

Passive Skills 531

Chapter 531

after the duration of zhang shan's deity's descent ended, xuanyuan ziyu once again used a scroll and knocked zhang shan to the ground.

Zhang Shan, who did not have any big moves, did not even last two seconds.

Seeing Zhang Shan fall, the players from the state of Zheng were all in an uproar.

In new world, Zhang Shan's name was like a legend.

he didn't know how long it had been since he had been killed.

if they could defeat zhang shan this time, it would be enough for them to be proud.

In the end, it was Xuanyuan Ziyu's two scrolls that had defeated Zhang Shan.

However, it did not matter.

The players from the state of Zheng were all one.

if they had not surrounded zhang shan, xuanyuan ziyu would not have had the chance to use the scroll to kill him.

Oh, right.

Up until now, the players from the state of Zheng had not realized that Zhang Shan had only fallen to the ground, and had not really died.

He still had a Second Life.

although zhang shan's rebirth skill had already been exposed at the start of the game.

But when did that happen?

It had been too long since someone had forced Zhang Shan to have a Second Life.

who would still remember this?

At this moment, the players of the state of Zheng could only feel joy.

The thrill of defeating Zhang Shan made them extremely excited.

There were even quite a few players from the state of Zheng who were dancing and dancing on top of Zhang Shan's corpse.

in contrast to the state of zheng players 'happy mood.

at this moment, zhang shan was silently counting the seconds.

Seven, eight, nine, ten.

when zhang shan read ten seconds, he suddenly stood up.

zhang shan, who had been passively resurrected through his rebirth, instantly went all out.

He activated his berserk and fanatic skills, and at the same time, he activated his shadow clone skill.

The three Zhang Shans stood in a line, and countless bullets were fired at the players from the state of Zheng.

The players from the state of Zheng fell to the ground as if they were chopping firewood.

It was also like the ebb of the sea, constantly being pushed back by Zhang Shan's attacks, leaving a large open space.

In an instant, all the Zheng players around Zhang Shan were wiped out.

Zhang Shan's sudden revival had stunned the players from the state of Zheng.

holy sh * t, what's going on? how dare six-barreled Bodhisattva choose to resurrect on the spot and continue to knock him down.

" damn it, he actually dares to get up. if we can kill him once, we can kill him a second time. brothers, let's go and kill him. "

yes, kill him five or six times and see how many gold coins he has to revive.

After seeing Zhang Shan fall to the ground, he stood up again.

The surrounding Zheng players thought that Zhang Shan had used gold to revive.

Because in the world War map, as long as you had money, everyone could choose to spend gold coins and revive on the spot.

It was just that the cost of resurrection was getting more and more expensive.

When he revived for the sixth time, he would have to spend 100 million gold.

This was a terrifying number.

that doesn't seem right. Six-barreled Bodhisattva didn't use gold coins to resurrect on the spot. He had two lives to begin with.

At this moment, there were finally players from the Zheng country who remembered Zhang Shan's rebirth skill.

After this player's reminder, the other players from the state of Zheng finally remembered.

"F * ck, that seems to be the case. The six-barreled Bodhisattva should have some sort of resurrection mechanism. I don't know if it's a skill or a special item, but he has two lives. After being knocked down, he can stand up again after a while."

f * ck, there's still one life left even if you kill one. The six-barreled Bodhisattva is a cheater.

don't panic. Everyone, let's continue. We were able to kill him just now, so we can naturally do the same now. Kill him again.

you're right. Anyway, six tube Bodhisattva has used all his skills. He shouldn't have any magic immunity skills for the time being.

"Let's go together and kill him."

Although Zhang Shan had stood up once again and went all out to clear out all the players from the state of Zheng, he was still very calm.

However, the players from the state of Zheng did not seem to want to give up.

They still wanted to continue charging forward, wanting to knock Zhang Shan down again.

Of course, not all of the players from the state of Zheng thought the same.

one of the zheng players said.

"Still charging? Previously, boss had used two scrolls to defeat six-barreled Bodhisattva with great difficulty. If we don't use the scroll, we might not be able to kill six-barreled Bodhisattva. Are we going to let the boss use the scroll again?"

the point is, even if i use the scroll to defeat six-barreled bodhisattva again, it won't make much sense. doesn't he know how to use gold coins to resurrect on the spot? We can't just keep using the scrolls to defeat him six or seven times."

yeah, we only have a few scrolls. We can't possibly use all of them just to defeat six-barreled Bodhisattva.

"Then what should we do? Are we just going to leave like this? To let the six tube Bodhisattva act so arrogantly here?"

that's impossible. There are so many of us here. If we can't even take down six-barreled Bodhisattva, what's the point of fighting a country war? we must defeat him.

brother, don't let your emotions get the better of you. Don't keep your eyes on the six-barreled Bodhisattva. We still have to fight the country war.

that's right. If they keep on targeting six-barreled Bodhisattva, then are they still going to fight the country war? "

"If you want to go, go. I'm going to beat the six-barreled Bodhisattva. If we don't defeat six tube Bodhisattva, how can we continue the country war?"

The members of the Xuan Yuan Guild and some of the big shots in the state of Zheng were arguing endlessly.

Zhang Shan continued to fire his guns, suppressing the charging Zheng players.

Although the state of Zheng's leaders were still arguing, their attacks had not slowed down.

Countless Zheng country players were still charging towards Zhang Shan.

However, Xuanyuan's main force members had yet to make their move.

They were waiting for Xuanyuan Ziyu's orders and wanted to see what he would do.

Should he continue to fight to the death with Zhang Shan?

Everyone turned their heads to look at Xuanyuan Ziyu.

At this moment, Xuanyuan Ziyu was also very conflicted.

He wasn't someone who would give up halfway.

According to his personality, he would definitely fight to the death with Zhang Shan.

The problem was that he did not have many scrolls left.

For this kingdom war, he had prepared a total of five scrolls.

This was all he had.

His original plan was to use these five scrolls at the most crucial moment of the World War to repel the attacks of the Chu players and drag the World War out until the end.

In this case, they would be able to fight Chu to a draw. There wouldn't be any punishment for losing the country war.

But now, in order to deal with Zhang Shan, he had already used two scrolls.

And Zhang Shan had used his passive rebirth to stand up again, completely unscathed.

What should he do now?

Could it be that he had to use all five scrolls on Zhang Shan?

But the problem was, even if he used all the scrolls on Zhang Shan.

He might not even be able to settle Zhang Shan.

Wasn't Zhang Shan still alive and could be revived with gold coins?

Xuanyuan Ziyu thought about it for a long time.

He felt that he could not completely rely on scrolls to deal with Zhang Shan. Otherwise, he would not be able to fight the battle later.

Furthermore, it was completely meaningless to rely on scrolls to defeat Zhang Shan.

This was because his scroll might not even have as many revival counts as Zhang Shan.

Or should he try and see if he could defeat Zhang Shan without relying on the scroll?

Xuanyuan Ziyu felt that he could let the main force of the Xuanyuan Guild try to rush in together.

If he could defeat Zhang Shan without the help of the scroll, then it would be easy.

That way, he could save the scrolls and use them when he was guarding the altar.

As for whether they could beat Zhang Shan to death without the scroll.

Xuanyuan Ziyu had also seriously considered this question.

He felt that although Zhang Shan's strength was very, very strong ...

However, there were so many Zheng players on their side.

moreover, quite a few of xuanyuan's main force members had also come.

It didn't make sense that with so many people, they couldn't kill Zhang Shan.

As for the time before he had arrived, the players from the country of Zheng had not been able to take down Zhang Shan.

Xuanyuan Ziyu believed that it was because the others had not organized well, and that they had only been cannon fodder.

Those big Shot players all cherished their lives and were unwilling to die.

He believed that as long as the main members of the Xuanyuan Guild charged together, there was no reason that they could not kill Zhang Shan.

However, if they did so, many of their guild members would die. Moreover, the ones who would die would be the Guild's main force.

But so what?

They had so many supports here. After being knocked down by Zhang Shan, they could still revive.

xuanyuan ziyu ordered as he thought of this.

everyone, fall back. We from the Xuanyuan Guild will charge forward together. We can kill six-barreled Bodhisattva without the scroll.

boss is right. Even without the scroll, we can still kill six-barreled Bodhisattva.

"let's charge together and kill six-barreled bodhisattva."

Xuanyuan Ziyu reorganized his men.

He had the other Zheng country players retreat, but not too far away. They formed a large encirclement around the area to prevent Zhang Shan from escaping.

As for the main force of the charge, they had replaced it with Xuanyuan's members.

He did not believe that Zhang Shan was really that strong.

Even without the scrolls, their Xuanyuan Guild could still defeat Zhang Shan.

After all, Zhang Shan had already used a few of his important skills and they should still be on cooldown.

Zhang Shan, who did not have any life-saving skills, could they not kill him?

Under Xuanyuan Ziyu's arrangements, the members of the Xuanyuan Guild launched a fierce attack on Zhang Shan.

All of a sudden, Zhang Shan's pressure increased.

Not only did the Guild's main force members have good equipment and powerful skills, but their coordination and skills were also far superior to the previous batch of cannon fodder.

Xuanyuan Guild had launched a desperate charge, and Zhang Shan was a little tired of dealing with it.

He held his hand cannon and kept firing in all directions.

Now, only Zhang Shan was left.

There was no one to help him take care of his surroundings.

The members of the Xuanyuan Guild attacked from all directions.

zhang shan was a little flustered.

However, for the time being, it was not a big problem. He could still hold on.

although these people from the xuanyuan guild were much stronger than the cannon fodder from before ...

However, under Zhang Shan's gun, there was not much difference.

He would be shot down in one shot anyway.

it was just that the operation and cooperation of the xuanyuan guild members really annoyed zhang shan.

It always made Zhang Shan feel that he could only care about his head and not his spine.

as zhang shan fired his gun, he looked around.

Other than the countless players from the state of Zheng, there was nothing else.

He could not help but sigh.

This was the disadvantage of the country war map.

There was nothing but open space everywhere, not even a place to hide.

Otherwise, it would have been much easier for him to take cover.

He didn't need to deal with enemies from all directions at the same time.

He was a little too busy.

Zhang Shan had just repelled the enemies in front of him, but the enemies behind him came up again.

He was very annoyed.

Time passed by.

Zhang Shan continued to fire fiercely, forcing the members of the Xuanyuan Guild to retreat.

Although he was a little flustered, and the members of the Xuanyuan Guild almost rushed to his front a few times, he was still a little confused.

but zhang shan was still fighting.

He didn't fall.

Xuanyuan Ziyu, who was standing in the distance, couldn't help but feel a little anxious when he saw this.

He couldn't continue like this.

If this dragged on, the troops of Chu would arrive soon.

xuanyuan ziyu had long known about the news of feng yun realm and the others moving out.

It was just that in the beginning, Feng Yun realm and the others were far away.

It would still take them a few minutes to get here.

Thus, Xuanyuan Ziyu wasn't in a hurry at the start.

He felt that they had enough time to defeat Zhang Shan.

Even if Zhang Shan had to spend gold coins to revive, they could still defeat him many times.

However, the current situation didn't seem too good.

The Xuanyuan Guild's players had been attacking for almost two minutes.

Quite a few of their men had died, but they had not managed to defeat Zhang Shan.

although there were a few times when the people of the xuanyuan guild were almost all close to zhang shan's side.

As long as they could get close to Zhang Shan, then cutting him down would not be too much of a problem.

However, every time they were about to succeed, they would be pushed back by Zhang Shan's powerful firepower.

seeing this, xuanyuan ziyu became extremely anxious.

He couldn't let this drag on any longer.

If this dragged on, it would be impossible.

if the troops of chu state were to arrive, they would have to retreat.

He still had to bring some people back to defend the altar.

Originally, Xuanyuan Ziyu had thought that as long as he brought people over and used a scroll, he would be able to deal with Zhang Shan.

But now, he had used two scrolls, and Zhang Shan was still alive.

Xuanyuan Ziyu was considering whether he should use another scroll.

If he were to use another scroll, he would definitely be able to defeat Zhang Shan.

However, if Zhang Shan were to resurrect again, what would they do?

&Nbsp; no matter, let's see if I can defeat Zhang Shan again.

After hesitating for a long time, Xuanyuan Ziyu made up his mind.

He still had to use the scroll.

He said to the Guild members around him.

I'll use another scroll. All of you charge forward together. After six-barreled Bodhisattva falls, all of you guard his corpse. Don't let him have a chance to stand up.

"Received."

After Xuanyuan Ziyu finished speaking, he gritted his teeth and took out another scroll.

"Fuck."

When he saw Xuanyuan Ziyu, he took out another scroll.

Zhang Shan could not help but curse.

damn it, did he have to be so ruthless?

In order to kill him, Guild Xuanyuan had actually used the third scroll.

don't scrolls cost money?

Could it be that Xuanyuan Ziyu was a wholesale scroll seller?

How many scrolls did he have?

Don't you want to fight a country war?

As for Xuanyuan Ziyu's actions, Zhang Shan expressed that he didn't understand at all.

He didn't seem to have any enmity with the Xuanyuan Guild.

why did she do this to him?

To throw the scroll at him just like that, wasn't this a little too generous?

After Xuanyuan Ziyu had used the scroll.

Endless blade light enveloped the surroundings, and the blade light instantly drowned Zhang Shan.

without a doubt, zhang shan fell to the ground again.

after seeing zhang shan fall to the ground, a large group of xuanyuan guild members quickly rushed forward.

however, this time, they did not dance on top of zhang shan's corpse.

Instead, they were all huddled together, staring at Zhang Shan's corpse, preventing him from resurrecting again.

Even if Zhang Shan was resurrected, they had to ensure that they could knock him out at the first moment.

He could not let Zhang Shan have the chance to unleash his power after he stood up.

Zhang Shan, who was out of control, had too much firepower. They could not stop him at all.

They didn't want Xuanyuan Ziyu to use another scroll.

Even the members of the Xuanyuan Guild, who were the loudest, were not willing to let Xuanyuan Ziyu continue to waste scrolls on Zhang Shan.

After all, the country war had just begun.

Their goal was for the country war. Even if they couldn't win, they had to at least end it in a draw.

They definitely couldn't lose the country war.

If not, the punishment for losing the country war would be too painful.

Zhang Shan, who was lying on the ground, was extremely depressed.

He had been too careless today.

If he had used the positioning ball to mark the coordinates when he first entered the World War map.

He would not have died.

Unfortunately, it was too late to regret now.

There was no medicine for regret in this world.

After Zhang Shan fell to the ground, he did not use the gold coin to revive on the spot.

there was no point in resurrecting now.

Beside him was a large group of people from the Xuanyuan Guild.

As long as he dared to resurrect, he would definitely be stunned to death.

When Xuanyuan Ziyu saw Zhang Shan collapse again, he couldn't help but sigh in relief.

Finally, Zhang Shan was settled.

Although he had wasted three scrolls, Xuanyuan Ziyu felt that it had been worth it.

because this was very uplifting.

The surrounding Zheng players cheered.

In a large-scale war like the world War, the morale of the players was very important.

He had to think of a way to gather morale. If the People's hearts were scattered, this country war would not be able to continue.

This was also the reason why Xuanyuan Ziyu was so determined to defeat Zhang Shan.

Even if he had to use up three scrolls, he would not hesitate.

After Zhang Shan fell to the ground, not only did the morale of the Zheng players around him rise to an unprecedented high.

Even the players from the state of Zheng, who were defending the altar, were greatly encouraged.

They knew that the news of Zhang Shan's fall had not been sent back by Xuanyuan Ziyu.

Instead, he had seen the scene of Zhang Shan falling to the ground in the video highlights of the game forum.

After the country war started, the game forums were opened up, and a special section was used to pay attention to the various situations of the country war.

the battle between zhang shan and the rest was, of course, the focus of the forum.

Initially, when they saw Zhang Shan's powerful battle strength, many of the players from the state of Zheng had given up hope.

With such a powerful person like Zhang Shan in the Chu country, how were they going to fight this country war?

He totally couldn't see any hope of winning the country war.

even if they wanted to fight to a draw, they couldn't.

Zhang Shan alone could withstand the attacks of millions of Zheng country players and charge around.

They were simply too strong, and many of the Zheng players lost all confidence in this world War.

Now, they could see that the powerful Zhang Shan had been defeated by Xuanyuan Ziyu.

They couldn't help but be filled with confidence for this country war.

Although Zhang Shan was powerful, the big boss of the state of Zheng was equally powerful.

Although Xuanyuan Ziyu had used a scroll to defeat Zhang Shan.

But so what?

Scrolls were also a form of strength.

There were even many Zheng players who were shouting in the National channel that they should have taken the initiative to attack instead of passively defending.

Their goal should be bigger.

He couldn't just think of a draw. He had to think of a way to win the kingdom war and shatter the statue of the Chu state's divine beast.

Winning the World War would reward him with double experience for a week. How awesome would that be?

after seeing zhang shan fall to the ground, xuanyuan ziyu did not choose to revive on the spot.

He nodded in satisfaction.

Although they had used up three scrolls, they had defeated Zhang Shan and boosted their morale.

He didn't lose out this time.

Xuanyuan Ziyu waited for a while and saw that Zhang Shan did not show any signs of reviving.

he said.

"You guys stay here for a while. When the troops of Chu arrive, retreat back to the altar to defend."

"Okay, boss."

After Xuanyuan Ziyu finished speaking, he prepared to run in the direction of the altar.

He still had to go to the altar and arrange the defense.

Even though the nine state Daoist had always been there.

however, these two guilds were both cooperating and competing.

He couldn't let the nine states Daoist do all the things that required him to show his face.

At this moment, he should be on the altar, announcing the existence of the Xuanyuan Guild.

However, just as Xuanyuan Ziyu was about to turn around and leave, wind cloud blade, who had been lying on the ground, suddenly exploded.

Windcloud blade spent 1000 gold coins to resurrect on the spot. Then, he used charge and charged towards Xuanyuan Ziyu.

This was followed by a destructive move.

A powerful wave of energy spread out from the blade of wind and cloud.

windcloud blade's destructive ultimate skill instantly knocked xuanyuan ziyu and the group of guild members around him to the ground.

When the surrounding players from the state of Zheng saw this, they were all stunned.

Before this, all their gazes had been locked onto Zhang Shan.

Even though Zhang Shan had fallen to the ground, they did not pay attention to anyone else.

No one had thought that Zhang Shan was not alone. He had four other friends.

The position where wind cloud blade had fallen was the closest to Xuanyuan Ziyu.

Just as Xuanyuan Ziyu was about to return, wind cloud blade took the opportunity to attack.

With a charge and a powerful skill, he knocked the boss of Xuanyuan to the ground.

Chapter 532 Fight for resurrection on the spot

Wind and cloud blade's sudden killing was not a spur of the moment decision. It had been discussed with Zhang Shan and the rest.

After Zhang Shan fell to the ground for the second time, wind cloud blade saw that Feng Yun realm and the rest of the Chu country's Army were getting closer and closer.

Perhaps in another two to three minutes, the main force of Chu State would arrive here.

He communicated with Zhang Shan and the others on the team channel, wanting to make Xuanyuan Ziyu stay completely.

As long as they could defeat Xuanyuan Ziyu and guard his corpse, he would not be able to resurrect.

By the time Feng Yun realm arrived with the Chu country's Army, Xuanyuan Ziyu would no longer have to think about returning to the altar to defend.

By the time the troops of Chu arrived, would Xuanyuan Ziyu be able to escape if he still hadn't managed to escape?

Although there were many players from the state of Zheng nearby, perhaps in the millions.

However, Feng Yun realm and the others had brought even more Chu players. It was said that there were 50 to 60 million of them.

If he was surrounded by fifty to sixty million people, Xuanyuan Ziyu would be dead. He would never be able to return to the state of Zheng's altar.

this country war would no longer have anything to do with xuanyuan ziyu.

This was because after the players of Chu had defeated Xuanyuan Ziyu, they would definitely guard his corpse until he resurrected in the city and left the World War map.

Even if he wanted to spend gold coins to resurrect on the spot, it would be useless.

Under the circumstances of being guarded, he simply couldn't get up.

there was no need to talk about xuanyuan ziyu.

Zhang Shan's corpse was guarded by them, and he did not even dare to resurrect on the spot.

It also depended on the timing to resurrect on the spot.

Only when one was confident in escaping or counterattacking could one choose to spend gold coins to resurrect on the spot.

If he resurrected on the spot, it would be a waste of gold coins and the number of resurrections.

Wind and cloud blade's idea was very good. Zhang Shan also felt that it was feasible, and there was room for manipulation.

Even though there were only five of them, and they were all lying on the ground.
but that didn't matter.

People who were lying on the ground could also be resurrected on the spot.

The players from the state of Zheng only stared at Zhang Shan as he camped.

He didn't pay much attention to his other four friends.

Furthermore, all four of his companions had learned the ultimate skill.

Each of them would use a big move to knock Xuanyuan Ziyu down and stall him for a while. This was not a problem at all.

Furthermore, after his friends' ultimate skills had disrupted the state of Zheng's players, Zhang Shan could still revive on the spot.

When they were in chaos, wouldn't they have no mood to guard Zhang Shan's corpse?

Wouldn't that allow Zhang Shan to spend a thousand gold coins to revive on the spot?

As long as Zhang Shan could stand up, it would not be so easy for the Zheng country's players to defeat him.

Unless Xuanyuan Ziyu continued to use the scroll.

Zhang Shan did not believe that Xuanyuan Ziyu's scrolls were unlimited.

No matter how many scrolls Xuanyuan Ziyu had, he would run out of them one day.

There was also another point. As long as his friends were the first to use their big moves to defeat Xuanyuan Ziyu ...

He would try his best to protect his corpse and not let the players from the state of Zheng have a chance to revive him.

In that case, Xuanyuan Ziyu would be a dead man lying on the ground.

No matter how many scrolls he had, it would be of no use.

Dead people could not cast scrolls.

