

Passive Skills 441

Chapter 441 A big problem

he saw that the qi players, who had been farming monsters here, had all run away after he had dismounted and started farming.

Zhang San felt an inexplicable sense of melancholy.

He had no intention of killing these people.

Why are these people? After seeing him, she ran away.

She made him look like a bad person.

Zhang Shan felt that he was a good person.

Unless it was a war between factions, he would not kill people for no reason under normal circumstances.

It was not worth it at all.

He was already so strong, so he had no interest in those normal players.

They were all killed in one shot, and there was no meaning in killing them.

As long as the person was not looking for death, he would not bother to attack.

When Zhang Shan had just arrived, he had even specially explained it.

He was here to complete a mission, and he would leave once he was done.

Why didn't the Qi players believe him?

Sigh, where's the trust between people?

Forget it, let these people run.

With such a large field of monsters, it would be good if he was the only one farming.

Otherwise, he would have to pay attention to it from time to time.

To avoid being sneak attacked.

although he was powerful and wasn't afraid even if he had to face thousands of players at the same time.

However, if someone sneaked up to him and gave him a stun, he would be stunned.

Then, he cast stun skills one after another.

Isn't that annoying?

After the Qi players had run away, Zhang Shan stayed here alone to farm monsters.

Who knows if it was because his luck today had been used up.

Or could it be that the difficulty of this chain mission would increase the further one went?

Zhang Shan had been here for more than half an hour, but he had not managed to get part (24).

What the hell, this game system shouldn't be up to anything.

Today, he had spent the entire day in Dangyang city.

He had already completed the twenty-third round of the mission.

Other than the time it took to run.

It didn't take much time to farm monsters.

the longest first round of the mission only took him half an hour.

Why was he being intimidated when he had just arrived at The Map of Heaven's Gate?

He had already been farming for more than half an hour, but the quest item still had not dropped.

Forget it, I'll just continue farming. I don't believe I can't do it.

How could such a mission item not appear?

at most, he would just stay here and farm for a day or two.

No matter what, he should be able to get the 24th part.

This was called not having enough luck, but making up for it with quantity.

Zhang Shan was alone, quietly farming demon soldiers.

Little fairy suddenly said in the party channel.

eh, brother Guan, when did you come to Heaven's Gate? weren't you doing missions in Dangyang city? " they were all in the same team.

zhang shan's change in position could be seen by his friends through the team information.

However, they had not noticed it before.

At this moment, Zhang Shan had already arrived at The Map of Heaven's Gate pass. It had been more than an hour.

The little goblin then realized that Zhang Shan was not doing any missions in Dangyang city. Instead, he had come to Heaven's Gate.

Hearing the little fairy's question, Zhang Shan replied in the team channel.

the current quest items can only be dropped at the location specified on the Heaven's Gate map.

Where to farm monsters wasn't something he could decide.

He had to go wherever the mission hint told him to go.

"How many rounds of the mission have you completed?"

doing the 24th round of the mission.

"Damn, you're doing it pretty fast. You've already completed the 24th round of the mission? Doesn't that mean we won't need to spend too much time to complete all the quests?"

Windcloud blade, who was currently farming monsters, interjected.

it's hard to say. It was easy before, and I could get the quest item in a few minutes. Now, I've been farming The Map of Heaven's Gate for more than half an hour, and there's still no quest item. Most importantly, we don't know how many more missions there are."

Zhang Shan said gloomily.

It didn't matter if a quest item wasn't easy to obtain.

at most, he would spend more time and slowly farm them. sooner or later, he would be able to get the quest item.

The main thing was that he didn't know how many more missions there were.

If there were more chain missions later on and they were getting more and more difficult, then it would really be a bit difficult.

Besides, The Map of Heaven's Gate was so big.

Just running the map alone, Zhang Shan would have to spend a lot of time.

This was difficult.

what are you worried about? you've already completed the twenty-fourth round. What's there to worry about? there probably won't be many more rounds left.

that's right. Don't worry, brother Guan. Even if it's a real necklace, it's only worth a few dozen knots.

little demon, why don't you go offline and count how many joints there are on your necklace? it'll be good for six-gutted to use as a reference, hehe.

"You don't say, I counted last night, there were only thirty something knots. but different necklaces are different. who knows how many segments brother guan's divine artifact necklace originally had?"

"haha, this is so interesting. You guys are talking nonsense. This is a game. Do we have to do a quest for a celestial necklace like it's a real necklace?"

that's true, but that's it. Six-barreled demons have already completed the twenty-fourth round of the mission. This is already ridiculous. There shouldn't be many more rounds left.

I guess you don't have many rings left. Take your time, hehe.

He ended his idle chat with his friends.

Zhang Shan continued to farm the demon soldiers alone.

Another hour passed, and the BB still did not drop the quest item.

Quite a few pieces of trash equipment were dropped.

This was the wrong direction.

What he wanted was the quest item, so what was the use of having these pieces of trash equipment?

They couldn't even be sold together, only 20 gold coins.

Was he someone who lacked gold coins?

just as zhang shan was feeling depressed.

Suddenly, he heard a " ding " and another item fell into his bag.

Zhang Shan quickly opened his backpack and checked.

this time, it wouldn't be another trash item, right?

Sure enough, looking at the rows of small rings in his backpack, there was one more this time.

There were a total of 24 small rings.

In other words, he had already completed this twenty-fourth round of the mission.

Now that he had the quest item, he could begin the next part of the quest.

zhang shan opened the mission panel.

He wanted to see where he was going to farm monsters in the next round.

He looked at the mission notification.

The 25th round of the mission was still to kill demon soldiers.

However, the location had changed. In the mission prompt, the new coordinates were given.

Moreover, the location of the coordinates was quite far from where he was.

Zhang Shan estimated that it would take more than an hour to reach the place.

Damn it, The Map of Heaven's Gate was really too big.

He had to run for so long just to go to a random place.

Forget it, he had better run.

After completing the first part of the mission, Zhang Shan got on his horse and ran away, moving on to the next part of the mission.

Just like that, he ran all the way until night, when he went offline to sleep.

Zhang Shan had completed another four chain missions.

He ran from early morning to midnight.

Zhang Shan ran and farmed, and completed a total of 28 rounds of the mission.

He really didn't know how long he would have to run until it ended.

Furthermore, the later stages of the mission were getting slower and slower.

not only would it take a lot of time to run, but it would also take a lot of time.

even the time it took to farm monsters was quite a lot.

Although later on, they never met again, like the twenty-fourth loop.

After grinding for an hour and a half, he finally managed to get the quest item.

however, it would take about half an hour to get a mission item.

he had never met her again, like he had in dangyang city.

He could often get the mission items within a few minutes.

Zhang Shan did it for an entire day, running and killing monsters, for a total of 15 to 16 hours.

He still hadn't completed this chain mission.

this mission was too f * cking ridiculous.

Not only did he waste a day, but he was also not confident.

How many more missions were there?

Forget it, I'm not going to think about it.

I'll just go offline and sleep today.

He would continue running tomorrow.

Even though this chain mission was very nonsensical.

However, this mission wasn't difficult at all.

It was just running around the map and killing monsters.

At most, it would just be a waste of time.

They were Fengyun Bingbing, and they had been collecting materials for half a month.

This was only his first day of running, so it wasn't a big deal.

Zhang Shan adjusted his mentality. He would just treat it as a protracted battle and take it slowly.

The next day, Zhang Shan went online early in the morning.

He spent more than two hours and completed the twenty-ninth round of the mission.

Sigh, it was really getting slower and slower.

Zhang Shan could not help but sigh.

At this rate, he estimated that he would only be able to complete the sixth or seventh round of the mission.

Moreover, he had to make sure that the difficulty of the later missions would not increase.

Forget it, let's look at the next part of the mission and where to farm monsters.

Search for missing parts (round 30): Kill the demonized bison and find the missing parts (x30)

The mission prompt was the same as before, giving the coordinates.

Eh? A demonized wild bull? Where were they going to farm?

Could it be that he had to run back to Dangyang city?

Zhang Shan had never heard of a demonized wild bull.

However, on this Map of Heaven's Gate, they were basically all demon soldiers.

The other demonized wild monsters were usually in the sealed space of the map.

moreover, those maps were usually owned by someone.

Just like before, the wind and cloud Guild had occupied beast King Valley, and now they had occupied Gerri wilderness.

These high-quality grinding spots had long been occupied by others.

Even if there were more, it would be in the depths of the map, a place that no one had found yet.

Or rather, the monsters' levels were too high, so they weren't suitable for players to farm yet.

Of course, there were also some places that were too far away from Heaven's Gate pass.

It was completely worthless, just like the zombie Valley that he had destroyed before.

It would take two to three days to get there from Heaven's Gate pass.

Who would run so far away to farm monsters for nothing?

The time it took to run back and forth was much longer than the time it took to kill monsters.

The problem now was, where were the demonized bison? could they be at someone else's farming spot?

If that was the case, it would be very difficult to deal with.

The forces that had the ability to occupy these high-quality monster-farming spots were basically the top-ranked player guilds.

Even if the weaker player forces found such a high-quality grinding spot, they would not be able to do so.

They couldn't defend it either.

Didn't the wind and cloud Guild snatch the beast King Valley from the hands of the West Mountain Guild of the Qi state?

He thought about going to the monster-farming maps occupied by these major forces.

No matter how he looked at it, it didn't seem possible to go there to farm monsters and complete quests.

Even if Zhang Shan himself was very strong.

However, he wasn't arrogant enough to challenge a large guild by himself.

What the hell was he supposed to do?

It was better to first confirm the location.

Then, she would see if it was really taken by someone else.

He hoped that the map where these demonized wild bulls were located would be the best.

It was probably not occupied by anyone.

in that case, zhang shan would be able to successfully complete the mission.

It didn't matter even if he ran a little further.

If it was really occupied by someone else.

he would have to find the big shots in the guild and have them coordinate things.

He wanted to see if he could enter and complete the mission.

Zhang Shan followed the coordinates given in the mission prompt.

He searched carefully on The Map of Heaven's Gate.

It didn't take long for him to find the place.

The coordinates were in a place called the West River Prairie.

As for this map, Zhang Shan did not know if it had been occupied.

He didn't usually pay attention to these things.

However, he still didn't know which Guild had taken over the West River plains.

However, these things were no secret.

Those big guilds usually farmed monsters there.

it could be easily found on the forum.

by the same logic, there was usually no one farming monsters in the west river prairie.

It should be easy to find out.

However, Zhang Shan did not need to investigate. There was no need to go through so much trouble.

wouldn't he know if he asked someone?

He didn't usually pay attention to these things, but others would.

zhang shan asked wind cloud blade in the party channel.

"Brother one blade, there's a place called the West River plains in the Heaven's Gate map. Do you know which Guild is grinding there?"

However, not all special maps had players farming monsters.

The Map of Heaven's Gate was so big that there would always be places that players had missed.

There had to be a special map that players had not found yet.

However, the map of the West River great Prairie ...

zhang shan did not have any thoughts of getting lucky.

This grinding spot must have been occupied by someone long ago.

This was because the West River plains was not Far From Heaven's Gate pass.

If they rode on horses, they would be able to reach their destination in less than two hours.

There was no reason for such a high-quality grinding spot to still be empty.

They would have been discovered by the players and occupied by now.

Zhang Shan asked wind and cloud blade about it.

Let's see which family has taken it?

If it was a Guild force that had a good relationship with the wind and cloud Guild, it would be easy to deal with.

It shouldn't be a problem to borrow their place to complete a mission.

"that's where the peerless guild's grinding spot is. why are you asking this?"

Windcloud blade casually replied.

normally, windcloud blade would definitely pay attention to the movements of the major guilds in the game.

Of course, Windcloud blade knew where peerless 'grinding spot was.

but why would zhang shan ask about the grinding spots of the peerless guild? he was very curious.

"f * ck! why is it the peerless guild? this is going to be difficult."

He heard that the West River plains was the grinding spot of the peerless Guild.

Zhang Shan's heart turned cold.

the relationship between them and peerless guild was not good.

It should be said that the relationship between the two sides was very bad.

Although it had not reached the point where both sides would fight each other as soon as they met like domineering air.

But it wasn't too far off.

After all, the Heaven's Gate map had just been released not long ago.

they had fought two tough battles against peerless.

This time, it would be extremely difficult for Zhang Shan to go to their farming point to complete his mission.

The unparalleled gentleman would probably not agree.

"What's wrong, brother Liu Guan? Don't tell me you're going to peerless Guild's grinding spot to complete a quest?"

At this moment, wind cloud blade finally reacted.

There must be a reason why Zhang Shan had asked him about the map of the West River Prairie.

He thought of Zhang Shan, who was currently doing a chain mission and had to continuously farm monsters everywhere.

Could it be that he was going to the West River Prairie to farm monsters and complete a quest?

This was a little difficult.

" yes, the coordinates given by the quest prompt are in the west river prairie. you have to go there to farm a type of monster called the demonized bison to get the quest item. "

Zhang Shan was also very depressed.

If it was any other Guild, it would be fine.

Perhaps, he could even discuss it with her.

it was entirely possible for him to borrow a place to complete a quest.

However, this was the territory of the peerless Guild. What was he supposed to do?

that's right. The only monster that peerless will farm is the demonized bison. What do you plan to do? "

Wind and cloud blade asked Zhang Shan.

"What else can we do? Just call him directly. I can't just say that I'm not doing my mission, right?"

zhang shan did not have any other thoughts.

Even if he wanted to negotiate with the unparalleled gentleman, the other party would not care about him.

Therefore, he had no other way out now.

he could only call.

however, he would not be able to deal with 100000 members of peerless alone.

However, he didn't need to fight head-on with his opponent.

At most, they could just use guerilla warfare.

He was standing guard outside the enemy's farming point.

If he wasn't allowed to go in to complete the mission.

Zhang Shan was standing guard outside the map.

He would kill anyone who came out, and he couldn't go in even if he wanted to.

Zhang Shan locked the members of the peerless Guild in the map.

they were not allowed to enter the map.

Since he was isolated from the outside world, he would waste his time with them.

of course, this was only the worst case scenario.

Unless it was the last resort, Zhang Shan did not want to do this.

It was better to first negotiate with the unparalleled gentleman.

regardless of whether it worked or not, he had to be polite before resorting to force.

"Wait here for a while. I'll discuss with unparalleled gentleman and see if we can borrow their place to help you complete the quest."

Windcloud blade said after giving it some thought.

He asked Zhang Shan to wait for a while, and he went to negotiate with the unparalleled gentleman.

the possibility of the unparalleled gentleman letting him in to complete the mission was extremely small.

However, if they could avoid fighting, it was naturally better to not fight.

The most important thing now was to let Zhang Shan complete the mission smoothly.

"Alright, you can discuss with them first. If they can let me in to farm monsters, that would be the best."

Zhang Shan was not unreasonable.

He wasn't familiar with the unparalleled gentleman.

If he went to look for him, the unparalleled gentleman would probably ignore him.

it was better to let wind and cloud blade try.

after all, they should be more familiar with each other.

After a short while, wind cloud blade said angrily.

"F * ck, the unparalleled gentleman is so arrogant that there's no room for discussion. I'll go find the boss and pull everyone in the Guild to fight them. Let's just take over their farming spot."

"Forget it, there's no need. I'll go over alone."

Zhang Shan thought for a while and rejected wind cloud blade's good intentions.

In order to help him complete a quest, he had pulled everyone in the Guild to fight with others.

This wasn't good.

As for snatching peerless Guild's farming spots?

That would be completely meaningless.

Their wind and cloud Guild didn't lack farming spots.

With only Gerri wilderness, it was more than enough for all guild members to grind.

why did they have to snatch other people's farming spots?

he had no use for it at all.

"You're alone? How could that be? Do you want to challenge peerless on your own? That's too arrogant."

When he heard that Zhang Shan was planning to go over alone, Windcloud blade thought that he was going to barge into peerless's farming spot.

zhang shan explained to wind cloud blade.

it's fine. I'll just stand guard outside their spawn point. If they don't let me do any missions, I'll lock them up inside. No one can come in or out.

"That's a good idea. Peerless Guild's players will definitely have to enter and exit the map. At the very least, they have to return to repair their equipment every day."

I think so too. If they don't let me in to do the mission, I'll just waste time with them and see who can outlast who, hehe.

After finding out that the West River plains "grinding spot was occupied by the peerless Guild ...

Zhang Shan had already thought of a countermeasure.

He would just waste time with them.

Wait until they gave in.

If they really wanted to have a big fight, Zhang Shan was willing to accompany them to the end.

Even though he couldn't defeat the 100000 members of peerless by himself, he still had to be careful.

But Zhang Shan had no intention of fighting them head-on.

All he needed to do was to stand guard outside the enemy's spawn point.

If peerless Guild organized a large number of players to encircle and annihilate him.

He wasn't a fool. If he couldn't win, why couldn't he run?

Chapter 442 barging in

Since the unparalleled gentleman did not want to negotiate, then Zhang Shan had no other choice.

He could only fight with them.

If they were to face him alone, he definitely wouldn't be able to defeat the entire peerless Guild.

However, he could still use disgusting tricks.

Since unparalleled gentleman did not want him to go in to farm monsters and do quests.

That Zhang Shan could also prevent the members of the peerless Guild from entering and leaving the West River plains.

Zhang Shan decided to waste his time with them.

Who's afraid of who?

in any case, completing quests took a lot of time. he would just waste some time with peerless's players.

It could also be considered as the time spent on the mission.

Zhang Shan compared it carefully on the map.

Only then did he realize that if he ran from his current position to the West River Prairie ...

It would probably take about three hours.

It would be closer if they ran from Heaven's Gate pass.

They would need less than an hour to reach peerless's grinding spot.

this was because he had been running around in the heaven's gate map for the past two days to kill monsters and complete quests.

his current location was already quite far from heaven's gate pass.

what's the point of running? it's better to cast a teleport spell.

Then, he would teleport to Heaven's Gate and run there directly from Heaven's Gate. That would save him about an hour.

Let's return to Dangyang City first.

Just as Zhang Shan was preparing to cast a Return Channel, Wind and Cloud Blade asked him.

"You really don't need Boss to call people over? It's safer to have more people. Perhaps if all of us run over, the unparalleled gentleman will give in and let you in to do the mission without having to fight."

"No, it's not completely unnecessary. I can handle it."

Zhang Shan really did not want to drag the entire Guild into a fight just to help him complete the mission.

Moreover, this fight might not end anytime soon.

Their Guild, Wind and Cloud, was slightly stronger than Peerless.

However, there was a limit to how strong it was.

If Peerless focused on defense ...

They really couldn't rush in, as it was the enemy's farming map.

Even if their entire guild went there, they would still have to fight a long war with Peerless.

Unless the unparalleled gentleman gave in.

Let Zhang Shan enter the West River Plains to farm monsters and complete quests.

However, it wasn't going to be that easy. Peerless would be convinced.

The unparalleled gentleman would definitely not give in.

Otherwise, he would not have decisively rejected Windcloud Blade's request to negotiate.

If they fought a long battle, it would delay their guild members' grinding time and affect their leveling.

Of course, the most important thing was that Zhang Shan was confident that he could drag on with Peerless by himself.

It would not be easy for Peerless Guild to chase him away from the grinding spot.

As for wanting to chop Zhang Shan to the ground?

That was even more impossible.

Zhang Shan was so strong, especially now that he had a big move like God's Descent.

Not only did the deity's Descent increase all attributes by 100%, but it also increased the user's attributes by 100%.

Furthermore, it would grant immunity to all magic damage and magic control for one minute.

he had this one minute. Even if he was surrounded by tens of thousands of people, Zhang Shan would probably be able to charge out.

During the duration of his ultimate skill, only physical attacks from peerless Guild could deal damage to him.

With Zhang Shan's current strength, if he wasn't being controlled.

He couldn't possibly say that he would be cut to death by a vegetable knife.

This was almost impossible.

Therefore, as long as he still had his ultimate skill, he was almost invincible.

He simply couldn't die.

At least, that was the case when he was facing players.

That was why Zhang Shan had the confidence to fight guerilla warfare against peerless without the help of the Guild members.

Because he had a trump card, he was not afraid of being surrounded.

"Then let's go together. We have three ultimate skills. Even if peerless wants to ambush us, we won't be afraid."

"yes, brother guan. Let's go together. By the way, it's been a long time since we've fought with someone?"

"Wait for us, we'll go together."

"Alright, then the five of us will go. I'll wait for you at Dangyang city's teleportation Hall."

Zhang Shan had originally planned to run over alone and fight a long battle with Guild peerless.

however, his friends were all so enthusiastic. he didn't want to reject their good intentions.

After all, his friends were different from the others in the Guild.

they had been grinding together for so long, so they were very familiar with each other.

Furthermore, the five of them were already at such a high level.

He wasn't in a hurry to level up.

Even if he wasted a few days with peerless, it wouldn't matter.

Their levels were high, so they could farm monsters quickly.

It was fine to rest for a few days, as the others still couldn't catch up to their levels.

Zhang Shan returned to Dangyang city and teleported to the teleportation Hall.

After a while, the group arrived at the teleportation Hall one after another.

haha, we can finally have a big fight this time. It's been a long time since we've fought with someone.

that's right. Other than that iron-headed tyrant, no other players dare to mess with us. Even if we want to fight, we can't.

"Don't be happy too soon. Maybe this time, we won't fight. Perhaps, the unparalleled gentleman will admit defeat after seeing us."

are you kidding me? there are only five of us going. It would be strange if the unparalleled gentleman would admit defeat.

"Don't worry. This time, we'll definitely fight. I just don't know if it'll be a big fight or a small one."

who cares? let's run over there and seal off the peerless Guild's grinding spot.

