Chapter 721: Creating Trouble for the Goblin

“You said that the Virtual God wanted to steal my inheritance. Could you please provide more information?” Lin Huang asked.

“His name is Wu Zhi. He was one of my followers during the old era. Despite not being the strongest, he’s the most intelligent. During our era, when the abyssal monsters arrived, he did not fight them. Instead, he avoided them. He took advantage of the war and collected the corpses of the Virtual Gods. He wanted to become the True God evilly. However, he was killed before the plot succeeded. The God’s soul remained in his son’s body.

“When humans entered the land, his son took over the human’s body using some tricks. After the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine was activated, the God’s soul sensed it and was awakened. Therefore, he has now occupied the person’s body.

“Wu Zhi is ambitious as he’s eager for the rise of the tribal members. The credentials and talents of the body that he has occupied are comparable to yours. If he can inherit the Sorcerer Goddess’s memory, he’ll definitely be able to become the True God given ample time. Regardless of whether the abyssal monsters arrive or not, he’ll be a nightmare to all the cultivators in the new era.”

Lin Huang frowned again as he heard that ominous news. “How long will he take to transform back to a Virtual God?”

“That’s uncertain. Besides being a Virtual God, his body has terrifying abilities, so it’s not difficult for him to restore his original combat strength. However, I’m doubtful of how complete the memory of the God’s soul is. If the God’s soul manages to store all the memory, in half a year or a year at the most, he’ll be able to restore his combat strength as a Virtual God. He doesn’t lack any resources to level up in the floating land. If the memory of the God’s soul is incomplete, I can’t predict how long it’ll take him to restore his ability. It might take him several years, or he might not be able to even after hundreds of years.”

“What about the human that he has parasitized? Is there any useful information?” Lin Huang questioned.

“He is called Zhu Xing. He’s also a supreme genius, and his combat strength is on immortal-level rank-9. I don’t know much about him though.” Wu Mo paused, “You’re not the only one who managed to get through the last round of the assessment. He has completed the drawing of three new rune lines and developed 3,000 complete runes. However, he prepared it beforehand.”

“Does it count as cheating if he knows the content of the assessment beforehand?” Lin Huang recalled how they had cheated during the exams when he was in university.

“It is indeed considered cheating. However, the Sorcerer Goddess didn’t mention that cheating is prohibited. That’s why he’s not deemed having violated the rules.” Wu Mo explained helplessly.

“Does it mean that he’s qualified to inherit the Sorcerer Goddess’s memory as well?” Lin Huang frowned.

“Theoretically, yes, he is. However, after the last round of the assessment has ended and there’s more than one successful candidate, the one with the best performance will be chosen. The Sorcerer Goddess has thought about this earlier.”

“Therefore, I’m still the one who gets the inheritance, am I not?” Lin Huang was relieved when he heard that.

“Of course, you’ll be the one,” Wu Mo assured him and continued, “You have less than ten minutes now. I’ll insert the Sorcerer Goddess’s memory into your body. It’s best for you to leave early. As long as the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine is automatically closed, nobody will know that the memory has been obtained. Wu Zhi wanted to inherit the Sorcerer Goddess’s memory on his own. Therefore, it’s impossible for him to reveal the information to the others. As long as you can avoid Wu Zhi, you’ll be safe.”

“There’s no need to avoid him. If he were to get me into trouble, I’d have fun with him.” Lin Huang had a mischievous look on his face.

“Are you sure that you’re able to handle him? His ability is on par with an imperial-level.” Although Lin Huang had performed many miracles throughout the challenge, Wu Mo did not think that he was capable of fighting Wu Zhi.

“Don’t get yourself into trouble. He’s way more difficult to deal with than you can imagine.”

“Don’t worry. I’m not going to fight him face to face. I’ll just create trouble for him.” Lin Huang grinned.

Wu Mo had no idea what Lin Huang was thinking. Encountering such a strong enemy, anyone would usually choose aversion in the first place. However, Lin Huang decided to stir chaos instead.

“If you’re caught, you’ll wish you chose death,” Wu Mo warned. However, she did not want to talk about this anymore. “I’ll now insert the Sorcerer Goddess’s memory into your body.”

After Wu Mo’s voice was heard, a meteorite suddenly streaked across the vast expanse of sky at lightning fast speed. It was heading straight towards Lin Huang.

The meteorite was flying at a breakneck speed, and Lin Huang could not avoid it at all. He was stunned as he gaped at the meteorite that appeared less than ten meters away from him. When he was about to strike, the meteorite suddenly stopped moving. It was like a mountain that spanned across the sky.

“What’s happening?” As Lin Huang wondered, a crack was heard coming from the meteorite in front of him. Soon, there was a second crack, a third... Within seconds, many cracks appeared on the meteorite like a spider web.

After several moments, the meteorite was crushed entirely into debris.

Lin Huang felt odd as he stared at the scene that had just happened without any clue.

As soon as the meteorite collapsed, the debris scattered and floated in mid-air like Lin Huang. Soon after that, Lin Huang found a shiny, golden item among the debris.

He appeared next to the golden item in a flash and grabbed it.

The crystal was the size of a fist, and it looked like a golden mineral in a bizarre shape. When he grabbed it, Lin Huang sensed a familiar energy wave.

“How should I use this?”

“Hold it between your eyebrows. It’ll enter your body on its own,” Wu Mo said, then added, “However, due to your low combat strength, you’re not allowed to read most of the contents. Perhaps you’ll only be able to completely receive the inheritance when you achieve the Virtual God level. Since the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine is closing soon, you don’t need to read the inherited memory yet. Let’s talk about it later after you get out of this place. I’ll now grant you some of the authority of the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine.

Before Lin Huang could check out the Sorcerer Goddess’s inheritance, many messages gushed into his mind. Going through them, he realized that they were some of the jurisdictions of the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine.

“It’s only activated once a year. Please come again next year if you want to enter.”

Lin Huang soon noticed the time and grinned. “Fortunately, there are still a few minutes remaining.”

He adjusted his voice slightly and soon he sounded like a lady. It was the effect of the Advanced Disguise. “Sorcerer Goddess, do I sound the same as you?”

“What are you trying to do?” Wu Mo found him ridiculous.

“I told you earlier that I’m going to create trouble for the goblin.” Lin Huang smirked wryly.

After several moments, a voice that sounded exactly the same as Wu Mo’s was heard throughout the 12 shrines in the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine.

Chapter 722: The Closing of the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine

Every one of them distinctly heard the woman’s voice in the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine. Regardless of whether they were inside or outside the shrine, even Lin Huang and Zhu Xing who were in mid-air could hear it clearly.

As the announcement rang out, everybody was stunned. Many of them started asking who Zhu Xing was.

In mid-air, Wu Zhi was astonished to hear the notification.

“What does it mean? Was Wu Mo trying to scare me just now? In fact, nobody has actually passed the assessment. Am I the one who’s able to receive the inheritance?”

However, the thought lasted for less than ten seconds, and Wu Zhi knew that he was wrong because he found out that there were only a few minutes left before the closing of the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine. Apart from the announcement, he did not receive any rewards related to the inheritance, and there were no new messages in his mind.

“Wu Mo, are you fooling me?!”

Noticing that the notification was unusual, Wu Zhi’s temper shot up, and he yelled upon finding out that he was wrong. Since he knew Wu Mo for so many years, he knew that she would not do something silly like this although she did not want him to receive the inheritance.

“No, it’s not you. It must be the fella who received the inheritance! Since he’s gotten the inheritance, he must’ve been granted some authority over the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine. The fella must have spread the rumor!”

Zhu Xing managed to figure out that Lin Huang was the one who had done it with little effort.

Wu Mo remained quiet. At this moment, if she happened to say anything wrong, Wu Zhi would have something to use against her. She simply refused to talk to him and provide him with any other useful information.