After wind cloud blade had used his ultimate skill and knocked Xuanyuan Ziyu down ...

The players from the state of Zheng were going crazy.

f * ck, the boss is dead. Quickly focus fire on cutting down wind and cloud blade and resurrect the boss.

“keep an eye on the others on the ground. don’t let them have a chance to resurrect.”

“F * ck, if they have the ability, then stand up and see if I don’t beat the sh * t out of them.”

After wind cloud blade had used his ultimate skill and knocked Xuanyuan Ziyu down ...

A large group of players from the state of Zheng quickly charged towards Windcloud blade, preparing to cut him down.

The state of Zheng’s support players also rushed up, preparing to revive Xuanyuan Ziyu and the other members of the Xuanyuan Guild.

In this chaotic battle, boss Wu, little fairy, and heart follows me stood up almost at the same time.

Boss Wu and the little fairy both released their ultimate skills at the players from the state of Zheng.

Boss Wu’s ultimate skill was cast at the position of wind and cloud blade.

Countless Thunderbolts struck down, knocking down all the support players who had surrounded Windcloud blade and were ready to revive.

When boss Wu released his ultimate skill, heart follows me stood up.

However, he didn’t use his ultimate skill. Instead, he used a few AoE attacks to quickly clear out the players from the state of Zheng.

Then, he brought boss Wu with him and quickly approached wind cloud blade.

As for little fairy, she took advantage of the state of Zheng’s players ‘attention being attracted to Windcloud blade.

She released a big move, aiming at the position where Zhang Shan had fallen.

In an instant, the stars in the sky fell, and all the players from the state of Zheng who were guarding Zhang Shan were wiped out.

Zhang Shan immediately spent a thousand gold coins and stood up.

Zhang Shan, who had resurrected on the spot, carried his hand cannon and quickly rode his horse, approaching the little fairy.

After the little fairy stood up, she immediately used her ultimate skill to help Zhang Shan clear out the players from the state of Zheng who were camping the corpse.

However, she herself would not be able to hold on much longer.

When the players from the state of Zheng saw the little fairy resurrect on the spot, they started to attack her.

Little fairy's damage was also very high. She continuously shot arrows, and each split arrow she shot would take down seven players from the state of Zheng.

But she was not Zhang Shan.

Facing the players from the state of Zheng, she was still unable to deal with them.

On the other side, boss Wu, wind and cloud blade, and heart follows me were unable to deal with so many Chu players.

however, they had three players on their side, and boss wu was there as a support, so they could heal.

under the cover of each other, they could still hold on for a while.

The most important thing was that he still had the move 'heart follows me' in his hands and had not released it yet.

If the three of them really couldn't hold on, heart follows me could still use a high-level skill to slow down the attacks of the Zheng players.

However, on the side of the little fairy, Zhang Shan had to come to their rescue.

Otherwise, the little fairy would have fallen to the ground again in a few seconds.

zhang shan charged forward on his horse while firing his guns.

Very quickly, he was near the little fairy. He raised his hand cannon and fired a rain of bullets at the players from the state of Zheng around the little fairy.

He instantly helped her out of the situation.

Taking advantage of the time when the players from the state of Zheng were being beaten by Zhang Shan, the little fairy quickly rushed to Zhang Shan's side.

Zhang Shan said loudly to her.

"Follow me, cover your back."

After saying that, Zhang Shan quickly rushed towards wind and cloud blade.

Even though there were still countless players from the state of Zheng around him, he could not even count them.

However, under Zhang Shan's intense firepower, the two of them quickly opened up a path and moved closer to wind and cloud blade.

The five of them gathered together again.

As for the price they had to pay, everyone was resurrected on the spot once, and apart from following their hearts.

The other four had all used their ultimate skills.

Zhang Shan's ultimate move had already been used from the very beginning.

right now, he could only follow his heart, and he still had a big move that he had yet to use.

Even though the price they paid was not small.

However, their efforts were still effective.

After Xuanyuan Ziyu had been knocked down by wind cloud blade's ultimate move, he had not been able to stand up.

Originally, he had wanted to wait for the country of Zheng's support players to come and revive him.

After all, they were surrounded by the players of the state of Zheng, and there were at least a few million of them.

Xuanyuan Ziyu thought to himself that it wouldn't be a problem for him to be resurrected by a few assistants.

However, under the swift suppression of wind and cloud blade and heart moves with me, the state of Zheng players were unable to charge forward.

Now that Zhang Shan had brought the little fairy over, Xuanyuan Ziyu had even less of a chance to be revived by the state of Zheng's support.

At this moment, Xuanyuan Ziyu was filled with regret.

If he had known earlier, he would have resurrected on the spot the moment he fell.

In that case, he wouldn't have to lie on the ground like this.

This was very awkward.

A few million players from the state of Zheng surrounded and attacked Zhang Shan and the other four.

Although he had relied on Xuanyuan Ziyu's scroll to defeat Zhang Shan and the other four, he had not been able to do so.

However, they quickly resurrected on the spot and stood up.

On the contrary, the leader of the state of Zheng's players, Xuanyuan Ziyu, was still lying on the ground.

What the hell was this?

What should he do now?

The players from the state of Zheng were all dumbfounded.

The boss had fallen.

Moreover, it seemed that there was not much chance for him to stand up again.

What were they going to do?

The players from the state of Zheng, especially those from the Xuan Yuan Guild, were all panicking.

One of the big shots of the Xuanyuan Guild shouted.

“Quick, let’s go together and quickly revive boss.”

“How do we do it now? With six-barreled Bodhisattva around, how are we going to charge forward?”

that’s right. We’ve been charging for so long just now, but we still couldn’t do anything to six-barreled Bodhisattva. If we charge again now, the result will be the same. We can’t go up at all.

“if we continue to charge forward, we won’t be able to do anything but die. it’s impossible to revive the boss.”

“Then what do you guys think we should do? Are we just going to leave boss here?”

there was silence.

The players from the state of Zheng around him were silent.

They naturally knew that they had to resurrect Xuanyuan Ziyu.

otherwise, their boss would be lying on the ground, unable to get up at the start of the kingdom war.

Wouldn’t that be the biggest joke in the world?

What was the point of this country war?

It had only been ten minutes since the fight started, and their heads had been chopped off.

it was a fatal blow.

Resurrecting Xuanyuan Ziyu was a must, and it had to be quick.

This was because their current position was extremely disadvantageous to them.

In the distance, the Chu country’s Army was rapidly approaching under the lead of Feng Yun realm and the others.

If he waited until the main force of Chu arrived, then Xuanyuan Ziyu would no longer have the chance to be resurrected.

It was impossible for the state of Zheng’s support to resurrect him, or for him to resurrect on the spot.

To be able to clear the enemy’s boss out of the country war map at the start of the country war.

Zhang Shan and the rest would not let go of such an opportunity.

Zhang Shan and the rest would definitely arrange for people to guard the corpse, and they would guard it tightly.

he definitely wouldn’t give xuanyuan ziyu any chance to revive.

For Xuanyuan Ziyu, he only had a short chance to resurrect.

That was to defeat Zhang Shan and the other four before the troops of Chu arrived. Then, he would revive.

Or they could directly withstand the firepower of Zhang Shan and the other five and forcefully revive.

As long as the players from the country of Zheng helped him to hold back the firepower of Zhang Shan and the rest.

He still had a chance to revive on the spot and escape.

While the players from the state of Zheng were still arguing.

Xuanyuan Ziyu shouted in the Guild channel.

“you guys continue to attack and help me hold back the firepower of six-barreled bodhisattva and the others. i’ll try to see if i can escape by resurrecting on the spot.”

At this moment, Xuanyuan Ziyu no longer cared about his face.

He had to be resurrected.

otherwise, as the boss of a big guild in the state of zheng, he would have been lying on the ground the moment the world war had started, waiting for it to end.

That’s not right.

no matter what, he had to give it a try to see if he could revive and escape.

As for the original idea of defeating Zhang Shan, it had long been thrown to the back of his head.

His only thought now was to return to the state of Zheng’s altar.

Regardless of the outcome of this country war, he should have participated from the start to the end.

And not lie down and wait for the country war to end.

If that was the case, it would be too awkward.

Right now, Xuanyuan Ziyu couldn’t think of any good ideas.

He could only ask the players from the state of Zheng around him to help him distract the enemy while he revived on the spot and escaped.

in fact, there was a more secure method.

That was to ask the nine state priest to bring people to save him.

The nine states Daoist also had a few scrolls with him.

As long as the nine state priest was willing to come and save him, he only needed one or two scrolls to defeat Zhang Shan and the rest.

Then, Xuanyuan Ziyu could naturally stand up.

It was a pity that although the Xuanyuan Guild and the Kyushu Guild were both in the state of Zheng’s camp.

However, the relationship between the two guilds wasn’t very good. There were always small conflicts.

If it wasn't for the country war, it would be impossible for them to join forces.

How could Xuanyuan Ziyu stoop so low as to call for help from the Jiuzhou Daoist?

Even if he could lower his face and call for help, the nine regions Daoist might not be willing to come and save him.

Xuanyuan Ziyu believed that Jiuzhou Daoist had already known that he had fallen to the ground.

If she was willing to come and save him, she would have come a long time ago and not wait for him to call for help.

Apart from the nine states Daoist, the Xuanyuan Guild, as well as the other players from the state of Zheng, would not have any other powerful forces that could save him.

Although there were a few players in the Xuanyuan Guild who had learned the ultimate skill, there were still a few players in the Guild.

however, it might still be possible to defeat windcloud blade and the others with ultimate skills.

However, if he wanted to rely on a big move to defeat Zhang Shan, that would be difficult.

After the intense battle just now, Xuanyuan Ziyu had finally recognized Zhang Shan's strength.

It was almost impossible to defeat Zhang Shan with ordinary means.

Other than using scrolls, the only way to defeat Zhang Shan was to use multiple ultimate skills.

However, the problem was that, apart from him, only three members of the Xuanyuan Guild had learned the ultimate skill.

He did not know if he could kill Zhang Shan with three ultimate skills combined.

but no matter what, they had to give it a try.

Unfortunately, he had all the scrolls from Xuanyuan Guild on him.

He had used three of them before, so he still had two left.

However, the scroll on him could not save himself.

Dead players couldn't use scrolls. They couldn't trade scrolls, and they couldn't pass scrolls to other guild members.

Right now, Xuanyuan Ziyu could only hope that the players from the state of Zheng around him would do their best to hold back the firepower of Zhang Shan and the others.

This would give him a chance to revive and escape.

Under Xuanyuan Ziyu's arrangements, the players from the state of Zheng quickly came to a consensus.

And that was to continue to attack Zhang Shan and the others, creating an opportunity for Xuanyuan Ziyu.

Time was of the essence, and the large group of Chu country players was getting closer and closer.

They couldn't stay here for too long. They had to act decisively.

The players from the state of Zheng, under the leadership of the members of the Xuan Yuan Guild, charged towards Zhang Shan and the others.

not only that, three of shi xuanyuan's guild members hid in the crowd and released three big moves in the direction of zhang shan and the others.

the sky was filled with a rain of fire and meteors.

"F * ck, I'm going to fall again."

When Windcloud blade saw Xuanyuan's players use three high-level skills in a row, he could not help but curse.

Even though the equipment of the Xuanyuan Guild's members was much worse than his, he was still a player.

With his current HP, ultimate skills that were slightly weaker might not be able to kill him instantly.

However, the problem was that these people from the Xuanyuan Guild had already spared no expense in order to resurrect Xuanyuan Ziyu.

He actually released three big moves in a row.

There was no doubt that after this wave of consecutive attacks, the four of them, including Windcloud blade, had fallen to the ground.

However, Zhang Shan was still alive.

Even with three big moves stacked together, he still couldn't kill him.

the damage of an ultimate skill was terrifying.

It was either five times or ten times the damage.

To normal players, this damage was indeed very high.

But for Zhang Shan, he could still hold on.

with the attack power of these xuanyuan guild members, even if it was a big move that dealt 10 times the damage, it would still be a big move.

A single attack would not exceed 500000.

Moreover, among these three big moves, only one was the Archer's wrath of the stars, which was a big move that dealt ten times the damage.

The other two big moves were the fire mage's rain of fire.

Rain of fire only dealt five times the damage.

With the three ultimate skills stacked together, the total damage dealt to Zhang Shan was more than 700000.

Although the damage was very high, it still did not kill Zhang Shan.

Zhang Shan's maximum HP had exceeded 800000, just enough to withstand the damage from these three big moves.

zhang shan withstood the damage from the three ultimate skills and continuously fired at the players from the state of zheng.

With his powerful ability to suck blood, Zhang Shan barely managed to stabilize his health bar.

As long as there were enough targets around him for him to absorb blood, he would be able to survive these three big moves.

while zhang shan was attacking non-stop, relying on lifesteal to maintain his health bar.

xuanyuan ziyu, who was lying on the ground, saw that zhang shan's friends had all fallen to the ground.

and now, zhang shan was also exhausted from dealing with him. it seemed that he could not free up his hands to deal with him.

Xuanyuan Ziyu felt that this was his best chance. He immediately spent 1000 gold coins and revived on the spot.

However, Xuanyuan Ziyu had just stood up. He did not even have the time to make his next move before he was shot down by Zhang Shan.

What a joke, would Zhang Shan let him get up?

If they let Xuanyuan Ziyu escape, then wouldn't all their hard work just now be in vain?

Even though Zhang Shan had to withstand the damage from three big moves, it was very difficult.

However, he had never let down his guard against Xuanyuan Ziyu.

Just as Xuanyuan released their three ultimate skills ...

Zhang Shan knew that Xuanyuan Ziyu wanted to take this opportunity to revive.

He had been there the entire time, paying attention to Xuanyuan Ziyu's movements.

as long as xuanyuan ziyu dared to resurrect, he would immediately defeat him, not giving him any chance.

zhang shan was not sure how many more scrolls xuanyuan ziyu had on him.

That is, if Xuanyuan Ziyu still had more scrolls on him.

Then if he stood up, wouldn't he be able to turn the tables?

Zhang Shan would not give him the chance.

Even if he were to be killed by the big move, he couldn't let Xuanyuan Ziyu have the chance to stand up.

As long as he dared to stand up, he would immediately be defeated without any hesitation.

Xuanyuan's three ultimate skills still had their duration.

Rain of fire and wrath of the stars were both ultimate skills that lasted for five seconds.

Zhang Shan withstood the damage from the three ultimate skills and struck Xuanyuan Ziyu down with a single shot.

But this way, he couldn't suck all of his blood.

After all, when he had attacked Xuanyuan Ziyu, his bullet damage had not been effective.

When Xuanyuan Ziyu resurrected, there were no other targets around.

Zhang Shan could only absorb Xuanyuan Ziyu's blood. It was not enough for him.

It wasn't enough to recover the damage he had received from the three ultimate skills.

After Zhang Shan knocked out Xuanyuan Ziyu, he couldn't hold on any longer and also fell to the ground.

however, the moment zhang shan fell to the ground, he immediately spent 10000 gold coins to resurrect on the spot.

this was the second time he had resurrected on the spot in this world war.

At this moment, Xuanyuan Ziyu had also resurrected on the spot.

zhang shan still turned around and shot back, knocking xuanyuan ziyu down. at the same time, he also fell to the ground.

It was so embarrassing that he couldn't absorb enough blood.

But Zhang Shan did not care about this.

He would fight with Xuanyuan Ziyu to see who would win.

Just like that, Zhang Shan and Xuanyuan Ziyu continued to revive on the spot.

this continued until zhang shan spent 10 million gold coins to resurrect on the spot for the fifth time.

The duration of Xuanyuan's three big moves had finally ended.

Without the suppression of the ultimate, Zhang Shan would not die so easily.

However, although Xuanyuan's big move had ended ...

However, the surrounding players from the state of Zheng had taken advantage of the moment when Zhang Shan and Xuanyuan Ziyu had resurrected on the spot to rush forward.

Countless players from the state of Zheng surrounded Zhang Shan, and all sorts of vegetable knives slashed at him.

Not only that, the players from the state of Zheng who were in close proximity were throwing all sorts of stun skills at him as if they were free.

Zhang Shan fainted and could not move at all.

At this critical moment, I spent 10000 gold coins to revive myself.

At the moment of his resurrection, he used the invincible slash with [follow me heart], and countless sword lights enveloped the Zheng players around Zhang Shan.

In an instant, all of the Zheng country players around Zhang Shan were wiped out.

His other companions also took the opportunity to resurrect on the spot.

The five of them once again stood side by side, suppressing the players from the state of Zheng.

At the same time, he looked at Xuanyuan Ziyu, who was on the ground, with a death stare.

As Zhang Shan continued to fire, he glanced at Xuanyuan Ziyu, who was lying on the ground.

You can resurrect on the spot.

If you have the ability, then get up.

Just now, Zhang Shan had resurrected on the spot four times. Adding on the one he had resurrected before, that was five times.

As for Xuanyuan Ziyu, he had resurrected five times in the last five seconds.

However, every time he resurrected, he would be beaten to the ground by Zhang Shan.

Now that the situation had stabilized, Zhang Shan did not believe it.

Xuanyuan Ziyu still dared to revive on the spot.

Zhang Shan wanted to see how rich Xuanyuan Ziyu was.

The sixth resurrection would cost 100 million gold, and the seventh would cost one billion.

How many more times would Xuanyuan Ziyu dare to revive?

Chapter 533 please give me a hand

Zhang Shan withstood the damage from Xuanyuan's big move and resurrected four times on the spot.

as for xuanyuan ziyu, he resurrected on the spot five times in a row. however, every time he resurrected, he would be beaten to the ground by zhang shan just as he stood up.

He did not even have the time to cast the scroll.

After the duration of Xuanyuan's big move ended, his teammates quickly resurrected on the spot.

using heart follows me, they were hit with their last ultimate move, and all the zheng players around zhang shan were wiped out.

the five of them stood side by side, firmly guarding xuanyuan ziyu's corpse.

At this moment, the members of the Xuanyuan Guild were on the verge of despair.

it wasn't that they didn't try, but all their efforts were in vain.

Even with three ultimate skills stacked together, Xuanyuan Ziyu was still unable to escape.

They were ruthless, but Zhang Shan was even more ruthless than them.

He had been resurrected on the spot four times in a row, and Zhang Shan had been resurrected once before.

Just the amount of gold that Zhang Shan had spent to resurrect on the spot had already exceeded 10 million gold.

The people of the Xuanyuan Guild saw Zhang Shan's determination.

They knew that Zhang Shan was determined to keep Xuanyuan Ziyu.

This made them feel very helpless.

What should he do now?

The boss was still lying on the ground. Just now, they had used three big moves in a row, but they had not been able to save Xuanyuan Ziyu.

There was even less of a chance now.

they had already used all their trump cards.

There were only four ultimate skills in the entire Xuanyuan Guild.

Apart from Xuanyuan Ziyu himself, everyone else had already used all of their big moves.

As for scrolls, they did not have any.

xuanyuan ziyu had all five of the scrolls that the xuanyuan guild had collected.

Furthermore, in order to defeat Zhang Shan, he had already used three of them.

Xuanyuan Ziyu only had two scrolls and one ultimate skill left.

But what was the use of that?

Xuanyuan Ziyu's ultimate skill and scroll could not save himself.

Every time he was resurrected, he would be instantly defeated by Zhang Shan.

Zhang Shan's reaction speed was too fast. He did not give him any chance to make any moves.

although xuanyuan ziyu had many skills, he had no chance to display them.

The Chu country's Army was slowly approaching under the leadership of Feng Yun realm and the others.

Perhaps, in another minute, a large group of Chu country's players would arrive here.

The players from the state of Zheng were all extremely anxious.

They felt that they could no longer stay in this place.

If they continued to stay here, they would probably be surrounded by the Chu country's Army.

But what about Xuanyuan Ziyu, who was lying on the ground?

Could it be that they were going to leave Xuanyuan Ziyu here?

He was the boss of the Xuanyuan Guild.

If they were to leave their boss here, how much combat power could Xuanyuan Guild still display in the world War?

This was very suspicious.

as one of the two pillars of the state of zheng, if they were to abandon their boss ...

This pillar of support for the country of Zheng was probably going to fall.

In the world War, if the Xuanyuan Guild didn't display its full strength, they would definitely lose.

Therefore, even though the Army of Chu State was approaching at a fast speed ...

however, none of the state of zheng players dared to suggest giving up on xuanyuan ziyu and running away.

They were still charging forward with all their might. Even if this charge was a suicidal attack, the state of Zheng players didn't hesitate to do so.

They knew that Xuanyuan Ziyu really couldn't die.

At the very least, he couldn't die Here.

If Xuanyuan Ziyu had died on the sacrificial altar in the state of Zheng, there would be no problem at all.

But if he were to die Here, that would be too hard to accept.

Although the players from the state of Zheng couldn't see any hope of saving Xuanyuan Ziyu, they still couldn't help but sigh.

But they still didn't give up.

Under the leadership of the Xuanyuan Guild's members, they continued to charge forward with all their might.

They still had a trace of hope in their hearts, hoping for a miracle to appear.

Perhaps Zhang Shan and the rest would make a mistake.

If Zhang Shan and the rest did not pay attention, they would not be able to suppress their charge.

then wouldn't they have a chance to save xuanyuan ziyu?

Although this hope was extremely slim, the Zheng players did not give up. They continued to try and save Xuanyuan Ziyu.

In contrast to the state of Zheng's players 'desperate charge, Xuanyuan Ziyu, who was lying on the ground, had already given up all hope.

He knew that the players from the country of Zheng around him had no chance of saving him.

Unless the nine regions Daoist on the altar moved out.

Now, only the nine states Daoist could save him.

Xuanyuan Ziyu lay on the ground, looking at the players from the state of Zheng around him. In order to save him, they were still charging forward.

He couldn't help but feel a little sad.

Xuanyuan Ziyu felt that he should do something to prevent the sacrifices of the state of Zheng's players from being in vain.