"You're right. Lock them inside. The ones outside can't get in, and the ones inside can't get out. Hehe."

"Let's go and meet the peerless Guild,"

Zhang Shan and the other four were teleported to Heaven's Gate.

They teleported to the city gate together, got on their mounts, and headed straight for the West River Prairie.

Just as Zhang Shan and the rest were running away, the Guild of peerless was also discussing this matter.

"Boss, were the people from wind and cloud Guild looking for you? what are they doing?"

it's blade of wind and cloud. He said he's six-barreled Bodhisattva. He has a mission and wants to farm monsters here. He asked us to make an exception, but I ignored him.

that's Bullsh * t. What kind of mission is there in this game? "

"They're not testing us, are they? Could it be that the wind and cloud Guild is trying to snatch our farming spot?"

"That's impossible. They don't lack farming spots. He had heard that the wind and cloud Guild had sold the map of beast King Valley to the black iron Guild. if they lacked a place to farm monsters, how could they possibly sell beast king valley?"

"That's strange. What does wind and cloud blade mean?"

"Who cares what he means, we just need to ignore him."

that's true. We'll guard the respawning point. I don't believe that the people from wind and cloud Guild will really dare to rush in.

"If they really rush in, that would be great. I can take revenge."

that's right. Last time, we were the ones who charged at them and made us suffer a big loss. This time, if the wind and cloud Guild dares to rush in, we'll teach them a lesson.

"Beat the sh * t out of them, hehe."

"Don't be careless. The wind and cloud Guild is very powerful now. Don't let any accidents happen."

"Don't worry, what accident can happen?"

that's right. Our West River Prairie is even easier to defend than the beast King Valley. The passageway is even narrower and only two to three people can pass through at a time.

that's reasonable. As long as we put a few hundred people on guard, whoever charges will die.

I'm just afraid that the people from wind and cloud Guild will stand guard outside and not leave. That will make things difficult. Everyone still has to go back every day to buy supplies and repair their equipment.

"I say, you guys are worrying for nothing. Perhaps, Windcloud blade was just asking casually and did not really come over to cause trouble. The wind and cloud Guild has close to 100000 players. If they had made any moves, we would have known."

"Yeah, we were overthinking."

"But we can't be careless. Arrange for more people to guard the entrance."

in addition, it's best if you don't enter the map today. If you don't have supplies, borrow some from others. If your equipment doesn't have durability, use trash equipment and replace it.

"You don't have to be so nervous."

it's alright. Make the arrangements first. It's better to be prepared.

After a discussion, the members of the peerless Guild came up with a solution.

regardless of whether the people from the wind and cloud guild were coming to cause trouble, they had to make some preparations in advance.

The most obvious change was that there were originally only ten people defending the entrance.

Soon, it was strengthened to nearly a thousand people.

zhang shan was not aware of these changes.

They were currently on horseback.

zhang shan and the other five people rode on their mounts and galloped.

Their mounts were fast, and it took them about an hour to reach the West River Prairie.

He saw a small path that meandered forward with no end in sight.

Zhang Shan estimated that the other end of the path was the farming point of the peerless Guild, the West River plains.

However, there was not a single person outside the map.

it seemed that the scene of killing in all directions that they had imagined could not be realized.

There were no players outside, so where were they going to kill?

There was no one for them to kill.

Wind and cloud blade asked Zhang Shan.

“Brother Liu Guan, what should we do now? Are we just going to stand guard outside like this? this is too boring.”

that’s right. There aren’t even any wild monsters nearby. Otherwise, we could have been farming monsters while guarding the area.

“We can’t do anything about it. We can’t just rush in, can we? The entire Guild is grinding in there. If we charge in, wouldn’t we be throwing meat buns at a dog?”

“You’re the meat bun, your whole family is meat buns.”

The little fairy shouted angrily.

“F * ck, it’s a slip of the tongue, a slip of the tongue, a pure slip of the tongue, hehe.”

“What did six-man Butler say? Why don’t we just stand guard outside?”

actually, we can just wait outside. We can play mahjong while waiting for the peerless Guild’s players to come to our doorstep, hehe.

this is a good idea. As long as we wait for a while, there will definitely be people from peerless coming. I don’t believe that they won’t need to repair their equipment.

yes, we’ll just stay here. As long as we see any Qi players, we’ll rush up and kill them, regardless of whether they’re from the peerless guild or not.

“that’s reasonable. there’s no need to distinguish it carefully. otherwise, if you’re not careful, you might let him run away.”

After arriving outside the grinding spot of the peerless Guild, Zhang Shan had also considered for a long time.

This was a little different from what he had imagined.

Outside of the West River plains map, there were no members of peerless.

They didn’t know if it was the unparalleled gentleman who had given the order in advance to not let their people enter or exit the map for the time being.

or did they come at an unfortunate time?

at this moment, none of peerless’s players were entering or leaving.

They were all farming monsters on the map.

This was also possible.

Zhang Shan looked at the time. It was only 10 in the morning.

if he had logged in in the morning, the members of the peerless guild would have already bought their supplies and repaired their equipment.

They probably wouldn't have too many people who needed to enter and exit the map in a short time.

What was he going to do?

His original plan was to trap the members of peerless in the map.

Now that there were no members of peerless Guild outside, it seemed like they had achieved their goal.

However, it wasn't a good idea to keep guarding like this.

He had to find something to do. Otherwise, the five of them would be too bored here.

as for playing mahjong, that was nonsense.

Occasionally playing mahjong in the game could also be explained.

however, they couldn't possibly play mahjong here all day.

That was nonsense.

"Let's go in and take a look at peerless's defense. If there's a chance, we'll just charge in and cause a ruckus."

After considering for a long time, Zhang Shan made up his mind and said.

Damn it, if he couldn't do it, he would use a more ruthless method.

There was no way he could defeat the entire peerless Guild by himself.

even with the addition of his four companions, they still couldn't beat him.

however, the map of the west river prairie should not be small.

as long as they charged in, they could engage in guerrilla warfare with peerless's players.

Perhaps, he could even find time to farm some monsters.

Perhaps he would be able to obtain the mission item after a few random sweeps.

That would save him a lot of trouble.

As long as he could get his hands on the quest item.

Zhang Shan was not interested in wasting time with the peerless Guild.

Hearing Zhang Shan's plan, he directly rushed into the monster farming point of peerless.

His friends were all stunned.

It was extremely difficult to clear such a special spawn point on The Map of Heaven's Gate.

They had a deep understanding of this.

This was because they had previously been relying on defending their farming spots.

First, he had defeated peerless Guild and domineering Guild.

To be honest, if it wasn't for the defensive terrain advantage ...

In the past, they had not been able to defeat peerless Guild, much less domineering Guild.

Now, Zhang Shan actually wanted to rely on the five of them to attack peerless's farming point.

This was too outrageous.

"F * ck, brother Liu Guan, are you having a fever? There's only five of us, how can we possibly charge in?"

Wind cloud blade cried out in shock.

yeah, there are only five of us. We shouldn't be able to rush over, right? "

Heart with me also expressed worry.

"There should still be a chance to charge in. we're only five people, not the entire guild. peerless guild definitely won't put too many people on the defense."

that's right. Who would put so many people on defense during normal times? everyone has to farm monsters.

what about after we charge in? if we charge in, peerless Guild's players will go crazy and surround us.

"what's there to be afraid of? after we rush in, we'll just keep running on the map. We won't give them the chance to surround us."

"That's right, the map of every farming spot is not small. Even if the peerless Guild wants to surround us, it won't be that easy."

"isn't this too dangerous? Once we charge into the West River plains, we'll have to face the encirclement of nearly 100000 members of peerless."

it's fine. We just need to be careful. Make sure not to stop at one spot. We need to keep moving so that peerless can't catch us.

"We can try."

"Then let's just be reckless?"

"Let's do it."

"Alright, I'll walk in front. If peerless Guild only has a few dozen players defending, you guys don't need to do anything. Just charge into the West River plains and I'll kill them. I'll catch up with you guys soon."

"What if they put a lot of people to defend?"

"That will depend on the situation. If peerless only has a thousand players defending it, then little fairy will use her ultimate skill to wipe them all out. if there are tens of thousands of people guarding it, then we'd better just stay outside."

"You're right, if only peerless didn't have too many defenders. i'll wipe them all out with one big move."

"Alright, let's do it."

Zhang Shan was riding a Red Hare, leading the way.

He followed the small path and ran toward the map of the West River Prairie.

his friends followed closely behind him.

When they were close to the exit of the tunnel.

Zhang Shan looked out of the tunnel. It was a dark mass, with many members of the peerless Guild guarding it.

However, it seemed that only these people were on the defense.

Further away, they did not see any of peerless's players.

from his point of view, there were a lot of peerless guild's defenders.

However, it was estimated to be around a thousand people.

They could completely handle it. They could wipe out the other party and then charge into the West River Prairie.

Seeing this situation, Zhang Shan said to the little demon behind him.

"there aren't many of them, probably only about a thousand. i'll charge in front, and you'll follow behind and use your big move. We'll leave after we're done with them."

"I understand."

When Zhang Shan appeared near the West River grassland.

The defending peerless guild members quickly spotted his figure.

Peerless Guild's defensive members frantically shouted in their Guild channel.

we've discovered six-barreled Bodhisattva. They seem to be charging in. Quickly send reinforcements.

"f * ck, the people from wind and cloud guild are really here? I didn't hear any movement."

"How many of them are there?"

"I don't know. I've only seen five people for now."

"The passageway we're in is too narrow. No one can see the situation outside. we can't tell how many people are behind six tube bodhisattva."

"Everyone, send reinforcements to the nearby passages."

He didn't know how many people from the wind and cloud Guild had come.

However, unparalleled gentleman did not dare to be careless.

The wind and cloud Guild had long made a name for itself.

If they didn't deal with it seriously, they might be in trouble.

Peerless gentleman immediately gave the order to all the Guild members who were farming monsters in the West River plains.

All of them were sent to the passageway.

he really couldn't be careless this time.

Otherwise, they might have lost their grinding spot.

"Received."

Just as the peerless guild members were about to send reinforcements to the passageway ...

Zhang Shan had already dismounted from his horse and started charging.

this was the disadvantage of the new world's mount system.

While riding on a Mount, one could not attack, but could be attacked.

If he could attack while riding on a horse, he would be able to directly charge over on a horse.

Now, he had to dismount and charge. It affected his efficiency too much.

However, this was the system's setting.

everyone had to play according to the game system's settings.

If he dared to charge over on his horse, he would probably be beaten into a fool.

Even if he had high HP, he wouldn't die so quickly.

He would definitely be unconscious until he died.

Even though he had God's descent and berserk, two skills that made him immune to crowd control, he was still able to escape.

however, players could not cast skills while riding on their mounts.

If he was knocked out while riding a horse.

He would only be beaten up like a fool.

He could not move at all.

No matter how powerful his skills were, they would be useless.

He couldn't use any skills at all.

He hoped that the game designers would improve the Mount system in the future.

As they neared the exit, Zhang Shan got off his horse and the little fairy followed closely behind.

When Zhang Shan had just reached the exit of the passageway.

Peerless Guild's defenders attacked him with all kinds of damage.

Zhang Shan was not afraid at all. He quickly activated his berserk and fanatic skills and rushed directly towards the West River plains map.

Berserk skills can remove crowd control and increase attack power and attack speed by 20%.

Although this skill was not as powerful as the God's descent, it was still a powerful skill.

there were also negative effects.

However, this was still a small top-grade skill.

now, zhang shan's strength had far surpassed other players.

As long as he wasn't controlled, he was almost an undying existence.

However, it would be ridiculous if he was knocked out by others.

No matter how high his HP was or how strong he was.

If he was unconscious, he would also need to rest.

As such, the moment he charged out of the tunnel, he decisively activated his berserk skill.

Immune to all magic control skills for 10 seconds.

He had ten seconds, which was enough for the little fairy behind him to use her big move.

as long as little fairy used the wrath of the stars.

with peerless's thousand-man defensive formation, they could kill them all in an instant.

Zhang Shan activated his berserk and fanatic skills and stood in front.

peerless guild's defenders rained all sorts of damage on him.

His health bar was dropping rapidly.

But it didn't matter for the time being.

his 500,000 hp was not just for show.

It would not be so easy to kill him.

Besides, Zhang Shan was not someone who would only take a beating and not retaliate.

he raised his hand cannon and fired at the peerless guild members who were guarding the passage.

With one shot, 12 people would fall to the ground.

Whether it was peerless's elite members or normal members, they were all members of the Guild.

In front of Zhang Shan, there was no difference.

They were all killed in one shot.

These people were at most in their thirties.

Even The Guardian Warriors only had around 60000 to 70000 HP.

How could he have blocked such a powerful attack from Zhang Shan?

Zhang Shan rushed out of the tunnel, enduring countless injuries.

At the same time, they also dealt high damage, knocking down a large number of peerless Guild's defensive members.

Relying on the catapulting passive and the blood-sucking effect, Zhang Shan was still able to suck back a lot of his health.

even though he was facing the attacks of nearly a thousand people, his hp was still in a healthy state.

Seeing Zhang Shan's unparalleled bravery.

Peerless Guild's defensive members kept calling out in their Guild channel.

" quickly send reinforcements. six-barreled bodhisattva is too powerful. we can't hold on much longer. " hurry up and send someone over. If we don't come over to help, we're finished.

"F * ck, we can't hold on much longer."

however, they didn't even have the time to say a few words.

The little fairy behind Zhang Shan had also rushed out of the tunnel.

Little fairy looked at the peerless guild members near the tunnel.

She raised her hand and shot an arrow into the sky.

in an instant, the sky flickered, and countless meteors fell.

it smashed towards peerless's defensive members.

The peerless guild members who had been on guard near the passage were almost instantly killed by little fairy's ultimate skill.

A small number of them, who were outside the skill's damage range, were also beaten by Zhang Shan.

From Zhang Shan's appearance at the entrance of the passageway to the defeat of the peerless Guild's guards, they were all defeated.

At most, it would only take a few seconds.

The other companions behind him also rushed out of the passage.

After defeating all of peerless Guild's defenders.

They did not hesitate at all.

Zhang Shan led his friends and ran towards the depths of the West River Prairie.

Only corpses were left on the ground.

Chapter 443 Passive Bison's Fury

Zhang Shan's group of five people only used a few seconds.

He knocked out all the members of peerless Guild who were guarding the entrance of the tunnel and then ran away.

Only the defending members of peerless Guild were left on the ground, crying without tears.

They kept calling out to peerless in their Guild channel.

what's going on? six-barreled Bodhisattva has already charged into the West River Prairie. We're all dead.

"what the hell is going on? why did you all die so quickly?"

"What the f * ck, what are you guys doing? there are thousands of people defending, but the people from the wind and cloud Guild managed to rush in so quickly. How long has it been? ten seconds?"

"Even if I put a few hundred paddies to defend, I'll probably be able to defend for a longer time than you guys."

what's going on? are you guys that weak? "

"You guys didn't fall asleep just now, right?"

even if it's a dead pig that's sleeping, a thousand dead pigs, the wind and cloud Guild would need a long time to kill them all, right? "

"Is the wind cloud Guild really that strong? How many people are there?"

"Tell me the details, what happened."

The unparalleled gentleman had heard that the passageway had been lost so quickly.

He was about to explode from anger.

With such a good defensive terrain, they had thousands of people defending.

why didn't they defend it?

And in just a few seconds, Zhang Shan had led his men into the West River Prairie.

It was simply ridiculous.

back then, they had attacked the wind cloud guild and defended the beast king valley map.

They had lost countless people, but they still couldn't get in.

why was it that this time, the people from the wind and cloud guild could easily rush in?

He had also knocked down all of their guards.

this didn't make sense at all.

Peerless's defensive members were also depressed.

They were also baffled.

Just now, Zhang Shan had rushed out, and the little fairy had thrown out a big move.

In the end, they all fell to the ground.

To be fair, they could not be blamed.

At the current stage, other than Zhang Shan, how many players could withstand the damage of a high-level skill?

as long as a big move covered them, they would fall to the ground.

If one had to say that they were at fault ...

They could only blame themselves for standing too closely together.

But they had no choice.

They only had about a thousand people to defend, so of course they had to get as close to the entrance as possible.

as a result, a group of people gathered at the entrance of the tunnel and ate it. the little fairy dealt damage with a big move.

With a big move, not many of them had escaped.

Almost all of them were covered by the damage from the little fairy's big move.

When peerless gentleman asked how many people from wind and cloud Guild had come.

The members of the defense team were so ashamed that they could not show their faces.

It was really too hard to say.

However, in the face of unparalleled gentleman's question, they had to answer honestly.

there are only five of them, including six tube Bodhisattva.

"What's this? Only five people from the wind and cloud Guild came? The five of them were able to defeat all of you?"

f * ck, are they gods or are you gods? five people beat thousands of you down in just a few seconds? "

“You guys didn’t see wrong, did you?”

“this sounds like a fantasy story.”

When they heard that only Zhang Shan and the other five from the wind cloud Guild had come.

The entire Guild was shocked.

they couldn’t believe that this was real.

Including Zhang Shan, there were only five people in total.

It had only taken a few seconds for them to completely destroy peerless’s defense.

It sounded very fake.

However, there were so many people present, so they couldn’t have seen it wrong.

And there were only five of them.

Even if it was math taught by a physical education teacher, he would not be wrong.

Thus, although the members of peerless Guild were unwilling to believe it, they were still in disbelief.

but this matter was definitely true.

At this moment, someone said in peerless’s Guild channel.

“Did six tube Bodhisattva and the others use some big move or a scroll or something?”

“You’re right. If you use a big move or a scroll, it’s really possible.”

They finally heard that someone could understand them.

Peerless’s defenders were touched.

They all replied in peerless ‘Guild channel.

“Yes, they used an ultimate move.”

“It’s a female archer who used the wrath of the stars. It’s an Archer’s ultimate skill, and it’s very powerful.”

isn’t that nonsense? are there any big moves that aren’t fierce? ” sigh, six-barreled Bodhisattva and the others used a big move. That makes sense.

“That’s because our people were too stupid. Why are they standing so close to each other? they were all annihilated by one big move.”

“Who are they?”

The unparalleled gentleman continued to ask.

six-barreled Bodhisattva, wind and cloud blade, heart moves with me, a Daoist priest, and a female archer. I didn't pay attention to their names.

"F * ck, six-barreled Bodhisattva brought four people and dared to charge into the West River plains. If we don't exterminate them this time, there'll be no justice."

"What did the boss say? kill them?"

of course. Since six-barreled Bodhisattva dared to come, we have to make him stay. Otherwise, where will we put our face in the future? "

"the problem is, they've already rushed in. what are we going to do? Do we split up and encircle them, or do we focus on sweeping them all along the way?"

do you even need to ask? the West River Prairie is so big that we have to split up. Otherwise, if six-pipe Bodhisattva just hides in any corner, how long will it take us to find them? " but if we split up, won't we be defeated one by one? everyone knows the strength of the six-barreled Bodhisattva.

"do you think two to three thousand of us can keep six-barreled bodhisattva here?"

it can't be that exaggerated. No matter how strong the six-barreled Bodhisattva is, he can't possibly defeat two or three thousand people.

that's hard to say. We have two to three thousand people, so we might not be able to defeat six-headed Bodhisattva and the other four.

"That's impossible. He's not a God."

it's fine. As long as we find traces of six tube Bodhisattva, we'll surround him together. Even if we can't defeat him, it's fine. We just have to hold him back.

that's right. When we surround him, even if he can fly, we can still shoot him down.

"Let's do this."

"We have to send more people to block the entrance of the passage, in case the wind cloud Guild sends reinforcements later."

that's right. We'll defend ourselves first, then we'll slowly surround and annihilate six-barreled Bodhisattva.

they can't run away unless they read the bar and go back now. Otherwise, they're like turtles in a jar.

let's get moving and kill six-barreled Bodhisattva. He's been arrogant for long enough since the game started.

that's right. We must destroy him this time.

by the way, did you see clearly which direction six tube Bodhisattva and the others ran in? "

After the members of the peerless Guild found out that Zhang Shan had charged into the West River plains, they were all stunned.

The entire Guild was furious. After half a day of discussion, they decided to split up and attack.

However, they had to first figure out which direction Zhang Shan had run off to.

With a direction, it would be easier for them to chase.

Otherwise, the map of the West River Prairie was so big.

They would have to search for a long time before they could find Zhang Shan.

The members of peerless who were on the defense had already been beaten to the ground by Zhang Shan and the others.

However, the players on the ground still had a view.

They could see the direction that Zhang Shan was running in.

" look carefully. six-barreled bodhisattva is running into the map with his people. "

"Alright, there's nothing else to say. Quickly split up into groups of 3000."

The unparalleled gentleman quickly made the arrangements.

He quickly organized the Guild members who were scattered all over the West River plains to farm monsters.

Apart from sending out ten thousand people to continue guarding the entrance of the passage, they had also sent out ten thousand people.

The rest split into twenty to thirty large groups, forming a net and heading in the direction that Zhang Shan and the rest had escaped to.

he quickly searched the area.

Just as the members of peerless were discussing how to encircle and annihilate them ...

Zhang Shan brought his friends and ran quickly across the West River plains.

haha, I didn't expect us to charge in so easily.

Windcloud blade said happily as he galloped away on his horse.

what's so strange about that? peerless had only placed a thousand players on the defensive, but the little fairy had wiped them all out with a single ultimate. An ultimate is still very powerful.

you're right. Peerless was too careless. If they had sent more people to defend, we wouldn't have been able to get in.

