321 323 Chaos (43 more)

In the capital, because Shen Qinglan left, the Shen family and the Fu family have become a pot of porridge. Chu Yunrong sat on the sofa in the living room and wiped his tears. "Where did this kid go?"

Wen Xiyao was sitting by her side, "Auntie, don't worry, Qinglan has always done a proper job, and surely it won't happen. Let's calm down ourselves first. Maybe Qinglan just went out and walked into Hengyi's mind. It's definitely uncomfortable, and it's understandable to go out and breathe."

After Wen Xiyao said this, even her own disbelief, because Shen Qinglan was doing things calmly, so she would not do things that are not breathable and did not greet the family and make everyone worry. Nine is to do what everyone will object to.

"Call Shen Qian and let him bring her back to me if he sees Qinglan." Old Man Shen said with a sullen face to Shen Junyu.

Shen Junyu is calling Shen Qinglan, but Shen Qinglan does not answer.

Hearing Mr. Shen's words, he immediately called Shen Qian, but by that time Shen Qinglan had entered the rainforest.

"Dad, why didn't you bring Lan Lan back?" Shen Junyu asked aloud that Shen Qian didn't prevent Shen Qinglan from entering the rain forest.

"You even let her enter the rain forest by yourself, do you know how dangerous it is?" Shen Junyu roared, as if her eyes were about to burst into flames.

Others heard Shen Junyu's words suddenly changed, and the tears Chu Yunrong just stopped suddenly fell.

Shen Junyu hung up the phone with a solemn expression, "Lan Lan entered the rain forest alone to find Hengyi."

Grandpa Fu immediately fell backwards, so that Shen Junyu quickly reached out to see him holding him, "Grandpa Fu."

Old Master Fu shook his hands, his face green and gray, "Qinglan girl..."

Mr. Shen's body was also crumbling. At this moment, the two old men who had experienced the strong winds and waves seemed to be emptied of their strength.

Shen Junyu's eyes were dark, and she didn't know what she was thinking. "Xiyao, I'll ask you at home." Then I left.

Wen Xiyao didn't have time to stop him, knowing that she could not do much help now, and could only stay and help him take care of his family, at least so that he had no worries.

One day later, Shen Qinglan and they finally reached the place where Shen Qian said, only to find that it was a cliff, high, and the turbulent water below, Shen Qinglan's heart sank to the bottom of his heart when he saw that height. It is very dangerous to fall, and you may die on the spot if you are not careful. If Fu Hengyi falls, I am afraid that it will be really bad.

"Ann, let me take a look." Andre said. He had just observed it carefully, and sent out a lot of vines under the cliff, which could be climbed.

Shen Qinglan nodded, Jin Enxi was fiddling with her instrument. It was already deep in the rainforest. The signal was not good. It was difficult to find the signal on Fu Hengyi.

"Found it, Ann." Jin Enxi said suddenly with excitement.

Shen Qinglan's eyes lit up and looked at Jin Enxi. Jin Enxi pointed at the little red dot on the screen and said, "Here, about three kilometers away from us, I took a look. There was a mountain in the middle, and Fu Hengyi seemed to be moving fast. ."

Shen Qinglan's heart dropped a little, at least this is good news. At this time Andre also climbed up, "Ann, there is no trace below, it should not have fallen."

"The location has been determined, and we are planning to leave as soon as you come up," Sisley explained.

Several people quickly rushed towards where Fu Hengyi was.

"An, let's take a break first, otherwise your body will be overwhelmed." Eden said, looking at Shen Qinglan's pale face.

Shen Qinglan shook her head, "I can still persist." As long as she persisted for an additional minute, she would be able to get to Fu Hengyi's side one minute earlier.

"Ann, you can't persevere anymore. You have to stop and rest now. You persevere again, which is very bad for the children in your stomach." Eden pulled Shen Qinglan away from her.

Shen Qinglan had just felt a little pain in her lower abdomen, and was worried that the child was really having problems, and stopped obediently.

Several people found an abandoned cave, and Eden spread some fur-like animal skins in the cave on a flat place and said, "An, you go to sleep first and restore your strength."

Shen Qinglan nodded, without bravery, leaning on the stone wall and closing his eyes.

This cave was probably inhabited by wolves before. The place is very small. Except for the place reserved for Shen Qinglan, there are only enough people left to rest together back to back.

The four men took turns to guard the vigil so that no wild wolves would come in and attack them.

Shen Qinglan rested unsteadily. She held her belly tightly in her hands, shouting "Sorry" for a while, and Fu Hengyi's name in her mouth for a while.

Her voice was so low that only Eden, who was closest to her, heard it. Eden looked at Shen Qinglan's tangled eyebrows through the light of the campfire, and felt a little pain in her heart. Fearing that she would be awakened in the middle of the night, Eden covered her coat with her, and Andrei saw it, giving half of his clothes to him.

When Shen Qinglan woke up, the sky was still not bright. Apart from Jin Enxi, several other people were sleeping. When Jin Enxi saw that she woke up, she planned to wake them up, but Shen Qinglan stopped her.

Shen Qinglan opened her eyes and leaned against the stone wall, looking at the rest of her partners who were closing their eyes. Fu Hengyi always distressed her past, but in fact her past life was not that bad, was it?

She learns a lot of things, and has the ability to protect herself. The most important thing is that she has a group of friends who share life and death, and can give her life to the friends in the other hand.

Others say that when God closes a door for you, he will definitely open a window for you. She thinks God will take care of her after all, giving her such a group of friends who accompany her crazy, accompany her willful, accompany her from birth to death.

Several people woke up one after another and ate a few mouthfuls of dry food on the road. The red dot representing Fu Hengyi was still moving. Shen Qinglan met the military personnel of country Z in the process of searching. people.

"Ann, it's the military."

Shen Qinglan nodded, "Go around, don't let them discover." It was a very troublesome thing to encounter the military in such a place, it is not easy to explain their appearance, not to mention that they still carry so much Lethal weapons.

The military personnel did not have the exact positioning as Shen Qinglan did, nor did they have a general direction. They could only search in all directions. Looking at their current posture, they were completely looking in the opposite direction.

After bypassing the military, Shen Qinglan continued to walk towards the location of the signal. The mountain road was very steep, and Shen Qinglan's physical strength could not keep up. "You go first, now Fu Hengyi will find it."

Halfway through, Shen Qinglan said.

"No, it's too dangerous for you to stay here alone." Eden objected.

"My speed is too slow." Shen Qinglan said.

Jin Enxi thought for a while and said, "Well, let's go first and find Fu Hengyi and Eden, you are with Ann behind us."

Several other people had no opinion on this arrangement, and Jin Enxi took out several communicators from his bag and "keep in touch."

"Ann, you have a rest." Eden saw Shen Qinglan about to stand up, holding her shoulder, and Shen Qinglan looked at him.

"Ann, your body has reached the limit, listen to me first, take a break, you should believe the three of them."

Shen Qinglan heard the words, sitting there still, looking at the grass not far away, "Eden, do you think I'm too capricious this time?"

Eden nodded seriously, "Yes, you are wayward, and the words are not good, Ann, you are dragging our hind legs now. But I support."

Shen Qinglan looked at him, and Eden smiled slightly, "If you are the one who is in danger today, I will be injured. Without any fighting power, I will still choose to come over and save you."

Seeing Shen Qinglan's eyes flashed with guilt, Eden waved his hand, "Ann, don't need to feel sorry for me, all this is my voluntary, as long as I see you can be happy, I am very satisfied, and now we are still the most intimate friend."

Shen Qinglan looked at him calmly, "Well, we are the closest friends."

When Shen Qinglan's physical strength recovered, the two began to catch up with Jin Enxi's footsteps.

On the other side, Fu Hengyi stared closely at the figure in front with cold eyes. The person who was running was King. Four days ago, when King and Fu Hengyi were fighting, Allen found them in time, and even killed Fu Hengyi. Because of the arrival of the reinforcements, King relaxed a little, who knew that it was the moment of relaxation that even Fu Hengyi seized the neutral and took him hostage.

Meng Liang's life was left.

"Allen." Fu Hengyi looked at the person who suddenly appeared here, and there was no way to understand that Allen was working with King.

"Fu Hengyi." Alan spit out a name. "I didn't expect you to have such an embarrassed side. Such incompetence can't even save his brother."

Fu Hengyi's expression was sombre, and she didn't speak. Meng Liang retreated behind Fu Hengyi, looked at the dozen people who surrounded them, and roughly calculated that these should not be all the reinforcements.

Meng Liang's eyes are full of sorrow and anger, for the brothers who died, because of these people's madness.

But looking at the fighting power of both sides now, Meng Liang also understood that perhaps this time he really had to sacrifice for the motherland of the motherland. He was never afraid of death. From the first day of entering this unit, each of them wrote a suicide note. It was left to the person closest to him. He left it to his mother.

After so many years in the army, he has performed many tasks. Every time before departure, they were prepared to sacrifice, but every time they came back alive, but they did not pay attention to the military exercise this time, so they may never go back.

Meng Liang didn't regret being a soldier. If he had any regrets, he probably didn't call his mother before the military exercise.

322 Chapter 324: Couple in Difficulty (44)

"Captain, wait for me to find a way to hold them back, you run away." Meng Liang said.

They speak Chinese, King can't understand it, but Allen understands it. "Fu Hengyi, you can't go back this time. If you want to blame you, you robbed me of the most important things."

Fu Hengyi didn't seem to hear his words. The dagger in his hand was tightly attached to King's strong artery, so King would not dare to move. "Let us go, otherwise I will kill him."

Allen laughed, as if he heard something very funny, "Fu Hengyi, I want to kill you in my dreams, you now let me let my enemies out of someone I hate, do you think it is possible?"

Fu Hengyi's eyes were light, but he hadn't waited for his position. King spoke first, "Allen, you bastard."

Allen smiled, "If you can use your life for Fu Hengyi's life, that would be awesome." King once hurt Shen Qinglan. Allen did not forget this account. If Fu Hengyi killed King, he would destroy Fu Hengyi, and then take Shen Qinglan away, then this is the most perfect ending in the world.

Allen raised his hand and was about to open the Q. A Q sound hit him on the arm. The Q in his hand fell to the ground suddenly. Meng Liang looked at it, and it turned out that Mu Liancheng had arrived.

He breathed a sigh of relief. It was too timely for Mu Liancheng to arrive. If he is a little late, I am afraid he and Fu Hengyi will not be able to go back.

King looked at the rushed person, a cold light flashed in his eyes, a backstroke, Fu Hengyi's hand was loose, King broke away from Fu Hengyi's bondage, but there was a wound on his neck, although it did not hurt the strong artery, but at the moment The bloody look was also scary.

King covered his wound for the first time, watching Fu Hengyi's eyes seem to quench the poison.

The people on both sides are facing each other. Mu Liancheng has seen Qian Fei lying on the ground, watching King and others' eyes grow colder.

The sound of Q sounded in an instant, and King was injured. Naturally, he was not Fu Hengyi's opponent. He turned and fled. Fu Hengyi directly chased up, and this chase, Fu Hengyi disappeared.

Fu Hengyi stared closely at the figure in front of her, and King stopped, "Fu Hengyi, you have chased me for three days, you are not finished, are you."

