

Passive Skills 591

Chapter 591 World War Two Demon God

With the help of their large group and the firepower of the barbatian cannon, the right general of the Nephilims, Loke, was quickly taken care of.

Zhang Shan quickly ran back into the city. Then, with a teleport, he directly teleported to the West Gate to provide support.

As time slowly passed, the four real-name bosses attacking the city were continuously killed by them.

However, the heavenly Knife City had also suffered significant losses.

This was because every real name boss would summon a Demon God, and the demon God's attacks could easily hit the city wall.

Not only that, but the damage of the big moves of these real name bosses was also extremely high.

every BOSS's ultimate skill could hit the walls of the heavenly knife city.

As a result, wind cloud blade was having a hard time repairing the city wall.

But it was still okay.

as zhang shan's speed was fast enough, he did not give the BOSS a chance to get close to the city wall.

They basically killed all the real-name bosses outside the city wall.

Only the last BOSS at the north gate, Zhang Shan was the last to go to support.

It was a little dangerous.

The last BOSS was almost blown up by them while sticking close to the city wall.

This had also caused the city walls of the heavenly Knife City to suffer quite a bit of damage.

But overall, the result was not bad.

after all the bosses had been killed.

Although wind and cloud blade had spent a lot of gold coins to repair the city wall, at least they had managed to defend the city.

even though there were still countless monsters outside the city, none of that was important.

everyone completely ignored him.

Cannon and the arrow tower would handle these small monsters.

When the last real-name BOSS had been defeated by them, Zhang Shan looked at the time.

9:56 P. M.

there were only four minutes left until the end of the event.

He could not help but let out a long sigh of relief.

This time, it was finally stable.

There were only four minutes left before the monster attack on the heavenly Knife City would end. There would definitely not be any more bosses appearing.

they didn't have to do anything else, they just had to wait quietly for the event to end.

Zhang Shan and the big shots of the Guild arrived at the East Gate of the heavenly Knife City.

After a short while, wind and cloud blade teleported over as well.

now that he had killed all the bosses, there was no need for him to stay around the stone tablet to build the city wall.

To be honest, Feng Yun Yi was in a hurry when he was repairing the city wall.

He was afraid that he would have to spend a huge amount of gold coins.

It was still alright now, as he did not spend too many gold coins.

In fact, it was even less than the amount of gold spent when Feng Yun realm was in Feng Yun city.

Everyone stood on top of the city gate, watching the arrow towers and cannons continuously clearing the demonic monsterlings outside the city, while happily chatting.

Yidao, shouldn't you be sending out your big red packet now? "

" wait, there's no hurry. the monster attack is not over yet. "

"F * ck, you're not thinking of being lazy right?"

"He dares? If he dares to be lazy, I'll cut him down every time I see him."

"I'm afraid you won't be able to cut him in one strike. He's already over level 70 and has four divine artifacts. Hehe."

" hmph, even if we can't, we'll still do it. at most, we'll call a few more brothers and chop him together. "

"that's right, if even one blade is lazy, then we brothers will cut him together."

Upon hearing everyone's words, Windcloud blade was rendered speechless.

Was he that kind of person?

Still being lazy?

It did not exist.

Wind cloud blade emphasized once more.

when the event is over, I'll give you a red packet of 200 million gold coins. I, one machete God, will keep my word.

"holy sh * t, one blade god? Are you that shameless?"

Just as everyone was having a good time, someone suddenly asked Feng Yun realm.

"Boss, quickly check if there was any good stuff dropped just now."

In the beginning, Zhang Shan was the team leader.

However, since there were so many of them and they fought the BOSS together, Zhang Shan passed the position of team leader to Feng Yun realm.

More people meant more trouble. Zhang Shan didn't want to care about it. He would let Feng Yun realm handle it.

They had just killed four real-name bosses in a row, and they still didn't know what they had dropped.

The BOSS's loot was all in Feng Yun realm's inventory.

Although all four bosses had the help of the 'barbatian cannon'.

Generally speaking, it shouldn't drop anything good.

However, everyone still had some hope.

Hopefully, it would drop some good stuff.

For example, a few divine weapon molds.

Feng Yun realm opened his bag to check.

feng yun realm said in surprise.

"There really is a divine artifact mold."

After he finished speaking, he displayed all the items on the party channel.

zhang shan looked around. it was all white equipment. there was not even a single extra material.

the only additional item was a divine weapon mold.

he wondered which BOSS was so generous.

In addition to the White equipment, there was also an additional divine artifact mold.

This was a surprise, right?

However, when such an item dropped ...

Zhang Shan expressed that he could not understand it at all.

Why were they both real-name bosses, and why were they both attacked by city-defense equipment?

Why did one of the bosses only drop a divine weapon mold, while the other three bosses did not drop anything?

However, Zhang Shan did not think too much about it.

It was fine as long as there was something good.

There was no need to be conflicted.

No matter what, a divine weapon mold could still be sold for money.

Feng Yun realm said to everyone after displaying the items.

"Let's auction this God tool mold in the Guild. The gold coins that are sold will go to six tubes. this wave of city defense and boss battle was all up to him. We're just slackers, and we're completely useless."

"Alright, hurry up and start filming."

I only want the mold for the divine weapon. I don't care about the gold coins.

"Quickly start filming."

This time, the God equipment mold dropped was a strength-type boot.

both wind and cloud blade and follow me had boots, so the two of them did not need them.

However, there were many bosses in the strength system in the Guild, and a large number of them needed the godly boots.

Very quickly, after a few rounds of intense competition.

the divine weapon mold was won by a berserker in the guild for 80 million gold coins.

After the Big Shot received the mold, he immediately transferred the gold coins to Zhang Shan.

Big Boss six-Barrens, take this mail. I've transferred the gold coins to you.

"Alright," he said.

Zhang Shan opened the mail to check. Another 80 million gold coins had been received.

He put away the gold coins, not feeling embarrassed.

it was all thanks to him that they were able to defend the city and fight the boss.

If he wasn't there, they wouldn't even be able to kill a boss.

They might not even be able to defend the heavenly Knife City.

It was only right to give him the gold coins.

Everyone stayed on top of the city gate, chatting and chatting while quietly waiting for the event to end.

When it was 10 pm.

The monsters outside the city suddenly disappeared.

Soon after, a system announcement sounded.

[system announcement: under the leadership of the lord of the heaven knife city, wind and cloud blade, the human warriors have successfully repelled the demonic army's attack.]

From then on, the human race's heaven Knife City would be established in the world forever.

Reward: wind and cloud blade, Castellan of the heavenly Blade City, all attributes +100.

"haha, i've finally secured my position as the city lord."

After the system announcement, wind and cloud blade laughed maniacally.

It wasn't easy.

For the sake of this heavenly Knife City, he had invested a large amount of gold coins and had been on tenterhooks for a long time.

Now, the dust had finally settled, and his position as the city Lord was stable.

The heavenly Knife City would stand in the world forever, and they would no longer have to worry about being attacked by the demonic monsters.

according to the current game mechanics, a wave of monster attacks would only occur when the city was just built.

As for the future, he didn't need to worry at all.

In the future, there would no longer be any monster attacks on the players' walls.

At least, that was the case before the game was updated.

Wind and cloud blade only needed to protect the golden seal of the heavenly Blade city's Castellan.

In the future, he could just wait for the money to be collected.

He didn't need to care about anything else.

After the event ended, everyone began to urge Windcloud blade.

"Big Boss, hurry up and give out red packets."

"Yes, send out the 200 million red packet as soon as possible."

"Hurry up, I can't wait."

"If you don't give me a red packet, I'm going to chop you up."

Seeing everyone's constant urging, Windcloud blade was not in the least bit anxious as he spoke unhurriedly.

"Wait a moment, let me send a message to the world Channel."

"Fuck, you only know how to be smug."

"Swordsman."

"Faster."

The world Channel:

"Little brats, your big brother Dao has become the city Lord. Why aren't you coming out to celebrate?"

"F * ck you, you damned swordsman. What are you shouting for?"

"I'm not blind. How could I not see such a big system announcement? I still need you to say it. "

Yidao, you're too swordsman. How can you not be smug? "

"Ignore him. He's just a damn swordsman."

"I wish the heaven Knife City will become a waste as soon as possible."

"The city is broken, and everyone is dead."

the city has been destroyed and people have died +10086.

"Everyone, don't go to the heavenly Knife City. Let him occupy an abandoned city."

that's right. Don't go to the heavenly Knife City. Let's see how he's going to earn money and let him be smug.

"This blade of wind and cloud is really good at swordsmanship," Windcloud blade's words in the world Channel attracted the curses of countless people.

It was really too infuriating.

after becoming a city lord, he still had to come out and show off. wasn't this infuriating?

To normal players, this was nothing.

In any case, they would never have the chance to become city Lords.

The main thing was that the Big Shot players were very angry.

they once had the dream of becoming a city lord.

However, even after playing for so long, their dreams were still just dreams.

It was completely impossible to achieve.

now that wind and cloud blade had survived the monster attack and secured his position as the city lord, he was actually showing off.

He was simply infuriating.

Perhaps this was the effect that wind and cloud blade wanted.

He was doing it on purpose to anger the other big bosses in the game.

After sending the message in the world Channel, Windcloud blade did not pay any more attention to it.

Of course, he knew that there would definitely be a lot of scolding right now.

But so what?

Let them scold all they want, it's not like they'll lose a piece of meat, hehe.

"Everyone, get ready. I'm going to give out a big red packet."

After sending his message in the world Channel, Windcloud blade sent a message in the Guild channel.

"Hurry up, what are you doing there?"

"That's right, if you dawdle any longer, I'm really going to cut you with my knife."

This time, wind and cloud blade did not dawdle. He quickly sent out a 200 million Gold Red packet on the Guild channel.

zhang shan opened the red packet.

500,000 gold.

Not bad, a small amount of money.

After snatching a wave of red packets, everyone dispersed.

After the city defense event ended, there was no need for everyone to stay in the heavenly Knife City.

As for the scenery?

In fact, there was nothing much to see in this heaven Knife City.

Everyone had already watched it once when they first arrived.

As for the scenery outside the city, that had nothing to do with them.

They could not leave the city at all.

Leaving the city meant death.

Outside the heaven Knife City, all the wild monsters were full-level demonic strongmen.

To current guild members, these monsters were practically boss-like existences.

They couldn't beat him at all.

They couldn't even beat the big shots of the Guild, let alone the ordinary guild members.

Even if it was a 1v1, they might not be able to defeat these monsters.

More importantly, there were so many monsters outside the city, where would he get the chance to fight them one on one?

the small monsters all swarmed up.

As such, after the monster siege event ended, everyone quickly dispersed and found their own places to farm monsters.

He no longer stayed in the heavenly Knife City.

After everyone had dispersed, Zhang Shan and his friends did not leave. They were still standing on the city gate tower.

Wind and cloud blade asked Zhang Shan.

"boss, what are we going to do now?"

let's attack the city and take down the other three demon cities as soon as possible. I still have to go and farm for the saint's relic.

"brother guan, are we going to attack the city now? Isn't that a little too late?"

it's fine. It won't take much time to attack a city. If everything goes well, it'll be solved in about an hour.

"let's seize the time and try to take down the demon city before 12 o'clock. we'll continue to defend the city tomorrow."

"Big brother, why are you in such a hurry?"

"The earlier we solve the problem, the earlier we finish."

"Alright, then let's get it up."

The little fairy said.

"It's agreed that this time, The City Is Mine."

alright, everyone will get a share anyway. One or two days won't make a difference.

"I don't care. The cities we take down this time are mine."

"Alright, no one's going to fight with you."

"which demon city should we go to? there are only three demon cities left, the one in the south, the one in the west, and the one in the north."

“we’ll attack western wei city. after we take it, we’ll call it jade lake city. I want to be the Queen Mother of the West.”

“Holy sh * t, then do you want me to find you a Jade Emperor? hehe.”

“Get lost,” he said.

In the next few days, Zhang Shan led his friends and took down a Demon City every day.