“that’s normal, right? the fact that peerless has placed thousands of players on the defense is already a testament to their importance. Normally, who would put so many people on defense? everyone still has to kill monsters.”

this is also because one blade had already negotiated with unparalleled gentleman in advance. Otherwise, they would probably only have a few dozen people defending at most.

yeah, don’t we usually just put ten or so people on defense? ”

“It’s mainly because we came too suddenly, and it’s not like the entire Guild was mobilized. Unparalleled gentleman was caught off guard, so he couldn’t have sent more people to defend.”

that’s reasonable. We only attacked the other party by surprise.

“It’s easy to get in, but the key is what we should do next.”

what else can we do? let’s find a corner and let six-shots farm the monsters. As long as he completes the quest, we’ll just walk around and let the peerless Guild’s people do whatever they want. Hehe.

“That won’t be easy either. Peerless definitely won’t let us farm monsters in peace. They’re definitely spreading their net around us now.”

“That’s something that can’t be helped. Let’s just do this for now.”

“Follow me. We’ll go along the edge of the map and find a place to farm monsters.”

Zhang Shan brought his friends, turned a corner, and ran towards the edge of the map.

it was possible to encounter peerless anywhere in the west river plains.

Of course, Zhang Shan and the rest would not. They would run in a straight line.

Wouldn’t that be waiting to be caught?

He wasn’t afraid of being surrounded by peerless Guild.

As long as he had God’s descent, no matter how many players peerless had, they would not be able to surround him.

no matter how peerless guild attacked him, he would definitely be able to escape.

However, even if he could run away, his companions might not be able to.

They were just slightly stronger than normal players.

They were not strong enough to be like Zhang Shan, to be unafraid of being surrounded.

therefore, to zhang shan and the rest ...

The later peerless discovered them, the better.

Even though they couldn’t hide for long.

After all, even though the West River great Prairie map was huge, it was still very big.

However, peerless had enough members.

If the members of the peerless Guild were to cast a net to look for them, it wouldn't take them too long to find them.

zhang shan did not expect to be able to completely avoid the members of the peerless guild.

He just wanted to drag out the time until he got the quest item.

If it wasn't for this mission, Zhang Shan wouldn't have paid any attention to the people from the peerless Guild.

He was the one who had the final say.

However, he couldn't do that now. He had to complete the quest first.

Zhang Shan brought his friends along the edge of the West River grassland map and found a place with a high concentration of monsters.

He stopped his running Mount and carefully looked at the surrounding terrain before telling his friends.

"Let's grind here for now. You guys help me keep an eye out. If we see any of the peerless Guild's players, we'll immediately run away. We don't want to get entangled with them."

"Alright, then we'll split up and be on guard."

Zhang Shan got off his horse and started farming monsters. The four of them split up into four directions.

They were on guard not far from him.

They deliberately put some distance between them.

They didn't want to be surrounded by peerless's players without them knowing.

After everything was arranged.

Zhang Shan faced the dense herd of wild cows and started to farm crazily.

He hoped that his luck this time would not be too bad.

If it was the same as before, where he had to farm for one to two hours before he could get the quest item ...

That would be a little difficult.

he wouldn't be able to hide here for long.

If he was lucky, it might take ten to twenty minutes.

Peerless Guild's players had yet to arrive.

If they were unlucky, they might not even be able to kill the first few monsters.

Peerless Guild's players might have come looking for him.

Therefore, now was the real time to test his luck.

Zhang Shan attacked the demonized wild bull madly.

These enchanted wild bulls were level 50 monsters.

Moreover, in this special map, the monsters did not have the Holy demon's protection.

With a single shot from Zhang Shan, 12 wild cows fell to the ground.

His farming speed was extremely fast.

However, from the situation of the missions in the past two days ...

If they wanted to get the mission items ...

it wasn't because of how fast he was farming or how many monsters he killed.

It was purely based on luck.

If he was lucky enough, he might even be able to kill two monsters.

He would be able to get the mission item.

If he was unlucky, he might have to spend one to two hours grinding.

However, luck was not something that Zhang Shan could control.

He just wanted to kill as many monsters as possible before peerless Guild's players came looking for him.

As long as there were enough of them.

No matter how bad his luck was, he should be able to get the quest item.

Zhang Shan held his hand cannon and kept on killing monsters while checking the attributes of these wild cows.

[enchanted wild bull: level 50, attack 4000, HP 24000, skill: wild bull's rage (passive)]

[wild bull's Fury (passive): the demonized wild bull is violent and easily angered.]

When the demonized Buffalo attacks, it has a chance to deal 500% damage to the target.

The attributes of these enchanted wild cows were not worth mentioning.

It was a regular level 50 wild monster, similar to the Tiger of the forest in Beast King Valley.

However, this passive skill, fury of the wild bull, made Zhang Shan very envious.

A passive with five times critical damage was a good skill.

He only had two passive skills that could deal 5x critical damage.

One was a passive knock-back, while the other was a passive heavy strike.

These two passive skills were very useful when fighting bosses.

every time it was a critical hit, it could deal a high amount of damage.

It would be great if he could get this passive skill, Bison's Fury.

Of course, Zhang Shan was just thinking about it.

His passive King talent wasn't that easy to trigger.

Usually, it would take ten days to half a month to get a passive skill.

This was peerless Guild's territory.

It was impossible for him to stay here and farm for such a long time.

what a waste of such a good passive skill.

He could only be envious.

She was destined to have no fate with him.

Just as Zhang Shan was lamenting that he was about to miss out on an awesome, passive skill.

Suddenly, he received a system prompt.

[system notification: your passive King talent will be triggered by killing a demonized bison.]

You have obtained the passive skill, fury of the wild bull.

When he saw the system notification.

Zhang Shan was stunned.

His luck was simply heaven-defying.

How many monsters had he killed? He managed to activate his passive skill.

He had just started swiping, not even a minute had passed.

The number of wild cows that were killed was estimated to be at most a few hundred.

was he so lucky today?

Zhang Shan could not believe it.

He was here to complete a mission.

In the end, he had not even seen the shadow of the task item.

To his surprise, he had gained a passive skill.

it was a very useful passive skill.

How could a passive skill with five times critical hit not be useful?

Although he usually killed monsters and fought with others, he was still a monster.

There was almost no need for a critical hit, as it was a one-shot kill.

However, it was needed when fighting a boss.

When fighting a boss, damage output was very important.

as long as they fought fast enough, the boss would have less skills to use.

Killing the boss quickly could reduce the chances of accidents.

Moreover, Zhang Shan was a man who was determined to challenge the demon God.

If he didn't get more passive skills.

How was he going to challenge a demonic god in the future?

could it be that he only relied on divine artifacts?

That was obviously not possible.

Although he did not know how powerful the demon God was, he was still very confident.

However, as the most powerful BOSS in the game ...

One could easily guess that the demonic god was definitely very abnormal.

Even a player with a full set of godly equipment would probably not be able to solo a Demon God.

the game wouldn't set it this way.

Divine artifacts were difficult to obtain.

However, as time passed, the players would definitely be able to obtain it.

In the later stages of the game, it would not be impossible to get a complete set of divine artifacts.

however, as the most powerful super BOSS in the game ...

would the demon god be so easily defeated by players?

This was clearly impossible.

Zhang Shan wanted to take on the demon God one-on-one.

he could only rely on his passive skills.

His passive King talent was his biggest advantage over other players.

This was a path that would allow him to grow forever.

In this aspect, the other players couldn't compare to him.

As long as he could farm enough passive skills, he would be able to use them.

It was possible for him to defeat the demon God in a one-on-one battle.

He didn't have enough passive skills.

Currently, there were only about 20 of them.

He was still far from being truly invincible.

He still had a lot of room for growth.

When Zhang Shan would get his hands on it, he would have a few hundred passive skills.

At that time, even if he had the novice equipment, it was possible for him to beat the hell out of others.

However, this had to be done slowly.

with another passive skill, zhang shan was elated.

Let's first take a look at the description of the fury of the wild bull.

Even if he didn't look, he could guess it.

He had already obtained many of these skills.

[wild bull's Fury: when attacking, there is a chance to trigger the effect of 5x damage. The chance of triggering is 1%.]

Indeed, it was similar to what Zhang Shan had imagined.

the effect of 5x critical hit remained unchanged.

It was similar to the one on the demonized bison.

however, the chance of a critical hit was only 1%.

It was the same with the knockback and heavy strike passive skills he had obtained before.

After the skill was acquired, it only had a 1% chance of a critical hit.

The effect was not as good as the monster.

In the game, monsters that had a critical hit passive could be said to be critical hits.

the monster would deal a critical hit after two or three hits.

However, the critical effect on players was not as good.

The average player might not even get a single critical hit after dozens of hits.

Not to mention others.

Zhang Shan's equipment and all sorts of critical hits.

There might be more than ten of them in total.

Even so, he still couldn't achieve the critical hit effect.

Normally, it would be considered good luck if a critical hit appeared out of every five or six attacks.

Although the chance of triggering Bison's Fury was only 1%, it was still a passive skill.

But Zhang Shan was still very happy.

As long as it was a passive skill, he liked it.

It didn't matter if the chance of triggering it was low.

When he had enough passive skills ...

Even if the chance of triggering it was small.

With each skill taking turns to trigger, he could almost achieve a critical hit.

zhang shan brought his friends and ran to the west river grassland with great effort.

He had originally come here to farm monsters and complete a quest.

But it was just the beginning.

he had just received a passive skill.

It was an unexpected surprise.

This was a good sign.

Hopefully, he could get the mission item as soon as possible.

Chapter 444 Never angry unless he can't help it

After Zhang Shan had entered the West River Prairie map, it had not even been a minute.

He activated the passive King talent and obtained a passive skill.

And it was a very good passive skill.

This was one of his passive skills.

He obtained the fastest one.

It was also the easiest one.

those passive skills he had before.

Some of them were from small monsters.

Some of them could be found on bosses.

The BOSS's passive skills were still manageable.

As long as one was lucky enough.

It was possible that killing a BOSS would trigger a talent and obtain a passive skill.

As for the passive skills that he had obtained from the monsters, none of them were easy to obtain.

at least, it would take one or two days.

The skill that took the longest time was the ant strength skill.

It took him almost a whole month to get the passive skill.

His passive King talent had a one in a million chance of triggering.

It wasn't just for show, it was really hard to trigger.

Today, his luck was truly heaven-defying.

He had really earned big this time.

Even if he didn't complete the mission in the end.

He didn't lose anything this time.

of course, this was just a joke.

He liked passive skills.

The mission was still there, so he had to continue.

If he couldn't do it today, he would come back tomorrow.

Anyway, when he had just charged into the West River great Prairie.

He had already used a positioning ball to mark the coordinates.

If they were forced into a corner by peerless's players ...

Then come back tomorrow.

Peerless Guild's players couldn't possibly say that.

i'll search the entire map for him every day.

Should they continue farming monsters to level up?

Besides, he would come alone secretly.

Who would have known that he had already entered the West River great Prairie?

Of course, the positioning ball was his last resort.

Zhang Shan did not want to use this method.

the best way was to get the quest item as soon as possible.

He had to quickly complete this part of the mission.

after completing this part of the mission, there would be more missions?

He didn't know yet.

He had to finish this as soon as possible and then move on to the next stage.

He would wait until he had completed the entire chain mission.

He still had to go to the West capital to find an Qisheng.

he wanted to see what else he needed to do.

Only then could he help him repair the divine artifact.

This was an entire divine artifact restoration mission.

If you can finish it quickly, don't drag it out.

if he was stuck here and there for a few days ...

How long would it take for him to repair the divine artifact necklace?

Even if it took a month or two, as long as the divine weapon could be repaired, it would still be damaged.

It was worth it.

However, this was just talk. If he could do it quickly, of course, he had to do it as fast as possible.

zhang shan was there alone, nervously farming the demonized bison.

The four of them were on guard.

Who knew if they were just too lucky.

It was peerless Guild's players who had gone in the wrong direction.

Zhang Shan had been there for more than 20 minutes.

They hadn't even seen peerless Guild's players coming their way.

Unfortunately, even though he was not disturbed by anyone, he was not disturbed.

However, Zhang Shan had spent more than 20 minutes.

The missing part (30) still hadn't appeared.

Maybe he had used up all his good luck when he triggered the passive King talent.

how long would it take for him to get the quest item?

It had been so long.

It was only a matter of time before peerless Guild's players found their way here.

The little companions who were on guard in the surroundings.

He would ask Zhang Shan every one or two minutes.

Did the mission item appear? did it appear?

In fact, it was a little risky to be in someone else's territory.

They couldn't stay for too long.

If all of peerless's players surrounded them ...

Zhang Shan was still alright. He activated his God's descent skill and charged forward.

No one could stop him.

however, his friends could not.

If they were surrounded too tightly.

His friends might all die.

If they were to die in the West River Prairie.

Then he was definitely beyond saving.

He would lose a level of experience.

That was why everyone was very nervous.

"Brother Liu Guan, did you get the quest item?"

"Not yet,"

what the hell is this mission? it's been so long and it still hasn't dropped.

"Yeah, didn't you complete more than 20 missions yesterday? Why are you so slow today?"

Faced with the urging of his friends, Zhang Shan was also very helpless.

It wasn't that he didn't want to go faster.

However, this mission item would not drop just because he said so.

This was all up to luck.

when he was in dangyang city the day before, he had completed his missions very quickly.

Usually, it would only take a few minutes.

He would be able to get the mission item.

However, when the mission entered The Map of Heaven's Gate ...

These missing parts were getting harder and harder to drop.

He was also very anxious, but this matter really couldn't be rushed.

"We can't do anything about this, we'll take it slow. If the peerless Guild's people come looking for us, we'll just have to run."

zhang shan was already mentally prepared.

It was impossible for good luck to always be by his side.

If he was unlucky, he might need to farm for two to three hours before he could get the quest item.

The members of peerless Guild would never let him farm in the West River plains for so long.

They would need to fight guerilla warfare against peerless 'players.

Whenever they encountered peerless Guild's players, they would run.

Zhang Shan was still nervously farming monsters.

Unparalleled gentleman was so depressed that he was about to go crazy.

They divided the entire Guild into twenty to thirty teams.

He had almost searched the entire West River great Prairie map.

But they could not find Zhang Shan and the other five.

The unparalleled gentleman was a little suspicious. Could it be that Zhang Shan and the rest had just charged in, killed a wave, and then returned to the city?

Peerless gentleman asked the Guild members who had been on the defensive.

"Did you guys look in the wrong direction just now? did six-barreled bodhisattva run deeper into the map?"

we didn't see it wrong. They're running into the map. We have more than a thousand people watching. We can't say that we're all wrong.

but why haven't we found the six-barreled Bodhisattva after searching for so long? "

"has six-barreled bodhisattva already returned to the city?"

"I don't think so? Then what is he doing here? Could it be that he's only here to kill a few people?"

"Yeah, it doesn't make sense, right?"

"By the way, didn't wind and cloud blade discuss with boss before? he said that six-barreled Bodhisattva was here for a mission. Could it be that he has already completed the quest?"

wind and cloud blade is bullshitting. What kind of quest is there in this game? "

"It's hard to say, even though we haven't encountered any missions. However, six-barreled Bodhisattva has always been ahead of everyone else. It's hard to say if he's received a mission again."

"even if six tube bodhisattva is here to complete a mission, he can't possibly complete the mission so quickly, right?"

how would we know? maybe his mission is very simple. He only needs to come in and kill a few monsters.

impossible. Six-pipe Bodhisattva must still be in the West River Prairie.

“But the question is, why can’t we find him?”

“Did we miss out on something that no one has gone to look for?”

“Think carefully, did you miss something?”

“We haven’t searched the area near the entrance of the passage yet. Didn’t you say that six-barreled Bodhisattva was running deep into the map? That’s why no one went there to look for him.”

“Then what’s the point of talking? everyone, turn around. Scan the map of the area around the tunnel.”

The members of Guild peerless were searching for Zhang Shan and the others.

They had been looking in the wrong direction from the very beginning.

Zhang Shan led his friends and charged into the West River Prairie map.

He didn’t run far.

Instead, he made a turn and started farming monsters at the edge of the tunnel.

As for peerless’s members, they had been misled from the start.

they had thought that zhang shan had run deeper into the map.

As a result, the entire peerless Guild had close to 100000 members.

He searched the West River Prairie for more than 20 minutes.

there were no traces of zhang shan.

This allowed Zhang Shan to farm monsters peacefully for more than 20 minutes.

This was also Zhang Shan’s luck, not good enough.

after grinding for more than 20 minutes, he still didn’t manage to find the quest item.

Otherwise, he would have completed the mission and returned immediately.

The players of peerless would be left scratching their heads in confusion.

now that peerless’s players had changed their direction of search, they would probably find their way here very soon.

Of course, Zhang Shan and the rest did not know about this.

At first, he found it strange that more than 20 minutes had passed.

Peerless Guild’s players had yet to come looking for them.

He found it a little strange.

However, to Zhang Shan.

None of this was important.

If peerless Guild's players came looking for them, they would kill their way out.

He just had to change locations and continue farming monsters.

Now that no one had come, wasn't that great?

this allowed him to grind for a while longer.

Unfortunately, Zhang Shan's stable farming time did not last for long.

Not long after, while he was farming monsters.

Little fairy shouted in the party channel.

"Southeast, a lot of peerless guild members are here."

"f * ck, they finally found their way here."

"Gather, we'll charge out."

zhang shan immediately stopped farming.

He rode on the red Hare and quickly ran to little fairy's side, looking into the distance to check the movements of the peerless guild members.

His companions from the other three directions also quickly approached.

When little fairy discovered the members of the peerless Guild ...

the other party had also discovered their tracks.

The members of peerless Guild were shouting in their Guild channel.

I've discovered six-barreled Bodhisattva. All of you, come over here quickly.

After he finished speaking, he reported the coordinates on their Guild channel.

"Keep a close eye on him, don't let six tube Bodhisattva escape. The rest of you, quickly surround him."

brothers, it's time to show your face. Kill six-barreled Bodhisattva and you'll be famous, hehe.

They had finally found Zhang Shan's tracks.

The unparalleled gentleman could not help but heave a sigh of relief.

In his opinion, he just needed to find the person.

They were the only ones left, and a large group of people went up to attack.

No matter how strong Zhang Shan was, it was impossible for him to escape.

No matter how strong an individual was, could he possibly be stronger than the entire Guild?

The unparalleled gentleman was not worried about whether he could win or not.

To him, as long as he could find Zhang Shan, it would mean that they had won.

With their advantage in numbers, no matter how strong Zhang Shan was, he would not be able to last long.

As for Zhang Shan's side, after their tracks were exposed, the five of them quickly gathered together.

Wind and cloud blade asked Zhang Shan.

"Which direction should we go?"

do you even need to ask? there are enemies in only one direction. We can run as we please in the other three directions.

"that's not right. we should run in the direction where there are people. the other three directions don't seem to have anyone. However, peerless's players would soon fill the gap. On the contrary, there aren't many enemies in the front, so we can just charge directly."

"That's true, let's do that."

When their tracks were exposed, Zhang Shan quickly made a decision.

He just didn't run to a place with no one.

They charged at peerless's players.

In any case, there weren't many peerless guild members that had revealed themselves.

In fact, there were only two to three thousand people who had come.

He wanted to take advantage of the fact that the other members of peerless hadn't surrounded him yet.

He quickly typed it out.

Almost without much consideration, Zhang Shan quickly rushed towards the other side.

He said to his friends.

"I'll go first, you guys follow behind me."

After Zhang Shan finished speaking, he took the lead and charged directly at the peerless Guild.

At this moment, peerless's members were not idle.

When they discovered Zhang Shan's tracks.

Other than reporting in the Guild channel.

The entire Brigade, two to three thousand people, charged straight towards Zhang Shan.

In their eyes.

There were only five people on Zhang Shan's side.

And they had three thousand people.

What was there to be afraid of? he could just rush over and hack Zhang Shan to death, and it would be over.

The two sides faced each other.

Peerless had two to three thousand players.

on zhang shan's side, there were only five people.

It seemed like there was a huge disparity in strength.

But Zhang Shan was not worried at all.

Not to mention wind and cloud blade and heart moves, he still had ultimate skills that he had yet to use.

Even if he didn't use any big moves, it wouldn't take much time for Zhang Shan to defeat these two to three thousand people.

He had this confidence.

he had defeated so many real-name bosses.

How could he be afraid of these peerless Guild players?

that would be a joke.

Could the strength of players be compared to a real-name BOSS?

No matter how many people there were, they still couldn't compare.

The two sides charged at each other on their horses, and soon they were within attack range.

Zhang Shan quickly got off his horse.

He didn't care about anything and went all out.

He quickly activated his berserk and fanatic skills, and at the same time, he activated his shadow clone.

The moment Zhang Shan got off his horse.

All three skills were activated at the same time.

Three Zhang Shans stood in a row.

Countless bullets were fired at the peerless guild members.

With a single shot from Zhang Shan, 12 of the enemy had fallen.

The doppelganger created by the shadow clone skill continued to use the main body's passive skill.

Therefore, the damage dealt by the clone also had a rebound effect.

His main body and two clones.

One attack was enough to take down 36 people.

Zhang Shan lifted his hand cannon, and the bullets shot out like rain.

the bullet damage jumped back and forth among the peerless guild's crowd.

In an instant, a large number of them were knocked down.

In the beginning, the members of the peerless Guild were still puzzled.

Why did Zhang Shan have to go against them?

He could have chosen to run in another direction.

The other members of the peerless Guild did not rush over.

There were only three thousand of them here.

And they had come from the same direction.

There were no players from the peerless Guild in the other three directions.

they had not yet surrounded zhang shan.

