how can they bring a drag." Andre analysis.

Jin Enxi thought that this was indeed the case.

"I've checked before that this time their trading party is a big D owl in country Z, so they choose to trade here, the trading time is in the early hours of two days. But these actions are not internal to BK, they It's just a bodyguard for people."

"Send a message to the JD brigade of country Z, explaining the time and location of their actions." Shen Qinglan said, adding after thinking, "It is best to give them their weapons and the number of personnel, and I want them to also escape Nope."

This is not a problem for Jin Enxi at all. I saw that she quickly pressed a few times, and the message "the message has been sent successfully" appeared on the page.

"Captain, look at this." Mu Liancheng walked in with a mobile phone in his hand, his expression was very serious.

Fu Hengyi took a look, his face slightly changed, "Who sent this news?"

Behind Mu Liancheng was Li Diansheng, the captain of the JD brigade. He heard Fu Hengyi's question and replied, "A strange number was sent to my mobile phone. I immediately asked someone to check this number, but the display was empty. I don't think it's right, so I came to discuss with you.

"This operation is so confidential, how did the other party know? Did you send us such detailed information?" Mu Liancheng also felt strange, not only the time and place of the transaction, but also the number of personnel and weapons. In detail, if Li Liansheng was very sure that the colleagues who had mixed in undercover had already sacrificed, he would have to wonder if there was an undercover in them.

"Team Fu, do you think this information is credible?" Li Liansheng looked at Fu Hengyi.

Fu Hengyi's eyes were deep and he could not see the emotions.

"Captain, let's be more careful, in case this is a trap." Mulian City is still not at ease. BK's people have always been cunning. Who knows what tricks to play this time.

"Immediately send a message to the base and ask them to send ten more people over. Be sure to arrive here before tonight." Fu Hengyi said.

"Captain." Mulian Cheng looked at him in surprise.

Fu Hengyi didn't speak, but just glanced at him. Mu Liancheng said yes, went out and contacted the base leader.

"Team Fu, do I have to make a report with my superior and ask for reinforcements?" Li Liansheng asked Fu Hengyi for his opinions. Although he was the commander in charge of this operation, he was very convinced of Fu Hengyi's ability. The roll call before the action required Fu Hengyi's support.

Fu Hengyi shook his head, "Our movements should not be too large. In case of a grass shock, it is not worth the loss." He did not bring many people this time, but each of them was an elite, but the number of people from BK was somewhat beyond expectations. In order to ensure the safety of the brothers, He asked for additional troops.

The sharp knife moved very quickly. In the evening, ten team members arrived. Fu Hengyi summoned his people and looked at the familiar faces in front of him. Many of them were selected and trained by him. Many of them even worked with him on missions.

"This action is very dangerous. After receiving the news, BK seniors will appear six to seven out of ten. We have dealt with BK many times. I don't say you also know their strength. This battle is difficult to fight. I only ask you One point, to ensure my safety, I don't want to bring a handful of ashes with me when I go back, do you understand?"

"Understood." The same voice resounded in this space.

It was night, Fu Hengyi was alone in the office, looking at the dark night sky, the night was very good tonight, a full moon was hung in the sky, exuding a faint glory, he looked in the direction of the capital, I don't know the one who cares about him Whether people have fallen asleep now.

Thinking about it, he couldn't help laughing, and suddenly remembered Shen Qinglan's appearance after falling asleep, very quiet, very well-behaved, his eyes were soft like water, and it was March when he came home on holiday, which was the bustling season. , But can take her out for a walk.

At eleven o'clock the next day, Shen Qinglan opened his eyes, jumped up from the bed, quickly put on his clothes, hid weapons, daggers, etc., and when he opened the door to go out, he just met Ande. Lie and Jin Enxi looked at each other.

"Let's go." Shen Qinglan spoke softly.

I don't know when a car has been parked outside the hotel. Andrea sat in the cab. Shen Qinglan and Jin Enxi sat in the back. The car left quickly, leaving only a shadow.

BK is temporarily stationed, KING has already summoned personnel to prepare for the departure, "Boss, what about the people in the warehouse?" a blond white man asked.

KING was sitting on the boss chair, with a cigar in his hand, "still dizzy?"

The blond man nodded and scolded, "Bruce, this stupid, is too big, and hasn't woken up all day and night. Boss, is this man really ranked 19th in the killer list?"

His physique is so weak, how could he be so unbelievable? Although the organization was destroyed many years ago, there are still a lot of legends left.

KING spit a smoke ring, "You let Snow stay and look at him, this person is my cash cow, must watch it carefully."

The blond man nodded, "Got it, Boss. It's just that Snow's guy is probably unhappy. He's looking forward to this action for so long."

"You can stay and exchange with him." KING said indifferently.

The blond man stopped talking immediately, leaving behind to guard a person who can't even run even if there is something interesting tonight. He was stupid before he changed with Snow. If Snow is not happy, he is not happy, anyway, this is the boss's decision.

"Boss, do you say that this country's actions will involve Z country's slogan?" The blond man is a master who can't rest, and immediately found a new topic.

KING seems to be in a good mood tonight, and he doesn't mind chatting with him, "what happens when the note comes, we just collect the money, and later tell the brothers, if we are really lucky to meet the note, hit if I can, I will kill a few more, and I will run if I can't beat them, especially when I look at the men wearing green military uniforms. I have been watching them for a long time."

KING said cruelly that last time he folded a group of people in country Z. Although he is not an important person, he is also his person. It is so strange that he can feel happy in his heart.

"It's almost time, let's go." KING knocked the cigar into the ashtray at will, picked up the weapon on the table and walked out.

The blond man followed and smiled excitedly.

"Ann, they set off." Andre said with a night vision telescope in his hand.

They were in a private house opposite BK's temporary station at the moment. The house was not high and had only three floors. This place was a distance away from there. With the help of the night vision telescope, the door of the BK station can be clearly seen from the balcony on the third floor.

Shen Qinglan stood by the wall, holding a telescope in her hand. She watched a car coming out of the BK station until the last car left, and the door was closed before she put down the telescope.

"They're gone, let's go too. Remember, retreat immediately after saving people, don't fight, just follow the previously specified route, after arriving at the meeting point, leave LG and return to country Y, understand?" Shen Qinglan urged.

"Relax, Ann, we will not act without authorization." Jin Enxi put away the telescope and said.

They knew the distribution of the station. Shen Qinglan and the three men separated halfway, and they each found a hidden corner and turned into the wall.

Although the entire station is covered with cameras, it is not difficult for them to avoid the cameras.

Shen Qinglan landed gently, without making a sound, or even disturbing the two guards who were not far away. She moved quickly with the help of the surrounding plants, and left their perception in a blink of an eye.

Snow was very upset, and originally thought he could participate in the action tonight, but before he left, he received a notice to let him stay and watch a waste that passed out and did not know when to wake up.

That's right, in Snow's eyes, the cash cow Eden in KING's mouth is a waste. They didn't have much trouble when they caught him. Not only the blond man doubted the authenticity of Eden's killer rankings, but Snow also doubted.

He knew that KING wanted something in Eden's hands, and according to him, he wouldn't get it if he killed him directly, and he took him from the headquarters with great effort.

He glanced at the person lying on the ground with disdain, and kicked it out. The person on the ground did not respond at all. If it wasn't for breathing, it was believed that he was dead. "Yeah, it's ranked nineteenth, I can twist you with one finger."

Snow felt more and more angry and lifted his foot and kicked again. This time he directly kicked Eden upside down, but Eden still did not respond. Snow felt bored and scolded away.

When he left, Eden opened his eyes unresponsively. He covered his mouth for the first time, and the dull cough sounded in the empty warehouse.

Snow didn't show mercy when he kicked him. If it wasn't for his staggering endurance, I'm afraid it would have been exposed long ago. When the pain in his chest eased, Eden sat up.

His eyes are full of coldness. He knows what the purpose of KING's plant extract is. Although he is not a good person and has dyed blood in his hands, he does not bother to cooperate with an inhuman madman like KING. No matter what means he uses, he will never hand it over.

The action of getting up involved the wound on the body, and the wound that had healed had oozed blood again, and Eden seemed to see nothing, so he sat still.

Suddenly, his ears moved, and he reached out and took a small bead from his ear. It was really small. If you don't look it in front of you, I'm afraid you won't see it.

The warehouse is very dark, it can be said that you can't see your fingers, and the ball has a faint red light. If it is not so dark at the moment, I am afraid this red light will be ignored.

This is the tracker left by Jin Enxi. When he was not arrested, he heard Jin Enxi mention this thing, knowing that the one on his hand is the child, and the mother is in Jin Enxi, as long as the two are separated. Within two hundred meters, the sub-device will vibrate slightly and emit a faint red light.

Eden's face changed, and Jin Enxi came to rescue him again. Although he couldn't get out, he also knew that the defense here was very tight. He wanted to rescue him from here. It was not impossible with Jin Enxi and Andre.

He was anxious, but unable to stop. He stood up and walked around the warehouse, testing the environment with his feet.

The warehouse was empty. It could be said that there was nothing but him. He touched the door and put his ear on the door, trying to hear the situation outside, but it was quiet outside and he could not hear anything.

He sat down on the ground in a state of depression. Although he had recovered his strength now, the door of the warehouse was made of thick iron plate, and it could not be opened unless it was opened from the outside with a key.

He stared at the round bead in his hand, looking at the light that seemed to be a little brighter than before.

Snow kicked the warehouse key into his pocket and returned to his room with a dark face. He didn't even turn on the light. He touched the wine cabinet and took out a bottle of wine.

He was still not happy. He felt that KING is now more and more distrustful of him. Even blond men can follow him, but he will be left here.

Two more sips, and a bottle of wine soon lost half of it.

Shen Qinglan stood in the dark and looked at Snow quietly. She entered the room before Snow. She just saw Snow coming from the warehouse and saw him put the key in his pocket. Shen Qinglan just followed, then stepped into the room while he was not paying attention.

She was unfamiliar with the room, and did not deliberately search for a hiding place, so she hid behind the door, thinking that Snow could solve him without taking care, and took the key to save Eden.

Unexpectedly, after Snow entered, he did not close the door, let alone turn on the light, so he sat there drinking, and Shen Qinglan had no choice but to stand behind the door.