The next day, after the city defense event ended, they would go to another city.

Just like that, after four days of fighting, the number of player cities in the game had reached six.

Zhang Shan’s demon-suppressing city, Feng Yun realm’s wind Cloud City, and wind cloud blade’s heavenly Knife City.

The little fairy’s Jade pool city, the heart of Skyheart city, and boss Wu’s Dragon Tiger city.

the six player cities were all occupied by the people of wind and cloud guild.

As for the other guilds in the game, they had not even found a single strand of hair from the demon City.

Compared to the heaven Knife City, they had an easier time dealing with the last three monster attacks.

After all, the bosses that appeared in the last three cities were the same as the one in the heaven Knife City.

after experiencing it once, everyone knew how to deal with it.

As long as they were fast enough, the damage the BOSS could deal to the city wall would be less.

The amount of gold needed to repair the city walls would be much less.

Compared to wind and cloud blade, boss Wu, little fairy, and heart follows me had spent much less on the city.

Zhang Shan and the rest took down four demon cities in a row and successfully defended all of them.

The other players were already numb to such a speed.

He looked at Zhang Shan and the rest, taking down the demon cities one after another.

Other than envy, there was only jealousy.

For this reason, many Big Shot players were excited. They moved out again to find a Demon City.

Those big shots saw that the wind and cloud Guild had occupied four more cities so easily.

He had thought that the difficulty of sieging the city had decreased.

They also wanted to be a city Lord.

Unfortunately, they couldn't even deal with the wild monsters on the road.

The search for the demon cities quickly came to an end.

They couldn't even beat the small monsters on the road, so how could they find a Demon City?

After helping his companions settle down in a city, they split up and went their separate ways.

The Little Friends formed parties to farm monsters and level up.

as for zhang shan himself, he once again went to the capital of chu country.

He wanted to try again with the ninth Demon God.

even though he still couldn't beat lufasi now.

But it didn't matter.

it was fine if he couldn't beat them. he could go to the demon god and have a fight.

Looking at his current strength, how far was he from being able to blow up a Demon God?

In any case, as long as he was careful, he would not die.

After activating the God's descent skill.

Zhang Shan's current HP was already close to 20 million.

With such a high HP, Zhang Shan did not have to worry about being killed by the demon God.

Zhang Shan thought.

He should be able to withstand the demon God's damage for at least ten seconds.

After arriving at the capital of Chu State, Zhang Shan directly teleported to the West City gate. Then, he rode the red Hare and rushed towards the north of the city.

This time, he didn't need to rely on the teleportation function of the positioning ball to teleport back and forth.

Although he had yet to activate the deity's descent skill.

However, after equipping the heart of the demon Dragon, Zhang Shan's current HP was also close to 10 million.

With such a high amount of health, together with Zhang Shan, they also had a super high recovery speed.

The full map damage of the demon God was no longer a big threat to the current Zhang Shan.

zhang shan had a vitality passive skill, which could greatly increase his health recovery speed.

Moreover, the heart of the demon Dragon could also increase the speed of health recovery.

In addition to his super high health limit, Zhang Shan's current health recovery speed was super fast.

not to mention being completely immune, the demon god's full-map damage wasn't much of an impact.

Zhang Shan headed quickly towards the palace, towards the North.

After a while, he saw the ninth Demon God lufasi's tall figure again.

He looked at lufaxi's cool image.

A black scythe, a black cape, and a tall figure.

Looking at the small hand cannon in his hand, Zhang Shan was a little envious.

The godfiend was indeed the ultimate BOSS in the game. He still had some cards up his sleeve.

The game's image was designed to be so beautiful.

After Zhang Shan sighed, he quickly rushed towards the ninth Demon God lufasi.

just as he was about to reach lufasi, zhang shan quickly activated his god's descent skill.

The bullets were like raindrops, sweeping toward lufasi.

Lines of damage appeared above the demon God's head.

The last time Zhang Shan had come, he had only been level 73. His level had been suppressed by the demon God.

Zhang Shan had already reached level 77.

Although the demon God still had a very strong level suppression on him, the damage that Zhang Shan had dealt now was already very impressive.

Now, the damage of each shot that Zhang Shan fired on the demon God's head was more than 200000.

Compared to before, his damage had only been slightly over 50000. This was already a huge improvement.

zhang shan's brutal damage kept on sweeping towards the demon.

After being attacked, the ninth Demon God lufasi turned around. He waved the sickle in his hand and launched a counterattack at Zhang Shan.

A line of critical damage appeared above Zhang Shan's head.

[damage-14326716]

A damage of over 10 million was terrifying.

Looking at the damage value, Zhang Shan was simply stunned.

The last time the demon God hit him, he didn't get a critical hit.

It made Zhang Shan think that the demon God would not be able to deal critical damage.

Who knew that this time, the moment the demonic god came up, he would directly give him a critical blow.

The demon only dealt one hit of damage and it almost emptied Zhang Shan's health bar.

He was really too strong.

The scary Zhang Shan quickly went all out.

He activated fanaticism and shadow clone at the same time.

The three Zhang Shans stood in a line, and countless bullets swept towards the demon.

After activating fanaticism, Zhang Shan quickly recovered a wave of health due to the demon Lord's slow attack speed.

However, before he could absorb half of his HP, the demon God swung his sickle again and slashed at him.

-2896534 damage.

It was still alright.

This time, the demon God's attack did not have a critical hit.

Otherwise, he would have lost his first life.

Zhang Shan held his handcannon and fired continuously.

His health bar rose and fell, jumping continuously.

But overall, it was still falling.

After all, the demon God was still strong. Even if Zhang Shan had activated the God's descent skill, he still could not block it.

The damage he dealt was still not high enough, and the lifesteal speed was not fast enough.

after more than ten seconds of stalemate.

As the ninth Demon God lufasi swung his sickle again, Zhang Shan fell to the ground.

However, it was fine even if he fell to the ground.

Zhang Shan still had the passive [rebirth] ability. After 10 seconds, he could resurrect on the spot.

If he did not have two lives, Zhang Shan would not have come to seek death.

It was because he had two lives and two big moves.

Only then did he dare to come over and have some fun with the fiendcelestials.

Zhang Shan lay on the ground, ready to use the refresh ball at any time to reset the cooldown time of his skills, while silently counting the seconds.

He felt that this wave was alright.

This time, he was able to last at least ten seconds against the demon God.

And this was under the condition that the demon God had dealt a critical hit.

If it was not for that critical hit, Zhang Shan could have held on for a longer time.

The only pity was that Zhang Shan still had not seen the demon God's attributes.

The result was still a question mark.

Furthermore, Zhang Shan had not managed to hit the health bar of the demon God.

He couldn't see how much blood the demon God had.

But in general.

As for the ninth Demon God, Zhang Shan had some idea.

Although the demon God was very powerful, it was not an existence that could not be killed.

He could now fight a Demon God for more than ten seconds.

After he increased his level and damage ability, he would definitely be able to fight the demon God to the end.

The day he would blow up the fiendgod was not far away.

Chapter 592-sacred weapon: Aglu's hand cannon

Zhang Shan laid on the ground, silently counting the seconds while estimating the difference in strength between himself and the godfiend.

After this attempt ...

Zhang Shan felt that the demonic god was not an existence that could not be killed.

Although he still could not defeat the godfiend, Zhang Shan at least saw hope.

he could withstand the demon god's damage for more than ten seconds.

It could also deal a lot of damage to the demon God.

If it wasn't for the fact that other players couldn't stand their ground here.

then, zhang shan could totally bring a large group of support classes over.

If he had a support class to heal him, he would be able to fight the demon God to the end.

Unfortunately, he couldn't.

The other players wouldn't even be able to stand there for two seconds.

Moreover, every attack of the demon God dealt a large area of damage.

Every time the fiendgod brandished his scythe, it would destroy heaven and earth.

No matter how many people he called over, it would all be in vain.

After ten seconds, Zhang Shan stood up on the spot by using his passive rebirth.

He quickly used the refresh ball to reset the cooldown time of his skills and once again activated God's descent.

In an instant, Zhang Shan had completed this series of operations.

However, after activating the God's descent skill, Zhang Shan did not do so and continued to fight the demon God head-on.

Instead, he chose to run away quickly.

he had already given up his first life, so he could not fall to the ground now.

If he fell to the ground again, he would really be dead.

And it was the kind that couldn't be saved.

There was no support on the ground that could come and save him.

Thus, Zhang Shan made the wise choice to support them.

I can't be reckless anymore.

Zhang Shan quickly headed towards the palace in the north of the city, while the Majin chased after him and hacked at him.

Very quickly, Zhang Shan ran to the north wall of the palace.

lord chu flew up from the palace again and intercepted the demon god.

Zhang Shan looked at King Chu and the demon God fighting in the distance and could not help but feel a little envious.

Lord Chu was also very powerful.

However, he quickly collected his thoughts and ran towards the West Gate.

he had to go back first and then go to the city of ruins to farm for the saint's relics.

as long as he could collect enough saint's relics, it might not be long before he could be as strong as king chu.

It could stop Demon God Zhan Lu.

After returning to the Chu country, Zhang Shan used a pass to enter the city of the ruins.

A long life of farming monsters began.

Time passed by slowly.

After three months, Zhang Shan had finally reached level 85.

In the past three months, other than the monthly monster attack, there were many other monsters that had been attacking the city.

Zhang Shan, on the other hand, did not. He had gone to do other things, staying in the city of the ruins every day to farm for saint's relics.

In this period of time, Zhang Shan had not only risen to level 85, but he had also reached level 85.

The divine equipment on his body also slowly rose.

Although the success rate of upgrading a divine weapon was very low, with the massive amount of Saint relics.

No matter how low the probability was, it would not be a problem.

He could still rush up.

With the increase in level and equipment, Zhang Shan's speed of killing the zombie monsters became faster and faster.

The number of saint's relics that he could obtain every day was also increasing.

In the beginning, he could only get 20 to 30 relics a day. Later on, he could get about 200 relics a day on average.

Under the accumulation of a large number of Saint relics, the divine equipment on Zhang Shan's body had all been greatly improved.

Rank eight Aglu's hand cannon, rank seven King's Cape.

The three God equipment accessories had all been upgraded to God equipment rank six.

as for the five defensive divine weapons, zhang shan did not deliberately upgrade them.

For Zhang Shan, a defensive artifact, other than its special effects and set attributes, it did not have much use.

However, upgrading a divine weapon would only increase its basic attributes, not its special effects.

Hence, Zhang Shan did not spend too much time and effort on defensive artifacts.

After one turn each, it was done.

Other than the upgrade in level and equipment, Zhang Shan had also gained six passive skills.

Four of them were critical hit passive, one was lifesteal, and one was a passive that increased health.

Right now, Zhang Shan had already obtained more than 60 passive skills through his talent.

The White ticket had so many passive skills that his overall strength had been raised to a very high level.

After these three months of improvement, Zhang Shan's character attributes were already frighteningly high.

Zhang Shan estimated that if he were to fight the demon God now, he should be able to win.

Even if he couldn't kill the demonic god, he wouldn't die either.

With his current strength, fighting a Demon God head-on was a piece of cake.

However, he did not have Zhang Shan. He immediately went to challenge the demon God and try to upgrade his equipment.

in zhang shan's backpack, there were still more than 3000 saint relics.

This was his stock during this period of time.

Zhang Shan wanted to try and see if he could directly turn the hand cannon into a holy weapon.

If he could create a Saint weapon, his chances of defeating the demon God would be greatly increased.

In the New World, no player had created a sacred weapon yet.

No one knew what the Saint artifact looked like.

however, zhang shan was very sure that a holy weapon was definitely very powerful.

After killing another wave of zombies, Zhang Shan found a safe spot and prepared to upgrade his equipment.

putting aside the other equipment, he decided to try upgrading a hand cannon first.

right now, zhang shan's hand cannon was already a divine weapon rank eight.

As long as it successfully ascended once more, it would become a holy weapon.

becoming a saint after nine transformations.

however, it was truly too difficult to succeed in the ninth transformation.

