

Pampering

391 Episode

Fu Hengyi's hands clenched into fists, staring at the closed delivery room door.

"Qinglan, has Qinglan entered it?" Chu Yunrong hurriedly ran. She just got home and got a clothes and got a call from Fu Hengyi, saying that Shen Qinglan was about to give birth.

"Well, I have already entered." Fu Hengyi said, but his eyes did not move away from the door.

In the end, Chu Yunrong had two children, and both of them were born. Don't look at her. She was nervous before, but when Shen Qinglan really entered, she calmed down and sat down on the chair in the corridor. Hengyi, don't worry, the doctor said before, Qinglan's condition is fine, it's okay."

Fu Hengyi looked back, "Mom, how long were you when you were born Junyu?"

"It was easier when I was born Junyu, and I was born within a few hours, but I was born in a difficult situation, and it was almost impossible." Chu Yunrong also saw Fu Hengyi's nervousness, chatting with him, trying to transfer His attention.

"Qinglan was sent to the incubator when he was born, so since childhood, I have been more concerned about Qinglan. I still remember when your grandfather brought you to play at home, you like to stare at Qinglan." Probably thinking of Shen Qinglan's childhood, Chu Yunrong's eyes showed a smile, "And Qinglan especially likes to follow you. Every time you come, you are particularly happy."

After being mentioned by Chu Yunrong, Fu Hengyi also vaguely remembered the memory buried in the depths, and the smile in his eyes grew thicker.

"Every time she sees you, she will drool, and I tell his dad that Qinglan is designated as a little nympho when she grows up." Chu Yunrong remembered this past and betrayed her daughter without hesitation.

The two were chatting, and the two old men came, "Lan Lan?" asked Old Man Shen.

Chu Yunrong explained, "Just sent in, it must not be so fast, Dad, Uncle Fu, you sit down and take a break first."

"Don't sit, don't sit anymore. Sitting down, I'm upset." Master Fu waved his hands and listened for a while. "Isn't Qinglan girl giving birth? Isn't there anything happening in the delivery room?"

Which pregnant woman did not give birth to a heartbreaking baby, and where she was quiet like Shen Qinglan.

In this way, Fu Hengyi's thoughts returned to Shen Qinglan, and there was a worry in his eyes. This is Chu Yunrong's experience. "Uncle Fu, it is not yet time to exert force. Qinglan's personality can be tolerated. She couldn't call it until she couldn't help it."

In the delivery room, Shen Qinglan lay quietly on the delivery bed, and the doctors and nurses were still preparing for the final preparations, "Mrs. Fu, don't be afraid. Now that the palace entrance is not fully opened, try to save your strength and wait until the palace entrance is fully opened. At that time, you start to work harder and follow my instructions, I will help you."

Shen Qinglan looked calm and nodded.

The pain was slowly intensifying. Shen Qinglan's senses were all in the lower body. She gritted her teeth and tried not to let her scream. She knew that Fu Hengyi was waiting outside, worrying that she would make Fu Hengyi afraid.

"Mrs. Fu, if you have pain, you can actually call it out." The doctor saw Shen Qinglan's critical teeth, and kindly suggested.

Shen Qinglan nodded, "Can I, doctor, is the palace mouth finished?"

"It hasn't been opened until eight fingers." Shen Qinglan's Gongkou opened slower than the doctor expected, but it was still within the normal range.

I just checked the fetal heart with the instrument and everything is normal.

Outside the delivery room, Fu Hengyi's palm gradually became wet, and he was silent in a wheelchair. Eden came in from the outside and whispered in Fu Hengyi's ear. Fu Hengyi's eyes were slightly cold, but there were others here, and They are the elders at home, they didn't say anything, just gave Eden the look that he asked, and Eden nodded, giving him a reassuring look.

In a hotel room opposite the hospital, Alan was looking at the door of the hospital. The butler stood beside him and whispered, "Master, we found no suspicious people near the hospital, nor did we see Qin Yan. "

"How many are Sisley?" Allen asked.

"A few of them are in the hospital. Master, do you need to avoid them?"

"Oh, the paws of these kittens are still very sharp. Let's keep them first, and don't avoid them deliberately. Smart kittens know what to do now, and send me a sentence to them when they encounter it. If something unexpected happened to Xiaoqi, the few of them would have no need to exist." Allen's indifferent face, the housekeeper responded and went out to arrange.

"I thought you wanted to take this opportunity to take Shen Qinglan away. I didn't expect you to protect her and the children of other men, Alan. I'm looking at you more and more now." Peter leaned on the sofa. Standard Ge Ge paralysis.

Alan looked cold and too lazy to take care of Peter. Peter was used to it and continued to look at the sunshine outside the window. "The water and soil here is really not as good as country Y. We will go back as soon as this matter is over. Every time you come here, you will You become more yin and yang, or you are more like yourself in country Y.

Peter is not afraid of death ridiculing Allen. He knows that Allen's mind is now in the opposite hospital, and he will not take care of himself no matter what he says.

Jin Enxi and they soon discovered Allen's people. Eden had met them and heard the steward's words. Eden's expression changed slightly. They were all personally taught by Allen, more than others. Knowing Allen's method, he said to Jin Enxi.

"Isn't Alan really messing up?" Jin Enxi suspiciously, she still remembers what Alan wanted to destroy at the wedding.

Sisley sullenly said, "It should not be." Intuition told her that Allen wasn't here to make trouble this time. With the addition of Allen, Qin Yan's small actions are not easy.

In a corner not far from the hospital, an ordinary private car was parked, and it looked unremarkable, while Qin Yan, who was remembered by everyone, was sitting in the car at this moment, and a young man was sitting beside her. Respect, "Ma'am, our people can't be near the delivery room."

Qin Yan's mouth was lightly hooked, and he was not surprised at such a situation. "Look at the opportunity and start again. If you can't do it, you will create a little chaos. The more chaos, the better. It would be best for Shen Qinglan to kill two dead bodies. Taking her children away, the only great-grandchildren of the Shen and Fu families, will surely drive them crazy."

As soon as he thought of such a scene, Qin Yan couldn't help but rejoice. After Shen Qinglan disappeared, she saw Chu Yunrong looking for children in Daman Street with her own eyes. It seemed like a lunatic. Now she still remembers it as a happy past.

However, in order to get rid of Shen Qinglan, she spent a lot of time on it. If she had not planned for Zhou Xiang, I am afraid that the Shen family would have found a child long ago. That was when the Shen family was unprepared. This time they were prepared. , Presumably the difficulty will increase a lot.

Qin Yan frowned. What should she think of to make her plan successful?Qin Yan was thinking about it, and saw Alan appeared in front of her, staring at her somberly.

Qin Yan froze slightly, got out of the car and smiled, "Allen, I didn't expect that we would meet here."

Her expression was natural, and she couldn't see the dissatisfaction of being imprisoned by Allen before. "You shouldn't come to me?" She looked at the direction of the hospital indifferently. "If you want Shen Qinglan, I Can help you."

Allen smiled when he heard the words, but the words he exported were very cold and terrifying, "Qin Yan, if you dare to move her a hair today, I will not only feed the ashes of Karl Na bastard to the dog, I will also feed this dog Stew and feed the shark."

Qin Yan's face sank, "Are you threatening me?"

"Well, it is indeed a threat, and of course you can be free from threats."

Qin Yan's face was green, and she suddenly laughed, "Alan, you can only threaten me with your father's ashes. He has been dead for more than 20 years. Do you think I will care?"

"You know if you don't care about trying." Allen said carelessly. "Butler, call back and let them give me that asshole's ashes to feed the dog now." He looked cruel.

The butler took out the phone and called. Qin Yan's eyes finally changed. "Wait."

She looked at Allen, "Allen, I know you hate him, but he is your father after all, and has died for so many years, you can't do this to him."

Allen took his ear. "Don't repeat the same words again and again. I'm bored."

Qin Yan took a deep breath, "Okay, let me tell you something you care about, I can take Shen Qinglan out to you, and I only take her child."

"Qin Yan, you are dead." Allen said, obviously disagreeing with her proposal.

Qin Yan looked at the Q mouth of her black hole pointing in front of her eyes, her eyes unchanged, "Alan, you think about my suggestion carefully, it was a child she had with others, not yours, I was taken away just besides The obstacles between you are a good thing for you. And I believe that by your means, if you really want to trap Shen Qinglan, there must be a way."

Allen was unmoved, "Qin Yan, no matter what your plan is today, leave here, otherwise, you know the consequences."

"Alan, do you really want to stop me?" Qin Yan asked coldly, and the young man who had always been by her heard the words and immediately pointed Q at Alan's temple, but Qin Yan did not stop.

For the first time, she was murderous to Allen.

Allen didn't seem to see the Q, but stared at Qin Yan.

"Allen, do you think you are Karl's only son and I dare not kill you?"

"Despite your hands, I look forward to no one in this world remembering that damn bastard, his soul is not worthy of salvation." Allen said.

A flash of anger flashed in Qin Yan's eyes, grabbed the Q in the man's hand, and pulled the trigger against Allen. Allen snorted, and a blood flower bloomed on his body.

At the same time, a bullet penetrated Qin Yan's chest, avoiding the position of the heart, but made Qin Yan's body tremble.

The change happened so suddenly that none of the people present reacted.

"Okay, Alan, you won, but you remember, this is the last time, and I won't be merciless next time, your Shen Qinglan, you look at yourself." Qin Yan clutched the wound and said coldly, Turn on the car and leave.

Allen's clothes were soon soaked in blood, but his expression was numb, and he didn't seem to feel any pain. Until Qin Yan left, he suddenly spit out blood and fainted.

A car quickly stopped in front of them. Peter got out of the car and quickly brought Alan to the car, while the housekeeper left the scene to deal with the traces.

Fortunately, this is a blind spot for everyone's sight, and there is no surveillance camera nearby, otherwise there will be an armed fight in broad daylight, which has attracted the attention of the police and is not so easy to solve.

Butler Ma Li handled the matter here quickly, and left the place quickly. When no one was there, Jin Enxi came out of the shadows. She looked at the direction they left, and her eyes were thoughtful.

Sisley listened to Jin Enxi's words and was silent for a long time before saying, "In fact, Allen is really good to Ann, ignoring his inhuman words."

Jin Enxi hehe, "You also said that he is an inhumane person, who knows what he wants to do to get out of this one. Don't forget, the identity information he gave was the one he gave to An's father."

Sisley thought about it too, set aside this question, and remembered another thing, "You said that Qin Yan is related to Alan's father. Why can the ashes of a person who has been dead for more than 20 years threaten her?" "

"It's nothing more than love, but I didn't expect that someone like Qin Yan would even have loved ones." Jin Enxi said, "but we still can't relax our vigilance. These two people are foxes, who knows if what they say is true or not fake."

Sisley nodded and continued to stare at the computer.

In front of the delivery room.

Shen Qinglan has been in for three hours, but there is still no movement in the delivery room. Chu Yunrong was also in a hurry, and Fu Hengyi wanted to go in to see the situation, but Shen Qinglan refused to let in.

In the delivery room, Shen Qinglan was pale and sweaty. Three hours later, her palace mouth was only fully opened, and the official production began. Even the doctor wiped a cold sweat, and she has never seen the palace mouth open. For such a slow maternal, when the doctor arrived, the doctor even used the needle to induce labor.

"Okay, Mrs. Fu, the palace mouth has been fully opened, and you are beginning to work hard now," the doctor said.

After several hours of unrelenting pain, Shen Qinglan was sweating, and her hair was wet. Her hands were tightly held on the edge of the bed. The green bars on the back of her hands were clearly visible. She could even feel the child. Gradually leaving his body.

"Very good, yes, that's it." While the doctor was teaching Shen Qinglan how to do it, she encouraged Shen Qinglan. She was definitely the most tolerant pregnant woman she had ever seen. Three hours of labor pains. No one can stand it, but Shen Qinglan didn't say anything, so he silently endured it.

"Mrs. Fu, you can call it if you have pain." The doctor suggested that she should bite her lip, and kindly suggested.

Shen Qinglan shook his head and squeezed out two words from his mouth, "Continue."

The doctor shook his head.

Shen Qinglan only felt that his body was about to be torn. This kind of pain seems to be insignificant compared to the previous ones.

It's just that after a while, the doctor's complexion began to look wrong. She glanced at Shen Qinglan, and at the other doctor, and the other doctor walked over to look at it, her eyes changed slightly, and the midwife was an experienced, She was the second to find something wrong.

The expressions of the three people became a little dignified, and the production process, which was supposed to be very smooth, was unexpected.

"Mrs. Fu, come on, work hard, the child will come out soon." The doctor said to Shen Qinglan.

"Doctor, is there something wrong?" The sudden and solemn atmosphere made Shen Qinglan feel wrong.

The three looked at each other. The doctor thought for a while and decided to tell Shen Qinglan the truth, "Mrs. Fu, the child is in a little unexpected situation now."

Shen Qinglan's eyes changed slightly, "What's wrong with the child?"

"The child's head was crossed." The doctor said that she had just discovered it. After checking so many times before, the child's condition was normal. Who knew that it was an accident when it was time to give birth.

"Mrs. Fu, don't be afraid. Although such a situation is rare, it is not without it. I have also encountered the situation of the fetal head crossing during the delivery of the mother. I will try my best to adjust it. You cooperate with me."

Shen Qinglan's face was light, "Okay, but for the time being, don't tell my family, especially my husband. Doctor, I hope you can go out and tell my family, I'm fine now, in good condition." She stayed inside After so long, Fu Hengyi should have been anxious.

The doctor hesitated, and finally nodded in Shen Qinglan's persistent eyes. Another doctor went out and she needed to go out to appease the family's emotions. After all, the parturient had been in for a long time.

Fu Hengyi couldn't sit still anymore and was about to go in. The doctor came out.

"Doctor, how is my daughter? Why hasn't it been so long?"

The doctor explained, "The opening of the maternal opening is slow and it takes a lot of time. Now the situation is not bad. You are the patience of family members and so on."

"Doctor, why is my granddaughter so quiet?" Mr. Fu couldn't help it.

"Mrs. Fu is the strongest parturient woman I have ever seen." The doctor only said this, and turned around to go in. She was worried that over time, they would see something different.

"Doctor, I want to go in to accompany me." Fu Hengyi asked.

"Mr. Fu, I understand your mood, but Mrs. Fu said, I hope you can wait for her outside." This was specifically ordered by Shen Qinglan when he just came out.

Fu Hengyi's eyes were heavy, looking at the delivery room door closed in front of him, and there was always an uneasy emotion in his heart gradually spreading.

"Is there smoke?" he asked, looking at Eden. When he was young, Fu Hengyi was addicted to cigarettes, and he only quit slowly in recent years. Now he suddenly wants to smoke a cigarette to calm down.

Eden shook his head, he never smoked, "I will take you to walk down?"

"I'm waiting here." Fu Hengyi said.

For a time, the corridor fell into a short silence. Everyone was waiting. Suddenly, a scream came from the delivery room. That was Shen Qinglan's voice. The people's faces changed, especially Fu Hengyi, who was completely white.

Shen Qinglan didn't say anything for a long time before, but now she cried out. It can be seen that the pain has exceeded her tolerance range, especially Fu Hengyi and Eden who knew Shen Qinglan's past.

Fu Hengyi stepped up from the wheelchair, but stumbled a bit, because Eden quickly caught his hand and helped him.

But after that scream, there was no movement in the delivery room. After a while, the door of the delivery room opened, and a nurse stepped out with a dignified expression. Chu Yunrong hurried over, "Nurse, how is my daughter?" "

"Maternal dystocia caused massive bleeding." The nurse said quickly, pushed away Chu Yunrong and ran to the blood bank.

Chu Yunrong's legs were soft and he sat directly on the ground. The doctor came out, "Shen Qinglan's family."

Fu Hengyi rushed forward, "I am her husband."

"Mr. Fu, there was an accident during the birth of the mother, which caused major bleeding. It is very likely that the adult and the child can only keep one. Do you want to protect the adult or the child?"

Is it an adult or a child? Fu Hengyi's head was empty, as if he didn't understand what the doctor said, and he stared at the spot.

"You make a decision quickly as a family member. Time is money. You are wasting one minute and the risk of maternal is one point." The doctor urged.

It was also Mr. Fu who responded first, and Shen Sheng said, "Protect Master, you must protect Master."

The doctor handed a consent form to Fu Hengyi, "sign a signature on this."

Fu Hengyi shook hands, picked up the pen and signed his name at the end of the consent form.

The doctor turned into the delivery room, but Fu Hengyi wanted to go in, but was pushed out by the doctor.

In the delivery room, Shen Qinglan's face was whiter than paper. She was breathing heavily, and the ear was the word of the doctor. She said nothing she heard, and she held the doctor's hand. "The doctor, Save the child, please save the child."

The doctor calmed her, "You can rest assured that we will definitely save the child."

"Dr. Tang, I saw the child's head." The midwife said in surprise.

Hearing the words, the doctor was shocked, "Mrs. Fu, have you heard? The child's head is coming out, you can work harder, come on."

Shen Qinglan instinctively followed what the doctor said, the pain was increasing and the consciousness was pulling away.

"Doctor, the maternal succession is weak, and the fetus is stuck in the birth canal. What should I do now?" This is the voice of the midwife.

"Maternal bleeding is still heavy, increasing the output of blood volume." This is the doctor's voice.

"Mrs. Fu, the child is coming out soon, you hold on." This is another doctor's voice.

Shen Qinglan felt that all her strength had been taken away. She was very tired, very tired, but she still remembered that her child had not come out. Suddenly the hand was clenched, and Fu Hengyi's voice rang in her ear.

She tried to open her eyes and saw Fu Hengyi's enlarged face, "Qinglan, I'm here, don't be afraid."

"How did you come in, go out quickly." Shen Qinglan squeezed a word from his teeth.

Fu Hengyi shook her head and looked at her with tender eyes, "I will not go out, Qinglan, I will accompany you, don't be afraid."

"Fu Hengyi, I'm so tired." Shen Qinglan said.

Fu Hengyi's heart trembles, raising his hands to help Shen Qinglan wipe off the sweat on his forehead, moving gently, "Qinglan, hold on, the child will come out soon, you don't mean to wait with the child to take her, our family out Are you on vacation? You can't sleep now, you can't sleep, you know?"

"Qing Lan, this family is complete only with you, and my life is different only with you. You said that you will stay with me for a lifetime, can't you sneak away halfway along, do you know?" Fu Hengyi grabbed Shen Qinglan Hands, whispered in her tenderness.

The doctor stood on the other side of Shen Qinglan and said, "Mrs. Fu, half of the child's body has already come out, and you will finally work harder."

Shen Qinglan heard the words and held Fu Hengyi's hand tightly, clenching his teeth to use all his strength.

"Wow." A loud cry of the baby rang through everyone's ears.

"Qing Lan!" Fu Hengyi shouted with a sad voice.

The time went back to an hour ago.

Jin Enxi looked at the sneaky man near the delivery room on the monitor, his eyes slightly cold, he said to Sisley, and left the monitor room.

Jin Enxi came to the obstetrics and gynecology corridor and patted Annie's shoulder heavily. "Hi, Miss Anne, I haven't seen you for a long time. I didn't expect to meet you here."

Annie said, she was scared by Jin Enxi, and it was also because of the pain. She patted her chest lightly, and looked at Jin Enxi with a smile, her face flashing unnaturally.

"It is you."

Jin Enxi shrugged, "Well, it's me."

"Why are you here?" Annie asked.

Jin Enxi seemed to smile, "Qinglan produces today, I am not surprised here, but you, what do you want to do here?" After speaking, the tone was slightly cold.

Anne froze, pretending to be surprised, "Is this the day of Miss Shen's production? I... I don't know, I came here today to find Eden."

"Oh." Jin Enxi sneered. "Do you really understand Eden's whereabouts?"

"I..." Annie's eyes quickly flicked through a panic, her eyes flashing unconsciously, "I... a friend of mine saw him in the hospital and called me."

"You just arrived?"

Annie nodded. "I was looking for Eden just now, but I didn't find it. I was just about to leave and ran into you."

Well, the reason seems quite reasonable. If she hadn't noticed her in the monitoring room for a long time, she might have believed her, of course, if she ignored her hand holding the bag strap tightly.

Kim Eun-hee smiled, reaching for Annie's shoulder. "It's not easy to see Eden. I know where he is. I'll take you to see him."

Annie wanted to break away from Jin Enxi's hand, but Jin Enxi's hand on her shoulder was like a pair of pliers. "No, I remembered that I still have something to do. I have to leave first. I'll go to him another day."

"Don't hurry to go first. It's a pity not to see you when you come, and others are here now, you can see it when you walk over." Jin Enxi pulled her to see Eden.

"No, I don't want to see him now. You let me go, I want to go home." Annie said panically.

Jin Enxi's eyes narrowed, staring closely at Annie's eyes, "Are you nervous?"

Annie looked down, not daring to have direct eye contact with Jin Enxi. "No, I am not nervous."

"You are not nervous, what is your hand shaking?"

Annie lowered her hand, "I said I was not nervous, I have something to go with."

Jin Enxi clasped her shoulders, "Miss Anne, we have known each other for so long. I haven't asked you to drink a cup of coffee. Let's go, I invite you to have a cup of coffee in the cafe opposite the hospital."

"I'm not going!" Anne was excited. Her voice was a little loud, attracting the eyes of the people around her. She lowered her head, "I really have something to do, let's go first. Goodbye!"

Jin Enxi looked at her in a hurried, panicked look. Where would she let her go, catching up quickly, "Then I'll send you, I have a car!" Then she couldn't help but take Annie's hand in the direction of the parking lot, Annie wanted to struggle, but she didn't have the strength to be Jin Enxi, she didn't dare to shout, she could only passively follow Jin Enxi.

Jin Enxi took her to her car, stuffed it into the back seat, and locked the door. "Speak, what do you want to do in the hospital?"

Annie lowered her head. "I didn't do anything. I just came to Eden."

"Oh, refuse to tell the truth, do you?" Jin Enxi's cold eyes grew stronger.

"I don't know what you're talking about." Anne said, "Even if Eden doesn't like me, I wouldn't break the law when I ask him. It's you, what do you mean by forcing me to the car now?"

Annie smiled softly, but the smile appeared on her doll's face, but there was a lovely taste, but now, for Annie, this is the smile from the devil, "What do you want to do?"

"I don't want to do anything. I said I would like you to drink coffee, but now I'm very busy and I have no time to invite you to drink coffee, so I will ask you to wait for me here."

"What do you mean, you let me go, or I will call out." Annie sneered.

Jin Enxi sighed, "I now seem to understand why Eden doesn't like you, Miss Anne, it's not that I said you, your thoughts are so strange, how can you misunderstand the meaning of others, I am not malicious to you, just simple I want to invite you to drink coffee. Just like you came to the hospital, just to see Eden."

Annie was very flustered. Jin Enxi's words always gave her a feeling that the other party already knew all the things she did. She clutched the strap of her backpack tightly. "I don't want to drink coffee now. If you want to drink, we will change it again. Make an appointment."

"That's really sorry, Miss Anne. I want to invite you to drink coffee today. I can't wait for another day. Let's go now."

"You are kidnapping and it is illegal." Annie said loudly.

Jin Enxi shivered and made a terrified look, "Oh, I'm so scared." The eyes were sharp, "Oh, I was not scared since I was a child, since you think it is kidnapping, then as long as you To tell me the truth, what you are doing in the hospital, I will consider letting you go."

Where does Annie dare to say that she came to Eden when she died, and the more she concealed her, it proved that the more guilty she was, the more Jin Enxi could not let her go, who knew what she wanted to do.

"Then there is no way. Since you are so affectionate to Eden, I will not let Eden come to see you. Don't be too grateful to me." Jin Enxi said, "Yes, to prevent you from calling others Come here and grieve you for a while."

Annie didn't understand what he meant by that. When the back of the neck hurts and the eyes are black, the person loses consciousness.

Jin Enxi sighed in the palm of his hand and hummed, "My hands hurt and my neck is made of stone. But this kind of strength has been enough for her to faint for a long time?" She said to herself, not thinking too much Rest assured, leave the car, go to the hospital, and soon come back, holding a syringe with a transparent liquid in her hand, she lifted Annie's arm, supported her, and let her lean on the back seat, watching It's like falling asleep.

"Okay, this weight is enough for you to sleep for a day." Jin Enxi nodded in satisfaction, took out her mobile phone from the bag, pressed the power off button, and threw the phone back, Jin Enxi saw a check in Annie's bag , Took a look at it, one million, well, quite generous. Anne's signature in the lower right corner of the check seems to be for someone, but I don't know who it is for.

Jin Enxi put the check back, clapped his hands, locked the door and left.

Shen Junyu is talking with Han Yi in the office today, because the newly established company will be remembered under the name of Xiao Xuan, so Yu Xiaoxuan also came.

"I don't know if Qinglan is born." Yu Xiaoxuan lay on the sofa, and Youyou said, she went to see Shen Qinglan yesterday, and Shen Qinglan's stomach has not moved.

Shen Junyu heard the words and remembered that today's mobile phone was very quiet. No one at home called him. It suddenly felt a little strange. Sister Song or aunt Zhao would tell him about Shen Qinglan every few days.

He called home, but no one answered, frowning, and called Chu Yunrong's cell phone. It took a long time before someone answered, but it was Songsao who said, "Junyu, Qinglan has a hard time."

Shen Junyu's face suddenly changed, "I'll come over immediately." Hang up the phone and run.

"Jun Yu, what are you doing?" Han Yi asked.

"Lan Lan is having trouble giving birth." Shen Junyu hurriedly said, Han Yi and Yu Xiaoxuan's complexion also changed, and hurriedly followed.

Shen Junyu called Wen Xiyao halfway along. Wen Xiyao was near the hospital at the time. She came to see Shen Qinglan.

After Shen Qinglan was sent to the delivery room, Fu Hengyi made a phone call to his home. The family rushed in and hurriedly forgot to notify others. Even Shen Qian did not receive the news. Finally, Shen Junyu called him to ask Shen Qing It was only after Lan's situation that his daughter entered the delivery room.

Wen Xiyao came a step earlier than Shen Junyu. When Shen Junyu arrived, he just heard Fu Hengyi's cry.

The faces of the people outside the delivery room all changed, and Chu Yunrong couldn't get up from sitting on the ground. "Qinglan, what's wrong with my Qinglan, Qinglan!" She struggled to stand up, and couldn't stand up when she went.

Wen Xiyao walked over to support her, "Mom."

Chu Yunrong leaned on her whole body, she had no strength, "Qinglan, Qinglan..." Her mouth murmured Shen Qinglan's name, Wen Xiyao comforted her softly, "Mom, don't worry, Qinglan will be fine."

She had just arrived here, only knowing that Shen Qinglan had a difficult birth, the specific situation was ignorant, but looking at everyone's solemn face, she also knew that the situation was probably serious this time, and the eyes of the delivery room were worried.

Yu Xiaoxuan's eyes were full of tears, and he held Han Yi's hand tightly, "Han Yi, Qinglan she..." The panic and sorrow in Fu Hengyi's call just passed clearly to everyone present. In everyone's heart, everyone's heart is raised.

392 Chapter

The door of the delivery room was opened, the nurse walked out with the child in hand, and Shen Junyu walked over, "How is my sister?"

"Maternal hemorrhage, now in a coma, is being rescued. The child is not in a good condition and needs to be sent to the incubator."

Chu Yunrong, who just mentioned a little strength, listened to this and slid to the ground as soon as he was soft. Shen Junyu couldn't care about his mother and followed the doctor to see the children. Although these doctors are all trustworthy, but prevent Human heart is indispensable.

In the delivery room, Fu Hengyi held Shen Qinglan's hand and looked at her closed eyes. It was difficult to breathe in pain. "Qinglan." He called Shen Qinglan's name, but there was no response.

"Doctor, blood can't stop." The midwife's face was anxious.

The doctor looked dignified, looked at the declining numbers on the instrument, and said in a deep voice, "Ready to rescue."

"Mr. Fu, please give up, don't hinder the rescue." The doctor was very polite, Fu Hengyi was pushed aside, but his eyes were fixed on Shen Qinglan.

In the ear are the words of the doctor and nurse, but he can't hear anything.

Shen Qinglan, you can't do anything. If you do, I can't live.

Bags of blood were transported into Shen Qinglan's body, but Shen Qinglan's face grew paler. In his thirty-two years of life, Fu Hengyi has never been so afraid. Even if he himself was seriously injured, Fu Hengyi, who was scared of death almost before, had unprecedented fear at this moment. His hands fell on both sides of the body, shaking gently.

If there is a god in the sky, he must pray now.

When Shen Qian rushed to the hospital, he saw his wife leaning on Wen Xiyao, his expression was indifferent, and the two old men were also worried. Shen Junyu and Fu Hengyi were not there either, and Yu Xiaoxuan sat and wept silently.

Shen Qian can only ask Han Yi, but Han Yi does not know the specific situation. She only knows that Shen Qinglan suffered heavy dystocia. Although the child was born, he is still being rescued.

"Who is Shen Qinglan's family?" The door of the delivery room was pushed open again, and the nurse came out and shouted.

"Nurse, I am her father, how is my daughter?" Shen Qian said stepping forward.

"Shen Qinglan is bleeding heavily and needs to continue blood transfusion. There is a shortage of type O blood in the blood bank. Who is type O blood?" the nurse asked.

"I, I am." Shen Qian said.

"Then you come in quickly with me." The nurse said, Chu Yunrong reacted. "Nurse, I am also type O blood, and my blood is OK." She and Shen Qian are both type O blood.

"You all come in." the nurse said. Shen Qinglan's blood couldn't stop temporarily. The blood in the hospital's blood bank was not enough. Fu Hengyi's blood type also didn't meet.

As soon as I walked into the delivery room, I smelled a strong bloody smell. At one glance, Chu Yunrong saw Shen Qinglan lying on the operating table. His face was pale, his eyes were closed, and even the ups and downs of his chest were slightly invisible, as if dead. In general, her tears fell in an instant, but she dared not cry and could only stand there with her mouth covered in tears.

"Who are you coming first?" the nurse asked.

"I'll come first." Shen Qian said, he lay down on the bed next to Shen Qinglan, watching his blood slowly flow into his daughter's body, his eyes were loving, "Doctor, don't worry about me, save me first daughter."

Wen Xiyao had already called Shen Junyu back, fearing that the amount of blood was still not enough. Shen Junyu learned that his parents had entered and wanted to go in. Wen Xiyao pulled him, "You wait, wait for the doctor to come Calling people."

And this waited for several hours, until the daylight was bright, the door of the delivery room was opened again, Shen Qinglan was pushed out, and Fu Hengyi followed her closely.

Eden came out from the inside with a weary look, and after the doctor took the child out, he went in and took part in the rescue.

Chu Yunrong was finally pushed out. In order to save Shen Qinglan, she was drawn a lot of blood, far exceeding the limit of her body. Now she has no strength to stand up, Shen Qian The same is true, but his body is much better than Chu Yunrong, not so obvious. Shen Junyu helped Shen Qian aside and sat down.

Shen Qinglan was pushed into the ICU. Fu Hengyi stood outside and looked at her quietly. He has been standing for a long time. The pain in his legs has reminded him that his legs have exceeded the load, but Fu Hengyi seems to feel Not average.

In the end, Eden couldn't see it anymore and pulled him to the chair. "Your leg just got better. If you break it, Qinglan will wake up and blame herself."

Fu Hengyi looked numb and looked at Shen Qinglan's direction. Eden continued, "Qinglan's situation is now stable. She was only worried about an unexpected situation when she was sent to the ICU. When she woke up, she could be transferred to the general ward. It's just that this time she suffered a lot of physical loss and needed a long time to recuperate."

Speaking of this, Eden's expression became solemn, "Fu Hengyi, Qinglan's hemorrhage this time was not an accident, it was artificial."

In a word, Fu Hengyi's thoughts were instantly brought back. He looked straight at Eden, his eyes looked like a snowy mountain for thousands of years, indifferent and dead, "Who did it?"

"I don't know who for the time being, but I found a substance in Qinglan's blood. She took the medicine for blood circulation when she was produced." Eden said.

Maternal bleeding will occur during the birth process. Once you take the medicine for blood circulation, it is likely to cause blood collapse. This is someone's life.

Fu Hengyi's eyes became bloodthirsty, her expression was vulgar, and her whole body exuded a terrifying breath.

"Boom." Something fell back on the floor to recall Eden and Fu Hengyi's thoughts. When they looked around, they saw Wen Xiyao standing there pale, with an unbelievable look on his face. Insulation barrel.

