Chapter 29: Guild Leader of Heaven and Earth

As Zhang Shan ran into the demonkin map, the information about the monsters around him had also changed.

It was no longer the level 13 ordinary demonkin that threw stones. Instead, it was a level 15 demon soldier that held a spear and a small shield.

Demon militia: level 15, HP 3,000, attack power 390, skill: spear, damage increased by 50%.

This monster was not too strong and was not much stronger than an ordinary demonkin. Its HP and attack had only increased by a little, and its skill damage was also average.

However, the monster held a shield, so its defense might be relatively high. In general, it was still relatively easy to farm monsters. Zhang Shan did not know how they found this place.

Seeing Storm of the World and others, Zhang Shan ran up to them.

“You guys are really good at finding places. You can even find such a remote place.”

“There’s nothing we can do. If we don’t go further away, that bunch of trash will keep sending people to harass us. We won’t be able to level up.”

“Didn’t the Heaven and Earth Guild members know about this place?”

“So what if they knew? Although these small monsters look ordinary, the number is large. They respawn very quickly. If they send cannon fodder over, the small monsters will send them back to the city.”

“Let’s not talk about anything else. Give me the musket. I’ll mail you the gold coins after I return to the city,” Cannon of Storm said hurriedly. 1

Zhang Shan handed Exquisite Musket over to him.

Cannon of Storm happily equipped the musket.

“Its attributes are not bad. It’s much stronger than the one I used before. It has over 100 attack power. It’s a good gun, a good gun. But why am I not happy?” said Cannon of Storm with a sad face.

“Of course, it would be weird if you were happy. Comparing with people ends up with death while comparing goods is throwing goods away. No matter how good the purple musket is, it’s useless. Look at Brother Six Guan’s divine musket, that is really good stuff.”

“That’s right. Compared to divine artifacts, purple equipment is trash.”

“F*ck, you guys are just jealous. None of you even have purple equipment, yet you still look down on my musket. This is too much.”

Hehe.

Hahaha.

Zhang Shan did not talk any more nonsense. He summoned his baby and started farming at the side.

The defense of the demon militia was indeed very high. Zhang Shan's 1,400+ attacks, coupled with the title of Nemesis of the Demon Race, only dealt around 1,300 damage.

The defense of the monsters reduced the damage by 100 to 200. If the average player's attack power was slightly lower, they were unable to farm these monsters.

The other players of the Storm Guild worked together in three to five to fight one monster. One had to know that the equipment of these guild bosses was indeed not bad.

After farming for a while, Zhang Shan realized that the baby did not seem to have any use for the monsters now. It could at most kill one monster with three hits. If he used Heavy Strike or Holy Strike, one shot would be enough.

Before the baby could run to the side of the little monster, it had been hit by Zhang Shan. There was no chance for it to be of any use at all.

With Zhang Shan joining in, the number of monsters in this area was decreasing. The other members of the team also slowly realized that the monsters were not enough to farm.

"F*ck, is the divine artifact so strong? We couldn't even finish farming it with so many people just now. Now with additional Six Guan, the monsters are not enough for farming?"

"It's a divine artifact, how could it not be powerful?"

"When can I get a divine artifact, too?"

"When you sleep at night, raise your pillow a little higher. You can have anything in your dreams."

"Go to hell!"

After Zhang Shan joined in the attack, the monsters were not enough for farming. He felt a little embarrassed.

"Boss World, why don't I go further in and farm by myself? Otherwise, the monsters really are not enough," Zhang Shan said embarrassedly.

"Let's all go in. The deeper we go, the more monsters there are. We might even encounter the boss," said Storm of the World.

"That's right. Let's go in. I want to kill a boss."

Let's go.

The team of the guild was killing monsters as they were going further in. The monsters were increasing in number and density. Fortunately, they had a lot of people. They had all kinds of classes. A few support classes had also learned the Rejuvenation Spell, and they could heal their teammates.

There was a support girl in the guild who had even learned the resurrection skill. She could resurrect the dead and bring her teammates back to full health. No one knew how much she had spent to buy this skill book. She was really generous.

“Who’s the guild leader of Heaven and Earth? He seems very low-key. I’ve never seen him before,” Zhang Shan asked.

Although their guild had fought with Heaven and Earth Guild a few times, Zhang Shan was in East Capital at that time, so he had not been able to catch up.

Among the members of the Heaven and Earth Guild, he only knew of the Heaven and Earth Bunny and the three people he had met on the road. He had never seen the others before.

“The Heaven and Earth Guild was established by the Heaven and Earth Dragon Slaying Saber and Heaven and Earth Sky Sword. The guild leader would sometimes rotate between the two of them. Currently, I’ve heard that the Heaven and Earth Dragon Slaying Saber is still the guild leader,” Wind Chimes explained to him.

“What did you say? The Heaven and Earth Dragon Slaying Saber is their guild leader? I met him on the way here just now, and I killed him instantly with a shot. It wasn’t him, right? He didn’t seem very strong.”

Zhang Shan could not believe that the guy who was instantly killed with a shot was actually the guild leader of Heaven and Earth Guild.

“F*ck, are you for real? Did you kill Heaven and Earth Dragon Slaying Saber with a shot? That’s not possible, right? He’s a Berserker class, and he has at least 2,000 HP. How could he not even be able to take a hit from you?”

Hearing Zhang Shan say that he killed the guild leader of Heaven and Earth Guild with a shot on the way here, everyone felt incredulous.

“It’s a Berserker class. I remember that his ID is Heaven and Earth Dragon Slaying Saber. He can’t have the same name. Oh yes, he also dropped a green cape for me. And it just so happens that I can use it.”

“Divine artifact is awesome. Did It give a critical hit? Otherwise, you wouldn’t be able to kill a warrior with decent equipment with just one shot.”

“Yes, it seems like he only died when I triggered Holy Strike.”

“You’re awesome. Who can block Holy Strike? It ignores defense and deals 10 times the damage. You can kill over 10,000 HP with Holy Strike. Even a weak boss would be killed by you.”

“That’s true.”

Zhang Shan really hadn’t calculated his damage. Thinking about it this way, it made sense. If he triggered Holy Strike now, he could deal over 10,000 damage. Not to mention Heaven and Earth Dragon Slaying Saber, even a powerful Guardian like Little Secretary would not be able to withstand it. 1

“So you killed Heaven and Earth Dragon Slaying Saber just now. No wonder our spies said that Heaven and Earth Guild no longer plans to harass us. They have all gone to level up. It looks like they have been dealt a blow.”

“Hehe, who would dare to come now? Big Boss of divine artifact will send them home one by one.”

“Divine artifacts are too powerful at this stage of the game. The gap between them and other equipment is simply too big. Other than the Warrior’s Charge, the other classes have no chance of getting close to Six Guan,” Storm of the World sighed.

“That’s good, too. Let’s hurry up and level up.”

“That’s right. Let’s hurry up and farm. Hopefully, we can meet a boss here. It would be even better if we meet a red boss. Who knows, it might even drop Order of Heroes. That way, our guild will be able to establish a new guild in the New World.”

“We’re just afraid that we won’t be able to defeat the red boss.”

“What’s there to be afraid of? At worst, we can just charge one by one and give Brother Six Guan time to deal damage. With his current insane damage output, even a red boss won’t be able to last long. As long as we defeat the boss and get the Order of Heroes, it doesn’t matter even if we all die once.”

Right now, everyone hadn’t even seen the appearance of the red boss yet but they were already intensely discussing how to kill it. It could only be said that they were all in high spirits.