Zhang Shan could have chosen to run in another direction.

Why did he have to fight them?

in the beginning, the members of peerless guild could not understand.

However, the moment both sides came into contact.

They saw Zhang Shan's intense firepower.

Only then did they react.

no wonder zhang shan dared to go against them.

With Zhang Shan's fierce firepower, there was no need to go around him.

If they were pushed forward, their two to three thousand people would not be able to stop them at all.

and this was just zhang shan's firepower alone.

Behind Zhang Shan, he still had four other friends.

Zhang Shan was controlling the two clones.

The three of them pushed forward with their Spears.

the players from peerless guild were on the verge of collapse.

spread out quickly. Don't fight six-barreled Bodhisattva head-on. We'll just hold him back and wait for the boss to come.

Faced with Zhang Shan's fierce firepower, the members of the peerless Guild did not dare to take it head-on.

They quickly dispersed to the surroundings, watching Zhang Shan's movements from afar.

He watched as the members of peerless slowly left his range of fire.

Zhang Shan could not be bothered.

He quickly got on his horse and said to his friends behind him.

"let's go," he said.

The five of them quickly mounted their horses and galloped off into the distance.

Peerless Guild's members.

when they saw zhang shan and the rest getting on their horses and running away, they quickly mounted their horses and chased after them.

however, zhang shan and the other four were all riding hero mounts and could run very fast.

Boss Wu had bought a Dawan horse in the beginning.

Later on, in order to keep up with the pace of the team, he changed his Mount to a hero's Mount.

As they advanced forward, they quickly left the peerless Guild's pursuers behind.

After running for some time.

Zhang Shan looked behind him and saw that it was empty. There was not a single pursuer.

"Where are we going now?"

Wind cloud blade asked Zhang Shan as he rode away.

Just now, they had faced off against peerless's players.

Zhang Shan was the only one attacking.

Little fairy followed behind and shot a few arrows.

As for Windcloud blade and follow me, both of them were melee classes.

Before they could even get close to the enemy.

Zhang Shan had already defeated his opponent quickly.

These two big shots were holding divine weapons in their hands, but they didn't even make a single slash.

There was no sense of existence at all.

"Let's move forward and run to the other side of the map."

Zhang Shan replied without thinking.

He didn't know how peerless Guild had set up the encirclement.

However, Zhang Shan knew that they only had five people, and it was convenient to move.

as for peerless, although they had many members ...

However, there were disadvantages to having more people.

It would be very troublesome and slow to adjust the layout.

This was the time difference that Zhang Shan wanted.

That was why he replied that he would run to the other side of the map.

They had just revealed their tracks, so it was likely that peerless Guild's people were here.

They were moving towards where they were just now.

then he would run further away.

When the players from peerless finally reacted ...

he would have to spend a lot of time adjusting.

wasn't this just right, giving him time to farm monsters and complete missions?

Zhang Shan brought his friends and ran quickly towards the other side of the West River Prairie.

Unparalleled gentleman was leading his men to the position they had just revealed, and they were closing in on them.

However, just as the unparalleled gentleman was about to set up his men and prepare for a large-scale encirclement ...

However, he heard someone say in the Guild channel.

"Six tube Bodhisattva ran away and we couldn't catch up?"

"It's fine. He can't run. Other than your direction, I've arranged for many people to go in the other directions. They won't be able to escape."

When he heard that the Guild members had not caught up to Zhang Shan.

the unparalleled gentleman indicated that he did not need to mind.

He knew that Zhang Shan's horse was very fast.

It was only natural that peerless's players couldn't catch up.

After all, a hero's Mount was very expensive. It would cost 10000000 gold coins to buy a hero's Mount from an NPC.

Not everyone could afford to spend this money.

In fact, even if it was a major Guild.

There were at most 100 to 200 players who had a hero Mount.

Their Guild, peerless, only had a hundred or so members, and they all had hero mounts.

These people were the elites of the Guild, and they were currently following unparalleled gentleman.

It was normal for the other guild members to be unable to catch up to Zhang Shan.

but it didn't matter. he had already arranged people in other directions.

No matter how good Zhang Shan was at running, he would still bump into them.

"No, boss, you didn't understand what I just said. I mean, six-barreled Bodhisattva ran in our direction, and we didn't catch up."

"What the hell? Why didn't you stop him?"

"we can't. six-barreled bodhisattva's firepower is too strong. he took down hundreds of us in a short while."

that's right. Six-barreled Bodhisattva's firepower is too overpowered. He also has a clone skill that can be used by three people. He's super overpowered. We can't stop him at all.

"If we want to stop six-barreled Bodhisattva, we need at least ten thousand people in each direction."

"Yes. Otherwise, we wouldn't have been able to stop his charge. The six-barreled Bodhisattva is too powerful."

"He's really fierce."

after hearing the guild member's explanation, unparalleled gentleman was still in a daze.

Following that, a bunch of people were criticizing Zhang Shan's strength. He was really too strong.

It made unparalleled gentleman feel like he was listening to a heavenly book.

Zhang Shan had actually managed to charge through the direct interception of three thousand people?

And it hadn't been long.

From the moment he received the news of Zhang Shan's tracks to the time he arranged for people to surround and annihilate him.

It's only been half a minute.

damn it, and you're telling me that zhang shan ran away from you.

The unparalleled gentleman was furious.

He was a person who would not get angry easily, unless he could not hold it in.

But this time, the unparalleled gentleman really couldn't hold back.

Chapter 445-hand cannon is more useful than mouth cannon

When they heard that Zhang Shan was charging directly from the front of their guild members.

The unparalleled gentleman was about to go crazy.

They had two to three thousand people.

How could they not stop Zhang Shan?

in less than half a minute, he had let the others leave.

He did not understand. No matter how strong Zhang Shan was.

It was also impossible for them to defeat their 3000-man team in one go.

He couldn't even farm monsters that fast, let alone kill them.

They were players, so how could they not even be comparable to a normal monster?

The unparalleled gentleman continued to ask in a Huff.

"I don't want to know how strong six tube Bodhisattva is. I just want to know why you guys can't stop them. Even if 3000 people line up for him to kill, he won't be able to kill them all in half a minute."

uh, we were going to split up first and stall six-barreled Bodhisattva, but he ran away.

"That's not nonsense. Why wouldn't he run if he could? Six-barreled Bodhisattva isn't here to fight us. He's here for a mission."

what trash. Three thousand people can't even stop five people.

I'm a little curious. Is the six-barreled Bodhisattva really as strong as you say? "

" that's ridiculous. he's a player, not a BOSS. how can he be so strong? "

"It's not embarrassing to fail. Don't lie."

we're not lying. It's true. Six-pipe Bodhisattva is really strong.

yes, it was basically only six-barreled Bodhisattva who was attacking just now. His four teammates didn't even do much and they took down hundreds of us in an instant.

"Is it that exaggerated? Then we'll have to put in more effort the next time we surround them."

"Is there a next time? I'm afraid that six-barreled Bodhisattva has gone back."

impossible. He hasn't finished his mission. He can't go back.

that's right. If he doesn't take advantage of this opportunity to complete the quest, he won't have another chance to charge into the West River plains.

"That's right. In the future, we will definitely strengthen the defenses at the entrance of the passageway. The next time he wants to come in, it won't be so easy."

that's why six tube Bodhisattva must understand this. He'll definitely think of a way to complete the mission before leaving.

what kind of quest is he doing? how long does he have to do before he can complete the quest? ”

“who knows? we only need to know that he’s still in the west river prairie. As long as he’s still here, we can destroy him.”

” then what’s there to say? let’s move quickly. find six-barreled bodhisattva and kill him. ” by the way, which direction did the six-barreled Bodhisattva run off to? ” there’s no point in asking this. He’ll definitely change his direction. We’ll just have to do a comprehensive search and sweep the area.

should we use another method? we can split up a group of people to be in charge of the search. The rest can’t stay idle. Once we find traces of six-barreled Bodhisattva, we’ll surround him together.

I don’t think that’s a good idea. If we can spot six-barreled Bodhisattva, he can spot our people too. If that’s the case, he’ll change locations again. It’ll be too late for us to surround him by then.

“Yes, this method doesn’t have much meaning.”

“Then what should we do? do we still do what we did just now, with 3000 people in a large group and slowly search? But if that’s the case, 3000 people won’t be able to stop six tube Bodhisattva.”

“what did the boss say?”

At this moment, unparalleled gentleman was also thinking of a strategy.

To be honest, he really didn’t have any good ideas.

If they were all gathered together.

The map of the West River Prairie was so big.

then how long would it take to find zhang shan’s traces?

However, if they split up to search ...

he could not block zhang shan’s attack.

In a situation where there were few people, they could only die in vain.

after zhang shan had killed someone, he could still run away.

When the rest of them received the news and went over to surround him ...

zhang shan had long run far away.

There was no point in searching separately.

The failure just now had already proved this point.

There was only one way left.

The entire Guild, peerless, had gathered together.

As long as they found Zhang Shan's tracks, they would not be able to find him.

He couldn't run away.

Facing the entire Guild, so many people ...

If Zhang Shan could still escape.

Then they could just find a piece of tofu and knock themselves to death.

if their entire guild attacked together, they could even kill a real name BOSS.

He did not believe that he could not destroy Zhang Shan.

this method was stupid and inefficient.

It would take a lot of time to find Zhang Shan's traces.

It was the most effective method.

After weighing the pros and cons ...

Peerless gentleman said in the Guild channel.

"Everyone, form a group. We'll sweep the area. As long as you see traces of six tube Bodhisattva, do not attack. She just had to look at him. They would attack after everyone had gathered. We'll force him in one direction. When they are forced to the edge of the map, I'll see where they can run to."

that's a good idea. This way, six-barreled Bodhisattva is dead. He can't run.

"Then what's there to say? everyone gather. We'll start from the other side of the tunnel and push our way through."

After one failure, he had lost.

The unparalleled gentleman concluded his lesson.

he had gathered all of peerless's members together.

Then, he pushed his way through.

The efficiency of doing so would be very low.

However, it was a very practical method.

Aren't you, Zhang Shan, very strong?

We can't stop you from running away when there are few of us.

Then we'll attack the entire Guild together.

If you have the ability, try charging again.

In the unparalleled gentleman's mind, if Zhang Shan dared to attack head-on, his entire Guild's lineup would be destroyed.

They would be able to easily chop Zhang Shan into pieces.

Peerless adjusted their strategy and gathered all of their mobile members.

They started from the vicinity of the passage and advanced all the way.

Zhang Shan did not know about this.

At this time, he was leading his friends to the other end of the map.

He was starting to farm monsters.

this damn quest was really annoying.

He hated this kind of mission that was out of his control.

you don't even know how many monsters you have to kill or how long you have to kill before you can get the quest item.

He could only try his best to farm them until he got the quest item.

Peerless Guild's players slowly swept through the area.

Meanwhile, Zhang Shan was quietly farming monsters.

His four companions were on guard not far from him.

Time passed by slowly.

Ten minutes, twenty minutes, thirty minutes.

Even after half an hour had passed, no one from peerless Guild had come looking for them.

Of course, Zhang Shan's quest item had not been dropped yet.

from start to finish, he had been browsing for almost an hour.

He didn't drop the quest item.

This chain mission was a little ridiculous.

Not only did the quest have many stages, but it was also getting more and more difficult.

He really didn't know how long he would have to do before it would end.

However, why hadn't peerless Guild's people come to find him yet?

He was curious. Could it be that the unparalleled gentleman had given up?

She didn't plan to cause him any more trouble and just let him finish his mission peacefully.

This didn't make sense.

Even though he wasn't very familiar with the unparalleled gentleman.

But just by thinking about it, one could tell.

That was impossible.

He led his friends and rushed into peerless's farming point.

In total, they had defeated nearly 2000 guild members.

The unparalleled gentleman had no reason to let him go just like that.

Would he lose face?

This was a sealed map and not outside.

if they were outside, it would be fine.

Because if he was outside, unless Zhang Shan wanted to die, peerless Guild would not have the chance to kill him.

However, it was different here.

the map of the west river prairie was huge.

However, no matter how big it was, it was still a sealed map.

As long as the unparalleled gentleman wanted to find him, with the strength of their entire Guild, a hundred thousand people, finding him would be a piece of cake.

As for whether they could beat him or not ...

The unparalleled gentleman should know what he was doing.

if their numbers were low, they would definitely not be able to defeat zhang shan.

However, they had close to 100000 players, and they were all grinding here.

If the entire Guild attacked together, no matter how strong Zhang Shan was, he would have to run.

He didn't dare to fight 100000 people head on.

Even if there was something wrong with his head, he would not do this.

However, why had peerless Guild's people not found him after such a long time?

Zhang Shan could not understand.

However, if he didn't understand, then so be it.

In any case, it was good that peerless Guild's players didn't come looking for them.

It was just the right time for him to finish his mission.

As long as he could get the quest item, he would not have to waste time with the peerless Guild.

he read the return message to the city early in the morning.

Who would be interested in guerilla warfare?

Killing the members of Guild peerless would not benefit him in the slightest.

It would waste a lot of his time.

wouldn't it be nice to finish the mission earlier and go back to repair the divine artifact?

He was here to complete a mission, not to kill.

Of course, it would be best if they didn't have to fight.

zhang shan was there alone, farming monsters.

The four of them spread out and stood guard.

In the beginning, everyone was on high alert.

They were afraid that peerless Guild's members would sneak over.

However, after half an hour had passed, not a single member of peerless Guild had been seen.

Everyone was bored to death.

they also had to help zhang shan keep watch. they could not farm monsters or play mahjong.

brother Guan, why haven't you gotten the quest item yet? I'm so bored.

that's right. Have the members of the peerless Guild admitted defeat? otherwise, why hasn't anyone come to find us after so long? "

"It's impossible for them to admit defeat. They probably haven't found this place yet."

" that's impossible. the map is only so big. why did they take so long to search? "

I guess they're in a group and are sweeping the area. That's why they're slower.

"holy sh * t, is it true? Doesn't this mean that the next time we meet unparalleled gentleman and the others, there will be nearly a hundred thousand people coming?"

"It's possible."

"F * ck, if 100000 people come, where are we going to run to?"

run, my ass. If there are really 100000 people surrounding us, we'll be dead. Why the hell are we running? "

"Then what should we do? Are we just going to wait for death here?"

"I don't have a way, but do you have a way?"

What should he do if peerless Guild's players came looking for him?

Zhang Shan had also been thinking about this problem.

Even after such a long time, peerless Guild's members still hadn't found them.

there were only two possibilities.

One was that the unparalleled gentleman had admitted defeat.

He didn't want to come over and find trouble with Zhang Shan.

The other possibility was that the unparalleled gentleman had gathered all the members.

It was sweeping all the way over.

It was just that they were at the edge of the map.

It would take a lot of time for the members of the peerless Guild to find this place.

That's why they didn't come over for the time being.

The possibility of the unparalleled gentleman admitting defeat was extremely small, almost impossible.

there was only one possibility.

They were gathering together and slowly sweeping over.

Perhaps it wouldn't be long before they found this place.

zhang shan had to make his decision earlier.

He did not need to worry about himself. When the time came, he would directly activate the God's descent skill, and no one would be able to do anything to him.

However, he had to consider his friends.

He couldn't just let his friends die Here.

That would not be good.

After much consideration ...

zhang shan said in the team channel.

"if peerless comes looking for you later, you guys will return immediately."

"If we go back, what about you?"

don't worry about me. I'll use my big move and rush out. They won't be able to stop me.

that's true. That ultimate move of yours is a little too powerful, especially when it's combined with your high attributes. You're practically invincible.

"What about your mission? I won't do it for the time being, and I'll come back next time?"

no, I won't. After I get out, I'll continue to find a place to farm monsters.

"F * ck, is that person farming monsters here alone? If there's no one to guard you, you won't even know if someone comes up."

"It's fine. I have a positioning bead and can be transported away at any time. I've already marked the coordinates here, so I can come back at any time."

damn, I forgot that you still have a positioning bead. You really have a lot of good things on you.

"that's fun. when you're free, you can teleport over and harass peerless."

"What are you doing here? it's a waste of time."

"That's right, six-Guan is so strong that he's already disdained to fight with players. There's only demonic gods in six-Guan's eyes, hehe."

"That's a good idea. He's very ambitious."

"Should we cast a teleport channel to the city when we see the members of Guild peerless?"

that's impossible. I'm already here, but I haven't killed a single person. How can I just leave like that? at least wait for me to kill a few people.

Windcloud blade said gloomily.

From the moment they charged into the West River Prairie until now.

He had not managed to cut a single person.

when they had just rushed out, they had all been killed by zhang shan and the little demon.

later, when they broke out of the encirclement, it was also zhang shan and little fairy who had beaten the members of the peerless guild to a pulp.

Wind and cloud blade, who was holding the divine weapon battleaxe, had yet to slash anyone since he came here.

This was the tragedy of melee classes.

The feeling of killing people in close combat was very satisfying.

But the premise was that you had to be able to cut people.

In fact, when they were fighting with the wind.

They had all been killed by the ranged classes, so the melee classes had no chance.

In a headwind battle, melee fighters could also go up and attack people.

But if he did that, he would die very quickly.

Wind and cloud blade was very powerful.

There were both divine weapons and ultimate skills.

however, when they were fighting, they often didn't have much of a presence.

he was very depressed.

“You still want to kill people? Aren’t we here to help Brother Guan with his mission? I’m not here to cut people.”

“The quest won’t delay the killing of people, right?”

“Alright, I won’t delay. When we see the peerless Guild’s players, we’ll return to the city immediately. Hehe.”

” i don’t care. if you want to leave, you guys go first. i have to at least release my big move before i leave.”

Windcloud blade said unhappily.

He should at least use his ultimate move.

Ever since he had learned the ultimate move, he had only used it a few times.

He didn’t usually have the chance to use it.

Facing the siege of peerless, it would be a shame if he didn’t use his ultimate skill.

“That’s right, we’ll leave after we use our big moves.”

Heart follows me agreed.

Apart from boss Wu, the five of them had a total of four big moves.

Zhang Shan’s God’s descent did not count, as it was not a damage-type skill.

&Nbsp; the other three people and little fairy had already used their big moves when they charged at the entrance.

He had yet to use his powerful moves, wind and cloud blade and heart moves as I command.

Since he had already decided to leave, why didn’t he use his big move before leaving?

It can’t be eaten.

They rarely fought with others anyway.

there were very few situations where big moves were used.

Since the unparalleled gentleman did not give him face and did not let Zhang Shan complete the mission here.

He would use a few powerful moves to deepen his memory.

This was to prevent unparalleled gentleman from being too arrogant.

He didn’t even put the wind and cloud Guild in his eyes.

I’ll give him two big moves to teach him a lesson.

“Okay, after you two finish using your big moves, we’ll return to the city together.”

wouldn't that be too late? I'm afraid they won't be able to go back after they're done with their big moves.

"Don't worry. When the time comes, I'll hold off the peerless Guild's players. You guys just need to channel your return to the city. There won't be any problems."

Zhang Shan wasn't worried at all that his friends' channeling would be interrupted by peerless Guild.

With him around, it would be no problem to buy a few seconds of channeling time for his friends.

"Then it's settled. Haha, I'm going to start a massacre today."

"Look at how smug you are. If you want to kill someone, there are people everywhere on The Map of Heaven's Gate for you to kill."

"Is that the same? What's the point of killing newbies? it's only fun to kill people from these guilds."

"You're awesome."

Just as Zhang Shan and the rest were discussing the follow-up strategy.

The players from the peerless Guild were closing in on them.

"that's weird. why haven't we found six-pipe bodhisattva yet? "

"Maybe he has already completed his mission and returned."

then what should we do? should we continue searching? "

"nonsense, of course we're going to continue searching. we've already searched for so long, and there's only a small area left. If you still can't find it after scanning the entire map, then forget it. "

"Continue searching."

The members of peerless swept across the entire map of the West River plains.

However, Zhang Shan was farming monsters at the furthest place from them.

It was to the extent that they couldn't find it even after searching for so long.

This made many of peerless's members lose their patience.

To them, Zhang Shan's visit to complete a mission was nothing much.

Why did they have to go through so much trouble to find it?

With that time, wouldn't it be great to farm monsters and level up?

However, under the unparalleled gentleman's insistence, they had to continue searching.

But it didn't matter.

They had scanned the entire map of the West River great Prairie.

He was just missing a small space.

As long as they could sweep this place once more, they would be able to go and farm monsters.

There was no need to mess around anymore.

While wind cloud blade was carrying his axe and feeling bored ...

he suddenly saw a large group of people in the distance, running towards them.

"F * ck, peerless Guild is coming. There are so many of them."

"He really came? Are you sure you didn't see wrongly?"

"How can I be wrong? Unless I'm blind. There are so many people here, how could I be wrong?"

Zhang Shan immediately stopped farming.

He rode on the red Hare and quickly approached wind cloud blade.

The other three friends also quickly came over.

Zhang Shan rode on his horse and looked at the members of the peerless Guild in the distance.

There were so many people that one couldn't even see the end of it.

The unparalleled gentleman had also put in a lot of effort.

The entire Guild didn't go to farm monsters.

They swept all the way here.

Seeing peerless Guild's lineup, he was a little surprised.

However, Zhang Shan was already mentally prepared.

Come then, just do it and it's over.

He wasn't afraid of peerless.

He said to his friends indifferently.

"Get ready, you guys release a wave of big moves and cast a teleport back to the city."

"Don't worry, my axe is already thirsting for blood."

brother Guan, be careful after we leave.

"It's fine. Peerless Guild is destined to work for nothing. They can't make me stay."

When Zhang Shan and the rest appeared.

the members of guild peerless also saw them.