On the other hand, Wu Mo contacted Lin Huang again.

“Wu Zhi already knows that it was you who did that. He knows me well enough to know that I won’t trick him to fulfill my own desires. Also, he knew that you’ve gotten my inheritance and obtained part of the authority over the control of the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine.”

“It seems like he’s smarter than I thought. However, that’s fine. Just let it be.” Lin Huang was not worried at all.

“You’ve tricked him. Aren’t you afraid that he’ll tell the public that you’re actually the one who’s obtained the inheritance?” Wu Mo asked.

“He has planned to become the True God for tens of thousands of years. Do you think that he’ll share this piece of information with the others?” Lin Huang laughed.

“No, he won’t.” When she heard Lin Huang’s rhetorical question, Wu Mo immediately realized that Lin Huang was taking advantage of Wu Zhi’s attitude.

“Yes, you’re right. Ordinary people will definitely think of ways to make things clear when they’re falsely accused. The simplest way is to tell the truth. However, Wu Zhi isn’t an average person. Since he could secretly work for a sole goal for ages, it’s proven that he has a high tolerance. He won’t lose his rationality simply because I tricked him. If he were to tell the truth about me actually being the one who obtained the inheritance, he’d only increase the number of competitors. He would’ve wished that he was the only one who knows the truth. Though I framed him, he’ll choose to bear with it. He might probably refute the others when he’s attacked, but he definitely won’t tell them the truth. That being said, he'll be the one who wants to keep the secret instead of me. The fewer people who know the truth, the higher the probability that he'll be able to steal the inheritance."

After listening to Lin Huang's analysis, Wu Mo instantly discovered that Lin Huang's thought process was not that simple.

"Yes, you're right. Even if Wu Mo is falsely accused, he'll choose to keep the secret. He's an extremely arrogant guy, and he isn't afraid of being attacked by the others at all. You did a good job by getting him into trouble. However, Wu Zhi holds grudges. If there's a chance for him to take revenge on you, he'll definitely do so. You have to be careful. It's not difficult for him to figure out your plot. As soon as he manages to get away with it, that's when he's going to create trouble for you."

"If he's hiding all the while and gets me into trouble only when he has leveled up to Virtual God, I won't be able to handle him. However, if he creates trouble for me before restoring his combat strength, he's always more than welcome." Lin Huang had no fear of the Virtual God at all.

Since Lin Huang was so confident, Wu Mo did not say anything else. She knew that the young man was more matured than she thought and he would not get himself into trouble despite the fact that the opponent was once a Virtual God. She could see that there was no fear in Lin Huang's eyes and he put up a false bravado. In fact, he was not afraid of Wu Zhi at all.

In the vast expanse of sky, Wu Mo did not respond to Wu Zhi after a long while. He then confirmed that Lin Huang was the one who had tricked him.

"Wu Mo, I have to admit that the guy who inherited the Sorcerer Goddess's memory is a smart guy. He tricked me to buy him some time. He did a great job. I'm afraid that I won't be able to create trouble for him in a short period of time.

"However, please tell him not to feel so jubilant first. After I get my stuff done, he'll know the definition of big trouble. I'm definitely going to take revenge on him, and you know this. On the day when I manage to capture him, I'll show him what death feels like!

"Alright, stop bullshitting. The Sorcerer Goddess's Shrine is closing soon. Think of ways to get away with this. Many of them are going to try to kill you now," Wu Mo gloated.

"They are just small potatoes. I'll need some time to deal with this. If you want to laugh at me, you're just going to be disappointed." Wu Zhi looked down upon the rest.

"I'm going to see what will happen next. I have faith that you'll do a fantastic job," Wu Mo said, and her voice could no longer be heard.

The calmer Wu Mo was, the more Wu Zhi felt offended. He attempted to communicate with Wu Mo several times. As he did not get any reply, he kept quiet, waiting for the closing of the Sorcerer Goddess's Shrine.

On the other side, Lin Huang started talking to Wu Mo again.

"Sis Momo, what do you think about my suggestion?"

"What suggestion is that?" Wu Mo asked although she knew what he was trying to say.

“Let’s leave the floating land together. You promised that we’d leave together as soon as I receive the inheritance. I’ve already gotten the inheritance, so shouldn’t you keep your word?” Lin Huang mentioned this again.

After a moment of silence, Wu Mo asked, “Why are you insisting on leaving together with me?”

“I have my own intentions though. The disaster of the invasion of the abyssal monster is going to arrive in less than five years. I hope that you can return to your real body in five years’ time. You’ll be a great assistance to us by then. In the new era, humans are too weak. The strongest man is one of the Virtual Gods that is severely injured. The rest of them are demigods. If we’re attacked by the abyssal monsters now, we’ll definitely lose the battle. I see no chance of winning at all.”

“Do you want to be a savior?” Wu Mo asked suspiciously.

“No, I don’t. However, I don’t want my family and friends to get killed. My sister is only 16 years old, and many of my friends are in their 20’s. I don’t want them to die young.”

Wu Mo remained silent for a while. Just when Lin Huang thought that she was not going to keep her promise, she finally said, “Alright, let’s leave together!”

As soon as her voice was heard, a notification arrived.

“The Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine is closing soon. To all the challengers, please get ready to leave. The countdown begins now. 10, 9, 8...3, 2, 1.”

Chapter 723: He’s Zhu Xing!

Right when the sound of the countdown timer was heard, Wu Mo spoke up, “After leaving the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine, I’ll be asleep within the droplet of the God’s blood. I’ve imprinted all the materials and methods required to restore my combat strength. However, it’s only in theory. I’m unsure of its rate of success though. Try your best to collect all the required sources.”

Apparently, Wu Mo had no faith in transforming back to her real body. She sounded casual like she was trying to tell Lin Huang, “Just try your best. Fate has its way.”

“Don’t worry. I’ll keep my promise and try my best.” Lin Huang knew that Wu Mo had no faith in him. However, he pretended as if he did not realize it.

“Thank you.” She did not say anything else. At that moment, the countdown timer that lingered in the air was about to end.

Right at this moment, a flash of gold suddenly appeared. In an instant, the golden glow streamed into Lin Huang’s chest just like the Sorcerer Goddess’s blood had.

Lin Huang was stunned. He immediately responded to it and realized that the golden glow must be the remaining consciousness of Wu Mo’s real body.

At that second, the countdown timer in the sky ended.

Lin Huang went into a trance. As soon as he was able to react, the sky had disappeared and was replaced by a snowy land.

Despite the snow having stopped, Lin Huang could still easily recognize that it was the floating land.

The Sorcerer Goddess's Shrine that was made of ice crystals appeared in front of Lin Huang at less than 20 meters away. The door was closed, and it became transparent.

Lin Huang noticed that people were constantly sent back and the number of people was increasing.

In just a blink of an eye, the humans and the tribal members who had previously stayed in the Sorcerer Goddess's Shrine were sent back.

As for the shrine made of ice crystals, it became transparent in less than three seconds, and it eventually disappeared.

Lin Huang sized up the surroundings and realized that not many of them were sent out from the Sorcerer Goddess Tower. There were about 200 of them. However, they were not weak as they were able to stay in the Sorcerer Goddess's Shrine right until it closed.

Among the crowd, Lin Huang saw the plump man, Zhu Xing. As he was sizing him up, Zhu Xing looked towards him as well.

Zhu Xing had seen Lin Huang before when they were in the Sorcerer Goddess's Shrine. He could recognize Lin Huang at first glance. He also knew that Wu Mo might have told Lin Huang about him before.

However, Zhu Xing was not going to attack Lin Huang since the place was crowded. Instead, he smiled at Lin Huang from afar.

Lin Huang grinned back and did not provoke him. He slowly walked towards Zhu Xing.

Zhu Xing did not expect that Lin Huang would have the courage to walk towards him. He frowned when he saw this.