"What you just said is true? Someone wants to hurt Qinglan?" She squeezed out a word from her mouth.

Fu Hengyi didn't speak, standing over and continuing to look at Shen Qinglan. Eden walked over and picked up things. "Don't tell others about this matter for the time being. I need further confirmation."

Wen Xiyao nodded and did not pick up the heat preservation barrel. "This is the meal for you and Hengyi. Please take some food to replenish your strength. I will talk to Qinglan's parents."

Waiting for Wen Xiyao to leave, Fu Hengyi looked at Eden, "Can you find out who did it?"

Eden shook his head, "It is not clear for the time being, Enxi and they are already checking. At the latest tomorrow, there will be results."

"I want to go in with her." Fu Hengyi said.

Eden thought about it and agreed to his request. Shen Qinglan's current situation, if accompanied by Fu Hengyi, would be beneficial to her recovery.

Fu Hengyi put on sterile clothes, sitting next to Shen Qinglan, holding her hand, her hand was cold, as if there was no temperature, Fu Hengyi wrapped her hand in the palm of her hand, trying to warm her with his body temperature .

"Qinglan, you scared me to death today? Do you know?" Fu Hengyi said warmly, where there was bloodthirsty just now, "I thought at the time, if you leave, I will follow you. You listened Don't laugh at me, I really think so. Before I met you, I never thought there would be someone who made me love more than my own life..."

Fu Hengyi talked a lot and talked a lot. Mr. Fu originally came to see the situation of Shen Qinglan. After seeing this scene, he went back silently.

"How is Lanlan?" Mr. Shen asked quickly when he saw his old friend coming back.

"Hengyi was with her inside, and I didn't go in." Mr. Fu said. In fact, today he wanted Fu Hengyi to see the children. From the birth of the child to now, every one of them has visited the child, except Fu Hengyi.

Chu Yunrong was also hurt this time. She was staying in the hospital. She wanted to climb up to see Shen Qinglan, but she was stopped by Shen Qian. "You have a good rest first. You can take care of her when Qinglan wakes up. ."

Chu Yunrong took Shen Qian's hand, "Is Qinglan all right?"

"It's okay, it will wake up in a few days, but this time she has suffered a lot of losses and needs to be well maintained. After that, you are busy, so you should take care of yourself now."

Upon hearing this, Chu Yunrong suddenly said, "Good. I must take good care of, but if Qinglan wakes up, you must tell me."

"Okay, now you lie down and take a good rest. Even if you can't sleep, you should keep your eyes closed and recuperate."

"What about the child?" Chu Yunrong finally remembered the child. She clearly remembered that when the child came out, her body turned purple. After that loud cry, there was no movement.

"The child is still in the incubator, but there is no big problem, and you can come out in two days. Don't worry, it will be fine whether it is Qinglan or the child." Shen Qian's wife, the daughter of this time, can say it was too thrilling and exciting, and there was no joy to welcome a new life.

"Is the child really okay? You must not lie to me." Chu Yunrong was not relieved.

oouptossss." "Ohhhho." She twisted her body hard, but her hands and feet were tied tightly and she couldn't break away.

Jin Enxi and Sisley stood outside the door, looking at the scene from the window, and looked indifferent.

"You think she did Ann's things?" Sisley asked.

Jin Enxi shook his head, "I'm not sure, but this person appeared in the hospital at that time, and it was still sneaky. It wasn't a good person anyway. Country Z didn't have a sentence called 'I would rather kill ten thousand by mistake than let me go. An', probably what it means, whether she did it or not, just ask if you know it." Her tone was very cold, and Sisley didn't have to think about it, as long as she was certain that it happened to her Relationship, Anne's end will become very interesting.

"Let's go first, we still have to find out the truth of this matter, this woman can't escape." Jin Enxi said with a sullen face, this is the second time, the accident happened under her eyelids.

Compared to the last time, this time Jin Enxi was even more annoyed. Don't let her know who is behind the ghost, otherwise she will not die.

Sisley took another look at Annie and left here with Jin Enxi. This is a factory in the suburbs. It has been abandoned for a long time, and no one comes at all.

After Jin Enxi went back, he took all the monitoring of the whole hospital, including one week ago.

Andre and Sisley helped Jin Enxi to watch it together. It took three people three days to watch all the videos from beginning to end. They did not miss any corner, and finally they found the anomaly. .

Jin Enxi looked at the picture on the screen, the smile on the corner of her mouth was cold, she stood up and left, and Sisley hurriedly followed.

In the hospital, Eden came out of the laboratory, his face was calm, and his eyes were like ice. He went directly to Fu Hengyi and gave him the results of the test. "There are two kinds of drugs left in Ann's blood, one is weak. , One kind is blood circulation, no matter which kind, it is enough to kill her."

Fu Hengyi stared at the paper in his hand, and the test sheet was held tightly in his hand. "Do you know who it is?"

"Enxi they checked all the surveillance video of the hospital and found a few suspicious people."

Fu Hengyi immediately stood up, leaned over again, and said softly in Shen Qinglan's ear, "I'll go out and come back soon." The voice was soft. Just as he walked out of the ward, his face sank. "Come on, show me."

In Country Y, Allen listened to the report from the butler and sat up from the bed all at once. "Who did you just say is difficult to give birth?"

The butler lowered his head and dared not look at his expression at the moment. "We who stayed in Beijing just came back from the news that Shen Qinglan was bleeding heavily during the production process and almost died."

"Don't you let her protect her well? How could such a thing happen." Allen looked terrified. He lifted the quilt and got out of bed, but pulled the wound on his body. The blood suddenly soaked the gauze, and Peter on the side saw He pressed and hurriedly pressed him, "Ancestor, don't toss you, this life is gone, you still don't think it's enough, the woman hasn't died yet, the housekeeper said it was almost, what are you excited about?"

Allen glared at him fiercely, and Peter dared to say that he wanted to kill, "You just glared at me, and I have to say, you are half dead now, if you toss about it, it's true Dead, don't think I can save you every time. This time, Qin Yan didn't intend to kill you. She missed a bit. If she is cruel, you've gone to see God now."

Allen's face didn't get any better, he looked at the housekeeper coldly, "A bunch of waste, all give me down to receive the penalty."

"Allen, you are a bit unreasonable. Pregnant women are inherently risky. Shen Qinglan is having a difficult birth. It is not because someone wants to kill her. This has little to do with your men. You can't even hurt her. Don't have any of your men." Peter said to Allen's men that his voice was uneven. Sometimes, Allen's personality was really too violent, and his punishments were bloody and cruel. Indefinitely abandoned.

"If you feel bad about them, you can go by yourself." Allen said coldly.

Peter sneered, "Oh, when I didn't say, Alan, you are really crazy for a woman. I now think that Shen Qinglan is a scourge for you. It's good to die."

"Boom." With a Q sound, Peter covered his belly and knelt on one knee, looking at Alan incredulously, "Are you really crazy?"

Allen looked at him like he looked at a dead person. "This is the first time. Once again, it will penetrate your heart."

Peter's eyes on Allen were shocked by the murderous intention, and he was stunned, his mouth lightly raised, his smile bitter, "I know."

He stood up and slowly walked out of Allen's room. When he walked to the door, he paused slightly and said, "Allen, I thought we were friends."

Alan glinted under the eyes, put the Q in his hand back under the pillow, "Go out." The words were to the housekeeper.

The butler retreated silently, and after a while, came in again, followed by another doctor, "Master, let the doctor bandage your wound first."

Allen didn't refuse. He waited for the doctor to leave and he said, "Go check Shen Qinglan's dystocia."

The butler replied yes and retreated.

Allen leaned on the bed, looking at the sunlight outside the window, playing with a jade pendant in his hand.

That afternoon, the housekeeper came in again, "Master, there is news."

"Say." Allen said coldly.

"Shen Qinglan's dystocia was artificial. Someone put a medicine for promoting blood circulation and a medicine that made people weak in her medicine, and wanted to let her kill two dead during the birth."

"Bang", the water glass was smashed to the ground and shattered the ground. Allen looked terrified. "I have to find Qin Yan for three feet when I dig the ground. After I bring it back, I throw it directly into the cage."

The butler was stunned, "Master, this thing may not be the husband... Qin Yan did."

"So what, I said she did it, she did it."

The steward dared not say anything, and left to do things. Allen stared at Shen Qinglan's paintings on the wall, and said softly, "Seven, I will make them pay a terrible price for everyone who hurts you."

In Country R, Qin Yan got the news from Allen and smiled, "Sure enough, it is Carl's son, heart ruthless enough, promise, how is her injury recovered?"

"If I go back to Madam, it's almost recovered, but her hand is considered useless. I'm afraid I can't hold Q."

"It's a waste if it's abandoned, anyway, it's also a waste. Now you tell her, Shen Qinglan is lying in the hospital without knowing her life or death, she can go and add another fire. I think she should not give up such a good opportunity. ."

"Madam, according to her current situation, I am afraid it is difficult to get out."

"Oh, it's just a waste, giving her the last chance to let her take revenge is a gift for her. I have lost so much effort to bring her out. I always have to play a little waste heat. I don't like loss-making business. ."

"Knowing my wife, I will tell you."

"Tell her to do things with a little brain, don't just use her crippled limbs." Qin Yan said coldly.

"Okay, ma'am, is there anything else I need to tell?"

"Tomorrow, I will leave here, you let Keiko come to replace me, she will be Mrs. Jin from today."

"Yes."

Qin Yan touched her wound and smiled coldly. Allen wanted to find her. It was not so easy. If she could not find Carl's ashes, would she still need to be threatened by Allen?

She didn't ask anyone to find it, but she couldn't find it wherever she could. She even thought about whether Alan destroyed Carl's ashes, but it was impossible to think about it, because he threatened himself. The only thing in the world is that if it's gone, it's really gone.

In Beijing, Fu Hengyi and Eden left the hospital and went directly to Jin Enxi's house. Jin Enxi was waiting for them. "You are here."

"Who did it?" Fu Hengyi opened the door.

Jin Enxi said, "I watched the surveillance video and saw a doctor and a nurse acting suspiciously." She took the picture out, "these two people, I have checked, they are doctors and nurses in this hospital, Have been working in this hospital for many years." This is one of the reasons why they did not notice the abnormality.

Fu Hengyi stared at the people on the screen, keeping their faces in mind, "Give me this video."

Jin Enxi nodded and gave him a USB flash drive. "I'm still checking the people behind. I will inform you when there is news. If you can tell from these two people, it's the best behind the scenes."

Fu Hengyi yelled, "Thank you for this matter."

"We didn't protect Ann this time, and thank you for letting me feel very self-confident." Jin Enxi said, if she can be more careful, maybe this accident can be avoided.

Fu Hengyi did not blame this incident on Jin Enxi. They are friends of Shen Qinglan. They have helped Shen Qinglan along the way. If he really wants to blame, it is also because he, the husband, has not protected himself. Wife.

"This is not your fault." Fu Hengyi said. Eden knew that his leg injury could not last too long and took Fu Hengyi away.

Back at the hospital, Fu Hengyi went directly to the office of the dean. I don't know what the two were talking about. When the dean sent Fu Hengyi out, his face was very ugly. "Mr. Fu, if your situation is true, I will give you a satisfaction. Account."

Fu Hengyi's expression was indifferent, "I hope that President Chen will pay attention to this matter, otherwise the Fu family will not sue two people but the people and the hospital."

"Yes, yes, I must investigate carefully." Dean Chen bent over, with a good attitude, and sent away Fu Hengyi. Dean Chen's face immediately sank and returned to the office and immediately called the two people. Over here.

Because he was not sure that the two of them had switched the drugs, Fu Hengyi did not choose to call the police, but gave the matter to the hospital. When Chen was young, he used to be a military doctor in the army, and he had some friendship with Fu Hengyi's father. To be precise, when he left the army, Fu Hengyi's father arranged him to this hospital, and he received the favor of the Fu family.

Originally thinking of taking advantage of the relationship that Shen Qinglan produced here, taking good care of Shen Qinglan and pulling into the distance with the Fu family, I did not expect that they would almost kill two dead. If the Fu family really wants to hold the hospital accountable, then his dean can be considered successful.

Fu Hengyi noticed that the two were actually a husband and wife. The man was a gynecologist and obstetrician named Zhou Xiong. He also worked diligently on weekdays. The nurse's name was Pang Jia and he was considered an older nurse in the hospital. This time, it was mainly responsible for the inspection of Shen Qinglan's medicines, and usually performed very well before being placed on this production staff list.

But these two people who looked like they might have done something that was life-threatening, which made Dean Chen feel unbelievable, so when Fu Hengyi told him, he didn't believe it, but he took it in Fu Hengyi. After the surveillance video was released, Dean Chen could not convince himself that the two of them were completely okay.

The two of them also came to the dean's office for the first time. When they walked to the door and met each other, they were shocked and entered the office uneasy. When they saw only the dean alone, they were relieved.

"President, are you looking for us?" Pang Jiaxian said.

Dean Chen asked them to sit down on the sofa and looked at them fixedly. The two were more and more disturbed. Zhou Xiong couldn't resist the pressure and asked first, "Dr. Chen, what's the matter with you calling us this time?"

Dean Chen said lightly, "Don't worry, I want to show you something first." He turned his computer's screen, and the screen was just the surveillance video. The screen showed the two hiding in the corner of the hospital. The phone looked panicked.

"Who can explain what this is doing?" Dean Chen Sheng said.

Pang Jia's eyes changed slightly, but she lowered her head slightly. Dean Chen did not notice her eyes, and Zhou Xiong's eyes also changed, but compared with his wife, he calmed a lot, "The dean, but Call, it's no surprise."

Dean Chen hummed and clicked the mouse, "Then continue to look down."

The following picture changed a scene. It was at the flower bed of the hospital. Zhou Xiong handed a medicine to Pang Jia. Pang Jia quickly stuffed the medicine into his jacket pocket. He looked around and looked nervous. .

"Pang Jia's health has been uncomfortable recently, so I will give her some medicine. We are a husband and wife. This is normal." Zhou Xiong seemed to speak casually, but his eyes were guilty. This excuse was that he did not believe it.

"Since this is the case, what is Pang Jia nervous about? You are a husband and wife, and you are not cheating." Dean Chen asked faintly.

Zhou Xiong rubbed his lips, trying to explain, "We...we..."

"Even if I can't make it through myself, the reason why Shen Qinglan will give birth is because someone has added blood circulation and weakening drugs to her medicine. This has been known to the Fu family and will be held accountable. At present, there are only three of us in the office. If you confess, I can go to the Fu family to plead for you. If you are bitten and have nothing to do with yourself, it will be checked by the Fu family. This matter is not so easy to end." Chen The dean's voice was weak.

A panic flashed across Pang Jia's face and wanted to speak, but Zhou Xiong held his hand and squeezed, "Dean, we don't know what you're talking about, and Mrs. Fu's dystocia. We are also sad, but this The incident has nothing to do with us. The behavior between our husband and wife is just a little weird. It doesn't prove anything. You can't say that our husband and wife did this because of this."

Dean Chen's eyes were slightly cold, and he looked directly at Zhou Xiong. Zhou Xiong looked back at him calmly. Dean Chen withdrew his eyes and said, "Since that is the case, I can only choose to call the police as Fu said. Believe With the intervention of the police, things will soon be revealed."

Zhou Xiong nodded, "It really should be like this, which is also responsible for me and Pang Jia."

It is said that Dean Chen took out his mobile phone and called. "It's not too late for this matter. I will inform the police now and investigate the truth as soon as possible."

Seeing that President Chen really intends to call the police, Pang Jia suddenly stood up and reached down to knock down the mobile phone in President Chen's hand. "President Chen, don't call the police. We did it, we confess."

Everything happened in the blink of an eye. Before Zhou Xiong responded, Pang Jia had finished speaking. He closed his eyes and his heart sank to the bottom.

President Chen's face changed, "What the hell is going on, say!"

Pang Jia covered her face and cried in a low voice, "Dr. Dean, we also have a bitter thing about this..."

When Fu Hengyi returned to the ward, she saw that Shen Junyu had just come out of it, "Hengyi, is everything done?"

Fu Hengyi nodded, "How is Qinglan's situation?"

"It's much better now. The doctor has just checked it and said it is completely stable. You can transfer to the general ward later."

"I went in to see him." Fu Hengyi said.

Shen Junyu held his shoulder, "Heng Yi, you go back to rest now, Lan Lan will wake up in two days, your current state is seen by her, doesn't she worry her?"

"I insist on living." Fu Hengyi said. Leaving Shen Qinglan's side, he also had a bad rest, it might as well look at her, at least peace of mind.

"You listen to me. Now you go back to take a bath and change your clothes. Your current image looks like a homeless man. Lan Lan won't recognize you when he wakes up. Later, Lan Lan will return to the general ward, I let a person put a bed in it and you rest."

Fu Hengyi thought for a while and did not object to his suggestion, "Well, Jun Yu, help me to the car." His legs are very uncomfortable now.

Shen Junyu quickly stepped up to support him and sighed, "You are really a troubled couple now, one or two, when there is no one to be relieved, I will go back with you first. At this time, you can no longer have an accident. "

"Thank you."

"Thank you for what the family said, hit me in the face."

It was two days after Shen Qinglan woke up, and three days had passed since the birth. She had just opened her eyes and felt that her hand was clenched. She turned her head and saw Fu Hengyi lying on the bed next to her, holding her. His hands are sleeping with his eyes closed, there is a green scum on his chin, and the blue under his eyes is also heavy.

Her eyes were full of gentle smiles, and she quietly looked at his sleeping face, and the corners of her mouth were light, which was the joy of the rest of the life.

Fu Hengyi didn't sleep deeply. When he noticed that someone was watching him, he immediately woke up and stared at the person in front of him with a smile, "Qinglan."

"Well, it's me, Fu Hengyi, I woke up." Shen Qinglan said softly.

Fu Hengyi sat up from the bed and rolled over to get out of bed, holding Shen Qinglan in his arms, "Qinglan."

He hugged tightly and made Shen Qinglan almost breathless, but Shen Qinglan said nothing and hugged him back. She knew that this time the thing must have frightened Fu Hengyi, not only him, Even she was taken aback, especially at the last moment, when the child came out, she collapsed. She could clearly feel the blood in the body quickly flowing towards the body. At that moment, she really thought herself Will die in the delivery room.

"Fu Hengyi, I'm fine." Shen Qinglan comforted Fu Hengyi softly.

Fu Hengyi said in a mute voice, "You really scared me this time."

"Well, I know that there is no experience this time, and it won't be in the future."

"No next time." Fu Hengyi flatly refused. "We need this child, we don't need a second one, Qinglan. Once again, I will really collapse." Fu Hengyi said with a lingering fear.

When he rarely had such emotional leaks, now when he sees him in such a terrified state, Shen Qinglan dares to stimulate him wherever he nods and echoes, "Well, we only need this one, and we won't be born in the future."

"I'll have surgery when you recover." Fu Hengyi continued.

"No." Shen Qinglan refused, and with a deep look at Fu Hengyi, her heart softened and explained, "I will do it if I want to do it, but now it is a bit early to say that this matter will wait for my physical recovery.?"

Fu Hengyi looked at her calmly, and Shen Qinglan touched his belly, "Fu Hengyi, I am hungry."

Knowing that she was shifting the subject, but Fu Hengyi was reluctant to let her hungry and stood up, "I'll buy you something to eat."

After walking a few steps, Shen Qinglan suddenly stopped him, "Fu Hengyi, what about our children?"

Fu Hengyi's body stiffened.

Guess who did this?

393 Chapter

Shen Qinglan looked at Fu Hengyi's stiff back, her eyes changed, "Fu Hengyi, is there something wrong with the child?" There was a trace of unconscious shaking in her voice.

Fu Hengyi knew that she had misunderstood, and quickly turned around and came over, "Don't be nervous, don't be nervous, the child is very good and very healthy."

Shen Qinglan looked directly at Fu Hengyi's eyes, her beautiful eyes flickered, her red lips lightened, "Fu Hengyi, haven't you seen the child yet?"

Fu Hengyi slightly looked away, his face was embarrassed, Shen Qinglan was instantly clear, funny and distressed at the same time, it is estimated that Fu Hengyi's thoughts have been on her body these days, "Let the nurse hug the child over and see me."

"Okay, but let the doctor check your body first." Fu Hengyi said. He only reacted now. Shen Qinglan woke up and hadn't asked the doctor to check.

"This is not in a hurry, Fu Hengyi, I want to see the child." From the birth of the child to now, she hasn't even seen it at first glance. She didn't expect it before. I don't think. Now that I think of it, my mood suddenly becomes impatient.

"Good, I will let the nurse go to hold the child now." Fu Hengyi said, got up and went to the nurse, he walked very slowly, these days he has been excessively consuming his leg, causing his leg injury to show signs of recurrence.

Knowing that Shen Qinglan was awake, Chu Yunrong and the two old men who had been in the hospital immediately walked in. "Qinglan, you are finally awake, you are almost terrifying to death."

As soon as she saw Shen Qinglan, Chu Yunrong hugged her without letting go, with a choked voice in her voice. Although the two grandfathers were not as exaggerated as she was, their eyes did not move away from her.

Shen Qinglan knew that everyone was terrified this time, gently patting Chu Yunrong's shoulder, "Mom, I'm fine."

"Two grandpas, worry you." The two grandpas are both 90 years old and have to worry about it. Shen Qinglan's heart is really quite unexpected.

"Lan Lan, Grandpa is okay. Now that I see you is okay, Grandpa is at ease. The most important thing for you now is to take good care of your body. Don't think about other things." Grandpa Shen said with a smile.

Master Fu also comforted, "Yes, Qinglan girl, now your body is the first, you are still young, the most important thing is health."

Shen Qinglan nodded, looked at Fu Hengyi who came in, and looked behind him. Fu Hengyi explained, "The nurse has gone to hug the child and will be back soon."

Sure enough, after a while, the nurse came in with the child in her arms. Fu Hengyi, who had always been calm, was not calm when he saw the child. His eyes looked straight at the child in the nurse's arms. The nurse smiled slightly and will The child handed him, "Dad Baby, come hug the baby."

Fu Hengyi stiffened and faced the child in his arms, feeling that the child he held was not a child in a few pounds, but a heavy burden. And the child's body was soft, and he didn't dare to move, looking at that fragility.

The child was just three days old, and his skin was crumpled. It looked really bad, but those eyes were very dark and bright. Looking at you with big eyes instantly sprouted Fu Hengyi's heart.

"Is this my daughter? Really beautiful." Fu Hengyi said softly.

"This is not a kid, not a girl." the nurse said.

Fu Hengyi's eyes glared and frowned, and after a long time he spit out, "It's ugly."

nurse:.....

Fu Mengbao, who was just three days old: ...

The hospital room fell into a strange quietness. Finally, Mr. Fu first reacted, slapped on Fu Hengyi's back, and his strength was not light. "You are ugly. When you were born, you didn't look like your son."

Fu Hengyi looked at Shen Qinglan, his eyes grumbled, his wife, what about a good daughter?

Shen Qinglan was funny, his mouth raised high, and he reached out, "Give me the child."

Fu Hengyi stiffened and walked to Shen Qinglan's side, leaning slightly to let Shen Qinglan hold the child from her arms. Her posture was not very skilled, but it was much better than Fu Hengyi.

Shen Qinglan looked at the child, his eyes soft and watery, "Baby, I am a mother, I met for the first time, please advise me later."

I don't know if there was a feeling in my heart. Master Xiao Xiao suddenly stretched out his fist and waved it as if to say hello to his mother. Shen Qinglan smiled slightly, lowered her head and dropped a soft kiss on the baby's face.

Fu Hengyi's eyes changed slightly, looking at the son in Shen Qinglan's arms and spit out, "Why is this child so ugly, crumpled like a monkey, wouldn't it be a bag."

Master Fu's slap fell on Fu Hengyi's back mercilessly again.

Chu Yunrong said with a smile, "The new born children are like this, just open it after a while." She looked at the child lovingly, and she couldn't see enough.

Master Xiao Xiao Fu, who has always been very clever, suddenly burst into tears. Shen Qinglan suddenly panicked and looked helplessly at Chu Yunrong. Chu Yunrong took the child carefully and comforted her, "It's okay, the baby is probably Urine."

Sure enough, it was really urine after a check. Chu Yunrong skillfully changed the diaper for the child before handing the child to Shen Qinglan, and Fu Hengyi looked at his son with disgust.

Just five minutes later, the child cried again, "Mom, what's wrong with him?" Fu Hengyi said disgustedly.

"It should be hungry." Chu Yunrong guessed, "Qinglan, you haven't given milk to the child yet. Feed the child first."

"Oh, okay." Shen Qinglan was a little stunned, but didn't know what to do.

The two old men went out as soon as they heard that they were going to breastfeed. Fu Hengyi wanted to stay here, but Chu Yunrong was kicked out.

Chu Yunrong taught Shen Qinglan to breastfeed. When the clothes were lifted, the child opened his mouth instinctively. Chu Yunrong quickly reached out to block it. "It has not been disinfected yet."

I took alcohol and hot towels and disinfected Master Xiao's rations. Shen Qinglan's face was red. Although she became a mother and the person in front of her is her own mother, she did not have such direct contact. So sorry.

Master Fu Xiao didn't know that his mother was shy, and she couldn't wait to open her mouth to cover it, but it didn't take long for the baby to cry loudly in the ward, and Shen Qinglan's brow furrowed, which hurt.

Chu Yunrong slapped his head, "Why did I forget that you haven't opened the milk yet. You endure and let the child suck hard, this will hurt a little for the first time, and it will be fine afterwards."

Shen Qinglan nodded and put the nipple into the baby's mouth. The baby was probably really hungry and had a lot of energy. Shen Qinglan's sore face was white. When the child sucked up the milk by himself, Shen Qinglan's forehead fine sweat came out, and Chu Yunrong took a hot towel to wipe her sweat.

Shen Qinglan looked down at the satisfied young Master Fu, with a light hook in his mouth, and Chu Yunrong looked at Shen Qinglan blankly, probably thinking of her childhood, with nostalgia in her eyes.

Young Master Fu was full and drunk, and continued to sleep, Shen Qinglan did not want him to leave his sight, he placed him carefully on the bed, the baby's hand was fisted, she reached out and gently held after the baby's hand, the baby's skin is very good, slippery, it is simply admirable.

Shen Qinglan touched his face again, it was really good everywhere.

Probably the mother's harassment caused the baby to sleep unsteadily. The baby's brow furrowed and his mouth flicked, and she was about to cry. Shen Qinglan quickly withdrew her hand and looked at Chu Yunrong helplessly, Chu Yunrong smiled comfortably. And said softly, "It's okay."

Sure enough, the little guy who was about to cry moved his mouth and fell asleep again.

This time, Shen Qinglan didn't dare to move him again, so he watched him sleep quietly without moving his eyes. The child felt very different when he was in the stomach than he really sees now.

After a while, the nurse came in and took the child away. Shen Qinglan's eyes followed the child until he could no longer be seen. Then he turned back and turned his back to Fu Hengyi's disgruntled look.

"What's wrong?" Shen Qinglan asked.

"Wife, isn't it a daughter?" Fu Hengyi was very sad. He looked forward to ten months, thinking about getting a soft and cute daughter, who knew that it was a leader.

Shen Qinglan's eyes flickered, "When did I say I was a daughter?" she asked lightly.

Fu Hengyi complained even more, "Wife, did you mean it on purpose?" If you think about it carefully, if Shen Qinglan had been misled many times, how could he firmly believe that she was a daughter?

Shen Qinglan slightly sullen his face, pretending to be angry, "Why, don't you want to be a son?"

Seeing that she was angry, Fu Hengyi couldn't help but complain, and immediately said, "Yes, my wife is born, I don't have time to love, how can I not give up."

Seeing him in a serious way, Shen Qinglan couldn't help laughing, his eyes rolled, and he said, "It's not impossible that you want a daughter, we can regenerate one."

Fu Hengyi's face changed, "Never mind, the son is the son, and the son is also very good. People want the son even less." Between having a second child and having no daughter, Fu Hengyi would rather choose the latter. Things will happen again, it will really kill his old life.

Shen Qinglan's eyes flashed with regret, and even her daughter couldn't change Fu Hengyi's idea. It seems that the matter of wanting to regenerate a child can only be said later. It will also take a few years. At that time, Fu Hengyi must have forgotten what is happening now, and then it will be easier to talk about it.

Han Yi and Yu Xiaoxuan knew that Shen Qinglan was awake and hurried over. Yu Xiaoxuan saw Shen Qinglan and hugged her immediately, "Qinglan, you scared me to death."

Shen Qinglan warmed her heart, gently patted her shoulder, and comforted softly, "Isn't it alright? You look at you, you want to be a mother, even crying nose, not afraid of Han Yi jokes."

Yu Xiaoxuan sucked his nose, "He dare, if he dare to laugh at me, I will not marry."

Han Yi and Yu Xiaoxuan originally wanted to register on May 20, but this matter was somehow known to Han Zhengshan. Han Zhengshan was very angry and resolutely opposed. He also went to Han Yi's company to make a big noise. Yu Xiaoxuan was filming a set of promotional advertisements. Han Zhengshan was scolded by pointing his nose in front of everyone, and Xiaoxuan almost got into the hospital.

Later, when Han Zhengshan knew that Yu Xiaoxuan was pregnant, he directly said that the child stayed and the mother did not.

At that time, Han Yi was in the Han Group and was not in Shengxuan. After knowing this, he immediately sent Han Zhengshan to the nursing home. His name is to let him enjoy his later life better and not be lonely.

Because of this incident, Han Yi has been on the hot search recently, and many people say he is not filial. The older generation thinks that he is fascinated by the woman, Yu Xiaoxuan she is a bad face, the younger generation, just think he is angry with the crown, dare to fight against the family for love, and succeed. By the way, he really admired his courage, and more women were amazed why the prodigal son turned into an infatuation when he turned his head, why was this lucky woman not herself.

But no matter what kind of time, Yu Xiaoxuan was highly criticized. Yu Xiaoxuan was recently hacked a little bit miserably. He naturally didn't have a good face to Han Yi, and he who agreed to obtain the license was unwilling. If it weren't for Shen Qinglan's difficulty in giving birth, it would be awkward to say that they were still in trouble.

Shen Qinglan has not been paying attention to entertainment news recently, and she hasn't watched Weibo for a long time. Where do you know these things, just think that Yu Xiaoxuan is a childish temper, after all, pregnant women, understandable ups and downs are understandable.

Shen Qinglan had just returned from Guimenguan, and Yu Xiaoxuan didn't want to tell her these terrible things, so she didn't mention anything, but just chatted with Shen Qinglan about homely.

In the Dean's Office, Fu Hengyi sat on the sofa with a sullen face, and Dean Chen sat on the other side. Both of them looked coldly at the pair of men and women on the opposite side, who were not Zhou Xiong and Pang Jia.

It was only at this moment that Zhou Xiong's face was full of depression, and Pang Jia on one side was wiping with his head down.

"Tell Mr. Fu what is going on." Dean Chen Sheng said.

Pang Jia did not speak, and Zhou Xiong said, "Mr. Fu, first of all we need to say sorry to you and your wife. Your wife's medicine was changed by us."

Fu Hengyi's eyes instantly became bloodthirsty, looking at these two people as if they were going to eat people, but forcibly suppressing his anger, "Continue to speak."

Zhou Xiong was scared instinctively by Fu Hengyi's momentum and continued, "We were also forced to do this. Someone kidnapped my parents and daughter and said that if we don't do it, we will kill them all. , My daughter is only four years old."

"Mr. Fu, we are really forced to help, please forgive us." Pang Jia knelt down and prayed.

Fu Hengyi looked at them with cold light in his eyes, "Your parents and daughters are innocent, will my wife be innocent? Haven't you thought that she is a parturient woman, and if you do this, you will want her and her children It's her life. This time it was her luck that made her escape. If it's bad luck, my wife and children will die!"

As long as Fu Hengyi thought of the scene at that time, he strangled the two people's minds alive.

"Mr. Fu, we know that we are wrong, but we really have no way. My husband and I have been monitored. Parents and children are in the hands of others. If we dare to call the police, we will tear the ticket immediately." Pang Jiamo With tears, it is not easy to cry and tell yourself.

Fu Hengyi was unmoved.

The husband and wife did not know that Fu Hengyi was not such a good talker, and expected it before coming. In fact, if you think about it, if someone harms his wife like this, they can't let the murderer go.

Zhou Xiong said in a deep voice, "Mr. Fu, I admit that we did something wrong, but this matter has nothing to do with my family, and I do not pray that you can forgive us. Later I will go to the police station to surrender myself and admit that it is me. If I do it by myself, I only ask you one thing, let go of my wife, my parents are old, and the children are small, if both my wife and I go in, how will the three of them survive? ."