Fu Hengyi looked at him coldly. He wanted to take King back and accept the sanctions of the law. He could not let his comrade-in-arms and his compatriots sacrifice in vain.

King was hurt all over, but Fu Hengyi was not much better than him.

King's eyes were fierce. "Fu Hengyi, come on." After three days of running, Fu Hengyi chased for three days. He was tired and had no plans to run.

The battle was fierce, and Fu Hengyi quickly appeared many wounds on his body, but King did not get a cheap one. The wounds on his body were even more than half that of Fu Hengyi. With a grunt, King knelt on the ground and gasped.

A dagger was stuck in his abdomen, and he gritted his teeth to pull it out, bringing out a string of blood.

Only suddenly, he looked at Fu Hengyi and smiled, "Hahahaha, Fu Hengyi, goodbye."

Fu Hengyi had a bad instinct, rolled around on the spot, and escaped a wave of bullet attacks. Fortunately, there was a tree big enough to let him have a hiding place. Fu Hengyi looked and found that it was King who arrived. His heart kept sinking. He and King ran in the jungle for three days, and they had lost their way, but King's people could find them so quickly. This is a very abnormal thing.

His affairs fell on King, and when he saw him remove the ear studs from his ears, he immediately understood that it seemed that King had already prepared for it. Perhaps his initial purpose was to lead himself to such a place.

And Fu Hengyi's speculation is not wrong. Although King agreed to cooperate with Allen, he did not trust Allen. He and Ellen formulated a set of action plans. After that, he made another set of plans. It's just that Beyonce arrived with someone a day later than he had originally expected.

Jin Enxi's face changed slightly when he heard the Q sound, and he accelerated his pace. When they arrived, he saw King fell to the ground with a blood hole in his chest, and Fu Hengyi was lying not far away from him. Looks like.

Fu Hengyi was not dead yet, but was seriously injured. After looking at them, his face changed. "Why are you here?"

Andre pulled Fu Hengyi from the ground, did not answer his words, just said, "Leave it to us, you hurry and leave behind."

Hearing Shen Qinglan also came, Fu Hengyi's face suddenly changed completely.

"You hurried away, Ann is waiting for you to go back." Andre said, watching the two partners in the hard fight, pushed Fu Hengyi into the battle.

Fu Hengyi wanted to go, but his leg was injured and he couldn't walk fast.

When Shen Qinglan arrived here following the traces left by Jin Enxi, they saw Fu Hengyi like a blood man, but when he saw him standing in front of her, Shen Qinglan's eyes instantly turned red.

Fu Hengyi also saw Shen Qinglan, but at the moment his consciousness was slowly lost, his eyes were very blurred, and he couldn't see what Shen Qinglan looked like. He wanted to work hard to see what Shen Qinglan looked like, but as soon as his eyes were dark, people fell down. .

"Fu Hengyi."

In Beijing, Shen Junyu rushed directly to the airport, bought a ticket and flew to the border.

Shen Qian is doing her best to search and rescue Fu Hengyi, knowing that Shen Qinglan has entered the rainforest, and is planning to bring someone in to find someone. Shen Junyu came here at this time. Shen Qian looked at his son who appeared in front of him, and his face was very heavy.

"Who allowed you to come here?" Shen Qian asked. Although this is not a military base and there are no rules for idlers to avoid entering, ordinary people here dare not come.

"I want to go in with you to find someone." Shen Junyu said.

"Nonsense, is this the place you should come? Hurry back." Shen Qian scolded.

"I will go by myself, or you take me." Shen Junyu said seriously.

Shen Qian looked at him calmly, and Shen Junyu looked at Shen Qian reluctantly.

Shen Qian, who knows the temper of this son, was eventually defeated by his son's stubbornness.

"Fu Hengyi, you must persevere and cannot sleep." In the cave, Shen Qinglan patted Fu Hengyi's face, trying to keep him from sleeping.

Fu Hengyi tried to open his eyes and held Shen Qinglan's hand, "Well, I don't sleep." His voice was weak.

Shen Qinglan looked at Fu Hengyi's body wound, his eyes cold, and gritted his teeth, "Fu Hengyi, you are waiting for me here, I will come back soon."

Fu Hengyi grabbed her, "Don't go."

"I'll be back soon." Shen Qinglan took Fu Hengyi's hand and said, quickly disappearing into the cave.

There are only two of her here and Fu Hengyi. She and Jin Enxi have lost contact with them. Half a day ago, when she knew Fu Hengyi, Fu Hengyi was already wounded. She and Eden took Fu Hengyi away, but they met another group of people halfway along, and Eden led away the wave in order to protect them.

Shen Qinglan helped Fu Hengyi to walk for a long time before he found this cave.

Soon, Shen Qinglan came back. When she came back, she held a handful of herbs. She shredded the herbs with her dagger and put them in her mouth to chew on Hengyi's wound.

These plants all have a hemostatic function, which Eden told her when training in the jungle together.

There are too many wounds on Fu Hengyi's body, some are very deep. If he didn't stop bleeding in time, even if someone came to rescue them, Fu Hengyi had already lost too much blood.

Shen Qinglan tore off his clothes and bandaged Fu Hengyi's wounds, which put Fu Hengyi in his arms, "Fu Hengyi, you talk to me, don't sleep."

Fu Hengyi twitched his lips, trying to smile, but couldn't laugh. He took Shen Qinglan's hand, "You shouldn't be here."

Shen Qinglan nodded, "Well, I know, I should stay at home and wait for you to come back, this time it is my willfulness, so after going back, you can do whatever you want to punish me."

"How can I be willing to punish you." Fu Hengyi whispered, "Qinglan, if I can't get out this time, you must live alive."

After hearing this, Shen Qinglan's face suddenly sank and looked straight at Fu Hengyi, with a serious expression, "Fu Hengyi, you listen, if you can't live this time, I'll accompany you to die together with our children. Without you, I don't know what the meaning of life is, and I can't wait for the child to be born before I come to you because I'm afraid I won't leave it until the child is born, so Fu Hengyi, if you don't want to see me, you must live to be cold-blooded."

Fu Hengyi looked at Shen Qinglan's red eyes, and there was a pain in her heart. She wanted to reach out and wipe the tears from her face. "Don't cry, watching you cry, I don't know what to do."

"I didn't cry." She touched her face, only to find that she didn't even know when she burst into tears, "Fu Hengyi, this is called saline, not crying."

Fu Hengyi laughed lightly, but involved the wound on his body, and immediately coughed up, "Okay, this is normal saline."

The night gradually darkened, and it was very dangerous to walk in the jungle at night. Shen Qinglan, a pregnant woman with a seriously injured patient, naturally could not break into the rain forest at night.

She also had some food and water on her body. She fed Fu Hengyi a little water, but only food, but Fu Hengyi couldn't eat it. "I can't eat now, you can eat it." Fu Hengyi said.

Shen Qinglan saw that he really couldn't eat it, and he didn't force it. He fed him a little water before speaking softly, "Fu Hengyi, we are really a couple in trouble now, and our children."

She put Fu Hengyi's hand on her stomach. "Look, I haven't seen it in a month. Has it grown a lot?"

Fu Hengyi wanted to take his hand out, "My hand is cold." Shen Qinglan refused, holding his hand, "Fu Hengyi, do you want to touch it, talk to him, the doctor said, it can hear us now Words."

Fu Hengyi felt the smooth skin under his palm and his eyes were soft, "Well, I grew up a lot."

Shen Qinglan has been talking to Fu Hengyi to prevent him from going to sleep, and Fu Hengyi has also tried to stay awake.

323 Chapter 325: Life and Death Together (45)

However, in the middle of the night, Fu Hengyi still had a high fever. He noticed that Shen Qinglan had noticed it for the first time, and his face was stuck on Fu Hengyi's forehead. He felt his abnormal temperature, and was anxious.

"Fu Hengyi, do you hear me, don't sleep."

Fu Hengyi opened his eyes and smiled softly, "I was woken up by you just after I fell asleep."

"Fu Hengyi, don't sleep, if you fall asleep I will be afraid." Shen Qinglan said softly.

"You will also be afraid?"

Shen Qinglan nodded, "Well, I will be scared, Fu Hengyi, I'm never afraid of death, but I'm afraid of seeing people close to me die. Fu Hengyi, I have experienced too much pain since I was a child, a lot of dark memories, happiness for me It is a very extravagant thing, and I never dare to hope for happiness."

"Sister Mu Mu often said to me that no matter how desperate she could not give up her hope of life, even if she struggled in hell, she had to work hard to get out of hell. She always said that her loved ones were the warmest people in the world, let me go home."

"Fu Hengyi, I am back, but my heart is still struggling in hell, my hands are stained with blood, I am not a kind person, nor a person who is easily moved, it is you, who walked into me forcefully In my life, I was dragged out of hell, and you can't give up on me easily now."

In the ear is Shen Qinglan's nagging voice. Fu Hengyi tried to keep awake. Hearing this, he couldn't help saying, "Obviously you pulled me into the civil affairs bureau, and now it's me who yanked you?" Joke tone.

Seeing him still making jokes, Shen Qinglan let out a sigh of relief and smiled softly, "It's that you walked into my life forcefully, you walked into my heart and made me fall in love with you, so if you are now Dare to leave easily, you will not be able to enter in the next life."

Fu Hengyi chuckled, "Also said I was strong, obviously you are more domineering than me."

"Well, I'm very overbearing, so I've done it."

Fu Hengyi took her hand and shook it gently, "Well, I will never leave." His eyelids are heavy, struggling to open his eyes, "Qinglan, I just had a dream, I dreamed of a little Girl, looks exactly like you were when you were a kid, with two little braids, wearing a pink princess dress, very cute, reaching out to hug me, smiling at me, and calling my father."

Shen Qinglan's eyes were very gentle, "Fu Hengyi, that's not a dream, that's true. In five months, our child will be born. You must be such a good girl, she must be a daughter. They all say that her daughter is the lover of her father's life. , So you must hold on and wait for your little lover to meet you."

"Good." Fu Hengyi's voice was weak again, and a tear burst in Shen Qinglan's eyes.

At dawn, Shen Qinglan helped Fu Hengyi out of the cave. Fu Hengyi's leg was injured and was shot by a bullet. Although the wound no longer bleeds, Shen Qinglan also had a simple treatment of his wound last night and put the shrapnel Dug out.

They walked slowly. While walking, Shen Qinglan spoke to Fu Hengyi, feeling the faint pain from her lower abdomen. She gritted her teeth. The baby and his father were injured. My mother wanted to save my father, so are you obedient?

I don't know if the child heard her prayer, and the pain in her lower abdomen eased a little.

Stop and go, Shen Qinglan didn't know how long she had been walking. There was still a topographic map about the rainforest in her mind. She could only go in their direction as much as possible.

Fu Hengyi's consciousness was already vague, and he felt the heavy breathing of the people around him. He said softly, "Qinglan, let me down."

Shen Qinglan shook his head, "Fu Hengyi, it will be here soon, you can hold on again." In these two days, she said the most sentence is to hold on again.

On the other side, Jin Enxi and others came to Shen Qinglan after getting rid of the BK people, only to find that Shen Qinglan could not be reached.