Waiting, I found that Snow was sitting on the sofa and fell asleep. Shen Qinglan suddenly flew out like lightning, and the silver light flashed in my hand. I only heard a smoldering. Snow's body was soft, and I couldn't open my eyes. Ended his life.

Shen Qinglan took his hand from his mouth. The blood on the general knife was wiped on his clothes. He reached out and took the key from his pocket. He walked away without looking back. After going out, no

Forgot to close the door.

BK's are all evil-doers. Shen Qinglan didn't even feel the slightest guilt at the start. Her mouth lightly ticked, Fu Hengyi, you see, this is the real me.

"The key is in hand." She sided her head and said gently.

"Received." Andre and Jin Enxi's voices came from his ears.

"Ann, there is a person 50 meters from your left hand." Jin Enxi said.

The left hand is in the direction of the warehouse, which means that this person can't avoid it at all. Shen Qinglan's eyes are ruthless, and he is about to solve this person, but he sees that Andrea has already succeeded.

Andrei made a gesture, Shen Qinglan nodded slightly, and the two walked towards the warehouse.

Shen Qinglan took out the key and opened the door. Eden inside knew that there was someone outside the door. He was hiding aside and was planning to stun this person and escape when someone came in.

"Eden, it's me." Andre grabbed the hand in front of him and whispered.

Eden stunned, put down his hand, and saw the coming person clearly, "Ann, why are you here?" He was not surprised to see Andre, but Ann...

"Don't talk nonsense, leave here first. Can you go?" Shen Qinglan asked.

"Yes, no fight, walking is still possible." Eden also knew that this is not the time to say this, nor nonsense.

"Andrea, you take him with me, and I will solve the others." Shen Qinglan rushed out after speaking, not giving them a chance to speak.

"Andrea, you shouldn't involve her in." Eden sighed.

Andrea did not know, but he was injured at the time, Sisley was also seriously injured in a coma, and lost a child. He didn't look at it, and Jin Enxi called Ann.

Now that Ann knows it, there is no such possibility for her to ignore her.

"It's too late to say this now. Go back and talk. Can you still go?" said Andre, and Eden nodded and followed Andre.

They were behind Shen Qinglan. In Shen Qinglan's headset, Jin Enxi was reporting to her the guarding situation of the entire station. She is now in the monitoring room and controls the monitoring scene of the entire station.

With the help of Jin Enxi, Shen Qinglan found a person with the least direction to kill. She did not use a weapon, but chose a saber, which meant that she had to be close to the enemy to solve them.

The blood stained her primordial hands, but she didn't care at all, and she looked blank.

Maybe they didn't expect them to come, or maybe KING took away most of the people. There were not many people in the entire station, and the guards were not strong. Shen Qinglan left this place without much effort. When it was safe, she sent a signal to Jin Enxi.

Soon after, Jin Enxi appeared, "Eden, are you okay, where did you get hurt?" Jin Enxi frowned when he saw Eden supported by Andrey.

Eden shook his head. "I wasn't injured. I was just injected with some medicine. There was no energy in my body. Rest assured, it will be fine in a few days."

"Ann, our luck was really good this time. Everyone went with KING. If it was like this last time, we would have taken Eden away." Jin Enxi was very happy, could she be unhappy, Eden was rescued, they There were no casualties. She also messed up BK's station. She left a little good in it. When KING came back, he gave him a big surprise.

There was no joy in Shen Qinglan's face, she frowned slightly, "You go first, I have something to do."

"Ann, where are you going?" Jin Enxi asked. The other two looked at her, didn't they say they would leave here immediately.

Shen Qinglan didn't say, but just turned around and left, Jin Enxi thought, his face changed, and pulled Shen Qinglan, "An, you are crazy, you can't go there. And there are so many soldiers in country Z, he won't necessarily be there. of."

Shen Qinglan opened her hand and looked at her fixedly, "What if?"

In case, Fu Hengyi is there. If he is injured, it is KING, a cruel devil.

"Ann, have you ever thought about it, in case he is really there, you go, and he recognizes you, what should you do?" Jin Enxi once again held her, let her go, KING took away So many people, that place must be very dangerous tonight, she can't let Shen Qinglan take the risk.

"En Xi, you can't stop me." Shen Qinglan looked firm.

Jin Enxi's expression became gloomy, yes, if Shen Qinglan really decided to do something, she had no way to stop her, not to mention her, and no one on the scene could do it.

Eden couldn't understand what they were saying, and his face was blank, Andrei didn't understand it at the moment, but he understood it all at this moment, he wanted to persuade Shen Qinglan not to go, but he also had a lover, he knew that feeling, if Change to him today, he will make the same choice.

Andre gave Eden to Jin Enxi, "Ann, I'll go with you." His fighting power is much better than that of Jin Enxi. Jin Enxi is better at computer technology.

"Wait a minute, who of you can tell me what the hell is going on, where is Ann going? What do you do?" Eden felt wrong.

No one answered her, Jin Enxi just shook his head and rejected Andre's proposal, "No, you're hurt, I'll go with An."

"The injuries on me have long been okay."

"Okay, don't argue about it. I'll just go by myself. You take Eden to the country Y."

"No," Andre said in a deep voice. "Ann, if you don't take me with you, then you can't go either. If you worry about him, we will worry about you too."

Jin Enxi nodded.

Shen Qinglan looked at them calmly, and nodded slowly for a long time, "Okay, Andrei accompanied me, Enxi, is it okay for you to take Eden by yourself?"

Jin Enxi did not argue with Andre at this time, nodded and agreed, "No problem."

Eden still doesn't know what they are going to do, but he knows that this matter must be dangerous, but he can't stop it. He can only keep silent.

"Ann, you pay attention to safety," Eden said.

Shen Qinglan nodded and looked at Andrei in the opposite direction.

This is the edge of a rain forest, which belongs to the border of country Z. The rain forest at night should have been quiet, but at this moment there are gunfire, and there are people screaming from time to time.

"Captain, they want to flee to MD, if we let them cross the border, we can no longer pursue." Mu Liancheng said, looking very serious.

Fu Hengyi held the night vision telescope in his hand, and his expression was also serious. "Notify the people in Group B to go around from the left side. Be sure to surround them in this rain forest. They cannot be allowed to get out of this rain forest." This rainforest no longer belongs to the territory of our country, and it is impossible to pursue it. They have already sacrificed several JD police and armed police on this side, and these people cannot be sacrificed in vain.

Mu Liancheng replied yes, turned around and left, Fu Hengyi handed the night vision telescope to Li Liansheng on the side, "Here is here for you."

Li Liansheng's hand was hanging, and there were blood stains on his clothes. He was obviously injured. Even Fu Hengyi's clothes had blood, but that was not his, but the blood of the enemy.

Fu Hengyi finally chose to believe the text message, and intuitively told him that what was said in the text message was true. His intuition has always been accurate, and this intuition has saved his life several times.

Li Liansheng had originally disagreed with this battle plan and thought it was too risky. In case this is a game, they did not all get involved.

It was only Fu Hengyi who convinced him in the end. According to Fu Hengyi's plan, they ambushed here early, and they really waited for the transaction between the two parties. Among them were BK members, including KING, the leader of BK.

Just when they successfully traded and wanted to retreat, Li Liansheng rushed out with someone, and the two sides immediately clashed with gunfire.

The general D vendors are handed over to Li Liansheng and the Armed Police. Fu Hengyi mainly dealt with the people of BK. Because they have been prepared for it, they did catch many people from the other party at the beginning and seized a lot of DP, but BK in the end It was BK, with a strong fighting power. The main bosses were all protected by BK and fled into the rain forest, causing the current difficult battle.

Li Liansheng was injured by BK's people. If Fu Hengyi didn't show up in time, I'm afraid it wouldn't be that simple.

Fu Hengyi chased straight in one direction, he was not sure where KING would flee, but if it was him, he would definitely choose this path, after all, this is the nearest.

This road is not easy to go, plus it has been raining two days ago, and the ground is slippery, which is even more difficult. Fu Hengyi walked fast, as if those obstacles did not exist in his eyes.

Sure enough, soon after hearing the gunshots, Fu Hengyi's eyes narrowed and speeded up, and he saw several people who were entangled together, one of them was the soldier under his hand, Wang Hao. The other two are members of BK, and on the side, KING is still standing, with a leisurely look, as if watching a play.

Wang Hao is almost unsustainable. His fighting can indeed be ranked in the top three in the team, but the two BK members are not vegetarian, especially with a pistol standing next to them, staring at them. KING, facing the black hole's muzzle and increasingly fierce attacks, Wang Hao's face does not have a trace of fear. He is waiting. He believes that as long as he tries to drag these three people, then the captain will definitely take someone to rush To.

This group of BK's beasts did not do a lot of bad things in recent years. He had witnessed their killing of old, weak women and children, even pregnant women.

This scumbag is simply not worthy of living in the world.

Wang Hao got another punch in the head, his eyes were black for a while, his military uniform had been broken, and several wounds were bleeding, especially the wound in his abdomen, if it was not bandaged in time, I am afraid this Time will die.

"Isn't it just a crossbar, ah, I told you to do more business, I can meet you every time, you bugs." A BK mercenary grabbed Wang Hao's back collar and brutally bruised his face. Punched and yelled.

Not only people with sharp knives hate BK, but people with BK also hate sharp knives. There are not many people who die with sharp knives in BK these years, especially their captain, what is called tiger or lion.

Just as the sharp knife in the hand of a mercenary was about to be inserted into Wang Hao's chest, a gunshot sounded, and the sharp knife of the mercenary fell to the ground immediately. Before he could react, a bullet was worn. Through his head.

The burly body fell straight.

The other mercenary jumped away immediately, but still did not escape another bullet. The bullet penetrated his chest. The last thing he saw was a face he would never forget and hate.

Fu Hengyi's face was cold. He didn't go to help Wang Hao, but just stood there. The gun was aimed at KING. KING was also watching him. "Fu Hengyi, we met again." His voice was squeezed through the teeth. from.

It was originally intended to kill Fu Hengyi, but in an instant, the two of them were killed by each other, or under their own eyes.

boom.

Without saying anything, Fu Hengyi pulled the trigger directly, and the bullet shot straight at KING, aiming at KING's head.

KING's face didn't change, he quickly stooped, and escaped the bullet. Continuous gunshots rang in the night, waking up a large group of flying birds.