Pang Jia cried more sadly when she heard her husband's words, but he did not object to it. The old parents and children in the family really needed care.

"Who instructed you to do it?" Fu Hengyi asked.

Zhou Xiong shook his head, bitter, "We don't know who it was either. My wife and I just returned home that day, and we didn't see our parents and children. I just thought that it was the parents who picked up the children and didn't come back, but I waited for a while and didn't wait for them. When a call came and said that my parents and children were in their hands, if we didn't follow what they said, let us go and collect them, and then we received a video, the person in the video is me 'S parents and children were kept in an unknown place with their hands and feet tied."

After a pause, Zhou Xiong glanced at his wife and continued to say, "Their request is to make your wife hard to give birth. It's best to kill two dead. If you can't do it, at least you have to take your child away, but I'm not Her doctor is also not responsible for this production. I can't find a chance at all. My wife is responsible for the preparation of this production. We will just..."

"Actually, my wife didn't agree to do this at the beginning, it was forced by me, and the medicine was also provided by me. In fact, my wife secretly reduced the dose of medicine." If not, this time Shen Qinglan was really It's just that there is less fierceness.

"So, I should also thank you for your mercy?" Fu Hengyi gritted his teeth.

"Mr. Fu, I don't mean that. I just want to say that it's all my fault. I am the mastermind. Please spare my wife. I will use the rest of my life to atone."

"Have you seen the kidnapped person?" Fu Hengyi asked coldly. He did not say yes or no to Zhou Xiong's request.

Zhou Xiong shook his head, "They always contact us by phone."

"Then how do you know you are being monitored?"

"Because every once in a while, we receive a video that is what we were doing at that time, and they also said that we are under their supervision and let us not do any small actions, otherwise parents and children will There will be danger." Zhou Xiong said painfully. In the past few days, he and his wife also suffered a lot. On the one hand, they worried about their parents and children, and on the other hand, they were condemned by their conscience.

"What about your parents and children?" Fu Hengyi asked.

"After your wife's production is over, they will be sent back." Zhou Xiong said, this group of people is still talking about credit, otherwise he will be crazy now.

Fu Hengyi's eyes were dark and he couldn't see his emotions. He looked at him fixedly, "Give me the number and video of those people contacting you."

Zhou Xiong nodded again and again.

When Fu Hengyi returned to the ward, the air pressure on his body was still very low. Shen Qinglan had just finished breastfeeding, and the child was sleeping sweetly in the small bed next to it.

Seeing Fu Hengyi, Shen Qinglan asked softly, "What happened?"

Fu Hengyi said nothing, hugged her in her arms, and buried her head in her hair. Shen Qinglan noticed that his emotions were not right and stopped talking and hugged him back.

Until Fu Hengyi's emotions calmed down, he told the story again.

After Shen Qinglan heard it, her expression was calm, and Fu Hengyi looked at her, "You have nothing to say?"

"Let his wife." Shen Qinglan said, after she became a mother, she could understand their approach. If it was her, maybe she would do it for the sake of children, but understanding does not mean forgiveness.

"Did the person behind find out?" Shen Qinglan asked. She could understand the couple and let Pang Jia go, but the person behind her, she was not so kind. She didn't mind people coming at her. But her family is her bottom line, especially the children.

Fu Hengyi's eyes narrowed, "Not yet, this group of people is doing things carefully, and the tail is very clean."

There was a cold light in Shen Qinglan's eyes, "No need to check, I know who it is." Fu Hengyi looked at her, and Shen Qinglan's mouth spit out two words, "Qin Yan."

"She likes to do things without leaving traces. Zhao Jiaqing's things are the same, and Yan Xi's things are the same. But there are not many people in this world who want Shen Qinglan to die, they can do things in the shortest time. There are few perfect people." Shen Qinglan analyzed her guess to Fu Hengyi.

After Fu Hengyi heard it, the bone joint made a crisp sound, making people have no doubt that if Qin Yan was in front of Fu Hengyi at this moment, he might have alive the woman. Shen Qinglan held his hand and gently tickled his mouth, "Since she gave us After giving a gift, we should also give her a gift, after all, it is not impolite to come."

"What do you want to do?" Fu Hengyi looked at her.

Shen Qinglan approached Fu Hengyi's ear and whispered his thoughts to him.

"What do you do with your plan?" Fu Hengyi asked her.

"You naturally take care of me and your children." Shen Qinglan said of course, Fu Hengyi was satisfied, "Well, I will definitely protect you and your children, and will never let you have an accident."

"I believe in you, but the most important thing for you now is to look after our son." Shen Qinglan bit the word "son".

Fu Hengyi uttered a calm tone, but Shen Qinglan heard a trace of disgust from his tone, knowing that he had not adjusted from the disappointment of his daughter becoming son, Shen Qinglan was also funny.

Shen Qinglan called Jin Enxi and informed her of her plan. Jin Enxi was excited, "Well, Ann, I'll go and talk to Sisley immediately."

When Shen Qinglan hung up the phone, she saw a sneaky man at the door. Her voice was slightly cold, and she spoke lightly, "Come in if you want to come in."

The person outside the door was discovered by Shen Qinglan, hesitated for a moment, but walked in. Shen Qinglan saw the person, the wave in the eyes was colder, "If you want to confess, you don't need to talk, I think you are also a mother, You should be able to understand the mood when a mother sees someone hurting her child."

Pang Jia's face was full of regrets, "Mrs. Fu, I know the most useless thing in this world is the three words of sorry, but I still have to say, I owe you a sorry, thank you for letting me go, if not at home With elderly parents and young children, I will definitely go to atonement with my husband."

"I received your apology, but I will not accept it, let alone forgive." Shen Qinglan said indifferently.

Pang Jiadi lowered his head, "I never dare to ask for your forgiveness, nor is it worthy of your forgiveness. I came here today, on the one hand, I want to say sorry to you, on the other hand, I want to tell you something, this In fact, there were two waves of people who found me, and the second wave did not even know my husband."

Shen Qinglan heard the words, and finally her eyes fell on her, "make it clear."

Pang Jia swallowed and instinctively feared Shen Qinglan, "This is what happened. Before this group of people kidnapped my child, someone found me and told me to let me drop your child. If I could do it When she arrives, she will give me five million."

"But I refused immediately." Pang Jia quickly explained to Shen Qinglan's cold eyes, "I really rejected her at the first time, and did not take her a penny."

"When did this happen and who was that person?"

"Just three days before your birth." That is the day before those people kidnapped her parents-in-law and children, so at first she thought that the other party would do so because she refused the other party's request.

But it was later discovered that it was not.

"That man is a woman, pretty young and beautiful, and she looks rich when she looks good. At that time, she gave me a one million check, but I confiscated it."

"Can you recognize her if I see you again?"

Pang Jia nodded, "Yes, I can definitely recognize it, Mrs. Fu, my husband and I must not hurt you. It is our selfishness. Telling you about this is a kind of atonement for you." And I know that you and Mr. Fu are actually good people. If that person fails to achieve his goal, he will definitely try to hurt your child again. You must pay attention to safety." Pang Jia said these words with sincerity, no Mixed with any deception.

Shen Qinglan put a picture of her cell phone in front of Pang Jia's eyes and asked, "Look, is this the person who gave you the check?"

Pang Jia looked closely, "Yes, yes, it's her."

Shen Qinglan smiled suddenly, but this smile made Pang Jia instinctively fight a cold war.

"Thank you for telling me all this. I hope that when the police come to investigate later, you will be able to say what you know."

"Mrs. Fu, rest assured, I will definitely tell the truth to the comrades of the police. I will be able to testify in court if necessary in the future." Pang Jia said.

Shen Qinglan nodded, Pang Jia left with a keen eye, and when no one was in the ward, she called Jin Enxi, "Enxi, where is Anne?"

Jin Enxi was negotiating with Sisley how to pay Qin Yan more. After being asked by Shen Qinglan for a while, "Ann, what Annie?"

"Annie, the woman pursuing Eden." Shen Qinglan reminded her.

"She, she is in my hands. I saw her sneaky in the hospital the day you gave birth, and brought her back, and I am still locked in an abandoned factory in the suburbs." Jin Enxi said indifferently .

"Have you done this thing cleanly?"

"It must be clean, Ann. Although I haven't taken the task for many years, I am also a person who came out of the base. If I can't handle this thing cleanly, then I am really in vain. Ann, is it this? What did the woman do?"

"Annie originally wanted to buy the nurse from the hospital to take the child away..."

Jin Enxi heard it called a gritted teeth, "I knew this woman must have been bad-hearted, see how I will clean her up later."

At the beginning of Anne's pursuit of Eden, Jin Enxi actually agreed. After all, Eden also had a companion, but after a long time, coupled with Eden's aversion to Annie, Jin Enxi did not feel her, otherwise Will not cooperate with Eden to play his girlfriend and refused Anne. At the wedding of Shen Junyu last time, Jin Enxi thoroughly understood Annie.

Knowing that Annie was in Jin Enxi's hands, Shen Qinglan had an idea and called the police directly.

With the cooperation of Pang Jia and Fu Hengyi's sitting, the police quickly identified Annie as the suspect.

When the police arrived at Liang's house, Liang Guangjian was doing business at home.

The babysitter opened the door and was shocked to see the police. "Who are you looking for?"

One of the policemen stepped forward and said, "We are looking for Liang Xinyue, is she at home?" Anne is Liang Xinyue's English name.

"Miss is not at home, do you have anything to do with her?" The babysitter was precautionary, and there were too many scammers this year. Many scammers pretended to be policemen.

The police saw the nanny's suspicion, took out the documents and handed her, "Liang Xinyue was suspected of being involved in a case of trafficking in infants and young children. We need to ask her to go back and cooperate with the investigation."

The babysitter's face changed slightly. This is not a trivial matter, nor is she a babysitter at her discretion. She invited the police in. "You wait here now. I'll go up and call Mr.."

When Liang Guang was built, he had listened to the nanny and said about Anne. He sat down opposite the police. "Mr. Police, I have understood the matter, but is there any misunderstanding in it? Our family is in such a condition, my daughter There is no need to do anything to kidnap children."

Liang Guangjian's first reaction was to misunderstand. After all, Annie had not lacked money since she was a child.

"Mr. Liang, we also hope that this is a misunderstanding, but there are nurses in the hospital who have proved that it is Liang Xinyue's attempt to use five million dollars to buy people and let people take Fu's children away."

The original inattentiveness on Liang Guangjian's face disappeared, and his expression became serious. "Mr. Police, who just said that my daughter wanted to take away the child?"

"The son of the head of Fucheng Fu Hengyi in Beijing."

Liang Guangjian's eyes flickered, "Mr. Policeman, you must have made a mistake. My daughter and Wen's daughter-in-law, Wen Xiyao of the Shen family, are close friends. She has no reason to do such a thing."

"We also hope that it was a misunderstanding, but the nurses in the hospital named Liang Xinyue, and that Mrs. Fu had appeared in the obstetrics and gynecology department on the day she gave birth.

Liang Guangjian's heart sank to the bottom of the valley, but he calmly pretended on the face, said with a smile, "I still believe that my daughter will not do such a thing."

"Mr. Liang, I am just doubting at the moment, and I am not sure. If I hope that Miss Liang can cooperate with our investigation this time, I also ask Miss Liang to go back with us."

"That's that, that's your job. We promise to cooperate, but for my daughter, I've been out and haven't returned home for several days. Comrade police, my daughter was spoiled by me since I was a child. I can't stay at home, so I often run outside. If I go, I might not go home for ten days and a half months, sometimes even a few years, and I don't know where she ran this time."

The police heard the words and looked at each other. One of them said, "Can Mr. Liang contact her?"

"Okay, I will call her now." Liang Guangjian's attitude is very good, take out her phone and call Annie, but there is a prompt to shut down the phone.

"Comrade police, you see, shut down, this girl doesn't know where she died, the phone is shut down."

"Mr. Liang, is Miss Liang really not at home?"

"Comrade police, we are all good citizens, and we will definitely cooperate with your work. If Annie is really at home, I will never hide her. I can't reach her now, so, later I will Call her again. If I get in touch, I personally take her to the police station to cooperate with your work. How about it?"

Everyone talked about this, what can the police do, the two stood up, "Since this is the case, then we will go first, and hope that Mr. Liang can contact Miss Liang as soon as possible. The Fu family has called the police. If this matter had nothing to do with Miss Liang, we would never injustice a good person."

"It must be." Liang Guangjian politely sent the two policemen away. As soon as the others left, his face sank immediately, and he called Annie again, but she still didn't get through, so she called her assistant. "Stop me." With all of Anne's economy, all the cards were stopped for me, and she was not allowed to give her a penny."

According to Liang Guangjian's estimate, if this was really done by Annie, now she must be hiding in that corner. As long as her economy is cut off, she will return soon.

Liang Guangjian was very angry. Annie, a dead girl, had just behaved a little lately, and turned her head to cause such a big disaster. The last time Junlan Group released the cooperation, he finally managed to level the accounts and re-introduced the funds. If things were done by Anne, then it would be the Shen family and the Fu family. How many lives did he have to toss?

I knew that Anne would kill the entire Liang family one day. When she was born, she should strangle her.

Liang Guangjian at the moment has forgotten long ago, and Anne was once the daughter he held in his hand, and he grew up being cared for by him.

On the other side, Jin Enxi ended the conversation with Shen Qinglan, and pulled Sisley away, "Go, let's go to see the thing that doesn't know life or death."

Sisley also heard the content of the call just now, and she was eager to try the upcoming event.

Digression

Cough, poor Master Xiao Fu, in the future growth process, Master Fu Xiao will deeply realize that he is rejected by his father, so he will rise up and start to snatch the life of Miss Shen with his father

394 Chapter

Jin Enxi didn't just throw Annie here, but left two men looking at Annie, at least they couldn't starve them to death.

Annie first thought that the two were kidnappers, but after two days, they did not move at all, and the fear in her heart was even greater, just when she was panicking and nearly collapsed, the closed door was opened by someone.

The sun was shining in, and there were two people standing at the door, facing the light, unable to see her face. Annie closed her eyes. The sudden light made her eyes uncomfortable.

"Yo, Miss, I'm not there for two days. You are very comfortable." Jin Enxi's voice of Dang Er Lang came from the direction of the door.

Annie opened her eyes at once, and finally saw her face clearly, and Annie's expression instantly became grim, "It's you!"

Jin Enxi nodded with a smile. "Well, it's me, surprised, not surprised?"

"What the hell do you want to do, you are kidnapping, you have to go to jail." Annie was a little hysterical, and these two days just made her feel crumbled more than the most terrible things in her life in the past two decades, She is really crazy.

Jin Enxi squatted down, "I'm in prison, I'm so scared." Exaggerated tone, there is no slight conviction at all, Annie looked at Sisley, "I know you, you are a supermodel Sisley, do you have to follow Did she break the law together? Even if you are a foreign national, if you break the law in our country, you will be subject to legal sanctions. You have become an international supermodel. Are you really going to go crazy with this crazy woman?"

Sisley touched her chin and seemed to be thinking. Anne's eyes shone brightly. She thought she had moved Sisli, but she heard Sisli say, "What should I do? I think it's quite easy for me to become an international supermodel. And that reputation doesn't seem so important to me.

Annie heard the words and almost spit out old blood. "You are all a raccoon. My dad won't let you go."

Sisley looked at Jin Enxi, "Look, there are people in the background, and there is a dad to support him, aren't you afraid that your dad will chase you down?"

Jin Enxi laughed and hugged herself exaggeratedly, "I'm so scared." The expression changed, holding Annie's chin and forcing her to look up, "Say, what are you trying to do in the hospital? Don't say yes Going to see Eden, I won't believe such gibberish. If you tell the truth, I can also consider being gentle with you. If you are not honest, I have a way to make you honest."

Her eyes were cold, and she couldn't see any human feeling at all. It was like a machine without emotion. Anne shook her head, but it was more painful. "I really went to see Eden."

"Oh, I really can't see the coffin without tears." Jin Enxi threw her on the ground, took her bag, took out the one million check from inside and shook it in front of her eyes, "Go and see Eden With a one million check? Why, plan to use money to smash Eden?"

There was a flurry of confusion in Annie's eyes, and she said daringly, "Can't it?"

"Then your shot is really stingy, we Eden is a top doctor, you send him a million dollars?"

Sisley stood aside and watched Jin Enxi playing more and more vigorously, shaking her head helplessly.

Annie quibble, "This is just the pocket money I gave him."

Jin Enxi threw the cheque on her face and grabbed her hair. "The old lady made a joke with you, you're really an idiot, okay, let's say, what do you want the nurse to take away Shen Qinglan's child?" "

"I... what kid, I don't know what you are talking about!" Anne frowned, pale, and did not know whether it was painful or scared.

Jin Enxi raised his hand with a slap. "I said so clearly. It's boring if you pretend that you don't know. If you think you can handle my means, you can continue to talk hard."

A little blood ran out of the corner of Annie's mouth, and the slap just now loosened her teeth.

"I don't know what you're talking about, although Eden doesn't like me, but I always have the right to like people, and I can't hurt anyone when I go to the hospital. It's you, and I'm doing it now, when I go back , I will definitely sue you for kidnapping and injury, and I won't believe that Shen Qinglan will save you."

"Well, I have a good idea. I support you." Jin Enxi nodded seriously. "But now the police are looking for you, a suspect who is guilty of absconding. If you and I go out at the same time, who will the police catch first?"

Annie's eyes were wide, and she looked at Jin Enxi in disbelief. "You bullshit, I didn't fling in fear of crime, you are framed."

"You are right, do you want to go back and clarify the facts early? Then tell me, what are you going to do to take away Shen Qinglan's child." There was a hint of temptation in Jin Enxi's voice.

"I didn't want to take her child away, you don't want to scorn me." Annie bitten and died.

Jin Enxi grinned cruelly and slapped his backhand again. There was no mercy in her hands, and Anne's face was swollen. "I don't want to be honest, let's do it. Let's have a fresh play. I heard you are Foreign countries are very open, there are a lot of boyfriends, would you mind two more? The two handsome guys outside are very strong, and their abilities are certainly not weak. You should like it. Would you like to try it?"

Annie's body was trembling lightly, staring at Jin Enxi violently, her eyes full of hate, "You are rape."

"Well, that seems to be the case, but what about it, here in the wilderness and wilderness, no one will come to rescue you even if you tear your throat. When the video is shot, will you dare to go out and say? If you dare to say, I dare to put the video on the Internet so that everyone can enjoy Miss Liang's style."

Annie lowered her head and did not speak, Sisley chuckled, "What are you talking to her nonsense, first filmed the video, and with that thing, she naturally said." The two men called in.

Annie looked terrified and shouted, "No, I said, I said."

Jin Enxi let go of her and stared at her coldly. "It wouldn't be finished if you obeyed like this. I had to be a little violent before I said it. It's really guilty. Say it."

Annie lowered her head. "I just wanted to teach Shen Qinglan, but I didn't want to treat her child. At most, I sent it to the orphanage." Seeing Jin Enxi raised her hand and wanted to fight again, she said busily, "What I said is true, but I am angry. The person Eden likes is obviously Shen Qinglan. She also pretended to be innocent and advised me not to waste time on Eden."

"And she is already married, she should keep a distance from Eden, but she, not only did not, also use Eden's feelings for her, let Eden treat her husband, is it not shameless?"

Annie said, probably talking about the excitement, and when Shen Qinglan was mentioned, her eyes were filled with resentment.

Jin Enxi and Sisley glanced at each other, but I didn't expect the reason to be this. I was fortunate in my heart. Fortunately, this woman did not like Eden. The eyes were probably bigger than her.

"Why did you choose to take the child away?" Jin Enxi asked coldly, not blaming her for being so conscientious. It was such a tactic that was very similar to Qin Yan's way back then. Who knows if there is a shadow of Qin Yan behind this person.

"For a mother to come to say that the most painful thing is the loss of children." Annie said.

"Bang." Sisley kicked her on the chest, coughing Annie repeatedly, and her eyes were scary and cold. After all, she had lost a child. Although she didn't talk about it, she was also in her heart. It is a pity for that child.

Jin Enxi understood her sadness, patted her shoulder, and Sisley shook her head, indicating that she was fine.

Perhaps it was an experience from a young age, and the few people hated the most were those who told their children, and the behavior of Anne and Qin Yan just touched the deepest taboo in their hearts.

Jin Enxi stood up and looked down at Annie lying on the ground, "Since you told the truth, then I won't hit you, after all, your skin is so thick, my hands are also very painful. Play with you fresh game."

Annie's body flinched, looking at Jin Enxi in horror. "What do you want to do?"

Jin Enxi grinned and matched her baby face. She looked cute in all aspects. "You'll know later."

Sisley patted her face, "Well, wait here for me, I will come back immediately."

"You've turned your backs, you said you would let me go as soon as I told the truth." Annie shouted, even with a vibrato in her voice.

Jin Enxi looked at her in surprise, "When did I say that?"

"You just..." Annie said subconsciously, and she paused as soon as she opened her mouth. Yes, they never said to let themselves go, they took it for granted.

It may be that they did not intend to let themselves go at all, and Anne was really scared. She was just a respectable lady, don't look at her arrogance, but she was actually a paper tiger.

"I know I'm wrong. I won't dare anymore. You can let me go. I promise, I won't bother Eden again, and I won't go to Shen Qinglan again." Annie cried Begging for mercy.

Jin Enxi looked at her in surprise, squatted down, raised her head, and looked at her Sisi running face, full of disdain, "Isn't it necessary to Eden, threatening to be true love to Eden is invincible, we have nothing yet Do it, you said you want to give up Eden? I really doubt if your feelings for Eden are true."

Feelings are naturally true, but this feeling is insignificant when it is not safe for her own, and Eden's friends are so terrifying. Who knows what he is like in private, she does not want to die, love is important, But the most important thing for a woman is to love herself.

"I don't love it anymore, do I not love it? I can't love it." Annie cried.

Jin Enxi pouted, and there was a touch of disgust in her eyes, rubbing her hands on her clothes, "I also

"Hey, are we too sorry for Xiang Yu?" Jin Enxi sighed.

Sisley gave her a white look, "You can go back."

"Then forget it, this is a femme fatale. I can't pity it. In fact, I want to finish her directly, so neat."

Sisley drove the car and said casually, "No trouble for An, I will let someone take the woman away after three days."

"Where to take it?"

"She knows that we did it. If you let her go back, it would only cause more trouble to An. In order not to cause unnecessary trouble to her, she could only invite the young lady to be a guest elsewhere. "

"Aren't we going to feed her for life?" Jin Enxi asked, a little unhappy in his tone. "Otherwise, let's throw her into the sea to feed the sharks."

"This matter will be postponed. After all, our focus is not her. The next good show should be Cairo." Sisley said.

Thinking of what to do next, Jin Enxi's face fell, "Qin Yan, the damn woman, must not let her die easily if it falls into my hands."

"What's mad now, when we catch the woman, we don't do what we want. I don't know if she will not hook you this time." This is Sisley's biggest worry. If Qin Yan doesn't hook, then They spent their efforts in vain.

"Her purpose was not achieved either. If I were her, I would definitely find an opportunity to start. Ann now lives in a hospital. The hospital is a place with many eyes, and the most easy to start. I bet she will come "Jin Enxi is quite sure about this matter.

"But don't forget, Qin Yan doesn't have any effort at all. Are you sure she will show up when she knows we already know?" Sisley was not sure.

"No matter, let's do this first. Even if she doesn't come, she will definitely not give up this opportunity. We can always catch a few fish." Jin Enxi said.

*****

In the hospital, Shen Qinglan looked at Master Fu's sweet sleeping posture, with a gentle expression. She was confined to her confinement and was sleeping most of the time. The baby's things didn't matter to her. Chu Yunrong and Fu Hengyi would do everything. Well, except that breastfeeding requires her to come in person.

Shen Qinglan's milk is not much, and it is reluctant to give the baby a drink alone, but everyone knows that breast milk is good for the baby, so Shen Qinglan still decided to breastfeed her children.

For the baby's rations, Shen Qinglan has been drinking milk and soup for the past few days. Before seeing these frowning Shen Qinglan, he has been drinking very actively these days.

No, she just finished a bowl of soup.

"Little guy, my mother is too big to sacrifice for you." Shen Qinglan reached out and touched the child's little hand, said softly.

When Fu Hengyi came in, he saw a picture of his wife talking to her son, even he and Eden didn't notice it.

He had just finished rehabilitation and was pushed by Eden. "Qing Lan." Fu Hengyi called out voluntarily.

Shen Qinglan glanced back at Fu Hengyi, nodded, "Come back." Then he turned to look at his son.

Fu Hengyi's eyes were deep and he looked at Shen Qinglan without speaking.

Eden sent the person and left, just looking at Fu Hengyi's grudge-like look. The look of his high-lifted mouth showed a sense of schadenfreude.

Perhaps it was Fu Hengyi's resentment that was too strong, and Shen Qinglan's gaze finally moved from the baby to Fu Ye. "What's wrong?"

Fu Hengyi looked away and pursed his lips, "It's okay." He couldn't always say that he was eating his son's vinegar.

Shen Qinglan looked at Fu Hengyi's expressionless face and suddenly realized what was happening, a smile appeared in his eyes, "Fu Hengyi, shouldn't you be jealous of your son?"

Fu Hengyi hummed, and glanced leisurely at the little guy lying beside Shen Qinglan, "Am I the one?"

Then if you say no, then it is not enough. Shen Qinglan did not justify this with him, and nodded in agreement, "Well, that may be I think too much, Fu Hengyi, the baby has been born for a few days, so I can't call it just because my baby didn't think about it, then Let's call it a nickname. What's your nickname?"

"Boys, just scream, just don't be too squeamish." Fu Hengyi said casually.

Shen Qinglan: ...A few days after the child was born, so arrogant?

"If you are not arrogant, there is always a name for it."

"Don't the older generation say that the cheap name is good to feed, I think it's called..." The last few words that Fu Hengyi wanted to export stopped when he looked at Shen Qinglan with a smile.

"What's it called?" Shen Qinglan asked "gently."

Fu Hengyi thought for a while, "Then call An An."

"An An sounds like a girl's name." Shen Qinglan frowned, and her English name was An. She originally wanted to be like Xuan Xuan or Mo Mo. At least it sounded like a boy.

"An An is good and safe, I just want your mother and son to be safe and happy." Fu Hengyi said seriously.

Shen Qinglan caught his eyes and moved his heart slightly, "Well, then call An'an." Anyway, it's a small name, his family called it, but it doesn't matter, and the meaning of An'an is also very good.

Only female sex or something was instantly forgotten by Miss Shen.

Years later, every time Master Fu heard the kindergarten teacher calling him his breast name, especially when he saw the eyes of other children laughing, he was very resentful to the father who named him.

Shen Qinglan confirmed the child's nickname, looked down at the baby, and took his little hand, "An An, welcome you, my baby." Her eyebrows were gentle, the sun shining in, and a layer of brilliance fell on her, Fu Hengyi Watching, unconsciously softened his eyebrows.

Fu Hengyi waited until her legs felt better, then stood up, walked to Shen Qinglan's side, looked at her and said, "Keep the child with me, you sleep first." Shen Qinglan last night to feed the child, After waking up several times, Fu Hengyi felt distressed, but he really couldn't help Shen Qinglan with breastfeeding.

He didn't think of drinking milk powder for the child at night, but this little guy, although he's small, has a lip in his mouth, since he gave him breast milk, he didn't touch the milk powder, even if you fed him, he also Can spit it out for you.

Shen Qinglan saw the child sleeping soundly, and after thinking about it, he asked, "Can you be alone?"

"Yes." Fu Hengyi replied, he is a big man, can't he get a child.

When Shen Qinglan saw him swearing, he went to sleep with confidence, and Fu Hengyi sat on the side, watching the mother and son have the same sleeping face, and watching the children in An'an's eyes full of tenderness.

He stretched out a finger, gently touched the little finger of An An's child, and then poked it on his face, who knew that An An's child woke up, opened his eyes, his dark eyes blinked, and Fu Hengyi's corner of the mouth Lightly.

Probably the surrounding environment was too quiet, which made An An little uncomfortable. I saw him pouting his mouth, just like he wanted to cry. Fu Hengyi saw him quickly and hugged him forward.

The posture is still unskilled, but it is much better than the beginning.

This was the third time in the past few days that he was holding the child. The child was still unfamiliar with his breath. He blinked and blinked, waved a small hand, and opened his mouth to cry. Fu Hengyi immediately stood up and took the child out of the ward.

"Heng Yi, what are you doing with the child in the hallway?" When Chu Yunrong came, he saw Fu Hengyi walking with the child in the hallway. I didn't know how long it had been.

Fu Hengyi smiled slightly, "Qing Lan was sleeping inside. This little guy woke up. I was worried about Qing Lan, so I hugged and walked."

The child lay in Fu Hengyi's arms, opened his eyes wide, put his small hands in his mouth, and looked comfortable.

Chu Yunrong was worried that Fu Hengyi's legs could not stand. He put the things away and hurriedly hugged the child. "Give me, you rest first."

Fu Hengyi nodded, bent slightly, his movements suddenly stopped, his expression stiff, "Hengyi, what's wrong?"

"Mom, he pulled." Fu Hengyi said, but the sound of his teeth clenched.

"Hi, it's not normal for a child to pull." Chu Yunrong didn't take it seriously. "And the children's stools are clean."

Fu Hengyi's body was very stiff, especially when he felt something wet and soft on his hand. Just now the baby was disturbed, and the diaper was distorted. The yellow cake made Fu Hengyi's hand.

Chu Yunrong took the child and saw something in Fu Hengyi's hand, and he laughed, "Okay, go wash your hands first, give it to me here."

Fu Hengyi glanced at an innocent baby and walked into the bathroom. When Fu Hengyi came out again, Chu Yunrong had changed the diaper and the dirty diaper was set aside.

Fu Hengyi saw it and was about to pick it up, but was stopped by Chu Yunrong, "Hengyi, you left me here, how can you a big man wash these things." It is Shen Qian, good enough for her, at first She did not wash the diapers once for the baby when she was confinement.

Fu Hengyi picked up the diaper. "Mom, I'm going to wash. You're tired from rushing to the hospital from home. Take a break first." Then he walked into the bathroom again, with a wooden face, and washed and hung the diaper.

The child An'an had fallen asleep in her grandmother's arms, unaware of the scourge he had broken into.

Shen Qinglan was awakened by Chu Yunrong because the child was about to breastfeed. Shen Qinglan slept just now and was a little confused after being awakened. He unconsciously lifted the clothes and fed the child without even noticing. Fu Hengyi is here.

Fu Hengyi looked at the snow-white skin that broke into his sight, especially the territory that belonged to him only now was occupied by another "man", especially with the small hand still on it.

"Mom, how long does it take for the baby to wean." Fu Hengyi asked Chu Yunrong.

Hearing Fu Hengyi's voice, Shen Qinglan realized that Fu Hengyi was here. When he saw him, he looked straight at him, his ears were reddish, and he pulled the quilt. At first, he looked at him. When would I wish to step forward and punch him.

Chu Yunrong gave a cry, and then said, "Breast milk is good for children. Naturally, it is better to eat a little longer, and now Qinglan's milk is enough. Junyu had eaten for ten months, and Qinglan was longer. Some, weaned after a year and a half."

"Always get up to feed the baby in the middle of the night, Qinglan is also tired, Mom, can't wean early?"

"Every mother came here in this way. Now the baby's life is not regular. After a few months of adjustment, it will not be so tired to adjust to the time of the adult." Chu Yunrong explained.

Shen Qinglan gave Fu Hengyi a hard stare in a corner where Chu Yunrong couldn't see. Don't think that such a grand sound would cover his careful thinking, this stingy man.

"However, it usually takes four to six months for babies to start eating complementary foods. If they really want to wean, then they can slowly cut off at that time." Chu Yunrong said slowly, and he was still very satisfied with Fu Hengyi's distress. .

If Chu Yunrong knew the real idea in Fu Hengyi's mind, he wouldn't think so.

Fu Hengyi heard the words and looked at the cheerful An'an children who were eating milk, looking thoughtful.

When Pei Yining came with Pei Hao's children, Shen Qinglan had just finished feeding and was planning to eat.

"Auntie." The little guy yelled softly. When he came, his mother said that the younger brother was still too young to speak loudly, which would scare the younger brother.

"Aunt, what about my brother?" The little guy couldn't wait, even Shen Qinglan, who was his favorite in the past, had to step aside.