"Look at the positioning." Sisley said. Jin Enxi remembered that Shen Qinglan's locator was here. It was just that Shen Qinglan had left for too long and was out of the scope of positioning and could not find the signal.

Instead, he contacted Eden and knew that he was still being hunted down. Several people quickly rushed over to rescue him.

"Eden, Ann can't locate now, and the communication equipment can't reach her." Jin Enxi said, the baby's face was full of dignity.

Eden heard that his face suddenly sank. Shen Qinglan, a pregnant woman and a man with a serious injury, was very dangerous to lose contact in the rain forest, although the current Shen Qinglan is not without self-preservation. Ability, but her current strength is not even half of the past. In case of encountering BK, the consequences can be imagined.

"I remember when they were separated, they were going over there, and we will go in that direction first." Eden pointed in the direction that Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi left.

"Let's go," said Sisley. When she walked forward, her body was also painted, and a long wound was scratched on her arm. Eden saw it, and took a small medicine box from her backpack. And bandaged her, Andrea's wounds were heavier.

"Eden, hurry up, just bandage around, you can't die at this point." Andrea urged, now that time is life, Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi don't know what happened yet.

At this time, Shen Qinglan, who was worried about them, stared at the two people in front of him, two strong Western men, one of them was covered in blood. Obviously, he was seriously injured and basically lacked the ability to move.

Shen Qinglan threw ZD's empty weapon on the ground and took a dagger in her hand. She was not worried about the hot weapon in the opponent's hand. After the fight, she was quite sure that the opponent was the same as her, except for the cold weapon. , Only a pair of fists.

Fu Hengyi sat under the big tree on the side, and Shen Qinglan stood in front of him, showing the gesture of a protector, looking at the other person's eyes without a trace of human emotion.

Today, Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi walked halfway, and they were discovered by the two men. Fortunately, Shen Qinglan still had weapons in her body. Although pregnancy affected her skill, she did not affect her marksmanship.

The remaining man also had wounds, but his injuries were much lighter than those of his companions.

Shen Qinglan is estimating the difference between her strength and the opponent's strength. The dagger in her hand is turning gently. This is a small movement when she is thinking. Now her strength is affected by the child in her stomach, and she also wants to protect the child and Fu Hengyi. It was impossible to win the opponent in a short time, but for a long time, her physical strength could not keep up.

When entering the rain forest, in order to reduce the burden on Shen Qinglan, except for some necessary food and water, she had only the top Q. When she was separated from Eden, the situation was critical. Eden did not expect to leave Shen Qinglan with weapons.

Fu Hengyi is still suffering from high fever, and his consciousness has been blurred. Just now the voice of Shen Qinglan's Q pulled back the consciousness that he was about to leave. He opened his eyes and looked at the chilling Shen Qinglan in front of him, and the big man standing in front of them. Fu Hengyi wanted to stand up to protect her, but was powerless. Found that he doesn't even have the ability to protect himself now.

Shen Qinglan's clothes are very loose, plus her belly is not particularly big, so at first glance, the other party did not see that Shen Qinglan was a pregnant woman, but Shen Qinglan's marksmanship, he just learned the experience, so the other party was in a moment Don't dare to act rashly.

After a minute and a second passed, Shen Qinglan's expression remained unchanged, but she was more and more anxious. She wanted to look back at Fu Hengyi's situation, but worried that the other party would take the opportunity to attack.

Her eyes were ruthless and she took the initiative to attack the other party. In order to win this person in the shortest time, Shen Qinglan's move was fatal, but the person's skill was not weak, plus Shen Qinglan was special. During the period, the two actually had a tie.

The other party didn't seem to expect that Shen Qinglan had such a tough bone, and he played Shen Qinglan for nearly ten minutes. Shen Qinglan made a mouthful on his body, but Shen Qinglan's body was unharmed, and his eyes suddenly became fierce.

In order to protect the children in the stomach from being injured, Shen Qinglan always guards against the opponent's moves at all times and fights very hard. And Shen Qinglan, who was preoccupied, naturally didn't realize that the mercenary who was seriously injured on the ground did not know when to wake up, crawling and picked up the hand Q not far away.

Fu Hengyi, who has been paying attention to Shen Qinglan, noticed this scene, and I don't know where the strength will be, standing between Shen Qinglan and the ZD.

Shen Qinglan turned around and saw that Fu Hengyi fell down in front of her eyes, and blood was spraying far in front of her eyes.

"Fu Hengyi!" Shen Qinglan's voice was stern and spread far and far.

"It's Ann's voice." Eden said.

"Quick!" Andre's expression was anxious, and they just heard a Q sound just now.

The dagger in Shen Qinglan's hand flew to the person who opened Q, and directly hit the deadly man. The remaining person looked at this opportunity and attacked Shen Qinglan again. Shen Qinglan's eyes were very dark and cold, as if it was open The door of the hell, she somehow took out another saber from somewhere.

Everyone knows that the killer charm is good at shooting, but it is more than a hundred, but it is more than that. The charmed cold weapon is better used and the technique is more accurate.

Even when the mercenary didn't respond by himself, the saber was already inserted in his chest.

Shen Qinglan didn't look at the man, and turned to hug Fu Hengyi, who fell to the ground. Her hand covered his wound, and the blood instantly soaked her hand.

"Fu Hengyi, you are awake! Have you heard? I will not let you die." Shen Qinglan shouted, but Fu Hengyi's eyes were tightly closed, and she did not respond to any cry.

Her hand pressed tightly to his wound, not daring to let go.

The originally gloomy sky suddenly began to rain, and the cold rain quickly wet the clothes on the two people. Shen Qinglan could feel the temperature of Fu Hengyi's body dissipating quickly, as if life, in the rapid passing, she looked at Fu Hengyi, The expression is numb, but his eyes are very gentle.

"Fu Hengyi, you said that Shangqiangbi and Huangquan will be with you. You will accompany me. I will also give you this sentence. No matter where you go, I will follow you."

Her head pressed gently against Fu Hengyi's face, and a kiss fell on his cold lips.

324 Chapter 326: Out of Risk (46)

"Ann!" Suddenly thought of Jin Enxi's voice in his ear.

Shen Qinglan's desperate eyes suddenly burst into amazing light. She turned her head and looked at the few people who were running towards her through the rain curtain. She suddenly wanted to cry.

Shen Qinglan took Eden's clothes, "Eden, save him quickly."

Eden looked at Fu Hengyi with a dignified expression. Even if he didn't have to look closely, he could realize the seriousness of the situation, but now it was raining, and there was no way to rescue him.

"I just saw a cave near here," Sisley said suddenly. Eden came forward, replaced Shen Qinglan and held Fu Hengyi's wound, Andrei and Eden helped Fu Hengyi, everyone found the cave that Sisley said, but their luck was bad, this cave has Lord's.

"An, I solved it." Looking at the black panther in front of him, Jin Enxi said coldly, the Q in his hand was ready, and Shen Qinglan didn't speak, which was equivalent to the default. Don't say that she is cruel, now everything that blocks Heng Yi from her is her enemy, and she has never been soft on the enemy.

It's just that Black Panther probably knew that the group of people in front of him was not easy to mess with. After glancing at Shen Qinglan, he left here and disappeared in front of them quickly. Sisli went to check in advance to prevent danger inside. a bit.

"Go in, it's safe immediately."

Probably the black panther just now was clean. The cave was not dirty at all. Andre and Eden put Fu Hengyi on the ground and took off Fu Hengyi's clothes directly.

Eden had already taken out his small medicine. When he knew he was going to rescue Fu Hengyi, he prepared some commonly used wound medicine, but this time it was used.

Shen Qinglan stared closely, Jin Enxi blocked her view, "An, you need to rest now, and you need to change the wet clothes on your body." Shen Qinglan looked blank, unresponsive.

"Ann, did you hear me speak?" Jin Enxi increased the volume a little, reaching out and shaking in front of Shen Qinglan's eyes. Shen Qinglan's eyes moved.

"Ann, the clothes on your body are wet, you change the clothes first." Jin Enxi repeated.

Shen Qinglan looked at Fu Hengyi, and Jin Enxi continued, "Eden will definitely save Fu Hengyi. What you need now is to take care of yourself, then you can take good care of Fu Hengyi. If you are sick, what will you take care of him."

It is winter now, even though the temperature here is much warmer than that of Beijing, but it is also winter. It is easy to catch cold when wearing wet clothes.

Shen Qinglan seemed to have listened to Jin Enxi's words and sat down by the bonfire. The bonfire was burned by some dead wood that Sisli used in the cave just now. I don't know why a black panther lived with dead wood.

Sisley was sitting at the entrance of the cave, guarding against the black panther just now, Shen Qinglan took off her coat, Jin Enxi grilled her coat on the fire, obviously she was also soaked, but she cares Not looking at herself, she was full of worry in Shen Qinglan's eyes.

Shen Qinglan noticed Jin Enxi's gaze and twitched, "I'm fine, rest assured." After that, he turned to Fu Hengyi.

Eden has dealt with the wounds on Fu Hengyi's body. There are many big wounds on his body. In addition to the one that just blocked Shen Qinglan, there are countless large and small wounds on his leg. Conditions, after Eden wrapped up several terrible wounds, the remaining small wounds could only be ignored temporarily. In order to prevent inflammation of the wounds, he injected Fu Hengyi with some drugs.

"An, let's go out as soon as the rain stops. Fu Hengyi will be fine." Eden said, his tone was calm, but Shen Qinglan didn't believe him, she was not a doctor, but she understood that Fu Hengyi's situation is absolutely very good now. Danger.

"Eden, you just tell me the truth. I can bear this blow." Shen Qinglan spoke lightly.

Eden's eyes changed slightly, and he glanced at Shen Qinglan, "An, I can save Fu Hengyi, I promise."

Shen Qinglan's eyes were fixed on Eden's eyes, and after a while, he slowly spoke, "Thank you."

She held Fu Hengyi's hand and sat there motionless.

On the other side, Alan had already got Shen Qinglan and entered the rainforest, and found Fu Hengyi's news, his expression became very cold, "King this waste, even with his own life, he failed to kill Fu Hengyi!"

The promised eyes were dim, and he continued, "The people of BK are still chasing and killing them, as if it means Beyoncé."

King is dead, and now BK people are listening to Beyoncé for the time being.

Allen smiled, "Give me the solution to BK's people."

He promised to look at him, his eyes puzzled, but Alan didn't explain, and even stopped looking at her after he finished speaking. He promised to see that he didn't say anything, and he turned around and left.

Peter could understand Allen's approach, but he didn't want Shen Qinglan to know that he was involved, afraid that Shen Qinglan hated him, but he didn't want to think about it. If he didn't say this, Shen Qinglan wouldn't know?

And Shen Qinglan doesn't have any feelings for Alan now, is it important to hate it?

Sometimes Peter really can't understand Allen. Since he cares so much, this good opportunity will directly take Shen Qinglan away, but now he has to solve what BK people are.

It rained all night and stopped until the next day at dawn. On this night, Shen Qinglan held Fu Hengyi's hand and sat beside him to guard him, and he didn't even sleep at a glance.

Suddenly, an unexpected light burst out of her eyes, and she looked at her stomach with a stunned expression. Then, she put Fu Hengyi's hand on her stomach, "Fu Hengyi, did you feel it, it moved."

