

Passive Skills 100

Chapter 100 The new member of the Guild, boss Wu after two days of hard work, zhang shan had finally reached level 27. however, he looked at the amount of experience points required to reach level 28.

17 million, was he serious? The game producers did not intend to let the players level up.

It would take three days to level up once, and this was Zhang Shan's speed. Other people would have to spend a week to do it.

He was only around level 20. How long would it take to reach level 30?

Can I still play?

Looking at the level leaderboard, moving heart was just a little bit away from level 25, and a few of the top ten players had already reached level 24.

He was so close. It was getting harder and harder to widen the level gap.

He had wasted so much of his attack power, yet his leveling speed had not increased much. He really didn't know how these people had leveled up.

Could there be some trick to it?

Forget it, I'm not going to think about it anymore. I'll be back to the city after farming for a while. Today is Saturday, and there's a monster attack.

He hoped that he could still maintain first place on the contribution rank and get a 5-star Treasure chest to see if he could get another good item.

The berserk skill book he had obtained last time had been of great help to him.

He hoped that he could get another good one.

Just as Zhang Shan was about to continue farming monsters, he received a call from Daoist priest with a knife.

"boss zhang, i've reached level 10. should i choose dangyang city in chu country?"

that's right. When you arrive at Dangyang city, teleport to the auction house. I'll get you a rejuvenation technique.

"Alright," he said.

Boss Wu had finally reached level 10, so he decided to stop farming for now. He could just pull him into the party during the monster attack and get some experience from the BOSS.

He cast a return bar.

He teleported to the auction house.

Rejuvenation was an essential support skill and was in high demand. Fortunately, it was in high demand, or it would have been extremely expensive.

The auction house's current starting price was one to two thousand. Zhang Shan found the lowest buyout price, at three thousand gold.

after bidding for the art of rejuvenation, zhang shan walked out of the auction house and saw the iron brother wu qinglin.

Boss Wu had also changed his character's appearance. If not for the character name "Daoist with a blade" on his head, Zhang Shan would not have recognized him.

boss Wu, you're finally out of the novice village. It took you four days. You're so slow.

I can't help it. I can only play at night. Time is limited, and it's not easy to level up as a Taoist priest. I can't find anyone to party with, and it's too slow to kill monsters with a wooden sword.

Zhang Shan traded the art of rejuvenation to boss Wu.

"It's fine. I'll take you with me in the future, so you'll level up quickly. When the monsters attack the city, come with us to get some BOSS exp."

"I don't think that's a good idea. I'm only level 10 and won't be of any use. If you bring me along, will others have any objections?"

"What opinion can I have? anyway, you're a support and you can add blood. It's just a little less than others. Don't worry, I'll let them know."

"Let's go to the wind and cloud Guild's residence."

After Zhang Shan equipped the Taoist priest with his sword, he teleported to the Guild base.

however, boss wu couldn't enter the guild residence. he wasn't a member of the wind and cloud guild yet, so he wasn't pulled in yet.

The Guild was already full, so he couldn't just kick someone out and pull him in.

He could only wait for the Guild to reach Level 3 before pulling Mr. Wu into the Guild.

Since boss Wu could not enter the Guild's base, Zhang Shan waited outside for a while and asked if there were any more seats.

Calling for wind and cloud blade.

brother one blade, there's no space in the party for tonight's event. I have a brother who just left the novice village. He's a Taoist. Let him get some BOSS exp.

of course, there are no seats for anyone, but brother Liu Guan's men definitely have seats. I'll tell boss later and he'll arrange it.

"Thank you, brother Yidao."

it's a small matter. Without your damage output, how long would we have to fight the BOSS? it's not a big deal to have one person's position. Don't worry, I'll arrange it immediately.

"Then I'll wait outside the Guild residence. My brother can't enter the Guild residence. we can't recruit any new members now that the guild is full. we'll wait until the guild levels up before we can pull him in."

"Wait a minute, I'll see if there's any hoodlums who are always offline. I'll kick one out and then pull your brother in."

wind and cloud blade was a little too enthusiastic, causing zhang shan to feel a little embarrassed.

I don't think so. In any case, the Guild's level will increase in half a month at most.

it's fine. The Guild will clean up the zombie members regularly. Those who are not online for a long time or never donate have to be cleaned up regularly.

"Alright, then."

When it came to Guild matters, Zhang Shan would always look for wind and cloud blade. He felt that this person was easy to get along with.

It was not that Feng Yun realm was hard to talk to, but this President was a little cold. Zhang Shan would not bother him with small matters.

Not long after, Windcloud blade walked out of the Guild residence and glanced at boss Wu.

brother Liu Guan, this must be your brother. What a nice name.

"Hehe."

...

"yes, he still has to work during the day. after i bring him around for a while, i'll see if i can get some income. then, he'll be like me, relying on games to make a living."

"with such a strong backing like you, it's just a game. brother with a sword, i've invited you into the guild. please approve."

after boss wu joined the guild, he said to wind and cloud blade, "

haha, it's just a small matter. Brother Liu Guan's brother is my brother. If you have any problems in the future, you can come to me.

"Thank you, boss."

don't call me Big Boss. The six-barreled Bodhisattva is the real big Boss. Compared to him, I'm just a pitiful little shrimp that can be taken down with a few shots.

Zhang Shan was stunned.

let's go. Let's enter the Guild residence first. The event is about to begin. Now that the number of guild members has increased, boss will make some arrangements so that we can all sign up to participate.

Zhang Shan and the other two entered the Guild residence.

in about ten minutes, the monster attack would begin, and most of the players online had already returned to the city.

After the event began, the city gates and teleportation arrays would be closed. Those who were outside the city would not be able to return.

"Oh my, so this is the newbie that brother divine weapon brought."

Feng Yun Qing Qing said after sizing up boss Wu.

"Miss, my brother is not a newbie. He's the Father of your child. Don't you dare try to get your hands on him.

"your brother is already the father of the child. what about you?"

"He's single."

haha, the boss of the divine weapon is actually a Diamond King. Do you want me to introduce you to a few little beauties? I guarantee that they will all be beautiful.

zhang shan was speechless. how many? what were they talking about?

"None of the beautiful girls that sister Qingqing knows would be interested in a country bumpkin like me."

"Look at what you're saying. Don't you know that your reputation as a divine artifact boss has already spread throughout the entire Alliance? Believe it or not, if I were to help you post a marriage request on the forum, the replies would immediately explode."

Holy sh * t, she even helped him send a marriage invitation? did they have to make such a big deal out of it?

He couldn't afford to offend this woman, so it was better to talk less.