Or should I call for help from the nine states Daoist?

Xuanyuan Ziyu's heart was filled with conflict.

to be honest, under normal circumstances, he would not have called for help from the nine regions daoist no matter what.

Doing this was really too degrading.

He was also the president of one of the two guilds in the state of Zheng, but he actually wanted to call for help from the nine states Daoist.

This was too embarrassing.

However, when he saw the players from the state of Zheng charging at him with all their might in order to save him ...

Large groups of Zheng players fell under Zhang Shan's gun.

Seeing this, Xuanyuan Ziyu gritted his teeth and began to call for help from the Jiuzhou Daoist.

He felt that he couldn't let down the expectations of the Zheng players.

Although it was a very embarrassing thing to call for help from the Jiuzhou Daoist.

But even if it was embarrassing, he still had to do it. He wanted to fight this kingdom war to the end.

He wanted to lead everyone to defend the state of Zheng's divine beast statue. He couldn't let the state of Zheng lose this country war.

Xuanyuan Ziyu began to call out to Jiuzhou Daoist.

“Jiuzhou brother, please give me a hand. You’re the only one who can save me now. The main force of Chu state would arrive soon. I hope you can help me out. Otherwise, I won’t be able to participate in this kingdom war.”

Xuanyuan Ziyu’s explanation was very simple.

However, the underlying meaning was very clear.

You, nine states Daoist, must save me. Otherwise, I won’t be able to participate in this kingdom war.

If I’m not in this world war, the Xuanyuan Guild will not exist.

If you’re confident that you can defend the altar without the Xuanyuan Guild’s participation, then you don’t have to worry about me.

Otherwise, please lend me a hand.

Everyone, let’s guard the state of Zheng’s statue together.

After receiving Xuanyuan Ziyu’s call, Jiuzhou Daoist fell into silence.

He wasn’t in a hurry to reply to Xuanyuan Ziyu.

To be honest, he didn’t even want to go and save Xuanyuan Ziyu.

Not to mention the two guilds, there was already a lot of friction between the two guilds, so their relationship wasn’t very good.

Most importantly, it was not convenient for him to leave now.

There were close to 50 million players around the state of Zheng’s altar, so someone had to be there to oversee the situation.

When Xuanyuan Ziyu had left, he had been here to hold the fort.

Now, he was the only one left, commanding the troops below the altar.

If he also walked away, who would command the defense around the altar?

Even though there were other guilds in the state of Zheng.

However, those small guilds were nothing.

They did not have the ability or prestige to control so many players from the state of Zheng.

If he were to leave, the area around the altar would probably be in chaos.

In addition, the most important point was that the troops of Chu were not far from the place where Xuanyuan Ziyu had fallen.

Perhaps in another minute, they would have surrounded Xuanyuan Ziyu and the players from the state of Zheng.

If he went over at this time, wouldn’t it be a one-way trip?

after all, it would take him about a minute to run from the altar in the state of zheng to the place where xuanyuan ziyu had fallen.

He wasn't sure if he could rescue Xuanyuan Ziyu before the main force of Chu arrived.

However, he really had no choice but to save Xuanyuan Ziyu.

Jiuzhou Daoist also knew that although the Xuanyuan Guild and Jiuzhou Guild were not on good terms, the Xuanyuan Guild was not on good terms.

However, in this country war, they still had to cooperate with each other.

Otherwise, it would be impossible to defend the divine beast statue and end the kingdom war in a draw.

If they lost the country war, everyone would have to bear the punishment.

The nine states Guild would not be spared either.

Thinking of this, the nine states Daoist could not help but feel a little annoyed.

He felt that the people of the Xuanyuan Guild were just causing him trouble.

At such a crucial moment like the kingdom war, these people didn't know, so they had to be more stable.

Why would he find trouble with Zhang Shan?

Wouldn't it be better to guard the altar and the statue of the divine beast?

Why did he have to cause trouble?

As long as they could defend until the kingdom war ended, wouldn't they have achieved their goal?

To the players of the state of Zheng, surviving this world War without suffering any penalties for losing the World War was a very good thing.

that would be the greatest victory.

But now, because the Xuanyuan Guild's people were hot-headed, they went to find trouble with Zhang Shan.

Their boss, Xuanyuan Ziyu, had been thrown in, and now he had to rescue him.

Thinking of this, the nine states Daoist was very annoyed.

he really didn't want to save xuanyuan ziyu.

If he was willing to go, he would have already gone over and wouldn't have needed to wait for Xuanyuan Ziyu's call for help.

It wasn't like he didn't know the situation of the battle between Xuanyuan Guild and Zhang Shan and the others.

On the forum, the highlights of their battle were being played one after another, almost like a live broadcast.

The nine provinces Taoist had also watched the video of Xuanyuan Ziyu being beaten to the ground by Zhang Shan many times.

However, he didn't want to pay attention to it.

I'm not the one who's going to die anyway.

even if xuanyuan ziyu fell, he could still resurrect on the spot.

But now, it was no longer possible.

Now, Xuanyuan Ziyu's corpse was being guarded by Zhang Shan and the others.

He couldn't even resurrect on the spot.

Since Xuanyuan Ziyu had personally come to his door, even if the nine states Daoist didn't want to save him, he had to show his sincerity.

Otherwise, if they lost the kingdom war, others might push the responsibility of the failure onto his head.

To say that he didn't save her would be nonsense.

Therefore, he had to save her, especially since Xuanyuan Ziyu had personally asked him for help.

If he still didn't make a move, it would indeed be a little unreasonable.

after all, it was the time for the world war, so they needed the two guilds to work together.

But how to save him was a problem that needed careful consideration.

The nine states Daoist was very conflicted.

It was obviously unrealistic for him to go there himself.

Not to mention, he was at the altar and couldn't leave.

There were a lot of things here that would be difficult to deal with without him.

More importantly, the nine states Daoist did not want to take the risk.

This was because the troops of Chu were already very close to the place where Xuanyuan Ziyu had fallen.

If he was unlucky, the great army of Chu State would arrive just as he was about to reach there.

Didn't that mean that he couldn't run away either?

He didn't want to be buried with Xuanyuan Ziyu.

It was better to let someone else make the trip.

The nine states Daoist considered it over and over again. He took out a scroll and said to a member of the nine states Guild beside him.

“Take this scroll and go rescue Xuanyuan Ziyu. You have to be quick, the main force of Chu will arrive soon.”

are you serious, boss? we’re going to save Xuanyuan’s members? ”

This member of the nine states Guild had a certain resistance to the people of the Xuanyuan Guild.

Originally, for the sake of the country war, it was fine for both sides to cooperate.

Now, he actually wanted them to save the Guild leader of the Xuanyuan Guild. This felt a little weird.

moreover, they would have to waste a scroll.

One must know that scrolls were very precious items, and it was very difficult to buy them even with money.

the nine states guild only had a few of them in total.

Now, in order to save Xuanyuan Ziyu, he had to waste a scroll.

This member of the nine states Guild felt very unhappy.

there’s no other way. We can’t lose Xuanyuan Guild in this world War. Otherwise, we definitely won’t be able to defend the divine beast statue. That’s why we have to save Xuanyuan Ziyu.

“Understood.”

although he was unhappy, the member of the nine states guild still took the scroll and quickly ran to the place where xuanyuan ziyu had fallen.

In fact, this member of the nine regions Guild was very clear in his heart.

Saving the Xuanyuan Guild would be saving himself.

If they didn’t save the Xuanyuan Guild, they would definitely lose this world War.

Compared to the punishment of losing the World War, the small conflict between them and Xuanyuan Guild was nothing.

He quickly rode his horse to the place where Xuanyuan Ziyu had fallen. He had to be fast.

Otherwise, if the main force of Chu State arrived before him, it would be a huge problem.

After the nine states Daoist arranged for people to bring the scroll over to support, he immediately informed Xuanyuan Ziyu.

brother Xuanyuan, I really can’t leave. I’ve already asked my brothers in the Guild to bring the scrolls over to help. After you guys resurrect, come back quickly. Guarding the altar is more important.

“Thank you, brother Jiuzhou.”

After receiving Jiuzhou Daoist’s reply, Xuanyuan Ziyu was extremely grateful.

Xuanyuan Ziyu felt that since someone had brought the scroll, he should be able to revive and escape without any problems.

It had been proven that only scrolls could deal with Zhang Shan.

Other than the scroll, no other methods could do anything to Zhang Shan.

Even if it was a player's ultimate skill, it would not be able to threaten Zhang Shan. This guy was too overpowered.

Now that the nine states Daoist had arranged for someone to bring the scroll over, he could be saved.

Xuanyuan Ziyu was a little excited.

At least he didn't have to lie on the ground awkwardly and wait for the country war to end.

He was really grateful for the support of the nine states Daoist.

Although Xuanyuan Ziyu knew that Jiuzhou Daoist had not been willing to send people to save him ...

He had no choice, in order not to lose this country war.

The nine regions Guild had to cooperate with the Xuanyuan Guild. Otherwise, they would all be finished. even so, xuanyuan ziyu was still very grateful.

Xuanyuan Ziyu said to the Guild members around him after receiving the reply from Jiuzhou Daoist.

everyone, don't panic. The nine regions Daoist has already arranged for people to bring the scrolls over to support.

Hearing Xuanyuan Ziyu's words, the members of the Xuanyuan Guild finally let out a sigh of relief.

They were already in despair.

They had originally planned that if they really couldn't save Xuanyuan Ziyu, they would all die in battle here.

They didn't need to fight this country war and would end it here.

they did not expect that the nine states daoist would actually lend them a hand.

This was great. As long as the people of the nine states Guild brought the scroll over, they would be able to resurrect Xuanyuan Ziyu.

After that, everyone ran back to the altar to defend. The World War could still continue.

The Zheng players' attacks on Zhang Shan and the rest quickly slowed down.

Since someone had brought scrolls to help, there was no need for them to continue fighting.

When the scroll arrived, they would immediately revive Xuanyuan Ziyu and leave.

The players from the state of Zheng, who had been attacking with all their might, suddenly slowed down their attacks.

Zhang Shan and the rest felt very strange.

What's wrong with these people? they were still fighting for their lives just now, why are they giving up now?

But this didn't seem like it.

If they truly intended to give up on Xuanyuan Ziyu, then they should have immediately run away.

However, the players from the state of Zheng did not immediately run away, and continued to surround them.

This posture of neither charging nor retreating.

What were the Zheng players trying to do?

zhang shan and his friends could not understand.

Even though the players from the country of Zheng could not rush in, Zhang Shan and the rest could not rush out either.

The five of them were surrounded by millions of people. How could they possibly charge out?

forget it, i'll protect xuanyuan ziyu's corpse first.

The little fairy asked.

"What's going on with these state of Zheng players? do they not want to fight anymore? are they planning to give up on Xuanyuan Ziyu?"

"I don't think so. If they didn't want to fight, they would have left long ago."

"Could these Zheng players be plotting something?"

"What's there to be afraid of? they can't possibly play any tricks."

"That's right. Anyway, Xuanyuan Ziyu is lying on the ground. We just need to guard him. When boss and the others come, these Zheng players will not be able to do anything."

"I feel like something's not right. Are these Zheng players waiting for reinforcements?"

they don't have any reinforcements. Their guild leader is lying on the ground, so who else can come to their aid? "

"There's still the nine states Guild."

"F * ck, that's possible. will the jiuzhou daoist come to help xuanyuan ziyu?"

"It's hard to say," it should be possible. After all, for the sake of the country war, they have to cooperate well. It's only right for them to help each other.

then what should we do? if Jiuzhou Daoist comes with the scroll, we won't be able to protect Xuanyuan Ziyu's corpse.

"How long will it take for boss and the others to come?"

soon. I think boss and the others will be here in less than a minute.

“I hope the nine states Daoist doesn’t come here earlier than the boss and the others.”

“Don’t think too much. At most, we’ll just follow them and revive on the spot. anyway, other than the six-barreled boss, we’ve only resurrected on the spot twice. we can still resurrect three or four times.”

“That’s right. Even if we have to resurrect on the spot six times, we can’t let Xuanyuan Ziyu escape.”

Zhang Shan and the rest suppressed the players from the state of Zheng, while anxiously waiting for reinforcements from both sides to arrive.

It all depended on which side’s support would arrive first.

Zhang Shan looked at his skills panel.

his big move was useless. the cooldown time of his big move was too long, and he could only use it the next day.

However, the berserk skill had already cooled down.

If it really came to a critical moment, he could still activate his berserk skill to block a wave of attacks.

even though berserk wasn’t as powerful as a high-level skill, it was still a magic immunity skill.

As long as he activated his berserk skill, he would have no problem tanking a wave of scroll damage or a powerful skill.

at this moment, feng yun realm and the others were leading a portion of the guild’s main force and were galloping towards them.

When he found out that Zhang Shan and the others had defeated Xuanyuan Ziyu and successfully protected his corpse, he was stunned.

Feng Yun realm then understood that this was the key to winning this country war.

As long as Xuanyuan Ziyu was completely captured, this kingdom war would be much easier.

although, compared to the 50 million players in the state of zheng ...

The Guild only had 100000 members.

But most of the time, the role of the leader was very important.

If they were able to keep Xuanyuan Ziyu here, it would be equivalent to knocking off his head.

a snake could not survive without its head.

Without Xuanyuan Ziyu’s existence, it would be a fool’s dream for the state of Zheng’s players to defend the altar.

Feng Yun realm understood the crux of the matter.

Thus, he left the main force behind and led a portion of the Guild’s main force to gallop away.

He wanted to come over earlier to help.

Chapter 534 Half-won the kingdom war

Feng Yun realm led the Guild's main force and galloped away.

the player who had been arranged by nine regions daoist to bring the scroll to help was also speeding up.

He was even more anxious than Feng Yun realm.

He knew that if he didn't save Xuanyuan Ziyu, they would definitely lose this country war.

Therefore, he had to be quick.

He had to resurrect Xuanyuan Ziyu and leave before the main force of Chu arrived.

On one side, there was Feng Yun realm with thousands of Guild main force members.

These main force members of wind and cloud Guild all had top-tier mounts. If they were not hero mounts, then they were da Wan horses. They were very fast.

On one side was the member of the Kyushu Guild who had the scroll. The member of the nine regions Guild was also riding a hero Mount, so he ran even faster.

It was only because he had set off slightly later that he might not be able to reach the target location earlier than Feng Yun realm and the others.

Both sides were galloping at high speed, and time seemed to have frozen.

Zhang Shan and the other four were still wasting time with the players from the state of Zheng.

Zhang Shan knew that Feng Yun realm's support troops would arrive very soon.

As for the players from the state of Zheng, they also knew that the Kyushu Guild's reinforcements were about to arrive.

Both sides knew about the progress of their support, but they didn't know each other's situation. However, they could roughly guess.

He saw that the players from the state of Zheng around him no longer charged forward, nor did they retreat.

Zhang Shan knew that these people were waiting for reinforcements.

The players from the state of Zheng also knew that the main force from the state of Chu would arrive soon.

however, they did not know that feng yun realm had already left the main force behind and was leading the guild's main force to speed up their advancement.

therefore, they were not in a hurry.

They felt that the nine states Guild's support would arrive first.

Unfortunately, they were going to be disappointed.

Not long after, the players from the state of Zheng noticed that there was a large group of players from the state of Chu approaching.

At this time, the nine states Guild's support had not arrived yet.

it's over. The players from Chu are already here. What should we do now? " impossible. The players from Chu are so far away. How could they have come so quickly? "

"did you see it clearly? is that the main force of chu? Don't rush to report the military situation."

a few people, come over and take a look. Don't tell me they are players who just entered the World War map.

no, they are Chu country players. The one leading them is Feng Yun realm. However, they don't seem to have many people, only about a thousand people.

that's good. The people on the outside will block Feng Yun realm. When the nine states Guild's scroll arrives, we will save the boss and leave.

When they heard that only Feng Yun realm was here with a thousand men, the players from the state of Zheng heaved a sigh of relief.

Although the wind cloud Guild was very strong, they had hundreds of players from the state of Zheng here.

It was impossible for them to give Feng Yun realm the chance to meet up with Zhang Shan and the rest.

They believed that there were millions of people here. As long as they could split a small portion of them, they would be able to stop Feng Yun realm's men.

The surrounding players from the state of Zheng quickly split up into millions of players and prepared to block Feng Yun realm and the others.

The others continued to stay where they were, waiting for the scrolls from the nine states Guild to arrive.

Zhang Shan and the rest were immediately notified of Feng Yun realm's arrival.

he saw that the players from the state of zheng around them were not attacking them fiercely, and were instead hesitating.

Zhang Shan did not want to wait any longer. He said to his friends.

"You guys guard Xuanyuan Ziyu's corpse first. I'll open the passage and bring boss and the others over."

"Don't be like that, brother Guan Zi. If you leave, we won't be able to protect Xuanyuan Ziyu's corpse."

"Let's just wait here. These Zheng players won't be able to stop boss and the others."

Zhang Shan looked at the situation around him and considered it seriously.

If he was too far away, his friends would not be able to stop the players from the state of Zheng.

If things didn't go well, they might really revive Xuanyuan Ziyu and run away.

However, waiting like this wasn't a good idea.

he continued.

"then i won't go far. i'll stay nearby and mess up the players from the state of zheng."

After Zhang Shan finished speaking, he charged towards the players from the Zheng nation.

These players from the state of Zheng, after knowing that there would be reinforcements, they continued to dawdle. Zhang Shan was very annoyed.

He didn't fight or leave, what was he doing?

If you guys don't want to go, then I'll go.

He rode his horse and charged towards the players from the state of Zheng. His hand cannon continuously fired bullets at the players from the state of Zheng.

f * ck! Six-barreled Bodhisattva is charging at us!

"F * ck, this is too arrogant."

"stop six-barreled bodhisattva, don't let him meet up with feng yun realm."

"Stop him my ass, it's better to let him meet up with Feng Yun realm. Once six-pipe Bodhisattva leaves, we can revive boss and leave."

that's true. Without six tube Bodhisattva, the remaining four of them won't be able to stop our attack.

facing zhang shan's attack, the surrounding zheng players did not try to defend.

They even opened up a passage for Zhang Shan to go over and meet up with Feng Yun realm.

But how could Zhang Shan let them have their way?

Zhang Shan was riding on the red Rabbit horse, charging back and forth around the area where Xuanyuan Ziyu had fallen.

The surrounding Zheng country players were chased further and further away.

Very quickly, a large space was expanded.

even so, zhang shan did not give up. he continued to attack.

Of course, the current Zhang Shan had no other purpose.

He just wanted to kill more Zheng players.

Anyway, it was the country war time now. If he could defeat more of the other side's people, the pressure would be less when the country war started.

The players from the country of Zheng did not know what Zhang Shan was thinking. They thought that Zhang Shan was going to go out and help Feng Yun realm.

Zhang Shan was fast and charged through the players from the state of Zheng, knocking them to the ground.

At this moment, Feng Yun realm led the Guild's main force and had already made contact with the players from the state of Zheng.

Feng Yun realm rode on his horse and looked towards the dense crowd of players from the state of Zheng.

However, he could not see anything.

As there were too many Zheng players around, Feng Yun realm could not see the situation on Zhang Shan's side.

They could only confirm the situation on Zhang Shan's side through the chat channel.

At the moment, it seemed that there were no accidents on Zhang Shan's side.

Xuanyuan Ziyu was still lying on the ground, firmly guarded by Zhang Shan and the others. He did not revive and run away.

Feng Yun realm thought.

"From the looks of it, there shouldn't be any problems."

However, they couldn't be careless and should still gather as soon as possible.

Seeing the dense crowd of Zheng players charging towards them, there were over a million of them.

Feng Yun realm did not show any fear.

The later the game, the greater the gap between the players.

In the beginning, they might not have been able to win if they were surrounded by a few players.

However, things were different now. The main force members of the wind and cloud Guild were much stronger than ordinary players.

With just the country of Zheng's motley crew, they would not be able to do anything.

seeing the players from the state of zheng charging towards him, feng yun realm waved his hand and said.

let's rush over and meet up with six-eyed and the others. If you have a big move, find an opportunity to use it and open a passage.

After Feng Yun realm finished speaking, he took the lead and charged towards the players from the state of Zheng.

When the two sides officially clashed, Feng Yun realm launched a rain of fire.

The endless rain of fire descended upon the players from the state of Zheng, instantly killing a large number of them.

The other guild members followed behind Feng Yun realm and cast all sorts of skills.

Even though the country of Zheng had sent close to a million players to intercept them.

However, under Feng Yun realm's lead, the players from the country of Zheng did not have much of an effect.

Feng Yun realm led a thousand men and continued to advance.

At this speed, it would not take long for them to meet up with Zhang Shan and the rest.

The players from the state of Zheng could also tell that the situation was not right.

The nine states Guild's support had not arrived yet, but Feng Yun realm was about to meet up with Zhang Shan and the others.

How could this be?

If they were to meet up, how would they be able to save Xuanyuan Ziyu?

When Feng Yun realm met up with Zhang Shan and the others, even if the nine states Guild used the scroll, they would not be able to save Xuanyuan Ziyu.

"You useless things, quickly block Feng Yun realm."

"F * ck, if you can do it, then do it."

that's right. These people from the wind and cloud Guild are very fierce. We can't stop them at all.

"If you can't block it, then use your life to fight. Just hold on for a little longer."

"Brothers, let's go all out against them! Charge!"

Faced with Feng Yun realm's charge, the players from the state of Zheng became even more frenzied.

They all understood the logic.

That was to rescue Xuanyuan Ziyu.

They did not want to lose the country war.

Thinking about the punishment for losing the country war, they couldn't help but panic.

As long as they could stop Feng Yun realm, the others would have the chance to revive Xuanyuan Ziyu.

If that was the case, the country war would still be able to continue.

As for them, they would definitely die if they charged forward like this.

But what did it matter if he died?

In any case, dying in the world War map wouldn't cause him to lose any experience.