The child in the belly didn't know if he heard the mother's words or was naughty, and moved again, just kicked in Fu Hengyi's hand, Shen Qinglan stared closely at Fu Hengyi's face, "Fu Hengyi, our child is calling you, it's saying hello to you, do you feel it?"

Fu Hengyi's eyelids moved, and slowly opened her eyes, only to see Shen Qinglan did not speak, and his eyes were gentle.

Shen Qinglan's tears ran down without warning. Fu Hengyi wanted to raise his hand, but he didn't even have the strength to raise it. Soon, he closed his eyes and fell asleep.

"Ann, the rain has stopped. We need to leave here as soon as possible." Jin Enxi came in from outside and said.

Hearing the words, Shen Qinglan thought of getting up, but because she kept the same posture for too long, she almost fell as soon as her legs were soft. Eden quickly helped her, and Shen Qinglan shook her head, indicating that she was fine.

Not long after several people left, someone found the cave. Beyonce looked at the blood on the ground and the traces of the campfire and said coldly, "They must be near here, chase me."

King died, and died in front of him. Although King one and BK's leader were his, King has been very good to him in these years. When this condition exists, he still wants to avenge King.

It's just that Beyonce's luck is obviously not very good. Just after halfway, they met Shen Qian and they were not surprised. Except Beyonce, everyone else was subdued by the military.'

Allen secretly saw this scene, and gave Promise a glance. Promise immediately followed Beyoncé, apparently trying to cut the grass and roots.

"Allen, we should go too. They will find Shen Qinglan and them soon." Peter looked at Shen Qian's direction and left.

Alan looked gloomy, and she was almost behind. She took a deep look at Shen Qian's direction of leaving and turned to walk in the opposite direction. She wasn't worried about whether she could cope with Beyonce before the promise had returned.

Shen Qian did find Shen Qinglan very quickly, but when they found it, Shen Qinglan's side had left in advance except for Eden and Fu Hengyi. Just now Shen Qian and Beyonce had a great deal of movement, and Jin Enxi went to check After a while, knowing that it was Shen Qinglan's father, they did not want to cause unnecessary trouble to Shen Qinglan, they left.

"Lan Lan." When Shen Junyu saw Shen Qinglan, her eyes were pleasantly surprised, but when she saw Fu Hengyi on Eden's back, she suddenly fell to the bottom with a heart.

Shen Qinglan has been reluctantly supporting her. Whether she is physically or mentally, her loss is almost at its limit. When she saw Shen Qian and Shen Junyu, Shen Qinglan's nerves were loosened, and people planted towards the ground.

"Lan Lan."

At the border military area hospital, Shen Qinglan was lying unconscious on the hospital bed, frowning, not knowing what he had dreamed about, tears in the corners of his eyes, sad and desperate.

Shen Junyu sat quietly at her bed and looked at her quietly. In addition to being distressed or angry in her eyes, she thought that when Shen Qinglan woke up, she had to teach her well. It was just too chaotic.

"Fu Hengyi." Shen Qinglan suddenly sat up from the bed and lifted the quilt to get out of the bed. "Fu Hengyi."

Shen Junyu held her, "Shen Qinglan, what are you doing!"

Shen Qinglan pushed his hand away, "I go to Fu Hengyi."

"Fu Hengyi is still in the operating room."

Shen Qinglan's movements, staring closely at Shen Junyu, "Brother, take me."

Faced with her praying eyes, Shen Junyu couldn't really say what she refused, "Okay."

At the door of the operating room, Shen Qian waited there, saw Shen Qinglan, and immediately stood up, "Qinglan."

Shen Qinglan glanced at the operating room with the door closed, and looked at Shen Qian.

Shen Qian saw that she was still calm and said, "Still under surgery, the friend with you has already entered. He said that he is a doctor and let me tell you that Fu Hengyi will be fine."

Shen Qinglan heard that there was no response. She looked quietly at the door of the operating room. She looked calm and said nothing.

Shen Qian and Shen Junyu could not tell her to leave to rest, knew the worries in her heart, and stood there to wait with her. And this wait is three hours.

325 Chapter 327: A Male Baby (47)

When the door of the operating room finally opened, Shen Qinglan immediately walked over, Eden looked at her, gave her a reassuring look, and said, "The life has been saved, and it should wake up tomorrow."

Hearing this, Shen Qian and Shen Junyu were at ease.

Shen Qinglan looked at Fu Hengyi who had been pushed out of the operating room. His eyes were red, but the corners of his mouth were raised high.

In order to facilitate care, Fu Hengyi and Shen Qinglan were arranged in the same ward.

In addition to some small wounds, Shen Qinglan's body was too physically exhausted, and it would be fine to rest for a few days, but Fu Hengyi's injury was more troublesome.

"The wounds on his body were not fatal, and the wounds were not critical. The reason for this is that there was too much blood loss." Eden explained to the three people, and he did not know whether Fu Hengyi was lucky or even the most serious. None of the injuries are fatal."But..." Eden paused.

"But his leg is very troublesome, his leg injury is very serious, and the failure to heal it in time has caused irreparable damage. I can guarantee that his leg will be healed, but it can't be recovered."

No one knows more about this sentence than Shen Qian. His eyes dimmed and asked, "Is there no other way?"

Eden shook his head. "Sorry, I can only do this."

From the beginning to the end, Shen Qinglan didn't speak. For her, as long as Fu Hengyi is alive, it doesn't matter if he can't stand up in his life, she will always be with him.

"Eden, you have worked hard, you go to rest first." Shen Qinglan said, Eden nodded, glanced at Shen Qian and Shen Junyu, and walked out of the ward.

"Qing Lan, you..." Looking at Shen Qinglan's unusually calm face, Shen Qian felt more worried.

"Dad, I'm fine, such a result is already very good." Shen Qinglan said, she looked at Fu Hengyi with a tender expression.

Fu Hengyi has found it. The leaders on this matter attach great importance to it. So after confirming the situation of Fu Hengyi, Shen Qian left first. He also needs to rush back to the military area to report the situation to the superior leaders.

After Shen Junyu notified the family, he stayed in the ward with Shen Qinglan.

"Lan Lan, you take a rest first, I will help you watch Fu Hengyi, I promise to give you a good look at him." Shen Junyu looked at the green and black in the eyes of Shen Qinglan, very distressed, and spoke softly.

Shen Qing also knew that she had been capricious once, and she could no longer worry about her family. She nodded and lay down on the bed next to Fu Hengyi, presumably because she knew Fu Hengyi was beside her. This time Shen Qinglan slept peacefully.

It was the next day that Fu Hengyi woke up. When he opened his eyes, he saw his hand being held. Looking at it, he saw Shen Qinglan in the bed next door, and fell asleep in front of him.

Fu Hengyi's eyes became very gentle in an instant, and it seemed that he sensed his sight. Shen Qinglan opened her eyes quickly. She stared at Fu Hengyi with a stunned expression, as if she hadn't responded, and suddenly, her mouth lightened and smiled. , The tender tenderness that bloomed in the eyebrows, like the spring wind blowing.

Fu Hengyi's mouth lightly hooked.

Shen Qinglan got out of bed and sat next to Fu Hengyi. "Fu Hengyi, you are fine. It's nice."

"sorry that I had you worried."

Shen Qinglan shook his head, "As long as you are fine."

When Eden saw the scene at the door of the ward, he stepped back slightly and sat down on the chair in the hallway. Shen Junyu just came over and saw him, asking questioningly, "Why not go in?"

Eden motioned for him to look inside. Shen Junyu glanced back, withdrawn his eyes, and sat down with Eden, "Fu Hengyi's legs can't really be restored as before?"

Eden looked at the ground. "Well, he suffered a serious leg injury. If I can, I will definitely save, but I have tried my best."

Shen Junyu didn't say anything. He was not familiar with Eden. He hadn't even seen Eden before. He didn't know Eden's art. To put it bluntly, he didn't trust Eden. He would call later. A good orthopedic surgeon came over. If the whole country did not work, he asked the world. He did not believe that no one could heal Fu Hengyi's leg.

In the ward, Fu Hengyi already knew his situation from Shen Qinglan's mouth, and the reaction was calmer than Shen Qinglan estimated.

"That's fine, I can withdraw from the base in advance, and I can rest at home for a while to accompany you and your children." Fu Hengyi said with a smile, seemingly not caring about his lap.

"Eden said, after recovery, it will not affect your normal activities, and even you can continue to stay in the army, that is..."

"I just can't stay with the sharp knife anymore, do I?"

Shen Qinglan nodded, "If you are sad, you can tell me, Fu Hengyi, I promise not to joke, the child will not laugh at you."

After hearing this, Fu Hengyi couldn't help but chuckled and said, "Wife, you are so cute."

"I'm really not as sad as you think, it's just a little regret." He originally wanted to put a perfect end to his career in a sharp knife, and now it seems that it can't be.

Fu Hengyi took Shen Qinglan's hand, "I'm glad that I'm still alive, and I can still be with you and your children, and even I can hold you in the future."

Before Shen Qinglan arrived, Fu Hengyi really thought that he was in danger this time. Although King was dead, his situation was not much better. If Shen Qinglan did not arrive in time, Fu Hengyi would not be a BK person. If you kill it, you will lose too much blood and die.

Shen Qinglan felt a little relieved to see Fu Hengyi really not so sad.

Eden came in and gave Fu Hengyi a check, "It's okay to recover, but if your legs want to recover completely..."

Fu Hengyi interface, "I know, Qinglan has already told me, I just want to know, how long will it take if I want to stand up and move freely?"

Eden thought about it and said, "More than four months."

In four months, just before Shen Qinglan's production was resumed, Fu Hengyi was immediately satisfied. He said he would take care of Shen Qinglan's confinement in person.

"Then Qinglan, is there any problem with her body?"

"No problem." Shen Junyu originally came in to look at Fu Hengyi's situation. When she heard the words, she suddenly became angry. "You didn't wake up. She didn't want to go for a check at all. That's because we forced her to sleep."

Shen Qinglan looked coldly at Shen Junyu with threats in her eyes. Shen Junyu ignored her eyes directly and cracked down on Shen Qinglan's uncooperative treatment.

The smile on Fu Hengyi's face disappeared completely, staring at Shen Qinglan, Shen Qinglan lowered his eyes, put Fu Hengyi's hand on his stomach, "Fu Hengyi, the child is fine." The tone slightly felt aggrieved .

Fu Hengyi's heart that he wanted to preach was dissipated in Shen Qinglan's words.

Shen Junyu looked at it, the hero was sad about beauty, and hoped that Fu Hengyi would say that Shen Qinglan was impossible. He rolled up his sleeves and planned to go into battle himself, but he met Fu Hengyi's slightly cool eyes. , Worry about yourself.

Turned around and left in a huff.

When Shen Junyu left, Fu Hengyi looked at Shen Qinglan, "I'm okay now, you have to do a check first."

Shen Qinglan originally planned this way too, so he did not object and went out with Eden.

Waiting for everyone to leave, Fu Hengyi picked up the mobile phone Shen Qinglan left here and called Commander Liu to report his situation.

"I know, you take good care of the wounds, I will apply for the report to your superiors." Commander Liu said, people like Fu Hengyi just want to retire, not only to ask Commander Liu to agree, but also the Supreme Leader's instructions, And because he knows many high-level secrets and the military merits he has set, Fu Hengyi will not hold too low a position after returning to the Beijing Military Region.