Cough, the monthly ticket is three hundred plus more. (Although I can't climb the monthly ticket list, the monthly ticket still requires Qidi, hehe)

Chapter 188 Shen Qinglan, Stop

Soon, the place was quiet again. Both of them ran out of bullets. Fu Hengyi threw the gun on the ground. KING wanted to escape, but he also knew that Fu Hengyi would not be solved. I'm afraid he couldn't escape.

With a cruel smile, KING threw away the gun in his hand, and the two were entangled together.

When Shen Qinglan and Andre rushed here, they saw the scene of fighting between the two sides. There were still motionless people lying on the ground, I wonder if it was dead or alive, there were D vendors, and a few were from Z country. Yes, Shen Qinglan's face changed when he saw the familiar military uniform. Especially when he saw Mulian City, he was shocked. Fu Hengyi was really here.

In fact, Mu Liancheng's face is painted with military oil paint, which is not recognized by people who are not familiar, but Shen Qinglan recognized it at a glance, or thanks to her amazing memory.

Seeing that not far from Mu Liancheng, a black hole's muzzle was aimed at him, but Mu Liancheng didn't realize that Shen Qinglan raised his hand with a shot, and then left without even heading back, she was going to find Fu Hengyi .

Mu Liancheng didn't even know that he was almost going to have tea with Lord Yan just now. He was attentively dealing with the person in front of him, and had no time to look elsewhere.

The rain forest is too large. Shen Qinglan's attempt to find Fu Hengyi is equivalent to finding a needle in a haystack.

"An, this rainforest is so big, how can we find it." Andre opened the bush in front of his eyes and asked Shen Qinglan.

Shen Qinglan's face was quiet, but if she looked closely, she could find the worries between her eyebrows. Before seeing Mulian City, she was just guessing. There was a trace of hope in her heart. Hope Fu Hengyi would not appear here, but she saw it. Mu Liancheng, that fluke disappeared. Fu Hengyi was the captain and a responsible captain. His teammates appeared here. This time the mission was so dangerous, he couldn't have not appeared.

She ended up with a venomous snake that wanted to attack her, looked around, and pointed to a place, "Go this way."

Andrea glanced at the direction she chose. "This is indeed the nearest road to the national border, but they may not choose it."

"Try your luck." Shen Qinglan said lightly, but the pace under her feet involuntarily accelerated a few points. When meeting D dealers or BK members along the way, they would shoot in time. Andrea wanted to help each other. But Shen Qinglan shot, and he couldn't watch it.

With their participation, even if the situation could not be immediately reversed, it also reduced the pressure on the Z-Country police to a certain extent and reduced the number of casualties.

At first they hadn't responded, but the frequency increased, and they knew that someone seemed to be helping them.

But no one knows who helped them, only thought it was the friendly army invited by Li Liansheng. Later, after this matter was over, the Sabre Army received praise from the superior leadership.

"An, there seems to be someone fighting over there." Andrei pointed in one direction, Shen Qinglan's eyes narrowed and walked in that direction.

Andrei followed, helping a lot of people on their way, and the bullets on their bodies were almost consumed.

Shen Qinglan approached and saw Fu Hengyi fighting with KING. The two of them were evenly matched. After playing for so long, there was no difference. Fu Hengyi added a lot of wounds. Although they were all skin traumas, they looked quite scary. , But KING is not much better.

Shen Qinglan and Andre were hidden on one side, and were not noticed by them.

"An, he is your man?" Andre pointed to Fu Hengyi.

Shen Qinglan's eyes did not leave Fu Hengyi's body, always paying attention to his situation, and when he heard Andrea's words, he nodded gently, "Yes."

Although Andre has never seen Fu Hengyi, but he knows KING, and combined with Shen Qinglan's performance, it is not difficult to guess Fu Hengyi's identity.

"Ann, your man is very strong." Andrea looked serious and said seriously, from their one move, Andrea can naturally see the strength of Fu Hengyi, not to mention he also KING has played, and has a certain understanding of KING's strength. He silently thought that if he had a chance of winning against Hengyi Fu, he would have no chance.

"Ann, are you going to help them?"

Shen Qinglan shook his head. Now that Fu Hengyi has the upper hand, if she appears, Fu Hengyi will definitely be surprised at her appearance. Instead, she might help, just looking at the blood on his body. Shen Qinglan's eyes toward KING are getting colder and colder. .

Fu Hengyi and KING couldn't tell the difference, and finally KING's eyes showed impatience, "Hey, I said that you are also a reinforcement this time anyway. This operation was also destroyed by you. If you have already made a contribution, let me go How are you going?"

Fu Hengyi didn't answer him, but his moves became more and more fierce. Every blow hit directly at the point. KING was hit in the abdomen, scolded with pain, and a cruel flash in his eyes.

I don't know where to take out a dagger, and stabbed at Fu Hengyi. Fu Hengyi flashed to avoid it, but he still scratched his arm, the wound was deep, and immediately a lot of blood bleed.

Now that the sky was about to shine, Shen Qinglan naturally saw the wound on Fu Hengyi's arm, and his eyes were ruthless. He raised the pistol and aimed at KING, but he was afraid to pull the trigger. Fu Hengyi was fighting with KING. One accidentally, this bullet may hit Fu Hengyi, which she absolutely cannot accept.

Two people who were evenly close to each other, now one with weapons and one without weapons, Fu Hengyi inevitably fell into the downwind. Shen Qinglan's eyes were fixed on Fu Hengyi, the hand holding the gun was motionless, and his expression was cold.

Fu Hengyi put a knife on his right chest, KING pulled out the dagger, blood sprayed his face, he grinned cruelly, sticking his tongue out and licking the blood from his mouth, Fu Hengyi stepped back, and his face suddenly turned white, His hand covered the wound, full of blood.

KING raised his dagger again. When he pointed the dagger at Fu Hengyi's heart, Shen Qinglan finally pulled the trigger, the bullet passed through the air, through KING's arm, and hit the trunk next to him.

KING screamed, Fu Hengyi took the opportunity to give up his intact hand, and then smashed a few punches on his body, pulled out a pair of handcuffs from his waist, and banged on KING's hands.

Seeing that KING was subdued, Shen Qinglan pulled Andrea and withdrew, "Go." The direction was the edge of the rainforest.

After Fu Hengyi determined that KING had no ability to act, he handed him over to Wang Hao, who had recovered a little, and chased them in the direction of Shen Qinglan's departure.

Just now when he was fighting KING, he noticed someone in secret, but he couldn't tell who he was. In the end, the man seemed to help him.

Shen Qinglan's speed is very fast, she knows that her shot will definitely attract Fu Hengyi's attention, but it is still open, just after KING is about to insert the dagger into Fu Hengyi's heart.

Although her speed is fast, Fu Hengyi's speed is faster. Looking at the flying back in front, Fu Hengyi's face changed from the initial shock to condensation.

The wound was still bleeding, he clearly felt the loss of physical strength, and reason told him that he should stop, but the body was not, and he stepped away from the familiar figure, "Shen Qinglan, stand still."

Fu Hengyi shouted at the front figure.

Shen Qinglan's body was momentarily stiff, but he recovered in an instant, accelerating the speed of his feet, and Quan assumed that he had not heard it.

"Shen Qinglan, if you don't stand still, I will keep chasing on. I was seriously injured. If you want to watch me bleed and die, you will just run."

Sure enough, the figure in front stood still, and Fu Hengyi's heart sank to the bottom of the valley instantly.

"An, go away." Andrea also knew the seriousness of the matter and urged that the man is still not sure, even if he asks later, he can not admit it, but if he hits face to face, it is really not clear. Too.

"Andre, you go, you haven't seen your face yet." Shen Qinglan said to Andre instead of leaving.

Andrea tried to persuade, but heard Shen Qinglan continue to say, "He is my husband, will not do anything to me. You go first, join them with Enxi."

Andrei did not continue to insist. He took a deep look at Shen Qinglan and left. Fu Hengyi did not care about him. His eyes were fixed on the back. The closer he was, the harder his heart tremble.

Why, Shen Qinglan will appear here, isn't she vacationing in country Y? But the person who was supposed to be on vacation abroad appeared in such a rain forest at the moment, still when he was fighting criminals.

Shen Qinglan can clearly hear the footsteps behind him getting closer and closer, five meters, four meters, three meters, one meter...

She closed her eyes slightly, and the gun in her hand had long since been unknown where she was thrown. Her hands clenched into fists, as if waiting for the end of the trial.

Finally, Fu Hengyi stood in front of her.

Shen Qinglan had opened her eyes at this moment, and her eyes were quiet.

"Why are you here?" Fu Hengyi's eyes flickered fiercely, her eyes fixed on Shen Qinglan, afraid to hear what she didn't want to hear from her mouth.

Shen Qinglan was also looking at him, and his pale face due to excessive blood loss. Many wounds on his body were left when he was fighting with KING. Looking closely, she saw the wounds on him more clearly, More than I expected.

Distressed in her eyes.

"Tell me, why are you here?" Fu Hengyi said in a deep voice.

"What do you think?" Shen Qinglan asked softly, his voice very soft.

Fu Hengyi looked at her calmly, with unclear emotions in her eyes, "I want you to tell me personally."

Shen Qinglan was silent.

"You just fired that shot, right?" Fu Hengyi's voice was dull, and the tail was trembling.

Shen Qinglan nodded slowly in Fu Hengyi's eyes, "Yes."

"Why shoot?" If it wasn't for that shot, I'm afraid I didn't find Shen Qinglan so easily.

"Don't want to see you hurt."

Fu Hengyi's eyes crossed a different kind of emotion, and he spoke slowly, "Why should I run away if the gun fires naturally?"

"I don't want you to recognize it." But you still recognized it.

Shen Qinglan lowered his eyes, stared at the ground under his feet, and spoke softly, "Fu Hengyi, if I said, I am not with them, do you believe it?"

"Letter." A word slammed loudly, resounding in Shen Qinglan's ear, without a trace of hesitation, almost as soon as her words fell.

Shen Qinglan raised his head sternly and looked at Fu Hengyi, "Do you believe me?"

Fu Hengyi looked at her, there was no disappointment and anger that she thought, and some were only relieved. Shen Qinglan felt a bit sad. It turned out that he never doubted that she and KING were together. All he wanted was a reason, even if it was just A reason she made up at random. Her eyes seemed to be crystal clear. How much Fu Hengyi loved her would violate her own principles, so she believed her.