Lin Huang stopped when he was about three meters away from Zhu Xing. He greeted him. "Is this our first time meeting?"

The first time when they met each other had been in the Sorcerer Goddess's Shrine. However, the meeting was not an official one.

"Let it be," Zhu Xing replied. He wondered what Lin Huang's intention was. Seeing Lin Huang walking towards him, he suppressed his urge to attack. He knew very well that if he were to attack him, the rest would know that Lin Huang was actually the one who had obtained the inheritance. "You know who I am, yet you're standing so close to me. Should I say that you're brave? Or are you mad?"

"No, I'm neither. The reason why I have the guts to stand near you is that I know that you won't attack me." Lin Huang was confident.

Zhu Xing frowned at his sass. Soon, his features returned to normal as he gazed at Lin Huang's face. "I have to admit that you're smart. No wonder you could think of a way to set me up."

"I'm forced to do so. If I didn't set you up, perhaps you were going to get me into trouble once you leave." Lin Huang was frank with him and told him the reason why he wanted to fool him.

"I hold grudges. I believe that Wu Mo has mentioned that to you before." Zhu Xing narrowed his eyes.

"Yes, she did." Lin Huang nodded and smiled.

"I guess you've no idea how I deal with people who take me as a fool." Zhu Xing guffawed.

"Tell me."

"To deal with a person who has fooled me, I'll first chop off their limbs and blend them into juice. I'll feed the person with the juice, and no leftover is allowed. I'll keep the person alive with some unique tactics and start dissecting them. I'll first exchange the person's heart, lungs, kidney, and the rest of his organs with the swine beast's organ. The person can only live up to three days at the most and the shortest time that one can survive is less than three minutes.

"As long as you're willing to let go of the inheritance of the True God, I won't kill you. Since you have outstanding credentials and you're talented, you can become my slave and part of your consciousness will remain.

"You have to know that there's no chance of winning if you were to fight me. As long as you're willing to let go of the True God's inheritance, I can forgive your past misdeeds, including the fact that you've actually set me up."

"It sounds like an attractive offer..." Lin Huang was tempted.

"I'll give you an hour to consider whether to accept my offer or not. I'll wait for you right here," Zhu Xing urged.

Lin Huang stroked his chin and kept quiet for less than ten seconds and said, "I don't need to consider it anymore. I've made up my mind."

"So, your decision is..."

"My decision is..." When Lin Huang's voice was heard, he suddenly pointed at Zhu Xing and yelled, "Guys, come here! He's Zhu Xing! He's the guy who has gotten the True God's inheritance!"

Lin Huang's voice drew everybody's attention.

Everybody's eyes brightened as soon as they heard Zhu Xing's name since the Sorcerer Goddess's Shrine informed them that Zhu Xing was the one who had inherited the Sorcerer Goddess's memory.

The few of them who got into the shrine were exceptionally strong. They thought that Zhu Xing was the one who had obtained the inheritance. Having watched Zhu Xing's attacks more than once throughout the challenges, they knew that he was terrifying.

Zhu Xing had never expected that was what Lin Huang was going to do. Although Lin Huang had mentioned his name before during the announcement, not many of them knew how he looked like. Therefore, he would only have to handle a small number of people. Right now, after Lin Huang set him up, he instantly became the public's attention.

Zhu Xing could not tell the truth. Seeing the crowd was coming after him, he gave Lin Huang a killer stare and immediately fled.

Since Zhu Xing was trying to escape, the people were like a swarm of bees chasing after him.

Lin Huang stood in his original position, witnessing Zhu Xing being chased by the crowd and he was getting further away from him. He grinned triumphantly. "I've temporarily resolved the problem."

Chapter 724: Returning to the Sorcerer Goddess Tower

Seeing the crowd chasing after Zhu Xing, Lin Huang, who stayed in his original position, summoned Thunder. As he rode on Thunder's back, he extended his finger, pointing in another direction. "Let's head back to the Sorcerer Goddess Tower!"

Thunder fluttered its wings and flew off into the sky. They headed towards the tribal members' foothold where Bai Gu was previously.

After flying for a short while, a black shadow gradually emerged from the snowy land. Unexpectedly, it was the position where Zhu Xing had been sent back just now.

Soon, the black shadow transformed into a human form. Although his features could not be seen clearly, he looked remarkably like Zhu Xing.

"The fella runs away so quickly," the black shadow mumbled. If Wu Mo had not been asleep, she would have figured out that it was Zhu Xing's voice.

"I won't let you go next time!"

Witnessing Thunder disappear within seconds, the black shadow did not chase after it. Instead, he muttered to himself. Soon after, his body faded away just like the snow that quickly melted as the sunlight shone on it.

Lin Huang did not notice what had just happened at the snowy land. Of course, he would not mind even if he saw that. At Thunder's flying speed, even an immortal-level human would not be able to catch up with it.

Since Lin Huang was riding on Thunder, they flew for more than half an hour. Eventually, they arrived at the foothold where Bai Gu and the rest were, and Lin Huang recalled Thunder.

The second they stepped into the foothold, a lady's voice was heard. "Lin Xie, you're back!"

As the voice was heard, a pink shadow appeared in front of Lin Huang in a flash. Indeed, she was Duo Er.

"Lin Xie, did you just get out of the Sorcerer Goddess's Shrine?" Duo Er's doll-like body floated mid-air, and she asked curiously.

"How did you know that I went to the Sorcerer Goddess's Shrine?" Lin Huang frowned.

"The tribe leader told me." Duo Er was proud of herself. "I was sent back to the foothold by the Sorcerer Goddess's Shrine a few days ago. I didn't see you since then, so I thought that you were practicing in the Sorcerer Goddess Tower. The tribe leader told me that you left the Sorcerer Goddess Tower three days after we went to the Sorcerer Goddess's Shrine and that you went to the Sorcerer Goddess's Shrine alone."

“Yes, you’re right. After the training, I heard that the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine was open and I immediately rushed over.” When he heard what Duo Er said, Lin Huang knew that Bai Gu had not told them that he had obtained the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine’s key. He wove a lie according to Bai Gu’s story.

“Today is the last day of the opening of the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine. I reckon that you managed to get through many of the challenges?” Duo Er asked.

“No, I was stuck at the seventh shrine, and I didn’t manage to get through that even after the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine was closed,” Lin Huang lied. Since he owned part of the authority of the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine, he knew the structure of the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine and the contents of the assessment pretty well.

“You did a great job. I was disqualified in the third shrine.” Duo Er was upset.

While the both of them were chatting, a familiar voice was heard again. “Duo Er, don’t block his way. Please come in.” It was the tribe leader, Bai Gu.

Lin Huang lifted his head and looked towards Bai Gu. He then greeted, “Hi, Sir.”

“Are you free to talk?” Bai Gu was holding his walking stick, the tip of which, pointed at the ground. His eyes were hollow as he looked towards Lin Huang.

“Sure,” Lin Huang answered. He touched Duo Er’s head affectionately and walked towards Bai Gu. Duo Er did not follow him. As the two of them disappeared, she left, heading towards another direction.

Bai Gu led Lin Huang back to the Sorcerer Goddess Tower.

“Am I not welcomed?” Lin Huang smiled.

“You’re always welcome,” the face answered with a smile as well.

After chatting for a while, Lin Huang and Bai Gu entered the first level of the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine. It was the first time that he was brought into that room.

“Take a seat.” Bai Gu then sat down on the futon opposite him with his legs crossed and Lin Huang followed suit.

“Have you met the Sorcerer Goddess? Is she fine?” Bai Gu asked a question that was utterly unrelated to the result of the assessment.

Lin Huang remained silent for a while and answered, “Yes, she’s fine with the remaining consciousness she has.”

“That’s good.” Bai Gu nodded. After a moment of silence, he asked, “Have you obtained the inheritance? To be honest, I didn’t want to ask this, but I have to know.”