The success rate of a divine weapon nine transformations was only one in a thousand.

If they were unlucky, they might not be able to successfully level up even after thousands of attempts.

One had to know that every attempt of the nine revolutions divine weapon required the consumption of nine Saint relics.

To ascend 1000 times would require 9000 Saint relics.

Zhang Shan only had about 3000 saint's relics now. His stock was still not enough.

However, he didn't want to wait any longer.

Zhang Shan's current level had already risen to level 85.

He felt that it was time to challenge the demon God again.

Regardless of whether he could turn the hand cannon nine times or not, he was going to find the demon God and fight again.

Compared to before, the level suppression of the demon God on Zhang Shan was no longer as obvious.

zhang shan had already reached level 85, and the demon god was only a level 100 boss.

Even if the demon God was special and powerful.

However, no matter how strong it was, it was only at level 100.

In terms of level, the demon God did not have much of an advantage over the current Zhang Shan.

Thus, Zhang Shan felt that there was no need to wait any longer.

he had to find the demonic god and fight again.

Even if he continued to wait, it would be meaningless.

he might as well use the saint's relic in his hand to make a reckless move.

They were lucky to eat meat.

If they were really unlucky, that would be fine.

He could continue saving them in the future.

In any case, he was currently farming saint's relics very quickly.

Two hundred a day, that would be two thousand Saint relics in ten days.

Even if the 3000 Saint relics in his hands were all wasted, Zhang Shan would not feel that it was a pity.

zhang shan opened the equipment panel and placed aglu's hand cannon into the reincarnation pool.

Then, he took out nine saint's relics from his backpack and put them in.

He chose to upgrade.

A gray aura floated past.

Failed.

It's okay, again.

It was normal to fail.

It would be heaven-defying if he could reach rank nine in one try.

Zhang Shan placed the saint's relics into the reincarnation pool and then chose to reincarnate.

However, he failed every time.

Zhang Shan was a little numb.

However, he still did not give up.

Zhang Shan was still mechanically throwing the saint's relics into the reincarnation pool.

When there were less than 100 saint's relics left in his backpack ...

Suddenly, multicolored light filled the sky, and purple Qi rose.

The system notification sounded.

≪ system announcement: congratulations, six-barreled Bodhisattva. You have become the first player to obtain a sacred weapon in the New World. ≫

All attributes +1000.

Haha, I've finally succeeded.

This luck was simply too good.

Originally, Zhang Shan had thought that this large wave of saint's relics would be wasted.

He did not expect to succeed at the last moment.

That was close.

If he didn't succeed, he would lose all the saint's relics in his bag.

Seeing the system announcement, Zhang Shan was elated.

It was not because the system had rewarded him with 1000 points for all attributes.

Even though all his attributes had been increased by 1000 points, it was still a huge improvement for him.

but compared to a saint artifact, this was nothing.

What kind of reward could compare to a Saint artifact?

one had to know that the emperor of great zhou from the east capital only had a saint weapon.

At least for now, holy equipment was the highest level of equipment in the game.

Furthermore, Zhang Shan believed that for a long time to come, holy equipment would still be the best equipment.

Even if the game was modified, it was impossible to turn a holy weapon into trash.

Zhang Shan quickly took out Aglu's hand cannon from the reincarnation pool to check.

Aruge's long barrel hand cannon (sacred weapon): Physical attack 50000, agility +10000.

Equipment level (sealed): currently level 80. Sacred equipment will gradually be unsealed as the player's level increases. It will be unsealed once every ten levels.

[class requirement: Hunter]

Durability, never worn out.

Bound to player six-barreled Bodhisattva, can not be dropped.

[special effect 1: power attack. physical attack power increased by 20%.]

[special effect 2: hot blood. Increases attack speed by 20%.]

[special effect 3: health conversion. When attacking, the damage taken will be converted into health points. The conversion ratio is 20%.]

[special effect 4: Holy Strike. When attacking, there is a chance to trigger the Holy Strike effect. It ignores the target's defense and deals 10x the damage. The chance of triggering it is 2%.]

after seeing the holy weapon hand cannon, zhang shan was simply stunned.

These attributes were too strong.

After being upgraded to a holy weapon, the hand Cannon's attack power had increased by at least three times.

Zhang Shan estimated that a level 80 weapon that had not been upgraded would have an attack power of 14000.

As for the Holy weapon-level hand cannon, its attack power had actually reached 50000.

He was really freakishly strong.

Apart from the huge increase in attack power.

The Saint artifact hand cannon had been strengthened in all aspects.

Just his agility attribute alone had been increased by 10000.

Most importantly, after being upgraded to a holy weapon, the special effects of the hand cannon had also doubled.

Attack power and attack speed increased from ten percent to twenty percent.

the suppression effect had become a 20% lifesteal effect.

Even the trigger rate of the special effect of the Holy Strike had increased.

Originally, the God-level hand cannon only had a 1% chance of triggering a Holy attack.

After it was upgraded to a holy weapon, the chance of triggering it had become 2%.

Although it only increased the trigger rate by 1%, the effect was very obvious.

That was because he had only managed to create one Saint artifact.

if Zhang Shan were to turn all nine pieces of equipment on him into holy equipment.

That meant that his chances of using the Holy Strike would be 18%.

This was terrifying.

One must know that the Holy Strike was a very powerful explosive special effect.

A 10x critical hit that ignored the target's defense was simply terrifying.

If Zhang Shan increased the trigger rate of the Holy Strike to 18%.

Then wouldn't that mean that Zhang Shan would be able to perform a Divine Strike every few shots?

What an insane amount of damage this was.

Seeing the hand cannon after becoming a saint after nine revolutions, Zhang Shan was very happy.

He was too strong.

He should be able to defeat the ninth Demon God, right?

He first looked at his character's stats.

checking attributes:

[character: Bodhisattva of six tubes]

[occupation: Hunter]

[title: human hero (equipped), nemesis of demons]

[merit points: 1564598 (Imperial general)]

[level: 85]

[MP: 59200]

[physical attack: 231254 – 249668]

[strength: 4521]

[agility: 26924]

[intelligence: 4521]

[defense: 29648]

Luck: 9

[Endowment: King of passive (every time you kill a monster, there is a chance to randomly obtain a passive skill from the monster. The chance of triggering it is one in a million.)]

Skill

Looking at his own powerful character's attributes, Zhang Shan was very happy.

He was simply too powerful.

Zhang Shan's current panel attack power was just a little bit away from reaching 250000.

Including the double effect of the killer book, that was 500000 attack power.

Zhang Shan still had eight, which were special effects and set effects that increased damage by 10%.

In theory, he could deal 900000 damage.

This was not even taking into account the damage blessing that the priest gave.

Then Zhang Shan's theoretical damage was close to 1.1 million.

he was even more powerful than a BOSS.

And now, not only was Zhang Shan's damage ability terrifyingly high.

His current HP was more than 6000000 when he had equipped the hand of maedas.

if he used the heart of the demon dragon, he would probably have more than 16 million hp, or even more.

after all, all sorts of buffs that added up to the maximum health was still quite terrifying.

looking at his own powerful attributes, zhang shan could not help but feel a little intoxicated.

It would be unreasonable if they didn't fight a wave of demonic gods.

Zhang Shan quickly took out the positioning ball and directly teleported to the Chu country.

After equipping the heart of the demon Dragon, he teleported to the West Gate and ran all the way to the north of the city.

he thought as he ran.

This time, he should be able to destroy the ninth Demon God, right?

When Zhang Shan's hand cannon and the announcement of him becoming a saint after nine transformations were released, the other players in the game were completely dumbfounded.

Zhang Shan's pace was too fast, so fast that the other players could not even see his back.

Everyone was instantly jealous.

The world Channel:

"What the f * ck, what happened? the six-barreled bodhisattva has made a holy weapon?"

“No way, is it that exaggerated? I’m still fighting for red equipment, and the six-barreled boss has already made a holy weapon?”

” it’s true. hurry up and take a look at the equipment ranking. ”

“Let me take a look.”

“F * ck, where’s the Justice in this world?”

“How did the six-barreled Bodhisattva create the Saint artifact so quickly? Didn’t they say that the success rate of a divine weapon’s Ascension is extremely low?”

who knows? maybe he’s the son of games.

“This is so f * cking unfair. I’m online for a long time every day, so why can’t I even get a red equipment? and the six-barreled bodhisattva has even created a holy weapon?”

could six-barreled Bodhisattva be an internal member? otherwise, no matter how lucky he is, he shouldn’t be so heaven-defying.

” don’t talk nonsense. how can there be internal staff in this game? ”

“maybe six-barreled bodhisattva is playing with a GM account, hehe.”

“GM?That’s good, haha.”

I feel like this game is really boring. There’s no balance at all. How could there be such a perverted player like six-pipe Bodhisattva? ” it’s indeed too much. I’m going to complain to customer service.

“That’s right, let’s go and make a complaint together and ask the management to weaken the six-barreled Bodhisattva. Otherwise, we can all play basic wave.”

“f * ck, i’ve exchanged millions of gold coins, but i haven’t even gotten a divine weapon yet. but six-pipe bodhisattva has even gotten a saint weapon. That’s too unfair, we do have to file a complaint.”

everyone, let’s go and file a complaint. If the operator doesn’t accept it, we’ll boycott the game.

hahaha, you guys are really funny. You can’t bear to see others do well, right? ”

“There are a bunch of jealous monsters up there. Everyone, ignore them. Do you think operations will care about you?”

those big shots didn’t say anything. What are you guys shouting for? ”

“big brother, what do you dare to say? You have to work hard to become a vegetable.”

“You’re right, work hard on killing monsters, young man.”

When Zhang Shan had turned Aglu’s hand cannon into a Saint nine times, the entire world Channel was in an uproar.

Some were envious, some were envious, and some were jealous.

There were also many people who wanted to complain to the game operators.

However, Zhang Shan did not pay any attention to these people.

He didn't even look at the world Channel.

There was nothing to see.

Zhang Shan could think of it even with his feet.

after he created the saint weapon, he would definitely cause some waves in the game.

However, none of this was important.

Even though Zhang Shan's strength was far ahead of the other players.

It looked very exaggerated.

However, he had also rushed forward normally. Zhang Shan did not take advantage of any loopholes, nor did he use any cheats.

As for the players who wanted to complain ...

zhang shan did not know.

Otherwise, he would only say that these people were really childish.

New world was a game, so where was the channel to file a complaint?

Even if you want to complain, you have to find a way.

New world did not even have a customer service.

The players didn't even know where to complain to.

Perhaps they could vent some of their dissatisfaction on the game forum.

But what was the use of that?

no one would care about them.

As for the jealousy and envy of the other players, Zhang Shan did not care at all.

He only wanted to try and see if he could kill the demonic god.

From the start of the game until now, overthrowing the demon God had been Zhang Shan's ultimate dream.

Now, this dream seemed to be able to come true.

In Zhang Shan's heart, he was a little excited.

He rode on the red Hare and galloped quickly to the north of the city.

He wanted to find the ninth Demon God, lufasi, as soon as possible, and have a good fight with him.

As for the other matters, Zhang Shan did not care at all.

No matter how big the matter was, it was not as important as fighting the demon God.

Chapter 593 Three rounds against lufaxi

Zhang Shan quickly ran towards the north of the city.

after a while, he saw the ninth demon god lufasi again.

Looking at the demon God in the distance, Zhang Shan thought to himself.

This time, he should be able to win, right?

His character's attributes had almost doubled from the last time he had come.

As for his true combat strength, he was much stronger.

This was because during this period of time, Zhang Shan's attributes had increased by a lot.

He had also obtained a few passive skills.

furthermore, after being upgraded to a sacred weapon, the special effects of a sacred weapon could not be compared to that of a divine weapon.

The special effects on the hand cannon would double the growth rate.

Moreover, the original suppression effect had become a 20% lifesteal effect.

Zhang Shan felt that he should be able to defeat the demon God.

Last time, Zhang Shan could only withstand the demon God's damage for about ten seconds.