Shen Qinglan's inspection was very slow this time, and he came back after a long time. Even Fu Hengyi, who had always been steady, watched the passage of time, and the people who should have come back were a little anxious.

When Shen Qinglan came in, there was a slight sorrow in his eyebrows, and Fu Hengyi's expression slightly changed, "Is it a child..." He dare not say anything.

Shen Qinglan's cold face faded with a faint smile and shook his head. "No, the child is very good and very healthy." This child must be strong when he grows up. After experiencing such tossing, he has nothing at all, It's just... Shen Qinglan glanced at Fu Hengyi.

Fu Hengyi looked at her, "Qinglan, you can tell me the truth."

Shen Qinglan looked at him speechlessly, "This is the truth, the child is really okay." It was just that when he was doing the examination, Eden told her the gender of the child. She felt that if Fu Hengyi, who wanted her daughter all the time, knew him. The long-awaited little princess has become a leader, and will be very disappointed.

So Shen Qinglan decided that he would never tell Fu Hengyi's child's sex before the child was born.

Seeing that Shen Qinglan didn't look like lying, Fu Hengyi immediately felt relieved, took Shen Qinglan to sit by the bed, put his hand on Shen Qinglan's stomach, and after a while, frowned and said, "Why didn't she move??"

When he was in a cave at that time, he was confused, and he felt the throb of the child in his stomach.

Shen Qinglan smiled slightly and explained, "It's still early. When he gets bigger later, his movements will be frequent."

Fu Hengyi's hand was still on Shen Qinglan's stomach. After waiting for a while, he saw that the little guy really didn't mean to say hello to his dad, so he let down his hand disappointedly.

foreign.

Mrs. Jin knew that King was dead, and Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi came out of the rain forest safely and angrily smashed the whole room. "Waste, it's all waste, so many people and weapons, even two people deal with it. Nope."

Allen came in and looked at the messy ground, his eyes cold, "Who are you talking about?"

Allen also participated in this event.

Mrs. Jin was so angry that her chest was still violently fluctuating. He heard the words and looked at him cruelly, "It's you, Alan, did you deliberately let Shen Qinglan go?"

If no one deliberately released the water, Mrs. Jin did not believe that Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi could come out of the rain forest without fail.

"How is it, the person I want to kill is Fu Hengyi, not Shen Qinglan." On the contrary, if something really happened to Shen Qinglan, Allen would put the bill on Mrs. Jin's head.

"Allen, I think you are dizzy. Shen Qinglan is your daughter who killed your father and his enemies. Even if you like her, you should distinguish clearly."

Alan looked at Mrs. Jin coldly, "I don't need you to remind me of my father's death all the time. You are just a woman of my father's father, who I like and who cares for me, but mine If you dare to move, don't forget my words, you'll never see my father's ashes in this life."

"Oh, by the way, I'll tell you by the way, I already told the people below that you can't go to see my father again without my permission."

Mrs. Jin's face changed, "Why do you do this!"

Allen smiled, "Just because you are just my father's woman and not his wife, and the thoughts you just moved."

Mrs. Jin's expression was stiff for a moment, and she really wanted to start with Shen Qinglan just now.

Although Allen was a few years younger than Mrs. King, it was considered to have grown up with this woman. Her thoughts Allen can guess a point without looking. This is also the purpose of his appearance here today. If people do not warn, they will forget their duty.

After Alan left, the already messy room was even more messy. Except for one photo, everything was destroyed by Mrs. Jin. She held the photo tightly in her arms and the smile on her face was very gentle. I will definitely avenge you, and I will come to you when I have finished my revenge. I will make the Shen and Fu families lose their reputations."

After Allen left, he glanced at the housekeeper. The housekeeper gave Allen a reassuring look. No one knew that Mrs. King's housekeeper was actually Allen's person. As Mrs. King's most trusted person, the housekeeper knew many things, There are even many that he personally handled, and he will tell all this regularly, so Mrs. King's every move is under Alan's eyelids.

After Fu Hengyi's condition stabilized, Shen Qinglan went through the transfer procedure for Fu Hengyi. The expert invited by Shen Junyu had already checked Fu Hengyi, and the conclusion was not as good as that of Eden. He drove him out.

After learning about Fu Hengyi's situation, Master Fu personally called the leaders above and didn't know what to talk about. It was only soon that Fu Hengyi's application was approved, and Fu Hengyi served in the Beijing Military Region after he recovered.

Fu Hengyi was not surprised when he heard the news. He wasn't even surprised by the position he had arranged for him. Only after returning to Beijing, Fu Hengyi asked Shen Qinglan to push him to participate in Qian Fei's memorial service.

Fu Hengyi's military uniform, sitting in a wheelchair, was pushed in by Shen Qinglan. He quietly looked at Qian Fei's portrait. His eyes were very dark. This was not the first time he participated in the memorial service of his comrades-in-arms, but this time it was the best. Once he felt guilty. Speaking of it, Qian Fei died for him, and Meng Liang, because he was saving him, is still lying in the hospital.

Qian Fei's mother was crying heartbroken. Looking at this old man with a sorrowful face, even Shen Qinglan's heart was filled with a sadness. She could feel the despair from the old man's body.

Although Qian Fei is not the only son of the old man, he is the one he loves the most.

People with sharp knives are basically here, to bid farewell to their comrades and their brothers.

"Captain." Mu Liancheng walked to Fu Hengyi and called.

Fu Hengyi said lightly, "I was not your captain since yesterday, and now you are their captain." He looked at the brothers who were standing not far away and looked at his brother, "Liancheng, the sharp knife will be given to you later. Now."

Mu Liancheng looked serious and paid a military salute to Fu Hengyi. This was an oath and a farewell.

"Captain, take care later!"

After Mu Liancheng left, Shen Qinglan came not far away, "Can I go now?"

Fu Hengyi nodded, "Go."

Fu Hengyi returned to the hospital again. The injuries on his body were not good. He shouldn't have been out today, but he had to go to see Qian Fei on the last side and send his brother the last trip.

After returning to the hospital, Fu Hengyi went to Meng Liang's ward and quietly looked at the person lying inside through the glass. Shen Qinglan stood behind him and said, "Eden has checked him, he can be sure that he can cure Good for him, but even if he recovers in the future, he can no longer return to the army."

Meng Liang's injury is much heavier than Fu Hengyi's. This time he can retrieve a life and it's a godsend.

"As long as you are alive." As for the future life, Fu Hengyi can always think of ways to help him solve it.

This military exercise was broken into the scope of the military exercise by foreign mercenaries, and even several soldiers were sacrificed for it. The superior leaders attached great importance and were very angry. They demanded that this matter be strictly investigated. All personnel participating in the military exercise should be one. Check it out.

After consulting the leaders of the military region, they decided to set up a special investigation team. Everyone who participated in the military exercise, regardless of the rank of the military, must be investigated.

Because Fu Hengyi was still hospitalized, the investigation team went to the hospital to find Fu Hengyi.

Fu Hengyi said everything she knew, except for the things of Eden.

Shen Qinglan had been waiting outside until the investigative team left.

"What about your little partner?" Fu Hengyi asked.

"Everyone except Eden has returned to country Y."

"During this time, they are not to come to Beijing for the time being."

Shen Qinglan nodded, and she also meant it. The impact of this incident was very bad. The superior leadership will definitely investigate. If something is found, they will be very troublesome if they stay in the capital.

Eden left after confirming that Fu Hengyi's condition was completely stable. Fu Hengyi's leg needed two operations, and he also needed to go back to make some preparations.

Yancheng of Nancheng, Yan Anbang did not see Qin Yan at home when he returned from the army and called Qin Yan.

"Anbang, I'm still in country F." Qin Yan's voice came out from the phone, and I could hear it. I was in a good mood.

It was only when Yan Anbang remembered that Qin Yan had told him about this and smiled, "Then it will be fun, if you don't have enough money, call me."

Qin Yan smiled, "I have enough money, I didn't buy anything, An Bang, are you home?"

Yan Anbang yelled, "Just came back."

"Then I will buy the ticket back now."

"No, you are good, I will leave in the afternoon." Yan Anbang said.

Qin Yan heard that, she seemed unhappy, "When will you come back?"

"It's not clear, something happened in the army. This is not coming back for the time being. I am not at home during this time. If you like, you can play in Country F for a while."

Qin Yan asked curiously, "What happened in the army?"

"It's okay, you just have fun." Yan Anbang didn't want to say more, and Qin Yan didn't ask.

When he hung up the phone, Yan Anbang's face sank. This time the superior suspected that there was a traitor inside them.

The time and place of this military exercise are kept secret, but the other party's people can find them accurately. If they are not notified, they are unbelievable, not to mention Fu Hengyi's participation in the military exercise except for a few of them. No one at the top knows at all. The mercenaries who came back from Shen Qian know that their goal this time is Fu Hengyi.

With such purposeful and organized activities, there is no ventilation inside. How can they find Fu Hengyi in the huge rainforest?

The scope of this military exercise is very large, but compared to the entire rainforest, the scope of this military exercise is only a small part of it.

In the past few days, Yan Anbang and Shen Qian have also been inspected, but so far, no results have been found.

In this operation, there were already ten soldiers sacrificed. Except for a sharp-bladed soldier and the first few who were killed because of defenselessness, the rest of them were in conflict when they met each other while searching. Sacrificed.

The affairs of these people need to be dealt with, and the family needs condolences. Counting a lot of things, Yan Anbang has not had a good rest since the day of the military performance. Today, he is also home to get some clothes for changing.

After lying on the sofa for a while, he went upstairs to pack up a few clothes and left, never thinking about why Qin Yan was still abroad for so long.

Qin Yan hung up the phone and did not rush back, but booked a ticket to Sydney.

When Zhao Jiaqing saw the woman's face in front of her, she immediately froze and said in a cold voice, "What are you doing here?"

Qin Yan looked at Zhao Jiaqing with a look and disdain in her eyes, and shook her head. "If you don't see it in a few months, you seem to be much older. It seems that after leaving Anbang, your life is not going well."

"You came here to show off with me?"

"No, no, I'm not so bored. I came to see Yan Xi. I heard An Bang say something about Yan Xi. Since she has forgotten me now, there shouldn't be so much hostility towards me, I see Is it always okay to see her?"

Hearing Qin Yan saying that Yan Anbang told her about Yan Xi, Zhao Jiaqing subconsciously thought that Yan Anbang had kidnapped Yan Xi, and suddenly expressed strong hatred towards Yan Anbang.

327 Chapter 329 Provoking (49 more)

"Yan Xi won't see you, and I won't allow you to meet. Qin Yan, I don't want to control or control Yan Anbang, but Yan Xi is my daughter. If you dare to hurt her, I will fight with you. "Zhao Jiaqing's eyes were fierce, like a mother beast protecting a cub.

Qin Yan's eyes widened in surprise, "Hurt Yan Xi? Is there any misunderstanding you have for me? I have no malicious intentions for Yan Xi, my daughter was lost because of you, but I know I inserted you You will revenge me like this in marriage with An Bang. I didn't plan to avenge you. I just want to see Yan Xi and talk to her. Isn't that too much?"