“Do you want me to tell you the truth or lie to you?” Lin Huang asked with a wry smile.

“Lie to me.”

“A person named Zhu Xing has gotten the inheritance. A Virtual God has occupied his body called Wu Zhi,” Lin Huang replied.

“I understand.” Bai Gu nodded his head. He slowly got up, picking up his walking stick. “There’s not much time left for you to stay here in the floating land. Make good use of the remaining time. I don’t want to disturb you anymore.”

“Aren’t you interested in knowing the truth?” Lin Huang asked.

“No, I already know the answer.” As Bai Gu got up, he pushed the door and walked out of the Sorcerer Goddess Tower without turning his head back.

Seeing that Bai Gu had left, Lin Huang then appeared on the ninth level of the Sorcerer Goddess Tower. One would not have to go through the levels that one had passed through in the Sorcerer Goddess Tower for the second time. Instead, he could be transported in an instant.

On level nine, Lin Huang sat down and started practicing his Army Attack Tactics.

He realized that when he was on the ninth level of the Sorcerer Goddess Tower, the speed of practicing his Army Attack Tactics was more than 20 times faster. He managed to collect more than 80,000 skill pieces in an hour. It was a heaven for practicing his Army Attack Tactics. Since the spirit energy was 500 times more concentrated, he wished that he could complete practicing level-10 of his Army Attack Tactics.

As he sat down, the Army Attack Tactics started circulating in Lin Huang’s body, and skill pieces were gathered just as he expected.

Soon, Lin Huang was immersed in the state of practicing.

Three days soon passed. In the snowy land that was thousands of kilometers away from the foothold of the tribal members, a plump man was surrounded by 20 people. To be more precise, there were six humans whereas the rest of them were tribal members in their puppet forms.

“Zhu Xing, let go of the Sorcerer Goddess’s inheritance. You can’t take it all on your own,” one of the tribal members said.

“Zhu Xing, we do agree that you’re strong. However, none of us are weak either. It might be difficult for us to steal something away from you if it were a one-on-one battle. However, there are 20 of us here. Don’t attempt to fight back, which will be an effort in vain. Also, we’ve locked the entire dimension down. You won’t be able to run away this time.”

“I’ve said countless times that I don’t have the inheritance with me. The person who obtained the inheritance set me back,” Zhu Xing insisted helplessly.

“Since you’ve been fooled, tell us who the person is. We can talk to him face to face,” someone suggested.

“I’ve no idea who has it.” Zhu Xing was reluctant to tell that Lin Huang was the one.

“We’ll just kill you so that the inheritance will be freed from your dead body!”

Chapter 725: Available Mythical-Level Card

Dead bodies lay scattered on the snow. Most of the 23 slain were killed instantly, and only some of them suffered multiple injuries on their bodies. Most of them were had their heads chopped off. A plump man stood in the middle of the bodies, the tip of his supreme sword relic still dripping with blood.

“I’m in luck this time. I didn’t expect that this host would be so talented in Sword Dao. He remedied those in our tribe who are weak at close-range fighting.” Zhu Xing started to browse through all the bodies after putting his sword away.

Wu Zhi would not be interested in searching for treasure on the corpses. However, since he had made Zhu Xing his host, there was nothing on him that was valuable besides the finger bone that he got from the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine earlier. Moreover, he needed a massive amount of resources to improve his combat level so he would have to put down his pride and search for stuff from these people who were not even on imperial-level.

“Not even a demigod relic. I’ve got no idea what’s in their Emperor’s Heart Rings, and I’ll have to get someone to unseal them later. Ugh, so much trouble!”

“Since I can’t find the guy who’s got the key to the Sorcerer Goddess’s Shrine, he must be hiding in the Sorcerer Goddess Tower now. Tomorrow will be the last day of the one-month period. There’s only 12 Sorcerer Goddess Towers. Besides the one that my tribe is in, there’re 11 others. Among the 11 Sorcerer Goddess Towers, there’re only 7 of them who aren’t against humans. Only these seven tribes would allow humans to enter their tower. I should have enough time to visit the seven footholds within the remaining two days.

“It’ll be much easier if I manage to kill the guy on this floating land. He’s a genius after all, and there must be people protecting him out there. In my current condition, I won’t be able to handle imperial-levels who are just slightly powerful, let alone demigods. Moreover, many people will be eyeing the inheritance. The competition will be even more intense, so I’ll have to take the inheritance from him before tomorrow. I’ll disguise as a different face and leave this land together with the rest.”

After coming up with a plan, Zhu Xing flew into the air and looked far away.

“But before that, I’ll need some assistance...”

He then raced like an arrow towards the direction that he was looking at

As time passed by, Lin Huang spent four days on the ninth level of the Sorcerer Goddess Tower. During the four days, he did not eat or rest as he focused on the cultivation of his Army Attack Tactics. He accumulated more two million skill card pieces every day. Compared to the two million-odd card pieces that he collected in the beginning, he was closer to his goal of ten million card pieces to break through to the level-10 of Army Attack Tactics.

By the middle of the night on the fourth day, he had accumulated eight million card pieces and was still going strong.

8.5 million...

Nine million...

9.5 million...

On the fourth night, he finally accumulated ten million Army Attack Tactics card pieces, triggering Xiao Hei's notification.

"Congratulations, you've accumulated ten million Army Attack Tactics card pieces. Would you like to consume the ten million card pieces to complete the level-10 Army Attack Tactics?"

"Yes!" Lin Huang decided without thinking twice.

"Consuming ten million Army Attack Tactics card pieces. Breaking through level-10 Army Attack Tactics... Completed!"

"Congratulations, you've obtained a mythical-level cultivation method card – Twisted Fate Scripture!"

"Mythical-level card? I can't activate it, can I?" Lin Huang asked.

"The Twisted Fate Scripture card is unique as it evolved from the Army Attack Tactics. Although it's a mythical-level, there's no restriction in activating it."

"So, I can cultivate it directly?" After confirming that he could activate the mythical-level card, Lin Huang was pumped up and forgot all about his exhaustion from not resting for the past four days.

"Sure, you can take a look at the card description yourself."

Lin Huang summoned the Twisted Fate Scripture card immediately.

"Special Life Skill Card

"Life Skill Name: Twisted Fate Scripture

"Rarity: Mythical

"Mastery Level: Twisted Rotation No. 1 (0/1 million)

"Twisted Nine Rotations: Your physical and spiritual strength, power, speed, and reflexes will be doubled in each rotation. After the nine rotations are completed, your body will transform directly into a Virtual God!

"Fate Nine Rotations: Your authorization is restricted, so the effect is unknown.

"Card Remarks: F*cking awesome!"

It was his first time seeing such an excellent comment from Xiao Hei on a card. However, he recalled Mr. Fu saying that the cultivation method and Monster Skills that were acquired once he got to transcendent-level would be unlikely to boost his physical strength and other body attributes. Perhaps the cultivation method that he had just obtained was so rare that even Xiao Hei complimented it.

“Does the 0/1 Million in the brackets mean that I’ll need one million card pieces to complete the first rotation of cultivation?” Lin Huang asked Xiao Hei.

“Yes.”

“Then, how about the second and third rotation?” Lin Huang knew that it was impossible for every rotation to require the same amount of cards pieces. If that were the case, it was too easy to master the Twisted Nine Rotations.

“The requirement of the card pieces will double up in each rotation.”

“It can’t be. The first rotation requires one million card pieces. Doesn’t that mean I’ll need more than two billion card pieces for the ninth rotation?” Lin Huang asked in horror.

Although the requirement of the card pieces was terrifying, Lin Huang managed to calm himself down quickly. After all, the cultivation method was on mythical-level. Besides, as long as he completed the Twisted Nine Rotations, he would be a Virtual God instantly. Therefore, it made sense for it to be difficult, or else, everyone who practiced the same cultivation method during those days would have become Virtual Gods at the snap of a finger.