Now, he would definitely be able to hold on until the end.

Zhang Shan was confident that the ninth Demon God Lu fasi would not be able to kill him.

Looking at lufaxi in the distance, Zhang Shan did not hesitate at all. He went up and started.

Zhang Shan quickly rushed towards the godfiend.

When he was within attack range, Zhang Shan's Saint weapon hand cannon began to fire bullets non-stop.

The bullets were like raindrops as they swept toward the ninth Demon God.

Although he was currently equipped with the demon God's heart, he did not have the attack speed buff of the hand of Medas.

Zhang Shan's current attack speed seemed to be slower.

However, he was still shooting very fast.

This was because during this period of time, Zhang Shan's agility attribute had increased by a lot.

Just the Holy weapon, Aglu's hand cannon, had given him 10000 agility.

Furthermore, after obtaining the sacred gear, the system had even rewarded Zhang Shan with an increase of 1000 in all his attributes.

All in all, Zhang Shan's current agility attribute had increased by more than ten thousand points.

With a high agility attribute, Zhang Shan's attack speed would naturally be very fast.

Furthermore, after being upgraded to a sacred weapon, Aglu's hand cannon had the hot-blooded special effect of increasing attack speed.

From a 10% increase in attack speed, it became a 20% increase.

Considering all the situations, Zhang Shan's current attack speed was not much slower than when he was equipped with the hand of Madas.

In fact, it might even be faster.

He could now deal at least three to four shots of damage per second.

If he had used the hand of Maedas, Zhang Shan could fire at least five shots per second.

Of course.

It was impossible for Zhang Shan to change the heart of the demon Dragon.

Without the demon dragon's heart, he could not block the demon God's damage at all.

The demon God could kill him in one hit.

If that was the case, no matter how strong Zhang Shan's lifesteal effect was, it would all be in vain.

If even the demon God was killed, what was the point of him sucking blood?

After Zhang Shan launched his attack, the ninth Demon God Lufasi quickly turned around to counterattack.

The demon God waved its scythe, and each slash dealt huge amounts of damage. It continuously slashed at Zhang Shan's head.

However, compared to Zhang Shan, the attack speed of the demon God was still very slow.

The demon God's attack interval should be around two seconds.

With a single slash from the demon, Zhang Shan could at least deal seven or eight shots of damage.

With the support of his powerful blood-sucking ability, Zhang Shan began to attack the demon God.

He wasn't afraid at all.

After a while.

zhang shan realized that his health bar was very stable.

every time the demon god dealt damage, he would quickly absorb it back.

Even if the demon God's attack had a critical hit effect, Zhang Shan could still do it. Very quickly, he had recovered his health.

Zhang Shan's current lifesteal ratio had already reached 75%.

Now, every shot he fired was able to deal over-800000 damage to the demon God.

75% lifesteal meant that he could recover more than 600000 hp.

In addition to Zhang Shan's attack speed, he was many times faster than the demon God.

Every time the demon God slashed at him, Zhang Shan could absorb more than four to five million blood.

This was not even including the critical damage.

In reality, Zhang Shan's chances of getting a critical hit were very high.

not to mention critical hits, they weren't that far off.

On average, Zhang Shan would be able to get two critical hits for every three shots.

if this was the case, one slash from the demon god would drain more than seven to eight million of zhang shan's blood.

With such a powerful lifesteal effect, Zhang Shan would have no problem withstanding the damage from the demon God.

Even if the demon God continued to hit him with critical hits and almost emptied his health bar, he still could not kill him.

Relying on his powerful lifesteal ability, Zhang Shan's health had always been stable.

The only thing he needed to worry about now was whether the demon God would have any powerful damage skills.

If the demonic god had a skill, it would be very powerful.

after all, the demon god's basic damage was close to three million.

If there was also skill damage, it would be unimaginable.

However, Zhang Shan did not see it. He checked the attributes and skills of the ninth Demon God lufasi.

every time he checked, he could only see a string of question marks.

he could not see the demon god's skills at all.

He wondered if the demon God did not have any skills.

But now, Zhang Shan could not care so much.

He would play slowly first.

He had two lives anyway.

If it really didn't work, then they could just retreat and run away after they gave up their first life.

Zhang Shan continued to fire at the demon God.

This time, Zhang Shan had even used a high-level incendiary bomb.

these bullets, which could be considered luxury goods, cost five gold coins each.

Last time, Zhang Shan had produced a total of more than a million of these bullets.

He had never used these high-level bullets before and had always kept them in his backpack.

He didn't even use it when he fought the demon God last time.

That was because Zhang Shan knew that it was impossible for him to kill the demonic god last time. He had only come to give it a try.

There was no need to waste those high-level bullets.

This time, it was completely different.

This time, Zhang Shan had come with the conviction to destroy the demon God.

From the very beginning, Zhang Shan had used the advanced incendiary bomb in his backpack without hesitation.

These high-grade bullets, apart from increasing his damage by 10% ...

When it hit the demon God, it even had a burning effect.

they lost 50000 hp per second.

It was very powerful.

Under Zhang Shan's continuous attacks, the ninth Demon God, lufasi, received huge damage continuously.

Especially when Zhang Shan used the Holy Strike, the damage was even more exaggerated.

Holy Strike Ignores Target's Defense and deals 10x damage.

With Zhang Shan's current theoretical damage of more than 900000, when he used the Holy Strike, he would be able to deal more than 900000 damage.

A single shot dealt over 9000000 damage.

It was simply exaggerated.

zhang shan felt that the damage he dealt was not any weaker than that of the demon.

The demon God was just a little meaty than him.

Zhang Shan's spear attacked rapidly, while the devil waved its scythe unhurriedly.

One slash after another, they landed on Zhang Shan's head.

The situation was in a stalemate.

After fighting for more than a minute, the demon God's health bar had finally been reduced by 1%.

This time, the demon God's HP was finally shown.

Zhang Shan was ready to check the ninth Demon God lufasi's attributes again.

eh.

Just as Zhang Shan was about to check the amount of blood of the demon God.

He realized that after the demon God's health bar was reduced by 1% ...

Not only could he see the demon God's HP, but he could also see the demon God's attributes and skills.

it turned out that the demon god's attributes could only be seen by players after they had lost 1% of their health bar.

This was a f * cking setting.

It made Zhang Shan think that the demon God did not have any skills.

Checking attributes:

The ninth Demon God lufasi (God-level): Level 100, attack 3000000, HP 100000000.

Skill 1, Demon God's blade, skill 2, unparalleled demonic might, skill 3, divine blessing, skill 4, monstrous demonic flames.

[Demon God's blade: the ninth Demon God, lufasi, brandishes his sickle, and the blade light pierces through the heavens and the earth, extending infinitely.]

Any life that appeared in the demon God's sight would suffer fatal damage.

[demon might: unparalleled: the ninth Demon God, lufasi, is suppressed by God-level beings. Any living being that lives in the same world as him will be suppressed.]

His HP continued to decrease by 100000 per second.

[deity position blessing: as the god of the demons, lufasi has the blessing of a deity position, which greatly increases his attack power and health points.]

[demonic flames: when lufasi is angry, demonic flames will cover the sky and the earth like a world-ending disaster.]

It had an unlimited range of effect and dealt five times the damage. It lasted for one minute.

After seeing the ninth Demon God Iufasi's attributes and skills, Zhang Shan could not help but sigh.

The demonic god was truly powerful.

Just its basic attack power alone reached 3000000, and its HP was over 100 billion.

Such powerful attributes, just thinking about it was terrifying.

He truly lived up to his name as a Demon God.

As for Iufasi's four skills, they were nothing to Zhang Shan.

The demon God's first skill only increased the range of effect, but it did not increase the damage.

The demon God's blade had an infinite range, which should be the effect of the demon God's blade.

As for the demon god's blade skill, how large was its damage range?

Zhang Shan did not know either.

Zhang Shan did not know how to test the range of the demon God's damage.

In any case, it was the demon God that was summoned by the BOSS in the heavenly Knife City.

At a distance of 500 yards from the city walls, a single slash was enough to wipe out all the players on the city walls.

Zhang Shan felt that this Demon God's blade skill, if there was no city to block it, should also be a full map damage.

He could scan from one side of the map to the other.

However, for Zhang Shan, this Demon God's blade skill had no practical use.

This skill's greatest use was to limit the player's human wave tactics.

With such a skill, no matter how many players there were, they would not be able to surround the demon God.

The godfiend could kill everyone with a single slash, so what was the point of surrounding them?

However, to Zhang Shan, this skill of the demon God did not have much of an impact.

In any case, he was going to fight the demon God alone.

The demon God's large area of effect damage was completely useless against Zhang Shan.

As for the demon God's second skill, it was easy to understand.

In fact, it was all-time and all-map damage.

As long as a player was in the same map as the demon God, they would receive this damage.

Against a Demon God, unless the other players stayed in the city, they would definitely die.

They would die before they even saw the demon God.

This was also the reason why other players would mysteriously fall to the ground the moment they left the Imperial City.

The demon God's third skill was easy to understand.

This skill actually increased the demon God's attributes in all aspects.

Otherwise, as a level 100 BOSS, why would the demon God be so much stronger than the other real name bosses?

the reason why the demon god's attributes were so overpowered was because of the skill that was enhanced by this deity position.

it was equivalent to an increase in rank.

As for the demon God's big move, it didn't have much of a special feature.

Compared to other bosses 'ultimate skills, the only difference was that the damage range was slightly larger.

Of course.

The demon God's ultimate skill was different from other bosses in one aspect.

The demon God's ultimate skill actually lasted for one minute.

This was the first time Zhang Shan had seen a BOSS's ultimate skill that lasted for such a long time.

It was a little scary.

In other words, after the demon God released his big move, he would be killed.

Zhang Shan would have to endure the huge amount of damage for a minute.

The demon God's ultimate skill was a skill that dealt five times the damage.

With the demon God's attack power of three million.

In other words, the demon God's ultimate skill could deal 15 million damage each time.

Even if Zhang Shan's defense could reduce some of the damage, it would not be of much use.

although zhang shan's current defense was very high, in this game, the actual effect of the player's defense was not ideal.

even if zhang shan had close to 30000 defense points, he probably would not be able to offset much damage.

When the demon God released his ultimate skill, the damage that hit Zhang Shan's body was at least 14 million.

Each attack dealt more than 14000000 damage, and the effect lasted for one minute.

The demon God's big move was indeed freakish enough.

Zhang Shan had to rely on the God's descent skill to be able to block this demonic flames.

Fortunately, Zhang Shan's God's descent was also a skill that lasted for one minute.

Otherwise, it would be difficult to handle.

Zhang Shan's God's descent skill could withstand the demon God's big move.

Furthermore, Zhang Shan still had the refresh ball. He could use two big moves.

With God's descent, it should not be a problem to tank the damage from the demon God's big move.

It was impossible for the demonic god to release three or four big moves.

The possibility of this happening shouldn't be too high.

zhang shan estimated the progress of his attack.

Based on the current progress of the attack, he would need about two hours to kill the demon God.

When the demon God was at half health, Zhang Shan estimated that he would have to fight for another hour before he could destroy the demon God.

In this one hour, he hoped that the demon God would not release more than two big moves.

Otherwise, he would not have been able to deal with it.

All in all, although the demon God's attributes and skills were very powerful ...

But Zhang Shan was not very worried.

The unknown was the most terrifying.

Previously, he had not been able to check the demon God's attributes and skills, which made him a little flustered.

Now, the demon God's health bar had been hit, and the demon God's attributes and skills could be seen.

Then, Zhang Shan could make a targeted response.

after looking at the demon god's attributes and skills.

Zhang Shan was confident that he could destroy the demon God.

As long as there were no major accidents, he would definitely be able to kill the demonic god.

Under Zhang Shan's continuous attacks, the blood volume of the demon God was slowly decreasing.

90%, 80%, 70%.

after fighting for about half an hour, zhang shan had already taken 30% of the demon god's health.

That meant that he had lost 30 billion HP.