If he really died, he could just leave the World War map and go back to farming monsters.

If they really died, it would mean that they had tried their best.

As for the kingdom war, he would leave it to the others to handle.

He hoped that the others would put in more effort to continue the kingdom war and defend the state of Zheng's statue.

After the players of the state of Zheng became more and more crazy.

Feng Yun realm and the others "charging speed slowed down very quickly.

Even though they continuously used their ultimate skills, they were still unable to stop the frenzied state of Zheng players.

It was as if there was no end to these Zheng players. After killing one batch, another batch would come up.

When Feng Yun realm saw this situation, he could not help but feel his scalp go numb.

There were too many people here.

He really couldn't kill them all.

In reality, there were indeed many players from the state of Zheng.

Originally, the Zheng country players who were fighting with Zhang Shan and the rest numbered in the millions.

There were less than a million that were sent out to intercept Feng Yun realm.

even so, feng yun realm felt powerless.

it wasn't that they weren't strong enough, nor that they weren't fast enough. there were simply too many players from the state of zheng.

He really didn't know how Zhang Shan and the other four managed to survive until now among so many Zheng players.

after slowing down their speed, feng yun realm immediately informed zhang shan. he could not rush over to meet up with them.

Zhang Shan was not surprised when he received the news.

He did not want to rely on Feng Yun realm's thousands of people to help them out of this situation.

After all, there were a few million players from the state of Zheng.

The Guild's main force that Feng Yun realm brought over were all very strong.

however, it would not be easy for them to kill their way through the millions of players from the state of zheng.

Zhang Shan and the rest could only rely on themselves.

He charged through the players from the state of Zheng while paying attention to the changes in his surroundings.

As long as the players from the state of Zheng were attacked by the scroll, he would immediately activate his berserk skill.

Now, he could only count on the berserk skill to help him tank the damage.

After a while, the member of the nine states Guild with the scroll finally arrived at the scene.

However, he didn't make a big deal out of it, and quietly sneaked into the crowd of players from the state of Zheng.

He discussed with the Xuanyuan Guild's members.

what do we do now? do I just use the scroll? ”

“50 yards.”

The people from the Xuanyuan Guild said after looking at Zhang Shan's position and the position where Xuanyuan Ziyu had fallen.

“Let's wait for a moment.”

That was because they had discovered that Zhang Shan's position and the position where Xuanyuan Ziyu had fallen were more than 50 yards apart.

If he were to use the scroll on Zhang Shan, there would still be four people on Xuanyuan Ziyu's side.

They might not be able to settle it in a short time.

if he were to use it on xuanyuan ziyu, it would be even more impossible.

Zhang Shan was still alive.

If they didn't defeat Zhang Shan, how could they have the chance to rescue Xuanyuan Ziyu?

After the Xuanyuan Guild's players observed the situation, they ordered the state of Zheng's players to continue attacking.

They wanted to pull Zhang Shan, wind and cloud blade, and the others together. Then, they would use the scroll and finish them off in one go.

After some consideration, the Xuanyuan guild members ordered the state of Zheng players to resume their attacks on Windcloud blade and the others.

as for why they did not concentrate their attacks on zhang shan?

Because it was completely unnecessary.

this was because they knew that as long as they attacked windcloud blade and the others, zhang shan would naturally return to help.

Otherwise, it would be impossible to guard Xuanyuan Ziyu's corpse with just wind cloud blade and the other three.

As expected, after seeing the Zheng country's players resume their attacks, they were stunned.

Zhang Shan quickly went back to help.

He made his way through the crowd of players from the state of Zheng and approached his friends.

although zhang shan knew that the zheng country's players had suddenly resumed their attacks, it was possible that they were up to something.

However, he couldn't care about that now.

no matter what the zheng players wanted to do, zhang shan had to first protect xuanyuan ziyu's corpse.

If the players from the state of Zheng were to revive Xuanyuan Ziyu and run away, wouldn't all their efforts be in vain?

after a while, zhang shan met up with his friends.

Seeing that Zhang Shan had returned to guard the corpse, the members of the Xuanyuan Guild were not disappointed. Instead, they were relieved.

They were afraid that Zhang Shan would run around. With a Zhang Shan who ran around, they had no way to deal with him.

Even if he used a scroll, he might not be able to lock onto Zhang Shan.

but with zhang shan back to guard the corpse, it would be easy.

A member of the Xuanyuan Guild said to the member of the nine states Guild.

"Quickly release the scroll. After reviving boss, we need to run. Feng Yun realm and his gang will be here soon."

"Yes."

The members of the nine regions Guild who were hiding in the crowd took out a scroll and released it.

Endless lightning fell from the sky. Before Zhang Shan and his friends could even react, the damage had already enveloped them.

"F * ck, where did the scroll damage come from?"

Zhang Shan was constantly observing the situation around him. However, that person from the Kyushu Guild had used the scroll suddenly.

Even if Zhang Shan was prepared, he still did not have the time to activate his berserk skill.

The endless lightning struck them down in an instant. Even Zhang Shan was not spared.

A damage of nearly a million points appeared above his head.

Zhang Shan did not even have the chance to struggle before he was killed by the scroll's damage.

After falling, Zhang Shan immediately switched his view and looked at the position where Xuanyuan Ziyu had fallen.

Let's see if he would get up or if any players from the state of Zheng would rush up to revive him.

That is, if Xuanyuan Ziyu were to get up.

Then even if he had to spend 100 million gold coins and resurrect on the spot for the sixth time, Zhang Shan had to stand up and beat him.

Since he had made up his mind from the start to make Xuanyuan Ziyu stay here, he would not let Xuanyuan Ziyu go.

As long as there was a chance, he could not give up.

Zhang Shan looked at Xuanyuan Ziyu, who was beside him, while staring at the revival option.

even though he would have to spend 100 million gold coins to resurrect on the spot.

but zhang shan did not care about this.

Gold coins and the like were bastards. They could be earned back after being used, so it was not worth the heartache.

however, zhang shan would definitely not let xuanyuan ziyu escape.

As long as Xuanyuan Ziyu was completely detained, they would have won half of this country war.

without xuanyuan ziyu, the state of zheng would not be able to fight this country war.

After the players from the Kyushu Guild released the scroll, a large group of players from the state of Zheng rushed forward.

A few of the auxiliary vocations wanted to use this opportunity to revive Xuanyuan Ziyu.

Seeing this situation, Zhang Shan knew that he could not wait any longer.

Originally, he was thinking of waiting for the scroll's damage duration to end before resurrecting.

it seemed like it was not possible now.

Zhang Shan decisively spent 100 million gold coins and chose to revive on the spot.

The moment he resurrected on the spot, Zhang Shan activated his berserk and fanatic skills. At the same time, he activated his shadow clone skill.

The three Zhang Shan's stood in a line, and countless bullets were fired at the Zheng country's players.

It instantly suppressed the charging momentum of the Zheng players.

f * ck, six-barreled Bodhisattva resurrected on the spot. He even has magic immunity.

“don’t worry about it. hurry up and revive the boss.”

“Damn it, I can’t rush up.”

“We have to charge even if we have to.”

“If we don’t rush in now, we won’t have another chance.”

while the damage from the scroll is still there, we must resurrect the boss. Let’s go!

A large group of players from the state of Zheng charged forward under the leadership of the Xuan Yuan Guild.

However, under the suppression of Zhang Shan’s firepower, their charge did not have any effect.

Lying on the ground, Xuanyuan Ziyu also knew that this was his last chance.

If he still couldn’t escape this time, he wouldn’t have another chance.

When Xuanyuan Ziyu saw that the state of Zheng’s players couldn’t rush forward, he quietly resurrected on the spot.

He wanted to take advantage of the time when Zhang Shan was suppressing the players from the state of Zheng to quietly revive and escape.

It was a pity that Zhang Shan would not give him this opportunity.

Although Zhang Shan was currently suppressing the charging players from the state of Zheng with all his might, he did not relax his attention on Xuanyuan Ziyu.

xuanyuan ziyu quietly resurrected on the spot.

zhang shan controlled one of the clones and struck down xuanyuan ziyu with his spear.

Xuanyuan Ziyu, who had been resurrected on the spot for the sixth time, fell to the ground once again.

After a short while, the scroll’s duration ended, and the other four companions took the opportunity to resurrect on the spot.

The five of them fought side by side, firmly controlling the position where Xuanyuan Ziyu fell.

At this moment, Feng Yun realm, who was far away, had brought the main force of the wind and cloud Guild to the edge of their battlefield.

The players from the state of Zheng went completely crazy.

They kept shouting.

“Take out all the other members of the wind and cloud Guild.”

f * ck, if we can’t kill six-barreled Bodhisattva, can’t we kill the others as well? ”

“Kill, kill them all!”

Facing the crazed state of Zheng players, Zhang Shan was very calm.

This should be a sure win.

It was impossible for Xuanyuan Ziyu to resurrect. By the time he had the chance to stand up again, he had already used up six in-place resurrections.

if he wanted to revive on the spot, he would have to spend one billion gold. One billion gold coins was not a small number to anyone.

Zhang Shan believed that it was impossible for Xuanyuan Ziyu to resurrect on the spot.

He could only rely on the state of Zheng's support to revive him.

However, the problem was that Zhang Shan and the others were suppressing the players from the state of Zheng. They could not charge forward at all.

There was no way they could revive Xuanyuan Ziyu unless they could take out another scroll.

But could they take out another scroll?

That was impossible. Scrolls were not like cabbages. Did the players from the country of Zheng really have the ability to continuously throw scrolls?

If that was the case, he would just accept it.

zhang shan thought as he calmly opened fire.

With Xuanyuan Zi in the country war map, they should have won half of the country war, right?

Chapter 535-battle situation after a short while, feng yun realm brought his men and met up with zhang shan and the rest.

However, due to the frenzied attacks of the players from the state of Zheng, Feng Yun realm had brought over a thousand players.

now, there were less than 500 people left.

the people feng yun realm brought were all the main force members of feng yun guild and they were all very strong.

However, the number of players from the state of Zheng that they were facing was simply too many.

Many of them had been cut down by the Zheng players on their way here. In the end, less than half of them had met up with Zhang Shan and the rest.

And this was when they had been charging in a group and continuously using their big moves.

The wind and cloud Guild's big moves were probably almost used up.

if not, there would be even more people on the ground. they might not even be able to meet up with zhang shan and the rest.

However, all of this was no longer important.

Even though Feng Yun realm had sent less than 500 people over.

Compared to the millions of players from the state of Zheng, it was insignificant.

But with the support of these people, Zhang Shan and the rest were enough to stabilize the situation.

Zhang Shan said to Feng Yun realm as he saw him walking over.

“You guys guard Xuanyuan Ziyu’s corpse, I’ll clear out the state of Zheng’s players in the surroundings.”

“Alright,” he said.

Feng Yun realm also knew that although they were very strong, compared to Zhang Shan, they were still far from him.

In order to rush over just now, they had used up all their big moves.

Right now, they were more than capable of defending, but lacking in offensive capabilities.

To make them attack the players from the state of Zheng again, they had the will but not the strength.

however, guarding xuanyuan ziyu’s corpse wasn’t a problem.

Feng Yun realm led the remaining people and firmly controlled the position where Xuanyuan Ziyu fell.

Zhang Shan quickly rushed towards the players from the state of Zheng.

From the moment they entered the World War map and intercepted the state of Zheng’s players.

Zhang Shan and the other four were surrounded by the players from the state of Zheng.

He had been on the receiving end. Although he had killed many people, the feeling of being surrounded made Zhang Shan very unhappy. He had long been annoyed.

Zhang Shan had long wanted to charge out and kill everyone.

However, because he had been bound by Xuanyuan Ziyu’s corpse, he really couldn’t leave.

In order to protect Xuanyuan Ziyu’s corpse, he had to stay put and not go too far.

otherwise, his companions would not be able to protect xuanyuan ziyu’s corpse.

If they let this guy revive and run away, wouldn’t their previous efforts be in vain?

now that feng yun realm had brought people over to help, zhang shan was completely free.

He no longer needed to be confined in this small area. He could finally go out and kill.

Zhang Shan was fast and charged through the players of the state of Zheng, killing them until they cried out in pain.

But he was helpless.

It was because they really could not do anything to Zhang Shan.

there were even many zheng players who wanted to retreat.

They knew that after Feng Yun realm brought reinforcements, they would no longer have the chance to revive Xuanyuan Ziyu.

In that case, there was no point in them staying here.

It was better to keep a useful body and defend the altar.

However, none of the players from the state of Zheng dared to say this out loud, nor did any of them dare to run away.

since they had already been beaten up to this state, why should they still be cursed for running away?

They held on like this, neither running away nor attacking, but waiting for the end of the world to come.

The situation was in a stalemate.

Zhang Shan alone was killing all the players from the state of Zheng.

As for Feng Yun realm, he led his men to guard Xuanyuan Ziyu's corpse.

The players from the state of Zheng no longer had the passion to attack.

At this point, even if they fought with all their might, it would be useless.

It was completely meaningless.

They were like ducks waiting for fate's judgment. All of them stretched out their necks, completely at a loss.

Fate did not make them wait for too long.

After a short while, a series of rumbling sounds could be heard from the distance. A large group of Chu players had arrived.

Under the leadership of the Dragon King of the eastern sea and King Xiaoyao, 50 to 60 million players from Chu charged over.

seeing the appearance of the chu army, the players from the state of zheng started to become restless.

they knew that this country war would soon come to an end.

Suddenly, a player from the state of Zheng shouted.

brothers, kill! Kill one to break even, kill two to earn one.

"F * ck, let's fight with the Chu people. We'll count the ball if we die."

At the last moment, the players from the state of Zheng exploded with power.

They risked their lives to launch a fierce attack on the Chu army.

To be honest, the players from the state of Zheng were also holding back their anger.

before this, although they had millions of people, zhang shan's firepower was too strong.

They had no way to deal with Zhang Shan.

Millions of people surrounded Zhang Shan's five-man team, but there was no result to speak of.

The Army of Chu State that was rushing over at this moment was huge, with a total of 50 to 60 million people.

However, most of the people in the Army of Chu State were like them, noob players.

If they went all out, they could still kill one or two Chu players.

the zheng state's players went berserk, and they started to fight with the chu state's army.

After a short while, the battlefield returned to peace.

the chu army had 50 to 60 million soldiers, and against the few million soldiers of the zheng army, it was undoubtedly a one-sided battle.

No matter how much they struggled, they could not change the situation.

The players from the state of Zheng and the state of Chu who were beaten down by the players from the state of Zheng were quickly revived by their teammates. They did not even need to spend any gold coins to revive on the spot.

There were so many people on the scene, and there were countless support players with resurrection skills. It was a piece of cake for them to resurrect their fallen teammates.

As for the players from the state of Zheng who had fallen, they did not stay behind. They had all chosen to leave the World War map and return to their cities to revive.

In their hearts, this world War no longer had anything to do with them. They might as well leave the World War map and go back to farm monsters and level up.

They had tried their best in this country war, but they were not strong enough and there was nothing they could do.

As for the outcome of the country war, they didn't have any hope.

Of the two major guilds in the state of Zheng, the Xuanyuan Guild's strength had basically been exhausted here.

Even Xuanyuan Ziyu had died here. The entire Xuanyuan Guild would no longer be able to display its combat power in this country war.

At the state of Zheng's altar, only the nine provinces Daoist was left standing guard with a large group of players.

Originally, the Zheng country's strength was inferior to the Chu country.

Now that Xuanyuan wasn't participating, it was even more impossible to defeat them.

The players from the state of Zheng who had fallen to the ground felt that their future was filled with darkness, and they did not continue to struggle.

Since there wasn't any punishment for losing the World War, he decided to go back and farm some monsters.

Perhaps by tomorrow, they wouldn't even be able to kill any monsters.

After losing the World War, the experience and drop rate would be halved. What was the point of farming monsters then?

He might as well give himself a week off.

Xuanyuan Ziyu, who had been lying on the ground and waiting for help, also chose to return to the city to revive.

there was no point in lying on the ground.

The Army of Chu had already arrived, and no one could save him.

At this moment, Xuanyuan Ziyu only felt boundless sadness.

If he could come back, he would guard the altar with all his might, even if the God of heaven called for him.

He would not leave the altar either.

It was a pity that there was no medicine for regret in this world.

as one of the guild leaders of the two largest guilds in the state of zheng, this massive world war actually had nothing to do with him from the start.

In Xuanyuan Ziyu's heart, there was only endless regret.

After exiting the World War map, Xuanyuan Ziyu chose to go offline and leave the game.

He didn't have the face to see anyone.

After clearing out all of the Zheng players.

The Army of Chu gathered once again, and marched toward the altar of the state of Zheng.

At this moment, the morale of the players of Chu State was high.

They had already taken out one of the two guilds in the state of Zheng, so they would definitely win this world War.

Thinking about the rewards for winning the country war, everyone couldn't help but feel happy.

Double experience was good.

With an extra week of double exp, they would level up even faster.

Although the country war had only started for about 20 minutes, the players of Chu were all in a state of joy.

It was as if they had already won the country war.

In fact, it was almost the same. Even someone as steady as Feng Yun realm felt that they had already won this country war.

In contrast to the joy of the Chu players, the Zheng players near the altar fell into a dead silence.

Jiuzhou Daoist, who was standing on the altar, was also silent.

He knew that this kingdom war was already difficult.

the difference in strength between the two sides was huge.

now that xuanyuan ziyu had left the world war map, most of the members of the xuanyuan guild had also died in battle with him.

Even though there were close to 50 million Zheng players around the altar.

In terms of numbers, they were not much inferior to Chu.

However, the nine state Daoist knew that he no longer had the chance.

Not to mention the difference in strength, even the state of Zheng's players had lost their spirit.

Xuanyuan Ziyu was a troublemaker.

wasn't it better to just stay at the altar and defend?

Why did he go out and cause trouble?

Now there's a problem.

the nine states daoist no longer had any expectations for this country war.

To them, guarding the altar and the divine beast statue of the state of Zheng was just an extravagant hope.

Perhaps the players of Chu State could reach the altar with just one charge.

The nine states Daoist was silent and sad.

he couldn't help but think, is our state of zheng really that weak?

It didn't seem right.

The state of Zheng wasn't weak, but the state of Chu was too strong.

This wasn't right.

it was not that chu country was too strong, but that zhang shan was too strong.

Zhang Shan alone was able to hold back the millions of players from the state of Zheng.

This was not all.

The key was that Zhang Shan had killed Xuanyuan Ziyu.

And it was the kind that killed the guard.

The battle between the two sides had yet to officially begin, and Zhang Shan had already directly kicked Xuanyuan Ziyu out of the country war map.

How unbelievable was this?

As one of the country of Zheng's two pillars, the Guild leader of the Xuanyuan Guild had actually been unable to play any role in this world War, and had been forced out of the world War map.

It was simply a joke.

However, the current Jiuzhou Daoist was not in the mood to watch Xuanyuan Ziyu make a fool of himself.

He only wanted to protect the altar and the state of Zheng's statue of the divine beast.

Even if it was impossible, he still wanted to try.

.....

After cleaning up the battlefield, the great army of Chu started to March towards the sacrificial altar of the state of Zheng in a mighty manner.

From here to the state of Zheng's altar, it would take about a minute.

If a large group moved together, the speed would be much slower.

They would probably need another two to three minutes to reach the altar in the state of Zheng.

At this moment, Zhang Shan finally had some free time.

The intense battle earlier had kept him busy.

He didn't even have the time to understand the situation of the other two country Wars.

Today, they weren't the only ones fighting against the state of Zheng. This was a country war.

Other than them, the Wei State and the Qin State, the Zhao state and the Yan state were also at war.

It was just that Zhang Shan had been busy all this while. He had no time to pay attention to the other two country Wars and how they were going.

Who knows which side had a higher chance of winning the other two country Wars.

even though these things did not seem to have anything to do with him.

but as long as they were human, there would always be a bit of gossip.

Zhang Shan was also a layman. It was normal for him to be a little curious.

As he rode on his horse, he opened the forum to check.

On the game forum, a special section was opened to update the real-time situation of the various world wars.

Zhang Shan quickly browsed through the forum and the various video highlights. At the same time, he checked the live broadcast from the various altars.

Through his investigation, Zhang Shan realized that the intensity of the other two country Wars was much more intense than he had imagined.

Compared to the other two Kingdom Wars, the kingdom war between their Chu Kingdom and the kingdom of Zheng could be considered to be very gentle.

On their side, other than killing a few million Zheng players, there had not been any major battle.

As for the others, they had only had small conflicts when both sides entered the country war map.

As for the other two country Wars, from the start, they had been going at it continuously.

On the Yan side, the Zhao players had already forced their way to the altar.

However, he was chased down later on.

the kingdom war between the wei and qin kingdoms was not weak either.

These two camps were the first and second guilds in the game. Both sides had been fighting intensely in the world War map.

Especially in the state of Qin, their desire to fight was very strong.

Apart from leaving a small number of players to defend the altar, the rest of the players were attacking the altar under the lead of the domineering King.

As for the Wei players, under the leadership of Li Jing, the God of War, they had been guarding the altar like old dogs.

But then again, why didn't the domineering King learn his lesson?

The last time he had fought with Zhang Shan and the others in the country war, the domineering King had also started off with a fierce charge.

In the end, Zhang Shan and the rest had turned the tables. They had destroyed the divine beast statues of the Qin country.

wasn't the domineering king afraid that the wei country would destroy his godly beast statue again?

Or could it be that the tyrannical King was thinking that their godly beast statue had already been destroyed by the Chu country?

Even if they were destroyed by the Wei country, it would not matter. After all, there would not be any divine weapons?

This shouldn't be the case.

Even if it didn't drop a divine weapon, if the Wei Kingdom destroyed the divine beast statue, wouldn't their Qin Kingdom lose the kingdom war and be punished for losing the kingdom war?

Could it be that the tyrant king still hadn't had enough of the punishment he received from the kingdom war?