Shen Qinglan pointed to the crib next to it, "Where is it."

For the first time, the little guy saw An An's little friend, and walked lightly to the crib to look at his brother. His face was novel, "Aunt, brother is so dark."

Child An'an's skin is not white yet, but it's actually much better than when he was born, but Child Pei Hao doesn't know.

Pei Yining laughed, "The babies just born are like this. You were black when you were a child. When you grow up, you will be beautiful."

The little guy frowned, "Mom, my brother and I are boys. Boys cannot be described as pretty."

"Xing Xing Xing, the young man grows up and looks handsome." Pei Yining corrected.

The little guy was curious about the baby and kept staring at him, "Auntie, when will he wake up?"

"He just fell asleep and didn't wake up so fast, would you like to come and eat some fruit first?" Shen Qinglan said softly. The most fruit in her ward is fruit, which was delivered when someone came. She couldn't finish it. The day before yesterday, she just sent some nurses to the nurse station. Today it is another pile.

The little guy shook his head, "I don't eat, I just stand here and watch the little brother, OK? I promise not to wake him up." The little guy's face is clever.

Shen Qinglan nodded with a smile, "If you are tired, you will find a place to sit."

Pei Yining glanced at the baby and turned back to Shen Qinglan, "The eyebrows look like you, but the nose and mouth are long and want to balance."

"Well." Shen Qinglan's expression was gentle. "Cousin, how did you come today?"

"I just came back from Linshi and came to see you."

"Your work in the city is over?"

"Yeah, I have applied to transfer back to Beijing. Hao Hao is too small. It is always not good to separate the two places. I carefully considered it and decided to come back, which is also convenient for taking care of my parents."

Some time ago, Chu Yunjin fell and hurt her waist. At this time, she has been resting at home. If she could not move because of low back pain, she would come to see Shen Qinglan herself.

"Is Aunt's injury better?" Shen Qinglan asked.

Pei Yining nodded, holding an apple in his hand, and was peeling Shen Qinglan, "It's much better, but she still can't get up, otherwise she will come over in person. Wait for me to take two pictures of her baby. , I've been thinking about it for several days."

"I have it in my cell phone." Shen Qinglan picked up her cell phone and opened the album, which was full of photos of the child. It was taken by Shen Qinglan himself these past few days. It was only three days since she woke up until now. The photos in the album It's almost two hundred.

In the morning, when Fu Hengyi saw it, he stared at Shen Qinglan with a taste, just because Shen Qinglan changed the wallpaper on the mobile phone desktop to An An children, and finally in order to appease a jealous big friend, Shen Qing Lan changed the wallpaper back. Group photo of the two.

"It's so cute," Pei Yining said in awe. "It's worthy of painting, and the photos taken here are better than others." She took out her mobile phone and picked a few photos to transfer to her mobile phone.

When I was a child, Pei Hao finally got tired of it and said to Shen Qinglan, "Aunt and brother can sleep well." After sleeping for so long, there was no trace of waking up.

"He is still small, sleeping long, and he can play with you when he grows as tall as you." Shen Qinglan said with a smile, seeing the little guy seemed sleepy, he said, "Hao Hao, if you are sleepy Just sleep for a while on the bed next to it."

"Qing Lan, otherwise I'll take him back first." Pei Yining said.

"No, mom, I'm here to wait for my brother to wake up. I don't want to go back." Pei Hao kid didn't do it.

"Aren't you sleepy?" Pei Yining looked at him.

"Then I can sleep here for a while, and wake me up when your brother wakes up." The little guy discussed with Pei Yining.

"Okay, I'll call you when my brother wakes up, and you won't be able to cry your nose at that time." Pei Yining said, the little guy sometimes gets very upset.

"Good." The little guy nodded cleverly, Pei Yining took him to the bed and continued to chat with Shen Qinglan about being a mother.

"This kid had been nagging to see his brother before. Last night I knew I was coming to see you. I was excited to not sleep at twelve in the evening. I woke up myself early this morning, and now I am starting to fall asleep." Pei Yining said with a smile.

Shen Qinglan also smiled and glanced gently at the little guy who had begun to sleep. It was because of the little guy that she realized that the child was not as terrible as she thought. The ones she encountered were all Special children, normal children are innocent and kind.

"The cousin will also work in the capital in the future. He usually takes Haohao to play at home when he is free. The two children are also lively with their companions."

"This is certain." Pei Yining is not polite to her, Shen Qinglan is her sister, and she is kind to her sister.

Fu Hengyi went to rehab after Pei Yining came. He didn't wake up until the lunch time, and he thought that the intensity of rehab increased.

"By the way, how are your family's legs now?" Pei Yining finally remembered Fu Hengyi.

"It's much better now. The doctor said that at the current rate, it will be better in a month, and it will take two months if he recovers."

"Will he go to the Beijing Military Region when he is ready?"

"Well, the Beijing Military Region has already been handed over, and he will wait for him to take up his post after he is injured."

"It's okay, otherwise your husband and wife will always get together and stay away from each other. It used to be the case, now with children, it's different." Pei Yining said.

The two were chatting about their daily routines, and An An's children woke up, probably realizing that no one was taking care of themselves, and immediately burst into tears and burst into tears.

Digression

Is this chapter sweet?

What do you think is the best punishment for Anne against her?

395 Catch the turtle in the urn, handsome shot

Pei Yining quickly stood up and hugged the child in his arms. "Good baby, don't cry, my mother is here." She handed the child to Shen Qinglan. "It seems to be urine."

Shen Qinglan checked, it really is.

"I'll come." Pei Yining said.

While changing the diaper for An An, Pei Hao woke up and looked at Pei Yining blankly, "Mom, I just heard my brother crying."

After seeing clearly what Pei Yining was doing, his eyes lit up and his family slid off the bed, "Mom, my brother woke up."

He waved a small hand and greeted An An, "Hello brother, this is Pei Hao, your brother."

An An spit bubbles and ignored the little guy's words.

The little guy looked at Shen Qinglan grievously, "Aunt, my brother ignored me."

Shen Qinglan reached out and rubbed his head, "It's okay, my aunt takes care of you."

The little guy's emotions came and went quickly, and he fixedly looked at the happy baby lying there and said, "Aunt, can I shake my brother's hand?"

Shen Qinglan nodded, the little guy carefully took the little hand of An An's child and smiled, "Aunt, brother's hand is so small."

A baby inadvertently took the little guy's hand and stuffed it in his mouth. The little guy quickly pulled his hand back. "Brother is not allowed, his hands are dirty and he cannot eat."

Shen Qinglan looked at the interaction of the two little guys with a smile, and certain thoughts in her heart were more firm.

Pei Yining waited until Fu Hengyi came back before leaving.

"Do you feel okay today?" Shen Qinglan asked Fu Hengyi.

"Not bad." Fu Hengyi said, glancing at a sleeping baby, and said disgustedly, "Why is he sleeping again, shouldn't anyone be stupid."

Shen Qinglan couldn't hold back and gave Fu Hengyi a big eye, Fu Hengyi touched his nose innocently.

"Fu Hengyi, how did you think about the things I told you that day?" Shen Qinglan said suddenly with a serious expression.

The expression on Fu Hengyi's face was also closed, and he asked, "If I disagree, will you give up?"

Shen Qinglan heard the words and was silent, then shook her head, "I don't want to give up."

Fu Hengyi smiled slightly, "so you can do it, I will protect you and your children."

Shen Qinglan reached out and took the initiative to hold Fu Hengyi's hand. If it was not inconvenient now, she really wanted to give him a kiss, "Fu Hengyi, I know you will support me."

Fu Hengyi smiled bitterly. Shen Qinglan's plan to lure Qin Yan with his bait actually disagreed. There are many ways to catch Qin Yan. He didn't want Shen Qinglan to take risks, but Shen Qinglan had made up his mind. It was not so easy to convince, and Eden and Andre also talked to him, and finally Fu Hengyi had to agree to this action.

Watching her by herself is better than letting her take part in these dangerous things without telling herself.

It is also after today that Fu Hengyi slowly refused to come to see Shen Qinglan. Basically, everyone except his family was rejected by him. If you want to seduce Qin Yan, you can't have too many people in the ward. You always have to give people a chance to start.

Fu Hengyi's life is still in the hospital every day, either in the ward with his wife and son, or in the rehabilitation room with Eden, except for the few friends who visited Shen Qinglan, the others seem to have no one on weekdays. Difference.

This situation lasted for three or four days, and Shen Qinglan should be discharged from the hospital in two days. Because of her loss, she will have a confinement. She will go to the confinement center after leaving the hospital tomorrow.

This confinement center was personally found by Fu Hengyi. Originally, the elders meant to go home to confine the confinement. After all, the family is comfortable, and the family care is always more careful than outsiders.

But Fu Hengyi insisted that he believed in professionalism. Others naturally agreed.

In country Y, Alan listened to the report from Lan Lan's housekeeper, and his face was green, "Qin Yan really is a scourge, where is she now?"

The butler lowered his head. "It is said that in Country R, someone saw Mrs. King in Country R."

"Go, immediately let people go to the R country to bring her back to me and throw them into the cage, and the people under her, destroy me."

The butler looked hesitantly, "Master, Honda of Country R and Mrs. Jin have a very good personal relationship. Now that she is on the site of Country R, we want to bring her back, I am afraid it will cost a lot."

"At any cost, remember that I want to live, just leave a breath." Allen's eyes were cold, he didn't want to let Qin Yan die so simply, the death method like Ni was too kind for her.

The butler tried to persuade him, but he knew Alan's character well, knew he was useless even if he said it, and turned around.

Allen

Under the conscious push of Shen Qinglan, the news that she will be discharged home tomorrow is like having wings. The whole hospital knows that Shen Qinglan wants this effect.

Qin Yan must be paying attention to her development at all times, then someone in this hospital will naturally send messages to her. Since it is the last chance tonight, she will choose to do it tonight.

An An's child has been taken back to the baby's room because of a physical examination.

Someone is secretly guarding the baby room, and the safety of the baby does not need to worry at all. Fu Hengyi was still sleeping in the ward tonight.

Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi slept in the middle of the night, and suddenly heard a sound of footsteps, both opened their eyes, the two looked at each other, and closed their eyes again.

There was a faint moonlight spilling out of the window, and the ward was not dark, and you could vaguely see the scene inside.

The door was opened quietly, and the other party was professional at first glance, and there was almost no movement. If Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi were alert, most people would not even notice that someone came in.

The coming person walked to Shen Qinglan's side, but she didn't do it for the first time. She looked at Shen Qinglan directly, with a deep hatred in her eyes. A Q appeared in her hand, slowly aiming at Shen Qinglan. Head.

Shen Qinglan suddenly opened her eyes, and the person was surprised. She pulled the trigger unconsciously, but she didn't wait for her movement. The arm was sore. She groaned, Q fell on the ground, turned around and wanted to go. The kick hit the abdomen, and the whole person directly bent over and fell to the ground.

The wind lamp of the ward was turned on, and the light illuminated the whole room. Fu Hengyi clasped the shoulders of the comer and brought her to the ground. Shen Qinglan got up, "Promise, I haven't seen you for a long time."

Although the person was wearing a nurse uniform, wearing a mask, and wrapped himself tightly, Shen Qinglan recognized her at a glance.

She reached out and took off the mask on Promise's face, frowning when she looked at her. It was really easier to subdue Promise this time. She had dealt with Promise and naturally understood Promise's skill. Like an ordinary person with no power.

Promise looked at Shen Qinglan coldly, without saying a word, she dared to come and was ready to go back, but it was a pity that her waste-like body could not cause any slight damage to Shen Qinglan.

The promise came to Beijing five days ago, and Shen Qinglan was awake when she arrived. She knew at the time that it was difficult to move Shen Qinglan now, but at this point, she was not willing to do anything.

She thought about working on Shen Qinglan's children, but she couldn't find a chance, and tomorrow Shen Qinglan will be discharged from the hospital again, and there are fewer opportunities. She will take the risk tonight, but God didn't care for her.

Shen Qinglan thought that Qin Yan might let others come, but did not expect that this person turned out to be a promise. After all, the promise was Alan's. She frowned and looked at the promise, "What about Qin Yan?"

Promise bowed her head in silence. From the beginning to the present, she hadn't said a word. Jin Enxi pushed the door in and saw that it was a promise, her eyes lit up, and a cruel arc in her mouth, "Oh, promise, I finally met, you are I don't know how much I miss you."

Promise didn't respond, and kept her head down. Jin Enxi had a syringe in her hand, just prepared for the coming person. She approached Promise and plunged the syringe directly into Promise's arm.

From beginning to end, Promise didn't even struggle. The three looked at each other and realized something was wrong.

Jin Enxi lifted the promised clothes, and didn't see her with a bomb tied to her, slightly relieved.

"Oh." Promise sneered. "I didn't expect you to be afraid of death."

Jin Enxi looked angry, but did not move. After all, this is a hospital, a public place.

Promise gradually felt the weakness of the body, knowing that it must have been the effect of the medicine just now, and too lazy to struggle, quietly waiting for the onset of the drug.

It didn't take long for Promise to fall asleep, and Fu Hengyi let her go, but everyone didn't see the smile that quickly disappeared in the corner of Promise's mouth.

Jin Enxi greeted Shen Qinglan and took the people away. They did not intend to give the promise to the police. The promise knew too many things. After they gave it to the police, who knew what she said to the police. Fu Hengyi also knew this, so he didn't ask them where they promised from start to finish.

Several people responded outside and quickly left the hospital.

Shen Qinglan was still frowning, and Fu Hengyi washed his hands out. When she saw her, she couldn't help but ask, "What are you thinking?"

"It seemed too easy to catch the promise this time." Shen Qinglan said.

"Her hands and feet were abandoned." Fu Hengyi said.

"what?"

"Her hands and feet seem to have been interrupted, and she has no strength at all." Fu Hengyi explained that he had just subdued and promised to spend no energy at all.

Shen Qinglan understood that it is no wonder that this time it was so easy to subdue her, "Qin Yan wants to let promises die?" Otherwise, what would you do to send a waste? It was only soon that Shen Qinglan knew that Qin Yan sent him not a waste, but a lunatic.

"Ah, there is a bomb!" The scream sounded in the dark night, penetrated the night sky, and passed into the ears of Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi.

As soon as Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi planned to go to bed, they heard the sound and looked at each other, realizing something was wrong, and immediately rolled over from the bed and hurried to the place where the sound originated.

The sound came from the public toilet on this floor. When Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi arrived, they saw a nurse standing at the door of the women's toilet. The expression was frightened. Shen Qinglan's eyes were slightly dark. The nurse grabbed it, "Don't go in, there is a bomb." The voice trembled, even the hands were shaking.

"It's okay." Shen Qinglan smiled slightly.

The nurse grabbed her and said, "I have called the police. Don't go in, it's dangerous."

At this moment, the whole building has been boiling. The scream just now, not only Shen Qinglan and others, but also others, when they heard that there was a bomb, no matter 3, 21, 21, they ran first. Say again.

The nurse dragged Shen Qinglan away, but Fu Hengyi went straight in. He recognized the position carefully and then determined the location of the bomb, which was on the back of the toilet tank in a toilet.

It's a miniature time bomb. The words on it show that there are still twenty minutes. If the nurse was not going to the toilet in the middle of the night, the toilet was too quiet. She heard the voice. I am afraid that many people will lose their lives tonight.

Fu Hengyi walked out and whispered something in Shen Qinglan's ear. Shen Qinglan's eyes were faint. The latest type of micro-bombs had great power. If they had less luck, everyone in this building would have to be buried. The tricky thing is that once this bomb is activated, it must either be dismantled or wait for it to explode. It cannot be easily moved at all, because once it is moved, it is very likely that the bomb will be detonated immediately.

Don't think about it and know who put the bomb. The promise is a lunatic. The tricky question now is, how many bombs were promised? If only this one is good, if there are more, as long as one of them is not After the investigation, the consequences are unbearable.

Both Fu Hengyi and Shen Qinglan realized the seriousness of the matter. Fu Hengyi looked at Shen Qinglan, "You take the children first."

"How about you?" Shen Qinglan asked, in fact, no need to ask, he knew what he wanted to do.

Fu Hengyi patted her hand and gave her a reassuring look, "Leave the child first, trust me."

Shen Qinglan looked at him calmly, "Fu Hengyi, my child and I are waiting for you."

Fu Hengyi smiled slightly, "Well."

Shen Qinglan turned around and walked away. As soon as she walked to the baby room, she met Sisley, who wasn't who An An's child was in her hand, "An."

"Promise to install a bomb in this building, you take the children to leave first." Shen Qinglan said.

Sisley's face changed, "How about you, Ann?"

"Fu Hengyi is here, and I'm going to help him too." Shen Qinglan said, she glanced at the child sleeping in Sisley's arms and smiled, "Sisli, hurry and go, rest assured, I won't let myself Something went wrong."

Sisley looked deeply at Shen Qinglan, "An, protect yourself."

Shen Qinglan nodded, saw them leave, and quickly turned back to the inpatient building. Fu Hengyi was organizing the evacuation. When she came back, her eyes changed slightly, "How come you come back? Child?"

"The child let Sisley take away, you come back to help you." Shen Qinglan said calmly.

"You don't need you here, hurry up." Fu Hengyi's face was sullen and his tone serious.

"Fu Hengyi, the most important thing now is to find out the location and number of bombs, time is running out." Shen Qinglan said.

Fu Hengyi also knows that this is not the time to discuss these, and Shen Qinglan is indeed able to help himself in this regard, nodding, "Okay, we will act separately, but you have to promise me, once the situation is wrong, you must first leave, do not Take care of me."

Shen Qinglan knew that if he didn't agree, he wouldn't be reassured, "Well, you have to pay attention to safety." She turned to leave, Fu Hengyi took her, took off her coat and draped over her, "Don't Get cold."

Shen Qinglan felt a little warm in his heart, wrapped his clothes tightly, and really left. The sound of a siren came downstairs. It should be the police.

Shen Qinglan quickly recognized the direction and walked towards the stairs. While walking, he called Jin Enxi. Jin Enxi heard a bomb in the hospital and shook his hand when he was scared.

"Ann, are you okay?"

"I'm fine. I won't talk about it now. You wake up the promise and ask her about the number and location of the bombs." Shen Qinglan said. Although she knew that the promise had been done, she would never say it out of ten, but she still did. I want to try it.

Jin Enxi hung up the phone, found a quiet and inconspicuous corner to park, took out a bottle of water and poured it on the promised head. The promise did not wake up. Jin Enxi was not surprised, looking at Eden, "Eden, wake her up. "

Eden opened the medicine box he carried with him, took out a reagent and injected it into the promised body. After a while, the promise opened his eyes.

Jin Enxi picked up her clothes and said coldly, "Say, the number and location of the bombs."

The promised head was still a little groggy. Hearing Jin Enxi's words, there was no response at first. When he understood what she said, he burst out laughing, "Ha ha , Really good."

Jin Enxi looked annoyed and slapped her face, "Say, where is the bomb?"

There was a trace of blood on the corner of the promise, but the smile was more and more happy, "Shen Qinglan is not very powerful, then go find it yourself, if you know that you can't find it, hehe, the whole building will explode and turn into ruins, those innocent People will die tragically because of this. What would happen if their family members knew that their loved ones died because of Shen Qinglan?"

The smile on Promise's face was even crazier, "Haha, it's a shame to think about the exciting picture, but it's a pity that I can't see it now." Her tone was full of regret.

Jin Enxi's hand was very itchy, but he suppressed the anger in his heart. "Say, what conditions will you be willing to tell the location and number of bombs." If it is not too short, it is too difficult to check, she really does not want to promise compromise.

"Um, it's very simple." Xu promised to laugh, "As long as Shen Qinglan is willing to take her that kind of dead to die, I will tell her."

Hearing the words, Jin Enxi's eyes crossed a killing intention, and his fist fell hard on Promise's abdomen. This time it was strong and the promised face was twisted. "If you have the ability, you will kill me."

"Promise, don't shame your face."

He promised to look at Jin Enxi without any fear, "You can kill me."

"Do you think I dare?" Jin Enxi narrowed his eyes.

Promise closed her eyes, and looked at Zun's appearance. Jin Enxi looked at her picture of a dead pig not afraid of boiling water. The anger in her heart surged up like a volcano about to erupt.

Eden held her hand and shook her head, promising someone like this, if she really didn't want to say, it would be very difficult to get information from her mouth in a short time, and what they lacked most now is time,

Eden called Shen Qinglan. Shen Qinglan heard nothing, said nothing, and hung up the phone. Since there was no breakthrough from the promise, he could only rely on himself. She forced herself to calm down and automatically blocked all the sounds around her. The plan of the hospital appeared in her mind, imagining that if she was promised, where would she put the bomb.

After thinking about it, Shen Qinglan turned to go in one direction. She went to a corner with lush vegetation. It was the northeast corner of the building. Shen Qinglan looked at that corner for a while, and thought about it, she walked in. Sure enough, There is also a time bomb inside, the time display is twelve minutes.

Not far away, there was a voice from the police organizing the evacuation of the masses, but this is the inpatient department of the Obstetrics and Gynecology Department. In this quiet early morning, everyone is sleeping peacefully. Even if you wake up, the evacuation is not so fast. Maybe the bomb exploded and the building was still Someone.

Shen Qinglan told Fu Hengyi where he was at the moment, and soon the police rushed over. Shen Qinglan pointed to the location of the bomb and said, "The bomb is there."

A policeman wearing a bulletproof suit came out and walked towards the position of the bomb. He was holding a tool in his hand and was obviously a bomb dismantling expert.

Shen Qinglan did not stay to watch, and hurried to the next possible place.

The next location is in the northwest corner. Shen Qinglan found several corners but couldn't find them. She frowned, it didn't make sense. Since a bomb was placed in the northeast corner, another one was placed in the northwest corner, which was the fastest to blow up the whole building. How can you not find pride?

Shen Qinglan raised her eyebrows, her eyes were full of doubts, her eyes suddenly flicked, looking at a flower pot placed in the corner, she slowly walked over, took a photo with the flashlight on her mobile phone, and it was found behind the flower pot Another bomb.

Telling the police to this position, the police quickly rushed over, but soon, the policeman's complexion changed, and the comrade responsible for bomb disposal said, "This bomb is different from the one just now. This is more difficult and I am not sure. "

Shen Qinglan had just planned to leave, looking at the bomb slayer, "How much is it?"

The bomb-dismantling policeman was embarrassed, "less than 30%." He had only heard of such bombs, and it was the first time tonight.

Shen Qinglan walked over and the police stopped her. "It's too dangerous. You can't pass."

Shen Qinglan blinked and said, "I will disassemble the bomb." Although she hasn't touched these things for many years, after all, she has been touching things since childhood, and the familiarity engraved in her bones makes her instinctively know what to do.

The police looked at her suspiciously. They knew that Mrs. Fu was from a military family. They might be more familiar with these things than ordinary people, but... "Mrs. Fu, this is not a joke, nor is it to let you practice, please leave here immediately. , We have contacted a better expert and will be here soon."

Shen Qinglan's eyes flickered, but she didn't expect that she was rejected by others. After thinking about it, she walked directly to the bomb regardless of the police's stop. She grabbed the tool in the police's hand, squatted down, and spoke lightly, "Turn the light on." Take a look here."

There was a carelessness on her face, even the tone of the speech was slow, as if she was not facing a bomb, but a common thing, but this is her, but she exudes a kind of superiors. The momentum makes people want to submit to her involuntarily.

A policeman shone the lights here, so that Shen Qinglan could see clearly.

When the bomb removal really started, Shen Qinglan's face was gradually inadvertently put away, and her expression became serious. I saw that she skillfully removed the shell of the bomb, revealing the colorful wires inside. The whole process took no more than thirty seconds. The crowd of policemen who were watching were dumbfounded.

Shen Qinglan took a closer look at the wires of different colors and picked up the scissors and stretched towards one of the wires.

"Mrs. Fu." A policeman stopped her and swallowed. "Our expert will be here soon. You should wait."

Shen Qinglan glanced at the talking policeman. His movements in his hand were not hesitated, and there was a breathing noise around him. In the stunned state of the police, Shen Qinglan had already cut two wires, and there were three remaining wires, as long as one was cut.

But among the remaining three, if the wrong one was cut, the bomb would explode immediately. The situation was very dangerous, and several policemen sweated on the foreheads.

"Mrs. Fu, let's let the experts come." The police spoke again. Two of them can be said to be lucky, but this Mrs. Fu is a layman after all. If you are not careful, everyone will be in danger. .

Shen Qinglan glanced at the policeman, her eyes were cold, and she looked down at the remaining three lines. There was a tangled flash in her eyes. In fact, the last one was not very grasped. After a closer study, the scissors in Shen Qinglan's hand stretched out Towards the black thread.

Several policemen were so nervous that they forgot to breathe, "click." A faint voice clearly passed into their ears, and one of the policemen even closed his eyes.

It was obviously a noisy environment, but at this moment, it fell into a weird silence. Shen Qinglan looked at the figure of the stop, his mouth lightly raised, stood up, and threw the scissors in his hand to one of the policemen, the man quickly caught it .

Several people looked at the back of Shen Qinglan's departure, obviously so slender figure, but at this moment inexplicably tall.

The policeman holding the scissors looked at the paused number-6 minutes and 57 seconds. He remembered that the starting number was 7 minutes and 37 seconds. That is to say, Shen Qinglan started and ended in less than a minute.

He looked at his companion, and asked blankly, "If you, can you do it?"

The person in question shook his head and gave him half an hour. He might be able to study the structure of the bomb and then dismantle it, but he couldn't do it in tens of seconds.

"This Mrs. Fu is very good." A policeman said softly. This was endorsed by several other policemen. They silently glanced at the direction of Shen Qinglan's departure, and there was no one to see.

Shen Qinglan wrapped his jacket tightly to ensure that he would not be blown by the cold wind at night, so he went back to Fu Hengyi.

She did not continue to look for bombs, because just now, Jin Enxi sent a message saying that there were two bombs in her mouth. She immediately understood that the three bombs were all there.

Promise that the two are to confuse them. Under the premise of knowing that the number is 2, people will not think of the third bomb after finding the two, and they will certainly relax their vigilance. If no one is found, then the major accident tonight will not escape. Promise thought well, but did not expect Shen Qinglan to find three bombs in advance.

When Shen Qinglan returned to the tenth floor of the inpatient department, Fu Hengyi was discussing with a bomb demolition expert about the removal of the last wire. The three bombs promised to be installed, one was more difficult to dismantle than the other, and the other one was more powerful than one. , Especially the one on the tenth floor, once detonated, it was enough to blow the whole building into two sections.

Fu Hengyi looked dignified, and when she saw Shen Qinglan came back, she glanced at her, and Shen Qinglan said, "Here is the last one."

Fu Hengyi immediately understood, nodded and continued to look at the bomb, and at this time, the time above showed only three minutes left.

Dean Chen happened to be operating in another building today. The operation was more complicated. He didn't walk out of the operating room until early in the morning. He just went back to the office and was going to sleep. He heard the riot outside and was thinking about what happened. I heard the siren sound.

His face changed, he hurried out and heard people everywhere in the corridor. People panicked and fled around. Dean Chen grabbed a doctor, "What happened?"

The doctor was caught by someone and just wanted to get angry. When he saw that he was his boss, he quickly said, "President, a bomb was found in the Obstetrics and Gynecology Building."

"Explode... bomb!" Dean Chen stayed in shock, unbelievable, and the doctor pulled Dean Chen, "Dean, hurry up, here is dangerous."

Dean Chen was dragged away, and he didn't react for a while. He didn't recover from the shock until he ran out of the building, and turned to run to the Obstetrics and Gynecology Building.

They are the obstetrics and gynecology hospital here, and there are the most talents in the inpatient department building of obstetrics and gynecology, and he did not forget that Shen Qinglan still lives in the inpatient department.

The elevator was already full of people. Dean Chen climbed the stairs directly. The stairs were full of people who panicked and fled. Dean Chen finally climbed to the tenth floor. He was already breathless and he was breathless. He had no time to rest, and ran to Shen Qinglan's ward. Just halfway through, he saw several policemen surrounded the toilet.

Dean Chen walked over, but was stopped by the police. "It's dangerous here, hurry down." The police sneered.

"I am the dean of this hospital, you let me in, I have an obligation to be responsible for my hospital and patients"

"It's also the dean who wants to go down." When the police wanted to drive him away, he still wanted to join in the fun.

Shen Qinglan heard the movement outside and walked out, saw President Chen, and said, "President Chen, there is a bomb here, it is dangerous, you go down and organize the evacuation of the masses first."

Dean Chen came here to hear her, and immediately said, "Mrs. Fu, you leave with me." It was difficult to explain to the Shen family because of Shen Qinglan's infertility, finally this great god He will be discharged tomorrow. Who knows that there was such an accident again at this juncture? Dean Chen wanted to wipe a bitter tears for himself. This time, dean of this deed was the end.

Fu Hengyi is here, and Shen Qinglan will not leave naturally, "Dr. Chen, I will stay here. You must leave here quickly."

"Mrs. Fu, it's too dangerous here. You must leave with me quickly." Dean Chen said, and inevitably raised a resentment against Shen Qinglan. Does the elder lady know when it is now? Join in the excitement here, can she do this excitement?

Shen Qinglan glanced at the police, and the police immediately understood that he forcibly took President Chen away, and Shen Qinglan turned around.

"Fu Shaoshuai, I think the red one should be cut." The bomb dismantling expert said that the bomb was the latest in the world, but after it was disassembled, it was discovered that it had been modified by someone, if it had not been touched. , Then he knows how to do it, now, he is not sure.

In just a few minutes, fine sweat broke out on the forehead of the bomb dismantling expert, especially when the time had jumped from 1 minute to 59 seconds, and the hand holding the scissors was tight.

Fu Hengyi is also a solemn face, he glanced at Shen Qinglan, "Qinglan, what do you think?"

Shen Qinglan's eyes fixed on the three threads tightly, and after a few seconds, he said, "cut the red and black threads at the same time."

"One should be enough, and cutting two will explode." The expert said subconsciously, but saw Fu Hengyi's mouth raised, "Ok, listen to you."

Experts persevered, looking at Fu Hengyi incredulously, "Fu Shaoshuai!"

"I believe in her." Fu Hengyi said, picking up the scissors and cutting it without hesitation.

"Drip--" After the sound of the drip, it stopped suddenly, and the number was fixed at 10 seconds.

The expert looked at the red number in a daze, until Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi had left, he reached out and wiped the sweat on his head, the cold wind blew, his back was cold, and he reached out and found himself. His back was already wet with sweat.

"You were not afraid of my mistakes at that time?" Shen Qinglan asked Fu Hengyi.

Fu Hengyi smiled, "I believe in you. And my judgment at that time was consistent with yours."

Shen Qinglan pursed her lips, "What if it's inconsistent?"

"Listen to you." Fu Hengyi said without hesitation.

"You are really not afraid of me making mistakes." Shen Qinglan said.

Fu Hengyi clenched her hand, "This is your instinct, I believe it."

Shen Qinglan smiled, "Well, Fu Hengyi, you are so lucky. I included this one of the best projects I learned at the time."

Fu Hengyi heard the words and suddenly felt distressed. As long as he thought of Shen Qinglan's past, his heart was like being pricked by a needle. Perhaps it was Shen Qinglan's indifferent tone that made him more distressed.

"Let's go, we should pick up our son." Shen Qinglan realized that Fu Hengyi's emotions were not right, and quickly changed the subject.

When I walked outside the inpatient department, the open space was already full of people, including police officers, patients, doctors and nurses, and even reporters.

Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi bypassed the crowd and walked outside. Sisley was waiting for them in the car. As soon as she approached, Shen Qinglan heard a cry of babies.

She quickened her pace and hurried over to open the door in the back seat. She saw Sisley holding the child in her arms, and the sweat was coming out, and the child An An was howling and flushed.

Digression

Is there any wood that thinks Lan Lan is handsome?

396 Chapter

Seeing Shen Qinglan, Sisley looked like a savior, and looked at her pitifully, "Ann, he always cries, it's useless to coax."

Shen Qinglan quickly took over the An'an children and gently coaxed in his arms, "Good boy, don't cry, my mother is back."

An'an child felt the familiar breath, his crying stopped gradually, and he clutched the clothes on Shen Qinglan's chest tightly.

Shen Qinglan looked at his son's crying cheeks, and felt very distressed, but with a gentle smile on his face, he reached out a little nose, "It's really a crying ghost, and it's only a little while after I leave, it becomes a little cat. Now."

The little guy also thought that his mother was playing with himself, and looked at her with a pair of wet eyes. Shen Qinglan's heart would be germinated by him, and he bowed his head and kissed him on the face. We are home."

