

Chapter 341: Who Do You Think You Are, can you control me?(1)

Everything happened so suddenly. The moment Xu Youyou rushed over, Fu Jianchen reacted, but the chair had already flown out of his hand ...

Mo Shenbai had drunk a lot of wine and was a little dizzy. He couldn't react at all, and the chair had already smashed into Xu Youyou's back.

ugh ... Xu Youyou moaned in pain.

Oh ... Fu Jianchen's eyes narrowed and his heart tightened as if something had run over it.

"The triplets." Mo Shenbai reacted and reached out to support her slender body.

Perhaps it was because it was too painful, her little face was pale and her whole body was trembling.

Xu Youyou looked up at him, her wet eyes still filled with worry. "are you okay? Bo Qi said you drank so much that you vomited blood. Why aren't you at the hospital and are fighting here?"

Mo Shenbai was stunned for a few seconds before he realized that Bo Qi must have lied to her. He had clearly just said harsh words to her that night and she had even blocked it for him. She was already in so much pain, but she only cared about him ...

It was as if there was an invisible big palm tightly gripping his heart, and it was so painful that he could hardly breathe.

This little girl was really too good. The more pure and beautiful she was, the more despicable and unbearable he was, and the more he was unwilling to let her go.

He was afraid that without her, he would go back to how he was before ...

Xu Youyou's eyes, which were moist from the pain, were filled with concern. Mo Shenbai's throat tightened, and his voice was mixed with bitterness. "I'm ... Fine."

"That's good." Xu Youyou heaved a sigh of relief.

Fu Jianchen's anger was extinguished the moment Xu Youyou appeared. His gloomy eyes were filled with worry. "Youyou, are you okay?"

Xu Youyou turned to look at him and shook her head slightly. "I'm fine. You two are not allowed to fight again."

Fu Jianchen glanced at Mo Shenbai with his gloomy and terrifying eyes. "this is between me and him."

Mo Shenbai's attention was all focused on Xu Youyou and he did not even spare him a glance.

Xu Youyou's brows furrowed and her red lips parted slightly. She was a little angry. "Fu Jianchen, it's wrong to hit people. You should be holding a brush in your hand, not a weapon to hurt others."

Fu Jianchen's heart had ached for her, but now, all that was left was anger.

Especially when she was standing in front of mo shenbai, as if she was a brutal thug and Mo shenbai was an innocent victim.

However, the one who made the first move was clearly the man she was protecting behind her!

“I’m going to beat him up today, so what?” His eyes were red, and he said with a bad attitude, “Who Do You Think You Are, what can you do?”

f * ck! Xu Youyou wanted to say something, but her back was in so much pain that her dress was soaked in cold sweat. Naturally, she could not speak.

Without a word, mo shenbai picked her up and walked out.

Fu jianchen turned his body sideways, his red eyes watching her being carried away by mo shenbai. In a bad mood, he kicked the nearby chair.

There was only mo shenbai in her eyes and heart. She couldn’t see that ... She was also injured?

Mo shenbai carried Xu Youyou into the car. His voice was tense and trembling. hospital, hurry.

The driver didn’t dare to hesitate. He immediately started the car and drove on the main road.

Xu Youyou leaned into his arms, her slender fingers gripping his shirt so tightly that her knuckles turned white. Even her breathing became rapid.

Mo shenbai’s heart ached. He lowered his head and kissed her sweaty forehead. His low and hoarse voice slowly sounded, “bear with it a little longer. We’ll be at the hospital soon.

Xu Youyou nodded slowly. She closed her eyes and endured the pain, not making a sound.

As soon as the car stopped, mo shenbai rushed into the emergency room with Xu Youyou in his arms.

The doctor and nurse took over and asked him to leave the emergency room.

Mo shenbai stood alone outside, not knowing the situation inside. He was anxious and worried.

Annoyance, guilt, uneasiness, all sorts of emotions welled up in her heart.

Twenty minutes later, Xu Jialu rushed over with a dark face. He didn’t ask anything and just scolded him.

you can f * cking fight if you want to, but you still let a woman block for you. Are you a f * cking man? ”

Xu Jialu completely forgot that he had threatened to break Xu Youyou’s legs that night. His face was filled with rage and he had completely turned into a protective demon.

“If anything happens to my Youyou, I promise I won’t kill you. At most, I’ll make you paralyzed!”

He had received a call from the bar manager and found out that mo shenbai was fighting with someone, so Youyou had helped mo shenbai block the attack.

The manager didn’t explain the details, only saying that mo shenbai had taken Xu Youyou to the hospital.

Xu Jialu was about to go crazy when he heard that. His mind was filled with the image of Xu Youyou's head being broken, her arms and legs missing, and her life in danger.

On the way here, he thought that as long as Xu Youyou was fine, it didn't matter even if he went to heaven, let alone going abroad.

Mo shenbai stood in place, his eyes lowered, and he didn't make a sound even though he was being scolded.

She just raised her hand and rubbed her temples. She was even more upset with herself than Xu Jialu.

She had drunk too much that night and was not in a clear state of mind. Seeing that Fu jianchen had come to provoke her, she could not hold back her emotions and made the first move ...

There were many reasons. For example, he was Bai Ying's son, he had been pestering Xu Youyou, and he had been full of anger tonight because he wanted to find a place to vent it.

It was Fu jianchen's bad luck that he had run into a gun. His rationality and calmness had completely collapsed. He had vented all his emotions on Fu jianchen, but he didn't expect that he would implicate Youyou.

The doctor came out after a while.

Xu Jialu was the first to rush up and asked nervously, "How's my sister?"

The doctor looked at him and took off his mask. "We've already given the patient pain relief, but we need to do a CT scan to be sure of his condition. Family members, please go through the admission procedures."

Mo shenbai asked the bodyguard to go through the admission procedures and called the director.

In less than an hour, all the bosses in the hospital came to the joint consultation.

In the end, the hospital director reported to mo shenbai that Xu Youyou's condition was not serious, but she needed to rest in bed for two weeks.

Mo shenbai and Xu Jialu's suspended hearts completely landed on the ground, and they both heaved a sigh of relief.

Xu Youyou was sent back to the ward by the nurse. She lay on the bed, wearing the hospital gown with blue and white stripes. It was loose and made her look slimmer and weaker.

This year, moshen Bai had taken good care of her, but she did not gain weight at all. Her chin was a little sharper, and her childishness had faded, and she had become more mature.

Mo shenbai walked to the bed and wiped the sweat from her forehead with a tissue. it still hurts? "

Before Xu Youyou could say anything, Xu Jialu pushed him away with his shoulder. I don't need you to be so hypocritical. I can take care of my sister myself.

Xu Youyou's long eyelashes drooped and were covered in sweat. She called out helplessly, " brother ...

Xu Jialu bent down and carefully wiped her sweat. don't even think about pleading for him. I haven't scolded you yet! He's a man, so if he wants to fight, he should win. If he loses, he deserves it. Why are you blocking for him?"

Although he was scolding her, his voice uncontrollably slowed down, and he was more worried and distressed.