"Fu Hengyi, I don't want to lie to you, but now, I can't tell you why I am here and who I am. But I can tell you that I have nothing to do with BK."

Fu Hengyi reached out his hand and gently wiped the tears on her face. The movement was gentle, and Shen Qinglan found out that she was crying.

"I know, I'll wait for you to tell me." Fu Hengyi said softly. In fact, he knew it early in the morning. Shen Qinglan is definitely not a simple Shen family. The Shen family is a trick that can teach their children to defend themselves, but it will definitely not. Teach her how to kill.

The first time he returned home in the middle of the night, Fu Hengyi had handed Shen Qinglan once. Although it was only a few tricks, from Shen Qinglan's direct and neat skill, he knew that this was not taught by the Shen family.

He had not guessed, and had thought to investigate, but in the end he did nothing, and he believed she would be willing to tell him one day. Seeing Shen Qinglan here today, he was really surprised.

Shen Qinglan didn't want to cry, she was not a crying person, but at the moment facing Fu Hengyi, she finally couldn't help crying.

Fu Hengyi just wanted to comfort her. As a result, people cried more fiercely and could only hold people in her arms, patting her gently, "Fool, I said, I will never leave you."

Shen Qinglan grabbed the clothes on Fu Hengyi's chest and smelled the rusty smell of the tip of her nose before finally remembering that Fu Hengyi had a wound on her body. She hurriedly withdrew. Sure enough, the blood on his chest bled out again because of her movement just now. She panicked, reaching up to cover the wound, full of blood.

"Don't panic, I'm fine, you leave here immediately." You can't let others know that Shen Qinglan appears here, otherwise it will be unclear, he believes her, but others may not.

Shen Qinglan shook her head. How did Fu Hengyi look like now, how could she leave.

"Be obedient, let others see things and trouble, you leave here first, I promise I will appear in front of you well." Fu Hengyi promised, his voice showed a trace of weakness.

Shen Qinglan still shook his head, "I watched them take you away and then I leave, Fu Hengyi, don't worry about me, the rain forest is just like the back garden at home for me, I will not be ill, nor will I be injured, I will do it I have finished my work, I will go home immediately, go home and wait for you, and then I will tell you everything."

Fu Hengyi has just watched it carefully. She really has no wounds on her body, "Okay."

Fu Hengyi contacted Mu Liancheng, and Shen Qinglan supported him.

Mu Liancheng was originally nearby, and came quickly, Shen Qinglan avoided it before he came, watching Mu Liancheng help Fu Hengyi leave, Shen Qinglan left here.

Andre did not leave too far, and there was a special contact method between them. Shen Qinglan was very convenient to contact him.

"Ann, are you okay?" Andrea asked, cautiously.

Shen Qinglan shook her head, "I'm fine, let's go." She said nothing, Andrea followed, and didn't know what to say for a while.

"Andrea, let's separate here. I'm going back. You go back to country Y and talk to Enxi and they will see them when I have time." After leaving the rain forest, Shen Qinglan said to Andrea .

Andrei nodded in silence and turned away.

"Captain, how do you feel?" Mu Liancheng looked at Fu Hengyi's blood, very worried.

Fu Hengyi shook his head, "I'm fine, how is KING?"

"It has been given to Li Liansheng, and they will be optimistic."

"How are the casualties this time?"

"No one died on our side, but most of them were injured. Except for three who were seriously injured, the others were all slightly injured. It would be fine to raise them for a few days."

Fu Hengyi heard the words and was slightly relieved. This was the brother he brought out. He naturally had to bring them back completely.

"What about Li Liansheng?"

Mu Liancheng was silent for a moment, and Shen Sheng said, "Fifteen were dead, and dozens were seriously injured."

Fu Hengyi's heart sank. Although compared with the number of opponents, their sacrifice at this point can be said to be a victory, but the loss of these 15 lives still made Fu Hengyi feel a bit heavy, they are all heroes, to protect The country's security is a hero who has dedicated his life.

Fu Hengyi simply bandaged in the nearby hospital and returned to the base with the large army. Although there were many wounds on his body, most of them were skin traumas, that is, the knife in the chest, because he reached out to block the block, and there was no injury. And key.

This time the mission was very successful, and most of the criminals were arrested. Although they were partly escaped, they captured the largest D owl in country Z. The only regret was that they were escaped by KING. During the escort process, there were BK's people left KING.

When this incident was sent back to the army, it made Mu Liancheng angry for a long time. "This bunch of fools can't even stand personally, and we have spent so much effort."

Mu Liancheng scolded, but involved his own wound and coughed repeatedly.

Fu Hengyi leaned on the hospital bed, but he didn't have any expression. He was angry when he knew about it, but he quickly figured it out. If KING was caught so easily, he was not KING anymore.

He had a mobile phone in his hand. This was just sent by Mulian City. "It's better to go back at this time and think about how to write this report."

Mu Liancheng looked stiff, looking at Fu Hengyi, "Captain, isn't this your business?"

Fu Hengyi raised his bandaged right hand, "Do you think I can write a report?"

Mu Lian Chen choked and walked out of the ward with a bitter face. Your right hand is injured and you cannot write a report, but you can send a message to someone. Captain, don't think I didn't see you playing on your phone.

It was just that the Guan Da level crushed the man. Who made him his captain? Mu Liancheng glanced at his equally injured right hand and went back to write a report.

Seeing that the extra people had left, Fu Hengyi called Shen Qinglan, "Are you home?"

Shen Qinglan actually arrived home. She didn't return to the compound, but in Jiangxin Yayuan, listening to Fu Hengyi's familiar voice, she smiled slightly, "Just arrived home. How is your injury?"

This action was originally confidential. Fu Hengyi was injured and the family did not know. Except for Shen Qinglan, Fu Hengyi did not intend to notify the family, so as not to worry people.

"I'm okay. I've been bandaged. They are all slightly injured, but some blood loss is too much."

Shen Qinglan heard the words and was relieved, but she didn't know what to say for a while. She just encountered such a thing. Her identity was almost exposed. She didn't know how to face Fu Hengyi.

Fu Hengyi seemed to be unaware of her uncomfortableness, and said gently, "I have a good rest at home these days, so don't go home for the time being. I'm not talking to my family about traveling abroad. I can go after two days of rest. Play abroad for two days."

"Okay, Fu Hengyi, I'll wait for you to go home." Wait for you to go home, and then tell you everything, just hope that you will not hate me later.

Fu Hengyi agreed with a smile.

Hanging up the phone, Shen Qinglan sat on the sofa for a while before contacting Jin Enxi. They learned that they had returned to country Y safely, and Eden was relieved.

"Ann, are you okay?" Jin Enxi asked, avoiding the others, she already knew from Andre's mouth that they had encountered Fu Hengyi.

Knowing what she asked, Shen Qinglan smiled, "I'm fine, I will come again in two days."

"He didn't ask anything?"

"No, Enxi, I'm a little tired. I have to rest first."

Shen Qinglan walked into the bedroom, lying on the bed, closing her eyes, but she couldn't sleep anymore. She was obviously tired, but she didn't have the slightest drowsiness.

She was thinking about Fu Hengyi and how to explain to Fu Hengyi.

In a foreign manor, the man's face was covered with sweat, and his hands were swollen with blue muscles. At first glance, he was enduring great pain.

Men look good, but they look feminine, but they don't feel feminine. Probably the pain was too severe. He gritted his teeth tightly, and his face was full of vultures.

He was lying on the bed, the sheets under him were already wet, and the pain was huge.

Next to him, stood a doctor-like man with an oriental face, who was preoccupied with applying a needle to the man's leg, as if the man's painful growl was unheard.

An hour later, he pulled those needles off the man's leg. "Alan, how are you feeling today?"

The man on the bed, Allen, smiled in the corner of his mouth. "Very good." It's better than ever.

"I also see it very well. Your leg consciousness has recovered a lot. If you go on like this, you can get rehabilitation training in less than a year, maybe you can stand up in three years."

Allen heard the words and said in a cold voice, "No, three years is too long, at most one year, I want to be like ordinary people."

"This is not possible, Alan. It was a miracle that your legs could be kept. It is now beginning to restore consciousness. It is already a gift from God to stand up within three years. Within a year, you are when I am Fairy?" Peter said angrily, counting Allen's whimsy.

Allen grinned cruelly, and a pistol was aimed at Peter. "Don't talk nonsense to me. I said that one year must be one year. If I can't stand up after one year, then go to God and pray for me. Believe it. So many miracles have happened, and this one is not worse."

Peter was pointed at the muzzle, but he was not afraid, but his heart knew that Alan was not joking with him, he would really do it. This Allen was a lunatic before, and since that incident, he has been even more mad.

Opening the muzzle, Peter said impatiently, "Got it, I will try my best, don't always point the gun at me without moving, be careful that I really don't cure, you just cry." Left the room.

Allen felt the pain in his leg, looked at the brilliant eyes outside the window, and remembered a distant man who was too far away, with a smile on his face, "Little Seven, you must wait for me."

Shen Qinglan slept for a whole day at home. When she woke up the next day, the whole person was a little drowsy. She had a dream, a long dream. The dream was all scenes that had been trained at the Devil's Base. Frames and frames are still clearly engraved in my mind.

Her eyes were a little empty, and there was a dull pain deep in her heart. She dreamed about Qin Mu, who protected her in her arms and finally died to protect her.

She picked up her phone and glanced at the time. At ten in the morning, she slowly stood up and changed her clothes before going to the bathroom to wash.

After washing, Shen Qinglan left the house. She needed to go to country Y. As for the meal she had originally agreed with her instructor, she was postponed because of the things she encountered a few days ago.

Shen Qinglan went to Shang Yayuan first, and took out a passport from the drawer. The photo on it was not her own, and her identity information could not match her.

She just left the country more than a week ago, and now uses her own identity, so how did she come back? How to explain? In order to avoid trouble, it is natural not to use your own identity.

Several of them have multinational passports, and even the identity of each passport is different. Shen Qinglan first went to the mall on the way to the airport, and when she came out, she was already a woman of about 278, with a face makeup Exquisite. Wearing sunglasses, burgundy curly hair, wearing a black tight skirt, outside is a trench coat of the same color, at the foot is a pair of hate sky, a fashionable girl dress.

This dress is standing in front of Shen Junyu, Shen Junyu may not recognize that this is his sister.

Passed the airport staff their passports, took off their sunglasses, and the staff glanced away. Did not see any abnormality at all.