When this happens, the hospital must not be able to stay anymore, nor can it go to the confinement center at midnight, so let's go home first. As for the things in the hospital, it's time to clean up.

"Huh, this kid really is closer to his mother. I just hugged him out, and he woke up, probably knowing that I was not his mother, and began to howl with a throat." Sisley began with a sigh of relief. Tell Shen Qinglan about the appearance of a baby.

And this little guy started to thunder and did not rain, and howled loudly, and there were no tears, but later, it was sad to see his mother not appearing for a long time, and it started to shed tears.

"Sisley, you have worked hard." Shen Qinglan said.

Sisley waved her hand. "Don't say this, I will send you back first." She went out and sat in the driver's seat, giving the back seat to a family of three.

Sisley didn't even ask about what happened in the hospital. She sent the family of three to the entrance of the compound and left.

The guard at the door was shocked to see Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi returning in the early morning, and hurriedly opened the door for the two.

Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi returned home and eased their footsteps to return to their room. An An had fallen asleep long ago, and did not know if she was tired of crying, even she didn't even eat milk.

Shen Qinglan was still in her confinement period, and Fu Hengyi would not let her take a bath. She twisted a hot towel and wiped her body. She took a shower and fell asleep.

Early the next morning, when the cry of An An's children sounded, Mr. Fu thought he had heard it, "Xiao Zhao, am I really old, I seem to hear the cry of An An in my house."

Aunt Zhao smiled, "Senior man, An An and Qing Lan are in the hospital, you heard it wrong." It was just after these words, An An's cry began to sound again. The two looked at each other and looked at Shen Qing Lan one after another. And Fu Hengyi's room.

Fu Hengyi got up first, picked up the child, checked it, and found that it wasn't urine, nor was it pulled, and he knew it must be hungry.

"Give me." Shen Qinglan reached out and Fu Hengyi handed the child to her.

The child An An got the ration and immediately stopped howling, eating her milk hard with her big eyes open. Compared with when he was born, An An's children were much whiter and fatter, and the fat on the face became more obvious.

Shen Qinglan was feeding her baby sideways, and Fu Hengyi stood beside the bed with a straight line of sight. Shen Qinglan noticed his sight and gave him a blank look. At the beginning, Fu Hengyi would be embarrassed to see her breastfeeding Shen Qinglan. Now she is calm.

"Heng Yi, Qing Lan, are you back?" The voice of Master Fu came from the door.

Shen Qinglan motioned Fu Hengyi to open the door. Fu Hengyi opened the door and went out to cover it again. "Grandpa, we are back."

"When did you come back? Didn't you go to the hospital to meet you today?" The old man frowned.

Fu Hengyi explained, "Something happened in the hospital and came back in the middle of the night."

"What happened? What happened?" Mr. Fu was anxious.

Fu Hengyi simply said the things in the hospital again, concealing that the bomb was promised to be released, and the promise was for Shen Qinglan.

"Fortunately, fortunately, you are all right." The old man said happily, his eyes glared, "You talk about you, you don't know to make a phone call to your family when such a big thing happened, I let the driver at home pick you up, What should I do if I encounter something again in the middle of the night?"

"What can there be, Grandpa, I'm a soldier anyway."

"Huh, it's half crippled." Mr. Fu was angry. If something happened, he was really dying.

"Grandpa, Qinglan is feeding the baby. You have such a loud voice. Be careful to startle the baby." Fu Hengyi said lightly.

"Where did I speak," the old man said angrily, but his voice was lightened a lot.

"Xiao Zhao, Qing Lan is back, and quickly prepare breakfast for Qing Lan, to be nutritious." Grandpa Fu is now too lazy to ignore his grandson and said to Aunt Zhao, "Don't be too greasy, Qing Lan's appetite is not good in the morning, Try to be as clear as possible."

"Okay, my dear, I will go right away. What would you like to have in the morning?"

Grandpa Fu waved his hand, "I don't care, just eat something. The important thing is Qinglan girl. She is now feeding her children. Nutrition must keep up. This time, the production has suffered again and must be well nurtured."

Aunt Zhao went into the kitchen without a word.

Mr. Fu said to another sister-in-law Liusao, "Xiao Liu, you have to clean An'an's room, especially An'an's small bed, clean it up, take out the sun while the sun is good today."

"Okay, old man."

"Is there anything else, let me think about it." Mr. Fu knocked on his head, "People are not useful when they are old, they can't remember anything at all."

Fu Hengyi reminded him, "Grandpa, you have to talk to Qinglan's parents and grandpa."

"Oh, yes, yes, I'm going to tell Old Man Shen, lest they run away in vain." Mr. Fu called.

Shen Family, Shen Junyu and Wen Xiyao slept in the old house last night, just to facilitate picking up Shen Qinglan early this morning, and were about to go out, they heard the phone ringing, Wen Xiyao answered the phone, and Shen Junyu picked up today Glanced at the newspaper, and when he saw the headline above reporting the thrilling scene of the hospital last night, his heart was jumping out.

Wen Xiyao stopped him after throwing away the newspaper, "Jun Yu, where are you going?"

Shen Junyu's expression was solemn, "An accident occurred in Lan Lan's hospital."

Wen Xiyao grabbed him, "You wait, Grandpa Fu called to say just now that Qinglan and Hengyi came back in the middle of last night."

Shen Junyu froze for a while, "Come back?"

Wen Xiyao nodded, "Well, it's now at Fu's house."

"What, Qinglan and Hengyi came back in the middle of the night?" Chu Yunrong heard the words as soon as he went downstairs, and hurried over to get a definite answer from Wen Xiyao. He went out without saying anything. Fu's home.

"Qing Lan, what happened, why did you come back by yourself?" Chu Yunrong spoke as soon as he stepped into the door of Fu's house. Fu Hengyi said, "Mom, Qing Lan is feeding the baby."

Chu Yunrong took a step, turned a corner, and sat down opposite Fu Hengyi, "Hengyi, what the hell is going on?"

Fu Hengyi handed today's newspaper to Chu Yunrong. He didn't plan to hide his family at all.

"How could this happen? It's terrible, are you okay with Qinglan?"

Fu Hengyi smiled, "It's okay, we're all okay, and the children are okay, but when this happens, the hospital can't live, so we'll come back first."

Chu Yunrong nodded, "I can't live anymore. Since Qing Lan is back, let's sit at the confinement at home. It's a big deal to invite Yuesao." She didn't want Shen Qinglan to leave her sight.

Fu Hengyi also planned this way, nodded in agreement, "This matter is to my mother's attention, I will go back to a good Yuesao home to take care of the children."

"Let me go, you are a big man, and your injuries are not good, just one of my friends knows the housekeeping company, let her introduce me to a reliable one."

Fu Hengyi did not object.

After Shen Qinglan finished feeding her baby, An An lay down beside her mother and played with her little hands for a while, and then fell asleep slowly. Shen Qinglan looked at him and said softly, "It's really a little pig. sleep."

A little pig was still sleeping soundly without water. Looking at him, Shen Qinglan was also sleepy. He didn't have a good rest last night and woke up early in the morning to feed her. So when Fu Hengyi came in, she saw Shen Qinglan He slept in bed with An An.

Looking at the mother and son on the bed, Fu Hengyi's eyes are very gentle, this is his world.

Chu Yunrong stood next to Fu Hengyi. When she saw that Shen Qinglan was fine, she was relieved, and she did not wake Shen Qinglan. She left directly. She still had to find Yuesao for Shen Qinglan.

Shen Qinglan slept until noon during this sleep. The child was not around when she woke up. She was shocked and immediately sat up from the bed. Then she realized that it was at home, and she gradually relaxed and began to change clothes.

"Qinglan, don't come out, go back quickly." Shen Qinglan just came out of the room, heard Chu Yunrong's voice, and was pushed into the room by someone, and pressed on the bed, "Who let you get out of bed, no Do you know you are still confinement? What should you do in case of confinement?"

In his ear was Chu Yunrong's stern screams. Shen Qinglan looked at Chu Yunrong's concerned and confused eyes, smiled slightly, stretched out her hand, and gently called, "Mom."

Chu Yunrong's other words suddenly couldn't go on. She reached out and nodded her head. "You, pay attention to this period of time, don't take it seriously, your body is so bad this time, if you don't take advantage of the confinement Recuperate when you are old, and you will suffer as you grow old."

"Mom, I know." Shen Qinglan's tone was a touch of coquettishness, soft tone. Hearing Chu Yunrong's heart tremble, he looked at Shen Qinglan in a daze for a while, but he was speechless. Come.

"Mom will bring you lunch in." Chu Yunrong hurriedly said and went out. She closed the door and leaned on the door panel. There was silky business in her eyes. Shen Qinglan even spoiled her today, just like when she was a child same.

When she was a child, Shen Qinglan did something wrong, she would hold her hand like today, and look at her with her big black eyes, her innocent face, softly and softly called her "mother".

Shen Qinglan chuckled, but there was a trace of apology in her eyes. She didn't understand it before. After she became a mother, she realized that every mother loves her children far more than herself, and her own mother does too. Even if you see through the darkness of the world, you shouldn't keep that alienation from your mother.

"Mom, what's the matter with you?" Fu Hengyi looked at Chu Yunrong's unusual appearance and spoke warmly. Chu Yunrong smiled. "It's okay, my mother is happy. I'll go to Qinglan for dinner. You should go for dinner first." "

"Mom, you help me get a copy, too. I will eat with her." Fu Hengyi said.

Despite the good nutrition, the confinement meal is really not good. It is bland and tasteless. Shen Qinglan was tired after eating for a few days. These days, Fu Hengyi ate with Shen Qinglan.

The kid was playing with the two old men, did not see his father and mother, the little guy was still having a good time, the two old men were sitting on the sofa, watching a baby eating small hands, looking happy, laughing The eyes are almost gone.

"Old Man Fu, look at An An, just like Lan Lan when he was a kid." Mr. Shen touched the gray beard and smiled lovingly.

Master Fu nodded subconsciously, suddenly his eyes glared, and said, "Nonsense, An An looks like he was most like Heng Yi when he was a kid. Look at the small mouth and the small nose, just like a carved one, I still There are photos."

"It's just like Lan Lan, you have a picture, I don't seem to be the same. Do you want to compare it." Mr. Shen was not happy to hear this.

Seeing that the two grandfathers were about to quarrel because of who the child looked like, Fu Hengyi spoke lightly, "My child and Qinglan naturally look like me and Qinglan, so the two grandfathers should not fight, and Now that he is still so young, can you see who he looks like?" He didn't see it anyway.

Child An An opened his eyes and looked at the two grandpas in front of him. He didn't know that he was the center of the discussion, spitting bubbles, pedaling his little feet, and immersing himself in his world.

Suddenly, An An's child frowned, his mouth flicked, and before he started to howl, Fu Hengyi picked him up and began to skillfully change his diaper.

An An's kid pulled, and this time Fu Ye's brows were not wrinkled, and he changed the dirty diaper calmly, went to the bathroom and took a warm towel, washed his little ass, and replaced him with a new diaper. An'an children are not uncomfortable and enjoy the services of their father.

"Heng Yi is now more and more like a father." Father Shen said with a smile.

Father Fu nodded in agreement, "No matter how old this man is, no matter how old he is, he has to become a father to be truly mature."

Fu Hengyi, the object being discussed, was calm in his face. After helping his son to sort it out, he put his son back, and An An's children became comfortable and continued to immerse themselves in their own world.

Fu Hengyi accompanied Shen Qinglan just for dinner, the doorbell of the Fu family rang, and the guests arrived.

Shen Qinglan was in the room and didn't know who was coming. Chu Yunrong walked in. "It's a person from the army who came to find Hengyi."

Shen Qinglan's eyes flickered, "Is there anything to say?"

Chu Yunrong shook his head, "This is not the case, they went directly to the study when they came."

When Shen Qinglan heard the words, she stopped asking.

"Qinglan, your mother invited you for a month, and there is a nutritionist who will come over tomorrow. These two are introduced by my mother's friends and have rich experience."

"Okay, thank you mom."

The mother and daughter were talking in the room, and Mr. Shen received a call. At first, he laughed happily and had a good conversation with the other party, but he didn't know what the other party said, and the smile on his face was replaced by anger, when he hung up the phone, his face was not very good-looking, and got up and walked into Shen Qinglan's room.

"Grandpa, what's wrong?" Shen Qinglan looked at Mr. Shen with a bad face, a little inexplicable.

Grandpa Shen looked at her, his eyes dark, and said to Chu Yunrong, "Yun Rong, you go out first."

Chu Yunrong was a little inexplicable, "Dad?"

"I have something to tell Lan Lan, you go out first."

Chu Yunrong looked at Old Man Shen like this. Where did he dare to go out, his expression was somewhat reluctant, Shen Qinglan's eyes flashed slightly, "Mom, you go out first."

Chu Yunrong looked at Mr. Shen and Shen Qinglan, and finally went out.

"Grandpa, do you want to tell me about last night?" Shen Qinglan first asked.

Grandpa Shen looked at his granddaughter's cold face and sighed deeply, "Liu Bureau just called me and told me about your heroic deeds last night." The voice of the "heroic deeds" that was deliberately bitten.

Shen Qinglan's heart jumped sharply, but he couldn't see the slightest on his face, "Grandpa wanted to ask me why I opened the bomb?"

Grandpa Shen shook his head, he wanted to ask before coming in, but when he saw Shen Qinglan, this kind of thought disappeared instantly, "Grandpa will not ask you about this matter, Grandpa wants to say that you should take care of it For yourself, did you think you were a maternal and still very weak when you did those things last night?"

Shen Qinglan's heart was slightly warm, and her mouth was light. "Grandpa, I did it with certainty. At that time, the situation was special. If you didn't hurry, many people would lose their lives." Not to mention that it happened because of her reason. She might not be kind to such a thing, but she couldn't do it and watched it happen under her eyelids.

"And grandpa, last night I wrapped myself tightly to ensure that I was not cold."

Grandpa Shen looked at her, after all, he just sighed and failed to say anything else, "Lan Lan, Grandpa just asks you to think about An'an and the family before doing such a thing in the future."

"Grandpa, I'm sorry." Shen Qinglan said apologetically. She used to live too casually. Many times she didn't need to think so much, she just did what she wanted, even after so long, some of them were carved in her bones. Something can easily affect her, but forget that now he is no longer a lonely family.

Old Master Shen said gently, "No need to say sorry to Grandpa, Grandpa just worried about you."

Shen Qinglan hesitated and said, "Grandpa, if you want to know, I will tell you."

Although it was a no-brainer, the old man understood it and smiled, "No need to tell grandpa." Before leaving, Grandpa Shen walked in the footsteps and said, "Lan Lan, if you have something, remember to tell grandpa, Even if the sky falls, Grandpa will help you with it."

After hearing this, Shen Qinglan suddenly didn't know what to say. His nose was sour, and he looked at the old man with gray hair but a straight back, and said in a mute voice, "Okay."

Grandpa Shen smiled comfortably and left.

When Fu Hengyi came in, he saw Shen Qinglan sitting blankly on the bed. His eyes seemed to be looking out the window, but there was no focus. "Qinglan."

Shen Qinglan looked back, "Come back. Are people gone?"

"Well, what was thinking just now?" Fu Hengyi put the crutches aside. He doesn't need a wheelchair anymore, but his legs will be uncomfortable after standing for a long time, and he needs the help of crutches.

Shen Qinglan shook his head, "No, in a daze, what are you looking for?"

Fu Hengyi told his future purpose, "They want me to report to the army in advance."

"You agreed?"

"No, I refused. By the way, I took another month's vacation." Fu Hengyi said.

Shen Qinglan heard this and looked at him curiously. "They will agree?" He hopes he will report in advance. How can he agree to continue his vacation.

Fu Hengyi smiled and said, "My leg injury is serious this time. It looks good and fast. In fact, it's not so fast inside. I'm older and I can't do it anymore." Shen Qinglan said he heard a black line. Looking at him speechlessly, the man's ability to speak nonsense with his eyes open is also absolute.

It took one and a half months for the top of his leg to fully recover, and it took half a year to add up and down. He pours it out. He just rests for another month, and it is estimated that the leader above will be mad at him.

Fu Hengyi, the leader who was angry above, did not know. He only knew that the most important thing for him now is his wife and son. His wife is still in confinement and his son is full moon. He will never leave anyway. When his holiday ended, it was just a hundred days of his son. How could he miss such an important day?

*****

It's been a week since the Liang family, but Anne's people haven't come back yet, and Liang Guangjian couldn't help but rush. Her daughter understands that she never carries cash on her body. She just swipes the card out, and now all the cards are stopped by him After a week, Annie didn't come back.

Liang Guangjian thought for a while and called the rich second-generation friends of Annie one by one. If these people lent Annie money, Annie would not return for half a year. It's just that everyone said that he hadn't seen Annie. Liang Guangjian thought they were a partner and hid Annie. Yan Ci said a few words, but they said that he had never seen Annie, and if he saw Annie, he called him immediately.

Liang Guangjian hung up the phone, still thinking about where Annie would be, and the babysitter came in. "Sir, the police are here again."

Liang Guangjian heard that, his face was so heavy that he smashed his mobile phone with rage. "Three days, I'm in a hurry.

"Sir, would I let them go first?" the nanny asked tentatively.

"No, I will go down now." Liang Guangjian said, it is useless to escape, and now he also needs the help of the police to find his daughter.

"Comrade police, you are just here. I can't contact my daughter now. Can you please help me find someone?" Liang Guangjian was worried.

It was still the two policemen from the last time. They were responsible for the case this time, but after a week passed, no one was found. The Fu family had made two calls.

"Mr. Liang, we can now be sure that Miss Liang's attempt to buy through the hospital's nurse took Mrs. Fu's children away. This matter has violated the law. I hope you can tell the truth and don't protect Miss Liang, otherwise Miss Liang's The crime will only increase," the policeman said seriously.

Liang Guangjian's eyes were full of bitterness, "Comrade police, it's not that I don't want to tell you, but I really don't know where Annie went, I called all her friends, they all said they hadn't seen her, I am now I was also very anxious, did you say she had an accident?"

The two policemen looked at Liang Guangjian and were skeptical of his statement. In their view, Liang Xinyue fled in fear of crime, and Liang Guangjian intended to hide the whereabouts of her daughter.

"Mr. Liang, voluntarily surrendered and brought back by the police, the degree is different." The police said meaningfully.

Liang Guangjian is now a dumb eater of Coptis chinensis, unable to tell the bitterness.

He couldn't find his daughter. He had awakened from his initial anger. He was sure in his heart that Anne would probably have happened, but the police thought he was intending to cover up.

"Comrade police, I have always been a good citizen who abides by the laws and regulations. I will definitely not cover such things. My daughter is really missing. I hope you can find her for me first. She really did it, and I will definitely let her surrender." Liang Guangjian said sincerely, at this moment, only his daughter's safety was left in his heart, after all, this was his only child.

The two policemen glanced at each other, and for a moment they couldn't tell whether Liang Guangjian was true or false, but it was certain that Liang Xinyue was not at home, because they monitored the Liang family all the time.

"Okay, Mr. Liang, since that's the case, let's go first. If there is news of Miss Liang, I hope you can inform us in time."

After sending the police away, Liang Guangjian continued to contact Annie, and the phone was still off. He called the assistant again and asked the assistant to check the final consumption record of Annie's card. After a while, the assistant's phone came in.

"Mr. Liang, Miss Liang's last consumption was recorded in a bar in Beijing. The time was eight in the morning."

Liang Guangjian heard that there was a gimmick in his heart. At that time, he hadn't broken her card, and she didn't even spend it afterwards. This was simply impossible for Annie.

"You go to the bar now and ask someone to ask, I'm worried that Annie has an accident." Liang Guangjian said.

"Okay, Mr. Liang, I will go now. I will contact you as soon as there is news." The assistant hung up the phone, and Liang Guangjian sat on the sofa thinking about all the places Annie might go to.

When Fu Hengyi received a call from the police station, he glanced at Shen Qinglan and said slowly, "Okay, I know, I still ask you to be more attentive to this matter." He said a few words and quickly hung up. .

Shen Qinglan looked at him and Fu Hengyi explained, "People in the police station called to say that Liang Xinyue has not been found."

Liang Xinyue?Who is this?Shen Qinglan was a little embarrassed. Later, Liang Xinyue was Annie, and she looked down, "Let them continue to look for it." All she wanted was to make the police think that Annie was guilty of absconding, thinking of this, she glanced at Fu Hengyi, "you don't want to Ask me what to order?"

"Yes." Fu Hengyi nodded. "What do you want to eat at noon, I will ask Aunt Zhao to make it for you."

Shen Qinglan looked at him silently. She didn't want to say this, this man!He followed his meaning and said, "As long as it is not soy bean stewed pig's feet." She had already drank three meals of soy bean stewed pig's feet and did not want to eat any more.

"Okay, Songsao brought three crucian carp in the morning. Will you make crucian tofu soup for you?"

"Also." Shen Qinglan nodded, Fu Hengyi went out, she sent a message to Jin Enxi, and then deleted.

Jin Enxi is now in an abandoned construction site on the outskirts. Recently, it is very lively. With the promise of joining, Jin Enxi and Sisley are very busy every day.

The promise has been tortured, and her hands and feet were originally interrupted by Allen. This time, Jin Enxi cut off her hamstrings and lay on the ground, just like a dead fish, even the pain on her body was nothing. feel.

Her expression was unremarkable, and she did not respond to the various punishments imposed on her. Since being locked in the dungeon by Allen and given by the men..., she became a walking dead. .

The punishment is to make the punished feel painful. This is called punishment, and the promises are unresponsive. Soon, Jin Enxi and Sisley lose interest.

"Promise, the old lady will not play with you today, will you show me something?" Jin Enxi said, and then threw a newspaper from a few days ago in front of the promise, it was the hospital that was in danger. Report.

The look that promised not to care finally changed after seeing the content, she snarled, "Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhh, why Shen Qinglan doesn't die!"

Her expression was fierce, like a monster that was going crazy, but Jin Enxi looked at it with relish. She knew that a newspaper would make her promise go crazy. She hadn't had that effort before. of.

She rolled her eyes, squatted down, looked at the promise with a smile, and spoke in a very good mood, "Oh, I forgot to tell you, the bombs were all cleared, she was not only safe and harmless, but also standing. If you're done, I really want to thank you a lot."

"Don't say it, you shut up for me." Promise shouted, who is Jin Enxi, where would she be so obedient, the more she refused to say it, she just said cheerfully.

"You don't know, Qinglan didn't even open a bomb for a minute. It was so handsome. If I were a man, I liked her too. Allen was justified in her death."

"I tell you to shut up!" promised a grumpy expression.

Jin Enxi was in a better mood, and took a stool to sit down. After all, squatting was quite tiring. "Actually, I understand that Alan likes Qinglan rather than you. Look at yourself. Qinglan, on the face, my family Qinglan dumped you a hundred streets, on the subject, it is even more needless to say, when my family Qinglan famous in the world, you still do not know where to play mud. So Ah, you can't just complain that Alan likes Qinglan. You have to examine yourself and face the fact that you are not as good as others."

Jin Enxi can be described as a bitter mother-in-law, but promises that her eyes can't wait to eat her raw. If she can't move her hands or feet, I'm afraid it's crawling. Promise will crawl and bite Jin Enxi.

When Eden walked in, Jin Enxi was constantly stimulating the promise. She seemed to have discovered a new way of torturing the promise. This discovery made her very excited.

"Hi, Eden, why are you here?" Jin Enxi smiled and smiled at the corners of her eyes, apparently torture promises to make her feel good.

Eden glanced at the already mad promise, ignoring Jin Enxi's words, took out a syringe from his body, and injected the liquid inside into the promised body.

"Eden, what did you inject her?" Jin Enxin was curious.

Eden looked at the promise coldly and said casually, "Some small samples."

Jin Enxi touched his chin, "What effect?"

"You will know when you look at it. I'll go out and call me when the medicine comes on." Eden said, Jin Enxi nodded, and her eyes didn't leave the promised body. She had a great effect on Eden's medicine. curious.

Promise's eyes traversed an imperceptible fear, but soon disappeared, she closed her eyes.

Soon, the promised expression gradually relaxed, and a painful moan came out of his mouth, "Mom, I hurt."

Jin Enxi raised his eyebrows and looked at Promise's eyes full of fun. Well, this drug's response is to reduce the body's tolerance for pain?

Promised tears were drawn in the corners of the eyes, "Mom, I hurt, it hurts, and the whole body hurts." She bowed her body into a ball, trembling gently, and slowly opened her eyes, looking at Jin Enxi, Start, "Mom, have you picked me up?"

Jin Enxi raised her eyebrows again, "I'm not your mother."

The promised tears flow even more fiercely, "Mom, I know I'm wrong, I won't make you angry anymore, don't hit me, OK, I promise to obey, obey everything, please don't throw it away I am afraid."

"Mom, the smell of blood is so bad. I don't like it. Will you pick me up?" she cried and said, her tears and her nose running.

Jin Enxi seemed to understand the role of this potion. After thinking for a while, he said warmly, "Good, don't be afraid, mom is here, mom will protect you, tell mom, what is mom's name, if you are right, mom will you go."

"...Qin...Qin Yan..." promised.

A cold light flashed in Jin Enxi's eyes. Qin Yan was no doubt the identity of Mrs. Jin. She looked at the promise and asked again, "Do you remember where is your home?"

The promise frowned, "A lot."

Jin Enxi sneered, this Qin Yan still seems to be a cunning rabbit, "Where is the nearest home, my mother is old and can't remember, will you lead your mother?"

"Good." Promise nodded cleverly, like an obedient child, the light in Jin Enxi's eyes grew stronger and stronger, "Where?"

The promised eyes are dim, "in..."

Grandpa Shen is cute and has wood?By the way, Xiaoxiang started to grab red envelopes on the 26th. Both the web version and the mobile version can be grabbed. When the time comes, Ali will send out red envelopes.

397 Give You A Gift

Jin Enxi's eyes brightened, "Where?"

Promise to report a place name, she frowned, this place seems to be R country, Qin Yan is now in R country?Reminiscent of the legend on the previous road, Mrs. Jin has a close relationship with the Yamaguchi group of R, and now it seems to be true.

"Mom, I'm in pain." Promise cried, and gently screamed in his mouth. Jin Enxi held out his hand and endured the goose bumps on the floor, touching the promised cheek gently. How many good friends do you have?"

Xu Nuo looked ignorant and reported a few names. Jin Enxi wrote down these names and then asked, "Nono is so good, are there any other people?"

Promise shook his head, "I don't know, mom, I hurt, I want to go home, this is terrible, I want to go home."

Jin Enxi asked a few more questions about Qin Yan, but promised not to know. Gradually, Jin Enxi also lost interest and stood up. "Now take a good night's sleep. Mom will take you away later."

Promise promised her face, closed her eyes, and her breathing gradually stabilized. Jin Enxi gave her a steady look, making sure she was really asleep. Then she went out and went to find Eden happily.

Eden heard Kim Eun-hee's description, and under his eyes there was a deep reflection, "The effect of this medicine seems pretty good."

Jin Enxi nodded, it was not only good, but it was so good, it was comparable to hypnosis. As a person with firm willpower like promises, in fact, hypnosis is a difficult thing to succeed, even if it is hypnotized, it is not deep. , And the effect of this medicine is simply deep hypnosis.

"However, does this promise have such a deep affection for Qin Yan? The mother has been called in her mouth." Jin Enxi said doubtfully.

"The person she called should not be Qin Yan, but her own biological mother. I remember the result of your investigation was that you promised to be an orphan?" Eden looked at her sideways.

Jin Enxi nodded. "Well, Qin Yan was adopted from an orphanage. I specifically investigated. Promised parents seem to have died because of an accident."

"That's it. One of the characteristics of this medicine is that it can cause a certain degree of confusion in people's memories."

"Is that promise still credible?"

"What she said must be true." Eden was sure about this.

Jin Enxi was relieved to hear this. She had just learned from Qin's mouth that Qin Yan's stronghold was in R. She wanted to see it.

"Eden, what kind of medicine is this?" Jin Enxi was curious about this.

"A new hallucinogen I researched, do you remember the plant extract you used to stay against Li Xitong? I left a little bit, these hallucinogens were made using that research, it and the market. When the last cold medicine dissolves in water, a new substance is produced. This new substance plus plant extracts is this hallucinogen."

It was a coincidence that he discovered after accidentally mixing the two substances in an experiment.

"Don't you say that kind of thing is very addictive?" At that time, she fed Li Xitong a little bit, and Li Xitong became a junkie.

"This is another magical place I found. The hallucinogen that these two drugs collide with can only make people have a strong hallucination, and a temporary mental disorder, and it will not be addictive." Yi Den explained.

"But this is just my theoretical speculation, and I am not sure, so to use the promise to test the drug, her physique is strong, if even she can be affected, then the effect of this drug is very satisfactory to me."

Jin Enxi's eyes were shiny, looking at Eden with a look of expectation, "Eden, do you still have this thing, give me a little more."

Eden shook his head. "At that time, the amount left was small, and the drug was difficult to synthesize. I only have two parts in my hand. I just used one." What is used for research will naturally not be given to Jin Enxi.

"If there is still that kind of plant extract, can you synthesize new ones?"

Eden immediately understood her thoughts and looked serious. "Enxi, throw away the thoughts in your head. The place is deep in the virgin forest. It is too dangerous and difficult to find. Last time it's also a coincidence that I'm going now, and I can't guarantee that I can find that place."

Jin Enxi pouted, "I went to the jungle last time with Daniel, who had no help, and this time I went by myself. If I was fully prepared, would I still be afraid of the savages?" .

"If you keep on walking alone, I'll tell Ann." Eden moved out of the killer tool, and Jin Enxi got used to it, and none of them could persuade her, except Shen Qinglan.

Jin Enxi stared, "Eden, you are not a gentleman like this."

Eden shrugged. "I have never been a gentleman."

Jin Enxi gritted his teeth and hated, "Huh, don't go, don't go, Ann is now confinement, you are not allowed to tell her something." She turned angrily and left.

Eden shook his head and smiled. This Jin Enxi, no matter how old, always had a little temper. And he just said casually that naturally he wouldn't really go to Shen Qinglan to say this Jin Enxi was not in a good mood, so naturally he would let out his breath and promised to have gone to sleep, so only Anne was left.

This week was a nightmare for Anne. Jin Enxi and Sisley applied honey to her and left. After a while, a lot of ants appeared on the ground, and some others Bugs, crawling on her with the smell of honey.

What was the pain of Wan Yan biting? She felt it deeply. At that time, she wished to die immediately, and finally if the two men came in, I am afraid that she would have been chewed by ants into a bone.

And now she is still alive, but for Anne, it is simply life and death. She has no good skin on her body. Except for her face, there are small and dense wounds all over her body. People with intensive phobia instantly fluff. It hurts so badly with a light touch. She wonders whether this will happen to her body in the future. If this is the case, then she would rather die than live like this.

The rope on her body has been undone, and Jin Enxi is not worried that she will run away. Let me not say that someone here is guarding her, even if she has no strength to run away now.

When Jin Enxi went in, Annie was curling her legs in the corner, her hair disheveled, and she looked like a lunatic. Jin Enxi looked at her disgustedly, "I haven't seen you for a few days, how did you make yourself like this, What did the older lady look like before?"

When Annie saw Jin Enxi, she shivered instinctively. This woman was a devil in her eyes, a more terrible existence than Shen Qinglan. She was afraid of Jin Enxi and dreaded from the bones.

She shrank, and quietly took Yu Guang to look at Jin Enxi, "Please, let me go, I will never dare again."

Jin Enxi looked at her coldly, "Do you see the words "good guy" written on my face, or the words "softhearted"? When you first wanted to deal with other children's children, why didn't you feel softhearted? "

Annie, "I... I was brain-sucking, and my brain was flooded. You have learned and learned now. I also know that I am wrong. Isn't that enough?"

"Hehe." Jin Enxi sneered. "If I'm sorry, it's the police, and if I let you go back, who knows what you will do afterwards." After all, Eden just turned her down and made her angry Shen Qinglan after all , Wanting to steal her child, this woman's heart is black.

Jin Enxi admits that she is not kind and can't get up, but she never starts to deal with children. Being a man should always have her own bottom line. If there is no bottom line at all, it is not called human, but called animal.

"I promise that I won't do anything after I go back, and I will never tell anyone what happened here. Please, let me go." Anne cried. After all these days of torture, she must be spirited. collapsed.