To be honest, this speed wasn't too fast.

At least, compared to the time when they were fighting bosses, Zhang Shan's current speed could be said to be much slower.

This was something that could not be helped.

Although Zhang Shan's current damage ability had almost doubled from before.

however, he didn't have the priest's attack blessing on him.

boss wu couldn't come over here to buff him.

Without the attack blessing status, he would lose 20% of his attack power.

this had a huge impact on zhang shan.

However, the thing that affected Zhang Shan the most was that there were no other wild monsters around, which made his ejection passive and unable to play its role.

Only the ninth Demon God, lufaxi, was left here.

Without any ejection, Zhang Shan's attack progress was seriously affected.

if zhang shan's catapulting was passive and could play out perfectly, then the demon god's 100 billion hp would not be a big problem at all.

But it didn't matter.

As long as he could kill the demon God, it would be fine.

Even if they fought slower, it wouldn't have much of an effect.

anyway, zhang shan had nothing to do now.

He was not in a hurry.

He had plenty of time.

As long as they could kill the demonic god.

He would be willing to play for two days, let alone two hours.

Just as Zhang Shan was fighting with the demon God, wind and cloud blade suddenly sent a call.

"What's six-barreled boss busy with?"

"Fighting the demon God."

"F * ck, are you going to play with the demon God again?"

"Yes, we should be able to beat them this time."

"Damn, no way? Have you pushed down the demonic gods? What's the point of playing this game?"

hehe, I don't know yet. We'll see after the fight.

when are you going to take us to the city of the ruins? you've already obtained a sacred artifact, while we're still only first-tier divine artifacts.

"let's talk about it after i defeat the demonic god. the saint's relics are simple. i'll give them to you guys in two days. each of you can get a few hundred saint's relics. " of course it's true. For me, it's too easy to get saint's relics now.

"Haha, really?"

"Alright, big brother is awesome."

"I'll stop talking. I still want to fight the demon God. The demon God is a bit powerful, so I have to be more serious."

"F * ck, is the demon God only a little stronger? Big brother fan has woken up."

"Hehe."

I don't have to say anything. As long as the big boss is awesome, it's over.

His conversation with Windcloud blade was only a small interlude.

In reality, while Zhang Shan was fighting the demon God, many of the big bosses in the Guild had called him.

Even Feng Yun realm greeted him.

When these big shots saw Zhang Shan's Saint weapon, they were all very envious.

They also wanted to get some Saint relics to improve their divine weapons.

This was especially true for the big shots who had divine-level weapons.

They were even more anxious.

this was because after the weapon was upgraded, the effect of the upgrade was obvious.

Originally, they had thought that it would be very difficult to obtain saint's relics.

After all, the zombies in the city of the ruins were all Max-level orange-Named Monsters, so it was not easy to farm them.

Although they did not know the drop rate of the saint's relic.

However, everyone thought that items like the saint's relic would not have a high drop rate.

However, when he saw Zhang Shan, he had already created a holy weapon.

their thoughts started to become active.

for zhang shan to be able to turn the hand cannon nine times into a saint, he would definitely need a huge amount of saint relics.

Since that was the case, then it should be very easy for Zhang Shan to farm the saint's relics.

Otherwise, how could he have upgraded the hand cannon to a Saint weapon?

Even if Zhang Shan's luck was good, it couldn't be that he was lucky every time.

After all, the nine revolutions divine weapon had to be done step by step.

It was still acceptable if he was lucky once.

He couldn't have been so lucky Nine times in a row.

Zhang Shan must have relied on a huge amount of Saint relics to reach this stage.

Everyone was thinking that it should not be too difficult for Zhang Shan to farm for the saint's relics.

Some of them wanted Zhang Shan to bring them along to farm for the saint's relics.

Some of them even thought of buying some Saint relics from Zhang Shan.

however, zhang shan did not directly respond to the needs of these big shots.

everything would have to wait until he destroyed the demonic god.

If he did not destroy the godfiend, Zhang Shan would not be able to do anything.

Under Zhang Shan's continuous attacks, the blood volume of the demon God was slowly decreasing.

After nearly an hour of fighting.

the ninth demon god lufasi's health was finally almost reduced to half by zhang shan.

The real test was about to come.

as long as zhang shan could withstand it, the damage from the demon god's big move would be much greater.

then, he would definitely be able to destroy the demon god.

Chapter 594 city building order

The ninth Demon God's HP was about to be reduced to half.

Zhang Shan was ready to activate his [worldly mortal] skill at any time.

According to the skill's description, the demon God's ultimate move was still very powerful.

Although it wasn't to the extent of being able to defeat Zhang Shan in an instant, it wasn't too far off.

Lufasi had 3000000 attack power, and its ultimate skill dealt five times the damage.

In other words, lufasi's ultimate skill could deal 1500000 damage per second.

the upper limit of zhang shan's hp was only 16 million.

If he didn't use his big move, he could probably only hold on for one second.

By the second second, he would probably not be able to hold on.

No matter how strong his lifesteal effect was, it was impossible for him to absorb it.

Zhang Shan had to activate the God's descent skill to be able to block it.

Under Zhang Shan's continuous attacks, the ninth Demon God Lufasi's health quickly dropped to 50%.

He didn't see Lufasi do anything special.

All of a sudden, the sky changed color. Endless flames appeared out of thin air, and the entire sky was shrouded in a sea of fire.

Zhang Shan quickly activated his God's descent skill.

After activating his ultimate skill, Zhang Shan's maximum HP had exceeded 30 million.

Not only that, with the support of the God's descent, Zhang Shan's attack power and attack speed had been doubled.

Zhang Shan's damage ability had been multiplied in an instant.

With the increase in damage, his lifesteal ability would naturally increase as well.

Zhang Shan stood in the sea of fire, firing non-stop as he looked around.

He was surrounded by an endless sea of fire.

In the distance, the royal city of Chu State was like an isolated island standing in the sea of fire. It was extremely different from the others.

Zhang Shan raised his head to look at the sky.

In the sky, flames also appeared out of thin air, spreading endlessly.

The sky and the earth were covered in a sea of fire.

Outside the city, the players had no way to escape.

Unless they stayed in the city.

Otherwise, he would die without a doubt.

No matter who it was, it was impossible for them to survive even a second in such a sea of fire.

Not to mention other players, even Zhang Shan.

If he dared to stop attacking, he would not have the lifesteal effect.

He wouldn't be able to survive for more than three seconds in such a sea of fire.

This was still Zhang Shan. Now that he had activated God's descent, his health had doubled.

Otherwise, he wouldn't even be able to stand for two seconds.

Actually, Zhang Shan did not know.

after the ninth demon god, lufasi, used his ultimate move ...

Not only was the area around the royal city of Chu engulfed in a sea of fire.

all the other maps in the game, except for the instance dungeon, were also filled with red light.

It was like the end of the world.

The change in the weather in the game map instantly attracted the attention of the players.

Although the game had a weather system to begin with, and all sorts of weather changes should be normal.

However, this scene of red light filling the sky was clearly very unusual.

Everyone was discussing whether Some Kind of Heaven-defying treasure had appeared in the game.

Or did a player do something heaven-defying?

Back then, when Zhang Shan and the rest were building their cities, there would also be changes in the weather.

however, that instantaneous change in the weather ended very quickly after the golden light flashed.

This was the first time it had appeared in the New World.

Everyone was discussing, trying to find out the reason for the change in the weather.

The world Channel:

“What happened? Why is the sky always red?”

I don’t know. Maybe there’s another big Shot who dropped some heaven-defying equipment.

that’s impossible. When the six-barreled Big Shot made the Saint artifact just now, he didn’t have such an exaggerated astronomical phenomenon.

“Could it be that someone has built a city?”

“That’s right. A golden light flashed in the sky when players constructed their cities, and it only lasted for a short while before ending. How could it be like this, where the sky is constantly filled with red light?”

“The weather is a little scary. it feels like the end of the world. luckily, it’s only in the game. otherwise, i’d have to find a place to hide.”

“Does anyone know where the source of this astronomical change is? or is it that all the maps are the same?”

“It should be the same, right?”

"That's impossible. There must be a source, right? Could it be that the source of the astronomical change is the same as what we're seeing?"

"the case has been solved, the case has been solved. The source of the astronomical change was in the royal city of Chu State. When I went to King City to train my Mount, I saw that the entire city was covered in a sea of fire. The scene there was countless times more terrifying than the other maps."

"F * ck, what's going on? Did something big happen in the royal city of Chu State?"

"I'll go and take a look too."

"i'm a player from the wei kingdom. i'm planning to go to the chu kingdom's royal city to have a look. please don't kill me."

...

"as long as you don't walk out of the teleportation hall. otherwise, hehe."

"Holy F * ck, I've arrived at the capital of Chu State. This is too f * cking terrifying. It feels like the entire world is a sea of fire after coming to the world of fire."

"Is it that exaggerated? I'll go take a look too."

f * ck, what the hell is going on? is there any expert who can do a background check? "

"Someone should be fighting the demon God, right?"

no way! Is fighting a Demon God that exaggerated? "

"It's obvious that it's the six-barreled Bodhisattva fighting the demonic god. Otherwise, why would the other places be filled with red light, but the Chu Kingdom is a sea of fire?"

that's not right. It wasn't this exaggerated when the six-barreled Bodhisattva fought the demonic god last time.

"It's different. The last time, six tube Bodhisattva ran away after a few hits. This time, he's probably fighting a Demon God head-on."

f * ck! A man who can fight a Demon God alone is so terrifying.

here comes the question. Was the change in the weather caused by the devil or the six-barreled Bodhisattva? "

"Could it be that the six-pipe Bodhisattva is already a celestial phenomenon?"

haha, celestial phenomenon is not bad. He might be a God on earth.

"I just want to know, is a Saint artifact that strong? The six-barreled Bodhisattva just created a holy weapon, and he can fight a Demon God head-on?"

that's a must. Why don't you take a look at the description of the Holy weapon on the equipment ranking? it's ridiculously powerful.

that's right. A Saint weapon is several times stronger than all my equipment combined.

"I also want to get a Saint artifact."

don't even think about it. Let's not talk about a holy weapon. It'll be a blessing if we can even make a divine weapon.

"That's right, I haven't even gotten all the red equipment. I don't even dare to think about a Saint artifact."

what the f * ck, how long will this red weather last? I don't even dare to farm monsters anymore.

"I don't know, just wait. Perhaps we'll be able to see the announcement of six-barreled Bodhisattva killing the demonic god soon."

"fuck."

After lufaxishi released her ultimate move.

Zhang Shan activated his God's descent skill. He stood in the sea of fire and fired continuously.

Not only that, but he also activated the shadow clone skill.

The three Zhang Shans stood in a line, and countless bullets swept towards the demon.

Taking advantage of the blessing of the God's descent, the damage ability of the clone also doubled.

The ninth Demon God lufasi's HP was dropping continuously under Zhang Shan's rapid attacks.

After a minute, the demon God's big move ended. The sea of fire slowly dissipated, and Zhang Shan continued to fire.

He had to play faster.

In a day, he could only use his big move twice.

Now that he had used it once, he only had one last chance left.

The demon God's HP was left with 46%.

In other words, he still had more than 40 billion HP left.

With so much health, Zhang Shan would have to fight for a long time.

he didn't know if there would be any accidents after such a long time.

If Demon God lufasi's interval between his big moves was very short, then it would be a big deal.

Zhang Shan could not care so much and just kept on attacking.

As soon as his berserk skills were on cooldown, he would immediately use them.

Zhang Shan used all his skills. He only wanted to destroy Demon God lufasi in the shortest time possible.

When his HP dropped to more than 20%, the demon God used his ultimate skill again.

Endless flames once again enveloped the world.

zhang shan quickly used the refresh ball to reset the cooldown time of his skills. at the same time, he activated the skill {god's descent}.

Standing in the sea of fire, Zhang Shan was in a good mood.

he now knew that the interval between the demon god's big moves should be about half an hour.

Right now, Demon God lufasi only had 20 billion HP.