“The ninth level of Sorcerer Goddess Tower is a perfect place for cultivation. It would be great if I can stay there to practice the Twisted Fate Scripture.” On the ninth level of the tower, the speed of obtaining card pieces was more than 20 times faster than being out there. Figuring that he would need a huge number of card pieces for the Twisted Fate Scripture, Lin Huang planned to stay on the tower to practice.

“Tomorrow will be the last day. The people from the Union Government will kill you if you don’t leave,” Xiao Hei reminded.

“I know that. It’s such a bummer.” Lin Huang shook his head helplessly. “Since I still have a half day left tomorrow, I shall see how many Twisted Fate Scripture card pieces I can get.”

Chapter 726: The Weather’s Great to Walk Your Dog

As Lin Huang was sent from to the ninth level to the first level of the Sorcerer Goddess Tower, he walked straight towards the living room that Bai Gu was usually in. Just as he was going to knock on the door, he heard Bai Gu’s voice.

“You don’t have to do that. Come and have a seat.”

Lin Huang walked in to see Bai Gu seated with his legs crossed in front of the coffee table as he gestured for him to take a seat. Lin Huang took his seat and asked immediately, “Are you looking for me, Sir?”

“I heard that somebody is looking for you. It should be about the Sorcerer Goddess’s inheritance,” Bai Gu said directly.

"I think it's Wu Zhi!" Lin Huang frowned. Theoretically, Wu Zhi was the only one who knew that he had gotten the Sorcerer Goddess's inheritance. It was quite impossible that Wu Zhi would tell anybody else about it.

"It should be him. I don't think anybody else can persuade those powerful people to share where his descendants' tribe is." Bai Gu nodded.

"You mean there are others besides him?" Lin Huang frowned even deeper.

"Yes, almost every powerful person in each tribe is coming. There're even demigods. It only makes sense that they're only coming for the Sorcerer Goddess's inheritance." Bai Gu looked at Lin Huang with his empty eye sockets.

"How would they know where I am?" Lin Huang could not understand it.

"They've no idea where exactly you are, but Wu Zhi has his way to find your coordinates as long as you're outside of the Sorcerer Goddess Tower. Unless you're in the Sorcerer Goddess Tower, then he won't find out where you are. But there are only 12 Sorcerer Goddess Towers in this land and only seven of them welcome humans. All he's got to do is to visit these seven tribes, and he'll find out where you are.

"He's visited four footholds this afternoon, and I'm guessing he'll be here next. Leave as soon as you can. You'll be safe once you get back to your world," Bai Gu suggested.

"He'll find out that I was hiding at your foothold if I run away, and he'll definitely come after you guys." Lin Huang was confident of the outcome as Wu Zhi was clearly evil. To prevent the news from spreading, he might kill the entire tribe.

"Our tribe will be in bigger trouble if you stay," Bai Gu spoke the truth. "I'll settle whatever's coming for us after you leave."

Lin Huang went into silence. He was thinking how he could settle this. He could not just leave like that and let Bai Gu settle Wu Zhi, but he could not stay either.

"Alright then, I'll leave." Lin Huang made his decision a while later.

"Lin Huang, this Wu Zhi has great greed. The Sorcerer Goddess's inheritance must not fall into his hands, or else, there'll be disaster for your new era," Bai Gu reminded.

"I know, the Sorcerer Goddess has told me about him."

"Pack your stuff. I'll send you out later. My Witchcraft should be able to isolate you from Wu Zhi's detection for a short period of time."

"You don't have to do that. I've already pinned the coordinates of the floating land border earlier. There's nothing much for me to pack." Lin Huang shook his head as he rejected Bai Gu's kindness.

"If there's nothing else, I'll leave now."

Bai Gu nodded.

“Leave as soon as you arrive at the border. Don’t reveal yourself too much when you’re back to where you’re from. He’s a Virtual God after all, so I’m not sure what he’s capable of. It’s better to be safe than sorry.”

“I know. Thank you, Sir and the rest, for your time spent taking care of me.” Lin Huang smiled and nodded. “Don’t worry about me. I’ve quite some enemies, but I managed to survive until now. Although my combat level is just mediocre, I have some pretty neat survival skills.”

“Even so, don’t underestimate any of your enemies,” Bai Gu reminded again.

“Yes, I understand.” Lin Huang gave a short response and stood up slowly from the futon. “Alright, I shall make a move now.”

Bai Gu stood up as well. “Let me send you off.”

The both of them walked out of the Sorcerer Goddess Tower. It was near midnight, and there were red and purple crescent moons hanging high up in the sky. There were so bright that they masked the stars around them.

Most of the people had fallen asleep. Although they were now dolls, they went on with their daily lives as usual. As they walked out of the tower, the gigantic face appeared and watched Lin Huang quietly. Lin Huang nodded at the face with a smile while the latter nodded back without saying a word.

As he arrived ten meters away from the Sorcerer Goddess Tower entrance, Lin Huang summoned his dimensional relic. Bai Gu watched him quietly by the entrance. After adjusting the coordinates, he then stepped into the dimensional relic without thinking twice. Before the dimensional relic shut, he turned around to wave at Bai Gu and the huge face. Bai Gu waved back too. They watched the dimensional relic close slowly, fade away and disappear.

“Since the Sorcerer Goddess picked him, I shall trust her choice.” Bai Gu nodded without hesitation.

“There will be a war among the tribes because of him. Is it worth it?” The face asked again.

“There’s no saying whether it’s worth it or not. Our conflict has been piling up for tens of thousands of years. The war is unavoidable anyway. It’s just a matter of time. Lin Huang’s appearance is just a trigger. After all, he’s taken the Sorcerer Goddess’s inheritance with him, so we’ve completed our mission. There’s no need for us to worry anymore. We don’t belong to this new era anyway. We’ve been living for more than 30,000 years. Isn’t that enough?”

“Wu Zhi, how dare you show yourself since you were a traitor before? How dare you come for the Sorcerer Goddess’s inheritance? Don’t blame us if we have to attack you!”

...

A black dimensional relic opened slowly thousands of kilometers away, and a person walked out of it at the border of the floating land. It was Lin Huang who had just left the foothold. After recalling the dimensional relic, he summoned Bloody instead of leaving the floating land immediately.

“Find out where Zhu Xing is.”

Bloody’s Leech Pods spread across the entire land and soon it got the results after searching with its eyes closed.

“Got him. But this guy is dangerous. My Leech Pods can’t get too close to him, or else, he’ll definitely find out.”

Bloody projected the image that it found. In the projection, Zhu Xing was resting with his eyes closed in front of a bonfire. Suddenly, his eyes flew wide open with excitement.

“Human named Lin, you’ve finally shown yourself!”

“I think we’ve exposed ourselves.” Although Bloody could not hear Zhu Xing’s voice, it could read his lips and knew what he had just mumbled to himself.

“Really?” Lin Huang smirked as he looked at the red and purple crescent moons in the sky.

“The weather’s great today. It’s best to bring your dog for a walk.”

Chapter 727: Something Is Wrong with the Coordinates?

In the monitor, Zhu Xin was seen getting up quickly. It was not easy for him to detect Lin Huang’s location. It was apparent that he would not miss it if he had a chance of killing Lin Huang.

“I’ve finally found the guy. He’s in the seven o’clock direction and is approximately 6,000 kilometers away from us. He’s at the border of the land!” Zhu Xing shouted at the rest of the tribal members. “We have to get there as soon as possible. We can’t let him leave the land. Lie Kong, bring me there. The rest can stay here and wait for the latest updates.”

The man called Lie Kong was a snow giant. However, it was evident that it was neither a wild monster nor a pet monster. Instead, its body was occupied by a tribal member.

The snow giant took a step forward and appeared in front of Zhu Xing. It lowered its head and asked, “Do you have the exact location?”