Although apart from honey, Jin Enxi and Sisley did not deal with her anymore, and let her stay here, but no one paid attention to it. A person faced an empty, deadly environment would only be more tormenting, more Moreover, she has to endure the pain and the disgusting wound.

Now as long as you can let her go back and let her do anything, as for the things after going back, that is to say something else.

Although the hatred in Annie's eyes was hidden deep, it was clearly captured by Jin Enxi. She smiled coldly, squatted down, and pinched Annie's chin. "You are a stupid woman. Why don't you remember to sort your emotions before speaking? , At least it seems to be more sincere. You are saying the words of begging for mercy in your mouth now, but you are thinking about breaking me to pieces. How dare you let me go back and bury yourself a time bomb?"

Annie's eyes were frightened, she felt the power in Jin Enxi's hands and shook her head, "I don't have it, I really don't."

"I'm still lying, your eyes have betrayed you, I tell you, I'm not in a good mood today, you look more angry now, I am the most annoying person who makes me angry, since you make me angry After that, I'm responsible for coaxing me happy. If you coax well, I will let you spend today peacefully. If you can't make me laugh, then, hehe..." Although the following words didn't go on, Anne understood him. the meaning of.

The woman didn't give her the right to choose. Anne lay on the ground, enduring and enduring, and finally closed her eyes and started barking, "Wang Wang, master, I'm wrong, Wang Wang, Wang Wangwang!"

Jin Enxi pouted, "You just do this?"

Annie's expression changed, looking at Jin Enxi's dissatisfied expression, she clenched her teeth and slammed her face against her face, and there was a slap in the face. She watched her face swell up quickly, knowing that she didn't keep her hand at all. Suddenly disappeared without a trace, "Well, this sound is much better than a dog barking, continue."

Where did Annie dare to stop, when Jin Enxi shouted to stop, her teeth were loosened by herself, and she had a swollen face, "Now...Can...Let me...go?"

Jin Enxi tilted Erlang's legs, the old god was there, "When did I say I would let you go?"

Annie stared, her eyes full of anger, but to Jin Enxi's cold eyes, the anger was suddenly replaced by fear, and she softened her tone, "Please!" Her heart was really regretful, if she knew that later These things, she will definitely not touch Shen Qinglan's children. But now it is too late to say that.

Jin Enxi was about to speak, and the text message on her mobile phone reminded her of the sound. She took out her mobile phone and glanced at Annie. Anne instinctively stepped back. Jin Enxi put down her mobile phone and showed her first smile today. "Good, tell me the bank card. What is the password."

Annie shook her head.

"If you don't say that I can check it myself, just wait for me to find out, your life will not be so comfortable." Jin Enxi said "gently".

Annie quickly reported a series of numbers, "My bank cards are all the same password."

Jin Enxi nodded in satisfaction, "This is good." She stood up and planned to leave. Anne gathered her courage to hug her leg and looked up at her, "I can give you all the money in my card, please let me Come on, I promise to be far away from you in the future, and I will detour when I see you."

Jin Enxi frowned, "If you don't want your hands anymore, just hold them."

Annie immediately let go, watching Jin Enxi leave, tears falling down, "Dad, save me, woo woo, dad, I'm scared."

Jin Enxi went back to find Annie's bag, took out a few cards from it and left. If nothing happened to Sisley over there, Annie had already been taken away.

However, Shen Qinglan had a very good idea here. Jin Enxi chuckled, went directly to the airport, bought a ticket to F, and started buying and buying in F.

**

"Mr. Liang, I have news of Miss Liang." The assistant knocked on the door of the Liang family gaspingly.

Upon hearing this, Liang Guangjian stood up immediately, "Where is Annie?"

"In... in country F, I just found the consumption record of Miss Liang's card. It seems to be shopping in country F." The assistant said, he just released the card for Annie yesterday, she started shopping today, just so far, She has already consumed no less than half a million.

Liang Guangjian heard that, his eyes lit up first, and then his face was green, looking at the assistant, "Where is Country F?"

"There are several famous shopping centers in several places."

"Now buy me a plane ticket to country F." Liang Guangjian said in a deep voice, he did not believe it, he went in person, and Anne dared not come back.

The assistant went to book the ticket, Liang Guangjian continued to call Annie, the phone was still off, his face was black and he could drip ink, this dead girl ran away after he got into trouble, leaving him a mess of mess, he went When shopping abroad, the courage is getting bigger and bigger, it seems that he is really spoiled by himself.

Liang Guangjian flew to country F but didn't find Annie. Let's not be disappointed. Let's not talk about it. The police got the news. Naturally, she thought that Annie was absconding from crime and fled abroad. She had already implemented an arrest plan for Annie, but was struggling to find it. To people.

Moreover, after Jin Enxi went shopping, he donated all the things he bought, and then patted his ass and walked away. He returned to Beijing and did not immediately go to the abandoned factory, but returned to her and Daniel's home. She has been busy with her own affairs for a long time, neglecting Daniel. She is also her boyfriend, and she still has to coax.

Fu family.

In the morning, Shen Qinglan was awakened by the cry of An An's child again. In the past, Fu Hengyi would send the child to her arms as soon as possible. This time, she didn't. Shen Qinglan opened her eyes and glanced at her side. , I couldn't take care of him, and got up quickly to hug the child.

In order to facilitate breastfeeding, the child was not sleeping in the children's room, but in their room. Shen Qinglan looked at a child who could not cry from tears in the crib. The smile was spoiled and helpless.

He leaned over to hug him and kissed him on the face. "You little guy, howl, suck, howl, and howl, you gave me a golden bean." He said that he was gently patting An An's back.

When An'an saw someone coming to hug herself, she immediately did not howl. An quietly nested in her mother's arms, her mouth closed. Shen Qinglan knew at first sight that he was hungry, hugged him and sat down to start breastfeeding .

Waiting for the little guy to eat and drink, but hesitant to leave his mother's arms, the child who used to fall asleep after a meal is abnormal today. Shen Qinglan originally wanted to put the child in the crib and let him play by himself, but as soon as she put it down, An An was going to howl, Shen Qing Lan couldn't, as long as she held An An leaning on the head of the bed and was sleepy.

She got up three times last night to breast-feed her baby, and today's spirit is a bit unlucky.

When Fu Hengyi came in, he saw Shen Qinglan's appearance and wanted to hug the child. An An frowned, as his hand just touched An An, and his small brow was tightly twisted into a twist, waving his little hand. Obviously unwilling.

"Forget it, I'll hug him." Shen Qinglan said. The child rarely sticks to her once. Speaking, An An is actually very easy to take. Except for finding her mother when breastfeeding, anyone can take it at any other time. .

"Where did you just go?" Shen Qinglan asked Fu Hengyi, Fu Hengyi smiled, "Go out and take a walk."

Shen Qinglan has no doubts. In addition to his rehabilitation time, he will go out for a walk every day.

"Do you want to have breakfast now?" Fu Hengyi asked.

Shen Qinglan shook her head. She didn't take a rest last night, and her appetite worsened this morning. Now she doesn't want to eat anything. Fu Hengyi doesn't force her. "Then wait and eat again."

In the end, An An was still young. After playing with her mother for a while, she fell asleep. Fu Hengyi saw him and placed him on the small bed. He moved gently, and tried not to wake him up. "The child is asleep. Seeing the tiredness between her eyebrows, Fu Hengyi said distressedly.

Shen Qinglan nodded and fell asleep when lying down. Fu Hengyi sat by the bed and looked at her quietly for a while, tucked her out and walked out.

When Shen Qinglan got up, An An was taken by Grandpa Fu to the living room to play. Aunt Zhao saw her up and brought her food in. Shen Qinglan did not see Fu Hengyi. Aunt Zhao saw her meaning. He said, "Heng Yi went out and said he would be back soon."

Shen Qinglan will naturally not ask again.

Fu Hengyi didn't come back until the afternoon, when Shen Qinglan was playing with An An. She held a small rattle in her hand and gently shook An An's attention. When she saw Fu Heng Yi coming in, her hand kept moving. "I'm back, have you eaten?"

Fu Hengyi nodded, "Not yet."

"Then hurry up and eat first." Shen Qinglan said.

Fu Hengyi smiled, "Not in a hurry." He took his hand behind him, and Shen Qinglan found out that he had a bunch of flowers in his hand, only nine roses, surrounded by stars, and Fu Hengyi handed the flowers to Shen Qing. Lan.

Shen Qinglan raised her eyebrows, "What day today, even send me flowers."

Fu Hengyi gave her a helpless glance, "I forgot my birthday?"

Shen Qinglan remembered it today. It was June 1st. It was her birthday. She patted her head. It seems that she was really stupid after giving birth to a child, and she can't even remember the days.

"Wife, happy birthday, congratulations on turning twenty-three years old." Fu Hengyi kissed Shen Qinglan's lips and said affectionately.

Shen Qinglan reached out to take over the flowers, "Thank you, my handsome young master." With a playful tone, Fu Hengyi's throat rolled with a different style, and looked away.

Child An An didn't know what her parents were doing. She opened her eyes and looked at her parents. Shen Qinglan looked down at her son's eyes and looked at her old face. What, she just forgot her son's existence.

Fu Hengyi put her flowers up, went out, and came in after a while, this time holding a small cake, about the size of his slap, but very delicate.

Above the cake is a small courtyard, a simple two-story building, with a large garden, which is planted with various flowers, and is competing to open. A child squats on the ground, holding a small shovel in his hand, A woman is planting flowers on a swing not far away. A woman sits on the swing and looks at the child tenderly, while behind the woman is a man who put her hand on the woman's shoulder and looks down at her.

"Is this made by yourself?" Shen Qinglan asked. Such a delicate fondant cake, especially the familiar face of the person on it, was clearly customized. Remembering that he often went out these past few days, it is more than half a day today. Not at home, just know what is going on.

"Birthday gift for you." Fu Hengyi said in a warm voice. Shen Qinglan didn't lack other things. He couldn't think of what to give. A few days ago, he accidentally saw a fondant cake that was very beautiful. She made an idea herself.

He has failed many times, and today this is the fifth he has done, and it took him a lot of time.

"Fu Hengyi, thank you." Shen Qinglan's eyes are bright, such a small fondant cake, it is more difficult to make it delicate, than the big cake, the man in front of him has spent a lot of effort.

"You just like it." Fu Hengyi said.

Shen Qinglan beckoned, let Fu Hengyi lean over, whispered a few words in his ear, but see Fu Hengyi's eyes suddenly became deep, fixedly looked at her, "Come on?"

Shen Qinglan's ears were reddish and nodded, "Well, seriously."

Fu Hengyi chuckled.

The couple was talking. Shen Junyu and Wen Xiyao were coming. Fu Hengyi went out to talk to Shen Junyu. Wen Xiyao walked in and saw the cake and flowers in the room. He couldn't help laughing. Romantic."

Shen Qinglan laughed and said nothing.

Wen Xiyao picked up the An'an children. "Well, it seems heavier. Our An'an baby has grown up."

The love in her eyes made no secret. Shen Qinglan saw that she liked the child and said, "I like it so quickly and give birth to my brother."

"No hurry, we still want to continue to enjoy the two-person world for a while."

Now that she and Shen Junyu are busy with their work, it is not suitable to have children for the time being. When she returned to China, she did not expect that she would get married so early. The contract signed with Xinhe International was three years. Now only half of the time has passed, according to her. The relationship with Dong Xinhe will not embarrass her even if they leave now, but Wen Xiyao is a credit-speaking person. He said that he would help Dong Xinhe leave for three years.

"By the way, did An An's name come up?" Wen Xiyao accompanied An An for a while and asked.

Shen Qinglan shook his head, "I haven't decided yet. Fu Hengyi and I mean that Da Ming let the two grandpas get up." And the two old men turned over the dictionary, and they are still tangled up. They are still small now, so don't worry.

"The two grandpas were a little tangled." Wen Xiyao said with a smile, and then took a small box out of his pocket. "This is my birthday gift from my brother and you."

Shen Qinglan took the box and opened it. It was a key, "House?"

"Well, this house was originally planned by your brother to give you when the child is full moon, but I think it is inappropriate, so I will give you a birthday gift in advance." Wen Xiyao said, thinking of Shen Junyu's idea, she still thinks now Silent, how can there be a child full moon, the reason why the family send the house, if you want to send it to the mother-in-law.

"My brother's romantic cells must have been spent on you." Shen Qinglan looked at the key to the house and said lightly that the car was the car two years ago and the house this year is really tacky.

Wen Xiyao stayed for a while, his expression slightly embarrassed, "You make fun of me, your brother is naturally inferior to the romance of your grandfather." There are flowers and fondant cakes.

Shen Qinglan nodded politely, "Well, my grandfather is indeed quite romantic."

Wen Xiyao gave her a glance, "It's getting thicker and thicker after being a mother."

Shen Qinglan smiled and said, "I call this to admit the facts." Who could think of Fu Hengyi, who looked at the indifferent and expensive, turned out to be a warm man in his bones.

Abandoned factory in the suburbs.

After promising to wake up, she shook her groggy head and didn't remember what she had said to Jin Enxi before. The only impression was that she kept asking herself questions. She seemed to have said a lot.

His eyes changed slightly, and he looked around for a while, but he didn't see the shadow of Jin Enxi or several others, and his expression was depressed.

Eden came in, glanced at the promise, and promised to say, "When are you going to kill me?"

Eden didn't speak, just crouched down, took a tube of blood from her, and then left. He also had to study the residue of the hallucinogen in the human body.

She promised that her eyes were empty, and she understood that these people did not let her die at all, but wanted her to live alive.

Jin Enxi didn't show up for several days. She was busy with Daniel these days. She didn't come until Daniel was on a business trip.

As soon as she arrived, she heard Annie's voice, as if calling Eden's name. She raised her eyebrows and walked over.

Annie didn't expect to see Eden here. She widened her eyes and stared at Eden, her eyes glowing with hope. "Eden, are you here to save me? I know you won't care about me of."

Eden looked at her coldly, "You think too much, I'll just give you dinner." He threw two buns in front of Annie, and Annie looked at him incredulously, "You already knew I was here?" "

Eden's silence is equivalent to default.

"So you know what they did to me?" Annie asked.

Eden remained silent. In fact, Sisley and Kim Eun Hee treated Anne very softly.

"How can you treat me like this? Is it because I like you that you can trample on my feelings for you at will?" Annie roared.

"I never made you like me." Eden finally said.

Annie laughed, but she burst into tears, "Yes, you never made me like you, I was guilty of myself, and refused to believe the fact that you do not like me, Eden, I want to know, if this time I really hold What will happen to Shen Qinglan's child?"

A flash of murderous intention flashed in Eden's eyes, and Annie immediately understood, "Eden, you are really a very cruel person, and you don't even want to tell a lie to me, I don't understand, that woman in the end It's good, it's worth doing so much for her behind you, you kidnapped me, it's illegal."

"So what?" Eden asked, did they do less than the law allowed?

"Haha, hahaha, Eden, you are willing to do these things for Shen Qinglan, but she, how did she treat you?" Anne looked desperate, she could comfort herself before seeing Eden. Eden wouldn't treat her like this in Jin Enxi's personal behavior, and now Eden stood alive in front of her and told her personally that he knew about the matter and was in favor of it.

Eden broke the only hope in her heart.

Eden looked at her coldly, "This is my willingness and has nothing to do with Shen Qinglan."

"Willing willingly, you are willing to give her, would I be wrong if I love you? I just love you, I admit that I am selfish, but I am also worthless to you, she just used your feelings for her like this, She is more selfish than me." Annie cried, she had long wanted to say these words, but Eden never gave her such a chance.

"In spite of this, but this cannot be the reason why you hurt her, especially if the target is still such a small child, Annie, love is selfish, but love is not cruel, nor is possession." Eden rarely said long.

Annie burst into tears, with what she is now, in fact, she looked very terrible.

"Selfish, cruel, this is my image in your mind, right? Eden, you are the most cruel, I hate you. The person I hate the most in this life is you, if time can go back, I would rather I have never met you in my life." Annie cried. If it were not for this man, she would not be so embarrassed now, nor would she be so inhuman, or even become a cruel person.

Annie suddenly thought that once, before meeting Eden, she was a wealthy man who was nostalgic for the flowers, although he was capricious and liked the game people, but at least it was called kindness, but now, what is wrong with herself? , Even because of love for a man, but want to start a child just a few days old.

Annie hugged her head, "No, this is not me, this is not, what's wrong with me? Ah!" She lay on the ground and slammed her head against the ground.

With a thumping sound, Eden looked at this kind of Annie, his eyes flickering, and it was too late to speak, Jin Enxi came in, looked at Annie, and spoke with all his heart, "Yo, I haven't seen you for a few days, Miss Liang is changing the routine. Alright?"

Annie suddenly looked at Jin Enxi in fear, lowered her head, and quieted down.

"Don't stop, you won't howl as soon as I come. This is hypocritical. You should continue to howl. If I feel soft, I will let you go." Jin Enxi said with a smile, her eyes were cold, this woman may be really a showman, what bridge section is handy.

Annie was silent and silent, although she wanted to say that she was not acting just now, but was showing her true feelings, but thinking about it all knew that this woman would never believe it.

Jin Enxi squatted down and said leisurely, "Do you know why I've gone these days? I went to do charity for you. It's not easy for me to atone for you. I flew abroad to buy for you. Buying, donating, donating donated, I really broke my legs, but I have to say that you, a wealthy man, are a little bit unsuccessful. If you said that you gave it when your father charged the phone bill, I only brushed over 700,000. The card was stopped."

Annie suddenly looked up and looked at Jin Enxi, "What do you want to do?"

"Well, you asked wrong, not what I want to do, but you, Miss Liang, ran abroad after doing the wrong thing. Not only did you have no remorse, but you were still shopping outside. What do you want to do?"

Annie opened her eyes suddenly, and now she understood the purpose of Jin Enxi taking away her bank card and password.

"Your heart is so cruel!" Annie hated.

"Not as good as you." Jin Enxi took a smile with a smile.

"So you intend to keep me here, and make me bear the charge of trying to traffic in infants and young children, making people think that I am guilty of absconding, so that everyone will not doubt you, is it?" Anne is rarely smart. Once.

Jin Enxi snapped her fingers, "Congratulations, you got it right, but there is no reward." This woman is too annoying. She doesn't want her to come back to the Liang family to make waves.

"Enxi, let her go." Eden suddenly said.

Jin Enxi looked at him and took out his ears. "What did you say just now? I said it again. I didn't get it."

"En Xi, I know you heard it clearly. Now let her go. I have a way to make her not think about it." Eden said.

"Let her leave, after I agreed?" There was a hoarse voice outside the door.

Digression

Well, Fu's attributes are warm men, and the identification is completed.

I thought of working overtime tomorrow, so desperate in an instant, tomorrow is Christmas Eve, ange

398 Chapter Promised Death

"Let her leave, after I agreed?" There was a hoarse voice outside the door.

Hearing this familiar voice, Jin Enxi and Eden's hearts sank sharply, and turned to look at the person who appeared at the door. His pupils shrank, and Jin Enxi immediately took a defensive posture.

Allen's figure appeared in the eyes of the two. He glanced up and down at Jin Enxi and Eden, and nodded in satisfaction. His eyes stayed on Annie's body, the satisfaction of his eyes was more intense.

"Well, it's okay. It's good that I haven't forgotten what I taught for so many years. Keep it up."

Eden's body is tight, protecting Jin Enxi behind him, Jin Enxi glanced at him silently, brother, do you know that your skill is the weakest of us, really doing it, maybe we Who protects who?

"Allen, what do you want to do here?" Eden said coldly.

Allen sneered, "I don't know how to say hello to my instructor, but I dare to call it by his name. Am I teaching you this way? It's getting more and more irregular."

Eden looked at him definitely, specifically the people around him. Since they could come here, it means that the people they had arranged outside had been resolved, but they didn't know whether they were dead or dizzy." We are no longer your students, and you are not our instructors."

Allen nodded. "Well, it's really stiff wings. Even the words are so stiff. Very good, very good. It proves that my efforts are not in vain."

Jin Enxi looked at Alan cautiously, "Alan, tell your purpose."

Alan glanced coldly at Jin Enxi. "I'm not looking for you today." He looked at Annie on the ground. "She is Annie?"

Anne was stared at Allen's cold eyes, lowering her head instinctively, her body shrank back, and the man's breath was terrible.

"Take away." Allen said to the person behind him.

Two people came behind him and walked over to pull Annie up from the ground. Anne struggled, but where can you stand against such two people who are obviously a family practitioner.

"Eden, Eden saved me." Annie exclaimed in horror. She didn't want to be taken away by this man. She intuitively told her that it would be better to stay here if she was taken away.

Jin Enxi and Eden watched with cold eyes and did not stop. Although they did not know what Allen wanted to do to take her away, the current situation is that the two of them wanted to stop and were powerless. They had no weapons on them, but Allen took Those who came, bulging around their waists, knew at a glance what that was. Two fists are invincible, not to mention their bare hands against the guns of others.

"The two of you are waste. For so long, even a woman can't figure it out. I really thought I didn't dare to take you back to retraining?" Allen was satisfied with seeing the two, and it was still satisfactory, but it happened before. The anger in my heart suddenly rose again.

A little guilty flashed in Jin Enxi's eyes, and he lowered his head, but he quickly reacted. He was showing timidity in front of Allen. He immediately raised his head and looked up at him, "You have already taken away, You can leave now."

At this time, another person walked in outside the door, followed by two burly men, and the promise was carried by them like a dead dog, without any response."

Jin Enxi and Eden's eyes changed slightly, and Allen looked at the two of them and said coldly, "I took it away, if Xiao Qi asked, you can directly say, if I let you know that you two are so wasteful next time, It looks like you don't have to stay by her side."

"No, Eden saves me, I don't want to go with them, Eden, save me." Annie shouted.

Allen glanced over, but the butler stepped forward and raised her hand to dizzy her.

"Allen." Jin Enxi called on Allen, and told Allen about the promises of Mrs. Jin's strongholds in R and a few friends with excellent relations, which attracted the butler's cold look.

Jin Enxi was not afraid at all. She just used Allen by Guo Guoguo, but how about that, speaking of it, Allen and Mrs. Jin's relationship is also very good.

"Oh, careful thoughts have moved on me, even this time, if there is another time..." Allen said coldly.

Jin Enxi looked down slightly, not looking at the pervert.

"Eden, we just let him take people away?" Jin Enxi spoke softly until Allen left.

"Otherwise you go to grab people back?" Eden asked back.

Jin Enxi shook, forget it, for these two people to fight against Allen, it was not worth it, but there was a hint of worry in his eyes, "He should take the people away, shouldn't he cause trouble to An?"

"No," Eden said affirmatively. Strictly speaking, it was a good thing for Shen Qinglan to be taken away by Allen, and it would save Shen Qinglan a lot of trouble. After all, they appeared beside Shen Qinglan. However, especially Eden, who is now Fu Hengyi's attending doctor, is really troublesome if someone links Anne's disappearance with them.

Thinking of this, Eden even suspected that Allen came over to take the person away, is it because of this?

"Eden, sometimes I don't understand Allen." Jin Enxi said quietly. "It was such a terrible person. When he fell from such a high cliff, he couldn't kill him. It was me. I must kill those who betrayed me."

But in fact, although they have encountered the killing of Allen's people many times before, but each time they escaped thrillingly, and it is clear that Allen has the ability to kill them. Is Allen really affectionate to Shen Qinglan? The point of loving the house and Wuwu?

Jin Enxi secretly guessed.

"Let's go and see what happened to those people." Eden said lightly.

Jin Enxi nodded. These people were borrowed by Eden from Ryan, who was the confidant of Ryan.

Simply Allen is kind, these people are just stunned, and their lives are not in danger. Eden and Jin Enxi wake up the people one by one, and leave when they go back. There is no need to stay here. Too.

After hearing Jin Enxi's words in the capital, Shen Qinglan was silent for a moment, and said lightly, "Since he took the people away, then don't care."

"Ann, I learned Qin Yan's stronghold in the R country from the promised mouth. I want to see it." Jin Enxi said his plan.

"No." Shen Qinglan opposed, "En Xi, you can't go." This is too dangerous. Country R should be regarded as Qin Yan's old camp, otherwise she won't go there now. I don't know anything. Who knows whether the promise is true or false, in case it is a trap that Qin Yan specifically set up, so if you go rashly, you just don't take your life seriously.

"Ann, I will pay attention to safety and will not act impulsively. I just want to investigate the specific situation of Qin Yan. This woman is always making waves behind her, and leaving her for another day is a hidden danger." Jin Enxi said in a deep voice, her tone There is a hint of worry in it. If Qin Yan is an ordinary person, then they don't have to be so nervous, but the forces behind Qin Yan are not something they can cope with. As long as the few promised, if the relationship is really good, then A big trouble. That's why she said those words to Allen today.

If Allen can deal with Qin Yan, then their pressure will be much less.

"En Xi, I don't agree with this matter. The person Qin Yan wants to deal with is me. As long as I stay in Beijing, she will come to me sooner or later. Instead of taking risks, it's better to stay on the sidelines." Shen Qinglan said seriously.

Jin Enxi was silent for a while, and then said, "Well, I know, Ann, I will always pay attention to Qin Yan's movements and will not act without authorization."

After hearing this, Shen Qinglan felt relieved. After a few words with Jin Enxi, she hung up the phone and looked at her son who was sleeping soundly, thinking deeply. Always waiting passively is not the best policy after all. You should find a way to lead Qin Yan out. The enemies on the bright side are stronger than the enemies in the dark.

When Fu Hengyi came in, he saw Shen Qinglan twisting his brow and tangled, and asked with concern, "What's wrong? What are you thinking?"

Shen Qinglan did not intend to conceal Fu Hengyi, some things, it is better to prepare ahead of time than it is coming.

Fu Hengyi listened to the story. "After I return to the military area, you can apply for a military service. Although it may be harder for you to bring your baby, but you are not with me. I always feel relieved." According to Fu Hengyi's estimate, Qin Yan Now that they have been dormant for more than 20 years, they certainly won't care about waiting for a few more months. Now that they have prepared for this, it will be much more difficult to start.

Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi thought about going together, which is one of the reasons why she prevented Jin Enxi from actively investigating Qin Yan. As long as there is no movement here, Qin Yan is not so easy to find a chance to start.

The Jingcheng Military Region is indeed the safest place at the moment. Qin Yan's hand is no longer long, and she cannot reach the Jingcheng Military Region.

"Okay, then the baby happened to be a hundred days old." Shen Qinglan nodded and agreed with Fu Hengyi's suggestion. The husband and wife did not discuss with the elders at home. The elders who wanted to come to the house would also agree. After all, the children, still It is better to live with parents. Moreover, the Beijing Military Region is not far from home, and it is convenient to go back and forth.

"It's just that I will be more busy when the time comes. The family still depends on you. The family is not around. You have to work hard with your children." Fu Hengyi also felt sorry when he said this.

Shen Qinglan doesn't think so. In fact, for this family, Fu Hengyi's sacrifice is the biggest. He could have continued to return to the Sabre Force as his captain. When the leader retired, the person who went up must be him, and He gave up this opportunity for her and chose to return here. Despite the previous fighting skills, Fu Hengyi's starting point is higher than the average person, but the same, the promotion here is also slower than the front.

"This is our common home, not hard work." Shen Qinglan said warmly.

Fu Hengyi embraced her, and the atmosphere between the couple was just right. An An's child woke up, and his eyes were still open, and he began to howl. Fu Hengyi looked at Shen Qinglan's red lips, who were sighing, and sighed deeply. Get up and serve the little one.

At first, Shen Qinglan was worried that Fu Hengyi would take care of An An, but after seeing Fu Heng Yi once changed diapers for An An, he was completely relieved.

Fu Hengyi replaced the dirty diaper and went into the bathroom. He used to wash the diaper easily. Many diapers in the house are useless, but they are useless because An An will have red dots on the diapers, but they give up after two trials.

If it's troublesome, please troublesome. Fortunately, there are enough people at home, even if An'an changes 50 diapers a day.

Fu Hengyi came out after washing the diaper, and An An had already played with her mother. He held a finger of Shen Qinglan in his hand and always wanted to put it in his mouth. Every time he was about to reach his mouth, he was caught by Shen Qinglan. With a light pull, I pulled away a few times. The An'an child wanted to cry and looked at her mother with her big eyes. It seemed that she didn't understand that she was very good and gentle to herself.

"Little greedy cat, can't eat anything, will diarrhea, you know?" Shen Qinglan poked his son's fat and dull face, and smiled softly. Child An An looked at his fingers with his eyes, still trying to stuff his hand into his mouth.

Fu Hengyi looked at her quietly. Shen Qinglan who stayed with her children was always very gentle and could not see the slightest coldness in the past. In this way, she gave Fu Hengyi a completely different feeling, but it also made him Heartbeat.

Thinking this way, Fu Hengyi's gaze changed when she saw Shen Qinglan. Counting them, since she was pregnant and injured her leg, they had not been intimate for several months. Every day, the beautiful woman was pregnant and could not do anything. Pain and happy torture.

Fu Hengyi held his finger in his heart. Well, it's almost two and a half months away from three months. After that, it's okay. He has consulted a doctor and can be in the same room three months after delivery.

Shen Qinglan knew from the beginning that Fu Hengyi was looking at her, but her eyes were getting hotter and hotter, and she couldn't help looking up at him. The meaning of Fu Hengyi's eyes was clear and unabashed, and Shen Qinglan quietly red her ears, She gave Fu Hengyi a blank look and said, "Fu Hengyi, I'm hungry."

Fu Hengyi smiled at her and said, "Okay, I'll do it for you." He said, his eyes stayed on a certain part of her body intentionally or unintentionally for a while, his mouth lightly raised, and went out.

"An An, your father is too bad, isn't it?" Shen Qinglan grabbed his son's small hand and said softly.

An An's child blinked with big eyes, and continued his great career.

Han Family, Han Zhengshan looked at Han Yi who had come downstairs. When he ignored him, he went out and finally said, "Han Yi, I have something to tell you."

Han Yi stepped in and turned to look at him, "what do you want to say?"

Han Zhengshan pointed to the sofa opposite him, "You sit down first."

Han Yi thought about it, and was very curious about what Han Zhengshan wanted to say. Before he sent Han Zhengshan to the nursing home, he didn't go to see him except for the monthly payment. A few days ago, the nursing home gave He called and said that Han Zhengshan was sick and missed his family. It is best to go home for a few days to rest. Han Yi did not want to ignore it, but Yu Xiaoxuan persuaded him to agree.

"Do you want to invest this time, or do you want to do it?" Han Yi came straight to the point.

Han Zhengshan sighed helplessly, "Han Yi, is your father like this in your eyes? Is he asking for money?"

Han Yi raised his eyebrows and gave him a "Don't he?"

An embarrassment flashed in Han Zhengshan's eyes, this son never gave him a step down, "Han Yi, Dad knows that there is a deep misunderstanding between us, because of your mother's affairs, you have a deep grudge against me."

"You don't deserve to mention my mother to me. If you want to confess to me, then you don't have to. People are dead anyway, and it doesn't matter." Han Yi interrupted Han Zhengshan. "If you have anything, just say it directly." , Don't turn around."

Han Zhengshan's face was green, and he said, "I..."

"If you want to confess, don't be in front of me, then go underground and find the person you are sorry to confess in person." Han Yi said coldly, peach blossom eyes filled with coldness.

"If you have nothing else, I'll go first. After all, I'm not like you. There are thousands of people in the company, and I'm waiting for my salary to eat." Han Yi stood up.

Han Zhengshan quickly stopped him, "Okay, we won't talk about your mother's business anymore. I have something else to do with you today." He picked up a brown paper bag on hand and handed it to Han Yi. "This is what I picked out recently. All the ladies in the capital of Beijing are beautiful and have a good family background. Let's take a look at which father you like to arrange for you."

Han Yi's eyes grew colder, and his eyes were full of anger, but they soon disappeared. He looked at Han Zhengshan with a smile. "It seems that you have really been busy recently, are you pretending to be sick?"

Han Zhengshan's face stiffened, "Han Yi, I'm doing it for you. Our Han family is famous for generations, it is your mother, that is also a family, and your wife should also be a person who can support your face, not one. Opera, I know that Yu Xiaoxuan is very popular now because of your support, but no matter how high, she is also an opera, and there is no comparison with serious ladies and ladies."

Han Zhengshan ignored Han Yi's increasingly cold eyes, and continued, "You like her now, it doesn't matter, you can leave her by your side. Dad won't say a word, and you want to keep the baby in her stomach. No problem, after all, this is a very common situation. It is mainly not publicly available at the moment. When you marry your wife in the future, it will be enough to bring the child back after a few years."