Zhang Shan was confident that he would be able to destroy the demon God before his third big move came.

Thinking of this, Zhang Shan fought even more energetically.

Victory was in sight.

Zhang Shan held the hand cannon and fired continuously. The speed at which the hand cannon shot out the bullets seemed to have become faster.

Of course.

This was all an illusion.

Time passed by slowly.

Demon God lufaxi's HP was steadily decreasing.

In a short while, the demon God had been beaten into a berserk state by Zhang Shan.

After going berserk, the demon God's entire body turned red.

One had to know that the fiendgod was originally a black saber and black cloak.

After going berserk, the black scythe in the demon God's hand slowly turned red.

Its cool Cape also slowly turned red.

After going berserk, the speed at which the demon God swung his scythe became faster and faster, and the damage he dealt also became more and more intense.

However, this did not matter. Zhang Shan could still take it.

Zhang Shan continued to attack while enduring the demon God's violent damage.

There were a few times when the demon God hit a critical hit.

however, with zhang shan's powerful lifesteal, he was still able to hold on.

He didn't fall to the ground.

Zhang Shan fought for another ten minutes, and Demon God lufasi's health was finally empty.

Zhang Shan quickly summoned the Panda dumpling and prepared to use it to grab the last kill.

However, the Panda dumpling had just been summoned by Zhang Shan and was sent back into the pet space by the demon God.

F * ck, even a meaty existence like the Panda dumpling couldn't withstand a single strike from the demon God?

When he saw the Panda ball, he was sent back to the pet space.

zhang shan was extremely shocked.

Although the Panda ball's health was not as abnormal as Zhang Shan's own.

However, the Panda ball also had more than two million HP.

Moreover, the Panda ball's defense was so high, and it also had passive damage reduction, but it still couldn't block the demon God's strike.

The power of a Demon God was truly terrifying.

That's enough.

Since the Panda bear could not be used, Zhang Shan could only rely on himself to defeat the demon God.

Fortunately, Zhang Shan's luck was not bad.

Zhang Shan had 9 points of luck.

In the entire game, they were the top players.

If he were to defeat the demon God Himself, he should be able to get some good items.

then, here came the problem.

What kind of items would the demon God drop?

Was it a complete divine artifact, or did it drop a Saint artifact directly?

Zhang Shan was looking forward to it.

This was a Demon God.

He was the top existence in the entire game.

The ultimate boss.

He couldn't possibly be like a real-name boss and only drop a divine weapon mold.

As Zhang Shan continued to fire, he fantasized about the items that the Asmodian Lord had dropped.

Although the demon God had not been blown up by him yet.

However, he had already been beaten to empty blood and could no longer cause any waves.

There was no harm in thinking about it in advance.

Following Zhang Shan's divine spear strike, the huge figure of the demon God instantly turned into ashes and disappeared from the world.

A loud system announcement resounded throughout the world.

≪ system announcement: congratulations to player six-barreled Bodhisattva for killing the ninth Demon God, lufasi. A new chapter has been opened in the war between the humans and the demons. ≫

Reward: six-barreled Bodhisattva, all attributes +1000, title: The God Slayer.

After the demonic god was blown up, the sky outside the Chu Kingdom's capital instantly regained its clarity.

zhang shan could not help but let out a long sigh.

They had finally defeated the final BOSS in the game.

He didn't have much to pursue in this game.

Perhaps in the future, Zhang Shan would no longer need to be online for such a long time every day like before.

When he had nothing to do, he would just play around.

There was no need for Zhang Shan to go all out.

Now that he could even kill a Demon God, what was the point of fighting so hard?

Zhang Shan shook his head and collected his thoughts.

Why was he thinking so much?

When the system made the announcement, he seemed to have been rewarded with a title.

Let's see what kind of effect this title of God Slayer has.

Speaking of which, Zhang Shan already had two titles.

One was the hero of the human race, while the other was the nemesis of the demon race.

The title of nemesis of the demons only increased the damage of the demons by 10%. To Zhang Shan, it was not of much use.

As for the human hero title, it was much more practical.

Not only could it increase the damage dealt to all targets by 10%, but it could also teleport within all human cities.

This title was very convenient, and Zhang Shan had always been one, wearing this human hero title.

Now that he had the title of God Slayer, he wondered if it would be more useful than the human hero title.

Zhang Shan opened his Character panel to check.

[god slayer (title): increases damage by 20%.]

It was alright.

It only increased damage by 20% and had no other effects.

Seeing the effect of this title, Zhang Shan did not choose to wear it directly.

although the title of god slayer gave more damage.

However, with the title of God Slayer, he could not teleport within a human city like with the title of human hero.

He would not wear it when he was not farming monsters.

When he went to farm monsters, he would wear the title of God Slayer.

When he wasn't farming monsters, the human hero title was more useful.

It was convenient.

Zhang Shan kept the character panel and put the title matter aside.

He really wanted to see if the ninth Demon God had given him anything good.

One had to know that this was the demon God, the ultimate BOSS in the game.

There should be a surprise.

zhang shan quickly opened his backpack to check.

There were three divine weapon molds and one divine weapon mission item.

Other than that, there was also a golden token.

What was this?

Looking at the Golden token in his bag, Zhang Shan felt a little strange.

why did this look similar to the heroes order that was needed to create a guild?

It can't be an Order of Heroes, right?

If that was the case, it would be too much of a scam.

At the start of the game, the heroes order was extremely valuable.

but now, the room was no longer valuable.

The guilds that the players should have built had already been built.

Why did he still need the heroes 'order now?

It was simply of little value.

Zhang Shan took out the token from his backpack to take a look.

[city creation token: a token to build a city. Using this token, you can build a city anywhere in the game.]

[note: after players build their cities, they will attract the Nephilims 'attack. Please make preparations in advance.]

After reading the description of the city building order, Zhang Shan could not help but be shocked.

Were there such items in the New World?

He had previously thought that if players wanted to build a city in the game, they could only rely on attacking the demon race's city.

It turned out that there was a second way.

It was much more convenient to use a city building order to build a city than to attack a Demon City.

Most importantly, a city building order allowed one to freely choose a location to build a city.

it wasn't like what they had done before, where they built the demon city wherever they conquered it.

he couldn't move his position at all.

Because strictly speaking, they were not building a city, but robbing a city of the devil race.

Turn a Demon City into a player city.

However, using a city building order to build a city was completely different.

This was the construction of a new city.

being able to freely choose a place to build a city was a great convenience for players.

For now, the difficulty of building a city was mainly in three aspects.

find the cities of the asmodians, take them down, and defend them.

Out of these three steps, the first step could be achieved by luck.

As long as they were lucky enough, there would always be someone who could find a Demon City.

however, the last two steps were not so simple.

Whether it was attacking or defending a Demon City, it would not be that easy.

It was still possible to attack demon cities. As long as there were enough people, some demon cities might be able to be taken down.

However, it would be difficult for the players to defend the demon City after it was taken down.

If not for Zhang Shan, who happened to have the blueprints for the city defense equipment, it would have been almost impossible for them to defend the city.

Just the demonic monsterlings that were attacking the city would drown them.

The most important thing was that they had no choice but to build the city.

if the demonic monsters around the city were of a very high level.

Wanting to defend a city was a very difficult thing.

Zhang Shan and the rest were lucky enough, and Zhang Shan's strength was strong enough.

Otherwise, it would have been impossible to defend the city with just the wind and cloud Guild's people.

By using a territory order, one could build a city in a place where the monsters' levels were relatively low.

they didn't have to face high-level demons every time they defended the city.

This way, the pressure of defending the city would be much smaller.

Looking at the city building order in his hand, Zhang Shan thought.

This was a good thing.

Most importantly, the city building order was not bound to the system and could be traded.

In other words, Zhang Shan could sell this thing.

zhang shan really wanted to know how much gold this city building order could be sold for.

Of course, he would not use this to build a city.

Not to mention, Zhang Shan already had a demon suppressing city, and did not need a second one.

Even if he didn't, he could find another Demon City, conquer it, and occupy it.

He definitely had to sell this city building order.

thinking of this, zhang shan quickly returned to dangyang city and teleported to the auction house.

he put up the city building token that he had just taken out of the oven for auction.

As for the price, it would start from 10 billion with no ceiling.

Items like the city-building order could only be used by rich big shots.

Ordinary players could forget about it.

To normal players, even if they were given a city, they would not be able to defend it.

As for whether he could sell it for 10 billion gold coins?

This Zhang Shan was not in a hurry.

slowly.

If they couldn't sell it today, they would continue to sell it tomorrow.

There would always be big bosses who didn't lack money and couldn't help but make a move.

zhang shan believed that becoming a city lord was the dream of every player.

This was especially true for those rich big shots.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Zhang Shan wanted to make a big fortune.

A wave of fat was coming today.

Chapter 595 the young billionaire

Other than the territory order, lufasi also gave Zhang Shan three God-tier weapon molds and one God-tier weapon quest item.

Among the three molds for divine artifacts.

Two of them were strength-type equipment, a strength-type helmet and a strength-type godly armor.

There was also a divine weapon mold, which was an intelligence-type boot.

as for the divine weapon quest item, it was a magic staff.

Looking at these four items, Zhang Shan was a little conflicted.

should they be put up for auction together, or should they be sold to the big shots in the guild?

Zhang Shan thought for a moment.

Forget it.

It was better to put them up for auction together.

the big bosses in the guild were already very happy with zhang shan around.

It was also time to find other players to harvest a wave.

Zhang Shan couldn't always take care of his own guild members.

He wasn't the nanny of the wind and cloud Guild.

Without Zhang Shan, they could still play the game.

He would put these four God-tiered items up for auction and sell them to other players.

however, this time, zhang shan intended to sell it at a higher price to see if there were any fools who would take the bait.

Zhang Shan set the starting price of the God tool molds at 100 million gold coins, with no upper limit.

As for the magic staff quest item, the starting bid was set at 300 million gold coins, with no upper limit.

The God-tier quest item was no longer a secret, and the other players knew about it.

zhang shan and the rest's first god equipment had been made from god equipment mission items.

He wasn't afraid that others wouldn't know what was good, he just needed to wait for the rich big bosses to take the bait.

This time, Zhang Shan wanted to make a huge profit.

Following the announcement of Zhang Shan defeating the demon God, the world Channel was now bustling with activity.

Everyone was discussing non-stop about how strong the demon God was and how Zhang Shan was able to kill the demon God.

last time, zhang shan had posted a video of him fighting the demon god on the game forum.

However, at that time, everyone could only see the demon God's tall figure and not his attributes and skills.

Everyone could only guess the strength of the demon God based on the damage it had dealt to Zhang Shan's head.

But even so, this was already very exaggerated.

In the previous video, the damage dealt by each slash of the demon on Zhang Shan's body was nearly three million.

In addition, when the godfiend used his ultimate move just now, the sky was filled with terrifying red light.

it was scary just thinking about it.

For such a powerful Demon God to be killed by Zhang Shan, in everyone's eyes, it was simply an unbelievable thing.

If it wasn't for the system announcement, no one would have believed it.

How could such a powerful Demon God be killed?

just how strong was that zhang shan?

it had simply broken through everyone's imagination.

Just as everyone was in a heated discussion, Zhang Shan sent a message on the world Channel.

The world Channel:

the demon God's freshly made top quality item is already on the auction house. Everyone is welcome to take a look.

Zhang Shan's words instantly caused an uproar in the world Channel.

"f * ck, did the six-barreled boss put up the items dropped by the demon god for auction?"

let's not say anything else. Let's go back to the city and have a look at the auction.

"Haha, there's definitely a divine weapon this time. Everyone, don't fight with me over it. I'm coming."

you're just making a passing remark. The price of a divine artifact is bound to be an astronomical figure. Can you afford it?"

"f * ck, who are you looking down on?"

” haha, he’s looking down on you. hurry up and bid for the divine weapon. ” by the way, did the demonic god drop a divine weapon or not? ”

there’s no need to think about it. There must be a divine artifact, but I don’t think it’s a complete divine artifact. It should be a divine artifact mold or something.