Did they want to do it again?

Zhang Shan could not understand them.

could it be that the domineering king was confident that he could defeat the wei kingdom led by the god of war li jing?

This can't be, right?

even if the tyrant king was hot-headed, he shouldn't have such thoughts.

didn't the domineering king have a clear idea of how strong they were?

Of course, it was also possible that the tyrant king had other thoughts, or had some hidden cards that Zhang Shan did not know about.

In addition to the Wei State and the Qin State, the state war between the zhao state and the Yan state was also very intense, or even more intense.

Especially the Zhao country. The battle power that they had displayed in the country war had shocked Zhang Shan.

originally, zhang shan thought that the zhao and yan country's strength should not be too different.

If these two countries were to fight a country war, it might just be a competition between rookies.

However, the truth slapped Zhang Shan in the face.

From the very beginning, the state of zhao had been unrivaled and had even fought their way to the altar of the state of Yan.

One had to know that the country war had just started not long ago. At most, it had only been 20 minutes.

in such a short period of time, those who were slower might have just organized their teams.

However, the state of zhao had organized their troops at the very beginning.

Soon, they launched a fierce attack on the altar of the Yan Kingdom.

Most importantly, they were making rapid progress.

Such a Zhao country was completely beyond Zhang Shan's expectations.

of course, the state of zhao had also paid a great price to fight their way to the yan's altar.

From the forums, it seemed that the country of Zhao had been using their ultimate skills and scrolls non-stop.

Zhang Shan saw that the Zhao players had thrown out at least eight or nine ultimate skills, and the scrolls were about the same.

If there weren't ten, there were nine.

It was only with their relentless attacks that they were able to reach the Yan Kingdom's altar.

However, Zhao country's capital should have been used up.

Now, they had been chased off the altar by the Yan players.

If they still could not attack, they might have to go back and defend their own altars.

After all, there was not much difference in strength between Zhao and Yan.

Now, they had used up all their trump cards, but the Yan country's trump cards should not have been completely revealed yet.

The Yan Kingdom players should still have some in stock.

Perhaps after a while, the battle between the two sides would be reversed.

The Yan Kingdom will attack while the Zhao kingdom will defend?

But this was normal.

The kingdom war was not that easy to begin with. There were so many people on both sides, and the divine beast statues were not easy to fight.

With 100 billion hp, it would be impossible to destroy the divine beast statue without putting in some effort.

One must know that the last time Zhang Shan and the rest destroyed the divine beast statue of the Qin country, it took almost an hour.

Although the players' strength was not comparable to before.

However, it was still not that easy to blow up a divine beast statue.

Besides, if he wanted to attack the other side's divine beast statue, he must first clear out all the other side's people.

The number of people participating in this battle was easily in the tens of millions.

Unless it was a one-sided match, how could it be so easy to wipe out all of the other party's members?

Therefore, it was very normal for both sides to pull at each other, attacking and defending.

Until the last moment, no one could say that they would win.

Zhang Shan looked at the highlights on the forum and felt that this country war was really interesting.

The kingdom war displayed the strength of all parties, and no one was hiding anything.

Ultimate skills or special items that he had never seen before were all exposed in this world war.

The only people who hadn't used their full strength yet were the Wei soldiers, who were guarding their altars.

In order to win the country war, the other factions had already given their all.

All sides were either attacking or defending, and they were locked in a fierce battle.

Chapter 536 the battle for the passage

After about two to three minutes, they had reached the state of Zheng's altar.

They did not encounter any obstacles on their way.

As long as the state of Zheng players were still in the world War map, they were all gathered near the altar.

in the other parts of the world war map, there should not be any more players from the state of zheng.

Even if there were, they were just some random players who had just entered the map.

It was impossible for these scattered Zheng state players to come out and stop the advance of the Chu State Army.

As they neared the sacrificial altar of the state of Zheng, the Army of the state of Chu stopped.

Zhang Shan closed the forum and took a closer look at the state of Zheng's defensive setup.

The area around the altar was filled with players from the state of Zheng.

The number of people was completely unknown, but Zhang Shan could not count.

However, on the forums, someone had previously calculated that there were about 50 million players from the state of Zheng at the altar.

Zhang Shan observed carefully. The players from the state of Zheng were scattered around the altar, with three layers on the inside and three layers on the outside. There were more than ten layers of defense.

If they wanted to reach the altar, they would have to kill their way through.

At the very least, he had to open up a path that led to the bottom of the altar.

of course.

Although the state of Zheng's defense seemed to be very tight, and there were many people guarding it.

But Zhang Shan did not mind.

As long as he wanted to, even if he was alone, he could kill his way from the periphery to the altar.

It was a pity that Zhang Shan's ultimate move had already been used.

otherwise, as long as he activated god's descent, he would be able to reach the altar alone.

Who could stop him when he had a big move?

Even scrolls and ultimate skills would not be able to do anything to him.

Unfortunately, he didn't have any ultimate skills. After using ultimate skills, they had a cooldown of 24 hours.

If Zhang Shan wanted to use his ultimate move, he would have to wait until tomorrow.

however, it didn't matter if he didn't have a big move. zhang shan was not fighting alone.

Behind him, there were 50 to 60 million players from Chu State, which was more than the players from Zheng state.

With such strength in Chu, of course, Zhang Shan did not have to take the risk alone. Everyone could just push through together.

Since they could crush him with their strength, they did not need Zhang Shan to show off.

When they arrived near the altar, Feng Yun realm started to discuss tactics with the Dragon King of the East Sea and freedom King.

what do we do now? are we going to push our way through? ”

“we're just going to crush them like this? Aren't you going to talk about tactics or something?”

“There's no need to talk about strategy. How do they say it again? if you're poor, you'll use tactics. If you're rich, you'll use carpet bombing. with such a huge advantage, we can completely crush them. we don't need to use any tactics.”

“Then let's push it over together?”

“Why don't we push them separately? With so many of us together, I'm afraid it's a bit difficult for us to display our full strength.”

“That's easy. Our three guilds will each lead one way and meet up under the altar.”

“Alright, we'll do it this way.”

The three Guild bosses quickly discussed their strategy.

The three guilds each led a path, and he advanced towards the state of Zheng's altar.

In a Kingdom war, attacking the other party's altars should have been done by concentrating their forces and fighting their way through.

It was just that the number of people they had gathered was a little too many.

If there were too many people, it would be difficult to make arrangements.

It was better to split up and wait until they pushed the bottom of the altar, then they would rush up the altar together and destroy the divine beast statue.

Of course.

The most important thing was that everyone was confident.

Even if they split up, they would still be able to reach the state of Zheng's altar.

Then, everyone would attack the other party's altar together. After clearing out the other party's guards on the altar, they could start to attack the divine beast statue.

The earlier he destroyed the other party's divine beast statue, the earlier he could end this country war.

Although the country war would last for two hours.

However, as long as the other party destroyed the statue of the divine beast, the country war would naturally end. There was no need to wait for two hours.

For a weakling like the state of Zheng, a weakling with a broken leg at that, there was no need for them to waste any more time.

If they finished this country war earlier, everyone could take the time to go and see how the other two country Wars were fought.

After the three big bosses had made arrangements, the various parties quickly organized their teams. In addition to the members of their own guilds, they also selected some powerful players to form three assault teams.

each team had about a million people, and they started to head towards the altar in the state of zheng.

As for the remaining Chu players, they could do whatever they wanted and just disrupt the state of Zheng's defense.

He didn't expect them to do anything, but just hold back the country of Zheng's noob players.

It would help relieve some of the pressure on the assault team.

On the wind cloud Guild's side, Zhang Shan was leading the way while the others followed behind him.

Zhang Shan's long spear was fast, and his bullets continuously swept towards the players from the state of Zheng who were defending.

The players from the state of Zheng fell to the ground in large numbers.

At this moment, Zhang Shan only cared about charging forward. As for the players from the state of Zheng behind him and on his left and right, he did not need to care about them.

Naturally, there would be other Guild bosses to help him deal with it.

It was good to have more teammates. He didn't have to take care of the enemies on his left and right as he rushed forward.

...

The current Zhang Shan had no such concerns at all. He held his hand cannon and fired non-stop.

After defeating a group of Zheng players, they would advance.

Under Zhang Shan's lead, they advanced very quickly. The players from the state of Zheng near the altar were also fighting to the death.

However, under Zhang Shan's intense firepower, the resistance of the Zheng country's players was meaningless.

They could not stop Zhang Shan's attacks at all, even if the players from the state of Zheng continued to charge at Zhang Shan.

They could not stop Zhang Shan's charge.

Zhang Shan led the wind cloud Guild and steadily advanced.

After a short while, they passed through the layers of blockades and gradually advanced to the bottom of the altar in the state of Zheng.

Zhang Shan raised his head to look at the state of Zheng's defense on the altar.

although there was still some distance between them, Zhang Shan could still see the nine states priest on the altar.

At this time, the nine State Road was expressionless. He led a group of main members of the nine state Guild and guarded the altar.

As for the path to the altar, it was also heavily guarded by the players from the state of Zheng.

After Zhang Shan reached the bottom of the altar, he did not continue to charge forward. Instead, he started to clear out the players from the state of Zheng.

If he wanted to charge up to the state of Zheng's altar in one go, he could not do it now.

Zhang Shan's ultimate move had already been used before.

Without his ultimate, he wasn't confident that he would be able to tank the attacks of the players from the state of Zheng.

More importantly, the Jiuzhou Daoist on the altar must have more scrolls in his hands.

Moreover, the nine states Guild should also have many ultimate skills.

Although Zhang Shan's HP had exceeded 800000, without the support of a big move, he could not withstand the damage of the other party's scroll.

Not to mention the scroll damage, even if it was an ultimate skill, as long as it was stacked a little more, Zhang Shan would not be able to withstand it.

It was better to wait for the others to arrive first.

When everyone was here, they would charge together.

if that was the case, even if he was knocked down by the scrolls or ultimate skills of the players from the state of Zheng, he would be quickly revived by the support on his side.

Zhang Shan stood at the entrance of the altar, charging left and right.

The players from the state of Zheng were also enraged, and they charged at him without stopping.

Facing the countless players from the Zheng country, Zhang Shan was not afraid at all. He only cared about firing.

After all, he had countless teammates helping him, so it was impossible for the Zheng players to get close to him.

At this moment, Zhang Shan had transformed into a merciless killing machine. Bullets were continuously fired from the hand cannon, sweeping towards the players from the state of Zheng.

Every time Zhang Shan fired a shot, 12 players from the state of Zheng would fall to the ground. Wave after wave of Zheng players fell to the ground like chopping firewood.

However, the players from the state of Zheng didn't seem to mind at all, and continued to charge at him.

This was normal.

Zhang Shan had already reached the bottom of the enemy's altar. If the players from the Zheng nation did not fight with their lives on the line, they would not have the chance to do so anymore.

could it be that they still had to wait for zhang shan to destroy the divine beast statue of their zheng country?

In any case, there were quite a few players in the state of Zheng, about 50 million in total.

in the hearts of the zheng players, no matter how fast zhang shan could kill, could he kill all 50 million people?

That was obviously impossible.

No matter how fast Zhang Shan was killing, he did not know how long it would take to kill a million people.

However, Zhang Shan was not alone. The Chu country had more people.

there were so many players from the state of zheng, and he did not need to kill them alone. everyone had to kill them together.

The more he killed, the less pressure the others would face, and the sooner they could finish off the state of Zheng's players, the sooner the battle would end.

zhang shan stayed on the path leading to the altar and continued to kill.

It did not take long for traversing Four Seas and the unfettered Guild to reach the bottom of the altar.

The battle outside the altar had not stopped, and there were still many players from the state of Zheng left.

In the battle just now, there might have been tens of millions of people on both sides.

but in comparison, with a total of 50 to 60 million people each, the impact of losing tens of millions of people was not too great.

The chaotic battle around the altar was still very intense.

however, the main members of the three teams had already reached the bottom of the other's altar.

Now, he could try to push a wave toward the altar.

Feng Yun realm said.

"Are we going straight for the altar now?"

"Charge! If we don't charge, what are we waiting for?"

"I'm just afraid that Jiuzhou Daoist still has more scrolls in his hands."

there's no need to think about it. Nine regions Daoist must have more scrolls in his hands. But if we don't charge, his scrolls will always be in his hands. Only by constantly charging can we consume his scrolls.

you're right. As long as we use up all their scrolls, they won't be able to stop us from reaching the altar.

"So here's the question, how are we going to do it? Should we charge together, or should the three take turns?"

let's charge together. The people behind remember to follow. When you see the people in front fall, resurrect immediately.

"Alright, then let's charge together."

after the three guild bosses had finished their discussion.

Zhang Shan started to clear the path in front. He followed the path to the altar and advanced step by step.

However, as this tunnel wasn't very wide, it could at most allow a hundred people to pass through.

on this path, there were also many players from the state of Zheng defending it.

Although there were more people on Zhang Shan's side, they could not display their full strength.

Everyone could only slowly advance.

However, there was an advantage to this, and that was the players on the altar.

After being knocked down, unless they were resurrected by a support or on the spot.

Otherwise, there would be no way to replenish them. One down meant one less.

This was because if Zhang Shan and the rest wanted to rush up to the altar, they could only use this path.

as for the players from the state of Zheng, if they wanted to support the people on the altar, they could only use this path.

Now that the Chu players had occupied the entrance below the passage, the Zheng players could no longer pass through the passage to the altar.

As long as Zhang Shan and the rest were able to attack, they would be able to take down the players from the state of Zheng on the altar.

Defeating one would reduce the number of soldiers in the state of Zheng's defense.

In the end, there were only a few players left on the altar.

In that case, no matter how many scrolls the nine states Daoist had, he would not be able to protect the altar.

.....

the path to the altar was five to six hundred yards long.

Zhang Shan and the rest advanced step by step. Jiuzhou Daoist stood on the altar and could not help but shake his head.

The strength of the players from the state of Zheng was indeed much weaker than that of the players from the state of Chu.

How long has it been?

Zhang Shan and the rest of the main force had already started to push to the bottom of the altar.

Perhaps after a while, the players of Chu State would be able to reach the altar platform.

At that time, with the state of Zheng's power on the altar, they wouldn't be able to resist for long.

Even if the Xuanyuan Guild was still around, the state of Zheng wouldn't be able to stop the advance of the players from the state of Chu.

Zhang Shan led the way in front, followed by the big bosses of the three major guilds. Everyone was approaching the altar of the state of Zheng step by step.

When he was less than fifty yards away from the altar, nine regions Daoist waved his hand and released an ultimate skill.

The fury of Thunder.

The nine state Daoist was not just a Daoist.

He really was a Taoist player, and he used the ultimate skill of a Taoist.

Endless thunder and lightning enveloped Zhang Shan and the rest.

Zhang Shan was just about to activate his berserk skill to block this wave of damage.

At this moment, Feng Yun Qing Qing, who was following behind Zhang Shan, quickly used holy light illumination.

With Feng Yun Qing Qing as the center, all the Chu players within a 50-yard radius were shrouded in a mysterious Halo.

It kept the lightning outside.

Even though the wrath of Thunder of the nine states Daoist was a big move that dealt ten times the damage.

Logically speaking, the damage should have been terrifying. Other than people like Zhang Shan, no one else would have been able to withstand it.

However, Feng Yun Qing Qing's skills were very timely. Under the cover of the Holy Light, not many people fell to the ground.

Only a small number of people, who were not protected by Feng Yun Qing Qing's skill, were knocked down by nine regions Daoist's thunderous wrath.

The others were fine. Under Zhang Shan's lead, they continued to move forward.

Feng Yun Qing Qing's ultimate skill was still very powerful, and it was indeed a top-grade support ultimate.

Under the cover of the Holy Light, the nine states Daoist's big move was directly offset.

Originally, Zhang Shan had planned to use his berserk skills to block a wave of attacks, but in the end, he did not even need to use them.

feng yun qing's ultimate skill was enough.

His berserk skill could be saved for the next wave.

Lord Xiaoyao asked in surprise after seeing the effect of holy light illumination.

what skill is this? it's awesome.

"Witch doctor's ultimate skill, holy light illumination."

"There's such an ultimate skill? i've never seen him before."

The Dragon King of the East Sea also sighed.

the wind and cloud Guild is really amazing. You can even get such a skill book? " yeah, they have the six-barreled boss. They've fought all kinds of bosses until they're tired of it. As long as it's something in the game, no matter how rare it is, they can make it.

Under the illumination of the Holy Light, everyone pushed forward with all their might.

When nine regions Daoist saw that his big move had no effect, he said to the Guild members beside him.

"Those with big moves, take turns to use them to suppress them."

"understood."

After the nine states Daoist finished speaking, the members of the nine states Guild immediately released a big move.

An endless rain of fire fell.

Zhang Shan quickly activated his berserk skill to withstand the damage from this wave of big moves.

However, Zhang Shan had the berserk magic immunity and could withstand this wave of skills. The others, however, did not have magic immunity. They could not withstand it at all.

The moment the rain of fire fell, the bosses of the three major guilds fell to the ground one after another.

“F * ck, this big move is so annoying.”

“After this wave, we’ll use our ultimate skills and take the opportunity to charge in.”

that’s right. Let’s make the first move and rush up to the altar. We’re not far from the altar’s platform anyway.

“After we resurrect, we’ll charge forward again and use our ultimate skills to clear the way for the Zheng players on the altar.”

After all the big shots around him had fallen.

Zhang Shan did not continue to charge forward. Instead, he relied on his berserk state and quickly retreated.

This was a Kingdom war, and he couldn’t just rely on himself. There was no need for him to go all out.

Moreover, it wouldn’t be of much use for him to charge up alone.

if the other party used another big move, he would still fall.

Since that was the case, it would be better to follow everyone’s pace and push forward together.

He didn’t need to be the first to stand out.

The second big move of the nine states Guild had temporarily suppressed the attack of Chu.

Originally, they had been less than fifty yards away from the altar, but now, they were seventy yards away.

Not only that, the players from the state of Zheng who were near the altar were also revived by the support.

This meant that Zhang Shan and the rest had wasted their energy in the previous wave of attacks. They had only exhausted the other party’s two ultimate skills.

Other than that, he didn’t make any progress. Instead, he retreated more than 20 yards.

However, he had no choice.

in this game, the ultimate skills and scrolls were just that amazing in a melee.

This was especially true in this kind of terrain where the passage was blocked.

In this kind of terrain, skills that could kill from all directions were especially useful.

With just one skill, he could contain the opponent's attack.

With a wave of skills, the nine states Guild suppressed the attack from Chu.

However, Zhang Shan and the rest did not panic.

The nine states Guild was not the only one with an ultimate skill.

there were also many players in chu who had learned the ultimate skill.

Although their wind cloud Guild's ultimate skill had already been used when they had defeated Xuanyuan Ziyu, it was still a very powerful skill.

however, none of traversing four seas 'and unfettered guild's ultimate skills were effective.

Their two guilds should have a few ultimate skills, right? this was the time for them to show their usefulness.

Moreover, even if there were no ultimate skills, there should be quite a number of scrolls in storage.

as long as he used a few scrolls or a few powerful skills, it should not be a problem to send everyone to the altar.

Chapter 537 Won!

The Kyushu Guild used a wave of big moves and repelled the attack of Zhang Shan and the others.

However, this didn't matter much.

After all, this was a country war, and no one wanted it. They could rush to the other side's altar platform in one step.

That was impossible.

Even though the state of Zheng was much weaker than the state of Chu.

Especially after Xuanyuan Guild had been removed from the map by Zhang Shan and the others.

The state of Zheng's strength was much weaker.

However, it was also impossible for him to rush up to the altar platform.

No matter how weak the state of Zheng was, there were still many players and the nine states Guild.

No matter what, the nine states Guild was still one of the top ten guilds.

even among the top 10 guilds, those that were ranked at the bottom were still top 10 guilds.

He was not as weak as he had imagined.

He more or less had some skills.

at the very least, the nine regions guild would definitely still have ultimate skills and scrolls.

If Zhang Shan and the others did not use up all of the nine regions Guild's trump cards, it would not be so easy for them to rush to the other party's altar platform.

After all, the passage to the altar platform was only about a hundred yards wide. As long as the nine regions Guild used one or two ultimate skills or scrolls, they could seal the passage for five seconds.

Within the time of the damage of a big move or scroll, even Zhang Shan could not charge forward without his big move, let alone the others.

if anyone else went up, they would be instantly killed.

Now, the only thing they could do was to fight with their ultimate skills, scrolls, and resurrection.

Once the nine states Guild used up all their cards, the state of Zheng would have no chance to win.

at that time, this country war would basically be over.

After being hit by the nine states Guild's big move, the three major guilds of Chu quickly resurrected their fallen bosses.

Then, they regrouped and prepared for another battle.

This time, it was the members of the getaway Guild and traversing Four Seas Guild who took the lead.

zhang shan and the other big bosses of wind and cloud guild were walking behind.

This was because the wind and cloud Guild no longer had any big moves to use.

Even though Feng Yun realm definitely had more scrolls.

However, there was no need to use the scroll now.

Didn't the players from both the getaway and the traversing Four Seas still have their ultimate skills that they had yet to use?

let them use all their big moves.

If their two guilds used up all of their skills and still couldn't reach the altar ...

Then, he would use the scroll to open up a path.

After all, this was a country war, and it concerned the benefits of all the players in Chu State, not just the wind cloud Guild.

Furthermore, Zhang Shan believed that traversing Four Seas and unfettered Guild would definitely be happy to show off.

After all, the various focal battlefields of the World War would be made into video collections by the operators and updated on the game forums.

This was a chance to show their faces. The Dragon King of the East Sea and King Xiaoyao would definitely not let go of such an opportunity.

Previously, the wind cloud Guild had single-handedly eliminated the Xuanyuan Guild, which was already a big show.

It was time for their two guilds to show off.

The Dragon King of the East Sea shouted after being revived.