In country Y, the pick-up is still Jin Enxi, "An."

Jin Enxi and Shen Qinglan have known each other for so many years, and know each other's details. It is not difficult to recognize Shen Qinglan.

Going straight to the hospital, Sisley was able to get up. With Eden joining, she recovered faster.

Shen Qinglan went to see Sisley first, and then went to see Eden. Eden also had injuries on his body. This was tortured when he was just caught by KING, but he was after all from the Devil's base. One move has no effect on him.

KING gave up after playing several times, and he was afraid that he would run away, so that people would always be injected with drugs that made people feel weak.

"Eden." Shen Qinglan has changed back to his clothes, still dressed in a casual outfit, with no makeup on her face.

Eden had already learned from Andre's mouth that Shen Qinglan was married. When she saw her again, her eyes were bright and dark again, and then she looked at her with a smile, "An, you are here. "

"do you feel better now?"

"It's much better. In fact, you shouldn't come to rescue me. KING won't kill me." Eden said, he knew that this matter would definitely bring trouble to Shen Qinglan, after all, she is now in this status, Once people know that she still has a relationship with them, I am afraid that Z will not tolerate her.

From the day Eden met Shen Qinglan, she knew that this girl was different from others, and unlike anyone in the base. She looked cold and ruthless, but deep in her eyes, there was still Warm and soft.

Her heart is clean, and such cleanliness has always attracted him, making him willing to do anything for this clean, but now he is pulling her back into the vortex.

"Eden, don't let me hear such words in the future, I just thought I didn't hear it." Shen Qinglan spoke lightly, even displeased in his tone.

But Eden knew she was upset and smiled helplessly, "Got it. When will you go back?"

"Confirm that you are all safe and leave. Sisley's injury..."

"Relax, it's okay." Eden noticed the ring on her hand, a glance of sadness under her eyes, but relieved.

In fact, I knew he and Ann were impossible, but now I know that she should wait for her own happiness, and she should bless.

"Ann, I heard you are married, congratulations." Eden sincerely wishes.

Shen Qinglan smiled slightly, as if he didn't see the sadness in his eyes, they were all proud people, and their own embarrassment did not want to be seen by others.

"Thank you."

Noting his sight, Shen Qinglan's hand moved slightly. Before setting off to save people, she took the ring and brought it back again this time.

In the ward, they were silent for a while. They hadn't seen each other for six years, and Eden knew her thoughts well. Now that one is married and the other is still injured, she actually doesn't know what to do. Say what.

In the end, Eden took the initiative to break the silence. "Ann, I didn't give him what KING wanted. The one I took was actually destroyed by me. It is impossible for them to find the plant based on the sample.

"The tribe you have visited..."

"That tribe was deep in the primitive jungle, and most people couldn't find it at all. I accidentally lost my way and walked in there, and I walked through so many places, and I only saw that plant there, in a short time. It's impossible for them to find that kind of plant."

Shen Qinglan frowned slightly, "How do they know you have this kind of thing in your hand?"

Speaking of this, Eden's expression suddenly cooled down, "I took the extract of that plant back to the laboratory. I originally wanted to study it carefully, but the assistants around me did not know who received the benefit and leaked the message. Go out."

In this way, what else does Shen Qinglan don't understand, looking at Eden, "What about that person?"

Knowing who she asked, Eden chuckled with a chill in his mouth, "I don't know, I'm looking for him sooner or later, and I will find it one day. Before I was caught by KING, I was working on a new drug. He was The most suitable test body."

Shen Qinglan nodded and said no more. For those who betrayed, what Eden wanted to deal with was his freedom, she did not interfere.

Shen Qinglan stayed in the hospital for another two days and confirmed that Sisley and Eden had no problems and returned to the country. Of course, before going back, Shen Qinglan went to the mall and bought gifts for everyone before going back.

"Ann, I found out that you are also a shopaholic now. I thought only the woman of Sisley would like shopping spree." Helping Shen Qinglan dragging a big suitcase, Jin Enxi said. Shen Qinglan also has a suitcase in his hand.

Shen Qinglan smiled. When she came, she was empty-handed, and when she returned, she dragged two large boxes.

Before entering the airport, Shen Qinglan remembered what happened to Yan Xi at the exhibition and looked at Jin Enxi. "You have time to check the Yancheng of Nancheng."

Jin Enxi was shocked and did not react. She was not familiar with Country Z, and some did not understand who the Yan family was.

Shen Qinglan explained, "I asked you to help me check Qin Mu's life experience before? Do you want to know whether Qin Mu has anything to do with Yan's family?"

Jin Enxi naturally remembered Qin Mu. Since the last time Shen Qinglan asked her to help investigate Qin Mu's life and see if she still has family, she has been checking, but the original data was destroyed too thoroughly to be recovered at all. , Naturally there is no progress. Now Shen Qinglan provides her with a direction, then things are relatively simple.

"Okay. I will go back in a few days." Jin Enxi said.

Shen Qinglan has no objection, and now she really needs the help of Jin Enxi, and she does not come forward in many ways.

Digression

Cough, seeing this, won't you want to send me a blade?[To finger]

I was hesitant to confess now, but then think about it, it's really not a good time to confess, Lan Lan's heart is still scared, fearing that she will lose Fu after confession, so she has no courage to confess now, um , So wait any longer

PS: In view of the prowess of the monthly tickets yesterday, we will add more at 12 noon today

189 Chapter 189 Qin Mu Is Yan Family? (Two more)

In the hospital ward, Andre came in and saw Eden's sad face. "Aan is gone?" Eden asked.

Andrei nodded, "En Xi sent it. Since you love her so much, why don't you tell her?" Although Shen Qinglan may not know it, but it's always different to say it or not.

Eden smiled, "Andrea, I love her is my business. She knows and doesn't know. Acceptance and acceptance are not important. I always want her happiness. The person who brings her happiness is my best Well, it's not me, and I will be grateful to that person."

Andre shook his head. He couldn't agree with Eden's view. Instead, he loved a person, so the person who gave him happiness must be him, or someone else. He couldn't be worried.

"Eden, you..." Andre tried to persuade, but he didn't know how to persuade. Such a thing as feelings is actually a very luxurious thing for people of their status.

Eden laughed, with a shimmering light in his eyes, "Andre, Ann has never been a person who can be easily controlled. I want to give her happiness and she won't accept it."

Andre was silent, knowing what Eden said made sense, not to mention Eden, the Austin of the Duke of Kent, not the same.

Smiled, you see, Ann is really ruthless. If you don't like it, you won't even give the other party a chance. But perhaps because of this, Eden and Austin would love her that way.

"Andrea, have you seen that man?" Eden hesitated, "It's the man An married."

Andrei nodded and shook his head, "I have seen him once, and the last time I went to save you, I have not had close contact with him. But he is a very strong person." The person who can subdue KING is definitely a The strong, and he admires such a strong most.

Eden is more at ease this time, just be a strong man, only a strong enough person can protect the safety.

"Eden, do you have anything to hide from us?" Andre suddenly saw something wrong in Eden's expression and asked.

Eden wanted to shake his head, but after thinking about it, he still said, "Maybe that person is still alive."

Andre didn't understand it at the beginning. After thinking about it, his face changed drastically, and he looked at Eden incredulously. "This is impossible. At first, we saw that he was seriously injured and fell into the sea." If the person was still alive, Then...

Eden frowned, "I'm not sure now, all this is just my guess, maybe I think too much."

"You must have thought too much." Andrea gritted his teeth. If it would still be alive, would it still be human?

Eden pursed his lips, a flash of worry flashed between his eyebrows, I hope he really thought too much.

After Shen Qinglan returned, she gave away the gifts brought to everyone one by one, and then her days returned to calm. Fu Hengyi still did not return in the army. Shen Qinglan would call him every two or three days and still talk daily. The ones that look are no different from the past.

Fu Hengyi never asked, and she didn't mention it either. The two of them seemed to have forgotten the border issue some time ago.

On that day, Shen Qinglan just got up and received a call from Yan Xi. This was the first time Yan Xi called her after meeting at the exhibition.

"Big sister." Yan Xi's voice came from the end of the phone. Unlike the past, there was no trace of vitality in the voice. Instead, it was a little hoarse and seemed to have cried.

Shen Qinglan said, "What's wrong?"

"Big sister, where are you now, I want to see you." Yan Xi's voice was sobbing, and Shen Qinglan reported the home address.

After half an hour, Shen Qinglan saw Yan Xi at the door of her house, her eyes were red, obviously she had cried, and her eyes were dark green.

Seeing Shen Qinglan, Yan Xi flew directly into her arms. She was shorter than Shen Qinglan, holding Shen Qinglan's waist and buried it in her arms.

Shen Qinglan's body was stiff. Except for Fu Hengyi and her cousin's family, she had never been intimate with others. She was not used to it, but Yan Xi's emotions were obviously wrong. She thought about it and did not push her away. Xi holding.

Yan Xi hugged for a while and then let go, followed Shen Qinglan into the door. For the first time she came to Shen Qinglan's house, she didn't have half the curiosity on her face, which was not like her character at all.

Shen Qinglan couldn't guess what happened to her, so she sat on the sofa and poured her a glass of water.

Yan Xi took a sip of warm water, which seemed to slow down a bit, put the water cup on the coffee table, and then took a photo from the backpack behind him and handed it to Shen Qinglan. Shen Qinglan took it, glanced, and his eyes instantly Changed, looked at the people in the photos.

This photo is not complete. It was torn in half by the others. The remaining half of the photo was of a man holding a little girl in his arms. He looked like a six or seven year old. Similar, but Shen Qinglan would not think that this was Yan Xi's childhood, because that little girl looked exactly like Qin Mu when he was a kid.

When she met Qin Mu, Qin Mu was eight years old. She looked older than the children in the photos, but her appearance did not change much.

"Where did you get this picture from?" Shen Qinglan asked Yan Xi, listening carefully, and still hearing a slight tremor in her voice.

Yan Xi lowered her eyes and looked at her toes. "It was found in my dad's study. The man above is my dad."

Yan Xi said, and her tears fell. She did not expect that her father, who was a top ten good man, would have an illegitimate girl outside, or an illegitimate girl a few months older than her brother.

"The child above is my father's illegitimate daughter." Yan Xi's voice was low.