Zhao Jiaqing looked at Qin Yan's eyes full of incredible, she really could not understand the woman's thinking, "Qin Yan, let me say the last time, your daughter's disappearance has nothing to do with me, nor with the Zhao family, You shouldn't find my head even if you want to take revenge. You can only say that this is your revenge."

"Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha." Hearing this, Qin Yan suddenly laughed, her eyes crazy, Zhao Jiaqing didn't know which words irritated her, and looked at the woman with a defensive look.

Qin Yan smiled for a while before stopping. He looked at Zhao Jiaqing steadily. He always saw Zhao Jiaqing hairy. He was close to Zhao Jiaqing this time and said softly, "Well said, Zhao Jiaqing, this is retribution. Qin Mu's loss is Retribution, everything that Yan Xi encountered during her kidnapping is also revenge, all this is revenge!"

Zhao Jiaqing's eyes widened suddenly, grabbing Qin Yan who wanted to leave, "What did you mean just now, please explain it clearly to me."

Qin Yan chuckled, "It's meaningless."

"Please tell me clearly what Qin Mu is retribution, and Yan Xi is also retribution. Say, are you doing Yan Xi's things?" Zhao Jiaqing's expression is crazy. If Qin Yan dares to say "yes", I am afraid that today Zhao Jiaqing Will be desperate with her.

Qin Yan wanted to get away from Zhao Jiaqing's hand, but Zhao Jiaqing was so tight that she couldn't make it at all and simply let her hold on to herself, "Yan Xi's things have nothing to do with me, but I can remind you that you might as well go back Ask your ex-husband, my current husband, and ask him if he has done anything before Yan Xi suffered such a thing."

Zhao Jiaqing froze, Qin Yan took the opportunity to free her hand and left.

Sitting in the car, Qin Yan glanced from the rearview mirror at Zhao Jiaqing who was standing in a daze. The corners of her mouth were lightly hooked. Now her life is too calm, she is tired of it. Since King is so useless, she can only use herself. Solution.

She never dared to underestimate the power of women, especially a mother who loved her child more than her own life. If such a woman is crazy, it will be very scary.

Successfully planted the seeds of suspicion in Zhao Jiaqing's heart, Qin Yan left Sydney City, she figured it out, and directly solved Yan Anbang. They were really too cheap for them. She wanted more than just the Shen family and Yan family. Shen Qian and Yan Anbang's wives should also be separated and become alone.

After Qin Yan left, Zhao Jiaqing stood still, and Yan Xi came back from school. When she saw her like this, she couldn't help but ask, "Mom, why are you standing alone at the door, not hot?"

Zhao Jiaqing turned to God and saw Yan Xi came back, trying to make a smile, but he couldn't laugh, "Xiao Xi is back, my mother hasn't cooked yet. I'm going to cook now, and I can eat it soon. "

Yan Xi stared at Zhao Jiaqing's face, "Mom, are you unhappy?"

Zhao Jiaqing shook his head, "No, my mother did not have any unhappiness. She just thought about things just now." Then, Zhao Jiaqing turned and entered the kitchen.

After a while, Yan Xi suddenly rushed into the kitchen, "Mom, burnt."

Zhao Jiaqing was shouted back by Yan Xi's roar, and he smelled a strong burnt smell. He quickly turned off the fire and looked at the darkened piece at the bottom of the pot, which was also very troublesome to make clear. I'm sorry Looked at Yan Xi, "It seems to be done again."

Yan Xi wrapped Zhao Jiaqing's shoulders and smiled, "Mom, let's go out to eat today, don't cook anymore, you have to work hard every day."

Zhao Jiaqing is really not in the mood to cook now. He went into the house and changed clothes and went out with Yan Xi.

"Mom, I'll invite you for this meal today." Yan Xi said when ordering.

Zhao Jiaqing looked at her daughter and looked lovingly, "Isn't your money your mother's money? What is the difference between your mother's payment and yours?"

Yan Xi shook his head, "Not the same. I made this money today. Mom, I'm just going to tell you. Several of the photos I took were selected by the magazine. They wanted to buy those photos. I have agreed to the copyright of the copyright, but it is only the first manuscript fee I received. Of course, I will invite my mother to dinner."

Zhao Jiaqing smiled comfortably, her daughter really grew up, "You are very happy to have this kind of mother, you keep the money for yourself, when the mother is old, you can't make money, please invite your mother to eat , Mom will certainly not refuse."

Yan Xi frowned, "Mom, although my manuscript fee is not much, but I still invite you to have a meal."

In the end, Zhao Jiaqing still failed to pay for Yan Xi. The meal was finally paid by Yan Xi. When coming out of the restaurant, Yan Xi Zhao Jiaqing often lost his mind and couldn't help asking, "Mom, do you have any concerns?"

When I was eating just now, Zhao Jiaqing was often distracted, and even if Yan Xi's nerves were too great, he could see that something was wrong.

Zhao Jiaqing shook his head, "No, Xiao Xi, my mother wants to go back to China for a few days recently. Do you have any problems staying here alone?"

Yan Xi heard the words, her eyes lit up, "Mom, are you going back to see Dad?"

Zhao Jiaqing nodded to the look that Shang Yanxi was expecting, "Well, I haven't been back for a long time, I want to go back and see how your father is doing."

"Then I'll go with my mother, just because I haven't seen my father in a long time."

"No," Zhao Jiaqing snapped.

Sudden anger frightened Yan Xi, Yan Xi stared at Zhao Jiaqing staring blankly, and still couldn't recover, "Mom."

Zhao Jiaqing also realized that she was just too excited. He calmed down and calmly said, "There are other things to do when my mother returns. I won't be able to come back in a while. There are so many courses in your school. You go. Is it open?"

"Don't you say you'll be back in a few days? And the university will take a few days off to return home to visit the family, and the professor will approve."

Zhao Jiaqing continued, "Xiao Xi, you are still a student, you still have to focus on your studies, and often take time off to give the teacher a bad impression."

Yan Xi wanted to say that she didn't ask for leave often, but suddenly she couldn't say anything to Zhao Jiaqing's eyes. She thought about it and finally nodded her promise, "Well, then I will go back to see my dad when the school is on holiday, this time You can't stop me." Last time Yan Xi wanted to go back, but Zhao Jiaqing reported to her a summer camp and let her experience life with her teachers and classmates.

Zhao Jiaqing nodded, "Okay, next time you are on holiday, my mother will accompany you back to China."

Yan Xi smiled and said, "Well, don't forget to tell dad, I won't go back this time, I will definitely go back to see him next time."

Listening to Yan Xi's mouthful of a dad, Zhao Jiaqing couldn't tell what she felt. All she thought was what Qin Yan said. She didn't understand what Qin Yan said, she didn't dare to think about it, but she couldn't bear it. Live to think.

Yan Xi will not cook. In order to ensure that Yan Xi will not starve to death while she is away, Zhao Jiaqing specially invited a Filipino maid to Yan Xi and arranged her life before buying a ticket to return to her country.

Zhao Jiaqing did not tell anyone this time, even Yan Shengyu did not notify her. She returned to Nancheng and called Yan Anbang as soon as possible, but no one picked it up. Not to mention Yan Anbang, even Qin Yan is not at home.

Zhao Jiaqing could only find a hotel to stay first. She kept thinking about what Qin Yan said. The more she thought, the more uneasy she was, but she was late to see Yan Anbang. Her heart was very anxious. Shen Qinglan's name flashed from her mind. Passing away, she picked up her phone and turned to Shen Qinglan's number. After hesitating for a long time, she dropped her phone.

The next day, Zhao Jiaqing went directly to a private investigator who wanted to investigate Yan Anbang.

"This lady, are you related to this gentleman?" the private detective asked her.

Zhao Jiaqing pursed her lips, "He is my ex-husband, I want to know which women he has been involved with in the past."

The private detective frowned, "Since it's an ex-husband, is there still a need for investigation?" He thought he was not divorced, and his wife planned to find evidence of her husband's derailment, so that he would get more benefits when he divorced.

When the private detective looked at Zhao Jiaqing's dress, he knew that this one was a wide wife. He saw a lot of things in the wealthy house. He thought he was a big order, but he didn't expect to go to his ex-husband. The marriage was divorced. It doesn't make any sense to rise up, so it is represented that he has no profit, and naturally his interest is not high.

Zhao Jiaqing saw the other party's intention and slapped a stack of cash on the table. "This is a deposit. If you can find it, the result will satisfy me, and I will not treat you badly."

The private investigator's eyes lit up, picked up the money on the table and counted, and said with a smile, "This lady is assured, I will definitely check the relationship between your ex-husband's previous and present."

Zhao Jiaqing took another picture and put it on the table, "This is my ex-husband's current wife. She was not in Nancheng for more than ten years before. I want to know where she went and what she was doing in those years. If you can find that the remuneration doubled."

Ouch, this is when I met the patron. The private detective quickly reached out and put the photos away, taking a chest guarantee. "You can rest assured that you will definitely be given a satisfactory result in a week."

Zhao Jiaqing supported the huge sunglasses on his face, nodded, and got up.

"Someone is investigating me?" Qin Yan listened to the other party's voice on the phone, tickling her lips lightly, "Who is it?"

The person at the end of the phone reported a name, and Qin Yan smiled, "Since she wants to check it, let her check it. People have spent so much money on me, I can't let her get a bamboo basket to draw water, always Let her find something."

After hanging up the phone, Qin Yan's eyes flashed a bit of interest. She thought that Zhao Jiaqing would rush directly to Yan Anbang and ask aloud. She didn't expect to have such a little brain, but she wasn't a smart person, and she would even let private detective To find a senior officer, she thought what she could find.

However, it doesn't matter if you don't find it, she will help her.

Beijing, the hospital.

Shen Qinglan pushed Fu Hengyi to do the examination. When he came back, he saw an acquaintance in the ward, "Big Brother and Little Sister-in-Law." Gu Yang saw the two of them and his eyes lit up.

Shen Qinglan gave a faint whisper, but Fu Hengyi directly asked, "Not staying in the army, what are you doing here?"

Gu Yang pouted, "Brother, I came home on vacation, and heard my mother said you were injured and hospitalized, and came to see you deliberately, but you said that, you were sad."

"Brother, what did the doctor say?" Gu Yang cared. Although he already knew the general situation from Fu Jingting's mouth, he still wanted to ask in person to rest assured.

Shen Qinglan wanted to help Fu Hengyi to bed, and Gu Yang saw it, and quickly took thousands of hands, "Little sister-in-law, let me come."

Shen Qinglan stepped aside and said, "The wound is recovering, and the injury on the leg is more serious. It will take a few months to fully recover." Fu Hengyi's leg was severely impacted, and his right leg had little consciousness. The last time Eden performed an operation on him, he recovered a little bit of consciousness, but it was not enough to recover.

Recently, Eden was inconvenienced because of a strict investigation into the leak of military exercises.

"The elder brother's legs can be recovered. I heard from my mother that there was a quack doctor who said that the elder brother was going to amputate!" Gu Yang said angrily.

This incident Shen Qinglan also knew that the doctor was almost beaten by Shen Junyu, and finally was driven away.

"It cannot be restored to its heyday, but it will not affect normal life." Shen Qinglan said.