“Why are you talking so much? are there any big shots in the city? hurry up and make a squeak.”

after zhang shan had finished speaking, countless big shot players, no matter what they were doing at the time, almost instantly returned to the city.

The items dropped by the demon God were all top-grade items.

There was definitely a divine artifact, and perhaps there were even better items than divine artifacts.

As for what would be inside, everyone could only guess without seeing it.

This was because in this game, there were many top-grade items that were not dropped by players.

No one would have thought that such a thing existed in the game.

in this game, all kinds of strange items could be found.

After Zhang Shan had finished speaking, the various big shots quickly returned to the city.

in addition to the big shot players who were ready to attack, the other players who were watching the show also returned to the city.

They definitely couldn’t afford the good items dropped by the demon God.

But even if he couldn’t afford it, he could still take a look.

It was also good to gain some knowledge.

No one had thought that Zhang Shan would put these items up for auction.

They had thought that this time, Zhang Shan would leave all the good stuff for the wind cloud Guild.

countless players swarmed to the auction houses of various cities.

“F * ck, what did I just see? A city building order?”

“What the Hell is a City building order? He’s on his way back to the city.”

with the city building order, you can directly build a city without attacking the demon City.

As people in the auction house saw the city building order that Zhang Shan had put up, the entire game went into an uproar.

The big shots of all parties rubbed their fists and wiped their palms, ready to win the city building order.

However, Zhang Shan was really too evil this time.

He had set the starting price of the city building order to 10 billion gold coins.

Such an exaggerated price had simply broken through everyone's imagination.

It wasn't like there wasn't anyone in the game who had set the starting price of an item to this high.

There were often people who set the price of whiteboard materials to countless zeros, even more than 10 billion gold.

however, that was just a joke and didn't have any practical significance.

However, Zhang Shan's city building order was completely different.

putting aside the question of whether the city building order was really worth 10 billion gold coins and whether there would really be people willing to bid for it ...

But at least it wasn't a gimmick.

Because it was really possible that someone would be able to afford it.

Countless big shots began to gather gold coins everywhere, planning to try to bid for it.

The desire of those big Shot players for the city was beyond Zhang Shan's expectations.

Very quickly, more than one person started to bid at the auction house.

10 billion gold, 10.1 billion gold, 10.2 billion gold

The price of the city building token began to slowly rise under the competition of all parties.

as for the four god-ranked items, no one had touched them yet.

The appearance of the city building token completely overshadowed the other four God-tier items.

Although, whether it was a divine weapon mold or a divine weapon mission item, they were all hanging on the auction house in large numbers.

This was the first time he had done this in the game.

but this time, there was still not much attention.

Everyone's eyes were fixed on the city building order.

However, Zhang Shan believed that someone would make a move in a while.

After all, any God-tiered item was extremely rare.

Even if everyone wanted to buy it, there was no place to buy it.

This time, Zhang Shan had put four God-level items up for auction.

It would be strange if no one made a bid.

After putting up the items dropped by the demon God for auction, Zhang Shan did not pay much attention to it.

The seeds planted in spring would only be harvested in autumn.

Zhang Shan did not set a buyout price, so the results of the auction would only be out at this time the next day.

There was no rush now.

Now, Zhang Shan was planning to find something to do.

He couldn't just stay in the city and wait for the auction results.

zhang shan called for wind and cloud blade.

where are you farming monsters? let's go to the city of ruins together.

Of the divine weapons on his companions, only their weapons were still at the first transition. The rest had not been touched.

It was time to help his friends farm for some Saint relics so that they could upgrade their divine weapons.

Hearing Zhang Shan's call, wind and cloud blade replied happily.

"alright, i'll be back soon."

After a short while, the four of them returned to Dangyang city.

Zhang Shan gave them five passes each and then said.

"Let's go. Let's enter the ruins city dungeon."

in this period of time, zhang shan had already obtained tens of thousands of passes.

It could be said that there was no way to use it all.

It was not a problem to give a few to his friends.

It was not that Zhang Shan did not want to give them more.

Even if he gave it to them, it wouldn't be of much use.

Without Zhang Shan's guidance, it would be difficult for them to survive in the city of the ruins.

As for farming zombies in the city of ruins, that was even more impossible.

His companions were all at level 80.

However, they still couldn't withstand the damage of the zombies. At most, they wouldn't be killed.

You want to fight against the zombies?

They were still lacking a little.

Zhang Shan brought his friends and used the pass to enter the city of the ruins.

However, their luck this time seemed to be much worse than the last time.

After everyone entered the instance dungeon, they were scattered across a wide area. It was impossible for them to meet up in a short time.

However, the only good news was that no one died this time.

After the five of them entered the dungeon, everyone was still alive, and no one was held back by the zombies.

After all, his friends had all reached level 80.

After changing into the level 80 Cape, even a fragile creature like little fairy had over 200000 HP.

As for wind and cloud blade and heart moves, these two bosses of the strength system had a maximum HP of over 300000.

Furthermore, with the previous experience, everyone was very careful this time.

The moment they entered, they immediately observed the situation around them and left the zombie monsters.

At this time, Zhang Shan was alone. He was far away from his friends, and the others were not too close.

Only heart moves and wind and cloud blade were not too far away from each other.

It was estimated that the two of them would be able to meet up in half an hour.

The little fairy and Mr. Wu were a little too far away.

If the two of them wanted to meet up with the others, they would probably have to run for two or three days.

Seeing that everyone was so far apart, Zhang Shan said on the team channel.

“Old Wu and Qingqing, channel back to the city and try to enter the dungeon again.”

“Alright,” he said.

After he finished, Zhang Shan also started to channel his own return to the city.

He was even further away from the others.

they couldn't ride horses in the city of ruins.

If he wanted to run over and meet up with the others on his two short legs, it would probably take three to five days.

There was no room for manipulation at all.

The biggest difficulty of the city of the ruins was actually this.

Everyone would enter the map together, but they would not appear in the same place.

And the map of the city of the ruins was so big.

It would take a few days to meet up in places far away.

If everyone wanted to form a party to farm monsters together, they would need some luck.

Otherwise, they would have to do what they were doing now and adjust their positions by entering the map multiple times.

However, for others, every time they entered the city of the ruins, they would face great risks.

If they were just a little bit careful, they would land beside the zombie.

If that was the case, it would be difficult to escape.

these zombie monsters would chase people to death.

If they were even more unlucky, they might be instantly killed by the zombie monster as soon as they landed.

However, it shouldn't be a big problem for his friends.

after all, their levels were there for all to see.

Even if his companions couldn't defeat the zombie monster alone, they wouldn't be instantly killed.

as long as they were careful, they could still escape from the zombie monster.

After a while, Zhang Shan, boss Wu, and the little fairy entered the city of the ruins again.

He was lucky this time.

little fairy and boss wu weren't too far away from wind cloud blade and the others.

The four of them should be able to meet up very quickly.

On the other hand, Zhang Shan himself had landed far away.

Not only that.

This time, Zhang Shan directly landed in the middle of the four zombie monsters.

The moment he landed on the ground, four zombie monsters rushed up and slashed at him.

However, to Zhang Shan, these four zombie monsters were just child's play.

He could even kill a Demon God, so of course, he wouldn't care about a few zombie monsters.

Zhang Shan quickly raised his hand cannon, and the bullets swept towards the zombie.

It didn't take long for them to finish off the four zombies.

After dealing with a wave of zombie monsters, Zhang Shan once again cast a Return Channel.

After two attempts, Zhang Shan's position on the map was finally not far from his friends.

After about an hour, the five of them finally gathered together.

Windcloud blade said gloomily.

this map of the city of the ruins is too ridiculous. It's so difficult for everyone to meet up.

"Yeah, this dungeon map isn't suitable for parties at all. It's only suitable for soloing."

that's true, but these zombies are so powerful. Who else can solo them except for the six-barreled boss?

" that's right. it's so difficult to play a game. "

"Don't say anything, let's start."

After the five of them gathered together, they quickly found a group of zombie monsters that had a large number.

The eight zombie monsters gathered together, and then Zhang Shan quickly fired his hand cannon.

he started swiping.

Zhang Shan's current damage ability was terrifyingly high.

With boss Wu's attack blessing, his theoretical damage was almost 1.2 million.

Furthermore, Zhang Shan's current attack speed was also very fast.

after turning aglu's hand cannon into a holy weapon, his various agility attributes had been increased by more than 10000.

when he was equipped with the hand of maedas, zhang shan could now fire at least five shots per second.

Since he had such a strong ability to farm monsters, he naturally had to find a place with more monsters to farm.

It was to avoid the need to constantly change positions.

Although these zombie monsters would respawn very quickly after they were killed, it was not a big deal.

However, even if it was fast, it would still take time.

In order to save time and maximize the effect of farming monsters.

They immediately found a spot with a large number of monsters and started farming.

Time passed by slowly.

Zhang Shan brought his friends and cleared the city of the ruins instance dungeon for an entire day.

The next day, they went online and entered the city of the ruins again.

After 24 hours, Zhang Shan saw the mail notification.

The five items he had put up for auction had all been sold.

The starting bid for the divine weapon mold was 100 million gold coins.

The final bid price was between 110 million and 150 million gold coins.

This price was already very high.

It must be known that the price of the God tool mold was usually less than 100 million gold coins when they auctioned it in the Guild.

This time, each of the three god weapon molds had been sold for more than 100 million gold coins. It was a big harvest.

As for the magic staff quest item, it was sold for a high price of 500 million gold coins.

It could only be said that there were a lot of big bosses in the game who didn't lack money.

Of course, this was just a small part.

the real reward came from the city building order.

The city building order was bought at a high price of 1.6 billion gold.

The Krypton gold big shots were terrifying.

after taking out a large amount of gold from the mail, zhang shan could not help but sigh.

In this game, there were too many people who didn't lack money.

He didn't know which Big Shot was so generous that he could actually bid a high price of more than 16 billion.

Although Zhang Shan felt that this city building order would definitely be auctioned off.

Even if he put up a high price of 10 billion gold coins, there would still be big shots who would be tempted.

However, Zhang Shan had underestimated the determination of those big shots.

After dozens of rounds of bidding, the city building token was finally won by someone.

just as zhang shan was thinking about which big shot was so generous.

A system notification rang out.

[system announcement: congratulations to player Li Jing for building war god city and contributing to the prosperity of the human race.]

You are rewarded with God of War Li Jing, all attributes +100.

seeing this system announcement, zhang shan finally understood. it turned out that li jing, the god of war, had won the city building order.

Zhang Shan only wanted to say this.

Big brother is awesome.

as expected of the boss of the gaming world.

god of war li jing's background was unknown, but he seemed to be even more impressive than feng yun realm and the others.

After the system announcement, wind and cloud blade, who was farming zombie monsters with Zhang Shan, said to him teasingly.

Big Boss six-Barrens, you're rich this time. Remember to treat us.

"Sure, come to Pengcheng, I'll treat you to a meal at the little demon's house, hehe."

Little fairy, who was standing next to him, pouted.

"Hmph, he won't have anything to eat even if he comes."

f * ck, that's enough of you two. Please don't show off your dog food.

"Hahaha."

wind cloud blade sighed.

now, six-barreled boss has truly stepped into the ranks of the rich, a young billionaire.

my money is nothing. You big bosses are the real rich people. You don't show off.

" you think too highly of us. people like us seem to be able to spend money freely, but there are less than ten people in the entire wind and cloud guild who can take out tens of billions of dollars in one go. " upon hearing this, zhang shan was speechless.

Wasn't this called being rich?

although the entire wind and cloud guild had 200000 guild members ...

However, the truly rich people, other than following their heart, were all not wind and cloud blade and the others, the group of people who had joined them in the beginning.

There were only a hundred of them in total.

Out of these hundred people, there were as many as ten people who could casually take out ten billion.

Wasn't this exaggerated enough?

Zhang Shan could only sigh.

Before he started playing games, he really didn't know that there were so many rich people in the world.