Shen Qinglan looked at Yan Xi, even though she knew she was sad now, but she still asked, "What's the name of the child above?"

"Qin Mu."

With a "boom", Shen Qinglan felt that his brain exploded in an instant. It turned out to be Qin Mu. It was Qin Mu. It was the Qin Mu she was looking for.

She grabbed Yan Xi's shoulder and looked at her tightly, "She really called Qin Mu? Where is it now?"

Yan Xi was taken aback by Shen Qinglan's appearance. She frowned, "Sister, you hurt me."

Shen Qinglan let go of her, "Sorry."

Yan Xi couldn't care about her sadness at the moment, and looked at Shen Qinglan, worried, "Sister, are you okay?"

Shen Qinglan shook his head, "I also know a person named Qin Mu. I just want to know if they are alone. Do you know where the person in the photo is now?"

After hearing this, Yan Xi shook her head. "I don't know. I only know that she is my father's illegitimate daughter. It is said that she was lost when she was very young."

Shen Qinglan's heart sank to the bottom of the valley. She didn't expect Qin Mu to be a Yan family. Since she was a Yan family, how could she enter the Devil's base?

Recalling the identity of Qin Mu's illegitimate daughter, Shen Qinglan's eyes were cold and he thought of a guess.

Yan Xi didn't notice Shen Qinglan's change of eyes. She thought that because of the quarrel between parents caused by this photo, her tears could not stop falling.

After being questioned by Shen Qinglan at the exhibition, Yan Xi went home and searched for many times in her father's study, but never found the photo.

"Why not? I remember it was here? Where did my dad go?" Yan Xi rummaged through the study, but he could not find the photo when he rummaged through the study.

"Xiao Xi, what are you doing in your dad's study?" Mother Yan passed the study and saw that the study door was not closed. When she opened the door, she saw what her daughter was looking for.

At that time, Yan Xi was stepping on a small stool enough for a book on the bookshelf. She remembered that her father seemed to have sandwiched the photo in a book. She was startled by Yan Mu's sudden voice. When you are crooked, you lose your balance.

She screamed, and she was about to fall, or Yan mother was so quick that she caught her daughter.

"Mom, why did you come in suddenly, scaring me to jump." Yan Xi patted her small chest, his face in shock.

Mother Yan was also taken aback by her daughter, "You just scared me, why are you so good? Could it be fun if you fall down? You are a girl, if you break your face, look at you How to do."

"I... I took the book. The winter vacation homework required to write a post-reading feeling. Isn't it about to start school? I haven't written it yet, so I want to find a book." Yan Xi explained, "I will say it again. Didn't you suddenly come in and I could almost fall."

Mother Yan glared at her, don't think she didn't hear her whisper.

"This is your dad's study. There are some military books in it. You never read it. Why do you want to read it now?" Yan Mu wondered.

"I want to watch it now. And my father is a soldier. I have liked soldiers since I was a child. The soldier is the greatest person." Yan Xi had a stubborn neck and a hard mouth.

Mother Yan also refused to argue with her. If you like it or not, you know clearly, "Which one do you want, your mother will help you."

Yan Xi raised his hand and said, "That book."

Mother Yan took the book down and gave it to her, "I want to get something for others to take, don't climb it up yourself, it's dangerous, you know?"

Yan Xi nodded, "Knowing your mother, you are more and more verbose."

Mother Yan shook her head and walked out of the study.

When Yan Xi saw that her mother was gone, she quickly opened the book and turned from head to toe, but she didn't find the photo she was looking for.

"Did I remember it wrong?" Yan Xi's eyes wandered around the study, and suddenly stopped on the desk.

She placed the book on the shelf, walked to the desk, opened the desk drawer, and found a small box at the bottom of the drawer.

She looked around, then stretched out her hand towards the box, and her heart beat involuntarily. She took the box out, the box was not big, and the material was ordinary.

When Yan Xi opened it, she saw a thick stack of letters. Envelopes were neatly placed in the box. Not many, a dozen letters were visually observed. The addressee on the envelope is her father.

She took out a letter and wanted to open it, but her tutor told her that she should not open other people's letters without permission. After hesitating for a while, he still didn't open it. He took out all the letters and suddenly slipped a photo from a letter and fell to the ground.

Chapter 190 The Yan Family's Past

When Yan Xi picked it up and saw it, she saw her dad, a young dad, and a woman standing beside her, not her mom. Her dad still had a little girl in her arms, and the three people in the photo smiled happily.

Especially her dad, she had never seen her dad smile so happily. Although her dad hurt her very much since childhood, she smiled at her, but this kind of laugh was different.

"Xiao Xi, what are you doing?" Yan Anbang said in a deep voice.

Yan Xi was so scared that the box in her hand fell to the ground, and the letter was scattered all over the place, and only the photo was on her hand.

Yan Anbang looked at the photo on her hand and the letter scattered all over the place. Her face changed and she quickly stepped over and captured the photo on her hand. "Who let you come in and mess up other people's things, this is how your mother taught you is it yours?"

I have never seen such a dad, Yan Xi was scared, his face pale, "Dad, I didn't mean it."

Yan Anbang looked at her daughter's face and knew that she had scared her, and she slowly looked down, "Xiu Xi, don't go into your dad's study room in the future, let's not just turn over your dad's stuff know?"

Yan Xi nodded and looked down at the picture in Yan Anbang's hand, "Dad, is the person in that picture you? What is the relationship between those two people and you?"

Yan Anbang's face changed slightly, but he quickly returned to nature. "You're wrong. The people above are just Dad's friends, not Dad."

"No, the person on the top is Dad. I've seen photos of Dad when he was young. The person on the top is you. But who are those two people who took pictures with you, why are you with them?"

"Yan Xi, I said that the people above were just my friends, not me."

"Dad, don't you think of me as a three-year-old child? I'm nineteen and an adult. Do I even recognize my father?" Yan Xi looked up and stared at his father. With a stubborn face, she is simple but not stupid. She can see that Dad is very nervous about this photo, or the person in the photo.

What is their relationship? Why is dad so nervous? Yan Xi wanted to know an answer.

"I said that if you read it wrong, you read it wrong." Yan Anbang said in a deep voice, his voice a little cold.

"Dad, if you don't tell me, I'll tell my mother."

"What do you want to tell me?" Yan Mother just came up to hear this and asked with a smile.

Yan Xi's and Yan Anbang's complexions changed instantly. They didn't expect Yan Mother to come in suddenly, and they just heard their conversation. Yan Anbang quietly put the picture in his hand into his pocket, "Nothing, just kidding Xiao Xi."

He didn't notice the envelope on the ground, but Yan mother noticed it. After seeing the handwriting on the envelope, his eyes changed suddenly, but he couldn't see anything on the face. He glanced at Yan Anbang, but said to Yan Xi, "Little In the evening, it's not too early, so go back and take a shower."

Yan Xi also wanted to ask about the photo, but knew that it was not a good time to walk out of the study.

Yan Anbang looked down at Yan Mother's eyes, only to find that she noticed the envelopes. When Yan Xi walked out, he just wanted to pick them up, but Yan Mother squatted down and picked up the envelopes on the ground.

"Unexpectedly, after so many years, you still keep these things." Yan mother said lightly, with a mocking tone.

Yan Anbang's face stiffened, "It's all some old things, just forget to throw it there, don't think about it."

"I didn't say anything, what is your guilty conscience?" Yan Mother looked at her husband with a dim eye. "Since it's an old thing you want to throw away, then I'll throw it for you." Said The letter must be torn.

Yan Anbang changed his face, grabbed the letter from Mother Yan, "What are you doing?"

Mother Yan smiled, but laughed miserably, "Isn't it about throwing it away? Now I can't bear it, but you can't bear the letter she wrote to you. If her people stand in front of you, do you still want it? Abandon this home for her?"

Yan Anbang frowned, "She has been away for so many years, why don't you bother about it."

"I care about it?" Yan mother's eyes flashed in anger, "Yan Anbang, you asked yourself, why have your hearts stayed with me for so many years? Others say that living people can't fight for the dead, and the result As for me, everyone is still alive. I can't argue, but if she dies, can I directly give way to a dead person?"

"Zhao Jiaqing, you don't want to be fooling." Yan Anbang looked ugly, and was mentioned of old things, which was equivalent to uncovering the scars of his heart.

"I'm fooling, you Yan Anbang, I think you haven't been sober, you have to remember, it wasn't me who broke you up, it was your father, my father-in-law, you couldn't blame your father, but let me bear your anger Do you feel guilty in your heart? For so many years, you are a good husband and a father in the eyes of others. Ask yourself if you really did the duty of a father."

Mentioned in the past, Yan Anbang's complexion was green. At that time, he actually had a lover before marrying his mother Yan Jiaqing, called Qin Yan. But Qin Yan was born in a humble place, and was just an orphan, so the family did not agree with them. At that time, the Yan family encountered a crisis, and his father was suppressed by his opponent because he was standing in the wrong team.

No one is willing to help their family, and at this time his father took a fancy to the Zhao family. The Zhao family was regarded as the leader in Nancheng. If they were willing to reach out to help their family, then his father would be fine.

However, the relationship between their family and the Zhao family is normal, and there is no intersection on weekdays, and others for no reason will not help, so his father thought of the way of marriage.

Yan Anbang was a young talent in Nancheng when he was young. Zhao Jiaqing naturally liked Yan Anbang, so when the Yan family came to the house to raise relatives, they did not let his father refuse.

Father Zhao knew the purpose of the Yan family's marriage at this time, and originally did not want to agree, but the only daughter who liked the Yan family's boy, he could only agree. After all, the Yan family's original problems were not unhelpful for the Zhao family. So the marriage of the two was finalized in this way.

When Yan Anbang knew, his father had helped him finalize the marriage, and even the marriage date was settled. He had a big trouble at home, but it was useless. In order to prevent him from going to the Zhao family to gossip, even shut him at home to prevent him from going out, he also went to Qin Yan and drove Qin Yan out of Nancheng.

When he was free to go to Qin Yan, her people had long disappeared, he could not find her everywhere, and the situation of his family knew that without the help of Zhao's family, their father's future almost broke. Frustrated, he married Zhao Jiaqing.

Because the Yan family kept their secrets tight, Yan Anbang and Qin Yan did not know anything about the Zhao family. Zhao Jiaqing could feel Yan Anbang's indifference to her. She only thought it was because of the relationship of marriage. Feelings, when you get along for a long time, feelings will be cultivated.