For such a result, Fu Hengyi is already very satisfied, and Shen Qinglan is also very satisfied.

Gu Yang's eyes turned and took a step closer. "Brother, I heard that you will work in the Jingcheng Military Region after you are injured. Is this true?"

Fu Hengyi glanced at him lightly, "Yes."

"Hey, that elder brother, will I take care of you in the future?" Gu Yang heard the words, his eyes lit up, and his eyes stayed on Shen Qinglan's body for a while. Obviously he was thinking.

Fu Hengyi didn't know what he was thinking, but Shen Qinglan knew it, this kid must be thinking about apprenticeship. It is estimated that after Fu Hengyi went to work in the Beijing Military Region, he would follow the army himself.

However...Shen Qinglan thought for a while and thought that the idea of following the army was also very good.

"Sister-in-law, you don't know, since Gu Kai retired and my elder brother went back, I was alone in the military area. Tomorrow is nothing but training.

Shen Qinglan gave him a light look, "Grandpa said, if you don't want to stay in the army, you can come back."

Gu Yang snorted, "I don't want to. I threw me into the army. I wanted to come back to not let me back. Now the young man really doesn't want to come back. I don't want to do anything. I am absolutely Will not leave the troops."

Fu Hengyi hasn't said much. He heard Gu Yang's words. He said, since he chose to stay and make some achievements, then he must perform well. There will be a special soldier selection in the military area early next year. You can go to participate."

Gu Yang heard the words and was interested. "Brother, do you think I can?"

Fu Hengyi is not clear about Gu Yang's strength, but just said, "I don't think it matters. What matters is what you think and how you work hard."

Gu Yang thought deeply about it, but he was really interested in the selection of the special forces that Fu Hengyi said.

"Brother, when will the selection start?"

"February next year."

In February next year, just after the Chinese New Year, Gu Yang's eyes turned and hehe laughed, "Brother, are you responsible for this selection?"

Fu Hengyi glanced at him lightly, and Gu Yang reacted. Fu Hengyi had to recover for at least half a year. It is now December, and he was still resting at that time!

Gu Yang was a little disappointed, and thought he could take the opportunity to learn some training items from Fu Hengyi, so that he could prepare in advance and strive for a good performance.

Gu Yang stayed in the hospital for a day. With his chattering, the room was also full of excitement. In the end, Fu Hengyi couldn't stand his quarrel and let him leave, the room was quiet.

"It's finally quiet." Fu Hengyi said.

Shen Qinglan looked at him with amusement, "Ming Ming likes him very much, how can he show a disgusting appearance every time." Or else Gu Yang can stay a day here?

Fu Hengyi smiled and took Shen Qinglan's hand, "This kid is more talkative. It's not too early now, you should go back."

In recent days, Shen Qinglan went home at night. The hospital was not a good place. She stood on a big belly, and the family did not want her to stay in the hospital.

"I don't plan to go back tonight. I will have an obstetric examination tomorrow morning, which is more convenient in the hospital." Shen Qinglan said.

Fu Hengyi looked at her disapprovingly, "The hospital bed is small, the air is not good, it is not comfortable to live here, it is good for you and your baby to go back and live."

"You can live here, so I can naturally, Fu Hengyi, I can't sleep when I go home." Shen Qinglan said, she has been insomnia every night, and she often wakes up from her sleep, and can't see Fu Hengyi. She panicked.

Fu Hengyi heard that if there was anything he didn't understand, he sighed softly, "I asked the doctor to add an extra bed."

Shen Qinglan smiled slightly and nodded, "Okay."

Fu Hengyi called Grandpa Fu, "Grandpa, um, Qinglan will not go back at night. It will be more convenient to have an early birth check tomorrow. It is better to let Aunt Zhao come directly by then, I know, you can rest assured."

Hanging up the phone, Fu Hengyi saw Shen Qinglan looking at him with a smile on his face.

Shen Qinglan smiled slightly, "I'll let the doctor add an extra bed." Then he went out, Fu Hengyi petted and smiled helplessly.

At night, Shen Qinglan was lying on the bed and quietly looked at Fu Hengyi. Although he was not on a bed, he was very satisfied and watched him fall asleep quickly.

Fu Hengyi looked at the blue and black of her eyes, and then looked at his legs, his eyes dark, his heart was far less caring than he showed, he was a man, but he needed his wife to protect himself, and he would be recovered afterwards. The strength of these legs can not be restored, it is a pity.

Because of this injury, Shen Qinglan came to him regardless of his body. In addition to being touched, he was also glad that he was still alive. Perhaps as Shen Qinglan said, if something happened to her, I am afraid that she What will be done is still hard to say.

Fu Hengyi quietly looked at Shen Qinglan's quiet sleeping face, turning his head a thousand times, until one o'clock in the middle of the night before gradually sleeping.

I probably knew that Fu Hengyi was by his side. This night, Shen Qinglan slept very well, and didn't even make a dream. When he woke up and opened his eyes, he saw Fu Hengyi changing clothes and was planning to sit on a wheelchair.

Shen Qinglan got up from bed and helped Fu Hengyi get up, "Why don't you wake me up?"

"Looking at your sound sleep, I can't bear to wake you up."

Fu Hengyi accompanied Shen Qinglan to do the inspection. When filming, Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi looked at the little black guy on the screen, and their eyes were gentle.

"This is the child's hand, this is the child's foot." The doctor pointed to the screen and said with a smile, looking at the smile in the eyes of Fu Hengyi and Shen Qinglan, and continued, "The little guy is well developed and will be born later. It must be a healthy child, expectant father and expectant mother would like to hear his heartbeat."

After hearing this, Shen Qinglan turned to look at the doctor, "Is it possible?"

The doctor smiled slightly, "Naturally."

Shen Qinglan listened to the strong and powerful heartbeat in his ear, and the brightness in his eyes was amazing, "Fu Hengyi, have you heard?"

Fu Hengyi nodded with a smile, "Well, I heard."

"In the future, you can listen to your child's fetal heart rate and record the data. If there are any problems, you can find it in time." The doctor said, it was not that pre-fetal health had not occurred before, but the fetal heart stopped for some reason in the later period. Happening.

Fu Hengyi heard the words and carefully asked the doctor about this issue. He held his notebook in his hand and carefully recorded every point the doctor said.

Back in the ward, Shen Qinglan picked up his notebook and looked at it with a smile, "I will show this thing to our baby in the future and tell him how much his father loves him."

Fu Hengyi smiled softly.

Because the news of Fu Hengyi's hospitalization was spread somehow, some people came to visit every day in the ward, most of them were relatives of the Fu family or the Shen family, and some were purely come to have a relationship. After Shen Qinglan dealt with it for a few days, Master Fu No more visits announced. Shen Qinglan was quiet.

Digression

Today's burst ends here, and it will continue tomorrow. When will Madam Jin's mask be uncovered and how to uncover it?

329 Chapter 331: True and False (1 more)

In the afternoon of winter, the sun was shining in the ward. Shen Qinglan was lying on the recliner and enjoying the sunlight from the window. Fu Hengyi was sitting beside her, holding the instrument on her belly and listening quietly. .

"It seems to be faster again." Fu Hengyi said, recording the child's data on paper.

Suddenly, Shen Qinglan's stomach bulged, a small palm, Fu Hengyi's eyes were gentle, and he extended a finger to touch gently, the small hand immediately retracted back, and after a while, a small foot was printed on Shen Qinglan's belly, Shen Qinglan yelled.

Fu Hengyi frowned, "What's wrong, did the kid hurt you?"

Shen Qinglan smiled slightly, "It's a naughty little guy who is born to be a bear child."

Fu Hengyi frowned, staring closely at Shen Qinglan's stomach, "Daughter, you can't be naughty like this in the future, my mother will hurt."

Shen Qinglan heard that she was amused and somewhat helpless. Since returning, Fu Hengyi has determined that the child in her stomach is a girl. She thought about it and asked tentatively, "You always say he is a girl, if born to be a son, can you stop it?"

Fu Hengyi spoke lightly, "It must be a daughter, I have dreamed several times."

Shen Qinglan wanted to tell him that he was thinking day and night, and this one in her belly was really a guide. "What if it was really a son?"

Fu Hengyi shrugged. "The two grandfathers didn't like the grandson. I'm sure to see him. I'll leave it to the two grandfathers." In this way, the stinky kid wouldn't have a chance to pester his wife. Fu Hengyi thought secretly.

Later, when Young Master Fu grew up, he would often be thrown to two old men by Fu Hengyi after he could walk and talk, and they couldn't keep their mouths closed, but Young Master Fu looked at Ms. Shen with tears and asked, "Ma Ma Ma Ma, am I born with Baba, does he not like me, so I will not stay with you?"

Miss Shen looked at him with tears in her eyes, and she couldn't bear to tell him that the daughter Fu wanted was turned into a son.

If Master Fu knew Miss Shen's thoughts, he would definitely tell me that I just didn't want this stupid kid to occupy my wife.

Shen Qinglan looked at Fu's daughter as soon as he talked about her daughter, and her son's expression of abandonment, silently wiped a bitter tear for the son in his stomach.

South city.

Zhao Jiaqing looked at the information in his hand, and his face was very cold. "How much did I pay for it? You sent me something like this?"

Private detectives are still suffering. "This lady, you never said that your ex-husband is a senior officer. If I knew that people were doing this, I wouldn't do it no matter how much money you gave me. With this information, I almost took myself in."

Zhao Jiaqing also knows that Yan Anbang, as a senior military officer, keeps a lot of information confidential. The average person wants to find it, which is really difficult. She turned over the information in her own eyes. Seeing the content in it is quite detailed, her face slowed down, "This is leftover Under the money."

The private detective picked up the money and counted, and stopped Zhao Jiaqing, "Wait, this lady, is the money wrong?"

Zhao Jiaqing turned and said, "If you say 50,000, it's a lot."

The private detective smiled and said, "Five thousand yuan is the price for ordinary people. Is your ex-husband an ordinary person? In order to find this information, I was almost caught. Even if there is no credit, there is hard work, how can you say You should add some hard money to me."

Zhao Jiaqing frowned. She didn't like to sit on the floor and raise the price. "Speaking price, aren't you doing this right now?"

"Then you didn't tell me clearly about your ex-husband's situation, otherwise we were not talking about the price. Madam, I know you don't want people to know that you are investigating your ex-husband, as long as you give me a little hard work, These things are guaranteed to be known in the world. You know me, and no third person will know."

"You are extortion."

The private detective smirked, "How can this be considered extortion? I work for you and you pay me. This is a matter of course."

Zhao Jiaqing was also reluctant to do too much entanglement with him. After thinking about it, he took out a stack of cash from his bag. "That's all. Love it or not."

The private detective took it and smiled, "Mrs. Sure enough is a refreshing person, you go well, if there is such a thing in the future, remember to find me. For the sake of acquaintances, I will definitely give you a 10% discount."

Zhao Jiaqing frowned in disgust and accelerated his pace.

The private detective curled his lip, his eyes flashed with disdain, but it was just a poor woman abandoned by her husband, what to do.

Zhao Jiaqing went back to the hotel and looked carefully at the information given to her by the private detective. There was very little information about Yan Anbang, not as much as she knew. She could only put this information aside and check Qin Yan's information. After reading it, Zhao Jiaqing's brows are deeper, and Qin Yan's information looks much, but there is not much useful information.