“We’ll charge in one wave and use our big moves to clear the way. The support behind, pay attention to resurrect our fallen players.”

“Let’s go! Use our ultimate moves and kill them all!”

after the dragon king of the eastern sea finished speaking, he took the lead and charged towards the players from the state of zheng on the platform.

King Xiaoyao was not to be outdone either, following closely behind Dong Hailong.

The two Guild bosses led their teams and quickly rushed towards the players from the state of Zheng.

The two sides soon started fighting again.

The Dragon King of the East Sea charged into the crowd of enemies and followed up with a big move.

berserker’s destruction.

After the Dragon King of the East Sea released his ultimate move, a powerful wave spread out with the Dragon King of the East Sea as the center.

in an instant, a large group of players from the state of zheng were knocked down.

The Berserker’s ultimate skill, destruction, dealt ten times the damage.

As for the Dragon King of the East Sea, he was fully equipped with top-tier equipment.

The damage of his ultimate skill was shocking.

As long as they were hit by the destruction skill, almost all of the Zheng players would instantly fall.

the dragon king of the east sea opened up a path for the players of the chu country.

The others quickly followed, rushing towards the state of Zheng’s altar.

Not only that, but the other traversing Four Seas and unfettered guild members who were charging forward also followed up with three ultimate skills.

The few ultimate skills were used alternately, and almost all the players guarding the altar passage were cleared.

now, zhang shan and the rest only needed one charge to reach the platform.

at this moment, the members of the nine states guild standing on the altar platform once again cast two big moves.

The Dragon King of the East Sea and King Xiaoyao, who were charging forward, were knocked to the ground again.

The other guild leaders who had charged with him also fell to the ground.

When the duration of the big move ended, the support of Chu country quickly stepped forward, ready to resurrect the fallen guild leader.

As for the state of Zheng's support, they also wanted to rush down the altar and revive the players who had fallen in the tunnel.

At this moment, Zhang Shan quickly moved forward. He held his hand cannon and the bullets swept towards the players from the state of Zheng.

The state of Zheng's support players who wanted to revive others were all forced back.

what a joke.

Under the suppression of Zhang Shan's firepower, these people still wanted to revive those who had fallen to the ground. They were simply dreaming.

Unless the nine states Guild used a big move or scroll again.

However, was this possible?

That was impossible.

It was impossible for the nine states Guild to use a big move or scroll just to deal with Zhang Shan alone.

Especially at such a critical moment, every ultimate skill and scroll was extremely precious.

The nine states Guild would not waste it.

However, in this case, Zhang Shan's firepower had suppressed the revival of the players from the state of Zheng.

After their people fell to the ground, they didn't have much chance of being resurrected.

Of course, some of the players from the state of Zheng who had fallen chose to spend gold coins to revive on the spot.

That Zhang Shan also did not have any moves. He could not suppress so many people at the same time.

As such, there were still some players from the state of Zheng who were revived after falling to the ground, and they returned to the altar.

Even so, the number of players from the state of Zheng had been decreasing as the battle went on. After all, only a small number of players could revive.

In the world War, the cost of reviving on the spot was not cheap.

Even the first resurrection would cost 1000 gold coins.

Not many people were willing to bear such an expense.

Especially since the state of Zheng's disadvantage was extremely obvious, and there was almost no hope of victory.

In such a situation, why would the players from the state of Zheng spend so much money to revive? he was going to lose anyway, so why waste gold coins?

the reason why they were still struggling now was because ...

Rather than saying that he didn't want to lose the country war, it was better to say that he was fighting for his face.

To show that they were still fighting, that they had not surrendered, and that they had not lost.

Even if they lost in the end, they had worked hard and fought.

That was all.

the dragon king of the east sea and king xiaoyao were resurrected again, and they continued to rush forward.

Then, he was once again knocked down by the nine regions Guild's big move.

after repeating this for two or three times, they finally used up all of the nine states guild's ultimate skills.

when they charged at the altar once again ...

nine regions priest took out a scroll expressionlessly and threw it out, once again repelling the chu country's charge.

However, this was also good news. After all, they had forced the nine regions Daoist to use the scroll.

Zhang Shan believed that the nine state priest did not have many scrolls, and Chu country still had many trump cards.

After a few more rounds, the players from the state of Zheng would no longer be able to defend themselves.

In the following battles, the two big shots, the Dragon King of the East Sea and King Xiaoyao, led their guild members and charged three or four times.

When they charged for the last time, the nine regions Daoist could no longer take out any more scrolls.

The two sides were in a chaotic battle at the opening of the altar.

The Dragon King of the East Sea waved his big axe and rushed to the front.

at this moment, the players from the state of zheng on the platform had been forced into a dead end.

they stood on the platform and fought back crazily.

But by this time, the general trend had already passed.

The Dragon King of the East Sea took out a scroll and quickly cast it as he hacked at the players. He quickly wiped out all the players from the state of Zheng who were guarding the entrance of the platform.

Zhang Shan and the others who were originally following behind took the opportunity to rush up to the platform.

The two sides began to fight on the altar.

Zhang Shan carried his hand cannon and rushed up to the platform. The bullets swept across the Zheng players, and a large number of Zheng players fell to the ground.

The number of players from the state of Zheng on the platform decreased as the battle went on, while more and more players from the state of Chu rushed onto the platform.

The players from the state of Zheng were forced to retreat.

Slowly, they retreated from the entrance of the altar's platform to the vicinity of the divine beast statue.

As an auxiliary profession, nine regions Daoist had always been standing at the back. At the beginning, he had not fallen to the ground.

However, he had no place to retreat to now.

As long as the remaining players from the state of Zheng were all killed, it would mean that they would definitely lose this world war.

Because as long as there were Zheng players on the clear light platform, Zhang Shan and the rest could happily fight the statue of the mythical beast.

As long as the divine beast statue was destroyed, the kingdom war would officially end.

Although the divine beast statue's HP was as high as 100 billion.

However, it was still early. It had only been half an hour since the start of the country war.

And the country war would last for two hours.

In other words, Zhang Shan and the rest still had about an hour and a half to destroy the divine beast statue.

With Zhang Shan and the rest's current damage ability.

Not to mention an hour and a half, he might only need ten minutes or so to destroy the state of Zheng's divine beast statue.

After Zhang Shan had landed on the altar platform, he rushed towards the other party's divine beast statue.

The players from the state of Zheng who were in his way fell to the ground one after another like firewood.

When he got close to the statue of the divine beast, Zhang Shan saw the nine states priest.

Without a word, Zhang Shan raised his spear and directly knocked nine states Taoist to the ground.

As the leader of the Guild, the nine regions Daoist had very luxurious equipment.

however, he was just a fragile taoist priest.

In the face of Zhang Shan's powerful attack, the nine states Taoist could not even withstand a single spear.

he was instantly knocked out.

After being defeated by Zhang Shan, the nine provinces Taoist did not use the resurrection skill, nor did he let the surrounding players of the state of Zheng revive him.

He chose to resurrect in the city and left the World War map.

Unlike the other players of the state of Zheng, the nine states Daoist did not continue to struggle.

Perhaps he felt that there was no point in continuing to struggle.

as the nine states daoist left the world war map, the remaining state of zheng players on the platform were quickly cleared by zhang shan and the others.

haha, hurry up and destroy the statue. The sooner we destroy it, the sooner we can end the kingdom war.

"For the sake of the divine weapon, everyone, hurry up and hack!"

"What the f * ck, you still want a divine artifact? Does the divine weapon have anything to do with you?"

that's right. Who can beat the six-barreled boss in terms of damage? " that's not necessarily true. The system's distribution of the divine weapon doesn't mean that whoever has the highest damage will get it. It's based on who contributed the most in the world War.

"What's the Difference? Big Boss six-Barrens almost single-handedly cleared the Xuanyuan Guild out of the country battle map. Who can compare to such a contribution?"

that's true. In terms of contribution to the country war, no one can compare to Big Boss six-barreled.

don't think too much. Winning the World War will give you double experience for a week. That's already very good. Why are you thinking about divine weapons? "

"Haha, I was just thinking about it. Don't take it seriously."

after wiping out all the players from the state of zheng on the altar, zhang shan immediately activated it and began to attack the divine beast statue.

The state of Zheng's divine beast statue was a huge white Tiger.

The statue was huge, and it could accommodate many Chu players to attack it together.

Zhang Shan quickly went all out. He activated fanaticism and shadow clone skills at the same time.

The three Zhang Shan's stood in a line, and the bullets were like raindrops, sweeping towards the huge white Tiger statue.

As for the berserk skill, he had already used it in order to block the big move of the Kyushu Guild, and it had not yet cooled down.

but even so, zhang shan's current damage output was terrifyingly high.

In addition, there were many Chu country's players attacking together.

The White Tiger statue's HP was dropping at a speed visible to the naked eye.

haha, this White Tiger statue isn't good either. It looks very powerful, but its HP is dropping very fast.

of course. There are so many of us fighting together. How can we not lose HP quickly? "

"I remember that the last time I fought the Black Dragon statue in Qin, it was very slow. I feel that the Black Dragon statue is much stronger than The White Tiger statue."

"Brother, that's an illusion. All the godly beast statues are the same. They all have 100 billion HP, so what difference can there be?"

"The main thing is that everyone's equipment and levels have improved. The damage we can deal now is incomparable to the last time."

"Correct."

"Why do you care so much? Do your best and quickly destroy The White Tiger statue."

Zhang Shan and the rest of the ten to twenty thousand people surrounded the statue of the divine beast and attacked it madly.

even if the divine beast statue had hundreds of billions of hp, under their powerful attacks, it was still as fragile as paper, and its hp bar was dropping rapidly.

On the altar, Zhang Shan and the rest were happily beating up the divine beast statue.

The battle below the altar had not ended.

Even though the nine state Daoist had already withdrawn from the World War map.

However, there were still many players from the state of Zheng around the altar, and they were still alive.

after all, there were close to 50 million people from the zheng country participating in the country war.

Even if Zhang Shan and the rest were stronger, it was impossible for them to kill all the players from the state of Zheng in one go.

The surviving Zheng players, seeing that there was no hope, became even more desperate.

maybe they felt that since they couldn't win this country war anyway, they might as well give it a try.

It didn't matter even if they were killed.

At most, if he died, he would just leave the country war map.

Anyway, they would have to leave the country war map sooner or later.

It was better to just die and return. After all, if he died in the world War map, he would not lose experience.

Zhang Shan and the rest were on the altar's platform, attacking the divine beast statue with all their might. As for the battle below the platform, they did not care at all.

As long as the players from Chu guarded the entrance of the tunnel and didn't let the players from Zheng cause any trouble, it would be fine.

Time flew by.

zhang shan and the rest played for about ten minutes.

Following Zhang Shan's Explosive Shot, The White Tiger statue suddenly turned into ashes and disappeared from everyone's sight.

≪ system announcement: Chu has defeated the state of Zheng, winning this world War. Chu players have received double experience points as a reward. Lasts for one week.

Since the state of Zheng had lost the country war, they would be punished for it.

In the following week, the experience of the players from the state of Zheng would be halved, the drop-rate of items would be halved, and the cost of items would be doubled.

chapter 538:

After the announcement of Chu's victory over the Zheng state, another announcement followed.

[system announcement: according to system calculations, player six-barreled Bodhisattva from Chu country has contributed the most in this world War.]

[the system has automatically assigned the divine weapon dropped by the divine white Tiger to six-barreled Bodhisattva.]

After the announcement, Zhang Shan received a system notification.

[system notification: as you have made the greatest contribution in this world War, the system will distribute the divine weapon dropped by the divine beast to you.]

Seeing this system notification, Zhang Shan could not help but feel happy.

Although, as long as they won the country war, as long as they got the first kill on the other side's divine beast statue, the divine weapon that dropped would basically belong to Zhang Shan. There was no escape.

Because no matter from which angle one looked at it, no one would have a higher contribution than him.

It would be unreasonable if the divine weapon was not distributed to him.

Whether it was the number of people killed, the number of casualties, or the degree of influence on the situation.

In the entire Chu country, no one could compare to Zhang Shan.

As long as he could destroy The White Tiger statue in the country of Zheng, Zhang Shan should be able to get the divine weapon as a reward.

However, before he got his hands on the divine weapon, Zhang Shan was still a little flustered. He was afraid that something unexpected would happen.

Now that the system announcement had appeared, he could finally relax.

Even though Zhang Shan felt that a divine weapon was not too difficult for him to obtain, as long as he spent some time, it would not be too much of a problem for him to obtain a full set of divine weapons.

However, the divine artifacts that dropped from the divine beast statues were different from the other divine artifacts.

for example, the king's cape that the system rewarded him when he destroyed the black dragon statue in the state of qin was a very impressive divine weapon.

The king's Cape was much more useful to Zhang Shan than any other divine weapon.

Currently, the king's Cape had added 500000 health points to Zhang Shan, and this was without taking into account the other bonuses.

Otherwise, it would be much more.

furthermore, the king's cape could also be unsealed and upgraded as his level increased.

This was something that the other cloaks could not compare to.

In new world, the upper limit of health was survival.

Only when one's HP was high enough could they withstand other people's attacks. Only when they could withstand other people's attacks could they think about how to kill others.

Otherwise, he was just a fragile shell. No matter how powerful his damage ability was, it would be useless.

However, he could only be a man for a few seconds. He did not have the ability to last long.

once someone got close enough to slash him, he would be instakilled.

Just like in the early stages of the game, Zhang Shan's attack power had always been much higher than other players.

He basically killed people in seconds.

However, even though Zhang Shan had a strong damaging ability, he could not play a decisive role in a chaotic battle.

He could only beat a few dozen people, or at most a few hundred.

If there were more enemies, Zhang Shan would not be able to hold on.

If the others charged and reached Zhang Shan's side, he would also fall to the ground.

Having a body full of skills, but having no place to put them to use, this was the tragedy of fragile professions.

But after obtaining the king's Cape, it was completely different.

Ever since he had the king's Cape, Zhang Shan could kill his way in and out of a crowd, and no one could do anything to him.

Not only that, with his maximum health being high enough, Zhang Shan could completely rely on himself to withstand the damage of most real-name bosses.

After that, they no longer needed to rely on the Panda bear to fight bosses.

In fact, after Zhang Shan had obtained the king's Cape, his health had always been much higher than the Panda bear.

It was much more reliable for him to tank the boss's damage on his own than through the Panda bear.

this was the power of the king's cape.

This cloak had been of great help to Zhang Shan. It could be said to be a piece of equipment that had undergone a qualitative change.

With the king's Cape, Zhang Shan's strength had undergone a fundamental change.

such divine equipment would only drop when the divine beast statue was destroyed in the world war.

At other times, it was impossible for players to obtain it.

Anyway, Zhang Shan had never heard of anyone using other means to obtain such an amazing piece of equipment.

The God weapons that dropped in the kingdom war should be some of the more unorthodox, but also extremely practical and powerful God weapons.

As Zhang Shan opened his mailbox to check, he was feeling uneasy. He did not know what kind of divine weapon he would be rewarded with this time.

To be honest, even Zhang Shan himself did not know what kind of divine weapon he needed the most.

The main thing was that he really didn't seem to lack anything now.

zhang shan had already gathered all of the offensive artifacts.

he did not need any defensive artifacts. to zhang shan, these were easy to get.

As for speed-type divine weapons, he didn't really need them.

Even though attack speed was extremely important to Zhang Shan.

However, he already had a spiritual weapon, hand of maedas, which increased his attack speed by 50%.

Even if he was given a divine weapon that increased attack speed, how much attack speed could he increase?

It couldn't be a hundred percent, right?

If it was a godly item that increased attack speed by 100%, that would be good too.

It could directly increase his damage output by 50%.

There shouldn't be such a good thing.

Zhang Shan opened his personal mail with an uneasy mood and retrieved the divine weapon that the system had rewarded him with.

Hmm, refresh ball?

What kind of godly weapon was this?

...

What was it used for?

After Zhang Shan took out the divine weapon and saw the name of the divine weapon, he could not help but be a little stunned.

The name of this divine weapon looked strange.

the shape of the divine weapon was like an exquisite pearl.

Could this be an accessory?

Zhang Shan could not help but guess.

If it was an accessory, then it would be a bit of a scam.

Zhang Shan was not lacking in accessories.

His three accessories had all been made into divine artifacts.

Even if he was given another accessory, it wouldn't be of much use.

he couldn't just throw away one of his accessories and put on a new one.

There was no need for that.

One had to know that Zhang Shan's three God-tier accessories were all set equipment.

only when all three accessories were equipped would the set effect be activated.

if he changed one of his pieces, he would not have the set effect anymore.

Looking at the name of the divine weapon, Zhang Shan felt conflicted. Please don't give him the same divine weapon.

That would be too awkward.

A complete divine artifact would be bound to the player after obtaining it, but it would not allow any transactions.

Even if Zhang Shan wanted to sell it to others, he could not.

If he was given a duplicate divine weapon, it would rot in his own hands.

Forget it, let's see the attributes and special effects of this artifact first.

If this artifact's attributes or special effects were heaven-defying, it wouldn't matter even if he replaced one of his accessories.

There was no need to feel conflicted. Anyway, the God equipment reward was just an accessory to the World War reward. He would just treat it as picking it up.

Giving him a practical divine weapon would be a pleasant surprise. Even if he was given a duplicate divine weapon, he would not have to be sad.

He would keep it as a memento.

Zhang Shan held the God equipment refresh ball and checked the item's attributes.

[refresh ball (celestial): hp +100000, mp +20000, all attributes +1000, equipment skill: Refresh.

equipment level (none);

[profession Requirements: None]

[durability: never worn out]

Bound to player six-barreled Bodhisattva, can not be dropped, effective when placed in backpack.

[refresh: using this skill will reset the cooldown of all skills of the character. Costs 20000 MP, cooldown time of skills is 24 hours.]

After looking at the attributes of the refresh sphere, Zhang Shan could not help but be stunned.

f * ck, there's actually such a divine weapon?

This respawning ball didn't take up any equipment slots and would take effect as soon as it was placed in the backpack.

Although this God equipment refresh orb had many other highlights, Zhang Shan had only paid attention to this at the first moment.

The mechanism of this item was similar to the killer book that Zhang Shan had obtained before.

However, the killer book wasn't an equipment. It was just a special item.

This respawning ball was a proper God equipment.

Unlike the killer book, this refresh orb had its own attributes.

The respawning orb increased 100000 health points, 20000 mana points, and 1000 points to all attributes.

It was a piece of equipment.

However, this God equipment didn't take up any equipment slots. This was unbelievable.

Of course, to Zhang Shan, it was great news that the refresh sphere did not take up any equipment slots.

In that case, he would have to worry about which equipment to change.

To be honest, other than the defensive equipment, Zhang Shan's equipment was still red.

zhang shan had never expected that he would encounter such a good thing.

Putting everything else aside, just the fact that it did not take up any equipment slots was enough to give him an additional 100000 HP for no reason.

This would greatly increase Zhang Shan's strength.

The refresh sphere could increase his health by 100000. With Zhang Shan, there were also two passive skills that could increase his health.

That was equivalent to increasing his HP by 120000. This was simply too awesome.

As for the increase of 20000 magic points, it did not have much effect on Zhang Shan.

This was because he didn't usually have many skills to use.

Zhang Shan's few explosive skills did not require much mana. Only the pomegranate bomb skill required some mana.

However, Zhang Shan's own mana was not considered low. After the previous two system rewards of all attributes +1000, he had already gained 1000 points.

Zhang Shan's current mana had long exceeded 20000. Even if he kept using the pomegranate scatter bomb skill, his mana was basically enough.

At most, he would have to bring some small blue bottles with him to replenish his blue from time to time.

However, with the addition of this respawn orb, Zhang Shan did not even need to carry a small blue Bottle in the future.

After the maximum amount of mana was increased, the speed of mana recovery would naturally increase.

Furthermore, Zhang Shan's intelligence was also very high.

Although he had added all his points to agility, and his equipment was also agility equipment.

however, after a few full attribute rewards, his intelligence attribute was much higher than many intelligence-based jobs.

especially after getting the refresh ball, zhang shan's blue had already reached more than 50000.

He now had an upper limit of more than 50000 mana, which was more than most of the big bosses of the magic profession, and his mana recovery speed was very fast.

this was very exaggerated.

of course, since the refresh orb had the word 'refresh' in it, its essence was naturally the refresh skill.

The question was, why would there be skills on the equipment?

New world had been open for quite some time. Zhang Shan would not be surprised to see all sorts of strange items in the game.

But what was with this refresh skill?

How could there be skills on equipment?

didn't all the other equipment have special effects?

Seeing this new skill, Zhang Shan felt that it was a little strange.

This was the first time he had seen a skill on an equipment, and it was a skill that could be used.

What kind of equipment mechanism was this?

Zhang Shan expressed that he could not understand it at all.

Of course, it didn't matter if he didn't understand it. He didn't dislike this skill.

In fact, this refresh skill was definitely a superb skill.

To be able to reset the cool down of all skills, how much of a BUG was that?

What did it mean to reset the cooldown time?

In other words, as long as Zhang Shan used the refresh ball, his ultimate and all his explosive skills could be used twice in a row.

It was simply exhilarating that he could even reset his ultimate skills.

With this divine weapon, it was equivalent to Zhang Shan being able to use the God's descent move twice in a row.

It was simply too awesome.

Think about it, after Zhang Shan had used his big move once, others would think that he had no big moves left. They might want to take the opportunity to mess with him.

Who would have thought that Zhang Shan could reset the cooldown time of his big move through the refresh ball and release his big move again?

As long as he kept it a secret, the first time Zhang Shan used his refresh skill, it would definitely make people's jaws drop. Hehe.

Thinking of this, Zhang Shan could not help but laugh in his heart.

This was a sinister Supreme-grade divine weapon.

Of course, the spawn point wasn't only useful in setting up traps, it was also useful in a direct fight against a BOSS.