However, this time, they were not in a hurry to rush up.

They stopped at a place not far away and waited for the rest of the people to come over.

Zhang Shan brought his friends and was also not in a hurry to rush over.

He quietly watched as the members of peerless slowly gathered around him.

zhang shan did not panic.

Since they were going to do something big, they would do something big.

Ever since he had learned the shadow clone and the God's descent skills, he had been in a very good mood.

He had never truly displayed his strength in front of the players.

It was time to let others see.

He wanted them to see the gap between them and despair.

It was to prevent him from having so many things to do even if he wanted to do a mission.

They were just here to kill a few monsters and complete some quests.

And he was still so persistent.

That is, if the unparalleled gentleman agrees to negotiate.

Maybe he had already finished this part of the mission.

Since he was not willing, then there was nothing else to say.

Let's fight.

He believed that after this wave of attacks, he would be able to survive.

In the future, no one would be acting all high and mighty in front of him.

if they wanted to show off, it would be zhang shan.

Who had the right to be arrogant in front of him?

They didn't even let him do the mission, they were simply blocking the path of humanity.

Peerless Guild's 100000 players gradually blocked off Zhang Shan's three directions.

Only the direction behind him, which was the edge of the map, could be crossed.

The unparalleled gentleman walked out from the crowd.

He said to Zhang Shan.

six-barreled Bodhisattva, you're quite bold. You actually dare to come to our Guild's territory and cause trouble.

"Is this your territory? It's just a game, I can go wherever I want to."

you're really arrogant. It seems that those divine artifacts have made you arrogant.

no, I'm very humble. You'll know later.

"It's useless to talk. You're dead today."

The unparalleled gentleman said viciously.

"it's useless to talk, but my hand cannon is still useful."

After Zhang Shan waved the weapon in his hand, he continued.

"and none of us will die. However, I don't know how many of you will die."

hahaha, do you think you're a god? we have so many brothers here. If you don't die today, I'll live stream myself eating sh * t.

"You have such a weird taste."

"f * ck, unparalleled gentleman, you have to keep your word. i have a video as proof. when i get back, i'll post the video on the forum, hehe."

Upon hearing unparalleled gentleman's harsh words, wind and cloud blade, who was standing beside him, chimed in.

New world was doing quite well in this regard.

The words of the players could not be taken back.

With the video playback, he could look at the previous video recording at any time.

Hmph, we'll talk about that when you guys get back. But you guys can only go back lying down.

Peerless gentleman said to the Guild members behind him.

"Charge over and chop them to death."

Chapter 446 Cutting down six-pipe Bodhisattva is fine too

Zhang Shan brought his friends and stood on a small high ground.

He saw a large crowd of peerless guild members in the distance.

Under the unparalleled gentleman's command, they charged towards them like a tide.

Although they had fought a few chaotic battles with Guild domineering aura and Guild peerless, they were not the only ones.

They even fought a country war.

However, it was rare to see such a big scene.

Peerless Guild's 100000 members charged at them from three different directions.

Peerless Guild's momentum seemed very fierce.

And Zhang Shan and the rest only had five people.

No matter how one looked at it, there was a huge disparity in strength.

But they didn't panic at all.

when he was within attack range, zhang shan fired without hesitation. the bullets did not stop, sweeping towards the members of the peerless guild.

This time, he didn't go all out.

It wasn't time yet.

his friends were still here.

Zhang Shan planned to wait for his friends to return to the city and then go all out.

He would cover them so that their channeling bar wouldn't be interrupted by peerless.

Out of the five of them, Zhang Shan's shooting range was the furthest, so he was the first to attack.

Zhang Shan said to his friends as he fired.

"be careful. be careful of the enemy's ulti. if you take the damage from peerless 'ulti, you won't be able to escape."

Peerless Guild had a lot of members.

but zhang shan was not worried about this.

The only thing he was worried about was the damage from peerless's ultimate skills and scrolls.

Other injuries were not worth mentioning to them.

This was because Zhang Shan's firepower was very strong, even if he had not gone all out.

At the same time, they would be able to hold off peerless's members for a while.

Peerless Guild's players charged at them.

however, the damage of a high-level skill was completely different.

The casting distance of many big moves was relatively far.

He could cast a big move to attack the target from a long distance.

As long as they were within the range of peerless's big move.

his little friends would definitely not be able to withstand it.

The current damage of a high-level skill was nothing to players.

He was still too strong.

Unless it was a super meatball, otherwise, it was impossible to withstand it. Basically, they would be knocked out in seconds.

As for whether or not peerless had any ultimate skills?

There was no need to think about this problem. They definitely had big moves, and it should not be just one.

A long time ago, unparalleled gentleman had revealed his invincible slash skill.

Now, several months had passed.

Even if it was an ultimate skill book, it was extremely difficult to obtain.

However, Zhang Shan believed that peerless Guild would definitely be able to get another one or two.

don't worry. Even if peerless has a big move, they probably don't have many. They won't use it from the start.

wind and cloud blade said confidently.

okay, just pay attention. After you release your big moves, leave.

Zhang Shan also knew this principle.

It was unlikely that peerless would use a high-level skill from the very start.

Who would use their killing move right from the start? This didn't make sense.

he just wanted to remind his friends to be more careful.

I understand. Just wait and see. I'm going to beat the unparalleled gentleman into a daze.

Windcloud blade watched as peerless's members approached.

When he saw an opportunity, he charged towards peerless's group.

This was the disadvantage of a Berserker's destructive skill.

The damage dealt by the ultimate destruction skill was centered around the user and spread to the surrounding 50 yards.

It wasn't like the other big moves.

It could be fired at a designated location.

Hence, wind cloud blade could only charge into the crowd.

only then would he be able to cast his ultimate move.

If only he had remained where he was and cast his ultimate.

that way, they would definitely not be able to hit a single person.

He could only be lonely.

As soon as he rushed into the crowd, wind and cloud blade instantly used his destructive ultimate skill.

The huge shock wave spread out with wind cloud blade as the center.

the moment the great destructive move was used.

Within a 50-yard radius of Windcloud blade ...

In the blink of an eye, the area became empty.

They were instantly reduced to ashes.

Although the Berserker's destruction skill had various shortcomings ...

However, the damage was huge. The destruction skill dealt ten times the damage.

After activating the Berserker's wrath, Windcloud blade's attack power reached over 20000.

Ten times the damage was equivalent to over 200000 damage per second.

Who could withstand this?

Hence, when Windcloud blade charged into the crowd and used his ultimate skill ...

The members of peerless Guild were dumbfounded.

They knew that on Zhang Shan's side, he definitely still had some big moves that he had not used.

however, they had never expected this.

Wind and cloud blade would use his ultimate skill at the start of the match.

This didn't make any f * cking sense.

Who would use a big move at the start of the game?

shouldn't ultimate skills be placed at the end?

After Windcloud blade finished using his ultimate skill ...

Instead of advancing, they continued to attack peerless's members.

Instead, he quickly retreated to the back of Zhang Shan.

Now was not the time for him to show off.

Peerless Guild had so many members.

He would probably be dead.

While the members of peerless Guild were still dumbfounded by the big move just now ...

At this moment, heart moves with me, and he immediately followed up with an invincible slash.

countless sword lights fell towards the crowd of the peerless guild.

In an instant, a large number of people fell to the ground.

Peerless's members were furious.

Damn it, was he using a big move to bully people, or was he just struggling before his death?

From their point of view, Zhang Shan's group of five definitely had no way out.

Five people surrounded by close to 100000 people, how could they still survive?

However, even if there was no way out, he shouldn't be playing like this, right?

Shouldn't he save his big move for when he was breaking out of the encirclement?

How could he have used all of them at the very beginning?

He released two big moves at once.

He made these big moves as if they didn't cost anything.

"F * ck, why do they have so many ultimate skills?"

"It's fine. It's just a last-ditch struggle."

yes, the three of them have used up all their big moves. They can't do anything anymore.

"But six-barreled Bodhisattva and that Daoist priest haven't used their ultimate move yet?"

"The two of them probably don't have any big moves, right?"

I don't know. I've never heard of six-barreled Bodhisattva's ultimate move.

"Yes, the ultimate skill book of the Hunter profession has never been dropped."

that's hard to say. Maybe the people from wind and cloud Guild still have a trick up their sleeves.

"Who cares if he has it or not, let's just charge in and finish this."

with our 100000 brothers here, they won't be able to escape even if we give six-barreled Bodhisattva 100 powerful moves.

that's right. They're in a crushing situation now. Even if the gods come down to earth, they can't save them.

"Brothers, let's continue. Chop them up."

After being blocked by Windcloud blade and heart follows me's two ultimate skills, he was finally able to move.

The members of peerless Guild prepared to charge forward.

Anyway, they had a lot of people, close to 100000.

no matter how high the damage of a big move was.

At most, he could only defeat a few thousand people at a time.

To the entire peerless Guild ...

So few people fell, but it was like a drizzle. They weren't even injured, not worth mentioning.

Just as peerless's players were about to charge forward again ...

They suddenly realized that out of the five people from wind and cloud Guild, only Zhang Shan was standing in front of them.

The other four were actually hiding behind Zhang Shan, right next to the edge of the map, channeling.

Damn it, he wanted to return to the city?

He couldn't stand it if he wanted to run away after pretending.

Unparalleled gentleman stood in the distance, watching as Windcloud blade and the others cast a recall spell.

He couldn't help but shout.

"Hurry, hurry, hurry up and charge over on your horses. Interrupt their channeling."

the unparalleled gentleman was getting anxious.

He had just vowed that he would make Zhang Shan and the other five stay.

If he let Zhang Shan and the rest escape, he would broadcast himself eating shit.

What the f * ck, if wind cloud blade and the other three were to successfully cast the skill ...

then where would he put his old face?

Fortunately, the channeling time for players to return to the city was not short.

It would take five seconds to read.

moreover, he could not be attacked during the channeling process.

As long as it was attacked, the channeling bar would be interrupted.

If he wanted to cast it again, he would have to wait for the 10-minute cooldown.

there was a cooldown time for the return to the city with the identity token.

furthermore, the cooldown time was very long.

Even though the unparalleled gentleman was in a hurry, he was confident.

Peerless 'members could interrupt Windcloud blade's channeling before they could complete their casting.

peerless's members, who had dismounted from their horses and charged forward, once again mounted their horses.

They had only gotten off their horses because they had no other choice.

This was the current riding system of new world.

When players were riding on horses, they could not attack and could only be beaten.

In the beginning, they didn't want to be beaten passively, so they got off their horses and charged.
however, he could not do that now.

Right now, out of Zhang Shan's five people, four of them were already preparing to cast and escape.
even if they could not retaliate, they still had to rush to wind cloud blade's side.

As long as they could make it through.

He could easily interrupt the channeling of wind and cloud blade and the other three with a single point of damage.

However, they were still too naive.

With Zhang Shan blocking in front of them, how could the peerless Guild's players charge through just because they wanted to?

He watched as peerless Guild's members charged towards them on their horses.

Zhang Shan quickly went all out.

He instantly activated the berserk and fanatic skills.

At the same time, he activated the shadow clone skill.

three zhang shans, each holding a handcannon.

bullets rained down on the peerless guild's players.

Zhang Shan even specially controlled two of his clones to block the other two directions.

His main body and two clones.

It blocked all the peerless guild members from three directions.

The position they were in now.

although there was no way out.

Behind them was the edge of the map, and there was no place for them to run.

however, there was an advantage to such a terrain.

That was, Zhang Shan only needed to block three directions.

Reducing the defensive pressure in one direction allowed him to do it with ease.

They had blocked all the members of peerless.

Under the situation where he was going all out.

Zhang Shan could fire five to six shots every second.

With every shot he fired, twelve players from peerless fell to the ground.

The main body and the two clones.

With such a powerful firepower, the players from peerless Guild were suppressed.

No matter how many of them there were, they couldn't break through his defense.

As the seconds ticked by, the unparalleled gentleman was truly anxious.

He had long heard that Zhang Shan's strength was very fierce.

However, hearing about it and seeing it with their own eyes were two completely different things.

How was this very f * cking fierce? he was simply a super pervert.

Unparalleled gentleman had never thought that a player's strength could be so freakish.

He had already bragged before.

It was too late to regret now.

One could not take back the words they had said.

Just as the channeling bar of Windcloud blade and the others was about to be completed ...

And the people of their Guild, peerless, had not even broken through Zhang Shan's blockade.

The unparalleled gentleman could no longer endure it.

He quickly aimed at Zhang Shan's position and released the invincible slash skill.

It was not unparalleled gentleman who did not want to use invincible slash to instantly kill Windcloud blade and the other three.

Instead, it was because Windcloud blade and the others were a little far away from peerless gentleman.

Zhang Shan's choice of positioning had, of course, been carefully considered.

As long as he was stuck here, the members of peerless Guild would not be able to attack his friends who were channeling the recall bar behind him.

If they wanted to interrupt Windcloud blade and the others 'channeling, the members of peerless had to break through Zhang Shan.

This was a principle that unparalleled gentlemen naturally understood.

As such, he used the invincible slash on Zhang Shan.

Such a powerful AoE skill, even if it was only used on Zhang Shan.

He was an unparalleled gentleman, so he couldn't care less.

If he wanted to preserve his reputation, he had to make sure that Windcloud blade and the others stayed.

Unfortunately, the unparalleled gentleman was going to be disappointed.

After he had used the invincible slash, he had been stunned.

Countless sword lights fell on Zhang Shan.

However, Zhang Shan withstood the damage from the invincible slash and was completely fine.

It relied on its catapulting passive and lifesteal effect.

Zhang Shan's health bar was almost always at full health.

There were so many players in peerless, and he had used invincible slash.

they couldn't do anything to him at all.

The health bar that had been lost could be instantly recovered.

Five seconds passed, and a few rays of light flashed.

Under Zhang Shan's cover, the Little Friends successfully cast the skill and returned to the city.

He disappeared from the map of the West River Prairie.

The unparalleled gentleman's efforts were completely in vain.

Peerless gentleman was furious as he watched blade of wind and cloud and the others disappear.

This face-smacking really hurt.

He could totally imagine it.

At this moment, wind cloud blade must be extremely pleased with himself.

Perhaps, at this moment, blade of wind and cloud was currently taking a video and was about to upload it to the forum.

Thinking of this, the unparalleled gentleman felt that his face was burning.

He had been in the gaming industry for quite a few years.

She had never been as embarrassed as she was today.

This time, it was really embarrassing.

If he had known earlier, he would have agreed to let Zhang Shan in to complete the mission.

If that was the case, there wouldn't have been so many things that happened after that.

However, there was no medicine for regret in this world.

Even if he wanted to regret it now, it was already too late.

The unparalleled gentleman looked at the hillside, where the three Zhang Shans each took a side.

he was furious.

Zhang Shan's shadow clone could last for 15 seconds.

After his friends 'channeling bar returned, it could still last for another ten seconds.

Looking at Zhang Shan's swaggering appearance, unparalleled gentleman could not stand it anymore.

F * ck, four out of five people had run away.

there was only zhang shan left. he couldn't possibly run away.

Peerless gentleman shouted in the Guild channel.

let's go together and chop six-barreled Bodhisattva into pieces.

they could only watch helplessly as windcloud blade and the others cast a recall bar right in front of them.

The other members of peerless also felt embarrassed.

it was too f * cking embarrassing.

However, it was still fine. At least there was still Zhang Shan.

The others might have escaped, but Zhang Shan could not.

Now, there was no one else to cover him to cast the spell and return to the city.

"Brothers, let's attack together. It's not a loss for us to kill six-barreled Bodhisattva."

that's right. Six-barreled Bodhisattva is the most arrogant one. We just need to kill him. The rest of them can run away. Don't worry about them.

cut the six-barreled Bodhisattva into pieces and cut off the channel as a memento, hehe.

"Haha, that's a good idea. Let's attack together."

Although unstable blade and the others had already cast a Return Channel, they were still in the city.

However, Zhang Shan remained in his original position.

this allowed the members of peerless guild to see a glimmer of hope to save their reputation.

As long as they could kill Zhang Shan, they could brag about it.

At the very least, it would offset the negative effects of unparalleled gentleman's bragging.

After all, Zhang Shan had a huge influence in the New World.

As long as they could take down Zhang Shan, they could also cover up their failure.

Unfortunately, peerless Guild's players had good intentions.

However, it was destined to be impossible.

Needless to say, Zhang Shan had the positioning Pearl, and he could be teleported away at any time.

how could peerless guild's people have the chance to kill him?

And even if Zhang Shan did not run, the members of the peerless Guild would not be able to do anything to him.

The members of the peerless Guild regrouped and attacked Zhang Shan from three sides.

At this moment, the duration of the shadow clone skill had ended.

The two clones disappeared.

Only Zhang Shan was left.

Countless peerless guild members charged at him like a tidal wave.

Zhang Shan did not activate his God's descent skill.

He was not in a hurry.

He was really not in a hurry.

Currently, peerless's members were scattered everywhere.

If he wanted to kill his way out, he would have to charge a long distance before he could make it out.

In that case, wouldn't it be better to wait a little longer?

He would wait until all of peerless's members gathered.

At that time, it would be much easier for him to kill his way out.

Zhang Shan stood at the same spot and kept firing.

He had already used all of his berserk skills.

Now, he only had one big move left that he could use.

However, even if Zhang Shan did not use his berserk skill.

just by relying on regular damage output, it was also very fierce.

Zhang Shan's powerful firepower had suppressed the peerless Guild's players to the point where they could not even lift their heads.

however, such a situation did not last for long.

as more and more peerless guild members rushed to his side on their mounts ...

then, he got off his horse and attacked.

all kinds of damage kept falling on him.

Although he couldn't kill him in a short time.

However, more and more peerless guild members approached him.

Zhang Shan's situation was also becoming more and more dangerous.

This was especially true for peerless Guild's members who had stun skills.

After they had gotten close to Zhang Shan.

The first thing he did was to give him a stun.

Zhang Shan was always stunned on the spot.

Then, he was cut by all kinds of vegetable knives.

Fortunately, he had enough blood.

as long as he wasn't unconscious.

He would be able to suck back the blood.

Peerless Guild's players couldn't kill him in a short time.

However, such a situation could not last for long.

The longer this dragged on, the sooner or later peerless Guild's players would adjust.

When their stun skills could be connected steadily ...

That would be really dangerous.

If he didn't handle it well, he would faint to death.

Chapter 447 We were just about to fight to the death, why did the Lord escape first?

zhang shan stood on the spot and kept firing. the bullets kept sweeping towards the members of the peerless guild.

He was surrounded by the members of the peerless Guild.

Zhang Shan fired a shot, and 12 people fell to the ground.

However, there were simply too many peerless guild members around.

No matter how fast he attacked, he couldn't force these people back.

Zhang Shan's burst skill had already been used when he was protecting his friends.

Berserk and fanaticism skills had a cooldown of five minutes.

Shadow clone's cooldown time was slightly shorter.

However, it would still take three minutes.

he didn't have any for now, but he could use his berserk skill.

He could only rely on his usual damage output and attack continuously.

After these peerless guild members got close to Zhang Shan, they would continuously give him a stun.

It made him always dizzy.

It was these stunning skills that were the most annoying.

If it wasn't for the fact that he was always unconscious.

With Zhang Shan's damage ability and attack speed.

It was almost impossible for these peerless guild members to get close to him.

Now, Zhang Shan did not have any good ideas.

His berserk skill was still on cooldown.

it was missing a control immunity skill.

It was just that it was easy to be stunned.

As for the God's descent, it could also be immune to magic control.

however, zhang shan felt that now was not the time to make a big move.

If he were to use his ultimate, he would have to run.

He had not reached the point where he was at the end of his rope yet.

He could still hold on for a while.

I won't use my big move for now.

Just like that, they slowly dragged the battle out with peerless.

Fortunately, even though the members of peerless Guild often used the stun skill on him, he was still able to use it.

However, their stunning skills weren't connected well.

she just felt dizzy.

it didn't have a lasting effect, but it made him unconscious.

The unparalleled gentleman was watching the situation from afar.

He saw countless peerless guild members surrounding Zhang Shan and attacking him.

But he just couldn't kill him.

Instead, it was a large number of peerless guild members who were beaten to the ground by Zhang Shan.

Around Zhang Shan, the bodies of the peerless guild members were stacked on top of each other, uncountable.

In just a short while.

The number of peerless guild members that had been defeated by Zhang Shan was probably in the thousands.

It really was faster than farming monsters.

The unparalleled gentleman stood in the distance. He was extremely anxious.

What the f * ck was going on?

There were so many of them, surrounding Zhang Shan to hack at him. Could it be that they could not hack him to death?

This was simply unreasonable.

Peerless gentleman felt anxious for his guild members when he saw how well they coordinated with each other.

Damn it, these people didn't even know how to coordinate their stun skills.

There was only one, not a single one was randomly placed.

Every time he saw Zhang Shan being knocked out, he thought that Zhang Shan was about to be hacked to death.

Whoever knew that when the stun skill's duration ended ...

Zhang Shan was once again full of energy, and he dealt a huge wave of damage.

With the lifesteal effect, he managed to recover his HP.

Unparalleled gentleman shouted at the sight of this.

you guys have stun skills, so pay attention to your coordination. Take turns stunning six-barreled Bodhisattva and kill him.

"Boss, it's not that we don't want to cooperate, but we really can't do it."

yes, some of them were knocked down by six-pipe Bodhisattva before they could even get close. They couldn't follow up with their skills at all.

The members of the peerless Guild who had surrounded Zhang Shan were also feeling very wronged.

It wasn't that they didn't want to, but they took turns to stun Zhang Shan.