"Hehe." Han Yi finally couldn't help but smile. He looked at Han Zhengshan with dark eyes. "I'm very doubtful now, are you the Han family, aren't you grandpas coming back from outside?" he How could such a smart and wise man have such a son, and how could he have such a father.

Selfishness, arrogance, hypocrisy, and apparently no skill, but just show the appearance of being the best in the world.

Han Zhengshan was smirked by Han Yi for a while, white for a while, and black for a while.

"Han Yi, I'm telling the truth."

Han Yi no longer smiled, but his face completely sank. "I told you the truth, this is the last time. Yu Xiaoxuan is the master of the Han family. No one can change this, and Yu Xiaoxuan and I will not become an illegitimate child. Whether Yu Xiaoxuan is a drama or an ordinary person, I have determined her in this life. You admit it or not, it doesn't matter."

Han Zhengshan was so angry that his chest fluctuated violently, but he didn't dare to force Han Yi to force his anger down again as he used to, and eased his expression. "Han Yi, you only like this person. You will say that, but later you will regret it. You are so familiar with the Shen family. You should know Shen Junze. Think about how good Shen Shen was at the time. In the end, she gave up her parents and fiancée for a bartender. What did you get in return? His son Shen Junze is a waste."

"It seems that during this time you didn't spare much effort, the Shen family's things are so clear, but it is really hard work. But I can tell you very clearly that I am not Shen Ran, Yu Xiaoxuan is not Lu Yaqin, I will not abandon the Han family for her, because everything in the Han family is mine."

"Han Yi, if you don't listen to the old man's words, you will really regret it in the future." Han Zhengshan is bitter, but it is a pity that Han Yi doesn't buy it at all.

"You don't have to worry about these, even if my child and Yu Xiaoxuan are really a waste in the future, I can support him for a lifetime." Han Yi said, "The environment here is not as good as a nursing home, where it is more suitable for you to recuperate, I will send someone to send you back."

"Han Yi!" Han Zhengshan shouted behind him, but Han Yi kept walking and left the Han's old house directly. He drove to his and Yu Xiaoxuan's house.

When he arrived home, Yu Xiaoxuan was lying on the sofa watching TV. He didn't know what to watch. With a smile on his back, Han Yi glanced at the TV, which seemed to be a cartoon.

"Han Yi, you are back." Yu Xiaoxuan yelled with a smile and continued to watch the cartoons on the bricks. "Haha, it's so funny."

Han Yi's angry mood disappeared at the moment when he saw Yu Xiaoxuan's smile. He smiled slightly and sat next to Yu Xiaoxuan, holding her in his arms, "What are you looking at so funny?"

"'Cat and Mouse' is really funny, and my stomach hurts when I laugh."

"Is this film very old?" Han Yi frowned. Although he hadn't seen it, he had heard it.

"Well, it's very old. I've seen it since I was a kid, but the old one is classic." Yu Xiaoxuan took a packet of potato chips and stuffed one in his mouth. Don't forget to put one in Han Yi, too. "Does this potato chip taste good?"

Han Yi chewed and nodded, "Well, it tastes good, but you really do not worry about your weight soaring?" Who yelled before that he was fat and lost weight.

Yu Xiaoxuan patted his stomach gently, "I can't help it anymore. Your son wants to eat. I can't be hungry for your son, right?" She said, of course, she was right.

Han Yi smiled, bowed her head and kissed her face heavily, "Well, he can't be hungry son."

Yu Xiaoxuan raised his hand and wiped the face he had just been kissed, and his face was disgusted.

"Oh, you just ate something. You kissed me without gargle, and it was dead."

"The little girl's courage has grown so dare to dislike me!" Han Yi pretended to be angry, and said, while looking down, facing Yu Xiaoxuan's face was a fierce kiss. Yu Xiaoxuan hid while laughing, "Han Yi , Haha, itching to death, Han Yi, haha."

The two played in the living room. Han Yi played back and played, but carefully guarded Yu Xiaoxuan to prevent her from falling.

"Ouch." Yu Xiaoxuan suddenly shouted.

Han Yi immediately stopped and looked at her nervously, "What's wrong, what's wrong?"

Yu Xiaoxuan looked at Han Yi's nervous look, and chuckled, "I'm fine, I just had a stomachache when I laughed."

"What, the stomach hurts?" Not to mention okay, Han Yi became more nervous, afraid that something would happen to the baby in his stomach, "I called the doctor immediately."

Yu Xiaoxuan held his hand, "Don't worry, Han Yi, I'm fine. I was just laughing. I really didn't have anything." Yu Xiaoxuan stood up in front of Han Yi to prove that he was fine. Two laps.

"Look, I'm really okay, I'm alive and kicking." Yu Xiaoxuan looked at him with a smile.

Han Yi was relieved when she saw that she was really okay, "I was really scared to death just now."

"Haha, Han Yi, you are too courageous."

Han Yi stared at her, "You still say, who complains?"

"Well, it's my fault to blame me," Yu Xiaoxuan nodded like garlic, admitting that it was a mere confession. This was simply Han Yi, who was angry and funny.

Pulling her into her arms and sitting down, Yu Xiaoxuan reached out and pulled out a tissue to wipe her face. "Well, your face is all your saliva."

Han Yi laughed, bowed his head and kissed her face again, which happened to be the position she just wiped, and attracted a white eye from Yu Xiaoxuan. He laughed and stood up and went to the bathroom to screw her a hot towel.

"This is almost the same." Yu Xiaoxuan said.

Han Yi sat down again and hugged Xiao Xuan in her arms, watching cartoons with her, listening to her laughter in his ears, his mouth lightly raised, and the smile on his eyes was as warm as the winter sun.

The next day, Han Yi was woken up by his assistant's phone early in the morning. He glanced at Yu Xiaoxuan, who was sleeping unconsciously, and got up to walk to the balcony.

"You better have important things." Han Yihuo big.

"Mr. Han, did you read today's entertainment newspaper?" the assistant asked.

"You called me early in the morning just for the sake of breaking things? Did I pay you too much and work too free?" Han Yi said eerily, whoever was awakened early in the morning Would be great.

The assistant's scalp is numb, and his heart is full of misery. "Mr. Han, the front page headline of today's Beijing Entertainment Weekly is the news of your engagement with Shuangcheng International."

The atmosphere froze, even through the phone, the assistant could feel Han Yi's cold breath. Don't look at Han Yi's smiles on weekdays, but the appearance of his temper was also terrifying.

"Who is it?" Han Yi squeezed two words out of his teeth.

The assistant stubbornly said, "Your father personally found the newspaper and asked to post."

good very good.Han Yi's eyes were icy, "I immediately started the PR crisis and resolved this matter for me."

"Mr. Han, do you need to clarify the rumors of your engagement with Qianjin in Shuangcheng?"

"What do you say? Assistant Xu?" Han Yi said word by word.

Assistant Xu was startled and immediately said, "I understand Mr. Han. I will resolve this matter now."

Han Yi hung up the phone and stood outside for a while, until his breath stabilized before turning back into the bedroom.

Yu Xiaoxuan sat up confused and saw Han Yi coming in from the balcony, quite surprised, "Hey, why did you go outside?"

Han Yi smiled, "Look at the sun today, the weather is good today, do you want to go out for a walk?"

Yu Xiaoxuan shook his head, "I don't want to. I want to see Qinglan and the baby. I haven't seen my dry son for several days."

Han Yi agreed after a little thought, and Yu Xiaoxuan had better go to Shen Qinglan, which would also facilitate him to deal with some things.

"OK, then you get up first, and I will take you to Fu's house later."

"Aren't you going?" Yu Xiaoxuan wondered, "Aren't you going to work today?"

Han Yi smiled, "Just Assistant Xu called me just now and said that there is a very important document that I need to deal with immediately. For the money of our children's milk powder, I can only go first." He said bitterly, Amused by Xiao Xuan with a chuckle.

Yu Xiaoxuan waved his hand, "That line, you go quickly, milk powder money is important, wait for me to let the driver send me and shout."

Han Yi looked at Yu Xiaoxuan's indifferent way, and she ate a bit, and looked at her faintly, "Did you not want to tell me?"

Yu Xiaoxuan wondered, "What should I say?"

"Wives in other people's homes will say 'husband is hard' when the husband is still working on the weekend." Han Yi's tone, um, very disgusting.

Yu Xiaoxuan looked at him speechlessly, "Han Yi, are you watching more Korean dramas?" Can you say such nasty words?

Han Yiding looked at her calmly and said quietly, "In your new drama "Love in Mexico", you said this to the male host, and it is still affectionate. When I came to me, I became a lot of Korean dramas. , Yu Xiaoxuan, you said, are you tired of me? See if I am old. Are there any so-called small fresh meats that are attractive, right?"

Yu Xiaoxuan glanced out the window, um, the sun rises from the east, yes. Walking over, he probed Han

Han Yi's face was dark, "Yu Xiaoxuan!"

Yu Xiaoxuan pulled out his ear, "I'm not deaf." Seeing him as if he was really angry, he kissed him on the tiptoe, "Her husband, hard, don't dare!"

After talking, she walked into the bathroom. She had not brushed her teeth and washed her face.

Han Yi stood on the spot and touched the place where he was kissed. Why did he feel that he had been perfunctory just now?

After breakfast, Han Yi will leave Xiao Xuan to Fu's family and leave. Someone's life is really comfortable. They dare to carry him to do these things, thinking that there is no way to cut himself first. That's too much to look at him.

Country Y, a castle.

Allen walked slowly into the dungeon, and the sound of his footsteps sounded in the dark, like a drum beat on the heart.

Promise opened his eyes and looked in the direction of the door. The sound of footsteps was getting closer and closer. Then, the light was turned on, and the darkness in the dark dungeon was instantly bright. Allen's figure appeared in Promise's sight.

She squinted and opened again, looking straight at Alan, and said in a mute voice, "Are you finally going to kill me?" She had been brought back for days, and the dark environment in the dungeon made her unable to tell. During the day or night, even she couldn't remember how many days passed.

She was the only one in the dungeon, and the woman who was brought back with her was separated as soon as she arrived here, and she did not know where she was taken or whether she was still alive.

Allen looked at the promise coldly, with no human emotion in his eyes. "It seems that you want to die very much."

"Yes, I want to die, and I have been waiting for you to kill me." The promise simply admitted.

"Since you want to die, why don't you commit suicide?" Over the past few days, she promised that if she really wanted to die, she had at least three ways to end her life, and the truth is that she was still alive and well.

"I'm thinking about this too." Promise said, and Allen took her back and shut her here. It didn't make her tortured, but the familiar environment and the quiet air seemed to be spreading at the time. The disgusting smell when insulted.

"Alan, you are the most affectionate and cruelest man I have ever seen. All your feelings are given to a woman named Shen Qinglan. You worked hard to guard her silently behind your back, but others, and others The man married and had children, lived a happy life, and could not see your contribution. You are also the poorest person in the world that I have ever seen, and they are clearly affectionate to others, but you are a beast of floods, and you can't wait to kill you. fast."

The pity that promised a face, looking at Alan in the past, the eyes full of love all the time are calm at the moment, look carefully, and you can see the bitter hatred hidden in the peace.

Allen was not angry, but just looked at the promise quietly. "It seems that I haven't been idle for a few days, and I know very well."

"Allen, you said how sad you are, there are no loved ones, no friends, and no lovers. The people you cultivated carefully betrayed yourself, and you must not know that once you had the opportunity to have your own children, but The child was killed by his own hands." Promise said with a smile.

"You probably can't think of it, that night, I had your child, but when I noticed her existence, it was when it left me, haha, Alan, this is retribution, this is what retribution knows? In your life, you deserve to be alone, living in darkness forever, not seeing the sun or getting warmth. It is your retribution."

Allen's expression was calm, even when he heard the promise that he was pregnant with his child, there was no slight fluctuation. He didn't speak until the promise was finished, "You should be glad that the child has left, otherwise I don't mind sending it by hand. It left, even if it has come to this world, not everyone is eligible to give birth to my child, you, especially."

Promise suddenly opened her eyes and laughed. She laughed loudly, as if she was mad, "Haha, Allen, this is actually what you are. I have seen all the illusions in the past, all are false, and I'm actually going to fall in love with a devil like you, and today I fall to the point where I am.

All the light in her eyes disappeared into a dead silence, "Allen, kill me."

Allen looked at her, "Okay, fulfill you."

Digression

Cough, I always feel I am stuck here, you will send me a blade (cover your face).

Today I am going to work overtime at the company and leave a message in the evening to reply. Well, it doesn't matter what you send the blade. We are gentle and lovely little ladies, not violent.

399 Chapter The death of promise (2)

Allen looked at her, "Okay, fulfill you."

After hearing the words, Promise was not afraid, but a relief appeared on his face, and he could finally end his life that was better than death.

A glimmer of glare flashed through Allan's eyes, and he spoke coldly, "Take her away."

As soon as Alan's words fell, two people came out, pulled the promise, and promised to smile lightly, and finally could leave the dungeon that made her sick.

The sun pierced into the eyes, promised to close the eyes subconsciously, and then opened, breathing the air outside greedily, in order to drive away the decaying smell that filled the lung cavity, she breathed deeply, craving this moment The beauty is beautiful, for the first time in more than two decades, it was discovered that the sun is such a warmth.

Others looked at her quietly, with a trace of pity in their eyes, promised to perceive it, but only smiled. These people will never understand that when they live in the abyss, when death is impossible, death comes to her What a luxurious thing to say.

The butler was oncoming, and the two men behind him took Annie, "Master, the man arrived."

"Am I getting what you prepared?" Allen asked.

The butler nodded, "I'm ready, young master, will you bring it in now?"

"Bring me both of them."

"Yes."

The butler waved his hand, promised to realize what, and suddenly struggled, "No, Alan, I won't go, please kill me directly." It's just a pity that her struggling at the moment seems to be very weak. , "Don't, Allen, you shot me directly."

Anne looked uncomfortable. Compared to the fear of promise, she didn't know anything about the upcoming things, but it was precisely because she didn't know that she was not so scared in her heart, and she couldn't realize the reason for the fear of promise.

In her view, the experience of this period is terrible enough, and no matter how horrible it is.

No matter how pleading the promise, or was taken away, Alan walked at the end, looking at the flowers blooming in the garden, the corners of his mouth lightly raised, Xiaoqi, I will remove obstacles for anyone who hurt you.

This is a separate small tower located behind the old castle. It stands alone at the back of the old castle and is surrounded by high walls. From them, only a small spire can be seen, not so much It's a tower, rather a tower.

The top of the surrounding walls was filled with sharp glass fragments. It is believed that only a door was opened in the direction of the old castle. The door was guarded by four people, all with weapons in their hands. When they saw a group of people coming, they bowed respectfully. waist.

"Open the door." The butler said.

"No, I'm not going in, butler, beg you." Promised to see the iron gate, all the cells were resisting, and the heart for death disappeared instantly. She wanted to die, but she didn't want to die like this.

The butler ignored her pleading and took the lead into the door.

As soon as she walked in, Annie heard a roar of beasts. Looking at it, the most conspicuous nature was the tower that stood in the middle, followed by huge cages, which were larger than ordinary cages and arranged neatly. Let it go.

The cage contains all kinds of beasts, tigers, lions, pythons, wolves...

When Anne saw these animals that could only be seen in the zoo, a flash of curiosity flashed in her eyes, but soon disappeared. Compared with curiosity, she wanted to know that this man named Allen brought them here. What do you want to do.

When he promised to see the cages, his pupils shrank sharply, and the blood that hadn't been on his face suddenly faded away.

She was constantly struggling, exhausting the greatest strength of her life, but still unable to get rid of the shackles of those two men, "Let me go, I don't want to go, I don't." She screamed, she struggled, as if the beast was facing When he was about to die, he finally struggled desperately.

Someone didn't know where to bring a chair, put it down in the middle, Alan sat on the chair, and looked at the promise tenderly, "What's wrong, didn't you just ask me to let you die? Now this pair looks like, why do you want to repent?"

"Allen, I beg you, please kill me directly, please." Promise struggling, crawling to Allen's feet, hugging Allen's legs, "I beg you, as long as it is not a beast anything is possible, I beg you."

Allen reached up and lifted her chin, and even took out a tissue to help wipe her tears. The movement was gentle. If you change it before, you promise that you will feel that you are already "guarding the cloud and seeing the moon". However, in this situation, she still has the slightest joy.

"What are you crying that will scare my babies like this? Do you want to smile?" Allen's voice was soft, but it was only matched with his hoarse sound as if a sharp weapon crossed the steel. fear.

"Allen, please look at the fact that I have gone for you for so many years in the past, you killed me, please." Promise pleaded.

Allen raised her finger and shook it gently. "Promise, if you say it yourself, you have to obey it no matter how difficult it is. This is what I taught you. Did you forget it?"

I promised to forget where she remembered everything she said, but it was because of this that she was more afraid of Allen's means, "Allen, I beg you, don't treat me like that. , I know I'm wrong, I just want to die happily, isn't that enough? Don't be so cruel to me, please."

Annie has been watching this scene quietly for a while, and she doesn't understand why this woman is so scared, but she doesn't dare to speak with her head down. None of the people here are normal people. If she wants to be beaten, she must be deaf. Is blind.

"Roar!" A lion roared in the beast cage, and the roar shook the sky. It walked anxiously in the cage, and roared twice at the people who came in from time to time.

"Look, my baby can't wait, promise, don't come and tell me regrets now, you want to die, I will fulfill you, this is already my gift to you." Allen touched the promised face, from Unprecedented tenderness.

"Allen, don't I deserve a little pity for you for so many years? You are so cruel to me, even the last decent is not left to me."

Allen chuckled, "Promise, you found it all yourself. Tell yourself how many times have you ignored my orders. Do you really think that with Qin Yan supporting me, I would not dare to move you? You What is the position in Qin Yan's heart, I believe you don't need to say it, but you also understand, but you still violate Qin Yan's orders twice, and I have given you how many chances, these you have carefully thought about ?"

"I knew it was wrong, but Alan, I have never done anything that is sorry to you, let alone done anything that hurt you."

"But you hurt Shen Qinglan."

Promise bitterness, "Allen, you have always been for her, but I never really hurt her, she still lives well now."

"So you can still stand here and bargain with me." Allen said coldly, looking at the housekeeper, "Housekeeper, feed her things, self-love wastes time, my baby is in a hurry."

"Yes, young master." The butler replied.

The two men came out and promised to hug Allen's legs tightly. The two men also used a lot of effort to break apart her. They had obviously been chopped off their tendons, and they didn't know where they came from. The housekeeper had a glass of liquid in his hand, and when he saw that the promise had been pressed, he would pour the liquid into it.

Promise shook his head desperately, and the other man saw it and hurriedly opened the promised mouth, so that the housekeeper could fill the medicine, and then struggled in vain. The liquid in the cup was poured into the promised mouth without a drop.

Several people let her go and promised to lie on the ground, desperately trying to spit those things out, but this was not successful. She looked at Allen in prayer, "Allen, I beg you."

Allen looked away and looked at the lion in the cage that had begun to run away. "Send her in."

"No, I won't go." The promise screamed.

Annie's eyes widened, did they want to feed the woman to the lion? Only the scene that happened next let her know that there are still more terrible things in this world than feeding lions.

The clothes on Promise were stripped clean and thrown into the cage. She quickly backed away, but wherever she could withstand the speed of the lion, she was quickly knocked down by the lion.

"Ahhhhh." Annie screamed.

Allen gave her a cold look, "Noisy."

The butler knows how to make Annie's mouth shut, and Anne struggles desperately, but she is simply doing useless work. She closes her eyes and shakes violently. These people are not people at all. She wants to go home, she wants to go home .

"Let her watch me with her eyes open, don't miss it for a second, or you will be the next one to go in," Allen said grimly.

Everyone, including the housekeeper, shrank subconsciously, and Anne was forced to wait for her eyes to see from beginning to end, watching the woman's miserable cry and tragic ending, and finally rolled her eyes and finally fainted.

"Master, dizzy."

"Bring me down if you feel dizzy, don't let her die." Allen said, got up and left, all the good shows were finished, why did he stay here, his expression was calm and calm, what it was like now, now That's it.

On the other hand, apart from Annie who had passed out, even the housekeeper who was used to various scenes had a pale face, not to mention others.

In the cage, the manic lion has quieted down, lying on the ground, licking his mouth contentedly with his tongue. The cage is full of blood and flesh, and the air is filled with a thick bloody smell, some people look inside A glance, could not help bending over to vomit.

Fortunately, Alan had already left at this time. The butler glanced at the man and said nothing, with a cold face, and went out.

The next day, the housekeeper walked into Allen's bedroom and looked at Allen who was admiring the painting. He spoke softly and respectfully, "Young Master, the woman woke up, but it seemed crazy." Annie woke up this morning when she woke up Not normal, a person is crying and laughing, as soon as someone approaches her, she starts screaming.

"Is it really crazy or false crazy?" Allen asked, still looking at Shen Qinglan's paintings.

"Dr. Peter went to the examination and said it was crazy."

"Oh, it's really useless, just shut it there. I see how long she can hold on." Allen said in a cold voice, saying that he still didn't believe Annie was crazy.

"Yes, young master."

"Oh, was that scene taken yesterday?"

"It has been photographed."

"I sent it to Qin Yan, but I couldn't see the end of her daughter. She was too deserved to be a mother. Let her appreciate it."

The butler's eyes changed slightly, "Yes, young master."

Beijing, nursing home.

When Han Yi drove here, Han Zhengshan was reading a book in the room. "Oh, I didn't expect you to have this kind of leisure."

Han Zhengshan heard Han Yi's voice as if he hadn't heard it, and continued to look at his book.

Han Yi walked in and leaned against the wall. "I said old man, your skills are not small. You can even post a message that I haven't posted so far. Seeing it like this, I really look down on you."

"You think you can't take it without you talking? Han Zhengshan, I tell you, if you want me to marry that thousand gold you dream, whoever posted the message will marry."

Han Zhengshan finally put down the book and looked at Han Yi, "I am doing this for you. Shuangcheng is our largest partner of the Han Group. I have also seen the gold of the Shuangcheng. They are beautiful, outgoing and lively, and have a temper. Fortunately, she also has a high degree of education. When she returned from abroad to study abroad, she is the only girl in her family. Isn't it enough for you?"

Han Yixiao, "Since people are so good, you just marry. I promise you will not object to finding a stepmother younger than me. If necessary, I can hold a grand wedding for you."

Han Zhengshan black face, "You talk nonsense, the people you like are you, and they don't mind your romantic history, what do you want."

"I don't care if people look at me or not. Now I don't look at people. I will make people announce that the news of this engagement is fake."

"You can't do this. If you do this, the relationship between Shuangcheng and Han's will be over, and the interests will be seriously declining. Will those shareholders be willing to give up?"

"This is not the result you want. Haven't you always wanted to drive me out of office? I have reason to doubt now. You just know that I won't agree, so I did it on purpose. If it is true, then My good father, you are really hardworking and painstaking."

"I'm doing it for you. Shuangcheng is not only our closest partner, it is also Han's second largest shareholder. They said, as long as you are willing to marry Qianjin from Shuangcheng, then Han's The group's shares are the girl's dowry. When you give birth to your first child, the shares will automatically be transferred to your name. Will you still be afraid of being shaken by Han's status?"

For these shares, Han Zhengshan had a long discussion with the boss of the Shuangcheng. If it were not for the girl's daughter who fell in love with Han Yi and wanted to marry Han Yi, he would not have done so easily.

Han Yi sullenly said, "Even if I don't want those shares, no one can shake my position. If you don't believe it, you can ask the old folks and dare to let me leave the Han Group." He said confidently, Han Shi was pushed to another level in his hands. Those shareholders confessed that they only cared about the benefits they could get, and did not care about the private life of the person sitting on it.

Of course, it can't be said that they don't care at all. If the president's private life can bring them greater benefits, they are naturally willing to join together, and the two cities' gold is precisely the case. This is what Han Zhengshan dare to cut first. the reason.If the shareholders are united and forced, even President Han Yi cannot refuse unless he doesn't want to work in this position.

"Han Yi, marrying Qianjin in Shuangcheng is a win-win situation, and it is a great benefit to the development of Han's. Those shareholders who know it will only agree and will not object, and if you do not agree, they may The persecution will be embarrassing.

"It's a big deal. I don't want to be the president of the Han family anymore. I want to see how the old men will force me." The old god Han Yi is here. No one in the world can force him to do anything, especially the person in front of him.

Looking at Han Yiming's stubbornness, Han Zhengshan simply wanted to pry open his head to see what was inside.

"Han Yi, do you want to force me to death?" Han Zhengshan was angry.

"Well, what did you say, now you are clearly persecuting me."

"The news has been released, you now regret it, let my face go, how do you tell me to explain to the two cities?"

"That's your business, what does it have to do with me, my good father, you should have expected this situation when you made the decision arbitrarily. The mess you left behind needs to be cleaned up by myself. I don't have that leisure to help you clean up. of."

Han Yi straightened his body and kindly suggested, "Yes, you can go online to see now that things should have made new progress."

It was said that Han Zhengshan had a bad hunch in his heart, and hurriedly turned on the computer. Han Yi saw this, and said with a smile, "I have something to go first, you look slowly, I will follow when I go The medical staff here said, pay attention to your condition so that you can be rescued in time."

Han Yi left after finishing talking, just turned around, and a cup flew over behind him, smashing it heavily on his back, then fell to the ground and smashed, Han Yi snorted, but did not turn around and left directly Too.

A piece of tea was wet behind his back. Fortunately, there was warm water in the cup, but the clothes were wet without causing burns.

"Rebel, Rebel, Han Yi, you rebel!" Going far away, you can still hear the voice of Han Zhengshan in the ward. Han Yi crossed his lips with a mocking smile.

In the Beijing suburban cemetery, Han Yi stood in front of the tombs of his grandparents and his mother and removed his disguise. A look of sadness appeared on his face, "Grandpa, Mom, I came to see you."

Then there was a long silence.

He looked at the tombstones of his grandfather and his mother, and he clearly had many things to say, but he could not say anything at this moment, "Grandpa, Mom, I am going to be a father, Yu Xiaoxuan is pregnant, and I will bring it in two days She went to collect the card and brought you to meet you. She is a very cute girl. She is optimistic and cheerful. She is very simple. She doesn't have so much attention. If you get along with her, you can put down all the precautions without worrying about it. Someone puts you in the back, this feeling makes me feel very comfortable."

"She is a very easy-to-satisfied person, a meal can make her show a warm smile, she will show two shallow dimples when she smiles, her eyes are curved, seeing her, your mood will be inexplicably bright, I believe you will like her when you see her."

"Although occasionally she will also be petulant, have a little temper, and will be cranky, cry, and will grievances in her heart without saying. There will be small defects like this and other, but these are all I love, she is a Real people, unlike me, live a hypocritical and tiring life."

"Grandpa, in these years, in order not to live up to your expectations, in order not to let Han's defeat, I live very tired, Yu Xiaoxuan is the only person who brings me warmth in these years, I don't want to let go of her hand, She will never let go of her hand."

"Mom, you once said that if one day I met a girl who moved me, unless I can move my heart for a lifetime, I would not easily provoke her. Now that I have met, I will continue to do it in the future. She dropped a tear for me and won't let your tragedy repeat on her."

Han Yixu talked a lot. He didn't leave the cemetery until sunset Xishan. The water on his clothes had dried up, leaving a trace of shallow tea. He sat in the driver's seat and leaned back subconsciously. He leaned, but quickly straightened his body, frowning, and just hit the place where he was smashed.

Another major event happened in Beijing today, which has just calmed down from the storm that found the bomb in the hospital.

In the morning, Beijing Entertainment Weekly just reported that Han Yi's president Han Yi and Shuangcheng Group's Qian Jinning's engagement. In less than half a day, the head of the public relations department of Han's Group stood up and said that the engagement was purely false and rumored. The fiancée of their president is Miss Yu Xiaoxuan.

This is good. A heavy bomb was dropped in the hearts of everyone in Beijing. Everyone was still thinking about when Yu Xiaoxuan and Han Yi got married. Qianjin Ningke in the Shuangcheng posted a Weibo saying that he was engaged to Han Yi. The matter is true, Han Yi and Yu Xiaoxuan have long broken up. It is the best proof that Yu Xiaoxuan did not appear in the public during this time, and his marriage with Han Yi was discussed by the elders of the two. Only my consent was made.

Ning Ke is not a celebrity, and the number of fans on Weibo is not too large, but the people she knows are not small. Under the repost of those people, the effect is similar to those of Weibo.

It's just that after her Weibo came out, some people believed or some people didn't believe it. After all, Han Yi also showed her affection on her Weibo. More importantly, the head of the public relations department of the Han Group has already stood. It is said that the pure broken is rumored, you Ning Ke also sent such a microblog, this is not what the face is slapped, no, even the face slapping is not counted, after all, Han's voice first, Ning Ke post again.

The person who believes is because during this time, it is true that Xiao Xuan did not appear in the public eye. The works that appeared on the screen were also taken before. In the recent period, she seems to have disappeared. If she is because Frustrated and frustrated, it is quite reasonable.

The latter is more of Yu Xiaoxuan's black powder and some entertainers who are unfamiliar with Xiao Xuan and their residual brain powder. After all, Yu Xiaoxuan's rise is too fast, and it is inevitable that people will be jealous.

People of the two factions are tearing up on Weibo, while third-party people are watching the lively crowd, with a gossip heart, watching the events in front of them, and brains to fill up a dog with a love triangle. Blood plot.

As for Yu Xiaoxuan himself, he was chatting with Shen Qinglan in the room, knowing nothing about the outside world.

"Qinglan, why do you say that An'an is so cute, even the way he eats his hands is cute." Yu Xiaoxuan looked at Anan's child's eyes glowing green, and she really wanted to take An'an home to raise what.

Shen Qinglan laughed, "You haven't seen enough for two hours."

"Not enough, how can two hours be enough, Qinglan, An An told me to hug and raise for two days." Yu Xiaoxuan accidentally said his thoughts, and then looked at Shen Qinglan expectantly.

Shen Qinglan shrugged, "Yes, as long as you can feed An An, by the way, he doesn't eat milk powder."

Yu Xiaoxuan's shoulders collapsed, turning his head to look at An An, touching his soft and tender little hand, "An An, why do you say you are so picky." The tone was full of regret.

"An An, you grow up quickly, so you can go to the godmother's house as a guest."

Shen Qinglan looked at Yu Xiaoxuan and listened to her childish words, did not know what to say, and changed the topic, "Did you go for a pregnancy test recently?"

Yu Xiaoxuan shook his head, "No, I checked it before, no problem. The doctor said that he would go again after three months."

"Is there anything uncomfortable, is there any morning sickness reaction?"

Yu Xiaoxuan bitten his face and touched his fat face. "Can it be eaten? Qinglan, you don't know. My weight is five pounds in just over a month." , When the child is born, will I become fat into a ball."

When Shen Qinglan saw Yu Xiaoxuan, she found that she was fat. Look carefully. In fact, she is okay, not much different from before, but her face is obvious.

"Qinglan, you said it would be better if you didn't get fat if you were like you. Sister Linda came to see me yesterday. At the moment when she saw me, how strange her eyes were. My grandmother suspected she wanted to pounce. Come up and eat me."

Speaking of his fat face, Yu Xiaoxuan silently wiped a bitter tear.

"It's a blessing to eat." Shen Qinglan said, Yu Xiaoxuan's face looked blessed. Even the two grandfathers said that Yu Xiaoxuan's child was very optimistic and could enjoy happiness.

In contrast, Fang Tong's thoughts are a little heavier, and it is because of the growth environment. Fang Tong is a little cautious in doing things and considers more. Yu Xiaoxuan is a rough nerve, and he is impulsive to do things.

"Qinglan, are you comforting me? If I were to become so fat again, how long would it take for me to lose weight when I gave birth to a child?"

"Then you should eat less now." Shen Qinglan said.

"But I can't help it. I can't control my mouth when I see those things. If I don't eat a little, I'm particularly uncomfortable. If I scratch my ears, I can't even sleep." Yu Xiaoxuan said these things, heart More sour, she suspected that she was pregnant with a gluttony and wanted to eat everything. Although she was fond of food before, her appetite was really not so big.

Shen Qinglan frowned, "Xiao Xuan, you have to control your food properly to ensure adequate nutrition, overnutrition, the fetus grows too big, and it is you who suffer during production."

"Well, I know that Han Yi also said yesterday that I would ask a dietitian to take charge of my pregnancy. I also enrolled in a yoga class and started classes next week."