For example, some real-name bosses might use their big moves more frequently, but Zhang Shan's God's descent skill could only be used once a day.

In other words, every time Zhang Shan fought a BOSS, he could only take one wave of damage from the BOSS's big move.

After obtaining the spawn point, he could use his ultimate skill twice and withstand two waves of the BOSS 'ultimate skills.

This had greatly increased his ability to tank the BOSS.

Zhang Shan looked at the refresh ball in his hand and could not help but be intoxicated by himself.

&Nbsp; this was truly a Supreme-quality divine artifact.

The products of a divine beast statue were definitely of high quality.

It was really a good item.

Zhang Shan placed the refresh ball back into his bag, and then checked his character's attributes.

[character: Bodhisattva of six tubes]

[Endowment: King of passive (every time you kill a monster, there is a chance to randomly obtain a passive skill from the monster. The chance of triggering it is one in a million.)]

Skill

With the support of the refresh orb, Zhang Shan's HP had almost reached a million.

As for his mana, it had also exceeded 50000.

Not only that, but Zhang Shan's attack power had also been strengthened.

Although the refresh sphere was not an attack-type equipment in any way, it was still a powerful weapon.

However, this equipment had given Zhang Shan 1000 points in all attributes.

This allowed Zhang Shan's attack power to increase by 1000, in addition to his various passive skills and special effects that increased attack power.

Zhang Shan's current panel attack power had already exceeded 63000.

If the double effect of the killer book was included, it would have about 130000 attack power.

On Zhang Shan's three accessories, there were also three special effects that increased damage. In addition, there were set effects, passive skills, and title buffs.

Zhang Shan still had six effects that increased damage.

The theoretical damage that he could deal by himself had already exceeded 200000.

In addition to the priest's attack blessing, his current theoretical damage was almost 250000.

It was really fierce.

He was already invincible, truly invincible.

With Zhang Shan's current attributes and skills, who could kill him?

Looking at his character's attributes, Zhang Shan could not help but feel proud.

However, he quickly regained his senses.

I can't be too complacent.

The divine weapon dropped by the divine beast statue was indeed so awesome.

However, in the entire game, there were seven national camps, which meant that there were seven statues of divine beasts.

So far, they had only destroyed two of them, which were the Black Dragon statue in the state of Qin and The White Tiger statue in the state of Zheng.

In addition, there were also five divine beast statues from five countries that had yet to be killed.

If Zhang Shan was able to obtain such a Supreme grade divine weapon, then others would naturally have the same opportunity.

Thinking of this, Zhang couldn't help but feel a little anxious.

This can't do. I can't let others destroy the divine beast statue.

However, there was nothing he could do about this.

The country war was not under Zhang Shan's control.

When was the country war going to start? who was going to fight who?

It was all arranged by the system, or rather, the game designer.

Other than being able to protect the Chu country's own divine beast statue, Zhang Shan seemed to be unable to do anything else.

While everyone was still reveling in the victory of the country war, Zhang Shan quietly opened the forums. He began to pay attention to the progress of the other two country Wars.

He hoped that the other two Kingdom Wars would end in a draw, especially the one between Zhao and Yan.

Please don't let any country's divine beast statue be destroyed by someone.

Zhang Shan was a little reluctant.

If these divine beast statues had been destroyed by someone else, then he would have no chance.

These divine beast statues, he would keep them for Chu to fight with next time.

in that case, even if he could not win against Zhang Shan, he could still get a few more supreme quality divine weapons.

Other than the Chu country's own divine beast statue, Zhang Shan still had a chance. He could at most get six supreme quality divine artifacts.

He wondered if the game producers would give him this opportunity.

Zhang Shan was quietly paying attention to the forum.

At this moment, the Zhao and Yan countries were in a heated battle.

It was the Zhao that had been attacking the Yan's altar, but the situation had reversed.

It became the Yan country's counterattack, while the Zhao country's players could only defend near their own altars and prepare to last until the end of the country war.

However, even though the Yan country's counterattack seemed to be very fierce, through Zhang Shan's observations, he felt that they did not have much of a chance.

Zhao had used up all their trump cards when they attacked the Yan altar.

However, they still had a lot of players left, and even if they used people to fill in the gaps, the Zhao players should be able to defend until the World War ended.

It seemed like there wouldn't be much of a problem with this country war.

The divine beast statues of these two families shouldn't be destroyed this time.

Thinking of this, Zhang Shan could not help but feel relieved.

Zhang Shan did not want to pay too much attention to the country war between the Zhao and Yan country, which was a competition between two noobs.

From Zhang Shan's point of view, it would be difficult to determine a winner between the two.

The final result would probably be a draw, and neither of them could even think about destroying the other's divine beast statue.

that's good, keep all the divine beast statues for me, hehe.

zhang shan turned his attention to the country war between the qin and wei countries.

The country war between the two bosses was really full of changes.

Even with Zhang Shan's vision, he could not tell what the final outcome of the battle between these two families would be.

in the beginning, the qin state had attacked the wei state's sacrificial altar, but now, the qin state had retreated to defend their own sacrificial altar.

However, the Wei players did not launch any large-scale attacks.

even after the state of qin had retreated, the god of war li jing had not launched an attack.

He still led his men to guard the Wei Kingdom's altar. Even if the Qin Kingdom players did not come to attack, he was still there.

It was just like how the God of War, Li Jing, did not want to win this country war.

li jing's operation made people feel that he only wanted a draw.

However, Zhang Shan knew that Li Jing, the God of War, was not such a person.

As the leader of the gaming world, how could he turn their First World War into a turtle war?

Only defending and not attacking?

That was impossible.

The God of War Li Jing was definitely preparing for a big move. Perhaps he wanted to slowly wear down the strength of the Qin players through defense.

When the difference in strength between the two sides reached a certain level, the God of War Li Jing would definitely launch a fierce attack.

of course, zhang shan was paying attention to the country war between the qin and wei countries. he was not worried that the wei country would bring him any trouble after winning.

There was no such thing at all.

Not to mention the war god Guild, their relationship with the wind and cloud Guild was still considered pretty good.

so far, there had been no major conflicts between the two sides, and they had even cooperated to fight bosses.

More importantly, the Wei country's enemy was the Qin country, Zhang Shan's old enemy.

Zhang Shan could not wait for the God of War Li Jing to lead the Wei players to beat up the domineering King.

zhang shan was not worried that the war god guild would pose any threat to him after winning the world war.

No, they had always been the number one Guild in the gaming world.

Even if the wind cloud Guild had Zhang Shan, they had never had the thought of becoming the number one Guild.

The war god Guild's strength was obvious. It wasn't something that the wind cloud Guild could compare to.

There was no war god Guild, no threat to wind and cloud Guild, no threat to Zhang Shan.

As the number one Guild in the gaming world, in Zhang Shan's eyes.

The war god Guild would never threaten others, nor would it fear threats.

The war god Guild was indeed that strong. As for how strong they were, Zhang Shan did not know.

The reason why Zhang Shan paid so much attention to the World War between these two guilds was because he wanted to see how strong the war god Guild, as the leader of the gaming world, was.

what kind of strength could allow the war god guild to firmly hold the position of number one in the top ten guilds? no one had ever succeeded in challenging it.

perhaps through this country war, he would be able to see some clues.

As for if the Wei country really wanted to destroy the Qin country's divine beast statue, that would not affect Zhang Shan at all.

After all, the Black Dragon statue in Qin State had already been destroyed by their Chu State once.

even if the wei country won the country war, they would only receive a week's worth of double experience points and not a divine weapon.

If one wanted to obtain a complete divine weapon in the kingdom war, one could only obtain it by killing the divine beast statue first.

This time, God of War Li Jing didn't stand a chance.

Chapter 539-the number one Guild lives up to its reputation

Zhang Shan was paying attention to the country war between the Wei and Qin countries.

The other Chu players also slowly recovered from the joy of winning the World War.

Suddenly, a player from Chu State asked in the National channel.

"Eh, didn't they say that the first clear of the divine beast statue would reward me with a divine artifact? Who was the divine artifact awarded to? Why didn't I see it on the equipment ranking?"

"Do you still need to ask? It has to be given to the six-barreled boss. Who can beat him? Didn't you see the system announcement just now?"

"F * ck, was there an announcement just now? I really didn't see this, I only saw the announcement of the country war's victory."

"Blind man."

But the problem is, there's no new divine weapon on the equipment list.

"No way. I'll go take a look."

f * ck, there really isn't any new divine weapon. That's weird. Did the system swallow the divine weapon of the six-barreled boss? "

"What are you guys thinking? It wasn't strange that the new God equipment didn't appear on the equipment list. After winning the last world war, the divine weapon that Big Boss six-barreled obtained wasn't on the equipment list either, right?"

That seems to be the case. What was the divine artifact that the six-barreled boss obtained last time? What is the divine artifact this time? "

"Last time, the Black Dragon statue seemed to have dropped a divine cloak. It was a very impressive cloak. I don't know this time, you'll have to ask the six-barreled boss."

Big Boss Guan, come out and take a few steps. Show us your new divine weapon.

Big Boss six-barreled, come out and take a few steps. Let's open our eyes.

.....

After the World War ended, Zhang Shan exited the World War map and used the positioning ball to return to the location where he had completed the mission.

He started to farm for materials while paying attention to the kingdom war between the Wei and Qin.

Since the country war had ended, he had taken all the benefits.

Naturally, Zhang Shan had to return to the normal course of the game. He had to continue with his tasks and continue to farm for materials.

he would try to get the full set of divine artifacts as soon as possible. then, he could try to see how strong the demon god was.

Zhang Shan wanted to test what kind of strength was needed to challenge the demon God.

Zhang Shan believed that after he had created a full set of divine weapons, even if he could not defeat the demon God, he would not be killed by the demon God in an instant.

He should still be able to test the devil's firepower.

After all, it would be a few months before he could get a full set of divine artifacts.

After a few months, not only would Zhang Shan be able to obtain a full set of divine equipment, his level would also increase by a lot.

A conservative estimate would allow him to reach level 70.

Zhang Shan's current level was level 59. In a few more days, he would be able to reach level 60.

He was still short of five pieces of defensive equipment before he could get a full set of divine artifacts.

According to Zhang Shan's estimation, he would need about ten days to complete a divine weapon mission.

Not counting the time it took to get the mold for the divine weapon, just the time it took to complete the quest alone would take about two months.

It shouldn't be a problem for him to reach rank 70 in two months.

However, the later the game, the slower it was to level up.

However, Zhang Shan's level up efficiency was there for all to see.

Even if it was difficult to level up, he should be able to reach level 70 in two months.

When he reached level 70, he would have a full set of divine equipment.

Zhang Shan believed that the difference between him and the demon God would not be so exaggerated. It would not be a problem to test it out.

After all, other than the godly equipment on his body, in Zhang Shan's backpack, there was still the killer book and the refresh ball.

Moreover, he had so many passive skills.

With the support of these special items and passive skills, if Zhang Shan could not even test the demon God, then ...

The demon God was too powerful. How were the other players going to fight the demon God in the future?

If Zhang Shan could not defeat the demon God when he reached level 70, then the other players would probably not be able to defeat it even when they reached level 100.

The game probably wouldn't set it like this.

They couldn't just say that the demon God was just a background character that players couldn't kill.

If that was the case, he would just accept it.

As Zhang Shan completed his missions, he was also paying attention to the battle situation between the Wei and Qin country on the forum.

As for the other players who wanted him to show them the attributes of the new divine weapon on the National channel?

zhang shan did not want to bother about it.

The spawn point wasn't an ordinary artifact. If it could be hidden, it would be best to hide it for a while.

It was not to say that Zhang Shan was planning to use the refresh ball to trick someone.

There was no need for that.

In reality, with Zhang Shan's current strength, even without the refresh ball, he could face any challenge.

As long as he didn't seek death, who could beat him to death?

Zhang Shan did not want to reveal the attributes of the refresh ball. He was afraid that the other players would not be able to take the blow.

This was because the God equipment, the refresh sphere, was simply too powerful.

Zhang Shan was a little worried. After others saw the attributes of the refresh ball, they would be so jealous that they would vomit blood.

as such, for the sake of others, he would not let others see this godly weapon.

Just as Zhang Shan was farming for quest materials, wind and cloud blade called out to him.

Big Boss six-barreled, what are you doing? why did you disappear as soon as the World War ended? "

"He's farming materials for a quest."

"Damn, why are you running so fast? What kind of divine weapon did you get in the kingdom war?"

"An extremely top-grade divine weapon, hehe."

"Send it to me,"

...

"Forget it, I'm afraid you won't be able to stand it."

big brother, when did you become so mischievous? hurry up and send me the divine weapon.

Since wind and cloud blade insisted, Zhang Shan did not say anything more. He displayed the attributes of the refresh ball in the chat channel and reminded him.

don't go around talking nonsense. This thing is the most effective when it's suddenly used.

"Don't worry, I won't say anything."

After Windcloud blade casually said this, he went to check the spawn point's attributes. After looking at it for a while, he exclaimed in surprise.

"F * ck, there's such an awesome divine artifact? It didn't take up any equipment slots. Wasn't that equivalent to giving you one more piece of equipment than others? This is too unfair."

"Haha, I didn't expect such a good thing to happen either."

To Zhang Shan, although the refreshing orb was a godly item with various benefits, the biggest advantage was that it did not take up any equipment space.

This was because every player's equipment position was fixed.

In addition to the special items, each player could only wear ten pieces of equipment. There would be no space for more.

No matter how many divine weapons one had, it would be useless if there were no extra equipment slots.

However, the refreshing orb solved this problem perfectly. It did not take up any equipment space, and as long as it was placed in the backpack, it would take effect.

It was equivalent to giving Zhang Shan one more piece of equipment than others for no reason.

Not to mention the attributes of the refresh ball, the refresh skill was also very impressive.

Even if it was just a piece of equipment with trashy attributes, just the fact that it did not take up any equipment slots was enough to make people jealous.

Wind cloud blade said enviously.

sigh, how can you still get such an amazing thing when you're already so strong? how are the others going to play with you? "

"Hehe, I told you not to look, but you didn't believe me. Now you're jealous."

"Why should I be jealous? no matter how perverted you are, I'm already used to it."

by the way, what's the plan for tonight? do you want to farm monsters together? "

Windcloud blade asked.

because they had just won the kingdom war, when midnight began, their chu country would receive double the experience points. that was why wind and cloud blade had asked this question.

keep farming. It'll be a waste if you don't farm monsters after getting double.

“I thought you were going to continue your mission.”

“Quests can be done at any time, but the double exp reward isn’t always available.”

Although Zhang Shan needed to complete the material task, this matter was not urgent. After all, it would not take a while to get the divine weapon.

If he wanted to get the full set of divine artifacts, it would take about two months. He would be able to get it done sooner or later.

In comparison, leveling up was also very important. The time for the double exp was very rare.

For now, unless they won the World War, there was no other way to get double experience in this game.

of course, zhang shan had to take advantage of the double experience to level up.

Putting everything else aside, a week of double experience would at least allow him to level up twice.

If it was during normal times, it would not be so easy for Zhang Shan to increase his level.

“Okay, then we’ll gather at midnight and go farm monsters together.”

“Yes.”

After ending the call with wind and cloud blade, Zhang Shan continued to farm for materials and complete quests alone in the Heaven’s Gate map.

This mission of making Purple Rose boots required more than 200 materials.

Zhang Shan had only completed about 20 of them. He was still far from it.

He would take it slowly, and there would be a time when it was settled.

As Zhang Shan was farming monsters, he was also paying attention to the battle between the Wei and Qin countries.

When the Qin players retreated to defend the altar, Li Jing didn’t take the initiative to attack. Instead, he remained at the Wei’s altar.

When the time reached 9 pm, there was only an hour left before the end of the world War.

Under Li Jing’s command, the players who were guarding the altar in Wei Kingdom quickly gathered.

After a short while, countless Wei players formed a huge group and headed toward the altar in the state of Qin.

At this point, Zhang Shan’s eyes could not help but light up. Was the God of War Li Jing finally going to make a move?

Zhang Shan had long thought that it was impossible for the God of War Li Jing to be like a tortoise guarding his own altar.

He would definitely take the initiative to attack the altar of the state of Qin. He wanted to destroy the Black Dragon statue of the state of Qin and win the country war.

If they just relied on defense, they wouldn't be able to win the country war. At most, it would be a draw.

Zhang Shan believed that a draw was not what the God of War Li Jing was after.

The God of War Li Jing's goal was to destroy the Black Dragon statue of the Qin State and win the first Kingdom war of the Wei State.

Even if the Wei Kingdom players destroyed the Black Dragon statue of the Qin Kingdom, they would not be rewarded with a divine weapon.

At most, the system would reward him with double experience for a week after winning the World War.

However, even if there were no rewards, Li Jing would still take the initiative to attack.

Otherwise, they wouldn't be able to live up to their reputation as the number one Guild.

Ever since the Wei players took the initiative to attack, Zhang Shan had been paying more attention to their movements.

In fact, Zhang Shan was not the only one paying attention to the movements of the Wei players.

Other than the Zhao and Yan players who were fighting, everyone else naturally put down what they were doing.

Everyone perked up and focused on the video collection on the forum. Everyone wanted to see it.

As the game's number one Guild, how strong would the war god Guild's first explosive power be?

Everyone knew that the war god Guild was the number one Guild in the game and no one dared to provoke them.

However, under the leadership of the God of War Li Jing, the God of War Guild had always been lukewarm. It had never made much of a move.

Even in this country war, at the start, it was the Qin players who suppressed the Wei.

The Wei players were only guarding their own altars, which was completely inconsistent with their status as the number one Guild.

Now, the Wei players had finally started to take the initiative, and everyone wanted to see it.

Under the leadership of the God of War Li Jing, how terrifying would the thunderous strike of the Wei Kingdom be?

After a short while, the Wei Kingdom's players slowly arrived near the Qin Kingdom's altar after more than ten minutes of marching.

Under Li Jing's orders, the 50 to 60 million Wei players quickly spread out.

Among them, about three million Wei Kingdom players followed Li Jing, the God of War, and their target was the Black Dragon statue on the altar.

The other Wei players were scattered around the altar, preparing to attack the Qin players.

in less than two minutes, god of war li jing had arranged the formation of the team.

In the game, as long as the players were obedient, this arrangement would be very fast.

After all, every player had their own small team.

As long as the order was passed to the small teams, everyone would be able to move quickly.

Commanding in-game was much easier than in real life.

after the god of war li jing made the arrangements, he led the three million people around him and charged towards the altar of the state of qin.

Wargod Li Jing was at the forefront. As soon as the two sides came into contact, the members of the Wargod Guild began to use their ultimate skills to quickly open up a path.

Countless Wei players followed this path and quickly advanced toward the altar of Qin.

the war god guild's members didn't just use one ultimate skill. instead, they used various ultimate skills alternately.

After a short while, they advanced to the bottom of the altar's passage.

Seeing this, Zhang Shan could not help but sigh. The war god Guild was indeed the number one Guild in the gaming world.

How the hell did they have so many ultimate skills?

Zhang Shan carefully counted. In that short period of time, the war god Guild had used 11 big moves.

This was just the beginning. The real battle between the two sides should be on the altar's platform.

just to reach the altar, the war god guild had already used so many powerful skills.

That could only mean that they had enough trump cards and were confident that they could quickly defeat the Qin players.

Otherwise, they definitely wouldn't have used such a big move. Wasn't it a waste? Wouldn't it be better to save the big move for the final battle on the platform?

However, the war god Guild didn't hold back their ultimate skill. Instead, they went all out from the start.

It could only be said that the war god Guild was really generous. They didn't take their big moves seriously and could use them as they pleased.

After rushing to the foot of the Qin altar, the Wei players did not stop.

Instead, under the leadership of God of War Li Jing, they continued to follow the passage and attack the altar.

The war god Guild's players once again used three ultimate skills and cleared out a large number of Qin players in the passage.

So far, the war god Guild had used a total of 14 ultimate skills.

The number of these big moves was even more than their wind and cloud Guild.

To this, Zhang Shan only wanted to say.

It was so f * cking fierce.

He was rich.

One had to know that the wind and cloud Guild was able to get so many ultimate skills because of Zhang Shan.

Under Zhang Shan's leadership, they had defeated countless real-name bosses. That was how the big shots in the Guild had managed to obtain so many ultimate skill books.

however, the war god guild could not. they did not have a strong player like zhang shan.

The war god Guild had not fought many real-name bosses before.

As for the ultimate skill book, even though other bosses and monsters had a chance of dropping it, it was still a skill book.

However, the chances of that happening were pitifully low.

In the entire game, there were only a few ultimate skill books that dropped from killing small monsters or other bosses.

If he really wanted to get the ultimate skill book, he would still have to fight real-name bosses.

zhang shan really did not know where the war god guild had gotten these skill books from.

This was not just about having money.

Many of the items in the game couldn't be bought with money. One had to have a channel and have someone willing to sell them to you.

The fact that the war god Guild was able to obtain so many ultimate skill books was a Testament to their influence in the game.

Being able to buy top-grade items was also a form of influence.

Otherwise, if everyone could afford the good items, why would others sell them to the war god Guild and not others?

The war god Guild had used 14 ultimate skills in one go, which had really shocked Zhang Shan.

However, what shocked him even more was yet to come.

After the ultimate skill was used, the Wei players were still on the way to charge.

They had only walked about half of the path that led to the altar platform in the state of Qin.

they hadn't even gotten close to the altar's platform, much less land on it.

Under normal circumstances, the Wei Kingdom's players would have to rely on human lives to fill the remaining path.

Only by sacrificing a large number of people would the Wei players have a chance to reach the altar.

However, God of War Li Jing's operation wasn't like that.

When the God of War's big moves were all used up, Li Jing took out a scroll.

endless lightning and thunder enveloped the qin players who were defending the tunnel.

in an instant, a large number of qin players were defeated.

The Wei Kingdom's players took the opportunity to rush forward.

When a scroll's duration ended, God of War Li Jing took out another scroll and continued to cast.