Of course they knew.

To deal with someone as fierce as Zhang Shan.

It was definitely the best if he could directly faint and die.

If Zhang Shan was allowed to continue his attacks ...

With his high damage and lifesteal ability ...

How long would they have to fight before they could kill Zhang Shan?

However, even though they wanted to.

But he couldn't do it.

They had just discussed the order in which they should use the stun.

But Zhang Shan, that damned ejection damage.

They would often unconsciously knock down their people.

According to the order they had originally agreed on, if a few people were knocked down in the middle.

If that happened, the so-called plan would be useless.

There were a few intermittences in the middle, but it was of no use.

"F * ck, a bunch of trash. Group up, group by group, and take turns stunning six tube Bodhisattva. I don't believe that he can knock down the entire group in one go."

"Received."

Peerless's players reorganized their attacks.

The main thing was that they had organized everyone who had a stun skill.

Ten people in a group, scattered in all directions.

This was to prevent Zhang Shan from knocking down all these people with the stun ability.

After that, they did it group by group, giving Zhang Shan a stunning effect.

Zhang Shan was knocked out.

After the adjustment.

The members of the peerless Guild began to give Zhang Shan a stunning skill.

After Zhang Shan was stunned by a skill.

Before the duration of the stun ended ...

The second stun skill followed closely behind.

at this moment, zhang shan was like a fool.

He had fainted into a fool.

All sorts of knives and skill damage were thrown at him.

Zhang Shan, on the other hand, was in a stunned state.

He couldn't fight back.

He couldn't rely on the lifesteal effect to recover his health.

Even though his HP had already reached more than 500000.

However, under the relentless attacks of peerless's members ...

his hp dropped rapidly.

If this continued, he wouldn't be able to hold on for more than a few seconds.

f * ck, it didn't seem to work.

It was time to use his big move and escape.

he saw that he had been unconscious.

Zhang Shan had no other choice.

The only way was to use a big move.

Otherwise, if he were to be attacked by peerless for a few more seconds ...

He would have fallen to the ground.

Although he still had a passive rebirth that could be triggered.

he still had a second life.

however, it didn't seem necessary to wait for a second life.

after he was reborn, the cooldown time of his skills would not be refreshed.

It didn't make much sense.

it was better to just use his big move and run away.

Thinking of this, Zhang Shan quickly activated his God's descent skill.

a mysterious halo enveloped zhang shan.

The stun effect that was originally on Zhang Shan had completely disappeared.

Not only that, but all of the magic attacks from the peerless guild members that surrounded him were all 'miss'.

Only melee knives, as well as attacks from archers and hunters, could deal damage to Zhang Shan.

Before peerless's players could react ...

Zhang Shan lifted his hand cannon, and the bullets swept across.

After a few shots, the health bar that had been lost was fully recovered.

The members of peerless Guild were still in a state of confusion.

they did not understand. what was the situation with the halo that was shrouding zhang shan?

Why was it that the stun skills they had used could no longer stun Zhang Shan?

All the other skills were also missed.

This was very strange.

After activating the God's descent skill.

Zhang Shan would no longer give the Guild members of peerless a chance.

He lifted his hand cannon and quickly cleared out the surrounding peerless guild members.

As long as he wasn't unconscious.

His ability to cause damage was extremely terrifying.

peerless guild's players simply had no way of standing by his side.

the god's descent skill, other than giving zhang shan an additional magic immunity state.

It could also increase all attributes by 100%.

At this time, other than the fact that Zhang Shan's HP had doubled and reached more than a million.

His attack power and speed had also become more terrifying.

The hand cannon was like a machine gun.

The bullets that were fired all turned into a line of fire.

Bullets rained down, quickly clearing out the peerless guild members around him.

Zhang Shan held his hand cannon and attacked as he advanced.

The players from peerless Guild were still charging at him as if they were not afraid of death.

However, these people could no longer stop him from advancing.

Zhang Shan aimed at the unparalleled gentleman's direction.

She approached him step by step.

He saw Zhang Shan, who was surrounded by the members of the peerless Guild.

He was actually still charging towards him, was he trying to kill him?

The unparalleled gentleman was about to go crazy.

Damn it, this was too arrogant.

Facing the siege of nearly 100000 players from peerless ...

Zhang Shan had actually wanted to kill him, the Guild leader.

Wasn't he looking down on him, the unparalleled gentleman?

Of course, being angry was one thing.

however, the unparalleled gentleman was not stupid.

He knew that if he dared to continue and stay here ...

Zhang Shan would run over very quickly and take him down with one shot.

Even though peerless gentleman's equipment was not bad.

Originally, he was still very confident in his own strength.

However, when they saw Zhang Shan, killing their guild members was as easy as killing chickens.

Regardless of whether it was a fragile job or a tank job.

In front of Zhang Shan, there was no difference.

They were all shot down.

And it was one shot that took down twelve.

Seeing this, the unparalleled gentleman was afraid.

He had already lost all his face today.

If he were to be knocked down again, he would lose even more face.

Thinking of this, the unparalleled gentleman turned his horse around and quickly ran away.

As he ran, he didn't forget to shout in the Guild channel.

brothers, let's attack together! We must kill six-barreled Bodhisattva!

However, even you, the boss, ran away.

could you still count on the members of other guilds to continue fighting for you?

No one wanted to fall to the ground.

Isn't it good to be alive?

Although, if they fell on their own territory ...

Sooner or later, they would be revived by the Guild's support.

But how long would that take?

And now, more and more people were falling to the ground.

Whether or not their Guild's support would be enough was a problem.

If he waited until the end and the support didn't come back to revive him ...

That would be a huge loss.

Usually, it took a lot of effort to level up by killing monsters.

If he lost a level of experience for no reason, that would be too bad.

The unparalleled gentleman shouted as he ran.

In the beginning, there were still many members of the peerless Guild who continued to attack Zhang Shan.

However, unparalleled gentleman ran further and further away.

The other members of peerless Guild also began to let loose.

The number of people who participated in the attack on Zhang Shan was decreasing.

gradually, it became that they were not the ones besieging zhang shan.

Meanwhile, Zhang Shan was chasing after the Guild members of peerless.

Because of the unparalleled gentleman, the boss had to run away first.

The other members of peerless no longer had the will to fight.

they were all scattered by zhang shan.

After Zhang Shan had chased for a while.

He also felt that this was quite boring.

There was no challenge in killing these people.

Not a single person could block his spear.

What was the point of continuing to chase and kill?

Zhang Shan took a look at his body's condition.

The deity's descent's duration was not over yet.

There were still ten seconds left.

In other words, after he activated the God's descent skill ...

He only used about 40 seconds.

he had defeated nearly 100000 players from peerless guild?

These people were not good enough.

Their fighting spirit was far inferior to that of domineering aura.

that iron-headed tyrant.

Once he started fighting with someone, he would not rest until he was dead.

as long as he didn't fall to the ground, he would fight to the end.

in comparison, peerless guild was far inferior to domineering aura.

When they saw peerless's members, they lost their fighting spirit.

They only knew how to escape in all directions.

He had a huge question mark on peerless's strength.

A Guild like this could actually be ranked at the top of the Guild rankings?

That was bullshit.

Even Zhang Shan was looking down on them.

It was no wonder that domineering aura was able to remain at the second place on the leaderboard.

So this was the reason?

It wasn't that domineering air was too strong.

The other guilds were simply too weak.

Through this battle, Zhang Shan had seen the nature of the guilds.

With the exception of domineering aura and war god.

The other guilds probably weren't that strong either.

As for the war god Guild, although Zhang Shan had never had any dealings with them, he had never seen them before.

however, the war god guild was able to suppress the domineering aura guild.

Their combined strength would definitely be stronger.

However, it was probably only these two guilds that were worth it.

The other so-called big guilds couldn't either.

In the past, he had always had a certain amount of respect for the top guilds.

If it wasn't necessary, he would never get into a conflict with the people from these big guilds.

now, it seemed that there was no need for that.

These people were only slightly stronger than normal players.

When they encountered someone stronger, they were just noobs.

They relied on their numbers to dominate the game.

Other than having the advantage in numbers, they were practically useless.

It was like a Monkey King in a mountain without a Tiger.

They watched as peerless's members scattered in all directions.

Zhang Shan could not help but shake his head.

he used to think that feng yun realm did not know how to manage the guild.

The entire Guild was being managed like a sheep.

Unless there was a big Guild event.

The Guild members were all grinding on their own.

Moreover, Feng Yun realm had never thought of a way to increase the influence of the Guild.

He didn't try to rope in those solo players.

It seemed like Feng Yun realm had seen through these people.

Because there was no need.

That was why he didn't do these things.

If everyone gathered in the same Guild, they would be able to work together when there was a problem.

it was already considered as managing the guild very well.

From the looks of it, Feng Yun realm was actually managed well.

At the very least, the Guild members would still listen to his orders.

He wasn't like peerless and the others.

In the face of difficulties, they scattered like birds and beasts.

Of course, this was the case for the players from peerless.

then it was definitely gentleman wu shuang's fault. as the boss, he did not do a good job.

This person was too cowardly.

He saw Zhang Shan rushing towards him.

He actually ran away.

So what if he died once?

You can't even afford to die in a game?

Then why the hell are we still playing games?

He was simply a piece of trash.

How could such a person be worthy of being the Guild's boss?

Zhang Shan really looked down on him.

They watched as peerless's members scattered in all directions.

Zhang Shan gathered his emotions and did not think about these things.

It's good that these people ran away.

It just so happened that he could find a quiet place to farm monsters by himself and finish the quest first.

Zhang Shan rode on the red Hare, found a direction with no one around, and galloped off.

After Zhang Shan left, the scattered members of the peerless Guild slowly gathered together again.

However, everyone was quiet as they walked back and forth in the vicinity.

The entire Guild channel was dead silent.

No one wanted to talk.

The unparalleled gentleman could not say anything.

He could not blame others.

because he was the one who ran first.

If he had not run, they might not have been able to kill Zhang Shan.

but at least he still had his fighting spirit.

They could still continue to attack.

Even though the result might be the same.

However, the process would be very different.

After the war, the Guild's strong influence had been scattered.

in the current situation, it would take a long time to gather the hearts of the guild members.

That would be talking about heaven and night.

the unparalleled gentleman had no reason to blame others.

The other guild members would not blame their guild leader.

After all, they still had to stay in peerless.

Moreover, big brother, don't talk about second brother.

the unparalleled gentleman had indeed run away, but didn't the others also run away?

They didn't fight to the death.

So, he didn't say anything.

The officials were about to fight to the death, but the Lord ran away first.

Everyone was the same.

In the entire Guild, other than the person lying on the ground, no one else had the right to speak.

Peerless Guild's Guild channel was silent for a while.

Someone said in the Guild channel.

“Everyone, let’s go and kill some monsters. the support first revived the fallen brothers. As for the six-barreled Bodhisattva, you don’t have to worry about him.”

alright, he’ll go back on his own after he’s done with the quest anyway. It won’t affect our farming and leveling up.

after someone spoke.

Peerless Guild’s Guild channel finally began to get lively.

However, no one was discussing the battle just now.

Instead, it was the players who had fallen to the ground who kept calling out in the Guild channel and reporting their locations.

He asked the Guild’s support to hurry over and save them.

As for the battle just now, everyone chose to ignore it.

He could only ignore it.

What else could he do?

Did they still want to discuss this sad matter?

Their Guild of nearly 100000 players had been crushed by Zhang Shan alone.

Who had the nerve to mention it again?

as for regrouping their men to encircle and suppress zhang shan again?

No one in the entire Guild had such a thought.

after a spurt of energy, it weakened again.

They no longer had the courage to find trouble with Zhang Shan.

Even though they knew that Zhang Shan’s body had been shrouded in that Halo.

It was probably either a skill or the effect of a scroll.

And for the time being, there shouldn’t be a second one.

But they still did not want to find trouble with Zhang Shan.

he was really scared of being beaten up just now.

What was the point of continuing the fight?

Yes, to the ordinary members of peerless, this was meaningless.

Losing face was also losing face for their boss.

They had nothing to do with ordinary guild members like them.

aside from the guild's core members ...

The others joined the Guild for different reasons.

however, most of them just wanted to find a big tree to shelter themselves from the cold.

It was just more convenient to obtain game resources.

Who had nothing better to do and liked to fight and kill for the sake of other people's face?

Wouldn't that be too free?

wasn't it good for farming monsters and fighting bosses?

Chapter 448 The difference between Immortals and mortals

After Zhang Shan had scattered the members of the peerless Guild.

He randomly found a direction with no one around and ran all the way to the edge of the map.

Then, he started to farm monsters there.

It was the 30th round of his mission to find the missing parts.

It wasn't done yet, and the quest item hadn't dropped yet.

However, he still had to continue farming monsters.

This time, he had deliberately found a place to farm monsters.

although there was one less way to retreat by farming monsters at the edge of the map, there was no need to worry.

However, there was one less enemy in one direction.

It was more beneficial for his own safety.

Zhang Shan wasn't sure if the people from peerless Guild would come looking for trouble again.

To him, this was something out of his control.

Whether or not peerless's players would come looking for him again, he had to do his best to be on guard.

Of course, in Zhang Shan's guess.

The people from the peerless Guild would probably not come looking for trouble with him again.

After all, he had just destroyed the spirit of the peerless Guild.

a group of people without spirit, could they be counted on to do anything?

But it didn't matter.

if peerless guild's players really came looking for them again ...

Then let's fight again.

If there were not many of them, Zhang Shan would not have cared too much.

Even though he had already used his ultimate move.

It would only cool down by this time the next day.

However, his other berserk skills were already on cooldown.

If peerless only had a few thousand players.

Zhang Shan was not afraid of them.

When he went all out, it would not be a problem for him to defeat three to five thousand people.

Even if he didn't have a big move, he could still do it.

What if peerless Guild or the entire Guild surrounded them?

Then, there was nothing else to say. He could just use the positioning ball to go back.

At most, he could just teleport back later.

Other than being a little more troublesome, it didn't affect him much.

Of course, it would be best if peerless Guild's players never came looking for him again.

He wanted him to farm monsters here in peace.

He would continue until he had collected all the quest items.

Zhang Shan had a feeling.

he felt that this thirtieth round of the task might not be so easy to complete.

It would probably take a long time before he could get the quest item.

Therefore, he needed a safe environment to farm monsters.

He didn't want to keep fighting with peerless.

That would not only affect his mission.

And it was quite boring.

Zhang Shan found a new place and started to farm monsters.

windcloud blade asked him in the party channel.

"Brother Liu Guan, are you alright?"

"I'm fine, I'm farming monsters."

“Brother Guan Zi, you’re too fierce. There are so many people in peerless Guild, did you really let you escape? Do you want us to continue helping?”

little fairy asked in the party channel.

However, before Zhang Shan could reply, wind and cloud blade followed up.

“Why are we going back? are we going to hold six tubes back? now that we don’t have our ultimate skills, we’re just nobodies with a combat level of 5. peerless guild can casually send out a hundred or so players and they’ll be able to kill us.”

that’s true. Without a big move, I can’t beat too many people at once.

“You guys don’t have to come over. I just defeated the peerless Guild’s people. I don’t think they’ll come looking for trouble with me again.”

zhang shan said in the team channel.

His friends were all stunned.

“what’s the situation? you destroyed peerless guild? They have nearly a hundred thousand people.”

“Even if all the factors are removed, those who are not present. There were at least 70000 to 80000 players from peerless Guild there.”

“Seventy to eighty thousand people, there’s definitely a number,”

f * ck, six-barreled boss, how did you defeat so many of them? this doesn’t make sense.

yeah, that’s impossible. Even if there were 70000 to 80000 monsters, you would need at least half an hour to kill them.

He asked in shock when he saw his friends.

Zhang Shan also expressed his understanding.

Under normal circumstances, it would be impossible for him to defeat peerless, who had a hundred thousand players.

However, the unparalleled gentleman was a coward.

Unparalleled gentleman ran away as soon as he saw him rushing over.

Even the boss had run away.

can you still count on your brothers to risk their lives for you?

Therefore, things that were originally impossible became possible.

Zhang Shan explained in the team channel.

"The unparalleled gentleman was too cowardly. After he saw me use my big move, he rushed towards him and ran away. With him running away, it won't be long before the entire peerless Guild falls apart, hehe."

"F * ck, this is explosive news. Hurry up and cut out the video and send it to me. I'm going to make big news, haha."

"Brother Guan, is what you said true? why would the unparalleled gentleman run away? Even if he's defeated by you, the support in the peerless Guild should be able to quickly revive him, right?"

who knows? anyway, when he saw me rushing over, he turned around and ran away. What a coward.

"I know that, the unparalleled gentleman is indeed a coward. When he meets someone stronger than him, he'll be a coward."

Wind cloud blade explained.

After all, he should have had a lot of dealings with the unparalleled gentleman before.

it was likely that wind and cloud blade had a rather good understanding of the unparalleled gentleman.

"No way, how can such a person be the Guild leader? You're actually at the top of the rankings?"

"what's so strange about that? as long as you're willing to spend money, you can also start a guild to play with. As long as we spend enough money, it's not impossible for us to squeeze into the top ten guilds."

"Damn it, the unparalleled gentleman is also a weirdo."

"Forget it, let's not talk about him. It's good that manager six is fine. Remember to cut out the video later, I'm going to post it on the forum, hehe."

Windcloud blade once again reminded Zhang Shan, asking him to send the video of the battle.

It was likely that blade of wind and cloud wanted to create a wave of big news on the forum.

"Sure, I'll send it to you later."

Zhang Shan did not think too much about it.

If wind and cloud blade was willing to do it, then so be it.

As for whether doing so would tarnish the reputation of the unparalleled gentleman?

That was none of his business.

In any case, the unparalleled gentleman was not a good person.

Back then, he was not even willing to negotiate with him.

Back then, if the unparalleled gentleman had agreed to let Zhang Shan go on the mission.

How could there be so many things that happened after that?

Zhang Shan did not have the time to find trouble with them.

The unparalleled gentleman had brought this upon himself.

If wind and cloud blade wanted to mess with unparalleled gentleman, he deserved it.

He ended the call with his friends.

As Zhang Shan was farming monsters, he also took out the video of the battle earlier.

From the moment blade of wind and cloud and the others started channeling the teleport skill to the moment Zhang Shan killed the peerless Guild's players and made them flee in all directions, he finally left the scene on his horse.

The video was only about two to three minutes long.

after extracting the video, zhang shan sent it to wind and cloud blade through email.

"i've sent the video to your email."

Zhang Shan said to wind cloud blade.

"Got it, I'll post it on the forum now. I'd like to see when the unparalleled gentleman will live-stream himself eating shit, hehe."

haha, he's a hypocrite. His words are like farts.

that's fine. I'll post the video on the forum and the post will always be there. In the future, he'll feel disgusted every time he sees this post, hehe.

"Then you go get it."

It was good that Windcloud blade was willing to do this.

Zhang Shan looked down on the unparalleled gentleman.

when he first heard that zhang shan was going to the west river grassland for a mission.

The unparalleled gentleman was as arrogant as an idiot.

There was no room for discussion.

He didn't expect that when they fought, he would be a coward.

What could such a person achieve?

He was a complete hypocrite.

Zhang Shan did not want to worry about this matter, so he let wind and cloud blade handle it.

he continued to farm monsters in the great prairie.

Speaking of which, he didn't know when this damn chain mission would end.

He was a little tired of farming.

If not for the divine weapon.

he was already too lazy to do this stupid mission.

An Qisheng didn't care about their old friendship at all.

Back then, if not for Zhang Shan spending money to build him a laboratory.

He, an Qisheng, was still a beggar at the city gate.

of course, zhang shan was just thinking about it.

This chain mission was very complicated.

However, it had nothing to do with an Qisheng.

an qisheng was just an NPC.

To put it bluntly, it was just a piece of data.

what was the specific task and how to do it?

Most likely, it had already been set up when the game was developed.

he could only say that he was unlucky.

He just happened to run into such a mission.

Forget it, I'll just brush it slowly.

Even if this chain mission required him to complete 100 rounds.

Zhang Shan also wanted to complete his mission to the end.

Who asked the divine weapon to be so attractive?

If others wanted to get their hands on divine artifacts, they wouldn't even be able to find a way.

of course he wouldn't. because the task was too troublesome, he would give up on repairing the divine artifact.

besides, this chain mission was just a little more troublesome.

In terms of difficulty, it wasn't too difficult.

Wasn't it just farming monsters everywhere?

To Zhang Shan, it was just a matter of time.

As for missions like this, which required him to go to other people's territory to farm monsters ...

It shouldn't be a lot.

Of course, even if there were such missions in the future.

They needed to go to other people's territory to farm monsters.

Zhang Shan did the same and continued to complete the mission.

It would be good for Windcloud blade to post these videos on the forum.

To let others see Zhang Shan's power.

this was to prevent anyone from jumping in front of him.

he couldn't even complete a monster-killing quest.

As the number one player in the game, he had no face at all.

He believed that after Windcloud blade posted the video on the forum, he would be able to do so.

there shouldn't be anyone who would stop him from completing his mission.

Of course, the iron-headed tyrant was an exception.

If he happened to need to go to the domineering Aura's territory to farm monsters ...

in that case, he would probably have to ask feng yun realm for help.

Just by himself, or rather, with the help of his four companions.

They definitely would, and they wouldn't be able to deal with the domineering Guild.

He hoped that he wouldn't encounter such a mission.

Zhang Shan continued to farm monsters in the West River grassland map.

As for peerless, no one came to find trouble with him.

Just as he was farming monsters and getting engrossed in it ...

Wind and cloud blade called out to him.

