

Chapter 323: I will protect you (1)

The tired birds returned to the forest, and the lights were just lit. The lights of the human world and the Milky Way in the night sky reflected each other, painting the city with a layer of warm color.

The Bentley stopped at the entrance of the villa. Mo shenbai looked down at the girl sleeping in his arms. His thin lips were curled into a faint smile, and his eyes were full of tenderness.

He couldn't bear to wake her up, so he carried her carefully and walked into the villa.

Because he didn't want to wake her up, every step he took was extremely slow and light, and he would look down at the girl in his arms from time to time.

The lights in the villa were as bright as day. The Butler was about to speak when mo shenbai looked up and shot a glance at him.

The housekeeper was stunned. Seeing Xu Youyou sleeping soundly in his arms, he immediately stepped aside and carefully reminded the others not to make any noise.

Mo shenbai carried her upstairs, walked into the bedroom, and carefully put her on the bed. He was about to pull the quilt over her.

Xu Youyou frowned and a thin layer of sweat appeared on her fair forehead. Her expression was solemn and uncomfortable, as if she had a nightmare.

Her red lips closed slightly as if she was murmuring something, but her voice was so soft that mo shenbai could not hear her clearly even if he had lowered his head and leaned close to her lips.

A line of tears slowly seeped out from Xu Youyou's curled eyelashes and she began to sob silently.

Mo shenbai frowned and hesitated for a moment. His warm palm still caressed her cheek and he called out gently in a low and hoarse voice, "The triplets, the triplets ... The triplets ..."

Xu Youyou suddenly opened her eyes. The mist in her eyes condensed into beads and rolled out, hanging on her white skin. She looked very pitiful.

Her wet eyes were a little dull and empty until a gentle and worried voice rang in her ears. triplets, what's wrong? What did you dream of?"

Xu Youyou's unfocused eyes gradually regained focus. When she looked at him, she suddenly got up and hugged his neck. Her voice was choked with sobs. big white, big white.

Mo shenbai hugged her and gently stroked her back. what's wrong? Did you have a nightmare?"

Xu Youyou gasped for breath and bit her lip without saying a word, tears falling silently.

Mo shenbai could feel her fear and uneasiness. He pressed his lips against her forehead. it's okay. I'm here. No matter what you see, you don't have to be afraid.

Xu Youyou loosened her grip on his arm and looked up at him. The image of him covered in blood appeared in her mind, and her tears fell again ...

Mo shenbai gently wiped her tears with his fingers, his voice helpless and distressed. what did you dream of? ”

Almost at the same time, Xu Youyou made up her mind to protect the Great White!

No one was allowed to hurt her Great White!

In the past, it had always been Great White protecting her. In the future, it would be her turn to protect Great White.

Xu Youyou was not so afraid after she made up her mind. Her eyes gradually became firm. She sniffed and said in a choked voice, ” “I ... I dreamed about your childhood.”

She looked at him with her wet eyes and pouted her red lips slightly. She said in a distressed and angry voice, ” I saw Bai Ying punishing you by making you stand in the fountain. I wanted to go up and hit her, but I couldn't!

Perhaps it was because women were born to be actors, or perhaps it was because Xu Youyou had promised not to lie to him again, mo shenbai did not doubt her words. you can not only see what happens in the future, how can you also see the past!

“I don't know why either, but I just saw it.” Xu Youyou's Red face was filled with sadness. you must have been very sad back then.

Mo shenbai avoided her gaze and opened his thin lips slightly. it's all in the past. Besides, it's been so many years. I don't really remember how I felt at that time.

He could never forget that hellish life.

When qianyue died, Bai Ying always looked at him with cold and hateful eyes, either scolding or beating him. She asked again and again, ” did you push qianyue down? ” even if you don't admit it, I know that you pushed qianyue down. I knew that this day would come sooner or later. You are a demon ...

“You're the one who should die? Why Don't You Just Die?”

He didn't understand why she was always so distant and guarded against him even though they were both her children!

He didn't understand why she couldn't love him as much as she loved qianyue. Why did she always call him the devil!

During the period of time when he was being tortured by Bai Ying, no matter how she abused him, he did not resist or tell his father.

That was because Bai Ying's gaze had stayed on him for the longest time during that period of time. His body was in great pain, but he was secretly happy in his heart.

She was happy that her mother could finally see her.

Sometimes, he would wonder if he was really a demon.

Did he really deserve to die?

After being tortured to the end, he felt that he might really be a demon, a pervert ...

On one hand, he instinctively resisted Bai Ying's approach, but on the other hand, he wished that her gaze would stop on him.

However, he didn't want Youyou to know about this. He didn't want her to know about the twisted and perverted thoughts in his heart, and he didn't want her to cry anymore.

Xu Youyou hugged his waist and used almost all her strength to say in a hoarse voice, "I will protect you from now on. I will never let anyone hurt you again."

Mo shenbai touched her head and said softly, "Okay, don't cry. I'll go wring a towel for you to wipe your face."

Xu Youyou let go of her arm and looked up at his tall back as he walked into the bathroom. She raised her hand to wipe the tears from the corners of her eyes, and her eyes became more determined and bright.

"I can do it. I will definitely be able to protect you."

As for those who want to hurt us, I will definitely make them suffer.

Xu Youyou would go to school and buy things online when she had nothing to do.

After a few rainstorms in Mo City, the cold of spring ended and the temperature rose again. Soon, the cherry blossoms and peach blossoms by the roadside were in full bloom.

Xu Youyou was not in a hurry to return to the Moon-Canvas House after class. Instead, she carried her drawing board and went around sketching, almost going to the entire suburbs of Mo City.

When mo shenbai had time, he would accompany her. When he didn't have time, he would accompany her and follow her closely.

When Xu Youyou was tired of painting, she would chat with cangming. Although cangming's words were pitifully few, he would either say "yes," "Oh," or "yes."

Xu Youyou didn't mind him being boring. She knew that he had been in the Army before and asked him curiously what he would do if he was in danger.

Speaking of this, cangming wasn't a mute anymore. He taught her how to analyze the situation and deal with danger in detail.

Xu Youyou took the opportunity to ask him what he should do if he was kidnapped and his hands and feet were tied.

Cang Ming took out a rope and showed her how to tie and untie it. He even took the initiative to teach her a few tricks to escape.

"Cangming, you know so much. You're amazing!" Xu Youyou praised him sincerely.

Cang Ming was a little embarrassed by her praise and scratched his buzz cut head. these are all very simple. If Madam wants to learn, I can teach you slowly in the future.