Just like that, with the help of the scrolls, the Wei Kingdom's players quickly rushed up to the Qin Kingdom's altar platform.

Their footsteps had never stopped at all, and they had always been on the road of charging.

The Qin players were also very confused.

The close combat that they had imagined never happened.

Under the suppression of Li Jing's scroll, the skills of the players from the state of Qin were completely useless.

It allowed the Wei country players to attack the altar platform.

During this time, the Subjugator had also used a few scrolls.

However, in the face of the God of War Li Jing, who threw out scrolls as if they were free, the domineering King's operation seemed so powerless.

Facing the Wei Kingdom's players 'charge, the domineering King had no way of defending himself.

Even though domineering aura was very strong and had many high-end players, they were still no match for Li Jing's continuous use of scrolls.

They had no way to deal with it and could only watch as the Wei Kingdom's players rushed up to the altar.

The following battle was even simpler.

after he rushed up to the altar's platform, the god of war li jing did not stop his scroll-casting.

He continued to throw out scrolls one after another until a large number of Wei players rushed up to the altar platform and wiped out all the Qin players on the platform.

Only then did the God of War Li Jing stop and take out a scroll from his backpack.

Zhang Shan counted seriously. In that short period of time, God of War Li Jing had thrown out a total of 18 scrolls.

This was too f * cking heroic.

One must know that it was very difficult to collect scrolls.

Feng Yun realm had only prepared five to six scrolls.

It was not that Feng Yun realm did not want to buy more scrolls, but there was simply no place to buy them.

Every time a scroll appeared, it would be quickly snatched away by everyone.

In fact, it wasn't just the wind and cloud Guild that was in this situation. The other guilds were in similar situations.

Generally speaking, everyone's inventory of scrolls would not exceed ten.

This also depended on whether they often fought, if they usually fought a lot.

They might have used up all the scrolls, and by the time the World War started, they might not have any left.

It was already considered good for Feng Yun realm to have five or six scrolls.

after clearing the players from the state of qin on the platform, a large group of players from the state of wei surrounded the statue of the divine beast of the state of qin and started to hack at it.

As for the domineering King, he had originally wanted to struggle a little.

In the beginning, he kept resurrecting on the spot.

However, very quickly, the tyrant king gave up. This kind of meaningless struggle, he left the World War map.

At this point, Zhang Shan could not help but have a deep understanding of the strength of the war god Guild.

although the series of actions just now seemed to be done by the war god guild, who kept using big moves, it was still a pity.

Then, it was God of War Li Jing's turn to continuously throw out scrolls.

It seemed that this was just the face of a nouveau riche without any technical content.

however, zhang shan knew that this was the true display of strength.

Not to mention other things, how difficult was it to get scrolls in the game?

Many people had money, but you didn't even know where they were going to buy.

even for Zhang Shan himself, he could be considered someone who was not short of money.

however, if he were to go and buy scrolls ...

Even if he spent half a month in the game, he might not be able to buy a single scroll.

The fact that the war god Guild was able to accumulate so many scrolls and ultimate skills was a manifestation of their popularity and credibility.

Even though Zhang Shan could be considered the number one player in new world.

However, Zhang Shan knew that he did not have such popularity, nor did he have such credibility.

Seeing the God of War Guild's actions, Zhang Shan only wanted to say, "

The game's number one Guild was indeed worthy of its reputation.

Chapter 540 Bullied by a group of small monsters after the Wei Kingdom's players had cleared out the Qin Kingdom's players on the altar, they started to attack the black dragon statue happily.

At this point, Zhang Shan did not continue and paid attention to their country war.

this was because there was nothing much to see after this.

the remaining time in this country war was just trash time, and there was no longer any suspense.

Although the amount of blood in the divine beast statue was very high, it was not easy for many people to deal with it.

however, it was still early.

There was still half an hour before the world War ended, and the Wei Kingdom's players were quite strong.

The remaining time would be enough for the Wei players to destroy the Black Dragon statue.

Previously, Zhang Shan and the rest had only used ten minutes to destroy the state of Zheng's white Tiger statue.

He believed that the Wei players would need about the same amount of time to destroy the Black Dragon statue.

in less than 10 minutes, the Wei players would be able to destroy the black dragon statue of the Qin players.

Through this world War, Zhang Shan finally recognized the strength of the war god Guild.

to be honest, Zhang Shan had originally thought that with guild subjugator in the Qin country, even if they could not win the country war.

However, it shouldn't be too much of a problem for them to guard the altar and the divine beast statues.

Even if the Qin country couldn't get past the divine beast statue, they should at least be able to fight with the Wei country players.

However, the truth was that it was a slap to Zhang Shan's face.

He had never thought that there would be such a huge difference in strength between the number one and number two guilds in the gaming world.

Speaking of which, why did the domineering King have to jump around like this in the past? Their strength could not be compared to the war god Guild's.

Where did Subjugator get the confidence to challenge the position of war God's guild leader?

Just like in the chaotic battle just now, under the leadership of the god of war Li Jing, the Wei kingdom was attacking the Qin kingdom's players.

The strength of both sides was not on the same level at all.

Such an obvious difference in strength, could the tyrant king not see it?

Or could it be that domineering Aura's strength could have been very strong?

However, they had fought against the Wind and Cloud Guild too many times and had exhausted their strength.

Was that why he was so weak in this country war?

In fact, Guild tyrannical ambition was still quite strong.

Zhang Shan felt that this was really possible.

It must be known that Subjugator had fought with Zhang Shan's Wind Cloud Guild more than once or twice.

The two sides had fought a few times, but every time, the domineering King would be defeated by Zhang Shan and the others.

Not to mention anything else, the Qin State had already lost the last country war with the Chu State.

As a result, all of the players from the state of Qin suffered a one-week penalty. Their experience and drop rate were halved.

It was almost as if the players in the state of Qin would not be able to play for a week.

And every time he fought with Zhang Shan and the others, the domineering King would have to use up his trump card.

Even if the tyrant king was rich, he would not be able to afford the consumption of a few scrolls each time.

If not, there was no way that the tyrant king would only be able to take out a few scrolls in this world war.

This was because his scrolls had all been used up in the previous chaotic battles with the wind and cloud Guild.

However, the war god Guild was completely different. From the start of the game until now, the war god Guild had basically never had a large-scale chaotic war with other player forces.

that was why god of war li jing could store so many scrolls.

After being attacked by the wind and cloud Guild multiple times, it had severely affected the development of the domineering aura Guild in the game.

Other than the expenditure of funds and resources, the biggest loss for domineering aura was its popularity.

In every chaotic battle, domineering aura would be beaten to the ground by wind and cloud Guild. This made many players shamelessly doubt domineering Aura's strength.

In this game, the popularity of Guild Subjugator was severely depleted.

In the game, without enough popularity, it would be very difficult for a large guild to develop.

This was why they were caught and beaten up by the God of War Li Jing in this country war.

That is, if domineering aura had started developing at the start of the game.

Even if they couldn't defeat the war god Guild, they should at least be able to make a few rounds.

Unlike today, it was like a father beating his son, which made people sigh.

The performance of the domineering aura Guild in this world War was completely out of line with their reputation as the number two Guild in the game.

Zhang Shan felt that if the domineering aura Guild continued like this, their position as the second Guild might not be stable.

But this had nothing to do with Zhang Shan.

Zhang Shan could not wait for the domineering aura Guild to decline so that the iron-headed domineering King would not keep finding trouble with him.

Once the domineering aura Guild weakened, domineering King would probably not be in the mood to find trouble with him.

Zhang Shan took a look at the Wei players who were surrounding the Black Dragon statue on the altar. He did not pay any more attention to them.

There was no need to watch anymore, since the outcome was already decided.

Zhang Shan turned around and looked at the battle between the Zhao and Yan countries.

He couldn't help but shake his head.

The country war between these two families had already started, and it was truly a competition between noobs.

the yan players were still surrounding the zhao altar.

However, they couldn't even make it halfway through the altar before they were taken down by the Zhao players.

Of course, that was all the Zhao players could do. They didn't have the ability to kick the Yan players out of the altar.

In general, the Yan Kingdom was still the attacker, but their attack was very weak.

As for the state of zhao, they thought that they should be able to protect the altar.

But that was all.

The strength of the Zhao players had been greatly depleted at the start of the country war.

Right now, they were completely powerless to fight back. They could only guard the altar and the divine beast statue until the kingdom war ended.

Zhang Shan could not help but shake his head as he watched the country war between the Zhao and Yan countries. There was nothing much to see in this country war.

Zhang Shan closed the forum and stopped paying attention to the News of the World War.

Out of the three country Wars that had started at the same time, only the country war between Zhang Shan's Chu and Zheng country had ended.

The other two country Wars had not ended yet.

However, at this stage, the progress of the next two country Wars would be the same whether they watched or not.

Wei would definitely win the country war, while Zhao and Yan would probably only end up in a draw.

To Zhang Shan, such an ending was already considered perfect.

Zhang Shan no longer paid attention to the country war. Instead, he focused on collecting materials and completing his missions. Although the divine weapon mission was not that easy to complete.

However, it was also good to get one more material.

After a while, just as Zhang Shan was farming for materials, a system announcement sounded.

≪ system announcement: Wei has defeated Qin, winning this world War. Wei players have received double experience. Duration: 1 week. ≫

The great Qin has lost in this world War, and all of its players will be punished for losing.

In the following week, the experience of players from the state of Qin would be halved, the drop-rate of items would be halved, and the consumption would be doubled.

After seeing the system announcement, Zhang Shan could not help but be silent.

As expected, the Qin country lost the country war again.

Under the leadership of the God of War Li Jing, the Wei players beat up the Qin players like they were their sons.

From the moment the Wei country players started to attack, there was no more suspense in this country war.

Zhang Shan didn't know what the domineering King was feeling at this moment.

He must be very depressed.

They had lost two world wars in a row. They had completely let down their reputation as the second Guild.

Although the strength of the Qin players was still at the top of the seven countries.

However, losing two country Wars in a row was a huge blow to their morale.

How could the Qin players have any confidence in their own camp?

Moreover, they always lost the country Wars, so the new players didn't dare to join the country of Qin.

how could the new players be interested in a country that was beaten up every day?

If there were no new players, the decline of the Qin would be inevitable.

It was only new world that did not allow betrayal.

If not, Zhang Shan felt that there might be many Qin players who would want to defect to other countries 'camps.

The current state of Qin really did not have a future no matter how one looked at it.

Losing every time they fought, this was too hurtful.

Who would be willing to stay in such a camp?

If the domineering King didn't change his strategy, it might not be long.

The Qin country would most likely be reduced to a second-rate camp.

However, all of this had nothing to do with Zhang Shan.

He was a player of Chu, and it was fine as long as Chu was strong.

zhang shan could not wait for the other countries to be weak.

Especially the Qin country, they had many conflicts with them.

Zhang Shan would only be happy and would never have any regrets.

The announcement of Wei's victory over Qin did not cause any fluctuations in Zhang Shan's heart.

He only glanced at the announcement and did not pay any more attention to it.

This was a good thing for him and the players of Chu.

Zhang Shan walked around The Map of Heaven's Gate. After he had finished farming a type of material, he followed the mission instructions and headed to the next location.

Time slowly passed by, and when it was 10 pm, the system announcement sounded out once more.

[system announcement: the country of Zhao and the country of Yan have failed to destroy each other's godly beast statue. This country war has ended in a draw.]

There were no rewards or punishments for both parties.

Zhang Shan glanced at the notice and continued to collect materials for his mission.

The outcome was within his expectations.

It was a good thing that Zhao and Yan were tied.

The divine beast statues of these two families were still intact and had not been destroyed.

he hoped that in the next kingdom war, their chu kingdom would be able to meet one of these two kingdoms.

This way, Zhang Shan could get another supreme quality divine weapon.

Of course, this was just Zhang Shan's wish. As for whether it could be realized, only God knew.

To be honest, Zhang Shan was not afraid of a country war.

With the exception of the Wei country, the war god Guild was ridiculously strong. Chu country probably couldn't beat them.

As for the other five countries, Zhang Shan was confident that his Chu country would be able to defeat them.

As long as they met each other in the country war, letting them go would be like giving them benefits.

Of course, it would be best if they encountered Zhao, Yan, and Qi.

The divine beast statues of these three countries had not been blown up before.

As long as one destroyed the statues of the Three Kingdoms, one would be rewarded with a Supreme-grade divine weapon.

Zhang Shan had always been envious of the divine weapons dropped by the divine beast statues.

Even though he had already obtained two of such godly items, Zhang Shan was still very eager for the remaining few.

The divine weapon dropped by the divine beast statue was too powerful.

How could it be enough to only get two? if Zhang Shan could get all of them, that would be perfect.

He hoped that he would have such an opportunity.

Although Zhang Shan was looking forward to it, he did not think too much about it.

The World War wasn't under the players' control, so the game designers had the final say.

Let's leave everything to fate.

After the three country Wars were over, some were happy while others were worried.

The players of Chu and Wei were naturally happy.

If they won the World War, they would receive a double exp reward for a week.

By midnight, everyone would be able to enjoy the double experience.

However, the players from the state of Zheng and the state of Qin were not happy.

If they lost the country war, they would be punished.

Furthermore, the punishment for losing the kingdom war was extremely severe.

The experience, drop, and consumption will be halved for a week.

He believed that in the next week, the number of online players in the game would drop to an all-time low.

After all, not many people could bear the punishment of losing the country war.

With this kind of punishment, what game was there to play? it was better to just give herself a few days off and go out to play.

As for the players from the country of Zhao and country of Yan, they were probably emotionless.

although they did not win the country war, they did not lose either.

A draw should still be acceptable to them.

&Nbsp; even if there were no rewards, that was okay. He would just treat it as having another country war experience.

Zhang Shan walked around The Map of Heaven's Gate continuously. After he had finished farming one material, he would turn to the next.

When it was almost 12 o'clock in the evening, Windcloud blade called out in the party channel.

let's not do the quest anymore. Gather up and get ready to farm monsters. The double exp is about to begin. We're in a hurry. Let's not waste a single minute.

right away. I'll come after I'm done with the materials here.

"where are we going to farm later? Where should we gather?"

of course we're going to the Gerri wilderness. Don't we all farm monsters there? " don't. The wildebeest of the Gerri wilderness is only a level 55 wild monster. It's not very interesting for us to farm it. Why don't we find another place to farm it? "

"then where can i go? Did you find a new farming spot?"

"We haven't found it yet, but we can go to Fengyun city to look for it. There aren't many people there. It shouldn't be too difficult for us to find a place to farm monsters, right?"

zhang shan said.

let's go to wind Cloud City to look for it. Whoever has time, go and look for it first. I'll come back after I finish farming the materials here.

With their current level, it was a waste to farm the wildebeest in the Gerri wilderness. There was no need to do so.

Zhang Shan was almost level 60 now, and he could deal close to 250000 damage every time.

On the other hand, the wildebeest in Gerri wilderness only had a total of five to six health points. It would be a waste to have such a serious injury.

Other than Zhang Shan, the rest of his friends were all over level 55.

They could simply go and find higher level monsters to farm.

The wild monsters in wind Cloud City were all level 70 and above, which was just right for them to farm.

As for the fact that they had yet to find a suitable farming spot?

This didn't matter much, and there was still time to find one now.

After Zhang Shan finished, wind and cloud blade continued.

"Then I'll go to wind Cloud City to find a farming spot. I just finished farming a type of mission material."

Zhang Shan replied to wind and cloud blade.

alright, you can go first. I should be able to go over soon.

then you guys go ahead first. I haven't gotten any materials since the end of the world War. I don't know how long it will take for me to get them.

The little fairy said gloomily.

hearing her words, zhang shan could only express his sympathy.

It had been almost three hours since they finished the country war.

Little fairy hadn't even gotten a single material yet. He had to say that his luck was pitiful.

but no one could help her with this, so she could only wish her good luck.

zhang shan continued to farm for a while, and suddenly heard a "ding" sound.

He opened his backpack and saw that he had obtained another material.

Done.

He put away the items and began to cast a recall bar, preparing to go to wind Cloud City to find a farming spot.

Wind and cloud blade had left first, but there had been no news from him. He had probably not found it yet.

When he returned to the city to pack up, everyone would look for it together.

zhang shan returned to dangyang city, cleared his backpack, and repaired all his equipment. then, he teleported to wind cloud city.

after arriving at wind cloud city, zhang shan checked the location of wind cloud blade through the team information.

His position was moving rapidly.

It was likely that wind and cloud blade was still looking for a farming spot.

Zhang Shan shouted on the team channel.

"One blade, you still haven't found a farming spot?"

no, I just saw one, but there's already a group of Wei players there. I'm embarrassed to Rob them.

"It's fine, continue looking. There are plenty of farming spots, so it shouldn't be too hard to find."

"Yes."

Zhang Shan teleported to the East Gate of wind Cloud City and rushed out of the city on his Red Hare.

On the way, he saw groups of wild monsters everywhere, but Zhang Shan did not pay them any attention.

These wild monsters were all under the protection of the Holy demon, so it was okay to temporarily farm them.

however, it was definitely not possible to farm for a long time. it would affect their leveling efficiency too much.

If he wanted to farm monsters for a long time, he would have to find those wild monsters that didn't have the Holy demon's protection.

on the map, zhang shan was flying at high speed.

He specifically picked those remote places to search.

Based on past experience, if he wanted to find a monster spot that didn't have the Holy demon's protection ...

He could only search in remote places. Only in remote places could he find a special map and find wild monsters without the Holy demon's protection.

Just as Zhang Shan was running, Windcloud blade shouted in the party channel.

"Come quickly, there's a monster farming spot here."

Zhang Shan looked at the position of wind and cloud blade and asked.

"It hasn't been occupied, has it?"

there are some Yan Kingdom players, but there aren't many of them. We don't need to worry about them.

"Alright, I'll be there immediately."

He heard that there were some Yan players at the farming spot that Windcloud blade had found.

Zhang Shan was not too bothered. They were not planning to steal other people's farming spots.

He was only going to grind for a while.

He couldn't just stop the Yan players from farming monsters.

Furthermore, Windcloud blade had also mentioned that there were not many Yan Kingdom players there.

The Yan Kingdom players must have not blocked the entrance to the map.

Since that was the case, it shouldn't be a problem for them to go over and farm monsters for a few days.

Zhang Shan quickly ran towards the position of wind and cloud blade.

After a while, he saw a dark path.

Zhang Shan followed the small path forward. After a while, he received a system prompt.

[system notification: you have entered the dark swamp.]

Seeing the notification, Zhang Shan knew that wind and cloud blade had found the right place.

Only in this kind of special map that was independent of the Heaven's Gate map would there be wild monsters without the Holy demon's protection.

The experience points given by these monsters were basically the same as the ones outside.

However, the difficulty of farming monsters was much easier.

After all, the monsters here didn't have the Holy demon's protection, so everyone could basically deal full damage.

Zhang Shan stood at the entrance of the map and looked around.

He didn't see anyone nearby.

In other words, this was an ownerless farming spot that everyone could come over to farm.

Zhang Shan found the position of Wind and Cloud Blade through the team information, and then quickly ran over.

When Zhang Shan found Wind and Cloud Blade, he saw him alone, fighting hard against a group of crocodile monsters.

Zhang Shan quickly ran over and stood beside Wind and Cloud Blade. He started to clear the monsters with his gun.

Every time he fired a shot, 12 crocodile monsters would fall to the ground.

Zhang Shan attacked while checking the attributes of the crocodile monster.

[enchanted swamp crocodile: level 75, attack 16000, HP 120000, skill: vitality (passive)]

[vitality (passive): greatly increases health regeneration speed.]

These crocodile monsters were alright, not too strong.

Of course, this was only to Zhang Shan, who was not considered strong.

To other players, a level 75 crocodile monster was not weak at all.

These demonized crocodiles had 16000 attack power. A normal player would be in pain if they were bitten by them.

After all, most players only had around 70000 to 80000 HP.

Even the stronger players only had a little more than 100000 HP.

Of course, The Guardian Warriors were an exception.

It was normal for those powerful guardian warriors to have more than 300000 hp.

For normal players, being bitten by the crocodile monsters here was still very uncomfortable.

Just like Wind and Cloud Blade, he could barely hold on against a group of crocodile monsters.

A few crocodile monsters bit him at the same time, causing Wind and Cloud Blade's health bar to drop continuously.

Wind and Cloud Blade had to continuously take big red Medicine to barely maintain his health.

Otherwise, he would have been bitten to death by a group of crocodile monsters.

If they wanted to farm such a small monster ...

Or, like Zhang Shan, he could kill monsters in seconds.

Or they needed a healer to help them heal.

Otherwise, he could only keep on taking pills, which would be a little too hurtful.

After all, Red Medicine cost money. If he kept taking it, he might not be able to earn back the money he earned from killing monsters.

The problem was, other than Zhang Shan, who else could kill monsters in seconds?

These crocodile monsters had 120000 HP.

even wind and cloud blade had a full set of top-tier equipment and a divine axe.

He still couldn't insta-kill the monsters. Every crocodile monster was killed by wind and cloud blade after two or three slashes.

Zhang Shan saw that he was having a hard time fighting the monsters, and boss Wu was still completing the mission and had not come over yet.

he summoned the panda ball and controlled it to move forward. at the same time, he spoke to wind cloud blade.

"You can follow behind the Panda bear and kill the monsters. It will be easier this way."

f * ck, these crocodile monsters are a little too strong. I haven't been farming for long, and I've already consumed dozens of big red potions.

"It's fine. When the Taoist priest comes with his saber, it will be easier for everyone to fight."

that's right. Big brother carrying a saber, why aren't you here yet? haven't you obtained the mission materials yet? "

I'll be there soon. I just got my materials and am buying supplies.

hurry up and come over. I can't do it without you. I'm being bullied by a group of little monsters. Sob sob sob sob "

"Haha, don't panic, we'll be there soon."