When Shen Qinglan saw that she knew what she was thinking about, she no longer struggled with this, but asked, "When did you and Han Yi not get the certificate last time, when are you going to get the certificate?" It was originally Han Yi and Yu who were scheduled to receive the certificate on May 20. Xiao Xuan, because of Shen Qinglan's dystocia, hurried to the hospital, and the matter of obtaining the certificate was delayed.

"Han Yi said to go to the Qixi Festival to get the certificate." Yu Xiaoxuan's eyes looked at the An'an children who had fallen asleep and said casually.

Shen Qinglan thought that Qixi was still more than a month away. At that time, Yu Xiaoxuan was almost three months pregnant and could also be announced to the public. It was not bad for Double Happiness.

"Really not a wedding?"

"Well, I don't want to do it anymore. Instead of having a wedding, I want to travel and get married. I have discussed it with Han Yi. Then we will go out and play for a month and come back." Yu Xiaoxuan said these things, his eyes were bright, No idea that the public opinion outside has already turned upside down.

Shen Qinglan originally wanted to pick up her phone to check the time. She accidentally made a mistake and clicked on Weibo. The message jumped back. Her eyes dimmed and she quickly browsed the information above. She glanced at Yu Xiaoxuan. Seeing what she knew nothing, put the phone back casually.

"How is Han Yi's relationship with his father recently?" Shen Qinglan asked unconsciously.

Yu Xiaoxuan pouted, "It's like that, Han Yi's father is now living in a nursing home. I have visited that place. The environment is very good and it is suitable for retirement. However, Han Yi basically does not visit his father. I went to two Second, if people don't want to see me, I won't go."

Shen Qinglan knew, "His dad still disagrees with you and Han Yi?"

"Disagree, it would be nice if he agreed. Before he knew I was pregnant, he told me that he could give me a sum of money. After I gave birth to the child, I left Han Yi, and the child will be raised by their family." That's why. Yu Xiaoxuan did not go to see Han Zhengshan later.

Originally, she was thinking that Han Yi and Han Zhengshan were the father and son, and that Han Yi was the last relative in the world. Even if they can't let them have the same father-son relationship, they are warm and harmonious. Come down for a meal.

"You don't want to participate in the matter between their father and son." Shen Qinglan said lightly, already guessing that the turmoil of this engagement was made by Han Zhengshan.

Yu Xiaoxuan nodded, "Well, I know, I don't plan to join anymore. By the way, Qinglan, will you move to your new home after your confinement?"

"No, when Fu Hengyi returns to the army, I will apply to join the army."

After hearing this, Yu Xiaoxuan was disappointed, "Ah, this way, I originally thought that if you moved to a new house, then Han Yi and I also moved over, so that we can be neighbors, I want to see It's much easier for me to do my son."

Shen Qinglan smiled slightly and did not speak.

They only went to live in that house for a few days when they were newly married, and they have been living in the compound since then. Counting it, it has been empty for several months.

"Qinglan, there is your courier." Aunt Zhao walked in with a parcel in his hand. "It was sent from country Y, I don't know what is in it."

Shen Qinglan's beautiful eyes flickered, glanced at the well-coated express, took it, and opened it directly. Inside was a beautiful little box. She opened the box, and inside was a delicate long-life lock, gold casting Jincan, next to two gold bracelets, accompanied by a small card, was sent by Austin.

Shen Qinglan lightly hooked the corner of his mouth, picked up the Long Life Lock and the gold bracelet, and Yu Xiaoxuan approached curiously, "Well, what a delicate lock and bracelet, Qinglan, are you a friend in Y country?"

"Well, there are several good friends in country Y." Shen Qinglan said.

Shen Qinglan wanted to call Austin, but glanced at the time, gave up the idea, and then called again.

Yu Xiaoxuan's dinner was at the Fu's house. When Han Yi came in, everyone was eating, saying that it was everyone. Actually, Mr. Fu, Aunt Zhao, and Yu Xiaoxuan were sitting on the table. Fu Hengyi accompanied Shen Qinglan in the room to eat confinement As for the meal, Yu Xiaoxuan accompanied Shen Qinglan at noon and no longer wanted to eat. The food looks delicious, but it has no taste at all.

She looked sad and sorrowful, and looked at Shen Qinglan's calm and indifferent manner. She couldn't help but ask, "Qinglan, this thing has no taste at all, don't you find it unpleasant?"

"It's okay." Shen Qinglan said. When he was thrown into the desert or in some very difficult environment, he often had no food. They had eaten turf and rats, and these were nothing.

When Yu Xiaoxuan thought that he would live like this in the future, there was a desperation in his heart, and he looked at Shen Qinglan's eyes more and more admired.

Yu Xiaoxuan didn't know what Master Fu was talking about, and he was very happy. Master Fu saw Han Yi and greeted him to dinner.

Han Yi was indeed hungry. He sat down next to Xiao Xuan. Yu Xiaoxuan put a piece of ribs in his bowl and said with a smile, "The ribs made by Aunt Zhao are delicious. You try it."

Han Yi glanced at a small pile of bones in front of her, and looked at her with a smile. "You eat half of the ribs alone. Who told me yesterday to control your food. "

Yu Xiaoxuan grumbled, "It's not my fault. The ribs made by Aunt Zhao are so delicious that people can't stop eating."

Master Fu laughed and moved the bowl of ribs in front of Yu Xiaoxuan. "Can eat is a blessing. Our Qinglan girl eats too little, and she doesn't have any meat on her body. It looks distressing."

Yu Xiaoxuan smiled, "Thank you Grandpa Fu."

Han Yichong gave Yu Xiaoxuan a dizzy look, and looked at the old man, "Grandpa Fu, you gave her a reason to eat and eat."

Digression

Merry Christmas dear, did you eat apples yesterday?Yesterday I was working hard overtime, and I didn't even eat apples, alas.

Tomorrow is the 26th. Ali will send out red envelopes. Some members of Xiaoxiang members remember to grab it. At 12 noon, start grabbing on time!~

PS: Do you think I will be too bloody and cruel to treat this promise?(Cover your face)

400 I refuse

Han Yichong gave Yu Xiaoxuan a dizzy look, and looked at the old man, "Grandpa Fu, you gave her a reason to eat and eat."

"Why am I eating too much?" Yu Xiaoxuan mumbled, obviously she had controlled the amount of food now, okay?

Old Master Fu laughed, "Xiao Xuan didn't eat much. I testified. Come, Xiao Xuan, try this soup. The soup made by Xiao Zhao is also very tasty. Even Qinglan doesn't like to drink soup. Just like going to the execution ground." The old man thought of Shen Qinglan drinking soup, and the old man's eyes were full of smiles.

Yu Xiaoxuan was curious, "Qinglan still has something to fear?" This is really a new thing. After knowing Shen Qinglan for so long, Yu Xiaoxuan has never seen anything that can disturb Shen Qinglan.

"No, these two brothers and sisters of the Shen family have different temperaments and temperaments, but this is very similar, and Jun Yu does not like to drink soup. When he came to our house to eat when he was a child, Xiao Zhao gave him soup. Secretly pour it to the dogs at home." Thinking of the juniors when they were young, Master Fu said that it was relishing, and shaken off the two childhood incidents of Fu Hengyi and Shen Junyu.

Yu Xiaoxuan was overjoyed. I didn't expect that the seemingly steady Shen Junyu and Fu Hengyi would have been so grounded when they were young. Han Yi was very happy. Fortunately, he and Shen Junyu knew them only in junior high school. It's embarrassing how the daughter-in-law exposes her embarrassment.

Han Yi listened, and waxed the two unlucky eggs in his heart. He was really curious about these things.

"I didn't expect Brother Shen and Fu to have such skin when they were young." Yu Xiaoxuan sighed.

"Heng Yi is okay. Jun Yu was a skin monkey when he was a kid. If it weren't..." Mr. Fu said here, he paused. "Don't talk, eat food, just treat this as your own home. ,you're welcome."

"What's that, Grandpa Fu?" Yu Xiaoxuan asked curiously, and he was twisted by Han Yi just after talking, and his strength was not heavy. Yu Xiaoxuan glared at Han Yi, and Han Yi was also looking at her Well, Yu Xiaoxuan suddenly responded to what Mr. Fu meant by the unfinished sentence.

A trace of annoyance appeared on her face, and she was really stupid enough to even think of it.

Han Yi put a bowl of soup in front of Yu Xiaoxuan, "drink soup."

Yu Xiaoxuan uttered a sigh, and began to drink soup, um, the soup made by Aunt Zhao was indeed delicious.

"Grandpa Fu, the soup made by Aunt Zhao is really delicious. I feel like I will miss the food at Grandpa Fu's house every day."

Old Master Fu smiled, "Haha, if you like it, come to eat every day, there are few people in the family, if you are willing to come, I can't help it." There are not many people in the family, Shen Qinglan's confinement meal is made separately, and Fu Hengyi Accompanying Shen Qinglan for dinner, so during this time, Mr. Fu and Aunt Zhao were eating together.

"Okay, I'm afraid I'll be here too much. Grandpa Fu thinks I'm eating too much." Yu Xiaoxuan said, and the atmosphere became active again.

In the bedroom, Shen Qinglan and Fu Hengyi listened to the faint laughter from the restaurant.

"Your friend has a good personality and is very suitable for Han Yi." Fu Hengyi said.

Shen Qinglan nodded in agreement. Han Yi's own experience is doomed to be unsuitable for a wife who is too deep-minded. Guess I guess the game he is not willing to play, but Yu Xiaoxuan is simple, his mind is on his face, Han Yi will understand at a glance, There is no need to guess. Such two people will not get too tired to get along.

Yu Xiaoxuan has a rough nerve and a big heart. Many things are over and over. She will not turn over old debts. Perhaps her mind is a little sensitive now, but Shen Qinglan is confident that Han Yi will restore her to the cheerful, optimistic and carefree past. Yu Xiaoxuan worried.

"Fu Hengyi, after the children's full moon, we and Han Yi will go on vacation together, just go to the last town." Shen Qinglan suggested.

"It's already July when you get out of the month. Wouldn't it be too hot to go out at that time?" Fu Hengyi did not oppose the holiday proposal, but was worried that the weather was inappropriate.

Shen Qinglan had forgotten that he was going to sit in a confinement. He was a little sorry to hear that. "That's all." It's still small, and I can't go too far.

Fu Hengyi smiled slightly and said nothing in his mouth, but he remembered this matter in his heart.

After the meal, Han Yi found Fu Hengyi alone, and the two discussed in the study for a long time before Han Yi took Yu Xiaoxuan away.

Back in the bedroom, Shen Qinglan had just fed An An and was quietly coaxing the child to sleep. Fu Hengyi went in to take a bath. When he came out, Shen Qinglan was still awake, obviously waiting for him.

"Something to ask me?" Fu Hengyi asked warmly.

Shen Qinglan nodded, "Are you and Han Yi, and what is my brother planning?" She had noticed this before, but she never asked.

Fu Hengyi didn't think of hiding her, and told Shen Qinglan about the things he had prepared. Shen Qinglan listened carefully. After listening, she said, "You seem to need a trader."

"I have discussed this with Chen Xi, and I have handed him over." Fu Hengyi said very casually.

Shen Qinglan raised an eyebrow, "Jiang Chenxi understands economy?"

"Well, although he teaches historical literature, his economics is his strong point. Does Mike Lee on Wall Street know? That's him, Li is his mother's surname."

Although Shen Qinglan is not involved in this industry and does not have a deep understanding of this, it is precisely that she once heard Jin Enxi mention this Mike Lee. He is a Wall Street myth. It is said that he just turned 20 years old and was among the many traders. He stood out and attracted the attention of some capital predators in country M, but he refused the invitations issued by those predators. He had always struggled alone. This is not accurate. More precisely, he formed a team himself. Obviously, the number of people is not large, and the funds are not strong, but each time he operates, the amount of his funds will increase by a geometric multiple, which is a good wave in the wave of capital.

Many people spent a lot of money trying to find his face of Lushan, and then dig him away, but they never succeeded. Just three or four years ago, this Mike Lee suddenly disappeared, except for the occasional one or two. Apart from the sporadic news that came out of him, there was no trace of him.

Those who searched for him gave up after looking for a while, but did not expect that this person would be Jiang Chenxi.

"He is really deep enough." Shen Qinglan sighed.

"He doesn't like being controlled by people, and those are just his hobbies."

This hobby is really scary enough. Shen Qinglan thought secretly.

"Is it your proposal to record the company under Xiao Xuan's name?" Shen Qinglan asked.

Fu Hengyi did not deny that some things can be done silently behind the back, not to let his wife know, but some things still have to talk to his wife, otherwise how to ask his wife for credit.

"Well, I proposed it, my wife, is there a reward?" Fu Hengyi asked seriously.

Shen Qinglan glanced at him silently, "Fu Hengyi, have you been dropped?"

Fu Hengyi's black line gave her a glance and withdrew her gaze. Youyou came up with a sentence, "On the landscape, my wife, you are a master."

Shen Qinglan chuckled, leaned over and kissed his lips, "Thank you husband!"

Fu Hengyi squinted, "It's over?"

"Hmm." There was a slight smile between her eyebrows, and the corners of her mouth were light, and Fu Hengyi raised her hand to pull her in a little, and kissed her lips unkindly.

After a long kiss, Fu Heng Yiyi said with endless emotion, "Sure enough, the old saying is right, do it yourself, get plenty of food."

Shen Qinglan was speechless and turned to look at the baby's crib, because your son was asleep.

On the way back, Han Yi thought about it all the way, and finally told Yu Xiaoxuan when he was almost home. After listening to Yu Xiaoxuan, his face was calm. Such an unexpected reaction made Han Yi Unexpectedly, he looked at Yu Xiaoxuan's eyes with a trace of anxiety, "Xiaoxuan, don't you want to say something?"

With a mobile phone in his hand, Yu Xiaoxuan was playing a melon-eating game without raising his eyes.

"I said that my dad announced to the media that I was about to be engaged with Qianjin in Shuangcheng. After listening to it, you didn't want to say anything? Are you sad or angry?"

Yu Xiaoxuan finally put down his phone and turned his head to look at him, "You said what your dad said, not what you said. I have something so sad and sad, but to say that I am really angry, but more More is happy."

Han Yi really didn't understand this. It's normal to be angry and sad in such things. What the hell is happiness?

"Han Yi, I am glad that you are willing to tell me about this and let me bear it with you. Thank you for believing in me. I am a woman who can stand side by side with you, not a weak and need you to protect Dodder flower."

Han Yi's eyes were filled with emotions that Yu Xiaoxuan could not understand, and his heart was sour and astringent, "Yu Xiaoxuan, you grew up."

Yu Xiaoxuan black face, "Han Yi, will you speak in the end, I am obviously mature."

Han Yi smiled, "Well, yes, my girl is mature."

"It's almost the same. But what ghost Weibo this woman sent me made me very upset, you said I want to fight back and let everyone look at me who is sad and disappointed?" Yu Xiaoxuan's eyes rolled and turned, no Said with good intentions.

"What do you want to do?" Han Yi was curious.

Yu Xiaoxuan smiled, "Her husband, let's take a picture together."

Han Yi chuckled, and the glory in the peach blossom eyes made Yu Xiaoxuan blink in an instant, and he couldn't help feeling annoyed. This evildoer seduced her with beautiful colors.

Han Yi looked at Yu Xiaoxuan's dumbfounded look, and the smile in Taohua's eyes was deeper. Well, for the first time, he felt that there was a beautiful face that would make his wife's nympho face so beautiful.

He bowed his head, kissed Yu Xiaoxuan's lips, clicked, and the picture was frozen.

Han Yi was filmed on Xiao Xuan's mobile phone. He directly posted on Yu Xiaoxuan's Weibo, and posted a dynamic "A wave of dog abuse at night".The picture is just the picture.

It means that Xiao Xuan reacted and Han Yi had finished sending her. She looked at him blankly, and after a while, she reacted, "Ah, Han Yi, I am not talking about this kind of picture." She meant Han Yi holding She, the two should be intimate.

Han Yi smiled slightly, "This kind of effect is the best. It can definitely kill some people and make you angry." Then he took out his mobile phone and retweeted Yu Xiaoxuan's Weibo without hesitation. — "We are fine, thank you for your concern. Wife, I love you, refill."

Everyone was already paying attention to Yu Xiaoxuan's dynamics, but the result was unexpectedly eating dog food, and the people eating melons saw the smile on the faces of the two. This bright expression will overflow. It is simply a rumor about the engagement. The biggest face hit.

Of course, some people think that this is a deliberate show by the two. Yu Xiaoxuan deliberately posted it in order to save his face. After all, no one knows when the photo was taken.

Regardless of these rumors, Yu Xiaoxuan and Han Yi would not be affected. The two returned home and fell asleep after taking a shower.

The next day, things developed again, Ning Ke deleted Weibo, which seemed to prove that Han Yi and Yu Xiaoxuan broke up and turned to get married with the rich family is a rumor.

"Mr. Han, Miss Ning Ke wants to see you, you see?" The assistant walked into Han Yi's office and asked softly.

Han Yi raised his head from the document and frowned, "Ning Ke, who?"

Assistant Black Line, "is the gold of Shuangcheng International."

Oh, Han Yi understood, "No." Didn't you see a pile of documents on his desk that needed to be processed? How could there be that American time to meet insignificant people.

"Okay, I'll reply to her." The assistant turned to leave, but there was a noise outside the door.

"This lady, you can't go in. Our president is busy, please don't go in." This is the secretary's voice.

The door of the office was pushed open, and a figure walked in first, followed by a helpless secretary. Seeing that someone had come in, he glanced at Han Yi helplessly, "President, sorry, I didn't stop."

"There is no more of your business here. Go out." Han Yi said with a cold tone. After looking at the assistant, the assistant immediately understood.

The secretary thought Han Yi didn't care anymore and retreated. The assistant saw this and sighed slightly in his heart. The secretary was thinking too much, who could not understand who he was, and he liked to think about the thoughts of his superiors. If you try to figure it out, they will praise you, but this one People are stupid.

"Thank you to go out, too." Ning Ke said to the assistant.

The assistant heard Yan and glanced at Han Yi first. After getting permission from Han Yi, he left.

There were only two people left in the office. Ning Ke looked at Han Yi, and the coldness on his face was instantly replaced by sadness. "Han Yi, why don't you want to get engaged to me?"

Han Yi put down his pen and leaned on the back of the chair, looking at her with all his time, "I know who you are, why do you want to get engaged."

Ning Ke's face was white. "You don't know me anymore?"

Han Yi's heart burst, is it one of his many romantic debts? He looked up at Ning Ke again, and really had no impression of this woman.

Ning Ke saw that Han Yi really didn't remember her, and he was sobbing, "Han Yi, how can you do this, you used to say that I am your careful liver."

Oh, it turned out to be one of my many romantic debts. Han Yi wanted to understand that he felt even more regretful about his absurd life in the past. If he knew that Yu Xiaoxuan would be met, he had better cleansing himself at the beginning, but now he is all right. Isn't it called undead?

No matter what I thought in my heart, Han Yi couldn't see the slightest difference on his face, "So what, I once said this to many women, not just you."

"But you said you would marry me." Ning Ke was sad. "It's just for you, so I came back as soon as I finished my studies."

Han Yi frowned, "This lady, did you wake up in the daytime? Although his private life was ridiculous in the past, his sweet words were also open-mouthed, but he never said such things to women as to marry or marry. The one in front of him, Isn't it paranoid?"

"Han Yi, do you remember when you went to Country F on a business trip four years ago? You came to see me at school. We went to the bar to play together. You told me to marry me when I graduated."

Han Yi smiled, Ning Ke's eyes lit up, and thought Han Yi remembered, "Han Yi, did you remember?"

Han Yi nodded, "Well, think of it, you are that spectacle girl, elder sister, I suggest you go to see a psychologist, you are not sick."

Ning Ke turned pale and stared at Han Yi in a daze, "Han Yi, what do you mean?"

"It's literally." Han Yi's legs were on the desk, he held a pen in his hand, and turned it around his fingertips. The whole person exuded the charm of Dang Erlang, but damn charming.

Ning Ke's eyes flickered, the anger in his eyes disappeared instantly, and an obsessive expression appeared on his face, "Han Yi, you are still the same as before. I am in love with you like this, the breath of my body is very gloomy, but like It's an addictive poison that makes people want to stop."

Han Yi shook his body and stretched his hand exaggeratedly to touch his arm. "Please speak normally. If you do this, I will suspect that you have a problem here." He pointed to his head.

Ning Ke looked at him sadly, "Han Yi, do you have to treat me like this? Can't you talk to me properly? Like before."

Han Yi heard the words and immediately put his legs down, serious expression, "Do you have anything else? If not, please go out, my time is precious."

"Han Yi, getting engaged to me is only good for you and no harm. Although you are now the president of the Han Group, you only have 35% of the shares in your hands. The shares now look like a lot, but once the other shareholders join together, If you ask to remove you, you have no solution at all, and if you marry me, then 18% of the shares in our Ning family will be under your name, and the shares in your hand will become 53%. You will have an absolute controlling stake in the Han Group. I am the only heir of Shuangcheng International. Shuangcheng International will be mine, or our children. I will say that I have grown up It's not bad, and your education is high. It's okay for you. Why don't you agree to get engaged to me?"

She said calmly in her eyes when she said these words, where there was the nympho just now.

Han Yi applauded, "Okay, it's very good, so it looks more pleasing to the eye. It looks really awkward looking just now, Miss Ning, to give you a sincere suggestion, if you want to pretend to like others, At least it looks like a little bit, like eyes."

Ning Ke's expression stiffened, "I don't understand what you are talking about, I really like you, not pretending."

"Huh, I just said you don't pretend, you immediately put it on, Miss Ning, you may not know, although I am a brother in the game, I am used to keeping in the shopping malls on weekdays, but right, I I don't like people to pretend to be smart with me. I said this, you must still pretend to be me? If you are not sincere, I'm afraid I can only ask you to go out."

Wen Yan said, the expression on Ning Ke's face suddenly stopped, and he sat down on the chair opposite Han Yi. "Well, since President Han is so direct, then I also said directly."

Her expression at the moment is breezy, and the affectionate and regretlessness just now is like a fantasy.

Han Yi's eyes showed a real expression like this, "Sure enough, it is still so comfortable, let's say, what do you want to do?"

Ning Ke smiled, "Mr. Han, the suggestion that I said to announce the engagement is serious. It is also true to give you shares, but the marriage is fake."

Han Yi raised an eyebrow, "Oh?"

Ning Ke continued, "I know that Mr. Han is in a relationship with Miss Miss. You are always a boyfriend. You have always been together and have very good feelings. Like Mr. Han, I have someone I like, but you also understand that like us Family, the marriage partner is not up to you, and my family is the same. My parents look down on my boyfriend. I want to break up with us several times. But my boyfriend and I have a very good relationship. If I choose to be with him, I must give up the status of heir to Shuangcheng International and leave Ning's house. If I am willing to listen to them, they will immediately give me Shuangcheng International."

Han Yi understood that the lady in front of him wanted both love and family property, and it was really greedy.

"Shuangcheng International and Han's have always had a happy cooperation. Shuangcheng is also the second largest shareholder of Han's. Even if I don't say its influence in Han's, Mr. Han should understand. How can an ambitious emperor lie on the couch? Shang Rong let others sleep soundly. I believe that people like Mr. Han would like to take back the 18% equity if they had the opportunity."

Ning Ke said his thoughts without saying his purpose.

"Wait, let me interrupt." Han Yi interrupted Ning Ke. "Miss Ning, my time is very precious. I'll trouble you to be straightforward and say your purpose directly."

Ning Ke's expression was stiff for a moment. She had never seen a person like Han Yi who didn't give her face, but she quickly returned to normal. "Okay, then I will make a long story and don't delay President Han's precious time." She deliberately bit the words of precious time, more like a mockery.

Han Yi's expression remained unchanged.

Ning Ke organized the language and said, "I need Mr. Han to marry me. One year later, we will divorce. As compensation, I will give you that 18% of the shares."

puff! Han Yi was drinking water. After hearing this, a sip of water sprayed directly on Ning Ke's face, and Ning Ke's black face.

"I'm sorry, I was excited for a moment." Han Yi said with no sincerity, handing her the paper towel on the table, Ning Kemu wiped her face, wiped the water on her face, and painted delicate makeup on her face. This wipe wiped off the makeup.

Han Yi pointed to the lounge, Ning Ke walked in, and when he came out, the makeup on his face was already as delicate as when he came.

"I didn't understand the meaning of Miss Ning just now, and I hope Miss Ning will explain it to me." Han Yi said.

Ning Ke sat down again and wanted to take a sip of water, but found that no one poured water for her from now on and frowned, "Mr. Han, can I drink a glass of water?"

Han Yi pointed to his watch, Ning Ke turned green, this man.

"I am pregnant, but my family doesn't agree with me and my boyfriend to marry. They are optimistic about you and want our two to marry, and I don't want my child to be an illegitimate child, so I want to marry you, rest assured, I won't I ask you to fulfill your husband's obligations. My only requirement is to be my nominal husband. After one year, I will divorce you on the grounds of our emotional disagreement. Except for the child's return to me, all other property after marriage It's yours, and you can still get that 18% of the shares, and the gains from the increasingly close cooperation between Shuangcheng and Han's. I say this, don't you understand?"

Han Yi naturally understood that, with a smile on his face, a glimmer of light flashed in the eyes of Ning Ke, she knew that no man could refuse this suggestion, especially a man like Han Yi, after all, Han Yi was ambitious and The ability of a man is known from the fact that he developed Han's family to a scale that neither his ancestors nor his fathers could reach in just a few years. And as far as she knows, Han Yi has his own industry in private.

Such a man is indeed a very suitable object for marriage, and it is no wonder that her parents will fall in love with him. If there is not a loved one, maybe she will also seriously consider the proposal to marry Han Yi.

"That's really embarrassing, Miss Ning, I'm not interested in your proposal at all, and I don't want to like being a dad. You still have to be smart." Han Yi said with a smirk.

The smile on Ning Ke's mouth just stiffened on his face. He didn't seem to understand what Han Yi said. He looked at Han Yi stupefied, "What are you talking about?"

Han Yi's expression was faint, "My words have been made very clear, you can go. Don't send Miss Ning slowly."

Ning Ke's expression was blank and unbelievable, "Han Yi, I think you may not understand what I mean."

"No, I understand, but I refused. You were right. That's because Han Yi is ambitious and capable, so I can expand the territory on my own without the need of a woman's charity, any meal. I eat everything, but I don't eat soft rice."

"Han Yi, you know what you refused, and you only need to transfer one credit to get it without paying. Isn't that why you are unwilling?" Ning Ke really didn't understand it and changed it. Any man would agree under such favorable conditions.

"I'm not stupid, but for me, this reputation is the most important thing. It was absurd for the first half of my life. It is clean to leave it alone. I want to keep it completely to the person I want to give it. Instead of selling it as a transaction, I am a businessman, but I am also a man, and I also have someone I want to protect and cherish." More importantly, he will not let Yu Xiaoxuan bear the third or the next. The reputation of the room will not make their children illegitimate.

Han Yi said that he was extremely serious, which formed a strong contrast with his posture.

Ning Ke looked at him calmly for a long time, and then quietly spoke, "Han Yi, you are different from what I thought."

"Oh, what kind of person do you think I am?" Han Yi asked with interest.

Ning Ke smiled and said, "Before the outside world rumored you..." Unfinished words, but let Han Yi understand her meaning, smiled, "who has not been young and frivolous when not sensible. You should not I chose it because of this?"

The atmosphere between the two suddenly became harmonious. Ning Ke's face finally showed a sincere smile. "It's not true, but I don't deny that there is this part of the reason. My parents really appreciate your ability. The heart of wanting a strong union is true, and if I am willing to marry you, then my parents will pass easily, your reputation... cough, that is the same, even if it is divorced in the future it will not affect you much."

"Then I am probably disappointing Miss Ning now."

"Disappointment is a bit, but more surprised, I did not expect that Mr. Han was such an infatuated person. When I was studying, I once heard a sentence. The more ruthless people, the more affectionate they are when they take it seriously. It is very suitable for President Han. The girl whom President Han fell in love with is very lucky." Ning Ke's eyes are envious, and she hopes that she can choose the one she loves like Han Yi.

Han Yi chuckled, "Miss Ning, you are so ridiculous, I'm not that good, just happened to meet such a person, and said lucky, actually the lucky person is me." Yu Xiaoxuan let him understand what it is love, what is affection, what is warm.

Ning Ke looked at Han Yi with curiosity in her eyes, Han Yi raised her eyebrows at her, Ning Ke smiled, "I'm a little curious, how did you see that I was pretending, don't you know that we didn't understand?"

Han Yi shook his head. He had so many girlfriends in the past. Where do you remember? When he first saw Ning Ke, he really thought he was the romantic debt he had left before.

"It's your eyes that betrayed you. Although you are affectionate on your face, you don't have any emotion in your eyes. The look of loving someone is not like you." Han Yi said.

Ning Ke stayed for a while, and then laughed, "It turns out that I did it naturally. I didn't expect it to be exposed at a glance. This is probably the legendary trick. Fortunately, I haven't been an actor. Drown me." Ning Ke teased himself.

Han Yi smiled, "Don't drown you so much, a lot of black powder is true."

"Who was the glasses girl you called just now, wouldn't you just treat me as some kind of endurance in your past?"

Han Yi shrugged, "I don't know who I am, I just say it casually."

It turned out to be a fraud, Ning Ke suddenly realized.

"Since Mr. Han has someone who really wants to take care of me, then my proposal just now is nullified. Mr. Han, when I didn't say, I'm here to wish you and Ms. Yu the early birth of your son and grow old. As far as things on Weibo are concerned, you can rest assured. , I will clarify. In fact, I am not without gains today. At least I met you again, and the rumors are not credible."

Han Yi smiled slightly, but Ning Ke's eyes flickered. She had to admit that Han Yi's appearance was a killing of most of the women. It was simply a devil. It's no wonder that his life was so ridiculous before. His girlfriend changed it every three days. No bad things happened, I am afraid that his face alone can make countless women crazy, willing to be one of his many women.

"It's not unbelievable, the previous ones are true, but now my prodigal son is back."

"Okay, congratulations to President Han, the prodigal son, looking back and re-recognizing that I am Ning Ke of Shuangcheng International." Ning Ke held out his hand.

Han Yi stood up and shook her politely, "I am Han Yi."

"Mr. Han, it's almost time for dinner. Is there an honor to invite you to have a meal?" Ning Ke issued an invitation.

Han Yi shook his head, "Even if you eat, let's change the day."

Ning Ke also remembered that at the moment they were at the cusp of public opinion, and indeed they were not on the same occasion. If they were photographed to eat together, they would not know how much disturbance they would cause.

"I haven't thought about it, then I'll make an appointment next time." She took out a business card from her bag and put it on the table. "This is my business card. You can call me later if you have the opportunity." Let's take your girlfriend out and have a meal together. I also want to see what kind of girl is it that can let the Han Prodigal Son look back."

"You should have seen her."

"That's on TV, but I haven't touched it in my life."

"Okay, I have the opportunity to bring her out next time." Han Yi did not refuse.

"Then I won't delay President Han's precious time, I will say goodbye first."

"Wait." Han Yi said.

Ning Ke is about to watch, and will open the door. "Miss Ning, I have a sincere suggestion for you. You can't have both fish and bear's paws. You should think about what is most important to you. Waiting for you If you think about it, you won't be so embarrassed."

"Thank you." Ning Ke said.

When Ning Ke walked out, he happened to meet the secretary who had stopped her from entering the office. She had a cardboard box in her hand and her eyes were red. At first glance, she was dismissed.

The secretary saw her coming out, pathetic. Looked at her.

Ning Ke's eyes flickered slightly, withdrawn her eyes and turned into the elevator. Such a person changed to her as Han Yi, and she would not stay in the company. In fact, although she was fierce when she broke into the office, but in fact anyone's She can stop her, and the secretary just did not really want to stop her first, perhaps because of her two shareholders' share of money at the time, or perhaps for other reasons.

In the office, Han Yi leaned back on the chair and looked at the ceiling, not knowing what to think. After a while, he called the assistant, "Give me something... Yes, tomorrow, it must be furnished , If you can't do it, you will get out of my way."

The assistant responded with a bitter sorrow. He was originally planning to eat, changed his direction, and walked out of the door. Time was running out. There were so many things to prepare. He still managed the task of the boss. Let me talk about it.

Digression

Just like this Han Yi, do you like it?

PS: At 12 o'clock noon today, I started grabbing red envelopes. It is a large package. The number is not large. First come first served. Those with a Xiaoxiang account must not forget that there is only one large package. .