Just the wind and cloud Guild alone already had a bunch of rich people.

zhang shan believed that the other big guilds would not be much worse off.

this was especially true for the war god guild.

Wargod Li Jing Neng had taken out 16 billion gold to buy a city building order.

It was beyond Zhang Shan's imagination.

Zhang Shan really did not know how rich the God of War Li Jing was.

Perhaps in Li Jing's eyes, money was no different from paper.

moreover, zhang shan felt that among the core members of the war god guild, the others would not be bad either.

There were probably a lot of really rich people.

To this, Zhang Shan only wanted to say that there were so many rich people.

A game was the epitome of society.

Without reaching a certain level, one would never know how high the sky was.

He didn't know how rich other people were.

Now, Zhang Shan could finally see a corner of the world clearly.

Of course.

Perhaps what he was seeing now was still only the superficial layer.

he didn't know how much deeper the fog was.

Chapter 596 Traveling through the mountains, rivers, lakes, and seas (end)

After auctioning off all the items dropped by the demon God ...

Zhang Shan was now considered a truly rich man.

He took a look at his game account.

All of his gold coins added up to more than 18 billion.

In the New World exchange, the exchange rate of gold coins and blue coins had been stable at about one to one.

In other words, Zhang Shan was now a billionaire.

He looked at the huge amount of wealth in his account.

Zhang Shan felt that this was very unreal.

More than half a year ago, he was still a social animal with a monthly income of five to six thousand Yuan. Now, he had actually become a billionaire.

It was like a dream.

This was only because he had entered a new world to play games.

the world had changed too quickly. even now, zhang shan had yet to get used to it.

In addition to the large sum of money in his account, he had also changed his place of residence to a large villa.

In other aspects, Zhang Shan was not much different from before.

even now, he was still single.

This was a big problem.

Even if he was rich now.

However, Zhang Shan's thoughts were still stuck at the stage of nobodies.

It felt like dog meat that couldn't be shown on stage.

Time passed by slowly.

Zhang Shan brought his friends to the city of the ruins to farm zombie monsters.

Zhang Shan planned to upgrade all the God equipment on his friends to rank five.

After that, he didn't care anymore.

Because after rank five, the number of Saint relics needed would be huge.

even if zhang shan wanted to help, he would not be able to.

And Zhang Shan himself had only created one holy weapon.

His other equipment had not been upgraded many times.

Zhang Shan still wanted to upgrade his other equipment and level up a few times before going to fight the other eight demon gods.

In the New World, there were a total of nine demon gods.

Outside the seven capital cities and the Eastern and Western capital cities, there was a fiendcelestial each.

However, Zhang Shan felt that the other demonic gods might be stronger.

After all, the ninth Demon God was outside the Chu Kingdom's capital.

There were still the first to the eighth demon gods that he had yet to fight.

According to the sequence, the fiendcelestials at the front of the numbers should be more powerful.

Zhang Shan was prepared to increase his strength a little more before going to kill the other eight demon gods.

In any case, no one would fight the demonic god, and no one could take it away.

At that time, he would push his way through and destroy the other eight demon gods.

He wanted to see if he could get a few more city building orders.

In this game, there was probably nothing more valuable than a city building order.

That was if he could still get a few more city building orders.

Then, Zhang Shan's wealth would have accumulated to an exaggerated number.

even though money wasn't of much use to him.

he didn't need that much money anyway.

But if he could earn money from this, why not?

If you don't take what the heavens have given you, you'll be blamed instead.

A few days later, the divine weapons on his companions had all become rank five.

Zhang Shan said to them.

you guys can go and farm monsters on your own. I'm going to prepare for another wave of sacred weapons.

yes, yes. All the best, brother Guan.

The days passed by.

After another month, Zhang Shan had finally turned the king's Cape into a holy weapon.

In order to turn the king's Cape into a holy weapon.

Zhang Shan had been farming for close to two months and had consumed more than 20000 Saint relics.

however, it was finally done.

Zhang Shan checked the Cape's attributes.

[King's Cape (sacred equipment): increases HP by 4000000. Level (sealed): currently level 80. The sacred equipment will gradually be unsealed as the player's level increases. It will be unsealed once every 10 levels.]

[durability: never worn out. Bound to player six-barreled Bodhisattva, can not be dropped.]

Looking at the attributes of the Saint equipment cloak, Zhang Shan nodded his head in satisfaction.

with this cloak, even if zhang shan did not change into the heart of the demon dragon, his hp would still be more than 10 million.

If he used the heart of the demon Dragon, his maximum HP would be close to 20 million.

This was only because Zhang Shan's level had not broken through to rank 90.

Although he had been farming for more than a month, Zhang Shan's level did not increase much.

His current level was level 87.

As for the king's Cape, it could only be unsealed once at level 10, so it was still a level 80 equipment.

In this game, the higher the level, the harder it was to level up.

Now, Zhang Shan needed about a month to level up.

This was also because he was farming monsters fast enough.

if it was any other player, it would probably take more than a year.

It was scary just thinking about it.

He really didn't know how he could level up after level 90.

But it didn't matter.

he now had close to 20000000 hp, and his attack power had also increased.

It was time to fight another wave of demonic gods.

It was worth mentioning.

Demon gods weren't like real-name bosses, which would disappear after a fight.

After a Demon God was destroyed, it would be refreshed every month.

the ninth demon god, lufasi, had respawned a month after he had been defeated by zhang shan.

After that, Zhang Shan went to play another round.

However, the second time, he didn't get a city building order.

he had only dropped three divine weapon molds.

it was alright.

In less than two hours, he had already obtained three God tool molds, which was considered a big harvest.

In the next few days, Zhang Shan went around the various imperial cities and the East and West.

He continued to challenge the demon gods.

It was similar to what he had imagined.

Each of these demon gods was stronger than the last.

The first Demon God, therbus, in particular, was terrifyingly powerful.

Zhang Shan had almost lost.

He had not been very lucky the first time he had challenged therbus.

After going berserk, the demon God continued to deal critical hits.

zhang shan was not paying attention, and he lost a life.

To be on the safe side, he did not continue.

Instead, he would wait until the next day, when the cooldown of his rebirth passive skill was over, before challenging it again.

Later on, his luck was good, and he had directly blown up the first Demon God, therbus.

Seeing Zhang Shan continuously destroy the demon God, the other players were numb.

it was hard for them to imagine how powerful zhang shan had become.

he had single-handedly fought the demon god and killed him like he was a chicken.

as for the other players, if they were to fight one on one, most of them could not even defeat a purple BOSS.

The difference between them was despairing.

However, the Big Shot players in the game were very happy after seeing Zhang Shan defeat the demon God.

This was because after Zhang Shan had defeated the demon God, he would put the items that the demon God had dropped up for auction.

Especially the city building order.

the big shot players had been waiting for the city building order for far too long.

some of them even regretted it.

Why didn't he fight to the end with Wargod Li Jing? he should have continued to increase the price.

As a result, God of War Li Jing managed to obtain the city building order and built the City of War.

the other bosses had hesitated at the time and were not willing to increase the price, so they had missed the city building order.

Now that Zhang Shan had continuously killed demon gods, there should be a city building order that would drop.

They had indeed guessed correctly.

Zhang Shan had killed eight demon gods in a row. Each time a Demon God was killed, a city building order would drop.

Zhang Shan did not hide these city building orders. Instead, he put them all up for auction.

Once again, the starting bid was 10 billion gold.

It's up to you to buy or not.

If no one bought it, he would just keep it in storage.

Zhang Shan was not lacking in money anyway.

He would definitely not sell the eight city building tokens at a low price.

Zhang Shan felt that perhaps in this game, only the first kill of a Demon God would give a city building order.

In other words, there were only nine city building orders in the entire game.

This was an absolutely rare item, and it had to be sold at a high price.

I can't let those big bosses take advantage of me. They have money anyway.

He would be letting himself down if he didn't harvest a wave of them.

If no one bought it, then he would keep it and release it after a while.

In reality, Zhang Shan was overthinking.

although he had put eight city building tokens up for auction, he was still very confident.

However, those big shots didn't seem to hesitate because of the appearance of the city building order.

All the big shots swarmed forward and won all eight city building orders.

In particular, the competition for the last city building order was even more intense.

In the end, the price even exceeded the one that Wargod Li Jing had won.

The last city building order was sold for an astronomical price of 20 billion gold coins.

The spending power of the big shots had once again exceeded Zhang Shan's imagination.

As for the other God-level items dropped by the demon God, Zhang Shan threw them to the auction house to deal with them.

Compared to the city building order, these God-tier items were nothing.

After all the items had been auctioned off ...

Zhang Shan looked at the wealth in his account and could not help but shake his head.

He felt that his money was just a number now, and he didn't know how to deal with it.

Zhang Shan was even considering if he should hire a financial advisor to help him manage this wealth.

After thinking about it, he decided not to.

There was no need for that.

The main thing was that there were too many scammers, so he didn't want his money to be scammed away.

After Zhang Shan converted most of his gold coins into blue dollars, he directly deposited them into the Alliance Bank and did not bother to manage them.

Zhang Shan logged into the game every day as usual, and then went to the city of the ruins to kill the zombie monsters.

One day, after Zhang Shan finished eating at the little fairy's house, he did not leave as usual.

He sat there in silence for a long time and suddenly said to little fairy, "

"Qingqing, let's get married?"

Hearing Zhang Shan's words, the little fairy was stunned.

She was stunned for a long time before she regained her senses and asked Zhang Shan.

"Brother Guan, is this how you chase girls? He deserves to be single forever, hehe."

Zhang Shan also did not know how he should chase after a girl.

He had no experience.

For a single dog, this was a new topic that he needed to learn.

Zhang Shan only felt that he was quite suitable for the little demon.

They had known each other for so long in the game, and Zhang Shan had been going to her house for dinner every day.

The two of them understood each other.

Although the little fairy was born in a rich family, Zhang Shan was not weak.

Just his game account alone was not much worse than the little fairy's real estate company.

In terms of character.

zhang shan himself was a quiet person and did not like to jump around.

But the little fairy was very lively.

This could be considered a form of complementary.

As for whether it was true, Zhang Shan did not know.

He had always been single, so he really didn't understand these things.

Perhaps it was because she had been single for too long that she wanted to but didn't know how to start.

That was why Zhang Shan was so direct.

With regards to Zhang Shan's one-on-one confession this time, the little fairy neither agreed nor rejected.

Of course, she was not shy.

The little demon wasn't young either. She had long passed the age of being shy.

From then on, Zhang Shan went to the little fairy's house to eat every day as usual, and the relationship between the two slowly grew closer.

After another half a year, the two of them finally confirmed their relationship.

on this day, the little fairy leaned on zhang shan's shoulder and said a little mischievously.

I feel that it's a little too easy for you to marry me off just like that. We haven't even had a formal relationship yet. We haven't even had a grand love yet.

Zhang Shan held the little fairy in his arms and said softly.

"It's good that it's plain. Plain is life."

"Hmph, you're lucky."

Zhang Shan hugged the little fairy gently.

he thought that it seemed a little too hasty for the two of them to get married just like that.

Although he didn't mind, women liked romance.

It felt a little unfair to the little demon.

Thinking of this, Zhang Shan whispered to the little fairy.

why don't we go on a trip? we'll buy a large RV, take the game cabin, and travel around the mountains, rivers, and seas.

Hearing this, the little fairy immediately sat up straight and asked with bright eyes.

"Can I really?"

of course it's true. We don't have a proper job anyway. It's the same wherever we go with the game cabin.

"Haha, I'm here to pick a car."

After the little goblin finished speaking, she immediately took out her phone and began to order the RV.

a year later, Zhang Shan brought the little fairy and the two of them drove around the land of the Alliance.

In the spring, they would go to the central region to see the sea of flowers. In the summer, they would go to the North to see the Prairie. In the autumn, they would go to the West Mountain to see the Maple leaves. In the winter, they would go to the southern seaside to bask in the sun.

two years after the start of the new world, the two of them finally walked into the hall of marriage.