"Haha, I've already uploaded the video to the forum. I'll advertise on the world Channel later, hehe."

"You're ruthless."

Zhang Shan could only say that wind and cloud blade was ruthless enough.

He was trying to kill the unparalleled gentleman.

However, this was fine. The unparalleled gentleman deserved it.

Not long after, Zhang Shan took a look at the world Channel.

Windcloud blade said in the world Channel.

breaking news of the century, a certain Big Shot is going to live stream himself eating shit. For more details, please pay attention to the forum post.

"Brother Yidao, what are you doing again? are you trying to create some big news?"

" i won't say anything else. if you want to know, just go to the forum. hehe. "

"It's that explosive? I'll go and see which Big Shot is so strong."

Zhang Shan was also farming monsters and checking the forums at the same time.

In any case, it seemed that the people from peerless Guild would not come and find trouble with him again.

There was no harm in looking at the forum.

Zhang Shan quickly found the post that wind and cloud blade had posted.

This post had been set to the top by the forum administrator.

What was this?

Zhang Shan could not help but feel surprised by the administrator's actions.

Did he think that the matter wasn't big enough?

The title of the post was "big news of the century, a certain Big Shot eating sh * t, please look forward to it."

Zhang Shan opened the post to take a look.

There was not a single word in the content of the post.

There were only two videos.

This Windcloud blade was really lazy. He did not even think of typing a few words to explain himself.

However, it was a game forum, and videos were enough.

After watching the video, everyone understood what had happened.

In the first video, the unparalleled gentleman was clamoring to keep all five of them in the West River Prairie.

The second video was of Zhang Shan's four kills.

This continued until he charged towards unparalleled gentleman, unparalleled gentleman ran away, and the Guild collapsed.

then, zhang shan left the scene on his horse.

Wind and cloud blade's post had just been posted less than two minutes ago.

The number of views on the post had already exceeded 100000, and it was still increasing rapidly.

Windcloud blade did not set a fee for posting.

Everyone could read the content of the post for free.

Otherwise, wind and cloud blade could still earn a small sum of money.

Of course, Windcloud blade was also someone who did not lack money.

He didn't care about the small amount of money that the forum charged.

Besides, it was for publicity, so how could he charge for it?

How would they promote it if they charged a fee?

Zhang Shan took a look and saw the replies below the post.

It had not been long since Windcloud blade had posted the thread.

There were already close to 10000 replies.

However, the main focus of the replies to the post was not on the cowardly unparalleled gentleman.

The main point of everyone's attention was how Zhang Shan could be so powerful.

He had actually single-handedly destroyed the entire peerless Guild.

title file, where's the live broadcast of eating shit? where's the live broadcast? where's the portal? I have a friend who wants to see it.

"I'm the friend upstairs."

the unparalleled gentleman is such a coward. He actually ran away from such a big battle. The people of the unparalleled Guild are really pitiful to have such a cowardly boss.

f * ck, you guys are focusing on the wrong point. The point is, how can the six-pipe Bodhisattva be so strong? " that's right. He's too strong. He's practically destroying a country by himself.

"The six-barreled Bodhisattva is indeed very strong, but he also needs a pig-like opponent to cooperate with him. Otherwise, how could he have single-handedly annihilated peerless Guild?"

"haha, this is called 'excellence is all set off by your peers'."

sigh, the unparalleled gentleman is really cowardly. I never thought that there would be such a cowardly Big Boss.

"is he worthy of being called a big boss?"

"That's right, he's a coward."

Speaking of which, why can't I understand the skills of the six-barreled Bodhisattva? is there anyone who's a Hunter who can come out and check what skills they are? "

" i'm a hunter. i can't understand it either. "

"What the f * ck, that Sun Wukong's clone that can split into three, what kind of skill is that? has anyone seen this skill before?"

"I've never seen him before."

"This is a God's skill. How can a mortal see it? hehe."

"haha, could it be the legendary yi qi turning san qing?"

“Although it’s not right, it’s not far.”

what the f * ck? I’m getting down to business. What kind of skill is this? ”

who knows? we’ll have to ask six-barreled Bodhisattva.

“Is this an exclusive skill for hunters? The Hunter class is so strong, so many awesome skills.”

“Brother, that’s where you’re wrong. Is it skills that are strong? The strong are the humans.”

” sigh, i don’t want to be as strong as six-barreled bodhisattva. i’m fine as long as i have skills like this. these skills just look cool. ” that’s right. That dandan music and the cloning technique are simply ridiculous.

is there no other Hunter class in the game that can get these two skills? ” what’s so strange about that? there are skills in the game that are extremely rare. It’s normal that others can’t get their hands on them.

“by the way, the last six-barreled bodhisattva has a halo around him. what kind of awesome skill is that?”

“Who knows? maybe it’s a skill or a scroll?”

“If it’s not a scroll, then it’s a skill. You’ll know if you watch the video carefully. Six-barreled Bodhisattva never took out a scroll from the beginning to the end.”

that’s right. The scroll can only be used after it’s taken out.

“What the hell, what kind of awesome skill is that? It feels like six-barreled Bodhisattva has become invincible after putting on that Halo. No one from the peerless Guild can touch him anymore.”

“you’re such an awesome person, no need to explain. we mortals can only look up to him.”

” six-barreled bodhisattva is indeed powerful. who would dare to fight him in the future? no matter how many people there are, they can’t kill him, right? ”

“maybe in the future, after everyone becomes stronger, we should be able to kill each other.”

“Are you joking? we’re getting stronger, but will the six-barreled bodhisattva remain where he is?”

“I won’t say anymore, it’ll only be tears if I say more. I’m not thinking about skills, but a divine weapon is fine.”

“f * ck, he’s talking in his sleep in broad daylight.”

” what’s the use of having a divine weapon? six-barreled bodhisattva’s strength is all-encompassing. he’s not so strong just because of his divine weapon. ”

that’s right. His attack power and attack speed are outrageous. It’s impossible for him to increase his attack power by that much with just a divine weapon.

f * ck, I saw in the video just now that one of peerless Guild's Guardian Warriors, who had over 80000 HP, was also killed by six-barreled Bodhisattva's bullet damage.

I'm also a Hunter, so why can I only deal 3000 damage with one shot? "

"Don't think too much. This is the difference between Immortals and mortals."

"I won't look anymore, I won't look anymore. Jealousy has made me unrecognizable."

Zhang Shan took a look at the replies below the post.

Other than ridiculing the unparalleled gentleman for being a coward.

The majority of the people were discussing Zhang Shan's skills and strength.

this time, zhang shan could be considered to have displayed his full strength.

There was nothing to hide anymore, this was truly going all out.

facing the siege of nearly 100000 players from peerless ...

Even if he wanted to hide his strength, he couldn't.

Unless he wanted to die.

Chapter 449 old man, are you making things difficult for me?

after windcloud blade posted the thread on the forum, he also made an advertisement in the world channel.

It had completely ignited the incident.

all of a sudden, the entire game was bustling with noise and excitement.

Everyone ridiculed unparalleled gentleman's action of abandoning the main group and running away.

Some people said he was a hypocrite.

Some people said that he was a gentleman.

Some said that he was unparalleled, run, run.

There were also countless players who were calling for it.

He hoped that the unparalleled gentleman would honor his words and quickly come out for a live broadcast.

he had said that if zhang shan and the other five didn't die, he would live stream himself eating shit.

He couldn't go back on his word.

Of course, everyone was just teasing him.

She couldn't do anything to the unparalleled gentleman.

Wind and cloud blade had caused such a huge commotion.

Naturally, the members of Guild peerless also knew about this.

But none of them spoke.

Peerless had close to 100000 guild members.

It was as if he had disappeared from the game.

They just quietly farmed monsters in the West River plains.

He didn't even dare to go out and walk around.

he was afraid of being caught and ridiculed.

It was even more impossible for peerless to refute Windcloud blade's words.

First of all, Windcloud blade did not say anything. He only uploaded two videos on the forum.

In fact, no one was a fool. They all had their own judgment.

The content of the two videos was clear at a glance.

After watching the video, everyone knew what had happened.

Peerless Guild's current plan was to deal with this matter coldly.

They kept their mouths shut about this matter.

After some time, everyone would naturally forget about this matter.

Even if someone were to dig this up in the future ...

it wouldn't be popular anymore.

In the two videos that wind and cloud blade had uploaded ...

Apart from the unparalleled gentleman, which had the word "Wan" in it.

Of the two videos, the brightest star was, of course, Zhang Shan.

Zhang Shan withstood the attacks of countless people from peerless Guild and killed in all directions.

In the end, the entire peerless Guild had collapsed.

Everyone's glasses were shattered.

of course, the main reason why zhang shan was able to destroy guild peerless was because of this.

And it was because of unparalleled gentleman's action of running away first.

If he didn't run.

The other members of peerless would not run away either.

if so many people were to attack zhang shan together.

No matter how ferocious Zhang Shan was, the best result would be to escape.

He would not have slaughtered peerless until it collapsed like this.

It was precisely because of the unparalleled gentleman's cowardice that Zhang Shan's courage and invincibility were reflected.

In the video, Zhang Shan was alone with a long spear.

Despite being surrounded by nearly 100000 players from peerless Guild, he was still able to slaughter his way through.

This scene made everyone's blood boil.

He wished that the Zhang Shan in the video was himself.

After the excitement, many people couldn't help but think.

Why was Zhang Shan so strong?

Could it really be due to the divine weapon?

However, everyone could see the attributes of a divine weapon on the equipment ranking.

Although the attributes of a divine weapon far exceeded that of other equipment.

However, Zhang Shan only had two or three divine weapons. Could they make him this strong?

This was clearly impossible.

Everyone knew how to calculate the data.

After equipping the divine weapon, Zhang Shan should be at most two to three times stronger than normal pay-to-win players.

With these stats, it was impossible to destroy a large guild with 100000 players.

This was too unscientific.

Then, everyone remembered Zhang Shan's skills.

Zhang Shan did not seem to have many skills.

He didn't have any fancy skills.

In the entire battle, Zhang Shan had only used a few skills.

However, these few skills were all common and very practical.

The players looked at their skills panel.

Some players had also learned many skills.

However, there might not be a single one who could really hold up the scene.

Compared to Zhang Shan, their skills were simply trash.

However, what skills did Zhang Shan use in the war? how did he get these skill books?

No one knew.

They could only say that Zhang Shan was lucky.

He had taken all the good things in the game.

If Zhang Shan knew what these people were thinking, he would definitely stand up to oppose it.

Was he very lucky?

Even though he had a luck value of 9.

However, his luck was not good at all.

From the start of the game until now, after such a long time, he had only managed to get these few practical skills.

He still had more than ten skill points that he had not used.

He really could not find a suitable skill book.

after all, they had fought so many bosses.

However, there were almost no practical Hunter skill books.

Not to mention the deity's descent skill, it was dropped by Magnus.

The thing that had helped Zhang Shan the most was the catapulting passive skill.

This skill book was given to him by boss Wu when he was killing monsters.

Zhang Shan himself did not manage to get many skills books that were suitable for him.

To Zhang Shan, a suitable skill book was too difficult to get.

He couldn't get it at all.

He didn't need those pure damage skills.

To Zhang Shan, those skills were of no use.

His normal attacks were much higher than the skill damage of others.

What did he want such a skill for?

Could it be that it was for viewing?

What Zhang Shan needed was a skill that could increase the speed of an attack, or directly increase the attack power.

If not, then there would be skills like shadow clone and catapults.

He was not interested in the other skills and did not even want to learn them.

It was not that the skill books for hunters could not be bought in the auction house.

In fact, there was a large number of skill books for all classes in the auction house.

Of course, there were also many skill books for hunters.

However, the ones that were up for auction were all gaudy damage-type skill books.

Zhang Shan had no interest in it at all.

He would rather keep all his skill points.

Why would he learn those skills?

Wouldn't it be nice to directly attack and kill the enemy?

Windcloud blade had posted on the forum.

It was a lively day in the game.

It was only at night that everyone slowly calmed down.

This was normal.

For everyone, this matter was nothing more than eating a melon.

However, the melon this time was a Little Big.

However, no matter how big the melon was, they were just eating it.

Since he was just eating watermelons, it was impossible for him to eat non-stop all day long.

There had to be a time when it stopped.

The commotion caused by wind and cloud blade lasted for an entire day in the game.

Meanwhile, Zhang Shan was in the West River grassland, farming monsters and completing quests. He had actually been farming for an entire day.

The key was that he still hadn't obtained the quest item even when he went to bed at night.

It was really nonsense.

In the beginning, Zhang Shan was quite annoyed.

He had been doing this mission, but the mission item had not dropped.

How could he not be annoyed?

However, as the time he spent farming monsters grew longer and longer ...

Zhang Shan was also a Buddhist.

Damn it, if he couldn't get it, he would just continue.

He didn't believe it.

The quest item would never drop.

If one day didn't work, he would grind for two days.

If it still didn't work, then he'd farm for three to five days.

If it still didn't appear, then there was no reason.

This was also because he had previously destroyed peerless Guild's spirit, energy, and spirit.

Now that he was farming monsters in the West River Prairie, no one came to disturb him.

Otherwise, it would really be too difficult to deal with.

Zhang Shan was in the West River grassland map, completing missions for the entire day.

During this time, no one from peerless Guild took the initiative to cause him trouble.

In the beginning, there would occasionally be players from the peerless Guild who would ride across the road.

He was shocked, thinking that the unparalleled gentleman had risen again and was ready to come and find trouble with him.

this made zhang shan nervous for a long time.

After a long time, he still did not see any of the peerless Guild's troops.

Only then did Zhang Shan react.

This was peerless Guild's grinding spot.

It was normal for the members of peerless Guild to pass by him.

These people were not looking for him.

Instead, he was looking for a place to farm monsters.

After a few similar encounters.

Zhang Shan was completely at ease and continued to complete his missions.

A day had passed, and Zhang Shan went offline to sleep.

the next day, he continued to farm.

However, another day passed.

Zhang Shan still did not have it. He refreshed the missing part (30).

He was a little suspicious.

did he come to the wrong place and farm the wrong monsters?

was this 30th round's mission to kill the wild cows in the west river prairie?

Could it be that there were other places near the map that also had demonized bison?

zhang shan carefully checked the mission description a few times.

He opened the map again and looked at it carefully a few times.

In the end, he confirmed that this was the right place.

In the vicinity, this was the only place where there were demonized wild cows.

The other places were filled with demon soldiers.

Since the location was not wrong, he would continue to farm.

Zhang Shan had been farming monsters for two days in the West River grassland map.

Occasionally, there would be members of the peerless Guild passing by him.

Every time she saw him, she would feel a little disgusted.

But he did not dare to come up and find trouble with Zhang Shan.

He could only leave unwillingly.

At the beginning, his friends would often check on Zhang Shan's progress.

However, two days had passed, and Zhang Shan was still stuck at the 30th round of the mission.

Everyone was a little numb, and they didn't ask again.

On the third day, after Zhang Shan went online.

He continued to kill monsters numbly.

He was no longer looking forward to quickly completing the mission.

He had been stuck for three days for this part of the mission, so what else was there to look forward to?

I'll brush it slowly.

While he was farming monsters, he suddenly heard a soft "ding."

Out of habit, Zhang Shan opened his backpack to check.

He didn't expect to get a mission item.

To be honest, after being disappointed so many times, his mood had long been as calm as water.

As for opening his backpack to check, it was purely out of habit.

zhang shan opened his backpack and looked at it for a long time.

He did not see any new items.

eh? Did I hear wrongly just now?

He had clearly heard the sound of items falling into his backpack.

Why wasn't there a single new item?

Could it be that a quest item dropped?

Zhang Shan could not help but be overjoyed.

He quickly looked at the rows of small rings.

Upon closer inspection, there were indeed thirty small rings.

The last one was the missing part (30).

Haha, he finally got the quest item.

F * ck, after grinding him for more than two days, he had finally completed this part of the mission.

If he didn't finish it, he wouldn't be annoyed.

Peerless Guild's players were probably already sick of this.

To peerless's members, this was simply too much.

It must have been unbearable to see his great enemy farming monsters under his nose every day.

However, even if they wanted to fight, they couldn't.

This was very annoying.

now, zhang shan had finally obtained the quest item.

The members of peerless Guild would no longer have to worry about him.

As for Zhang Shan, he had no interest in looking for trouble with the peerless Guild.

After completing this part of the mission, he still had to move on to the next part of the mission.

He didn't have the time to deal with those cowards from the peerless Guild.

Since he had already obtained the quest item, Zhang Shan could no longer be bothered to stay here and farm the demonized bison.

He opened the mission panel to check.

eh? Could it be that he had already completed this chain mission?

Why is there no hint for the next part of the mission?

Zhang Shan looked at the mission panel for a long time.

He didn't see anything.

On the mission panel, the entire chain mission was displayed.

The description of all thirty tasks was displayed.

And all of them showed that the mission had been completed.

What the f * ck, did he just finish the quest?

zhang shan could not believe it.

The further he went into this chain mission, the less confident he was.

He had thought that he would really have to complete dozens or even hundreds of tasks.

It turned out that he only needed to complete the thirty-round task and it would be over.

It wasn't that difficult.

In total, he had spent less than four days.

This was the last part of the mission, and he had been stuck for too long.

Otherwise, he would have completed the mission in two days.

It turned out that this chain mission was not as difficult as he had imagined.

It was Zhang Shan who had thought things too complicated.

However, it was fine as long as the mission was completed.

He quickly went to find an Qisheng to hand in the mission.

An Qisheng, this scammer, had really scammed him this time.

he hoped that there would not be any more missions like this in the future, which would make him feel uncertain.

Isn't it better to be more straightforward?

for example, a divine artifact could be repaired with just a few gold coins.

Or, he would tell him directly how long he had to wait before he could repair the divine artifact.

That would be great.

And not like this.

He had been on tenterhooks for a few days.

Zhang Shan had thought that he would need to complete this chain mission until the end of time.

After the quest item dropped.

Zhang Shan returned to Dangyang city.

He then teleported to the teleportation Hall.

He teleported to the West capital.

Walking out of the teleportation Hall of the West capital, Zhang Shan directly teleported to an Qisheng's alchemy laboratory.

After Zhang Shan arrived at the alchemy laboratory, he saw an Qisheng still lying on the chair, basking in the sun.

Did this old man not have to work every day?

It couldn't be that he was just waiting to take advantage of him.

Of course, no matter what Zhang Shan thought.

However, when he saw an Qisheng, his face was still full of smiles.

Zhang Shan walked forward and said to an Qisheng with a smile.

"Master, I've found the missing part of the necklace."

After Zhang Shan finished speaking, he took out the 30 little rings from his backpack.

He handed it to an Qisheng.

An Qisheng said after taking the items and looking at them carefully.

" young man, you're quite efficient. you've found all these parts so quickly. "

Hearing an Qisheng's reply, Zhang Shan silently cursed in his heart.

Of course, he was very efficient.

In order to get the divine weapon as soon as possible, he had been fighting with all his might for three to four days.

In between, he had to fight with peerless Guild's members, which had delayed him for a few hours.

after an qisheng finished speaking, he continued to lie back down in his chair and didn't say anything else.

this situation made zhang shan very depressed.

What was this?

What do you need him to do next? just tell me.

When he saw an Qisheng, he didn't say anything and didn't help him repair the divine artifact.

Zhang Shan was speechless.

He carefully walked closer and continued to ask an Qisheng.

"master, when will you be able to help me repair my divine artifact? Do you need me to do anything else?"

An Qisheng slowly sat up and touched his bald head as he muttered to himself.

“What time is it now? why do i feel a little hungry?”

If one was hungry and wanted to eat, this was a very easy thing to do.

zhang shan quickly stepped forward and said.

“master, what would you like to eat? i’ll go buy it for you.”

“I heard that the breakfast at the immortals gathering restaurant is pretty good. Can you go and buy one for me?”

“Alright, please wait a moment.”

zhang shan quickly found the location of the immortals gathering tower on the map.

he directly teleported over.

After arriving at the immortals gathering restaurant, Zhang Shan took a look at the food that was sold here.

There was only one type of breakfast, which cost 10000 gold coins each.

Looking at the price, Zhang Shan could not help but curse.

Well, a breakfast actually cost 10000 gold coins. This price was simply too outrageous.

In the past, he himself only ate a five-Yuan breakfast.

Damn, the breakfast in the game could actually be sold for 10000 gold coins a serving.

The price was outrageous.

The most important thing was that the players couldn’t have breakfast.

They could only fork out money.

Zhang Shan quickly bought breakfast and teleported back to the alchemy laboratory.

He passed the breakfast to an Qisheng and said, ”

“Master, here’s your breakfast.”

After an Qisheng took the breakfast, he didn’t say anything.

He just ate his meal slowly.

Zhang Shan was not in a hurry. He just waited quietly at the side.

This was not the first time he had done this.

the last time he had repaired the ring, zhang shan had helped an qisheng buy breakfast.

An Qisheng didn’t know how to speak when he was eating.

He could only wait at the side.

No matter how anxious she was, it was useless.

An Qisheng said slowly after breakfast.

“it’s not that easy to repair a divine weapon. Although I’ve gathered all the main parts, I still need a lot of supplementary materials. You can take your time to find them. Once you’ve gathered all the materials, come and find me. ”

As expected, an Qisheng started to assign tasks to Zhang Shan after breakfast.

He didn’t directly help him repair the divine artifact.

It seemed like there was still a long way to go before he could repair the divine weapon.

However, Zhang Shan did not mind.

He didn’t know if he would directly buy the materials from the NPCs or if he needed to farm for the materials.

Zhang Shan quickly opened the mission panel to check.

On the mission panel, there was a long mission.

There were more than a hundred of them.