Zhu Xing’s hand swept past the sky and soon, a square map that was about a meter wide formed. Unexpectedly, it was the map of the floating land.

“Our location is represented by the white dot whereas the red dot represents the fella’s position.” Zhu Xing simply touched the map and two white and red dots appeared.

The snow giant stared at the map for a moment and nodded its head. “Alright, I know. Let’s go!”

As the snow giant waved its hand, a whirlpool was quickly produced in front of him amidst the snow. He then strode into the whirlpool.

After a short while, as the whirlpool faded away, the snow giant's gigantic body and Zhu Xing had disappeared.

Although the monitoring scene projected by the Leech Pods was a certain distance away, the actions of Zhu Xing's and the rest were clearly monitored by Lin Huang and Bloody. Bloody translated even the movements of their lips through lip-reading.

Seeing the map being projected in front of Zhu Xing and that he was their target, Lin Huang chuckled and summoned the Golden Wheel.

The Golden Wheel was a supreme relic. He obtained it after he killed the Saint member, Yu Wenbin. To avoid getting into trouble, Lin Huang had changed its color to white. Even the decorations on the dimensional relic were changed, and he rarely used it. When he set the coordinates in the Black Ink, he saved it in the Golden Wheel as well.

Since it was a supreme relic, there was no restriction on the interval of its usage. Moreover, the distance it could travel was way further than the Black Ink since it was a 4-star relic.

Watching the snow giant in the monitoring screen summon the Dimensional Whirlpool, Lin Huang grinned as he pushed the door of the Golden Wheel open. As he entered, he instructed, "Bloody, let's walk the dog!"

After a few moments, the Golden Wheel automatically closed. It vanished in thin air as it transformed into small, minute pieces.

Lin Huang disappeared as well with Bloody twisted around his arm.

Less than three seconds after Lin Huang disappeared, a snow whirlpool formed hundreds of meters away from where he was standing at earlier. An enormous shadow then appeared with a person standing on its shoulder.

As soon as they arrived, they looked around, and no traces of Lin Huang could be found.

"Is something wrong with the coordinates?" The snow giant turned his head back and asked the plump man.

"There shouldn't be any problem with the coordinates. This guy must be somewhere around here. The result won't deviate further than 300 meters." Zhu Xing was confident.

"Nothing is blocking our view here. We can look around the area up to a few kilometers away." The snow giant started sizing up the surrounding. However, they discovered nothing.

"I'll try detecting it again." Zhu Xing frowned. He then summoned The Book of Sorcerer Dao. He bit his finger anxiously and started flipping through the book until specks of blood stained the pages.

A complicated chain of Witchcraft Rune formed in mid-air. However, the rune was blood red in color.

After a short while, the bloody rune glowed and transformed into a red ring, spreading everywhere. It resembled a stone being thrown into a pool of water and forming ripples on the surface of the water.

As the whirlpool spread wider and wider, the color faded. It became transparent when it was one kilometer away. It was hardly noticeable.

Of course, Lin Huang, who was thousands of kilometers away monitored what just happened through Bloody's Leech Pods.

"It's within my expectations. He's going to pay for it since he used the detection skill. As for the weeping blood rune, if it's used three to five times a day, one's body will collapse." Lin Huang grinned.

"The detection technique of the chain rune is incredible. It's going to continue for 24 hours if the target isn't detected. However, if the target enters the detection region within 24 hours, one will be immediately targeted. That's how you were discovered," Bloody analyzed the effect of the chain rune at first glance.

"It's useless. Tomorrow is the 10th of August. It's the deadline when we have to leave. Even if he can still use the detection technique for ten times, he won't be able to catch up with me. Moreover, the number of usages of the weeping blood rune is restricted. A large portion of the snow giant's energy will be drained due to its teleporting ability. However, as long as I have sufficient energy crystals, I can use the dimensional relic non-stop." Lin Huang was calm because he was confident that Zhu Xing would not be able to catch up with him.

"Be careful since he used to be a Virtual God in the past." Bloody was still on alert.

"Alright. I've been targeted. Let's go." From the monitoring screen, Lin Huang saw that Zhu Xing had marked his location on the map again. He then summoned the Golden Wheel.

Noticing the snow whirlpool which was created by the snow giant again, Lin Huang then pushed against the door of the Golden Wheel and strode into it.

After two to three seconds, Zhu Xing and the snow giant appeared where Lin Huang had just disappeared. They were less than 100 meters away from it. However, Lin Huang had gone missing again.

As they arrived, they looked around again. Of course, no traces of Lin Huang were found.

"How could that be?" Zhu Xing frowned. He had no idea why there was nobody at both of the coordinates.

"Are you sure that there's nothing wrong with your detection technique?" The snow giant asked again. It seemed to have assumed that the problem arose from Zhu Xing's detection skill.

"That's impossible. I've used this skill thousands of times, and it's never made a single mistake." Zhu Xing shook his head, sure of his skill.

"Could the fella have something which will affect the result of the detection?" The snow giant suggested after keeping quiet for a while.

"That's possible. However, if he has any god relic that's hindered me from detecting his location, the detection must've been directly blocked, and I won't be able to use my skill. It won't lead me to the wrong location though. Perhaps the god relic that he has is rather unique. While it doesn't block me from detecting his location, the results will deviate from reality, or an illusion might happen. It might be activated passively," Zhu Xing guessed.

"If that's the reason, are we still going to chase after them?" The snow giant hesitated. Though it was a demigod, a significant amount of his energy was drained each time teleportation was performed.

"Yes, of course. We aren't going to stop until he's captured! We aren't going to lose anything since we'll definitely have a chance to track him!" Zhu Xing insisted.

Chapter 728: There's No Charge for Setting Him Up

Through Bloody's monitoring screen, the conversation between Zhu Xing and the snow giant could clearly be observed. Bloody read their lips to discover what they were talking about.

"They think that we have the god relic which distorted their detection result."

Lin Huang was looking at the monitoring screen, shaking his head and said, "It's great that they think so. At least, they think that their results have been distorted instead of someone monitoring them."

"It seems like they won't stop chasing us," Bloody reminded.

"If they wish to continue chasing after us, let's play with them." Lin Huang was optimistic as he was not afraid of being caught at all.

Seeing that Zhu Xing had reset the coordinates, Lin Huang summoned the Golden Wheel again and disappeared together with Bloody.

Again, Zhu Xing and the snow giant missed their target as they arrived.

Still, they were not giving up. Zhu Xing bit on his finger again as he tried to detect Lin Huang's position.

The entire process was repeated for seven to eight times. The time needed for Zhu Xing to activate the detection rune got longer and longer. The snow giant started swallowing energy crystals as well to restore its energy that had been drained.

"Zhu Xing has activated the weeping blood rune about eight times now without collapsing. He's amazing." Lin Huang laughed.

"Blood acts as an agent in the rune. What is mainly being drained is one's mental strength. With Zhu Xing's mind, he won't be able to support this type of rune for too many times. However, Wu Zhi is the one who's living in his body. He's somehow a Virtual God in the past." Bloody was still wary of Wu Zhi since he used to be a Virtual God. "The demigod snow giant who possesses teleportation isn't friendly as well. With its ability, it can easily freeze me, and I'll have nowhere to run away to."

"Of course, I know that I'm putting my life at risk. If I leave one to two seconds earlier, the coordinates located by Zhu Xing will be my new location. If I'm a second slower, we'll bump into each other. However, if I don't bother with anything and just leave the land, they'll get Bai Gu into trouble." Lin Huang did not want anyone to get into trouble because of him.

“Bai Gu is gathering the other members to fight Wu Zhi.” After a moment of silence, Bloody told him the truth. “There are Leech Pods in Bai Gu’s territory, and Bai Gu was the one who said this.”

“Why do they want to fight? Is it because of me?” Lin Huang frowned.

“Perhaps you’re the spark...” Bloody said, projecting the conversation between Bai Gu and the broad face.

