Chapter 79 Waiting for battle at wild wolf Hill

[system announcement: traversing Four Seas has issued a challenge to the wind and cloud Guild. The Guild War will be held at 8 pm tomorrow night.]

What? Guild War? Since when did the New World have this function? How did he not know?

Zhang Shan was a little puzzled. Maybe it was because they were the only Guild before, and now a second Guild had appeared, and a new game function had been released.

Zhang Shan was not worried that they would not be able to win.

What a joke. As long as he had the help of his teammates, he could take on a hundred of them at once. No matter how many hidden cards traversing Four Seas had, Zhang Shan would not be afraid.

He just didn't know how a Guild War would be carried out.

Would it be a chaotic battle, or an offensive and defensive battle? Perhaps the New World would come up with some new tricks.

zhang shan was prepared to open the guild panel to see if there was anything about the guild war and how it would be introduced.

[dragon slaying saber of heaven and earth: six-barreled Bodhisattva, come over here obediently and let me kill you twice. Otherwise, I'll make sure you can't play in the New World anymore.]

Eh?

zhang shan was a little surprised to see the heaven and earth dragon slaying saber making a ruckus in the world channel.

This guy had found a stepmother, and his guts had grown bigger. No, she had to satisfy his needs.

[six-pipe Bodhisattva: Danyang city's wild wolf slope welcomes you at any time. Those who don't dare to come are dogs.]

After saying that, Zhang Shan immediately cast a teleport back to the city.

He still had three skill points, so he would go to the auction house to buy a fanatic skill book and learn level 3 fanaticism first.

Although he didn't have enough skill points to Max out his berserk heat, a temporary 30% increase in attack speed for six seconds was still good.

Skill books were not as expensive as they were in the beginning, and Hunter skill books were relatively cheaper.

He bought the fanatic skill book for 70000 gold coins and leveled it up to Level 3. He then teleported to the city gate and ran back to wild wolf Hill.

As Zhang Shan ran, he checked the messages on the various channels.

The world Channel was already abuzz with the news of traversing Four Seas 'challenge to the wind and cloud Guild. Then, with the heaven and earth Dragon slaying saber's unbridled call, the entire channel exploded.

"Today is really a good day to eat melon seeds. Prepare my little bench, I'm just an emotionless melon-eating audience."

"Our Guild hasn't even been established yet, but others are already starting a Guild War."

"The Dragon slaying saber is really gutsy to actually dare to challenge the divine weapon boss."

"I've found a new rich stepfather, of course I've become bolder."

"Who knows what sort of background traversing Four Seas has? If you know, tell me."

"You know what you should know, but don't ask about things you shouldn't know, hehe."

"Is the heaven and earth Dragon slaying saber going to challenge brother divine artifact?"

"Yes, it's the kind of challenge where 100 people challenge one person at a time."

"I'm afraid 100 people aren't enough. Yesterday, they had more than 200 people, but they were still beaten like dogs by brother divine artifact."

"Holy sh * t, is the divine artifact boss that powerful?"

"That's for sure. I reckon the heaven and earth Dragon slaying saber is just for show. He doesn't dare to go to Dangyang city."

"That's hard to say. He doesn't dare to go, but the Dragon King of the East Sea does."

"What's the point of thinking so much? just sit on the bench and enjoy the show. My friends in Dangyang city, you must live stream the progress of the event at any time."

Zhang Shan had never considered the question of whether the heaven and earth Dragon slaying saber and the others dared to come. This was not important.

Those who dared to come would be killed, and those who didn't dare to come would be killed. It was good that it didn't delay him from leveling up and farming monsters.

Zhang Shan buried his head and ran towards wild wolf slope. At this moment, wind and cloud blade called out to him, "

"Brother Liu Guan, do you need any help? The boss told me to inform the Guild members outside to be ready to intercept them at any time."

"no need, i'm at the wild wolf slope. no matter how many people they have, it's useless."

"You're right, level 30 wolves aren't easy to deal with. People with poor equipment probably can't even beat one, not to mention that there are as many wolves as there's rice."

"How's your dungeon progress?"

"We're almost done clearing the small monsters, but we still haven't seen the big BOSS."

“Then you guys focus on the instance dungeon. Don’t worry about me. If they really come, they’ll just be looking for death.”

“Alright, I’ll have my men keep an eye on the teleportation Hall. Once they come, I’ll inform you immediately.”

“Alright, thank you.”

Zhang Shan was not afraid of them coming. At most, he could lure a pack of wild wolves behind him. If they had the ability, they could come after him.

However, they couldn’t just ignore the level 30 Wolf and attack it.

After running for less than 20 minutes, when he was still some distance away from the wild wolf slope, wind and cloud blade called out again, ”

“brother liu guan, they’re really here. there are five to six hundred of them, led by the dragon king of the east sea.”

“alright, i know.”

“You really don’t need any reinforcements? We have 800 to 900 guild members outside. Although their equipment might be a little worse, we have the numbers.”

“There’s really no need. It’s not like you don’t know how strong I am. Even if I can’t beat you, I won’t run.”

brother Liu Guan, you’re really wretched. You actually thought of running away, hehe.

...

“Alright, it’s good that you know. I thought you were stubborn and wanted to fight them head-on.”

“Only a fool would fight it head on, hehe.”

zhang shan had already thought of a strategy. he would guard the entrance of the wild wolf hill, just like the wolf king boss.

He would block the entrance and kill anyone who entered. If dozens of them entered at the same time, he would turn around and run.

there were so many wild wolves anyway. if the dragon king of the east sea dared to go after him with a large pack of wild wolves, it would be their fault.

this is Dangyang city. The Dragon King of the East Sea has led a large force to Dangyang city and is heading in the direction of wild wolf slope. Please relay the follow-up report to the next person. World messages are too expensive.

haha, the show is about to start. It’s a pity that I’m not in Dangyang city. Otherwise, I’d definitely go and see the demeanor of the divine weapon boss.

“What style? Don’t tell me you want to see brother divine weapon get killed instantly?”

how is that possible? the divine artifact boss is so strong. How could he lie down? ”

” no matter how strong he is, he’s still one person. two fists can’t fight four hands. ”

brother divine equipment isn’t alone either. The wind and cloud Guild has a thousand players. Taking down traversing Four Seas will be a piece of cake.

” this is dangyang city. feng yun realm is currently leading a team to clear the dungeon. the other guild members have not moved out yet. please relay the message to the next person. the world message is really expensive. ” is the wind and cloud Guild abandoning the divine weapon boss? ” how is that possible? where can we find such a powerful Big Shot? it’s more like we’re worshipping Him like an ancestor. Even a fool wouldn’t give up.

“then why didn’t the rest of them make their move?”

“God knows.”

maybe they think that the divine artifact boss can handle it alone? ”

“one person killing five to six hundred people? That’s not a divine artifact boss, only a true God can do that. Is that possible?”

“don’t worry too much, just focus on eating the melon.”

Just as Zhang Shan was about to reach wild wolf slope, wind and cloud blade shouted, ”

“other than us in the dungeon, the rest of the guild has already gathered and are ready to go to the wild wolf slope. we can provide support at any time.”

don’t let them follow too closely. The new members ‘equipment is still a little lacking. Even if we win, many of us will die. It’s not worth it. I can handle it.

“Alright, I’ll have them follow us from a distance.”

“wait for my notice before letting them enter the wild wolf slope. i’ll take down a bunch of them first.”

“You’re awesome.”