They were all missions to find materials.

In this issue, there were some materials that he needed to buy from NPCs.

Some materials would only drop when he killed specific monsters.

No wonder Feng Yun Bing Bing had been grinding for half a month and still hadn’t gathered all the materials to repair the God equipment.

‘Damn it, the materials required are too much.’

zhang shan carefully checked the missions one by one.

After carefully reading all the missions.

he couldn’t help but want to curse.

Damn it, was an Qisheng, this old man, deliberately making things difficult for him?

there were a total of 120 missions to find materials.

Twenty-one of them needed to be purchased from an NPC.

However, the problem was that Zhang Shan could not just find any material dealer and buy the materials.

He could only find the NPC mentioned in the quest prompt to buy the materials.

Zhang Shan took a closer look.

For these 21 quests, he needed to find 21 NPCs.

each sub-city had one.

did this mean that he had to go to all the sub-cities in the entire game?

then, here came the problem.

How were the NPCs in the foreign cities going to escape?

Wasn't this asking him to run to another country's city?

This was f * cking ridiculous.

Why would an Qisheng assign him such a task?

was he trying to get zhang shan to cause trouble in a foreign city?

one could imagine what would happen to a normal player if they went to a foreign city.

Wouldn't that mean that everyone would want to beat him up?

Fortunately, two days ago, wind and cloud blade had posted on the forum, giving him an invincible image.

If he went to a foreign city, there shouldn't be too many people who would come to kill him, right?

Of course, even if he was chased by someone, he would still be killed.

Zhang Shan did not need to worry.

He could use teleportation.

The greatest effect of the human hero title was reflected here.

It could teleport in any human city.

If he didn't have this title.

Zhang Shan would probably not be able to carry on with this mission.

The other cities were still fine.

with the invincible image that he had just built up, most players would probably not dare to provoke him.

But the three cities of the state of Qin, that would be very difficult to deal with.

If the domineering King knew that he had gone to a city in the state of Qin.

Then why didn't he bring his men and chase after Zhang Shan?

Now that he could teleport in a foreign city, this problem was perfectly solved.

Even if they went to the cities of the state of Qin, there was no need to be afraid.

If the domineering King wanted to kill him, he would teleport and run.

Moreover, he was only going there to buy materials, so he didn't need to stay for long.

As long as he could find the designated NPC on the map, teleport there, buy the materials, and then escape.

Even if tyrant king wanted to cut him, he wouldn't be able to.

The material purchase mission was not a difficult task for Zhang Shan.

He should be able to settle it with just a little time.

Chapter 450 Wisdom staff

Zhang Shan carefully examined the mission panel.

the 21 missions required him to go to a foreign city to buy materials.

For other players, the difficulty might be as high as the sky.

However, to Zhang Shan, these missions were not difficult at all.

As he had the title of human hero, he could teleport in a foreign city.

zhang shan did not have to worry about being chased and attacked in foreign cities.

He could use teleportation, so what was there to be afraid of?

After teleporting over, he would directly teleport to the vicinity of the NPC, buy the materials, and then teleport away.

Even if other people wanted to cut him, they couldn't.

Hence, these 21 missions were basically free gifts for Zhang Shan.

other than the teleportation fee, it didn't take much time.

These missions were not difficult.

however, an qisheng had given zhang shan more than 21 missions to collect materials.

Instead, there were 120 of them.

Other than the 21 quests, which required him to purchase materials from NPCs, there were also other quests.

The remaining 99 missions all required him to kill specific monsters in order to get the corresponding materials.

This was a little difficult.

How long would it take for him to get all the materials?

No wonder Feng Yun and Bing Bing had been doing missions for more than half a month and still hadn't gotten the God equipment.

Zhang Shan continued to look at the quest for farming monsters and collecting materials.

Let's see where we can go to farm monsters.

After he had finished reading all the mission details.

Zhang Shan was speechless.

Damn it, this old man and Qisheng was definitely making things difficult for him.

That was because Zhang Shan had seen six of them in the mission list.

He actually had to go to a foreign map to farm monsters.

This was a little ridiculous.

It was already not easy to go to a foreign city to buy materials.

He actually had to go to a foreign map to farm monsters?

Wasn't this f*cking messing with people?

Furthermore, he was not only going to one country.

In the entire game, other than Chu country, Zhang Shan had to go to all the other six countries.

So, here's the question?

How could he go to a foreign map to farm monsters?

Even if Zhang Shan wanted to sneak over, he could not do it.

As long as he ran to another country.

There was a purple character name above his head.

Others could tell at a glance.

Then, he announced on the National channel.

Didn't that mean that he knew everything?

They all knew that Zhang Shan had gone to their country.

The other countries were still fine. Even if they knew that Zhang Shan was farming monsters in their country's map.

He probably wouldn't think too much about it.

After all, Zhang Shan's strength was very strong. It would not be so easy to defeat him.

There shouldn't be many people who would come looking for trouble.

Perhaps they just turned a blind eye to it. She treated him as if he didn't exist.

However, if Zhang Shan were to run to the Qin map to farm monsters ...

It wouldn't be that easy, would it? they didn't even want the domineering King, but brought millions of people to kill him?

Thinking of this, Zhang Shan could not help but have a headache.

Why didn't new world have any invisibility items?

It would be great if he had an invisibility device.

he would go invisible and kill a wave of monsters, then run away after he was done with the materials.

However, he did not.

In this game, Zhang Shan had never heard of anyone getting invisibility equipment.

It seemed that he might need some luck.

If he was lucky enough, he could quickly get the materials.

That was fine. By the time Subjugator had gathered his men, he would have already finished farming and run away.

Sigh, it was really difficult to get this divine artifact necklace.

He hoped that it would go smoothly.

There were six quests that required him to go to foreign cities to farm monsters.

As for the other 93 missions, they were still considered normal.

All of them were required to farm monsters in the Heaven's Gate map.

And all of them were demon Warriors.

...

There was no longer a need for him to go to a special map occupied by others to farm monsters.

However, Zhang Shan had to complete each mission at a different location.

Of all the 120 missions.

In Zhang Shan's eyes, there was only one mission that was difficult.

That was the task of collecting materials in Tensui city.

This quest required him to go to the state of Qin's celestial water city and farm a type of level 40 black bear in the autumn leaves Forest Map.

Only by farming bears there could the materials needed for the mission be dropped.

He could imagine what would happen if he stayed in the celestial water city's autumn leaves Forest Map for a little longer.

The Overlord would definitely bring a large group of people to kill him.

However, the mission was arranged in such a way.

Zhang Shan had no other choice. He could only depend on his luck.

He hoped that his luck would be better.

Before the domineering King could react, he would get the materials and run.

She didn't give him a chance.

Otherwise, there would probably be another huge battle.

moreover, the domineering king wasn't like the unparalleled gentleman.

The domineering King was not a coward. He was a real iron-headed boy.

If Zhang Shan really went up against them ...

He would no longer be able to safely farm monsters in celestial water city's autumn leaves forest.

Forget it, I won't be conflicted.

No matter how difficult or easy the mission was, he had to carry it out.

I'll go back first. I'll complete these hundred or so missions one by one and take it slow.

There would always be a time when it was done.

after checking the mission, zhang shan bid farewell to an qisheng and returned to dangyang city.

After returning to Dangyang city.

Zhang Shan thought about it carefully.

with so many missions, it was better to start easy and then become difficult.

First, he had to complete the task of purchasing materials in the three cities of Chu State.

The three missions were simple.

Zhang Shan found the mission that required him to buy materials from Dangyang city.

[collect crystals: find Dangyang city's material merchant, Li Daqing, and purchase crystals.]

This mission couldn't be any easier.

zhang shan quickly found the location of li daqing, the material merchant, on the map and teleported there.

He had bought the crystal from Li Daqing.

It only took him a few seconds to complete the first mission.

If only the 120 material-gathering quests were all so simple. How great would that be?

Of course, that was impossible.

after completing his mission in dangyang city, zhang shan teleported to the transmission hall.

Then, he would teleport to Yingtian city, find the corresponding NPC, and buy the materials.

After he was done, Zhang Shan immediately teleported to Yunmeng city and bought the materials very quickly.

The three simplest missions were completed very quickly.

He didn't spend a total of half a minute.

There were only eighteen missions left to purchase materials.

However, the later missions to buy materials were not so simple.

He had to teleport to a foreign city and buy materials from the foreign NPCs.

However, to Zhang Shan, it was not a big deal.

He could teleport, and among all the martial arts in the world, speed was the only thing that could not be broken.

What speed could be faster than teleportation?

He came and went without a trace.

Even though there were countless players from the opposing faction in the outer cities, there was no need to worry.

it wouldn't affect his mission to buy materials.

Because he was fast enough.

From finding the NPC's location to buying the materials and running away, it would probably take about ten seconds.

Zhang Shan first teleported to the domineering air Guild's headquarters, LAN Tian city.

He planned to first complete the mission in the Qin country.

when zhang shan walked out of the teleportation hall in lan tian city, there were a few players from the state of qin.

He was about to teleport to another place.

When they saw Zhang Shan, they were first stunned.

He then quickly used teleportation to escape and called out in the state of Qin's national channel.

someone come quickly! Six-barreled Bodhisattva is attacking LAN Tian city!

that's Bullsh * t. What's six-barreled Bodhisattva doing here in our LAN Tian city? " it's true. I saw it in the teleportation Hall just now. Fortunately, I was quick-witted and teleported away in time. Otherwise, I would have been killed by him.

"F * ck, what's the six-barreled Bodhisattva doing? don't tell me he's planning to massacre the entire city by himself."

"Impossible, he dares to come to LAN Tian city alone and massacre the entire city? Unless he's tired of living."

"Who cares what he's up to. Since he dares to come to our LAN Tian city, then we'll make him stay."

that's right, we're not. Those cowards from the peerless Guild, f * ck them up.

" where's the six-barreled bodhisattva? anyone who sees him, report your location. "

"Brothers, gather up. Let's go and kill him together."

When Zhang Shan had just walked out of the teleportation Hall in LAN Tian city, he had already met the players from the Qin country.

he knew that he had been exposed.

But Zhang Shan did not care about this.

this time, he was only here to find an NPC and buy some materials. he would not stay for long.

He didn't care about the reaction of the Qin players.

Instead, he quickly found the location of the material store on the map.

He then teleported over and bought the materials.

Another mission was completed.

Zhang Shan teleported back to the teleportation Hall in LAN Tian city.

He should go to the next place.

Zhang Shan went through the teleportation Hall and teleported to the Tianshui city of Qin.

After buying the materials, they went to the next stop, Liangzhou city.

After buying the materials, Zhang Shan used the teleportation and left the city of Qin.

There were a total of 21 missions to purchase materials.

he had just completed six missions, and there were still fifteen more waiting for him to complete.

He had to hurry up.

He had to hurry up and complete all these quests to buy materials, then he would go and farm for other materials.

Zhang Shan teleported back and forth between the three cities of the Qin country.

The Qin players were in a mess.

The domineering King, who had been farming monsters in the Heaven's Gate map, had come to LAN Tian city after hearing about Zhang Shan.

He quickly returned to the city.

He was prepared to gather his men and leave Zhang Shan behind.

However, after searching for a long time, they could not find any trace of Zhang Shan.

In the country of Qin's national channel, someone would say that Zhang Shan was in LAN Tian city.

After a while, someone said that they had seen Zhang Shan in Tianshui city.

Then, they heard that Zhang Shan had run to Liangzhou city.

Zhang Shan's actions had directly stunned the domineering King.

Subjugator was a little confused, so he asked in the Guild channel.

"What's the six-barreled Bodhisattva trying to do? Did he come to Qin country for a holiday?"

who knows? he's made so much money anyway. The teleportation fee of 1000 gold coins won't bother six-barreled Bodhisattva.

At this time, someone suddenly guessed.

"Could six tube Bodhisattva be doing a mission?"

that's possible. Six-pipe Bodhisattva fought with the peerless Guild because he had to complete a mission.

"but what kind of quest is he doing? why did he leave right after he was teleported here? Could it be a letter delivery mission?"

" who cares what mission it is? as long as he dares to come again, i will definitely make him stay. " that's right. Let's wait outside the teleportation Hall first. Maybe six-pipe Bodhisattva will come back later.

"Yes, let's guard for a while."

Leading a large group of people, tyrant king teleported to the teleportation Hall outside of blue field city.

then, he stood guard there.

They were not sure if Zhang Shan was on a mission.

He did not know what kind of mission Zhang Shan was doing.

But he saw Zhang Shan, who had visited all three cities of the Qin country.

they guessed that zhang shan would be teleported here again after a while.

They planned to wait for a wave, and perhaps they would be able to wait until the Dead Rabbit came.

As such, he had brought a large group of people to stand guard outside the teleportation Hall in blue field city.

However, the domineering King was destined to be unable to defend Zhang Shan.

At this time, Zhang Shan had teleported to Wei and Qi and bought the materials.

Then, he continued to teleport away.

Not long after, Zhang Shan had gone to all the 21 sub-cities in the seven countries.

He had completed all 21 missions to purchase materials.

Apart from spending 20000 gold coins, the entire process was basically effortless.

After running for about five to six minutes, Zhang Shan had completed all 21 missions.

His human hero title and the teleportation privilege were very powerful.

If he was like the other players and couldn't use teleportation in foreign cities.

then he would be in deep trouble.

The difficulty of the mission would increase in a straight line.

Putting everything else aside, just the distance from the teleportation Hall to the NPC's location was a long distance.

It would take a lot of time to run.

Moreover, it was in a foreign city.

He, a player with a purple character name, was running around in someone else's city.

It would be a wonder if they weren't chased and hacked.

however, being able to teleport was a completely different matter.

When he walked out of the teleportation Hall, he directly teleported to the material store.

He left after buying the materials.

Even if others wanted to cut him, they wouldn't have time to react.

With the teleportation privilege of his title, Zhang Shan quickly completed the mission of purchasing materials.

The next task was to collect materials.

There were no shortcuts in these missions.

Zhang Shan looked at the mission panel. There were only 99 missions left. He could not help but feel a headache.

However, he had no other choice. If he wanted the divine weapon, he would have to complete the quest.

Zhang Shan could only follow the mission instructions and collect the materials one by one.

In any case, his farming speed was very fast, as long as his luck was not too bad.

He should be able to finish it in a few days.

Zhang Shan was teleported to Heaven's Gate. He followed the coordinates given by the mission and started to run towards the target location.

He planned to finish all the missions at heaven's gate first.

As for the six quests that required him to go to a foreign city's map to collect materials, he would leave them for the last time.

Those six missions would probably not be easy to complete.

If he ran to other countries 'maps to farm monsters, he would definitely be hated by everyone.

especially the mission to go to the state of qin's tianshui city to farm monsters.

It was even more difficult.

If they knew that Zhang Shan was farming monsters in the Qin country map.

The tyrant king would not let go of such a good opportunity.

Thus, Zhang Shan planned to wait for a few days and find a time in the middle of the night.

When most of the players had gone offline to sleep.

then, he would go and complete these six missions.

At midnight, there were not many players online.

not to mention the other five countries.

Even if he was the domineering King of the state of Qin, he probably wouldn't be able to find too many people in the middle of the night.

Moreover, it was already the middle of the night, and it was possible that the domineering King himself had already gone offline to sleep.

It was a good opportunity for Zhang Shan to steal the materials.

The mission was completed.

Zhang Shan rode his horse out of Heaven's Gate pass and ran towards the location designated by the mission.

While he was riding away, Windcloud blade asked him in the party channel.

brother Liu Guan, are you still in the West River grassland map, doing quests? " no, the quest item dropped just now. I'm about to start collecting materials.

"F * ck, you've finally completed the quest. If you continue to stay in the West River plains map, I think the unparalleled gentleman will cry, hehe."

zhang shan had been farming in the west river grassland map for more than two days.

Every time peerless Guild's members saw him, they felt disgusted.

However, he was helpless.

They couldn't beat him, so the members of the peerless Guild could only pray that Zhang Shan would quickly complete the quest.

"You can't blame me for that. Who asked this damn quest item to never drop?"

"Eh, something's not right. Have you already started collecting materials? You've completed all the chain missions and only got thirty points?"

yes, I've finished it. There are only thirty points left.

"That's good. I thought you were going to score a hundred points."

that's impossible. Even if it's a real necklace, there shouldn't be as many as 100 parts.

The little fairy, who was farming monsters, also spoke in the party channel.

that's right. Thirty rounds of missions are already ridiculous. It would be strange if there were more.

"Oh right, how's Fengyun Bingbing and Windcloud swordsman's material collection going? How long will it take to get the divine artifact?"

Zhang Shan asked wind cloud blade.

In the entire wind and cloud Guild, including Zhang Shan, there were a total of three people.

They were in the middle of a mission to repair the divine weapon, and Feng yunbingbing was the first to start.

It had been more than half a month since she had obtained the divine weapon mission item.

She had been collecting materials for a long time, and he wondered how she was doing. Was she almost done?

As for the wind and cloud swordsman, the time he received the divine weapon mission item was about the same time as Zhang Shan.

He probably wouldn't be able to settle it so quickly.

Zhang Shan had not asked around before and did not know the progress of the Two's mission.

Hence, he had asked wind cloud blade.

"The materials for Bingbing have been gathered. Divine craftsman Xu Fu is currently helping her repair her divine artifact. A new divine artifact will probably be born soon."

it's not easy either. She's been doing missions for more than half a month.

Zhang Shan said with emotion.

he felt that the task of getting a divine weapon was getting more and more complicated.

From the beginning, it had only been less than a day.

in the next two to three days.

Now, it would actually take more than half a month to repair the divine artifact.

Of course, as long as he could make the divine weapon, it would be worth the time.

that's right. It was easier for us to get it back then. It was just that we had to spend more gold coins, unlike now, which is too time-consuming.

"That's enough, you guys. I want to do missions, but I can't. i haven't even seen the shadow of a divine weapon mission item, wuwuwu "

The little fairy said sadly in the party channel.

Every time they talked about the divine weapon, the little fairy would come out and act pitiful.

this really could not be blamed on zhang shan.

It wasn't that Zhang Shan didn't want to give the little fairy a divine weapon.

It was just that he really couldn't get the Archer's divine weapon quest item.

He had no other choice.

They had been fighting so many bosses recently.

He had also dropped two or three God-tier quest items, but none of them were for archers to use. What else could he do?

This thing depended on luck.

When he heard about the little fairy, he started acting pitiful in the party channel.

Zhang Shan had no choice but to say one thing and mean another to comfort her.

"Don't worry, you'll get a divine weapon."

brother Butler, hurry up and finish the quest. After you've made the divine weapon, we'll go find the BOSS and fight it.

alright, whatever you say. I'm going to get the materials.

Zhang Shan ran for about ten minutes and arrived at the first mission Point. He officially started.

There were still 99 missions left.

He didn't know how long he would have to wait before he would reach the end.

After Zhang Shan had been farming for a while, the Guild channel was suddenly bustling with activity.

Zhang Shan took a look. It turned out that Feng Yun Bing Bing had already made the divine weapon.

zhang shan took a look at the attributes of the divine weapon that feng yun bing bing had displayed.

[staff of wisdom (red): attack 4000-4000, intelligence +400]

Equipment level (sealed): currently level 30. The divine equipment will gradually be unsealed as the player's level increases, and it will be unsealed once every ten levels.

[class requirements: fire wizard, Ice Wizard, witch doctor]

[durability: never worn out. Bound to player wind clouds ice, can not be dropped.]

[special effect 1: magic enhancement: increase magic attack power by 10%.]

[special effect 2: damage increase: increases magic damage by 20%.]

[special effect 3: surge of mana: increases mana regeneration speed by 100%.]

[special effect 3: Holy Strike: when attacking, there is a chance to trigger the effect of Holy Strike. It ignores the target's defense and deals 10 times the damage.] The chance of triggering it is 1%.

After Zhang Shan had seen the attributes of Feng yunbing's divine weapon.

He couldn't help but feel that it was better for the divine weapon to belong to someone else.

among the four special effects of the wisdom staff, it was not like wind and cloud blade or the god-tier equipment, heart moves with me.

[additional special effects]

However, this wisdom staff's damage was very strong.

It had a special effect 1, which increased attack by 10%.

it even had a special effect that increased damage by 20%.

This meant that this staff could increase wind, cloud, and ICE's damage output by 30% with its special effect alone.

The third special effect was pretty good too.

Increases mana regeneration by 100%.

Intelligence-based jobs had a much faster mana recovery rate than other jobs.

After adding the wisdom staff's special effect, when Feng Yun Bing Bing was farming monsters in the future, he would definitely be able to use it.

He probably didn't even need to bring a small blue Bottle.

It was enough to rely on her equipment and her own mana recovery.

It was a perfect divine weapon for endurance.

As for the attributes of the divine weapon, there was nothing much to say.

all divine weapons had the same attributes.

However, because of Feng Yun Bing Bing's level, she had not reached level 40.

As such, the attributes of the divine weapons were slightly weaker than those of Zhang Shan and the rest.

When she reached level 40, her attributes should be the same as Zhang Shan's hand cannon.

it also added 6000 attack power and 600 owner attributes.

feng yun bing bing's wisdom staff was the seventh god equipment in the game.

The God equipment that had appeared so far were Zhang Shan's hand cannon and the sky Eagle king ring, plus the king's Cape.

Wind and cloud blade's sky-splitting battle axe, and heart moves with me's bright light sword.

There was also little Secretary Feng Yun's Divine Shield, the wall of wind.

There were more and more divine weapons, giving Zhang Shan a little bit of pressure.

He had to quickly farm for materials and repair the necklace so that he could get himself a divine artifact.