After watching the projection, Lin Huang kept quiet for a long while.

Bai Gu had an incisive mind. He knew what he should have done and what he should not have. At the same time, he knew how to make a wise decision.

Since Lin Huang had obtained the inheritance, Bai Gu could actually kill him and grab the memory that he had inherited. However, instead of doing so, he chose to protect Lin Huang.

In the projection, there was a sentence that came up: “You’ve been living for more than 30,000 years. Isn’t that enough?”

Lin Huang was respectful to the elder as he treated death as nothing.

“It’s an inevitable battle,” Bloody said, staring at Lin Huang. “Even if we were to leave, we won’t make a difference to the situation.”

Lin Huang lowered his head, remaining quiet for a long while. He then slowly raised his head and said, “Tomorrow is the deadline. We shall leave tomorrow. I wish that I can fight together with them until the last minute.”

Bloody looked at Lin Huang who was so adamant about his decision. Knowing that it would be useless to say anything, Bloody then replied, “Alright, since you’ve made up your mind, I’ll be there with you until the last minute.”

As soon as he managed to escape from Zhu Xing, Lin Huang and Bloody appeared in an empty, snowy land.

“If we continue escaping, we won’t make any difference aside from buying us some time,” Bloody said.

“Do you have any other ideas?” Lin Huang asked.

“Since we’ve already put our lives at risk, we probably won’t mind if the situation gets a little bit more dangerous.” Bloody chuckled. “Let’s draw them to a foothold where monsters gather or where powerful monsters live. Let’s create some trouble for the both of them.”

“That’s a good idea.” Lin Huang’s eyes brightened.

“I’ve encountered the Frostyape Corpse before. Though it isn’t even a demigod, its ability is on par with one. Each teleport uses up a large portion of the snow giant’s energy. I guess that they’ll be in trouble if they’re drawn to the Frostyape Corpse’s territory. Previously, to save myself from being attacked by those stronger than me, I’ve saved the coordinates of the imperial-level monster’s territory whenever I pass by.”

“Let’s go there and get them into trouble!” Despite it being an evil plan, Bloody did not feel guilty at all. It even sounded remarkably calm.

“I didn’t know you’d have such a wicked plan,” Lin Huang teased.

“To deal with an enemy, any tactic can be used.” Bloody remained calm.

From the monitoring screen, they saw that Zhu Xing had located their coordinates again. Lin Huang then summoned the Golden Wheel and fixed the location to somewhere near the Frostyape Corpse’s territory.

As the snow giant’s Dimensional Whirlpool was formed once again, he entered the Golden Wheel together with Bloody.

When they got out of the Golden Wheel, Lin Huang returned to the Frostyape Corpse’s territory where he had been a month ago.

After recognizing the direction, Lin Huang found the place where the Frostyape Corpse hid. He restrained his aura, floating in the safe zone outside the Frostyape Corpse’s territory. They then waited patiently for Zhu Xing and the snow giant to arrive.

Ten minutes later, just when Zhu Xing’s rune was being created, Lin Huang grinned and summoned the Golden Wheel. At the same time, the Book of Sorcerer Dao was being summoned as well.

As Zhu Xing was flipping the Book of Sorcerer Dao quickly to the last page, Lin Huang pressed his hand against the rune. A golden rune was formed swiftly in the air.

“Snow transformation!” As Lin Huang pointed the finger at it, the rune transformed into a dazzling, golden glow which enveloped the entire region where the Frostyape Corpse was hiding. The whole area was like snow being quickly melted by high temperature. In less than three minutes, the Frostyape Corpse became a big, black pit.

A few moments later, a furious roar was heard coming out from the pit.

From Bloody’s monitoring screen, the snow giant’s Dimensional Whirlpool was generated.

“I hope that you’ll appreciate my gift.” Lin Huang grinned as he pushed the door of the Golden Wheel open and entered.

The next moment when Lin Huang disappeared, the furious Frostyape Corpse emerged from the underground. At the same time when it appeared, the snow giant and Zhu Xing strode out of the Dimensional Whirlpool.

Chapter 729: Snow Giant VS Frostyape Corpse

The moment Zhu Xing and the snow giant stepped out of the Dimensional Whirlpool, a Frostyape Corpse could be seen from afar, emerging from underground.

The Frostyape Corpse pounced on the both of them without a moment of hesitation as soon as it saw Zhu Xing and the snow giant.

It did not see Lin Huang and thought that the both of them were the culprits who woke it up from its sleep. Fuelled by anger, it completely ignored the fact that the snow giant was actually a demigod.

Zhu Xing and the snow giant were stunned when they saw that the Frostyape Corpse was pouncing on them. They were actually chasing Lin Huang and did not expect to encounter an imperial-level monster.

The Frostyape Corpse was tremendous as it measured a height of at least 700 meters. It was about 20 times larger than the snow giant whereas Zhu Xing looked precisely like an ant compared to the Frostyape Corpse.

In an instant, it appeared in front of the both of them. It lifted its leg and stomped hard on the both of them.

“Beast, do you want to die?!” Zhu Xing yelled. He used to be a Virtual God and was not looked down upon by imperial-level monsters. However, this monster dared to even step on him, and he could no longer stand it.

The snow giant’s eyes flashed with a trace of fury. It was a demigod and was now provoked by the imperial-level monster.

It struck a blow in the air and soon, a huge arm that was made of snow instantly formed in the air. It then collided with the Frostyape Corpse’s blue foot.

Bang!

As they collided with each other, a loud explosion was heard. A blast wave was produced in the air, rippling out everywhere.

A strong wind blew ferociously, and of course, the snow giant remained steady. Standing behind him, Zhu Xing was unaffected as well. However, the Frostyape Corpse was blown away, and soon, it collapsed.

Obviously, regardless of its size, the gap in combat strength could hardly be compensated.

“Hmm?” After a few moments, the snow giant frowned.

Zhu Xing frowned as well. “Is it still alive?”

The Frostyape Corpse’s body slowly got up off the ground as it shot them a deadly stare.

“I’ve almost used up all my strength to hit it!” The snow giant did not turn its head back. Instead, it stared at the Frostyape Corpse with fear as it said that to Zhu Xing.

“The Frostyape Corpse is about to gather its Godhead. I guess we won’t be able to leave this place if we don’t defeat it.” As Zhu Xing carefully sized up the Frostyape Corpse, he then realized that it was not an ordinary imperial-level monster.

“If I didn’t keep teleporting and draining my strength significantly, I’d have killed it!” The snow giant scoffed.

“It seems like it’s flipping out,” Zhu Xing said, pointing in the direction where the Frostyape Corpse was. He did not comment on the snow giant’s last remark.

As the Frostyape Corpse got up from the ground, its pair of blue eyes instantly turned black. A layer of ice blue crystal surrounded it like a piece of icy blue armor. Icy thorns were formed on its tail as well.

“Troublesome!” The snow giant grumbled, “I hate spirit types and the undying species the most.”

“Why didn’t you kill it in one hit?” Zhu Xing retreated hundreds of meters away. It seemed like he was not worried that the snow giant might lose.

The Frostyape Corpse advanced as Zhu Xing retreated. It stomped the ground hard and disappeared at a speed that was several times faster. It then appeared in front of the snow giant in an instant.

“That’s fast!”

A flicker of fear flashed through the snow giant’s eyes.

The Frostyape Corpse clenched its fist and attacked the snow giant without delay.

At that moment, it seemed like the whole region was shrouded in its icy blue fist. It appeared like the hills were collapsing, and the collapsing hills wholly covered the snow giant.

The snow giant remained calm. The Book of Sorcerer Dao was summoned, and it pressed its hand against one of the pages of the runes.

As soon as the white rune lit up in mid-air, the snow giant was wrapped in a layer of crystal-clear, spherical defense shield.