Yan Anbang originally wanted to have a good life with Zhao Jiaqing, but soon after marriage, about a month later, Qin Yan came back to find him. Compared with before leaving, she was thinner and haggard. Seeing that he did not cry out loud, instead of accusing him, he said gently, "I just missed your headache, so I want to come back to see you, just one glance, and I will leave immediately."

Yan Anbang had always loved her deeply. When she saw Qin Yan's appearance, where she could bear it, the two of them were entangled together somehow. Yan Anbang rented a house for her outside, settled her down, and visited her from time to time. Occasionally spend the night with her.

At first, Zhao Jiaqing didn't notice it, but if he had more times, he would inevitably pay attention. With this attention, he discovered this secret, and it suddenly turned into a thunderbolt.

She made a big fuss, and Yan Anbang's father knew it. At that time, Father Zhao was still alive, and naturally refused to let his daughter be bullied, and the two staged a torture drama.

But divorce was a difficult thing for women in those days, not to mention people like them. The final result was that Qin Yan left, and she and Yan Anbang continued their lives.

But they didn't know that at that time, Qin Yan was less than a month away, Yan Anbang found her back, because she was pregnant, and this child is later Qin Mu.

When Qin Mu was in the sky, Qin Yan held her baby and found Zhao Jiaqing, who was pregnant at home with a big belly, and was so stimulated by her that Zhao Jiaqing directly gave birth prematurely and gave birth to Yan Shengyu.

Qin Yan knew that she was in trouble. She didn't dare to stay in Nancheng anymore. When Zhao and Yan's people went to find her, they were already empty.

It was only at this time that the Zhao and Yan families knew that Yan Anbang not only did not break with that person, but even had a daughter, a daughter who was a few months older than Yan Shengyu. Father Zhao couldn't stand the stimulation and went straight in. In the hospital, Yan's family also fluttered.

Yan Anbang also knew it was his fault. He knelt in front of Father Zhao and asked for forgiveness. Father Zhao would forgive him easily, but her daughter gave her life to her child. What can she do without forgiving? For the mother and daughter, they will not recognize the child, so just give up.

Zhao Jiaqing also had misery. She wanted to divorce, but her father disagreed, and if the divorce was made, the child must have been given to the Yan family. She could not bear it, so she had to hold her nose and continue with her husband.

The relationship between the husband and wife was as good as two years, and Zhao Jiaqing was seriously ill, and almost died. It was Yan Anbang who took care of him after he was busy. Zhao Jiaqing looked at it and then forgave him. The relationship between the couple began. Relaxed, and it seemed better than when I was just married.

Zhao Jiaqing thought that maybe she could still grow old with this man. As the saying goes, the prodigal son turned back and did not change the gold. Until four years later, when she was pregnant with Yan Xi, she saw several letters in her husband's book. There were several photos in the letter, and one of them was the one that Yan Xi saw today. , I understand that the woman is Bai Yueguang in her husband's heart.

She did not want to report her husband in the past. After all, he is a soldier. If her private life is not clean, she will not want her future. But at this time, it was reported that the child was missing and could not be found. Finally, the woman was also mentally abnormal and left Nancheng.

Yan Anbang lost his soul for a while, and Zhao Jiaqing looked at her husband who was not at home and finally filed for divorce again, but Yan Anbang disagreed and even knelt down to beg her. Zhao Jiaqing was soft-hearted for a while and was quiet because of the birth of her daughter. This matter is so gone. Yan Anbang returned to his family.

And for many years later, Yan Anbang seemed to be the real prodigal son, staying at home and being very affectionate to his two children. Although the relationship between husband and wife is not as good as the outside world thinks, at least they can do it. To honor each other.

Because I remembered the past, Yan Anbang's face was very ugly. "It's been so long, is it interesting now?"

Zhao Jiaqing sneered, "It's quite boring, Yan Anbang, don't think I don't know, so many years, you hurt Yan Xi so much, because Yan Xi looks a bit like your illegitimate girl. If not because of this two points is similar, would you love Yan Xi so much?"

"Zhao Jiaqing, do you want to pick something today?" Yan Anbang was also angry. Qin Mu's disappearance has always been a pain in his heart. It was mentioned by Zhao Jiaqing like this.

Zhao Jiaqing was afraid of him, and looked at him indifferently, "Yan Anbang, I married you in this life, that is, I was blind. At first, my father didn't agree with me to marry you. It was just because I was disobedient, so today I have eaten this bitter fruit. I want these letters. You can take them all. It is best to hold your letters for a lifetime and see if your white moonlight will come back to find you."

The couple in the study were arguing fiercely, and did not realize that Yan Xi, who was supposed to have returned to the room, stood outside the door, covering her small mouth, with an unbelievable look, especially after hearing it, she was already pale. .

When Zhao Jiaqing opened the door, she saw Yan Xi, who was pale, and her face changed suddenly. "Xiao Xi, why are you here?"

Yan Anbang also saw her daughter, especially when she looked at her face whiter than white paper, and no longer ignored the old things, quickly walked over, "Xiao Xi."

Yan Xi's eyes turned gently, looking at her parents with anxiety in front of her eyes. She always thought that her parents were very affectionate, a model couple in the eyes of others, she had a very happy family, but everything turned out to be is it just her self-righteousness?

"Is everything you said true?" Her voice was very light, her face was pale, and her body was trembling gently, as if she would fall in the next second.

When Zhao Jiaqing was born in Yan Shengyu that year, he hurt his body and got sick again. It would have never been pregnant. Who knew she was pregnant with Yan Xi. The doctor also said that this child was born with deficiency and it was better to kill it.

Zhao Jiaqing's father had passed away when Huai Yanxi was over. Yan Shengyu and the children in her belly were her only relatives. She could not bear it anyway and insisted on giving birth.

Yan Xi, who was born simply, did not lack arms and legs, but her body was very poor, and she had severe asthma. The Yan family took good care of her to have a healthy and lively Yan Xi.

Seeing her daughter at this moment, Zhao Jiaqing regretted in her heart that she should not have quarreled with her husband just now, let alone mention those old things, and was heard by her daughter. The daughter has always been simple, what can she do now.

"Is that what you said just now? Dad, does he really have an illegitimate daughter?" Yan Xi fixed his eyes on his parents, tears flashing under his eyes.

Zhao Jiaqing and Yan Anbang are silent.

Yan Xi looked at Yan Anbang, "You hurt me so much, just because I look like that illegitimate girl?" Her voice was trembling.

Yan Anbang shook his head immediately, "No, Xiao Xi, you are my dad's daughter, and my dad loves you."

Yan Xi smiled, but wept. She thought that the happy family was fake, even the father's love was fake?

"Xiao Xi, where are you going?" Yan Xi turned around and ran. Zhao Jiaqing didn't catch her, and saw that Yan Xi was going to run out of the house. Finally, Yan Anbang grabbed her daughter.

It's too dangerous for a little girl to go out this big night.

"Xiao Xi, we have something to say at home, don't be willful." Yan Anbang took her daughter and tried to take her back to the room despite her struggle.

Yan Xi's face was full of tears, and he was crying out of breath. He was taken back to the room by Yan Anbang. "Xiao Xi, you listen to Dad, Dad always loves you, not because of who you look like, but because you are My daughter, my favorite daughter."

Yan Xi cried all the time, and did not listen to Yan Anbang at all. Yan Anbang comforted for a long time. It was useless at all. Zhao Jiaqing came up with some consolation and persuasion, which was also useless.

The couple had no choice but to leave the room, and wanted to calm down Yan Xi.

Yan Xi called Shen Qinglan, but the phone was shut down and couldn't get through. She wanted to call her brother, but in case her brother doesn't know, will she be as sad as she knows?

Zhao Jiaqing went back to the room, but Yan Anbang went to the study and threw all the letters and photos into the trash can. It wasn't that he had no affection for the mother and daughter. In his heart, he always had the position of the mother and daughter. Only now, for him, the current family is the most important, especially his pair of children.

But the next morning, when Zhao Jiaqing came to look for Yan Xi with his breakfast, he found that Yan Xi was gone, and the photo of the study room that was supposed to be thrown into the trash by Yan Anbang was gone, to be precise, Half of them are gone.

Shen Qinglan listened to Yan Xi's remarks, and her eyes were complicated. She did not expect Qin Mu to be really a Yan family, or an illegitimate daughter of the Yan family.

"Big sister, did you say that my dad really treated me so well because I looked like that person?" Yan Xi asked, his voice choked.

Shen Qinglan doesn't think that Yan Xi looks like Qin Mu. Although he hasn't seen Yan Xi as a child, he hasn't waited until Qin Mu grew up, but from the outline of their faces, Yan Xi and Qin Mu can only say There is one or two points of similarity, that is, she has known Yan Xi for so long, and has not associated Yan Xi with Qin Mu.

If it wasn't for the exhibition, Yan Xi recognized Qin Mu. Maybe she still needs a long time to investigate Qin Mu's life, or maybe she can't find it at all.

"Yan Xi, how is your father treating you? You should feel it yourself." Qing Yue's voice was warm. Although Yan Xi was a member of the Yan family, and Qin Mu's disappearance was probably related to the Yan family, Shen Qinglan couldn't hate this simple and lively girl.

Yan Xi was silent, lowering her head and thinking about something, "Big sister, the Qin Mu you said..."

"She was dead, and she died ten years ago." Shen Qinglan's voice was slightly cold, and there was a touch of sadness under her eyes. The blood on that day seemed to spread slowly in front of her eyes.

She still remembers what Qin Mu liked to say to her the most, "Xiao Qj, no matter how painful or desperate, you must persevere. You must live. You can only go home and return to your loved ones."

She said let her live and then go home. So she survived and went home.

Yan Xi looked up at Shen Qinglan, his eyes were unbelievable, "dead... dead."

Shen Qinglan nodded, "Yes, dead."

"Big sister, is she the one in the picture?" Although Yan Xi knew that she had an illegitimate female sister who was uncomfortable, and knew that the child had already been lost, she never thought of letting the other person die. So I suddenly heard that I was dead, and there was a hope in my heart, hoping that the person who died was not her illegitimate female sister.

Shen Qinglan wanted to nod, but she finally shook her head in the face of Shang Yanxi. "It should not be that the person I know is an orphan. We met in an orphanage."

Yan Xi seemed relieved in her heart, "How did she die?"