Suddenly, Zhao Jiaqing's gaze paused in one of the texts. Qin Yan was crazy because of her daughter's loss and entered the psychiatric hospital. Later, she ran out of the psychiatric hospital while the doctor was not paying attention, but was gangstered. Blocked in the alley, she was rescued by her previous husband and took her abroad.

Zhao Jiaqing thought deeply, she remembered that Qin Yan told Yan Anbang that she was not in another city, but now the information shows that she went abroad. Is the information wrong or Qin Yan lying?

Zhao Jiaqing couldn't figure out, even if he went abroad, there was nothing he could not say. Why did Qin Yan lie, and what exactly did Qin Yan mean by retribution?

Just before Zhao Jiaqing thought about it, the private investigator called her, "I have already given you money, do you still want to blackmail?" Her tone was not good.

The private detective smiled and said, "Madam, don't be nervous. I didn't ask for money from you, but after you left, I accidentally found something that might be useful to you, so I want to send it to you, rest assured, I won't charge you a penny for this thing."

Zhao Jiaqing picked up the information on the table and looked, and his face suddenly changed. "Where did you come from?"

"I can't tell you the channel, after all, this is the guy I eat, but I can guarantee that this information is true." Private detective said, "Although I am a man who loves money, sometimes I will make some for money, Cough, it's not an authentic thing, but I still have some professional ethics."

Without speaking, Zhao Jiaqing took out a pile of cash directly from the bag, then stood up and left.

The private detective shrugged, which was not what he asked for, and the gold prize was given by others.

Zhao Jiaqing went back to the hotel and looked at what the information said, her face became very pale. It turned out to be this way. It turned out that because of this, her Yan Xi would only encounter things that she should not have suffered.

Yan Anbang, you hurt my daughter, you hurt my daughter!

Zhao Jiaqing's eyes were full of mad hatred. She took a taxi directly to Yan's house. This time she had good luck. Not only Qin Yan was at home, but also Yan Anbang was at home.

Zhao Jiaqing pushed away Qin Yan and walked in directly, "Yan Anbang, you get me out!"

Qin Yan followed up, "Sister, you quiet down, Anbang is resting upstairs, you will disturb him like this."

Zhao Jiaqing did not want to take care of Qin Yan at all, knowing that Yan Anbang was resting upstairs, and immediately went upstairs, "Yan Anbang, you come out to me."

Qin Yan stopped her, "You can't go up now, An Bang is sleeping, I go up and call him."

Zhao Jiaqing looked at her coldly, "Give me back." Qin Yan refused, Zhao Jiaqing wanted to pull her away, but Qin Yan just screamed when the hand just touched her arm, and the person fell. .

Yan Anbang was resting, he heard the movement downstairs, and came out and saw Zhao Jiaqing pushing Qin Yan downstairs. He was shocked and rushed to Qin Yan, "Yan Yan, are you okay?"

Fortunately, the place where Qin Yan was standing was not high, and the floor was covered with a blanket. Except for a sprained foot, nothing else happened.

Zhao Jiaqing is still stunned. Yan Anbang's slap has greeted her face, "Zhao Jiaqing, you poisonous woman, what do you want to do here?"

330 Chapter 332 Alarm (2 more)

Zhao Jiaqing was beaten by Yan Anbang without paying attention, her head turned to the side, she touched her face as if she could not feel the pain on her face, and looked at Yan Anbang coldly, "You only care about your little lover, you are Didn't you forget that Yan Xi is your daughter?"

Yan Anbang's eyes changed slightly, "What's wrong with Yan Xi?"

"Haha, what happened to Yan Xi? Yan Anbang, I asked you, did you tell this woman about Yan Xi? You know that Yan Xi can't be stimulated now, and you let her go to Sydney. What do you mean?"

"No, you didn't think of Yan Xi as your own daughter." Thinking of what, Zhao Jiaqing's eyes were as fierce as if he wanted to eat people, "Yan Anbang, people say that tiger poison doesn't eat children, you are not even as good as a beast, even if you Hate me, but Yan Xi is innocent, why are you doing this?"

Yan Anbang frowned and looked at her, "Zhao Jiaqing, what are you talking about here, when did Yanyan go to Sydney?"

Zhao Jiaqing laughed, his eyes cold, "Yan Anbang, you shouldn't be a soldier, you should be acting, maybe the Oscar is already yours."

"I don't understand what you're talking about, you immediately apologize to Yanyan and get out of my house!"

"Yan Anbang, you pretended to be so good. I was almost cheated by you. I thought you were just not a good husband, at least a good father. Now I know that you are a beast, and Yan Xi is your biological daughter, you How can you be patient with her like this!"

One is asking for an apology, the other is blaming. The two said nothing at all.

Qin Yan fell to the ground, her head was hanging down, her eyes were full of smiles, make trouble, the more trouble, the better, life has been quiet for too long.

Make trouble, Zhao Jiaqing, continue to make trouble, it is best to make things known to everyone, Yan Anbang has harmed Yan Xi, ruined her life, she was your daughter born in October, your heart, but your heart is but Yan Anbang It's ruined, angry, resist, it's better to pull Yan Anbang to hell together.

Qin Yan was silent in her heart, seeing that the two had started to work, and quickly struggling to get up from the ground, holding Zhao Jiaqing, "Don't fight, say anything. Yan Xi is An Bang's daughter, he will not What's wrong with Yan Xi, there must be some misunderstanding."

Zhao Jiaqing has been dominated by anger, she now wants to fight with Yan Anbang and die with him, seeing Qin Yan stopping her, thinking that Yan Anbang has caused Yan Xi to suffer so much because of this woman's daughter, hate in her heart I can't stop it.

She slapped on Qin Yan's face with a slap in the backhand. When Yan Anbang reacted and pulled Qin Yan back, Qin Yan's face was already swollen. Zhao Jiaqing had just beat him, but it was only blocked. Yan Anbang, who didn't fight back, was immediately angry, regardless of the obstruction, holding Zhao Jiaqing to fight.

Once Yan Anbang moved, Zhao Jiaqing was still his opponent, only passively beaten, Qin Yan stood aside, looked quietly, and said in his mouth, "Don't fight. Stop."

Finally, seeing that Zhao Jiaqing was going to be killed, this time Yan Anbang was arrested, "An Bang, don't hit it, it will kill you again." Her voice was full of panic, and she came back to Yan Anbang's reason.

Yan Anbang realized what he had just done, and when he looked at Zhao Jiaqing, he suddenly regretted it.

Zhao Jiaqing stared at Yan Anbang, "If you don't kill me today, I will definitely make you lose your reputation tomorrow."

Yan Anbang's anger that had just subsided suddenly rushed up, but was hugged by Qin Yan, "Anbang, you calm down." She looked at Zhao Jiaqing on the ground, "Do you really want to be killed before you leave?" ?"

Zhao Jiaqing got up from the ground, "Yan Anbang, from today onwards, I am incompatible with you. Whatever you do to Yan Xi, I will give it back to you twice. You better watch your baby lover, otherwise if something happens to her ..."

"Zhao Jiaqing."

"Anbang, stop talking."

I walked out of the Yan family and looked at this house she lived in for more than 20 years. I felt this place was so dirty for the first time.

Her body was very embarrassed, her hair was messed up, her clothes were messed up, and there were traces of bruise on her face. She called a car, "Go to the hospital!"

The taxi driver was a woman, and she glanced at Zhao Jiaqing from the rearview mirror. Her eyes were sympathetic. This was obviously caused by domestic violence.

"You were beaten by your man. I told you that you should go to the police station now and report to the police to sue him for domestic violence. This kind of thing can't be swallowed up. The second time, if you didn't resist the first time he did it, it's you who will get used to suffering in the future."

Zhao Jiaqing didn't speak. The taxi driver's elder sister was enthusiastic. Seeing that she thought Zhao Jiaqing was afraid, she continued to persuade, "I don't think you should be beaten for the first time. You go to the hospital now, and he will beat you when you return home. If you call the police, the scars on your body are all evidence, and the police will not ignore it. Now the rights of women are protected, and your husband's family will sue him."

The hospital that Zhao Jiaqing went to was not far away. After arriving, Zhao Jiaqing went directly into the hospital and directly asked for an examination.

The doctor who inspected her injury finished the injury, gave her a list of medicines, looked at the back of her leaving, shook her head and sighed, and was a poor woman who was harassed by domestic violence but did not dare to say anything.

After coming out of the hospital, Zhao Jiaqing walked directly into the public security bureau. She filmed the inspection report on the desk and said in a cold voice, "I want to call the police. Someone intentionally hurt!"

The police looked up and saw Zhao Jiaqing's unrecognizable face.

"You said your ex-husband hit you on the face?" the policeman asked.

Zhao Jiaqing nodded, "Not only on the face, but also on the body. This is the injury report I just got from the hospital. I want to sue him for intentional injury."

The policeman took notes seriously, "What's your ex-husband's name, and how much is the phone number?"

"His name is Yan Anbang." Zhao Jiaqing said.

The policeman's hand paused and looked at Zhao Jiaqing, "What do you call his name?"

"Yan Anbang." Zhao Jiaqing repeated this time. The police car heard clearly this time and looked at her seriously. "You mean the Yan Anbang of the Yan family?"

"Yes!"

The police put down the pen, "Ms. Zhao, this is the case. Although you are now the victim, but the false accusation is also liable. Are you sure you want to sue him?"

"I'm pretty sure, can I file a case now?" Zhao Jiaqing sneered.

The police saw that she did not look like a joke, picked up the pen and continued to record.

"Ms. Zhao, in response to what you said, we will ask our colleagues to verify later. If it turns out to be true, we will contact you again. I hope you will keep in touch these days."

"After working hard for you, comrade police, I will stay in the country during this time, and I hope you will take care of my affairs." Zhao Jiaqing said politely, and then returned to the hotel.

Was she lying on the bed, her eyes cold, as if she could not feel the pain in her body.

In fact, she has some evidence of Yan Anbang's use of his power for personal gain. Yan Anbang has been sitting in that position for so many years. It is impossible to say that she is completely clean. She has been married to Yan Anbang for so many years, and even even for him. In fact, the evidence in hand was obtained at that time. At that time, I forgot to destroy it, but I didn't expect it to be a card for her now.

She hadn't thought of handing these over, but she thought about it all the way. If it's true for Yan Anbang to report and expose Yan Anbang for this reason, it's true that Yan Anbang's reputation will be ruined, and his career will be finished. He may even be invited to drink. Tea, just in this way, will inevitably affect Yan Shengyu's career. He is now working in a superior company, whether it is salary or work, he is satisfied.

Her son is so good, and will soon become even better. For Yan Anbang to delay Yan Shengyu's future, she doesn't think it's a cost-effective deal. If you can exchange it for other evidence to make Yan Anbang finish, Zhao Jiaqing expressed his willingness. This was also the way she suddenly thought of reading the information on the way to Yan's house, but what she didn't think Qin Yan even cooperated with her so much.

Did you take the initiative to fall from upstairs and want to frame her? If the former Zhao Jiaqing who still loves Yan Anbang might be sad and care, but now Zhao Jiaqing will not.