The Frostyape Corpse’s fist, which was the size of a mountain, struck the layer of defense shield. Each attack produced waves that looked like water ripples. However, it failed to break through its defense.

In the defense shield, the snow giant remained calm. The effect of the attack outside the defense shield was rendered useless, and the Frostyape Corpse got even more ferocious.

It did not feel tired and continued thumping the defense shield. It seemed like it was not going to stop unless it could break through the shield.

In the beginning, the snow giant remained calm. However, it saw that the Frostyape Corpse’s attack had lasted for more than ten minutes and cracks started to appear on the defense shield. Moreover, the frequency of the Frostyape Corpse’s attacks did not reduce. Instead, it had increased. The snow giant could no longer remain patient.

Since it had just teleported, only a small portion of energy remained in his body. It could not sustain a long battle. The Frostyape Corpse’s abilities were beyond its expectations.

Right when the snow giant was thinking how he should end the battle quickly, a crack came from the defense shield.

The snow giant frowned as it saw that the shield was about to break. It pressed its hand against The Book of Sorcerer Dao again.

Just as the defense shield was about to collapse, Glacial Chains were formed, and the Frostyape Corpse’s limbs and neck were locked in it.

“This type of monster was born in the snowy land. It’s restricted by the Witchcraft to a certain extent since Witchcraft is of the ice element,” Zhu Xing said. The snow giant had activated Witchcraft twice. The defense shield that it first built was made of the ice element, and so were the chains. “I know that you’ve been using the snow giant’s body for a long time, and have gotten used to the ice element Witchcraft. However, if you don’t stop using the ice element skill and kill it, you might be the one killed.”

As soon as Zhu Xing’s voice rang out, the Frostyape Corpse that was growling and struggling to survive finally managed to get rid of the Glacial Chains.

The Glacial Chains that locked its body collapsed and broke into pieces, vanishing as they fell to the ground.

Roar!!!

The Frostyape Corpse slapped its own chest as it managed to break free from the Glacial Chains, letting out a furious growl at the snow giant. The ice crystals that surrounded its body got thicker, and it looked even more violent. Its colossal body grew a few times bigger as well.

Chapter 730: Killing the Frostyape Corpse

As soon as it managed to break free from the Glacial Chains, the Frostyape Corpse struck a massive blow. Along with the sound of the wind, its attack hit the snow giant.

The snow giant’s facial expression changed. When it was about to use the ice element skill, it thought of what Zhu Xing had just said. It then paused for a moment. At that moment, the Frostyape Corpse’s attack hit it, blowing it away like a kite breaking up in the air.

By the time the snow giant was able to react, it had fallen into a pit hundreds of meters away from the snowy land.

Inside the pit, the snow giant was stunned by the fact that a demigod had just been blown away by an imperial-level monster’s punch. Despite not being physically injured, it felt its ego bruised.

On the other hand, the Frostyape Corpse was arrogant after the snow giant was attacked in one hit. It then appeared in front of the snow giant in a flash, bringing its huge leg down hard on the snow giant’s body.

The snow giant went wild as it was pinned down by an imperial-level monster. How humiliating!

It pressed its hand against The Book of Sorcerer Dao and started inserting power into the book without preserving its power.

A flame red rune formed in the air. A gigantic, red bird then appeared in the sky above the snow giant. It attacked the Frostyape Corpse with its mouth wide open.

Hundreds of flames that resembled meteorites shot into the sky and headed towards the Frostyape Corpse’s feet.

A loud bang was heard along with the Frostyape Corpse’s furious growl.

The snow giant gradually clambered out of the bottomless pit, and a flicker of fury flashed through its eyes as it watched the battle between the Blazing Bird and the Frostyape Corpse.

“Go die!” It shouted and soon, the snow giant pressed its hand against The Book of Sorcerer Dao again.

Another flaming red rune was produced in the air.

After several moments, Flaming Pythons appeared and wiggled around the Frostyape Corpse.

Since it was defending itself against the Blazing Bird, the Frostyape Corpse had no more effort to deal with the Flaming Pythons. Soon after, it got entangled by the Flaming Pythons.

As the Flaming Pythons entwined around the Frostyape Corpse’s body, they transformed into Raging Chains own their own and locked the Frostyape Corpse down. It had no way of breaking through the chains.

The snow giant did not stop there. Once more, it pressed its hand against The Book of Sorcerer Dao. With the remaining power it had in its body, it inserted the power into the book.

Fiery arrows then appeared in mid-air. They looked like they were taken out from a forging furnace as flames surrounded the body of the arrows. The arrows dissipated a terrifying amount of heat, even distorting the air slightly.

After thousands of arrows were formed, the snow giant contemplated the Frostyape Corpse coldly.

The Frostyape Corpse seemed to have sensed that danger was near and started struggling as soon as it saw the shooting arrows.

Since it was locked in the Raging Chains, its efforts to break free from the chains were in vain.

The snow giant pointed at the Frostyape Corpse from afar and said coldly, “Go to hell, dirty monster!”

As the red-hot shooting arrows streaked across the sky rapidly, it produced a kind of friction whereby peculiar red flames were formed. The arrows then struck the Frostyape Corpse.

The Frostyape Corpse was trapped, and at the same time, it was controlled by the Blazing Bird. It could not dodge the arrows at all and was incapable of defending itself against the attack. It then drowned in flames.

As the burning flames shot through the sky, they pierced through the Frostyape Corpse’s body. Despite the fact that the Frostyape Corpse had powerful defenses, it could not dodge the attack at all, and the shooting arrows easily broke through its defense layer, resembling steel pins that were nailed into the Frostyape Corpse’s body.

The Frostyape Corpse snarled from the pain it suffered. As more and more arrows penetrated its body, its growl got weaker.

The snow giant smiled ruthlessly as it witnessed the Frostyape Corpse no longer being able to fight back. It then pressed its hand against The Book of Sorcerer Dao again.

Right at this moment, a golden rune appeared in the air.

After a short while, an extremely large, blazing cross that was hundreds of meters tall formed above the Frostyape Corpse.

The cross was shrouded in milky white flames.

Before the cross touched the Frostyape Corpse's body, the Frostyape Corpse felt suffocated as a boiling temperature was released into the air. It started struggling and thrashing violently.

Lin Huang, who was watching the fight thousands of meters away through the monitoring screen, could not understand why this would happen.

"Is there anything special about the cross? Why is the Frostyape Corpse so afraid of it?"

"It's not afraid of the cross, but of the holy flame that surrounds the cross," Bloody explained, "The Frostyape Corpse is a spirit type of monster. Naturally, it'll be afraid of God's power. It's obvious that the snow giant's attack intends to kill the Frostyape Corpse."

From the monitoring screen, the large cross gradually descended from the sky and struck the Frostyape Corpse's back.

The Frostyape Corpse tried its best to free itself from the cross. However, after several attempts, it was still defeated. The bones in both of its legs were broken. It fell to the ground, and it could not move at all.

White flames were continually gushing out of the cross. In an instant, the Frostyape Corpse's body was enveloped by the white flames.

The Frostyape Corpse let out a few roars at the beginning. Soon, it started moaning in pain. After a short while, its moan became weaker and eventually disappeared.

The huge body that was shrouded in white flame finally stopped moving after struggling for more than half an hour.

Lin Huang frowned at the sight.

"The demigod is still a demigod. Its skill is terrifying. Though it's weak, it's still an easy task for it to kill an imperial-level monster."

"If it had no concern at the beginning, it might be able to defeat the Frostyape Corpse in one hit. The snow giant is probably the strongest among the demigods," Bloody analyzed, "The Frostyape Corpse managed to buy us some time. At the same time, we've witnessed the snow giant's true power. It's a worthy death."

"We have to increase the difficulty level the next round. If one imperial-level monster is not enough, a group of them might be." Lin Huang projected the floating land's map, fixing his gaze on one of the locations on the map. Again, he grinned.