"Sick, got a serious illness, and went without money."

Yan Xi was silent again for a long time before slowly speaking, "Big sister, what would you do if that person came back to find my dad one day? Will my dad recognize her?"

Shen Qinglan's eyes flickered, if Qin Mu could come back, would he come back to find his family? She thought it would be, after all, she was so eager to go home, presumably in her memory, her parents should be very good to her, otherwise she would not be thinking about wanting to go home.

"How about you? Do you want her to come back?" Knowing that Qin Mu will never come back, but Shen Qinglan really wants to know Yan Xi's attitude towards Qin Mu. Speaking of it, Yan Xi can be regarded as Qin Mu's family.

Yan Xi shook her head gently, "I don't know, her mother is the one who destroys my mother's happiness. It should be reasonable that I hate her, but I can't hate it. In fact, it is not her choice to be born. The wrong thing is that my dad and her mother have nothing to do with her. Sister, do you think my idea is weird?"

Shen Qinglan smiled, with a real smile on her eyes, "Yan Xi, you are very kind, don't worry about things between adults, you just have to be yourself."

"Can I?" Yan Xi looked confused.

Shen Qinglan nodded affirmatively, "Of course. You are you, they are them."

Yan Xi did not speak, but just looked at the ground in front of her, not knowing what to think about.

Shen Qinglan no longer spoke, and suddenly knew Qin Mu's life experience. She actually didn't digest it.

Today, Yan Shengyu sent Yan Xi here, but he did not come up, but waited outside.

After Yan Xi ran from home that day, she came to Beijing to find Shen Qinglan, but Shen Qinglan happened to go abroad. She had no choice but to stay in the hotel. After Yan family found that Yan Xi was gone, she looked around, and finally Yan Shengyu guessed She may come to the capital to find Shen Qinglan and turn the direction of the search to the capital. Only then did she find Yan Xi and take her back.

Yan Xi stayed at home for two days and started school. The Yan family was afraid that Yan Xi would do stupid things. Every day, the car picked up the car and did not give her the opportunity to leave her sight. So even after Shen Qinglan returned home, Yan Xi also had no chance to come to Shen Qinglan.

It was not that Yan Shengyu didn't find that her sister had been silent a lot since she came back, and even often shut herself in the room. He asked her what happened, and she refused to say, and the family members were unwilling to tell him.

Yan Shengyu once again felt very powerless. The first time this kind of feeling was learned at the exhibition that Shen Qinglan was married.

Yan Xi stayed at home every day except school and school. Zhao Jiaqing came from Nancheng to take care of her. In the face of the silent, no longer naive and lively daughter, Zhao Jiaqing felt like he was being hurt by a knife there.

Today, Yan Xi said for the first time that she wanted to go out. Zhao Jiaqing was first happy, and her daughter was finally willing to speak, but she was afraid that her daughter wouldn't think about it. Zhao Jiaqing was relieved when she went out.

When Yan Shengyu called Shen Qinglan, Yan Xi was already asleep on the sofa and glanced at Yan Xi, who was sleeping soundly, and Shen Qinglan suddenly couldn't bear to wake her up.

"She is asleep now, you go back first, I will send her back at night."

"No, I'll go to other places to do something first, and then pick her up later." Yan Shengyu said.

Shen Qinglan thought about it and agreed.

Hanging up the phone, Shen Qinglan went to the bedroom and took another blanket to cover Yan Xi's body, looked at her face, and looked carefully. In fact, between the eyebrows, Yan Xi and Qin Mu were really similar. I don't think they know their relationship now. Let's take a look at Yan Xi. Shen Qinglan finally understands where the inexplicable affection for Yan Xi came from.

Yan Xi was depressed during this time, a lot of things accumulated in her heart, and the quality of sleep was very bad. This time she chatted with Shen Qinglan, and the emotion in her heart was expressed, and she was completely relieved and lay unconsciously. Asleep on the sofa.

Shen Qinglan saw that she was sleeping well, should not fall down, and did not care about her, but went into the bedroom to call Jin Enxi, Jin Enxi has returned to the Z country, but recently has been checking the Yan Family Progress, Shen Qinglan sent him such a good clue.

"Ann, don't worry, I will definitely be able to find out this time. But, Ann and Qin Mu are dead. What's the point of checking them now?"

What's the point? Shen Qinglan also knows that even if everything is checked, Qin Mu will not be able to return, but she still wants to know what kind of family is there that makes Qin Mu miss it. She will enter the Devil's base that year. Is there another period? Hidden feelings.

"You try to check it. It doesn't matter if you don't find it. What action did BK have over there?"

"KING escaped. The members of BK suffered heavy casualties in this operation. Especially KING's left and right hands were almost chopped clean. He was very angry. According to reports, he had threatened to seek revenge by the Z country to suppress his troops. "Jin Enxi said the latest news he got.

She has quit on the surface in recent years and has never made a shot. However, she has many sources of information and many people on the road will also buy and sell news with her. This is also a sideline of her.

Shen Qinglan's eyes moved slightly, "He wants to take revenge?"

"Yes, and he has started recruiting horses. He is now handing out olive branches like some small mercenary organizations. You also know the name of BK. Naturally, many people are willing to go in. There are also some individual mercenaries. Recruitment is gone."

Shen Qinglan's eyes sank, and after finishing the call with Jin Enxi, he called Fu Hengyi to explain the situation.

Fu Hengyi has been called to meetings recently. The superior leaders have known that there are third-party forces involved in this operation. Although they are helping them, they are unknown forces after all, and the purpose of the other party is not clear. Naturally, they are to be investigated. .

Everyone involved in this operation was called to ask questions, only knowing what it was like a man and a woman, what the other person looked like, who knew nothing about it, even if they wanted to investigate.

Even though Fu Hengyi knew it was Shen Qinglan, he kept silent, and the final result of this matter could only be so.

When he received a call from Shen Qinglan, he had just come out of his superior's office and returned to his dormitory. After listening to Shen Qinglan, Fu Hengyi's face remained unchanged.

"Relax, I will be careful. As long as he dares to come, I can catch him for the second time." After KING escaped, Fu Hengyi was very reluctant and had no chance to worry.

Shen Qinglan disagreed, "I don't object if you want to catch him, but you can't bait yourself. Fu Hengyi, you promised me that you won't hurt yourself." She hasn't settled the bill with him this time.

Fu Hengyi heard the overtone of her words and chuckled, "This time I was wrong. I promise, there will be absolutely no next time. Rest assured, I won't give KING a chance to hurt me."

Shen Qinglan heard the words and was at ease. When she went out, she saw that Yan Xi had already woken up and was sitting on the sofa. The whole person was ignorant.

"Sister, why am I asleep?"

Shen Qinglan smiled, "Are you hungry, do you want to eat noodles?"

Yan Xi touched her belly. She was really a little hungry and nodded.

Shen Qinglan went into the kitchen and cooked two bowls of tomato and egg noodles. Her cooking skills were still average, but the noodles were pretty good. Yan Xi ate up a whole bowl of noodles.

"Big sister, the noodles you made are really delicious, I am full." Yan Xi rubbed her stomach and finally showed her first smile today.

Shen Qinglan smiled, "Is there still in the pot, eat?"

Yan Xi shook his head, "I can't eat any more. If I were like a cow, I would have two stomachs."

Shen Qinglan said, Yu Xiaoxuan also said this. Come to think of it carefully, in fact, Yan Xi's temperament is more like Yu Xiaoxuan.

Yan Xi has been staying at Shen Qinglan's house with Yan Shengyu to pick her up. This time, Yan Xi's mood is obviously much better. Although she still doesn't speak much, she is much closer to Zhao Jiaqing.

Zhao Jiaqing wanted to know who was the one who changed his daughter so much. When he asked his son, he realized that it was the money of the Shen family in Beijing. She knew this Shen Jiaqianjin, but did not expect her daughter to know her.

"If she had time someday, invite her to come and take a guest. People have helped us so much, we always have to thank her." Zhao Jiaqing said to her son.

Yan Shengyu did not object, thinking of calling Shen Qinglan one day.

The next day was the weekend. It was Shen Qinglan's appointment with the tutor and his daughter. She went to Daniel first, took a picture, and then drove to the appointed place.

When he arrived, the tutor and his daughter had arrived. "Teacher Zhang, sorry, I'm late."

Zhang Lin smiled, "I'm here early."

He pointed to the little girl who had been watching Shen Qinglan since Shen Qinglan came in and said, "This is my daughter Zhang Shanshan."

Zhang Shanshan is eighteen years old this year. She is a high school art student. She focuses on fine arts. What she likes in the past is not Leng Qingqiu, but another painter. But since Shen Qinglan's video on saving people was exposed, she liked Shen Qinglan very much. After learning that Shen Qinglan was actually Leng Qingqiu, she couldn't help but love Leng Qingqiu's painting.

She knew that Shen Qinglan was a student of her father, and always wanted to see her, but her father disagreed, and she made a lot of hard work until her father agreed to arrange for her to meet with Shen Qinglan.

"Mr. Zhang, I was really sorry last time. I originally missed the appointment, but I missed the appointment." Shen Qinglan sincerely apologized. She has always been the person who kept the appointment. The last time she did was wrong.

Zhang Lin didn't care, smiled, "People will inevitably encounter some urgent matters, don't worry about it." He knows that although Shen Qinglan is not often in school, things must be a lot. After all, she is Leng Qingqiu. As a well-known painter, she usually It must be busy here.

Zhang Shanshan looked at Shen Qinglan, eyes shining, "Sister Shen, I finally saw you."

Shen Qinglan didn't notice her gaze, smiled at her, and took out a long box, "Send your little gift."

Zhang Shanshan knew what it was at a glance, and quickly refused. He knew what the price of Leng Qingqiu's paintings is now. The value of such a painting is not low, which is worth his salary for one year. Where can he accept it?

"We really can't accept this. I just brought my daughter over to have a meal with you. If I accept this, then I'll be nothing." Zhang Lin refused.

Although Zhang Shanshan likes Leng Qingqiu's paintings, she also knows the value of her paintings, but she hasn't reached for them.

Shen Qinglan smiled, "Mr. Zhang, this is not for you, it is for your daughter. Since it is mine... Fans, it is not a big problem to give a small gift."

Money is not important to Shen Qinglan, let alone just a painting. Since the people in front of her helped her, she remembered this friendship.
